In January 2004, she was promoted to Director of Finance, Principal Financial Officer. Ms. Vitulli has over twenty years progressive experience in accounting in both public and private industries. She has played a significant role in the development of several start-up companies and has headed large systems implementations. She holds a BA in Business Administration with a major in Accounting from Seattle University.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our executive officers, directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of our common stock to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on our review of the copies of such reports furnished to us and written representations by certain reporting persons regarding their compliance with the applicable reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, we believe that, with respect to our fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, all filing requirements applicable to our executive officers, directors and greater-than-10% stockholders were complied with except that Form 4 reports were not timely filed by Messrs. Caudill, Lucas, Ward and Wilds with respect to one transaction each as a result of inadvertent administrative delays.

Code of Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct that applies to its officers, directors and employees. The Code of Business Conduct is available on the Company's website at www.scolr.com.

Compensation of Directors

The Company pays no additional remuneration to employees of the Company who serve as directors. All directors are entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred in traveling to and from meetings of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has adopted the following compensation plan for non-employee directors (Eligible Directors): (a) on October 1 of each year each Eligible Director is granted an option exercisable for 30,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, which option shall be fully vested as of the date of grant, (b) on October 1 of the first year of service, each new Eligible Director is granted an option for 2,500 shares for each whole month of service prior to October 1, (c) in the event an Eligible Director resigns prior to October 1 in any year, such eligible Director is granted an option on October 1 of the year of resignation for 2,500 shares for each whole month of service completed prior to the date of designation, and (d) each Eligible Director receives a quarterly cash retainer paid in arrears in the amount of $3,750 for services as a Director.

In accordance with this compensation policy, on October 1, 2003, Mr. Lucas, Dr. Caudill (together with another non-employee director who is no longer serving) were each granted nonqualified stock options exercisable for 30,000 shares and Mr. Howard and Mr. Taglich were each granted 2,500 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $2.28 per share.

Employment Contracts and Termination of Employment and Change-in-Control Agreements

The Company entered into a Consulting Agreement with Dr. Fassihi dated December 22, 2000, which has been amended and supplemented by Additional Services Agreements. Under the Consulting Agreement, the Company agreed to pay Dr. Fassihi a monthly retainer of $4,000 and an hourly fee of $100 (which is credited against the retainer) until December 31, 2006, subject to termination under certain circumstances. In addition, the Company is obligated to pay Dr. Fassihi royalties for sales of products relating to certain intellectual property assigned to the Company by Dr. Fassihi. Dr. Fassihi devotes approximately one day per week plus ongoing supervision of projects as necessary to provide services to the Company. Under the terms of his Consulting Agreement, the Company shall own any and all intellectual property relating to the services provided under the agreements. During 2003, the Company paid Dr. Fassihi $48,000 in consulting fees and granted Dr. Fassihi a fully exercisable nonqualified stock option for 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $1.05 per share on April 7, 2003.

On August 7, 2003, Mr. Howard entered into Separation and Advisory Agreements with the Company pursuant to which he resigned as an officer and agreed to provide consulting and advisory services to the Company. In connection with these agreements, Mr. Howard received a bonus of $100,000 and the Company confirmed the vesting of 480,000 of the 800,000 options previously granted to Mr. Howard. Under the terms of the Advisory Agreement, Mr. Howard assists the Company with the development and commercialization of the Company's drug delivery technology and provides assistance with respect to licenses, strategic alliances and product development. The Advisory Agreement provided for compensation of $20,000 per month and was scheduled to terminate on February 6, 2004. By letter dated December 30, 2003, Mr. Howard's Advisory Agreement was extended until July 6, 2004, subject to automatic extension until terminated by either party on 60 days notice. In addition, subsequent to

Table of Contents

February 6, 2004, Mr. Howard's compensation was reduced to $10,000 per month.

Mr. Wilds was appointed to the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company in August 2003. At that time, the Company approved a termination package that would provide payment equal to six months salary in the event his employment was terminated by the Company without cause.

The Company has an Employment Agreement with Stephen Turner which provides for an annual salary of at least $85,000 (subsequently increased to $140,000 per year) and includes provisions for bonus, salary increases and stock options as determined by the Board. In accordance with the terms of the agreement, Mr. Turner's employment is at will and he may be terminated at any time with or without cause. However, in the event Mr. Turner's employment is terminated without cause (as defined), or by Mr. Turner for good reason (as defined), the Company shall continue to pay his then current base salary for six months following the date of termination.

The Company entered a Consulting Agreement with Daniel Ward, a former director, commencing upon his resignation as director on November 11, 2003 and terminates on December 31, 2004. In accordance with his Consulting Agreement, Mr. Ward receives $3,750 per calendar quarter.

ITEM 12. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

On January 15, 2004, the Company completed the sale of its probiotics development and manufacturing division to an entity formed and owned by Steven H. Moger, the Company's former Vice President of Operations, Chief Financial Officer and General Manager of the probiotics division. Mr. Moger resigned his positions with the Company in connection with the sale. The assets sold comprise substantially all of the assets and properties used in connection with the Company's probiotics division, including equipment, inventory and intellectual property rights. The division engaged in the business of formulating and manufacturing probiotics-based health and dietary supplements for the animal and human nutrition markets. The Company also granted the buyer the right to manufacture and sell certain products utilizing SCOLR's patented CDT® technology pursuant to a License, Manufacture, and Distribution Agreement also dated as of December 31, 2003. The Company received $722,756 in cash at closing and the Asset Purchase Agreement provides for deferred payments of at least $2 million. The deferred payments are tied to the Buyer's achievement of certain sales levels and royalties. The consideration for the sale was determined pursuant to arm's-length negotiations after extensive negotiations with a number of third parties (including industry buyers) and took into account various factors concerning the valuation of the probiotics business, including valuations of comparable companies, the operating results, financial condition and prospects of the division and the opinion of the financial advisor retained by the Company's Board of Directors. In connection with Mr. Moger's resignation from the Company, he entered into a Separation Agreement which provided for the vesting of all options previously granted to Mr. Moger and extended the time for him to exercise such options until December 31, 2006.

Dr. Fassihi assigned the Company all of his right, title and interest in and to the technology known as oral extended release dosage form based on the principle of controlled hydration pursuant to an Intellectual Property Assignment and Assumption Agreement dated May 24, 2001. The Company paid Dr. Fassihi $20,000 in connection with execution of this Agreement and an additional $30,000 fee upon issuance of Patent No. 6,517,868 (CDT Patent

No. 3). In addition, Dr. Fassihi assigned all of his right, title and interest in the technology known as multiple compressed asymmetric composite delivery system for release-rate modulation of bioactives to the Company pursuant to an Intellectual Property Assignment and Assumption Agreement dated August 1, 2002. The Company paid Dr. Fassihi a fee upon execution of the Agreement and agreed to pay an additional fee upon issuance of the first patent. The Company is obligated to pay Dr. Fassihi an annual license maintenance fee, share in upfront payments from customers and pay royalties based on product sales with respect to the intellectual property assigned to the Company under each agreement.

Between April 30, 2003 and May 6, 2003, the Company issued $550,000 of subordinated notes to a group of accredited investors, including Herbert L. Lucas, a director of the Company, who purchased $75,000 of such subordinated notes. In connection with the sale of these notes, the Company granted warrants to purchase 235,722 shares of the Company's common stock (including 32,144 warrants granted to Mr. Lucas) at $1.11 per share exercisable for three years. The notes were paid in full on June 25, 2003. For placement services associated with the financing, the Company paid Taglich Brothers, Inc. a fee of $23,750 and issued warrants to purchase 20,357 shares of common stock at $1.11 per share exercisable for three years. Michael N. Taglich and Robert Schroeder, directors of the Company, are affiliates of Taglich Brothers, Inc.

On June 25, 2003, the Company completed a private placement of $5.3 million of notes due June 25, 2006. Of the $5.3 million of notes issued, $75,000 were issued to Herbert L. Lucas. The principal balance was converted into shares of the Company's common stock at $1.05 per share in December 2003. In consideration of certain placement services, the Company paid Taglich Brothers, Inc. a cash fee of approximately $200,000, issued $300,000 of convertible notes and issued warrants to purchase up to 476,191 shares at $1.155 per share.

In February 2004, the Company completed the private placement of 3,206,538 shares of its common stock for $3.25 per share. The purchasers also received five year warrants to purchase 801,636 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $4.75 per share. Rodman & Renshaw acted as the lead placement agent for the transaction and Taglich Brothers, Inc. assisted in the financing. The placement agents received a cash commission of $729,487 and warrants to purchase 224,458 shares, of which Taglich Brothers, Inc. received $174,965 and warrants to purchase 53,846 shares. In addition, Mr. Taglich purchased 49,631 shares of common stock and warrants to purchase 12,408 shares as part of the private placement.

During March 2002, the Company entered an exclusive patent license agreement with Arthur-Daniels-Midland (ADM), the owner of approximately 6% of the Company's common stock, which granted ADM an exclusive license and right of first refusal to develop and market certain dietary supplement and nutraceutical products using the Company's CDT Technology. During 2002, the Company received $50,000 for reimbursement of research and development costs associated with one product. The Company realized revenues of $195,788 through sales and royalties from ADM during 2003 and will receive royalties based on a percentage of net sales of the licensed products sold by ADM each quarter.

The Company engaged Dunsford Hill Capital Partners (Dunsford Hill) in March 2003 to provide strategic and financial advice to the Company and to assist organizing and preparing the Company for a private equity financing. Dr. Randall Caudill, a director, is the owner of Dunsford Hill. Under the terms of the engagement, the Company agreed to pay Dunsford Hill $75,000 over the six month term of the engagement and granted Dunsford Hill a five-year warrant to purchase 100,000 shares

Table of ContentsITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

We have engaged Grant Thornton LLP as our principal accountant. The following table summarizes fees we have paid Grant Thornton LLP for independent auditing, tax and related services for each of the last two fiscal years:

	2003	2002
	(in thousands of US dollars)
Audit fees (1)	98,680	72,595
Audit-related fees (2)
Tax fees (3)	15,157
All other fees (4)	35,355	9,795

(1) Audit fees represent amounts billed for each of the years presented for professional services rendered in connection with (i) the audit of our annual financial statements, (ii) the review of our quarterly financial statements or (iii) those services normally provided in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements including comfort letters, consents and other services related to SEC matters. This information is presented as of the latest practicable date for this annual report on Form 10-KSB.

(2) Audit-related fees represent amounts we were billed in each of the years presented for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the annual audit or quarterly reviews. This category primarily includes services relating to internal control assessments and accounting-related consulting.

(3) Tax fees represent amounts we were billed in each of the years presented for professional services rendered in connection with tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning.

(4) All other fees represent amounts we were billed in each of the years presented for services not classifiable under the other categories listed in the table above. Grant Thornton LLP rendered no such services during the last two years.

The engagement of the Company's auditor is approved by the Audit Committee and ratified by the full Board of Directors in advance of the engagement.
