Dear Shareholder:
China remains an important part of the world economy and while it may not be posting the growth numbers of a decade ago, we believe the country continues to offer interesting investment opportunities. While recent growth rates have been in the single digits, based on the size of China's current economy, it still exceeds, in absolute monetary terms, the size of the economy during the double digit growth numbers posted 10 years ago.
We continue to believe that when evaluating any investment in either the emerging markets or any global allocation of assets, China needs to be considered. Although current concern surrounding China's capital outflows may have decreased, there continues to be net depreciation pressure on the Renminbi. However, in some ways, mild, engineered depreciation versus a basket of currencies, while keeping a lid on capital outflow pressures, represents a positive outcome for China. Market concern has tended to focus more on the rapid increase in leverage that we have seen in China since the global financial crisis. Although we agree that this is a significant issue that will necessitate some hard decisions, we think that there are serious differences in the nature of that debt and the management of the economy that will prevent a systemic crisis in the foreseeable future.

Much of the debt risks concern is around state owned enterprises, or SOEs. Privately owned enterprises tend not to carry as much debt. According to estimates from Shi Kang, an associate professor at Chines University of Hong Kong, private companies have cut debt to 53 percent of assets from 58 percent in 2007, while SOEs have seen those figures jump to 62 percent from 55 percent.<sup>1</sup>

Small and medium enterprises (SMEs) remain at the center of the narrative as China transitions from an "old" production-driven model to the "new" consumer and service-led economy. In this context, we believe VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF (NYSE Arca: CNXT) provides not only exposure primarily to China's market for innovative, non-government owned companies, but also to the very sectors that are increasingly recognized as underpinning the growth of the country's "New Economy." CNXT gives investors a liquid, transparent way to gain access to some of these growing companies.

Country/Regional Overviews

Africa

As a result of the improvement in commodities prices over the first half of 2016, the materials sector was by far the greatest contributor to performance for the six-month period. The financial sector was the single largest detractor from performance. Mid-cap companies contributed the most to performance. Geographically, gold mining companies operating in South Africa, Egypt, Suriname, Burkina Faso, and Mali were among the most significant contributors to positive performance. Financial companies in Egypt were the most significant detractors from total returns.

Brazil

The first half of 2016 may have been challenging for Brazil, but the VanEck Vectors Brazil Small-Cap ETF brought an impressive return of 44.92%, helped by a robust stock market and by a strengthening Brazilian real. On the economic front, the country remained in one of the worst recessions it has ever experienced. Politically, too, things were somewhat unsettled. On May 12, the Brazilian senate voted to suspend President Dilma Rousseff pending her trial and potential impeachment. Perhaps on expectations of a brighter future for the country post-Rousseff, Brazilian small-cap companies, having hit a low point in mid-January, rose through the end of the period under review. The consumer discretionary, health care, financial, and materials sectors all delivered healthy performance. Only one sector, telecommunication services, detracted from performance and only minimally.

China

The Chinese economy continued to be one in transition during the first half of the year. As with many transitions, there have been bumps along the way. Similar to the last several months of 2015, the first six months of 2016 were marked by uncertainty, both as to the growth prospects for the country going forward, and as to the extent and nature of government policy for addressing the country's economic predicament and, in particular, the value of the yuan.

VANECK VECTORS COUNTRY/REGIONAL ETFs

On June 14, MSCI Inc. announced that it would delay including China A-shares in the MSCI Emerging Markets Index.<sup>2</sup> While this came as some surprise to many, VanEck included, the decision in no way changes our strategy. We continue to believe that, when evaluating any investment in the emerging markets, foreign stocks, or any global allocation of assets, China needs to be considered: it is the world's second largest economy and second largest market.

VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF (formerly Market Vectors ChinaAMC A-Share ETF) achieved some of its exposure through swap contracts, though none of these remained outstanding at June 30, 2016 and all of its exposure is now achieved through direct investment in A-shares. Only a single sector, consumer staples, contributed positively to performance during the period under review. All other sectors detracted from performance with the financial and industrial sectors the worst detractors.

VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF seeks to provide not only exposure primarily to China's market for innovative, non-government owned companies, but also to the sectors that are increasingly underpinning the growth of China's "New Economy". It is not surprising that under such market conditions, the vast majority of the Fund's losses during the six-month period came from companies in the information technology sector, followed by those in the industrial and consumer discretionary sectors. The consumer staples sector contributed positively to performance.

Egypt

In June it was reported that non-oil business activity in Egypt had slowed for the ninth consecutive month.<sup>3</sup> Following the destruction of a Russian plane over the Sinai Peninsula by a terrorist bomb (with the loss of all 224 passengers on board) at the end of October last year, the country's important tourism industry suffered a fresh blow in May when an EgyptAir flight from Paris crashed with no survivors.<sup>4</sup> The weaker tourism industry has only exacerbated a debilitating U.S. dollar shortage in the country, foreign currency that is vital for paying for imported raw materials. In addition, the latest figures indicate that annual urban consumer price inflation rose steeply from 10.3% in April to 12.3% in May.<sup>5</sup> President Abdel Fattah El-Sisi has vowed to reduce unemployment significantly over the next five years, however, the employment rate continued to decline over the six-month period under review. Against this backdrop, and an overvalued Egyptian pound, the VanEck Vectors Egypt ETF failed to provide positive returns in the first half of 2016. While four sectors—materials, industrials, telecommunication services, and energy—contributed positively to total returns, their contributions was overshadowed by the negative performance of the financial sector, the single greatest detractor. Although mid-cap companies contributed positively to performance, they were overshadowed by small-cap companies with the largest average weighting during the period under review, which detracted the most from performance. Large-cap companies with a much smaller average weighting detracted commensurately less.

Gulf States

The Gulf States were challenged over the first six months of 2016 with both continuing conflict in the Middle East and low crude oil prices. Diversification away from an overdependence on crude oil remains essential for the future economic stability and health of the region. So far, efforts have not been particularly successful.<sup>6</sup> The effect of current oil prices is most evident in the forecasts for economic growth in Saudi Arabia in 2016. Expected GDP growth in the country of approximately 0.8% will be its weakest in 14 years.<sup>7</sup> Only two countries contributed positively to total returns. Geographically, the United Arab Emirates, with the greatest average country weighting, contributed the most to performance. Bahrain provided minimal positive returns. Kuwait, with the third greatest average country weighting, detracted most from performance. Industrial stocks were the greatest detractors from, and telecommunication services the greatest contributors to, performance.

India

According to the Indian rating agency Crisil, the quality of the country's growth has been improving, with the focus shifting from boosting cyclical growth through fiscal and monetary stimuli to "repairing the system and initiating structural reforms'. While this may be true, June saw the country's consumer price index inflation jump to a 22-month high of 5.77%. The manufacturing sector output, however, surprised with an increase to 0.7% compared with -3.1% on a month-on-month basis. Boosted by the manufacturing and capital goods sector, the industrial production index for May rose to 1.2% compared with -1.35% in April. That said, a recent report from the Bureau of Economic and Business Affairs of the U.S. State Department not only throws doubt on the veracity of country's stated 7.5% growth rate, but also questions the speed with which Prime Minister Narendra Modi's government has matched economic reforms with rhetoric.<sup>11</sup>

For the six months under review, the Fund recorded a loss of 2.75%. A number of sectors—financial, consumer staples, and materials—provided creditable positive returns. These were offset by negative performance in all other sectors, in particular industrial, the greatest detractor from performance.

Indonesia

After a disappointing first quarter, Indonesia's stock market had a much stronger second quarter on the back of a central bank interest rate cut. 12 While both sector openings and infrastructure projects, promised by President Jokowi, appear to have started to get off on a firm footing, the country's central bank still expects economic growth in the second quarter to rise only slightly above the 4.9% figure for the first quarter, reaching 4.9%-5%. 13 With low demand for credit, Indonesia's household consumption has yet to improve markedly! Despite this, as the World Bank describes it, the country's "economy continues to prove resilient", with "private consumption and public capital spending . . . projected to support growth in Indonesia in 2016. 15 For mid- and large-cap names, the focus of VanEck Vectors Indonesia ETF, all sectors, apart from materials and utilities, contributed to performance, with consumer staples, followed by financial and consumer discretionary stocks, contributing the most. The materials sector detracted the most from performance. Among the Indonesia Small-Cap ETF stocks, all sectors apart from two, health care and materials, contributed positively to performance. Industrial, financial, and consumer discretionary companies were the best performers and the health care sector detracted the most from performance.

Israel

The first quarter of 2016 was a slow one for Israel, with GDP decelerating and expanding at the slowest rate in three quarters. While private consumption and fixed investment remained robust during the quarter, contractions in both exports and government spending constituted strong headwinds. If Israel's economy grew an annualized 1.3 percent in the first quarter and is forecast to grow about 2.8 percent in 2016. The rapprochement, after six years, between the country and Turkey following the raid by Israel on a Turkish aid flotilla heading to the Gaza Strip, should be positive for the country's economy! Over the period under review, the performances of all sectors, whether positive or negative, were overshadowed by the negative returns of the health care sector, which detracted from performance the most of any sector. Minimal positive performance came from companies in the consumer discretionary, financial, information technology, utilities sectors. Only small-cap companies contributed positively to the Fund, with the majority of the Fund's losses coming from large-cap companies.

Poland

Economic growth in Poland decelerated significantly, to its slowest in two years, in the first quarter of 2016.<sup>19</sup> This was due to weakness in the external sector, tepid public spending and a collapse in fixed investment due to reduced European Union (EU) funds.<sup>20</sup> On a political front, Poland and the EU continued to be at odds over a number of issues, including rule of law, with no immediate resolution in sight. The vote for British withdrawal from the European Union (Brexit) did not help sentiment and the zloty depreciated to a four-month low against the euro following the vote.<sup>21</sup> As recently as the end of June, the administration once again opined that it should purchase foreign banks in the country,<sup>22</sup> with Jaroslaw Gowin, deputy prime minister, saying that foreign capital "definitely has too much power.<sup>23</sup> Such statements have only fueled fears that the country might be moving away from free-market principles and toward, among other things, greater protectionism. Four sectors—consumer staples, energy, information technology, and materials—contributed positively to performance. Together with the financial sector, the greatest detractor from performance, the consumer discretionary, telecommunication services, and utilities sectors all provided negative returns. Small-cap companies contributed to performance. Mid-cap companies, followed by large-cap companies, detracted from performance.

Russia

The first six months of 2016 remained difficult for Russia. In the first quarter, the economy contracted 1.2% year-on-year, but this was less than was expected.<sup>24</sup> However, the country does appear to be in recovery mode.<sup>25</sup> The economy benefited both from higher oil prices in the period under review and a stabilization in the ruble's exchange rate. In June, stating steady inflation as a reason, the Bank of Russia lowered its key interest rate by 50 bps to 10.5%. By June 30, 2016, the stock market had risen 9.02% in local currency (ruble) terms for the six-month period under review, and 24.78% in U.S. dollar terms. The energy, followed by the materials and financial sectors, were the three most significant contributors to positive performance in the large-cap fund, VanEck Vectors Russia ETF. The consumer staples sector detracted the most from performance. For VanEck Vectors Russia Small-Cap ETF, companies in the utilities sector performed particularly well. Similarly sized companies in the information technology sector were, however, the bottom performers.

Vietnam

Following economic growth that slowed to 5.46% in the first quarter of 2016,<sup>27</sup> expansion of the country's economy in the second quarter of 2016 remained lackluster. This was the result of an agricultural sector that continued to suffer severely (contracting 0.8% in the first half of 2016)<sup>28</sup> from a crippling drought.<sup>29</sup> Among other things, export growth slowed from 4.9% in May to 3.3% in June. Inflows of foreign investment were strong, as was the performance of other, non-agricultural sectors of the economy.<sup>30</sup> Manufacturing jumped 10% in the first half of the year and there was strong growth in both services and construction.<sup>31</sup> The Fund ended the six-month period down 0.42%. Mid-cap companies performed positively over the six-month period. While large-cap companies detracted from performance, small-cap companies, with an average weighting of approximately 63%, were by far the greatest detractors from performance. The utilities, materials, and energy sectors all contributed positively to total returns. The consumer discretionary sector detracted the most from performance.

Index data prior to June 21, 2013 reflects that of the Dow Jones Africa Titans 50 Index<sup>SM</sup>. From June 21, 2013, forward, the index data reflects that of the MVIS GDP Africa Index (MVAFKTR). All Index history reflects a blend of the performance of the aforementioned Indexes.

Commencement date for the VanEck Vectors Africa Index ETF was 7/10/08.

The price used to calculate market return (Share Price) is determined by using the closing price listed on NYSE Arca. Since the shares of the Fund did not trade in the secondary market until several days after the Fund's commencement, for the period from commencement (7/10/08) to the first day of secondary market trading in shares of the Fund (7/14/08), the NAV of the Fund is used as a proxy for the secondary market trading price to calculate market returns.

The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Performance information for the Fund reflects temporary waivers of expenses and/or fees. Had the Fund incurred all expenses, investment returns would have been reduced. These returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund dividends and distributions or the sale of Fund shares.

Investment return and value of the shares of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance may be lower or higher than performance data quoted. Performance current to the most recent month-end is available by calling 800.826.2333 or by visiting vaneck.com.

Gross Expense Ratio 0.95% / Net Expense Ratio 0.79%

Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") has agreed to waive fees and/or pay Fund expenses to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of the Fund (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses) from exceeding 0.78% of the Fund's average daily net assets per year until at least May 1, 2017. During such time, the expense limitation is expected to continue until the Fund's Board of Trustees acts to discontinue all or a portion of such expense limitation.

Fund shares are not individually redeemable and will be issued and redeemed at their NAV only through certain authorized broker-dealers in large, specified blocks of shares called "creation units" and otherwise can be bought and sold only through exchange trading. Creation units are issued and redeemed principally in cash. Shares may trade at a premium or discount to their NAV in the secondary market.

The "Net Asset Value" (NAV) of a VanEck Vectors exchange-traded fund (ETF) is determined at the close of each business day, and represents the dollar value of one share of the fund; it is calculated by taking the total assets of the fund, subtracting total liabilities, and dividing by the total number of shares outstanding. The NAV is not necessarily the same as the ETF's intraday trading value. VanEck Vectors ETF investors should not expect to buy or sell shares at NAV.

Index returns assume the reinvestment of all income and do not reflect any management fees or brokerage expenses associated with Fund returns. Investors cannot invest directly in the Index. Returns for actual Fund investors may differ from what is shown because of differences in timing, the amount invested and fees and expenses.

<sup>2</sup>MVIS<sup>TM</sup> GDP Africa Index (MVAFKTR) tracks the performance of the largest and most liquid companies in Africa. The weighting of a country in the index is determined by the size of its gross domestic product.

MVAFKTR is the exclusive property of MV Index Solutions GmbH (a wholly owned subsidiary of the Adviser), which has contracted with Solactive AG to maintain and calculate the Index. Solactive AG uses its best efforts to ensure that the Index is calculated correctly. Irrespective of its obligations towards MV Index Solutions GmbH, Solactive AG has no obligation to point out errors in the Index to third parties. VanEck Vectors Africa Index ETF (the "Fund") is not sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by MV Index Solutions GmbH and MV Index Solutions GmbH makes no representation regarding the advisability of investing in the Fund.

As of May 1, 2016, Market Vectors ChinaAMC A-Share ETF's name changed to VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF.

Commencement date for the VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF was 10/13/10

The price used to calculate market return (Share Price) is determined by using the closing price listed on NYSE Arca. Since the shares of the Fund did not trade in the secondary market until several days after the Fund's commencement, 1 for the period from commencement (10/13/10) to the first day of secondary market trading in shares of the Fund (10/14/10), the NAV of the Fund is used as a proxy for the secondary market trading price to calculate market returns.

The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Performance information for the Fund reflects temporary waivers of expenses and/or fees. Had the Fund incurred all expenses, investment returns would have been reduced. These returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund dividends and distributions or the sale of Fund shares.

Investment return and value of the shares of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance may be lower or higher than performance data quoted. Performance current to the most recent month-end is available by calling 800.826.2333 or by visiting vaneck.com.

Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") has agreed to waive fees and/or pay Fund expenses to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of the Fund (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses) from exceeding 0.72% of the Fund's average daily net assets per year until at least May 1, 2017. During such time, the expense limitation is expected to continue until the Fund's Board of Trustees acts to discontinue all or a portion of such expense limitation.

Fund shares are not individually redeemable and will be issued and redeemed at their NAV only through certain authorized broker-dealers in large, specified blocks of shares called "creation units" and otherwise can be bought and sold only through exchange trading. Creation units are issued and redeemed principally in cash. Shares may trade at a premium or discount to their NAV in the secondary market.

The NAV is not necessarily the same as the ETF's intraday trading value. VanEck Vectors ETF investors should not expect to buy or sell shares at NAV.

Index returns assume the reinvestment of all income and do not reflect any management fees or brokerage expenses associated with Fund returns. Investors cannot invest directly in the Index. Returns for actual Fund investors may differ from what is shown because of differences in timing, the amount invested and fees and expenses.

CSI 300 Index (CSIR0300) is a modified free-float market capitalization weighted index comprised of the largest and most liquid stocks in the Chinese A-share market. Constituent stocks for the Index must have been listed for more 2than three months (unless the stock's average daily A-share market capitalization since its initial listing ranks among the top 30 of all A-shares) and must not be experiencing what the Index Provider believes to be obvious abnormal fluctuations or market manipulation.

CSI 300 Index and its logo are service marks of China Securities Index Co., Ltd. ("CSI") and have been licensed for use by Van Eck Associates Corporation. The VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF (the "Fund") is not sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by CSI and CSI makes no representation regarding the advisability of investing in the Fund. ## Commencement date for the VanEck Vectors Israel ETF was 6/25/13.

The price used to calculate market return (Share Price) is determined by using the closing price listed on NYSE Arca. Since the shares of the Fund did not trade in the secondary market until several days after the Fund's commencement, for the period from commencement (6/25/13) to the first day of secondary market trading in shares of the Fund (6/26/13), the NAV of the Fund is used as a proxy for the secondary market trading price to calculate market returns.

The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Performance information for the Fund reflects temporary waivers of expenses and/or fees. Had the Fund incurred all expenses, investment returns would have been reduced. These returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund dividends and distributions or the sale of Fund shares.

Investment return and value of the shares of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance may be lower or higher than performance data quoted. Performance current to the most recent month-end is available by calling 800.826.2333 or by visiting vaneck.com.

Gross Expense Ratio 0.89% / Net Expense Ratio 0.60%

Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") has agreed to waive fees and/or pay Fund expenses to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of the Fund (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses) from exceeding 0.59% of the Fund's average daily net assets per year until at least May 1, 2017. During such time, the expense limitation is expected to continue until the Fund's Board of Trustees acts to discontinue all or a portion of such expense limitation.

Fund shares are not individually redeemable and will be issued and redeemed at their NAV only through certain authorized broker-dealers in large, specified blocks of shares called "creation units" and otherwise can be bought and sold only through exchange trading. Creation units are issued and redeemed principally in kind. Shares may trade at a premium or discount to their NAV in the secondary market.

The "Net Asset Value" (NAV) of a VanEck Vectors exchange-traded fund (ETF) is determined at the close of each business day, and represents the dollar value of one share of the fund; it is calculated by taking the total assets of the fund, subtracting total liabilities, and dividing by the total number of shares outstanding. The NAV is not necessarily the same as the ETF's intraday trading value. VanEck Vectors ETF investors should not expect to buy or sell shares at NAV.

Index returns assume the reinvestment of all income and do not reflect any management fees or brokerage expenses associated with Fund returns. Investors cannot invest directly in the Index. Returns for actual Fund investors may differ from what is shown because of differences in timing, the amount invested and fees and expenses.

BlueStar Israel Global Index<sup>TM</sup> (BLSNTR) is a rules-based index intended to track the overall performance of publicly traded companies that are generally considered by the Indexer to be Israeli and Israeli linked companies. VANECK VECTORS ETF TRUST

Hypothetical $1,000 investment at beginning of period

As a shareholder of a Fund, you incur operating expenses, including management fees and other Fund expenses. This disclosure is intended to help you understand the ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in your Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The disclosure is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period, January 1, 2016 to June 30, 2016.

Actual Expenses

The first line in the table below provides information about account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During the Period."

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line in the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on your Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in your Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as program fees. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

June 30, 2016 (unaudited)

Note 1–Fund Organization–VanEck Vectors ETF Trust (the "Trust") (formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as an open-end management investment company. The Trust was incorporated in Delaware as a statutory trust on March 15, 2001. The Trust operates as a series fund, and as of June 30, 2016, offers fifty-seven investment portfolios, each of which represents a separate series of the Trust.

These financial statements relate only to the following investment portfolios: Africa Index ETF, Brazil Small-Cap ETF, ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF, ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF, Egypt Index ETF, Gulf States Index ETF, India Small-Cap Index ETF, Indonesia Index ETF, Indonesia Small-Cap ETF, Israel ETF, Poland ETF, Russia ETF, Russia Small-Cap ETF and Vietnam ETF (each a "Fund" and, together, the "Funds"). China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Limited (the "Sub-Adviser") is the sub-adviser to ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF and ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF. ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF and ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF seek to achieve their investment objective by primarily investing directly in A-shares through the Hong Kong-Shanghai Stock Connect program and via the A-share quota granted to the Sub-Adviser. India Small-Cap Index ETF makes its investments through the India Small-Cap Mauritius Fund (the "Subsidiary"), a wholly owned subsidiary organized in the Republic of Mauritius. Each Fund was created to provide investors with the opportunity to purchase a security representing a proportionate undivided interest in a portfolio of securities consisting of substantially all of the common stocks in substantially the same weighting, in an index published by the China Securities Index Co. Ltd., BlueStar Global Investors LLC or MV Index Solutions GmbH (formerly Market Vectors Index Solutions GmbH), a wholly owned subsidiary of Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser").

Note 2—Significant Accounting Policies—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Funds are investment companies and are following accounting and reporting requirements of Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 946 Financial Services — Investment Companies.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Funds.

Security Valuation—The Funds value their investments in securities and other assets and liabilities carried at fair value daily. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Securities traded on national exchanges or traded A. on the NASDAQ National Market System are valued at the last sales price as reported at the close of each business day. Securities traded on the NASDAQ Stock Market are valued at the NASDAQ official closing price.

sale was reported are valued at the mean of the bid and ask prices. To the extent these securities are actively traded they are categorized as Level 1 in the fair value hierarchy (described below). Certain foreign securities, whose values may be affected by market direction or events occurring before the Funds' pricing time (4:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time) but after the last close of the securities' primary market, are fair valued using a pricing service and are categorized as Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy. The pricing service, using methods approved by the Board of Trustees, considers the correlation of the trading patterns of the foreign security to intraday trading in the U.S. markets, based on indices of domestic securities and other appropriate indicators such as prices of relevant ADR's and futures contracts. The Funds may also fair value securities in other situations, such as, when a particular foreign market is closed but the Fund is open. Short-term obligations with more than sixty days remaining to maturity are valued at market value. Short-term obligations with sixty days or less to maturity are valued at amortized cost, which with accrued interest approximates fair value. Money market fund investments are valued at net asset value and are considered to be Level 1 in the fair value hierarchy. Securities for which quotations are not available are stated at fair value as determined by the Pricing Committee of the Adviser appointed by the Board of Trustees. The Pricing Committee provides oversight of the Funds' valuation policies and procedures, which are approved by the Funds' Board of Trustees. Among other things, these procedures allow the Funds to utilize independent pricing services, quotations from securities dealers, and other market sources to determine fair value. The Pricing Committee convenes regularly to review the fair value of financial instruments for which market prices are not readily available. The Pricing Committee employs various methods for calibrating the valuation approaches utilized to determine fair value, including a regular review of key inputs and assumptions, transactional back-testing and disposition analysis.

Certain factors such as economic conditions, political events, market trends, the nature of and duration of any restrictions on disposition, trading in similar securities of the issuer or comparable issuers and other security specific information are used to determine the fair value of these securities. Depending on the relative significance of valuation inputs, these securities may be classified either as Level 2 or Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy. The price which the Funds may realize upon sale of an investment may differ materially from the value presented in the Schedules of Investments.

The Funds utilize various methods to measure the fair value of their investments on a recurring basis which includes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods used to measure fair value. The fair value hierarchy gives highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The inputs or methodologies used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy assume the financial instruments were transferred at the beginning of the reporting period. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 — Quoted prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 — Significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.).

Level 3 — Significant unobservable inputs (including each Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).

A summary of the inputs, the levels used to value the Funds' investments, and transfers between levels are located in the Schedules of Investments. Additionally, tables that reconcile the valuation of the Funds' Level 3 investments and that present additional information about valuation methodologies and unobservable inputs, if applicable, are located in the Schedules of Investments.

Basis for Consolidation—The Subsidiary, an Indian exempted company, was incorporated on February 25, 2010 and acts as an investment vehicle for the India Small-Cap Index ETF (the "SCIF") in order to effect certain investments on behalf of the SCIF. The SCIF is the sole shareholder of the Subsidiary, and it is intended that the SCIF will remain the sole shareholder and will continue to control the Subsidiary. The consolidated financial statements of the SCIF include the financial results of its wholly owned subsidiary. All material interfund account balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Federal Income Taxes—It is each Fund's policy to comply with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code C. applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders—Dividends to shareholders from net investment income and distributions from net realized capital gains, if any, are declared and paid annually by each Fund. Income dividends and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with U.S. income tax regulations, which may differ from such amounts determined in accordance with GAAP.

Currency Translation—Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies and commitments under foreign currency contracts are translated into U.S. dollars at the closing prices of such currencies each business day. Purchases and sales of investments are translated at the exchange rates prevailing when such investments are acquired or sold. Foreign denominated income and expenses are translated at the exchange rates prevailing when E. accrued. The portion of realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments that result from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates is not separately disclosed in the financial statements. Recognized gains or losses attributable to foreign currency fluctuations on foreign currency denominated assets, other than investments, and liabilities are recorded as net realized gain (loss) on foreign currency transactions and foreign denominated assets and liabilities in the Statements of Operations.

Restricted Securities—The Funds may invest in securities that are subject to legal or contractual restrictions on resale. These securities generally may be resold in transactions exempt from registration or to the public if the F. securities are registered. Disposal of these securities may involve time-consuming negotiations and expense, and prompt sale at an acceptable price may be difficult. Information regarding restricted securities, if any, is included at the end of each Fund's Schedule of Investments.

Repurchase Agreements—The Funds may enter into repurchase agreements with financial institutions, deemed to be creditworthy by the Adviser, to generate income from their excess cash balances and to invest securities lending cash collateral. A repurchase agreement is an agreement under which a Fund acquires securities from a seller, subject to resale to the seller at an agreed upon price and date. A Fund, through its custodian/securities lending agent, takes possession of securities collateralizing the repurchase agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the repurchase agreement, such securities must have an aggregate market value greater than or equal to the terms of the repurchase price plus accrued interest at all times. If the value of the underlying securities falls below the value of the repurchase price plus accrued interest, the Funds will require the seller to deposit additional collateral by the next business day. If the request for additional collateral is not met, or the seller defaults on its repurchase obligation, the Funds maintain their right to sell the underlying securities at market value and may claim any resulting loss against the seller. Repurchase agreements held as of June 30, 2016 are reflected in the Schedules of Investments.

H. Use of Derivative Instruments—The Funds may make investments in derivative instruments, including, but not limited to, options, futures, swaps and other derivatives relating to foreign currency transactions. A derivative is an instrument whose value is derived from underlying assets, indices, reference rates or a combination of these factors. Derivative instruments may be privately negotiated contracts (often referred to as over-the-counter ("OTC") derivatives) or they may be listed and traded on an exchange. Derivative contracts may involve future commitments to purchase or sell financial instruments at specified terms on a specified date, or to exchange interest payment streams or currencies based on a notional or contractual amount. Derivative instruments may involve a high degree of financial risk. The use of derivative instruments also involves the risk of loss if the Adviser is incorrect in its expectation of the timing or level of fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates or currency prices. Investments in derivative instruments also include the risk of default by the counterparty, the risk that the investment may not be liquid and the risk that a small movement in the price of the underlying security or benchmark may result in a disproportionately large movement, unfavorable or favorable, in the price of the derivative instruments. GAAP requires enhanced disclosures about the Fund's derivative instruments and hedging activities. Details of this disclosure are found below.

Swap Agreements—The Funds may enter into swap transactions to gain investment exposure for total return or for hedging purposes. Risks may arise as a result of the failure of the counterparty to the swap contract to comply with the terms of the swap contract. The loss incurred by the failure of a counterparty is generally limited to the net payment to be received by the Funds and/or the termination value at the end of the contract.

Therefore, the Funds consider the creditworthiness of each counterparty to a contract in evaluating potential credit risk. Additionally, risks may arise from unanticipated movements in interest rates or in the value of the underlying reference asset or index. Entering into these agreements involves, to varying degrees, market risk, liquidity risk and elements of credit, legal and documentation risk in excess of amounts recognized in the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The Funds may pay or receive cash as collateral on these contracts which may be recorded as an asset and/or liability. The Funds must set aside liquid assets, or engage in other appropriate measures, to cover their obligations under these contracts. Swap contracts are marked to market daily and the change in value, if any, is recorded as unrealized appreciation or depreciation. Upfront payments, if any, made and/or received by the Funds are recorded as an asset and/or liability and realized gains or losses are recognized over the contract's term/event. Periodic payments received or made on swap contracts are recorded as realized gains or losses. Gains or losses are realized upon termination of a swap contract and are recorded in the Statements of Operations. The Funds, other than ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF, held no swap contracts during the period ended June 30, 2016. ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF invested in the following type of swap during the period ended June 30, 2016:

A total return swap is an agreement that gives a Fund the right to receive the appreciation in the value of a specified security index or other instrument in return for a fee paid to the counterparty, which will typically be an agreed upon interest rate. If the underlying asset declines in value over the term of the swap, the Fund may also be required to pay the dollar value of that decline to the counterparty. During the period ended June 30, 2016, the average monthly notional amount of the total return swap contracts in ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF was $2,155,028. The Fund held no total return swap contracts at June 30, 2016.

For ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF, the impact of transactions in derivative instruments, during the period ended June 30, 2016, was as follows:

Equity Risk Realized gain (loss):

Net change in unrealized appreciation (depreciation):

Swap contracts<sup>2</sup> (95,211)

Other—Security transactions are accounted for on trade date. Transactions in certain securities may take longer than the customary settlement cycle to be completed. The counterparty is required to collateralize such trades with cash in excess of the market value of the transaction, which is held at the custodian and marked to market daily. Realized gains and losses are calculated on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date except that certain dividends from foreign securities are recognized upon notification of the ex-dividend date/rate. Interest income, including amortization of premiums and discounts, is accrued as earned.

In the normal course of business, the Funds enter into contracts that contain a variety of general indemnifications. The Funds' maximum exposure under these agreements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Funds that have not yet occurred. However, the Adviser believes the risk of loss under these arrangements to be remote.

Note 3—Investment Management and Other Agreements—The Adviser is the investment adviser to the Funds. The Adviser receives a management fee, calculated daily and payable monthly based on an annual rate of 0.50% of each Fund's average daily net assets. The Adviser has agreed, at least until May 1, 2017, to voluntarily waive or limit its fees and to assume as its own expense certain expenses otherwise payable by the Funds so that each Fund's total annual operating expenses does not exceed the expense limitation (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses; for Russia ETF and Russia Small-Cap ETF, depositary receipt fees up to 0.10% and 0.08% of average daily net assets, respectively) as listed in the table below.

The current management fee rate/expense limitation and the amounts waived/assumed by the Adviser for the period ended June 30, 2016, are as follows:

In addition, Van Eck Securities Corporation, an affiliate of the Adviser, acts as the Funds' distributor ("the Distributor"). Certain officers and a Trustee of the Trust are officers, directors or stockholders of the Adviser and Distributor.

Note 4—Investments—For the period ended June 30, 2016, the cost of purchases and proceeds from sales of investments other than U.S. government obligations and short-term obligations (excluding in-kind transactions described in Note 6) were as follows:

During the year ended December 31, 2015, the following Funds utilized accumulated capital loss carryforwards: ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF utilized $312,686; India Small-Cap Index ETF utilized $9,353,236.

During the year ended December 31, 2015, Russia ETF had $1,049,748 of its accumulated capital loss carryforwards expire.

The Funds recognize the tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only where the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained assuming examination by applicable tax authorities. Management has analyzed the Funds' tax positions, and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken on return filings for all open tax years. The Funds do not have exposure for additional years that might still be open in certain foreign jurisdictions. Therefore, no provision for income tax is required in the Funds' financial statements. The Funds are subject to foreign taxes on the appreciation in value of certain investments. The Funds provide for such taxes on both realized and unrealized appreciation.

The Funds recognize interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense in the Statements of Operations. During the period ended June 30, 2016, the Funds did not incur any interest or penalties.

Uncertainties in the Chinese tax rules governing taxation of income and gains from investments in A-Shares could result in unexpected tax liabilities for the ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF and ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF. China generally imposes withholding tax at a rate of 10% on dividends and interest derived by Qualified Foreign Institutional Investors ("QFII") from issuers resident in China. China also imposes withholding tax at a rate of 10% on capital gains derived by nonresident enterprises from investments in an issuer resident in China. Effective November 17, 2014, Qualified Foreign institutional investors (QFIIs) and Renminbi Foreign institutional investors (RQFIIs), which includes these Funds, are exempted temporarily from capital gains tax for a period of three years.

The Finance Act, 2012 introduced a general anti-avoidance rule ("GAAR"), which is slated to be effective from April 1, 2017.

GAAR is applicable where the main purpose of an arrangement is tax avoidance and would empower Indian tax authorities to declare such arrangement as an impermissible avoidance arrangement. A special committee was constituted by the Indian Revenue authorities to provide clarity and guidance on the application and implementation of GAAR and have submitted proposed recommendations. Although the rules and guidelines have not yet been finalized, the Adviser expects the India Small-Cap Index ETF, investing through its Mauritius Subsidiary, will fall within the scope of the GAAR provision.

Additionally, on May 10, 2016, the Governments of India and Mauritius signed the Protocol for amending the tax treaty between India and Mauritius. The renegotiation of the Treaty clarifies the uncertainty surrounding GAAR and addresses the question whether a Mauritius subsidiary would continue to be deemed a tax resident of Mauritius or if the Indian tax authorities would declare the structure as an impermissible avoidance arrangement. As per the Protocol, India shall have the right to tax capital gains arising from disposition of shares acquired on or after April 1, 2017 in a company resident in India with shares acquired on or before March 31, 2017 being grandfathered as exempt from capital gains taxation. The Protocol could reduce the return to the Fund on its investments made after April 1, 2017 and the return received by Fund shareholders.

Note 6—Capital Share Transactions—As of June 30, 2016, there were an unlimited number of capital shares of beneficial interest authorized by the Trust with no par value. Shares are issued and redeemed by the Funds only in Creation Units, consisting of 50,000 shares, or multiples thereof. The consideration for the purchase or redemption of Creation Units of the Funds generally consists of the in-kind contribution or distribution of securities constituting the Funds' underlying index plus a small amount of cash. For the period ended June 30, 2016, the Funds had in-kind contributions and redemptions as follows:

The in-kind contributions and in-kind redemptions in this table represent the accumulation of each Fund's daily net shareholder transactions including rebalancing activity, while the Statements of Changes in Net Assets reflect shareholder transactions including any cash component of the transactions.

Note 7—Concentration of Risk—The investment objective of each Fund is to seek investment results that correspond generally to the price and yield performance, before fees and expenses, of its underlying index, as indicated in the name of each Fund. The Adviser uses a "passive" or index approach to achieve each Fund's investment objective by investing in a portfolio of securities that generally replicates the Funds' index. Each of the Funds (except Africa Index ETF, Brazil Small-Cap ETF, ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF and ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF) is classified as a non-diversified fund under the 1940 Act. Non-diversified funds generally hold securities of fewer issuers than diversified funds and may be more susceptible to the risks associated with these particular issuers, or to a single economic, political or regulatory occurrence affecting these issuers. The Funds may purchase securities on foreign exchanges. Securities of foreign issuers involve special risks and considerations not typically associated with investing in U.S. issuers. These risks include devaluation of currencies, currency controls, less reliable information about issuers, different securities transaction clearance and settlement practices, future adverse political and economic developments and local/regional conflicts. These risks are heightened for investments in emerging market countries. Moreover, securities of many foreign issuers and their markets may be less liquid and their prices more volatile than those of comparable U.S. issuers.

The United Kingdom recently decided to leave the European Union ("EU"), creating economic and political uncertainty in its wake. Significant uncertainty exists regarding the timing of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the EU and the effects such withdrawal will have on the Euro, European economies and the global markets. This may further impact, the value of the Euro and the British pound sterling, and has caused volatility and uncertainty in European and global markets.

As a result of recent events involving Ukraine and the Russian Federation, the United States and the European Union have imposed sanctions on certain Russian individuals and companies. These sanctions do not currently impact the Funds. Additional economic sanctions may be imposed or other actions may be taken that may adversely affect the value and liquidity of the Russian-related issuers' held by Russia ETF and Russia Small-Cap ETF.

Should the Chinese government impose restrictions on the ability of ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF and ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF to repatriate funds associated with direct investment in A-Shares, the Funds may be unable to satisfy distribution requirements applicable to regulated investment companies ("RICs") under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Funds may therefore be subject to Fund-level U.S. federal taxes.

At June 30, 2016, the Adviser owned approximately 5.1% of ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF and 87% of ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF.

Note 8—Trustee Deferred Compensation Plan—The Trust has a Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Plan") for Trustees under which the Trustees can elect to defer receipt of their trustee fees until retirement, disability or termination from the Board of Trustees. The fees otherwise payable to the participating Trustees are deemed invested in shares of the Funds as directed by the Trustees.

The expense for the Plan is included in "Trustees' fees and expenses" in the Statements of Operations. The liability for the Plan is shown as "Deferred Trustee fees" in the Statements of Assets and Liabilities.

Note 9—Securities Lending—To generate additional income, each of the Funds may lend its securities pursuant to a securities lending agreement with The Bank of New York Mellon, the securities lending agent and also the Funds' custodian. Each Fund may lend up to 33% of its investments requiring that the loan be continuously collateralized by cash, U.S. government or U.S. government agency securities, shares of an investment trust or mutual fund, or any combination of cash and such securities at all times equal to at least 102% (105% for foreign securities) of the market value plus accrued interest on the securities loaned. Daily market fluctuations could cause the value of loaned securities to be more or less than the value of the collateral received. When this occurs, the collateral is adjusted and settled on the next business day. During the term of the loan, the Funds will continue to receive any dividends, interest or amounts equivalent thereto, on the securities loaned while receiving a fee from the borrower and/or earning interest on the investment of the cash collateral. Such fees and interest are shared with the securities lending agent under the terms of the securities lending agreement. The Funds may pay reasonable finders', administrative and custodial fees in connection with a loan of its securities. Securities lending income is disclosed as such in the Statements of Operations. The collateral for securities loaned is recognized in the Schedules of Investments and the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The cash collateral is maintained on the Funds' behalf by the lending agent and is invested in repurchase agreements collateralized by obligations of the U.S. Treasury and/or Government Agencies. Loans are subject to termination at the option of the borrower or the Funds. Upon termination of the loan, the borrower will return to the lender securities identical to the securities loaned. The Funds bear the risk of delay in recovery of, or even loss of rights in, the securities loaned should the borrower of the securities fail financially. The value of loaned securities and related collateral outstanding at June 30, 2016 are presented on a gross basis in the Schedules of Investments and Statements of Assets and Liabilities.

Note 10—Share Split—On January 19, 2011, the Adviser announced the Board of Trustees approved a 3 for 1 share split of the Indonesia Index ETF. This split took place for shareholders of record as of the close of business on January 28, 2011 and was payable on January 31, 2011. Fund shares began trading on the split adjusted NAV on February 1, 2011. The Financial Highlights prior to February 1, 2011 for the Fund have been adjusted to reflect this reverse share split.

On July 1, 2013, the Board of Trustees of the Trust approved a 1 for 3 reverse share split for Russia Small-Cap ETF, and 1 for 4 reverse share splits for Egypt Index ETF and India Small-Cap Index ETF. Fund shares began trading on the split adjusted NAV on July 1, 2013. The Financial Highlights prior to July 1, 2013 for the Funds have been adjusted to reflect these reverse share splits.

Note 11—Bank Line of Credit—The Funds may participate in a $200 million committed credit facility (the "Facility") to be utilized for temporary financing until the settlement of sales or purchases of portfolio securities, the repurchase or redemption of shares of the Funds at the request of the shareholders and other temporary or emergency purposes. The Funds have agreed to pay commitment fees, pro rata, based on the unused but available balance. Interest is charged to the Funds at rates based on prevailing market rates in effect at the time of borrowings. During the period ended June 30, 2016, the following Funds borrowed under this Facility:

APPROVAL OF INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENTS

12/31 Equity Funds

At a meeting held on June 10, 2016 (the "Renewal Meeting"), the Board of Trustees (the "Board") of VanEck Vectors<sup>TM</sup> ETF Trust (the "Trust"), including all of the Trustees that are not interested persons of the Trust (the "Independent Trustees"), approved the continuation of (i) the investment management agreements between the Trust and Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") (the "Investment Management Agreements") with respect to the VanEck Vectors Africa Index ETF, Agribusiness ETF, Agriculture Producers ETF, Brazil Small-Cap ETF, China All-Cap ETF, China Consumer Discretionary ETF, China Consumer Staples ETF, China Energy ETF, China Financials ETF, China Health Care ETF, China Industrials ETF, China Information Technology ETF, China Materials ETF, China Small-Cap ETF, China Utilities ETF, ChinaAMC All China Consumer ETF, ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF, ChinaAMC Environmental Protection ETF, ChinaAMC Private-Owned Enterprises ETF, ChinaAMC MSCI All China ETF, ChinaAMC MSCI All China Small Cap ETF, ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF, Coal ETF, Egypt Index ETF, Emerging Europe ex-Russia Index ETF, Energy Producers ETF, GDP Weighted Emerging Markets ETF, GDP Weighted Emerging Markets Small-Cap ETF, GDP Weighted International ex-US ETF, Germany Mid-Cap ETF, Global Alternative Energy ETF, Global Frontier Index ETF, Gold Miners ETF, Gulf States Index ETF, Hard Assets Producers Extra Liquid ETF, India Small-Cap Index ETF, Indonesia Index ETF, Indonesia Small-Cap ETF, Internet ETF, Israel ETF, Junior Gold Miners ETF, Kuwait Index ETF, Metals ETF, MLP ETF, Mongolia ETF, Natural Resources ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat International Equity ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat US Equity ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat US Small Cap Equity ETF, Nigeria ETF, Nigeria-Focused West Africa ETF, Oil Refiners ETF, Oil Services ETF, Poland ETF, Rare Earth/Strategic Metals ETF, Russia ETF, Russia Small-Cap ETF, Saudi Arabia ETF, Saudi Arabia Small-Cap ETF, Software ETF, Solar Energy ETF, Steel ETF, Telecom ETF, Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF, Uranium+Nuclear Energy ETF and Vietnam ETF (each, a "Fund" and together, the "Funds") and (ii) a sub-advisory agreement between the Adviser and China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Limited (the "Sub-Adviser") (the "Sub-Advisory Agreement") with respect to VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF and ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF (the "China Funds"). The Investment Management Agreements and the Sub-Advisory Agreement are collectively referred to as the "Agreements."

The Board's approval of the Agreements was based on a comprehensive consideration of all of the information available to the Trustees and was not the result of any single factor. Some of the factors that figured particularly in the Trustees' deliberations and how the Trustees considered those factors are described below, although individual Trustees may have evaluated the information presented differently, giving different weights to various factors.

In preparation for the Renewal Meeting, the Trustees held a meeting on May 10, 2016. At that meeting, the Trustees discussed the information the Adviser, the Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds) and Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. ("Broadridge"), an independent third party data provider, had provided to them in advance. The information provided to the Trustees included, among other things, information about the performance (for those Funds which had begun operations) and expenses of the Funds and the Funds' peer funds (other index-based exchange-traded funds ("ETFs")), information about the advisory services provided to the Funds and the personnel providing those services, and the profitability and other benefits enjoyed by the Adviser and its affiliates as a result of the Adviser's relationship with the Funds. In reviewing performance information for the Funds against their peer groups, the Trustees considered that each Fund except for the VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF, Gold Miners ETF, Junior Gold Miners ETF and Russia ETF generally invests in a different group of issuers than the funds in its designated peer group. They also considered the fact that VanEck Vectors Oil Refiners ETF had only recently commenced operations and therefore had a limited operational history that could be used for comparative purposes, since the expense information prepared by Broadridge was based on estimated amounts for the Fund and the performance comparisons provided by Broadridge covered approximately a six month period (August 18, 2015 (the date operations commenced for the Fund) through February 29, 2016). In addition, as noted below, the Trustees reviewed certain performance information for each Fund that was not provided by Broadridge. For these and other reasons, the Trustees noted that the peer group performance information did not necessarily provide meaningful direct comparisons to the Funds.

The Independent Trustees' consideration of the Agreements was based, in part, on their review of information obtained through discussions with the Adviser at the Renewal Meeting and with the Adviser at the May 10, 2016 meeting regarding the management of the Funds and information obtained at other meetings of the Trustees and/or based on their review of the materials provided by the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds). The Trustees considered the terms of, and scope of services that the Adviser and Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds) provide under, the Agreements, including the Adviser's commitment to waive certain fees and/or pay expenses of each of the Funds to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of each of the Funds from exceeding agreed upon limits for a period of time. With respect to the Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Trustees took into account the unique legal and operational aspects of the China Funds and the Sub-Adviser's experience with respect to Renminbi Qualified Institutional Investors Scheme funds. The Trustees also noted that the Sub-Adviser is a wholly-owned subsidiary of China Asset Management Co. Ltd., China's largest asset management company measured by fund assets under management.

VANECK VECTORS ETF TRUST

The Trustees concluded that the Adviser, the Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds) and their personnel have the requisite expertise and skill to manage the Funds' portfolios. In evaluating the performance over relevant periods of each of the Funds that had commenced operations prior to the date of the Renewal Meeting (the "Operating Funds"), the Trustees reviewed various performance metrics but relied principally on a comparison of the "gross" performance of each Operating Fund (i.e., measured without regard to the impact of fees and expenses) to the performance of its benchmark index, in each case incorporating any fair value adjustments to the underlying securities. Based on the foregoing, the Trustees concluded that the investment performance of the Operating Funds was satisfactory.

The Trustees also considered information relating to the financial condition of the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds) and the current status, as they understood it, of the Adviser's and Sub-Adviser's (with respect to the China Funds) compliance environment.

As noted above, the Trustees were also provided various data from Broadridge comparing the Operating Funds' expenses and performance to that of other ETFs. The Trustees noted that the information provided showed that each Operating Fund had management fees (after the effect of any applicable fee waiver) below or equal to the average and median of its respective peer group of funds, except for each of VanEck Vectors Agribusiness ETF, Global Alternative Energy ETF and Vietnam ETF, which had management fees (after the effect of any applicable fee waiver) greater than the average, but at or below the median, of its peer group of funds. The Trustees also noted that the information provided showed that each Operating Fund had a total expense ratio (after the effect of any applicable expense limitation) below or equal to the average and median of its respective peer group of funds, except for each of VanEck Vectors Africa Index ETF, ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF, Egypt Index ETF, Global Alternative Energy ETF, Gulf States Index ETF, India Small-Cap Index ETF, Israel ETF, Russia Small-Cap ETF, Solar Energy ETF, Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF and Vietnam ETF, which had a total expense ratio (after the effect of any applicable expense limitation) greater than the average and/or median of its peer group of funds. With respect to these Operating Funds, the Trustees reviewed the amount by which these Operating Funds' total expense ratios (after the effect of any applicable expense limitation) exceeded the average and median of their respective peer groups and information provided by the Adviser providing context for these comparisons. The Trustees concluded, in light of this information and the other information available to them, that the fees paid by the Operating Funds were reasonable in light of the performance of the Operating Funds and the quality of services received.

The Trustees also considered the benefits, other than fees under the Investment Management Agreements, received by the Adviser from serving as adviser to the Funds.

The Trustees also considered information provided by the Adviser about the overall profitability of the Adviser and its profitability or loss in respect of each Operating Fund. The Trustees reviewed each Fund's asset size, expense ratio and expense cap and noted that the Investment Management Agreements do not include breakpoints in the advisory fee rates as asset levels in a Fund increase. The Trustees considered the volatility of the asset classes (e.g., precious metals and emerging markets) in which certain of the Operating Funds invest, potential variability in the net assets of these Funds and the sustainability of any potential economies of scale which may exist given where fees are currently set. The Trustees also evaluated the extent to which management fees for the Operating Funds effectively incorporate the benefits of economies of scale. The Trustees noted that the Adviser has capped expenses on each Operating Fund since its inception. Based on the foregoing and the other information available to them, the Trustees determined that the advisory fee rate for each Fund and the sub-advisory fee rates for the China Funds are reasonable and appropriate in relation to the current asset size of each Fund and the other factors discussed above and that the advisory fee rates for each fund currently reflects an appropriate sharing of any economies of scale which may exist with shareholders. The Trustees also determined that the profits earned by the Adviser with respect to the Funds that were profitable to the Adviser were reasonable in light of the nature and quality of the services received by such Funds. Due to the relatively small size of the China Funds during the period, the Sub-Adviser did not provide the Trustees with profitability information and, therefore, the Trustees did not consider such information.

The Trustees did not consider historical information about the cost of the services provided by the Adviser or the profitability to the Adviser of VanEck Vectors Agriculture Producers ETF, China All-Cap ETF, China Consumer Discretionary ETF, China Consumer Staples ETF, China Energy ETF, China Financials ETF, China Health Care ETF, China Industrials ETF, China Information Technology ETF, China Materials ETF, China Small-Cap ETF, China Utilities ETF, ChinaAMC All China Consumer ETF, ChinaAMC Environmental Protection ETF, ChinaAMC Private-Owned Enterprises ETF, ChinaAMC MSCI All China ETF, ChinaAMC MSCI All China Small Cap ETF, Emerging Europe ex-Russia Index ETF, Energy Producers ETF, GDP Weighted Emerging Markets ETF, GDP Weighted Emerging Markets Small-Cap ETF, GDP Weighted International ex-US ETF, Germany Mid-Cap ETF, Global Frontier Index ETF, Hard Assets Producers Extra Liquid ETF, Internet ETF, Kuwait Index ETF, Metals ETF, MLP ETF, Mongolia ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat International Equity ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat US Equity ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat US Small Cap Equity ETF, Nigeria ETF, Nigeria-Focused West Africa ETF, Saudi Arabia ETF, Saudi Arabia Small-Cap ETF, Software ETF and Telecom ETF to the Adviser because the Funds had not yet commenced operations at the time of the Renewal Meeting. The Trustees also could not consider the historical performance or the quality of services previously provided to each of these Funds although they concluded that the nature, quality and extent of the services to be provided by the Adviser (and the Sub-Adviser, with respect to those Funds in respect of which the Sub-Adviser had been retained) were appropriate based on the Trustees' knowledge of the Adviser and its personnel and the operations of the other series of the Trust.

The Independent Trustees were advised by and met in executive session with their independent counsel at the Renewal Meeting and at their May 10, 2016 meeting as part of their consideration of the Agreements.

In voting to approve the continuation of the Agreements, the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, concluded that the terms of each Agreement are reasonable and fair in light of the services to be performed, expenses to be incurred and such other matters as the Trustees considered relevant in the exercise of their reasonable judgment. The Trustees further concluded that each Agreement is in the best interest of each Fund and such Fund's shareholders.

Dear Shareholder:
In our last letter at the end of December 2015, we noted that we were in the 14th month of a commodities bear market and that commodity downturns had generally lasted 18 months. We also noted that if it was a normal cycle—and unless commodity prices fell much further—our analyses suggested a bottom occurring during the first half of 2016, more likely within the first quarter.
On the evidence of the markets over the first half of 2016, it appears that we were in a normal cycle and that a bottom did occur in the first quarter.
Two of our Hard Assets ETFs that have benefited substantially from the change in market conditions during the six-month period under review are our two gold miner funds. Both performed strongly during the first six months of 2016. VanEck Vectors Gold Miners ETF (NYSE Arca: GDX) was up 102.04% and VanEck Vectors Junior Gold Miners ETF (NYSE Arca: GDXJ) was up 121.75%, based on net asset value. The performance of each has been better even than that of the metal itself.

The recovery of oil prices during the past six months provided opportunities in both VanEck Vectors Oil Services
ETF (NYSE Arca: OIH), the largest and most liquid oil services ETF, and VanEck Vectors Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF (NYSE Arca: FRAK), the first and only ETF dedicated to the unconventional energy segment with a heavy concentration in exploration and production companies. During the six-month period, OIH was up 10.55% and FRAK was up 25.38%.

VanEck Vectors Natural Resources ETF (NYSE Arca: HAP) has benefited from improvements in commodities prices during the first six months of 2016, gaining 16.19% over the period. The fund tracks the most comprehensive global natural resources index providing diverse exposure to commodity-producing companies across all commodities sectors and along the entire supply chain.

All six sectors had positive returns over the six months ended June 30, 2016. The precious metals sector (the third smallest average weighting) posted the highest total return for the period. Second and third highest returns were posted by energy and base and industrial metals.

Ten of 13 VanEck Vectors Hard Assets ETFs posted positive total returns during the six-month period. The two gold ETFs, the VanEck Vectors Junior Gold Miners ETF (NYSE Arca: GDXJ) and the VanEck Vectors Gold Miners ETF (NYSE Arca: GDX), posted sizable returns of +121.75% and +102.04%, respectively, for the period under review. VanEck Vectors Solar Energy ETF (NYSE Arca: KWT) (-28.68%) was the worst performing Hard Assets ETF.

The result of the U.K. Brexit vote at the end of June, in which the country chose to exit the European Union (EU), came as a surprise to many. While the vote may have sent shock waves through the world's financial markets, for most of the VanEck Vectors Hard Assets ETFs these shock waves constituted only a temporary blip in performances. Many had recovered by month end and the six-month period under review.

Agribusiness

The agribusiness industry proved resilient in the first six months of the year. The primary drivers of positive performance for the six-month period were companies in the consumer staples sector and, in particular, those in the food products segment. Geographically, the greatest positive returns came from companies in the U.S., while the greatest negative returns came from those in China. The primary negative drivers were companies in the materials sector and the chemicals segment.

Coal

Having dropped from their most recent high in mid-August 2014 to their lowest in mid-January 2016, coal stocks staged a welcome comeback between mid-January and the end of the period on June 30, 2016. As with other raw materials, coal has benefitted not only from better supply and demand fundamentals, but also a weaker U.S. dollar. In particular, thermal coal, used in power stations, enjoyed a rebound. In addition, coal has been helped by both rising oil prices and stronger domestic coal prices in China. Canada was the single largest contributor to returns, followed by the U.S. The Philippines and Russia were the only two countries that detracted from the sector's performance.

Global Alternative Energy

Global alternative energy stocks as a whole performed disappointingly during the first half of 2016, with the Fund recording a negative return for the six-month period. While the utilities sector recorded positive performance, the strongest negative performance came from companies involved in semiconductors and semiconductor equipment. Companies in Spain, Italy, and Japan contributed positively to performance. They were, however, not able to counterbalance U.S. companies, with the largest average weighting in the sector, which detracted the most from performance.

Gold Miners

Both major gold miners and their junior peers had a spectacular six months. Performance in the final week of June was particularly strong, following the largely unexpected result of the Brexit vote that may result in the U.K. exiting the EU. Both funds benefitted from a 24.6% rise in the price of gold bullion for the period under review, and both junior miners and their larger peers outperformed the metal over the same period.

Among the major mining stocks, Canadian companies, with the largest average sector weighting, were also the strongest contributors to performance. Their performance far surpassed, both individually and together, the positive performance of companies in South Africa, the U.S., and Australia. The situation was similar among the juniors, with Canada the strongest contributor, followed by Australia, the U.S., and South Africa. China was the only country to detract from performance, but only minimally.

Oil Refiners

The six-month period was particularly tempestuous for the refining stocks in the Oil Refiners ETF, much of it related to the changes in the crude oil market. Refiners ceased to benefit from continuing low crude oil prices, and suffered subsequently from higher refinery feedstock prices. However, demand for gasoline remained strong,<sup>3</sup> with the U.S. Energy Information Administration predicting that U.S. domestic gasoline demand will grow 1.4% in 2016, after rising 2.7% in 2015.<sup>4</sup> While exposure to refiners in Finland, Portugal, and South Korea contributed most to performance, refiners out of the U.S., with the largest average weighting in the sector, detracted most from performance for the period.

Oil Services

Following an abysmal year in 2015, oil services stocks continued on a downward path through late-January 2016. They then embarked on a steady rise to the end of the six-month period. Oil services stocks benefitted from the rise in oil prices during the first half of the year. Although Halliburton (15.5% of Fund net assets) and Baker Hughes (5.0% of Fund net assets) may have aborted their $28 billion merger,<sup>5</sup> another significant deal is now pending—the merger of the French drilling giants FMC Technologies (4.4% of Fund net assets) and Technip (not owned by the Fund).<sup>6</sup> Drilling activity, however, continues to be muted. At the beginning of July, the total U.S. rig count stood at 431,<sup>7</sup> having in mid-May hit the lowest level ever recorded by Baker Hughes since it started tracking the number in 1949.<sup>8</sup> Oil service stocks in the U.S., the largest average weighting in the sector, contributed the most to performance. Companies in the U.K. and Switzerland detracted from performance.

Rare Earth and Strategic Metals

Having sunk to an all-time low in late January 2016, the VanEck Vectors Rare Earth/Strategic Metals ETF, rose slowly over the remainder of the six-month period. Companies operating in South Africa and Argentina,<sup>9</sup> involved specifically in the mining of manganese and chrome,<sup>10</sup> and lithium and boron respectively, were the greatest contributors to performance. The greatest detractors included companies involved in titanium and the rare earths. Small-cap companies performed considerably better than their large- and mid-cap peers during the period under review.

Natural Resources

Five sectors contributed positively to performance. Precious metals companies and energy companies, constituting the largest segment of the natural resources industry, provided the largest positive returns. Only one sector, paper and forest products, contributed negatively to performance during the period under review.

Solar Energy

Continuing weakened performance over the second half of 2015, and despite the unexpected further five year extension of the Solar Investment Tax Credit in December 2015, solar energy stocks remained on a downward trajectory during the first half of 2016. Within the sector, the greatest detractors from performance were companies in the U.S., followed by those in China. Only companies in Thailand and Spain contributed positively to performance.

Steel

In a welcome reversal to its fortunes over the last six months of 2015, the first half of 2016 was generally good for the steel industry, particularly in the U.S. While the global industry continued to suffer significant overcapacity, with China continuing to roll out steel with abandon, the U.S. Department of Commerce announced in March that both government subsidies and dumping were occurring. It levied significant tariffs; more than enough to lock Chinese steel out from the U.S. market. This led to the continuation of a strengthening U.S. steel environment. The U.S. had the largest average sector weighting during the period under review and was the greatest contributor to total return. Brazil was the second largest contributor to performance. Companies operating in the U.K. and Bahamas contributed the least to performance.

Unconventional Oil & Gas

In contrast to the preceding six-month period, during the first half of 2016, unconventional energy companies benefitted from more robust oil prices. Over the period, in addition to a tightening in supply, <sup>11</sup> demand also remained healthy. <sup>12</sup> Forest fires in Canada, pipeline outages in Nigeria, and reduced supplies from Libya all contributed to further balancing of the market. <sup>13</sup> By the time West Texas Intermediate (WTI) front month crude prices hit $37.04 at the end of December 2015, oil had fallen 30% over the previous 12-month period. When it finished the first half of 2016 on June 30, 2016, front month WTI at $48.33 was up 30.48% on the year. U.S. stocks (on average approximately 82% of the fund by weight during the period under review) contributed the most to performance.

Uranium and Nuclear Energy

Performance in the first half of 2016 was positive. Utility companies, with the largest average weighting over the period, produced all the sector's positive total return, with the energy and industrial sectors both detracting from performance. Geographically, companies in the U.S. contributed the most to performance, while Japan was the greatest detractor from performance.

In Japan, a number of reactors restarted during the first half of 2016. While Kansai Electric Power's (3.4% of Fund net assets) Takahama 3 plant resumed commercial operations at the end of January, its sister plant, Takahama 4, was restarted at the end of February. And, in just one week in the middle of June, three power companies (including Kansai) announced the proposed restarting of four further reactors. While the viability of energy production in the U.S. has remained in question for some time 16—in an event not seen since 1996—a new reactor came to life in Tennessee when the Watts Bar nuclear reactor went live in early June. According to the World Nuclear Association at the end of April, there were some 440 nuclear power reactors operating in 32 countries and 60 power reactors currently under construction in 14 countries, notably China, South Korea, United Arab Emirates, and Russia.

Index data prior to March 18, 2013 reflects that of the DAXglobal Agribusiness Index (DXAG). From March 18, 2013, forward, the index data reflects that of the MVIS Global Agribusiness Index (MVMOOTR). All Index history reflects a blend of the performance of the aforementioned Indexes.

Commencement date for the VanEck Vectors Agribusiness ETF was 8/31/07.

The price used to calculate market return (Share Price) is determined by using the closing price listed on NYSE Arca. Since the shares of the Fund did not trade in the secondary market until several days after the Fund's commencement, for the period from commencement (8/31/07) to the first day of secondary market trading in shares of the Fund (9/5/07), the NAV of the Fund is used as a proxy for the secondary market trading price to calculate market returns.

The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Performance information for the Fund reflects temporary waivers of expenses and/or fees. Had the Fund incurred all expenses, investment returns would have been reduced. These returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund dividends and distributions or the sale of Fund shares.

Investment return and value of the shares of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance may be lower or higher than performance data quoted. Performance current to the most recent month-end is available by calling 800.826.2333 or by visiting vaneck.com.

Gross Expense Ratio 0.56% / Net Expense Ratio 0.56%

Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") has agreed to waive fees and/or pay Fund expenses to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of the Fund (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses) from exceeding 0.56% of the Fund's average daily net assets per year until at least May 1, 2017. During such time, the expense limitation is expected to continue until the Fund's Board of Trustees acts to discontinue all or a portion of such expense limitation.

Fund shares are not individually redeemable and will be issued and redeemed at their NAV only through certain authorized broker-dealers in large, specified blocks of shares called "creation units" and otherwise can be bought and sold only through exchange trading. Creation units are issued and redeemed principally in cash. Shares may trade at a premium or discount to their NAV in the secondary market.

The "Net Asset Value" (NAV) of a VanEck Vectors exchange-traded fund (ETF) is determined at the close of each business day, and represents the dollar value of one share of the fund; it is calculated by taking the total assets of the fund, subtracting total liabilities, and dividing by the total number of shares outstanding. The NAV is not necessarily the same as the ETF's intraday trading value. VanEck Vectors ETF investors should not expect to buy or sell shares at NAV.

Index returns assume the reinvestment of all income and do not reflect any management fees or brokerage expenses associated with Fund returns. Investors cannot invest directly in the Index. Returns for actual Fund investors may differ from what is shown because of differences in timing, the amount invested and fees and expenses.

Commencement date for the VanEck Vectors Junior Gold Miners ETF was 11/10/09.

The price used to calculate market return (Share Price) is determined by using the closing price listed on NYSE Arca. Since the shares of the Fund did not trade in the secondary market until several days after the Fund's commencement, 1 for the period from commencement (11/10/09) to the first day of secondary market trading in shares of the Fund (11/11/09), the NAV of the Fund is used as a proxy for the secondary market trading price to calculate market returns.

The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Performance information for the Fund reflects temporary waivers of expenses and/or fees. Had the Fund incurred all expenses, investment returns would have been reduced. These returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund dividends and distributions or the sale of Fund shares.

Investment return and value of the shares of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance may be lower or higher than performance data quoted. Performance current to the most recent month-end is available by calling 800.826.2333 or by visiting vaneck.com.

Gross Expense Ratio 0.53% / Net Expense Ratio 0.53%

Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") has agreed to waive fees and/or pay Fund expenses to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of the Fund (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses) from exceeding 0.56% of the Fund's average daily net assets per year until at least May 1, 2017. During such time, the expense limitation is expected to continue until the Fund's Board of Trustees acts to discontinue all or a portion of such expense limitation.

Index returns assume the reinvestment of all income and do not reflect any management fees or brokerage expenses associated with Fund returns. Investors cannot invest directly in the Index. Returns for actual Fund investors may differ from what is shown because of differences in timing, the amount invested and fees and expenses.

Effective May 1, 2014, the name of the index that the Fund seeks to replicate changed from the Rogers<sup>TM</sup>-Van Eck Hard Assets Producers Index to the Rogers<sup>TM</sup>-Van Eck Natural Resources Index. The Index rulebook has not changed in connection with the Index name change.

Commencement date for the VanEck Vectors Natural Resources ETF was 8/29/08.

The price used to calculate market return (Share Price) is determined by using the closing price listed on NYSE Arca. Since the shares of the Fund did not trade in the secondary market until several days after the Fund's commencement, for the period from commencement (8/29/08) to the first day of secondary market trading in shares of the Fund (9/3/08), the NAV of the Fund is used as a proxy for the secondary market trading price to calculate market returns.

The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Performance information for the Fund reflects temporary waivers of expenses and/or fees. Had the Fund incurred all expenses, investment returns would have been reduced. These returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund dividends and distributions or the sale of Fund shares.

Investment return and value of the shares of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance may be lower or higher than performance data quoted. Performance current to the most recent month-end is available by calling 800.826.2333 or by visiting vaneck.com.

Gross Expense Ratio 0.72% / Net Expense Ratio 0.49%

Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") has agreed to waive fees and/or pay Fund expenses to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of the Fund (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses) from exceeding 0.49% of the Fund's average daily net assets per year until at least May 1, 2017. During such time, the expense limitation is expected to continue until the Fund's Board of Trustees acts to discontinue all or a portion of such expense limitation.

Fund shares are not individually redeemable and will be issued and redeemed at their NAV only through certain authorized broker-dealers in large, specified blocks of shares called "creation units" and otherwise can be bought and sold only through exchange trading. Creation units are issued and redeemed principally in cash. Shares may trade at a premium or discount to their NAV in the secondary market.

The "Net Asset Value" (NAV) of a VanEck Vectors exchange-traded fund (ETF) is determined at the close of each business day, and represents the dollar value of one share of the fund; it is calculated by taking the total assets of the fund, subtracting total liabilities, and dividing by the total number of shares outstanding. The NAV is not necessarily the same as the ETF's intraday trading value. VanEck Vectors ETF investors should not expect to buy or sell shares at NAV.

Index returns assume the reinvestment of all income and do not reflect any management fees or brokerage expenses associated with Fund returns. Investors cannot invest directly in the Index. Returns for actual Fund investors may differ from what is shown because of differences in timing, the amount invested and fees and expenses.

Commencement date for the Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF was 2/14/2012.

The price used to calculate market return (Share Price) is determined by using the closing price listed on NYSE Arca. Since the shares of the Fund did not trade in the secondary market until several days after the Fund's commencement, for the period from commencement (2/14/12) to the first day of secondary market trading in shares of the Fund (2/15/12), the NAV of the Fund is used as a proxy for the secondary market trading price to calculate market returns.

The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Performance information for the Fund reflects temporary waivers of expenses and/or fees. Had the Fund incurred all expenses, investment returns would have been reduced. These returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund dividends and distributions or the sale of Fund shares.

Investment return and value of the shares of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Performance may be lower or higher than performance data quoted. Performance current to the most recent month-end is available by calling 800.826.2333 or by visiting vaneck.com.

Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") has agreed to waive fees and/or pay Fund expenses to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of the Fund (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses) from exceeding 0.54% of the Fund's average daily net assets per year until at least May 1, 2017. During such time, the expense limitation is expected to continue until the Fund's Board of Trustees acts to discontinue all or a portion of such expense limitation.

Fund shares are not individually redeemable and will be issued and redeemed at their NAV only through certain authorized broker-dealers in large, specified blocks of shares called "creation units" and otherwise can be bought and sold only through exchange trading. Creation units are issued and redeemed principally in kind. Shares may trade at a premium or discount to their NAV in the secondary market.

The "Net Asset Value" (NAV) of a VanEck Vectors exchange-traded fund (ETF) is determined at the close of each business day, and represents the dollar value of one share of the fund; it is calculated by taking the total assets of the fund, subtracting total liabilities, and dividing by the total number of shares outstanding. The NAV is not necessarily the same as the ETF's intraday trading value. VanEck Vectors ETF investors should not expect to buy or sell shares at NAV.

Index returns assume the reinvestment of all income and do not reflect any management fees or brokerage expenses associated with Fund returns. Investors cannot invest directly in the Index. Returns for actual Fund investors may differ from what is shown because of differences in timing, the amount invested and fees and expenses.

MVIS<sup>TM</sup> Global Unconventional Oil & Gas Index (MVFRAKTR) is a rules-based, modified capitalization-weighted, <sup>2</sup>float-adjusted index intended to track the overall performance of companies involved in the exploration, development, extraction, production and/or refining of unconventional oil and natural gas.

Hypothetical $1,000 investment at beginning of period

As a shareholder of a Fund, you incur operating expenses, including management fees and other Fund expenses. This disclosure is intended to help you understand the ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in your Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The disclosure is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period, January 1, 2016 to June 30, 2016.

Actual Expenses

The first line in the table below provides information about account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During the Period."

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line in the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on your Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in your Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as program fees. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

During the period ended June 30, 2016, transfers of securities from Level 1 to Level 2 were $995,717. These transfers resulted primarily from changes in certain foreign securities valuation methodologies between the last close of the securities' primary market (Level 1) and valuation by a pricing service (Level 2), which takes into account market direction or events occurring before the Fund's pricing time but after the last local close, as described in the Notes to Financial Statements.

The following table reconciles the valuation of the Fund's Level 3 investment securities and related transactions during the period ended June 30, 2016:

Note 2—Significant Accounting Policies—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Funds are investment companies and are following accounting and reporting requirements of Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 946 Financial Services — Investment Companies.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Funds.

Security Valuation—The Funds value their investments in securities and other assets and liabilities carried at fair value daily. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Securities traded on national exchanges or traded on the NASDAQ National Market System are valued at the last sales price as reported at the close of each business day. Securities traded on the NASDAQ Stock Market are valued at the NASDAQ official closing price.

Over-the-counter securities not included in the NASDAQ National Market System and listed securities for which A. no sale was reported are valued at the mean of the bid and ask prices. To the extent these securities are actively traded they are categorized as Level 1 in the fair value hierarchy (described below). Certain foreign securities, whose values may be affected by market direction or events occurring before the Funds' pricing time (4:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time) but after the last close of the securities' primary market, are fair valued using a pricing service and are categorized as Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy. The pricing service, using methods approved by the Board of Trustees, considers the correlation of the trading patterns of the foreign security to intraday trading in the U.S.

markets, based on indices of domestic securities and other appropriate indicators such as prices of relevant ADR's and futures contracts. The Funds may also fair value securities in other situations, such as, when a particular foreign market is closed but the Fund is open. Short-term obligations with more than sixty days remaining to maturity are valued at market value. Short-term obligations with sixty days or less to maturity are valued at amortized cost, which with accrued interest approximates fair value. Money market fund investments are valued at net asset value and are considered to be Level 1 in the fair value hierarchy. Securities for which quotations are not available are stated at fair value as determined by the Pricing Committee of the Adviser. The Pricing Committee provides oversight of the Funds' valuation policies and procedures, which are approved by the Funds' Board of Trustees. Among other things, these procedures allow the Funds to utilize independent pricing services, quotations from securities dealers, and other market sources to determine fair value. The Pricing Committee convenes regularly to review the fair value of financial instruments for which market prices are not readily available. The Pricing Committee employs various methods for calibrating the valuation approaches utilized to determine fair value, including a regular review of key inputs and assumptions, transactional back-testing and disposition analysis.

Certain factors such as economic conditions, political events, market trends, the nature of and duration of any restrictions on disposition, trading in similar securities of the issuer or comparable issuers and other security specific information are used to determine the fair value of these securities. Depending on the relative significance of valuation inputs, these securities may be classified either as Level 2 or Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy. The price which the Funds may realize upon sale of an investment may differ materially from the value presented in the Schedules of Investments.

The Funds utilize various methods to measure the fair value of their investments on a recurring basis which includes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods used to measure fair value. The fair value hierarchy gives highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The inputs or methodologies used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy assume the financial instruments were transferred at the beginning of the reporting period. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2  $\frac{\text{Significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.).$

Level 3  $\frac{\text{Significant unobservable inputs (including each Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).}$

A summary of the inputs, the levels used to value the Funds' investments, and transfers between levels are located in the Schedules of Investments. Additionally, tables that reconcile the valuation of the Funds' Level 3 investments and that present additional information about valuation methodologies and unobservable inputs, if applicable, are located in the Schedules of Investments.

Federal Income Taxes—It is each Fund's policy to comply with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code B. applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders—Dividends to shareholders from net investment income and distributions from net realized capital gains, if any, are declared and paid annually by each Fund. Income dividends and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with U.S. income tax regulations, which may differ from such amounts determined in accordance with GAAP.

Currency Translation—Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies and commitments under foreign currency contracts are translated into U.S. dollars at the closing prices of such currencies each business

D. day.Purchases and sales of investments are translated at the exchange rates prevailing when such investments are acquired or sold. Foreign denominated income and expenses are translated at the exchange rates prevailing when accrued. The portion of realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments that result from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates is not separately disclosed in the financial statements. Recognized gains or losses 74 attributable to foreign currency fluctuations on foreign currency denominated assets, other than investments, and liabilities are recorded as net realized gain (loss) on foreign currency transactions and foreign denominated assets and liabilities in the Statements of Operations.

Restricted Securities—The Funds may invest in securities that are subject to legal or contractual restrictions on resale. These securities generally may be resold in transactions exempt from registration or to the public if the E. securities are registered. Disposal of these securities may involve time-consuming negotiations and expense, and prompt sale at an acceptable price may be difficult. Information regarding restricted securities, if any, is included at the end of each Fund's Schedule of Investments.

Repurchase Agreements—The Funds may enter into repurchase agreements with financial institutions, deemed to be creditworthy by the Adviser, to generate income from their excess cash balances and to invest securities lending cash collateral. A repurchase agreement is an agreement under which a Fund acquires securities from a seller, subject to resale to the seller at an agreed upon price and date. A Fund, through its custodian/securities lending agent, takes possession of securities collateralizing the repurchase agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the repurchase agreement, such securities must have an aggregate market value greater than or equal to the terms of the repurchase price plus accrued interest at all times. If the value of the underlying securities falls below the value of the repurchase price plus accrued interest, the Funds will require the seller to deposit additional collateral by the next business day. If the request for additional collateral is not met, or the seller defaults on its repurchase obligation, the Funds maintain their right to sell the underlying securities at market value and may claim any resulting loss against the seller. Repurchase agreements held as of June 30, 2016 are reflected in the Schedules of Investments.

Use of Derivative Instruments—The Funds may invest in derivative instruments, including, but not limited to, options, futures, swaps and other derivatives relating to foreign currency transactions. A derivative is an instrument whose value is derived from underlying assets, indices, reference rates or a combination of these factors. Derivative instruments may be privately negotiated contracts (often referred to as over-the-counter ("OTC") derivatives) or they may be listed and traded on an exchange. Derivative contracts may involve future commitments to purchase or sell financial instruments at specified terms on a specified date, or to exchange interest payment streams or currencies

- G. based on a notional or contractual amount. Derivative instruments may involve a high degree of financial risk. The use of derivative instruments also involves the risk of loss if the Adviser is incorrect in its expectation of the timing or level of fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates or currency prices. Investments in derivative instruments also include the risk of default by the counterparty, the risk that the investment may not be liquid and the risk that a small movement in the price of the underlying security or benchmark may result in a disproportionately large movement, unfavorable or favorable, in the price of the derivative instruments. The Funds held no derivative instruments during the period ended June 30, 2016.
- H.Offsetting Assets and Liabilities—In the ordinary course of business, the Funds enter into transactions subject to enforceable master netting agreements or other similar agreements. Generally, the right of setoff in those agreements allows the Funds to set off any exposure to a specific counterparty with any collateral received or delivered to that counterparty based on the terms of the agreements. The Funds may pledge or receive cash and/or securities as collateral for derivative instruments, securities lending and repurchase agreements. For financial reporting purposes, the Funds present securities lending and repurchase agreement assets and liabilities on a gross basis in the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. Collateral held at June 30, 2016 is presented in the Schedules of Investments. Refer to related disclosures in Note 2F (Repurchase Agreements) and Note 9 (Securities Lending).

Other—Security transactions are accounted for on trade date. Transactions in certain securities may take longer than the customary settlement cycle to be completed. The counterparty is required to collateralize such trades with cash in excess of the market value of the transaction, which is held at the custodian and marked to market daily. Realized gains and losses are calculated on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date except that certain dividends from foreign securities are recognized upon notification of the ex-dividend date/rate. Interest income, including amortization of premiums and discounts, is accrued as earned.

In the normal course of business, the Funds enter into contracts that contain a variety of general indemnifications. The Funds' maximum exposure under these agreements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Funds that have not yet occurred. However, the Adviser believes the risk of loss under these arrangements to be remote.

Note 3—Investment Management and Other Agreements—The Adviser is the investment adviser to the Funds. The Adviser receives a management fee, calculated daily and payable monthly based on an annual rate of 0.50% of each Fund's average daily net assets (except for Oil Services ETF). The management fee rate for Oil Services ETF is 0.35%. The Adviser has agreed, at least until May 1, 2017, to voluntarily waive or limit its fees and to assume as its own expense certain expenses otherwise payable by the Funds so that each Fund's total annual operating expenses does not exceed the expense limitation (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes and extraordinary expenses) listed in the table below.

The current expense limitations and the amounts waived/assumed by the Adviser for the period ended June 30, 2016, are as follows:

During the year ended December 31, 2015, the following funds had a portion of its accumulated capital loss carryforwards expired: $28,875 from Agribusiness ETF; $67,613 from Global Alternative Energy ETF and $500,169 from Uranium+Nuclear Energy ETF.

The Funds recognize the tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only where the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained assuming examination by applicable tax authorities. Management has analyzed the Funds' tax positions, and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken on return filings for all open tax years. The Funds do not have exposure for additional years that might still be open in certain foreign jurisdictions. Therefore, no provision for income tax is required in the Funds' financial statements. However, the Funds are subject to foreign taxes on the appreciation in value of certain investments. The Funds provide for such taxes on both realized and unrealized appreciation.

The Funds recognize interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense in the Statements of Operations. During the period ended June 30, 2016, the Funds did not incur any interest or penalties.

Note 6—Capital Share Transactions—As of June 30, 2016, there were an unlimited number of capital shares of beneficial interest authorized by the Trust with no par value. Shares are issued and redeemed by the Funds only in Creation Units, consisting of 50,000 shares, or multiples thereof. The consideration for the purchase or redemption of Creation Units of the Funds generally consists of the in-kind contribution or distribution of securities constituting the Funds' underlying index plus a small amount of cash. For the period ended June 30, 2016 the Trust had in-kind contributions and redemptions as follows:

Fund	In-Kind Contributions	In-Kind Redemptions

The in-kind contributions and in-kind redemptions in this table represent the accumulation of each Fund's daily net shareholder transactions including rebalancing activity, while the Statements of Changes in Net Assets reflect gross shareholder transactions including any cash component of the transactions.

Note 7—Concentration of Risk—The investment objective of each Fund is to seek investment results that correspond generally to the price and yield performance, before fees and expenses, of its underlying index, as indicated in the name of each Fund. The Adviser uses a "passive" or index approach to achieve each Fund's investment objective by investing in a portfolio of securities that generally replicates the Funds' index. Each of the Funds (except for Natural Resources ETF) is classified as a non-diversified fund under the 1940 Act. Non-diversified funds generally hold securities of fewer issuers than diversified funds and may be more susceptible to the risks associated with these particular issuers, or to a single economic, political or regulatory occurrence affecting these issuers. The Funds may purchase securities on foreign exchanges. Securities of foreign issuers involve special risks and considerations not typically associated with investing in U.S. issuers. These risks include devaluation of currencies, currency controls, less reliable information about issuers, different securities transaction clearance and settlement practices, future adverse political and economic developments and local/regional conflicts. These risks are heightened for investments in emerging market countries. Moreover, securities of many foreign issuers and their markets may be less liquid and their prices more volatile than those of comparable U.S. issuers.

The United Kingdom recently decided to leave the European Union ("EU"), creating economic and political uncertainty in its wake. Significant uncertainty exists regarding the timing of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the EU and the effects such withdrawal will have on the Euro, European economies and the global markets. This may further impact, the value of the Euro and the British pound sterling, and has caused volatility and uncertainty in European and global markets.

As a result of recent events involving Ukraine and the Russian Federation, the United States and the European Union have imposed sanctions on certain Russian individuals and companies. These sanctions do not currently impact the Funds. Additional economic sanctions may be imposed or other actions may be taken that may adversely affect the value and liquidity of the Russian-related issuers held by the Funds.

At June 30, 2016, the Adviser owned 2,500 shares of Gold Miners ETF.

Note 8—Trustee Deferred Compensation Plan—The Trust has a Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Plan") for Trustees under which the Trustees can elect to defer receipt of their trustee fees until retirement, disability or termination from the Board of Trustees. The fees otherwise payable to the participating Trustees are deemed invested in shares of the Funds as directed by the Trustees.

The expense for the Plan is included in "Trustees' fees and expenses" in the Statements of Operations. The liability for the Plan is shown as "Deferred Trustee fees" in the Statements of Assets and Liabilities.

Note 9—Securities Lending—To generate additional income, each of the Funds may lend its securities pursuant to a securities lending agreement with The Bank of New York Mellon, the securities lending agent and also the Funds' custodian. Each Fund may lend up to 33% of its investments requiring that the loan be continuously collateralized by cash, U.S. government or U.S. government agency securities, shares of an investment trust or mutual fund, or any combination of cash and such securities at all times equal to at least 102% (105% for foreign securities) of the market value plus accrued interest on the securities loaned. Daily market fluctuations could cause the value of loaned securities to be more or less than the value of the collateral received. When this occurs, the collateral is adjusted and settled on the next business day. During the term of the loan, the Funds will continue to receive any dividends, interest or amounts equivalent thereto, on the securities loaned while receiving a fee from the borrower and/or earning interest on the investment of the cash collateral. Such fees and interest are shared with the securities lending agent under the terms of the securities lending agreement. The Funds may pay reasonable finders', administrative and custodial fees in connection with a loan of its securities. Securities lending income is disclosed as such in the Statements of Operations. The collateral for securities loaned is recognized in the Schedules of Investments and the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The cash collateral is maintained on the Funds' behalf by the lending agent and is invested in repurchase agreements collateralized by obligations of the U.S. Treasury and/or Government Agencies, Loans are subject to termination at the option of the borrower or the Funds. Upon termination of the loan, the borrower will return to the lender securities identical to the securities loaned. The Funds bear the risk of delay in recovery of, or even loss of rights in, the securities loaned should the borrower of the securities fail financially. The value of loaned securities and related

Note 12—Custodian Fees—The Funds have entered into an expense offset agreement with the custodian wherein they receive a credit toward the reduction of custodian fees whenever there are uninvested cash balances. The Funds could have invested their cash balances elsewhere if they had not agreed to a reduction in fees under the expense offset agreement with the custodian. For the period ended June 30, 2016, there were no offsets to custodian fees.

Note 13—Subsequent Event Review—The Funds have evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through the date the financial statements were issued.

VANECK VECTORS ETF TRUST

APPROVAL OF INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENTS

June 30, 2016 (unaudited)

12/31 Equity Funds

At a meeting held on June 10, 2016 (the "Renewal Meeting"), the Board of Trustees (the "Board") of VanEck Vectors<sup>TM</sup> ETF Trust (the "Trust"), including all of the Trustees that are not interested persons of the Trust (the "Independent Trustees"), approved the continuation of (i) the investment management agreements between the Trust and Van Eck Associates Corporation (the "Adviser") (the "Investment Management Agreements") with respect to the VanEck Vectors Africa Index ETF, Agribusiness ETF, Agriculture Producers ETF, Brazil Small-Cap ETF, China All-Cap ETF, China Consumer Discretionary ETF, China Consumer Staples ETF, China Energy ETF, China Financials ETF, China Health Care ETF, China Industrials ETF, China Information Technology ETF, China Materials ETF, China Small-Cap ETF, China Utilities ETF, ChinaAMC All China Consumer ETF, ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF, ChinaAMC Environmental Protection ETF, ChinaAMC Private-Owned Enterprises ETF, ChinaAMC MSCI All China ETF, ChinaAMC MSCI All China Small Cap ETF, ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF, Coal ETF, Egypt Index ETF, Emerging Europe ex-Russia Index ETF, Energy Producers ETF, GDP Weighted Emerging Markets ETF, GDP Weighted Emerging Markets Small-Cap ETF, GDP Weighted International ex-US ETF, Germany Mid-Cap ETF, Global Alternative Energy ETF, Global Frontier Index ETF, Gold Miners ETF, Gulf States Index ETF, Hard Assets Producers Extra Liquid ETF, India Small-Cap Index ETF, Indonesia Index ETF, Indonesia Small-Cap ETF, Internet ETF, Israel ETF, Junior Gold Miners ETF, Kuwait Index ETF, Metals ETF, MLP ETF, Mongolia ETF, Natural Resources ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat International Equity ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat US Equity ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat US Small Cap Equity ETF, Nigeria ETF, Nigeria-Focused West Africa ETF, Oil Refiners ETF, Oil Services ETF, Poland ETF, Rare Earth/Strategic Metals ETF, Russia Small-Cap ETF, Saudi Arabia ETF, Saudi Arabia Small-Cap ETF, Software ETF, Solar Energy ETF, Steel ETF, Telecom ETF, Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF, Uranium+Nuclear Energy ETF and Vietnam ETF (each, a "Fund" and together, the "Funds") and (ii) a sub-advisory agreement between the Adviser and China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Limited (the "Sub-Adviser") (the "Sub-Advisory Agreement") with respect to VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF and ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF (the "China Funds"). The Investment Management Agreements and the Sub-Advisory Agreement are collectively referred to as the "Agreements."

The Board's approval of the Agreements was based on a comprehensive consideration of all of the information available to the Trustees and was not the result of any single factor. Some of the factors that figured particularly in the Trustees' deliberations and how the Trustees considered those factors are described below, although individual Trustees may have evaluated the information presented differently, giving different weights to various factors.

In preparation for the Renewal Meeting, the Trustees held a meeting on May 10, 2016. At that meeting, the Trustees discussed the information the Adviser, the Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds) and Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. ("Broadridge"), an independent third party data provider, had provided to them in advance. The information provided to the Trustees included, among other things, information about the performance (for those Funds which had begun operations) and expenses of the Funds and the Funds' peer funds (other index-based exchange-traded funds ("ETFs")), information about the advisory services provided to the Funds and the personnel providing those services, and the profitability and other benefits enjoyed by the Adviser and its affiliates as a result of the Adviser's relationship with the Funds. In reviewing performance information for the Funds against their peer groups, the Trustees considered that each Fund except for the VanEck Vectors ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF, Gold Miners ETF, Junior Gold Miners ETF and Russia ETF generally invests in a different group of issuers than the funds in its designated peer group. They also considered the fact that VanEck Vectors Oil Refiners ETF had only recently commenced operations and therefore had a limited operational history that could be used for comparative purposes, since the expense information prepared by Broadridge was based on estimated amounts for the Fund and the performance comparisons provided by Broadridge covered approximately a six month period (August 18, 2015 (the date operations commenced for the Fund) through February 29, 2016). In addition, as noted below, the Trustees reviewed certain performance information for each Fund that was not provided by Broadridge. For these and other reasons, the Trustees noted that the peer group performance information did not necessarily provide meaningful direct comparisons to the Funds.

The Independent Trustees' consideration of the Agreements was based, in part, on their review of information obtained through discussions with the Adviser at the Renewal Meeting and with the Adviser at the May 10, 2016 meeting regarding the management of the Funds and information obtained at other meetings of the Trustees and/or based on their review of the materials provided by the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds). The Trustees considered the terms of, and scope of services that the Adviser and Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds) provide under, the Agreements, including the Adviser's commitment to waive certain fees and/or pay expenses of each of the Funds to the extent necessary to prevent the operating expenses of each of the Funds from exceeding agreed upon limits for a period of time. With respect to the Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Trustees took into account the unique legal and operational aspects of the China Funds and the Sub-Adviser's experience with respect to Renminbi Qualified Institutional Investors Scheme funds. The Trustees also noted that the Sub-Adviser is a wholly-owned subsidiary of China Asset Management Co. Ltd., China's largest asset management company measured by fund assets under management.

The Trustees concluded that the Adviser, the Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds) and their personnel have the requisite expertise and skill to manage the Funds' portfolios. In evaluating the performance over relevant periods of each of the Funds that had commenced operations prior to the date of the Renewal Meeting (the "Operating Funds"), the Trustees reviewed various performance metrics but relied principally on a comparison of the "gross" performance of each Operating Fund (i.e., measured without regard to the impact of fees and expenses) to the performance of its benchmark index, in each case incorporating any fair value adjustments to the underlying securities. Based on the foregoing, the Trustees concluded that the investment performance of the Operating Funds was satisfactory.

The Trustees also considered information relating to the financial condition of the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser (with respect to the China Funds) and the current status, as they understood it, of the Adviser's and Sub-Adviser's (with respect to the China Funds) compliance environment.

As noted above, the Trustees were also provided various data from Broadridge comparing the Operating Funds' expenses and performance to that of other ETFs. The Trustees noted that the information provided showed that each Operating Fund had management fees (after the effect of any applicable fee waiver) below or equal to the average and median of its respective peer group of funds, except for each of VanEck Vectors Agribusiness ETF, Global Alternative Energy ETF and Vietnam ETF, which had management fees (after the effect of any applicable fee waiver) greater than the average, but at or below the median, of its peer group of funds. The Trustees also noted that the information provided showed that each Operating Fund had a total expense ratio (after the effect of any applicable expense limitation) below or equal to the average and median of its respective peer group of funds, except for each of VanEck Vectors Africa Index ETF, ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF, Egypt Index ETF, Global Alternative Energy ETF, Gulf States Index ETF, India Small-Cap Index ETF, Israel ETF, Russia Small-Cap ETF, Solar Energy ETF, Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF and Vietnam ETF, which had a total expense ratio (after the effect of any applicable expense limitation) greater than the average and/or median of its peer group of funds. With respect to these Operating Funds, the Trustees reviewed the amount by which these Operating Funds' total expense ratios (after the effect of any applicable expense limitation) exceeded the average and median of their respective peer groups and information provided by the Adviser providing context for these comparisons. The Trustees concluded, in light of this information and the other information available to them, that the fees paid by the Operating Funds were reasonable in light of the performance of the Operating Funds and the quality of services received.

The Trustees also considered the benefits, other than fees under the Investment Management Agreements, received by the Adviser from serving as adviser to the Funds.

The Trustees also considered information provided by the Adviser about the overall profitability of the Adviser and its profitability or loss in respect of each Operating Fund. The Trustees reviewed each Fund's asset size, expense ratio and expense cap and noted that the Investment Management Agreements do not include breakpoints in the advisory fee rates as asset levels in a Fund increase. The Trustees considered the volatility of the asset classes (e.g., precious metals and emerging markets) in which certain of the Operating Funds invest, potential variability in the net assets of these Funds and the sustainability of any potential economies of scale which may exist given where fees are currently set. The Trustees also evaluated the extent to which management fees for the Operating Funds effectively incorporate the benefits of economies of scale. The Trustees noted that the Adviser has capped expenses on each Operating Fund since its inception. Based on the foregoing and the other information available to them, the Trustees determined that the advisory fee rate for each Fund and the sub-advisory fee rates for the China Funds are reasonable and appropriate in relation to the current asset size of each Fund and the other factors discussed above and that the advisory fee rates for each fund currently reflects an appropriate sharing of any economies of scale which may exist with shareholders. The Trustees also determined that the profits earned by the Adviser with respect to the Funds that were profitable to the Adviser were reasonable in light of the nature and quality of the services received by such Funds. Due to the relatively small size of the China Funds during the period, the Sub-Adviser did not provide the Trustees with profitability information and, therefore, the Trustees did not consider such information.

The Trustees did not consider historical information about the cost of the services provided by the Adviser or the profitability to the Adviser of VanEck Vectors Agriculture Producers ETF, China All-Cap ETF, China Consumer Discretionary ETF, China Consumer Staples ETF, China Energy ETF, China Financials ETF, China Health Care ETF, China Industrials ETF, China Information Technology ETF, China Materials ETF, China Small-Cap ETF, China Utilities ETF, ChinaAMC All China Consumer ETF, ChinaAMC Environmental Protection ETF, ChinaAMC Private-Owned Enterprises ETF, ChinaAMC MSCI All China ETF, ChinaAMC MSCI All China Small Cap ETF, Emerging Europe ex-Russia Index ETF, Energy Producers ETF, GDP Weighted Emerging Markets ETF, GDP Weighted Emerging Markets Small-Cap ETF, GDP Weighted International ex-US ETF, Germany Mid-Cap ETF, Global Frontier Index ETF, Hard Assets Producers Extra Liquid ETF, Internet ETF, Kuwait Index ETF, Metals ETF, MLP ETF, Mongolia ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat International Equity ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat US Equity ETF, Ned Davis Long/Flat US Small Cap Equity ETF, Nigeria ETF, Nigeria-Focused West Africa ETF, Saudi Arabia ETF, Saudi Arabia Small-Cap ETF, Software ETF and Telecom ETF to the Adviser because the Funds had not yet commenced operations at the time of the Renewal Meeting. The Trustees also could not consider the historical performance or the quality of services previously provided to each of these Funds although they concluded that the nature, quality and extent of the services to be provided by the Adviser (and the Sub-Adviser, with respect to those Funds in respect of which the Sub-Adviser had been retained) were appropriate based on the Trustees' knowledge of the Adviser and its personnel and the operations of the other series of the Trust.

The Independent Trustees were advised by and met in executive session with their independent counsel at the Renewal Meeting and at their May 10, 2016 meeting as part of their consideration of the Agreements.

In voting to approve the continuation of the Agreements, the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, concluded that the terms of each Agreement are reasonable and fair in light of the services to be performed, expenses to be incurred and such other matters as the Trustees considered relevant in the exercise of their reasonable judgment. The Trustees further concluded that each Agreement is in the best interest of each Fund and such Fund's shareholders.

DPUT and LFCM

At a meeting held on June 10, 2016 (the "Renewal Meeting"), the Board of Trustees (the "Board") of VanEck Vectors<sup>TM</sup> ETF Trust (the "Trust"), including all of the Trustees that are not interested persons of the Trust (the "Independent Trustees"), approved the continuation of the investment management agreement between the Trust and Van Eck Absolute Return Advisers Corporation (the "Adviser") (the "Investment Management Agreement") with respect to the VanEck Vectors Dynamic Put Write ETF and Long/Flat Commodity ETF (each, a "Fund" and together, the "Funds").

The Board's approval of the Investment Management Agreement was based on a comprehensive consideration of all of the information available to the Trustees and was not the result of any single factor. Some of the factors that figured particularly in the Trustees' deliberations and how the Trustees considered those factors are described below, although individual Trustees may have evaluated the information presented differently, giving different weights to various factors.

In preparation for the Renewal Meeting, the Trustees held a meeting on May 10, 2016. At that meeting, the Trustees received materials from the Adviser, including expense information for other funds. The Independent Trustees' consideration of the Investment Management Agreement was based, in part, on information obtained through discussions with the Adviser and its affiliates at the Renewal Meeting and the May 10, 2016 meeting regarding the management of the Funds and information obtained at other meetings of the Trustees and/or based on their review of the materials provided by the Adviser and its affiliates, including the background and experience of the portfolio managers and others proposed to be involved in the management and administration of the Funds. In evaluating the terms of the Investment Management Agreement at each Meeting, the Trustees considered the terms and scope of services that the Adviser would provide under the Investment Management Agreement, including the Adviser's agreement to pay all of the direct expenses of the Funds (excluding interest expense, offering costs, trading expenses, taxes, accrued deferred tax liability and extraordinary expenses). The Trustees concluded that the Adviser and its personnel have the requisite expertise and skill to manage the Funds' portfolios.

The Trustees did not consider historical information about the cost of the services provided by the Adviser or the profitability of each of the Funds to the Adviser because the Funds had not yet commenced operations. The Trustees could not consider the historical performance or the quality of services previously provided to each of the Funds by the Adviser, although they concluded that the nature, quality, and extent of the services to be provided by the Adviser were appropriate based on the Trustees' knowledge of the Adviser and its personnel and the operations of the other series of the Trust.

The Independent Trustees were advised by and met in executive session with their independent counsel at the Renewal Meeting and at their May 10, 2016 meeting as part of their consideration of the Investment Management Agreement.

In voting to approve the continuation of the Investment Management Agreement, the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, concluded that the terms of the Investment Management Agreement are reasonable and fair in light of the services to be performed, the fees paid by certain other funds, expenses to be incurred and such other matters as the Trustees considered relevant in the exercise of their reasonable judgment. The Trustees further concluded that the Investment Management Agreement is in the best interest of each Fund and such Fund's shareholders.
