ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

On October 16, 2007, the Reporting Person sent a letter to the Issuer outlining the Reporting Person's current intentions as follows:

As the holder of 6,500,000 shares (approximately 8.3% of the shares outstanding), we continue to follow recent developments with interest and concern, especially your efforts to consummate a transaction with Gerald J. Ford.

We generally applaud your opposition to Mr. Ford's apparent efforts to reprice the original Investment Agreement dated May 21, 2007. But we strongly believe that the time has now come to stop the Company's non-public and unproductive negotiations with the Ford group and instead conduct a fair and open auction process so that the Company can obtain the best available terms. We also believe that this process should be as public as possible and that shareholders should have the right to participate to the greatest extent feasible in both the auction process and in any resulting transaction. We ourselves are prepared to make a proposal at least as attractive as Mr. Ford's original terms, subject only to due diligence, and we would also work with the FDIC to engage a suitable CEO within 90 days. "Due diligence" is a courtesy that Mr. Ford has been extended now for the past eight months while the rest of us have been kept in the dark.

We vehemently oppose any secretly negotiated deal with Gerald Ford (or anyone else, for that matter) and intend to use all means at our disposal, including litigation, to oppose it. If, however, at the conclusion of a fair and open process, Mr. Ford were to present the best transaction terms, then that transaction would receive our support.

Except as specified above, the Reporting Person acquired and continues to hold the shares reported herein for investment purposes. Depending on market conditions and other factors that the Reporting Person may deem material to its investment decisions, the Reporting Person may sell all or a portion of the shares, or may purchase additional shares, on the open market or in a private transaction.

Except as set forth in this Item 4, the Reporting Person has no present plans or proposals that relate to or that would result in any of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D of the Act.
