PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

MERGER PROPOSED — YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

These materials are a proxy statement of Palmetto Bancshares, Inc. (“Palmetto”) and a prospectus of United Community Banks, Inc. (“United”). They are furnished to you in connection with the notice of special meeting of Palmetto shareholders to be held on August 12, 2015. At the special meeting of Palmetto shareholders, you will be asked to vote on the merger of Palmetto with and into United described in more detail herein and to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, the compensation that certain executive officers of Palmetto will receive in connection with the merger pursuant to existing agreements or arrangements with Palmetto.

As of July 8, 2015, the record date for the Palmetto shareholders meeting, there were 12,813,442 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at that meeting. Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock. Approval of the merger-related compensation proposal requires that the number of votes cast at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against the proposal. You will also be asked to vote on a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies to approve the merger agreement, which proposal will be approved if the number of votes cast at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against the proposal.

Subject to the election and adjustment procedures described in this document, in connection with the merger if approved and consummated, holders of Palmetto common stock will be entitled to receive, in exchange for each share of Palmetto common stock, consideration equal to either (i) 0.97 shares of United common stock, or (ii) $19.25 in cash, without interest; provided, that the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock. The completion of the merger is subject to a price floor which, if reached prior to the completion of the merger, could result in more United shares being issued or the merger being terminated. As of July 9, 2015, the most recently practicable date prior to the mailing of these materials, the aggregate merger consideration is approximately $257.5 million.

As a result, a maximum of 8,868,775 shares of United common stock will be issued to Palmetto shareholders if the merger is approved and consummated and there is no adjustment to the stock consideration paid by United. This document is a United prospectus with respect to the offering and issuance of such 8,868,775 shares of United common stock.

United’s common stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the ticker symbol “UCBI”. The closing price of United common stock on July 9, 2015 was $20.68 per share.

The accompanying materials contain information regarding the proposed merger and the companies participating in the merger, and the Agreement and Plan of Merger pursuant to which the merger will be consummated if approved. We encourage you to read the entire document carefully, including “Risk Factors” section beginning on page 17, for a discussion of the risks related to the proposed merger.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of these materials. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense. Shares of common stock of United are not savings accounts, deposits or other obligations of any bank and are not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other governmental agency.

The date of these materials is July 10, 2015, and they are expected to be first mailed to shareholders on or about July 13, 2015.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q:

What am I being asked to approve?

A:

You are being asked to (1) approve the merger agreement between Palmetto and United, pursuant to which Palmetto will be merged with and into United, (2) approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, the compensation that certain executive officers of Palmetto will receive in connection with the merger pursuant to existing agreements or arrangements with Palmetto, and (3) approve a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies to approve the merger agreement. Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock. Approval of the merger-related compensation proposal requires that the number of votes cast at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against the proposal. Approval of the adjournment proposal requires that the number of votes cast at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against the proposal. The Palmetto Board of Directors has unanimously approved and adopted the merger and recommends voting “FOR” approval of this merger agreement, “FOR” approval of the merger-related compensation proposal, and “FOR” approval of the adjournment proposal.

Q:

When is the merger expected to be completed?

A:

We plan to complete the merger during the third quarter of 2015.

Q:

What will I receive in the merger?

A:

Unless adjusted pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, you will receive either 0.97 shares of United common stock, or $19.25 in cash, without interest, for each share of Palmetto common stock; provided, that the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock. United will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Instead, you will receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of United common stock multiplied by the average of the closing sale prices of United common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market during the 20 consecutive full trading days ending at the closing of trading on the trading day immediately prior to the later of (i) the effective date of the last required consent of any regulatory authority having authority over and approving or exempting the merger and (ii) the date of the receipt of the approval of the Palmetto shareholders to the merger.

To review what you will receive in the merger in greater detail, see “Proposal No. 1 — The Merger — The Merger Consideration” beginning on page 48.

Q:

What should I do now?

A:

After you have carefully read this document, vote by proxy over the internet, by telephone or through the mail. If you hold shares of Palmetto common stock in more than one account, you must vote all shares over the internet, by telephone or through the mail. If you vote over the internet or by telephone, you do not need to return any documents through the mail.

If you vote using one of the methods described below, you will be designating Samuel L. Erwin and Lee S. Dixon as your proxies to vote your shares as you instruct. If you vote over the internet or by telephone or by signing and returning your proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, these individuals will vote your shares by following the recommendations of the Palmetto Board of Directors. If any other business properly comes before the special meeting, these individuals will vote on those matters in a manner they consider appropriate.

Registered Holder: You do not have to attend the special meeting to vote. The Palmetto Board of Directors is soliciting proxies so that you can vote before the special meeting. Even if you currently plan to attend the special meeting, we recommend that you vote by proxy before the special meeting so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend. However, if you attend the special meeting and vote your shares by ballot, your vote at the special meeting will revoke any vote you submitted previously by proxy. If you are the record holder of your shares, there are three ways you can vote by proxy:

- By Internet: You may vote over the internet by going to www.proxyvote.com and following the instructions when prompted;

- By Telephone: You may vote by telephone by calling toll free 1-800-690-6903; or

- By Mail: You may vote by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card.

Street Holder: If your shares are held in street name, you may vote your shares before the special meeting by mail, by completing, signing, and returning the voting instruction form you received from your brokerage firm, bank or other similar entity. You should check your voting instruction form to see if any alternative method, such as internet or telephone voting, is available to you.

Q:
How can I elect stock, cash or both?

A:
You may indicate a preference to receive United common stock, cash or a combination of both in the merger by completing the stock/cash election form and letter of transmittal that you will receive under separate cover; provided, that the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock. Accordingly, if the aggregate cash elections are greater than the cash election maximum, each cash election will be reduced pro rata based on the amount that the aggregate cash elections exceed the cash election maximum. Alternatively, if the aggregate stock elections are greater than the stock election maximum, each stock election will be reduced pro rata based on the amount that the aggregate stock elections exceed the stock election maximum. If the stock/cash election form and letter of transmittal is not received by the exchange agent by August 12, 2015, you will be treated as though you elected to receive all cash unless cash has been fully subscribed by the electing Palmetto shareholders, in which event you will be treated as if you elected all stock. Palmetto's Board of Directors makes no recommendation as to whether you should choose United common stock or cash or a combination of both for your shares of Palmetto common stock. You should consult with your own financial advisor on that decision.

Q:
What information should I consider?

A:
We encourage you to read carefully this entire document and the documents incorporated by reference herein. Among other disclosures, you should review the factors considered by each company's Board of Directors discussed in "Proposal No. 1 — The Merger — Background of the Merger" beginning on page 20 and "Proposal No. 1 — The Merger — Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Palmetto Board of Directors" beginning on page 29.

Q:
What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

A:

We expect that the exchange of shares of Palmetto common stock for United common stock by Palmetto shareholders generally will be tax-free to you for federal income tax purposes. However, you will have to pay taxes at either capital gains or ordinary income rates, depending upon individual circumstances, on cash received in exchange for your shares of Palmetto common stock and in lieu of fractional shares of United common stock. To review the tax consequences to Palmetto shareholders in greater detail, see "Proposal No. 1 — The Merger — Material Federal Income Tax Consequences and Opinion of Tax Counsel" beginning on page 67. Your tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax adviser for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q:

Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A:

Yes. You should complete the letter of transmittal included with the stock/cash election form that you will receive under separate cover to exchange your Palmetto stock certificates for the merger consideration. Please send the stock/cash election form and letter of transmittal and your stock certificates to Continental Stock Transfer and Trust Company, the exchange agent, in the envelope that was provided.

Q:

Who should I call with questions?

A:

You should call Roy D. Jones, Chief Financial Officer, Palmetto Bancshares, Inc., at (800) 725-2265.

- The Merger Agreement (see page 51)

If Palmetto shareholders approve the merger agreement, subject to receipt of the required regulatory approvals and satisfaction of the other closing conditions, Palmetto will be merged with and into United. Unless adjusted pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Palmetto shareholders may elect to receive shares of United common stock or cash in exchange for each of their shares of Palmetto common stock in the merger on the following basis:

- 0.97 shares of United common stock for each share of Palmetto common stock; or

- $19.25 in cash, without interest, for each share of Palmetto common stock;

provided, that the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock. You may elect any combination of stock or cash for all of your Palmetto shares. If the aggregate cash elections are greater than the maximum, all such cash elections will be subject to proration, and, if the aggregate stock elections are greater than the maximum, all such stock elections will be subject to proration.

You will also receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of United common stock multiplied by the average of the closing sale prices of United common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market during the 20 consecutive full trading days ending at the closing of trading on the trading day immediately prior to the later of (i) the effective date of the last required consent of any regulatory authority having authority over and approving or exempting the merger and (ii) the date of the receipt of the approval of the Palmetto shareholders to the merger.

Following the merger, Palmetto’s subsidiary, Palmetto Bank, will be merged with and into the Bank, United’s wholly-owned Georgia bank subsidiary, and the Bank will be the surviving bank.

Palmetto’s Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Palmetto Board of Directors (see page 29)

The Board of Directors of Palmetto supports the merger and believes that it is in the best interests of Palmetto and its shareholders. The Board of Directors of Palmetto believes that the merger will allow Palmetto to better serve its customers and markets and that the merger will permit Palmetto shareholders to have an equity interest in a resulting financial institution with greater financial resources, more significant economies of scale, and a larger shareholder base, which will increase the liquidity of the Palmetto shareholders’ common stock. The Board of Directors believes that the terms of the merger are fair to and in the best interest of Palmetto and its shareholders.

4

Accounting Treatment (see page 67)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase of a business for financial reporting and accounting purposes under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

Conditions, Termination, and Effective Date (see pages 49, 51, 53 and 67)

The merger will not occur unless certain conditions are met, and United or Palmetto can terminate the merger agreement if specified events occur or fail to occur. Following the merger, Palmetto's subsidiary, The Palmetto Bank, will be merged into United's Georgia bank subsidiary, the Bank.

The merger and the bank merger have been approved by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions. As a result, we have received all required regulatory approvals other than the approval of the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia.

The closing of the merger will not occur until after the merger is approved by the Palmetto shareholders, the other conditions to closing have been satisfied and the certificate of merger is filed as required under Georgia law and South Carolina law.

Litigation Related to the Merger (see page 70)

A putative shareholder class action lawsuit, referred to as the merger litigation, was filed in connection with the merger agreement. Underwood v. Erwin et al., Case No. 2015-CP-23-03206, was filed on May 19, 2015 and amended on June 26, 2015, in the Court of Common Pleas of the State of South Carolina. This action generally alleged, among other things, that the members of the Palmetto Board of Directors breached their fiduciary duties to Palmetto shareholders by failing to maximize shareholder value and by failing to disclose certain information with respect to the proposed merger between Palmetto and United. The complaint also alleged claims against United for aiding and abetting these alleged breaches of fiduciary duties. The plaintiff sought injunctive relief prohibiting consummation of the merger and, in the event the merger is consummated, sought rescission and restitution, an accounting, and attorneys' fees and costs. The plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the complaint without prejudice on July 6, 2015. At this stage, it is not possible to predict whether any additional lawsuits will be filed and, if one is, the outcome of any such proceeding or its impact on United, Palmetto or the merger.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 67)

Palmetto's shareholders generally will not recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes on the receipt of shares of United common stock in the merger in exchange for the shares of Palmetto common stock surrendered. Palmetto shareholders will be taxed, however, on any cash consideration they receive and any cash they receive instead of any fractional shares of United common stock. United shareholders will have no direct tax consequences as a result of the merger. Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger may vary among Palmetto shareholders. We urge each Palmetto shareholder to contact his or her own tax advisor to fully understand the tax implications of the merger.

Opinion of Palmetto's Financial Advisor (see page 32)

Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P. ("Sandler O'Neill") has rendered an opinion to Palmetto that based on and subject to the procedures, matters, and limitations described in its opinion and other matters it considered relevant, as of the date of its opinion, the merger consideration is fair from a financial point of view to the shareholders of Palmetto. A summary of Sandler O'Neill's opinion begins on page 32 and the full opinion is attached as Appendix B to these materials.

Differences in Legal Rights between Shareholders of Palmetto and United (see page 63)

Following the merger you will no longer be a Palmetto shareholder and, if you receive shares of United common stock following the merger, your rights as a shareholder will no longer be governed by Palmetto's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the South Carolina Business Corporation Act. You will be a United shareholder, and your rights as a United shareholder will be governed by United's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the Georgia Business Corporation Code. - The bylaws of Palmetto set forth different requirements for calling special meetings of shareholders than do the bylaws of United.
- The bylaws of Palmetto set forth different advance notice requirements for shareholders proposals than do the bylaws of United.
- The bylaws of United provide that the number of directors may range between eight to fourteen directors while the bylaws of Palmetto do not limit the ability of its Board of Directors to set the number of directors.
- The articles of incorporation of Palmetto require for a staggered Board of Directors so that approximately one-third of the Board of Directors of Palmetto is elected each year at the annual meeting of shareholders, while the members of the Board of Directors of United are elected annually to serve one-year terms.
- The bylaws of Palmetto set forth different requirements for removal of directors than do the bylaws of United.
- The articles of incorporation of Palmetto require supermajority shareholder approval of certain business transactions while the articles of incorporation and bylaws of United do not provide any supermajority requirement.
- The bylaws of Palmetto permit only unanimous shareholder action taken by written consent while the bylaws of United require only the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize such action for shareholder action by written consent.
- The bylaws of Palmetto provide that the exclusive forum for certain legal proceedings is South Carolina while the bylaws of United provide that the exclusive forum for certain legal proceedings is Georgia.
- The articles of incorporation of Palmetto generally may be amended upon approval by two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment, while the articles of incorporation of United may be amended upon approval by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment.

Interests of Directors and Officers of Palmetto and Palmetto Bank in the Merger (see page 59)

The directors and officers of Palmetto have interests in the merger in addition to their interests as shareholders generally, including the following:

Each Palmetto stock option outstanding under the Palmetto 2011 Stock Incentive Plan, whether or not exercisable, will become vested and exercisable and converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Palmetto common stock underlying such Palmetto stock option by (ii) the weighted average merger consideration per Palmetto share (as calculated under the merger agreement) less the exercise price per share under such stock option, subject to any income or employment tax withholding required under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Each outstanding share of Palmetto restricted stock will vest at the merger effective time and be converted into the merger consideration.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- At the closing of the merger, Samuel L. Erwin, Chief Executive Officer of Palmetto, and Lee S. Dixon, Chief Operating and Chief Risk Officer of Palmetto, will continue employment with the Bank.

- Employment agreements between Palmetto and each of Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon provide for change in control compensation upon the completion of the merger.

- United will indemnify and provide liability insurance to the present directors and officers of Palmetto and Palmetto Bank for a period of six years following the closing of the merger with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to merger.

No Dissenters' Rights in the Merger (see page 67)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

As referenced above, all of the directors and 10% or greater shareholders of Palmetto have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement; provided that such voting support agreements terminate in the event that the Palmetto Board of Directors withdraws its recommendation in favor of the merger or approves or recommends an acquisition proposal from another party. As of the record date, Palmetto's directors and 10% or greater shareholders owned 8,406,885 shares, or 65.6%, of outstanding Palmetto common stock (excluding shares underlying options). The approval, on a non-binding advisory basis, of the proposal regarding compensation that certain executive officers of Palmetto will receive under existing agreements or arrangements with Palmetto in connection with the merger requires that the number of votes cast at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against the proposal. The Palmetto Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Palmetto shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the compensation payable under existing agreements that certain of its officers will receive from Palmetto in connection with the merger.

Approval of the merger agreement and approval of the compensation payable under existing agreements that certain Palmetto officers will receive in connection with the merger are subject to separate votes of the Palmetto shareholders, and approval of the compensation is not a condition to completion of the merger.

The approval of the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies to approve the merger agreement requires that the number of votes cast at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against the proposal. The Palmetto Board of Directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" this proposal.

SUMMARY CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION OF UNITED

We are providing the following information to help you analyze the financial aspects of the merger. The following tables set forth summary historical operations and financial condition data and summary performance, asset quality and other information of United at and for the periods indicated. You should read this data in conjunction with United's Consolidated Financial Statements and notes thereto incorporated herein by reference from United's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and United's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015. Financial amounts as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 are unaudited and are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for the full year or any other interim period, and management of United believes that such amounts reflect all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair presentation of its results of operations and financial position as of the dates and for the periods indicated. You should not assume the results of operations for past years and for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 indicate results for any future period. United's "net operating income" is determined by methods other than in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). Please see the following "GAAP Reconciliation and Explanation" below for a reconciliation of the difference between United's non-GAAP net operating income and its GAAP net income.

GAAP Reconciliation and Explanation

This document and the documents incorporated by reference into this document include non-GAAP financial measures, which are performance measures determined by methods other than in accordance with GAAP. Such non-GAAP financial measures include, among others the following: taxable equivalent interest revenue, taxable equivalent net interest revenue, total operating revenue, operating expense, tangible book value per share, tangible common equity to assets and tangible common equity to risk-weighted assets. Management uses these non-GAAP financial measures because it believes they are useful for evaluating our operations and performance over periods of time, as well as in managing and evaluating our business and in discussions about our operations and performance.

Management believes these non-GAAP financial measures provide users of our financial information with a meaningful measure for assessing our financial results and credit trends, as well as comparison to financial results for prior periods. These non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered as a substitute for operating results determined in accordance with GAAP and may not be comparable to other similarly titled financial measures used by other companies.

The following table shows per common share data regarding basic and diluted earnings, cash dividends and book value for (i) United and Palmetto on a historical basis, (ii) United and Palmetto on a pro forma combined basis, and (iii) Palmetto on a pro forma equivalent basis. The pro forma information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with United's and Palmetto's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014 and quarter ended March 31, 2015 incorporated herein by reference. This information is presented for illustrative purposes only. You should not rely on the pro forma combined or pro forma equivalent amounts as they are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger had been completed as of the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined company. The pro forma information, although helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits of expected cost savings, opportunities to earn additional revenue, the impact of restructuring and merger-related costs, or other factors that may result as a consequence of the merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information, including risk factors, incorporated by reference herein from United's and Palmetto's Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, you should carefully read and consider the following factors in evaluating the merger and in deciding whether to elect to receive cash, shares of United common stock or some combination thereof in the merger.

Because the market price of United common stock will fluctuate, Palmetto shareholders electing to receive stock cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration they will receive.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Palmetto common stock will be converted into the merger consideration consisting of shares of United common stock or cash. The market value of the merger consideration received by Palmetto shareholders who receive all or part of the merger consideration in the form of United shares will vary with the price of United's common stock. United's stock price changes daily as a result of a variety of other factors in addition to the business and relative prospects of United, including general market and economic conditions, industry trends, and the regulatory environment. These factors are beyond United's control.

Palmetto shareholders may receive a form of consideration different from what they elect.

Although each Palmetto shareholder may elect to receive all cash or all stock, the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock. Accordingly, if the aggregate cash elections are greater than the maximum, each cash election will be reduced pro rata based on the amount that the aggregate cash elections exceed the cash election maximum.

Alternatively, if the aggregate stock elections are greater than the maximum, each stock election will be reduced pro rata based on the amount that the aggregate stock elections exceed the stock election maximum.

For example, if you elect to receive cash for 1,000 shares of Palmetto common stock and the aggregate cash elections exceed by 10% the cash election maximum (which cash election maximum figure would be 3,844,372 assuming that there are 5,491,960 shares of Palmetto common stock outstanding at the time of the merger), the shares for which you will be paid cash will be reduced to the number determined by dividing your cash election shares by the aggregate cash election shares and multiplying that quotient by the 3,844,372 cash election maximum. This proration will result in you receiving cash for 909 of your Palmetto shares and being treated as if you had elected to receive United common stock for your remaining 91 shares.

At the time you vote with respect to the merger agreement, you will not know how much cash or the number of United shares you will receive as a result of the merger.

Palmetto's officers and directors have interests in the merger in addition to or different from the interests that they share with you as a Palmetto shareholder.

The Board of Directors approved the merger agreement and is recommending that Palmetto shareholders vote for the merger agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in these materials, you should be aware that certain of Palmetto's executive officers and directors have economic interests in the merger that are different from or in addition to the interests that they share with you as a Palmetto shareholder. These interests include, upon the completion of the merger, the payment of certain amounts to Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon under existing employment agreements, the cash-out of vested and unvested Palmetto stock options granted under the Palmetto 2011 Stock Incentive Plan, and the acceleration of vesting of outstanding Palmetto restricted common stock, as well as the employment of two Palmetto executive officers by United following completion of the merger. See "Proposal No. 1 — The Merger — Interests of the Directors and Officers of Palmetto in the Merger" on page 59. United may be unable to successfully integrate The Palmetto Bank's operations and retain its key employees.

The merger involves the integration of two companies that previously operated independently. The difficulties of combining the companies' operations include integrating personnel, departments, systems, operating procedures and information technologies and retaining key employees. Failures in integrating operations or the loss of key personnel could have a material adverse effect on the business and results of operations of the combined company.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or cannot be met.

Before the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and the bank merger, may be completed, various approvals must be obtained from bank regulatory authorities. These governmental entities may impose conditions on the granting of such approvals. Such conditions or changes and the process of obtaining regulatory approvals could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or of imposing additional costs or limitations on United following the merger. The regulatory approvals may not be received at all, may not be received in a timely fashion, and may contain conditions on the completion of the merger that are not anticipated or cannot be met. If the consummation of the merger is delayed, including by a delay in receipt of necessary governmental approvals, the business, financial condition and results of operations of each company may also be materially adversely affected.

If the merger is not completed, United common stock and Palmetto common stock could be materially adversely affected.

The merger is subject to customary conditions to closing, including the approval of the Palmetto shareholders. In addition, United and Palmetto may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances. If United and Palmetto do not complete the merger, the market price of United common stock or Palmetto common stock may fluctuate to the extent that the current market prices of those shares reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. Further, whether or not the merger is completed, United and Palmetto will also be obligated to pay certain investment banking, legal and accounting fees and related expenses in connection with the merger, which could negatively impact results of operations when incurred. In addition, neither company would realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the merger. If the merger is not completed, United and Palmetto cannot assure their respective shareholders that additional risks will not materialize or not materially adversely affect the business, results of operations and stock prices of United and Palmetto.

The termination fee contained in the merger agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Palmetto.

Palmetto has agreed to pay a termination fee of $7.5 million to United if, under certain circumstances, the merger agreement is terminated and, at the time of termination, a competing offer is outstanding or such offer has been accepted by Palmetto. This fee could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Palmetto.

Palmetto shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Palmetto shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Palmetto Board of Directors and on other matters affecting Palmetto. Upon the completion of the merger, each Palmetto shareholder receiving shares of United common stock in accordance with the merger agreement will be a shareholder of United with a percentage ownership of United that is smaller than such shareholder's current percentage ownership of Palmetto. It is currently expected that the former shareholders of Palmetto as a group will receive shares in the merger constituting approximately 14.0% of the outstanding shares of United's common stock immediately after the merger. Because of this, Palmetto shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of United than they now have on the management and policies of Palmetto.

In connection with the announcement of the merger agreement, a lawsuit is pending, seeking, among other things, to enjoin the merger, and an adverse judgment in this lawsuit may prevent the merger from becoming effective within the expected time frame (if at all).

A putative shareholder class action lawsuit, referred to as the merger litigation, was filed in connection with the merger agreement. Underwood v. Erwin et al., Case No. 2015-CP-23-03206, was filed on May 19, 2015, and amended on June 26, 2015, in the Court of Common Pleas of the State of South Carolina. This action generally alleged, among other things, that the members of the Palmetto Board of Directors breached their fiduciary duties to Palmetto shareholders by failing to maximize shareholder value and by failing to disclose certain information with respect to the proposed merger between Palmetto and United. The complaint also alleged claims against United for aiding and abetting these alleged breaches of fiduciary duties. The plaintiff sought injunctive relief prohibiting consummation of the merger, and, in the event the merger is consummated, sought rescission and restitution, an accounting and attorneys' fees and costs. The plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the complaint without prejudice on July 6, 2015. At this stage, it is not possible to predict whether any additional lawsuits will be filed and, if one is, the outcome of any such proceeding or its impact on United, Palmetto or the merger. If a plaintiff is successful in enjoining the consummation of the merger, a lawsuit may prevent the merger from becoming effective within the expected time frame (if at all). Furthermore, the defense or settlement of a lawsuit may adversely affect United's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows following the completion of the merger.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 — THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

As part of its ongoing consideration and evaluation of its long-term prospects and strategies, since the recapitalization of Palmetto in 2010 Palmetto's Board of Directors and senior management have regularly reviewed and assessed its business strategies and objectives, all with the goal of enhancing long term value for its shareholders. The Board of Directors' reviews and assessments have included discussions regarding strategic alternatives, including capital planning (such as share repurchases and dividends), earnings improvement (such as revenue increases and expense reductions), and growth strategies (such as organic growth and mergers and acquisitions). The Board of Directors has conducted periodic strategic planning meetings that have included the use of outside advisors who have provided reviews of factors influencing the banking industry generally and Palmetto in particular (including the economic, interest rate and regulatory environment); the competitive landscape of community banking participants in South Carolina, the Southeast region and nationally; public trading prices of bank stocks; and bank merger and acquisition activity and valuations. These strategic planning meetings have included discussions regarding potential business considerations, economies of scale, increased client service, and shareholder value benefits that might be achieved if Palmetto were to become a larger institution through acquisitions or a merger with a larger financial institution. Palmetto directors and executive officers have also been contacted from time to time by various investment bankers and financial institutions, including United, who expressed a general interest in exploring strategic alternatives in the event that Palmetto were to seek a merger partner. These contacts occurred through impromptu meetings at investor conferences and banking industry conferences, social settings at those conferences, and other informal meetings and telephone calls.

As part of its ongoing consideration and evaluation of its long-term prospects and strategies, and in view of the ongoing contacts as described above, the Palmetto Board of Directors met on August 12, 2014. The investment banking firm Sandler O'Neill and Palmetto's outside legal counsel, Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough, LLP ("Nelson Mullins") attended the meeting. At this meeting, Palmetto director John P. Sullivan advised the Palmetto Board of Directors that he had recently been contacted by an investment banker who stated that United had an interest in exploring a business combination with Palmetto. The discussion was general in nature and did not include any specific proposal. Mr. Erwin, who is also Palmetto's Chairman of the Board of Directors, advised the Board of Directors that, in response to a request from Jimmy C. Tallent, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of United, Mr. Erwin had met with Mr. Tallent and the Chief Operating Officer of United, Lynn Harton (who was subsequently also named the President of United), on that same day prior to the Palmetto Board of Directors meeting, and that Mr. Harton and Mr. Tallent had similarly expressed United's general interest in exploring a business combination with Palmetto, without making any specific proposal with respect to pricing, timing or other potential transaction terms.

At the August 12, 2014 meeting of the Palmetto Board of Directors, Nelson Mullins discussed the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors in general and in particular in connection with merger and acquisition transactions. Sandler O'Neill presented to the Palmetto Board of Directors information regarding the banking industry, Palmetto and bank merger and acquisition activity. The Palmetto Board of Directors discussed Palmetto's potential acquisition of other financial institutions or merger into a larger institution, as well as Palmetto's capital planning, including organic growth, share repurchases and dividends. After discussions, the Board of Directors determined that it would continue to consider various potential strategies to increase the value of Palmetto, including mergers and acquisitions and capital planning strategies.

On August 19, 2014, Mr. Tallent called Mr. Sullivan to further express United's interest in exploring a potential merger with Palmetto. Mr. Tallent indicated that United had prepared pro-forma financial statements, for discussion purposes only, based on hypothetical merger consideration to Palmetto shareholders equal to 1.7 times Palmetto's tangible book value, with 70% of the Palmetto shares converting into United shares and 30% converting into cash. Mr. Tallent stated that United was not making an offer or proposal, but rather his call was intended to determine whether Palmetto would be interested in exploring a potential merger. Mr. Sullivan advised Mr. Tallent that he would inform the appropriate Palmetto directors of the discussion and that Palmetto would respond to Mr. Tallent.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The Palmetto Board of Directors has had in place since 2010 a Corporate Opportunities Committee which was created to enable the Board of Directors to give preliminary consideration to corporate opportunities in an efficient and timely manner. The Palmetto directors serving on the Corporate Opportunities Committee are Mr. Dixon, Mr. Erwin, Michael D. Glenn, Robert B. Goldstein and James J. Lynch. On August 19, 2014, the Corporate Opportunities Committee, along with Mr. Sullivan, held a meeting to discuss the August 19, 2014 call from Mr. Tallent. The Corporate Opportunities Committee discussed a potential merger with United based on the hypothetical merger financial terms referenced by United. The Corporate Opportunities Committee discussed the information provided by Sandler O’Neill on August 12, 2014, and other potential Palmetto initiatives under consideration, including various capital planning strategies. At the direction of the Corporate Opportunities Committee, Mr. Erwin called Mr. Tallent and advised that Palmetto did not currently desire to pursue a merger at the hypothetical valuation referenced by United, but that Palmetto was open to further dialogue in the future regarding a potential merger.

On September 18, 2014, the Palmetto Board of Directors held a board meeting. Sandler O’Neill attended the meeting and informed the Board of Directors that another financial institution had orally expressed to Sandler O’Neill a general interest in potentially merging with Palmetto, without making any specific proposal. Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Goldstein advised the Board of Directors that they had received recent calls from several financial institutions and an investment banker that expressed an interest in potentially merging with Palmetto. Mr. Erwin advised the Board of Directors that he had recently met with an investment banker, at the investment banker’s request, to discuss Palmetto’s strategic outlook generally, and that the investment banker had suggested that United would be interested in a potential merger. This discussion was general in nature and did not include any specific proposal.

On October 16, 2014, the Palmetto Board of Directors held a board meeting. Sandler O’Neill attended the meeting and reviewed the business environment facing financial institutions generally and Palmetto specifically, and conveyed Sandler O’Neill’s outlook that interest rates were reasonably likely to remain low during the next twenty four months, resulting in continued net interest margin pressure and resulting incentives for banks to consolidate in order to achieve economies of scale and growth. Sandler O’Neill discussed recent bank merger activity. Sandler O’Neill also advised the Board of Directors of a recent general conversation with another financial institution regarding their interest in a potential merger with Palmetto. This conversation was general in nature and no specific proposal was made. Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Goldstein advised the Board of Directors that they had received recent calls from or on behalf of several financial institutions, including United and a financial institution that we refer to as “Institution A,” expressing general interest in exploring a merger in the event that Palmetto were to consider a merger. These discussions were general in nature and did not include any specific proposals.

During its October 16, 2014 meeting, the Palmetto Board of Directors discussed various factors affecting financial institutions generally and Palmetto in particular, including:

- net interest margin pressures in a low interest rate environment;
- bank regulatory pressures and increasing compliance and other costs;
- potential slow economic growth; and
- the high level of competition from larger institutions and community banks in Palmetto’s market.

The Board of Directors discussed the impacts that these and other factors could have on Palmetto’s ability to achieve balance sheet and earnings growth and the risks to Palmetto’s results of operations and valuation associated with remaining independent. The Board of Directors discussed recent increases in bank merger and acquisition activity levels and valuations and the current trading prices of some of Palmetto’s possible merger partners, which might enable such parties to execute a merger with Palmetto on reasonably attractive financial terms.

The Palmetto Board of Directors also discussed the fact that Sandler O'Neill was Palmetto's preferred investment banker should Palmetto seek to pursue a merger partner, given Sandler O'Neill's qualifications, expertise, reputation and experience in mergers and acquisitions involving community banks and its knowledge with respect to Palmetto. Following these discussions, the Board of Directors determined that

Palmetto should engage Sandler O’Neill to act as the Board of Directors financial advisor regarding the ongoing discussions related to a potential merger and delegated to the Corporate Opportunities Committee the authority to determine the terms of the engagement, including retainer and fees.

On October 24, 2014, the Corporate Opportunities Committee held a meeting and reviewed the terms of a draft engagement letter provided by Sandler O’Neill. On November 10, 2014, Sandler O’Neill was formally engaged to act as the Palmetto Board of Directors’ financial advisor in connection with consideration of a potential merger.

On November 24, 2014, the Corporate Opportunities Committee, along with Mr. Sullivan, held a meeting and discussed merger inquiries that had been received from various institutions, including United. Mr. Sullivan advised the Corporate Opportunities Committee that, in response to requests from Mr. Tallent and from another financial institution, at a financial institutions conference on November 13, 2014, Mr. Sullivan met separately with United and the other financial institution. These meetings and the other inquiries that had been received from various institutions involved general discussions regarding a potential merger but did not involve specific proposed transaction terms.

On December 18, 2014, the Palmetto Board of Directors met and discussed various inquiries from other financial institutions regarding a potential merger.

On January 6, 2015, the Corporate Opportunities Committee, along with Sandler O’Neill and Mr. Sullivan, held a meeting. Mr. Erwin reported that another financial institution had contacted him and requested a meeting that was scheduled for later in January. Sandler O’Neill discussed with the Corporate Opportunities Committee various financial institutions that Sandler O’Neill believed might be interested in a potential merger with Palmetto based on the following considerations: the respective institution’s likely interest in Palmetto’s market and balance sheet size, ability to execute a merger based on their current stock price, ability and willingness to offer an attractive price, current regulatory standing, current merger and acquisition activity and likely timing for a transaction.

During January 2015, Sandler O’Neill contacted 25 financial institutions, of which seven, including United, Institution A and an institution that we refer to as “Institution B,” ultimately signed non-disclosure agreements with Palmetto. In addition, Sandler O’Neill was contacted by three other financial institutions regarding potentially exploring a merger with Palmetto, but these institutions declined to sign a non-disclosure agreement or further explore a potential merger with Palmetto. Each of the seven parties that signed a non-disclosure agreement was provided with preliminary confidential due diligence materials and with access to meet with Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon for further due diligence discussions. Mr. Erwin and/or Mr. Dixon met with representatives of each of the seven parties that signed a non-disclosure agreement.

On January 12, 2015, Mr. Tallent called Mr. Erwin to reiterate United’s interest in exploring a potential merger with Palmetto. The discussion was general in nature and did not involve specific proposed transaction terms.

On January 15, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors held a meeting and reviewed the matters discussed in the January 6, 2015 Corporate Opportunities Committee meeting. Mr. Erwin reported on the January 12, 2015 call from Mr. Tallent and that meetings were scheduled with two other financial institutions for later in January regarding a potential merger.

Later on January 15, 2015, Mr. Erwin met with a financial institution, at such institution’s request, and discussed the possible strategic rationale and other factors that could affect the viability of a merger between Palmetto and the institution. Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon met again with this financial institution on February 18, 2015 to further discuss a potential merger. These discussions were all preliminary in nature and no specific merger proposal was received from this financial institution.

On January 23, 2015, Mergermarket.com published an article titled “Palmetto Bancshares Could Come to Market Soon, Bankers Say,” which stated that unnamed investment bankers had said that Palmetto could be sold in 2015. The article cited improvements in the Greenville, South Carolina economy, growing buyer interest and Palmetto’s attractive non-performing asset levels as factors that made Palmetto likely to sell. The article stated that many financial sponsors exited their bank investments during 2014, but that some remained invested in banks in Florida, Georgia and South Carolina. The article discussed certain financial institutions that were reportedly viewed as potential acquirers based on their size, geographic location and other factors. Palmetto declined to comment in response to the article.

On January 28, 2015, Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon met with a financial institution, at such institution's request, and discussed Palmetto's business and financial performance and potential expense impacts of a merger with Palmetto. On February 17, 2015, Sandler O'Neill met with this financial institution and discussed various financial and strategic matters related to a potential merger. The discussions with this institution were preliminary in nature, and no specific merger proposal was received from this institution. On February 20, 2015, this institution advised Mr. Erwin that it was not going to participate further in the merger exploration process.

On January 30, 2015, the Corporate Opportunities Committee, along with Mr. Sullivan, held a meeting. Mr. Erwin reported to the Corporate Opportunities Committee regarding recent meetings with potential merger partners. Mr. Erwin also advised the Corporate Opportunities Committee that six institutions had requested to enter into non-disclosure agreements to explore further a potential merger and that Sandler O'Neill was continuing discussions with certain other institutions that had expressed a general interest in considering a merger but had not requested to enter into a non-disclosure agreement.

On February 19, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors met with Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill reviewed its contacts with potential merger partners and the interest levels expressed by them in exploring a possible merger with Palmetto. On February 24, 2015, Sandler O'Neill, Mr. Erwin, Mr. Dixon and Institution A had a dinner meeting. Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon also met with Institution A on February 25, 2015. These meetings involved general company overviews and discussion of the potential strategic fit between Palmetto and Institution A.

On February 26, 2015, Mr. Erwin had a dinner meeting with Institution B, and Mr. Erwin had a follow-up meeting with Institution B on February 27, 2015. During these meetings, they discussed general company overviews and the potential strategic fit of Palmetto and Institution B.

On February 27, 2015, the Corporate Opportunities Committee, along with Palmetto directors John D. Hopkins, Jr., Jane S. Sosebee and Mr. Sullivan, held a meeting. The Corporate Opportunities Committee discussed communications with potential merger partners and certain aspects of various potential merger partners. The Corporate Opportunities Committee also discussed with Sandler O'Neill the anticipated timeline for completing management meetings with the institutions that had signed non-disclosure agreements, receiving and evaluating indications of interest, and potential transaction steps thereafter. It was agreed that Sandler O'Neill would request that any preliminary indications of interest be submitted prior to the March 19, 2015 Palmetto Board of Directors meeting.

On March 5, 2015, Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon had a dinner meeting with Mr. Tallent and Mr. Harton of United, in which they discussed general company overviews, strategic alternatives and the potential business fit of Palmetto and United.

On March 18, 2015, in response to Sandler O'Neill's request for preliminary expressions of interest in Palmetto, each of United, Institution A and Institution B submitted a preliminary, non-binding indication of interest with respect to a merger with Palmetto. United's indication of interest proposed merger consideration of $18.00 to $18.50 per share (calculated based on the average closing price of United common stock over the last 10 trading days ending March 17, 2015 of $19.00 per share), consisting of 25% cash and 75% United common stock, with a fixed exchange ratio. United's indication of interest stated that it was willing to consider alternative structures that might enable greater flexibility for Palmetto's shareholders to receive a desired mix of cash and stock. Institution A's indication of interest proposed aggregate merger consideration of $232.5 million (which represented an estimated implied value per Palmetto share of common stock of $17.92), consisting of 100% stock, and a variable exchange ratio, to be determined based on Institution A's stock price at or near the time of closing, with a collar within amounts based on amounts equal to 25% above or below the closing price of Institution A's stock on the day before signing a merger agreement. Institution A's indication of interest also included a dollar-for-dollar reduction in merger consideration if Palmetto's net worth declined below $129 million, an exclusivity requirement, a 30 day due diligence period prior to delivery of a refined proposal regarding the amount of merger consideration, and deferral of initial drafting of a merger agreement until the refined proposal regarding merger consideration had been agreed to. Institution B's indication of interest proposed merger consideration of $18.50 to $20.00 per share, based on Institution B's closing stock price as of March 16, 2015, in a 100% stock transaction with a fixed exchange ratio. Institution B's indication of interest stated that Institution B was willing to contemplate cash merger consideration of up to 30%.

On March 19, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors held a board meeting. Sandler O'Neill and Nelson Mullins attended the meeting. Nelson Mullins reviewed the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors in connection with merger and acquisition transactions and in the context of the strategic discussions taking place. Sandler O'Neill provided the Board of Directors with an update of the feedback from the potential merger partners contacted to date, including a review of all potential merger partners contacted, the number of potential merger partners who signed non-disclosure agreements, and the number of indications of interest received from potential merger partners. Sandler O'Neill also advised the Palmetto Board of Directors that Sandler O'Neill had provided investment banking services to United in the past but that Sandler O'Neill was not currently providing investment banking services to United in connection with the potential Palmetto merger or otherwise. In the past two years, Sandler O'Neill has performed certain investment banking services for United and received fees totaling approximately $0.4 million for such investment banking services and may provide, and receive compensation for, such services in the future.

Sandler O'Neill provided a comparison of the terms and the financial metrics with respect to the three indications of interest that had been received. Sandler O'Neill advised the Palmetto Board of Directors regarding selected precedent merger transactions. Sandler O'Neill discussed with the Board of Directors Palmetto's prospects as an independent institution. This discussion included a review of Palmetto management earnings projections as an independent financial institution for the years ending December 31, 2015 through 2019 based on execution of Palmetto's current business strategy and Sandler O'Neill's net present value sensitivity analysis of Palmetto's estimated valuation based on such earnings projections.

Sandler O'Neill also reviewed with the Palmetto Board of Directors, with respect to each of the three parties that submitted an indication of interest: the party's branch map, comparative loan and deposit composition, historical financial information, historical stock price performance, analyst estimates and recommendations, shareholder base, current peer trading multiples, management and board of directors, historical merger activity, market capitalization and stock trading volume and liquidity, potential merger financial impact, and transaction pricing or form of consideration mix sensitivity analysis.

The Palmetto Board of Directors discussed the opportunities and risks associated with each of the three indications of interest, including the potential value of the merger consideration and the likelihood that a merger would ultimately be consummated on the terms reflected in the indications of interest. The Palmetto Board of Directors discussed the opportunities and risks associated with Palmetto remaining an independent institution, particularly in light of the potential continuing low interest rate environment, market competition, regulatory considerations, and variable economic conditions. The Palmetto Board of Directors decided to continue its consideration of the indications of interest and to meet again on March 23, 2015.

On March 23, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors, along with Sandler O'Neill and Nelson Mullins, held a meeting. Sandler O'Neill provided additional analysis to the Board of Directors of various hypothetical scenarios involving different prices per share and forms of consideration (the split between cash and common stock) from each of the three financial institutions that had submitted indications of interest. Sandler O'Neill also discussed with the Board of Directors a comparison of selected factors and considerations with respect to each of the indications of interest, including stand-alone acquirer financial metrics and current market information; proposed merger financial terms; selected proposed non-financial terms (including the proposed termination fee, retention of Palmetto officers, board representation, severance for Palmetto employees, proposed timing of due diligence and signing of a definitive merger agreement, and Institution A's minimum net worth acquisition price adjustment and exclusivity requirement); potential market reactions and post-merger common stock liquidity; strategic fit and integration factors, including each merger partner's business model and strategy, primary operating market and senior management; and pro-forma financial information.

The Palmetto Board of Directors engaged in a discussion of the opportunities and risks associated with each of the three indications of interest. Among other things, the Board of Directors discussed

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Institution A's request for exclusivity, downward merger consideration adjustment mechanism based on Palmetto's net worth, and proposed thirty day period of due diligence followed by, depending on their satisfaction with diligence, submissions of a refined merger consideration proposal and, if agreement was reached on such refined proposal, definitive merger agreement negotiations. The Board of Directors discussed the risk of going forward with due diligence with only one potential merger partner and the possibility that, due to subsequent developments with respect to such institution's business, the institution's views regarding due diligence results, negotiating leverage or other factors, the institution could ultimately fail to agree to provide the merger consideration indicated in their non-binding indication of interest. The Palmetto Board of Directors directed Sandler O'Neill to request that Institution A remove its exclusivity requirement (or increase its offer price to a value that would merit exclusivity), exclude the impact of accumulated other comprehensive income from the net worth-based merger consideration downward adjustment feature, and to lower the net worth target for the net worth-based purchase price adjustment. The Palmetto Board of Directors directed Sandler O'Neill to communicate to United that it would need to be near the top end or above its indicated price range of $18.00 to $18.50 per share in order to be competitive and to discuss with them United's views regarding the likely response of United's stock price to a Palmetto merger. The Palmetto Board of Directors directed Sandler O'Neill to advise Institution B that it needed to be at the mid-point of its $18.50 to $20.00 per share range or higher in order to be competitive and to discuss with Institution B the views of Institution B with regard to the liquidity of its common stock and its common stock price performance following a merger with Palmetto.

Later on March 23, 2015 and on March 24, 2015, Sandler O'Neill contacted United, Institution A and Institution B and discussed their respective proposals.

On March 24, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors, along with Sandler O'Neill and Nelson Mullins, held a meeting. Sandler O'Neill reported to the Board of Directors that Institution A had provided a revised indication of interest earlier on March 24, 2015, in which Institution A increased its offer value to $239 million (which represented an estimated implied value per share of $18.50, that continued to consist of a 100% stock transaction with a floating exchange ratio and a collar), reduced to $126.5 million the net worth threshold that would trigger a reduction in the merger consideration, and provided that Institution A would complete due diligence and initiate drafting of a definitive agreement during a 20 day timeframe. Institution A declined to exclude the impact of accumulated other comprehensive income from the net worth-based purchase price adjustment feature and Institution A continued to require exclusivity to go forward with due diligence. Sandler O'Neill reported that United was prepared to begin its due diligence immediately and that it was evaluating its per share offer price and proportionate cash/common stock consideration and expected to provide more definitive information after their due diligence. Sandler O'Neill advised the Board of Directors that based on discussions with United and on Sandler O'Neill's analysis, Sandler O'Neill believed that United had limited ability to increase its offer price and that United might ultimately make an offer at the top or slightly above the top of the range indicated in its indication of interest. Sandler O'Neill reported that Institution B was evaluating its per share offer price and proportionate cash and common stock consideration.

The Palmetto Board of Directors engaged in a discussion of the opportunities and risks associated with each of the three current indications of interest, including the liquidity and potential post-merger value of shares that would be received in a merger and the potential stock price impacts of Palmetto shareholders selling post-merger. The Board of Directors also discussed the fact that, based on recent Palmetto stock trading, a merger on the terms indicated by any of the indications of interest would likely provide a modest premium, no premium or a discount to pre-announcement Palmetto trading prices. However, the Board of Directors noted that, among other things:

- that the Board of Directors viewed trading volume in Palmetto's stock as light and, as a result, the Board of Directors did not believe that the trading price at any point in time was necessarily indicative of the broader market's view of the value of Palmetto common stock;

- each of the indications of interest represented a premium to the trading price of Palmetto common stock during most of 2014, prior to the beginning of what the Board of Directors believe was trading influenced by merger speculation;

- the January 23, 2015 Mergermarket.com article titled “Palmetto Bancshares Could Come to Market Soon, Bankers Say,” provided media speculation that Palmetto would seek a merger partner, and reinforced the Board of Directors’ belief that recent Palmetto common stock trading prices reflected the valuation impact of an anticipated merger transaction; and

- the Board of Directors believed that the stand-alone value of Palmetto as an independent company was not as great as the values reflected in the indications of interest that Palmetto had received.

The Palmetto Board of Directors discussed the revised Institution A indication of interest and Institution A’s continuing request for exclusivity. Among other things, consistent with prior discussion and concerns, the Board of Directors discussed the risk of going forward with diligence with only one institution and the possibility that Institution A could ultimately fail to agree to a definitive merger agreement and to the merger consideration indicated in its non-binding indication of interest. The Board of Directors determined that it was in the best interests of Palmetto and its shareholders to invite Institution A, Institution B and United to continue their due diligence, without providing exclusivity to any party, and to ask them to then provide a final merger offer.

Later on March 24, 2015, Sandler O’Neill reported to Palmetto that it had contacted each of the three potential merger partners and that United and Institution B stated that they planned to begin detailed due diligence promptly. Sandler O’Neill reported to Palmetto that Institution A had declined to engage in further due diligence without exclusivity and had not further increased its offer price in an effort to procure exclusivity.

Sandler O’Neill created an electronic data room containing due diligence materials provided by Palmetto, and United and Institution B were each granted access to the data room. Prior to United’s submission of a revised proposal on April 15, 2015, United and Institution B conducted due diligence including, in addition to review of data room materials, a combination of in-person and telephone meetings with Palmetto management.

Also, between March 24, 2015 and United’s submission of a revised proposal on April 15, 2015, Palmetto, with the assistance of Sandler O’Neill and Nelson Mullins, engaged in “reverse” due diligence with respect to United and Institution B. The reverse due diligence of United included, among other actions, meetings of the Palmetto management team with Mr. Tallent, Mr. Harton and other members of United’s senior management, regarding various financial, operational, credit quality, legal and regulatory matters; and review of analyst reports. The reverse due diligence of Institution B included, among other actions, a meeting of the Palmetto management team with the Chief Executive Officer and other members of Institution B senior management, review of analyst reports, as well as other discussions between Mr. Erwin and the Chief Executive Officer of Institution B.

On March 31, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors, along with Sandler O’Neill and Nelson Mullins, held a meeting to discuss the due diligence process, to review and approve a timeline for receipt of more definitive merger proposals and to approve a draft merger agreement to be provided to potential merger partners. Sandler O’Neill updated the Board of Directors on the status of the due diligence process, and advised the Board of Directors that Institution B had tentatively identified April 13, 2015 as the day for their management meeting. Nelson Mullins reviewed and discussed with the Board of Directors the proposed draft merger agreement. Following discussion, the Board of Directors authorized Sandler O’Neill to send the draft merger agreement to United and Institution B; Sandler O’Neill sent a draft merger agreement to United and Institution B on April 2, 2015.

On April 8, 2015, Sandler O’Neill sent to United and Institution B an instruction letter requesting delivery of revised proposals, including a summary of all financial and structural terms and a mark-up of the draft merger agreement, by 9:00 am EDT on April 15, 2015. The instruction letter advised that parties submitting materials on April 15, 2015 would be provided an opportunity to meet with members of the Palmetto Board of Directors later in the day on April 15, 2015 to further describe their companies and their proposals.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

On April 9, 2015, Institution B advised Sandler O’Neill that, in addition to a merger with Palmetto, Institution B was evaluating both a potential merger with another party and a potential branch acquisition. Institution B discussed with Sandler O’Neill, among other things, the potential definitive agreement timing and regulatory approval effects of such other transactions under evaluation on a potential merger with Palmetto.

On April 14, 2015, Institution B advised Sandler O’Neill that Institution B was withdrawing from the process and would not submit a revised proposal. Institution B expressed that its primary reason for not submitting a revised proposal was the significant geographic distance between Institution B and Palmetto and associated concerns about the ability to effectively and efficiently integrate the two companies.

On April 15, 2015, United submitted a revised, non-binding offer to Palmetto of $18.50 per share, consisting of 25% to 35% cash and the remainder in United common stock, with a fixed exchange ratio of .9773. The $18.50 per common share value estimate was based on the average closing price of United common stock over the last ten trading days ended April 14, 2015, of $18.93 per share. United proposed a termination fee of $7.5 million, and it proposed limited changes to the draft merger agreement.

Later in the day on April 15, 2015, Mr. Tallent and Mr. Harton met with seven members of the Palmetto Board of Directors to provide United’s views regarding United and the strategic and financial merits of a Palmetto merger with United.

On April 16, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors met, along with Sandler O’Neill and Nelson Mullins, to discuss the United proposal. Sandler O’Neill reviewed a comprehensive summary of the discussions with potential merger partners to date. Sandler O’Neill advised the Board of Directors that Institution B had withdrawn from the process and reported the reasons that Institution B had expressed for not submitting a proposal. Sandler O’Neill reviewed with the Board of Directors the United proposal. Sandler O’Neill reviewed certain financial and performance information on Palmetto and United, each entity’s historical stock price and performance, valuation methodologies and analyses of the consideration offered by United. Sandler O’Neill reviewed Palmetto’s stand-alone earnings projections and presented Sandler O’Neill’s net present value analysis for Palmetto as an independent company.

Sandler O’Neill reviewed various aspects of United, including United’s loan and deposit comparability with Palmetto, historical financial performance, analyst expectations for improved future results, common stock trading at a discount to selected peers and related upside potential for United’s stock price, shareholder base and significant shareholders.

During this review, Sandler O’Neill provided perspective on selected key variables for the Board of Directors to consider, including: price and deal value; post-merger dividend yield; quality of earnings and balance sheet; geographic fit; strategic and line of business fit; financial impact of the merger to United; potential for a United strategic transaction after a merger with Palmetto; United’s market capitalization and liquidity; absence of a financing contingency; and United’s merger integration experience and the size and location of Palmetto presenting manageable integration requirements. Sandler O’Neill indicated that it believed that the merger represented a good strategic fit and would be well received by equity analysts. Sandler O’Neill provided additional perspective regarding Palmetto remaining a stand-alone company, including its view that the current Palmetto common stock trading price reflected merger speculation and that Palmetto’s stock price would likely decrease if a transaction was not executed and Palmetto’s stock was traded based on its stand-alone value as an independent company.

Mr. Sullivan, who serves on the investment committee and management committee with respect to CapGen Capital Group V LP (which we refer to as “CapGen”), which beneficially owns approximately 44.7% of Palmetto’s common stock, advised the Board of Directors that CapGen thought that it was presently an opportune time to explore a potential Palmetto merger because regulatory pressures and other competitive and market factors were likely to make it more challenging for a bank the size of Palmetto to increase shareholder value as a stand-alone company going forward, particularly given the low interest rate environment and the highly competitive market for new loan originations. Mr. Sullivan advised the Palmetto Board of Directors that CapGen had flexibility regarding the timing and manner of a disposition of its investment in the Palmetto common stock and no pressing need for short-term liquidity. Similarly, Mr. Lynch, who is a Managing Partner of Patriot Financial Partners, L.P., advised the Board of Directors that Patriot Financial Partners, L.P. and Patriot Financial Partners Parallel, L.P. (which we refer to as the “Patriot funds” and which together own approximately 19.1% of Palmetto’s outstanding common stock) had flexibility regarding the timing and manner of a disposition of their investments in the Palmetto common stock and no pressing need for short-term liquidity, but believed that the various factors that the Board of Directors had discussed indicated that it was advisable for Palmetto to explore potential merger partners.

Sandler O’Neill reviewed with the Palmetto Board of Directors potential alternative merger consideration scenarios. After discussions, the Board of Directors directed Sandler O’Neill to propose a counter-offer to United reflecting merger consideration of (a) 30% of Palmetto’s common stock converting into cash, at $19.25 per Palmetto share, and (b) 70% of Palmetto’s common stock converting into United common stock at an exchange ratio of 0.97, which would result in an estimated average merger consideration value of $18.36 per Palmetto share converted into United common stock, and an estimated weighted average merger consideration value of $18.63 per Palmetto share (based on the average closing price of United common stock over the last ten trading days ending April 14, 2015 of $18.93 per share). The Board of Directors believed that this proposal: (i) represented higher weighted average merger consideration per share of Palmetto common stock, (ii) provided certainty as to the amount of the cash as compared to stock merger consideration (which certainty the Board of Directors believed would be better received by United stock analysts and the stock market), (iii) would allow Palmetto shares that are converted into cash in the merger to receive a more attractive price, and (iv) would preserve the ability of Palmetto shares that are converted into United common stock to participate in a potential increase in the value of United common stock.

Sandler O’Neill left the meeting and called Mr. Tallent. Mr. Tallent conferred with United’s financial adviser and then orally agreed to move forward under the terms of the counter-proposal. Sandler O’Neill rejoined the Palmetto Board of Directors meeting, conveyed the United response to the counter-proposal and then discussed the status of the reverse due diligence of United. The Board of Directors discussed the scope, status and findings of the reverse due diligence with respect to United. As part of Palmetto’s final, confirmatory due diligence, the Board of Directors directed that Palmetto engage a third party loan review firm to conduct a review of a limited sample of United loans in certain specified categories.

Following the conclusion of the Palmetto Board of Directors meeting on April 16, 2015, through April 21, 2015, Palmetto and United and their respective advisers engaged in final due diligence (including reverse due diligence), negotiated the final terms of the merger agreement and the parties that would sign the support agreements, and prepared disclosure schedules related to the merger agreement. Final due diligence by each of Palmetto and United was conducted through in person meetings, phone calls, and document review, including meetings between Mr. Erwin and Mr. Harton on April 17, 2015 and April 21, 2015 which involved discussions of strategic fit, management philosophy and organizational structure, including the roles of certain Palmetto executive officers with United post-merger.

On April 20, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors, along with Sandler O’Neill and Nelson Mullins, held a meeting to discuss the status of due diligence and the merger agreement. The Board of Directors discussed Palmetto’s reverse due diligence, including the status of the third party loan review. Sandler O’Neill reviewed a draft fairness opinion presentation. Nelson Mullins reviewed the current draft of the merger agreement, and discussed changes to the merger agreement from the draft that the Board of Directors had previously approved, as well as voting support agreements, the termination fee and language regarding United dividend record dates.

On April 21, 2015, the Palmetto Board of Directors, along with Sandler O’Neill and Nelson Mullins, held a meeting. The Board of Directors reviewed with Sandler O’Neill and Nelson Mullins the final reverse due diligence findings, the merger agreement, the terms and conditions proposed in the merger agreement, the alternatives available to Palmetto and the advisability and fairness of the proposed merger. On April 21, 2015, United provided written offers of employment to each of Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon, which were provided to the Palmetto Board of Directors. The Palmetto Board of Directors discussed the terms of the written offers of employment that United had provided to each of Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon. Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon were each still considering the United proposals and no final agreement had been reached between United and either Mr. Erwin or Mr. Dixon at the time that the merger agreement was entered into. Sandler O’Neill rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of April 21, 2015 and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken as set forth in its opinion, the proposed merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Palmetto shareholders. After further discussion, the Palmetto Board of Directors unanimously adopted and approved the merger agreement and unanimously determined to recommend the merger agreement to the Palmetto shareholders for approval.

The merger agreement was entered into on April 22, 2015. On the morning of April 22, 2015, Palmetto and United issued a joint news release publicly announcing the merger agreement.

Palmetto's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Palmetto Board of Directors

It should be noted that the explanation of the reasoning of the Board of Directors and certain information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and should be read in light of the factors set forth in the section entitled "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and recommend that Palmetto's shareholders approve the merger agreement, in addition to relying on personal knowledge of Palmetto, United and the banking industry, the Palmetto Board of Directors consulted with outside financial and legal advisors, reviewed various financial data and due diligence information, and considered the views of Palmetto's Chief Executive Officer and Palmetto's Chief Operating Officer and Chief Risk Officer, who are also directors. After such consultation and review, and after considering Palmetto's future prospects as an independent company and its strategic alternatives, the Palmetto Board of Directors concluded that the proposed merger with United was in the best interests of Palmetto and its shareholders. In evaluating the merger agreement and reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and recommend that Palmetto shareholders approve the merger agreement, Palmetto's Board of Directors considered a number of factors, which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors, including the following, which are not intended to be exhaustive and are not presented in any relative order of importance:

- the current and prospective business and economic environment of the markets served by Palmetto, including the competitive environment in Palmetto's markets, the pressure on net interest margins resulting from a low interest rate environment, the continuing consolidation of the financial services industry, the increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions and the uncertainties in the regulatory climate going forward, and the escalating need for investment in technology;
- the Board of Directors' views with respect to other potential Palmetto strategic alternatives, including remaining independent, competing for organic growth, pursuing other merger partners, making acquisitions or engaging in share repurchases;
- the overall greater scale that will be achieved by the merger, which should better position the combined company for growth and profitability;
- the business, earnings, operations, financial condition, management, prospects, capital levels, technology and asset quality of both Palmetto and United, taking into account the results of Palmetto's due diligence of United;
- the value of the merger consideration to Palmetto's shareholders, including the value of the merger consideration compared to:

what the Board of Directors believed would be the likely trading price of Palmetto common stock if it were to remain an independent company, after considering, among other things, the value of Palmetto common stock implied by the adjusted tangible book value (adjusted to reflect a tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio of 9%, based on the median ratio of tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio for the comparable Southeast transactions, and a dollar-for-dollar payout on capital in excess of 9%) and earnings per share trading multiples of selected comparable companies included in the Sandler O'Neill fairness opinion analysis;

the net present value of Palmetto's common stock, as indicated by the Sandler O'Neill fairness opinion analysis, if Palmetto were to remain an independent company; and the trading volume and value of Palmetto shares during most of 2014, and the closing price of Palmetto common stock one day prior to the publishing of an article on "Merger Market" (www.mergermarket.com) on January 23, 2015 regarding a potential sale of Palmetto.

- the financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry reviewed by the Board of Directors and a comparison of the multiples paid in such selected business combinations with the terms of the merger, including information that was included in the Sandler O'Neill fairness opinion analysis that indicated that the merger consideration: as a percentage of adjusted tangible book value, and as a multiple of earnings, was higher than the comparable nationwide transactions group median and the comparable Southeast transactions group median; and represented a core deposit premium that was also higher than the comparable nationwide transactions group median and the comparable Southeast transactions group median;
- the results of Palmetto's exploration of possible merger partners other than United, and the Board of Directors' views with respect to the likelihood of any such other merger occurring and providing greater value to Palmetto shareholders;
- the views of the Board of Directors with respect to the complementary aspects of the Palmetto and United businesses, including customer focus, geographic coverage, business orientation and compatibility of the companies' management and operating styles, which the Board of Directors believes should facilitate integration and enhance the likelihood of successful post-merger operations;
- the greater liquidity in the trading market for United common stock relative to the trading market for Palmetto common stock;
- the belief of the Board of Directors that combining the two companies presents potential opportunities to realize operational, technological, marketing and other synergies resulting from the merger;
- the Board of Directors' understanding of United's commitment to enhancing its strategic position in South Carolina and in the Southeast region;
- the fact that 70% of the Palmetto shares of common stock will be converted into the right to receive United common stock in the merger, which will allow Palmetto shareholders who desire to do so to participate substantially in the future performance of the combined Palmetto and United business and the potential synergies resulting from the merger;
- the fact that 30% of the Palmetto shares of common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash consideration in the merger, which will allow Palmetto shareholders who desire to do so to receive a fixed amount of consideration for at least a portion of their Palmetto shares;

- the views of the Board of Directors as to the likelihood that the regulatory approvals necessary to complete the merger would be obtained;
- the views of the Board of Directors as to the potential pro-forma impact of the merger on the future profitability and earnings per share of United and the potential impact of such factors on United's stock price;
- United's common stock price as a multiple of tangible book value and earnings had recently traded below that of certain peer averages reviewed by the Board of Directors, which may enhance its potential for positive future stock price appreciation;
- the views of the Board of Directors as to the ability of United's management team to successfully integrate and operate the business of the combined company after the merger;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- the financial analysis prepared by Sandler O'Neill, Palmetto's financial advisor, and the opinion delivered to the Board of Directors by Sandler O'Neill, to the effect that, as of April 21, 2015, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions described in such opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Palmetto shareholders; and

- the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors, including the tax treatment and transaction protection provisions provided by the merger agreement, including:

the ability of Palmetto's Board of Directors to withdraw or materially modify its recommendation to Palmetto's shareholders under certain circumstances (and the fact that the voting support agreements signed by Palmetto directors and certain significant shareholders terminate upon such a change of the Board of Directors' recommendation);

the ability of Palmetto's Board of Directors to terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal (subject to payment of a $7.5 million termination fee, which termination fee was lower, as a percentage of transaction value, than the average termination fee in comparable transactions reviewed by the Board of Directors); and Palmetto's right to terminate the merger agreement in the event that United's stock price declines by more than 15% in absolute terms and relative to the NASDAQ bank index, subject to United's right to provide more stock or cash merger consideration in order to avoid such greater than 15% decline in merger consideration value and thereby avoid such Palmetto termination.

The Palmetto Board of Directors also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors concerning the merger, including the following, which are not intended to be exhaustive and are not presented in any relative order of importance:

- that the exchange ratio of the stock portion of the merger consideration is fixed, so that if the market price of United common stock is lower at the time of the closing of the merger, the economic value of the per share merger consideration to be received by Palmetto's shareholders electing, or otherwise receiving, shares of United common stock in exchange for their shares of Palmetto common stock will also be lower;

- the fact that the estimated value of the merger consideration as of April 21, 2015 represented a discount to recent trading prices of Palmetto common stock (but a premium to Palmetto's common stock price on the day before the January 23, 2015 Mergermarket.com article titled "Palmetto Bancshares Could Come to Market Soon, Bankers Say" and to the trading prices of Palmetto shares of common stock during most of 2014);

- information that was included in the Sandler O'Neill fairness opinion analysis and presentations to the Board of Directors that indicated that the pro-forma dividends of the combined company represent a reduction in dividends to Palmetto shareholders whose shares are converted in the merger into United common stock (provided that the Palmetto Board of Directors also considered the possibility that, based on the low United dividend payout ratio as a percentage of earnings and on statements of United representatives, United may increase its dividend in the future);

credit quality issues that negatively impacted the historical performance of United, beginning in 2008, during the general economic downturn;

the possibility that the merger and the related integration process could result in the loss of key employees, in the disruption of Palmetto's ongoing business and in the loss of customers for the combined company;

31

- the fact that, while Palmetto expects that the merger will be consummated, there can be no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the merger agreement will be satisfied, including the risk that certain regulatory approvals, the receipt of which are conditions to the consummation of the merger, might not be obtained, and, as a result, the merger may not be consummated;

- the fact that Palmetto's officers and employees will have to focus on actions required to complete the merger, which will divert their attention from Palmetto's day-to-day business, and that Palmetto will incur substantial transaction costs even if the merger is not consummated;

- the risk that potential benefits and synergies sought in the merger may not be realized or may not be realized within the expected time period, and the risks associated with the integration of the two companies;

- the restrictions on the conduct of Palmetto's business prior to the completion of the merger, which are customary for public company merger agreements involving financial institutions, but which, subject to specific exceptions, could delay or prevent Palmetto from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or any other action it would otherwise take with respect to the operations of Palmetto absent the pending completion of the merger;

- the significant risks and costs involved in connection with entering into and completing the merger, or failing to complete the merger in a timely manner, or at all, including as a result of any failure to obtain required regulatory approvals, such as the risks and costs relating to diversion of management and employee attention from other strategic opportunities and operational matters, potential employee attrition, and the potential effect on business and customer relationships;

- the fact that Palmetto would be prohibited from affirmatively soliciting acquisition proposals after execution of the merger agreement, and the possibility that, while it was not viewed as precluding other proposals, the $7.5 million termination fee payable by Palmetto upon the termination of the merger agreement under certain circumstances could potentially discourage certain other potential acquirers from making a competing offer to acquire Palmetto; and

- the fact that Palmetto shareholders would not be entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger.

In addition, the Palmetto Board of Directors was aware of and considered the fact that some of Palmetto's directors and executive officers may have other interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, their interests as Palmetto shareholders, as more fully described under "— Interests of Palmetto's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger." The Board of Directors also realized that there can be no assurance about future results, including results expected or considered in the factors listed above. However, the Board of Directors concluded that the potential positive factors outweighed the risks and other potentially negative factors associated with the merger.

In reaching its conclusion, the Palmetto Board of Directors did not find it practical to assign, and did not assign, any relative or specific weight to the different factors that were considered, and individual members of the Board of Directors may have given different weight to different factors.

The Palmetto Board of Directors unanimously adopted the merger agreement and recommends that you vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement.

Each of the Palmetto directors, as well as CapGen and the Patriot funds, have entered into a voting support agreement with United, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote in favor of the merger agreement at the special meeting. For more information regarding the support agreements, please see the section entitled “Special Shareholders’ Meeting — Support Agreements” beginning on page 8.

Opinion of Palmetto’s Financial Advisor

The fairness opinion of Palmetto’s financial advisor in connection with the merger, Sandler O’Neill, is described below. The description contains projections, estimates and other forward looking statements about the future earnings or other measures of the future performance of Palmetto, United and the combined companies after the merger. You should not rely on any of these statements as having been made or adopted by Sandler O’Neill, Palmetto or United. You should review the copy of the fairness opinion, which is attached as Appendix B.

By letter dated November 10, 2014, the Palmetto Board of Directors engaged Sandler O’Neill to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible merger involving Palmetto. Sandler O’Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O’Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. The Palmetto Board of Directors selected Sandler O’Neill to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible merger of Palmetto based on Sandler O’Neill’s qualifications, expertise, reputation and experience in mergers and acquisitions involving community banks and its knowledge with respect to Palmetto.

Sandler O’Neill acted as financial advisor to the Palmetto Board of Directors in connection with the proposed merger with United and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the April 21, 2015 meeting of the Palmetto Board of Directors, Sandler O’Neill delivered to the Palmetto Board of Directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Palmetto common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O’Neill’s opinion is attached hereto as Appendix B. Sandler O’Neill’s fairness opinion was approved by Sandler O’Neill’s fairness opinion committee. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O’Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of Sander O’Neill’s opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. Palmetto’s shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O’Neill’s opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Palmetto’s Board of Directors and is directed only to the fairness of the merger consideration to the holders of Palmetto common stock from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of Palmetto to engage in the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Palmetto, the effect of any other transaction in which Palmetto might engage or any other aspect of the merger, and is not a recommendation to any Palmetto shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special shareholder meeting with respect to the merger or any other matter. In connection with rendering its oral opinion on April 21, 2015, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, Sandler O’Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

- the merger agreement;
- certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Palmetto that Sandler O’Neill deemed relevant;
- certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of United that Sandler O’Neill deemed relevant;
- certain internal financial projections for Palmetto for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019, as provided by the senior management of Palmetto;
- publicly available analyst earnings estimates for United for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016, and an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter as discussed with the senior management of United;
- the pro forma financial impact of the merger on United based on certain assumptions relating to estimated transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies, which assumptions were provided by United;

- a comparison of certain financial and other information for Palmetto and United, including stock trading information for Palmetto, with similar publicly available information for certain other publicly traded commercial banks;
- the financial terms of certain other recent merger and acquisition transactions in the banking sector;
- the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and

such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Palmetto the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Palmetto and held similar discussions with the senior management of United regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of United.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to Sandler O'Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O'Neill by Palmetto and United or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O'Neill and Sandler O'Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of preparing its fairness opinion. Sandler O'Neill further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Palmetto and United that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would have made any of such information inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Palmetto or United or any of their respective subsidiaries. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Palmetto, United or the combined entity after the merger and Sandler O'Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to Palmetto or United. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with Palmetto's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Palmetto and United were adequate to cover such losses and that they would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for Palmetto as provided by the senior management of Palmetto and publicly available analyst earnings estimates for United for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016, and an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter as discussed with the senior management of United. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its analyses certain projections of transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies which were provided by United. With respect to those projections and estimates, the respective managements of Palmetto and United confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that those respective projections and estimates reflected the best currently available projections and estimates of those respective managements of the future financial performance of Palmetto and United, respectively, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such projections or estimates or the assumptions on which they were based. Sandler O'Neill assumed that there were no material changes in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Palmetto and United since the date of the most recent financial data made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill also assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Palmetto and United would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to Sandler O'Neill's analyses. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and any other transactions contemplated in connection therewith.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Palmetto's consent, that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no material delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Palmetto, United or the merger, (iii) the merger would be consummated without Palmetto's rights under Section 9.1(g)(X) of the merger agreement having been triggered as a result of United's stock price declining by more than 15% in absolute terms and relative to the NASDAQ bank index, or if such rights have been triggered, United would have exercised the option referred to in Section 9.1(g)(X) of the merger agreement to provide more stock or cash merger consideration in order to avoid such greater than 15% decline in merger consideration value and thereby avoid such Palmetto termination (iv) the merger and any related transaction would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements.

Sandler O’Neill’s analyses and the views expressed therein were necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O’Neill as of, the date of its fairness opinion. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sandler O’Neill’s views. Sandler O’Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its fairness opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date thereof. Sandler O’Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading values of Palmetto common stock after the date of its fairness opinion or what the value of United’s common stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Palmetto common stock. Sandler O’Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by Palmetto’s officers, directors, or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other shareholders of Palmetto.

In rendering its oral opinion on April 21, 2015, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, Sandler O’Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by Sandler O’Neill, but is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler O’Neill’s fairness opinion. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O’Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O’Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O’Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion; rather, Sandler O’Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the merger consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O’Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all of such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its fairness opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O’Neill’s comparative analyses described below is identical to Palmetto or United and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Palmetto, United and the companies to which they are being compared.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O’Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Palmetto and Sandler O’Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O’Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O’Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its fairness opinion and provided such analyses to Palmetto’s Board of Directors at the meeting held on April 21, 2015. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. The analyses and fairness opinion of Sandler O’Neill were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Palmetto’s Board of Directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including the merger) and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of Palmetto’s Board of Directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger.

Summary of Proposed Transaction. Sandler O’Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, upon the effective time of the merger, holders of Palmetto common stock will be entitled to receive, in exchange for each share of Palmetto common stock, consideration equal to either (i) 0.97 shares of United common stock, or (ii) $19.25 in cash, without interest; provided, that the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock.

Sandler O’Neill reviewed the history of the publicly reported trading prices of Palmetto’s common stock and United’s common stock for the periods of one year and three years, respectively, ended April 17, 2015. Net Present Value Analysis. Sandler O'Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Palmetto's common stock through December 31, 2019. Sandler O'Neill based its analysis on internal financial projections for Palmetto for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019, as provided by the senior management of Palmetto.

To approximate the terminal value of Palmetto common stock at December 31, 2019, Sandler O'Neill applied price to earnings multiples of 12.0x to 17.0x and multiples of tangible book value ranging from 110% to 185%. Sandler O'Neill selected the price to earnings and tangible book value multiples based on Sandler O'Neill's review of, among other matters, the trading multiples of companies in the Palmetto Peer Group. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 15.0%, which were selected to reflect different assumptions regarding potential desired rates of return of holders of Palmetto common stock.

As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicates an imputed range of values per share of Palmetto common stock of $9.93 to $17.43 when applying multiples of earnings to the applicable amounts indicated in the Palmetto projections and $9.02 to $18.35 when applying multiples of tangible book value to the applicable amounts indicated in the Palmetto projections.

Sandler O'Neill also considered and discussed with Palmetto's Board of Directors how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. To illustrate this impact, Sandler O'Neill performed a similar analysis assuming Palmetto's net income varied from 25.0% above projections to 25.0% below projections. This analysis resulted in the following reference ranges of aggregate values for Palmetto common stock using a discount rate of 12.87%.

The following table describes the discount rate calculation for Palmetto common stock prepared by Sandler O'Neill. The discount rate equals the sum of the risk free rate, the equity risk premium and the size premium. A size premium was used in calculating the discount rate for Palmetto common stock because Sandler O'Neill believed that Palmetto's common stock has historically been too thinly traded for the beta of its common stock price to provide a reliable measure of the volatility, or systematic risk, of Palmetto's common stock in comparison to the stock market as a whole.

Risk Free Rate	4.00%	Based on 20-year normalized treasury yield
Equity Risk Premium	5.00%	Per Duff & Phelps 2014 Valuation Handbook
Size Premium	3.87%	Per Duff & Phelps 2014 Valuation Handbook
Discount Rate	12.87%

Sandler O'Neill also performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of United common stock assuming that United performed in accordance with publicly available analyst earnings estimates for the years ending December 31, 2015 and 2016, and that its earnings for the years ending December 31, 2017, 2018 and 2019 grew at an annual long-term growth rate of 8.5% (which 8.5% growth rate was discussed with the senior management of United). To approximate the terminal value of United common stock at December 31, 2019, Sandler O'Neill applied price to earnings multiples ranging from 15.0x to 20.0x and multiples of tangible book value ranging from 150% to 275%. Sandler O'Neill selected the price to earnings and tangible book value multiples based on Sandler O'Neill's review of, among other matters, the trading multiples of selected companies that Sandler O'Neill deemed to be comparable to United. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 7.0% to 13.0%, which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders of United's common stock.

As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicates an imputed range of values per share of United common stock of $15.90 to $27.26 when applying earnings multiples to the applicable amounts indicated in the United projections and $16.17 to $37.67 when applying multiples of tangible book value to the applicable amounts indicated in the United projections.

To illustrate this impact, Sandler O'Neill performed a similar analysis assuming United's net income varied from 25% above projections to 25% below projections. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for United common stock, using the same price to earnings multiples of 15.0x to 20.0x and a discount rate of 9.21%, based on a 4.00% 20-year normalized treasury yield, a two-year beta of United's common stock of 1.042x, and an equity risk premium of 5.00%.

In connection with its analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Palmetto Board of Directors how the net present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions. Sandler O'Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Analysis of Selected Merger Transactions. Sandler O'Neill reviewed two groups of comparable merger and acquisition transactions. The first group, referred to as the nationwide transaction group, included merger transactions announced from January 1, 2013 through April 20, 2015 involving selected United States-based banks in which the target's total assets were between $500 million and $3.0 billion, with the target's LTM ROAA greater than 0.50%, and the target's NPAs/Assets less than 5.0%. Sandler O'Neill deemed these transactions to be comparable to the proposed United and Palmetto merger.

As illustrated in the following table, Sandler O'Neill compared the transaction price to book value per share, transaction price to tangible book value per share, transaction price to adjusted tangible book value per share (adjusted to reflect a tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio of 9%, based on the median ratio of tangible common equity to tangible assets for the comparable Southeast transactions, and a dollar-for-dollar payout on capital in excess of 9%), transaction price to last twelve months earnings, and core deposit premium for the proposed merger as compared to the high, low, mean and median multiples of the comparable transactions in both the nationwide transaction group and the Southeast transaction group.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, based on the following assumptions provided by United's management: (i) the merger closes in the third calendar quarter of 2015; (ii) 100% of outstanding Palmetto common shares are converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof, 0.97 shares of United common stock, or $19.25 in cash, without interest; provided, that the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock; and (iii) all outstanding Palmetto options are cashed out by United at closing, except for those Palmetto options granted under the Palmetto 1997 Stock Compensation Plan, which will be converted into a stock option to purchase shares of United common stock.

Sandler O'Neill also incorporated the following assumptions, as provided by United's senior management: (a) estimated earnings per share projections for Palmetto for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2017, based on projections provided to United by Palmetto senior management, projections for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016 for United based on consensus Wall Street research analyst estimates and a long-term earnings per share growth rate of 8.50% for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2019, which 8.50% growth rate was discussed with the senior management of United; (b) purchase accounting adjustments of a credit mark on loans equal to 1.90% of gross loans, an interest rate mark of $1.0 million, an other real estate owned mark of $3.0 million, a fixed asset mark of $2.9 million, and other purchase accounting marks totaling approximately $3.1 million; (c) cost savings equal to approximately 40% of Palmetto's projected non-interest expense, which would be 100% realized in the first full year of operations; (d) transaction costs and expenses of approximately $20 million; (e) a 1.80% core deposit premium on $757 million of core deposits; (f) opportunity cost of cash on hand of 1.0%; and (g) an assumed $30 million subordinated debt offering with an estimated 5.5% coupon to finance a portion of the cash consideration for the merger (with the remaining cash consideration funded through a United bank level dividend to the holding company). The analysis indicated that the merger (excluding transaction expenses) would be approximately 1.2% dilutive and then approximately 10.5%, 12.4%, 13.3% and 12.1% accretive to United's earnings per share in 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019, respectively, and would be approximately 6.8%, 7.7%, 5.9%, 4.0%, 2.2%, and 0.7% dilutive to United's tangible book value per share at the closing of the merger and at year end 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019, respectively. Assuming (i) that post-merger United dividend per share would remain the same as United's stand-alone dividend per share, and (ii) assuming that Palmetto as a stand-alone entity would pay dividends equal to 35.9% of its net income in 2015 and 40.0% of its net income for the years 2016 through 2019 as reflected in the Palmetto management projections, the analysis indicated that the merger (excluding transaction expenses) would be approximately 33.3%, 25.9%, 32.7%, 37.3% and 38.1% dilutive to Palmetto shareholder dividends for the years ending December 31, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019, respectively. Sandler O'Neill also analyzed certain capital ratios of United on a pro forma basis for the merger. That analysis provided the following results:

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to the board of directors of Palmetto in connection with the merger. Palmetto has agreed to pay Sandler O'Neill a transaction fee in connection with the merger, the majority of which is subject to the closing of the merger. The transaction fee is equal to 1.15% of the aggregate transaction value, if the merger consideration value per Palmetto share is less than $20 per share, and 1.25% of the aggregate transaction value, if the merger consideration value per Palmetto share is equal to or greater than $20 per share (with the transaction value and the merger consideration value per share being determined based on the average closing price of United common stock during the five trading days ending five trading days prior to the date of the merger). Sandler O'Neill received a fee of $750,000 payable upon the signing of the merger agreement, which fee will be credited against the transaction fee due to Sandler O'Neill at the closing of the merger. Sandler O'Neill received a fee of $350,000 associated with the delivery of its fairness opinion, which became payable upon Sandler O'Neill's rendering its fairness opinion to the Palmetto board of directors, which fairness opinion fee will be credited against the transaction fee due to Sandler O'Neill at the closing of the merger. Palmetto has also agreed to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, up to $50,000, and to indemnify Sandler O'Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement.

Sandler O'Neill has not provided other investment banking services to Palmetto in the past two years. In the past two years, Sandler O'Neill has performed certain investment banking services for United and received fees totaling approximately $0.4 million for such investment banking services and may provide, and receive compensation for, such services in the future.

Palmetto's Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

Palmetto does not as a matter of course publicly disclose forecasts or internal projections as to future performance, revenues, earnings, financial condition or other results due to, among other reasons, the uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, in connection with the evaluation of a potential merger, Palmetto management prepared certain relevant projections of Palmetto's future financial performance, which we refer to as the Palmetto management projections, which contain unaudited prospective financial information with respect to Palmetto on a standalone, pre-merger basis, and which were made available to Palmetto's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill. The Palmetto management projections for 2015 through 2017 were provided to United and to each of the other potential merger partners that signed a non-disclosure agreement with Palmetto. The Palmetto management projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure and the inclusion of the Palmetto management projections in this document should not be regarded as an indication that Palmetto or any other recipient of the Palmetto management projections considered, or now considers, them to be necessarily predictive of actual future results. Neither Palmetto nor its affiliates assume any responsibility for the accuracy of the Palmetto management projections. The Palmetto management projections were not prepared with a view toward complying with the guidelines of the SEC, the guidelines established by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board for preparation or presentation of financial information, or generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. Neither Palmetto's current independent registered public accounting firm, Elliott Davis Decosimo, LLC, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the Palmetto management projections, or expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability. The report of Elliott Davis Decosimo, LLC that is incorporated by reference into this document related only to Palmetto's historical financial information. It does not extend to any prospective financial information.

The Palmetto management projections reflect numerous estimates and assumptions made by Palmetto with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to Palmetto's business, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Palmetto's control. The Palmetto management projections also reflect assumptions as to certain business decisions that are subject to change. The Palmetto management projections reflect subjective judgment in many respects and thus are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. As such, the Palmetto management projections constitute forward-looking information and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results forecasted in such prospective information, including, but not limited to, Palmetto's performance, industry performance, general business and economic conditions, customer requirements, competition, adverse changes in applicable laws, regulations or rules, interest rates, the regulatory environment, and the various risks set forth in Palmetto's reports filed with the SEC. None of Palmetto, United nor any of their financial advisors nor any of their affiliates assumes any responsibility for the validity, accuracy or completeness of the Palmetto management projections described below. The Palmetto management projections do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared, including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Further, the Palmetto management projections do not take into account the effect of any failure of the merger to occur. None of Palmetto, United nor any of their financial advisors nor any of their affiliates intends to, and each of them disclaims any obligation to, update, revise or correct such Palmetto management projections if they are or become inaccurate (even in the short term). The inclusion of the Palmetto management projections herein should not be deemed an admission or representation by Palmetto or United that they are viewed by Palmetto or United as material information of Palmetto, particularly in light of the inherent risks and uncertainties associated with such forecasts.

The Merger Consideration

Unless adjusted pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Palmetto shareholders may elect to receive shares of United common stock or cash in exchange for each of their shares of Palmetto common stock in the merger on the following basis:

- 0.97 shares of United common stock for each share of Palmetto common stock; or

- $19.25 in cash, without interest, for each share of Palmetto common stock;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

provided, that the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock. Although each Palmetto shareholder may elect to receive cash or stock, if the aggregate cash elections are greater than the cash election maximum, each cash election will be reduced pro rata based on the amount that the aggregate cash elections exceed the cash election maximum.

Alternatively, if the aggregate stock elections are greater than the stock election maximum, each stock election will be reduced pro rata based on the amount that the aggregate stock elections exceed the stock election maximum.

For example, if you elect to receive cash for 1,000 shares of Palmetto common stock and the aggregate cash elections exceed by 10% the 3,844,372 Palmetto share maximum, the shares for which you will be paid cash will be reduced to the number determined by dividing your cash election by the aggregate cash elections and multiplying that quotient by the 3,844,372 cash election maximum. This proration will result in you receiving cash for 909 of your Palmetto shares and being treated as if you had elected to receive United common stock for your remaining 91 shares.

At the time you vote with respect to the merger agreement, you will not know how much cash or the number of United shares you will receive as a result of the merger.

United will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Instead, you will receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of United common stock multiplied by the average of the closing sale prices of United common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market during the 20 consecutive full trading days ending at the closing of trading on the trading day immediately prior to the later of (i) the effective date of the last required consent of any regulatory authority having authority over and approving or exempting the merger and (ii) the date of the receipt of the approval of the Palmetto shareholders to the merger.

Merger Consideration Adjustment and Termination Rights

Because a portion of the merger consideration includes United common stock payable at a fixed exchange ratio for Palmetto common stock and the market value of the United common stock changes daily, the total value of the merger consideration will fluctuate. Neither United nor Palmetto can give you any assurance as to the price of United common stock or the value of the merger consideration when the merger becomes effective or when United's shares are delivered to you. As an illustration, assuming the merger had been completed on April 22, 2015, the date the merger agreement was executed, the aggregate merger consideration payable pursuant to stock and cash elections (which does not include payments to holders of Palmetto options) would have been $234,713,403, based on United's closing sales price on that date. However, assuming the merger had been completed on July 9, 2015, the most recent date available before these materials were mailed, the aggregate merger consideration payable pursuant to stock and cash elections would have been $257.5 million, based on United's closing sales price on that date.

Under the merger agreement, the merger consideration may be adjusted if:

- the average closing sales price of United common stock during the 20 consecutive full trading days (we refer to such 20 consecutive full trading days as the "determination period") preceding the later to occur of (we refer to such later date as the "determination date") (i) the effective date of the last required regulatory approval approving or exempting the merger and (ii) the date of the receipt of the approval of Palmetto's shareholders (which amount we refer to as the "average United stock price during the determination period"), is less than $15.72 per share; and

- (x) the quotient of the average United stock price during the determination period divided by $18.49 (which was the closing price of United common stock on the day before the merger agreement was entered into), is less than 85% of (y) the quotient of the average daily current market price of the NASDAQ Bank Index during the determination period divided by 2,700.63 (which was the average daily current market price of the NASDAQ Bank Index on the day before the merger agreement was entered into); and

- at any time during the four business day period following the determination date, Palmetto provides (and does not withdraw) written notice to United of Palmetto's intention to terminate the merger agreement based on the two conditions described above being met; and

- during the five-day period commencing with United's receipt of such written notice from Palmetto, United elects to increase the exchange ratio or (provided that it will not cause the merger to fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the internal revenue code) to pay, as part of the merger consideration, in addition to the stock merger consideration, cash to each Palmetto shareholder that will receive United stock as merger consideration, such that the value of the merger consideration per Palmetto share (calculated based on the average United stock price during the determination period and including any such cash payment per Palmetto share) to be received by each recipient of United common stock as merger consideration equals the minimum amount that, had the average United stock price during the determination period been equal to such amount, at least one of the first two conditions above would not have been met.

Even if the first two conditions described above are met, the Palmetto Board of Directors may elect not to terminate the merger agreement. Any decision to terminate the merger agreement will be made by the Palmetto Board of Directors in light of all of the circumstances existing at the time. Prior to making any decision to terminate the merger agreement, the Palmetto Board of Directors would consult with its financial and other advisors and would consider all financial and other information it deemed relevant to its decision, including whether the then current consideration to be received in the merger would deliver more value to Palmetto shareholders than the value that could be expected in the event Palmetto were to continue as an independent company (which would occur if the Palmetto Board of Directors were to elect to abandon the merger and United determined not to increase the exchange ratio). In addition, the Palmetto Board of Directors would consider whether, in light of market and other industry conditions at the time of such decision, the merger consideration continued to be fair from a financial point of view to Palmetto's shareholders. If Palmetto elected not to terminate the merger agreement, which it could do without any action on the part of Palmetto shareholders, the exchange ratio of United common stock would remain 0.97.

If each of the first two conditions set forth above were satisfied and the Palmetto Board of Directors elected to terminate the merger agreement, United would have the option of increasing the consideration payable to Palmetto shareholders that will receive United common stock as merger consideration by increasing the exchange ratio as described above or by paying them cash merger consideration (in addition to, and not in lieu of, issuing shares of United common stock). United is under no obligation to increase the exchange ratio or to any such additional cash merger consideration, and there can be no assurance that United would elect to increase the exchange ratio or pay such additional cash merger consideration to prevent the termination of the merger agreement. Any decision would be made by United in light of the circumstances existing at the time. If United elected to increase the exchange ratio or to pay the additional cash merger consideration as described above, then Palmetto could not terminate the merger agreement as a result of the above-described circumstances.

For example, assume that United's average closing price during the determination period was $13.87, representing a 25% decrease from $18.49, and that the average daily current market price of the NASDAQ Bank Index during the determination period was 2,431. In that case, Palmetto would then have the right to terminate the merger agreement because both (i) the United common stock price is less than $15.72, and (ii) the quotient of $13.87 divided by $18.49 (75%), is less than 85% of the quotient of 2,431 divided by 2,700.63 (i.e., 2,431 divided by 2,700.63 equals 90%, and 75% is equal to only 83.3% of 90%).

However, in this example, United could prevent the merger agreement from terminating by electing to either increase the exchange ratio to 0.9894 or by paying cash merger consideration (in addition to, and not in lieu of, issuing shares of United common stock) of $0.27 per share of Palmetto common stock in respect of each share of Palmetto common stock that will be converted into a right to receive United common stock in the merger.

This summary highlights selected information regarding the merger consideration adjustment and termination provisions in the merger agreement. For a more complete description of these terms, you should carefully read the Agreement and Plan of Merger included in Appendix A to these materials. In

The Merger Agreement

The material features of the merger agreement are summarized below:

Effective Date

The merger agreement provides that the merger will be effective upon the filing of Articles of Merger reflecting the merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia and the Secretary of State of the State of South Carolina. The merger and the bank merger must be approved by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia and the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions. Management of United and Palmetto anticipate that the merger will become effective during the third quarter of 2015.

Terms of the Merger

If Palmetto shareholders approve the merger agreement and subject to the receipt of required regulatory approvals and the satisfaction of the other closing conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Palmetto will be merged with and into United. In connection with the merger, Palmetto shareholders will receive United common stock or cash or a combination of both in exchange for their Palmetto common stock, subject to adjustment and proration as previously described. United shareholders will continue to hold their existing United common stock.

If, prior to the merger closing, the outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock or United common stock are increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, or if a record date prior to the merger closing is established with respect to any such change in capitalization, then an appropriate and proportionate adjustment will be made to the number of shares of United common stock and/or cash to be delivered pursuant to the merger in exchange for a share of Palmetto common stock. If the merger is completed, Palmetto will be merged with and into United. Following the merger, the articles of incorporation, bylaws, corporate identity, and existence of United will not be changed, and Palmetto will cease to exist as a separate entity. Following the merger, Palmetto’s subsidiary, The Palmetto Bank, will be merged with and into the Bank a wholly-owned Georgia bank subsidiary of United. The Bank will be the surviving bank.

Registration of United Common Stock

As a condition to the merger, United agreed to register with the SEC the shares of United common stock to be exchanged for shares of Palmetto common stock and to maintain the effectiveness of such registration through the issuance of such shares in connection with the closing of the merger. However, such registration will not cover resales of United common stock by any former holders of Palmetto common stock, and United is under no obligation to maintain the effectiveness of such registration, or to prepare and file any post-effective amendments to such registration, after the issuance of such shares in connection with the closing of the merger.

Treatment of Palmetto Stock Options and Palmetto Restricted Stock

All outstanding Palmetto stock options granted under the Palmetto 2011 Stock Incentive Plan, whether or not exercisable, will become vested and exercisable and converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Palmetto common stock underlying such Palmetto stock option by (ii) the weighted average merger consideration per Palmetto share less the exercise

price per share under such stock option, subject to any income or employment tax withholding required under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The “weighted average merger consideration per Palmetto share” means an amount equal to the sum of:

- $19.25 multiplied by 0.30, plus
- the “average United stock price” multiplied by the stock exchange ratio multiplied by 0.70.

The “average United stock price” means the average of the closing sale prices of United common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market during the 20 consecutive full trading days ending at the closing of trading on the trading day immediately prior to the later of (i) the effective date of the last required consent of any regulatory authority having authority over and approving or exempting the merger and (ii) the date of the receipt of the approval of the merger agreement by the Palmetto shareholders.

All outstanding Palmetto stock options granted under the Palmetto 1997 Stock Compensation Plan, whether or not exercisable, will be converted into a stock option to purchase shares of United common stock, exercisable upon the same terms and conditions as under the 1997 Stock Compensation Plan and the applicable option agreement issued thereunder, except that (i) each such Palmetto option shall be exercisable for that whole number of shares of United common stock equal to the number of shares of Palmetto common stock subject to the Palmetto option immediately prior to the effective time multiplied by 0.97, and (ii) the option price per share of United common stock shall be an amount equal to the option price per share of Palmetto common stock subject to such Palmetto option in effect immediately prior to the effective time divided by 0.97.

Each share of Palmetto common stock subject to restrictions on transfer and/or forfeiture granted under the Palmetto 2008 Restricted Stock Plan or the 2011 Stock Incentive Plan that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will become fully vested and will be converted automatically into and represent the right to receive the merger consideration, subject to any income or employment tax withholding required under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any provision of applicable law.

Representations and Warranties Made by United and Palmetto in the Merger Agreement

United and Palmetto have made certain customary representations and warranties to each other in the merger agreement. For information on these representations and warranties, please refer to the merger agreement attached as Appendix A. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the effective time of the merger.

The representations, warranties and covenants included in the merger agreement were made only for purposes of the merger agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of United and Palmetto, may be subject to limitations, qualifications or exceptions agreed upon by the parties, including those included in confidential disclosures made for the purposes of, among other things, allocating contractual risk between United and Palmetto rather than establishing matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality that differ from those standards relevant to investors. You should not rely on the representations, warranties, covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of United, Palmetto or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates.

Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by United or Palmetto. The representations and warranties and other provisions of the merger agreement should not be read alone, but instead should be read only in conjunction with the information provided elsewhere in this document and in the documents incorporated by reference into this document.

Certain representations and warranties of United and Palmetto are qualified as to “materiality” or “material adverse effect.” For purposes of the merger agreement, a “material adverse effect,” when used in reference to either Palmetto or United, an event, change or occurrence which, individually or together with any other event, change or occurrence, has had or is reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on (i) the financial position, property, business, assets or results of operations of such company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (ii) the ability of such company to perform its material obligations under the merger agreement or to consummate the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; provided, that a “material adverse effect” shall not be deemed to include the effects of:

- changes in banking and other laws or regulations of general applicability or interpretations thereof by governmental authorities;
- changes in SEC, GAAP or regulatory accounting principles generally applicable to banks and their holding companies;
- actions and omissions of such company or any of its subsidiaries) taken with the prior written consent of the other party in contemplation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- changes in economic conditions affecting financial institutions generally, including changes in interest rates, credit availability and liquidity, and price levels or trading volumes in securities markets, except to the extent that such company is materially and adversely affected in a disproportionate manner as compared to other comparable participants in the banking industry;
- changes resulting from the announcement or pendency of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; or
- the direct effects of compliance with the merger agreement on the operating performance of such company;

and, furthermore, a “material adverse effect” shall not be deemed to include any failure to meet analyst projections, in and of itself, or, in and of itself, the trading price of the such company’s common stock (it being understood that the facts or occurrences giving rise or contributing to any such effect, change or development which affects or otherwise relates to the failure to meet analyst financial forecasts or the trading price, as the case may be, may be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a “material adverse effect”).

Termination and Conditions of Closing

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time either before or after approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Palmetto, but not later than the effective date of the merger:

- (1) by mutual written agreement of United and Palmetto;
- (2) by either party, in the event of a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained in the merger agreement which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice of the breach and which breach is reasonably likely, in the opinion of the non-breaching party, to permit such party to refuse to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement due to the breaching party’s representations and warranties being inaccurate as of the effective date or due to the breaching party’s failure to perform or comply in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by the merger agreement;
- (3) by either party, if any required regulatory approval has been denied by final, non-appealable action of such authority, any law or order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the merger shall have become final and non-appealable, or the approval of the Palmetto shareholders to the merger agreement is not obtained at the special shareholders meeting where such matters were presented to such shareholders for approval and voted upon;

by either party, if the merger has not occurred on or before December 31, 2015, or if all of the conditions required for the merger to occur have been satisfied other than the receipt of the required regulatory approvals by December 31, 2015, on or before February 29, 2016;

(5)
by United, if upon the effectiveness of the registration statement, the Palmetto Board of Directors has not recommended approval of this merger agreement to its shareholders;

by United, if the Palmetto Board of Directors has approved, recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any proposal by a person other than United involving the acquisition of Palmetto prior to obtaining the required approval to the merger agreement by the Palmetto shareholders;

(7)

by Palmetto, prior to obtaining the required approval to the merger agreement by the Palmetto shareholders, in order to enter into a proposal by a person other than United involving the acquisition of Palmetto with respect to which the Palmetto Board of Directors has determined in good faith that such proposal, if accepted, is reasonably likely to be consummated on a timely basis, and that such proposal is more favorable to Palmetto's shareholders than the merger with United; or by Palmetto, as described in "Merger Consideration Adjustment and Termination Rights" on page 49.

(8)

Palmetto must pay to United a termination fee of $7.5 million, if:

- Palmetto terminates the merger agreement pursuant to (7) listed above; or
- (i) a proposal by a person other than United involving the acquisition of Palmetto has been communicated to or otherwise made known to the Palmetto shareholders or Palmetto Board of Directors, or any person other than United has publicly announced an intention to make a proposal to acquire Palmetto, and such proposal to acquire Palmetto has not been withdrawn, (ii) either United terminates the merger agreement pursuant to (5) or (6) listed above or either party terminates the merger agreement as a result of a law or order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the merger becoming final and non-appealable, and (iii) within 12 months of such termination Palmetto is acquired by a person other than United.

The following summarizes the required conditions of closing:

- approval of the merger agreement by at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock held by Palmetto shareholders;
- approval of the merger by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance and the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions;
- effectiveness of the registration statement of United relating to the shares of United common stock to be issued to Palmetto shareholders in the merger, of which this document forms a part;
- no governmental authority of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any law or order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that is in effect and prohibits the consummation of the merger;
- the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party in the merger agreement as of the date of the merger agreement and the day on which the merger is completed, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement,

- the performance by the other party in all material respects of all obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to the effective time of the merger under the merger agreement;
- the delivery of officers' certificates and secretary's certificates to Palmetto and United by the other;
- there shall not have occurred a material adverse effect with respect to Palmetto or United from December 31, 2014 until the effective date;
- receipt by each of United and Palmetto of an opinion of its respective legal counsel as to certain tax matters; and
- the payment by United of the merger consideration as provided in the merger agreement.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Surrender of Certificates and Election of Consideration

Each holder of Palmetto common stock must complete and return the stock/cash election form and letter of transmittal that is being mailed under separate cover to the exchange agent by August 12, 2015 indicating his, her or its preference as to the proportion of United common stock and/or cash he, she or it wishes to receive and to deliver his, her or its shares of Palmetto common stock in order to receive payment of the consideration from United in connection with the merger.

Although each Palmetto shareholder may elect to receive all cash or all stock, the total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock. Accordingly, if the aggregate cash elections are greater than the cash election maximum, each cash election will be reduced pro rata based on the amount that the aggregate cash elections exceed the cash election maximum. Alternatively, if the aggregate stock elections are greater than the stock election maximum, each stock election will be reduced pro rata based on the amount that the aggregate stock elections exceed the stock election maximum. If a holder does not return the stock/cash election form and letter of transmittal to the exchange agent by August 12, 2015, the holder will be treated as though it elected to receive cash unless cash has been fully subscribed by the electing Palmetto shareholders, in which event such holder will be treated as if he, she or it elected stock. If you own shares of Palmetto common stock in "street name" through a broker or other financial institution, you should receive or seek instructions from the institution holding your shares concerning how to make your election. Any instructions must be given to your broker or other financial institution sufficiently in advance of the election deadline for record holders in order to allow your broker or other financial institution sufficient time to cause the record holder of your shares to make an election as described above. United and/or Palmetto will publicly announce the deadline for the receipt of election forms from record holders. "Street name" holders may be subject to an election deadline earlier than the deadline applicable to holders of shares in registered form. Therefore, you should carefully read any materials you receive from your broker. If you instruct a broker to submit an election for your shares, you must follow such broker's directions for revoking or changing those instructions.

After delivering shares of Palmetto common stock, assuming that there has been no adjustment to the merger consideration, the holder will receive either 0.97 shares of United common stock, or a cash payment of $19.25, without interest per share of Palmetto common stock that such holder owned on the effective date of the merger. In lieu of a fractional share, a cash payment, without interest, will be paid for any fractional interest in United common stock.

Until a holder delivers Palmetto common stock, as applicable, to United, the holder may not receive payment of any dividends or other distributions on shares of United common stock into which his, her, or its shares of Palmetto common stock have been converted, if any, and may not receive any notices sent by United to its shareholders with respect to those shares.

Required Shareholder Approval and Consent

The holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must approve the merger agreement for the merger to be completed. Abstentions from voting and broker non-votes will be included in determining whether a quorum is present and will have the effect of a vote against the merger agreement.

As of July 8, 2015, the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting, the outstanding voting securities of Palmetto consisted of 12,813,442 shares of common stock, with each registered holder of Palmetto common stock being entitled to one vote per share. All of the directors and 10% or greater shareholders of Palmetto have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. As of the record date, Palmetto's directors and 10% or greater shareholders owned 8,406,885 shares, or 65.6%, of the outstanding Palmetto common stock (excluding options).

Expenses

All expenses incurred by United in connection with the merger, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants and the fees and expenses related to filing these materials and all regulatory applications with state and federal authorities will be paid by United. All expenses incurred by Palmetto in connection with the merger agreement, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants will be paid by Palmetto.

- adopt any new employee benefit plan of such entity or terminate or withdraw from, or make any material change in or to, any existing employee benefit plans, welfare plans, insurance, stock or other plans of Palmetto benefit plans of such entity other than any such change that is required by law or to maintain continuous benefits at current levels or that, in the written opinion of counsel, is necessary or advisable to maintain the tax qualified status of any such plan, or make any distributions from such employee benefit or welfare plans, except as required by law or the terms of such plans or consistent with past practice;

- implement or adopt any change in its accounting principles, practices or methods, other than as may be required by SEC, GAAP or regulatory guidelines;
- knowingly take, or fail to take, any action, which action or failure to act prevents or impedes, or could reasonably be expected to prevent or impede the merger from qualifying as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;
- agree to take, make any commitment to take, or adopt any resolutions of its Board of Directors in support of, any of the actions set forth above; or
- take any action that is intended to, would or would be reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement not being satisfied or prevent or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, except, in every case, as may be required by applicable law.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that Palmetto will give written notice promptly to United, upon becoming aware of the occurrence or impending occurrence of any event or circumstance relating to Palmetto or any of its subsidiaries which (i) has had or is reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect, (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, or (iii) would be reasonably likely to prevent or materially interfere with the consummation of the merger, and use its reasonable efforts to prevent or promptly to remedy the same.

Conduct of Business of United Pending Closing

The merger agreement provides that, pending consummation of the merger, United will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, except with the prior written consent of Palmetto:

- operate its business only in the usual, regular, and ordinary course consistent with past practice;

- take no action which would adversely affect the timing or ability of either party to obtain any regulatory consents required for the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement or materially adversely affect the ability of either party to perform its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement.

The merger agreement also provides that, pending consummation of the merger, United will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, except with the prior written consent of Palmetto:

- amend such entities' articles of incorporation, bylaws or other governing instruments in a manner that changes any material term or provision of the United common stock or that otherwise would materially and adversely affect the economic benefits of the merger to the holders of Palmetto common stock or would materially impede United's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

- knowingly take, or fail to take, any action, which action or failure to act prevents or impedes, or could reasonably be expected to prevent or impede the merger from qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

- (i) adjust, split, combine or reclassify any capital stock or other equity interest, (ii) set any record or payment dates for the payment of any dividends or distributions on its capital stock or other equity interest or make, declare or pay any dividend or distribution (except for (A) dividends paid in the ordinary course of business by any direct or indirect wholly owned United subsidiary to United or any other direct or indirect wholly owned United subsidiary, (B) a quarterly cash dividend on United common stock at a rate no greater than $0.08 per share of United common stock consistent with past practice, or (C) dividends in respect of the outstanding trust preferred securities of United as of the date hereof or make any other distribution on any shares of its capital stock or other equity interest), or (iii) sell, lease, transfer, mortgage, encumber or otherwise dispose of any capital stock in any material United subsidiary;

- take any action that is intended to, would or would reasonably be likely to result in any of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement not being satisfied or prevent or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, except, in every case, as may be required by applicable law; or

- agree to or make any commitment to, take, or adopt any resolutions of the Board of Directors of United in support of, any of the actions set forth above.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that United will give written notice promptly to Palmetto, upon becoming aware of the occurrence or impending occurrence of any event or circumstance relating to United or any of its subsidiaries which (i) has had or is reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect, (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, or (iii) would be reasonably likely to prevent or materially interfere with the consummation of the merger, and use its reasonable efforts to prevent or promptly to remedy the same.

Interests of the Directors and Officers of Palmetto in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Palmetto Board of Directors with respect to the merger agreement, Palmetto stockholders should be aware that the executive officers and directors of Palmetto have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Palmetto shareholders generally. The Palmetto Board of Directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and making its recommendation that Palmetto shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement. These interests are described in further detail below. For purposes of all Palmetto agreements and plans described below, the completion of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement will constitute a change of control, change in control or term of similar meaning.

Indemnification and Insurance

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, United has agreed that for six years after the completion of the merger, it will (subject to certain limitations) indemnify, and provide advance of expenses to, present and former Palmetto directors and officers with respect to liabilities arising from acts or omissions occurring prior to merger. Prior to the merger effective time, United will purchase, or direct Palmetto to purchase, an extended reporting period endorsement under Palmetto's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for acts or omissions occurring prior to the merger effective time by such directors and officers, which shall maintain such Palmetto directors' and officers' liability insurance policy in effect for a period of six years after the merger effective time; provided that United shall not be obligated to make aggregate annual premium payments for such six-year period an amount in excess of 300% of the annual premium payments on such Palmetto directors' and officers' liability insurance policy in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds such 300% maximum premium amount, then United shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to such 300% maximum premium amount.

Existing Palmetto Employment Agreements

Palmetto is currently a party to employment agreements with each of Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon. These employment agreements provide that upon the occurrence of a change in control, each executive is entitled to a lump sum cash payment in an amount equal to his then current annual base salary multiplied by three plus any bonus earned or accrued through the date of change in control (equal to a pro rata portion of the executive's previous year's bonus based on the number of days the executive was employed during the year of the change in control). These agreements also provide that if Palmetto terminates Mr. Erwin or Mr. Dixon without cause or either terminates for good reason, Palmetto will pay severance compensation to the executive in an amount equal to 100% of his then current annual base salary plus any bonus earned through the date of termination (including any amounts awarded for previous years but which were not yet paid); provided, however, that if the executive's employment is terminated without cause or the executive terminates for good reason within 12 months following payment due to the executive under the employment agreement as a result of a change in control, then the executive shall not receive any such severance compensation upon such termination without cause or termination with good reason. In addition, these agreements provide that any restrictions on any outstanding equity incentive awards granted to the executives will lapse and such incentive awards will immediately become 100% vested.

Under these agreements, if any severance payments are deemed to constitute "excess parachute payments" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, then the agreements include a "best net after tax" compliance provision with a potential limited "gross-up" relating to certain proposed equity grants. The proposed gross-up provision is structured to apply only if the additional value attributable to the equity awards resulting from a change in control would independently constitute an "excess parachute payment," and no such "gross-up" payment is expected to be triggered by the merger. Under these employment agreements, if the gross up payment relating to the equity awards is not triggered, the best net after tax provision will apply and cause the executive's severance payment to either be (i) reduced to an amount which does not trigger the Section 280G tax or (ii) paid in full, depending on which payment would result in the executive receiving the greatest after tax payment. In such case, the executive would be liable for any excise tax owed on the parachute payments, including any portion attributable to the equity grants.

Each employment agreement also contains provisions relating to non-solicitation of clients and personnel and non-competition during the term of employment and 12 months thereafter, as well as provision relating to the protection of confidential information and trade secrets. These non-solicitation and non-compete provisions do not apply if the executive terminates his employment for "good reason," which generally means that any one or more of the following conditions arise without the consent of the executive: a material diminution of base salary; a material diminution in the executive's authority, duties or responsibilities; a material diminution in the authority, duties or responsibilities of the supervisor to whom the executive is required to report, including a requirement that an executive report to a corporate officer or employee instead of directly to the Board of Directors; a material diminution in the budget over which the executive retains authority; a material change in geographic location at which the executive must perform the services; or any other action or inaction that constitutes a material breach of the terms of the executive's employment agreement.

Treatment of Outstanding Palmetto Equity Awards

Under the merger agreement, outstanding equity-based awards held by Palmetto's directors and executive officers as of the merger effective time will be treated as follows:

Palmetto Stock Options

All outstanding Palmetto stock options granted under the Palmetto 2011 Stock Incentive Plan, whether or not exercisable, will become vested and exercisable and converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Palmetto common stock underlying such Palmetto stock option by (ii) the weighted average merger consideration per Palmetto share, less the exercise price per share under such stock option, subject to any income or employment tax withholding required under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Mr. Erwin, Mr. Dixon and Mr. Jones hold 192,308, 120,193 and 23,750 stock options, respectively, under the Palmetto 2011 Stock Incentive Plan, with a weighted average exercise price per share of $10.40, $10.40 and $13.27, respectively (and of such stock options, 128,206, 80,128 and 8,833, are vested as of July 8, 2015). No Palmetto directors other than Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon hold any stock options granted under the Palmetto 2011 Stock Incentive Plan. For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable in connection with the merger to each of Palmetto's named executive officers on settlement of their unvested equity-based awards, see "— Quantification of Potential Payments to Palmetto's Named Executive Officers in Connection with the Merger" below.

All outstanding Palmetto stock options granted under the Palmetto 1997 Stock Compensation Plan, whether or not exercisable, will be converted into a stock option to purchase shares of United common stock, exercisable upon the same terms and conditions as under the 1997 Stock Compensation Plan and the applicable option agreement issued thereunder, except that (i) each such Palmetto option shall be exercisable for that whole number of shares of United common stock equal to the number of shares of Palmetto common stock subject to the Palmetto option immediately prior to the effective time multiplied by 0.97, and (ii) the option price per share of United common stock shall be an amount equal to the option price per share of Palmetto common stock subject to such Palmetto option in effect immediately prior to the effective time divided by 0.97. Prior to the merger, Palmetto will use its reasonable best efforts to enter into agreements with one or more holders of Palmetto stock options granted under the Palmetto 1997 Stock Compensation Plan to cancel such holder's Palmetto stock options under such plan for consideration of $0.01 per share of Palmetto common stock underlying any such Palmetto stock options. Palmetto director Jane S. Sosebee holds fully-vested stock options granted under the 1997 Stock Compensation Plan to acquire 1,250 shares of Palmetto common stock.

Palmetto Restricted Stock

Each share of Palmetto common stock subject to restrictions on transfer and/or forfeiture granted under the Palmetto 2008 Restricted Stock Plan or the 2011 Stock Incentive Plan that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will become fully vested and will be converted automatically into and represent the right to receive the merger consideration, subject to any income or employment tax withholding required under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any provision of applicable law.

As of July 8, 2015 Palmetto directors John D. Hopkins, Jr., Ms. Sosebee and J. David Wasson, Jr. held 1,186 shares, 512 shares and 100 shares, respectively, of unvested Palmetto restricted stock. We estimate that the aggregate amount of merger consideration that would be issuable in respect of such Palmetto restricted stock would be $21,763, $9,395 and $1,835, respectively. The estimated dollar amounts specified in this paragraph were determined by multiplying the respective number of shares of Palmetto restricted stock by $18.35, which was the average closing price per Palmetto share over the first five business days following the public announcement of the merger agreement on April 22, 2015. The actual value of merger consideration to be received in respect of shares of Palmetto restricted stock will depend on the price of United common stock at the time of the closing of the merger as well as the allocation of cash or shares of United common stock received in respect of such Palmetto restricted stock.

As of July 8, 2015, Palmetto named executive officers Mr. Erwin, Mr. Dixon and Mr. Jones held 16,408 shares, 10,500 shares and 5,133 shares, respectively, of unvested Palmetto restricted stock. For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable in connection with the merger to each of Palmetto's named executive officers on settlement of their unvested equity-based awards, see "— Quantification of Potential Payments to Palmetto's Named Executive Officers in Connection with the Merger" below.

Other than the named executive officers and Mr. Hopkins, Ms. Sosebee and Mr. Wasson, no other Palmetto directors or executive officers hold unvested Palmetto equity awards.

Employment with United

Each of Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dixon have agreed to serve as officers of the Bank upon the closing of the merger.

Mr. Erwin will become the President and Chief Executive Officer of South Carolina for the Bank, with an annual base salary of $275,000. Upon commencement of employment, Mr. Erwin will receive (i) a signing bonus of $105,000 payable 30 days after closing; and (ii) a guaranteed first year bonus of $70,000 payable twelve months after closing. Mr. Erwin will also be eligible to participate in United's management incentive plan and will be issued no less than $250,000 in performance and time-based restricted stock awards on the same terms as similarly situated executives by the one year anniversary of closing. The equity incentive awards will vest over no more than four (4) years. Mr. Erwin will be eligible to participate in United's other employee benefit plans, fringe benefits, and perquisites as provided to similarly situated executives, including receiving a change in control agreement that will provide for a lump-sum severance payment equal to two (2) times his annual base salary and target bonus for the year in which a termination occurs following or in anticipation of a change in control.

Mr. Dixon will become an Executive Vice President of the Bank, with an annual base salary of $250,000. Upon commencement of employment, Mr. Dixon will receive (i) a signing bonus of $47,500 payable 30 days after closing; and (ii) a guaranteed first year bonus of $50,000 payable twelve months after closing. Mr. Dixon will also be eligible to participate in United's management incentive plan and will be issued no less than $100,000 in performance and time-based restricted stock awards on the same terms as similarly situated executives by the one year anniversary of closing. The equity incentive awards will vest over no more than four (4) years. Mr. Dixon will be eligible to participate in United's other employee benefit plans, fringe benefits, and perquisites as provided to similarly situated executives, including receiving a change in control agreement that will provide for a lump-sum severance payment equal to two (2) times his annual base salary and target bonus for the year in which a termination occurs following or in anticipation of a change in control.

United has agreed to provide to officers and employees of Palmetto and Palmetto Bank who continue employment with United or its subsidiaries employee benefits under employee benefit plans, on terms and conditions substantially similar to those currently provided to similarly situated United officers and employees.

Quantification of Potential Payments to Palmetto's Named Executive Officers in Connection with the Merger

The information set forth in the table below summarizes certain compensation for each of Palmetto's "named executive officers," which consist of its principal executive officer, principal financial officer and the other most highly compensated executive officer, that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger. The amounts indicated below are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur or be accurate on the relevant date, including assumptions described below, and do not reflect certain compensation actions that may occur before the completion of the merger. For purposes of calculating such amounts, we have assumed July 9, 2015, the latest practicable date prior to the filing of this document, as the closing date of the merger. In addition, there are no amounts payable to any of Palmetto's named executive officers that are attributable to a double trigger arrangement (i.e., amounts triggered by a change in control for which payment is conditioned upon the executive officer's termination without cause or resignation for good reason within a twelve month time period following the change in control).

Name	Cash $(1)	Equity $(2)	Pension/ NQDC ($)	Perquisites/ Benefits ($)	Tax Reimbursements ($)	Other ($)	Total ($)
Samuel L. Erwin	$ 1,036,934	$ 810,698	—	—	—	—	$ 1,847,632
Lee S. Dixon	$ 848,514	$ 511,192	—	—	—	—	$ 1,359,706
Roy D. Jones	$ 11,474	$ 136,129	—	—	—	—	$ 147,603

(1)

The amounts set forth represent single trigger payments of $1,135,575 and $891,156 due to Messrs. Erwin and Dixon, respectively, upon a change in control pursuant to their employment agreements. These amounts also include minimum pro-rata annual bonuses of $30,247 and $21,660 due to Messrs. Erwin and Dixon, respectively, for the year in which the change in control occurs pursuant to their employment agreements and $11,474 for Mr. Jones who does not have an employment agreement. These amounts also reflect reductions of $128,888 and $64,302 in the amount which would be payable to Messrs. Erwin and Dixon, respectively, due to the effect of the Internal Revenue Code Section 280G cutback provision in their employment agreements. These amounts are payable in a single lump sum payment due 15 days following the change in control.

(2)

The amounts set forth represent single trigger acceleration of outstanding Palmetto restricted stock awards and stock options for which vesting will be accelerated as a result of the merger. For both the restricted stock awards and the stock options, the calculated amounts are based on the average closing market price of Palmetto common stock over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the merger ($18.35 per share). The restricted stock award values are $301,087, $192,675 and $94,191 for Messrs. Erwin, Dixon and Jones, respectively, which are different from the restricted stock valuation for purposes of Internal Revenue Code Section 280G (the "280G restricted stock value"). The 280G restricted stock value is determined as of the date of the change of control and is based on several factors, including the stock's fair market value, and the length of time until the unvested shares would otherwise have vested, assuming no change of control. The stock options values are $509,611, $318,517 and $41,938, respectively (which amounts equal the difference between the exercise price and the per-share consideration), and the stock options will be cashed out in connection with the closing of the merger.

Differences in Legal Rights between Shareholders of Palmetto and United

Following the merger you will no longer be a Palmetto shareholder and, if you receive shares of United following the merger, your rights as a shareholder will no longer be governed by Palmetto's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the South Carolina Business Corporation Act. You will be a United shareholder and your rights as a United shareholder will be governed by United's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the Georgia Business Corporation Code. Your former rights as a Palmetto shareholder and your new rights as a United shareholder are different in certain ways, including the following:

United intends to continue paying cash dividends, but the amount and frequency of cash dividends, if any, will be determined by United’s Board of Directors after consideration of certain non-financial and financial factors including earnings, capital requirements, and the financial condition of United, and will depend on cash dividends paid to it by its subsidiary bank. The ability of United’s subsidiary bank to pay dividends to it is restricted by certain regulatory requirements.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. After the merger, the results of operations of Palmetto will be included in the consolidated financial statements of United. The merger consideration will be allocated based on the fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. Any excess of cost over fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets of Palmetto acquired will be recorded as goodwill. Any identified intangible asset may be amortized by charges to operations under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

Regulatory Approvals

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions have all approved the merger. As a result, we have received all required regulatory approvals other than the approval of the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia. The review of the merger application by the Federal Reserve, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance or the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions did not include an evaluation of the proposed transaction from the financial perspective of the individual shareholders of Palmetto. Further, no shareholder should construe the approval of the merger application by the Federal Reserve, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance and the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions to be a recommendation that the shareholders vote to approve the proposal. Each shareholder entitled to vote should evaluate the proposal to determine the personal financial impact of the completion of the proposed transaction. Shareholders not fully knowledgeable in such matters are advised to obtain the assistance of competent professionals in evaluating all aspects of the proposal including any determination that the completion of the proposed transaction is in the best financial interest of the shareholder.

No Dissenters' Rights in the Merger

Shareholders of a corporation that is proposing to merge or consolidate with another entity are sometimes entitled under relevant state laws to appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the proposed transaction depending on the circumstances. These rights generally confer on shareholders who oppose a merger or the consideration to be received in a merger the right to receive, in lieu of the consideration being offered in the merger, the fair value for their shares as determined in a judicial appraisal proceeding.

Palmetto shareholders are not entitled to appraisal or dissenters' rights under South Carolina law in connection with the merger because Palmetto common stock was listed on the NASDAQ Capital Market on the record date for the special meeting.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences and Opinion of Tax Counsel

Subject to the limitations, assumptions and qualifications described herein, in the opinion of each of Troutman Sanders LLP and Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough, LLP, the following discussion summarizes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger generally applicable to "U.S. holders" (as defined below) of Palmetto common stock that exchange their shares in the merger. This summary is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial authorities, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date of this discussion and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) and differing interpretations. The opinions of tax counsel for each of United and Palmetto are filed as Exhibit 8.1 and Exhibit 8.2, respectively, to the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this document is a part.

This summary is limited to U.S. holders (as defined below) that hold their shares of Palmetto common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Furthermore, this discussion does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular Palmetto shareholder or to Palmetto shareholders that are subject to special rules under U.S.

federal income tax laws, such as: shareholders that are not U.S. holders; financial institutions; insurance companies; mutual funds; tax-exempt organizations; S corporations or other pass-through entities (or investors in such entities); regulated investment companies; real estate investment trusts; dealers in securities or currencies; persons subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code; former citizens or residents of the United States; persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting; persons who own more than 5% of the outstanding common stock of Palmetto; persons who hold Palmetto common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction; and U.S. holders who acquired their shares of Palmetto common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

For purposes of this section, the term “U.S. holder” means a beneficial owner of Palmetto common stock that for United States federal income tax purposes is: a citizen or resident of the United States; a corporation, or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia; an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source; or a trust, the substantial decisions of which are controlled by one or more U.S. persons and which is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court, or a trust that validly has elected under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If a partnership (including any entity or arrangement that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds Palmetto common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisers about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

Holders of Palmetto common stock are urged to consult with their own tax advisors as to the tax consequences of the merger in their particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of any changes in those laws.

The Merger

The merger is intended to constitute a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Consummation of the merger is conditioned upon each of United and Palmetto receiving a written tax opinion, dated the closing date of the merger, from their respective outside legal counsels to the effect that, based upon facts, representations and assumptions set forth in such opinions, (i) the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and (ii) United and Palmetto will each be a party to that reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code. An opinion of counsel represents the counsel’s best legal judgment and is not binding on the IRS or any court, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any such opinion. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which these opinions is based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected. Accordingly, each Palmetto shareholder should consult its tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences of the merger to such holder.

Consequences to United and Palmetto

Each of United and Palmetto will be a party to the merger within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code, and neither United nor Palmetto will recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger.

Consequences to Shareholders

The federal income tax consequences of the merger to a Palmetto shareholder generally will depend on whether the Palmetto shareholder exchanges its Palmetto common stock for cash, United common stock or a combination of cash and United common stock.

Exchange Solely for Cash. In general, if pursuant to the merger a U.S. holder exchanges all of its shares of Palmetto common stock solely for cash, that shareholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and its adjusted tax basis in the shares of Palmetto common stock surrendered. Such gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares surrendered in the exchange and any gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder has held such stock for more than one year as of the merger date. If, however, the U.S. holder constructively owns shares of Palmetto common stock that are exchanged for shares of United common stock in the merger or owns shares of United common stock actually or constructively after the merger, the consequences to that shareholder may be similar to the consequences described below under the heading “Exchange for United Common Stock and Cash,” except that the amount of consideration, if any, treated as a dividend may not be limited to the amount of that shareholder’s gain.

Exchange Solely for United Common Stock. If pursuant to the merger a U.S. holder exchanges all of its shares of Palmetto common stock solely for shares of United common stock, that shareholder will not recognize any gain or loss except in respect of cash received in lieu of any fractional share of United common stock (as discussed below).

Exchange for United Common Stock and Cash. If pursuant to the merger a U.S. holder exchanges all of its shares of Palmetto common stock for a combination of United common stock and cash, the U.S. holder generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of: (1) the amount of cash received in exchange for the Palmetto common stock in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of United common stock) and (2) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of cash treated as received in exchange for Palmetto common stock in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of United common stock) plus the fair market value of United common stock (including the fair market value of any fractional share) received in the merger (determined when the merger occurs), over (b) the U.S. holder’s tax basis in the Palmetto common stock exchanged. For this purpose, gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares surrendered in the exchange, and a loss realized on one block of shares may not be used to offset a gain realized on another block of shares. Any recognized gain generally will be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder has held its Palmetto common stock for more than one year as of the merger date. If, however, the cash received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend, the gain would be treated as a dividend to the extent of the Palmetto shareholder’s ratable share of accumulated earnings and profits as calculated for United States federal income tax purposes. See “Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend.”

Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend. There are certain circumstances in which all or part of the gain recognized by a U.S. holder will be treated as a dividend rather than as capital gain. In general, such determination depends on whether, and to what extent, the merger reduces a U.S. holder’s percentage share ownership interest in United that the U.S. holder actually and constructively owns in comparison to the percentage interest the U.S. holder actually and constructively would have owned in United had such U.S. holder received only United common stock (and no cash) in the merger. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon a U.S. holder’s particular circumstances, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, a U.S. holder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the potential income tax treatment by the U.S. holder of any gain recognized in connection with the merger.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share. If a U.S. holder receives cash in the merger instead of a fractional share interest in United common stock, the U.S. holder will be treated as having received such fractional share in the merger, and then as having received cash in exchange for such fractional share. Gain or loss would be recognized in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the Palmetto shareholder’s adjusted tax basis allocable to such fractional share. Except as described in the section entitled “Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend”, this gain or loss generally will be a capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the U.S. holder held its shares of Palmetto common stock for more than one year.

Tax Basis in, and Holding Period for, United Common Stock. The aggregate tax basis of the United common stock received by a U.S. holder as a result of the merger (including any fractional share deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be the same as such shareholder’s aggregate tax basis in its Palmetto common stock surrendered in the merger, decreased by the amount of cash received in exchange for such Palmetto common stock (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of United common stock) and increased by the amount of gain, if any, recognized in the exchange (excluding any gain recognized with respect to fractional share of United common stock deemed sold in the merger). The holding period of the United common stock (including any fractional share deemed received and redeemed as described below) a U.S. holder receives as a result of the exchange will include the holding period of Palmetto common stock surrendered in the merger. If a U.S. holder has differing bases or holding periods in respect of its shares of Palmetto common stock, it should consult its tax advisor with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of United common stock received in the exchange.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. A non-corporate U.S. holder may be subject under certain circumstances to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) on any cash payments received. A U.S. holder generally will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if such U.S. holder (1) furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies that it is not subject to backup withholding and otherwise comply with all the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or (2) provide proof that it is otherwise exempt from backup withholding. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided such U.S. holder timely furnishes the required information to the IRS. U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of backup withholding based on their particular circumstances and the availability and procedure for obtaining an exemption from backup withholding.

A Palmetto shareholder who receives United common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each Palmetto shareholder who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a "significant holder" that receives United common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-3 setting forth information regarding the parties to the merger, the date of the merger, such Palmetto shareholder's basis in the Palmetto common stock surrendered and the fair market value of the United common stock and cash received in the merger. A "significant holder" is a holder of Palmetto common stock who, immediately before the merger, owned at least 1% of the outstanding stock of Palmetto or securities of Palmetto with a basis for federal income tax purposes of at least $1 million.

THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION IS INTENDED ONLY AS A SUMMARY OF THE MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER AND DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OR DISCUSSION OF ALL POTENTIAL TAX EFFECTS RELEVANT THERETO. PALMETTO SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING TAX RETURN REPORTING REQUIREMENTS, THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF NON-U.S., FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, AND OTHER APPLICABLE TAX LAWS, AND THE EFFECT OF ANY PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE TAX LAWS.

Litigation Related to the Merger

A putative shareholder class action lawsuit, referred to as the merger litigation, was filed in connection with the merger agreement. Underwood v. Erwin et al., Case No. 2015-CP-23-03206, was filed on May 19, 2015, and amended on June 26, 2015, in the Court of Common Pleas of the State of South Carolina. This action generally alleged, among other things, that the members of the Palmetto Board of Directors breached their fiduciary duties to Palmetto shareholders by failing to maximize shareholder value and by failing to disclose certain information with respect to the proposed merger between Palmetto and United. The complaint also alleged claims against United for aiding and abetting these alleged breaches of fiduciary duties. The plaintiff sought injunctive relief prohibiting consummation of the merger and, in the event the merger is consummated, sought rescission and restitution, an accounting, and attorneys' fees and costs. The plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the complaint without prejudice on July 6, 2015. At this stage, it is not possible to predict whether any additional lawsuits will be filed and, if one is, the outcome of any such proceeding or its impact on United, Palmetto or the merger.

PROPOSAL NO. 2 — ADVISORY VOTE ON MERGER-RELATED COMPENSATION

Section 951 of the Dodd-Frank Act and Rule 14a-21(c) under the Exchange Act require that Palmetto seek a non-binding advisory vote from its shareholders to approve certain compensation that its named executive officers will receive from Palmetto and The Palmetto Bank in connection with the merger.

Palmetto is presenting this proposal, which gives Palmetto shareholders the opportunity to express their views on such merger-related compensation by voting for or against the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, that the compensation that will become payable to Palmetto’s named executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger, as disclosed in the section captioned “Proposal 1 — The Merger — Interests of the Directors and Officers of Palmetto in the Merger” and the related tables and narrative, is hereby approved.”

The Palmetto Board of Directors unanimously recommends that shareholders approve the merger-related compensation arrangements described in this document by voting “FOR” the above proposal.

Approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger, and the vote with respect to this proposal is advisory only and will not be binding on Palmetto or United. Therefore, if the merger is approved by the Palmetto shareholders and completed, the merger-related compensation will still be paid to the Palmetto named executive officers.

INFORMATION ABOUT UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS, INC.

General

Financial and other information about United is set forth on United's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 (which includes certain provisions of United's Proxy Statement for its 2015 Annual Meeting) and the quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015 which is incorporated herein by reference.

Securities

The authorized capital stock of United currently consists of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, 30,000,000 shares of non-voting common stock, $1.00 par value per share, and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $1.00 par value per share.

Common Stock

All voting rights are vested in the holders of the common stock. Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote per share on any issue requiring a vote at any meeting. The shares do not have cumulative voting rights. Upon liquidation, holders of United's common stock, together with holders of United's non-voting common stock, junior preferred stock, junior participating preferred stock and Series E preferred stock, will be entitled to receive on a pro rata basis, after payment or provision for payment of all our debts and liabilities, and after all distributions payments are made to holders of United's Series A preferred stock, Series B preferred stock, Series C preferred stock, Series D preferred stock and Series H preferred stock, all of United's assets available for distribution, in cash or in kind. Subject to the rights of holders of United's Series A preferred stock, Series B preferred stock, Series C preferred stock, Series D preferred stock and Series H preferred stock to receive dividends, all shares of United's common stock, together with all shares of United's non-voting common stock, junior preferred stock and Series E preferred stock, are entitled to share equally in any dividends that United's Board of Directors may declare on its common stock, non-voting common stock, junior preferred stock and Series E preferred stock from sources legally available for distribution.

The outstanding shares of United common stock are, and the shares of United common stock to be issued by United in connection with the merger will be, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

As of July 8, 2015, 54,414,863 shares of common stock were issued and outstanding, exclusive of 413,013 shares issuable to participants in United's Deferred Compensation Plan and 1,021,164 shares reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding options and vesting of restricted stock.

Non-Voting Common Stock

United's authorized non-voting common stock consists of 30,000,000 shares. Except with respect to voting rights and as specifically set forth below, the non-voting common stock has the same designations, powers, preferences, limitations, restrictions, and relative rights as, and is identical in all respects to, United's common stock.

Except as required by Georgia law or United's articles of incorporation, holders of the non-voting common stock have no right to vote on any matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of United's shareholders. United's articles of incorporation provide that, in addition to any other vote required by law, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the non-voting common stock, voting separately as a class, will be required to amend, alter or repeal any provision of the articles of incorporation that significantly and adversely affects the rights, preferences or privileges of the non-voting common stock.

Subject to any preferential dividend rights of any preferred stock of United, the holders of non-voting common stock will be entitled to receive, to the extent permitted by law, such dividends as may be declared from time to time by United's Board of Directors on the common stock. If a dividend is declared and paid with respect to United's common stock, then the Board of Directors will declare and pay an equivalent dividend, on a per share basis, to the non-voting common stock. Likewise, if the Board of Directors declares and pays a dividend on the non-voting common stock, it will declare and pay an equivalent dividend, on a per share basis, on the common stock.

After distribution in full of any preferential amount to be distributed to the holders of any preferred stock of United, holders of non-voting common stock and common stock will be entitled to receive, in the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, distribution of assets or winding-up of United, all of United's remaining assets of whatever kind available for distribution to the shareholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares of common stock and non-voting common stock held by them.

The non-voting common stock may be converted into common stock by any holder of non-voting common stock, other than the initial holder of such non-voting common stock or an affiliate thereof, who acquires one or more shares of non-voting common stock in an "Approved Transfer". An "Approved Transfer" means a sale or other transfer (i) to an affiliate of the holder of the non-voting common stock to be transferred under common control with such holder's ultimate parent, general partner or investment advisor but only if the transferee agrees in writing for the benefit of United to be bound by the terms of an applicable Investor Agreement; (ii) in a widely distributed public offering registered pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933; (iii) to a person that is acquiring at least a majority of United's outstanding "voting securities" (as defined in the Bank Holding Company Act and any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder) not including any voting securities such person is acquiring from the holder of the non-voting common stock to be transferred or its affiliates; or (iv) upon certification by the holder of the non-voting common stock to be transferred in writing to United that such holder believes that the transferee shall not, after giving effect to such transfer, own for purposes of the Bank Holding Company Act, or the Change of Bank Control Act, and any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, more than 2% of any class of voting securities of United outstanding at such time.

As of July 8, 2015, 8,285,516 shares of non-voting common stock were issued and outstanding.

Preferred Stock

United is authorized to issue 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, issuable in specified series and having specified voting, dividend, conversion, liquidation, and other rights and preferences as United's Board of Directors may determine. The preferred stock may be issued for any lawful corporate purpose without further action by United shareholders. The issuance of any preferred stock that has conversion rights might have the effect of diluting the interests of United's other shareholders. In addition, shares of preferred stock could be issued with certain rights, privileges, and preferences, which would deter a tender or exchange offer or discourage the acquisition of control of United.

Of such authorized number of shares of preferred stock, (i) 1,000,000 shares of junior preferred stock are authorized, with no shares issued and outstanding; (ii) 287,411 shares of Series A preferred stock are authorized, with no shares issued and outstanding; (iii) 180,000 shares of Series B preferred stock are authorized, with no shares issued and outstanding; (iv) 65,000 shares of Series C preferred stock are authorized, with no shares issued and outstanding; (v) 25,000 shares of Series D preferred stock are authorized, with no shares issued and outstanding; (vi) 1,000,000 shares of Series E preferred stock are authorized, with no shares issued and outstanding; (vii) 195,872 shares of Series F preferred stock are authorized, with no shares issued and outstanding; (viii) 151,185 shares of Series G preferred stock are authorized, with no shares issued and outstanding; and (ix) 9,992 shares of Series H preferred stock are authorized, with 9,992 shares issued and outstanding, in each case as of July 8, 2015.

Trust Preferred Securities

United has four wholly owned statutory trusts, which have issued guaranteed preferred interests in United's junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. The debentures represent the sole asset of each of the trusts. These debentures qualify as Tier I capital under Federal Reserve Board guidelines. All of the common securities of the trusts are owned by United. United has entered into contractual arrangements which, taken collectively, fully and unconditionally, guarantee payment of: (1) accrued and unpaid distributions required to be paid on the securities; (2) the redemption price with respect to any securities called for redemption by the respective trust; and (3) payments due upon a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, winding up or liquidation of the respective trust. The following is a description of each trust preferred security.

9.00% Trust Preferred Securities

In October 2008, United formed a wholly owned Delaware statutory business trust, United Community Statutory Trust II (“United Statutory Trust II”), which issued $12.131 million of trust preferred securities. The proceeds from the sale of the trust preferred securities were used by United Statutory Trust II to purchase $12.131 million in aggregate principal amount of United’s fixed rate junior subordinate debentures, which bear interest at a fixed rate equal to 9.00%. The securities accrue and pay distributions at a fixed rate equal to 9.00% per annum of the stated liquidation value of $1,000 per capital security. The securities are mandatorily redeemable upon maturity of the debentures on October 31, 2038, or upon earlier redemption as provided in the indenture. United has the right to redeem the debentures purchased by United Statutory Trust II (i) on or after October 31, 2013 or (ii) at any time upon certain events, such as change in the regulatory capital treatment of the trust preferred securities, United Statutory Trust II being deemed an investment company or the occurrence of certain adverse tax events.

8.125% Trust Preferred Securities

In July 1998, United formed a wholly owned Delaware statutory business trust, United Community Capital Trust (“United Trust”), which issued $21 million of guaranteed preferred beneficial interests in United’s junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. The proceeds from the issuance of the securities were used by United Trust to purchase $21.7 million of junior subordinated debentures of United that carry a fixed interest rate of 8.125%. The securities accrue and pay distributions semiannually at a fixed rate of 8.125% per annum of the stated liquidation value of $1,000 per capital security. The securities are mandatorily redeemable upon maturity of the debentures on July 15, 2028, or upon earlier redemption as provided in the indenture. United has the right to redeem the debentures purchased by United Trust: (1) in whole or in part, on or after July 15, 2008, and (2) in whole (but not in part) at any time within 90 days following the occurrence and during the continuation of a tax event, investment company event or capital treatment time (as defined in the indenture). As specified in the indenture, if the debentures are redeemed prior to maturity, the redemption price will be the principal amount, any accrued but unpaid interest, plus a premium ranging from 4.06% in 2008 to 0.41% in 2017.

Floating Rate Trust Preferred Securities

In September 2006, United acquired Southern Bancorp, Inc. (“SBC”) and its wholly owned Delaware statutory trust, Southern Bancorp Capital Trust I (“SBC Trust”), which issued $4.25 million of floating rate capital securities of SBC Trust and $132,000 in floating rate common securities to SBC. The proceeds from the issuance of the securities were used by SBC Trust to purchase $4.382 million of junior subordinated debentures of SBC that bear interest at a rate, reset quarterly, equal to the prime rate plus 1%. The securities accrue and pay distributions quarterly at the then applicable interest rate. The securities mature on March 31, 2034 unless the maturity date is accelerated pursuant to the indenture after March 31, 2009. United has the right to redeem the debentures purchased by SBC Trust: (1) in whole or in part, on or after March 31, 2009 at par, and (2) in whole (but not in part), at any time, within 90 days following the occurrence and during the continuation of a tax event, an investment company event or a capital treatment event at par. As specified in the debenture, if the debentures are redeemed prior to maturity, the redemption price will include any accrued but unpaid interest.

In October 2008, United formed a wholly owned Delaware statutory business trust, United Community Statutory Trust III (“United Statutory Trust III”), which issued $1.238 million of trust preferred securities. The proceeds from the sale of the trust preferred securities were used by United Statutory Trust III to purchase $1.238 million in aggregate principal amount of United’s variable rate junior subordinate debentures, which bear interest at a variable rate equal to prime plus 3%. The securities accrue and pay distributions at a variable rate equal to the prime rate plus 3% per annum of the stated liquidation value of $1,000 per capital security. The securities are mandatorily redeemable upon maturity of the debentures on October 31, 2038, or upon earlier redemption as provided in the indenture. United has the right to redeem the debentures purchased by United Statutory Trust III (i) on or after October 31, 2013 or (ii) at any time upon certain events, such as change in the regulatory capital treatment of the trust preferred securities, United Statutory Trust III being deemed an investment company or the occurrence of certain adverse tax events.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for United's common stock and the debentures is Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company.

Certain Provisions of United's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws Regarding Change of Control

Ability to Consider Other Constituencies

United's articles of incorporation permit its Board of Directors, in determining what is believed to be in the best interest of United and its shareholders, to consider the interests of its employees, customers, suppliers and creditors, the communities in which its offices and establishments are located and all other factors that they consider pertinent, in addition to considering the effects of any actions on United and its shareholders. This provision permits United's Board of Directors to consider numerous judgmental or subjective factors affecting a proposal, including some non-financial matters, and on the basis of these considerations may oppose a business combination or some other transaction which, viewed exclusively from a financial perspective, might be attractive to some, or even a majority, of its shareholders.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

United's articles of incorporation specifically provide that any amendment or repeal of any provision of the articles of incorporation or Article II (Stockholders' Meetings) or Article III (Board of Directors) of the bylaws requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of United's capital stock then issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on such matters.

Supermajority Approval of Interested Business Combinations

United's articles of incorporation provide that if a proposed business combination between United and any interested shareholder is not approved by three-fourths of all directors of United then in office, the business combination must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of United's common stock, including the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock held by shareholders other than the interested shareholder. This provision may discourage attempts by other corporations or groups to acquire control of United, without negotiation with management, through the acquisition of a substantial number of shares of United's stock followed by a forced merger. This provision may also enable a minority of the shareholders of United to prevent a transaction favored by a majority of the shareholders, and may discourage tender offers or other non-open market acquisitions of United's common stock because of the potentially higher vote requirements for shareholder approval of any subsequent business combination. Additionally, in some circumstances, United's Board of Directors could, by withholding its consent to such a transaction, cause the 75%/75% shareholder vote to be required to approve a business combination, thereby enabling management to retain control over the affairs of United and their present positions with United.

Removal of Directors

United's articles of incorporation provide that a member of United's Board of Directors may only be removed for cause, and only upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of capital stock of United entitled to vote thereon. This provision may prevent a significant shareholder from avoiding board scrutiny of a proposed business combination by merely removing directors with conflicting views, and may encourage individuals or groups who desire to propose takeover bids or similar transactions to negotiate with the Board of Directors. However, outside of the context of an acquisition attempt, it may serve as an impediment to a more legitimate need to remove a director.

PROPOSAL NO. 3 — ADJOURNMENT OR POSTPONEMENT OF THE MEETING

If Palmetto does not receive a sufficient number of votes to constitute a quorum or approve the merger agreement, it may propose to adjourn or postpone the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to establish a quorum or approve the merger agreement. Palmetto does not currently intend to propose adjournment or postponement at the special meeting if there are sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement. If approval of the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies is submitted to the Palmetto shareholders for approval, the approval requires that the number of votes cast at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against the proposal. The Board of Directors of Palmetto unanimously recommends that shareholders vote “FOR” the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies to approve the merger agreement.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this document, management of Palmetto knows of no other matters which may be brought before the special shareholders’ meeting other than as described in this document. However, if any matter other than the proposed merger or related matters should properly come before the special meeting, the proposed proxies will be deemed to confer authority to the individuals named as authorized therein to vote the shares represented by the proxy as to any matters that fall within the purposes set forth in the notices of special meeting.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this “Agreement”) dated as of April 22, 2015 is by and between United Community Banks, Inc., a Georgia corporation (“Parent”), and Palmetto Bancshares, Inc., a South Carolina corporation (“PLMT”).

Recitals

WHEREAS, the respective boards of directors of Parent and PLMT have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and shareholders for PLMT to merge with and into Parent, with Parent being the surviving entity (the “Merger”) pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and have unanimously approved the Merger, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, whereby the issued and outstanding shares of PLMT Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration from Parent;

WHEREAS, the board of directors of PLMT has determined to recommend that PLMT’s shareholders approve this Agreement (the “PLMT Recommendation”);

WHEREAS, the Merger is subject to the approvals of the shareholders of PLMT, regulatory agencies, and the satisfaction of certain other conditions described in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, Parent and PLMT desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with the Merger and also to prescribe various conditions to the Merger;

WHEREAS, Parent and PLMT intend, (i) for federal income tax purposes, that the Merger qualifies as a “reorganization” described in Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”); (ii) that this Agreement constitute a “plan of reorganization” within the meaning of Section 1.368-2(g) of the regulations promulgated under the Code; and (iii) that Parent and PLMT will each be a “party to the reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; and

WHEREAS, certain terms used in this Agreement are defined in Section 10.1 of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above and the mutual warranties, representations, covenants, and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

Article 1

TRANSACTIONS AND TERMS OF MERGER

1.1 Merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, PLMT shall be merged with and into Parent pursuant to and with the effect provided in Section 33-11-106 of the South Carolina Business Corporation Act (the “SCBCA”) and Section 14-2-1106 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code, and Parent shall be the Surviving Corporation resulting from the Merger and shall continue to be governed by the Laws of the State of Georgia. The Merger shall be consummated in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement.

1.2 Time and Place of Closing.

The closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the “Closing”) will take place at 11:00 A.M. Eastern Time on the date that the Effective Time occurs (or the immediately preceding day if the Effective Time is earlier than 11:00 A.M. Eastern Time), or at such other time as the Parties, acting through their authorized officers, may mutually agree. The Closing shall be held at such location as may be mutually agreed upon by the Parties and may be effected by electronic or other transmission of signature pages, as mutually agreed upon.

1.3 Effective Time.

The Merger shall be consummated by filing Articles of Merger reflecting the Merger (the “Articles of Merger”) with the South Carolina Secretary of State and with the Georgia Secretary of State. The Merger shall become effective (the “Effective Time”) when the Articles of Merger have been filed with the South Carolina Secretary of State and with the Georgia Secretary of State or at such later time as may be mutually agreed upon by Parent and PLMT and specified in the Articles of Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof (including the closing conditions and termination rights set forth in Articles 8 and 9, respectively, of this Agreement), unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing by the authorized officers of each Party, the Parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Effective Time to occur not later than the second (or, if PLMT has a right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(g), then the fifth) business day after the later of: (i) the effective date (including expiration of any applicable waiting period) of the last required Consent of any Regulatory Authority having authority over and approving or exempting the Merger, and (ii) the date on which the shareholders of PLMT approve this Agreement.

1.4 Bank Merger.

Concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, United Community Bank (“Parent Banksub”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, and The Palmetto Bank (the “Bank”), a wholly owned subsidiary of PLMT, shall enter into the Bank Agreement of Merger, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, with such changes thereto as Parent may reasonably request, pursuant to which the Bank will merge with and into Parent Banksub (the “Bank Merger”). The Bank Merger shall not occur prior to the Effective Time.

Article 2

TERMS OF MERGER

2.1 Articles of Incorporation.

The Articles of Incorporation of Parent in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until otherwise duly amended or repealed.

2.2 Bylaws.

The Bylaws of Parent in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until otherwise duly amended or repealed.

2.3 Directors and Officers.

The directors of Parent in office immediately prior to the Effective Time shall serve as the directors of the Surviving Corporation from and after the Effective Time in accordance with the Surviving Corporation’s Bylaws, until the earlier of their resignation or removal or otherwise ceasing to be a director. The officers of Parent in office immediately prior to the Effective Time, together with such additional persons as may thereafter be elected, shall serve as the officers of the Surviving Corporation from and after the Effective Time in accordance with the Surviving Corporation’s Bylaws, until the earlier of their resignation or removal or otherwise ceasing to be an officer.

Article 3

MANNER OF CONVERTING SHARES

3.1 Effect on PLMT Common Stock.

(a) At the Effective Time, in each case subject to Sections 3.1(d) and 3.2, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the Parties, each share of PLMT Common Stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares of PLMT Common Stock held by either Party or any Subsidiary of either Party (in each case other than shares of PLMT Common Stock held on behalf of third parties or held by any Parent Entity or PLMT Entity as a result of debts previously contracted (such as a foreclosure on a loan)) shall be converted into the right to receive one of the following: (i) cash in the amount of $19.25 less any applicable withholding Taxes (the “Cash Consideration”); (ii) a number of duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio (the “Stock Consideration”); or (iii) a combination of the Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration (the “Mixed Consideration”), in such proportions as requested by PLMT shareholder to the extent available after the proration of the total Merger Consideration to 70% Stock Consideration and 30% Cash Consideration in accordance with Section 3.2 of this Agreement (items (i), (ii), or (iii) are referred to herein individually as the “Per Share Purchase Price” and collectively as the “Merger Consideration”). The “Exchange Ratio” shall be 0.97 shares of Parent Common Stock.

(b) At the Effective Time, all shares of PLMT Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time, and each certificate previously representing any such shares of PLMT Common Stock (the “Certificates”) shall thereafter represent only the right to receive the Per Share Purchase Price.

(c) If, prior to the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of PLMT Common Stock, or the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock, shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, or if a record date prior to the Effective Time has been established with respect to any such change in capitalization, then an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Per Share Purchase Price.

(d) Each share of PLMT Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and owned by any of the Parties or their respective Subsidiaries (in each case other than shares of PLMT Common Stock held on behalf of third parties or as a result of debts previously contracted) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to be outstanding, shall be cancelled and retired without payment of any consideration, and shall cease to exist (the “Extinguished Shares”).

3.2 Election and Proration Procedures.

(a) An election form in such form as Parent and PLMT shall agree (an “Election Form”) shall be mailed on the Mailing Date (as defined below) to each holder of record of PLMT Common Stock. Unless another date is agreed to by Parent and PLMT prior to the Effective Time, the “Mailing Date” shall be the date on which the Proxy/Registration Statement is first mailed to holders of PLMT Common Stock. Parent shall make available Election Forms as may be reasonably requested by all persons who become holders of PLMT Common Stock after the record date for eligibility to vote at the PLMT Shareholders’ Meeting and prior to the Election Deadline (as defined herein), and PLMT shall provide to Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company or such other exchange agent selected by Parent and reasonably acceptable to PLMT (the “Exchange Agent”) all information reasonably necessary for it to perform its obligations as specified herein.

(b) Each Election Form shall entitle the holder of PLMT Common Stock (or the beneficial owner through appropriate and customary documentation and instructions) to elect to receive (i) the Stock Consideration for all of such holder’s shares (a “Stock Election”), (ii) the Cash Consideration for all of such holder’s shares (a “Cash Election”), (iii) the Mixed Consideration for all of such holder’s shares (a “Mixed Election”) or (iv) make no election (a “Non-Election”). Holders of record of PLMT Common Stock who hold such shares as nominees, trustees or in other representative capacity (a “Holder Representative”) may submit multiple Election Forms, provided that such Holder Representative certifies that each such Election Form covers all of the shares of PLMT Common Stock held by that Holder Representative for a particular beneficial owner. The shares of PLMT Common Stock as to which a Stock Election has been made (including pursuant to a Mixed Election) are referred to herein as “Stock Election Shares” and the aggregate number thereof is referred to herein as the “Stock Election Number.” The shares of PLMT Common Stock as to which a Cash Election has been made (including pursuant to a Mixed Election) are referred to herein as “Cash Election Shares” and the aggregate number thereof is referred to as the “Cash Election Number.” Shares of PLMT Common Stock as to which no election has been made (or as to which an Election Form is not properly completed or returned in a timely fashion) are referred to as “Non-Election Shares.”

(c) To be effective, a properly completed Election Form must be received by the Exchange Agent on or prior to the date of the PLMT’s Shareholders’ Meeting (or such other date as the Parties may mutually agree prior to the Effective Time) (the “Election Deadline”). An election shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have actually received a properly completed Election Form by the Election Deadline. For the holders of PLMT Common Stock who make a Non-Election, subject to Section 3.2(e), Parent shall have the authority to determine the type of consideration constituting the Per Share Purchase Price to be exchanged for the Non-Election Shares. Any PLMT shareholder may at any time prior to, but not after, the Election Deadline change his or her election by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised Election Form. Any PLMT shareholder may, at any time prior to the Election Deadline, revoke his or her election by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline or by withdrawal prior to the Election Deadline of his or her Certificates, or of the guarantee of delivery of such Certificates. All elections shall be revoked automatically if the Exchange Agent is notified in writing by either Party that this Agreement has been terminated prior to the Effective Time pursuant to Section 9.1 of this Agreement. If a shareholder either (i) does not submit a properly completed Election Form by the Election Deadline or (ii) revokes its Election Form prior to the Election Deadline but does not submit a new properly executed Election Form prior to the Election Deadline, the shares of PLMT Common Stock held by such shareholder shall be designated as Non-Election Shares. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly made and to disregard immaterial defects in any Election Form, and any good faith decisions of the Exchange Agent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive.

(d) The number of shares of PLMT Common Stock to be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration shall be equal to 30% of the number of shares of PLMT Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the “Aggregate Cash Limit”) and the number of shares of PLMT Common Stock to be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration shall be equal to 70% of the number of shares of PLMT Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the “Aggregate Stock Limit”).

(e) Within three business days after the later to occur of the Election Deadline or the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to effect the allocation among holders of PLMT Common Stock of Rights to receive the Per Share Purchase Price and to distribute such as follows:

(i) if the Stock Election Number exceeds the Aggregate Stock Limit, then all Cash Election Shares and all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration, and each Stock Election Share shall be converted into the right to receive (A) the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Stock Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Aggregate Stock Limit and the denominator of which is the Stock Election Number and (B) the Cash Consideration in respect of the remaining number of such Stock Election Shares;

(ii) if the Cash Election Number exceeds the Aggregate Cash Limit, then all Stock Election Shares and all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration, and each Cash Election Share shall be converted into the right to receive (A) the Cash Consideration in respect of that number of Cash Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of Cash Election Shares held by such holder by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Aggregate Cash Limit and the denominator of which is the Cash Election Number and (B) the Stock Consideration in respect of the remaining number of such Cash Election Shares; and

(iii) if the Stock Election Number and the Cash Election Number do not exceed the Aggregate Stock Limit and the Aggregate Cash Limit, respectively, then (i) all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration, (ii) all Stock Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration, and (iii) all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and/or the Stock Consideration such that the aggregate number of shares of PLMT Common Stock entitled to receive the Cash Consideration is equal to the Aggregate Cash Limit and the aggregate number of shares of PLMT Common Stock entitled to receive the Stock Consideration is equal to the Aggregate Stock Limit.

3.3 Exchange Procedures.

(a) On the Closing Date, Parent shall make available to the Exchange Agent, for exchange in accordance with this Section 3.3, the Merger Consideration (including cash in an aggregate amount sufficient for payment in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which holders of PLMT Common Stock may be entitled pursuant to Section 3.7); provided that as of the Effective Time the Parent shall deliver to the Exchange Agent evidence of shares, in book entry form, representing the number of shares of Parent Common Stock issuable to the holders of PLMT Common Stock as part of the Merger Consideration. In addition, Parent shall make available to the Exchange Agent, as necessary from time to time at or after the Effective Time, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.3(f). All Merger Consideration (including cash in an aggregate amount sufficient for payment in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which holders of PLMT Common Stock may be entitled pursuant to Section 3.7) and dividends and distributions made available to the Exchange Agent pursuant to this Section 3.3(a) shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Exchange Fund." In the event the cash in the Exchange Fund shall be insufficient to fully satisfy all of the payment obligations to be made by the Exchange Agent hereunder (including pursuant to Section 3.7), Parent shall promptly make available to the Exchange Agent the amounts so required to satisfy such payment obligations in full. The Exchange Agent shall deliver the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock out of the Exchange Fund. Except as contemplated by this Section 3.3, the Exchange Fund will not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Unless different timing is agreed to by Parent and PLMT, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, but in any event no more than five business days after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to the former shareholders of PLMT appropriate transmittal materials. The letter of transmittal shall provide instructions for the submission of Certificates representing, immediately prior to the Effective Time, shares of PLMT Common Stock (or an indemnity satisfactory to PLMT, Parent and Exchange Agent, if any of such Certificates are lost, stolen, or destroyed) to each holder of record of shares of PLMT Common Stock converted into the right to receive the applicable portion of the Merger Consideration at the Effective Time. In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of PLMT Common Stock represented by one or more Certificates that are not registered in the transfer records of PLMT, the Per Share Purchase Price payable for such shares as provided in Sections 3.1 and 3.2 may be issued to a transferee if the Certificate or Certificates representing such shares are delivered to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence such transfer and by evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Exchange Agent that such transfer is proper and that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. In the event any certificate representing PLMT Common Stock certificate shall have been lost, mutilated, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such certificate to be lost, mutilated, stolen, or destroyed and the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Parent may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate, the Exchange Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, mutilated, stolen, or destroyed certificate the Per Share Purchase Price as provided for in Sections 3.1 and 3.2 (together with any unpaid dividends or distributions with respect thereto). The Exchange Agent may establish such other reasonable and customary rules and procedures in connection with its duties as it may deem appropriate. Parent shall pay all charges and expenses, including those of the Exchange Agent in connection with the distribution of the Per Share Purchase Price as provided in Sections 3.1 and 3.2. Parent or its Exchange Agent will maintain a book entry list of Parent Common Stock to which each former holder of PLMT Common Stock is entitled.

(c) After the Effective Time, each holder of shares of PLMT Common Stock (other than Extinguished Shares) issued and outstanding at the Effective Time shall surrender the Certificate or Certificates representing such shares to the Exchange Agent and shall promptly (and in any event within five business days) upon surrender thereof (or an indemnity satisfactory to PLMT, Parent and Exchange Agent, if any of such certificates are lost, stolen, or destroyed) receive in exchange therefor the consideration provided in Sections 3.1 and 3.2 (and any unpaid dividends or distributions thereon), without interest, pursuant to this Section 3.3. The Certificate or Certificates of PLMT Common Stock so surrendered shall be duly endorsed as the Exchange Agent may reasonably require. Parent shall not be obligated to deliver the consideration to which any former holder of PLMT Common Stock is entitled as a result of the Merger until such holder surrenders such holder's Certificate or Certificates for exchange (or an indemnity satisfactory to PLMT, Parent and Exchange Agent, if any of such Certificates are lost, stolen, or destroyed) as provided in this Section 3.3. Any other provision of this Agreement notwithstanding, neither any Parent Entity, nor any PLMT Entity, nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of PLMT Common Stock for any amounts paid or properly delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat, or similar Law.

(d) Each of Parent and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of PLMT Common Stock and PLMT Options such amounts, if any, as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any provision of state, local, or foreign Tax Law or by any Taxing Authority or Governmental Authority. To the extent that any amounts are so withheld by Parent, the Surviving Corporation, or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the shares of PLMT Common Stock, as applicable in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Parent, the Surviving Corporation, or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be.

(e) Any portion of the Merger Consideration and cash delivered to the Exchange Agent by Parent pursuant to Section 3.3(a) that remains unclaimed by the holder of shares of PLMT Common Stock for one year after the Effective Time (as well as any proceeds from any investment thereof) shall be delivered by the Exchange Agent to Parent. Any holder of shares of PLMT Common Stock who have not theretofore complied with Section 3.3(c) shall thereafter look only to Parent for the consideration and any unpaid dividends or distributions deliverable in respect of each share of PLMT Common Stock such holder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement without any interest thereon.

(f) No dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented shares of PLMT Common Stock with respect to the shares, if any, of Parent Common Stock represented thereby, in each case unless and until the surrender of such Certificate (or an indemnity satisfactory to PLMT, Parent and Exchange Agent, if any of such Certificates are lost, stolen, or destroyed) in accordance with this Section 3.3. Subject to the effect of applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws, following surrender of any such Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.3, the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive, without interest, (i) the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore payable with respect to the whole shares of Parent Common Stock represented by such Certificate and not paid and/or (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions payable with respect to whole shares of Parent Common Stock represented by such Certificate with a record date after the Effective Time (but before such surrender date) and with a payment date subsequent to the issuance of the Parent Common Stock issuable with respect to such Certificate.

(g) Adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of PLMT shall constitute ratification of the appointment of the Exchange Agent.

3.4 Effect on Parent Common Stock.

At and after the Effective Time, each share of Parent Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain an issued and outstanding share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation and shall not be affected by the Merger.

3.5 PLMT Options; PLMT Restricted Stock.

(a) At the Effective Time, all Rights with respect to PLMT Common Stock pursuant to stock options granted by PLMT (the "PLMT Options") which are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether or not exercisable, shall be:

(i) With respect to all outstanding PLMT Options granted under the PLMT 2011 Stock Incentive Plan, converted at the Effective Time into an obligation of Parent to pay (or cause to be paid) and a right of the holder to receive, in full satisfaction of any Rights in respect of the PLMT Option, a cash payment equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of PLMT Common Stock underlying such Person's PLMT Options by (2) the Weighted Average Consideration Per Share less the exercise price per share under such option, subject to any income or employment tax withholding required under the Code or any provision of applicable Law. The amount determined in accordance with the foregoing shall be paid to the applicable holder of a PLMT Option on the Closing Date. The “Weighted Average Consideration Per Share” means the sum of: (x) $19.25 x 0.30, plus (y) the Average Parent Stock Price x the Exchange Ratio x 0.70.

(ii) With respect to all outstanding PLMT Options granted under the PLMT 1997 Stock Compensation Plan, converted into an option to purchase shares of Parent Common Stock, each such PLMT Option so converted shall be exercisable upon the same terms and conditions as under the PLMT 1997 Stock Compensation Plan and the applicable option agreement issued thereunder, except that (i) each such PLMT Option shall be exercisable for that whole number of shares of Parent Common Stock (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to the number of shares of PLMT Common Stock subject to such PLMT Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, and (ii) the option price per share of Parent Common Stock shall be an amount equal to the option price per share of PLMT Common Stock subject to such PLMT Option in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time divided by the Exchange Ratio (the option price per share, as so determined, being rounded to the nearest whole cent). Prior to the Effective time, PLMT will use its reasonable best efforts to enter into agreements with one or more holders of PLMT Options granted under the PLMT 1997 Stock Compensation Plan to cancel such holder’s PLMT Options for consideration of $0.01 per share of PLMT Common Stock underlying any such PLMT Options.

(b) At the Effective Time, each share of PLMT Common Stock subject to restrictions on transfer and/or forfeiture granted under the PLMT 2008 Restricted Stock Plan or the 2011 Stock Incentive Plan (the “PLMT Restricted Stock”) that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, as of the Effective Time, become fully vested and shall be converted automatically into and shall thereafter represent the right to receive the Merger Consideration, subject to any income or employment tax withholding required under the Code or any provision of applicable Law, in accordance with this Article 3. For the avoidance of doubt, like other holders of PLMT Common Stock, holders of PLMT Restricted Stock shall be entitled, pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions and limitations of Section 3.2, to make an election with respect to the Merger Consideration that each will receive.

(c) PLMT’s board of directors or its compensation committee shall make any adjustments or amendments to or make such determinations with respect to the PLMT Options and PLMT Restricted Stock necessary to effect the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.5.

3.6 Rights of Former PLMT Shareholders.

At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of PLMT shall be closed as to holders of PLMT Common Stock and no transfer of PLMT Common Stock by any holder of such shares shall thereafter be made or recognized. Until surrendered for exchange in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.3, each Certificate theretofore representing shares of PLMT Common Stock (other than Certificates representing Extinguished Shares), shall from and after the Effective Time represent for all purposes only the right to receive the Per Share Purchase Price and, if applicable, any unpaid dividends or distributions, in each case without interest, as provided in Article 3.

3.7 Fractional Shares.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of shares of PLMT Common Stock exchanged pursuant to the Merger, who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after taking into account all Certificates delivered by such holder), shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Parent Common Stock multiplied by the final Average Parent Stock Price (as defined in Section 9.1(g)). No such holder will be entitled to dividends, voting rights, or any other Rights as a shareholder in respect of any fractional shares.

(c) To Parent’s Knowledge, there has been no material written or oral representation or communication with respect to any aspect of the Parent Benefit Plans made to employees of any Parent Entity which is not in accordance with the written or otherwise preexisting terms and provisions of such plans. Neither Parent nor any Parent entity nor any administrator or fiduciary of any Parent Benefit Plan (or any agent of any of the foregoing) has engaged in any transaction, or acted or failed to act in any manner, which could subject Parent, PLMT, or any PLMT Entity to any direct or indirect Liability (by indemnity or otherwise) for breach of any fiduciary, co-fiduciary, or other duty under ERISA. There are no unresolved claims or disputes under the terms of, or in connection with, Parent Benefit Plans other than claims for benefits which are payable in the ordinary course of business consistent with the terms of the applicable plan, and no action, proceeding, prosecution, inquiry, hearing or, to PLMT’s knowledge, investigation has been commenced or threatened with respect to any Parent Benefit Plan.

(d) All Parent Benefit Plan documents and annual reports or returns, audited or unaudited financial statements, actuarial valuations, summary annual reports, and summary plan descriptions issued with respect to Parent Benefit Plans are correct and complete in all material respects, have been timely filed with the IRS, the DOL or PBGC, and distributed to participants of Parent Benefit Plans (as required by Law), and there have been no changes in the information set forth therein.

(e) To Parent’s Knowledge, no “party in interest” (as defined in ERISA Section 3(14)) or “disqualified person” (as defined in Code Section 4975(e)(2)) of any Parent Benefit Plan has engaged in any nonexempt “prohibited transaction” (described in Code Section 4975(c) or ERISA Section 406).

(f) No Liability under Title IV of ERISA has been or is expected to be incurred by any Parent Entity or its ERISA Affiliates and no event has occurred that could reasonably result in Liability under Title IV of ERISA being incurred by any Parent Entity or its ERISA Affiliates with respect to any ongoing, frozen, terminated, or other single-employer plan of any Parent Entity or the single-employer plan of any ERISA Affiliate. Except as may arise in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, there has been no “reportable event,” within the meaning of ERISA Section 4043, for which the 30-day reporting requirement has not been waived by any ongoing, frozen, terminated or other single employer plan of Parent or of an ERISA Affiliate.

(g) Except as disclosed in Section 5.11 of Parent Disclosure Memorandum, no Parent Entity has any Liability for retiree health or life benefits under any of Parent Benefit Plans, or other plan or arrangement, and there are no restrictions on the Rights of such Parent Entity to amend or terminate any such retiree health or benefit plan without incurring any Liability thereunder, except to the extent required under Part 6 of Title I of ERISA or Code Section 4980B. No Tax under Code Sections 4980B or 5000 has been incurred with respect to any Parent Benefit Plan, or other plan or arrangement, and no circumstance exists which could give rise to such Taxes.

(h) No Parent Benefit Plan is or has been funded by, associated with, or related to a “voluntary employee’s beneficiary association” within the meaning of Section 501(c)(9) of the Code, a “welfare benefit fund” within the meaning of Section 419 of the Code, a “qualified asset account” within the meaning of Section 419A of the Code or a “multiple employer welfare arrangement” within the meaning of Section 3(40) of ERISA. The actuarial present values of all accrued deferred compensation entitlements (including entitlements under any executive compensation, supplemental retirement, or employment agreement) of employees and former employees of any Parent Entity and their respective beneficiaries, other than entitlements accrued pursuant to funded retirement plans, whether or not subject to the provisions of Code Section 412 or ERISA Section 302, have been fully reflected on Parent Financial Statements to the extent required by and in accordance with GAAP.

(i) Each Parent Benefit Plan which is a “nonqualified deferred compensation plan” (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) has been operated in compliance with Section 409A of the Code and the guidance issued by the IRS with respect to such plans or is not required to comply therewith due to its grandfathered status under Section 409A of the Code.

(j) All individuals who render services to any Parent Entity and who are authorized to participate in a Parent Benefit Plan pursuant to the terms of such Parent Benefit Plan are in fact eligible to and authorized to participate in such Parent Benefit Plan.

(k) Neither any Parent Entity nor any of its ERISA Affiliates has had an “obligation to contribute” (as defined in ERISA Section 4212) to, or other obligations or Liability in connection with, a “multiemployer plan” (as defined in ERISA Sections 4001(a)(3) or 3(37)(A)), or any employee pension benefit plan within the meaning of ERISA Section 3(2) that is subject to Section 412 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA, or a multiple employer plan within the meaning of Section 413(c) of the Code or ERISA Sections 4063, 4064 or 4066.

5.12 Legal Proceedings.

As of the date of this Agreement, there is no material Litigation instituted or pending, or, to the Knowledge of Parent, threatened against any Parent Entity, or any director, officer, employee, or agent of any Parent Entity in their capacities as such or with respect to any service to or on behalf of any Employee Benefit Plan or any other Person at the request of a Parent Entity or Employee Benefit Plan of any Parent Entity, or against any Asset, interest, or right of any of them, nor are there any Orders or judgments outstanding against any Parent Entity.

5.13 Reports.

Since January 1, 2013, each Parent Entity has timely filed all reports and statements, together with any amendments required to be made with respect thereto, that it was required to file with Governmental Authorities. As of their respective dates, each of such reports and documents, including the financial statements, exhibits, and schedules thereto, complied in all material respects with all applicable Laws. As of their respective dates, such reports and documents did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 5.13, Parent Entities may have made immaterial late filings.

5.14 Approvals.

No Parent Entity or, to Parent’s Knowledge, any Affiliate thereof has taken or agreed to take any action or has any Knowledge of any fact or circumstance that is reasonably likely to materially impede or delay receipt of any regulatory approvals from any Governmental Authority required for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. As of the date of this Agreement, Parent knows of no facts or circumstances that are reasonably likely to cause any regulatory approvals from any Governmental Authority required for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement not to be obtained on a timely basis.

5.15 Takeover Laws and Provisions.

Parent has taken all necessary action, if any, to render inapplicable to this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated in this Agreement the provisions of any potentially applicable Takeover

None of the information supplied or to be supplied by any Parent Entity or any Affiliate thereof for inclusion in any Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be mailed to PLMT shareholders in connection with PLMT’s Shareholders’ Meeting, and any other documents to be filed by any Parent Entity or any Affiliate thereof with the SEC or any other Regulatory Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, will, at the respective time such documents are filed, and with respect to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, when first mailed to the shareholders of PLMT be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or, in the case of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, at the time of PLMT’s Shareholders’ Meeting be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or omit to state any material fact necessary to correct any statement in any earlier communication with respect to the solicitation of any proxy for PLMT’s Shareholders’ Meeting.

In particular, without limiting the foregoing disclaimer, except for the representations and warranties made by Parent in this Article 5, neither Parent nor any other Person makes or has made any representation or warranty to PLMT or any of its Affiliates or Representatives with respect to (i) any financial projection, forecast, estimate, budget or prospect information relating to Parent, any of its Subsidiaries or their respective businesses or (ii) any oral or written information presented to Parent or any of its Affiliates or Representatives in the course of their due diligence investigation of Parent, the negotiation of this Agreement or in the course of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, Parent acknowledges and agrees that neither PLMT nor any other Person has made or is making any representations or warranties relating to PLMT whatsoever, express or implied, beyond those expressly given by PLMT in Article 4 hereof, including any implied representation or warranty as to the accuracy or completeness of any information regarding PLMT furnished or made available to Parent or any of its Representatives. (b) From the date of this Agreement until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement, unless the prior written Consent of PLMT shall have been obtained (which Consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned), and except as otherwise contemplated herein, Parent shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) operate its business only in the usual, regular, and ordinary course consistent with past practice (provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prevent Parent from negotiating or consummating other business combination transactions with other institutions, as long as (x) Parent and/or Parent Banksub, as applicable, is the acquiror or survivor in any such transaction, and (y) any such business combination transaction will not adversely affect the likelihood or timing of Parent and Parent Banksub receiving all required regulatory approvals for the Merger and the Bank Merger or of the satisfaction of any other conditions to the Closing), (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organization and Assets and maintain its rights and franchises, (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to cause its representations and warranties to be correct at all times, and (iv) take no action which would (A) adversely affect the timing or ability of either Party to obtain any regulatory consents required for the transactions contemplated hereby, or (B) materially adversely affect the ability of either Party to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement.

6.3 Negative Covenants of Parent.

During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except as contemplated by this Agreement, Parent shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, do any of the following, without the prior written Consent of PLMT (which Consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned):

- (a) amend its articles of incorporation or bylaws or similar governing documents of any of its Subsidiaries in a manner that changes any material term or provision of the Parent Common Stock or that otherwise would materially and adversely affect the economic benefits of the Merger to the holders of PLMT Common Stock or would materially impede Parent’s ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

6.4 Control of the Other Party’s Business.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

control or direct the operations of Parent. Prior to the Effective Time, each Party shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over it and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

6.5 Adverse Changes in Condition.

Each Party agrees to give written notice promptly to the other Party upon becoming aware of the occurrence or impending occurrence of any event or circumstance relating to it or any of its Subsidiaries which (i) has had or is reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a PLMT Material Adverse Effect or a Parent Material Adverse Effect, as applicable, (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, or covenants contained herein, or (iii) would be reasonably likely to prevent or materially interfere with the consummation of the Merger, and to use its reasonable efforts to prevent or promptly to remedy the same.

6.6 Reports.

Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries and PLMT and its Subsidiaries shall file all reports required to be filed by it with Regulatory Authorities between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time and shall make available to the other Party copies of all such reports promptly after the same are filed. PLMT and its Subsidiaries shall also make available to Parent monthly financial statements and quarterly call reports. The financial statements of Parent and PLMT, whether or not contained in any such reports filed under the Exchange Act or with any other Regulatory Authority, will fairly present the consolidated financial position of the entity filing such statements as of the dates indicated and the consolidated results of operations, changes in shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the periods then ended in accordance with GAAP (subject in the case of interim financial statements to normal recurring year-end adjustments that are not material). As of their respective dates, such reports of Parent and PLMT filed under the Exchange Act or with any other Regulatory Authority will comply in all material respects with the Securities Laws and will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Any financial statements contained in any other reports to another Regulatory Authority shall be prepared in accordance with the Laws applicable to such reports.

Article 7

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

7.1 Shareholder Approvals.

(a) In accordance with and subject to applicable Law and its articles of incorporation and bylaws, PLMT will submit this Agreement to its shareholders for approval and will take all action necessary to call, give notice of, convene, and hold PLMT's Shareholders' Meeting as promptly as practicable for the purpose of considering and voting on approval of this Agreement.

(b) Neither PLMT's board of directors nor any committee thereof shall, except as permitted by this Agreement: (x) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose publicly to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, the PLMT Recommendation or (y) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal (each, an "Adverse Recommendation Change"); provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the Requisite PLMT Shareholder Approval, PLMT's board of directors may make an Adverse Recommendation Change (A) if a material development or material change in circumstance occurs or arises after the date of this Agreement (such material development or change in circumstances being referred to as an "Intervening Event") and PLMT's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with PLMT's outside counsel, that in light of such Intervening Event an Adverse Recommendation Change is required in order for PLMT's board of directors to comply with its fiduciary obligations to PLMT's shareholders under applicable Law, or (B) if:

i) PLMT's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with PLMT's financial advisor and outside counsel, that it has received an Acquisition Proposal (that did not result from a knowing and material breach of Section 7.3) that is a Superior Proposal;

A-37

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- ii) PLMT's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with PLMT's outside counsel, that a failure to accept such Superior Proposal would result in PLMT's board of directors breaching its fiduciary duties to PLMT or its shareholders under applicable Law;
- iii) PLMT's board of directors provides written notice (a "Notice of Recommendation Change") to Parent of its receipt of the Superior Proposal and its intent to announce an Adverse Recommendation Change on the third business day following delivery of such notice, which notice shall specify the material terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal (it being understood that any amendment to any material term of such Superior Proposal shall require a new Notice of Recommendation Change);
- iv) after providing such Notice of Recommendation Change, PLMT shall negotiate in good faith with Parent (if requested by Parent) and provide Parent reasonable opportunity during the subsequent three business day period to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable PLMT's board of directors to proceed without an Adverse Recommendation Change (provided, however, that Parent shall not be required to propose any such adjustments); and
- v) PLMT's board of directors, following such three business day period, again determines in good faith, after consultation with PLMT Financial Advisor and outside counsel, that such Acquisition Proposal nonetheless continues to constitute a Superior Proposal and that failure to take such action would violate their fiduciary duties to PLMT and its shareholders under applicable Law.

7.2 Registration of Parent Common Stock.

(a) As promptly as reasonably practicable (and in any event, within fifty days) following the date hereof, Parent shall prepare and file with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-4 with respect to the issuance of Parent Common Stock in the Merger (such Form S-4, and any amendments or supplements thereto, the "Registration Statement"). The Registration Statement shall contain proxy materials relating to the matters to be submitted to PLMT's shareholders at PLMT's Shareholders' Meeting. Such proxy materials shall also constitute the prospectus relating to the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger (such proxy statement-prospectus, and any amendments or supplements thereto, the "Proxy Statement/Prospectus"). PLMT will furnish to Parent the information required to be included in the Registration Statement with respect to its business and affairs and shall have the right to review and consult with Parent on the form of, and any characterizations of such information included in, the Registration Statement prior to its being filed with the SEC. Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective by the SEC and to keep the Registration Statement effective as long as is necessary to consummate the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby. Each of Parent and PLMT will use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be mailed to the PLMT shareholders as promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act. Parent will advise PLMT, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of Parent Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the SEC for amendment of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Registration Statement. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any information relating to Parent or PLMT, or any of their respective affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by Parent or PLMT which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to any of the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement/Prospectus so that any of such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the Party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other Party hereto and, to the extent required by Law, rules or regulations, an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed by Parent with the SEC and disseminated by the Parties to their respective shareholders.

(b) Parent shall also take any action required to be taken under any applicable state Securities Laws in connection with the Merger and each of Parent and PLMT shall furnish all information concerning it and the holders of PLMT Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall take such action as shall be necessary to permit the additional shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued by Parent in exchange for the shares of PLMT Common Stock to be traded on the primary exchange on which Parent Common Stock is listed.

7.3 Other Offers, etc.

(a) From the date of this Agreement through the first to occur of the Effective Time or termination of this Agreement, PLMT shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates and Representatives not to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit or initiate, or knowingly encourage, induce or facilitate, the making, submission, or announcement of any proposal that constitutes an Acquisition Proposal, or (ii) participate in any discussions (except to notify a third-party of the existence of restrictions provided in this Section 7.3) or negotiations regarding, or disclose or provide any nonpublic information with respect to, or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes an Acquisition Proposal, (iii) enter into any agreement (including any agreement in principle, letter of intent or understanding, merger agreement, stock purchase agreement, asset purchase agreement, or share exchange agreement, but excluding a confidentiality agreement of the type described below) relating to any Acquisition Transaction, or (iv) propose or agree to do any of the foregoing; provided, however, that prior to the Requisite PLMT Shareholder Approval, this Section 7.3 shall not prohibit a PLMT Entity from furnishing nonpublic information regarding any PLMT Entity to, or entering into a confidentiality agreement or discussions or negotiations with, any Person or Group in response to a bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal submitted by such Person or Group if: (A) the Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach of this Section 7.3 by any PLMT Entity or Representative or Affiliate thereof (other than any breach that is unintentional or immaterial), (B) PLMT's board of directors shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, (C) PLMT's board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with its outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law to PLMT and its shareholders, (D) (1) PLMT gives Parent prompt (but in no event alter than twenty-four (24) hours) notice (which notice may be oral, and, if oral, shall be subsequently confirmed in writing) (x) of PLMT's receipt of any Acquisition Proposal (which notice shall include the identity of such Person or Group) and (y) of PLMT's furnishing nonpublic information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such Person or Group, and (2) PLMT receives from such Person or Group an executed confidentiality agreement containing terms no less favorable to PLMT than the confidentiality terms of the mutual non-disclosure agreement entered into by the Bank and Parent dated as of February 9, 2015, and (E) contemporaneously with or promptly after furnishing any such nonpublic information to such Person or Group, PLMT furnishes such nonpublic information to Parent (to the extent such nonpublic information has not been previously furnished by PLMT to Parent). In addition to the foregoing, PLMT shall keep Parent reasonably informed on a prompt basis of the status and material terms of any such Acquisition Proposal, including any material amendments or proposed amendments as to price and other material terms thereof.

(b) In addition to the obligations of PLMT set forth in this Section 7.3, as promptly as reasonably practicable, after any of the directors of PLMT become aware thereof, PLMT shall advise Parent of any request received by PLMT for nonpublic information which PLMT believes is related to a potential Acquisition Proposal, the material terms and conditions of such request or Acquisition Proposal, and the identity of the Person or Group making any such request or Acquisition Proposal. PLMT shall keep Parent informed promptly of material amendments or modifications to any such request or Acquisition Proposal.

(c) PLMT shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries, directors, officers, employees, and Representatives to immediately cease any and all existing activities, discussions, or negotiations with any Persons conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal (other than to advise them of the existence of this Agreement) and will use and cause to be used all commercially reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar or related agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal.

(d) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent a Party or its board of directors from complying with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 under the Exchange Act with respect to an Acquisition Proposal or with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

7.4 Consents of Regulatory Authorities.

The Parties hereto shall cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation and applications, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, and to obtain as promptly as practicable all Consents of all Regulatory Authorities and other Persons which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger). The Parties agree that they will consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all Consents of all Regulatory Authorities and other Persons necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each Party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to consummation of the transactions contemplated herein. Each Party also shall promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any Regulatory Authority or other Person whose Consent is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement which causes such Party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any requisite Consent will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such Consent will be materially delayed.

7.5 Agreement as to Efforts to Consummate.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each Party agrees to use, and to cause its Subsidiaries to use, its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper, or advisable under applicable Laws to consummate and make effective, as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including using its reasonable best efforts to lift or rescind any Order adversely affecting its ability to consummate the transactions contemplated herein and to cause to be satisfied the conditions referred to in Article 8; provided, that nothing herein shall preclude either Party from exercising its Rights under this Agreement.

7.6 Investigation and Confidentiality.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, each Party shall keep the other Party advised of all material developments relevant to its business and the consummation of the Merger and shall permit the other Party to make or cause to be made such investigation of its business and properties (including that of its Subsidiaries) and of their respective financial and legal conditions as the other Party reasonably requests; provided, that such investigation shall be reasonably related to the transactions contemplated hereby and shall not interfere unnecessarily with normal operations. No investigation by a Party shall affect the ability of such Party to rely on the representations and warranties of the other Party.

(b) Each Party shall, and shall cause its advisors and agents to, maintain the confidentiality of all confidential information furnished to it by the other Party concerning its and its Subsidiaries' businesses, operations, and financial positions and shall not use such information for any purpose except in furtherance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Effective Time, each Party shall promptly return or certify the destruction of all documents and copies thereof, and all work papers containing confidential information received from the other Party.

(c) PLMT shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to exercise, and shall not waive any of, its Rights under confidentiality agreements entered into with Persons which were considering an Acquisition Proposal with respect to PLMT to preserve the confidentiality of the information relating to PLMT Entities provided to such Persons and their Affiliates and Representatives.

(d) Each Party agrees to give the other Party notice as soon as practicable after any determination by it of any fact or occurrence relating to the other Party which it has discovered through the course of its investigation and which represents, or is reasonably likely to represent, either a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement of the other Party or which has had or is reasonably likely to have a PLMT Material Adverse Effect or a Parent Material Adverse Effect, as applicable.

7.7 Press Releases.

Prior to the Effective Time, PLMT and Parent shall consult with each other and agree as to the form and substance of any press release, communication with shareholders of PLMT or shareholders of Parent, or other public disclosure materially related to this Agreement, or any other transaction contemplated hereby; provided, that nothing in this Section 7.7 shall be deemed to prohibit any Party from making any disclosure which its counsel deems necessary or advisable in order to satisfy such Party's disclosure obligations imposed by Law.

7.8 Employee Benefits and Contracts.

(a) All persons who are employees of PLMT Entities immediately prior to the Effective Time and whose employment is not specifically terminated, if any, at or prior to the Effective Time (a "Continuing Employee") shall, at the Effective Time or the time of the Bank Merger, as applicable, become employees of Parent or Parent Banksub, as applicable. Parent and Parent Banksub shall honor all PLMT employment and change of control agreements existing as of the date of this Agreement that have been disclosed to Parent. All of the other Continuing Employees shall be employed at will, and no contractual right with respect to employment shall inure to such employees because of this Agreement, except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) As of the Effective Time, each Continuing Employee shall be eligible to participate in Parent's 401(k) and other retirement plans with full credit for prior service with PLMT for purposes of eligibility and vesting (but not benefit accruals).

(c) Except as provided in the last sentence of this Section 7.8(e), as of the Effective Time, Parent shall make available employer-provided health and other employee welfare benefit plans to each Continuing Employee on substantially the same basis as it provides such coverage to similarly-situated Parent employees except that any pre-existing condition, eligibility waiting period, or other limitations or exclusions otherwise applicable under such plans to new employees shall not apply to a Continuing Employee or their covered dependents if they did not apply under a similar PLMT plan at the Effective Time of the Merger. In addition, if any such transition occurs during a plan year, Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any such successor Parent Employee Benefit Plan providing health coverage to give credit towards satisfaction of any annual deductible limitation and out-of-pocket maximum applied under such successor plan for any deductible, co-payment and other cost-sharing amounts previously paid by a Continuing Employee respecting his or her participation in the corresponding PLMT Benefit Plan during that plan year prior to the transition effective date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and in lieu of same, Parent may continue PLMT's health and other employee welfare benefit plans for each Continuing Employee as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(d) With respect to employee benefit plans of Parent and its Subsidiaries not addressed in Sections (c) or (d) above, Parent and its Subsidiaries shall Parent shall make such plans available to each Continuing Employee on substantially the same basis as it provides such coverage to similarly-situated Parent employees and shall take into account for purposes of eligibility and vesting (but not benefit accrual) (except that there shall not be any benefit accrual for past service under any qualified defined benefit pension plan), the service of such employees with PLMT and its Subsidiaries as if such service were with Parent and its Subsidiaries. Continuing Employees will retain credit for unused sick leave and vacation pay for unused vacation days for the current year only without carryover of vacation days for prior years, which has been accrued as of the Effective Time. For purposes of determining the accrual of Continuing Employees to sick leave and vacation pay following the Effective Time, the service of such employees with PLMT shall be treated as if such service were with Parent and its Subsidiaries.

(e) Continuing Employees, and any employees of PLMT or its Subsidiaries who are (i) terminated involuntarily other than for cause at the Effective Time, or who do not have employment or change of control or agreements that include severance payments or severance agreements as of the date of their termination and who are terminated involuntarily other than for cause within one year after the Effective Time, and (ii) who sign and deliver a termination and release agreement in a customary and reasonable form that is reasonably acceptable to Parent, shall be entitled to severance pay equal to two (2) weeks of severance pay (at the greater of their rate of base pay in effect at the time of termination and their base pay rate in effect at the Effective Time) for each full year of continuous service with PLMT Entities or Parent Entities, subject to a minimum of eight (8) weeks and a maximum of fifty-two (52) weeks of pay; provided that employees with fifteen (15) years of tenure will receive fifty-two (52) weeks of severance pay; and provided further that and any such terminated employees shall be entitled to continuation coverage as required by COBRA and Parent or Parent Banksub shall reimburse for COBRA coverage for four months for employees with less than fifteen (15) years of tenure and six months for employees with fifteen (15) or more years of tenure (service with PLMT or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time will be treated as service to Parent or Parent Banksub for purposes of determining any severance due under this 7.8(e)). Nothing in this Section 7.8(e) shall be deemed to limit or modify the at-will employment policy of PLMT or Parent or their respective Subsidiaries.

(f) No officer, employee, or other Person (other than the corporate Parties to this Agreement) shall be deemed a third-party or other beneficiary of this Section 7.8, and no such Person shall have any right or other entitlement to enforce any provision of this Agreement or seek any remedy in connection with this Agreement, except as set forth in Section 7.10.

7.9 Section 16 Matters.

Prior to the Effective Time, PLMT and Parent shall take all such steps as may be required to cause any dispositions of PLMT Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to PLMT Common Stock) or acquisitions of Parent Common Stock resulting from the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by each individual who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to PLMT to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act. PLMT agrees to promptly furnish Parent with all requisite information necessary for Parent to take the actions contemplated by this Section 7.9.

7.10 Indemnification.

(a) For a period of six years after the Effective Time (or, in the case of Claims that have not been resolved prior to the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, until such Claims are finally resolved), Parent shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the present and former directors and executive officers of PLMT Entities (each, an “Indemnified Party”) against all Liabilities arising out of, resulting from or related to any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation or other legal proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative or investigation (each, a “Claim”), in which a PLMT Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness arising out of the fact that such Person is or was a director or officer of PLMT (or, at PLMT’s request, as a director, officer, manager or trustee of, or in a similar capacity with, another PLMT Entity or PLMT Employee Benefit Plan, prior to the Effective Time) if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the Effective Time (including the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law. Parent shall promptly pay reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) in advance of the final disposition of any such Claim to each Indemnified Party to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advance payments if he or she shall be adjudicated to be not entitled to indemnification under this Section 7.10(a). Parent shall not have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party when and if a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine, and such determination shall have become final and non-appealable, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable Law (including any Law promulgated, interpreted or enforced by any Regulatory Authority).

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall purchase, or shall direct PLMT to purchase, an extended reporting period endorsement under PLMT Entities’ existing directors’ and officers’ liability insurance coverage (“PLMT D&O Policy”) for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time by such directors and officers currently covered by PLMT Entities’ D&O Policy which shall maintain such PLMT D&O Policy in effect for a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time; provided that Parent shall not be obligated to make aggregate annual premium payments for such six (6)-year period in respect of such policy which exceed 300% of the annual premium payments on PLMT’s current policy in effect as of the date of this Agreement (the “Maximum Amount”). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors’ and officers’ liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount. The directors and officers of PLMT Entities shall take all reasonable actions required by the insurance carrier necessary to procure such endorsement.

(c) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under paragraph (a) of this Section 7.10, upon learning of any such Liability, damages, or Litigation, shall promptly notify Parent thereof in writing (provided that a failure to timely provide such notice shall not relieve the Parent of any indemnification obligation unless, and to the extent that, the Parent is materially prejudiced by such failure). In the event of any such Litigation (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) Parent shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and Parent shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Parent elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties and there are substantive issues which raise conflicts of interest between Parent and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and Parent shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, that Parent shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph (c) to pay for only one firm of counsel for any Indemnified Party in any jurisdiction; (ii) each Indemnified Party will cooperate in good faith in the defense of any such Litigation; (iii) Parent shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written Consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and (iv) without the prior written Consent of the Indemnified Party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) Parent shall not agree to any settlement which does not provide for a complete and irrevocable release of the Indemnified Party.

(d) Parent covenants and agrees that neither it, nor any successors or assigns, shall consolidate with or merge into any other Person where Parent or any such successor or assign shall not be the continuing or surviving Person of such consolidation or merger or transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any Person, unless, in each case, proper provision shall have been made to ensure that the successors and assigns of Parent shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.10.

(e) The provisions of this Section 7.10 are intended to be for the benefit of and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and their respective heirs and legal and personal representatives.

7.11 Retention Plan and Conversion Bonus Plan.

(a) PLMT may implement a retention plan (the "Retention Plan") for the benefit of those non-director employees of PLMT and its Subsidiaries (i) with respect to non-executive officers, as determined by the chief executive officer of PLMT or (ii) with respect to non-director executive officers, as determined by the Compensation Committee of the board of directors of PLMT (which may consider the proposals of the chief executive officer of PLMT in making such determinations), and in each case as agreed to by Parent (which agreement will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), which Retention Plan shall involve aggregate benefits to such non-director employees of up to $250,000 (or such greater amount as Parent and PLMT may agree), which shall be payable to such employees of PLMT Entities that remain employees until the Closing Date.

(b) To facilitate the successful integration of PLMT into Parent and the conversion of the systems of PLMT to Parent, Parent shall establish a stay bonus/conversion bonus pool in the aggregate amount up to $250,000 (or such greater amount as Parent shall determine) to be allocated and paid to non-director employees of PLMT who continue in the employ of Parent at the expiration of ninety (90) days after the Effective Time. The specific amount to be allocated and paid to each such non-director employee who continues in the employ of Parent shall be determined by Parent prior to the Effective time, after consultation with the chief executive officer of PLMT.

There shall not exist inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of PLMT set forth in this Agreement, except as a result of changes or events expressly permitted or contemplated herein and except for inaccuracies that, individually and in the aggregate, have not had, and are not reasonably likely to have, a PLMT Material Adverse Effect; provided, that for purposes of this sentence only, those representations and warranties which are qualified by references to “material” or “Material Adverse Effect” or to the “Knowledge” of any Person shall be deemed not to include such qualifications.

Article 9

TERMINATION

9.1 Termination.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, and notwithstanding the approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of PLMT, this Agreement may be terminated and the Merger abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) By mutual written agreement of Parent and PLMT; or

(b) By either Party (provided, that the terminating Party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or other agreement contained in this Agreement) in the event of a breach by the other Party of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement which cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching Party of such breach and which breach is reasonably likely, in the opinion of the non-breaching Party, to permit such Party to refuse to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement pursuant to the standard set forth in Section 8.2(a) or (b), or 8.3(a) or (b), as applicable; or

(c) By either Party in the event (i) any Requisite Regulatory Approvals shall have been denied by final, non-appealable action of such authority, (ii) any Law or Order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Merger shall have become final and non-appealable, or (iii) the Requisite PLMT Shareholder Approval is not obtained at PLMT's Shareholders' Meeting where such matters were presented to such shareholders for approval and voted upon; or

(d) By either Party in the event that the Merger shall not have been consummated by December 31, 2015 (the "End Date"), or, if all of the conditions of Article 8 other than Section 8.1(b) shall have been satisfied, or are capable of being satisfied, by such date, February 29, 2016 (the "Extended End Date"); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.1(d) shall not be available to any Party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement has been the cause of or resulted in the failure of the Merger to occur on or before the End Date or Extended End Date, as applicable; or

(e) By Parent (provided, that Parent is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or other agreement contained in this Agreement) in the event that (i) upon the effectiveness of the Registration Statement, the PLMT board of directors shall not have recommended approval of this Agreement to its shareholders; or (ii) at any time prior to receipt of the Requisite PLMT Shareholder Approval, the PLMT board of directors shall have made an Adverse Recommendation Change; or

(f) By PLMT, prior to the Requisite PLMT Shareholder Approval (and provided that PLMT has complied in all material respects with Section 7.1 and Section 7.3), in order to enter into a Superior Proposal.

(g) (X) By PLMT, at any time during the four business day period following the Determination Date, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) the Average Parent Stock Price shall be less than $15.72; and

(ii) (1) the quotient of the Average Parent Stock Price divided by the Starting Price (such quotient being the "Parent Ratio"), shall be less than 85% of (2) the quotient of the Average Index Price divided by the Index Price on the Starting Date (which quotient shall be the "Index Ratio").

Example 1: if Parent Ratio = 0.80 and the Index Ratio = 0.90, then 85% of the Index Ratio would be 0.85 x 0.90, or 76.5%. Condition (g)(i) would be satisfied, but condition (g)(ii) would not be satisfied.

If Parent so elects within such five-day period, it shall give prompt written notice to PLMT of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio or the Additional Cash Payment Per Share, as applicable, whereupon no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 9.01(g) and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms, provided that any references in this Agreement to the “Exchange Ratio” shall thereafter be deemed to refer to the Exchange Ratio as increased pursuant to this section, if applicable, and any references in this Agreement to the Stock Consideration shall thereafter include the Additional Cash Payment Per Share as set forth in this section, if applicable.

APPENDIX B

April 21, 2015

Board of Directors

Palmetto Bancshares, Inc.

306 East North Street

Greenville, SC 29601

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Palmetto Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company”) and United Community Banks, Inc. (“United Community Banks”) propose to enter into an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of April 22, 2015 (the “Agreement”), pursuant to which the Company will merge with and into United Community Banks, with United Community Banks as the surviving entity (the “Merger”). Pursuant to the terms of the merger, upon the effective time of the Merger, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the “Company Common Stock”) issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time, except for certain shares specified in the Agreement, shall be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof, either: (i) 0.97 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of United Community Banks (the “Stock Consideration”), (ii) $19.25 in cash (the “Cash Consideration”) or (iii) a combination of the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration, subject to the limitations set forth in the Agreement which provide generally that shareholder elections may be adjusted as necessary to result in an overall ratio of 30% of Company Common Stock being converted into the right to receive Cash Consideration and 70% of Company Common Stock being converted into the right to receive Stock Consideration. The Cash Consideration, the Stock Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares paid pursuant to the Agreement are referred to herein as the “Merger Consideration.” The other terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement, and capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of the Company Common Stock.

Sandler O’Neill & Partners, L.P. (“Sandler O’Neill”), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) the Agreement; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of the Company that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of United Community Banks that we deemed relevant; (iv) certain internal financial projections for the Company for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019, as provided by senior management of the Company; (v) publicly available analyst earnings estimates for United Community Banks for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016, and an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter as discussed with senior management of United Community Banks; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on United Community Banks based on certain assumptions relating to estimated transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies which were provided by United Community Banks; (vii) a comparison of certain financial and other information for the Company and United Community Banks, including stock trading information for the Company, with similar publicly available information for certain other publicly traded commercial banks; (viii) the financial terms of certain other recent merger and acquisition transactions in the banking sector; (ix) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (x) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of senior management of the Company the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Company and held similar discussions with the senior management of United Community Banks regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of United Community Banks.

In performing our review, we have relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by the Company and United Community Banks or that was otherwise reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of preparing this letter. We have further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of the Company and United Community Banks that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or United Community Banks or any of their respective subsidiaries. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of the Company, United Community Banks or the combined entity after the Merger and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to the Company or United Community Banks. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both the Company and United Community Banks are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for the Company as provided by the senior management of the Company and publicly available analyst earnings estimates for United Community Banks for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016, and an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter as discussed with senior management of United Community Banks. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its analyses certain projections of transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies which were provided by United Community Banks. With respect to those projections and estimates, the respective managements of the Company and United Community Banks confirmed to us that those respective projections and estimates reflected the best currently available projections and estimates of those respective managements of the future financial performance of the Company and United Community Banks, respectively, and we assumed that such performance would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. We have assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of the Company and United Community Banks since the date of the most recent financial data made available to us. We have also assumed in all respects material to our analysis that the Company and United Community Banks would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses. We express no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and any other transactions contemplated in connection therewith.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no material delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company, United Community Banks or the Merger, (iii) the Merger will be consummated without the Company's rights under Section 9.1(g)(X) of the Agreement having been triggered, or if such rights have been triggered, United Community Banks shall have exercised the option referred to in Section 9.1(g)(X) of the Agreement and (iv) the Merger and any related transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements. Our analyses and the views expressed herein are necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect our views. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this letter or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading values of the Company Common Stock after the date of this opinion or what the value of United Community Banks' common stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of the Company Common Stock.

We have acted as the Company's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and a significant portion of our fees are contingent upon the closing of the Merger. We also will receive a fee from the Company as a result of our rendering this opinion. The Company has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to the Company and United Community Banks and their affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of the Company or its affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. In the past, we have provided certain investment banking services to United Community Banks and have received customary investment banking fees for such services.

This letter is directed to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be paid to holders of the Company Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company might engage. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent, provided however Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in required regulatory filings (including the proxy statement to be sent to shareholders of the Company) to be completed in connection with the Merger. This Opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by the Company's officers, directors, or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholders of the Company.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair to the holders of the Company Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,
