BIOMET, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1: BASIS OF PRESENTATION.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Biomet, Inc. and its subsidiaries (individually and collectively referred to as the "Company"). The unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three-month period ended August 31, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year ending May 31, 2003. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2002.

The accompanying consolidated balance sheet at May 31, 2002, has been derived from the audited Consolidated Financial Statements at that date, but does not include all disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles.

The Company operates in one business segment, musculoskeletal products, which includes the designing, manufacturing and marketing of reconstructive products, fixation devices, spinal products and other products. Other products consist primarily of Arthrotek's arthroscopy products, EBI's softgoods and bracing products, general instruments and operating room supplies. The Company manages its business segment primarily on a geographic basis. These geographic markets are comprised of the United States, Europe and other. The other geographic market includes Canada, South America, Mexico, Japan and the Pacific Rim.

Net sales of musculoskeletal products by product category are as follows for the three months ended August 31:

Edgar Filing: BIOMET INC - Form 10-Q

	2002	2001
	(in thousands)
Reconstructive	$192,025	$161,172

Other	32,928	29,745
	-----	-----
	$317,600	$272,022

NOTE 2: COMPREHENSIVE INCOME.

Other comprehensive income includes foreign currency translation adjustments and unrealized appreciation of available-for-sale securities, net of taxes. Other comprehensive income for the three months ended August 31, 2002 and 2001 was $16,680,000 and $399,000, respectively. Total comprehensive income combines reported net income and other comprehensive income. Total comprehensive income for the three months ended August 31, 2002 and 2001 was $82,686,000 and $56,412,000, respectively.

NOTE 3: INVENTORIES.

Inventories at August 31, 2002 and May 31, 2002 are as follows:

	August 31, 2002	May 31, 2002
	-----	-----
	(in thousands)

	-----	-----
	$361,073	$335,348

NOTE 4: COMMON SHARES.

During the three months ended August 31, 2002, the Company issued 292,599 Common Shares upon the exercise of outstanding stock options for proceeds aggregating $2,249,000.

NOTE 5: EARNINGS PER SHARE.

Earnings per common share amounts ("basic EPS") are computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and excludes any potential dilution. Earnings per common share amounts assuming dilution ("diluted EPS") are computed by reflecting potential dilution from the exercise of stock options.

NOTE 6: INCOME TAXES.

The difference between the reported provision for income taxes and a provision computed by applying the federal statutory rate to pre-tax accounting income is primarily attributable to state income taxes, tax benefits relating to operations in Puerto Rico, tax-exempt income and tax credits.

Edgar Filing: BIOMET INC - Form 10-Q

NOTE 7: CONTINGENCIES.

In January 1996, a jury returned a verdict in a patent infringement matter against the Company and in favor of Raymond G. Tronzo ("Tronzo"), which in August 1998 was subsequently reversed and vacated by the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (the "Federal Circuit"). The Federal Circuit then remanded the case to the District Court for the Southern District of Florida (the "District Court") for further consideration on state law claims only. On August 27, 1999, the District Court entered a final judgment of $53,530 against the Company. Tronzo then appealed the District Court's final judgment with the Federal Circuit and in January 2001 the Federal Circuit reinstated a $20 million punitive damages award against the Company while affirming the compensatory damage award of $520. The Federal Circuit's decision was based principally on procedural grounds, and in March 2001 it denied the Company's combined petition for panel rehearing petition and petition for rehearing en banc. On November 13, 2001 the United States Supreme Court ("Supreme Court") denied the Company's petition to review the $20 million punitive damage award against the Company given to Tronzo. The Company had previously recorded a one-time special charge during the third quarter of fiscal 2001 of $26.1 million, which represents the total damage award plus the maximum amount of interest that, as calculated by the Company, may be due under the award and related expenses. While the Company was disappointed in the Supreme Court's decision not to review the case, the Company has paid $20,236,000 out of escrow. The amount of interest owed by the Company, if any, on this award continues to be in dispute; however, if a decision on the interest award is adverse to the Company, it should not exceed the amount of the remaining funds in escrow. The Supreme Court's decision does not affect the ongoing sales of any of Biomet's product lines.

There are various other claims, lawsuits, disputes with third parties, investigations and pending actions involving various allegations against the Company incident to the operation of its business, principally product liability and intellectual property cases. Each of these matters is subject to various uncertainties, and it is possible that some of these matters may be resolved unfavorably to the Company. The Company establishes accruals for losses that are deemed to be probable and subject to reasonable estimate. Based on the advice of counsel to the Company in these matters, management believes that the ultimate outcome of these matters and any liabilities in excess of amounts provided will not have a material adverse impact on the Company's consolidated financial position or on its future business operations.

NOTE 8: RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS:

In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) approved the issuance of Statement 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets". FASB Statement 142, among other things, requires that goodwill not be amortized but should be tested for impairment at least annually. The Company adopted this statement during the current quarter by discontinuing the amortization of goodwill ($1.8 million). In addition, the Company is required to review its goodwill during the next six months for possible impairment. Based on the Company's initial review, the Company does not anticipate any impairment charge from this review. The following tables show the reported net income and earnings per share for the three-month period ended August 31, 2001, reconciles them to the adjusted net income and earnings per share had the nonamortization provisions of Statement 142 been applied in that period and compares them to the three-month period ended August 31, 2002:

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

FINANCIAL CONDITION AS OF AUGUST 31, 2002

The Company's cash and investments decreased $62,872,000 to $323,645,000 at August 31, 2002. This decrease resulted from the $26,400,000 dividend paid during the quarter and the $106,000,000 used to purchase shares during the quarter pursuant to the share repurchase programs, offset by positive cash flow from operations.

Cash flows provided by operating activities were $76,157,000 for the first three months of fiscal 2003 compared to $53,820,000 in 2002. The primary sources of fiscal year 2003 cash flows from operating activities were net income, a decrease in accounts receivable and an increase in accrued income taxes. Accrued income taxes increased in the first quarter because there is no federal tax estimate due in the first quarter. The primary use was an increase in inventory. Inventories increased from line extensions and new product introductions (specifically in Europe) and a buildup of inventory associated with the Company's establishment of its direct operations in Japan. Accounts and notes receivable and inventory balances were increased during the quarter by $5 million and $12 million, respectively,

Cash flows from investing activities were $20,110,000 for the first three months of fiscal 2003 compared to a use of $13,557,000 in 2002. The primary source of cash flows from investing activities were sales and maturities of investments offset by purchases of investments and capital equipment.

Cash flows used in financing activities were $127,838,000 for the first three months of fiscal 2003 compared to a use of $21,510,000 in 2002. The primary use of cash flows from financing activities were the purchase of the Company's Common Shares as part of the Common Share repurchase programs and the cash dividend paid in the first quarter. In July 2002, the Company's Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of ten cents ($.10) per share payable to shareholders of record at the close of business on July 8, 2002. In September 2002, the Company announced that it's Board of Directors had authorized the purchase of up to an additional $100 million of the outstanding Common Shares of the Company. This brings the total authorization for repurchases to $424 million, of which the Company had purchased $316 million as of August 31, 2002.

Currently available funds, together with anticipated cash flows generated from future operations, are believed to be adequate to cover the Company's anticipated cash requirements, including capital expenditures, Common Stock repurchases, research and development costs, and litigation settlements, if any.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31, 2002 AS COMPARED TO THE THREE MONTHS ENDED AUGUST 31, 2001

Net sales increased 17% to $317,600,000 for the three-month period ended August 31, 2002, from $272,022,000 for the same period last year. Excluding the impact of foreign currency which increased sales for the quarter by $6.2 million, net sales increased 15% during the first quarter of fiscal year 2003. The Company's U.S.-based revenue increased 13% to $224,580,000 during the first three months of fiscal 2003, while foreign sales increased 28% to $93,020,000. Excluding the positive foreign exchange adjustment, foreign sales in local currencies increased 19%. Biomet's worldwide sales of reconstructive products during the first three months of fiscal 2003 were $192,025,000, representing a 19% increase compared to the first three months of last year. This increase was primarily a result of Biomet's continued penetration of the reconstructive device market led by the Company's broad line of cementless total hip systems, the Company's comprehensive line of total knee systems and bone cements and accessories. The Company's line of dental reconstructive implants experienced modest growth during the quarter due to increased seasonal slowdown in elective procedures in this market. Sales of fixation products were $59,381,000 for the first three months of fiscal 2003, representing an 11% increase as compared to the same period in 2002. Sales of spinal products were $33,266,000 for the first three months of fiscal 2003, representing a 21% increase as compared to the same period in 2002. The increase is a result of continued market acceptance of EBI's non-invasive SpinalPak Spinal Stimulation System and the VueLok™ Anterior Cervical Plate System. The Company's sales of other products totaled $32,928,000, representing an 11% increase over the first three months of fiscal year 2002, primarily as a result of increased sales of arthroscopy products and softgoods and bracing products. The sale of many of the Company's musculoskeletal products are elective surgery-related and accordingly are influenced by seasonal factors, as the number of elective orthopedic procedures decline during the summer months and the holiday season.

Cost of sales decreased as a percentage of net sales to 28.4% for the first three months of fiscal 2003 from 28.5% last year primarily as a result of increased sales of higher margin products and increased in-house manufacturing efficiencies. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales decreased to 36.5% compared to 37.2% for the first quarter last year. This decrease in the percentage is a result of the Company adopting FASB 142 and the discontinuance of amortization of goodwill during the quarter of $1.8 million. Research and development expenditures increased during the first three months to $12,638,000 reflecting the Company's continued emphasis on new product introductions. Operating income rose 21% from $81,646,000 for the first three months of fiscal 2002, to $98,937,000 for the first three months of fiscal 2003. Other income decreased 14%. Over the last three quarters, the Company has used $316,000,000 to purchase its common stock which has reduced investable cash. The effective income tax rate increased to 34.6% for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003 from 34.0% last year primarily as a result of states increasing their tax rates.

These factors resulted in an 18% increase in net income to $66,006,000 for the first three months of fiscal 2003 as compared to $56,013,000 for the same period in fiscal 2002. Basic and diluted earnings per share increased 19%, from $.21 to $.25 for the periods presented.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risks.

There have been no material changes from the information provided in the

Edgar Filing: BIOMET INC - Form 10-Q

Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended May 31, 2002.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

As of August 31, 2002, an evaluation was performed under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the CEO and CFO, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. Based on that evaluation, the Company's management, including the CEO and CFO, concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of August 31, 2002. There have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to August 31, 2002.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1: Legal Proceedings.

In January 1996, a jury returned a verdict in a patent infringement matter against the Company and in favor of Raymond G. Tronzo ("Tronzo"), which in August 1998 was subsequently reversed and vacated by the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (the "Federal Circuit"). The Federal Circuit then remanded the case to the District Court for the Southern District of Florida (the "District Court") for further consideration on state law claims only. On August 27, 1999, the District Court entered a final judgment of $53,530 against the Company. Tronzo then appealed the District Court's final judgment with the Federal Circuit and in January 2001 the Federal Circuit reinstated a $20 million punitive damages award against the Company while affirming the compensatory damage award of $520. The Federal Circuit's decision was based principally on procedural grounds, and in March 2001 it denied the Company's combined petition for panel rehearing petition and petition for rehearing en banc. On November 13, 2001 the United States Supreme Court ("Supreme Court") denied the Company's petition to review the $20 million punitive damage award against the Company given to Tronzo. The Company had previously recorded a one-time special charge during the third quarter of fiscal 2001 of $26.1 million, which represents the total damage award plus the maximum amount of interest that, as calculated by the Company, may be due under the award and related expenses. While the Company was disappointed in the Supreme Court's decision not to review the case, the Company has paid $20,236,000 out of escrow. The amount of interest owed by the Company, if any, on this award continues to be in dispute; however, if a decision on the interest award is adverse to the Company, it should not exceed the amount of the remaining funds in escrow. The Supreme Court's decision does not affect the ongoing sales of any of Biomet's product lines.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company was held on September 21, 2002. At the Annual Meeting:

1. The following persons were elected as Directors of the Company for a three-year term expiring in 2005.

establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-14 and 15d-14) for the registrant and we have:

- (a) designed such disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this quarterly report is being prepared;
 - (b) evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures as of a date within 90 days prior to the filing date of this quarterly report (the "Evaluation Date") ; and
 - (c) presented in this quarterly report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures based on our evaluation as of the Evaluation Date;
5. The registrant's other certifying officers and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent function):
- (a) all significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data and have identified for the registrant's auditors any material weaknesses in internal controls; and
 - (b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal controls; and
6. The registrant's other certifying officers and I have indicated in this quarterly report whether or not there were significant changes in internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date of our most recent evaluation, including any corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.
