ITEM 30. INDEMNIFICATION

Reference is made to Article VI of the Fund's Articles of Incorporation, Article VI of Fund's Bylaws, Section 2-418 of the Maryland General Corporation Law, the Management Agreement filed as Exhibit (g)(1), the Investment Advisory Agreement filed as Exhibit (g)(2) and the Dealer Manager Agreement filed as Exhibit (h).

Maryland law permits the Fund to include in its charter (the "Charter") a provision limiting the liability of the Fund's Directors and officers to the Fund and the stockholders for money damages, except for liability resulting from (a) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (b) active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final judgment and which is material to the cause of action. The Charter of the Fund contains such a provision which eliminates Directors' and officers' liability to the fullest extent permitted by Maryland law.

Article VI of the Charter of the Fund provides that each director and officer of the Fund shall be indemnified by the Fund to the full extent permitted under the General Laws of the State of Maryland, subject to the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"). Article VI of the Fund's Bylaws obligate the Fund to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law and subject to the requirements of the 1940 Act, to indemnify and, without requiring preliminary determination, pay or reimburse reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding to (a) any individual who is a present or former director or officer of the Fund and who is made or threatened to be made a party to the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity or (b) any individual who, while a Director or officer of the Fund and at the request of the Fund, serves or has served as a director, officer, partner or

trustee of another corporation, real estate investment trust, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise and who is made or threatened to be made a party to the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity. The Fund may, with the approval of its Board of Directors or any duly authorized committee thereof, provide such indemnification and advance for expenses to a person who served a predecessor of the Fund in any of the capacities described above and to any employee or agent of the Fund or a predecessor of the Fund. The Fund has been advised that such indemnity shall not protect any such person against any liability to the Fund or any stockholder thereof to which such person would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. Absent a court determination that a director or officer seeking indemnification was not liable on the merits or guilty of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office, the decision by the Fund to indemnify such person must be based upon the reasonable determination of independent counsel for non-party independent directors, after review of the facts, that such director or officer is not guilty of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office.

Maryland law requires a corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which the Fund's Charter does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of his or her service in that capacity. Maryland law permits a corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (i) was committed in bad faith or (ii) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. Under Maryland law, a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or for a judgment of liability on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received, unless in either case a court orders indemnification and then only for expenses. In addition, Maryland law permits a corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon the corporation's receipt of (a) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation and (b) a written undertaking by him or her or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

Insofar as the conditional advancing of indemnification moneys for actions based upon the 1940 Act may be concerned, such payments will be made only on the following conditions: (i) the advances must be limited to amounts used, or to be used, for the preparation or presentation of a defense to the action, including costs connected with the preparation of a settlement; (ii) advances may be made only upon receipt of a written promise by, or on behalf of, the recipient to repay that amount of the advance which exceeds the amount to which it is ultimately determined that he is entitled to receive from the Fund by reason of indemnification; and (iii) (a) such promise must be secured by a surety bond, other suitable insurance or an equivalent form of security which assures that any repayments may be obtained by the Fund without delay or litigation, which bond, insurance or other form of security must be provided by the recipient of the advance, or (b) a majority of a quorum of the Fund's disinterested, non-party Directors, or an independent legal counsel in a written opinion, shall determine, based upon a review of readily available facts, that the recipient of the advance ultimately will be found entitled to indemnification.

The Fund may purchase insurance on behalf of a director or officer protecting such person, to the full extent permitted under Maryland law, from liability arising from his or her activities as officer or director of the Fund. The Fund, however, may not purchase insurance on behalf of any director or officer of the Fund that protects or purports to protect such person from liability to the Fund or to its stockholders to which such director or officer would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office.

Reference is made to Article V of the Management Agreement filed as Exhibit (g)(1) herewith relating to limitation of liability of the Manager, and to Article IV of the Investment Advisory Agreement filed as Exhibit (g)(2) herewith for provisions relating to limitation of liability of the Investment Adviser. Reference is made to Section 7 of the Dealer Manager Agreement, a form of which will be filed as Exhibit 2-(h) hereto, for provisions relating to the indemnification of the Dealer Manager.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “1933 Act”) may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Fund and the principal underwriter pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, the Fund has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Fund of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the Fund and the principal underwriter in connection with the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person or the principal underwriter in connection with the shares being registered, the Fund will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by the controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
