NEWS RELEASE

ABRAXAS TO DEFER INTEREST PAYMENT

SAN ANTONIO, TX (May 1, 2002) - Abraxas Petroleum Corporation (the "Company") (AMEX:ABP) today announced that it will defer payment of $11.0 million in interest due today on its $191 million principal amount of 11.5% Senior Secured Notes due 2004 (the "Notes"). Under the terms of the Notes, non-payment of interest is an event of default only if the payment is not made within 30 days after the due date (the "grace period").

During the grace period, the Company expects to combine current cash on hand with expected cash flows to make the interest payment. The Company does not expect that the deferral of the interest payment will have an impact on its ongoing operational activities.

Edgar Filing: ABRAXAS PETROLEUM CORP - Form 8-K

Abraxas CEO Robert Watson commented, "While we are disappointed at having to utilize our grace period to make our interest payment, we are confident that this is a short-term timing issue caused by events beyond our control and not a long-term problem. Although we have not had a conventional bank line for the past several years to assist in managing our liquidity needs, we have been successful in managing cash flow, fixed charges, capital expenditures, asset sales and other financings to meet all of our obligations timely, while developing our significant asset base. Nothing operationally has changed at Abraxas. The expected completion of our previously announced non-core asset sales and the recovery in commodity prices will allow us to continue to develop our sizable inventory of projects and to improve our balance sheet to maximize shareholder value."
