Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On April 6, 2017, The First of Long Island Corporation (the “Company”) and The First National Bank of Long Island (the “Bank”) entered into an amended and restated employment agreement (the “Amended Agreement”) with Michael Vittorio, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank. The Amended Agreement replaces Mr. Vittorio’s existing employment agreement with the Company and the Bank dated January 3, 2005 and as amended December 15, 2008 (the “Prior Agreement”). The terms of the Amended Agreement are generally consistent with the Prior Agreement, except that certain provisions were revised to be more aligned with best practices for executive agreements. In addition, and to better reflect and accommodate ongoing succession planning, the term of the Amended Agreement has been fixed at three years, which can be extended for a year by the Company.

The term of the Amended Agreement is for three years, commencing retroactively as of January 1, 2017, and ending on December 31, 2019 (the “Employment Period”). Following the Employment Period, the Board of Directors may elect to extend the Amended Agreement for an additional year through December 31, 2020 (the “Extended Period”). During the Employment Period, Mr. Vittorio will continue to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank, and will be proposed for election to the Board of Directors of the Company at each annual meeting of shareholders at which Executive must stand for election in order to continue as a director. During the Extended Period, Mr. Vittorio’s position (and related duties) with the Company and Bank may be modified by the Board of Directors to reflect the Board’s determinations as to CEO succession planning, provided that Mr. Vittorio’s base salary and benefits in effect as of such date remain the same.

If Mr. Vittorio’s employment is terminated without cause, including a resignation for good reason (as defined in the Amended Agreement) during the Employment or Extended Periods (including on or after the effective time of a change in control of the Company or the Bank), but excluding termination for cause or due to death or disability, Mr. Vittorio would be entitled to: (1) a cash lump sum payment equal to three times his annual base salary; and (2) a cash lump sum payment equal to 36 times the estimated monthly cost of the medical, dental and vision coverage maintained by the Bank for Mr. Vittorio prior to his date of termination (the “Severance Payment”). If the qualifying termination event is not in connection with a change in control, Mr. Vittorio’s outstanding restricted stock units would become vested and payable under the same terms and conditions as would apply upon his retirement as set forth in his underlying award agreements with the Company.

In the event that an excise tax under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code would be assessed on the payments or other benefits received under the agreement in connection with a change in control, Mr. Vittorio would receive either (1) all the payments and benefits to which he is entitled under the Amended Agreement, subject to the excise tax; or (2) have such payments and benefits reduced by the minimum amount necessary so that excise tax will not apply, if such reduction would result in a greater net after-tax benefit to the executive.

In the event of Mr. Vittorio's termination of employment for any reason (including as a result of his retirement due to the expiration of the Employment Period or the Extended Period, as applicable), such termination shall also constitute Mr. Vittorio's resignation from the Board of Directors of the Company and the Bank, effective as provided in the Amended Agreement. Following termination of employment, Mr. Vittorio is subject to certain non-compete and non-solicitation provisions.

The foregoing description of the Amended Agreement does not purport to be complete and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of the Amended Agreement that is included as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report and incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.
