Future Programs

In 2013, the Company completed a comprehensive review of its compensation structure. After reviewing data from the Compensation Survey Group, as well as market data in Switzerland and other geographies where the Company has a significant presence, the Committee determined, effective January 1, 2014, to realign the variable compensation mix for senior management to increase the equity component relative to the cash component to better reflect market practices and to increase even further the focus of senior management on longer-term performance. The Committee also reduced total variable compensation targets, effective January 1, 2014, resulting in average reductions in total targeted direct compensation (base salary, cash incentives and equity awards) of approximately 6-10% for the most senior executives. These changes resulted in targeted award levels, as a percentage of base salary, for the Company's named executive officers, as indicated below:

Name	Annual Incentive Compensation Awards		Equity Awards		Total Variable Compensation		Equity Mix as % of Total Variable Compensation Target
	Prior Target	New Target	Prior Target	New Target	Prior Target	New Target	Prior	New
Marc Firestone	180%	125%	270%	275%	450%	400%	60%	68.8%
Jacek Olczak	180%	125%	270%	275%	450%	400%	60%	68.8%
Matteo Pellegrini	120%	100%	180%	175%	300%	275%	60%	63.6%
Mirosław Zielinski	120%	100%	180%	175%	300%	275%	60%	63.6%

As reported on the June 2013 Form 8-K, when Mr. Calantzopoulos was promoted to CEO after the 2013 annual meeting of shareholders, his base salary was maintained at its then existing level of CHF 1,476,150 ($1,575,790 at June 11, 2013, the date of the Committee's action), and his annual incentive compensation award target was set at 200% of base salary, or one-third lower than the level of 300% previously associated with the CEO position. His equity award target was set at 600% of base salary, the same level previously associated with the CEO position.

When Mr. Camilleri stepped down from the CEO position, he remained as Chairman of the Board. His base salary was reduced from $1,750,000 to $1,000,000, and he ceased to be eligible for annual incentive compensation awards, while his targeted equity award remained the same. The Committee has extended these terms unchanged for 2014. In addition, for the second year in a row, the Committee determined not to increase the base salaries of the named executive officers.

The Company will provide additional information regarding the compensation of its named executive officers in its proxy statement for the 2014 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, which will be issued in March 2014.
