Item 8.01.

Other Events.

On or about November 16, 2007, Manpower Inc. (the Company) received a Statement of Objections from French authorities in connection with their investigation of the Company. As announced in November 2004, French authorities commenced an investigation at the Company's headquarters in France. According to the search warrant, the investigation stems from a complaint submitted during 2003 to the European Commission and subsequently transferred to France's Direction Generale de la Concurrence, de la Consommation et de la Repression des Fraudes, a body from the French Financial Department that investigates frauds and competition violations. The Statement of Objections alleges information sharing between the Company and its competitors.

A Statement of Objections is a further step in the proceedings under French competition law with respect to the matter. The Company will have the opportunity and intends to respond to the allegations made in the Statement of Objections as the proceedings continue. At this time, the Company is not able to predict the outcome of the matter.
