CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

General Mills has a long-standing commitment to good corporate governance practices. These practices provide an important framework within which our Board of Directors and management can pursue the strategic objectives of General Mills and ensure its long-term vitality for the benefit of stockholders. Our corporate governance principles and practices (described below) have evolved over many years. The Corporate Governance Committee reviews them annually, and changes are recommended to the Board for approval as appropriate. The unchanging, fundamental premise of these principles, however, is the independent nature of the Board and its overarching responsibility to our stockholders. Our governance principles are published on our website at www.generalmills.com in the Investors section and are available in print to any stockholder who requests a copy from our Corporate Secretary.

Board Independence and Composition

The Board believes that a substantial majority of its members should be independent, non-employee directors. The Board has adopted criteria for independence based on those established by the New York Stock Exchange. On that basis, the Board has affirmatively determined that all of our non-employee directors are independent.

Director affiliations and transactions are regularly reviewed to ensure there are no conflicts or relationships that might impair a director's independence from the Company, senior management and our independent registered public accounting firm.

All Board committees are composed entirely of independent, non-employee directors. Committee and committee chair assignments are reviewed annually by the Corporate Governance Committee, which recommends committee rosters to the full Board. Assignments are rotated to ensure that each committee has an appropriate mix of tenure and experience.

Stockholders elect directors annually.

Overall Board composition guidelines require expertise in fields relevant to the business of the Company; a breadth of experience from a variety of industries and from professional disciplines such as finance, academia, law and government; a diversity of gender, ethnicity, age and geographic location; and a range of tenures on the Board to ensure both continuity and fresh perspective. Final approval of director nominees is determined by the full Board, based on the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee.

Well-defined selection criteria for individual directors require independence, integrity, experience and sound judgment in areas relevant to our businesses, a proven record of accomplishment, willingness to speak one's mind and commit sufficient time to the Board, appreciation for the long-term interests of stockholders and the ability to challenge and stimulate management and to work well with fellow directors. The Corporate Governance Committee uses a variety of sources, including executive search firms and stockholder recommendations, to identify director candidates. The Committee retains any search firms and approves payment of their fees.

Board members are expected to devote sufficient time and attention to carrying out their director duties and responsibilities and ensure that their other responsibilities, including service on other boards, do not materially interfere with their responsibilities as directors of the Company.

The Board believes that meaningful stockholder participation is critical in the election of directors. Currently, our directors are elected by a plurality vote, which means that the director nominees who receive the highest number of votes are elected to the Board. The Board is aware that some investors and stockholders favor the election of directors by a majority of votes cast, and members of the legal and investment communities are working to develop recommended practices. The Corporate Governance Committee has been engaged in the ongoing discussion among stockholders and companies regarding this important topic and will continue to monitor the development of majority vote standards and recommended practices.

Director Retirement Policy

To ensure an appropriate balance between new perspectives and experienced directors:

Non-employee directors must retire at age 70, or within five years of normal retirement from their principal organization, whichever occurs first.

Non-employee directors are expected to offer their resignation whenever their principal employment or affiliation changes after joining the Board, and the Corporate Governance Committee then decides whether the director should continue to serve.

Company officers who are directors are expected to resign from the Board when they cease to be employed by us.

Board Performance and Operations

Board meetings and background materials sent to directors in advance of meetings focus on our key strategic, leadership and performance issues.

Each year, the Board has formal reviews and discussions of our annual and longer-term strategic business plans and management development and succession plans, including an assessment of senior executives and their potential as successor to the Chief Executive Officer. The Board has adopted procedures to elect a Chief Executive Officer successor in the event of the Chief Executive Officer's sudden departure.

Focused discussions of individual businesses and key issues are held throughout the year, and extended off-site sessions are held periodically for in-depth reviews of key strategic matters. The Board also regularly reviews our performance compared to our competitive peer companies.

The Board and its committees may engage independent outside financial, legal and other advisors as they deem necessary to provide advice and counsel on various topics or issues. Directors also have full access to officers and employees.

Committee responsibilities are detailed in their charters, and reports of committee meetings are given to the full Board, which acts on their recommendations, as appropriate.

Annually, a master Board agenda is prepared covering recurring items and for planning purposes. The agenda and topics for Board and committee meetings are developed through discussions between management and Board members. Information and data that are important to the issues to be considered are distributed in advance of each meeting.

Executive sessions without management directors present are scheduled at each Board meeting. The Chair of the Corporate Governance Committee acts as presiding director at executive sessions unless the topics to be covered make it more appropriate for another committee chair to preside. At least annually, outside directors meet formally without management directors present to evaluate the Chief Executive Officer's performance. This session is led by the Chair of the Compensation Committee and includes a review of the Chief Executive Officer's annual accomplishments, compensation and performance objectives for the next fiscal year. In advance of the meeting, the full Board conducts a formal Chief Executive Officer evaluation that includes input from all Board members. Following the executive session, the results of the evaluation are communicated to the Chief Executive Officer.

The Corporate Governance Committee has responsibility for corporate governance and Board organization and procedures. A formal Board evaluation covering Board operations and performance, with a written evaluation from each Board member, is conducted annually to enhance Board effectiveness. Recommended changes are considered by the full Board. In addition, each Board committee conducts an annual self-evaluation.

New directors participate in an orientation program that includes discussions with senior management, background materials on our strategic plan, organization and financial statements and visits to our facilities. We encourage each director to participate in continuing educational programs that are important to maintaining a director's level of expertise to perform his or her responsibilities as a Board member, and we reimburse directors for the cost of attending these programs.

The Board expects all directors, officers and employees to act with the highest standards of integrity and adhere to our policies and applicable code of conduct. Directors also are required to follow our Director Code of Conduct. The Corporate Governance Committee of the Board annually reviews and oversees compliance with the Director Code of Conduct, which is available on our website at www.generalmills.com in the Investors section and in print to any stockholder who requests a copy from our Corporate Secretary.

The Board regularly reviews a report of recent executive officer transactions in General Mills securities.

Alignment with Stockholder Interests

Each director is expected to represent the interests of all stockholders, and not those of any particular stockholder or any special interest group.

A substantial portion of director compensation is linked to our stock performance, and directors can elect to receive their entire Board remuneration in stock and stock-related compensation. Directors are expected to keep all of the net shares they receive as compensation until they own shares equal in market value to at least five times their annual retainer. The Compensation Committee is responsible for periodically reviewing Board compensation and recommending changes.

The Board supports and oversees employee compensation programs that are closely linked to business performance and emphasize equity ownership, including stock ownership targets, for key management employees. For more details, see Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation on pages 18 through 21.

Senior management meets regularly with major institutional investors and stockholders, and reports to the Board on analyst and stockholder views of General Mills.

Director Independence

The Board of Directors believes that a substantial majority of its members should be independent non-employee directors. The Board annually reviews all commercial and charitable relationships that directors may have with us to determine whether our directors are, in fact, independent. To assist it in determining director independence, the Board has established the following guidelines that are consistent with the current listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange:

A director will not be considered independent if, within the preceding three years:

the director was an employee of, or an immediate family member of the director was an executive officer of, General Mills;

the director or an immediate family member of the director has received during any 12-month period more than $100,000 in direct compensation from us (other than director fees and pension or other deferred compensation for prior service to us);

an executive officer of General Mills was on the compensation committee of a company which, at the same time, employed the director or an immediate family member of the director as an executive officer; or the director was an executive officer or employee of, or an immediate family member of the director was an executive officer of, another company that does business with us and the annual revenue derived from that business by either company accounts for at least (i) $1,000,000 or (ii) two percent, whichever is greater, of the annual gross revenues of such company.

A director will not be considered independent if:

the director or an immediate family member of the director is a current partner of our independent registered public accounting firm;

the director is a current employee of our independent registered public accounting firm;

an immediate family member of the director is a current employee of our independent registered public accounting firm who participates in the firm's audit, assurance or tax compliance (but not tax planning) practice; or the director or an immediate family member of the director was, within the preceding three years, a partner or employee of our independent registered public accounting firm and personally worked on our audit within that time.

The following commercial or charitable relationships are immaterial and will not, by themselves, impair a director's independence:

a director is an executive officer of another company which is indebted to us, or to which we are indebted, and the total amount of either company's indebtedness to the other is less than two percent of the total consolidated assets of the company he or she serves as an executive officer;

a director serves as an officer, director or trustee of a charitable organization and our charitable contributions to such organization are less than the greater of (i) $100,000 or (ii) two percent of the organization's total annual charitable receipts; and a director is an executive officer of another company that does business with us and the annual revenue derived from that business by either company accounts for less than (i) $1,000,000 or (ii) two percent, whichever is greater, of the annual revenues of such company.

For relationships not covered by these guidelines, the determination of whether the relationship is material or not, and therefore whether the director would be independent or not, shall be made by the directors who satisfy the independence guidelines set forth above. We will explain in our proxy statement the basis for any determination by the Board that a relationship is not material if the relationship does not satisfy one of the specific categories of immaterial relationships identified above.

Audit Committee members may not accept, directly or indirectly, any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from us (other than director fees and pension or other deferred compensation for prior service to us).

The Board has reviewed all transactions or relationships between each of our non-employee directors, or any member of his or her immediate family, and the Company, our senior management and our independent registered public accounting firm. Based on this review, the Board has affirmatively determined that the following non-employee directors are independent under our guidelines and as defined by New York Stock Exchange listing standards: Paul Danos, William T. Esrey, Raymond V. Gilmartin, Judith Richards Hope, Heidi G. Miller, Hilda Ochoa-Brillembourg, Steve Odland, Michael D. Rose, Robert L. Ryan, A. Michael Spence and Dorothy A. Terrell. The Board has also determined that all Board committees are composed entirely of independent, non-employee directors. The Board considered and reviewed a limited number of commercial transactions undertaken in the ordinary course of our business with businesses and charities where our directors serve as officers or directors. Except as noted below, each of those transactions is significantly below the thresholds set forth in the categories of immaterial relationships described in our guidelines. Under the heading of "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions," we have disclosed a relationship between certain of our benefit plan trusts and Emerging Markets Investment Corporation and Emerging Markets Management, companies with which Hilda Ochoa-Brillembourg is affiliated, and we have separately discussed the Board's determination of her independence in that disclosure.

Director Nominations

The Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for recommending candidates for election to our Board of Directors. The Committee considers the Board's overall composition when it selects candidates. As a group, the Board should reflect the diverse interests of our stockholders, and should bring expertise in fields relevant to our businesses and a breadth of experience from a variety of industries and professional disciplines, as well as diversity of gender, ethnicity, age and geographic location.

The Committee expects a high level of commitment from Board members and evaluates each candidate's leadership and industry experience, skills, expertise and character traits, including the candidate's ability to devote sufficient time to Board and committee meetings in light of other board service.

The Committee reviews whether a potential candidate meets Board and/or committee membership requirements imposed by law, regulation or stock exchange rules, determines whether a potential candidate is independent according to standards for evaluating director independence (described on page 4) and evaluates the potential for any conflict of interest between the director and General Mills.

Director candidates recommended to the Committee are subject to full Board approval and election by stockholders at an annual meeting of stockholders. From time to time, the Committee retains a recruitment firm to assist in identifying, evaluating and recruiting director candidates, based on specified criteria, and pays the firm a fee for these services. Suggestions also are received from Board members, stockholders and management.

Of the thirteen directors recommended for election at our 2006 Annual Meeting, all nominees were elected at our 2005 Annual Meeting except for Kendall J. Powell, who was elected to the Board in connection with his appointment as our President and Chief Operating Officer in June 2006.

Stockholders who wish to suggest an individual for consideration for election to our Board of Directors may submit a written nomination to the Corporate Secretary, General Mills, Inc., P.O. Box 1113, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55440, along with the stockholder's name, address and the number of General Mills shares beneficially owned; the name of the individual being nominated and number of General Mills shares beneficially owned by the candidate; the candidate's biographical information describing experience and qualifications; a description of all agreements, arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and individual being nominated; and the candidate's consent to serve as a director, if elected. To assist in the evaluation of stockholder-recommended candidates, the Committee may request that the stockholder provide certain additional information required to be disclosed in our proxy statement under Regulation 14A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. To be considered by the Committee for the slate recommended in our proxy statement for the 2007 Annual Meeting, stockholders should submit the required information to the Corporate Secretary by May 1, 2007.

The Committee will consider and evaluate stockholder-recommended candidates by applying the same criteria used to evaluate director-recommended candidates. If the Committee decides the candidate is suitable for Board membership, the Committee will make a recommendation to the Board of Directors for its approval to include the candidate in the slate of directors nominated for election by stockholders in the proxy statement.

Under our By-laws, stockholders may also nominate a candidate for election at an annual meeting of stockholders. Our annual meeting is typically held on the fourth Monday in September. Stockholders who intend to present a nomination at our 2007 Annual Meeting are required to notify the Corporate Secretary in writing and provide the information described above no earlier than May 28, 2007 and no later than June 27, 2007. Director nominees submitted through this process will be eligible for election at the stockholder meeting, but will not be included in proxy materials sent to stockholders prior to the meeting.

Stockholder Communications with the Board

Stockholders may contact any of our directors by writing to the Board of Directors or to the Corporate Secretary, General Mills, Inc., P.O. Box 1113, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55440 or via e-mail at boardofdirectors@genmills.com. The Board of Directors has instructed the Corporate Secretary to distribute communications to a director or directors, after ascertaining whether the communications are appropriate to duties and responsibilities of the Board. The Board has requested that the Corporate Secretary not forward the following types of communications: general surveys and mailings to solicit business or advertise products, job applications or resumes, product inquiries or complaints, new product suggestions or any material that is threatening, illegal or does not relate to the responsibilities of the Board.

Code of Conduct and Reporting of Ethical Concerns to the Audit Committee of the Board

We have adopted a Code of Conduct applicable to all employees, including our principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer, and a Code of Conduct applicable to our directors. Copies of the Codes of Conduct are available on our website at www.generalmills.com and in print to any stockholder who requests a copy from our Corporate Secretary, General Mills, Inc., P.O. Box 1113, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55440.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has established procedures for employees, stockholders, vendors and others to communicate concerns about our ethical conduct or business practices, including accounting, internal controls or financial reporting issues, to the Audit Committee, which has responsibility for these matters. Matters may be reported as follows:

if you are an employee of General Mills, contact your manager or human resources representative; or call the Ethics Advice Line at 800-210-2878* on an identified or anonymous basis.

The Board has discretion to appoint an Executive Committee to take actions on behalf of the full Board, except where prohibited by Delaware law, and to meet between regular Board meetings when necessary for the Company's efficient operation. The Board did not appoint an Executive Committee for fiscal 2007.

Directors are expected to attend all Board and committee meetings, as well as the annual stockholders meeting, absent exigent circumstances. Eleven of our 12 directors in office at the time attended the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. During fiscal 2006, the Board of Directors met six times and various committees of the Board met a total of 20 times. Director attendance at all Board and committee meetings averaged 94 percent. All directors attended at least 75 percent of the aggregate total meetings of the Board and Board committees on which the directors served during fiscal 2006, except for Mr. Rose, who attended 73 percent of the meetings.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Hilda Ochoa-Brillembourg, a General Mills director, is Managing Director and minority owner of Emerging Markets Investment Corporation (EMI) and Emerging Markets Management, LLC (EMM). Approximately $114 million of General Mills pension plan and savings plan assets are invested in EMI, and EMM received management fees of approximately $1.1 million attributable to these investments during fiscal 2006. In determining that these relationships do not impair her independence, the Board considered the following factors: (i) Ms. Ochoa-Brillembourg is not an employee or officer of EMI or EMM and is not otherwise involved in the day-to-day operations of either, (ii) our relationship with EMI and EMM pre-dates Ms. Ochoa-Brillembourg's election to our Board of Directors, (iii) she was not involved in establishing the relationship, (iv) she has never had any direct involvement in providing services to our benefit plans and she derives no special benefit from the relationship beyond her ownership interest in EMI and EMM, (v) the compensation paid to EMM was determined through arms-length negotiations and is customary in amount and (vi) her level of ownership in each of EMI and EMM would not impact her willingness or ability to act independently from our management.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

We structure director compensation to attract and retain qualified non-employee directors and to further align the interests of directors with the interests of stockholders by linking a portion of their compensation to stock performance. If they choose, non-employee directors can receive the entire amount of their Board remuneration in stock and stock-related compensation. Directors are expected to keep all of the net shares they receive as Board compensation until they own shares equal in market value to at least five times their annual retainer.

Annual Retainer. Effective beginning in the second half of fiscal 2006, we increased the annual retainer for non-employee directors from $50,000 to $75,000. As a result, non-employee directors each received an annual retainer of $62,500 in fiscal 2006. Audit Committee members receive an additional annual retainer of $5,000. Effective beginning in the second half of fiscal 2006, the annual retainer for the Audit Committee Chair was increased from $10,000 to $15,000, and other Committee Chairs began receiving a $10,000 annual retainer. We do not pay any additional fees for attending or chairing a meeting.

Directors can elect to have annual retainer amounts paid quarterly in cash or our common stock of equal value, or they can defer payment until a later date. If payment is deferred, the deferred amount earns interest based on the directors' selection from a group of funds offered to employees participating in our Deferred Compensation Plan. One of these funds tracks the return on our common stock.

In fiscal 2006, W.T. Esrey, J.R. Hope, R.L. Ryan and D.A. Terrell received their retainers in cash payments; H. Ochoa-Brillembourg, S. Odland, M.D. Rose and A.M. Spence deferred some cash payments; and R.V. Gilmartin received 50 percent in cash and 50 percent in common stock.

Restricted Stock Units. Each time they are elected to the Board, non-employee directors receive 1,000 stock units. Stock units vest at the next annual stockholders' meeting, and receipt of shares of common stock upon vesting can be deferred until a later date. Stock units earn amounts equal to the dividend payments on our common stock. These amounts can be reinvested in additional stock units or paid to the director.

Stock Options. Non-employee directors also receive options to purchase 10,000 shares of our common stock each time they are elected to the Board. The per-share price the director pays at exercise is the market price of the common stock on the date of the grant. The options become exercisable at the next annual stockholders' meeting and expire 10 years after grant.

Other Benefits. We also have a planned gift program for directors that is funded by General Mills-paid life insurance policies on each participating director. Upon the death of a director, we donate $1 million to a qualifying charity recommended by the director, and we receive the entire charitable deduction. We are then reimbursed by life insurance proceeds. The cost of the program is not material to us, and individual directors derive no financial benefit from the program.

We do not have a retirement plan for our non-employee directors.

TOTAL RETURN TO STOCKHOLDERS

This line graph and table compare the cumulative total stockholder return for holders of our common stock with the cumulative total return of the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index and the Standard & Poor's 500 Packaged Foods Index for the last five-year fiscal period. The graph and table assume the investment of $100 in each of General Mills common stock and the specified indexes at the beginning of the applicable period, and assume the reinvestment of all dividends.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Committee. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors consists of five non-employee directors named below. Each member of the Audit Committee is an independent director under our guidelines and as defined by New York Stock Exchange listing standards and SEC regulations for audit committee membership. In addition, the Board of Directors has unanimously determined that Dean Danos, Mr. Esrey and Mr. Ryan, members of the Audit Committee, qualify as audit committee financial experts within the meaning of SEC regulations and have accounting or related financial management expertise within the meaning of New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Board of Directors has also unanimously determined that all Audit Committee members are financially literate within the meaning of New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Committee, which operates according to its charter, is primarily responsible for oversight of our financial statements and internal controls, assessing and ensuring the independence, qualifications and performance of the independent registered public accounting firm, approving the independent registered public accounting firm's services and fees, reviewing our risk assessment process and ethical, legal and regulatory compliance programs, and reviewing and approving our annual audited financial statements before issuance, subject to the Board of Directors' approval. No members of the Audit Committee received any compensation from General Mills during the last fiscal year other than directors' fees. The Committee's charter is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement, may be found on our website located at www.generalmills.com in the Investors' section.

Committee Report. The following is the report of the Audit Committee with respect to our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 28, 2006.

The Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 28, 2006 with management, the internal auditor and KPMG LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, with and without management present. In connection with that review, the Committee considered and discussed the quality of the Company's financial reporting and disclosures, management's assessment of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and KPMG LLP's evaluation of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. The Committee discussed and reviewed with KPMG LLP critical accounting policies and practices, internal controls, other material written communications to management and the scope of KPMG LLP's audits. The Committee also has discussed with KPMG LLP matters relating to its judgments about the quality, as well as the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles as applied in its financial reporting as required by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees).

In addition, the Committee has discussed with KPMG LLP its independence from management and the Company, as well as the matters in the written disclosures received from KPMG LLP and required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). The Committee received a letter from KPMG LLP confirming its independence and discussed with KPMG LLP the matters covered by that letter.

The Committee has reviewed all fees paid to KPMG LLP during the fiscal year and has considered the compatibility of KPMG LLP's performance of non-audit services, including the tax planning services described below, with the maintenance of KPMG LLP's independence as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

In June 2001, the Company entered into an engagement letter for tax planning services with KPMG Consulting, Inc. that included a contingent fee provision. At the time of the engagement, KPMG Consulting was not affiliated with KPMG LLP. In December 2001, KPMG LLP acquired a portion of KPMG Consulting's business, which included the Company's engagement and contingent fee agreement. In June 2006, KPMG LLP notified the Committee that the existence of this contingent fee arrangement was a violation of the standards for auditor independence under applicable regulations. KPMG LLP refunded the contingent portion of the fee and advised the Committee that KPMG LLP's objectivity and audit independence were not impaired by the existence of the contingent fee arrangement. The Committee discussed the matter with management and KPMG LLP and agreed that KPMG LLP's independence was not impaired.

Based on the Committee's review and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Company's Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 28, 2006 for filing with the SEC.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Committee's Responsibilities

The Compensation Committee of the Board is responsible for oversight of the Company's executive compensation and benefit policies to ensure that they provide the appropriate motivation to achieve superior corporate performance and stockholder value. The Committee performs an annual evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer's performance compared to pre-established performance goals and objectives, and approves compensation actions impacting senior officers.

The Committee is composed entirely of non-employee directors, each of whom is independent under our guidelines and as defined by the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. Reports of the Committee's actions and recommendations are presented to the full Board after each meeting. The purpose of this report is to summarize the philosophical principles, specific program elements and other factors considered by the Committee in making decisions about executive compensation. The Committee has engaged an independent executive compensation consultant to advise it on compensation matters.

Compensation Philosophy

The Committee's guiding philosophy is to establish a compensation system that will enable the attraction, development, and retention of top quality executive leadership who will achieve competitively superior corporate performance and stockholder value creation. The Committee bases its compensation decisions on the following core principles:

Pay is Performance-Based: Executive compensation at General Mills is tightly linked to Company performance. Base salaries are targeted to the median of salaries paid at comparable companies in the food and consumer products business sector. Salaries are coupled with annual and long term incentive programs that enable total compensation to rise above that of the food and consumer products peer group median in years when Company performance is superior to that of this same group of companies.

Stock Ownership is Emphasized: The Committee believes that broad and deep employee stock ownership aligns the interests of employees with those of stockholders. Programs have been created to encourage employees to build and maintain an ownership interest in the Company. Specific stock ownership objectives have been established for employees in key management positions throughout the Company.

Compensation Opportunities Must Be Competitive: Competition for key management talent in the food and consumer products industry is particularly aggressive. The Committee carefully monitors the compensation practices of peer food and consumer products companies, as well as those of a broader group of leading industrial companies, to assure an appropriate level of competitiveness.

Program Elements

General Mills' executive compensation program is composed of base salary, annual incentive and long-term incentive compensation.

Base Salary. The Committee sets base salaries after considering an individual's responsibilities and performance, as well as the compensation for similar positions at peer group companies. Base salaries for officers are targeted to the 50th percentile versus peer companies.

All salaried employees, including executives, are eligible for an annual merit increase to base salary, effective July 1, based primarily on performance of job responsibilities and accomplishment of predetermined performance objectives.

Annual Incentive. General Mills provides executives with an annual opportunity to earn cash incentive awards through the Executive Incentive Plan (the "EIP"). Annual incentive compensation is paid partially in cash (75 percent) with the remaining 25 percent paid in restricted stock units that also require a stock ownership commitment. For each of the five most highly compensated executives, including the Chief Executive Officer, the total annual incentive amount is limited to the maximum amount established under the EIP; the actual incentive paid is adjusted downward from this maximum defined in the EIP by the Compensation Committee in accordance with a schedule determined by the Committee at the start of the fiscal year. The Company targets the combination of base salary and annual incentive to be above that of the median of its food and consumer products peer group when Company performance is superior to that of the same group of peer companies, and to be under this market median when performance is below that of the peer group companies. Executives are permitted to defer receipt of cash incentive awards earned under the EIP until a future date.

For all executives, cash incentive awards were determined by multiplying their salary by a base incentive rate (a percent of salary based on their level of responsibility), their Individual Performance Rating and a Corporate Performance Rating determined by the Compensation Committee. For executives in operating units, the Corporate Performance Rating was weighted with their Business Unit Performance Rating; most Business Unit Performance Ratings were based 75 percent on operating profit growth and 25 percent on net sales growth, with consideration given to market share performance during the fiscal year. The scale for Corporate Performance Ratings and Business Unit Performance Ratings can range from 0 to 1.80, with superior performance resulting in ratings between 1.50 and 1.80. Individual Performance Ratings were based on the achievement of specific annual objectives such as financial and operating results, completion of strategic initiatives, the quality of business plans, and organizational development progress in important areas like diversity and employee development. Individual Performance Ratings can range from 0 to 1.50. Cash incentive awards to the five named executive officers for fiscal 2006 are included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 22 under the Bonus column.

The portion of the annual incentive award that is paid in restricted stock units is adjusted upward or downward by 25 percent based on the Corporate Performance Rating, with Corporate Performance Ratings of 1.65 and above triggering a positive adjustment and ratings of 1.15 and below triggering a negative adjustment. In fiscal 2006, the schedule that established the year-end Corporate Performance Rating was based on four key measures, all of which were weighted equally: earnings-per-share growth, operating profit growth, net sales growth and return-on-capital improvement. In determining the Corporate Performance Rating, the Committee also considered the organizational progress achieved during the fiscal year, particularly in the areas of management development, succession capability for key leadership positions, diversity and overall organizational effectiveness. Based on Company results compared with these measures, the Committee assigned a Corporate Performance Rating of 1.65. This 1.65 Corporate Performance Rating reflected both significantly improved Company performance versus the prior two fiscal years (fiscal 2005 and fiscal 2004 ratings were 1.26 and 1.25 respectively) and Company performance that significantly exceeded the median performance of the food and consumer products peer companies on three of four of the key measures (only net sales growth was below). This rating for fiscal 2006 resulted in a 25 percent upward adjustment in the portion of the annual incentive paid in restricted stock units.

To receive the restricted stock unit award, the executive must place on deposit with the Company personally owned shares of General Mills stock equal to the number of shares awarded. The restricted stock units vest after four years provided the owned shares remain on deposit with the Company for the entire four-year period. Restricted stock units granted under the EIP to the five named executive officers are included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 22 under the Restricted Stock Award(s) column.

Long-term Incentive. General Mills provides executives with a long-term incentive compensation opportunity, in stock options and restricted stock units, through the stockholder approved 2005 Stock Compensation Plan. The size of the stock awards granted to the Company's executives, including the Chief Executive Officer, are periodically benchmarked against the long-term incentive awards made by other large food and consumer products companies to executives holding comparable positions. The standard grant for each position may be adjusted upward or downward each year by 25 percent based on the Corporate Performance Rating assigned for that fiscal year. Grants are targeted to be above the peer group median when Company performance warrants the 25 percent upward adjustment (Corporate Performance Ratings of 1.65 or greater) and below this market median when annual performance warrants the 25 percent downward adjustment (Corporate Performance Ratings of 1.15 and lower).

In June 2006, stock awards with four-year cliff vesting were made to approximately 2,500 executives and managers based on their level of responsibility, ability to impact results and individual performance. These awards were increased by 25 percent based on Company financial results and organizational progress, which in aggregate exceeded expectations, and resulted in a Corporate Performance Rating for the fiscal year of 1.65. The Summary Compensation Table on page 22 includes the stock options granted in June 2006 to the five named executive officers.

Stock Ownership Objectives

For several decades, the Company has made an effort to enable and encourage increased General Mills stock ownership by executives and employees at all levels throughout the Company. For example, special ownership building programs in place in the 1980's and 1990's granted supplemental stock options to executives and managers who made open market purchases of Company stock and/or who agreed to forfeit their annual merit increase. In 1990, the Company initiated a performance-based stock match to its 401(k) plan. In addition, the Company has periodically made stock option awards to all employees not receiving regular stock grants, with such grants made to eligible employees in fiscal 1994, 1996, 2000, and 2002.

Since 1991, the Company has had stock ownership guidelines for executives and outside Board members. The current stock ownership targets for those in key leadership roles require a minimum of ten times base salary for the Chief Executive Officer, five times base salary for senior officers and three times base salary for all other company officers. Members of the Board of Directors are expected to own stock equal in market value to at least five times their annual retainer.

Employee stock ownership has grown sharply though the years as a result of these initiatives. Executives and employees today collectively own more than 6 percent of shares outstanding, more than triple the total employee ownership level that existed as late as 1998. We believe that this significant increase in Company stock ownership by employees has helped to foster a performance-oriented culture and has contributed to the Company's success over this time period.

CEO Performance and Compensation

In fiscal 2006, the Committee determined the amount of the base salary adjustment, annual incentive and long-term incentive for Mr. Sanger, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, consistent with the methods utilized for other senior executives. In determining Mr. Sanger's annual merit increase and annual incentive award, the Committee evaluated his performance by soliciting written feedback from all non-employee directors and subsequently discussing the consolidated input with all non-employee directors in executive session. The criteria utilized to determine Mr. Sanger's performance included the Company's financial and operational performance for fiscal 2006, the overall level of leadership he provided, and his continued ability to develop and implement strategies to enhance stockholder value. The Committee also considered Mr. Sanger's performance against his pre-established fiscal year objectives in a number of additional areas such as marketplace innovation, productivity improvement, new business development, organizational development and diversity, and customer and stockholder relations.

Based on the annual assessment of his performance by the Board of Directors, Mr. Sanger was awarded a merit increase effective July 2006 of $45,000 annually or 4 percent. The Committee and full Board of Directors also approved a fiscal 2006 annual incentive payment to Mr. Sanger of $2,173,227 in cash and 15,897 restricted stock units and a long-term incentive award of 39,063 restricted stock units and 468,750 stock options. The annual and long-term incentive awards were based on the Corporate Performance Rating of 1.65 and, therefore, the stock awards include an upward adjustment by 25 percent. These performance-based annual and long-term incentive awards, coupled with the adjustment made to Mr. Sanger's base salary, brought his total direct compensation for fiscal 2006 to approximately the current CEO compensation median for major food and consumer products companies.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code provides guidance on the deductibility of compensation paid to the Company's five highest paid officers. The Company has taken the necessary actions to ensure the deductibility of payments under the Company's annual and long-term performance incentive compensation plans. The Company also intends to take the actions necessary to maintain the future deductibility of payments and awards under these programs.

Conclusion

The Committee is satisfied that the compensation and long-term incentive plans provided to the executives of the Company are structured and operated to foster a performance-oriented culture and create strong alignment with the long-term best interests of the Company and its stockholders and that compensation levels are reasonable in light of performance and industry practices.

- (a) In fiscal 2006, the size of the annual incentive stock grants made in restricted stock units and the size of the long-term incentive stock grants made in restricted stock units and stock options depended on the Corporate Performance Rating assigned for that fiscal year by the Compensation Committee. Each executive's standard stock grant is adjusted upward by 25% when a Corporate Performance Rating of 1.65 or higher is achieved or adjusted downward when the rating assigned is 1.15 or lower. In fiscal 2006, stock grants were increased by 25 percent based on the 1.65 Corporate Performance Rating.

- (b) The amounts in this column reflect the value of the restricted stock or restricted stock units granted under the Executive Incentive Plan, the 2003 Stock Compensation Plan and the 2005 Stock Compensation Plan, and they include restricted stock units earned in fiscal 2006 but granted on June 26, 2006 after fiscal year end. Restricted stock and restricted stock units vest in full after four years and in the event of a change of control. Awards under the Executive Incentive Plan require recipients to deposit with the Company one personally owned share of common stock for each restricted stock unit awarded. Vesting of these restricted stock units is also subject to the participant's shares remaining on deposit until the end of the restricted period. Regular dividends are paid on the restricted stock and restricted stock units. At the end of fiscal 2006, the aggregate number and value of all restricted stockholdings (which exclude any awards granted after the end of fiscal 2006) for the named executive officers were:

Name	Shares/Units(#)	Value($)
S. W. Sanger	113,773	5,900,268

- (c) The amounts represent the Company's matching contributions to retirement savings plans (tax-qualified and supplemental) and the Company's matching allocations to the Deferred Compensation Plan on behalf of the named executive officers. Company contributions to these plans in fiscal 2006 were:

Name	Retirement Savings Plans($)	Deferred Compensation Plan($)
S. W. Sanger	94,827	11,098
J. A. Lawrence	41,154	1,309
K. J. Powell	35,567	4,361
R. G. Darcy	24,328	4,895
J.J. Rotsch	22,609	4,704

There is also a variable component to the matching allocations that is payable in July 2006 and that will be reflected in compensation for fiscal 2007.

- (d) This amount represents perquisites used by Mr. Sanger, including personal use of Company aircraft valued at $73,001 in fiscal 2006, $69,606 in fiscal 2005 and $98,357 in fiscal 2004. The amounts for fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2005 were based on the aggregate incremental cost to the Company, and the amount for fiscal 2004 was based on Internal Revenue Service guidelines for imputed income for personal use of Company aircraft.
- (e) Includes $32,180 for the incremental costs of executive insurance plans in fiscal 2005.

- (f) Includes salary and bonus paid for time worked at Cereal Partners Worldwide, our joint venture with Nestlé, S.A. During the first two months of fiscal 2005 and all of fiscal 2004, Mr. Powell was Chief Executive Officer of Cereal Partners Worldwide.
- (g) This amount represents reimbursements made to Mr. Powell for incremental taxes and living expenses resulting from his assignment to Cereal Partners Worldwide in Switzerland. The payments were made pursuant to a policy that applies to all employees on international assignment. Incremental tax payments made by the Company totaled $67,419 in fiscal 2006 and $555,882 in fiscal 2005. Factors such as time lags in tax determination, differences in taxable periods between jurisdictions and the availability of foreign tax credits or refunds result in significant differences in incremental tax payments from year to year.

- (a) These stock options grants under the 2005 Stock Compensation Plan were earned in fiscal 2006 but granted on June 26, 2006 after fiscal year end. They become exercisable in full on June 26, 2010. All options become fully exercisable for a period of one year after a change of control. All options are granted at the fair market value of the common stock on the grant date and generally expire 10 years and one month from the grant date. Options include the right to pay the exercise price in cash or previously acquired common stock and the right to have shares withheld by the Company to pay withholding tax obligations due upon exercise.

- (b) Represents percentage of total options granted to employees for fiscal 2006, including options earned in fiscal 2006 but granted after fiscal year end.
- (c) We have used the Black-Scholes option-pricing model to provide a grant date present value of $10.74 per share for our option grants pursuant to SEC regulations. The following assumptions were used in the calculation: options will be held for eight years; dividends grow 9.2 percent annually; a risk-free interest rate of 5.3 percent; and expected price volatility of 20.0 percent. We have made no adjustments to reflect that these options are subject to forfeiture.

* No additional benefits accrue after 30 years of service.

The preceding table sets forth the pension benefits payable under our tax-qualified Retirement Income Plan (the General Mills Pension Plan) and Supplemental Retirement Plan to the persons named in the Summary Compensation Table (see page 22), showing the estimated annual aggregate benefits payable at normal retirement (age 65) for various classifications of earnings and years of benefit service. Because federal law limits the benefits that may be paid from a tax-qualified retirement plan like the General Mills Pension Plan, the Supplemental Retirement Plan provides for the payment of additional amounts to certain executive officers (including the officers named in the Summary Compensation Table) so that they will receive, in the aggregate, the benefits they would have been entitled to receive had the General Mills Pension Plan not been subject to such maximum limitations. Participants with 30 years of benefit service become eligible for the maximum annual aggregate benefit available under the General Mills Pension Plan, which is 50% of Final Average Earnings. Final Average Earnings is the average of the employee's five highest years' remuneration. Such remuneration generally equals the salary and bonus reported in the Summary Compensation Table plus the value of restricted stock and restricted stock units granted under the Executive Incentive Plan that vest during a measurement period. Final average earnings calculated as of fiscal year end for the officers

the Summary Compensation Table would be: $2,610,958 for S.W. Sanger; $1,099,627 for J.A. Lawrence; $775,988 for K.J. Powell; $766,335 for R.G. Darcy; and $711,470 for J.J. Rotsch.

The officers listed in the Summary Compensation Table are credited with the following full years of benefit service as of fiscal year end under the General Mills Pension Plan: S. W. Sanger, 32 years; J. A. Lawrence, 7 years; K. J. Powell, 26 years; R. G. Darcy, 18 years; and J.J. Rotsch, 32 years.

Fifty percent of the participant's projected Social Security benefit will be deducted from benefit amounts set forth in this table. The effects of integration with Social Security benefits have been excluded from the table because the amount of the reduction in benefits due to integration varies depending on the participant's age at the time of retirement and changes in Social Security laws.

CHANGE OF CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

We have management continuity agreements with some of our executive officers providing for guaranteed severance payments equal to up to three times the annual compensation of the officer (salary plus cash incentive award) and continuation of health and similar benefits for up to a three-year period if the officer is terminated under certain circumstances within two years after a change of control. These agreements also provide for a cash payment of the amount necessary to insure that the foregoing payments are not subject to reduction due to the imposition of excise taxes payable under Internal Revenue Code Section 4999 or any similar tax. We have two nominally funded trusts to provide for payments under our nonqualified deferred compensation plans, including the 2001 Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors, the Executive Incentive Plan, the Deferred Compensation Plan, the management continuity agreements, the Supplemental Savings Plan and the Supplemental Retirement Plan. Full funding is required in the event of a change of control.

We may award stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units and shares of common stock under our 2005 Stock Compensation Plan, which had 14,810,864 shares available for grant on May 28, 2006. Only 3,560,864 of these shares may be issued as restricted stock or restricted stock units. We may award stock options, restricted stock units and shares of common stock under our 2001 Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors, which had 211,000 shares available for grant on May 28, 2006.

On July 21, 2006, a total of 61,843,276 shares of our common stock were issuable upon exercise of outstanding stock options (with a weighted-average exercise price of $42.43 per share and a weighted-average remaining contractual life of 5.18 years), 4,974,798 shares of our common stock were issuable upon vesting of restricted stock units, and 593,264 restricted stock units had vested and were deferred. A total of 8,189,799 shares remained available for grant under our 2005 Stock Compensation Plan. Only 2,140,503 of these shares may be issued as restricted stock or restricted stock units. 211,000 shares remained available for grant under our 2001 Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors.

Deferred Compensation Plan. Our Deferred Compensation Plan was approved by the Compensation Committee and became effective on May 1, 1984. The Plan is a non-qualified deferred compensation plan that provides for the deferral of cash incentives and restricted stock units issued under our stock plans. An employee can elect to defer up to 100 percent of annual incentive compensation and shares of common stock attributable to nonvested restricted stock units under our stock plans. Certain of our key and highly compensated management employees are eligible to participate in the Plan.

A deferred account is established for each participant making an election to defer compensation whether based on cash or common stock. A participant's deferred cash account is credited monthly with a rate of return based on the investment performance of participant-selected 401(k) Savings Plan funds for the prior month. Dividend equivalent amounts can be paid out to the employee or credited to an employee's account to reflect dividends paid on our common stock, based on the number of stock units deferred and credited to an employee's deferred account. We credit the deferred account of each participant in the Plan with an additional amount, or in the case of a stock unit account additional stock units, equal to the value of the employer matching contributions that we would have otherwise made to the participant's 401(k) Savings Plan account if the employee had not deferred compensation under the Deferred Compensation Plan.

PROPOSAL NUMBER 3

ADOPTION OF THE 2006 COMPENSATION PLAN FOR NON-EMPLOYEE DIRECTORS

Introduction

Stockholders are asked to vote to adopt the General Mills, Inc. 2006 Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors (2006 Directors Plan or Plan). The 2006 Directors Plan is intended to replace the General Mills, Inc. 2001 Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors (2001 Directors Plan), which terminates on September 30, 2006.

The purpose of the 2006 Directors Plan is to provide a compensation program that:

- Attracts and retains qualified individuals not employed by the Company to serve on its Board of Directors; and
- Awards stock options and stock units payable in General Mills common stock in order to align the interests of non-employee directors with those of stockholders by providing that a portion of their compensation is linked directly to increases in stockholder value.

Key features of the proposed 2006 Directors Plan are as follows:

Overall design of the Plan is substantially similar to the 2001 Directors Plan, which was approved by stockholders. Just like the 2001 Directors Plan, the Plan has a five-year term and the same number of authorized shares to be issued.

The Plan reflects compensation and governance best practices, such as no stock option repricing, no discounted options, no reload options, a limitation on the number of shares that can be utilized in a given year, a limitation on the total number of shares that can be granted as stock units over the term of the Plan, no dividends on options, and the avoidance of expansive share-counting features.

Upon approval of the Plan, no further grants will be made under the 2001 Directors' Plan. Approximately 211,000 unissued shares under the 2001 Directors' Plan will be cancelled. All new stock grants will be made under the 2006 Directors' Plan.

Material Features of the 2006 Directors' Plan

The summary of the material features of the 2006 Directors' Plan that follows is subject to the full text of the 2006 Directors' Plan that is contained in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

Term. The term of the Plan is effective from September 25, 2006 to September 30, 2011.

Participation. Participation is limited to members of the Board of Directors who are not employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, currently 11 individuals.

Authorized Shares. The maximum number of shares authorized to be issued is 700,000. The maximum number of shares authorized to be issued in a single plan year is 160,000, and the maximum number of shares that can be issued on vesting of stock units is 175,000 over the term of the Plan. All stock awards will be subject to adjustment for corporate transactions that may otherwise cause a dilution or enlargement of the rights of participants. As of July 28, 2006, the closing price of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange was $52.30 per share.

Retainer. Each non-employee director will receive compensation in the form of a retainer for serving on the Board. Each non-employee director may elect to receive all or a portion of the retainer in the form of cash, deferred cash and/or common stock.

Stock Options. Each non-employee director will be granted a non-qualified option to purchase shares of Company common stock on the effective date of the Plan (or, on the date a non-employee director is first elected after the effective date of the Plan) and on each successive annual stockholders' meeting date when the director is re-elected. The per share price paid by the non-employee director at the time an option is exercised shall be 100% of the fair market value on the date of grant, or on the last date preceding the date of grant on which the common stock was traded. Each option will vest and become exercisable on the next annual meeting date and will expire ten years from the date of grant.

Stock Units. On the effective date of the Plan (or, on the date a non-employee director is first elected after the effective date of the Plan) and on the close of business on each successive annual stockholders' meeting date, each non-employee director shall receive an award of restricted stock units, each representing the right to receive General Mills common stock (stock units). Stock units vest at the next annual stockholders' meeting date, at which time the Company delivers shares of its common stock to the non-employee director, unless the director elected to defer the award.

Change of Control. In the event of a change of control (as defined by the Plan) of the Company, stock options will immediately vest and become exercisable and stock units will immediately vest.

Administration. The Compensation Committee will administer the Plan. Such Committee will have the full power to interpret its terms and formulate additional details and regulations to carry out the provisions of the Plan.

Amendments. Under the terms of the Plan, the Compensation Committee may amend, modify or terminate the Plan at any time; however, no action may be taken by the Compensation Committee or the Board of Directors (except for adjustments as referenced above under Authorized Shares) without the approval of the stockholders to:

Increase the number of shares that may be issued under the Plan;

Permit granting of stock options at less than fair market value;

Permit the repricing of outstanding stock options; or

Amend the maximum shares that may be granted as awards to any participant.

Termination, Retirement, and Death. Stock options and stock units will be forfeited to the Company if the non-employee director terminates service on the Board prior to vesting at the next annual meeting date. If a non-employee director dies prior to the vesting of stock options or stock units at the next annual meeting date, those stock awards shall fully vest as of the date of his or her death. The balance of any retainer due to the deceased director in that quarter shall be paid to the director's estate.

No benefits or amounts have been granted, awarded or received under the 2006 Directors' Plan. If our stockholders approve the 2006 Directors' Plan, we will use the Plan to pay retainer fees and make awards of stock options and stock units to our non-employee directors as of the 2006 Annual Meeting. The Compensation Committee has discretion to determine the amount, number and types of awards that will be granted under the 2006 Directors' Plan. The current terms of these awards and payments are described under Director Compensation and Benefits.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations.

Stock Options. Stock options granted under the Plan will be non-qualified options governed by Section 83 of the Internal Revenue Code. The grant of options will not result in taxable income to the non-employee director or a tax deduction for the Company. Under current tax law the exercise of an option will result in taxable ordinary income to the non-employee director and a corresponding deduction to the Company, equal to the difference between the fair market value of the shares on the date the option was granted and the fair market value of those shares on the date the option was exercised.

Stock Units. The grant of stock units will not result in taxable income to the non-employee director or a tax deduction for the Company. At the time the stock units vest, a non-employee director will recognize taxable payment of stock units beyond the vesting date, the director will recognize taxable ordinary income, and the Company will receive a corresponding deduction, at the time when the deferred payment is made in an amount equal to the fair market value of the shares received as of that time.

Application of Section 16. Special rules may apply to individuals, including non-employee directors, subject to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 if they purchase shares of our stock in a transaction that is not exempt under Section 16 within six months of an option exercise or the vesting or deferred payment date of stock units. In that case, unless a special election is made pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, shares received through exercise of a stock option, vesting or deferred payment of stock units may be treated as restricted as to transferability and subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture for a period of up to six months after the date of exercise, vesting or deferred payment. Accordingly, the amount of any ordinary income recognized, and the amount of the Company's deduction, are determined based on the fair market value of the shares as of the end of that period.

Non-employee directors are responsible for the payment of all federal, state and local taxes, including those of any jurisdiction outside the United States, in respect of awards under the Plan.

The Plan is intended to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR adoption of the General Mills, Inc. 2006 Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors.

PROPOSAL NUMBER 4

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL ON LABELING OF GENETICALLY ENGINEERED FOOD PRODUCTS

We expect the following proposal to be presented by a stockholder at the Annual Meeting. We will provide our stockholders with name, address and share holdings information for the proponent promptly upon receipt of an oral or written request. In accordance with SEC regulations, the text of the stockholder proposal is printed verbatim below.

RESOLVED: Shareholders request that the Board of Directors adopt a policy to identify and label all food products manufactured or sold by the company under the company's brand names or private labels that may contain genetically engineered (GE) ingredients.

Supporting Statement

The right to know is a fundamental principle of democratic societies and market economics.

132 countries, parties to the Cartagena Protocol, have agreed to documentation requirements for the export and import of genetically engineered organisms. (Financial Times 3/29/06)

As of May 19, 2005, Alaska law requires that genetically engineered salmon be labeled as such.

Millions suffer from mild to fatal food allergies. Without labeling, consumers have no way of protecting themselves from hidden allergens.

The National Academy of Sciences report, Genetically Modified Pest-Protected Plants (4/2000) recommended development of improved methods for identifying potential allergens in genetically engineered pest-protected plants.

The report Safety of Genetically Engineered Foods: Approaches to Assessing Unintended Health Effects (National Academy of Sciences] 7/2004) states: there remain sizable gaps in our ability to identify compositional changes that result from genetic modification of organisms intended for food... (p. 15)

Post-marketing surveillance has not been used to evaluate any of the GE crops currently on the market. (p. 153)

Between 2001-2004, approximately 15,000 hectares (150 square kilometers) in four US states were planted with unapproved Bt10 corn. (New Scientist 3/23/2005) At least nine cargo shipments to Japan have contained the illegal variety. (Reuters 8/23/2005)

The FDA determined (2/2003) that 386 pigs involved in bioengineering studies were possibly not properly disposed of, and may have entered the food supply.

StarLink corn, not approved for human consumption, has been detected in US food aid shipments (12/2004) as well as in a U.S. corn shipment to Japan (12/2002). Star Link's first contamination of U.S. corn (8/2000) triggered a recall of 300 products.

Indicators that genetically engineered organisms MAY be harmful to humans, animals, or the environment include:

Five major US agricultural weeds have developed resistance to glyphosate, the herbicide used with genetically engineered Roundup Resistant crops. Addressing this problem includes use of additional herbicides.

Research (Environmental Health Perspectives 6/2005) has shown that Roundup, increasingly needed on Roundup Ready crops, is toxic to human placental cells at concentrations lower than agricultural use.

Producers of salmon genetically engineered to speed the fish's growth to maturity expect their federal application to sell the fish in the United States to be decided within a year, renewing concern among commercial fisherman about the consequences of genetically modified fish escaping and mingling with wild salmon. (AP 3/9/2005)

Crops engineered to produce pharmaceuticals/industrial chemicals could pollute the food system. The National Food Processors Association stated (11/2002): There is an unacceptable risk to the food supply associated with the use of food and feed crops as factories for the production of pharmaceuticals or industrial chemicals without mandatory regulations and necessary verification in place.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote AGAINST the proposal for the following reasons:

The health and well-being of our consumers is General Mills' highest priority. General Mills has always produced safe products, and we will continue to produce and sell only safe products. General Mills has strong internal guidelines and programs to ensure that all of its ingredients and products are obtained from safe and reliable sources. In combination with General Mills' own internal sourcing programs and safeguards, existing laws and requirements further ensure the safety of food products.

There is no need, in our view, for additional labeling beyond what is already required by the U.S. or other countries.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (the FDA), the Department of Agriculture and the Environmental Protection Agency have each determined that food containing ingredients improved through modern biotechnology is safe and no different in any meaningful way from other foods. The National Academy of Science has reached the same conclusion on three occasions, as have the national academies of several other countries. Additionally, the American Medical Association has reached the same conclusion. There is no evidence of any harm related to the inclusion of genetically engineered ingredients in food products.

The proposal asks the Company to identify and label all products manufactured or sold by General Mills under the company's brand names or private labels that may contain genetically engineered ingredients. It should be noted that the FDA already requires labeling of products containing genetically engineered ingredients whenever such ingredients change the nutritional composition of the product or are allergenic. We support this policy. We also support the FDA's move to make mandatory its review of all bioengineered ingredients. And we support government initiatives that would resolve issues uniformly and that employ sound science and comprehensive, balanced evaluations to assure that any products of new food technology are safe for consumers and the environment.

It is worth noting that the FDA has expressed concern that special labeling for foods containing ingredients improved through modern biotechnology may be misleading to consumers because many would interpret such a label as a warning when, in fact, there is no scientific basis to suggest that such foods are in any meaningful way different from their non-biotech counterparts. There is also the practical difficulty of successfully segregating biotech from non-biotech crops in North America. Instituting such a system would be very costly and would result in higher prices to consumers for no apparent benefit.

Modern biotechnology holds promise for society, for consumers and for the world. It is already being used to reduce the use of chemical pesticides in agriculture and for low-impact, low-tillage farming. It is viewed by some organizations dedicated to alleviating Third World food and nutrition deficits, such as the Rockefeller Foundation and the Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations, as a potentially important tool in meeting the world's food needs. It has the clear potential to foster the development of food products that deliver additional health and nutrition benefits for consumers.

Similar proposals have been presented to General Mills stockholders in 2000, 2001 and 2002. Each time, the proposal was soundly defeated, receiving less than a 10% favorable vote.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

Q: Who is entitled to vote?

A: Record holders of General Mills common stock at the close of business on July 27, 2006 may vote at the meeting. On July 27, 2006, approximately 350,630,977 shares of common stock were outstanding and eligible to vote. The shares of common stock in our treasury on that date will not be voted.

Q: How do I vote?

A: If you are a stockholder of record or hold stock through the General Mills 401(k) Savings Plan, you may vote using any of the following methods:

Via the Internet, by going to the website www.proxyvote.com and following the instructions for Internet voting on the proxy card;

If you reside in the United States or Canada, by dialing 800-690-6903 and following the instructions for telephone voting on the proxy card;

By completing and mailing your proxy card; or

By casting your vote in person at the meeting.

Telephone and Internet voting facilities for stockholders of record will close at noon EDT on Sunday, September 24, 2006.

If you return your signed proxy card or use Internet or telephone voting before the Annual Meeting, we will vote your shares as you direct. You have three choices on each matter to be voted upon. For the election of directors, you may vote for (i) all of the nominees, (ii) none of the nominees or (iii) all of the nominees except those you designate. See Proposal Number 1 on page 7 of this proxy statement. For the other items, you may vote (or abstain) by choosing FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN.

If you are a stockholder of record and do not specify on your returned proxy card or through Internet or telephone prompts how you want to vote your shares, we will vote them FOR the election of all director nominees, FOR ratification of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm, FOR adoption of the 2006 Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors and AGAINST the stockholder proposal on labeling of genetically engineered food products.

If your shares are held in a brokerage account in your broker's name (street name), you should follow the voting directions provided by your broker or nominee. You may complete and mail a voting instruction card to your broker or nominee or, if your broker allows, submit voting instructions by telephone or via the Internet. If you provide specific voting instructions by mail, telephone or the Internet, your broker or nominee will vote your shares as you have directed.

Ballots will be passed out during the meeting to anyone who wants to vote in person at the meeting. If you hold your shares in street name, you must request a legal proxy from your broker or nominee to vote in person at the meeting.

Q: What if I change my mind after I vote my shares?

A: You can revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the meeting by:

Sending written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary, General Mills, Inc., P.O. Box 1113, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55440;

Submitting a properly signed proxy with a later date;

Voting by telephone or via the Internet at a time following your prior telephone or Internet vote; or Voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Table of Contents

You also may be represented by another person at the meeting by executing a proper proxy designating that person.

Q: How will my Dividend Reinvestment Plan and General Mills 401(k) Savings Plan shares be voted?

A: We have added the shares of common stock held by participants in our Dividend Reinvestment Plan (including shares acquired through employee payroll deductions) to the participants' other holdings shown on their proxy cards. If a stockholder has common stock in the General Mills 401(k) Savings Plan, the proxy also serves as voting instructions to the plan trustee. Subject to its duties as plan trustee, Mellon Trust of New England, N.A., will vote allocated shares of common stock for which it has not received direction, as well as shares not allocated to individual participant accounts, in the same proportion as directed shares are voted.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

A: It means you have multiple accounts at the transfer agent and/or with banks or stockbrokers. Please vote all of your shares.

Q: What will happen if I do not vote my shares?

A: If you do not submit a properly executed proxy card, your shares will not be voted. If your shares are held in street name, your brokerage firm may vote your shares on those proposals where it has discretion to vote.

Q: How many shares must be present to hold the meeting?

A: At least one-half of General Mills' outstanding common shares as of the record date must be present at the meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business. This is called a quorum. We will count your shares as present at the meeting if you:

Are present and vote in person at the meeting; or

Have properly submitted a proxy card or voted over the telephone or the Internet on a timely basis.

Q: How many votes are needed to approve each item?

A: The vote of a plurality of the shares of common stock present or represented and entitled to vote at the meeting is required for election of a director. This means that, since stockholders will be electing 13 directors, the 13 nominees receiving the most votes will be elected. Ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm and approval of any properly presented stockholder proposals require the affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast by stockholders entitled to vote and represented at the meeting in person or by proxy. Adoption of the 2006 Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast by stockholders entitled to vote and represented at the meeting in person or by proxy, provided that the total number of shares that vote on the proposal represents a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the proposal.

Q: How will voting on any other business be conducted?

A: We do not know of any business to be considered at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders other than the proposals described in this proxy statement. If any other business is presented at the Annual Meeting, your signed proxy card gives authority to Stephen W. Sanger and Kendall J. Powell to vote on such matters in their discretion.

Q: How are the votes counted?

A: You are entitled to cast one vote for each share of common stock you own, and there is no cumulative voting. Although abstentions and proxies that withhold authority to vote on the election of directors are counted as present at the meeting for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum under our By-laws, they are treated as shares not voted on a specific proposal.

If you hold your shares in street name and do not provide voting instructions to your broker, your broker will not vote your shares on any proposal on which your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote, including Proposal Number 3 and Proposal Number 4 at the Annual Meeting. In this situation, a broker non-vote occurs. Shares that constitute broker non-votes will be counted as present at the meeting for the purpose of determining a quorum but will not be considered entitled to vote on the proposal in question. Broker non-votes effectively reduce the number of votes needed to approve the proposal. New York Stock Exchange rules permit brokers discretionary authority to vote on Proposal Number 1 and Proposal Number 2 at the Annual Meeting, if they do not receive instructions from the street name holder of the shares. As a result, if you do not vote shares that are held for you in street name, your broker has authority to vote on your behalf with regard to Proposal Number 1 and Proposal Number 2. We have a policy of confidential voting that applies to all stockholders, including our employee-stockholders; ADP Investor Communication Services, Inc. will tabulate the votes received.

Q: Where do I find the voting results of the meeting?

A: We will publish the voting results in our Form 10-Q for the second quarter of fiscal 2007, which we will file with the SEC in January 2007. You can also go to our website at www.generalmills.com.

Q: How do I submit a stockholder proposal?

A: If you wish to submit a proposal for inclusion in our next proxy statement, we must receive the proposal on or before April 11, 2007. Please address your proposal to: Corporate Secretary, General Mills, Inc., P.O. Box 1113, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55440.

Under our By-laws, if you wish to nominate a director or bring other business before the stockholders at our 2007 Annual Meeting without including your proposal in our proxy statement:

You must notify the Corporate Secretary of General Mills in writing between May 28, 2007 and June 27, 2007; and

Your notice must contain the specific information required in our By-laws.

Please note that these two requirements relate only to matters you wish to bring before the stockholders at an annual meeting. They do not apply to proposals that you wish to have included in our proxy statement.

If you would like a copy of our By-laws, we will send you one without charge. Please write to the Corporate Secretary of General Mills at the address shown above.

OTHER BUSINESS

We do not know of any other matters to be presented at the 2006 Annual Meeting. If any other matter is properly presented for a vote at the 2006 Annual Meeting, your shares will be voted by the holders of the proxies in their discretion.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Based on a review of reports filed with the SEC by our directors and executive officers regarding their ownership of and transactions in our common stock and written representations from those officers and directors, we believe that each officer and director has filed timely reports under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 during fiscal 2006. During fiscal 1997, Mr. Esrey received a gift of 283 shares of our common stock but did not file a report in a timely manner.

COSTS OF SOLICITATION

We pay for preparing, printing and mailing this proxy statement. We have engaged Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. to help us solicit proxies from stockholders for a fee of $15,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses. Our directors, officers and regular employees may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies personally or by e-mail, telephone, fax or special letter. We will reimburse banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their costs of sending the proxy materials to our beneficial owners.

DELIVERY AND VIEWING OF PROXY MATERIALS

Delivery of Proxy Materials. SEC rules allow us to deliver a single copy of an annual report and proxy statement to any household at which two or more stockholders reside, if we believe the stockholders are members of the same family. This rule benefits both you and us. We believe it eliminates irritating duplicate mailings that stockholders living at the same address receive, and it reduces our printing and mailing costs. This rule applies to any annual reports, proxy statements, proxy statements combined with a prospectus and information statements.

Your household may have received a single set of proxy materials this year. If you would like to receive another copy of this year's proxy materials, please write to Corporate Secretary, General Mills, Inc., P.O. Box 1113, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55440, or call us at 800-245-5703. If you prefer to receive your own copy of proxy and other materials in the future, please write to ADP-ICS, Household Department, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, New York 11717, or call 800-542-1061. Each stockholder will continue to receive a separate proxy card or voting instruction card.

If your household would like to receive single rather than duplicate mailings in the future, please indicate your consent on the proxy card. If a broker or other nominee holds your shares, you may continue to receive some duplicate mailings. Certain brokers will eliminate duplicate account mailings by allowing stockholders to consent to such elimination, or through implied consent if a stockholder does not request continuation of duplicate mailings. Since not all brokers and nominees offer stockholders the opportunity to eliminate duplicate mailings, you may need to contact your broker or nominee directly to discontinue duplicate mailings from your broker to your household.

Viewing of Proxy Materials Via the Internet. We are able to distribute our Annual Report and this proxy statement to our stockholders in a fast and efficient manner via the Internet. This reduces the amount of paper delivered to a stockholder's address and eliminates the cost of sending these documents by mail. Stockholders may elect to view all future annual reports and proxy statements on the Internet instead of receiving them by mail. You may make this election when voting your proxy this year. Simply follow the instructions to vote via the Internet or go directly to www.icsdelivery.com/gis to register your consent. Your election to view proxy materials online is perpetual unless you revoke it later. Future proxy cards will contain the Internet website address and instructions to view the materials. You will continue to have the option to vote your shares by telephone, mail or via the Internet. Certain employee stockholders who have valid work e-mail addresses will not receive a proxy card in the mail but may vote by telephone or via the Internet.

ANNUAL REPORT

Our 2006 Annual Report to Stockholders, which includes our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 28, 2006, was mailed to all stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. If you have not received the Annual Report, please call 800-245-5703, and a copy will be sent to you without charge. You may also request a free copy by writing to the Corporate Secretary, General Mills, Inc., P.O. Box 1113, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55440.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT!

Please vote by phone, via the Internet or sign and promptly return your proxy card in the enclosed envelope.

4. PARTICIPATION

Each member of the Board who is not an employee of the Company at the date compensation is earned or accrued shall be eligible to participate in the Plan unless prohibited from participating by the terms of their employment (a Participant).

5. COMMON STOCK SUBJECT TO THE PLAN

(a) General. The Common Stock to be issued under this Plan is to be made available from the authorized but unissued Common Stock, shares of Common Stock held in the treasury, or Common Stock purchased on the open market or otherwise. Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding paragraphs, the maximum aggregate number of shares authorized to be issued under the Plan shall be 700,000 and the maximum number of shares authorized to be issued under the Plan in a single Plan Year shall be 160,000.

Upon forfeiture or termination of Stock Units prior to vesting, the shares of Common Stock subject thereto shall again be available for awards under the Plan.

(b) Adjustments for Corporate Transactions. If a corporate transaction has occurred affecting the Common Stock such that an adjustment to outstanding awards is required to preserve (or prevent enlargement of) the benefits or potential benefits intended at the time of grant, then in such manner as the Committee deems equitable, an appropriate adjustment shall be made to (i) the number and kind of shares which may be awarded under the Plan; (ii) the number and kind of shares subject to outstanding awards; (iii) the number of shares credited to a Stock Unit Account; and (iv) the exercise price of outstanding Options provided that the number of shares of Common Stock subject to any Option denominated in Common Stock shall always be a whole number. For this purpose a corporate transaction includes, but is not limited to, any dividend or other distribution (whether in the form of cash, Common Stock, securities of a subsidiary of the Company, other securities or other property), recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, reorganization, merger, consolidation, split-up, spin-off, combination, repurchase or exchange of Common Stock or other securities of the Company, issuance of warrants or other rights to purchase Common Stock or other securities of the Company, or other similar corporate transaction. Notwithstanding anything in this Section to the contrary, an adjustment to an Option under this Section 5(b) shall be made in a manner that will not result in a new grant of an Option under Code Section 409A.

6. RETAINER

(a) General. Each non-employee director shall be entitled to receive a retainer with respect to each one-year board term, beginning the day of each annual stockholders meeting and ending the day before the succeeding annual stockholders meeting (the Plan Year) in an amount determined from time to time by the Board. Retainers shall be earned and paid at the end of each of the Company's fiscal quarters.

(b) Normal Payment Terms. The normal payment terms for retainers are cash in a lump sum. In the absence of an affirmative election to the contrary, the retainer (or the portion not subject to such elections) shall be paid 10 business days following the last day of each quarterly period described above in (a).

(c) Deferral Elections. Each Participant may elect an alternative form (lump sum vs. installments) in which a retainer may be delivered and the timing for such delivery, pursuant to the terms of Section 9. Participants shall make such election by filing an irrevocable Election Form with the Committee before the calendar year in which a Plan Year begins. The election shall apply to amounts earned in a period described in (a) above that begins during the Plan Year. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the first year in which a non-employee director becomes eligible to participate in the Plan, an election may be made with respect to services to be performed subsequent to the election, to the extent permitted under Code section 409A. Such an election must be made on an Election Form within 30 days after the date the non-employee director becomes eligible to participate in the Plan.

(d) Deferred Cash Alternative. For each Participant who affirmatively elects to defer receipt of his or her retainers in the form of deferred cash, the Company shall establish a separate account (a Deferred Compensation Account) and credit such deferred cash compensation into that Account as of the date the amounts would otherwise be paid. A separate Deferred Compensation Account shall be established for each Plan Year a Participant makes such a deferral election. Earnings, gains and losses shall be credited to each such Deferred Compensation Account based on the rate earned by the fund or funds selected by the Participant from among funds or portfolios established under the General Mills, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan or any other qualified benefit plan maintained by the Company which the Minor Amendment Committee, or its delegate, in its discretion, may from time to time establish. Distributions from a Deferred Compensation Account shall be made in accordance with Section 9.

The Company has established a Supplemental Benefits Trust with Wells Fargo Bank Minnesota, N.A. as trustee to hold assets of the Company under certain circumstances as a reserve for the discharge of the Company's obligations as to Deferred Compensation Accounts under the Plan and certain other deferred compensation plans of the Company. In the event of a Change in Control as defined in Section 11 below, the Company shall be obligated to immediately contribute such amounts to the trust as may be necessary to fully fund all Deferred Compensation Accounts payable under the Plan. Any Participant in the Plan shall have the right to demand and secure specific performance of this provision. All assets held in the trust remain subject only to the claims of the Company's general creditors whose claims against the Company are not satisfied because of the Company's bankruptcy or insolvency (as those terms are defined in the trust agreement). No Participant has any preferred claim on, or beneficial ownership interest in, any assets of the trust before the assets are paid to the Participant and all rights created under the trust, as under the Plan, are unsecured contractual claims of the Participant against the Company.

(e) Common Stock Alternative. Each Participant may affirmatively elect to receive all or a specified percentage of his or her retainers for a Plan Year in shares of Common Stock, which, if elected, will be issued 10 business days following the last day of each quarterly period during the Plan Year described above in (a). Only whole numbers of shares will be issued, with any fractional share amounts paid in cash. For purposes of computing the number of shares earned each quarter during the Plan Year, the value of each share shall be equal to the Fair Market Value on the third Business Day preceding the last day of each quarter described above in (a) during the Plan Year. For the purposes of this Plan, Business Day shall mean a day on which the New York Stock Exchange is open for trading.

(f) Death. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, if a Participant dies during a Plan Year, the balance of the amount due for the full quarter in which death occurs shall be payable in full to the Participant's estate, in cash, 60 days following the date of death.

7. NON-QUALIFIED STOCK OPTIONS

(a) Grant of Options. Each non-employee director on the effective date of the Plan (or, if first elected after the effective date of the Plan, on the date the non-employee director first attends a Board meeting) shall be awarded an option (an Option) to purchase shares of Common Stock, in an amount determined from time to time by the Board, or its delegate. As of the close of business on each successive annual stockholders' meeting after the date of the original award, each Participant who is re-elected to the Board shall be granted an additional Option to purchase shares of Common Stock. All Options granted under the Plan shall be non-statutory options not entitled to special tax treatment under Code section 422.

(b) Option Exercise Price. The per share price to be paid by the Participant at the time an Option is exercised shall be 100% of the Fair Market Value on the date of grant, or on the last date preceding the date of grant on which the Common Stock was traded.

(c) Term of Option. Each Option shall expire ten (10) years from the date of grant.

A-3

Table of Contents

(d) Exercise and Vesting of Option. Each Option will vest on the date of the annual stockholders' meeting next following the date the Option is granted. Upon vesting, a Participant shall be given the full ten (10) year term to exercise the Option without regard to whether he or she continues to serve on the Board. If, for any reason, a Participant ceases to serve on the Board prior to the date an Option vests, such Option shall be forfeited and all further rights of the Participant to or with respect to such Option shall terminate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Participant should die during his or her term of service on the Board, any vested Option may be exercised by the person designated in such Participant's last will and testament or, in the absence of such designation, by the Participant's estate, and any unvested Options shall fully vest and become exercisable upon death for the remainder of the Option's full term.

(e) Method of Exercise. A Participant exercising an Option shall give notice to the Company of such exercise and of the number of shares elected to be purchased prior to 4:30 P.M. CST/CDT on the day of exercise, which must be a business day at the executive offices of the Company. The exercise price shall be paid to the Company at the time of such exercise, subject to any applicable rule or regulation adopted by the Committee:

(i) in cash (including check, draft, money order or wire transfer made payable to the order of the Company);

(ii) through the tender of shares of Common Stock owned by the Participant (by either actual delivery or attestation); or

(iii) by a combination of (i) and (ii) above.

To determine the amount of the payment, Common Stock delivered pursuant to (ii) or (iii) shall have a value equal to the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the date of exercise.

(f) Non-transferability. Except as provided by rule adopted by the Committee, an Option shall be non-assignable and non-transferable by a Participant other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. A Participant shall forfeit any Option assigned or transferred, voluntarily or involuntarily, other than as permitted under this subsection.

8. STOCK UNITS

(a) Awards. On the effective date of the Plan (or, if a Participant is first elected after the effective date of the Plan, on the date the Participant first attends a Board meeting) and at the close of business on each successive annual stockholders' meeting, each Participant shall be awarded the right to receive shares of Common Stock ("Stock Units"), subject to vesting as provided in Section 8(b). Only a Participant who is re-elected to the Board shall be entitled to a grant under this Section 8(a) of Stock Units awarded at the close of business on an annual meeting date after the date of the original grant to Participants. A separate Stock Unit Account will be established for the Participant each time an award of Stock Units is made.

The maximum aggregate number of shares authorized to be issued under the Plan upon vesting of Stock Unit awards shall be 175,000. Participants receiving Stock Units will have no rights as stockholders of the Company with respect to allocations made to their Stock Unit Account(s), except the right to receive dividend equivalent allocations under Section 8(d).

Stock Units may not be sold, transferred, assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered or disposed of until such time as share certificates for Common Stock are issued to the Participants.

(b) Vesting of Stock Units. A Participant's interest in the Stock Units shall vest on the date of the annual stockholders' meeting next following the date of the award of the Stock Units. If, for any reason, a Participant ceases to serve on the Board prior to the date the Participant's interest in a grant of Stock Units vests, such Stock Units shall be forfeited and all further rights of the Participant to or with respect to such Stock Units shall terminate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Participant who dies while serving on the Board prior to the vesting of Stock Units shall fully vest in such Stock Units, effective as of the date of death.

(c) Election Concerning Receipt of Common Stock. Each Participant receiving an award of Stock Units under Section 8(a) may elect the time and form (lump sum vs. installments) of distribution of Common Stock attributable to such Stock Units, pursuant to the terms of Section 9. If no affirmative election is made, all Stock Units shall be paid in shares of Common Stock 10 days following vesting.

(d) Dividend Equivalents. The Participant may also elect to have dividend equivalents payable on Stock Units paid currently in cash or reinvested in Stock Units. If the amounts are reinvested, on each dividend payment date for the Common Stock, the Company will credit each Stock Unit Account with an amount equal to the dividends that would have been paid had the Stock Units been actual shares of Common Stock, which shall be used to purchase additional Stock Units at a price equal to the Fair Market Value on the dividend date. Such additional Stock Units shall be distributed at the same time and in the same form as the rest of the Stock Unit Account balance. If the Participant fails to make an election, the dividend equivalent amounts shall be paid in cash currently.

(e) Timing of Elections. In order to make an election under Sections 8(c) and/or 8(d) with respect to Stock Units awarded for a Plan Year, a Participant shall file an irrevocable Election Form with the Committee before the calendar year in which the Plan Year begins. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the first year in which a non-employee director becomes eligible to participate in the Plan, a deferral election may be made with respect to services to be performed subsequent to the election, to the extent permitted under Code section 409A. Such an election must be made on an Election Form within 30 days after the date the non-employee director becomes eligible to participate in the Plan.

9. DISTRIBUTION PROVISIONS FOR DEFERRED CASH AND STOCK UNITS

The following distribution provisions shall apply to Deferred Compensation Accounts and Stock Unit Accounts:

(a) Timing. Distributions from Deferred Compensation Accounts shall normally commence at Separation from Service, however, a Participant may affirmatively elect a specified date for commencement, provided said date is not later than age 70. The same rule applies to Stock Units which have been deferred beyond the vesting period described in Section 8(b). Elections as to the timing of benefit commencement shall be made in accordance with Sections 6 and 8, as appropriate.

(b) Form of Distribution. Distributions shall normally be made in a lump sum. However, a Participant may affirmatively elect to receive substantially equal annual installments over a period of up to 10 years. Such elections shall be made in accordance with Sections 6 and 8, as appropriate.

(c) Manner of Distribution. Amounts credited to Deferred Compensation Accounts shall be paid in cash. Amounts credited to Stock Unit Accounts shall be paid in Common Stock based on the number of Stock Units credited to the Stock Unit Account and paid in cash equal to any dividend equivalent amounts which had not been used to purchase additional Stock Units.

(d) Distribution Upon Death. Notwithstanding any elections by a Participant or provisions of the Plan to the contrary, if a Participant dies before full distribution of a Deferred Compensation Account or Stock Unit Account, such accounts shall be distributed to the Participant's estate in a lump sum 60 days following the date of death.

(e) Changes in Time or Form of Distribution. A Participant who has elected to have an Account payable as of a specified date in (a) above (but not a Participant who has elected Separation from Service as the payment timing) may make any number of subsequent elections to change the time of commencement and/or form (lump sum vs. installments) of a distribution; provided, however, that such an election shall be effective only if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

A-5

Table of Contents

- (i) the election may not take effect until at least twelve (12) months after the date on which the election is made;
- (ii) a distribution may not be made earlier than at least five (5) years from the date the distribution would have otherwise been made;
- (iii) the election must be made at least twelve (12) months before the specified date; and
- (iv) the newly elected specified commencement date may not be beyond the Participant's ~~70~~⁷⁰ birthday and no new election may be made after the Participant's ~~65~~⁶⁵ birthday.

For purposes of elections made under this Section, installment distributions shall be treated as a single distribution.

(f) Permitted Payment Delays. Notwithstanding any provision of this Plan to the contrary, any distribution to a Participant under the Plan shall be delayed upon the Committee's determination that one or more of the following events may occur:

- (i) the making of the payment would violate a term of a loan agreement to which the Company is a party, or other similar contract to which the Company is a party, and such violation would cause material harm to the Company; or
- (ii) the making of the payment would violate Federal securities laws or other applicable law; provided, that any payment subject to this Section 9(g) shall ultimately be paid in accordance with Code section 409A.

(g) Payment Acceleration. If amounts deferred under the Plan must be included in a Participant's income under Code section 409A prior to the scheduled distribution of such amounts, distribution of such amount shall be made to the Participant.

10. CHANGE OF CONTROL

Notwithstanding a Participant's election or provisions of the Plan to the contrary, uNotwithstanding any elections by a Participant or provisions of the Plan to the contrary, Notwithstanding any elections by a Participant or provisions of the Plan to the contrary, Notwithstanding any elections by a Participant or provisions of the Plan to the contrary, Notwithstanding any elections by a Participant or provisions of the Plan to the contrary, pon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined in Section 11), all Options and Stock Units shall fully and immediately vest, and shall be exercisable or paid pursuant to the terms of the Plan that are otherwise applicable. If the Change of Control is also a change in control as defined under Code section 409A(a)(2)(A)(v) and official guidance thereunder, all Stock Unit Accounts shall be distributed in a single payment 30 days following such Change of Control.

11. ADMINISTRATION

The Plan shall be administered by the Committee. The Committee shall have full power to interpret the Plan, formulate additional details and regulations for carrying out the Plan and amend, modify or terminate the Plan as from time to time it deems proper and in the best interests of the Company, provided that after a Change of Control no amendment, modification of or action to terminate the Plan may be made which would affect compensation earned or accrued prior to such amendment, modification or termination without the written consent of a majority of Participants determined as of the day before a Change of Control. Any decision or interpretation adopted by the Committee shall be final and conclusive. A Change of Control means:

(a) The acquisition by any individual, entity or group (within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) or 14(d)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the 1934 Act)) (a Person) of beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the 1934 Act) of voting securities of the Company where such acquisition causes such Person to own 20% or more of the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of the Company entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the Outstanding Company Voting Securities); provided, however, that for purposes of this subsection (1), the following acquisitions shall not be deemed to result in a Change of Control: (i) any acquisition directly from the Company, (ii) any acquisition by the Company, (iii) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company or any corporation controlled by the Company or (iv) any acquisition by any corporation pursuant to a transaction that complies with clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of subsection (3) below; and provided, further, that if any Person's beneficial ownership of the Outstanding Company Voting Securities reaches or exceeds 20% as a result of a transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) above, and such Person subsequently acquires beneficial ownership of additional voting securities of the Company, such subsequent acquisition shall be treated as an acquisition that causes such Person to own 20% or more of the Outstanding Company Voting Securities; or

(b) Individuals who, as of the date hereof, constitute the Board (the Incumbent Board) cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board; provided, however, that any individual becoming a director subsequent to the date hereof whose election, or nomination for election by the Company s shareholders, was approved by a vote of at least a majority of the directors then comprising the Incumbent Board shall be considered as though such individual were a member of the Incumbent Board, but excluding, for this purpose, any such individual whose initial assumption of office occurs as a result of an actual or threatened election contest with respect to the election or removal of directors or other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of a Person other than the Board; or

(c) The approval by the shareholders of the Company of a reorganization, merger, consolidation, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (Business Combination) or, if consummation of such Business Combination is subject, at the time of such approval by shareholders, to the consent of any government or governmental agency, the obtaining of such consent (either explicitly or implicitly by consummation); excluding, however, such a Business Combination pursuant to which (i) all or substantially all of the individuals and entities who were the beneficial owners of the Outstanding Company Voting Securities immediately prior to such Business Combination beneficially own, directly or indirectly, more than 60% of, respectively, the then outstanding shares of common stock and the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, as the case may be, of the corporation resulting from such Business Combination (including, without limitation, a corporation that as a result of such transaction owns the Company or all or substantially all of the Company s assets either directly or through one or more subsidiaries) in substantially the same proportions as their ownership, immediately prior to such Business combination of the Outstanding Company Voting Securities, (ii) no Person (excluding any employee benefit plan (or related trust) of the Company or such corporation resulting from such Business Combination) beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, 20% or more of, respectively, the then outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation resulting from such Business Combination or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of such corporation except to the extent that such ownership existed prior to the Business Combination and (iii) at least a majority of the members of the board of directors of the corporation resulting from such Business Combination were members of the Incumbent Board at the time of the execution of the initial agreement, or of the action of the Board, providing for such Business Combination; or

(d) Approval by the shareholders of the Company of a complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company.
