Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Texas Business Organizations Code, as amended (the "TBOC"), grants to a corporation the power to indemnify a director, former director, or delegate who was, is or is threatened to be made a respondent in a proceeding against judgments and other expenses that are reasonable and actually incurred in connection therewith, if it is determined that such person: (1) acted in good faith; (2) reasonably believed, (a) in the case of conduct in the person's official capacity, that the person's conduct was in the corporation's best interests, and (b) in any other case, that the person's conduct was not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, did not have reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful. The determination to indemnify must be made by: (1) a majority vote of the directors who at the time of the vote are disinterested and independent, regardless of whether such directors constitute a quorum; (2) a majority vote of a board committee designated by a majority of disinterested and independent directors and consisting solely of disinterested and independent directors; (3) by special legal counsel selected by the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors as set forth in (1) or (2); or (4) by the shareholders in a vote that excludes the shares held by directors who are not disinterested and independent.

Indemnification under the TBOC of a person who is found liable to the corporation or is found liable because the person improperly received a personal benefit: (1) is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding; (2) does not include a judgment, a penalty, a fine and an excise or similar tax; and (3) may not be made in relation to a proceeding in which the person has been found liable for (a) willful or intentional misconduct in the performance of the person's duty to the corporation, (b) breach of the person's duty of loyalty owed to the corporation, or (c) an act or omission not committed in good faith that constitutes a breach of a duty owed by the person to the corporation. Finally, the TBOC states that a corporation shall indemnify a director, former director, or delegate against reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with a proceeding in which the person is a respondent because the person is or was a director or delegate if the person is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of the proceeding.

The TBOC provides that the corporation may pay or reimburse reasonable expenses incurred by a present director or delegate who was, is, or is threatened to be made a respondent in a proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding without making the required determination described above after the corporation receives a written affirmation by the person of his good faith belief that the person has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification and a written undertaking by or on behalf of the person to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that the person has not met that standard or if it is ultimately determined that indemnification of the person is not otherwise permitted under the TBOC.

With respect to persons other than directors, the TBOC provides that a corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to a person who is not a director, including an officer, employee or agent of the corporation as provided by: (1) the corporation's governing documents; (2) an action by the corporation's Board of Directors; (3) resolution by the shareholders; (4) contract; or (5) common law. Further, the TBOC provides that a corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to an officer to the same extent that indemnification or advancement of expenses is required for a director.

Texas law also permits a corporation to purchase and maintain insurance or another arrangement on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in such a capacity or arising out of his status as such a person, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against that liability under the TBOC.

Article Ten of the Registrant's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended (the "Articles"), provides that a director of the Registrant shall not be liable to the Registrant or its shareholders for monetary damages for an act or omission in the director's capacity as a director, except to the extent that any applicable law may prevent such director from being relieved of such personal liability.

The Registrant's Third Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Bylaws") provides for the indemnification of its officers, and the advancement to them of expenses in connection with proceedings and claims, to the fullest extent permitted under Texas law.

The Registrant has entered into indemnification agreements with certain of its officers that contractually provide for indemnification and expense advancement. Both the Bylaws and the agreements include related provisions meant to facilitate the indemnitees' receipt of such benefits. These provisions cover, among other things: (i) specification of the method of determining entitlement to indemnification and the selection of a reviewing party that will in some cases make such determination, (ii) specification of certain time periods by which certain payments or determinations must be made and actions must be taken and (iii) the establishment of certain presumptions in favor of an indemnitee. The benefits of certain of these provisions are available to an indemnitee only if there has been a change in control (as defined therein). In addition, the Registrant may purchase officers liability insurance policies for its officers.

The above discussion of the TBOC, Texas law, and of the Registrant's Articles and Bylaws is not intended to be exhaustive and is respectively qualified in its entirety by such statute, the Articles and the Bylaws.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

See Index to Exhibits.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the 1933 Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the 1933 Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the 1934 Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the 1934 Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
