Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On August 22, 2014, Angie's List reduced its salesforce by 97 employees as part of its focus on improving salesforce performance and productivity. The reduction in headcount will affect most units within the sales organization, with the largest percentage reduction coming from the BigDeal sales team. In addition, the Company will implement new performance-based measurements in its sales organization to better align salesforce objectives with its strategy. Angie's List expects to add resources to its salesforce over time to support growth in both advertising and e-commerce revenue.
