Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On January 25, 2019, IBERIABANK Corporation (the "Company") disclosed the following:

The Company's current target total risk-based capital ratio and tangible common equity ratios are 12.25% and 8.50%, respectively.

The Company's expected net interest margin range of 3.60% to 3.70% included in its 2019 financial guidance includes approximately $15 million in lower accretion than for the year ended December 31, 2018, which is expected to negatively impact reported net interest margin for the year ending December 31, 2019 by approximately 5 basis points.

As part of its 2019 financial guidance, the Company announced that it currently expects to achieve core earnings per diluted common share of $7.30 for the year ending December 31, 2019, the midpoint of the range provided.

Caution About Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains "forward-looking statements," which may include forecasts of our financial results and condition, expectations for our operations and businesses, and our assumptions for those forecasts and expectations. Do not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Due to various factors, actual results may differ materially from our forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from our forward-looking statements are described under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," "Risk Factors" and "Regulation and Supervision" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, and in other documents subsequently filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission, available at the SEC's website, www.sec.gov, and the Company's website, www.iberiabank.com. To the extent that statements in this press release relate to future plans, objectives, financial results or performance by the Company, these statements are deemed to be forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are generally identified by use of words such as "may," "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "will," "should," "plan," "estimate," "predict," "continue" and "potential" or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology.

Forward-looking statements represent management's beliefs, based upon information available at the time the statements are made, with regard to the matters addressed; they are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements. All information is as of the date of this press release. Except to the extent required by applicable law or regulation, the Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statement for any reason.
