Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

Effective February 24, 2016, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Primerica, Inc. (the “Company”) amended Section 1 of Article III of the Company’s Amended and Restated By-laws (the “By-laws”) to adopt a form of majority voting for directors.

The amendment to the Bylaws provides that each director shall be elected by the vote of the majority of the votes cast with respect to that director’s election at any meeting for the election of directors at which a quorum is present; provided, however, that directors in contested elections shall be elected by a plurality vote. For purposes of the amendment, a majority of the votes cast means that the number of shares voted “for” a nominee’s election must exceed the votes cast “against” such nominee’s election.

If a director nominee is not elected and the nominee is an incumbent director, then the director shall promptly tender his or her resignation to the Board. The Corporate Governance Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) will make a recommendation to the Board as to whether to accept or reject the tendered resignation, or whether other action should be taken. The Board will act on the tendered resignation, taking into account the Committee’s recommendation and all other relevant factors, and publicly disclose its decision regarding the tendered resignation and the rationale behind the decision within 90 days from the date of the certification of the election results.

If a director’s resignation is accepted by the Board, or if a director nominee is not elected and the nominee is not an incumbent director, then the Board may fill the resulting vacancy in accordance with the By-Laws or may decrease the size of the Board in accordance with the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation. If a director’s resignation is not accepted by the Board, then such director will continue to serve until such director’s successor shall have been duly elected and qualified or his or her earlier resignation or removal.

Prior to the amendment, the By-laws provided that directors were elected by a plurality vote in both contested and uncontested elections.
