NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Dollars in thousands except per share data)

(Unaudited)

Note A – Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Arrow Electronics, Inc. (the "company") were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and reflect all adjustments of a normal recurring nature, which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the consolidated financial position and results of operations at and for the periods presented. The consolidated results of operations for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results for the full year.

These consolidated financial statements do not include all of the information or notes necessary for a complete presentation and, accordingly, should be read in conjunction with the company's Form 10-Q for the quarterly periods ended June 29, 2013 and March 30, 2013, as well as the audited consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes for the year ended December 31, 2012, as filed in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

During the third quarter of 2012, the company prospectively revised its presentation of sales related to certain fulfillment contracts to present these revenues on an agency basis as net fees, as compared to presenting gross sales and costs of sales in prior periods. This revised presentation had no impact on the company's consolidated balance sheet or statement of cash flows. Within the company's consolidated statement of operations, gross profit dollars, operating income dollars, net income dollars, and earnings per share were also not impacted for any periods reported. Prior to this prospective revision, these contracts approximated two percent of the company's sales for the first nine months of 2012. Management has concluded that the impact of this revised presentation is not material and, therefore, prior periods have not been adjusted.

Quarter End

The company operates on a quarterly reporting calendar that closes on the Saturday closest to the end of the calendar quarter.

Reclassification

Certain prior period amounts were reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.

Note B – Impact of Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In July 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2013-11, "Presentation of an Unrecognized Tax Benefit When a Net Operating Loss Carryforward, a Similar Tax Loss, or a Tax Credit Carryforward Exists" ("ASU No. 2013-11"). ASU No. 2013-11 requires an entity to present an unrecognized tax benefit, or a portion of an unrecognized tax benefit, in the financial statements as a reduction to a deferred tax asset for a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss, or a tax credit carryforward, with limited exceptions. ASU No. 2013-11 is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2013 and may be applied retrospectively. The adoption of the provisions of ASU No. 2013-11 is not expected to have a material impact on the company's financial position or results of operations.

In March 2013, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2013-05, "Parent's Accounting for the Cumulative Translation Adjustment upon Derecognition of Certain Subsidiaries or Groups of Assets within a Foreign Entity or of an Investment in a Foreign Entity" ("ASU No. 2013-05"). ASU No. 2013-05 requires an entity that ceases to have a controlling financial interest in a subsidiary or group of assets within a foreign entity to release any related cumulative translation adjustment into net income. Accordingly, the cumulative translation adjustment should be released into net income only if the sale or transfer results in the complete or substantially complete liquidation of the foreign entity in which the subsidiary or group of assets had resided. ASU No. 2013-05 is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2013, with early adoption permitted and is to be applied prospectively. The adoption of the provisions of ASU No. 2013-05 is not expected to have a material impact on the company's financial position or results of operations.

In February 2013, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2013-04, "Obligations Resulting from Joint and Several Liability Arrangements for Which the Total Amount of the Obligation Is Fixed at the Reporting Date" ("ASU No. 2013-04"). ASU No. 2013-04 provides guidance for the recognition, measurement, and disclosure of obligations resulting from joint and several liability arrangements for which the total amount of the obligation within the scope of the guidance is fixed at the reporting date, as the sum of the amount the reporting entity agreed to pay on the basis of its arrangement among its co-obligors and any additional

ARROW ELECTRONICS, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Dollars in thousands except per share data)

amount the reporting entity expects to pay on behalf of its co-obligors. In addition, ASU No. 2013-04 requires an entity to disclose the nature and amount of the obligation, as well as other information about the obligations. ASU No. 2013-04 is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2013 and is to be applied retrospectively. The adoption of the provisions of ASU No. 2013-04 is not expected to have a material impact on the company's financial position or results of operations.

Note C – Acquisitions

The company accounts for acquisitions using the acquisition method of accounting. The results of operations of acquisitions are included in the company's consolidated results from their respective dates of acquisition. The company allocates the purchase price of each acquisition to the tangible assets, liabilities, and identifiable intangible assets acquired based on their estimated fair values. In certain circumstances, a portion of purchase price may be contingent upon the achievement of certain operating results. The fair values assigned to identifiable intangible assets acquired and contingent consideration were determined primarily by using an income approach which was based on assumptions and estimates made by management. Significant assumptions utilized in the income approach were based on company specific information and projections, which are not observable in the market and are thus considered Level 3 measurements by authoritative guidance (see Note H). The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the identified assets and liabilities has been recorded as goodwill. Any change in the estimated fair value of the net assets prior to the finalization of the allocation for acquisitions could change the amount of the purchase price allocable to goodwill. The company is not aware of any information that indicates the final purchase price allocations will differ materially from the preliminary estimates.

Recently Completed Acquisition

On October 28, 2013, the company acquired CSS Computer Security Solutions Holding GmbH, doing business as ComputerLinks AG ("ComputerLinks") for a purchase price of approximately €230,000 (approximately $317,000) in cash. ComputerLinks is a value-added distributor of enterprise computing solutions with a comprehensive offering of IT solutions from many of the world's leading technology suppliers. ComputerLinks has operations in Europe, North America, the Middle East, and Asia.

2013 Acquisitions

During the first nine months of 2013, the company completed two acquisitions. The aggregate consideration for these acquisitions was $43,962, net of cash acquired, and included $570 of contingent consideration. The impact of these acquisitions was not material, individually or in the aggregate, to the company's consolidated financial position or results of operations. The pro forma impact of the 2013 acquisitions on the consolidated results of operations of the company for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013 and 2012 as though these acquisitions occurred on January 1, 2012 was also not material.

2012 Acquisitions

During 2012, the company completed seven acquisitions. The aggregate consideration for these seven acquisitions was $289,782, net of cash acquired and included $10,390 of contingent consideration. The impact of these acquisitions was not material, individually or in the aggregate, to the company's consolidated financial position or results of operations. The pro forma impact of the 2012 acquisitions on the consolidated results of operations of the company for the third quarter and first nine months of 2012 as though these acquisitions occurred on January 1, 2012 was also not material.

Other

During the first nine months of 2012, the company made a payment of $2,526 to increase its ownership interest in a majority-owned subsidiary. The payment was recorded as a reduction to capital in excess of par value, partially offset by the carrying value of the noncontrolling interest.

Note D – Cost in Excess of Net Assets of Companies Acquired and Intangible Assets, Net

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of an acquisition over the fair value of the net assets acquired. The company tests goodwill and other indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment annually as of the first day of the fourth quarter, or more frequently if indicators of potential impairment exist.

The net proceeds of the offering of $591,156 were used to refinance the company's 6.875% senior notes due July 2013 and for general corporate purposes.

In March 2013, the company redeemed $332,107 principal amount of its 6.875% senior notes due July 2013. The related loss on the redemption for the first nine months of 2013 aggregated $4,277 ($2,627 net of related taxes or $.03 per share on both a basic and diluted basis) and was recognized as a loss on prepayment of debt.

The company has a $1,200,000 revolving credit facility, maturing in August 2016. This facility may be used by the company for general corporate purposes including working capital in the ordinary course of business, letters of credit, repayment, prepayment or purchase of long-term indebtedness and acquisitions, and as support for the company's commercial paper program, as applicable. Interest on borrowings under the revolving credit facility is calculated using a base rate or a euro currency rate plus a spread based on the company's credit ratings (1.275% at September 28, 2013), or an effective interest rate of 1.46% at September 28, 2013. The facility fee is .225%. The company had outstanding borrowings under the revolving credit facility of $35,700 and $123,600 at September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively.

The company has a $775,000 asset securitization program collateralized by accounts receivable of certain of its United States subsidiaries, maturing in December 2014. The asset securitization program is conducted through Arrow Electronics Funding Corporation ("AFC"), a wholly-owned, bankruptcy remote subsidiary. The asset securitization program does not qualify for sale treatment. Accordingly, the accounts receivable and related debt obligation remain on the company's consolidated balance sheets. Interest on borrowings is calculated using a base rate or a commercial paper rate plus a spread, which is based on the company's credit ratings (.40% at September 28, 2013), or an effective interest rate of .68% at September 28, 2013. The facility fee is .40%.

At September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012, the company had $70,000 and $225,000, respectively, in outstanding borrowings under the asset securitization program, which was included in "Long-term debt" in the company's consolidated balance sheets, and total collateralized accounts receivable of approximately $1,506,382 and $1,610,946, respectively, were held by AFC and were included in "Accounts receivable, net" in the company's consolidated balance sheets. Any accounts receivable held by AFC would likely not be available to other creditors of the company in the event of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings before repayment of any outstanding borrowings under the asset securitization program.

Both the revolving credit facility and asset securitization program include terms and conditions that limit the incurrence of additional borrowings, limit the company's ability to pay cash dividends or repurchase stock, and require that certain financial ratios be maintained at designated levels. The company was in compliance with all covenants as of September 28, 2013 and is currently not aware of any events that would cause non-compliance with any covenants in the future.

Interest and other financing expense, net, includes interest and dividend income of $3,272 and $4,392 for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013 and $3,392 and $4,627 for the third quarter and first nine months of 2012, respectively.

Note H – Financial Instruments Measured at Fair Value

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. The company utilizes a fair value hierarchy, which maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The fair value hierarchy has three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities.

Level 2 Quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 Prices or valuation techniques that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable.

The following table presents assets (liabilities) measured at fair value on a recurring basis at September 28, 2013:

Derivative Instruments

The company uses various financial instruments, including derivative instruments, for purposes other than trading. Interest Rate Swaps

The company occasionally enters into interest rate swap transactions that convert certain fixed-rate debt to variable-rate debt or variable-rate debt to fixed-rate debt in order to manage its targeted mix of fixed- and floating-rate debt. The company uses the hypothetical derivative method to assess the effectiveness of its interest rate swaps on a quarterly basis. The effective portion of the change in the fair value of interest rate swaps designated as fair value hedges is recorded as a change to the carrying value of the related hedged debt, and the effective portion of the change in fair value of interest rate swaps designated as cash flow hedges is recorded in the shareholders' equity section in the company's consolidated balance sheets in "Other." The ineffective portion of the interest rate swap, if any, is recorded in "Interest and other financing expense, net" in the company's consolidated statements of operations.

In September 2011, the company entered into a ten-year forward-starting interest rate swap (the "2011 swap") which locked in a treasury rate of 2.63% on an aggregate notional amount of $175,000. This swap managed the risk associated with changes in treasury rates and the impact of future interest payments. The 2011 swap related to the interest payments for anticipated debt issuances to replace the company's 6.875% senior notes due to mature in July 2013. The 2011 swap was classified as a cash flow hedge and had a negative fair value of $10,832 at December 31, 2012. In February 2013, the company paid $7,700 to terminate the 2011 swap upon issuance of the ten-year notes due in 2023. The fair value of the 2011 swap is recorded in the shareholders' equity section in the company's consolidated balance sheets in "Other" and will be reclassified into income over the ten-year term of the notes due in 2023. During the third quarter and first nine months of 2013, the company reclassified $(157) and $(87), respectively, into income relating to the 2011 swap.

Foreign Exchange Contracts

The company enters into foreign exchange forward, option, or swap contracts (collectively, the "foreign exchange contracts") to mitigate the impact of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. These contracts are executed to facilitate the hedging of foreign currency exposures resulting from inventory purchases and sales and generally have terms of no more than six months. Gains or losses on these contracts are deferred and recognized when the underlying future purchase or sale is recognized or when the corresponding asset or liability is revalued. The company does not enter into foreign exchange contracts for trading purposes. The risk of loss on a foreign exchange contract is the risk of nonperformance by the counterparties, which the company minimizes by limiting its counterparties to major financial institutions. The fair value of the foreign exchange contracts are estimated using market quotes. The notional amount of the foreign exchange contracts at September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012 was $361,944 and $425,053, respectively.

Contingent Consideration

In connection with one of the 2013 acquisitions, payment of a portion of the respective purchase price is contingent upon the achievement of certain operating results, with a maximum possible payout of $5,400 which would be due at the end of a three-year period. Additionally, in connection with one of the 2012 acquisitions, payment of a portion of the respective purchase price is contingent upon the achievement of certain operating results, with a maximum possible payout of $18,000 over a three-year period. The company estimated the fair value of the contingent consideration as the present value of the expected contingent payments, determined using the weighted probabilities of the possible payments. The company reassesses the fair value of the contingent consideration on a quarterly basis. Contingent consideration of $1,813 and $806 was included in "Other liabilities" in the company's consolidated balance sheets as of September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively. A twenty percent increase or decrease in projected operating performance over the remaining performance period would not result in a material change in the fair value of the contingent consideration recorded as of September 28, 2013.

Other

The carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, net, and accounts payable approximate their fair value due to the short maturities of these financial instruments.

Note I – Restructuring, Integration, and Other Charges

Environmental Matters

In connection with the purchase of Wyle Electronics ("Wyle") in August 2000, the company acquired certain of the then outstanding obligations of Wyle, including Wyle's indemnification obligations to the purchasers of its Wyle Laboratories division for environmental clean-up costs associated with any then existing contamination or violation of environmental regulations. Under the terms of the company's purchase of Wyle from the sellers, the sellers agreed to indemnify the company for certain costs associated with the Wyle environmental obligations, among other things. During the fourth quarter of 2012, the company entered into a settlement agreement with the sellers pursuant to which the sellers paid $110,000 and the company released the sellers from their indemnification obligation. As part of the settlement agreement the company accepted responsibility for any potential subsequent costs incurred related to the Wyle matters. The company is aware of two Wyle Laboratories facilities (in Huntsville, Alabama and Norco, California) at which contaminated groundwater was identified and will require environmental remediation. In addition, the company was named as a defendant in several lawsuits related to the Norco facility and a third site in El Segundo, California which have now been settled to the satisfaction of the parties.

The company expects these environmental liabilities to be resolved over an extended period of time. Costs are recorded for environmental matters when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the liability can be reasonably estimated. Accruals for environmental liabilities are adjusted periodically as facts and circumstances change, assessment and remediation efforts progress, or as additional technical or legal information becomes available. Environmental liabilities are difficult to assess and estimate due to various unknown factors such as the timing and extent of remediation, improvements in remediation technologies, and the extent to which environmental laws and regulations may change in the future. Accordingly the company cannot presently fully estimate the ultimate potential costs related to these sites until such time as a substantial portion of the investigation at the sites is completed and remedial action plans are developed and, in some instances implemented. To the extent that future environmental costs exceed amounts currently accrued by the company, net income would be adversely impacted and such impact could be material.

Accruals for environmental liabilities are included in "Accrued expenses" and "Other liabilities" in the company's consolidated balance sheets.

As successor-in-interest to Wyle, the company is the beneficiary of various Wyle insurance policies that covered liabilities arising out of operations at Norco and Huntsville. To date, the company has recovered approximately $33,000 from certain insurance carriers. The company continues to seek recovery from an umbrella liability policy carrier for its proportional share of the total Norco liability. The company is considering the best way to pursue its potential claims against insurers regarding liabilities arising out of operations at Huntsville. The resolution of these matters could likely take several years. The company has not recorded a receivable for any potential future insurance recoveries related to the Norco and Huntsville environmental matters, as the realization of the claims for recovery are not deemed probable at this time.

(Unaudited)

The company believes the settlement amount together with potential recoveries from various insurance policies covering environmental remediation and related litigation will be sufficient to cover any potential future costs related to the Wyle acquisition; however, it is possible unexpected costs beyond those anticipated could occur.

Environmental Matters - Huntsville

Characterization of the extent of contaminated soil and groundwater continues at the site in Huntsville, Alabama. Under the direction of the Alabama Department of Environmental Management, approximately $4,000 was spent to date. The pace of the ongoing remedial investigations, project management, and regulatory oversight is likely to increase somewhat and though the complete scope of the activities is not yet known, the company currently estimates additional investigative and related expenditures at the site of approximately $500 to $750. The nature and scope of both feasibility studies and subsequent remediation at the site has not yet been determined, but assuming the outcome includes source control and certain other measures, the cost is estimated to be between $3,000 and $4,000.

Despite the amount of work undertaken and planned to date, the company is unable to estimate any potential costs in addition to those discussed above because the complete scope of the work is not yet known, and, accordingly, the associated costs have yet to be determined.

Environmental Matters - Norco

In October 2003, the company entered into a consent decree with Wyle Laboratories and the California Department of Toxic Substance Control (the "DTSC") in connection with the Norco site. In April 2005, a Remedial Investigation Work Plan was approved by DTSC that provided for site-wide characterization of known and potential environmental issues. Investigations performed in connection with this work plan and a series of subsequent technical memoranda continued until the filing of a final Remedial Investigation Report early in 2008. Work is under way pertaining to the remediation of contaminated groundwater at certain areas on the Norco site and of soil gas in a limited area immediately adjacent to the site. In 2008, a hydraulic containment system was installed to capture and treat groundwater before it moves into the adjacent offsite area. In September 2013, the DTSC approved the final Remedial Action Plan ("RAP") and work is currently progressing under the RAP. The approval of the RAP includes the potential for additional remediation action after the five year review of the hydraulic containment system if the review finds that contaminants have not been sufficiently reduced in the offsite area.

Approximately $44,000 was spent to date on remediation, project management, regulatory oversight, and investigative and feasibility study activities. The company currently estimates that these activities will give rise to an additional $18,000 to $24,900. Project management and regulatory oversight include costs incurred by project consultants for project management and costs billed by DTSC to provide regulatory oversight.

Despite the amount of work undertaken and planned to date, the company is unable to estimate any potential costs in addition to those discussed above because the complete scope of the work under the RAP is not yet known, and, accordingly, the associated costs have yet to be determined.

Tekelec Matter

In 2000, the company purchased Tekelec Europe SA ("Tekelec") from Tekelec Airtronic SA and certain other selling shareholders. Subsequent to the closing of the acquisition, Tekelec received a product liability claim in the amount of €11,333. The product liability claim was the subject of a French legal proceeding started by the claimant in 2002, under which separate determinations were made as to whether the products that are subject to the claim were defective and the amount of damages sustained by the purchaser. The manufacturer of the products also participated in this proceeding. The claimant commenced legal proceedings against Tekelec and its insurers to recover damages in the amount of €3,742 and expenses of €312 plus interest. In May 2012, the French court ruled in favor of Tekelec and dismissed the plaintiff's claims. However, that decision has been appealed by the plaintiff. The company believes that any amount in addition to the amount accrued by the company would not materially adversely impact the company's consolidated financial position, liquidity, or results of operations.

Other

From time to time, in the normal course of business, the company may become liable with respect to other pending and threatened litigation, environmental, regulatory, labor, product, and tax matters. While such matters are subject to inherent uncertainties, it is not currently anticipated that any such matters will materially impact the company's consolidated financial position, liquidity, or results of operations.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview

Arrow Electronics, Inc. (the "company") is a global provider of products, services, and solutions to industrial and commercial users of electronic components and enterprise computing solutions. The company provides one of the broadest product offerings in the electronic components and enterprise computing solutions distribution industries and a wide range of value-added services to help customers introduce innovative products, reduce their time to market, and enhance their overall competitiveness. The company has two business segments, the global components business segment and the global enterprise computing solutions ("ECS") business segment. The company distributes electronic components to original equipment manufacturers and contract manufacturers through its global components business segment and provides enterprise computing solutions to value-added resellers through its global ECS business segment. For the first nine months of 2013, approximately 66% of the company's sales were from the global components business segment, and approximately 34% of the company's sales were from the global ECS business segment.

The company's financial objectives are to grow sales faster than the market, increase the markets served, grow profits faster than sales, and increase return on invested capital. To achieve its objectives, the company seeks to capture significant opportunities to grow across products, markets, and geographies. To supplement its organic growth strategy, the company continually evaluates strategic acquisitions to broaden its product and value-added service offerings, increase its market penetration, and/or expand its geographic reach.

On October 28, 2013, the company acquired CSS Computer Security Solutions Holding GmbH, doing business as ComputerLinks AG ("ComputerLinks") for a purchase price of approximately €230 million (approximately $317 million) in cash. ComputerLinks is a value-added distributor of enterprise computing solutions with a comprehensive offering of IT solutions from many of the world's leading technology suppliers. ComputerLinks has operations in Europe, North America, the Middle East, and Asia.

During the first nine months of 2013, the company completed two acquisitions. During 2012, the company completed seven acquisitions. The impact of these acquisitions were not material, individually or in the aggregate, to the company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

During the third quarter of 2012, the company prospectively revised its presentation of sales related to certain fulfillment contracts to present these revenues on an agency basis as net fees, as compared to presenting gross sales and costs of sales in prior periods. Management concluded that the impact of the revised presentation is not material and, therefore, prior periods have not been adjusted. On a gross basis, these contracts contributed approximately $280.6 million to the company's sales for the first nine months of 2012, which negatively impacted the year-over-year consolidated sales growth comparison by approximately 1.9%. This revised presentation had no impact on the company's consolidated balance sheet or statement of cash flows. Within the company's consolidated statement of operations, this revised presentation had no impact on gross profit dollars, operating income dollars, net income dollars, or earnings per share, but positively impacted the gross profit margin by approximately 20 basis points, while operating income remained relatively flat, for the first nine months of 2013. Additionally, returns on capital, which are key metrics used to evaluate the company's performance, were also not impacted by this prospective revision.

Certain Non-GAAP Financial Information

In addition to disclosing financial results that are determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"), the company also discloses certain non-GAAP financial information, including:

Sales, income, or expense items as adjusted for the impact of changes in foreign currencies (referred to as "impact of changes in foreign currencies") and the impact of acquisitions by adjusting the company's prior periods to include the operating results of businesses acquired, including the amortization expense related to acquired intangible assets, as if the acquisitions had occurred at the beginning of the period presented (referred to as "impact of acquisitions"); and Sales adjusted for certain items that impact the year-over-year comparison, which includes the aforementioned change in presentation of sales related to certain fulfillment contracts to present these revenues on an agency basis as net fees (referred to as "change in presentation of sales").

Management believes that providing this additional information is useful to the reader to better assess and understand the company's operating performance, especially when comparing results with previous periods, primarily because management typically monitors the business adjusted for these items in addition to GAAP results. However, analysis of results on a non-GAAP basis should be used as a complement to, and in conjunction with, data presented in accordance with GAAP.

Executive Summary

Consolidated sales for the third quarter of 2013 increased by 1.7%, compared with the year-earlier period, due to a 2.8% increase in the global components business segment sales, offset, in part, by a .6% decrease in the global ECS business segment sales. The translation of the company's international financial statements into U.S. dollars resulted in an increase in consolidated sales of 1.2% for the third quarter of 2013, compared with the year-earlier period, due to a weaker U.S. dollar. Consolidated sales for the first nine months of 2013 increased by 1.3%, compared with the year-earlier period, due to a 6.6% increase in the global ECS business segment sales, offset, in part, by a 1.1% decrease in the global components business segment sales. The translation of the company's international financial statements into U.S. dollars resulted in an increase in consolidated sales of .7% for the first nine months of 2013, compared with the year-earlier period, due to a weaker U.S. dollar.

Net income attributable to shareholders decreased to $96.8 million and $264.6 million in the third quarter and first nine months of 2013, respectively, compared with net income attributable to shareholders of $103.6 million and $331.6 million in the year-earlier periods. The following items impacted the comparability of the company's results:

Third quarters of 2013 and 2012:

- restructuring, integration, and other charges of $22.6 million ($16.1 million net of related taxes) in 2013 and $14.6 million ($8.6 million net of related taxes) in 2012.

First nine months of 2013 and 2012:

- restructuring, integration, and other charges of $74.4 million ($52.3 million net of related taxes) in 2013 and $36.2 million ($24.4 million net of related taxes) in 2012;
- a loss on prepayment of debt of $4.3 million ($2.6 million net of related taxes) in 2013; and
- an increase in the provision for income taxes of $5.4 million and an increase in interest expense of $1.5 million ($.9 million net of related taxes) relating to adjustments to tax reserves for ongoing international tax audits in 2013.

Excluding the aforementioned items, net income attributable to shareholders for the third quarter of 2013 increased slightly compared to the year-earlier period, primarily due to an increase in sales in the global components business segment and the impact of a weaker U.S. dollar on the translation of the company's financial statements, offset, in part, by increased interest expense due to higher average debt outstanding. Excluding the aforementioned items, net income attributable to shareholders for the first nine months of 2013 decreased compared to the year-earlier period, primarily due a decline in sales in the company's more profitable global components businesses in the America's and EMEA regions, an increase in competitive pricing pressure in both the company's business segments, as well as an increase in interest expense due to higher average debt outstanding.

Substantially all of the company's sales are made on an order-by-order basis, rather than through long-term sales contracts. As such, the nature of the company's business does not provide for the visibility of material forward-looking information from its customers and suppliers beyond a few months.

Consolidated sales for the third quarter of 2013 increased by $85.9 million, or 1.7%, compared with the year-earlier period. The increase for the third quarter of 2013 was driven by an increase in global components business segment sales of $95.2 million, or 2.8%, offset, in part, by a decrease in global ECS business segment sales of $9.3 million, or .6%, compared with the year-earlier period. The translation of the company's international financial statements into U.S. dollars resulted in an increase in consolidated sales of 1.2% for the third quarter of 2013, compared with the year-earlier period, due to a weaker U.S. dollar. The company's consolidated sales for the third quarter of 2013, adjusted for the impact of changes in foreign currencies and acquisitions, remained relatively flat compared with the year-earlier period. Consolidated sales for the first nine months of 2013 increased $201.5 million, or 1.3%, compared with the year-earlier period. The increase for the first nine months of 2013 was driven by an increase in global ECS business segment sales of $318.3 million, or 6.6%, offset, in part, by a decrease in global components business segment sales of $116.8 million, or 1.1%, compared with the year-earlier period. The translation of the company's international financial statements into U.S. dollars resulted in an increase in consolidated sales of .7% for the first nine months of 2013, compared with the year-earlier period, due to a weaker U.S. dollar. Adjusted for the impact of changes in foreign currencies and acquisitions, and the aforementioned change in presentation of sales, the company's consolidated sales increased by .8% for the first nine months of 2013, compared with the year-earlier period.

In the global components business segment, sales for the third quarter of 2013 increased 2.8%, compared with the year-earlier period primarily due to an increase in demand for products in both the Americas and EMEA (Europe, Middle East, and Africa) regions, the impact of recently acquired businesses, and the impact of a weaker U.S. dollar on the translation of the company's international financial statements. Global components business segment sales for the third quarter of 2013, adjusted for the impact of changes in foreign currencies and acquisitions, increased by .8% compared with the year-earlier period. In the global components business segment, sales for the first nine months of 2013 decreased 1.1%, compared with the year-earlier period, primarily due to a decline in demand for products in both the Americas and EMEA regions offset, in part, by an increase in demand for products in the Asia Pacific region, the impact of recently acquired businesses, and the impact of a weaker U.S. dollar on the translation of the company's international financial statements. Adjusted for the impact of changes in foreign currencies and acquisitions, and the aforementioned change in presentation of sales, the company's global components business segment sales remained relatively flat for the first nine months of 2013, compared with the year-earlier period.

In the global ECS business segment, sales for the third quarter of 2013 decreased .6%, compared with the year-earlier period primarily due to a decline in demand for products in the EMEA region, offset, in part, by an increase in demand for products in the North America region. Adjusted for the impact of changes in foreign currencies and acquisitions, the company's global ECS business segment sales decreased by 2.0% for the third quarter of 2013, compared with the year-earlier period. In the global ECS business segment, sales for the first nine months of 2013 increased 6.6%, compared with the year-earlier period primarily due to higher demand for products in both the North America and EMEA regions. Adjusted for the impact of changes in foreign currencies and acquisitions, the company's global ECS business segment sales increased by 2.4% for the first nine months of 2013, compared with the year-earlier period.

Gross Profit

The company recorded gross profit of $671.7 million and $2.00 billion in the third quarter and first nine months of 2013, respectively, compared with $662.7 million and $2.03 billion in the year-earlier periods. Gross profit margins for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013 decreased by nearly 10 and 40 basis points, respectively, compared with the year-earlier periods primarily due to increased competitive pricing pressure in both the company's business segments and a change in mix of products. The aforementioned change in presentation of sales had no impact on gross profit dollars but positively impacted the gross profit margin percentage by approximately 20 basis points for the first nine months of 2013.

The personnel costs are related to the elimination of approximately 770 positions within the global components business segment and approximately 250 positions within the global ECS business segment. The facilities costs are related to exit activities for 31 vacated facilities worldwide due to the company's continued efforts to streamline its operations and reduce real estate costs. The restructuring charges of $15.2 million and $30.0 million for the third quarter and first nine months of 2012, respectively, include personnel costs of $12.1 million and $22.5 million, facilities costs of $2.7 million and $3.0 million, and asset write-downs of $.4 million and $4.6 million, respectively. The personnel costs are related to the elimination of approximately 440 positions within the global components business segment and approximately 310 positions within the global ECS business segment. The facilities costs are related to exit activities for nine vacated facilities worldwide due to the company's continued efforts to streamline its operations and reduce real estate costs. The asset write-downs resulted from the company's decision to exit certain business activities which causes these assets to become redundant and have no future benefit. These restructuring initiatives are due to the company's continued efforts to lower cost and drive operational efficiency.

As of September 28, 2013, the company does not anticipate there will be any material adjustments relating to the aforementioned restructuring charges. Refer to Note I, "Restructuring, Integration, and Other Charges," of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion of the company's restructuring and integration activities.

Operating Income

The company recorded operating income of $162.7 million, or 3.2% of sales, and $456.2 million, or 3.0% of sales, in the third quarter and first nine months of 2013, respectively, compared with operating income of $163.8 million, or 3.3% of sales, and $540.0 million, or 3.6% of sales, in the year-earlier periods. Included in operating income for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013 were the previously discussed restructuring, integration, and other charges of $22.6 million and $74.4 million, respectively. Included in operating income for the third quarter and first nine months of 2012 were the previously discussed restructuring, integration, and other charges of $14.6 million and $36.2 million, respectively.

Loss on Prepayment of Debt

In March 2013, the company redeemed $332.1 million principal amount of its 6.875% senior notes due July 2013. The related loss on the redemption for the first nine months of 2013 aggregated $4.3 million ($2.6 million net of related taxes or $.03 per share on both a basic and diluted basis) and was recognized as a loss on prepayment of debt.

Interest and Other Financing Expense, Net

Net interest and other financing expense increased by 13.4%, to $27.2 million, and by 9.1%, to $86.9 million, for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013, respectively, compared with $24.0 million and $79.6 million, respectively, in the year-earlier periods. The increase for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013 was primarily due to higher average debt outstanding. The increase for the first nine months of 2013 was also impacted by an increase in interest expense of $1.5 million ($0.9 million net of related taxes or $0.01 per share on both a basic and diluted basis) primarily related to adjustments to tax reserves (discussed in "Income Taxes" below), as well as the occurrence of $1.1 million additional interest related to the 6.875% notes which were redeemed by the company subsequent to the completion of the new note offering.

Income Taxes

The company recorded a provision for income taxes of $40.5 million and $105.3 million (an effective tax rate of 29.5% and 28.4%) for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013, respectively. During the first nine months of 2013 the company recorded an increase in the provision for income taxes of $5.4 million ($.05 per share on both a basic and diluted basis) relating to adjustments to tax reserves for ongoing international tax audits. The company's provision for income taxes and effective tax rate for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013 were impacted by the previously discussed restructuring, integration, and other charges. The company's provision for income taxes and effective tax rate for the first nine months of 2013 was also impacted by the previously discussed adjustments to tax reserves and the loss on prepayment of debt. Excluding the impact of the aforementioned items, the company's effective tax rate for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013 was 29.4% and 27.6%, respectively.

The company recorded a provision for income taxes of $38.3 million and $134.2 million (an effective tax rate of 27.0% and 28.8%) for the third quarter and first nine months of 2012, respectively. The company's provision for income taxes and effective tax rate for the third quarter and first nine months of 2012 were impacted by the previously discussed restructuring, integration, and other charges. Excluding the impact of the aforementioned items, the company's effective tax rate for the third quarter and first nine months of 2012 was 28.3% and 29.1%, respectively.

The company's provision for income taxes and effective tax rate are impacted by, among other factors, the statutory tax rates in the countries in which it operates and the related level of income generated by these operations.

Net Income Attributable to Shareholders

The company recorded net income attributable to shareholders of $96.8 million and $264.6 million in the third quarter and first nine months of 2013, respectively, compared with net income attributable to shareholders of $103.6 million and $331.6 million in the year-earlier periods. Included in net income attributable to shareholders for the third quarter and first nine months of 2013 were the previously discussed restructuring, integration, and other charges of $16.1 million and $52.3 million, respectively. Also included in net income attributable to shareholders for the first nine months of 2013 is a loss on prepayment of debt of $2.6 million as well as an increase in the provision for income taxes of $5.4 million and an increase in interest expense of $0.9 million relating to adjustments to tax reserves for ongoing international tax audits. Included in net income attributable to shareholders for the third quarter and first nine months of 2012 were the previously discussed restructuring, integration, and other charges of $8.6 million and $24.4 million, respectively. Excluding the aforementioned items, net income attributable to shareholders for the third quarter of 2013 increased slightly compared to the year-earlier period, primarily due to an increase in sales in the global components business segment and the impact of a weaker U.S. dollar on the translation of the company's financial statements, offset, in part, by increased interest expense due to higher average debt outstanding. Excluding the aforementioned items, net income attributable to shareholders for the first nine months of 2013 decreased compared to the year-earlier period, primarily due to a decline in sales in the company's more profitable global components businesses in the America's and EMEA regions, an increase in competitive pricing pressure in both the company's business segments, as well as an increase in interest expense due to higher average debt outstanding.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012, the company had cash and cash equivalents of $251.8 million and $409.7 million, respectively, of which $218.6 million and $359.0 million, respectively, were held outside the United States. Liquidity is affected by many factors, some of which are based on normal ongoing operations of the company's business and some of which arise from fluctuations related to global economics and markets. Cash balances are generated and held in many locations throughout the world. It is the company's current intent to permanently reinvest these funds outside the United States and its current plans do not demonstrate a need to repatriate them to fund its United States operations. If these funds were to be needed for the company's operations in the United States it would be required to record and pay significant United States income taxes to repatriate these funds. Additionally, local government regulations may restrict the company's ability to move cash balances to meet cash needs under certain circumstances.

The company currently does not expect such regulations and restrictions to impact its ability to make acquisitions or to pay vendors and conduct operations throughout the global organization.

During the first nine months of 2013, the net amount of cash provided by the company's operating activities was $235.6 million, the net amount of cash used for investing activities was $131.9 million, and the net amount of cash used for financing activities was $287.5 million. The effect of exchange rate changes on cash was an increase of $25.8 million.

During the first nine months of 2012, the net amount of cash provided by the company's operating activities was $487.3 million, the net amount of cash used for investing activities was $281.8 million, and the net amount of cash used for financing activities was $223.4 million. The effect of exchange rate changes on cash was a decrease of $20.4 million.

Cash Flows from Operating Activities

The company maintains a significant investment in accounts receivable and inventories. As a percentage of total assets, accounts receivable and inventories were approximately 65.0% at September 28, 2013 and were approximately 64.7% at December 31, 2012.

The net amount of cash provided by the company's operating activities during the first nine months of 2013 was $235.6 million and was primarily due to earnings from operations, adjusted for non-cash items, offset, in part, by an increase in net working capital to support the increase in sales.

The net amount of cash provided by the company's operating activities during the first nine months of 2012 was $487.3 million and was primarily due to earnings from operations, adjusted for non-cash items, and a decrease in net working capital due to a decline in sales.

Working capital as a percentage of sales was 16.4% in the third quarter of 2013 compared with 15.3% in the third quarter of 2012.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

The net amount of cash used for investing activities during the first nine months of 2013 was $131.9 million, reflecting $43.4 million of cash consideration paid for acquired businesses, $85.5 million for capital expenditures, and $3.0 million related to the purchase of a cost method investment. Included in capital expenditures for the first nine months of 2013 is $43.0 million related to the company's global ERP initiative.

During the first nine months of 2013, the company completed two acquisitions. The aggregate consideration for these acquisitions was $43.4 million, net of contingent consideration.

The net amount of cash used for investing activities during the first nine months of 2012 was $281.8 million, reflecting $191.3 million of cash consideration paid for acquired businesses, $75.6 million for capital expenditures, and $15.0 million related to the purchase of a cost method investment. Included in capital expenditures for the first nine months of 2012 is $45.8 million related to the company's global ERP initiative.

During the first nine months of 2012, the company completed seven acquisitions for aggregate consideration of $279.3 million, net of cash acquired and contingent consideration. The aggregate consideration of $279.3 million includes $90.6 million related to an acquisition which was paid shortly after the end of the third quarter of 2012. In addition, the company made a payment of $2.5 million to increase its ownership interest in a majority-owned subsidiary.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities

The net amount of cash used for financing activities during the first nine months of 2013 was $287.5 million. The uses of cash from financing activities included $338.2 million of redemption of senior notes, $312.6 million of repurchases of common stock, $242.9 million of net repayments of long-term bank borrowings, and a $22.3 million decrease in short-term and other borrowings. The sources of cash from financing activities during the first nine months of 2013 were $591.2 million of net proceeds from a note offering, $30.4 million proceeds from the exercise of stock options, and $6.9 million related to excess tax benefits from stock-based compensation arrangements.

In February 2013, the company completed the sale of $300.0 million principal amount of 3.00% notes due in 2018 and $300.0 million principal amount of 4.50% notes due in 2023. The net proceeds of the offering of $591.2 million were used to refinance the company's 6.875% senior notes due July 2013 and for general corporate purposes.

In March 2013, the company redeemed $332.1 million principal amount of its 6.875% senior notes due July 2013. The related loss on the redemption for the first nine months of 2013 aggregated $4.3 million ($2.6 million net of related taxes or $.03 per share on both a basic and diluted basis) and was recognized as a loss on prepayment of debt.

The net amount of cash used for financing activities during the first nine months of 2012 was $223.4 million. The uses of cash from financing activities included $222.8 million of repurchases of common stock and $25.0 million of net repayments of long-term bank borrowings. The sources of cash from financing activities during the first nine months of 2012 were $11.5 million of proceeds from the exercise of stock options, a $7.8 million increase in short-term and other borrowings, and $5.1 million related to excess tax benefits from stock-based compensation arrangements.

The company has a $1.20 billion revolving credit facility, maturing in August 2016. This facility may be used by the company for general corporate purposes including working capital in the ordinary course of business, letters of credit, repayment, prepayment, or purchase of long-term indebtedness and acquisitions, and as support for the company's commercial paper program, as applicable. Interest on borrowings under the revolving credit facility is calculated using a base rate or a euro currency rate plus a spread based on the company's credit ratings (1.275% at September 28, 2013), or an effective interest rate of 1.46% at September 28, 2013. The facility fee is .225%. The company had outstanding borrowings under the revolving credit facility of $35.7 million and $123.6 million at September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively. During the first nine months of 2013 and 2012, the average daily balance outstanding under the revolving credit facility was $417.9 million and $285.5 million, respectively.

The company has a $775.0 million asset securitization program collateralized by accounts receivable of certain of its United States subsidiaries, maturing in December 2014. Interest on borrowings is calculated using a base rate or a commercial paper rate plus a spread, which is based on the company's credit ratings (.40% at September 28, 2013), or an effective interest rate of .68% at September 28, 2013. The facility fee is .40%. The company had $70.0 million and $225.0 million in outstanding borrowings under the asset securitization program at September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively. During the first nine months of 2013 and 2012, the average daily balance outstanding under the asset securitization program was $262.2 million and $519.2 million, respectively.

Both the revolving credit facility and asset securitization program include terms and conditions that limit the incurrence of additional borrowings, limit the company's ability to pay cash dividends or repurchase stock, and require that certain financial ratios be maintained at designated levels. The company was in compliance with all covenants as of September 28, 2013 and is currently not aware of any events that would cause non-compliance with any covenants in the future.

In the normal course of business certain of the company's subsidiaries have agreements to sell, without recourse, selected trade receivables to financial institutions. The company does not retain financial or legal interests in these receivables, and accordingly they are accounted for as sales of the related receivables and the receivables are removed from the company's consolidated balance sheets. Financing costs related to these transactions were not material and are included in "Interest and other financing expense, net" in the company's consolidated statements of operations.

The company filed a shelf registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission in October 2012 registering debt securities, preferred stock, common stock, and warrants of Arrow Electronics, Inc. that may be issued by the company from time to time. As set forth in the shelf registration statement, the net proceeds from the sale of the offered securities may be used by the company for general corporate purposes, including repayment of borrowings, working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions, and stock repurchases, or for such other purposes as may be specified in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Management believes that the company's current cash availability, its current borrowing capacity under its revolving credit facility and asset securitization program, its expected ability to generate future operating cash flows, and the company's access to capital markets are sufficient to meet its projected cash flow needs for the foreseeable future. The company continually evaluates its liquidity requirements and would seek to amend its existing borrowing capacity or access the financial markets as deemed necessary.

Contractual Obligations

The company has contractual obligations for short-term and long-term debt, interest on short-term and long-term debt, capital leases, operating leases, purchase obligations, and certain other long-term liabilities that were summarized in a table of Contractual Obligations in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012. Since December 31, 2012, there were no material changes to the contractual obligations of the company, outside the ordinary course of the company's business, except as follows:

in February 2013, the company completed the sale of $300.0 million principal amount of 3.00% notes due in 2018 and $300.0 million principal amount of 4.50% notes due in 2023 for net proceeds totaling $591.2 million;

in March 2013, the company redeemed $332.1 million principal amount of its 6.875% senior notes due July 2013; at September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012, the company had $35.7 million and $123.6 million, respectively, in outstanding borrowings under the revolving credit facility which matures in August 2016; and at September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012, the company had $70.0 million and $225.0 million, respectively, in outstanding borrowings under the asset securitization program which matures in December 2014.

Share-Repurchase Programs

In February 2013, the company's Board of Directors (the "Board") approved the repurchase of up to $200 million of the company's common stock through a share-repurchase program. In July 2013, the company's Board approved an additional repurchase of up to $200 million of the company's common stock. As of September 28, 2013, the company repurchased 5,064,464 shares under these programs with a market value of $198.6 million at the dates of repurchase.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The company has no off-balance sheet financing or unconsolidated special purpose entities.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The company's consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires the company to make significant estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. The company evaluates its estimates on an ongoing basis. The company bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed reasonable under the circumstances; the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

There were no significant changes during the first nine months of 2013 to the items disclosed as Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Impact of Recently Issued Accounting Standards

See Note B of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for a full description of recent accounting pronouncements, including the anticipated dates of adoption and the effects on the company's consolidated financial position and results of operations.

Information Relating to Forward-Looking Statements

This report includes forward-looking statements that are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties, which could cause actual results or facts to differ materially from such statements for a variety of reasons, including, but not limited to: industry conditions, the company's implementation of its new enterprise resource planning system, changes in product supply, pricing and customer demand, competition, other vagaries in the global components and global ECS markets, changes in relationships with key suppliers, increased profit margin pressure, the effects of additional actions taken to become more efficient or lower costs, risks related to the integration of acquired businesses, change in legal and regulatory matters, and the company's ability to generate additional cash flow. Forward-looking statements are those statements, which are not statements of historical fact. These forward-looking statements can be identified by forward-looking words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "may," "will," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," and similar expressions. Shareholders and other readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. The company undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any of the forward-looking statements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

There were no material changes in market risk for changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates from the information provided in Item 7A – Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012, except as follows:

Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk

The notional amount of the foreign exchange contracts at September 28, 2013 and December 31, 2012 was $361.9 million and $425.1 million, respectively. The fair values of foreign exchange contracts, which are nominal, are estimated using market quotes. The translation of the financial statements of the non-United States operations is impacted by fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. The change in consolidated sales and operating income was impacted by the translation of the company's international financial statements into U.S. dollars. For the first nine months of 2013, the translation of the company's international financial statements into U.S. dollars resulted in an increase in sales and operating income of $103.3 million and $3.7 million, respectively, compared with the year-earlier periods. Sales and operating income would decrease by approximately $431.9 million and $8.8 million, respectively, if average foreign exchange rates declined by 10% against the U.S. dollar in the first nine months of 2013. These amounts were determined by considering the impact of a hypothetical foreign exchange rate on the sales and operating income of the company's international operations.

Interest Rate Risk

At September 28, 2013, approximately 93% of the company's debt was subject to fixed rates, and 7% of its debt was subject to floating rates. A one percentage point change in average interest rates would not materially impact net interest and other financing expense for the first nine months of 2013. This was determined by considering the impact of a hypothetical interest rate on the company's average floating rate on investments and outstanding debt. This analysis does not consider the effect of the level of overall economic activity that could exist. In the event of a change in the level of economic activity, which may adversely impact interest rates, the company could likely take actions to further mitigate any potential negative exposure to the change. However, due to the uncertainty of the specific actions that might be taken and their possible effects, the sensitivity analysis assumes no changes in the company's financial structure.

In September 2011, the company entered into a ten-year forward-starting interest rate swap (the "2011 swap") which locked in a treasury rate of 2.63% on an aggregate notional amount of $175.0 million. This swap managed the risk associated with changes in treasury rates and the impact of future interest payments. The 2011 swap related to the interest payments for anticipated debt issuances to replace the company's 6.875% senior notes due to mature in July 2013. The 2011 swap was classified as a cash flow hedge and had a negative fair value of $10.8 million at December 31, 2012. In February 2013, the company paid $7.7 million to terminate the 2011 swap upon issuance of the ten-year notes due in 2023. The fair value of the 2011 swap is recorded in the shareholders' equity section in the company's consolidated balance sheets in "Other" and will be reclassified into income over the ten-year term of the notes due in 2023. During the third quarter and first nine months of 2013, the company reclassified $(.2) million and $(.1) million, respectively, into income relating to the 2011 swap.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The company's management, under the supervision and with the participation of the company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the company's disclosure controls and procedures as of September 28, 2013 (the "Evaluation"). Based upon the Evaluation, the company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) are effective.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There was no change in the company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the company's most recent fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the company's internal control over financial reporting.
