PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

Pitney Bowes Office Systems and CGI sign five-year IT

Edgar Filing: CGI GROUP INC - Form 6-K

outsourcing contract valued at close to US$25 million

Andover, Mass., September 27, 2001 - Pitney Bowes Office Systems Inc. (PBOS), the fax and copier division of the leading mail and document management firm, and CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (NYSE: GIB, TSE:GIB.A) signed today a five-year information technology outsourcing contract valued at close to US$25 million. CGI will provide IT infrastructure management and support to PBOS employees in some 150 locations across the United States.

As part of the agreement, the enterprise servers and infrastructure will be hosted and managed out of CGI's Canadian-based data centers and will be ready for operation in December 2001.

Robert Butler, CIO, Pitney Bowes Office Systems said: "We are very pleased with the caliber and professionalism of CGI's delivery team and appreciated their responsiveness and flexibility in meeting our needs. This initiative will enable us to review our processes and technologies in a more focused fashion to better serve our organization and clients."

Gartner Consulting conducted the evaluation of the proposals and recommended CGI as a preferred supplier. "Our role is to objectively assess the IT requirements of a given firm and help optimize the delivery of solutions and services to meet the clients business objectives by recommending the appropriate IT partner." said Robert Sauerhoff, senior consultant, Gartner Consulting.

Satish Sanan, president, USA and Asia Pacific, CGI highlighted: "We are pleased to welcome PBOS as a new client. It is our firm belief that through this partnership, they will be able to realize new cost savings that will in turn be invested into their core business - that of helping businesses communicate."
