ITEM 8.01. Other Events

Reference is made to the disclosure under the caption “Antitrust Matters” in Item 3 of the annual report on Form 10-K of Church & Dwight Co., Inc. (the “Company”), and particularly the summary of claims against the Company made by Mayer Laboratories, Inc. (“Mayer Labs”) included in the third paragraph of the disclosure. On March 1, 2012, the United States District Court for the Northern District of California issued an opinion and order granting the Company’s motion for summary judgment and dismissed all of Mayer Labs’ claims, other than the claim that the Company tortiously interfered with an alleged exclusive business arrangement between Mayer Labs and its supplier. The Court, among other things, rejected Mayer's allegations that the Company's sales and marketing practices related to shelf space allocation for condoms and other related activities were illegal under federal and state antitrust laws. Mayer Labs has 30 days from the date of the Court’s order to appeal the decision.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
