Except as provided below, any offer to purchase or sell securities described herein is not being made, directly or indirectly, in or into, or by the use of the mails of, or by any means or instrumentality (including, without limitation by mail, telephonically or electronically by way of internet or otherwise) of interstate or foreign commerce, or any facility of any securities exchange, of the United States of America and any such offer will not be capable of acceptance by any such use, means, instrumentality or facility.

The information contained herein does not constitute an offer of securities for sale in the United States or offer to acquire securities in the United States.

The Olivetti securities referred to herein have not been, and are not intended to be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act) and may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, into the United States except pursuant to an applicable exemption. The Olivetti ordinary shares and Olivetti savings shares are intended to be made available within the United States in connection with the merger pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The merger referred to herein relates to the securities of two foreign companies. The merger in which Telecom Italia ordinary shares will be converted into Olivetti ordinary shares is subject to disclosure and procedural requirements of a foreign country that are different from those of the United States. Financial statements included in the document, if any, will be prepared in accordance with foreign accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements of United States companies.

It may be difficult for you to enforce your rights and any claim you may have arising under the federal securities laws, since Olivetti and Telecom Italia are located in Italy, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of Italy or other foreign countries. You may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court s judgment.

You should be aware that Olivetti may purchase securities of Telecom Italia otherwise than under the merger offer, such as in open market or privately negotiated purchases.

The documentation regarding the other items on the agenda will be made available within the time limits established by current legislation.

The documentation for the shareholders' meeting will also be posted on the Internet at <http://www.telecomitalia.it>

SLATE VOTE

In relation to item 5 of the agenda, shareholders are reminded that, pursuant to Article 17 of the Company's bylaws, the Board of Statutory Auditors will be appointed by slate vote. The slates of candidates can be presented by shareholders who, individually or together with others, hold at least 1% of the voting share capital. The slates must be deposited at the Company's Registered Office (2 Piazza degli Affari, Milan) and published in at least three nationally distributed Italian dailies (of which at least two must be financial newspapers) at least ten days before the date of the Meeting on first call. In order to prove ownership of the number of shares necessary to present slates, shareholders submit and/or deliver to the above-mentioned Registered Office, at least five days before the date of the Meeting on first call, a copy of the documentation attesting their right to participate in the Meeting. Together with each slate, it is also necessary for the following documents to be deposited, within the time limits specified above: the declarations whereby the individual candidates accept their candidacy and attest, on their own responsibility, that there are no causes of ineligibility or incompatibility and that they satisfy the requirements for the position. Each shareholder may present or participate in the presentation of only one slate and each candidate may be entered in only one slate on pain of ineligibility. Each person entitled to vote may vote only one slate.

Shareholders who intend to present a slate are recommended to provide a curriculum vitae for each candidate setting out their main personal and professional data.

VOTE BY MAIL

Shareholders are reminded that, as stated in Article 21 of the Company's bylaws, the right to vote can also be exercised by mail in accordance with existing laws.

The documentation for voting by mail will be available from May 8, 2003 at the Company's Registered Office and Headquarters and can also be requested through authorized depository agents. The envelope containing the ballot, the certification of the right to vote and the relevant documentation proving that the person signing the ballot has the right to do so should be sent to the following address:

TELECOM ITALIA S.p.A.

Corporate Affairs

Piazza degli Affari n. 2

20123 MILAN - ITALY

not later than forty-eight hours before the Meeting.

Shareholders are reminded that voting by mail is incompatible with giving proxies and must be exercised directly by the holder of the right to vote.

As usual, the owners of ADRs listed on the New York Stock Exchange and representing ordinary shares of Telecom Italia, must contact JP Morgan Chase Bank (previously Morgan Guaranty Trust Company), 1 Chase Manhattan Plaza N.Y. 10081, issuer of said ADRs.

On behalf of THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

THE CHAIRMAN

(Marco TRONCHETTI PROVERA)

Shareholders are invited to arrive before the scheduled start of the Meeting in order to facilitate registration formalities. Registration of participants will begin at 09.00 a.m.
