On October 7, 2014, Dwight B. Mamanteo resigned from the Board of Directors of ARI Network Services, Inc. (the “Company”), and all Committees he served on, effective immediately. Mr. Mamanteo’s resignation was not due to any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to its operations, policies or practices.

On October 7, 2014, the Board of Directors of the Company appointed Chad J. Cooper as a member of the Company’s Board, to hold office until the Company’s Annual Meeting of Shareholders in January 2016 and until his successor is elected.

Cooper is currently the Chief Executive Officer of Digital Offering LLC, a technology-driven merchant bank. He has more than 15 years’ experience in the investment banking and capital markets industry. Prior to joining Digital Offering, Cooper was a Managing Director at Ascendant Capital Group, Global Hunter Securities, and B. Riley & Co., all investment banking firms. Cooper also served as Director of Institutional Sales and in other various capacities at Roth Capital Partners, an investment bank, from 2002 to 2011. Cooper earned a B.A. in International Relations from the University of Southern California and an M.B.A. from Georgetown University.

Under the previously disclosed Securities Purchase Agreement dated March 12, 2013 among the Company and certain investors (the “Purchase Agreement”), the Cooper Family Trust dtd 8/1/04 (the “Cooper Trust”) acquired 50,000 shares of the Company’s Common Stock at a purchase of $1.50 per share, along with warrants to purchase 16,667 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $2.00 per share. Chad J. Cooper and Nancy N. Cooper, the co-trustees of the Cooper Trust, have shared voting and investment power over the shares of the Company’s Common Stock held by the Cooper Trust.

At the time of the private placement pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, Mr. Cooper was an affiliate of Ascendant Capital Markets, LLC (“Ascendant Capital Markets”). The Company and Ascendant Capital Markets are parties to an engagement letter dated February 5, 2013 (the “Engagement Letter”) pursuant to which Ascendant Capital Markets agreed to act as financial advisor and non-exclusive placement agent for the Company in connection with potential sales of securities, in accordance with the terms of the Engagement Letter. Pursuant to the Engagement Letter, Ascendant Capital Markets served as the placement agent in connection with the private placement in which the shares were issued pursuant to the Purchase Agreement. In consideration for such services, the Company paid Ascendant Capital Markets a fee in the amount of $288,000, issued Warrants to purchase 35,200 shares of Common Stock to Ascendant Capital Markets, and issued Warrants to purchase 28,800 shares of Common Stock to Mr. Cooper.

Mr. Cooper’s appointment to Company’s Board of Directors was not pursuant to any arrangement or understanding between Mr. Cooper and any other person.

As a non-employee director of the Company, Mr. Cooper will participate in the same compensation arrangements as the other non-employee directors of the Company, which currently consists of a cash retainer of $22,000 per year and an annual equity grant of the Company's common stock as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board. In addition, in connection with his appointment, Mr. Cooper was granted an option to purchase 10,000 shares of the Company's common stock under the Company's 2010 Equity Incentive Plan. This option will become exercisable as to 50% of the shares on July 31, 2015 and as to the remaining 50% of the shares on July 31, 2016.
