Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On October 5, 2006 eight entities wholly-owned by two joint ventures of the registrant (the registrant holds a 50% equity interest in each joint venture) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the registrant consummated, in one transaction with a single purchaser, the sale of nine real properties. Each property is improved with a movie theater. The aggregate sales price of $151,885,000 was paid in cash at the closing, of which $136,658,000 is attributable to the eight properties owned by entities wholly-owned by the two joint ventures, and $15,227,000 to the one property owned by registrant's wholly-owned subsidiary. The registrant estimates that the joint ventures will realize a gain on sale, after expenses, fees and brokerage commissions, of approximately $49,315,000 (of which 50%, or approximately $24,657,000, will be attributable to the registrant). Registrant will also realize a gain, after expenses, fees and brokerage commissions, of approximately $3,678,000 on the one property sold by its wholly-owned subsidiary. The joint ventures paid a prepayment premium of $9,683,000 (of which 50%, or approximately $4,842,000 will be attributable to the registrant) on the outstanding mortgages secured by the properties which were sold. The prepayment premiums will be reported as interest expense for financial reporting purposes and are not reflected as an expense or fees in calculating the gains reported above.

Edgar Filing: ONE LIBERTY PROPERTIES INC - Form 8-K

The registrant anticipates that it will defer the taxable gain of approximately $3,800,000 on the one property sold by its wholly-owned subsidiary through a tax deferred exchange under Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code using the sales proceeds to acquire one or more replacement properties. There can be no assurance that the registrant will be able to locate suitable replacement properties to effectuate such tax deferred exchange.

The two joint ventures will pay a broker's commission in connection with the sale of the eight movie theaters in an amount estimated to be $1,367,000 to Majestic Property Management Corp. (a company wholly-owned by the registrant's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer and in which certain of registrant's officers are officers), 50% of which will be borne by the registrant and 50% by the joint venture partner. The commission is included as an expense in calculating the gain reported above. Included in the expenses related to the sale of the property by the registrant's wholly-owned subsidiary is a broker's commission estimated to be $152,000 to be paid to Majestic Property Management Corp., which is included as an expense in calculating the gain reported above.

The sale was effectuated pursuant to a Contract of Sale reported by the registrant in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 16, 2006. The purchaser is ECM Diversified Income and Growth Fund, LLC, which is unrelated to the registrant.

On September 14, 2006, the registrant reported on a Current Report on Form 8-K the consummation of the sale by a 50% owned joint venture of a movie theater property located in Brooklyn, New York for a consideration of $16,000,000. After closing expenses and brokerage commissions to an unrelated third party, the joint venture will recognize a gain of approximately $6,588,000, of which $3,294,000 will be attributable to the registrant. The joint venture paid a premium of $831,000 (of which $415,000 will be attributable to the registrant) in connection with the prepayment of the mortgage secured by this property, which will be reported as interest expense for financial reporting purposes and is not reflected as an expense or fees in calculating the gains reported above.

The amounts estimated or approximated in this Current Report on Form 8-K are based upon information currently available and is subject to change based upon further analysis, including final calculation of expenses and closing fees and other adjustments that may be required.

On September 13, 2006, a joint venture in which One Liberty Properties, Inc. (the "Company") holds a 50% equity interest, sold its Brooklyn, New York theater to a third party. On October 5, 2006, the Company sold one theater and the Company's two 50% owned theater joint ventures sold eight theaters to a single purchaser, a different third party than the one to whom the Brooklyn, New York property was sold. After the sales, the two joint ventures do not own any operating theaters. A wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company continues to own one movie theater in its portfolio.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of June 30, 2006, has been prepared as if the Company's sale of all ten theater properties (the "Properties") had been consummated on June 30, 2006. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the six months ended June 30, 2006 are presented as if the Company's sale of the Properties had occurred on January 1, 2005 and the effect was carried forward through June 30, 2006.

The pro forma consolidated financial statements do not purport to represent what the Company's financial position or results of operations would have been assuming the completion of the Company's sale of the Properties had occurred on January 1, 2005, nor do they purport to project the Company's financial position or results of operations at any future date or for any future period. The pro forma consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's 2005 annual report on Form 10-K and the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2006.

ONE LIBERTY JOINT VENTURES AND ONE LIBERTY SELL MOVIE THEATER PROPERTIES

Great Neck, New York - October 5, 2006 - One Liberty Properties, Inc. (NYSE:OLP) announced that eight entities (each wholly-owned by one of two separate joint ventures in which One Liberty holds a 50% equity interest), and a separate, wholly-owned subsidiary of One Liberty, closed today on the sale of nine movie theater properties in a single transaction to one purchaser. The aggregate purchase price was $151.9 million ($15.2 million of which was allocated to One Liberty's wholly-owned property and the balance of $136.7 million to the joint ventures' properties) and was paid in cash. One Liberty estimates that the sale with respect to its wholly-owned property will result in a gain, net of closing expenses and brokerage fees, of approximately $3.6 million and One Liberty's net gain with respect to the sale of the joint ventures' properties is approximately $24.5 million (a gain to the joint venture of approximately $49 million, net of closing expenses and brokerage fees). In September 2006, a joint venture in which One Liberty has a 50% equity interest sold to another purchaser its Brooklyn, New York movie theater for $16 million, resulting in a gain, after closing expenses and brokerage fees to One Liberty, of approximately $3.25 million (a net gain to the joint venture of approximately $6.5 million). In order to consummate these transactions, the joint ventures paid $10.5 million in prepayment premiums to their mortgage lenders, including a premium related to the Brooklyn theater. The prepayment premium will be reflected as interest expense. With the completion of the sale of these movie theaters, the Company has sold its interest in all but one of the movie theaters in its portfolio, which is owned by a One Liberty wholly-owned subsidiary. The estimated amounts indicated above are based upon information currently available to Management and may be subject to change upon further analysis, including final calculation of expenses and closing fees and other adjustments that may subsequently be required.

One Liberty anticipates that the gain of $3.6 million in connection with the sale of the wholly-owned property will be deferred for income tax purposes through a 1031 tax-deferred exchange, using the sale proceeds to acquire one or more replacement properties. However, it can make no assurance that it will be able to locate suitable replacement properties to effectuate such tax-deferred exchange.

Edgar Filing: ONE LIBERTY PROPERTIES INC - Form 8-K

Patrick J. Callan, Jr., President of One Liberty, commented "this sale bears out One Liberty's investment strategy of focusing on quality properties that are well located." One Liberty is a New York-based REIT that specializes in the acquisition and ownership of a diverse portfolio of real estate properties under long term net leases.
