ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS.

On March 19, 2002, Sabre Holdings Corporation ("Sabre") raised its earnings projection for the first quarter of 2002 and for the fiscal year 2002. These projections supersede any prior projections filed by Sabre.

For the first quarter, Sabre projected that earnings per share, excluding special items, will be in the range of $0.58 to $0.61, exceeding previous guidance of $0.47 to $0.52. Sabre stated that the increase in the first quarter earnings projection is primarily the result of lower operating costs and expense control. Sabre stated that it expects spending to gradually return to planned levels through the year.

On such date, Sabre also reiterated its guidance for first quarter revenues, which remain on course in a volatile industry. Sabre stated that first quarter revenues are expected to decline one to six percent, year over year, as global bookings gradually recover industry wide. Sabre also stated that travel bookings remain in line with company expectations.

In addition to the increased earnings guidance for the first quarter, Sabre also reported that it expects second quarter, 2002 earnings per share, excluding special items, to be in the range of $0.55 to $0.60. Sabre projected that for the full year, 2002 earnings per share, excluding special items, will be in the range of $1.93 to $2.03, above previous guidance of $1.80 to $1.90. Sabre confirmed that its projections for 2002 revenues and travel booking levels remain unchanged.
