RJF Shareholders: Vote

As shareholders, you are always encouraged to review the proxy materials and vote your shares. Your vote is important, no matter the size of your holdings.

The proxy materials for the February 24 Raymond James Financial Annual Meeting of Shareholders are in the mail.

Among the items to be voted on by shareholders – including common stock shareholders and all associates who are participants in the firm’s Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) – are:

- The election of 10 nominees to our Board of Directors;
- Ratification of the appointment by the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm;
- Approval of the amendments to the 2005 restricted stock plan to add non-employee directors as eligible participants;
 - Approval of an advisory (non-binding) resolution on the company’s executive compensation; and,
- Approval of an advisory (non-binding) resolution on the frequency of shareholder voting on the company’s executive compensation.

We Need Your Vote

While broker/dealers may sometimes vote shares without specific instructions from their customers for shares held in their customers’ accounts, this action is only allowed for appointment of auditors, one of five items on the RJF agenda this year. Please consider the voting recommendations of the Board of Directors contained the proxy statement.

How to Vote

All shareholders will receive proxy materials in the mail. Your proxy card explains how you can vote online, by telephone or by returning the card by mail. You will need your proxy card to vote, as it contains important shareholder-specific information.

If you lose or do not receive your proxy information and own shares in an account other than ESOP, contact the Corporate Actions department at ext. 73724 to get the control number associated with your respective RJF shares. You can then vote online (<http://www.proxyvote.com/>) or by telephone (1-800-454-8683) with this shareholder-specific control number.

NOTE: These instructions are for employees only and are only for shares held in street name through RJA.

If you lose or do not receive the proxy card for your shares held in your ESOP, e-mail reorganization@raymondjames.com by 5 p.m. ET Wednesday, February 16, 2011, to request the control number associated with your respective RJF shares. Your e-mail should include your name and address that is associated with your ESOP account. As soon as you receive your control number you can then vote online (<http://www.proxyvoting.com/rjf>) or by telephone (1-866-540-5760) with this shareholder-specific control number.
