Item 1.01 Entry Into Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment to Credit Agreement

On December 15, 2016, Tesla Motors, Inc. (the “Company”) and its subsidiary Tesla Motors Netherlands B.V. (“Tesla B.V.” and together with the Company, collectively, the “Borrowers”), entered into the Fifth Amendment (the “Credit Agreement Amendment”) to the ABL Credit Agreement, dated as of June 10, 2015 (as amended, modified or supplemented, the “Credit Agreement”), among the Borrowers, the lenders party thereto, and Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, as administrative agent and collateral agent, and the other agents party thereto. The Credit Agreement Amendment increased the revolving commitments under the Credit Agreement by $200.0 million, thereby increasing the total revolving commitments from $1.0 billion to $1.2 billion, and amended the Credit Agreement to permit the Borrowers to obtain up to $50.0 million of additional commitments pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement.

Amendment to Warehouse Agreement; Assumption Agreement

On December 15, 2016, Tesla Finance LLC (“TFL”) and Tesla 2014 Warehouse SPV LLC (the “Borrower”), each a wholly-owned direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company, entered into Amendment No. 2 (the “Warehouse Agreement Amendment”) to the Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of August 31, 2016 (as amended, modified or supplemented, the “Warehouse Agreement”), among TFL, the Borrower, the lenders and group agents party thereto, and Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch, as administrative agent (the “Warehouse Administrative Agent”). Among other things, the Warehouse Agreement Amendment increased the maximum facility limit under the Warehouse Agreement by $300.0 million, thereby increasing the total facility limit from $300.0 million to $600.0 million, and modified certain terms to facilitate the joinder of certain types of additional lenders, including those in the Citi Lending Group (as defined below).

In connection with the Warehouse Agreement Amendment, the Borrower entered into an Assumption Agreement (the “Assumption Agreement”) with Citibank, N.A., as group agent and certain lenders administered by it (together, the “Citi Lending Group”), and the Warehouse Administrative Agent, pursuant to which, among other things, the Citi Lending Group agreed to a commitment of $300.0 million under the Warehouse Agreement and the lender affiliated with the Administrative Agent transferred one-half of the existing borrowings under the Warehouse Agreement to the Citi Lending Group. As previously disclosed in the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 7, 2016, amounts drawn under the Warehouse Agreement bear interest at a rate based on LIBOR plus a fixed margin, or in certain situations based on a rate that is calculated by reference to the prime rate, LIBOR and the federal funds rate, except that amounts borrowed from certain lenders in the Citi Lending Group that issue short-term commercial paper notes to maintain their loans bear interest at a rate based on the rates at which such notes are issued. Together with existing commitments, as of December 15, 2016, the Company had commitments for the full $600.0 million available under the Warehouse Agreement.

The foregoing descriptions of the Credit Agreement Amendment, Warehouse Agreement Amendment and Assumption Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 hereto, respectively, which are incorporated into this Item 1.01 by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information set forth in Item 1.01 above is incorporated herein by reference.
