ABN AMRO HOLDING N.V.

(a public limited liability company (naamloze vennootschap) incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands, having its registered office at Amsterdam, The Netherlands)

This offer memorandum (the Offer Memorandum) contains the information required by article 9(i) and 9(n) of the Dutch Securities Market Supervision Decree 1995 (Besluit toezicht effectenverkeer 1995, the Bte 1995) in connection with the Offer. In relation to the shares to be issued by Barclays pursuant to the Offer (the New Barclays Shares), reference is made to the prospectus dated 6 August 2007, which has been approved by the UK Listing Authority on 6 August 2007 (the Barclays Prospectus). This Offer Memorandum must be read in conjunction with the Barclays Prospectus.

This Offer Memorandum contains details of an offer by Barclays PLC (the Offeror) to (i) holders of issued and outstanding ordinary shares in the capital of ABN AMRO with a nominal value of EUR 0.56 each (the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the holders of such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders), (ii) holders of American depositary shares, each representing one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share (the ABN AMRO ADSs and the holders of such ABN AMRO ADSs ABN AMRO ADS Holders), (iii) holders of issued and outstanding depositary receipts that have been issued for convertible preference finance shares in the capital of ABN AMRO with a nominal value of EUR 0.56 each (the DR Preference Shares and the holders of such DR Preference Shares DR Preference Shareholders) and (iv) holders of issued and outstanding formerly convertible preference finance shares in the capital of ABN AMRO with a nominal value of EUR 2.24 each (the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and together with the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the DR Preference Shares the ABN AMRO Shares and the holders of such Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares being referred to as Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shareholders and together with the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and the DR Preference Shareholders the ABN AMRO Shareholders) in the share capital of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO or the Company), (a) to exchange in the manner set out in this Offer Memorandum all or part of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash, (b) to exchange all or part of their ABN AMRO ADSs for Barclays ADSs and cash (c) either to purchase for cash all or part of their DR Preference Shares, or to exchange, subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions at the Barclays Shareholders Meetings, Barclays Preference Shares for all or part of their DR Preference Shares, and (d) to purchase for cash all or part of their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares on the terms and subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in this Offer Memorandum (the Offer). Capitalised terms used in this Offer Memorandum have the meaning as set out in Section 3 (Definitions).

This Offer Memorandum may not be used to make the Offer into Italy, Japan, or any other Restricted Jurisdiction, to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders located in the United States or Canada (U.S. Ordinary Shareholders or Canadian Ordinary Shareholders , respectively), or to ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction. See Section 1.1 (Restrictions).

Information for U.S. Ordinary Shareholders and Canadian Ordinary Shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction is contained in, and the Offer to U.S. Ordinary Shareholders and Canadian Ordinary Shareholders and to ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction is being made by means of, the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents. Barclays has filed the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and has sent them to U.S. Ordinary Shareholders and Canadian Ordinary Shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction. The U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents are also available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and on Barclays website at www.barclays.com.

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares under the Offer will in the manner set out in this Offer Memorandum be offered 2.13 Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share (the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio) and an amount of EUR 13.15 in cash for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share (the Ordinary Share Cash Consideration , and together with the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio, the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio) in each case validly tendered pursuant to the Offer (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd), subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. See Section 6.2 (Offer Conditions). The tendering ABN AMRO Shareholders may also elect, subject to availability, to vary the proportions in which they receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash under the Mix and Match Facility. See Section 5.1.1 (Consideration per Ordinary Share).

Holders of ABN AMRO ADSs tendering their ABN AMRO ADSs under the Offer will in the manner set out in this Offer Memorandum be offered 0.5325 Barclays ADSs for each ABN AMRO ADS (the ADS Exchange Ratio) and the U.S. Dollar equivalent of EUR 13.15 in cash, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which holders of ABN AMRO ADSs are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into U.S. Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by the Bank of New York, the ADS exchange agent, calculated over the five business days prior to the date the cash consideration is received by the ADS exchange agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs for each ABN AMRO ADS (the ADS Cash Consideration , and together with the ADS Exchange Ratio, the ADS Consideration Ratio), in each case validly tendered pursuant to the Offer (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd), subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The tendering holders of ABN AMRO ADSs may also elect, subject to availability, to vary the proportions in which they receive New Barclays ADSs and cash in respect of their holdings of ABN AMRO ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility. See Section 5.1.2 (Consideration per ADS).

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their DR Preference Shares under the Offer may elect to receive either EUR 0.59 in cash for each DR Preference Share (the DR Preference Share Cash Consideration) or, subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions at the Barclays Shareholder Meetings, 0.59 of a Barclays Preference Share for each DR Preference Share (the DR Preference Share Exchange Ratio , and together with the DR Preference Share Cash Consideration, the DR Preference Share Consideration) tendered pursuant to the Offer and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional.

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares under the Offer will be paid in respect of each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) an amount in cash equal to EUR 27.65 (the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration) subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. See Section 6.2 (Offer Conditions).

The acceptance period under the Offer commences at 09:00 hours, Amsterdam time, on 7 August 2007 (the Commencement Date) and expires at 15:00 hours, Amsterdam time, on 4 October 2007, unless extended (the Closing Date). Acceptance under the Offer must be made in the manner specified in this Offer Memorandum. ABN AMRO Shares tendered on or prior to the Closing Date may be withdrawn in the circumstances specified in this Offer Memorandum. The Offeror reserves the right to extend the Acceptance Period as permitted by applicable laws and regulations. If the Acceptance Period is extended, the Offeror will make an announcement to that effect no later than three Euronext Trading Days following the Closing Date, in accordance with the provisions of article 9o, paragraph 5 of the Bte 1995 and the Securities Act rules. See Section 5 (Invitation to the ABN AMRO Shareholders).

Within five Euronext Trading Days following the Closing Date, the Offeror will announce whether the Offer is declared unconditional (gestand wordt gedaan) (the Unconditional Date). The Offeror reserves the right to waive any of the Offer Conditions, provided that the waiver of certain of such conditions shall be subject to the prior written consent of ABN AMRO. See Section 5.7 (Declaring the Offer Unconditional).

Announcements contemplated by the foregoing paragraphs will be issued by press release and, to the extent required under applicable rules and regulations, will be published in the Daily Official List and in at least two daily newspapers with national circulation in The Netherlands (Het Financieele Dagblad and the NRC Handelsblad). See Section 5.15 (Announcements).

In the event that the Offeror announces that the Offer is declared unconditional (gestand wordt gedaan), the ABN AMRO Shareholders who have validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, their DR Preference Shares and/or their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares to the Offeror and the ABN AMRO ADS Holders who have validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) their ABN AMRO ADSs, will receive within five Euronext Trading Days following the Unconditional Date (the Settlement Date), the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the New Barclays ADSs and cash in accordance with the ADS Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the DR Preference Share Consideration, or the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration, as the case may be.

At 10:30 hours, Amsterdam time, on 20 September 2007, the ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting will be convened at De Doelen in Rotterdam, at which time the Offer and the Consortium Offer will be discussed.

1. RESTRICTIONS AND IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1.1 Restrictions

1.1.1 General

The release, publication or distribution of this Offer Memorandum and any separate documentation regarding the Offer, the making of the Offer or the issuance and offering of New Barclays Shares may, in some jurisdictions, be restricted by law and therefore persons in such jurisdictions into which this Offer Memorandum is released, published or distributed should inform themselves and observe such restrictions.

The Offer applies to all the ABN AMRO Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs and is made into The Netherlands, the United Kingdom, the United States, Austria, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Norway, Singapore, Spain and Switzerland, as well as any other jurisdiction where the Offer is capable of being lawfully made in compliance with local laws (together the Offer Jurisdictions) but the Offer is not being made, directly or indirectly, in or into Italy, Japan or any other jurisdiction (other than the Offer Jurisdictions) where the making of this Offer is not in compliance with local laws (such a jurisdiction, a Restricted Jurisdiction) and may not be accepted from within any of the Restricted Jurisdictions (except for Italy) where the making of this Offer is not in compliance with local laws. Accordingly, copies of this Offer Memorandum are not being mailed and must not be, directly or indirectly, mailed or otherwise distributed, forwarded or transmitted in, into or from Italy, Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction and all such persons receiving such documents (including, without limitation, custodians, nominees and trustees) should observe these restrictions and must not mail or otherwise distribute, forward or transmit them in, into or from Italy, Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction. Any persons (including, without limitation, custodians, nominees and trustees) who would or otherwise intend to, or may have a contractual or other legal obligation to, forward this Offer Memorandum or any accompanying documents to any Restricted Jurisdiction should seek appropriate advice before taking any action.

Acceptances by ABN AMRO Shareholders or ABN AMRO ADS Holders who are not resident in the Offer Jurisdictions specifically named above will be accepted by the Offeror if such acceptance complies with the acceptance procedure and requirements set out in this Offer Memorandum (reference is made to Section 5.3). Persons who come into possession of this Offer Memorandum should inform themselves of and observe these restrictions. Any failure to comply with these restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws of that jurisdiction and may render invalid any purported acceptance.

Any U.S. Ordinary Shareholder or Canadian Ordinary Shareholder, or ABN AMRO ADS Holder, who obtains a copy of this document should note that it is for information purposes only. See Section 1.1.2 (United States and Canada)

Any person resident or located in Italy, Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction who obtains a copy of this document is requested to disregard it. See Section 1.1.5 (Restricted Jurisdictions).

Neither the Offeror nor any of its advisers assumes any responsibility for any violation by any person of any of these restrictions. Any ABN AMRO Shareholder or ABN AMRO ADS Holder who is in any doubt as to his position should consult an appropriate professional adviser without delay.

With respect to the restrictions applicable to the issuance and listing of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs and to the issuance of the Barclays Preference Shares, reference is made to the Barclays Prospectus.

1.1.2 United States and Canada

Edgar Filing: BARCLAYS PLC - Form 425

The Offer is being made to U.S. Ordinary Shareholders and Canadian Ordinary Shareholders and to ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction solely by means of the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents. Any U.S. Ordinary Shareholder or Canadian Ordinary Shareholder or ABN AMRO ADS Holder located in an Offer Jurisdiction into whose possession this Offer Memorandum comes should disregard it and refer solely to the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents for information about the Offer. Barclays has filed the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents with the SEC and has sent them to all U.S. Ordinary Shareholders and Canadian Ordinary Shareholders and to ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction. The U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents are also available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and on Barclays website at www.barclays.com.

Table of Contents

The Offer is made for the securities of a foreign company. The Offer is subject to disclosure requirements of a foreign country that are different from those of the United States. Financial statements included in the document, if any, have been prepared in accordance with foreign accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements of United States companies.

It may be difficult for ABN AMRO Shareholders to enforce their respective rights and any claim ABN AMRO Shareholders may have arising under the U.S. federal securities laws, since the Offeror is located in a foreign country, and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country. ABN AMRO Shareholders may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

ABN AMRO Shareholders should be aware that the Offeror may purchase securities otherwise than under the Offer, such as in open market or privately negotiated purchases.

1.1.3 The Netherlands, United Kingdom, Austria, Belgium, France, Germany, Ireland, Norway, Singapore, Spain and Switzerland

The release, publication and distribution of this Offer Memorandum in and into the following jurisdictions is in compliance with the securities laws and registration requirements of the following jurisdictions: The Netherlands, the United Kingdom, Austria, Belgium, France, Germany, Ireland, Norway, Singapore, Spain and Switzerland.

1.1.4 Luxembourg

The attention of ABN AMRO Shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS Holders residing in Luxembourg is called to the fact that the Offer is subject to the Luxembourg law dated 19 May 2006 on takeover bids (the Luxembourg Law on Takeover Bids). Pursuant to the provisions of the Luxembourg Law on Takeover Bids, the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the CSSF) is not competent to approve the Offer. Once the AFM has confirmed it has no further comments on the Offer Memorandum, the Offer Memorandum will be recognized in Luxembourg.

1.1.5 Restricted Jurisdictions

This Offer Memorandum must not be released, published or distributed in whole or in part in or into Italy, Japan or other any jurisdiction (other than the Offer Jurisdictions) where making this Offer Memorandum available is not in compliance with local laws. Accordingly, ABN AMRO Shareholders or ABN AMRO ADS Holders located or resident in jurisdictions other than the Offer Jurisdictions should inform themselves about, and observe, all applicable legal requirements. Any such person should consult his or her professional advisers and satisfy himself or herself as to the full observance of the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in connection with the Offer, including obtaining any requisite governmental or other consents, observing any other requisite formalities and paying any issue, transfer or other taxes due in such jurisdiction. Any failure to comply with these restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws of that jurisdiction. Neither Barclays nor ABN AMRO nor any of their advisers assumes any responsibility for any violation by any person of any of such laws.

This Offer Memorandum, and any and all materials related thereto should not be sent in or into Italy, Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction, whether by use of the interstate or foreign commerce, of any facility of a national securities exchange (including, but without limitation, electronic mail, post, facsimile transmission, telex and telephone of such a jurisdiction), and the Offer cannot be accepted by any such use, means or instrumentality, in or from within Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction (except for Italy). Accordingly, copies of this Offer Memorandum and any related materials are not being, and must not be, mailed or otherwise distributed or sent in or into or from Italy, Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction or, in their capacities as such, to custodians, trustees or nominees holding ABN AMRO Shares for persons resident or located in Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction, and persons receiving any such documents (including custodians, nominees and trustees) must not distribute or send them in, into or from Italy, Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction and doing so may render invalid any purported acceptance of the Offer.

1.1.6 Italy

The Offer has not received clearance from the Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa (CONSOB) pursuant to Italian securities laws and implementing regulations (in particular under Section 102 of Italian Legislative Decree No. 58 dated 24 February 1998). Consequently, any form of solicitation (i.e. any offer, invitation to offer or promotional advertisement) of acceptances of the Offer by ABN AMRO Shareholders and/or ABN AMRO ADS Holders based in Italy will be contrary to Italian laws and regulations. Application for authorisation by the relevant Italian authorities for the launching of an offer for ABN AMRO Shares and/or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Republic of Italy has not yet been and is not currently intended to be made.

Accordingly, Italian ABN AMRO Shareholders and/or ABN AMRO ADS Holders are hereby notified that, to the extent such ABN AMRO Shareholders and/or ABN AMRO ADS Holders are persons or entities resident and/or located in the Republic of Italy and until and to the extent that the relevant authorisation has been obtained from the Italian authorities, the Offer is not made in or into Italy, as such would not be in compliance with local laws. Neither this Offer Memorandum nor any other offering materials related to the Offer or the ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs may be distributed or made available in the Republic of Italy.

1.1.7 The restrictions in this paragraph 1.1 may, subject to applicable laws and regulations, be waived, varied or modified by Barclays in case new information becomes available to Barclays or in case of changed circumstances. Subject thereto, the restrictions set out in this paragraph 1.1 apply in relation to the Offer.

1.2 Important Information

Capitalised terms have the meanings as ascribed to them in Chapter 3 (Definitions).

This Offer Memorandum contains important information that should be read carefully before any decision is made to tender ABN AMRO Shares in connection with the Offer. ABN AMRO Shareholders are advised to seek independent advice where necessary. In addition, the ABN AMRO Shareholders may wish to consult with their tax advisers regarding the tax consequences of tendering their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer.

With respect to the issuance of the New Barclays Shares which are offered in exchange in the manner set out in this Offer Memorandum for the relevant ABN AMRO Shares, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Offer, reference is made to the Barclays Prospectus. ABN AMRO Shareholders are advised to study the Barclays Prospectus carefully and to seek independent advice where appropriate in order to reach a balanced judgement with respect to the issuance of the New Barclays Shares and the contents of the Barclays Prospectus.

The information included in Sections 1.1, 2, 4.1, 4.2, 4.4, 4.5, 4.7, 4.8, 4.12, 4.13 second and third paragraph, 4.14, 4.15, 4.16, 4.17, 5.1, 5.2, 5.3, 5.4, 5.6, 5.7, 5.8, 5.9, 5.10, 5.11, 5.12 first and third paragraph, 5.13, 5.14, 5.15, 6.3, 6.4, 6.5.1, 6.8, 6.11, 6.12, 6.13, 6.19.5, 6.19.6, 6.19.13, 6.19.15, 6.22, 9, 10 (ii), 12, 16 and 18.1, 18.2, 18.3, 18.4 has been solely provided by the Offeror.

The information included in Sections 17.3 and 17.5 has been provided by Ernst & Young Accountants and is identical to the original auditors' statements as of the same date issued by Ernst & Young Accountants. The information included in Section 18.5 has been provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers and is identical to the original auditors' statements as of the same date issued by PricewaterhouseCoopers. Section 15 is a Dutch summary of certain information provided by the Offeror and/or ABN AMRO in the English language and is subject to the detailed information included in this Offer Memorandum.

Table of Contents

The Offeror and ABN AMRO are exclusively responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the information provided in this Offer Memorandum, each with respect to such information as it has provided, and together with respect to the information they have provided jointly. Each of the Offeror and ABN AMRO confirms, with respect to such information it has provided in this Offer Memorandum, that to the best of its knowledge and belief as of the date hereof the information contained in this Offer Memorandum is true and accurate in all material respects and there are no facts the omission of which would make any statement in this Offer Memorandum misleading in any material respect. Please be aware that certain financial and statistical information and other figures contained in this Offer Memorandum may be rounded up or down and should therefore not be regarded as exact.

The information included in this Offer Memorandum reflects the situation as at 3 August 2007 unless specified otherwise. Neither the issue nor the distribution of this Offer Memorandum shall under any circumstances imply that the information contained herein is accurate and complete as of any time subsequent to 3 August 2007 or that there has been no change in the information set out in this Offer Memorandum or in the affairs of ABN AMRO and/or its subsidiaries and/or its affiliates since 3 August 2007. The foregoing does not affect the obligation of both the Offeror and ABN AMRO, each in so far as it concerns them, to make a public announcement pursuant to article 9b paragraph 1 of the Bte 1995, if applicable, or as required by applicable U.S. federal securities laws.

No person, other than the Offeror and ABN AMRO and without prejudice to the auditors' statements issued by Ernst & Young and PricewaterhouseCoopers included in this Offer Memorandum, is authorised in connection with the Offer to provide any information or to make any statements on behalf of the Offeror or ABN AMRO in connection with this Offer or any information contained in this Offer Memorandum. If any such information or statements is provided or made by parties other than the Offeror or ABN AMRO such information or statements should not be relied upon as having been provided by or made by or on behalf of the Offeror or ABN AMRO. Any information or representation not contained in this Offer Memorandum must not be relied upon as having been provided by or made by or on behalf of the Offeror or ABN AMRO.

This Offer Memorandum and the Offer are, and any tender, purchase or delivery of ABN AMRO Shares will be, governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of The Netherlands. The District Court of Amsterdam (Rechtbank Amsterdam) and its appellate courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes which might arise out of or in connection with this Offer Memorandum, the Offer and/or any tender, purchase or delivery of ABN AMRO Shares. Accordingly, any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with the Offer Memorandum, the Offer and/or any tender, purchase or delivery of ABN AMRO Shares shall be brought exclusively in such courts.

This Offer Memorandum has been reviewed by the AFM and is published in English. A Dutch summary is included as Section 15. In the event of any differences, whether or not in interpretation, between the English text of the Offer Memorandum and the Dutch summary of this Offer Memorandum, the English text of the Offer Memorandum shall prevail.

Memorandum by such more recent information. Any statement incorporated by reference so modified or superseded shall not be deemed to constitute a part of this Offer Memorandum.

Certain statements contained in this Offer Memorandum, including those in Sections headed Summary , Information on the Offer , Information on ABN AMRO and Information on the Offeror constitute forward-looking statements that involve risk and uncertainty. Generally, words such as may , will , expect , intend , estimate , anticipate , believe , should , prepares , plan , seek , continue or similar expressions or, in each case, their negative or other variations or comparable terminology, identify forward-looking statements. Although each of Barclays and ABN AMRO, each with respect to the statements it has provided, believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, no assurance can be given that such statements will be fulfilled or prove to be correct, no assurance can be given that such expectations and projections will be fulfilled, and no representations are made as to the future accuracy and completeness of the forward-looking statements. Investors should specifically consider the factors identified in this Offer Memorandum, which could cause actual results to differ before making an investment decision. Any such forward-looking statement involves known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause the actual events or results to vary materially from such forward-looking statements due to, among other things, political, economic or legal changes in the markets and environments in which Barclays and/or ABN AMRO does business, competitive developments or risks inherent to the Barclays or ABN AMRO s business plans and uncertainties, risk and volatility in financial markets and other factors affecting Barclays and/or ABN AMRO. 4. SUMMARY

This summary is qualified in its entirety by, and should be read in conjunction with, the more detailed information and conditions appearing elsewhere in this Offer Memorandum. It is expressly pointed out that this summary is not exhaustive and does not contain all of the information which is important to the reader. Reading this summary should in no way be considered a substitute for reading this Offer Memorandum in its entirety. ABN AMRO Shareholders are advised to review the Offer Memorandum in detail and to seek independent advice where appropriate in order to reach a reasoned judgement in respect of the contents of the Offer Memorandum and the Offer itself. Unless the context requires otherwise, capitalised terms used in this Offer Memorandum shall have the meaning set out in Section 3 (Definitions).

4.1 The Offer

The Offeror is making an Offer to acquire from ABN AMRO Shareholders all ABN AMRO Shares, on the terms and subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in this Offer Memorandum. The terms on which the Offer would take place were revised following an announcement by Barclays on 23 July 2007.

4.1.1 Consideration per Ordinary Share

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares under the Offer will be offered 2.13 Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share (the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio) and an amount of EUR 13.15 in cash for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share (the Ordinary Share Cash Consideration), and together with the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio, the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio in each case validly tendered pursuant to the Offer (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd), subject to the Offer being declared unconditional (Barclays Ordinary Shares to be offered pursuant to the Offer, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares). See Section 5.1.1 (Consideration per Ordinary Share).

Under the terms of the Offer, existing ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders (including ABN AMRO ADS Holders) will own approximately 35.1 percent of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group and existing holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares (including Barclays ADS Holders) would own approximately 55.6 percent of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group. This compares to a split of 48 percent and 52 percent set out in the announcement dated 23 April 2007. In addition Temasek will own approximately 2.5 percent of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group and China Development Bank will own approximately 6.8 percent. These figures assume that all of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) currently in issue (on a fully diluted basis: excluding ordinary shares held as treasury shares, but including options and share awards) are tendered under the Offer and that the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares are issued and that the Share Buy-back has been completed in full.

The Offer values each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share at EUR 34.83 and values ABN AMRO at approximately EUR 65.6 billion, based on the fully diluted number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (excluding ordinary shares held as treasury shares, but including options and share awards), the share price of Barclays Ordinary Shares on 2 August 2007, and using the exchange rate of GBP 1.00 = EUR 1.4839 as published by the Financial Times on 2 August 2007. Of this amount, approximately 38 percent will be payable in cash. The implied value of this consideration per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share represents a price to reported earnings multiple of 13.9 times and a price to book multiple of 2.7 times based on 2006 figures.

The Offer represents a premium for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders of approximately:

27.6 percent to the share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares on 16 March 2007, the last Business Day prior to the announcement that ABN AMRO and Barclays were in talks; and

43.6 percent over the average share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the 6 months up to and including 16 March 2007.

The Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio will be adjusted to reflect certain Capital Raisings or Capital Returns made by either Barclays or ABN AMRO prior to the Settlement Date. In addition, any reduction in the price paid for LaSalle below USD 21 billion will be treated as a Capital Return by ABN AMRO, and the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio will be adjusted accordingly. See Section 5.1 (Considerations Offered).

In circumstances where Barclays reasonably determines that one or more Offer Conditions are not or will not be fulfilled, Barclays shall be entitled to change the consideration offered in the Offer, provided that the change shall not comprise a decrease of the consideration offered in the Offer compared to the consideration offered by the Offer just prior to the time such change is made. The change shall be publicly announced by way of publication of a press release and/or a supplemental offer memorandum that contains additional information in relation to such change, which will prior to its publication be submitted to AFM in accordance with article 9v of the Bte 1995. The Acceptance Period shall expire not earlier than 10 Business Days after the publication of such press release. ABN AMRO Shares tendered under the Offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Closing Date.

Election of Exchange Alternatives

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are presented with two options pursuant to the Offer: (1) the primary Offer (the Primary Exchange); or (2) the direct exchange alternative (the Alternative Exchange). ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares without opting validly for the Primary Exchange or the Alternative Exchange will be deemed to have accepted the Primary Exchange. The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will, in both cases, be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The Primary Exchange is likely to be the preferred option for most ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. This is because the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and accordingly for so long as these shares remain held in the Euroclear Nederland System and certain conditions are satisfied, these shares may be sold without any charge to United Kingdom stamp duty reserve tax or (in practice) stamp duty. In contrast, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form rather than being issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, and accordingly on any subsequent sale of those shares United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable. However, electing for the Alternative Exchange may enable certain ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders to obtain a tax deferral in certain jurisdictions on the exchange of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders should carefully consider Section 13 (Tax Aspects of the Offer) of this Offer Memorandum.

The Primary Exchange will be effected through the use of Barclays (Netherlands), which is the company that is the intended direct holding company for ABN AMRO following completion of the Offer. Prior to the Settlement Date Barclays (indirectly) owns, and after completion of all steps of the Offer Barclays will (directly or indirectly) own, 100 percent of the shares of Barclays (Netherlands), which shares are held in the Euroclear Nederland System. The Primary Exchange will be effected by Barclays Nominees (No. 1) Limited (the Nominee) acting as appointed nominee for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and the Listing and Exchange Agent, who will effect transactions through Euroclear Nederland.

The steps involved in the Primary Exchange will be effected consecutively on the Settlement Date and are as follows,

- (a) By accepting the Primary Exchange, the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder

Table of Contents

- (i) irrevocably instructs the Nominee via his bank or broker to receive on such shareholders' behalf, such number of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares as will after the transfer contemplated in sub-paragraph (ii) hereinafter, have a market value equal to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares he or she undertakes to tender, and
 - (ii) irrevocably instructs the Listing and Exchange Agent to transfer his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) in return, and
 - (iii) irrevocably instructs the Nominee to transfer, immediately after receipt by the Nominee, the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares to Barclays.
- (b) In exchange for the transfer to it of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder. Further details regarding the mechanics through which part of the cash consideration payable under the Offer is provided by China Development Bank are contained in Section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

Consequently, the end result of all these steps is that (a) the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which are tendered become held by Barclays (Netherlands), (b) the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which are initially transferred to the Nominee are ultimately transferred to Barclays and (c) New Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued and cash is paid to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. The number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and the amount of cash paid in exchange for the transfer of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares will be determined by applying the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility to the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares transferred by the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder to Barclays (Netherlands). The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued in the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland. All irrevocable instructions are subject to withdrawal rights available to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders up to the Closing Date in accordance with Section 5.11 (Withdrawal Rights).

The ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who selects the Alternative Exchange, will tender his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares via his bank or broker directly to Barclays via the Listing and Exchange Agent and in return Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued directly to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form, rather than in the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, and accordingly United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable on any subsequent sale of those shares. Details regarding the mechanics through which part of the cash consideration payable under the Offer is provided by China Development Bank are contained in Section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders tendering pursuant to the Primary or Alternative Exchange should carefully consider Section 13 (Tax Aspects of the Offer).

Mix and Match Facility

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders may elect to change the proportions in which they receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash in respect of their holdings of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares under the Mix and Match Facility (that is, an ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder may request to receive a greater proportion of cash or New Barclays Ordinary Shares in respect of some or all of his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares than he or she would receive under the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio). Making an election under the Mix and Match Facility will not affect an ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder's ability to choose between the Primary Exchange and the Alternative Exchange.

The total number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, including those represented by New Barclays ADSs, to be issued and the total amount of the Cash Consideration to be paid under the Offer will not be varied as a result of the Mix and Match Facility. Accordingly, satisfaction of elections by

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders under the Mix and Match Facility will depend on the extent to which other ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders (as well as ABN AMRO ADS Holders, who will also have the opportunity to make an election as set out in Section 4.1.2 below and will form part of the same consideration pool) make offsetting elections. If elections cannot be satisfied in full, they will be scaled down on a pro rata basis. To the extent that elections can be satisfied, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares instead of cash and vice versa on the basis of a fixed rate of EUR 11.87 for each New Barclays Ordinary Share. This figure reflects the exchange price announced in the Revised Announcement of GBP 8.00 using the exchange rate of GBP 1.00 = EUR 1.4839 as published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007. Barclays Ordinary Shares may be trading at a lower or higher price than GBP 8.00 at the Settlement Date. Electing ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will receive the same amount of their elections regardless of whether they choose the Primary Exchange or Alternative Exchange.

As such, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders electing to receive a greater proportion of cash will in any event receive a basic entitlement of EUR 13.15 per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered under this election, and will further receive additional cash to the extent that this has been made available by other ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS Holders. If there is not enough cash given up to give the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder all his or her consideration in cash then he or she will receive the balance in New Barclays Ordinary Shares.

If an ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder elects to receive a greater proportion of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, he or she will in any event receive a basic entitlement of 2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered under this election, and further receive additional New Barclays Ordinary Shares to the extent that they have been made available by other ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS Holders. If there are not enough New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs given up to give the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder all his or her consideration in New Barclays Ordinary Shares then he or she will receive the balance in cash.

As a result, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who make an election under the Mix and Match Facility may not necessarily know the exact number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the amount of cash they will receive until settlement of the consideration under the Offer. An announcement will be made no later than the Settlement Date (or in respect of tenders during any Post Acceptance Period, no later than delivery of the consideration for such tenders) of the extent to which elections under the Mix and Match have been satisfied.

If ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders make no such election they will receive the default position of the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio, namely EUR 13.15 in cash and 2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares in respect of each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered. Further details on the Mix and Match Facility for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are set out in Section 5.1.1 (Consideration per Ordinary Share).

Fractional Shares

No fractional entitlements of New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be delivered to persons who validly tender and deliver ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the Offer. Admitted Institutions that tender ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the Offer on behalf of their clients will be rounded down for fractional entitlements to New Barclays Ordinary Shares (and will be remitted cash in lieu of fractional entitlements) by the Listing and Exchange Agent in accordance with usual practice. The Admitted Institutions may, on the basis of existing arrangements, round holdings up or down on a cash basis. Whether as part of this process an additional payment must be made or cash will be received, depends on the particular arrangement between the tendering ABN AMRO Shareholder and his or her bank or broker. The price in Euro (Primary Exchange) or Pound Sterling (Alternative Exchange) at which fractions are sold will be based on the average price at which the tendering Admitted Institutions sell the fractional entitlements of Barclays Shares on Euronext Amsterdam and/or the London Stock Exchange. Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will receive cash in Euros (Primary Exchange) or Pound Sterling (Alternative Exchange) in lieu of their fractional entitlements from the Admitted Institution in the event of a round down and will be debited the purchase price for the fraction in the event of a round up. Fractional entitlements of New Barclays Ordinary Shares to be issued to ABN AMRO registered shareholders, who have validly tendered and delivered, will be settled by the Listing and Exchange Agent by rounding down in a similar way to that described above.

4.1.2 Consideration per ADS

Holders of ABN AMRO ADSs will not be permitted to elect exchange alternatives. Instead, ABN AMRO ADSs that have been validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by Barclays) and not withdrawn will be exchanged for Barclays ADSs in the same way as ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who accept the Primary Exchange and involving the settlement steps for the Primary Exchange described in Section 4.1.1 (Consideration per Ordinary Share).

The ultimate consideration for ABN AMRO ADS Holders tendering their ABN AMRO ADSs under the Offer will be 0.5325 Barclays ADSs for each ABN AMRO ADS (the ADS Exchange Ratio) and the U.S. Dollar equivalent of EUR 13.15 in cash, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which holders of ABN AMRO ADS are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into U.S. Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by the ADS Exchange Agent, calculated over the five business days prior to the date the cash consideration is received by the ADS Exchange Agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs for each ABN AMRO ADS (the ADS Cash Consideration), and together with the ADS Exchange Ratio, the ADS Consideration Ratio, in each case validly tendered pursuant to the Offer (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd), subject to the Offer being declared unconditional (Barclays ADSs to be offered pursuant to the Offer, the New Barclays ADSs), with the effect that the consideration for each ABN AMRO ADS is equivalent to the consideration offered for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share.

ABN AMRO ADS Holders may elect to change the proportions in which they receive New Barclays ADSs and cash in respect of their holdings of ABN AMRO ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility (that is, ABN AMRO ADS Holders may request that to receive a greater proportion of cash or New Barclays ADSs in respect of some or all of his or her ABN AMRO ADSs than he or she would receive under the ADS Consideration Ratio).

The total number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, including those represented by New Barclays ADSs, to be issued and the total amount of the Cash Consideration to be paid under the Offer will not be varied as a result of the Mix and Match Facility. Accordingly, satisfaction of elections by ABN AMRO ADS Holders under the Mix and Match Facility will depend on the extent to which other ABN AMRO ADS Holders (as well as ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders, who will also have the opportunity to make an election as set out in Section 4.1.1 above and will form part of the same consideration pool) make offsetting elections. If elections cannot be satisfied in full, they will be scaled down on a pro rata basis. To the extent that elections can be satisfied, ABN AMRO ADS Holders will receive New Barclays ADSs instead of cash and vice versa on the basis of a fixed rate of EUR 47.48 for each New Barclays ADS. This figure reflects the exchange price announced in the Revised Announcement of GBP 8.00 per New Barclays Ordinary Share and hence USD 64.94 per New Barclays ADS (each New Barclays ADS representing four New Barclays Ordinary Shares) using the exchange rate of GBP 1.00 = EUR 1.4839 as published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007. Barclays Ordinary Shares may be trading at a lower or higher price than GBP 8.00 at the settlement date.

As such, if ABN AMRO ADS Holders electing to receive a greater proportion of cash will in any event receive the USD equivalent of EUR 13.15 in cash per ABN AMRO ADS tendered under this election¹, and further receive additional cash to the extent that this has been made available by other ABN AMRO ADS Holders and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. If there is not enough cash given up to give the ABN AMRO ADS Holder all his or her consideration in cash then he or she will receive the balance in New Barclays ADSs.

¹ The cash consideration paid for each ABN AMRO ADS will be in U.S. Dollars, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which ABN AMRO ADS Holders are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into

U.S. Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by the ADS Exchange Agent, for the five business days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS Exchange Agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.

If the ABN AMRO ADS Holder elects to receive a greater proportion of New Barclays ADSs, he or she will in any event receive a basic entitlement of 0.5325 New Barclays ADSs per ABN AMRO ADS tendered under this election, and further receive additional New Barclays ADSs to the extent that they have been made available by other ABN AMRO ADS Holders or by ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders making available New Barclays Ordinary Shares. If there are not enough New Barclays ADSs and New Barclays Ordinary Shares given up to give the ABN AMRO ADS Holder all his or her consideration in New Barclays ADSs then he or she will receive the balance in cash.

As a result, ABN AMRO ADS Holders who make an election under the Mix and Match Facility may not necessarily know the exact number of New Barclays ADSs or the amount of cash they will receive until settlement of the consideration under the Offer. An announcement will be made no later than the Settlement Date (or in respect of tenders during any Post Acceptance Period, no later than the delivery of the consideration for such tenders) of the extent to which elections under the Mix and Match have been satisfied.

If ABN AMRO ADS Holders make no such election they will receive the default position of the ADS Consideration Ratio, namely the USD equivalent of EUR 13.15 in cash and 0.5325 New Barclays ADS in respect of each ABN AMRO ADS tendered. Further details on the Mix and Match Facility for ABN AMRO ADS Holders are set out in Section 5.1.2 (Consideration per ADS).

4.1.3 Consideration per DR Preference Share

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their DR Preference Shares under the DR Preference Share offer may elect to receive either EUR 0.59 in cash for each DR Preference Share (the DR Preference Share Cash Consideration), or subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions at the Barclays Shareholder Meetings, 0.59 of a Barclays Preference Share for each DR Preference Share (the DR Preference Share Exchange Ratio and together with the DR Preference Share Cash Consideration, the DR Preference Share Consideration) tendered and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The aggregate consideration payable for the DR Preference Shares will be approximately EUR 808 million assuming all of the DR Preference Shares currently in issue are tendered for cash. The DR Preference Share Exchange Ratio will be adjusted to include accrued dividends up to the Settlement Date. Since the next dividend payment on the DR Preference Shares is due when ABN AMRO pays its annual dividend on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares over the financial year ending 31 December 2007, no adjustment of the DR Preference Share Exchange Ratio is expected in connection with a payment of dividend. See Section 5.1.2 (Consideration per DR Preference Share).

Fractional Shares

No fractional entitlements of Barclays Preference Shares will be delivered to persons who validly tender DR Preference Shares in the Offer. Admitted Institutions that tender DR Preference Shares in the Offer on behalf of their clients will be rounded down for the total collected fractional entitlements to Barclays Preference Shares (and will be remitted cash in lieu of fractional entitlements based on the equivalent of the cash offer for the DR Preference Shares) by the Listing and Exchange Agent in accordance with usual practice. Admitted Institutions that tender DR Preference Shares in the Offer on behalf of their clients will have to round down fractional entitlements to Barclays Preference Shares (and remit cash in lieu of fractional entitlements). The price in Euro at which fractions will be settled will be based on the equivalent of the cash offer for the DR Preference Shares. Holders of DR Preference Shares will receive cash in Euros in lieu of their fractional entitlements from the Admitted Institutions.

4.1.4 Consideration per Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares under the Offer will be paid in respect of each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share validly tendered pursuant to the Offer (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) an amount in cash equal to EUR 27.65 (the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration) subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration will not be adjusted for a dividend payment on the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance

Table of Contents4.2 Listing

Application will be made to the UK Listing Authority for the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares to be admitted to the Official UK List. Application will also be made to the London Stock Exchange for the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is expected that the admission of the Unconditional CDB and the Unconditional Temasek Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence on 14 August 2007. It is expected that admission of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on the Settlement Date. It is expected that admission of the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on or shortly before the Settlement Date. It is expected that all New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares, when issued and fully paid, will be eligible to be held and transferred through the CREST system.

Barclays will also apply for a secondary listing of the Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam. It is expected that admission of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will also commence, on the Settlement Date, provided that in case of unforeseen circumstances (e.g., in the event of force majeure) trading will commence as soon as those circumstances permit. ABN AMRO and Barclays have received confirmation from the FTSE and Euronext Amsterdam that, following the Settlement Date, Barclays Ordinary Shares are expected to qualify for inclusion with a full weighting in the UK Series of the FTSE indices, including the FTSE 100 Index, and in the AEX-Index (subject to a maximum weighting of 15 percent), respectively.

Applications will also be made to list the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs, and the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares on the NYSE and (other than the New Barclays ADSs) on the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

No application will be made to list or trade the Barclays Preference Shares on any stock exchange.

The New Barclays Shares will be created under the Companies Acts and the legislation made thereunder and will be issued in registered form. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be capable of being held in certificated and uncertificated form and the Barclays Preference Shares will be capable of being held in certificated form.

4.3 Reasons for the Offer and the Merger

Based on Barclays and ABN AMRO's reasons for the Offer and the Merger described in this Offer Memorandum (see Section 6.14 (Reasons for the Offer and the Merger)), the Barclays Board is recommending the Offer because it believes that it is in the best interests of the shareholders of Barclays. The proposed merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create a strong and competitive combination for their respective clients with superior products and extensive distribution. ABN AMRO and Barclays believe that the Combined Group will generate significant and sustained future incremental earnings growth for shareholders.²

4.4 Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek4.4.1 Introduction

On 23 July 2007 the Barclays Board announced an investment by China Development Bank and Temasek of up to EUR 13.4 billion (GBP 9 billion) in Barclays through the subscription by China Development Bank and Temasek for Barclays Ordinary Shares³. Of this amount China Development Bank and Temasek agreed to subscribe EUR 3.6 billion (GBP 2.4 billion) for the

² This statement is not intended to be and should not be interpreted to mean that the future adjusted earnings per share of Barclays will necessarily match or exceed its historical published adjusted earnings per share.

This amount was subsequently reduced by EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) to reflect the results of the Clawback Placing.

Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares and they will subscribe a further EUR 8.1 billion (GBP 5.4 billion), conditionally upon completion of the Merger, for the Conditional CDB Shares and the Conditional Temasek Shares. The remaining EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) of the total amount which China Development Bank and Temasek committed to subscribe, will be subscribed for by places under the Clawback Placing referred to in Section 4.5.3 (Clawback Placing).

Barclays and China Development Bank will broaden their relationship from strategic co-operation to a strategic partnership as a result of which China Development Bank will become a major shareholder and will subscribe on 14 August 2007 an initial EUR 2.2 billion (GBP 1.5 billion) for the Unconditional CDB Shares (or 3.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Subject to regulatory approval and completion of the Merger, China Development Bank will subscribe a further EUR 6.4 billion (GBP 4.3 billion) for the Conditional CDB Shares.

Temasek will also become a major shareholder in Barclays through the subscription of EUR 1.5 billion (GBP 1.0 billion) for the Unconditional Temasek Shares (or 2.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Temasek has further agreed to subscribe EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) for the Conditional Temasek Shares conditional upon the completion of the Merger.

The Barclays Board and the management of Barclays are pleased to build on the long-standing relationship with China Development Bank making it now a strategic partner and a strategic shareholder. Barclays also welcomes Temasek as a major shareholder. The management of Barclays believes there are substantial benefits for each of Barclays, China Development Bank and Temasek as a result of these arrangements. See Section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

4.4.2 Investment by China Development Bank

China Development Bank has entered into a strategic partnership with Barclays which establishes a framework for their strategic co-operation. Barclays will assist and advise China Development Bank in its evolution into a commercially operated financial institution. Both Barclays and China Development Bank will jointly exploit various international business opportunities. Both Barclays and China Development Bank have agreed to co-operate where further opportunities to develop new markets and products in the region are identified. Barclays will provide expertise and advice in fields including, risk management, corporate governance and in IT strategy and procurement.

This partnership will provide Barclays unprecedented access jointly to deliver financial services to the rapidly growing Chinese market. Through Barclays Capital and BGI, Barclays has built leading franchises across Asia. The partnership with China Development Bank will strengthen Barclays already strong Asian franchise. Particular areas of focus for Barclays include near term opportunities in Wealth and Asset Management. The Merger creates even greater opportunities both for China Development Bank and the Combined Group, particularly as ABN AMRO brings a world class trade finance and payments platform to service Chinese businesses and has an attractive retail and wholesale franchise both in China and in countries that represent important trade partners for China.

Through its investment in Barclays and strategic partnership, China Development Bank will enhance its ability to serve Chinese corporations and institutions. China Development Bank will gain access to Barclays extensive international franchise in order to facilitate international commerce for Chinese companies. The partnership will also give China Development Bank access to the leading product expertise that Barclays has developed in its universal banking model, such as in structured products, enabling China Development Bank to leverage these skills in its domestic market. China Development Bank will have opportunities to learn best practices from Barclays in terms of customer service, product development and corporate governance. This will improve China Development Bank's understanding of global financial services. See Section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

4.4.3 Investment by Temasek

The investment by Temasek in Barclays is consistent with its strategy of creating successful partnerships through long-term investments. Temasek believes that, in addition to Barclays current growth prospects, the Merger with ABN AMRO will create value enhancing growth opportunities. Temasek will be able to bring its deep rooted knowledge and expertise in the Asian market to the Barclays Board. Temasek is widely recognised as one of the world's most successful international equity investors. Temasek also has extensive experience investing in the financial services sector and currently owns significant investments in 14 banks. See section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek)

4.5 Financing of the Cash Consideration

Barclays will finance the EUR 24.8 billion cash consideration due under the Offer (the Cash Consideration) from the following sources:

4.5.1 Proceeds of the sale of LaSalle

Barclays proposes to use approximately EUR 12 billion (GBP 8.1 billion) of the capital released from the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, previously intended to be returned to Barclays Shareholders post the Merger, to repay debt incurred by Barclays in order to fund part of the Cash Consideration.

4.5.2 Conditional Investment

EUR 8.1 billion (GBP 5.4 billion) of the Cash Consideration is to be funded by the Conditional Investment. Please see Section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

4.5.3 Clawback Placing

EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) of the Cash Consideration is to be funded by the subscription for the Clawback Shares by certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors. Please see Section 6.3.4 for further details on the Clawback Placing.

4.5.4 Available Cash Resources

Barclays will fund approximately EUR 3 billion (GBP 2 billion) of the Cash Consideration from available cash resources.

4.6 Position of ABN AMRO Boards with respect to the Barclays Offer

Barclays announced on 23 July 2007 the proposed terms of its revised Offer. The revised Barclays Offer includes amended Offer terms and has introduced a significant cash element, together with a mix-and-match alternative. The value of the Offer, however, remains highly dependent on the share price performance of Barclays.

With respect to the Barclays Offer the ABN AMRO Boards note that the proposed Merger is consistent with ABN AMRO's previously articulated strategic vision. In addition, the strategic cooperation with China Development Bank should further enhance the growth opportunities of a potential combined Barclays/ ABN AMRO group in the attractive Asian market and could result in creation of additional longer-term value for ABN AMRO Shareholders. The proposed transaction with Barclays is understood to be well on track to receive the required regulatory approvals and generally has acceptable and manageable post acquisition risks.

The ABN AMRO Boards also took into account the positive opinion of the European Staff Council and the positive advice of the Central Works Council in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays, received by ABN AMRO as part of the consultation process. The ABN AMRO Boards also noted the commitments made to employees and trade unions in respect of employee's rights and respecting of existing agreements.

The approval of the shareholders of Barclays is still outstanding and is currently expected at the earliest mid-September 2007. The outcome of that vote remains uncertain at this stage.

As at the market close on 2 August 2007, the Offer was at a 1.2% discount to the ABN AMRO market price and at an 8.8% discount to the see-through value of the Consortium Offer.

The ABN AMRO Boards are therefore, notwithstanding their support of the strategic benefits of the combination with Barclays, not currently in a position to recommend from a financial point of view the Barclays Offer for acceptance to ABN AMRO Shareholders. See Section 7 (Position ABN AMRO Boards).

4.7 Acceptance Period, Offer Conditions, Declaring the Offer Unconditional, Extension and Settlement

4.7.1 Acceptance Period

The Acceptance Period begins at 09:00 hours, Amsterdam time, on 7 August 2007 and ends, subject to extension in accordance with article 9o, paragraph 5 of the Bte 1995 and the Securities Act rules on 4 October 2007 at 15:00 hours, Amsterdam time. A bank or stockbroker may set an earlier deadline for communication by ABN AMRO Shareholders in order to permit the bank or stockbroker to communicate its acceptances to the Listing and Exchange Agent in a timely manner.

ABN AMRO Shares tendered on or prior to the Closing Date (including any ABN AMRO Shares tendered during any extension of the Acceptance Period) may be withdrawn until the Offer is declared unconditional (gestand is gedaan).

If all Offer Conditions are satisfied or, where appropriate, waived, the Offeror will accept all ABN AMRO Shares that have been validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and not previously withdrawn pursuant to the terms of the Offer in accordance with, for the ABN AMRO Shares, the procedures set forth in Section 5.3 (Acceptance by ABN AMRO Shareholders).

4.7.2 Offer Conditions

The Offer shall be subject to the fulfilment of the Offer Conditions, including but not limited to the condition that at least 80 percent of ABN AMRO's issued ordinary share capital (geplaatst gewoon aandelenkapitaal) as at the Closing Date (excluding any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) held by ABN AMRO or by any of its subsidiaries as at the Closing Date or the Postponed Closing Date, as the case may be), and for this purpose including any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which will be issued upon conversion of the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares by the holders thereof into ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, and including ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) already held by Barclays (if any), has been tendered under the Offer as set out in Section 6.2.1 (the Minimum Acceptance Condition), or otherwise acquired by the Offeror.

Certain of these Offer Conditions may be waived (either in whole or in part) by the Offeror by written notice to ABN AMRO, certain may be waived (either in whole or in part) by ABN AMRO by written notice to the Offeror and certain may be waived (either in whole or in part) by either the Offeror or ABN AMRO subject to agreement in writing from respectively either ABN AMRO or the Offeror. See Section 6.2 (Offer Conditions).

If the Offeror wishes to waive or reduce the Minimum Acceptance Condition, the Offeror will announce that it waives or reduces the Minimum Acceptance Condition by means as required by the Bte 1995 and applicable U.S. federal securities laws.

A waiver by the Offeror of the Offer Condition in Section 6.2.1 (Minimum Acceptance Condition) will require approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board in the event the tendered ABN AMRO Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs), together with the ABN AMRO Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) already held by the Offeror at the Closing Date would represent less than 50% (fifty percent) plus one of the voting rights represented by ABN AMRO's issued and outstanding share capital and would represent less than 50% (fifty percent) plus one of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) in ABN AMRO's issued and outstanding ordinary share capital (excluding any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) held by ABN AMRO or its subsidiaries).

4.7.3 Declaring the Offer Unconditional (gestanddoening)

Unless the Offer is extended, the Offeror will determine within five Euronext Trading Days following the Closing Date, such date being the Unconditional Date, whether the Offer Conditions have been fulfilled or are to be waived by the Offeror and will announce whether (i) the Offer has been declared unconditional, (ii) there is still uncertainty as to the fulfilment of any of the Offer Conditions, or (iii) the Offer is terminated, as a result of the Offer Conditions not having been fulfilled or waived by the Offeror, all in accordance with article 9t paragraph 4 of the Bte 1995 and applicable U.S. federal securities laws. See Section 5.7 (Declaring the Offer Unconditional (gestanddoening)).

4.7.4 Extension

The Offeror may extend the Offer past 15:00 hours, Amsterdam time on 4 October 2007, in which case all references in this Offer Memorandum to the Closing Date shall, unless the context requires otherwise, be deemed to refer to the latest date and time to which the Offer has been so extended.

If the Offeror extends the Acceptance Period such that the obligation pursuant to article 9t of the Bte 1995 to announce whether the Offer has been declared unconditional is postponed, a public announcement to that effect shall be made not later than the third Euronext Trading Day following the date on which the Offer would otherwise have expired, in accordance with the provisions of article 9o, paragraph 5 of the Bte 1995 and the Securities Act. See Section 5.8 (Extension).

If the Offeror extends the Acceptance Period, any ABN AMRO Shares previously tendered and not withdrawn will remain subject to the Offer, subject to the right of each ABN AMRO Shareholder to withdraw the ABN AMRO Shares he or she has already tendered.

4.7.5 Settlement

In the event that the Offeror announces that the Offer is declared unconditional (gestand wordt gedaan), the ABN AMRO Shareholders who have validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, their DR Preference Shares and/or their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares to the Offeror and the ABN AMRO ADS Holders who have validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) their ABN AMRO ADSs, will receive within five Euronext Trading Days following the Unconditional Date (the Settlement Date), the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the New Barclays ADSs and cash in accordance with the ADS Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the DR Preference Share Consideration, or the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration, as the case may be. See Section 5.9 (Settlement). Delivery of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the New Barclays ADSs and cash in accordance with the ADS Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the DR Preference Share Consideration, or the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration, as the case may be, to ABN AMRO Shareholders or ABN AMRO ADS Holders who have validly tendered their ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in any post-acceptance period (na-aanmeldingstermijn) will take place subject to the terms announced for tenders of shares made in any post-acceptance period, but no later than the fifth Business Day after the results of the post-acceptance period have been publicly announced.

It is intended that the New Barclays Shares will be issued on the Settlement Date. The New Barclays Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and, except for the Barclays Preference Shares, will be of the same class as existing Barclays Shares and will be entitled to all dividends and other distributions declared or paid by Barclays by reference to a record date after the Settlement Date, but not otherwise. Barclays pays dividends semi-annually.

4.8 Offeror

Barclays PLC, a public limited liability company, duly incorporated and validly existing under the laws of England, having its registered office, at 1 Churchill Place, London, E14 5HP, United Kingdom. See Section 9 (Information on the Offeror).

4.9 Liquidity and Delisting

The purchase of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs), or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares by the Offeror pursuant to the Offer, among other things, will reduce the number of ABN AMRO

Table of Contents

Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares that might otherwise trade publicly and could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of the remaining ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares not tendered and not held by ABN AMRO.

Should the Offer be declared unconditional (gestanddoening), it is intended that ABN AMRO's listing of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares on Euronext Amsterdam, and the listing of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs on the NYSE will be terminated as soon as reasonably possible. This would further adversely affect the liquidity of any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares not tendered. In addition, the Offeror may initiate any of the procedures as set out in Section 4.10 (Post-Offer Restructuring), including procedures which would result in termination of the listing of the ABN AMRO Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs not being tendered. See Section 6.19.1 (Liquidity and Delisting).

4.10 Post-Offer Restructuring*Plans for ABN AMRO after the Offer*

Once Barclays has completed the combination with ABN AMRO, it intends for ABN AMRO to continue its current operations, as a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Barclays. Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs who did not exchange their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer will hold a minority interest in ABN AMRO unless and until Barclays becomes the sole shareholder in ABN AMRO.

Consideration offered to ABN AMRO Shareholders

Following the successful completion of the Offer, Barclays and ABN AMRO currently intend to implement a post-Offer restructuring of ABN AMRO and its subsidiaries that would have the effect of Barclays acquiring ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs that remain outstanding after the Offer and, consequently, result in the business of ABN AMRO being held in wholly-owned subsidiaries of Barclays.

The post-Offer restructuring measures will generally be structured to provide the ABN AMRO Shareholders who did not exchange their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer with the same consideration they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer, or a consideration which, considering all circumstances, can be deemed to be reasonably equivalent thereto. The precise consideration that ABN AMRO Shareholders will receive on implementation of the post-Offer restructuring measures may for various technical reasons (see Section 6.19.3) be lower than the consideration that they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer.

Barclays acquires 95% or more of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO

If Barclays has acquired 95 percent or more of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO at or following the Settlement Date, Barclays currently intends to initiate a compulsory acquisition procedure in accordance with article 2:92a of the Dutch Civil Code (the Ordinary Squeeze-Out) to acquire 100% of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO. If and when the squeeze out procedures are included in Dutch law, implementing the EU Takeover Directive (2004/25/ EC) (the Takeover Squeeze-Out), Barclays also intends to initiate Take Over Squeeze-Out procedures to acquire 100% of one or more specific classes of shares of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO. Barclays may also first initiate the Takeover Squeeze-Out and, if this leads to Barclays acquiring 95% or more of the total issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO, subsequently initiate the Ordinary Squeeze-Out. In both proceedings, the price to be paid would be paid in cash only in an amount determined by the Enterprise Chamber (Ondernemingskamer) of the Amsterdam Court of Appeals (Gerechtshof Amsterdam), which amount may be lower than the consideration that ABN AMRO Shareholders received under the Offer. The Amsterdam Court of Appeals may appoint one or three experts for advice on the fairness of the price and may set the squeeze out price at a lower price than the consideration offered in the Offer.

Barclays acquires less than 95% of the issued and outstanding ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO

If Barclays does not acquire 95% or more of the issued and outstanding ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO, two supervisory directors independent from Barclays will be appointed to the supervisory boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank. They will have full supervisory responsibility as well as having the special responsibility for safeguarding the interests of the minority ABN AMRO Shareholders in all transactions outside the ordinary course of business, directly or indirectly, with Barclays and/or any of its group companies, including with respect to the manner of implementation of any of the measures listed in the paragraphs below. The appointment of these independent directors is subject to the applicable regulatory approval and employee consultation.

Legal Merger

Barclays and ABN AMRO may initiate and seek the implementation of a legal merger between Barclays, or any of its affiliates, as the surviving company and ABN AMRO as the disappearing company in which case ABN AMRO would cease to exist and the ABN AMRO Shares which are not held by the surviving company at the time of the legal merger would be exchanged into shares, of a class to be determined, of the surviving company (subject to any cash or other alternative that would be available under applicable law and the terms of the merger proposal).

Sale and/or transfer of ABN AMRO

At any time after the Settlement Date, Barclays and ABN AMRO may take steps to implement a sale and/or transfer of ABN AMRO and/or ABN AMRO Bank (and/or other assets and liabilities of ABN AMRO and/or ABN AMRO Bank) to Barclays or any of its affiliates against a consideration which may consist of cash, cash equivalents or securities or other financial instruments (i) whose equity and dividend entitlements are limited and/or (ii) whose value depends on the value of the business of the Combined Group or any part thereof, or shares in the capital of Barclays or any affiliate thereof.

Other possible measures

Barclays and ABN AMRO may as an alternative to or in combination with the steps described in Section 6.19.3 initiate and implement a number of other post-Offer restructuring steps, including but not limited to the creation of separate classes of shares through an amendment of the ABN AMRO's articles of association, the distribution of dividends or repayment of capital on ABN AMRO shares, or the sale and transfer of ABN AMRO or certain parts thereof.

Barclays reserves the right to use any other method permitted by applicable law to obtain the entire issued and outstanding capital of ABN AMRO, as well as to align the company structure of ABN AMRO with the Combined Group's new holding and financing structure that will exist after the Settlement Date.

Further, Barclays and ABN AMRO reserve the right to pursue alterations to the corporate, governance and capital structure of ABN AMRO, including internal reorganizations, changes to the accounting policies applied by ABN AMRO and/or one of the above described methods, all to be effected in accordance with Dutch or other applicable law.

It is possible that Barclays may not be able to implement the post-Offer restructuring promptly after the Settlement Date, that such restructuring is delayed or that such restructuring cannot take place at all. This will depend on, amongst other things, the percentage of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs tendered under the Offer and the means available in a particular jurisdiction to achieve the objective of enabling Barclays (and/or its wholly owned subsidiaries) to acquire all of the outstanding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs, taking into account options available under the applicable provisions of Dutch or other applicable law and corporate governance rules. In addition, the post-Offer restructuring could be the subject of litigation, and a court could delay the post-Offer restructuring or prohibit it from occurring on the terms described in this Offer Memorandum, or from occurring at all. Accordingly, ABN AMRO Shareholders who do not tender their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer may not receive the standard offer consideration for such ABN AMRO Shares on or promptly after the Settlement Date, or at all and the liquidity and value of any ABN AMRO Shares that remain outstanding could be negatively affected. If the Offer is successful, but some ABN AMRO Shares remain outstanding, the liquidity and market value of these ABN AMRO Shares held by the public could be adversely affected by the fact that they will be held by a small number of holders. Barclays may not be able to complete the post-Offer restructuring of ABN AMRO and its affiliates promptly after the Closing Date, such restructuring may be delayed or may not take place at all for the reasons described above. In addition, even if Barclays is able to effect the post-Offer restructuring, the consideration that ABN AMRO Shareholders receive in the post-Offer restructuring may be substantially lower and/or different in form than the consideration that they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer (and they may also be subject to additional taxes). Assuming Barclays is able to implement post-closing restructuring measures of the type described above, Barclays believes that it is unlikely that it would choose not to do so. However, in the event that the costs of implementing such measures would outweigh the expected benefits of doing so, required regulatory approvals cannot be obtained or would be too burdensome to obtain, or changes in the business climate or economic environment would make the implementation of such measures inadvisable, Barclays may decide not to implement such measures. If Barclays decides not to implement any post-closing restructuring measures, the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs who did not exchange their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer, will continue to hold a minority interest in ABN AMRO. In addition to the above, it is currently intended that the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs will be delisted from the stock exchanges on which they currently trade in the event that the Offer is completed. See Section 6.21 (Risk Factors).

Post-Offer restructuring measures may have adverse tax consequences for shareholders or certain groups of shareholders, for example, distributions made by ABN AMRO, whether as a dividend or a repayment of capital, in cash or in kind, and whether or not in the context of its liquidation, might give rise to a liability to Dutch dividend withholding tax. Application of the Dutch dividend withholding tax could cause the net value of the consideration received by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in any post-Offer reorganization to be substantially less than the net value of the consideration such holders would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer.

4.11 Governance/Regulatory

The Combined Group will have a UK corporate governance structure with a unitary board of directors (the Combined Group Board). The Combined Group Board will initially consist of 19 persons, including ten members nominated by Barclays and nine members nominated by ABN AMRO prior to the combination. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive director and subject to the Merger being completed, Temasek will also have the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive director. In the event that the number of directors of the Barclays Board is reduced in the two years following the consummation of the Offer, the pro rata representation of directors nominated by ABN AMRO and of directors nominated by Barclays shall remain the same. Arthur Martinez is expected to be the Chairman, John Varley is expected to be the CEO and Bob Diamond is expected to be the President. Marcus Agius is expected to become Deputy Chairman of the Combined Group and is expected to remain Chairman of Barclays Bank PLC. It is expected that he will succeed Arthur Martinez as Chairman of the Combined Group when Arthur Martinez retires. In addition to the Chairman and Deputy Chairman, there will be 12 non-executive directors, with 5 initially nominated by Barclays and 7 initially nominated by ABN AMRO. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive Director and, subject to the Merger being completed, Temasek also will have the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive Director. It is expected that Gary Hoffman, Dr Daniël Cronjé, Professor Dame Sandra Dawson, Sir Andrew Likierman, Stephen Russell and Sir John Sunderland will retire from the Barclays Board with effect from the Effective Date. Rijkman Groenink, the current Chairman of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, is expected to be one of the non-executive directors nominated by ABN AMRO. In addition to the CEO and President, the Combined Group Board is expected to include Frits Seegers, Huibert Boumeester and Chris Lucas as executive directors. Following the Effective Date, Rijkman Groenink is expected to cease to be Chairman of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and Gary Hoffman is expected to cease to be the Group Vice-Chairman of Barclays. Huibert Boumeester, Chief Financial Officer of ABN AMRO, is expected to cease to hold such office following the Effective Date.

The FSA and DNB have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the combined group and that DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO and Barclays Groups respectively.

4.12 Dividend Policy

Assuming the Effective Date occurs on or before the record date for the Barclays final dividend for 2007, which is expected to be early in March 2008, the first dividend payable to holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is expected to be the Barclays final dividend for 2007 which is expected to be paid in late April 2008.

Following the Effective Date, it is intended that the Combined Group will maintain Barclays and ABN AMRO's progressive dividend policy and that dividends per share will grow approximately in line with earnings per share over the longer term. With the benefit of the estimated synergies of the Merger,

Barclays annual dividend will be approximately twice covered by adjusted earnings.⁴ Management of each of ABN AMRO and Barclays believe that this policy will maintain an appropriate balance between income distribution to shareholders and earnings retention to fund growth. It is also expected that the Combined Group will continue Barclays current practice of weighting the annual dividends towards the final dividend to maintain flexibility. It is not expected that the dividends per share in 2008 will be materially different to the dividend Barclays would have expected to distribute to shareholders had the Merger not occurred.

Dividend Election Mechanism

Following implementation of the Merger, the Combined Group will present financial statements in Euro and will declare dividends in Euro. Barclays Shareholders will be able to elect to receive dividends paid in Euro or Pound Sterling (converted at the then prevailing market rate). Unless they validly elect otherwise, accepting ABN AMRO Shareholders who receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will receive dividends paid in Euro. Accepting ABN AMRO Shareholders who receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will receive dividends paid in Pound Sterling (converted at the then prevailing market rate) unless they validly elect to receive dividends paid in Euro. Existing Barclays Shareholders will continue to receive dividends paid in Pound Sterling (converted at the then prevailing market rate) unless they validly elect to receive dividends paid in Euro. The Holders of New Barclays ADSs will receive dividend payments in U.S. Dollars and will not be able to elect to receive dividends in any other currencies.

4.13 ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting and Barclays Shareholder Meetings

At 10:30 hours, Amsterdam time, on 20 September 2007, the ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting will be convened at De Doelen in Rotterdam. During this meeting the Offer and the Consortium Offer, the background to both Offers and the alternatives considered by the ABN AMRO Management Board and Supervisory Board will be explained and discussed in compliance with the provisions of article 9q of the Bte 1995. The information necessary for the ABN AMRO Shareholders to adequately assess the Offer as meant in article 9q of the Bte 1995, is included in this Offer Memorandum. The Offer is not required to be and will not be submitted to an ABN AMRO shareholder vote. Notice of the ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting will be given in accordance with the ABN AMRO Articles of Association. The Merger constitutes a Class 1 transaction (as defined in the listing rules of the UK Listing Authority) for Barclays. Accordingly, Barclays is seeking the approval of its shareholders for the Merger at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting. Barclays has today posted to Barclays Shareholders a circular summarising the background to and strategic rationale for the Merger, which includes notices convening the Barclays Shareholder Meetings. The resolutions to be put to the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting will include approval of the Merger, the issue of the New Barclays Shares and related matters. The Barclays Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting is required in order to sanction the passing and implementation of the special resolution creating the Barclays Preference Shares proposed at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and to consent to each and every variation, modification or abrogation of the rights or privileges attaching to the Barclays Ordinary Shares resulting from the creation of the Barclays Preference Shares. The Merger is conditional on, amongst other things, certain resolutions being passed by Barclays Shareholders at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting. The Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and the Barclays Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting are scheduled for 14 September 2007 at 11:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m., Amsterdam time, respectively (10:00 a.m and 10:15 a.m., London time, respectively).

4.14 Announcements

Announcements in relation to the Offer will be issued by press release or advertisement and will, to the extent required under applicable rules and regulations, be published in the Daily Official List and in at least two daily newspapers with national circulation in The Netherlands (Het Financieele Dagblad and the NRC Handelsblad). Subject to any applicable requirements of Dutch public offer regulations and U.S. federal securities laws and regulations and without limiting the manner in which the Offeror may choose to make any public announcement, the Offeror will have no obligation to communicate any public announcement in relation to the Offer other than as described above.

4.15 Commission

Admitted Institutions shall receive from the Listing and Exchange Agent on behalf of the Offeror a commission in the amount of EUR 0.0094 per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share validly tendered by them (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd), up to a maximum of EUR 10,000 per ABN AMRO Shareholder tender as well as an additional compensation of EUR 2.50 per deposit client for rounding off of fractions of Barclays Shares. In respect of each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered, Admitted Institutions shall receive from the Listing and Exchange Agent on behalf of the Offeror a commission in the amount of EUR 0.1383 per Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share. In respect of each DR Preference Share validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered, Admitted Institutions shall receive from the Listing and Exchange Agent on behalf of the Offeror a commission in the amount of EUR 0.0164 per DR Preference Share with a maximum of EUR 10,000 as well as an additional compensation of EUR 2.50 per deposit client for rounding off of fractions of Barclays Preference Shares. The commission must be claimed from the Offeror through Listing & Exchange Agent within 30 days of the Unconditional Date. No costs will be charged to the ABN AMRO Shareholders by the Offeror or ABN AMRO for the delivery and payment of the ABN AMRO Shares in case an Admitted Institution is involved. Costs might be charged in case a foreign institution is involved in the delivery and payment of the ABN AMRO Shares.

Holders of ABN AMRO ADSs will not have to pay any fees or incur any expenses in connection with the issuance of Barclays ADSs in the manner described in this Offer Memorandum (except any fees that may be charged by a holder's bank, broker or other nominee, which will be determined, and communicated to the holder, directly by such holder's bank, broker or other nominee).

4.16 Restrictions

The Offer is being made in the Offer Jurisdictions with due observance of such statements, conditions and restrictions as are included in the Offer Memorandum. The Offeror reserves the right to accept any tender under the Offer, which is made by or on behalf of an ABN AMRO Shareholder, even if it has not been effectuated in such manner as set out above. See Section 1.1 (Restrictions).

4.18 Employee Consultation

Consultations have taken place with the trade unions involved and the secretariat of the Social Economic Council (Sociaal Economische Raad) has been informed of the Offer in accordance with the SER Merger Code 2000 (SER besluit Fusiegedragsregels 2000).

ABN AMRO and Barclays confirm that all requisite employee consultations and information procedures with employee representative bodies of ABN AMRO and Barclays have been completed and have resulted in a positive opinion of the European Staff Council and a positive advice from the Central Works Council in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays. The ABN AMRO Boards also noted the commitments made to employees and trade unions in respect of employees rights and respecting of existing agreements.

ABN AMRO and Barclays have identified the possibility of rationalising the number of staff of the Combined Group through a combination of natural attrition, offshoring and outsourcing as well as redundancies. The rationalisation of headcount is expected to be implemented over 3 years following completion of the Offer.

ABN AMRO and Barclays have, in their meetings with employee representative groups, including trade unions and works councils, committed to avoiding compulsory redundancies wherever possible and maintaining current redundancy terms for all existing Barclays and ABN AMRO employees worldwide for a period of two years from the Closing Date.

The reduction in staff is a necessary part of the envisaged synergies from the combination of the two banks. Part of the expected staff reduction will be through establishing shared services and offshoring those positions to low cost locations, such as India where new staff will be recruited at ABN AMRO's existing ACES operations.

It is expected that the combination of Barclays and ABN AMRO will result in a net reduction in staff of approximately 12,800. In addition, it is expected that approximately 10,800 full-time equivalent positions will be offshored to low-cost locations. This will impact a gross total of approximately 23,600 full-time equivalent positions of the combined work force of approximately 221,700. (Barclays has c.127,700 employees, ABN AMRO c.94,000 excluding LaSalle).

ABN AMRO and Barclays are aware of the fact that these measures can have difficult consequences for a number of staff. When it comes to matters affecting the staff of ABN AMRO and Barclays, both ABN AMRO and Barclays have a good reputation and are committed to that reputation. ABN AMRO and Barclays will inform and consult with the appropriate employee representative bodies in the relevant countries and will seek all necessary regulatory consents before taking decisions in relation to these anticipated effects of the Merger. ABN AMRO and Barclays will honour all agreements with their respective unions.

Table of Contents5. INVITATION TO THE ABN AMRO SHAREHOLDERS

The Offeror makes a public offer for all the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, ABN AMRO ADSs and DR Preference Shares and a public cash offer for all the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares. ABN AMRO Shareholders located outside the United States, Canada and any Restricted Jurisdiction (including Italy and Japan) are advised to review this Offer Memorandum (including all documents incorporated by reference herein) and in particular Section 1 (Restrictions and Important Information) thoroughly and completely and to seek independent advice where appropriate in order to reach a balanced judgement with respect to the Offer and this Offer Memorandum. With due reference to all statements, terms, conditions and restrictions included in this Offer Memorandum, ABN AMRO Shareholders are hereby invited to tender their ABN AMRO Shares under the Offer in the manner and subject to the terms, conditions and restrictions set out below.

This Offer Memorandum may not be used to make the Offer into Italy, Japan or any other Restricted Jurisdiction, to the U.S. Ordinary Shareholders or the Canadian Ordinary Shareholders or to ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction.

Information for U.S. Ordinary Shareholders and Canadian Ordinary Shareholders and for ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction is contained in, and the Offer to U.S. Ordinary Shareholders and Canadian Ordinary Shareholders and to ABN AMRO ADS Holders located in an Offer Jurisdiction is being made by means of, the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents. Barclays has filed the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and has sent them to all U.S. Ordinary Shareholders and Canadian Ordinary Shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS Holders in an Offer Jurisdiction. The U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents are also available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and on Barclays website at www.barclays.com.

5.1 Considerations Offered5.1.1 Consideration per Ordinary Share

For each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered under the terms and conditions of the Offer, the Offeror offers a tendering Shareholder 2.13 Barclays Ordinary Shares and EUR 13.15 in cash in the manner set out in this Offer Memorandum.

Adjustment of the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio

The Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio was determined on the basis of the numbers of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in issue on 16 July 2007 (excluding treasury shares but including all share options and awards) and Barclays share price on 20 July 2007, being the last trading day prior to 23 July 2007, the date on which the revised terms of the Offer were announced. Depending on their terms, Capital Raisings or Capital Returns by either or both of ABN AMRO and Barclays may be accretive or dilutive to the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or the Barclays Ordinary Shares. For this reason, the terms of the Offer provide for the adjustment of the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio in the event that there are Capital Raisings or Capital Returns by either or both of ABN AMRO and Barclays between 23 July 2007 and the Settlement Date.

The adjustment seeks to address the possible impact on the ABN AMRO share price of certain Capital Raisings or Capital Returns by ABN AMRO, and the possible impact on the Barclays share price of certain Capital Raisings or Capital Returns by Barclays, such that the terms of the Offer at the Settlement Date continue to reflect both ABN AMRO's and Barclays understanding of the fundamental value of the Offer.

The Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted in accordance with the following formula (calculated to two decimal places):-

Adjusted Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio is equal to:

$$((A \times B \times C) \div D + E) \div ((F - C) \times K) \quad ((B \times G) + H - I)$$

Where:

A is the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio of 2.13 Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share;

43

B is the Barclays share price of 713.5 pence per Barclays Ordinary Share on 20 July 2007 being the last business day prior to 23 July 2007, the date on which the revised terms of the Offer were announced;

C is the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in issue on a fully diluted basis of 1,889,108,963 on 16 July 2007;

D is the aggregate value of Capital Return(s) by ABN AMRO between 16 July 2007 and the Settlement Date (in GBP);

E is the aggregate value of Capital Raising(s) by ABN AMRO between 16 July 2007 and the Settlement Date (in GBP);

F is the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in issue on a fully diluted basis (excluding ordinary shares held as treasury shares, but including options and share awards) on the Settlement Date, plus all ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares repurchased from 16 July 2007 to the Settlement Date;

G is the number of Barclays ordinary shares in issue (excluding ordinary shares held as treasury shares, but including options and share awards) of 6,643,816,834 on a fully diluted basis on 16 July 2007;

H is the aggregate value of Capital Raising(s) by Barclays between 16 July 2007 and the Settlement Date (in GBP);

I is the aggregate value of Capital Return(s) by Barclays between 16 July 2007 and the Settlement Date (in GBP);

J is the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares in issue on a fully diluted basis (excluding ordinary shares held as treasury shares, but including options and share awards) on the Settlement Date, plus all Barclays Ordinary Shares repurchased from 16 July 2007 to the Settlement Date; and

K is the Ordinary Share Cash Consideration.

In the event that the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio is adjusted in accordance with the formula above, the ADS exchange ratio will be adjusted by the same proportion.

In any calculation of the adjusted Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio, the GBP/ EUR exchange rate shall be the relevant reference rate as published by the European Central Bank (and quoted on its website) prevailing on the date of the Capital Return or the Capital Raising.

Both ABN AMRO and Barclays are permitted to repurchase shares at a price not exceeding the market price of the shares at the time of repurchase or, in the case of ABN AMRO, the Daily Reference Price. Any such repurchase shall not result in an adjustment of the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio.

In addition, neither the proposed dividends to be declared (paid) by Barclays and ABN AMRO relating to the financial year ended 31 December 2006, any interim dividends in respect of the financial year commenced 1 January 2007 (provided any such interim dividend is consistent with the dividend policy and does not exceed reasonable market expectations as at 20 July 2007) and the exercise of employee share options which existed as at announcement date fall within the definition of Capital Return or Capital Raising and shall not result in an adjustment of the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio.

Where ABN AMRO receives cash consideration for the sale of LaSalle (the LaSalle Proceeds) which is less than USD 21 billion (the LaSalle Amount), an amount equal to the shortfall shall be deemed to have been a distribution by ABN AMRO and therefore amounts to a Capital Return by ABN AMRO for the purposes of this Section 5.1.1. However, where the La Salle Proceeds are in excess of the La Salle Amount, this shall not amount to a Capital Raising for the purposes of this Section 5.1.1 and, consequently, there shall be no adjustment to the Ordinary Share Adjustment Ratio as a result of the excess proceeds.

Any adjustment to the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio as contemplated above will be communicated to ABN AMRO Shareholders and Barclays Shareholders by means of a public announcement, as is appropriate.⁶

In circumstances where Barclays reasonably determines that one or more Offer Conditions are not or will not be fulfilled, Barclays shall be entitled to change the consideration offered in the Offer, provided that the change shall not comprise a decrease of the consideration offered in the Offer compared to the consideration offered by the Offer just prior to the time such change is made. The change shall be publicly announced by way of publication of a press release and/or a supplemental offer memorandum that contains additional information in relation to such change, which will prior to its publication be submitted to AFM in accordance with article 9v of the Bte 1995. The Acceptance Period shall expire not earlier than 10 Business Days after the publication of such press release. ABN AMRO Shares tendered under the Offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Closing Date.

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are presented with two options pursuant to the Offer: (1) the primary Offer (the Primary Exchange); or (2) the direct exchange alternative (the Alternative Exchange). ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares without opting validly for the Primary Exchange or the Alternative Exchange will be deemed to have accepted the Primary Exchange. The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will, in both cases, be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The Primary Exchange is likely to be the preferred option for most ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. This is because the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and accordingly for so long as these shares remain held in the Euroclear Nederland System and certain conditions are satisfied, these shares may be sold without any charge to SDRT or (in practice) United Kingdom stamp duty. In contrast, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form, rather than being issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, and accordingly on any subsequent sale of those shares United Kingdom stamp duty or SDRT is likely to be payable. However, electing for the Alternative Exchange may enable certain ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders to obtain a tax deferral in certain jurisdictions on the exchange of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders should carefully consider Section 13 (Tax Aspects of the Offer).

The Primary Exchange will be effected through the use of Barclays (Netherlands), which is the company that is the intended direct holding company for ABN AMRO following completion of the Offer. Prior to the Settlement Date Barclays (indirectly) owns, and after completion of all steps of the Offer Barclays will (directly or indirectly) own, 100 percent of the shares of Barclays (Netherlands), which shares are held in the Euroclear Nederland System. The Primary Exchange will be effected by the Nominee acting as appointed nominee for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and the Listing and Exchange Agent, who will effect transactions through Euroclear Nederland.

The steps involved in the Primary Exchange will be effected consecutively on the Settlement Date and are as follows,

- (a) By accepting the Primary Exchange, the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder
 - (i) irrevocably instructs the Nominee via his bank or broker to receive on such shareholders' behalf, such number of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares as will after the transfer contemplated in sub-paragraph (ii) hereinafter, have a market value equal to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares he or she undertakes to tender, and

6 The Conditional Investment, the Unconditional Investment, the subscription for the Clawback Shares and the Share Buy-back will not result in an adjustment to the Exchange Ratio.

45

Table of Contents

- (ii) irrevocably instructs the Listing and Exchange Agent to transfer his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) in return, and
- (iii) irrevocably instructs the Nominee to transfer, immediately after receipt by the Nominee, the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares to Barclays.
- (b) In exchange for the transfer to it of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. Further details regarding the mechanics through which part of the cash consideration payable under the Offer is provided by China Development Bank are contained in Section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

Consequently, the end result of all these steps is that (a) the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which are tendered become held by Barclays (Netherlands), (b) the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which are initially transferred to the Nominee are ultimately transferred to Barclays and (c) New Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued and cash is paid to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. The number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and the amount of cash paid in exchange for the transfer of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares will be determined by applying the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility to the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares transferred by the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder to Barclays (Netherlands). The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued in the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland. All irrevocable instructions are subject to withdrawal rights available to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders up to the Closing Date in accordance with Section 5.11 (Withdrawal Rights).

The ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who selects the Alternative Exchange, will tender his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares via his bank or broker directly to Barclays via the Listing and Exchange Agent and in return Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued directly to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form, rather than in the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, and accordingly United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable on any subsequent sale of those shares. Details regarding the mechanics through which part of the cash consideration payable under the Offer is provided by China Development Bank are contained in Section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

Mix and Match Facility

- (A) Elections under the Mix and Match Facility for more cash or more New Barclays Ordinary Shares will only be accepted in respect of whole numbers of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.
- (B) The available cash and New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be allocated in accordance with paragraphs (C), (D) and (E) below among ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who have made a valid election under the Mix and Match Facility. ABN AMRO ADS Holders will also have the opportunity to make an election under the Mix and Match Facility, as set out in Section 5.1.2 below, and will form part of the same consideration pool.
- (C) Valid elections for New Barclays Ordinary Shares made by ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders in excess of their basic entitlements to New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be satisfied in full where sufficient New Barclays Ordinary Shares are available as a result of other accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders (and ABN AMRO ADS Holders) validly making elections for cash in excess of their basic entitlements thereto, thereby releasing New Barclays Ordinary Shares to which they would otherwise be entitled under the Offer.

If, under the Mix and Match Facility, the number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares made available as a result of valid elections for cash in excess of the basic entitlements is insufficient to satisfy in full all valid elections for New Barclays Ordinary Shares in excess of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders (and ABN AMRO ADS Holders) entitlements thereto, then such elections will be scaled down on a pro rata basis and the balance of consideration will be satisfied by the issue of cash.

(D) Valid elections for cash made by ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders in excess of their basic entitlements to cash will be satisfied in full where sufficient cash is available as a result of other accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders (and ABN AMRO ADS Holders) validly making elections for New Barclays Ordinary Shares (and New Barclays ADSs) in excess of their basic entitlements thereto, thereby releasing cash to which they would otherwise be entitled under the Offer.

If, under the Mix and Match Facility, the amount of cash made available as a result of valid elections for New Barclays Ordinary Shares (and New Barclays ADSs) in excess of the basic entitlements thereto is insufficient to satisfy in turn all valid elections for cash in excess of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders (and ABN AMRO ADS Holders) basic entitlements thereto, then such elections will be scaled down on a pro rata basis and the balance of the consideration will be satisfied in New Barclays Ordinary Shares.

(E) To the extent that valid elections under the Mix and Match Facility can be satisfied in accordance with paragraphs (C) and (D) above, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares instead of cash due under the Offer on the basis of EUR 11.87 in cash for each New Barclays Share (and vice versa). This figure reflects the exchange price announced in the Revised Announcement of GBP 8.00 using the exchange rate of GBP 1.00 = EUR 1.4839 as published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007. Barclays Ordinary Shares may be trading at a lower or higher price than GBP 8.00 at the settlement date.

(F) If ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders make no such election they will receive the default position of the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio, namely EUR 13.15 in cash and 2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares in respect of each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered.

In the event that an ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder purports to elect for both additional cash and additional New Barclays Ordinary Shares under the Mix and Match Facility in respect of the same ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, both purported elections shall be deemed to be void, and such shareholder shall be deemed to have accepted the Offer on the basic terms of the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio in respect of all the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares they are tendering.

(G) Barclays will treat elections received (or validated or completed) during any Post Acceptance Period as forming a separate pool for the purposes of determining the cash and New Barclays Ordinary Shares available to meet such elections. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares during a Post Acceptance Period and elect for more cash or more New Barclays Ordinary Shares under the Mix and Match Facility may receive a different proportion of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash to those who accepted during the Acceptance Period. However, such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who make such an election will still be entitled to their basic entitlement of cash and New Barclays Ordinary Shares.

(H) The Mix and Match Facility will lapse if the Offer lapses or expires.

Fractional Shares

No fractional entitlements of New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be delivered to persons who validly tender and deliver ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the Offer. Admitted Institutions that tender ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the Offer on behalf of their clients will be rounded down for the fractional entitlements to New Barclays Ordinary Shares (and will be remitted cash in lieu of fractional entitlements) by the Listing and Exchange Agent in accordance with usual practice. The Admitted Institutions may, on the basis of existing arrangements, round holdings up or down on a cash basis. Whether as part of this process an additional payment must be made or cash will be received, depends on the particular arrangement between the tendering ABN AMRO Shareholder and his or her bank or broker. The price in Euro (Primary Exchange) or Pound Sterling (Alternative Exchange) at which fractions are sold will be based on the average price at which the tendering Admitted Institutions sell the fractional entitlements of Barclays Shares on Euronext Amsterdam and/or the London Stock Exchange. Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will receive cash in Euros (Primary Exchange) or Pound Sterling (Alternative Exchange) in lieu of their fractional entitlements from the Admitted Institution in the event of a round down and will be debited the purchase price for the fraction in the event of a round up. Fractional entitlements of New Barclays Ordinary Shares to be issued to ABN AMRO registered shareholders, who have validly tendered and delivered, will be settled by the Listing and Exchange Agent by rounding down in a similar way to that described above.

5.1.2 Consideration per ADS

Holders of ABN AMRO ADSs will not be permitted to elect for exchange alternatives. Instead, ABN AMRO ADSs that have been validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by Barclays) and not withdrawn will be exchanged for Barclays ADSs in the same way as ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who accept the Primary Exchange and involving the settlement steps for the Primary Exchange described in Section 5.1.1 (Consideration per Ordinary Share).

The ultimate consideration for ABN AMRO ADS Holders tendering their ABN AMRO ADSs under the Offer will be 0.5325 Barclays ADSs for each ABN AMRO ADS (the ADS Exchange Ratio) and the U.S. Dollar equivalent of EUR 13.15 in cash, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which holders of ABN AMRO ADS are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into U.S. Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by the Bank of New York, the ADS exchange agent, calculated over the five business days prior to the date the cash consideration is received by the ADS exchange agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs for each ABN AMRO ADS (the ADS Cash Consideration), and together with the ADS Exchange Ratio, the ADS Consideration Ratio, in each case validly tendered pursuant to the Offer (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd), subject to the Offer being declared unconditional, with the effect that the consideration for each ABN AMRO ADS is equivalent to the consideration offered for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share.

(A) Elections under the Mix and Match Facility for more cash or more New Barclays ADSs will only be accepted in respect of whole numbers of ABN AMRO ADSs.

(B) The available cash and New Barclays ADSs will be allocated in accordance with paragraphs C, D and E below among ABN AMRO ADS Holders who have made a valid election under the Mix and Match Facility. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will also have the opportunity to make an election under the Mix and Match Facility, as set out in Section 5.1.1 above, and will form part of the same consideration pool.

(C) Valid elections for New Barclays ADSs made by ABN AMRO ADS Holders in excess of their basic entitlements to New Barclays ADSs will be satisfied in full where sufficient New Barclays ADSs are available as a result of other accepting ABN AMRO ADS Holders (and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders) validly making elections for cash in excess of their basic entitlements thereto, thereby releasing New Barclays Ordinary Shares to which they would otherwise be entitled under the Offer.

If, under the Mix and Match Facility, the number of New Barclays ADSs made available as a result of valid elections for cash in excess of the basic entitlements is insufficient to satisfy in full all valid elections for New Barclays ADSs in excess of ABN AMRO ADS Holders (and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders) entitlements thereto, then such elections will be scaled down on a pro rata basis and the balance of consideration will be satisfied in cash.

(D) Valid elections for cash made by ABN AMRO ADS Holders in excess of their basic entitlements to cash will be satisfied in full where sufficient cash is available as a result of other accepting ABN AMRO ADS Holders (and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders) validly making elections for New Barclays ADSs (and New Barclays Ordinary Shares) in excess of their basic entitlements thereto, thereby releasing cash to which they would otherwise be entitled under the Offer.

If, under the Mix and Match Facility, the amount of cash made available as a result of valid elections for New Barclays ADSs (and New Barclays Ordinary Shares) in excess of the basic entitlements thereto is insufficient to satisfy in turn all valid elections for cash in excess of ABN AMRO ADS Holders basic entitlements thereto, then such elections will be scaled down on a pro rata basis and the balance of the consideration will be satisfied by the issue of New Barclays ADSs.

(E) To the extent that valid elections under the Mix and Match Facility can be satisfied in accordance with paragraphs (C) and (D) above, ABN AMRO ADS Holders will receive New Barclays ADSs instead of cash due under the Offer on the basis of EUR 47.48 in cash for each New Barclays ADS (and vice versa). This figure reflects the exchange price announced in the Revised Announcement of GBP 8.00 per New Barclays Ordinary Share and hence USD 64.94 per New Barclays ADS (each New Barclays ADS representing four New Barclays Ordinary Shares) using the exchange rate of GBP 1.00 = EUR 1.4839 as published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007. Barclays Ordinary Shares may be trading at a lower or higher price than GBP 8.00 at the settlement date.

(F) If ABN AMRO ADS Holders make no such election they will receive the default position of the ADS Consideration Ratio, namely the USD equivalent of EUR 13.15 in cash and 0.5325 New Barclays ADS in respect of each ABN AMRO ADS tendered.

In the event that an ABN AMRO ADS Holder purports to elect for both additional cash and additional New Barclays ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility in respect of the same ABN AMRO ADSs, both purported elections shall be deemed to be void, and such shareholder shall be deemed to have accepted the Offer on the basic terms of the ADS Consideration Ratio in respect of all the ABN AMRO ADSs they are tendering.

(G) Barclays will treat elections received (or validated or completed) during any Post Acceptance Period as forming a separate pool for the purposes of determining the cash and New Barclays ADSs available to meet such elections. ABN AMRO ADS Holders who tender their ABN AMRO ADSs during a Post Acceptance Period and elect for more cash or more New Barclays ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility may receive a different proportion of their preferred consideration to those who accepted during the Acceptance Period. However, such ABN AMRO ADS Holders who make such an election will still be entitled to their basic entitlement of cash or New Barclays ADSs.

(H) The Mix and Match Facility will lapse if the Offer lapses or expires.

5.1.3 Consideration per DR Preference Share

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their DR Preference Shares under the DR Preference Share Offer may elect to receive either EUR 0.59 in cash for each DR Preference Share (the DR Preference Share Cash Consideration), or subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions at the Barclays Shareholder Meetings, 0.59 of a Barclays Preference Share for each DR Preference Share (the DR Preference Share Exchange Ratio) and together with the DR Preference Share Cash Consideration, the DR Preference Share Consideration) tendered and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The aggregate consideration payable for the DR Preference Shares will be approximately EUR 808 million assuming all of the DR Preference Shares currently in issue are tendered for cash. The DR Preference Share Exchange Ratio will be adjusted to include accrued dividends up to the Settlement Date. Since the next dividend payment on the DR Preference Shares is due when ABN AMRO pays its annual dividend on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares over the financial year ending 31 December 2007, no adjustment of the DR Preference Share Exchange Ratio is expected in connection with a payment of dividend.

Fractional Shares

No fractional entitlements of Barclays Preference Shares will be issued to persons who validly tender DR Preference Shares in the Offer. Admitted Institutions that tender DR Preference Shares in the Offer on behalf of their clients will be rounded down for the total collected fractional entitlements to Barclays Preference Shares (and cash will be remitted in lieu of fractional entitlements based on the equivalent of the cash offer for the DR Preference Shares) by the Listing and Exchange Agent in accordance with usual practice. Admitted Institutions that tender DR Preference Shares in the Offer on behalf of their clients will have to round down fractional entitlements to Barclays Preference Shares (and remit cash in lieu of fractional entitlements). The price in Euro at which fractions will be settled will be based on the equivalent of the cash offer for the DR Preference Shares. Holders of DR Preference Shares will receive cash in Euros in lieu of their fractional entitlements from the Admitted Institutions.

5.1.4 Consideration per Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares under the Offer will be paid in respect of each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share tendered pursuant to the Offer (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) an amount in cash equal to EUR 27.65 (the Formerly Convertible Share Consideration) subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration will not be adjusted for a dividend payment on the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

5.2 Listing

It is intended that the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will be issued on the Settlement Date. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank pari passu in all respects with existing Barclays Ordinary Shares and will be entitled to all dividends and other distributions declared or paid by Barclays by reference to a record date after the Settlement Date, but not otherwise⁷. Barclays pays dividends semi-annually.

Application will be made to the UK Listing Authority for the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares to be admitted to the Official UK List. Application will also be made to the London Stock Exchange for the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is expected that the admission of the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on 14 August 2007. It is expected that admission of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on the Settlement Date. It is expected that admission of the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on or shortly before the Settlement Date. It is expected that all New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares, when issued and fully paid, will be eligible to be held and transferred through the CREST system.

Barclays will also apply for a secondary listing of the Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam. It is expected that admission of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will also commence, on the Settlement Date, provided that in case of unforeseen circumstances (e.g., in the event of force majeure) trading will commence as soon as those circumstances permit. ABN AMRO and Barclays have received confirmation from the FTSE and Euronext Amsterdam that, following the Settlement Date, Barclays Ordinary Shares are expected to qualify for inclusion with a full weighting in the UK Series of the FTSE indices, including the FTSE 100 Index, and in the AEX-Index (subject to a maximum weighting of 15 percent), respectively.

Applications will also be made to list the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs, and the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares on the NYSE and (other than the New Barclays ADSs) on the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

No application will be made to list or trade the Barclays Preference Shares on any stock exchange.

The New Barclays Shares will be created under the Companies Acts and the legislation made thereunder and will be issued in registered form. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be capable of being held in certificated and uncertificated form and the Barclays Preference Shares will be capable of being held in certificated form.

⁷ The Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Shares will be entitled to the Barclays interim dividend which has a record date of 17 August 2007.

5.3 Acceptance by ABN AMRO Shareholders

5.3.1 Acceptance by holders of ABN AMRO Shares held through any Admitted Institution

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and/or holders of DR Preference Shares and/or holders of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who hold their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares through an Admitted Institution are requested to make their acceptance known via their bank or stockbroker no later than 15:00 hours Amsterdam time on 4 October 2007, unless the Acceptance Period is extended in accordance with Section 5.8 (Extension). ABN AMRO Shareholders should be aware that their bank or stockbroker may set an earlier deadline for communication by ABN AMRO Shareholders in order to permit the bank or stockbroker to communicate its acceptances to the Listing and Exchange Agent in a timely manner.

Subject to article 9o, paragraph 5 of the Bte 1995, the tendering of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in acceptance of the Offer shall, always subject to the proper withdrawal of any tender, constitute irrevocable instructions to block any attempt to transfer the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares tendered, so that on or prior to the Settlement Date no transfer of such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares may be effected (other than to the Listing and Exchange Agent on or prior to the Settlement Date if the Offer has been declared unconditional (gestand is gedaan) and the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares have been accepted for purchase) and to debit the securities account in which such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are held on the Settlement Date in respect of all of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares tendered, against delivery of the offer consideration in accordance with the terms of the Offer.

The relevant Admitted Institutions may submit the acceptances only to the Listing and Exchange Agent and only in writing. In submitting the acceptances, each Admitted Institution is required to:

- (a) indicate the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares tendered, whereby it specifies the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares elected for either the Primary Exchange or the Alternative Exchange;
- (b) indicate each of:
 - (i) the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares tendered under the default position of the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio;
 - (ii) the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares tendered with an election for all cash as consideration; and
 - (iii) the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares tendered with an election for all New Barclays Ordinary Shares as consideration;
- (c) deliver the tendered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares to the Listing and Exchange Agent prior to the Closing Date; and
- (d) declare that:
 - (i) it has the tendered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in its administration;
 - (ii) each accepting ABN AMRO Shareholder irrevocably represents and warrants that he or she has full power and authority to tender, sell and deliver, and has not entered into any other agreement to tender, sell or deliver the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

stated to have been tendered to any party other than in order to accept the Offer in accordance with its terms,

- (iii) each accepting ABN AMRO Shareholder (other than an accepting ABN AMRO Shareholder located in the United States or Canada, to whom this representation and warranty do not apply) irrevocably represents and warrants that he or she complies with the restrictions outlined in this Offer Memorandum and in the Barclays Prospectus and those pursuant to securities and other applicable laws or regulations of the jurisdiction in which such ABN AMRO Shareholder is located and no registration, approval or filing with any regulatory authority of such jurisdiction is required in connection with the tendering of such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares;
- (iv) each accepting ABN AMRO Shareholder undertakes to transfer these ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares free and clear of any rights of pledge or usufruct, liens or attachments or similar charges in accordance with the terms of the Offer via the Listing and Exchange Agent prior to the Closing Date;
- (v) by accepting the Primary Exchange, each ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder whose shares are tendered, subject to the withdrawal rights provided under the Offer, gives the irrevocable instructions involved in accepting the Primary Exchange as described in Section 5.1.1 (Consideration per Ordinary Share); and
- (vi) by accepting the Alternative Exchange, each accepting ABN AMRO Shareholder irrevocably represents and warrants that he or she is not, and is not acting as nominee or agent for, and that the Barclays Shares will not be allotted to, a person who is or may be liable to stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax under any of sections 67, 70, 93 and 96 of the United Kingdom Finance Act 1986 (depository receipts and clearance services).

Admitted Institutions that are not able to deliver the tendered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Shares to the Listing and Exchange Agent should give to ABN AMRO a written notice of guaranteed delivery for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or DR Preference Shares and/or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares tendered, which are not immediately available for delivery, in which the Admitted Institutions unconditionally undertake to deliver such securities to the Listing and Exchange Agent by no later than 11:00 hours, Amsterdam time, on the third Euronext Trading Day after the Closing Date. Any such notice of guaranteed delivery should be received by the Listing and Exchange Agent by no later than 15:00 hours Amsterdam time on the Closing Date.

5.3.2 Acceptance by holders of ABN AMRO Shares individually recorded in the ABN AMRO Shareholders Register
Holders of ABN AMRO Shares individually recorded in the ABN AMRO Shareholders Register wishing to accept the Offer in respect of such ABN AMRO Shares must deliver a completed and signed acceptance form to the Listing and Exchange Agent in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Offer, not later than 15:00 hours, Amsterdam time, on 4 October 2007 (or such time and date to which the Offeror may extend the Offer), being the Closing Date. An election under the Mix and Match Facility may be made by completing the relevant section of the appropriate acceptance form. The acceptance forms are available upon request from ABN AMRO and will serve as a deed of transfer (akte van levering) with respect to the ABN AMRO Shares referenced therein.

5.3.3 Acceptance by ABN AMRO ADS Holders

The following information is for reference purposes only. Full details about the process for acceptance by ABN AMRO ADS Holders are contained in the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents.

Registered holders

ABN AMRO ADSs held by the registered holder, either in ABN AMRO American Depositary Receipt form (the ABN AMRO ADRs) or in uncertificated form through the Direct Registration System, may be tendered to the ADS Exchange Agent by following the procedures set forth in the

Table of Contents

ADS letter of transmittal distributed with the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents. The ADS letter of transmittal should be properly completed and executed and returned so as to reach the ADS Exchange Agent no later than 09:00 hours, New York City time (15:00 hours, Amsterdam time) on 4 October 2007, unless the Acceptance Period is extended in accordance with Section 5.8 (Extension).

Other holders

ABN AMRO ADSs held in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee, must be tendered according to the procedures of such bank, broker or other nominee. If those procedures are followed in a timely manner, the bank, broker or other nominee, as the registered holder of the ABN AMRO ADSs, will then tender them to the ADS Exchange Agent.

Guaranteed delivery procedures

Registered holders of ABN AMRO ADSs who wish to tender their ABN AMRO ADSs in the exchange offer but may not otherwise be able to do so because their ABN AMRO ADSs are not immediately available or time will not permit them to be validly tendered to the ADS Exchange Agent prior to the expiration of the Offer, may nevertheless properly tender their ABN AMRO ADSs if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) tender is made by or through an eligible institution (as that term is defined in the ADS letter distributed with the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents);
- (b) a properly completed and duly executed notice of guaranteed delivery substantially in the form provided with the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents, is received by the ADS Exchange Agent as provided in the instructions thereto prior to the relevant expiration date; and
- (c) a duly executed letter of transmittal, together with any ABN AMRO ADRs or other required documentation as described in the ADS letter of transmittal distributed with the U.S. and Canadian Offer Documents, is received by the ADS Exchange Agent within three NYSE trading days after the date of execution of the notice of guaranteed delivery. A NYSE trading day is a day on which the NYSE is open for business.

ABN AMRO ADSs held in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee, may also be capable of being tendered by use of a guaranteed delivery procedure. The procedures of the respective bank, broker or other nominee should be consulted for further information.

Other

Once tendered, ABN AMRO ADSs will be held in an account controlled by the ADS Exchange Agent. Consequently, persons tendering will not be able to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of such securities, until such time as (i) he or she withdraws his or her ABN AMRO ADSs from the exchange offer; (ii) his or her ABN AMRO ADSs have been exchanged in the manner set out in this document (subject to the terms and conditions of the exchange offer) for Barclays ADSs (in which case he or she will only be able to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of the Barclays ADSs received in respect of the ABN AMRO ADSs); or (iii) his or her ABN AMRO ADSs have been returned if the Offer is terminated or because they were not accepted for exchange.

ABN AMRO ADS Holders who wish to elect for their consideration to be in the form of all cash or all New Barclays ADSs must state this in the manner required by the relevant forms.

Withdrawal of tendered ABN AMRO ADSs

ABN AMRO ADSs held by the registered holder, either in form of ABN AMRO ADRs or through the Direct Registration System, and tendered to the ADS Exchange Agent, may be withdrawn by delivering a properly completed and duly executed notice of withdrawal (guaranteed by an eligible guarantor institution if such was required to obtain a signature guarantee for the ADS letter of transmittal to tender the ABN AMRO ADSs) to the ADS Exchange Agent prior to the Closing Date.

Table of Contents

ABN AMRO ADSs held in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee and tendered pursuant to the procedures of such bank, broker or other nominee, may only be withdrawn pursuant to such bank's, broker's or other nominee's procedures.

5.3.4 Undertakings, representations and warranties by tendering ABN AMRO Shareholders

Each ABN AMRO Shareholder tendering ABN AMRO Shares pursuant to the Offer other than through an Admitted Institution, by such tender, undertakes, represents and warrants to the Offeror, on the date that such ABN AMRO Shares are tendered up to and including the Settlement Date, always subject to the proper withdrawal of any tender, in accordance with article 9o, paragraph 5 of the Bte 1995, that:

- (a) the tender of any ABN AMRO Shares constitutes an acceptance by such ABN AMRO Shareholder of the Offer, on and subject to the terms and conditions of the Offer;
- (b) such ABN AMRO Shareholder has full power and authority to tender, sell and deliver (leveren), and has not entered into any other agreement to tender, sell or deliver (leveren), the ABN AMRO Shares stated to have been tendered to any party other than the Offeror (together with all rights attaching thereto) and, when the same are purchased by the Offeror for cash, the Offeror will acquire such ABN AMRO Shares, with full title guarantee and free and clear of all third party rights and restrictions of any kind; and
- (c) such ABN AMRO Shares are being tendered in compliance with the restrictions as set out in Section 1 (Restrictions and Important Information) and the securities and other applicable laws or regulations of the jurisdiction in which such ABN AMRO Shareholder is located or of which it is a resident and no registration, approval or filing with any regulatory authority of such jurisdiction is required in connection with the tendering of such ABN AMRO Shares.

5.4 Financing of the Cash Consideration

5.4.1 Proceeds of the sale of LaSalle

Barclays proposes to use approximately EUR 12 billion (GBP 8.1 billion) of the capital released from the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, previously intended to be returned to Barclays Shareholders post the Merger, to repay debt incurred by Barclays in order to fund part of the Cash Consideration.

5.4.2 Conditional Investment

EUR 8.1 billion (GBP 5.4 billion) of the Cash Consideration is to be funded by the Conditional Investment. Please see Section 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

5.4.3 Clawback Placing

EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) of the Cash Consideration is to be funded by the subscription for the Clawback Shares by certain existing Barclays Shareholders and other institutional investors. Please see Section 6.3.4 (Clawback Placing to certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors) for further details of the Clawback Placing.

5.4.4 Available Cash Resources

Barclays will fund approximately EUR 3 billion (GBP 2 billion) of the Cash Consideration from available cash resources.

5.5 Offer Conditions

The Offer shall be declared unconditional (gestanddoening) if the Offer Conditions are fulfilled or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waived by Barclays and/or ABN AMRO as the case may be. Subject to the Offer Conditions, the Offeror reserves the right to accept any tender for acceptance, even if it has not been effected in such manner as set out in Section 5.3 (Acceptance by ABN AMRO Shareholders).

5.6 Acceptance Period (aanmeldingstermijn)

The Acceptance Period begins at 09:00 hours, Amsterdam time, on 7 August 2007 and ends, subject to extension in accordance with article 9o, paragraph 5 of the Bte 1995 and the Securities Act rules, on the Closing Date.

Table of Contents

ABN AMRO Shares tendered on or prior to the Closing Date including any ABN AMRO Shares tendered during any extension of the Acceptance Period may be withdrawn until the Offer is declared unconditional. If one or more of the Offer Conditions set out in Section 6.2 (Offer Conditions) is not fulfilled, the Offeror may extend the Acceptance Period in accordance with Section 5.8 (Extension). During an extension of the Acceptance Period, any ABN AMRO Shares previously tendered and not withdrawn will remain subject to the Offer, subject to the right of each ABN AMRO Shareholder to withdraw the ABN AMRO Shares he or she has already tendered.

The Offer shall be subject to the fulfilment of the Offer Conditions, including, but not limited to the Minimum Acceptance Condition. Certain of these Offer Conditions may be waived (either in whole or in part) by the Offeror by written notice to ABN AMRO, certain may be waived (either in whole or in part) by ABN AMRO by written notice to the Offeror and certain may be waived (either in whole or in part) by either the Offeror or ABN AMRO subject to agreement in writing from respectively either ABN AMRO or the Offeror. See Section 6.2 (Offer Conditions). If the Offeror wishes to waive or reduce the Minimum Acceptance Conditions, the Offeror will announce in a manner reasonably designed to inform ABN AMRO Shareholders that it waives or reduces the Minimum Acceptance Conditions by means as required by the Bte 1995 and the Securities Exchange Act rules. See Section 6.2 (Offer Conditions).

A waiver by the Offeror of the Minimum Acceptance Condition will require approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board in the event the tendered ABN AMRO Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs), together with the ABN AMRO Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) already held by the Offeror at the Closing Date would represent less than 50% (fifty percent) plus one of the voting rights represented by ABN AMRO's issued and outstanding share capital and would represent less than 50% (fifty percent) plus one of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) in ABN AMRO's issued and outstanding ordinary share capital (excluding any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) held by ABN AMRO or its subsidiaries).

Unless the Acceptance Period is extended, the Offeror will determine within five Euronext Trading Days following the Closing Date, such date being the Unconditional Date, whether the Offer Conditions have been fulfilled or are to be waived by the Offeror and will announce whether (i) the Offer has been declared unconditional, (ii) there is still uncertainty as to the fulfilment of any of the Offer Conditions, or (iii) the Offer is terminated, as a result of the Offer Conditions not having been fulfilled or waived by the Offeror, all in accordance with article 9t, paragraph 4 of the Bte 1995 or the Securities Act.

If the Offer has been declared unconditional (gestand is gedaan) the Offer will be accepted in respect of all ABN AMRO Shares that have been validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and not previously withdrawn pursuant to the terms of the Offer in accordance with, for the ABN AMRO Shares, the procedures set forth in Section 5.3 (Acceptance by ABN AMRO Shareholders).

5.8 Extension

The Offeror may extend the Offer past 15:00 hours, Amsterdam time, on 4 October 2007, in which case all references in this Offer Memorandum to the Closing Date shall, unless the context requires otherwise, be deemed to refer to the latest date and time to which the Offer has been so extended.

If the Offeror extends the Acceptance Period such that the obligation pursuant to article 9t of the Bte 1995 to announce whether the Offer has been declared unconditional (gestand wordt gedaan) is postponed, a public announcement to that effect shall be made not later than the third Euronext Trading Day following the date on which the Offer would otherwise have expired, in accordance with the provisions of article 9o, paragraph 5 of the Bte 1995 and the Securities Act rules.

During any such extension of the Acceptance Period, any ABN AMRO Shares previously tendered and not withdrawn will remain subject to the Offer. In accordance with article 9o, paragraph 5 of the Bte 1995, ABN AMRO Shares tendered on or prior to the original Closing Date may be withdrawn during the period to which the Acceptance Period has been extended.

Table of Contents5.9 Settlement*5.9.1 General

In the event that the Offeror announces that the Offer is declared unconditional (gestand wordt gedaan), the ABN AMRO Shareholders who have validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, their DR Preference Shares and/or their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares to the Offeror and the ABN AMRO ADS Holders who have validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd) their ABN AMRO ADSs, will receive within five Euronext Trading Days following the Unconditional Date (the Settlement Date), the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the New Barclays ADSs and cash in accordance with the ADS Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the DR Preference Share Consideration, or the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration, as the case may be.

It is intended that the New Barclays Shares will be issued on the Settlement Date. The New Barclays Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and, except for the Barclays Preference Shares, will be of the same class as existing Barclays Shares and will be entitled to all dividends and other distributions declared or paid by Barclays by reference to a record date after the Settlement Date, but not otherwise. Barclays pays dividends semi-annually.

5.9.2 Settlement ABN AMRO Shares held through Admitted Institutions

Such ABN AMRO Shareholders will receive their New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or cash (as appropriate) via the Admitted Institutions through which they hold their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, in accordance with the procedures determined by their Admitted Institutions and the Listing and Exchange Agent and, where appropriate, the provisions of the Securities Giro Act and the rules and procedures of Euroclear Nederland.

The timing of the crediting of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or cash (as appropriate) to the accounts of each person with their Admitted Institution may vary depending on the account systems of the relevant Admitted Institution and, if applicable, the banks or financial institutions through which that person maintains a relevant account.

5.9.3 Settlement ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares held in registered form outside the Euroclear Nederland System

If such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders accept the Primary Exchange then any New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued to them will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland.

If such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders opt for the Alternative Exchange then they will be able to pick between the following methods for holding any New Barclays Ordinary Shares in their acceptance form:

(a) a share certificate for any New Barclays Ordinary Shares; or

(b) holding their New Barclays Ordinary Shares through a CREST account.

All ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who hold in registered form will receive any cash consideration into the account specified on their acceptance form.

5.10 Post Acceptance Period

If the Offer is declared unconditional (gestand wordt gedaan) on the Unconditional Date, which is expected to be no later than 5 Euronext Trading Days after the first Closing Date, if the Acceptance Period is not extended, Barclays may announce a Post Acceptance Period of not less than three U.S. Business Days and up to 15 Euronext Trading Days. Any Post Acceptance Period is expected to commence on the first Euronext Trading Day after the expected Unconditional Date referred to above.

Delivery of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash in accordance with the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the New Barclays ADSs and cash in accordance with the ADS Consideration Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility, the DR Preference Share Consideration, or the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share Consideration, as the case may be, to ABN AMRO Shareholders or ABN AMRO ADS Holders who have validly tendered their ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in a Post Acceptance Period (na-aanmeldingstermijn) will take place subject to the terms announced for tenders of shares made in such Post Acceptance Period, but no later than the fifth Business Day after the results of the Post Acceptance Period have been publicly announced.

During the Post Acceptance Period, neither ABN AMRO Shareholders who tendered ABN AMRO Shares during the Acceptance Period, if such ABN AMRO Shares were accepted pursuant to the Offer, nor ABN AMRO Shareholders who tender ABN AMRO Shares during a Post Acceptance Period, shall have any right to withdraw such ABN AMRO Shares from the Offer.

5.11 Withdrawal Rights5.11.1 Withdrawal of tendered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares

ABN AMRO Shares in bearer or registered form tendered under the Offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Closing Date. This right does not apply during the Post Acceptance Period.

Holders of ABN AMRO Shares in bearer form who make their acceptance known through their Admitted Institution to the Listing and Exchange Agent, may withdraw by making a withdrawal request through their Admitted Institution to the Listing and Exchange Agent such that it has been received by the Listing & Exchange Agent on the Closing Date.

Holders of ABN AMRO Shares in registered form registered in the name of the relevant holders (aandelen op naam) who tender their ABN AMRO Shares in registered form by means of application form to the Listing and Exchange Agent, may withdraw by delivery to the Listing and Exchange Agent of a properly completed and duly executed notice of withdrawal such that it has been received by the Listing & Exchange Agent on the Closing Date.

ABN AMRO Shareholders may not rescind a withdrawal. If ABN AMRO Shareholders withdraw tendered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, such shares will be deemed not validly tendered for purposes of the Offer. However, ABN AMRO Shareholders may re-tender withdrawn ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at any time before the end of the Offer Period or during the Post Acceptance Period.

5.11.2 Other

Neither Barclays, ABN AMRO, the Listing and Exchange Agent nor any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in any notice of withdrawal nor will any of them incur any liability for failure to give any notification. Any ABN AMRO Shares properly withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for purposes of the Offer. However, you may re-tender withdrawn ABN AMRO Shares by following one of the procedures discussed under Section 5.3 (Acceptance by ABN AMRO Shareholders) at any time prior to the Closing Date.

5.12 Dividends*Barclays*

Barclays announced an interim dividend of 11.5 pence per Barclays Ordinary Share in respect of the 2007 financial year on 23 July 2007. The ex-dividend date for such interim dividend is 15 August 2007 and its record date is 17 August 2007. The interim dividend will be paid on 1 October 2007. This dividend will not affect the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares will not rank for this dividend although the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares will have been subscribed for by the record date and therefore will rank for this dividend.

ABN AMRO

ABN AMRO announced an interim dividend of EUR 0.58 in respect of the 2007 financial year on 30 July 2007. The ex-dividend date for such interim dividend is 31 July 2007 and its record date is 2 August 2007. The interim dividend is expected to be paid on or about 27 August 2007 for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and on or about 4 September 2007 for ABN AMRO ADS Holders, and ABN AMRO

Table of Contents

Shareholders will be able to receive and retain such dividend. This dividend will not affect the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio.

Combined Group

Assuming the Effective Date occurs on or before the record date for the Barclays Final Dividend for 2007, which is expected to be in early March 2008, the first dividend payable to holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is likely to be the Barclays final dividend for 2007, which is expected to be paid in late April 2008.

5.13 Commission

Admitted Institutions shall receive from the Listing and Exchange Agent on behalf of the Offeror a commission in the amount of EUR 0.0094 per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share validly tendered by them (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered (geleverd), up to a maximum of EUR 10,000 per ABN AMRO Shareholder tender as well as an additional compensation of EUR 2.50 per deposit client for rounding off of fractions of Barclays Shares. In respect of each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered, Admitted Institutions shall receive from the Listing and Exchange Agent on behalf of the Offeror a commission in the amount of EUR 0.1383 per Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares. In respect of each DR Preference Share validly tendered (or defectively tendered provided that such defect has been waived by the Offeror) and delivered, Admitted Institutions shall receive from the Listing and Exchange Agent on behalf of the Offeror a commission in the amount of EUR 0.0164 per DR Preference Share with a maximum of EUR 10,000 as well as an additional compensation of EUR 2.50 per deposit client for rounding off of fractions of Barclays Preference Shares. The commission must be claimed from the Offeror through Listing & Exchange Agent within 30 days of the Unconditional Date. No costs will be charged to the ABN AMRO Shareholders by the Offeror or ABN AMRO for the delivery and payment of the ABN AMRO Shares in case an Admitted Institution is involved. Costs might be charged in case a foreign institution is involved in the delivery and payment of the ABN AMRO Shares.

Holders of ABN AMRO ADSs will not have to pay any fees or incur any expenses in connection with the issuance of Barclays ADSs in the manner described in this Offer Memorandum (except any fees that may be charged by a holder's bank, broker or other nominee, which will be determined, and communicated to the holder, directly by such holder's bank, broker or other nominee).

5.14 Restrictions

The Offer is being made in the Offer Jurisdictions with due observance of such statements, conditions and restrictions as are included in the Offer Memorandum. The Offeror reserves the right to accept any tender under the Offer, which is made by or on behalf of a Shareholder, even if it has not been effectuated in such manner as set out above.

5.15 Announcements

Announcements contemplated by the foregoing paragraphs will be issued by press release and/or advertisement and, to the extent required pursuant to applicable rules and regulations, will be published in the Daily Official List and in at least two daily newspapers with national circulation in The Netherlands (Het Financieele Dagblad and the NRC Handelsblad). Subject to any applicable requirements of Dutch tender offer regulations and U.S. federal securities laws and regulations and without limiting the manner in which the Offeror may choose to make any public announcement, the Offeror will have no obligation to communicate any public announcement other than as described above.

Table of Contents6. EXPLANATION OF THE OFFER*6.1 Introduction

On 23 April 2007, Barclays and ABN AMRO jointly announced that agreement had been reached on the terms of a recommended merger of Barclays and ABN AMRO to create one of the world's leading universal bank groups, to be called Barclays. The terms on which the Merger would take place were revised prior to an announcement by Barclays on 23 July 2007 and were further revised prior to an announcement by Barclays on 30 July 2007 and further supplemented by a letter dated 3 August 2007, to which the agreement between the Offerer and ABN AMRO is reflected as to which pre-offer conditions have been fulfilled or waived prior to the Offer and which will be made conditions to the Offer. The announcements and the supplemental letter are available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

On 30 July 2007, the ABN AMRO Boards announced their continuing support for the strategic benefits of the combination with Barclays but concluded they were not in a position to recommend either of the Offers for ABN AMRO.

The Merger was agreed subject to, among other things, the satisfaction or waiver of certain pre-conditions, including the receipt of all regulatory approvals required for the completion of the LaSalle Agreement and the receipt of other necessary regulatory authorisations. Those pre-conditions have now been satisfied, waived or rolled forward as conditions of the Offer. See section 6.2 (Offer Conditions).

The implementation of the Merger remains subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including the completion of the sale of LaSalle and the regulatory approvals and clearances referred to in section 6.2 (Offer Conditions).

6.2 Offer Conditions

The obligation of the Offeror to declare the Offer unconditional (gestand te doen) shall be subject to the following conditions precedent (the Offer Conditions) being satisfied or waived, as the case may be:

The Offer

6.2.1 such number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) are tendered for acceptance and not, where permitted, withdrawn that these, together with the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) directly or indirectly held by Barclays at the Closing Date (and excluding any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs held by ABN AMRO or by any of its subsidiaries at the Closing Date), represent at least 80 percent of the issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Share capital (geplaatst gewoon aandelenkapitaal) as at the Closing Date (excluding any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs held by ABN AMRO or by any of its subsidiaries as at the Closing Date) and for this purpose including any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which will be issued upon conversion of the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares by the holders thereof into ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares;

6.2.2 the Foundation has irrevocably agreed with Barclays and ABN AMRO that, subject to:

- (a) the Offer being declared unconditional;
- (b) an undertaking from Barclays not to exercise more voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares than it could exercise as a holder of DR Preference Shares for as long as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are listed on Eurolist by Euronext Amsterdam; and
- (c) the amendment of the terms of the DR Preference Shares necessary for an exchange by Barclays of its DR Preference Shares for Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares and any other actions as may be legally required to enable such exchange, it will take all necessary action to exchange any DR Preference Shares for Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares, if and when requested by Barclays and such agreement shall continue to be in full force and effect;

part thereof) or any matter arising therefrom to a competent authority of a Member State in accordance with article 9(1) of the EU Merger Regulation;

(f) the applicable waiting period, if any, under the HSR Act in relation to the Merger or the Offer has expired or been terminated, and no order is issued by any competent U.S. governmental authority (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) preventing the implementation of the Merger or Offer and no U.S. governmental entity has indicated an intention or threatened to commence proceedings seeking the same and no proceedings seeking the same are pending and not finally resolved,

(g) all notifications, filings, applications and Authorisations that are necessary in any jurisdiction in connection with the proposed acquisition by China Development Bank or Temasek (or any subsidiary of either of them) of shares in Barclays pursuant to the placement by Barclays of new Barclays Ordinary Shares with China Development Bank and Temasek as referred to in the Revised Announcement, including the Barclays Shares to be made available to existing Barclays Shareholders by way of clawback (or any resulting indirect acquisition of any interest in any member of the Barclays Group or the ABN AMRO Group) have been made or obtained from all appropriate Third Parties and any waiting periods (or extensions thereof) under any applicable legislation of any jurisdiction during which any Third Party may oppose or take or announce steps which could impede such acquisition have expired, lapsed or been terminated (except for those that cannot be made, obtained, expire or lapse before the acquisition of those shares), and (a) all such Authorisations remain in full force and effect, (b) no such Authorisations are subject to any material term or material condition which has not been fulfilled or satisfied;

6.2.9 neither Barclays nor ABN AMRO has received any notification from DNB or the FSA indicating that there is likely to be any change in the supervisory, reporting or regulatory capital arrangements and requirements that will apply in relation to the Combined Group (or any member thereof) following the consummation of the Offer by either of them before the making of the Offer;

6.2.10 the Tax Clearances from the relevant tax authorities in The Netherlands and United Kingdom have not been withdrawn or modified;

6.2.11 since the date of the Merger Protocol no Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition having been or become reasonably likely to be imposed affecting any of the Barclays Group, the ABN AMRO Group or the Combined Group (measured on a scale relative to the relevant group);

Corporate Action

6.2.12 prior to the Closing Date and subject to the Offer being declared unconditional, the general meeting of shareholders of Barclays having passed all appropriate resolutions to give effect to (i) the Offer and the Merger and all measures to implement it, and (ii) the increase of Barclays share capital and the issue of the Barclays Shares to be issued pursuant to the Offer, subject to and with effect as of the time the Offer being declared unconditional;

6.2.13 Barclays and ABN AMRO have received copies of resignation letters from those members of the ABN AMRO Boards and those members of the management board and supervisory board of ABN AMRO Bank who, it has been agreed, shall resign subject to the Offer being declared unconditional (gestanddoening);

6.2.14 Barclays and ABN AMRO have received copies of resignation letters from those members of the Barclays Board who, it has been agreed, shall resign subject to the Offer being declared unconditional (gestanddoening);

Approval Offer Documents and Listing

6.2.15 the Registration Statement has become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued and be in effect and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the SEC and not withdrawn;

6.2.16 confirmation has been given by the applicable listing authority and/or relevant stock exchange that, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional (gestanddoening), the Barclays Shares or a portion thereof as reasonably determined by Barclays and having consulted ABN AMRO and having taken into account its reasonable requests, shall have been authorised or approved, as the case may be for listing and trading on the London Stock Exchange, Euronext Amsterdam, the Tokyo Stock Exchange and on the NYSE;

6.2.17 Barclays and ABN AMRO have not received any notification from the FTSE 100 Committee indicating that it has withdrawn or modified, or may withdraw or modify, its confirmation provided to Barclays before the making of the Offer to the effect that Barclays Shares will continue be included in the FTSE 100 Index with full weighting as a single line of stock following the Offer being declared unconditional and the issue of the Barclays Shares;

Illegality, Litigation and Insolvency

6.2.18 on or prior to the Closing Date Barclays and ABN AMRO have not received a notification from the AFM pursuant to Clause 32a Bte 1995 that the preparations of the Offer are in breach of Chapter IIA of the Wte 1995, as amended from time to time, in which case, pursuant to those rules, securities institutions (effecteninstellingen) would not be permitted to co-operate with the execution and completion of the Offer;

6.2.19 there has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances, and no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances has become known to Barclays that was not fairly disclosed in the ABN AMRO accounts for the year ended 31 December 2006 or in any public announcements by or on behalf of ABN AMRO before the date of the Merger Protocol or fairly disclosed in writing by ABN AMRO to Barclays before the execution of the Merger Protocol, and that has, or can be reasonably be expected to have, a negative impact on the consolidated operating income of ABN AMRO equal to 5 percent or more of the consolidated operating income as stated in the Accounts of ABN AMRO for the year ended 31 December 2006;

6.2.20 there has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances, and no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances has become known to ABN AMRO that was not fairly disclosed in the Barclays accounts for the year ended 31 December 2006 or in any public announcements by or on behalf of Barclays before the date of the Merger Protocol or fairly disclosed in writing by Barclays to ABN AMRO before the execution of the Merger Protocol, and that has, or can be reasonably be expected to have, a negative impact on the consolidated operating income of Barclays equal to 5 percent or more of the consolidated operating income as stated in the Accounts of Barclays for the year ended 31 December 2006;

6.2.21 the Merger Protocol has not been terminated;

6.2.22 all regulatory approvals required for completion of the LaSalle Agreement or a Sale Contract, as the case may be, in accordance with its terms have been obtained and the LaSalle Agreement has completed in accordance with its terms or an agreement relating to the sale of LaSalle by ABN AMRO Bank, other than the LaSalle Agreement has completed in accordance with its terms;

6.2.23 before the Closing Date, the ABN AMRO Boards having confirmed in writing, and having made an appropriate press release confirming, their unanimous recommendation of the Offer for acceptance by the holders of ABN AMRO Shares and the ABN AMRO ADSs;

In addition, the obligation of the Offeror to declare the Offer unconditional shall be subject to the condition precedent that no Third Party declares or reaffirms that it makes or intends to make an offer or an amended offer for shares in ABN AMRO. In case this condition precedent is not fulfilled, Barclays may change the consideration offered in the Offer, provided that the change shall not comprise a decrease of the consideration offered in the Offer compared to the consideration offered by the Offer just prior to the time such change is made. The Offeror has agreed with ABN AMRO that for so long as the Merger Protocol is not terminated it shall not invoke this condition precedent without announcing a change to the consideration (not being a decrease) offered in the Offer, unless it has obtained the prior written agreement of ABN AMRO.

Table of Contents

The section above referring to intends to make an offer does not include the current offer by the Royal Bank of Scotland Group PLC, Fortis N.V., Fortis SA/NV and Banco Santander S.A., acting together through RFS Holding B.V., on the terms and conditions as announced on 20 July 2007, but it does for example include any amendment to that offer or the terms and conditions of that offer (including an amendment, or waiver of, any of the offer conditions), any new offer or a reaffirmation of any offer by the Consortium or any declaration in relation thereto by the Consortium.

The above is without prejudice to the ability of Barclays to change the consideration of the Offer in case it reasonably determines that one or more other Offer Conditions are not or will not be fulfilled. As also set out in Section 5.1 (Considerations Offered), any change to the consideration of the Offer shall be publicly announced by way of publication of a press release and/or a supplemental offer memorandum that contains additional information in relation to such change, which will prior to its publication be submitted to AFM in accordance with article 9v of the Bte 1995. The Acceptance Period shall expire not earlier than 10 Business Days after the publication of such press release.

Each of Barclays and ABN AMRO undertakes to use its reasonable endeavours to procure the fulfillment of the Offer Conditions set out in Clause 6.2.7(a), Clause 6.2.7(b), Clause 6.2.7(d), Clause 6.2.8(d) and Clause 6.2.14 as soon as reasonably practicable.

Barclays and ABN AMRO have made all of the relevant filings globally which are now due where a consent or notification is required in respect of the Offer. Some such approvals have already been received (including from the FSA) and it is expected that substantially all remaining approvals will be received by the end of August 2007, and in any case prior to the Closing Date. Until all approvals have been received, Barclays and ABN AMRO will continue to communicate and work with the appropriate regulatory authorities to ensure that all approvals are received at the earliest opportunity.

The circumstances under which the Merger Protocol can be terminated, which termination is referred to in the Offer Condition in Clause 6.2.21, include a termination of the Merger Protocol that is mutually agreed by Barclays and ABN AMRO and the circumstances described in Section 6.20.6 (Termination). Barclays may not invoke the Offer Condition in Clause 6.2.21 if non-fulfilment of such Offer Condition is solely within the control of the Offeror.

The Offer Conditions in Clauses 6.2.1 (without prejudice to the approval rights of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board as described therein), 6.2.2, 6.2.3, 6.2.5, (in relation to (i) under the definition of Frustrating Action and in relation to (ii) and (iii) under such definition to the extent relating to any member of the ABN AMRO Group), 6.2.6(a), 6.2.11, 6.2.13, 6.2.19, 6.2.22 and 6.2.23 for the benefit of Barclays and may be waived by Barclays (either in whole or in part) at any time by written notice to ABN AMRO.

The Offer Conditions in Clauses 6.2.4, 6.2.5 (in relation to (ii) and (iii) under the definition of Frustrating Action to the extent relating to any member of the Barclays Group), 6.2.6(b), 6.2.14 and 6.2.20 are for the benefit of ABN AMRO and may be waived by ABN AMRO (either in whole or in part) at any time by written notice to Barclays.

The Offer Conditions in Clauses 6.2.7 to 6.2.10 (inclusive), 6.2.12, 6.2.15 to 6.2.18 (inclusive) and 6.2.21 are for the benefit of both Barclays and ABN AMRO, and may be waived (either in whole or in part) by either the Offeror or ABN AMRO subject to agreement in writing from respectively either ABN AMRO or the Offeror (except that Barclays shall only require the agreement of ABN AMRO to waive the Offer Conditions in Clauses 6.2.7 or 6.2.8 to the extent that the Offer Conditions in question relate to requirements applicable to members of the ABN AMRO Group or if the failure to fulfill the Offer Conditions in question would reasonably be expected to materially and adversely affect the ABN AMRO Group taken as a whole or the achievement of Barclays and ABN AMRO of the agreed upon objectives of business strategy and future governance).

The Offer Condition in Clause 6.2.18 may only be waived if, following receipt of a notification as referred to in the Offer Condition in Clause 6.2.18, such notification has been or will be revoked by the AFM, if such notification is overruled by a court decision or after consultation with the AFM.

Table of Contents

A waiver by Barclays of Offer Condition 6.2.1 will require approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board in the event the tendered ABN AMRO Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs), together with the ABN AMRO Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) already held by Barclays at the Closing Date would represent less than 50% (fifty percent) plus one of the voting rights represented by ABN AMRO s issued and outstanding share capital and would represent less than 50% (fifty percent) plus one of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) in ABN AMRO s issued and outstanding ordinary share capital (excluding any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) held by ABN AMRO or its subsidiaries).

Barclays has undertaken to the China Development Bank not to waive (a) the 80 percent minimum acceptance condition to less than 70 percent, (b) any of the material adverse change conditions, or (c) any right to terminate, rescind or withdraw the Offer, without prior consultation with China Development Bank and having due regard to its views.

If any Offer Condition becomes permanently incapable of fulfillment and this is caused as a result of a breach of the Merger Protocol (other than a non-intentional (niet-opzettelijke) breach) by either Barclays or ABN AMRO for whose benefit the Offer Condition is expressed to be agreed, such Offer Condition shall be deemed to be waived by either Barclays or ABN AMRO by written notice from either Barclays or ABN AMRO whereupon the ability to waive such Offer Condition shall pass to either Barclays or ABN AMRO.

Barclays and ABN AMRO will notify each other forthwith of any facts or circumstances which they become aware might reasonably be expected to cause non-fulfillment of any Offer Condition.

6.3 Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek6.3.1 Introduction

On 23 July 2007 the Barclays Board announced an investment by China Development Bank and Temasek of up to EUR 13.4 billion (GBP 9 billion) in Barclays through the subscription by China Development Bank and Temasek for Barclays Ordinary Shares⁸. Of this amount China Development Bank and Temasek have agreed to subscribe EUR 3.6 billion (GBP 2.4 billion) for the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares and they will subscribe a further EUR 8.1 billion (GBP 5.4 billion), conditionally upon completion of the Merger, for the Conditional CDB Shares and the Conditional Temasek Shares. The remaining EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) of the total amount which China Development Bank and Temasek committed to subscribe will be subscribed for by certain existing Barclays Shareholders and other institutional investors pursuant to the Clawback Placing described below.

Barclays and China Development Bank will broaden their relationship from strategic co-operation to a strategic partnership as a result of which China Development Bank will become a major shareholder and will subscribe on 14 August 2007 an initial EUR 2.2 billion (GBP 1.5 billion) for the Unconditional CDB Shares (or 3.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Subject to regulatory approval and completion of the Merger, China Development Bank has agreed to subscribe a further EUR 6.4 billion (GBP 4.3 billion) for the Conditional CDB Shares.

Temasek will also become a major shareholder in Barclays through the subscription of EUR 1.4 billion (GBP 1.0 billion) for the Unconditional Temasek Shares (or 2.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Temasek has further agreed to subscribe EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) for the Conditional Temasek Shares conditional upon the completion of the Merger.

The Barclays Board and the management of Barclays are pleased to build on the long-standing relationship with China Development Bank making it now a strategic partner and a strategic shareholder. Barclays also welcomes Temasek as a major shareholder. The management of Barclays believes there are substantial benefits for each of Barclays, China Development Bank and Temasek as a result of these arrangements.

8 This amount was subsequently reduced by EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) to reflect the results of the Clawback Placing.

6.3.2 Investment by China Development Bank

China Development Bank will invest a total of EUR 8.5 billion (GBP 5.8 billion) in the Combined Group and has entered into a strategic partnership with Barclays which establishes a framework for their strategic co-operation. Barclays will assist and advise China Development Bank in its evolution from a policy driven bank to a commercially operated financial institution. The two parties will jointly explore international business opportunities, including:

- (a) cross-referral of clients, when the clients' needs can be better met by the other partner;
- (b) extensive training and talent management. China Development Bank will use Barclays global presence to identify and recruit talent outside China, and will benefit from the provision of extensive training and the regular secondment of managers from Barclays; and
- (c) collaboration in commodities products, where Barclays Capital is already established as one of the world's leading firms.

In addition, China Development Bank will use BGI as one of its preferred asset managers. Both parties have agreed to cooperate where further opportunities to develop new markets and products in the region are identified. Barclays will provide expertise and advice in fields including risk management, corporate governance and in IT strategy and procurement.

Barclays and China Development Bank have agreed that:

- (a) On 14 August 2007 China Development Bank will invest EUR 2.2 billion (GBP 1.5 billion) in Barclays through an unconditional subscription for the Unconditional CDB Shares (representing 3.1 percent of Barclays existing issued share capital), under the CDB Subscription Agreement at GBP 7.20 per share;
- (b) China Development Bank will invest (pursuant the mechanics described below) a further EUR 6.4 billion (GBP 4.3 billion) in Barclays for the Conditional CDB Shares under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement at a price of GBP 7.40 per share conditional on the Merger completing, resulting in a shareholding in the Combined Group of approximately 6.8 percent;
- (c) On 23 July 2007 China Development Bank purchased warrants (for a total price of GBP 1.0) in respect of 61 million Barclays Ordinary Shares with an exercise price of GBP 7.80 per share. The warrants become exercisable only if the Offer becomes unconditional and they are then exercisable for a period of two years thereafter. If the warrants were exercised in full, China Development Bank's shareholdings in the Combined Group would rise by 0.5 percent;
- (d) China Development Bank will be entitled to nominate a non-executive director to the Barclays Board as of 14 August 2007;
- (e) China Development Bank will be free to acquire additional shares in Barclays on the open market subject to a standstill agreement limiting its shareholding to below 10 percent for three years from 23 July 2007; and
- (f) China Development Bank has agreed not to enter into a business collaboration agreement of a similar nature with another major banking institution with global operations.

This partnership will provide Barclays unprecedented access jointly to deliver financial services to the rapidly growing Chinese market. Through Barclays Capital and BGI, Barclays has built up leading franchises across Asia. The partnership with China Development Bank will strengthen Barclays already strong Asian franchise. Particular areas of focus for Barclays include near term opportunities in Wealth and Asset Management. The Merger creates even greater opportunities both for China Development Bank and the Combined Group, particularly as ABN AMRO brings a world class trade finance and payments platform to service Chinese businesses and has an attractive retail and wholesale franchise both in China and in countries that represent important trade partners for China.

Through its investment in Barclays and strategic partnership, China Development Bank will enhance its ability to serve Chinese corporations and institutions. China Development Bank will gain access to Barclays extensive international franchise in order to facilitate international commerce for Chinese companies. The partnership will also give China Development Bank access to the leading product expertise that Barclays has developed in its universal banking model, such as in structured products, enabling China Development Bank to leverage these skills in its domestic market. China Development Bank will have opportunities to learn best practices from Barclays in terms of customer service, product development and corporate governance. This will improve China Development Bank's understanding of global financial services.

Pursuant to the settlement mechanics under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement and the terms of the Offer, China Development Bank will pay to Barclays (who will receive it on behalf of accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders) a portion of the Cash Consideration due to them under the Offer, and in consideration thereof Barclays will allot and issue the Conditional CDB Shares to China Development Bank on the basis of a price of GBP 7.40 per share. The cash payments to accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be distributed on the Settlement Date(s) by Barclays together with the balance of the Cash Consideration and the share consideration due to them. These arrangements are part of, and are therefore conditional upon, the Offer. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will have no contractual relationship with China Development Bank under the Offer. The maximum aggregate amount which may be paid by China Development Bank pursuant to these arrangements is EUR 6.4 billion (GBP 4.3 billion).

The consideration for the allotment of the Barclays Ordinary Shares to China Development Bank under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement shall be the transfer to Barclays by tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders of the appropriate portion of their shares, and the agreement by China Development Bank to make the cash payments as described above.

Please see paragraph 10.1 of Part XII (Additional Information) of the Barclays Prospectus for a description of the terms and conditions of the CDB Subscription Agreement and the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement.

6.3.3 Investment by Temasek

Temasek has agreed to become a major shareholder in Barclays and will invest a total of EUR 3.1 billion (GBP 2.1 billion) in the Combined Group.

Barclays and Temasek have agreed that:

- (a) On 14 August Temasek will invest EUR 1.4 billion (GBP 1.0 billion) in Barclays through an unconditional subscription for the Unconditional Temasek Shares (representing 2.1 percent. of Barclays existing issued share capital) under the Temasek Subscription Agreement at GBP 7.20 per share;
- (b) Temasek will also invest a further EUR 1.7 billion (GBP 1.1 billion) for the Conditional Temasek Shares through the Temasek Subscription Agreement at a price of GBP 7.40 per share conditional on the Merger completing;
- (c) Temasek's resulting shareholding in the Combined Group would be approximately 2.5 percent;
- (d) On 23 July 2007 Temasek purchased warrants (for a total price of GBP 1.0) in respect of 61 million Barclays Ordinary Shares with an exercise price of GBP 7.80 per share. The warrants become exercisable only if the Offer becomes unconditional and they are then exercisable for a period of two years thereafter. If the warrants were exercised in full Temasek's shareholding in the Combined Group would rise by 0.5 percent; and
- (e) Temasek will be entitled to nominate a non-executive Director to the Barclays Board if the Merger becomes unconditional.

The investment by Temasek in Barclays is consistent with its strategy of creating successful partnerships through long-term investments. Temasek will be able to bring its deep rooted knowledge and expertise in the Asian market. Temasek is widely recognised as one of the world's most successful international equity investors. Temasek also has extensive experience investing in the financial services sector and currently owns significant investments in 14 banks.

Please see paragraph 10.1 of Part XII (Additional Information) of the Barclays Prospectus for a description of the terms and conditions of the Temasek Subscription Agreement and the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement.

Table of Contents6.3.4 Clawback Placing to certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors

In addition to agreeing to subscribe for the Conditional CDB Shares and the Conditional Temasek Shares, China Development Bank and Temasek had also agreed, pursuant to the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement and the Temasek Subscription Agreement, to subscribe for further Barclays Ordinary Shares. However, in order to ensure that certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors could subscribe for Barclays Ordinary Shares on the same financial terms as China Development Bank and Temasek, both investors agreed that part of their allocation could be made available to such existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors by way of the Clawback Placing which was announced on 23 July 2007.

These Barclays Ordinary Shares were offered at a price of GBP 7.40 per share to certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors (determined in Barclays sole discretion) on 23 and 24 July 2007. As a result of some of these Barclays Shareholders agreeing to subscribe for the Clawback Shares, China Development Bank and Temasek will not have the Clawback Shares issued to them and their aggregate subscription amounts have been reduced accordingly. The issue of the Clawback Shares to these existing Barclays Shareholders and other institutional investors is conditional upon the Offer being declared unconditional and they will only be issued following the Offer being declared unconditional.

Immediately after the Effective Date, China Development Bank will hold approximately 6.8 percent of the Combined Group, Temasek approximately 2.5 percent and existing Barclays Shareholders (including the existing Barclays Shareholders and other institutional investors who agreed to subscribe for the Clawback Shares) 55.6 percent.

6.3.5 Subsequent Share Buy-back Programme

The total proceeds from the issuance of the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares to Temasek and China Development Bank on 14 August 2007 will amount to EUR 3.6 billion (GBP 2.4 billion) and this amount is unconditionally committed. On 23 July 2007, the Barclays Board announced the Share Buy-back Programme (which commenced on 6 August 2007) to minimise the dilutive effect of the issuance of Barclays Ordinary Shares to China Development Bank and Temasek on the existing Barclays Shareholders. Pursuant to the Share Buy-back Programme, Barclays instructed JPMorgan Cazenove Limited to repurchase a number of Barclays Ordinary Shares equal to the lesser of (i) the number of the Unconditional CDB Shares and Unconditional Temasek Shares to be issued on 14 August 2007 (336.8 million Barclays Ordinary Shares), and (ii) such number of Barclays Ordinary Shares as JPMorgan Cazenove Limited is able to acquire using the proceeds of the Unconditional Investment (EUR 3.6 billion (GBP 2.4 billion)). The Share Buy-back Programme will be suspended during the 10 trading days prior to the expiry of the Offer Acceptance Period (as it may be extended time to time). The Share Buy-back Programme is being conducted on market by JPMorgan Cazenove Limited as an independent third party on behalf of Barclays pursuant to Barclays existing general shareholder authority. The existing authority for Barclays to purchase its own shares was granted at the Annual General Meeting of the Company held on 26 April 2007 and if Resolution 5 (as set out in the Circular) is passed at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting, will (subject to the Merger becoming Effective) be substituted by the authority granted pursuant to Resolution 5 (as set out in the Circular).

6.4 Barclays entities involved in the Offer

In effecting the Primary Exchange as described in Section 5.1.1 (under Election of Exchange Alternatives), Barclays will be involving its two Dutch subsidiary companies Barclays Investments (Netherlands) and Barclays (Netherlands). Barclays Investments (Netherlands) is a company wholly owned by Barclays which, in turn, owns the entire issued share capital of Barclays (Netherlands). The shares of Barclays (Netherlands) are held in the Euroclear Nederland System. Barclays Investments (Netherlands) and Barclays (Netherlands) have been incorporated by Barclays after the initial announcement and have not transacted and will not before the Offer is completed transact any business other than their activities in the context of the Offer described herein.

In consideration for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders transferring the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares held by them to Barclays (Netherlands), Barclays Investments (Netherlands) will transfer Barclays

Table of Contents

(Netherlands) Shares to the Nominee. The Nominee will, pursuant to the irrevocable instructions of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who selected the Primary Exchange, subsequently transfer the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares to Barclays. In exchange for the transfer to it of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. All irrevocable instructions are subject to available rights to withdraw tenders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in accordance with Section 5.11 (Withdrawal Rights).

6.5 DR Preference Share Offer6.5.1 Description of DR Preference Share Offer

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their DR Preference Shares under the DR Preference Share Offer may elect to receive either EUR 0.59 in cash for each DR Preference Share, or subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions at the Barclays Shareholder Meetings, 0.59 of a Barclays Preference Share for each DR Preference Share tendered and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The aggregate consideration payable for the DR Preference Shares will be approximately EUR 808 million assuming all of the DR Preference Shares currently in issue are tendered for cash.

The Barclays Preference Shares will be issued on or prior to the Settlement Date in definitive registered form with a nominal value of EUR 1. Non-cumulative preferential dividends will be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares at a rate per annum of one percent above the rate (the Rate) calculated from the annual swap rate (the Annual Swap Rate) for 5 year Euro swap transactions appearing on Bloomberg Screen BTMM EU Page under the heading Euro Swaps as of 10.00 a.m. London time on the date which is two euro business days preceding the date of issue of the Barclays Preference Shares compounded on a semi-annual basis by applying the following formula:

where R = the Rate,

and S = the Annual Swap Rate,

which preferential dividend will be payable semi-annually in arrear until 15 December 2012 and thereafter at a rate, reset semi-annually, of one percent per annum above the Euro interbank offered rate for six-month euro deposits, and will be payable in equal instalments semi-annually in arrear on the dividend payment dates. For so long as any of the 875,000 staff shares of GBP 1 each in the capital of Barclays (the Staff Shares) remain in existence, dividends will only be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares if dividends are paid at the same time on the Staff Shares.

Dividends are payable at the discretion of the Barclays Board even when distributable profits are available and will be paid only to the extent that payment of the same can be made out of profits of Barclays available for distribution and permitted by law. If undeclared, the rights of holders of the Barclays Preference Shares to receive the relevant dividend will be lost either entirely or as to the part not declared and Barclays will have no obligation in respect of the amount of dividend not declared either to pay the dividend for such period or to pay interest thereon.

The Barclays Preference Shares are perpetual securities and have no maturity date. However, the Barclays Preference Shares are redeemable in whole, or in part, at the option of Barclays, subject to prior notification to the FSA (if required) and provided that at the time of redemption the group of which Barclays is a part is in compliance with the main BIPRU Pillar rules (applicable to it on a consolidated basis) (and will continue to be so immediately after redemption), on 15 December 2012 and on each subsequent relevant payment date at a price equal to EUR 1.

On a winding-up or other return of capital and for so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, the Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Staff Shares and the Barclays Preference Shares shall rank pari passu in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up on the shares of each class, except that (i) in the event of a winding up of Barclays the holders of the Staff Shares shall be entitled to participate in the surplus assets available for distribution among the members to the extent of the amounts paid up on the Staff Shares held by them respectively plus 10 percent of such amounts, but shall not further participate in surplus assets and (ii) the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall only be entitled participate in the assets of Barclays available for distribution among the members up to an amount equal to an aggregate of EUR 1 per Barclays Preference Share, but shall not be entitled to participate further in such assets.

In the event that there are no Staff Shares in existence at the time of such winding-up or other return of capital then the assets of Barclays available for distribution among the members shall be applied in paying to holders of the Barclays Preference Shares an amount equal to the aggregate of EUR 1 per Barclays Preference Share in priority to any payment to the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares and any other class of shares in the capital of Barclays then in issue ranking junior to the Barclays Preference Shares on such a return of capital and pari passu with the holders of any other class of shares in the capital of Barclays then in issue but the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall not be entitled to participate further in the assets of Barclays available for distribution among the members. Barclays is not permitted to create any class of shares ranking as regards participation in the profits or assets of Barclays in priority to the Barclays Preference Shares, save with the sanction of a special resolution of a separate general meeting of the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares or with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the Barclays Preference Shares.

The Barclays Preference Shares will not be convertible into Barclays Ordinary Shares and holders of Barclays Preference Shares will not be entitled to any pre-emptive right in respect of any issue of Barclays Ordinary Shares nor will they be entitled to vote at general meetings of Barclays.

6.5.2 The Foundation

All Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares are held by the Foundation. The Foundation acts as record owner and has issued DR Preference Shares evidencing ownership interests in Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares to their beneficial owners. The voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares, although formally held by the Foundation, are exercised in practice by the DR Preference Shareholders, since voting proxies are issued to the DR Preference Shareholders by the Foundation under all circumstances. The Foundation, in principle, does not exercise its voting rights. The voting rights of the DR Preference Shareholders are calculated on the basis of the equity participation of the (depository receipts issued for the) Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares in proportion to the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. The voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares granted to a DR Preference Shareholder by proxy will correspond to the nominal value of one DR Preference Share in relation to the economic (market) value of one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share multiplied by (i) the number of DR Preference Shares held by such DR Preference Shareholder and (ii) the number of votes that may be cast on one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share. The economic (market) value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Share shall be equal to the price of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at the close of the last Euronext Trading Day in the month preceding the convocation of the general meeting of shareholders of ABN AMRO. In short, the voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares granted to a DR Preference Shareholder by proxy is calculated according to the formula: $I((\text{nominal value of one DR Preference Share} / \text{economic (market) value of one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share}) * \text{number of DR Preference Shares held}) * \text{the number of votes that may be cast on one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share}$. The voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares granted to a DR Preference Shareholder by proxy will be rounded off downwards to the nearest rounded number of voting rights.

6.5.3 Agreement between the Foundation, the Offeror and ABN AMRO

Barclays and ABN AMRO propose to seek agreement with the Foundation prior to the Closing Date, pursuant to which:

- (i) both the Foundation and ABN AMRO severally agree to take all necessary action to exchange any DR Preference Shares for Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares, if and when requested by Barclays, including, but not limited to, the amendment of the trust conditions (administratievoorwaarden) of the Foundation dated 5 August 2004 necessary for such exchange; and
- (ii)

Barclays undertakes that it shall not exercise more voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares than it could exercise as holder of DR Preference Shares for as long as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are listed on Eurolist by Euronext Amsterdam (see 6.5.2 above).

Table of Contents

As set out in Section 6.2.2 above, it is a condition to the Offer that such an agreement is entered into and remains in full force and effect as at the Closing Date.

6.6 Description of implications of the Merger for participants in the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans

The Merger Protocol contains provisions in relation to the treatment of options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans. Barclays and ABN AMRO are considering the proposed treatment of options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans although the treatment has not, at the date of this document, been finalised.

The following is a summary of the proposals relating to the ABN AMRO Share Award Plan and the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans (being those employee plans under which subsisting options or awards have been granted over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares) which at the date of this document have been considered by Barclays and ABN AMRO. The summary is without prejudice to further or alternative proposals that Barclays and ABN AMRO may agree within the parameters and in the context of both the Merger Protocol and the rules of the ABN AMRO Share Award Plan and the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans and any applicable laws.

The normal vesting dates for outstanding awards granted under the ABN AMRO Share Award Plan, which are subject to both performance conditions and service conditions, have not yet occurred. Barclays has proposed that awards under the ABN AMRO Share Award Plan will be replaced, as permitted under the rules of those plans and subject to any applicable laws, with awards over or in respect of Barclays Shares on terms satisfying the provisions of those plans and consistent with the Merger Protocol, and ABN AMRO is considering this proposal.

Apart from certain options granted in 2005 under the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans, all subsisting options have already vested and are therefore currently exercisable subject to any applicable laws. The intention of ABN AMRO and Barclays is that options over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares under the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans which are not already exercisable shall vest and become exercisable in full, in accordance with and to the extent permitted by the rules of the relevant ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans, when the Offer becomes unconditional. After the Offer becomes unconditional, options not yet exercised will be exercisable for a limited period after which they will lapse. Subject to any applicable laws and the relevant terms, options to acquire ABN AMRO Shares that are exercised will be satisfied in ABN AMRO Shares.

In relation to awards over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares under the ABN AMRO Share Investment and Matching Share Plan (which are not subject to performance conditions), it is intended that, as provided for in the rules of that plan and subject to any applicable laws, awards will vest in full when the Offer becomes unconditional. Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed that the proposals that shall be agreed between them and made to holders of subsisting options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans in due course should not have any material incremental accounting costs for either party nor cause the EUR 250 million cap set out in the Merger Protocol on the amount of cash payable in respect of the cash settlement or cancellation of options and awards over ABN AMRO Shares to be exceeded.

6.7 Interests of ABN AMRO Board members in the Merger

Members of the ABN AMRO Boards have relationships, agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the Merger that may be in addition to or different from interests of ABN AMRO Shareholders. These interests include the following.

ABN AMRO Managing Board Members. The Combined Group Board is expected to include Mr. Groenink (a proposed non-executive member of the Combined Group Board) and Mr. Boumeester (the proposed Chief Administrative Officer of the Combined Group Board). As of the completion of the Exchange Offer and the combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays, the Combined Group will be managed by a Group Executive Committee consisting of eight members. The Committee is expected to include Mr. Boumeester, Mr. Overmars, the proposed Chief Executive Officer of continental Europe and Asia of the global retail and commercial banking segment of the Combined Group and Mr. Teerlink, the proposed Chief Operating Officer of the global retail and commercial banking segment of the Combined Group. Mr. Jiskoot is expected to become a Vice Chairman of Barclays Capital with senior responsibility for client relationships.

Table of Contents

Mr. Boumeester will be eligible to be considered for a discretionary annual bonus award (including mandatory deferral into Barclays Executive Share Award Scheme) and for annual participation in long term incentive plan awards under the Barclays Performance Share Plan. In respect of 2008 it has been agreed he will receive a minimum bonus (including the Executive Share Award Scheme element) of 100% of base salary (capped at 250% of annual salary) and he will be recommended for a Barclays Performance Share Plan award with an aggregate market value on the day of the award of £600,000.

ABN AMRO Supervisory Board Members. In addition, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Protocol, Mr. Martinez, the current chairman of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, is expected to become the chairman of the Combined Group and Mr. Kramer, Ms. Mass-de Brouwer, Mr. Ruys, Mr. Olijslager, Mr. Scaroni and Mr. van den Bergh, are expected to become members of the Combined Group. In addition, it is expected the ABN AMRO will nominate additional members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board to serve on the Combined Group Board, Members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board who will serve on the Combined Group Board are expected to be compensated for their services in accordance with Barclays fee structure for non-executive directors.

Beneficial Ownership of ABN AMRO Securities. As of December 31, 2006, the members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and executive management beneficially owned a total of 387,232 ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, representing less than 0.02% of the total ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares outstanding as of that date.

Indemnification of former members of ABN AMRO Boards. The indemnification of former members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board by the combined company in relation to inaccuracies or material misstatements in the parts of the applicable disclosure documentation for which such individual is or was responsible solely in his capacity as a proposed member of the relevant board with respect to the period prior to such person becoming a director to the same extent as available to members of the applicable board on the date of such documentation.

6.8 Interests of the Barclays Directors and Executive Officers

You should be aware that members of the Barclays Board and its executive management have relationships, agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the combination that may be in addition to or different from those of the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs. The Barclays Board was aware of these relationships, agreements and arrangements during its deliberations on the merits of the combination. See Section 6.14 (Reasons for the Offer and the Merger).

Barclays Directors. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Protocol, Marcus Agius, the current Chairman of the Barclays Board, is expected to become the Deputy Chairman of the Group Board of Directors and is expected to remain Chairman of Barclays Bank PLC. In addition, the Group Board of Directors is expected to include John Varley (the Chief Executive Officer of Barclays), Bob Diamond (the President of Barclays and CEO of Investment Banking and Investment Management), Frits Seegers (the Chief Executive Officer of the global retail and commercial banking segment of Barclays) and Chris Lucas (the Group Finance Director of Barclays), each of whom serve as members of the Barclays Board prior to the effective date of the combination. In addition, certain other members of the Barclays Board are expected to serve as members of the Group Board of Directors.

Barclays Management. As of the completion of the combination, the Combined Group will be managed by a Group Executive Committee consisting of eight members. This Committee is expected to be chaired by John Varley, the Chief Executive Officer of Barclays, and include Bob Diamond, the President of Barclays, Frits Seegers, the Chief Executive Officer of the global retail and commercial banking segment of Barclays, Paul Idzik, the Chief Operating Officer of Barclays and Chris Lucas, the Group Finance Director of Barclays.

6.9 Background to the Transaction6.9.1 Discussions between ABN AMRO and Barclays

The ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board have reviewed regularly ABN AMRO's strategic growth objectives and the means by which it may achieve these objectives, including potential business acquisitions and combinations. In particular, the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO

Supervisory Board examined how ABN AMRO might execute its strategy of becoming a top five European bank by market capitalization. In addition to the standalone option, including growth through the acquisition of smaller banking operations, the option of merging with another European financial institution as large or larger than ABN AMRO has been part of the strategic agenda of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. In this context, the Chairman of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, Mr. Groenink, and the Chief Executive Officer of Barclays, Mr. Varley, have had regular contact over the past few years.

On March 18, 2005, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley met to discuss the possibility of a business combination in connection with ABN AMRO's continuing review of its business and prospects. In advance of the meeting, ABN AMRO and Barclays separately carried out an analysis which covered, amongst other things, strategic and financial rationale for a possible combination, an impact and contribution analysis and high level synergies. The discussions between Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley were continued at a meeting on November 23, 2005.

On December 7, 2005 and January 20, 2006, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley discussed the principles under which the parties would be willing to consider a business combination transaction. On March 3, 2006, another meeting was held between Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley, at which they agreed to exchange position papers on a potential combination. ABN AMRO's position paper was sent to Barclays on March 24, 2006 and a paper from Barclays was received by ABN AMRO shortly thereafter. Following the exchange of position papers, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley met on May 4, 2006 to discuss the potential strategy, vision and culture of a combined entity.

The Barclays Board, the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board separately concluded that a business combination transaction between Barclays and ABN AMRO was strategically attractive. During the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board annual strategy discussion on July 27 and 28, 2006, different merger of equals options were discussed, as well as the standalone option with growth through the acquisition of smaller banking operations and the option of combining with another European financial institution that was as large or larger than ABN AMRO. At the end of the discussion, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board determined that in the case of a merger with ABN AMRO as a junior partner, a combination with Barclays was one of its preferred options. During the remainder of 2006 and first quarter of 2007, the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board continued to discuss these strategic options. The Barclays Board also concluded that ABN AMRO was an attractive merger partner in its strategy meeting on November 16, 2006. Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley continued to have informal contacts to explore the potential of a combination.

ABN AMRO also discussed with ING Group N.V. the possibility of a combination of their businesses. During the period between December 2006 and March 2007, Mr. Groenink had several discussions with Mr. Michael Tilmant, Chairman of the Executive Committee of ING Group N.V. on the possibility of a transaction. Ultimately, however, the parties discontinued discussions when a transaction became less attractive as ABN AMRO's share price increased significantly, while ING Group N.V.'s share price declined.

ABN AMRO initiated talks leading to the current proposed combination with Barclays when, on February 8, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley met to discuss the key principles that would guide any potential combination discussion between ABN AMRO and Barclays. These discussions were continued on February 27, 2007.

On February 22, 2007, the ABN AMRO Managing Board engaged Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited to act as its financial advisor in connection with the potential strategic options outlined above, including a possible combination with Barclays. Subsequently, in connection with Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited's engagement, the ABN AMRO Managing Board requested that Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (other than Barclays and its affiliates) of the exchange ratio to be received by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares pursuant to the combination solely in their capacity as ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders.

Also on February 22, 2007, UBS Limited was engaged by the ABN AMRO Managing Board as financial advisor in connection with the potential strategic options outlined above. Subsequently, in connection with UBS Limited's engagement, the ABN AMRO Managing Board requested that UBS evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, excluding Barclays and its affiliates.

The ABN AMRO Managing Board also engaged Lehman Brothers on February 22, 2007 to act as its financial advisor in connection with the potential strategic options outlined above. Lehman Brothers' advisory role has centered around the synergies of the proposed combination, potential investor and market reactions and listing considerations.

NM Rothschild & Sons was appointed by the ABN AMRO Managing Board in February 2007 to advise on the viability of alternatives to a combination with another European financial institution as large or larger than ABN AMRO. ABN AMRO Corporate Finance provided initial advice on the general strategic options available to ABN AMRO. ABN AMRO Hoare Govett was retained to act as corporate broker in connection with strategic matters in February 2007 and subsequently in connection with the proposed exchange offer by Barclays for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs.

Also during February 2007, the ABN AMRO Managing Board retained Allen & Overy LLP, Davis Polk & Wardwell and NautaDutilh N.V. to provide it with legal advice in connection with strategic matters and subsequently retained them to advise on the Barclays transaction.

During February 2007, Barclays requested that JPMorgan Cazenove Limited act as corporate broker, and Lazard & Co., Limited act as financial advisor, in connection with a proposed combination with ABN AMRO. In March 2007, Barclays Capital, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Credit Suisse Securities (Europe) Limited, Deutsche Bank AG and JPMorgan Cazenove Limited were also contacted to act as financial advisors in connection with the proposed combination with ABN AMRO.

At its meeting on March 14, 2007, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board approved the initiation of negotiations with Barclays with a view to a potential combination.

On March 16, 2007, Mr. Groenink called Mr. Varley to confirm that he was available to investigate a combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays. On March 18, 2007, senior management of ABN AMRO and Barclays, including Mr. Boumeester, a member of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, and Mr. Naguib Kheraj, then Group Finance Director of Barclays met to commence exploratory discussions on the terms of any transaction as well as the terms of a confidentiality and exclusivity agreement. Subsequently, Mr. Groenink informed Mr. Nout Wellink, President of the Dutch Central Bank, about the possibility of a combination transaction and Barclays kept the FSA informed about the status of discussions.

On March 19, 2007, ABN AMRO and Barclays issued a press release to confirm that they were in exclusive preliminary discussions concerning a potential combination.

On March 20, 2007, ABN AMRO and Barclays announced the principles of any potential combination between them.

On March 21, 2007, ABN AMRO entered into a confidentiality, exclusivity and standstill agreement with Barclays. In addition to customary confidentiality provisions, this agreement provided that neither ABN AMRO nor Barclays would solicit any offer from a third party for all or a significant part of their respective assets or shares until April 18, 2007. If such an offer was received in good faith from a third party, however, the agreement provided that either the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board or the Barclays Board, as the case may be, could enter into discussions with such third party if required to do so by their fiduciary duties. Additionally, the agreement permitted either party to have contacts with a third party to understand the contents of any good faith indication of interest by such third party.

On March 21, 2007, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board engaged Stibbe N.V. to provide it with independent Dutch legal advice.

On March 22, 2007, representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays together with their respective financial advisors met to discuss the organization of the work streams for any potential combination.

On March 23, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley met to substantiate further aspects of the five broad principles indicated in the press release of March 20, 2007 and to discuss the organization of the process going forward.

On March 24, 2007, members of the senior management of ABN AMRO met with members of senior management of Barclays in London. The parties exchanged information on their respective businesses and discussed the process and timing for due diligence.

On March 26, 2007, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board created an ad hoc advisory committee, composed of Mr. Martinez, Mr. Olijslager and Mr. Van den Bergh in order to advise the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board on decisions to be taken in the context of the discussions with Barclays or other banks, the actions of activist shareholders and the upcoming shareholders meeting. In April 2007, the ad hoc committee met several times to prepare for the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board meetings.

From March 26, 2007 to March 30, 2007, representatives from the various business units of ABN AMRO and Barclays first met to conduct due diligence, including an examination of the potential synergies that may result from a combination. Additional synergy validation and due diligence on specific topics continued through April 19, 2007.

On March 27, 2007, representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays, together with representatives of their respective financial, legal and tax advisors, met in Amsterdam to discuss the potential legal, regulatory and tax structures of any combination.

On March 30, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley met to advance agreement on the details of the transaction.

On April 3, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley met with representatives of DNB. At this meeting the parties jointly presented their intentions for, and the anticipated benefits of, the proposed combination. The ABN AMRO Supervisory Board also met on April 3, 2007 and April 11, 2007 to discuss the latest developments in the negotiations with Barclays.

From April 3, 2007 to April 16, 2007, the ABN AMRO Managing Board's legal advisors engaged in a number of discussions, in person in Amsterdam and London and on the telephone, with Barclays legal advisors on certain terms of a draft Merger Protocol. Several of these meetings were attended by Mr. Boumeester and Mr. Kheraj.

Between April 4 and April 21, 2007, representatives of ABN AMRO's financial advisors met with representatives of Barclays financial advisors to discuss the methodologies to be used in the determination of any potential exchange ratio.

On April 12, 2007, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board engaged Goldman Sachs to undertake a study as to the fairness of any proposed combination with Barclays.

On April 13, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Martinez received a letter from the Consortium expressing their interest in making an alternative proposal for ABN AMRO and requesting, among other things, access to the same diligence information that Barclays had received.

On April 15, 2007, a committee was established by the Barclays Board for the purpose of the transaction. During April 2007, the Barclays Board or the committee met frequently to receive updates on the status of the discussions with ABN AMRO from those members of the Barclays Board involved in the day to day negotiations.

On April 16, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley met to discuss the progress to date and to evaluate the necessity of extending the initial exclusivity agreement. On April 17, 2007, ABN AMRO and Barclays separately announced that they had agreed to extend the exclusivity period. The ABN AMRO Supervisory Board also met and received an update on April 17, 2007. On April 18, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley met, and at this meeting, Mr. Varley gave an update on his meetings with the ABN AMRO Managing Board members during the course of the preceding days.

On the evening of April 20, 2007, Mr. Boumeester informed Mr. Kheraj of Bank of America's proposal to acquire LaSalle from ABN AMRO prior to a potential combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays.

On April 21, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley discussed Bank of America's proposal to acquire LaSalle from ABN AMRO prior to a potential combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays and the potential impact of this sale on any potential exchange ratio.

Representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays and their respective advisors met on a number of occasions in Amsterdam on April 21 and 22, 2007 to discuss further the draft Merger Protocol.

On the evening of April 21, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Boumeester met with Mr. Varley and Mr. Kheraj in Amsterdam to agree the terms of the proposed combination with Barclays, including the exchange ratio of 3.225 Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share.

During March and April 2007, the ABN AMRO Managing Board met frequently and received updates on the status of the discussions with Barclays from those members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board involved in the day-to-day negotiations. As noted above, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the ad hoc committee had also held several meetings during this time frame.

During the course of the day on April 22, 2007 the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board met throughout the day both together and separately to discuss the evolving terms of the proposed transaction with Barclays, the proposed sale of LaSalle to Bank of America Corporation (see Section 6.9.2 (The Sale of LaSalle) and the contents of the letter that had been received from the Consortium.

During that day, Mr. Groenink updated the ABN AMRO Managing Board on the negotiations with Barclays several times. Representatives from NautaDutilh N.V., Allen & Overy LLP and Davis Polk & Wardwell were also present to brief the ABN AMRO Managing Board members on the terms of the draft Merger Protocol. Representatives from UBS delivered to the ABN AMRO Managing Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated April 22, 2007, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions made, matters considered and limitations described in the opinion, the exchange ratio of 3.225 Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered pursuant to the offer, to be received by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, other than Barclays and its affiliates, was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Representatives from Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited reviewed its financial analyses and rendered to the ABN AMRO Managing Board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing and dated April 22, 2007, to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the opinion, the exchange ratio set forth pursuant to the proposed Merger Protocol was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (other than Barclays and its affiliates) solely in their capacity as ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. At its last meeting of the day, having considered a number of factors including the due diligence findings, merger benefits and financial analysis, the ABN AMRO Managing Board resolved unanimously to recommend to the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board to accept the Offer for ABN AMRO from Barclays and to recommend the same to ABN AMRO's shareholders.

During that day, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board also met with its independent legal and financial advisors in an executive session to consider the terms of the proposed combination with Barclays. At that session, they were briefed on the terms of the draft Merger Protocol by Stibbe N.V. Representatives from Goldman Sachs rendered an oral opinion, later confirmed in writing, to the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board that, as of April 22, 2007, based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in such opinion, the ordinary share exchange ratio to be received by shareholders of ABN AMRO pursuant to the combination was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. During the day, Mr. Groenink updated the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board on the latest developments with Barclays and presented the ABN AMRO Managing Board's decision on the Barclays transaction. Representatives from NautaDutilh N.V., Allen & Overy LLP and Davis Polk & Wardwell were present to answer questions on the draft Merger Protocol. At its last meeting of the day, having considered a number of factors, including the due diligence findings, merger benefits and financial analysis, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board resolved unanimously to recommend the exchange offer for acceptance by the holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

In their review and analysis of the proposed transaction with Barclays and the no shop provisions in the draft Merger Protocol, both the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board noted that the terms of the Merger Protocol, among other things, included provisions permitting them to continue contacts with a third party existing on April 23, 2007 and, in certain circumstances described elsewhere in this document, would permit them to withdraw their respective recommendations if the boards, acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties under applicable law, determined an alternative offer to be more beneficial than the exchange offer.

On the evening of April 22, 2007, the committee of the Barclays Board held two meetings. The first meeting was held to consider, among other matters, the Merger Protocol, due diligence findings, merger benefits, financial analysis, and a draft press announcement. The committee then reconvened that same evening to consider the Merger Protocol and the press announcement. At the end of this meeting, the committee resolved to enter into the Merger Protocol and approved the press announcement.

Following these meetings, on April 22 and the early hours of April 23, representatives of each party together with their legal and financial advisors met again in Amsterdam to finalize the Merger Protocol.

On April 23, 2007, ABN AMRO and Barclays announced that agreement had been reached on a combination.

6.9.2 The Sale of LaSalle

As part of its regular review of strategic growth objectives, both the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board have repeatedly considered and discussed the future of LaSalle (which includes LaSalle Bank Corporation and its subsidiaries LaSalle Bank N.A. and LaSalle Bank Midwest N.A.). In the course of the mid-2006 review, the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board reached the view that within the next twelve to eighteen months, LaSalle would have to either grow through an acquisition or that it should be sold (the "up or out" strategy). It was decided at that time that in light of the fact LaSalle's profitability remained good and in light of the current business cycle, there was no reason for an immediate decision in this matter. The potential disposition of LaSalle was discussed again at the ABN AMRO Managing Board meeting on February 6, 2007.

As of December 31, 2006, LaSalle had more than $113,000 million in tangible assets and a tangible book value of $9.7 billion, adjusted for businesses that will be retained by ABN AMRO and for the previously announced sale of the mortgage operations unit and presented on a U.S. GAAP basis. For the year ended December 31, 2006, LaSalle, presented on the same basis, had net income of $1,035 million.

During the previous two years, Bank of America and other banks had informally approached ABN AMRO several times regarding their interest in acquiring LaSalle. As a result of these informal approaches, both the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board had analyzed a range of possible options for the sale of LaSalle and had reviewed the possible range of values that might be achieved.

A potential sale of LaSalle was discussed at an ABN AMRO Supervisory Board meeting held on April 17, 2007. Later that evening, Bank of America informed ABN AMRO, through UBS, of its interest in acquiring LaSalle for a price of approximately $20 billion, subject to the completion of due diligence. Bank of America entered into a confidentiality agreement with ABN AMRO on April 19, 2007. Over the four day period ending on April 22, 2007, Bank of America completed its due diligence review of LaSalle. Updates on the diligence and the negotiations with Bank of America were discussed at ABN AMRO Managing Board meetings on April 19, 2007 and April 20, 2007.

On April 20, 2007, Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, counsel to Bank of America, circulated a draft purchase and sale agreement to Davis Polk & Wardwell, counsel to ABN AMRO. On April 22, 2007, the parties agreed in principle on consideration of $21 billion, subject to adjustment, and later that day reached agreement on the final terms of the purchase and sale agreement.

The sale of LaSalle was discussed at both the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board meetings during the day of April 22, 2007. In an executive session, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board was briefed on the LaSalle Agreement by its legal advisors and on the financial aspects of the deal by its financial advisors. Both boards also received advice of counsel that under Dutch law no shareholder vote was required to consummate the transaction. The ABN AMRO Managing Board was also briefed on the LaSalle Agreement by its legal advisors.

Representatives from UBS delivered to the ABN AMRO Managing Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated April 22, 2007, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by ABN AMRO pursuant to the LaSalle Agreement, as of such date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion.

Representatives from Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited delivered to the ABN AMRO Managing Board an oral opinion which was subsequently confirmed in writing and dated April 22, 2007, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by ABN AMRO pursuant to the LaSalle Agreement, as of such date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion.

Representatives from Lehman Brothers Europe Limited delivered to the ABN AMRO Managing Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated April 22, 2007, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by ABN AMRO pursuant to the LaSalle Agreement, as of such date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion.

On April 22, 2007, ABN AMRO Bank entered into the LaSalle Agreement with Bank of America pursuant to which ABN AMRO Bank agreed to sell LaSalle (which includes ABN AMRO's U.S. commercial, retail and trust banking operations and related businesses) to Bank of America for a total consideration of USD 21 billion in cash (subject to adjustment based on the financial performance of LaSalle before the closing of the sale). ABN AMRO will retain its global operations and, with limited exceptions, its other operations outside the U.S., as well as its principal broker dealer, investment advisory, wholesale banking and asset management operations in the U.S.

The sale of LaSalle is subject to regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions. The completion of the sale of LaSalle is an offer condition to the proposed combination.

6.9.3 Events after the Announcement of the Transaction

The LaSalle Agreement included a go shop provision that permitted ABN AMRO, for a period of 14 calendar days from April 22, 2007, to enter into a purchase and sale agreement for LaSalle with an alternative bidder, provided that such alternative bidder's proposal was superior from a financial point of view to the LaSalle Agreement, for cash and not subject to a financing condition. The go shop provision granted Bank of America a right to match any such superior proposal and provided for Bank of America to receive a $200 million termination fee if it did not match such superior proposal.

On April 25, 2007, ABN AMRO received an indicative proposal from the Consortium to acquire ABN AMRO. Following that date, ABN AMRO made repeated requests to the Consortium to clarify the terms of their indicative proposal.

On April 26, 2007, Vereniging van Effectenbezitters filed suit in the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal seeking, among other things, a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without approval of ABN AMRO's shareholders. On that date, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board also engaged Debevoise & Plimpton LLP to provide it with independent U.S. legal advice.

On April 27, 2007, a purported class action lawsuit relating to the sale of LaSalle was filed in the New York State Supreme Court for New York County against ABN AMRO, each member of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and Bank of America. The lawsuit, Halpert Enterprises v. ABN AMRO Holding N.V., et al., generally alleges, among other things, that members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board violated their fiduciary duties by, among other things, preventing a full and fair sale process for the whole of ABN AMRO. The complaint also names Bank of America as a defendant and seeks, among other forms of relief, a declaration that the termination fee is unenforceable, a declaration that the LaSalle Agreement was entered into in breach of fiduciary duties and therefore is unlawful and unenforceable, an injunction against the consummation of the LaSalle Agreement, the imposition of a constructive trust in favour of plaintiff and the alleged class and an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

On April 27, 2007, ABN AMRO entered into confidentiality agreements with the Consortium members and made available the same information regarding ABN AMRO as had been made available to Barclays.

On April 28, 2007, ABN AMRO entered into confidentiality agreements with the Consortium and made available the same information regarding LaSalle as had been made available to Bank of America.

On May 3, 2007, the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal granted a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without approval of ABN AMRO's shareholders.

On May 4, 2007, Bank of America filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York against ABN AMRO. The lawsuit, Bank of America Corporation v. ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and ABN AMRO Holding N.V., generally alleges, among other things, that ABN AMRO Bank breached its representation in the LaSalle Agreement that no shareholder vote was necessary regarding the sale of LaSalle. The complaint seeks injunctive relief that ABN AMRO Bank be precluded from negotiating for the sale of LaSalle except as provided for in the go shop provision of the LaSalle Agreement, an order of specific performance for the delivery of LaSalle to Bank of America and unspecified money damages.

On May 5, 2007, ABN AMRO received an acquisition proposal from the Consortium to purchase LaSalle for $24.5 billion. This proposal was conditional on the purchase by the Consortium of ABN AMRO for an indicative price of EUR 38.40 per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share and a number of other conditions. The considered view of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, having received advice from their respective financial and legal advisors, was that the Consortium's acquisition proposal for LaSalle did not constitute an alternative proposal that was superior from a financial point of view to the LaSalle Agreement. This conclusion was principally based on the fact that the Consortium's proposal for LaSalle was dependent on the success of a potential offer to be made for ABN AMRO and the various conditions and uncertainties attached to that potential offer. In particular, fundamental aspects of the potential offer for ABN AMRO, including with respect to financing, required regulatory notifications, tax clearances, the proposed material adverse change condition, required shareholder approvals and the pro forma financial impact upon each of the members of the Consortium remained unclear despite repeated requests for clarification since April 25, 2007, the date on which ABN AMRO received an indicative proposal from the Consortium to acquire ABN AMRO. Prior to making their determination on May 6, 2007, the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board sent a detailed information request letter seeking clarification and evidence on various aspects of the Consortium's potential offer for ABN AMRO which had first been requested on April 25, 2007, but the requested information was not provided. Without details about the Consortium's financing and the pro forma financial impact on each of the Consortium, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the ABN AMRO Managing Board were unable to assess the likelihood that any separate shareholder vote required by the Consortium would be successful, and therefore whether or not the potential offer to acquire ABN AMRO had a reasonable likelihood of consummation.

The 14-day go shop period expired at 11:59 pm New York time on May 6, 2007, and no alternative agreement was entered into prior to that time. Two other parties had signed confidentiality agreements and certain due diligence information had been provided to them but ultimately neither submitted a bid for LaSalle.

On May 15, 2007, ABN AMRO filed an appeal in the Supreme Court of the Netherlands requesting that the Supreme Court nullify the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on May 3, 2007 which granted a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without approval of ABN AMRO's shareholders. Bank of America filed an appeal seeking similar relief with the Supreme Court of the Netherlands also on May 15, 2007, as did Barclays.

On May 17, 2007, two ABN AMRO shareholders filed a lawsuit against Bank of America in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York. The lawsuit, Sadowsky v. Bank of America Corporation, generally alleges, among other things, that Bank of America entered into the LaSalle Agreement with knowledge that it was a defensive mechanism designed to foreclose alternative proposals to purchase ABN AMRO and that Bank of America's lawsuit against ABN AMRO was filed in breach of the LaSalle Agreement. The complaint seeks rescission of the LaSalle Agreement, an injunction preventing Bank of America from enforcing the LaSalle Agreement, including the termination fee provisions therein, unspecified money damages and an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

On May 23, 2007, Barclays and ABN AMRO announced that they were making progress with the key regulatory filings required to proceed with the combination and expected to disseminate offer documentation in July 2007.

On May 29, 2007, the Consortium announced a proposed offer for ABN AMRO.

On May 30, 2007, ABN AMRO announced publicly that the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board had formed a Transaction Committee, formed of the same members as the previously existing ad hoc committee (Mr. Martinez, Mr. Olijslager and Mr. Van den Bergh) which will liaise with the ABN AMRO Managing Board and key staff and advisors of ABN AMRO on all matters with respect to the offer by Barclays and with respect to the proposed offer announced by the Consortium. The Transaction Committee will operate in all respects so as to enable the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board to take on an informed basis and with the help of its own independent financial and legal advisors the appropriate decisions with due consideration of the interests of ABN AMRO and its stakeholders.

On June 11, 2007, at the joint request of Bank of America and ABN AMRO, the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York adjourned the initial conference in the lawsuit filed by Bank of America against ABN AMRO until July 27, 2007, in view of the pendency of the appeals filed by ABN AMRO and Bank of America to the Dutch Supreme Court from the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal dated May 3, 2007.

On June 12, 2007, Barclays announced publicly that, in collaboration with ABN AMRO, it has made substantially all of the pre-acquisition competition and regulatory filings required to proceed with the proposed combination and expected to publish the offer documentation in July 2007.

On June 12, 2007, Barclays also announced publicly that it had filed the draft documentation in relation to the Offer with regulators in the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and the United States of America (including the draft registration statement on Form F-4 containing the preliminary version of the Offer to Document/ Prospectus).

On June 26, 2007, the Advocate General to the Supreme Court of The Netherlands published a recommendation to the Supreme Court to nullify the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on May 3, 2007. This recommendation was independent legal advice issued to the Supreme Court.

On June 28, 2007, four trade unions joined the investigation proceedings initiated on April 26, 2007 by Vereniging van Effectenbezitters at the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal. The trade unions have put forward certain additional objections and requested that the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal order an investigation into certain affairs of ABN AMRO in respect of the offer process.

On July 9, 2007, ABN AMRO filed a statement of defense in response to the request of Vereniging van Effectenbezitters to order an investigation into certain affairs of ABN AMRO in respect of the offer process.

On July 10, 2007, Vereniging van Effectenbezitters requested that the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal, in the context of the investigation proceedings initiated by it on April 26, 2007, appoint three independent members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. The request was revoked prior to the hearing, which was then cancelled.

On July 13, 2007, the Supreme Court of the Netherlands upheld the appeals filed by ABN AMRO, Bank of America and Barclays on May 15, 2007 against the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on May 3, 2007. The Supreme Court nullified the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal and irrevocably dismissed the request of Vereniging van Effectenbezitters for a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO and

ABN AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without approval of the ABN AMRO Shareholders.

On July 16, 2007, the Consortium announced its intention to make an offer to acquire ABN AMRO for approximately USD 98 billion, through a combination of cash and newly issued shares of RBS.

On the evening of July 18, 2007, Mr. Varley informed Mr. Groenink that the AFM had granted Barclays an extension so that an announcement of its formal offer documentation being available could be made on or before August 6, 2007. Mr. Varley also informed Mr. Groenink that Barclays was considering possible alternative offer structures, including the introduction of a partial cash consideration element into its offer.

On July 19, 2007, Barclays announced it was considering possible alternative offer structures, including the introduction of a partial cash consideration element into its offer but that no decision had yet been taken.

On the evening of July 19, 2007, during a telephone conversation between Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley, Mr. Varley outlined further details about the revised offer for ABN AMRO that Barclays was considering.

On July 20, 2007, the Central Works council of ABN AMRO provided positive advice in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays.

On the evening of July 20, 2007, ABN AMRO received a letter from Barclays outlining the terms and conditions of its revised offer for ABN AMRO.

On July 21 and 22, 2007, representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays discussed and agreed the provisions of an amendment to the Merger Protocol dated April 23, 2007, to accommodate ABN AMRO's review of the revised proposal from Barclays and to facilitate Barclays public announcement of its revised proposal on July 23, 2007.

On July 23, 2007, Barclays announced the revised terms of its offer for ABN AMRO.

On July 25, 2007, Mr. Varley sent a letter to Mr. Groenink and Mr. Martinez to restate the key points underlying Barclays revised proposal and why the ABN AMRO Boards should continue to recommend this proposed exchanged offer to ABN AMRO shareholders.

On the morning of July 26, 2007, the ABN AMRO Managing Board met to consider the revised terms of the Barclays proposed exchange offer and the terms of the Consortium's offer.

Later on the same day, the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board held a joint meeting to discuss the two competing proposals and received a combined presentation from members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, outside legal counsel and financial advisors and members of the management, followed by a Q&A session.

On the evening of July 26, 2007, Mr. Varley made a presentation to the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and Mr. Groenink.

During the course of the day on July 27, 2007, the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board met throughout the day both together and separately, in executive sessions and with outside legal counsel and financial advisors. As a result of the meetings, each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, after having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and financial advisers, acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties, resolved to make the statement contained in the press release issued on July 30, 2007 and in Item 4 of ABN AMRO's Solicitation/ Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9, which was filed with the SEC on July 30, 2007.

On the evening of July 27, 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley agreed in principle that neither ABN AMRO, nor Barclays, wished to terminate the Merger Protocol and/or to claim payment at that time of the break fees contemplated therein.

On July 27, 2007, the lawsuit filed in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York against ABN AMRO by Bank of America on May 4, 2007, was dismissed.

During the course of the day on July 28, and July 29, representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays, and their respective advisors, worked on second amendment to the Merger Protocol, dated July 30, 2007.

On August 2, 2007, a hearing was held at the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal in respect of the requests of Vereniging van Effectenbezitters and four trade unions to order an investigation into certain affairs of ABN AMRO in respect of the offer process. In relation thereto, ABN AMRO has committed to continue to update investors in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.

6.10 Substantiation of the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio6.10.1 Introduction

In establishing the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio, Barclays and ABN AMRO have carefully considered the history and prospects of ABN AMRO, Barclays and the Combined Group, including through analyses of historic and future developments in profitability and balance sheets. Account has also been taken of the expected synergies arising from the Merger and of the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America. Furthermore, account has been taken of the historic market value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the Barclays Ordinary Shares.

6.10.2 Substantiation

Barclays has based the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio on careful financial analysis, including, among others,

- (a) Trading multiple analyses based on the financial performances of ABN AMRO and Barclays and the pricing and trading activity of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Barclays Ordinary Shares compared with those of certain comparable publicly traded companies, being Grupo BBVA, BNP Paribas, Citigroup, Deutsche Bank, HBOS, HSBC, ING Group, JPMorgan Chase, Lloyds TSB, Royal Bank of Scotland and UBS Limited;
- (b) Analysis of the financial effects of the Merger on Barclays, including the expected effects on future earnings and economic profit per Barclays Ordinary Share and the expected return on investment from the Merger; and
- (c) Analysis of value creation for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and Barclays Ordinary Shareholders based on assessment of standalone fair values for ABN AMRO and Barclays and a capitalised value of the expected synergies.

6.10.3 Premiums

The Offer values each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share at EUR 34.83 and values ABN AMRO at approximately EUR 65.6 billion, based on the fully diluted number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (excluding ordinary shares held as treasury shares, but including options and share awards), the share price of Barclays Ordinary Shares on 2 August, 2007, and using the exchange rate of GBP 1.00 = EUR 1.4839 as published by the Financial Times on 2 August, 2007. Of this amount, approximately 38 percent will be payable in cash. The implied value of this consideration per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share represents a price to reported earnings multiple of 13.9 times and a price to book multiple of 2.7 times based on 2006 figures.

The Offer represents a premium for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders of approximately:

27.6 percent to the share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares on 16 March, 2007, the last Business Day prior to the announcement that ABN AMRO and Barclays were in talks; and

43.6 percent over the average share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the 6 months up to and including 16 March, 2007.

6.11 Substantiation of the ADS Consideration Ratio

As one ABN AMRO ADS is equivalent to one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share, the substantiation of the ADS Consideration Ratio is identical to the substantiation of the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio in Section 6.10 (Substantiation of the Ordinary Share Consideration Ratio).

6.12 Substantiation of the Offer for the DR Preference Shares

6.12.1 Introduction

In establishing the value of the Offer for the DR Preference Shares, Barclays has carefully considered the intrinsic value of the DR Preference Shares, as set out in the prospectus dated 31 August, 2004 relating to the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

6.12.2 Substantiation

Barclays has established the value of the Offer for the DR Preference Shares on the basis of their nominal value, plus accrued dividends up to and including the expected closing date of the offer, plus the cancellation payment of 2% to which the holders would be entitled in the event of a cancellation of the DR Preference Shares.

6.12.3 Premiums

The Offer values each DR Preference Share at EUR 0.59 and values the total DR Preference Share capital at approximately EUR 808 million, based on the number of DR Preference Shares in issue on 30 July, 2007.

6.13 Substantiation of the Offer for the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

6.13.1 Introduction

In establishing the value of the Offer for the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares, Barclays has taken account of the historic market value of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

6.13.2 Substantiation

Barclays has established the value of the Offer for the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares on the basis of their market value as at 20 April, 2007, the business day prior to the announcement of the Offer.

6.13.3 Premiums

The Offer values each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share at EUR 27.65 and values the total Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share capital at approximately EUR 1.2 million, based on the number of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in issue on 30 July 2007.

6.14 Reasons for the Offer and the Merger

In reaching their decisions to approve the Merger Protocol each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board consulted with management and their respective financial and legal advisors and considered a variety of factors, including the material factors described below. The foregoing decision of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board was made at special meetings of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, held on 22 April, 2007. In deciding to revise the terms of the Merger, Barclays took into account the investments by China Development Bank and Temasek. The Barclays Board believes that the Unconditional Investment is an important endorsement of the Barclays strategy and management team. In addition, the Barclays Board believes that the Conditional Investment underscores the confidence of China Development Bank and Temasek in the value potential of the Merger. In light of the number and wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the transaction, each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its determination. Each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board viewed its position as being based on all of the information available and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors or members may have given different weight to different factors. This explanation of the reasons for the proposed Merger and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under Section 1.2 (Important Information).

6.15 Strategic Considerations

Each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board considered a number of factors pertaining to the strategic rationale for the Offer and the Merger as generally supporting its decision to enter into the Merger Protocol, including the following:

the expectation that the proposed combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays would create one of the world's leading universal banks in a sector which is still fragmented;

the belief that universal banking is the model best equipped for success in an industry where customer needs are converging and where demand-led growth will be significant across the globe;

the belief that harmonization of customer needs is already well advanced in investment banking and investment management and is increasingly apparent in retail and commercial banking;

the belief that the proposed Merger brings together two sets of high quality product capabilities and brands, which are well placed to create growth for shareholders from the relationship extension opportunities that exist in a combined base of approximately 46 million personal and 1.4 million commercial customers;

the belief that, in global retail and commercial banking, ABN AMRO and Barclays bring together two sets of highly complementary geographies. Approximately 90 percent of the combined group's branches will be in seven countries. In Europe the combination will have leading franchises in the United Kingdom and The Netherlands and attractive positions in the Italian, Spanish and Portuguese markets. Additionally, the combination will have significant exposure to the high growth developing economies of Brazil and South Africa offering substantial revenue and profit growth opportunities. The Combined Group will also leverage ABN AMRO's fast growing Asian business;

the expectation that customers will benefit from the enhanced retail and commercial product capabilities of the Combined Group drawing on, for example, ABN AMRO's global cash and payments infrastructure and Barclays expertise in credit cards;

the fact that ABN AMRO and Barclays are both recognized leaders in commercial banking and both have relevant presence in the mid-market segment. The Merger is expected to accelerate Barclays ambition to develop its business banking activities globally. The Combined Group should be further strengthened by the linkage between a strong investment banking product range and the track record of both ABN AMRO and Barclays in selling investment banking products to midmarket clients across the Combined Group's broad geographic footprint;

the belief that there is significant opportunity for increased cost efficiency through the optimisation of the operating infrastructure and processes;

the belief that the combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays will support the ambition to be a leading global investment bank in risk management and financing through enhanced product expertise and broader geographic exposure;

the expectation that Barclays existing investment banking product capabilities will be considerably enhanced, particularly in commodities, FX, equities, M&A, corporate broking, structured credit and private equity and its geographic and client reach will also be extended significantly into Asia, Latin America and Continental Europe;

the fact that the Combined Group will be the world's largest institutional asset manager and that Barclays Global Investors' index-based, exchange traded fund and quantitative active capabilities will be complemented by ABN AMRO's active fundamentals-based capabilities and products;

the expectation that there are expanded opportunities for retail distribution of the current product set including Barclays Global Investors' rapidly growing iShares exchange traded funds; and the fact that the Combined Group will be the world's eighth largest wealth manager⁹ and that the expanded distribution network will position the merged business well to benefit from favourable demographic trends and increasing demand-led client volumes.

Table of Contents6.16 Financial Considerations

Each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board also considered a number of financial factors pertaining to the combination as generally supporting its decision to enter into the Merger Protocol. Potential synergies arising from the combination have been assessed by a joint team from ABN AMRO and Barclays through a detailed bottom up approach involving business leaders from both banks. Bob Diamond, Barclays Group President, will be the Accountable Executive for the integration and synergy programmes, reporting to the Group Chief Executive, and will chair an Integration Committee which will comprise: himself; Huibert Boumeester, Group Chief Administrative Officer; Paul Idzik, Group Chief Operating Officer; Ron Teerlink, GRCB Chief Operating Officer; and Rich Ricci, IBIM Chief Operating officer. The Integration Committee will have the responsibility for the delivery of the estimated costs, synergies and revenue benefits. Capturing the expected synergies will assist the management of the Combined Group in achieving top quartile cost: income ratios across all businesses by 2010.

Below is a summary of the estimated pre-tax annual cost synergies and revenue benefits the estimated costs to achieve them, that are expected to be realised in the three calendar years commencing 2008:¹¹

Pre-Tax Annual Cost Synergies and Revenue Benefits	2008e	2009e	2010e
	(m)	(m)	(m)
Cost synergies	1,195	2,270	2,800
Revenue benefits	(470)		700
Total synergies and benefits	725	2,270	3,500
Integration Costs	2,160	1,080	360

Global Retail and Commercial Banking

It is estimated that the pre-tax annual cost synergies in retail and commercial banking will be EUR 1,650 million in 2010, representing approximately 10 percent of the combined group's retail and commercial banking cost base excluding LaSalle. The cost synergies are expected to result from the consolidation of the retail and commercial banking activities into a universal banking model including:

best practice off-shoring, improved procurement and real estate rationalization;

the consolidation of data centers and supporting IT networks;

the use of ABN AMRO's trade and payments back office operations in the Barclays network and integration of card operations under Barclaycard; and the reduction of overlaps in management structures and the retail and commercial operations in the eight overlapping countries.

Revenue benefits are estimated to amount to at least EUR 150 million on a pre-tax basis in 2010, which is equivalent to 0.5 percent of combined revenues. These are expected to be primarily derived from extending ABN AMRO's broader cash management product offering, increasing ABN AMRO's revenue per creditcard towards Barclays comparable levels and realizing the network benefits of increased global presence.

Investment Banking and Investment Management

The estimated annual pre-tax cost synergies in investment banking in 2010 are expected to amount to approximately EUR 850 million. Pre-tax cost synergies are equivalent to 8 percent of combined costs. The cost synergies are expected to be derived from the integration of the two banks operations onto one operating platform and subsequent reduction of back office staff and non-staff cost.

It is estimated that revenue benefits, net of assumed revenue attrition, in investment banking in 2010 will be EUR 500 million pre-tax, equivalent to 3 percent of combined revenues. These benefits are expected to be derived from offering a stronger and broader product set to the combined client base and building on the productivity gains within ABN AMRO's investment banking operations. It is expected that, in addition ¹¹ These synergy estimates do not include any of the benefits which are expected to be derived from the partnership with China Development Bank.

to the revenue benefits, the combined business will continue to be able to deliver attractive organic growth consistent with Barclays Capital's and ABN AMRO's existing prospects.

Further revenue benefits of approximately EUR 50 million are estimated to arise primarily in the wealth and asset management businesses as a result of the enhanced distribution capabilities of the Combined Group. Approximately EUR 100 million of annual pre-tax cost synergies are expected to arise from the reduction of overlap in wealth and asset management.

Other Synergies

It is estimated that further cost synergies of EUR 200 million are expected to arise from the rationalization of the two head offices.

Integration Costs

The total pre-tax integration cost of realizing the synergy benefits is estimated to be EUR 3,600 million of which approximately EUR 2,160 million is expected to be incurred in 2008, approximately EUR 1,080 million is expected to be incurred in 2009 and approximately EUR 360 million is expected to be incurred in 2010.

Financial Terms

Each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board also considered the financial terms of the Offer, including:

the 2.13 Barclays Ordinary Shares and EUR 13.15 in cash that ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders would receive in the Offer for each of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and 0.5325 Barclays ADSs and the USD equivalent of EUR 13.15¹² in cash that ABN AMRO ADS Holders would receive in the Offer for each of their ABN AMRO ADSs in each case subject to successful elections under the Mix and Match Facility;

the fact that the Offer represents a premium of 27.6 percent over the closing price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares on Euronext on 16 March 2007, the last Euronext Trading Day prior to the announcement that Barclays and ABN AMRO were in talks, and a premium of 43.6 percent over the average share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the six months up to and including 16 March 2007;

the earnings, cash flow and balance sheet impact of the Combined Group based on public information and third-party analyst forecasts, as well as the historical financial performance of Barclays and the historical trading price of Barclays Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares;

the expectation that Barclays Ordinary Shareholders will hold approximately 55.6 percent and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will hold approximately 35.1 percent of the outstanding shares of Barclays immediately after implementation of the Merger and will have the opportunity to share in the future growth and expected synergies of the Combined Group; and the expectation that the proposed Merger will lead to 5 percent accretion¹³ in Barclays adjusted earnings per share¹⁴ in 2010, and to significant accretion in ABN AMRO's adjusted cash earnings per share¹⁵ in 2008 for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders including ABN AMRO ADS Holders and that the return on investment will be approximately 13 percent in 2010.

12 The cash consideration paid for each ABN AMRO ADS will be in U.S. Dollars, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which ABN AMRO ADS Holders are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into U.S. Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by the ADS Exchange Agent, for the five business days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS Exchange Agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.

13 Adjusted earnings per share is the profit attributable to holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares (including Barclays Ordinary Shares represented by Barclays ADSs) adjusted to exclude the amortization of identifiable intangible assets and fair value adjustments and integration costs relating to the Merger, divided by the weighted average number of Barclays Ordinary Shares.

14 This statement is not intended to be and should not be interpreted to mean that the future adjusted earnings per share of Barclays will necessarily match or exceed its historical published adjusted earnings per share.

15 Adjusted earnings per share is the profit attributable to holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares (including Barclays Ordinary Shares represented by Barclays ADSs) adjusted to exclude the amortization of identifiable intangible assets and fair value adjustments and integration costs relating to the Merger, divided by the weighted average number of Barclays Ordinary Shares.

Table of Contents

Each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board also considered the results of the financial, legal and operational due diligence performed by their respective senior management and financial advisers and legal counsel, including Barclays historical share performance.

6.17 Other factors considered by Barclays Board and ABN AMRO Boards

Each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board also considered a number of additional factors in its decision to enter into the Merger Protocol, including the following:

the UK corporate governance structure of the Combined Group with a unitary board;

the fact that the head office of the Combined Group will be located in Amsterdam with day-to-day management of the Combined Group the responsibility of Mr. Varley, working with the group executive committee;

the fact that DNB and the FSA have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and that DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO Group and Barclays Group, respectively.

the fact that the holding company for the Combined Group, Barclays, will remain UK incorporated and will remain a UK tax resident; and the fact that the holding company for the Combined Group will remain UK listed and is expected to qualify for an inclusion with a full weighting in the FTSE 100 index and in the AEX index (subject to a maximum weighting cap of 15 percent).

Each of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board also considered a number of uncertainties, risks and other potentially negative factors associated with the combination, including the following:

the value of the Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays ADSs at the time of the settlement of the transaction could be lower than the price of Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays ADSs as of the date of the Merger Protocol as a result of, among other things, a change in the value of the assets and liabilities of Barclays and/or ABN AMRO;

the risk that the amount of cost savings and revenue synergies that are actually achieved by the Merger may turn out to be less than originally projected;

the possibility that regulatory or governmental authorities in the United States, Europe or elsewhere might seek to impose conditions on or otherwise prevent or delay the Merger;

the risks and costs to Barclays and ABN AMRO if the Merger is not completed, including the potential diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential effect on business and customer relationships;

the risk that the potential benefits of the Merger may not be fully or partially realised, recognizing the many potential management and regulatory challenges associated with successfully combining the businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO;

the risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters, and potential disruption associated with combining and integrating the companies;

the risk that certain members of Barclays or ABN AMRO senior management who have been selected to hold senior management positions in the Combined Group might not choose to remain with the Combined Group;

the potential challenges and difficulties relating to integrating the operations of Barclays and ABN AMRO;

the risk that holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs may fail to approve the Merger or that an insufficient number of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs tender their respective ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs into the Offer;

Table of Contents

that some officers and directors of Barclays and ABN AMRO have interests in the Merger as individuals in addition to, and that may be different from, the interests of holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs or ABN AMRO Shares;

the fees and expenses associated with completing the Merger; and various other risks associated with the combination and the business of the Barclays, ABN AMRO and the Combined Group described under Risk Factors in the Barclays Prospectus, which is incorporated by reference herein.

The Barclays Board believed that these potential risks and drawbacks were greatly outweighed by the potential benefits that the Barclays Board expected Barclays to achieve as a result of the Merger.

In considering the Merger, the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and the Barclays Board were aware of the interests of certain officers and directors of, and advisors to, ABN AMRO, the ABN AMRO Boards, Barclays and the Barclays Board, in the Combined Group, as described under Section 6.7 (Interests of ABN AMRO Board members in the Merger) and Section 6.8 (Interests of Barclays Directors and Executive Officers).

6.18 Comparison of rights of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and Barclays Ordinary Shareholders

Upon completion of the Offer, holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will become holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares. Barclays is a public limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales, and the rights of the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares are governed by the applicable laws of England and Wales and by the Barclays Articles of Association. ABN AMRO is a Dutch corporation, and the rights of the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are governed by the applicable laws of The Netherlands and by the ABN AMRO Articles of Association.

The following is a summary comparison of:

the current rights of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and under the laws of The Netherlands and the ABN AMRO Articles of Association; and the rights that holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will have as holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares under the laws of England and Wales and the Barclays Articles of Association upon the completion of the Offer.

The following summary discusses some of the material differences between the current rights of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares under the laws of The Netherlands and under the ABN AMRO Articles of Association as compared to the rights of holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares under the laws of England and Wales and under the Barclays Articles of Association. The statements in this Section 6.18 are qualified in their entirety by reference to, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the relevant laws of England and Wales and The Netherlands and the Barclays Articles of Association and the ABN AMRO Articles of Association.

Copies of the Barclays Articles of Association and the ABN AMRO Articles of Association are incorporated by reference herein and will be sent to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares upon request. See also Section 1.2 (Important Information).

At the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting it will be proposed to amend the Barclays Articles of Association. The new Barclays Articles of Association would contain the rights attaching to the Barclays Preference Shares and include any necessary consequential amendments to reflect the creation of the Barclays Preference Shares, but would otherwise be identical to the existing Barclays Articles of Association.

Provisions applicable to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares

Under the ABN AMRO Articles of Association, the authorised share capital of ABN AMRO amounts to EUR 4,704,000,224 nominal value. It consists of (i) four billion and four hundred ABN AMRO

Provisions applicable to holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares

Share Capital

Barclays has two classes of shares, ordinary shares and staff shares. The authorised share capital of Barclays amounts to GBP 2,500 million comprising 9,996 million ordinary shares of Ordinary Shares, nominal value EUR 0.56 each, (ii) four billion Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares, nominal value EUR 0.56 each, subdivided into one series of one billion six hundred million shares and six series of four hundred million shares, and (iii) one hundred million Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares, nominal value EUR 2.24 each, subdivided into one series of twenty million shares and eight series of ten million shares. As of 30 July 2007 there were 1,846,114,758 ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (adjusted for treasury shares), options to purchase 30,136,303 ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and conditional share awards in respect of 7,675,955 ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, 1,369,815,864 Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares and 44,988 Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares outstanding.

and one million staff shares of GBP 1 each. As of 30 July, 2007, there were 6,545,671,873 Ordinary Shares and options to purchase 97,948,735 Barclays Ordinary Shares and 875,000 staff shares, outstanding.

Issuance of Shares

The ABN AMRO Managing Board may be authorized by resolution of the ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting to issue from time to time ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares (or to grant rights to take up such classes of shares). This authority is subject to the prior approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and at the present time is among others further limited to an overall maximum of 10% of the issued capital of ABN AMRO in issue as of April 26, 2007, and provided in general that the price is not below par. At the 2007 annual general meeting of ABN AMRO Shareholders, the general meeting has resolved to renew the authority for a period of 18 months, starting 27 April 2007, subject among other things to an overall maximum of 10% of the issued capital of ABN AMRO in issue as at 26 April 2007. In the event that the authority of the ABN AMRO Managing Board issues shares of capital stock terminates, the issuance of shares of capital stock would require a resolution of the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting, upon a proposal of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, which is subject to the prior approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. The ABN AMRO Managing Board is also currently authorised by the ABN AMRO Shareholders

The Barclays Articles of Association provide that the Company may issue shares with such preferred, deferred or other rights or restrictions attached to them. These rights or restrictions can be decided whether by way of an ordinary resolution passed by the Barclays Shareholders or, failing such determination, by the Barclays Board.

The Barclays Articles of Association provide that the Barclays Board can decide how to deal with any shares which have not been issued, provided they have appropriate shareholders authority and provided that pre-emptive rights, the articles of association and the rights attaching to any existing shares are complied with.

At the 2007 annual general meeting held on 26 April, the general meeting resolved to renew the authority authorizing the Barclays Board to allot securities up to an amount equal to approximately one-third of the issued ordinary share capital of Barclays as at 27 February 2007 (excluding treasury shares). The authorisation is effective until the next Barclays annual general meeting in 2008 or if earlier on 26 July 2008 unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the company in general meeting.

meeting to restrict or exclude pre-emptive rights with respect to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and the granting of rights to acquire such shares. Only ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are entitled to pre-emptive rights.

The general meeting also authorised the Barclays Board to allot equity securities (or sell treasury shares), pursuant to a rights issue or for cash up to an amount representing approximately 5 percent of the ordinary share capital of Barclays without the need to first offer the shares to existing shareholders. The renewed authority would remain in force until the date of the annual general meeting in 2008 or 26 July 2008 whichever is the earlier (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by Barclays in general meeting).

Ordinary Shares

Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are entitled to one vote per Ordinary Share. There are no limitations, either under Dutch law or in ABN AMRO Articles of Association, on the right of non-residents of The Netherlands to hold or vote Ordinary Shares. The ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are entitled to dividends in such amounts and at such times as may be declared by ABN AMRO out of funds legally available for that purpose. Cash dividends payable in Euro on ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares may be officially transferred from The Netherlands and converted into any other convertible currency. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares have certain pre-emptive rights. See Shareholders Pre-emptive Rights, below.

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are issued in registered or bearer form. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in bearer form may be represented by a global certificate. No share certificates will be issued in respect of such bearer shares.

Holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares are entitled to one vote per Barclays Ordinary Share.

If any sum remains unpaid in relation to a Barclays member's holding, that member is not entitled to vote in relation to that holding unless the Barclays Board or Barclays determines otherwise.

The holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares are entitled to dividends at such times as may be declared by Barclays out of the profits available for distribution (see Dividends below).

Barclays Ordinary Shares have certain pre-emptive rights (see Shareholders Pre-emptive Rights below).

Ordinary shares may be issued in certificated or uncertificated form.

(i) Ordinary Shares issued under the Primary Exchange.

Ordinary Shares issued under the Primary Exchange will be in uncertificated form and will be issued into the Euroclear Netherlands system via the CREST account of Euroclear Netherlands, the Dutch central depository institution.

No share certificates are to be issued for such shares. The shares will be registered in the shareholders register, which is maintained by Barclays, in the name of Euroclear Netherlands as Dutch central depository institution.

The shares may be held by individual shareholders through their securities accounts with a custodian linked to Euroclear Netherlands. These shares are held and transferred by book-entry. Barclays pays any dividends to the custodian for the benefit of the applicable shareholders.

(ii) Ordinary Shares issued under the Alternative Exchange.

For registered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, no share certificates are to be issued. Holders of registered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are entered in the ABN AMRO Shareholders Register, which is maintained by ABN AMRO. In cases where the registered ABN AMRO Shares are held by a custodian, the ABN AMRO Shares may be registered in the name of a central depository institution or a custodian linked to such central depository institution on behalf of the ABN AMRO

Share certificates will be issued in hard copy form under seal or the securities seal (or in the case of shares on an overseas branch register, an official seal for use in that territory) or signed by a director and company secretary or two directors. Each certificate specifies the number of shares and class of shares to which it relates, the amount paid up and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates. No certificates will be issued representing shares of more than one class.

Shareholders. Nearly all ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are registered in the name of Nederlands Centraal Instituut voor Giraal Effectenverkeer B.V., or Euroclear Nederland. The ABN AMRO Shares may be held by individual Shareholders through their securities accounts with a custodian linked to Euroclear Nederland. These ABN AMRO Shares will be held and transferred by means of book-entries in the administration of the custodian. Holders of any such ABN AMRO Shares are not entitled to delivery thereof outside the system of the Dutch Securities Giro Act (Wet giraal effectenverkeer). Any dividends are paid by ABN AMRO to the custodian for the benefit of the applicable ABN AMRO Shareholders.

At the request of a holder of registered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares that are not registered in the name of Euroclear Nederland, ABN AMRO is required to provide an extract from the ABN AMRO Shareholders Register in the name of the ABN AMRO Shareholder. Transfer of such a registered ABN AMRO Share in the capital of ABN AMRO requires an instrument of transfer and, if ABN AMRO is not a party to the instrument, either an acknowledgement by ABN AMRO or service of an instrument on ABN AMRO to ascertain that the rights attached to the ABN AMRO Shares can be exercised. The acknowledgement must be made by registration of the transfer in the ABN AMRO Shareholders Register or in the instrument of transfer, either by a dated statement on the instrument of transfer or on a copy or extract thereof certified by a civil law notary or the transferor to be a true copy or extract of the instrument of transfer. Official service by an authorised Dutch process service provider of the instrument of transfer or of such copy or extract on ABN AMRO is considered to have the same effect as an acknowledgement by ABN AMRO of the transfer.

Barclays also permits the issue of Barclays Shares to be held in uncertificated form and transferred through computer based systems and procedures permitted by the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 1995 (SI 1995 No. 95/3272) (as modified and replaced) and the rules of the London Stock Exchange (including CREST) (Regulations) in which case Barclays will not issue, and no person is entitled to receive, a certificate in respect of any share and at any time for so long as the title to that share is evidenced otherwise than by a certificate and transfers may be made other than by a written instrument.

Transfers of Barclays Shares in uncertificated form shall be made in accordance with the Regulations and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system (such as CREST) subject to any arrangements made by the Barclays Board pursuant to the Barclays Articles of Association.

Instruments of transfer of Barclays Shares in certificated form shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor will be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered into the register of members of Barclays.

In the case of an instrument of transfer executed by a recognised clearing house or nominee of a recognised clearing house or of a recognised investment exchange, the lodgement of certificate for the Barclays shares being transferred will not be required unless certificates have been issued in respect of those Barclays Shares.

Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

Until 31 October 2003, each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share was convertible into ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Only 44,988 Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares remain outstanding. There are no limitations, either under Dutch law or in ABN AMRO Articles of Association, on the right of non-residents of The Netherlands to hold or vote Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Barclays has no convertible preference shares on issue.

Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shareholders are entitled to four votes per Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share. The Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shareholders are entitled to preferred dividends in such amounts as are provided for in ABN AMRO Articles of Association and have certain preferential rights upon liquidation. See Dividends and Liquidation Rights, respectively below.

Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares

All of the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares are held by the Foundation, as record holder, which issues depositary receipts (or DR Preference Shares) evidencing ownership interests in Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares to the beneficial owners thereof. The Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares have the same nominal value as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, being EUR 0.56 each. The Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares are issued in registered form. The DR Preference Shares are registered in the name of Euroclear Nederland. The DR Preference Shares may be held by individual certificate holders through their securities accounts with a custodian linked to Euroclear Nederland. These DR Preference Shares will be held and transferred by means of book-entries in the administration of the custodian. The voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares, although formally with the Foundation, are exercised in practice by the DR Preference Shareholders, as voting proxies will be issued to the DR Preference Shareholders by the trust office under all circumstances. In principle, the Foundation will not exercise its voting rights. The Barclays currently has no preference shares on issue.

voting rights will be calculated on the basis of the equity participation of the (depository receipts of the) Underlying Preference Shares in proportion to the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. The voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares granted to a DR Preference Shareholder by proxy will correspond to the nominal value of one DR Preference Share in relation to the economic (market) value of one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share multiplied by (i) the number of DR Preference Shares held by such DR Preference Shareholder and (ii) the number of votes that may be cast on one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share. The economic (market) value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Share shall be equal to the price of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at the close of the last trading day of Euronext in the month preceding the convocation of the general meeting of shareholders of ABN AMRO. In short, the voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares granted to a DR Preference Shareholder by proxy is calculated according to the formula: $I((\text{nominal value of one DR Preference Share} / \text{economic (market) value of one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share}) * \text{number of DR Preference Shares held}) * \text{the number of votes that may be cast on one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share}$. The voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares granted to a DR Preference Shareholder by proxy will be rounded off downwards to the nearest rounded number of voting rights. There are no limitations, either under Dutch law or in ABN AMRO Articles of Association, on the right of non-residents of The Netherlands to hold or vote Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share entitles the holder thereof to preferred dividends in an amount as is provided for in ABN AMRO Articles of Association. See Dividends below. The DR Preference Shareholders are entitled to receive dividends in an amount equal to any dividends received on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares by the Foundation. Each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share has certain preferential rights upon liquidation. See Liquidation Rights below.

Rights of shareholders

The rights of ABN AMRO Shareholders set out in this summary derive from the ABN AMRO Articles of Association and Dutch law. Any amendment to ABN AMRO Articles of Association must be proposed by the ABN AMRO Managing Board, which is subject to the approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, and approved by a majority vote of the ABN AMRO Shareholders.

The rights of Barclays Shareholders set out in this summary derive from the Barclays Articles of Association and English law.

Under the Companies Act, the Barclays Shareholders have the power to amend the objects or purpose clause in the Barclays memorandum of association and any provision of the Barclays

Articles of Association by special resolution, subject to, in the objects clause, the rights of dissenting shareholders to apply to the courts to cancel the amendments.

Under the Companies Act, the Barclays Board is not authorised to change the memorandum of association or the articles of association.

The rights attached to any class of Barclays Shares may be varied with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate meeting of holders of the Barclays Shares of that class (see Section Meetings of Classes of Shareholders).

There are no limitations imposed by English law or the Barclays memorandum and articles of association on the rights of non-residents or foreign persons to hold or vote on Barclays Ordinary Shares other than the limitations that would generally apply to all Barclays Shareholders.

Voting

Each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share in the capital of ABN AMRO is entitled to one vote. Each Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Share is entitled to one vote and each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share is entitled to four votes. Subject to certain exceptions provided for by law or in ABN AMRO Articles of Association, as summarised herein, resolutions are passed by an absolute majority of the votes cast.

Every member who is present in person or represented at any general meeting of Barclays and who is entitled to vote has one vote on a show of hands. On a poll, every member who is present or represented has one vote for every share held.

If any sum remains unpaid in relation to a member's shareholding, that member is not entitled to vote that share unless the Barclays Board otherwise determines.

Meetings of shareholders

General meetings of shareholders shall be held in Amsterdam, The Hague, Rotterdam, Utrecht or Haarlemmermeer (Schiphol). Annual meetings must be held within six months of the end of the financial year. In addition, general meetings of ABN AMRO Shareholders shall be held as deemed necessary by the ABN AMRO Managing Board or ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and when required by law or ABN AMRO Articles of Association.

Barclays is required to hold a general meeting each year as its annual general meeting in addition to other meetings (called extraordinary general meetings) at such time and place as the Barclays Board thinks fit. The type of meeting will be specified in the notice calling it. Not more than 15 months may elapse between the date of one annual general meeting and the next.

General meetings of ABN AMRO Shareholders shall be convened by the ABN AMRO Managing Board or ABN AMRO Supervisory Board or as determined by law. The convocation to the meeting, which shall take place not later than the fifteenth day prior to the day of the meeting, shall state the items to be discussed or indicate that ABN AMRO Shareholders may inspect such items at the ABN AMRO offices. Proposals relating to reducing the ABN AMRO share capital or amending ABN AMRO Articles of Association must be included in the convocation. Notices calling meetings must be published in at least one daily national newspaper and on the Daily

General meetings of shareholders may be convened by the Barclays board at its direction, or by requisition of members in accordance with the statutes.

In the case of an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution (requiring the consent of a 75% majority) 21 clear days' notice is required. In other cases 14 clear days' notice is required. The notice must specify the place, the day and hour of the meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted.

Official List. Each ABN AMRO Shareholder, each usufructuary or pledgee of ABN AMRO Shares holding voting rights, as well as each DR Preference Shareholder is entitled to attend the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting and to speak and, where applicable, to vote, either in person or by proxy granted in writing. The ABN AMRO Managing Board may set the record date, which may not be earlier than thirty days before the meeting, to determine the holders of ABN AMRO Shares or DR Preference Shares that are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting on the nominated record date. ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and ABN AMRO Managing Board members are entitled to attend and speak at the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting. The chairman of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board shall chair the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting.

Voting at shareholders meetings is principally related to approval of the annual accounts of ABN AMRO, the adoption of the proposed dividend per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share (See Dividends below) and discharging the members of the ABN AMRO Boards. In addition, the ABN AMRO Shareholders may appoint the auditors that are required by law to be appointed. However, if they do not, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board must do so. The ABN AMRO Shareholders also may resolve to: (1) delegate the authority to the ABN AMRO Managing Board to issue shares or to grant rights to acquire shares, (2) delegate the authority to the ABN AMRO Managing Board to restrict or exclude pre-emptive rights in respect of shares issued pursuant to authority granted in clause (1), (3) authorise the ABN AMRO Managing Board to engage in repurchases of capital stock of the ABN AMRO or (4) amend ABN AMRO Articles of Association, but, in the case of clause (4), only following a motion by the ABN AMRO Managing Board that has been previously approved by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board.

In addition, ABN AMRO Shareholders are entitled to appoint or, as the case may be, to reappoint the members of the ABN AMRO Boards. See Item 6. Directors, Senior Management and Employees C. Board Practices Corporate governance Shareholders Influence .

Meetings of classes of shareholders

Meetings of holders of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares of a particular class must be held as frequently as is required by law or any provision of ABN AMRO Articles of Association or as deemed necessary by Voting at shareholders annual general meetings is principally related to the receipt of the audited accounts of Barclays for each financial year, the re-election or appointment of the Barclays Board, and the re-appointment or appointment of auditors.

The Barclays Shareholders may also resolve to authorise the Barclays Board to allot Barclays Shares, to restrict or exclude pre-emptive rights in respect of the shares issued, authorise the Barclays Board to engage in buy-backs of the Barclays Shares or the amendment of the articles of association (see Issuance of Shares above).

Subject as noted in the Voting Section above, all Barclays Shareholders are entitled to attend and vote at general meetings. The articles of association do, however, provide that arrangements may be made for simultaneous attendance at a general meeting at a place other than that specified in the notice of meeting, in which case some Barclays Shareholders may be excluded from the specified place.

If the capital of Barclays is to be divided into different classes of shares, the holders of any class of Barclays Shares have the power by extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of holders of that class of Barclays shares to consent to:

the ABN AMRO Managing Board or the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. A general meeting of ABN AMRO Shareholders must be held once a year in Amsterdam, The Hague, Rotterdam, Utrecht or Haarlemmermeer (Schiphol) in The Netherlands, no later than by the month of June to, among other things, adopt the annual accounts of ABN AMRO. General meetings of ABN AMRO Shareholders may be convened by the ABN AMRO Managing Board, the ABN AMRO Supervisory generally, any alteration, contract, compromise or arrangement which the persons voting on could consent to or enter into.

Any meeting to vary the rights of any class of Barclays Shares will be convened and conducted in the same way as an extraordinary general meeting of Barclays (see Voting above).

Dividends

Subject to certain exceptions, dividends may only be paid out of profits, as set forth in the annual financial statements of ABN AMRO. Distributions may not be made if the distribution would reduce ABN AMRO Shareholders' equity below the sum of the paid up and called up capital and the reserves required by Dutch law or ABN AMRO Articles of Association.

Under English Law, dividends are payable on Barclays Ordinary Shares only out of the profits available for distribution, as determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the UK and by the Companies Act 1985. Barclays may in general meeting declare dividends by ordinary resolution, but such dividend may not exceed the amount recommended by the Barclays Board. The Barclays Board may pay interim or final dividends if it appears they are justified by Barclays financial position.

The holders of Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares issued pursuant to the resolution passed by the extraordinary meeting of shareholders on 25 August 2004 will receive a dividend of EUR 0.02604 per share, representing 4.65% of the nominal value. As of 1 January 2011, and every ten years thereafter, the dividend percentage on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares will be adjusted in line with the arithmetical average of the ten-year Euro-denominated interest rate swap as published by Reuters on the dividend calculation dates thereof, plus an increment to be set by the ABN AMRO Managing Board with the approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, of no less than 25 basis points and no more than one hundred basis points,

The profits that are resolved to be distributed in respect of any financial period are applied first in payment of the fixed dividend of 20% per annum on the staff shares and then in payment of dividends on the Ordinary Shares.

The Barclays Board may, with the approval of an ordinary resolution of Barclays Shareholders, offer Barclays Shareholders the right to choose to receive an allotment of new Barclays Ordinary Shares credited as fully paid instead of cash in respect of all or part of any dividend.

Any dividend unclaimed after a period of twelve years from the date it became due for payment will be forfeited and reverts to Barclays.

depending on the market situation at that time (article 37.2.a.1 and a.2). The holders of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares will receive a dividend of EUR 0.95 per share, representing 3.3231% of the amount paid on each share as of 1 January 2004. As of 1 January 2014, and every ten years thereafter, the dividend on the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares will be adjusted in the manner described in ABN AMRO Articles of Association (article 37.2.a.4).

Table of Contents

No profit distributions will be made to holders of Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in excess of the maximum levels defined above (article 37.2.a.6.).

From the profit remaining after these distributions, the ABN AMRO Managing Board may decide to make appropriations to reserves, subject to the approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board (article 37.2.b.).

The allocation of the amount remaining after these appropriations shall be determined by the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting. The ABN AMRO Managing Board, subject to the approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, shall make a proposal to that effect. A proposal to pay a dividend shall be dealt with as a separate item at the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting (article 37.2.b.).

ABN AMRO's policy on reserves and dividends shall be determined and can be amended by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, upon the proposal of the ABN AMRO Managing Board. The adoption of and each subsequent amendment to the policy on reserves and dividends shall be discussed and accounted for at the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting under a separate agenda item (article 37.2.c.).

Notwithstanding the provisions of article 37.2.a.1 and a.2 referred to above, after 1 January 2011 the ABN AMRO Managing Board may, with the approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, resolve not to pay the dividend on the relevant Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in cash out of the profit, or to pay the dividend on the relevant Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares out of a freely distributable reserve. In such cases the part of the profit not paid out shall be added to the general reserve. The ABN AMRO Managing Board may only pass such a resolution if no dividend is to be paid on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the relevant year, in accordance with the provisions of article 37.2.c. Subject to approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, the ABN AMRO Managing Board can make the dividend or interim dividend on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares payable, at the discretion of the holders, either in cash or, provided it is authorised to issue shares, partly or wholly in the form of ABN AMRO Ordinary or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in the company's capital or in a combination thereof, such combination to be determined by the ABN AMRO Managing Board (article 37.3.).

Shareholders Pre-emptive Rights

Upon the issuance of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders have pre-emptive rights to subscribe for new issuances in proportion to their holdings. Notwithstanding the foregoing, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will not have pre-emptive rights in respect of (i) issuances of ABN AMRO Shares to employees of ABN AMRO or group companies and (ii) issuances of shares for non-cash consideration. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders also do not have pre-emptive rights in connection with the issuance of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares pursuant to the exercise of a right to subscribe for such shares, such as options and warrants, although the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders do have pre-emptive rights in respect of the issuance of such options and warrants.

The ABN AMRO Managing Board, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board, may be authorised by resolution of the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting to restrict or exclude pre-emptive rights with respect to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares (and the granting of rights to acquire such shares) if the ABN AMRO Shareholders have delegated the authority to issue these shares (and these rights) to the ABN AMRO Managing Board. The authority of the ABN AMRO Managing Board to restrict or exclude pre-emption rights has recently been renewed at the 2007 ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting for a period of 18 months starting on 27 April 2007, and in the aggregate amount equal to 10% of the issued capital of ABN AMRO as of 26 April 2007.

Acquisition of its own shares

ABN AMRO may acquire fully paid-up shares of any class of its capital for a consideration, subject to certain provisions of Dutch law and ABN AMRO Articles of Association, if: (i) ABN AMRO Shareholders equity less the payment required to make the acquisition does not fall below the sum of paid-up and called up capital and any reserves

Under the Companies Act, if Barclays proposes to issue for cash:

equity securities (which are securities carrying a right to participate in dividends or capital beyond a specified amount), or rights to subscribe for equity securities,

they must be offered first to each person who holds equity securities on the same or more favourable terms in proportion to those securities which is as nearly as practicable equal in proportion to the nominal value of equity securities held by him or her to the aggregate issued equity securities.

These pre-emption rights can be disapplied by a special resolution passed by the Barclays Shareholders in a general meeting, either generally or specifically, for a maximum period not exceeding five years. Barclays usually disapplies the statutory pre-emption requirement on an annual basis. Broadly, this disapplication permits the Directors to make non pre-emptive issues and rights issues or open offers. At the Barclays AGM held on 26 April 2007, the Barclays Board were authorized to allot equity securities (or sell treasury shares) pursuant to a rights issue or for cash up to an amount representing 5 percent of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company without the need to first offer the shares to existing shareholders.

Barclays may purchase its own shares if the purchase is authorised by the memorandum and articles of association (the Barclays articles provide that subject to the rights attached to the existing shares, Barclays can purchase any of its shares).

At the Barclays annual general meeting held on required by Dutch law or ABN AMRO Articles of Association and (ii) ABN AMRO and its subsidiaries would thereafter not hold shares with an aggregate nominal value exceeding one-tenth of ABN AMRO's issued share capital. Any shares held by ABN AMRO in its own capital may not be voted.

An acquisition by ABN AMRO of fully paid-up shares of any class of its capital for a consideration may be effected by the ABN AMRO Managing 26 April 2007, the Barclays Shareholders approved a resolution authorising Barclays to make market purchases (within the meaning of the Companies Act 1985) of up to 980,840,000 Barclays Ordinary Shares of 25p each in its capital and Barclays may hold such shares as treasury shares provided that:

Board, subject to the approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. Such acquisitions by ABN AMRO of shares in its own capital require the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting to grant the ABN AMRO Managing Board the authority to effect such acquisitions. This authority may apply for a maximum period of 18 months and must specify the number of ABN AMRO Shares that may be acquired, the manner in which the ABN AMRO Shares may be acquired and the price limits within which ABN AMRO Shares may be acquired. At the 2007 annual general meeting of ABN AMRO Shareholders, the ABN AMRO Shareholders have resolved to renew the authority for a period of 18 months starting on 27 April 2007. No authority is required for the acquisition by ABN AMRO of shares in its own capital for the purpose of transferring the ABN AMRO Shares to employees of ABN AMRO or any subsidiary thereof pursuant to any arrangements applicable to such employees, provided that the ABN AMRO Shares are included in the price list of a stock exchange.

Dutch law provides that an acquisition as above is not allowed when a financial year has lapsed more than six months and the annual accounts have not been approved and adopted.

Upon a proposal of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, subject to the approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting may resolve to reduce the issued ABN AMRO Share capital by a cancellation of ABN AMRO Shares or by a reduction of the nominal amount of the ABN AMRO Shares by amendment of ABN AMRO Articles of Association. The resolution of the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting requires a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast if less than half of the issued ABN AMRO Share capital is present or represented at the meeting. A resolution to cancel may only relate to ABN AMRO Shares held by ABN AMRO or with due observance of the provisions of Book 2 of The Netherlands Civil Code to all shares of a class. In addition to the approval of the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting, any reduction in the share capital of ABN AMRO also requires the prior or simultaneous approval of the authority conferred by this resolution expires on the date of the 2008 Barclays annual general meeting or, if earlier, 15 months from the date of passing the resolution (except in relation to any purchase of Barclays Shares the contract of which was concluded before such date and which would or might be executed after that date).

Under the Companies Act 1985, any Barclays Share may be issued on terms that is, at the option of Barclays or the holder of such Barclays Share, redeemable. Barclays has no redeemable shares on issue.

Liquidation Rights

In the event of the dissolution and liquidation of ABN AMRO, the assets remaining after payment of all debts are to be distributed first, to the holders of the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares and the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares on a pro rata basis, in an amount equal to all dividends accrued from the beginning of the most recent full financial year through to the date of payment, and then the nominal amount of the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares or the amount paid in on the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares, respectively, and second, to the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares on a pro rata basis.

In the event of any return of capital on liquidation the Barclays Ordinary Shares and the staff shares rank equally in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up on the Barclays Shares of each class, except that in the event of a winding up of Barclays the holders of the staff shares are only entitled to participate in the surplus assets available for distribution up to the amount paid up on the staff shares plus 10%.

Management and supervision

ABN AMRO has a two-tier system of corporate governance, consisting of an ABN AMRO supervisory board and an ABN AMRO managing board. ABN AMRO is managed by the ABN AMRO Managing Board, consisting of (executive) managing directors, under the supervision of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board consisting of (non-executive) supervisory directors. The ABN AMRO Supervisory Board is a separate body from the ABN AMRO Managing Board.

The ABN AMRO Managing Board is responsible for ABN AMRO's day to day management.

The ABN AMRO Supervisory Board supervises the policy conducted by the Managing Board, as well as ABN AMRO's general course of affairs and its business. In addition, it assists management with advice. In performing their duties, the members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board are guided by the interests of ABN AMRO and the enterprise connected therewith.

Certain powers are vested within the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, such as the approval of certain resolutions by the ABN AMRO Managing Board.

In addition, after having been presented the annual accounts by the ABN AMRO Managing Board, the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board submits these Under English law, Barclays is required to have a single tier board of directors. The Barclays Board is headed by a non-executive Chairman and has a majority of independent non-executive directors. The Barclays Board currently comprises the Chairman, 10 independent non-executive directors, and five executive Directors.

The Barclays Board is responsible to Shareholders for creating and sustaining shareholder value through the management of the Barclays group's business. It is also responsible for ensuring that management maintain a system of internal control that provides assurance of effective and efficient operations, internal financial controls and compliance with law and regulation. The Barclays Board is the decision-making body for all matters deemed material to the Barclays Group in strategic, financial and reputational terms.

The Board has a formal schedule of matters reserved for its decision, including the approval of interim and final financial statements, significant changes in accounting policy and practice, the appointment or removal of directors or the company secretary, and changes to the Barclays Group's capital expenditure.

The Barclays Board can delegate any of its powers, authorities, discretions and functions to Responsibility for the day-to-day management of the Barclays Group is delegated to the Barclays Group Chief Executive, who is supported by the Barclays Group Executive Committee which he chairs. The executive committee meets weekly to develop strategies and policies for recommendation to the Board and to implement approved strategy.

The Barclays Board may also appoint any person to be the attorney or agent of Barclays with such powers, authorities, discretions and functions of attorneys. However, they cannot give an attorney any powers, authorities, discretions or functions which the Directors do not have under the Barclays Articles of Association.

Board

Following the ABN AMRO Articles of Association, both the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board shall consist of at least five members.

Under the Barclays Articles of Association, Barclays must have a minimum of five directors (disregarding alternate directors).

Appointment and election of Directors

Members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board are appointed by way of a resolution by the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting, to be adopted by more than 50% of the votes validly cast at the meeting, upon nomination by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. Such nomination shall be binding in the event that the nomination by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board with respect to a vacant seat consists of a list of two or more candidates.

The shareholders of Barclays may, by passing an ordinary resolution, elect any eligible, willing person to be a director, either as an additional director or to fill a vacancy.

Members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board shall be appointed by the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting upon nomination by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. Such nomination shall be binding in the event that the nomination by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board with respect to a vacant seat consists of a list of two or more candidates.

Subject to the Barclays Articles of Association, the directors can resolve to appoint any person to be a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director. Any director appointed by the Barclays Board will hold office only until the next annual general meeting and shall then retire and will be eligible to stand for election.

Pursuant to the ABN AMRO Articles of Association, the authority to represent ABN AMRO shall either reside with two members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board acting jointly, or with one member of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and one duly authorised signatory acting jointly.

ABN AMRO may also be represented by authorised signatories, with due observance of any

Any director (other than an alternate director) can appoint any other person (including another director) to act in his place (called an alternate director). That appointment requires the approval of the Barclays Board, unless previously approved by directors or unless the appointee is another director of Barclays.

restrictions imposed upon their representative authority. The ABN AMRO Managing Board shall decide on their authority, their job title and the terms of appointment, on the understanding that the title of Senior Executive Vice President may only be granted in consultation with the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board.

Retirement of Directors

The Barclays Articles of Association provide that at each annual general meeting, one-third of the directors (or, if their number is not a multiple of three, the number nearest to but not greater than one-third) must retire from office. The directors to retire at each annual general meeting will be those who have been longest in office. Unless they otherwise agree between themselves, as between the directors who became directors on the same day, or who were last re-elected directors on the same day, those who are due to retire will be determined by lot.

Removal of Directors

The ABN AMRO Supervisory Board may suspend members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board at any time. If the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting fails to reach a decision within three months of the suspension of such member, on whether that member should be dismissed, the suspension shall be lifted.

Upon a motion to that effect by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, the ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting may resolve to suspend an ABN AMRO Supervisory Board member. Such resolution must be adopted by more than 50% of the votes validly cast at the meeting.

The ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting may resolve to (i) suspend or dismiss (without their consent) members of the ABN AMRO Boards, other than pursuant to a recommendation of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board; and/or (ii) to set aside the binding nomination right of the supervisory board in relation to the appointment of new members of ABN AMRO Boards and the right to then appoint new members of ABN AMRO Boards that have not been nominated through a binding nomination by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. Such resolution shall

Under the Companies Act 1985, the Barclays Shareholders may remove any director without cause by ordinary resolution, irrespective of any provision in the articles of association or any service contract between Barclays and the director, provided special notice (which requires at least 21 clear days) has been given. In these situations, Barclays may be required, pursuant to the service contracts with the directors, to pay damages or compensation to the removed director.

only be valid if adopted by a majority of 66²/₃% of the votes validly cast at the meeting, provided that that majority represents at least 50% of the economic value of ABN AMRO issued share capital (the Economic Value). The economic value of ABN AMRO issued share capital is determined as follows: (a) with respect to ABN AMRO listed shares (i.e. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares): in accordance with the stock value at a date to be determined by the ABN AMRO Managing Board, but which is at least 6 weeks before the meeting; and (b) with respect to non-listed shares (i.e. Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares): in accordance with the capital paid-up on the respective shares.

Directors liability

Under Dutch law, members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board have a duty vis-à-vis ABN AMRO to properly fulfill their tasks as a managing or supervisory director. The scope of this duty is determined on a case-by-case basis.

Under Dutch law, members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board are jointly and severally liable to ABN AMRO for failure to fulfill their duties properly. Members of the ABN AMRO Boards may, in the event of ABN AMRO's bankruptcy, be liable towards the trustee in bankruptcy for improper fulfillment of their duties. In certain circumstances, tort liability of members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board towards ABN AMRO's Shareholders or third parties such as contractors, may arise. Generally, members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board cannot be held liable by ABN AMRO's Shareholders for damage sustained by ABN AMRO.

Under English law, each of the Barclays Directors has a fiduciary duty to act in Barclays best interests. The duty includes an obligation not to create an actual or potential conflict of interest between the director's duty to Barclays and duties to any other person or his personal interests as well as an obligation to exercise his powers only in accordance with the memorandum and articles of Barclays and any applicable legislation. In addition, each of the Barclays directors is obligated under English law to exercise reasonable care and skill.

Limitation on liability and indemnification

The provisions of Dutch law governing the liability of members of the ABN AMRO Boards to ABN AMRO are mandatory in nature.

The Barclays Articles of Association provide that, as far as the legislation allows, every director, officer and auditor of Barclays and every former director, other former officer and former auditor of Barclays will be indemnified out of the assets of Barclays against any liability incurred by them.

English law provides that a company can indemnify a director against any liability except for: (i) indemnity against liability incurred by the director to the company or any associated company, (ii), any indemnity against any liability incurred by the director to pay a fine imposed in criminal proceedings or a sum payable to a regulatory authority by way of penalty in respect of non-compliance with any requirement of a regulatory nature, (iii) any indemnity against any liability incurred by the director in defending criminal proceedings brought by the company or the associated company in which judgment is given against him or in connection with an application under certain sections of the Companies Act (acquisition by shares by an innocent nominee and relief in the case of honest and reasonable conduct) in which the court refuses to grant him relief.

While the Dutch Civil Code does not specifically provide for class actions or derivative suits, Dutch law allows for certain procedures and actions that may result in, or be followed by an action for, liability of ABN AMRO or members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board or the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board vis-à-vis holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. These procedures and actions include the right for ABN AMRO Shareholders (including DR Preference Shareholders evidencing ownership interests in Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares) representing at least 10% of the total outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO, or ABN AMRO Shareholders (including DR Preference Shareholders evidencing ownership interests in Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares) holding at least EUR 225,000 aggregate par value to request the Enterprise Chamber to institute an

While the English law permits a shareholder to initiate a lawsuit on behalf of the company only in limited circumstances, the Companies Act 1985 permits a shareholder whose name is on the register of shareholders of the company to apply for a court order:

when the company's affairs are being or have been conducted in the manner unfairly prejudicial to the interests of all or some shareholders, including the shareholder making the claim, or when any act or omission of the company is or would be so prejudicial. A court has wide discretion in granting relief, and may authorise civil proceedings to be brought in the name of the company by a shareholder on the terms that the court directs.

independent enquiry into the management and general course of business of ABN AMRO.

Except in limited circumstances, English law does not generally permit class action lawsuits by shareholders on behalf of the company on behalf of other shareholders

Under provisions of the Companies Act 2006 which are coming into force in October 2007, a shareholder may bring a claim on behalf of Barclays in relation to an actual or proposed act or omission involving negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust by a director. Such a claim is referred to as a derivative claim, and may be brought against a director or another person.

Table of Contents

Transactions with interested directors

Under the Dutch corporate governance code, any situation in which ABN AMRO has a conflict of interest with one or more members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board or ABN AMRO Supervisory Board must be promptly reported to the chairman of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. The relevant directors must not take part in any deliberations about the contemplated transaction. Decisions to enter into transactions in which there are conflicts of interest with members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board or the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board that are of material significance to ABN AMRO and/or to such persons require the approval of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board.

In the event of a conflict of interest with one or more members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, ABN AMRO will be represented by the members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. The ABN AMRO Shareholders meeting is at all times authorised to appoint another representative. If there is a transaction involving a conflict of interest with a member of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board, the members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, if they are not conflicted, can represent ABN AMRO. Lack of approval from the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board (as described above) does not invalidate any transaction with a bona fide third party.

Under the rules of the UKLA, Barclays must obtain shareholder approval for certain transactions with related parties (which includes certain transactions with directors). The Listing Rules provide that an announcement, a circular and prior approval of the shareholders in general meeting will be required before such transaction is entered into. The related party will not be allowed to vote on the resolution. The Barclays Articles of Association provide that, if the legislation and the FSA allows, and provided the director discloses the nature of his interest, the director is permitted to (i) have an interest in any other contract with, or involving, Barclays or any other company in which Barclays may be interested, (ii) hold any other position (other than the office of auditor of Barclays or any other company in the Barclays group) with Barclays as well as being a director, (iii) acting alone or through a firm in which he is interested, do paid professional work for Barclays, and (iv) hold any position within, or be otherwise interested in any other company in which Barclays may be interested.

Except as provided in the Barclays Articles of Association, a director cannot vote at any meeting of the Board in respect of any contract in which he has an interest which is a material interest. Interests as a result of interests in securities of Barclays are disregarded for these purposes.

Barclays Articles of Association provide that directors can vote and be counted in a quorum in respect of resolutions regarding transactions specified in article 95(a)(i) to (viii) inclusive, provided the only material interest the director has in the transaction is as specified in article 95(a)(i) to 95(a)(viii).

The articles of association provide that the company may, by ordinary resolution suspend or relax the provisions of article 95 to any extent, or to ratify any particular contract carried out in contravention of that article.

Table of Contents

Amendment of articles of association

Any amendment of the ABN AMRO Articles of Association requires a resolution to that effect adopted by a majority of more than 50% of the votes validly cast in the general meeting of ABN AMRO Shareholders. Such resolution may only be passed by the general meeting of ABN AMRO Shareholders following a proposal by the ABN AMRO Managing Board which has been approved by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board.

Under the Companies Act, the Barclays Shareholders have the power to amend the objects or purpose clause in Barclays Memorandum of Association and any provision of Barclays Articles of Association by special resolution, subject to, in the objects clause, the rights of dissenting shareholders to apply to the courts to cancel the amendments.

Under the Companies Act, the Barclays Board is not authorised to change the Memorandum of Association or the Barclays Articles of Association.

6.19.1 Liquidity and Delisting

The purchase of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares by the Offeror pursuant to the Offer, among other things, will reduce the number of ABN AMRO Shareholders (including ABN AMRO ADS Holders) and the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares that might otherwise trade publicly and could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of the remaining ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares not tendered and not held by ABN AMRO.

Should the Offer be declared unconditional (gestanddoening), it is intended that ABN AMRO's listing of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares on Euronext Amsterdam, and the listing of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the ABN AMRO ADSs on the NYSE, will be terminated as soon as possible. This would further adversely affect the liquidity of any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (including ABN AMRO ADSs) and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares not tendered. In addition, the Offeror may initiate any of the procedures as set out in Section 6.19.3 (Post-Offer Restructuring), including procedures which would result in termination of the listing of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, ABN AMRO ADSs and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares (including ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, ABN AMRO ADSs and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares not being tendered).

In order to seek de-listing of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares with the co-operation of Euronext Amsterdam, Barclays and its subsidiaries (other than ABN AMRO and its subsidiaries) must, in general, hold for its account at least 95% of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

While ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares could continue to be traded in the over-the-counter market and price quotations could be reported, there can be no assurance that such an over-the-counter market will develop. The extent of the public market for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the availability of such quotations would depend upon such factors as, inter alia, the number of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares remaining at such time, the interest on the part of securities firms in maintaining a market in ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

6.19.2 Other Potential Consequences of Completion of the Offer

ABN AMRO Shareholders who do not tender their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer should carefully review this Section 6.19.2, which describes certain risks they will be subject to after the successful completion of the Offer. These risks are in addition to the exposure to the business of the ABN AMRO Group, as such business and the structure of the ABN AMRO Group may change from time to time after the Settlement Date. The following is a summary of the key additional risks:

Loss of Liquidity

As soon as the relevant legal requirements have been satisfied, Barclays and ABN AMRO may seek to terminate the listing of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares on Euronext Amsterdam and the listing of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs on NYSE. In addition, Barclays and ABN AMRO may take steps to convert ABN AMRO into a private limited liability company (besloten vennootschap met beperkte aansprakelijkheid), which will among other things cause all ABN AMRO Shares to become subject to transfer restrictions.

Alternatively or cumulatively, any of the steps discussed in this Section 6.19.2 and/or Section 6.19.3 may be implemented after the Settlement Date.

Even if no delisting nor any of the post-Offer restructuring measures discussed in this Section 6.19.2 and/or Section 6.19.3 is implemented, the size of the free float in ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares will be substantially reduced as a result of the completion of the Offer, and as a result trading volumes and liquidity of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares will be materially adversely affected.

Increased Leverage

As a result of certain of the post-Offer restructuring measures which may be considered by Barclays and ABN AMRO, the capital ratios of the Combined Group may temporarily deteriorate. This deterioration is not expected to have an impact on the credit rating compared to the current position.

Reduced Governance Rights

In the event that ABN AMRO or its successor entity will no longer be listed and the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares will no longer be publicly traded, the provisions applicable to the governance of listed companies will no longer apply and investors must expect that the rights of minority shareholders may be limited to the statutory minimum.

Controlling Shareholder

Following the Settlement Date, ABN AMRO is expected to be majority controlled by Barclays and Barclays is as such expected to control the appointment of all of the members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and all of the members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board.

Squeeze-out

As soon as the relevant legal requirements have been satisfied, Barclays or any of its affiliates may seek to acquire the remaining ABN AMRO Shares through a statutory squeeze-out procedure (uitkoopprocedure) in accordance with article 2:92a of the Dutch Civil Code or to use any other statutory squeeze-out procedure permitted by law from time to time.

Involuntary Conversion or Exchange of Securities

Barclays may seek to apply any other form of post-Offer restructuring measures which may result in the rights attaching to the shares of one or more classes of ABN AMRO Shares being altered, and/or one or more classes of ABN AMRO Shares being converted or exchanged without the holder's consent, for shares of a different class and/or shares in a company other than ABN AMRO, all to the extent permitted by law.

Also the business, or assets and liabilities, of the company in which the ABN AMRO Shareholders may participate following implementation of certain post-Offer restructuring measures which may be implemented following settlement of the Offer may be substantially different from the current business of ABN AMRO. Among other possibilities, the relevant assets may consist of or include securities or other financial instruments (i) whose equity and dividend entitlements are limited and/or (ii) whose value depends on the value of the business of the Combined Group or any part thereof, or shares in the capital of Barclays or any affiliate thereof.

Distributions in Cash or Kind

Barclays may also pursue the making of distributions to shareholders, or holders of certain classes of shares, by ABN AMRO, or any other company in which the ABN AMRO Shareholders may participate following implementation of certain post-Offer restructuring measures. Such distributions may be either in cash or kind, and if in kind may consist of shares in Barclays or any affiliate thereof or any other securities or other financial instrument, whether listed or non-listed. Such distributions can be made as a dividend and/or a repayment of capital, whether following a dissolution of the relevant company or not.

Adverse Tax Implications

Certain post-Offer restructuring measures, including but not limited to the making of distributions to shareholders, whether as a dividend or a repayment of capital, the making of distributions other than in cash, and dilution resulting from an issuance of securities, may have adverse tax consequences for shareholders, or certain groups of shareholders.

Loss of Certain Legal Protection

The implementation of certain post-Offer restructuring measures, including but not limited to the transfer or issuance to ABN AMRO Shareholders of shares in another company (including a non-Dutch and/or a non-listed company), by way of legal merger, legal de-merger, distribution in kind or otherwise, or the transfer or issuance to them of any form of financial instruments issued by any issuer under any jurisdiction, may result in the relevant shareholders losing forms of statutory protection rights, including access to certain types of court proceedings, they are currently enjoying as ABN AMRO Shareholders.

6.19.3 Post-Offer Restructuring

Plans for ABN AMRO after the Offer

Once Barclays has completed the combination with ABN AMRO, it intends for ABN AMRO to continue its current operations, as a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Barclays. Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs who did not exchange their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer will hold a minority interest in ABN AMRO unless and until Barclays becomes the sole shareholder in ABN AMRO.

Consideration offered to ABN AMRO Shareholders

Following the successful completion of the Offer, Barclays and ABN AMRO currently intend to implement a post-Offer restructuring of ABN AMRO and its subsidiaries that would have the effect of Barclays acquiring ABN AMRO Shares that remain outstanding after the Offer and, consequently, result in the business of ABN AMRO being held in wholly owned subsidiaries of Barclays.

The restructuring measures will generally be structured to provide the ABN AMRO Shareholders who did not exchange their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer with the same consideration they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer, or a consideration which, considering all circumstances, can be deemed to be reasonably equivalent thereto. Such equivalent can include cash, securities, dividend distributions in cash or in kind, shares in the entity resulting from a merger between ABN AMRO and Barclays, or a combination thereof, all as set out below in this section on Post-Offer Restructuring . The precise consideration that ABN AMRO Shareholders will receive on implementation of the post-Offer restructuring measures may be different than the consideration that they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer, because:

- (a) Certain post-Offer restructuring measures may provide for a consideration taking a form (cash or non-cash) other than proposed under the Offer;

Table of Contents

- (b) The consideration issued in certain post-Offer restructuring measures may be determined by a court;
- (c) The tax consequences to ABN AMRO Shareholders of receiving consideration in the post-Offer restructuring may be different than they would be if the ABN AMRO Shareholders had tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer;
- (d) The Barclays Shares received under the Offer may have a different value at the time of completion of the post-Offer restructuring than at the time of the completion of the Offer, and also the value of the ABN AMRO Shares (or substitute instruments resulting from intermediate steps) may have changed since; and
- (e) The legal rights of the ABN AMRO Shareholders may change as a result of post-Offer restructuring measures or vary depending on the form of the post-Offer restructuring measures applied such as dividend rights and voting rights, all as set out below and for instance, the holders of the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares and the DR Preference Shares enjoy different rights in the event of the cancellation of the convertible preference finance shares in the capital of ABN AMRO than in the event of the dissolution of ABN AMRO.

Structural Steps to implement the post-Offer Restructuring

The following paragraphs in this Section 6.19.3 describe certain steps, processes and measures that may be implemented by Barclays and ABN AMRO following the successful completion of the Offer. They are divided into steps that are taken if Barclays acquires 95% or more of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO, steps that are taken if Barclays acquires less than 95% of the issued and outstanding ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO and other post-Offer Restructuring measures in case Barclays is unable to acquire the entire issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO. Any or all of these steps, measures and processes may be applied cumulatively, alternatively, they may be delayed or cancelled or may not take place at all, at the discretion of Barclays and ABN AMRO, subject to applicable provisions of Dutch or other applicable law. The precise steps, processes and measures have not yet been determined by Barclays and ABN AMRO as this will depend on future developments such as the percentage of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs that will actually be tendered and the means available in a particular jurisdiction to achieve the objective of enabling Barclays (and/or its wholly owned subsidiaries) to acquire all of the outstanding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs. This decision will take into account the applicable provisions of Dutch or other applicable law and corporate governance rules.

If Barclays decides not to implement any post-Offer restructuring measures, the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders or ABN AMRO ADS Holders who did not exchange their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer continue to hold a minority interest in ABN AMRO.

Post-Offer restructuring measures may have adverse tax consequences for ABN AMRO shareholders or certain groups of ABN AMRO shareholders, for example, distributions made by ABN AMRO, whether as a dividend or a repayment of capital, in cash or in kind, and whether or not in the context of its liquidation, might give rise to a liability to Dutch dividend withholding tax. Application of the Dutch dividend withholding tax could cause the net value of the consideration received by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in any post-Offer reorganisation to be substantially less than the net value of the consideration such holders would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer.

Barclays acquires 95% or more of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO*Statutory Squeeze-Out Procedure*

In the event that Barclays has acquired 95% or more of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO at or following the Settlement Date (excluding ABN AMRO Shares held by ABN AMRO or its subsidiaries), Barclays intends to seek to acquire the remaining ABN AMRO Shares through a statutory squeeze-out procedure (uitkoopprocedure) in accordance with article 2:92a

of the Dutch Civil Code (the Ordinary Squeeze-Out). In such circumstances, holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs may not receive the consideration that ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders or holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs received in the Offer. Instead, the price to be paid for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs in the Ordinary Squeeze-Out would be paid in cash only, in an amount determined by the Enterprise Chamber (Ondernemingskamer) of the Amsterdam Court of Appeals (Gerechtshof Amsterdam), which amount may be lower than the consideration that ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders or holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs received in the Offer. The Amsterdam Court of Appeals may appoint one or three experts for advice on the fairness of the price and may set the squeeze out price at a lower price than the consideration offered in the Offer. Alternatively, Barclays may first initiate a Takeover Squeeze-Out (as described) and, if this leads to Barclays acquiring 95% or more of the total issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO, subsequently initiate an Ordinary Squeeze-Out.

Takeover Squeeze-Out Procedure

If and when the squeeze-out procedure pursuant to the EU Takeover Directive (2004/25/ EC) is implemented in Dutch law (the Takeover Squeeze-Out). Barclays intends to seek to acquire the remaining ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs in addition to, or as an alternative for, the Ordinary Squeeze-Out (which will continue to be available in addition to the Takeover Squeeze-Out). Under the Takeover Squeeze-Out Barclays may initiate take over squeeze out proceedings against the remaining minority shareholders within three months of the end of the expiration of the initial offer period, as it may have been extended by Barclays. After that period, Barclays may still invoke the Ordinary Squeeze-Out. Barclays will be entitled to commence the Takeover Squeeze-Out if it has acquired 95% of a single class of ABN AMRO shares, even if in aggregate it holds less than 95% of the total issued share capital (and represents less than 95% of the voting rights) of ABN AMRO with respect to the remaining shareholders holding the same class of shares. As is the case for the Ordinary Squeeze-Out, in such circumstances holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs may not receive the consideration that ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders or holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs received in the Offer. Instead, the price to be paid for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs in the Takeover Squeeze-Out would be paid in cash only, in an amount determined by the Enterprise Chamber (Ondernemingskamer) of the Amsterdam Court of Appeals (Gerechtshof Amsterdam), which amount may be lower than the consideration that ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders or holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs received in the Offer. The rules governing a Takeover Squeeze-Out presume that the consideration offered in the Offer for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares is a fair squeeze-out price if 90% or more of the shares were acquired pursuant to the Offer, and the squeeze-out proceedings are initiated within the term of three months as mentioned above. The Amsterdam Court of Appeals may appoint one or three experts for advice on the fairness of the price and may set the squeeze-out price at a lower price than the consideration offered in the exchange offer.

If Barclays does not acquire 95% or more of the issued and outstanding ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO, two supervisory directors independent from Barclays will be appointed to the supervisory boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank. They will have full supervisory responsibility as well as having the special responsibility of safeguarding the interests of the minority ABN AMRO Shareholders in all transactions outside the ordinary course of business, directly or indirectly, with Barclays and/or any of its group companies, including with respect to the manner of implementation of any of the measures listed in the paragraphs below. The appointment of these independent directors is subject to the applicable regulatory approval and employee consultation.

Also, Dutch law contains safeguards to protect the interests of minority shareholders which include:
(a) shareholders and/or holders of depositary receipts who, alone or jointly, represent 1% or more of the economic value of the capital or a block of shares at least worth

EUR 50 million have the right to put items on the agenda and to convene a general meeting of shareholders, (b), subject to the limits of the articles of association, all shareholders have the right to attend, speak and to vote at a general meeting of shareholders, (c) certain shareholder resolutions require unanimity, a supermajority or a quorum as stipulated in the Dutch Civil Code or in the company's articles of association, (d) upon any issue of shares, shareholders have a preferential right to subscribe for shares issued by the company in proportion to their existing shareholding to protect them from dilution, (e), subject to the limitations under Dutch law, shareholders have the right to obtain information from the management board and the supervisory board, unless such would be contrary to a substantial interest of the company, (f) shareholders representing 10% or more of the issued share capital or holding shares with a nominal value of EUR 225,000 have the right to request the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeals to institute an investigation into the management and general course of business of the company and (g) the right to request nullification of resolutions on the grounds that such resolution constitutes a breach of legal provisions or regulations or that the resolution is contrary to the principles of reasonableness and fairness.

Other Post-Offer Restructuring Measures

If Barclays is unable to acquire the entire issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO by use of the Ordinary Squeeze-Out and/or Takeover Squeeze-Out, Barclays may implement other post-Offer restructuring measures intended to eliminate any minority interest in ABN AMRO remaining after completion of the Offer. Such other post-Offer restructurings can include a cross-border merger between ABN AMRO and Barclays, a sale and/or transfer of ABN AMRO Bank (and/or other assets and liabilities of ABN AMRO and/or ABN AMRO Bank) and other possible measures as described below.

Legal Merger

If and when the EU Cross border Merger Directive has been implemented in both The Netherlands and the United Kingdom, or cross-border mergers of a relevant form will otherwise be possible, Barclays and ABN AMRO may initiate and seek the implementation of a legal merger between Barclays, or any of its affiliates, as the surviving company and ABN AMRO as the disappearing company. As a result of such legal merger, ABN AMRO would cease to exist and the ABN AMRO Shares which are not held by the surviving company at the time of the legal merger would be exchanged into shares, of a class to be determined, of the surviving company (subject to any cash or other alternative that would be available to either Barclays, ABN AMRO and/or ABN AMRO Shareholders under applicable law and the terms of the merger proposal). The result of such a merger will be that the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or of ABN AMRO ADSs will become shareholder in a company with different assets and liabilities compared to those currently held by ABN AMRO and the value of such shares will also be determined by the business of the combined group or any part thereof, depending on the assets and/or liabilities held by ABN AMRO after such merger. In addition, it is possible that the shares in the surviving company held by former ABN AMRO Shareholders or the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs, will have different rights than the rights on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs, such as dividend rights and voting rights. Effecting such a merger will be subject to ABN AMRO's and Barclays articles of association (as they may be amended from time to time) and applicable provisions of Dutch or other applicable law. If Barclays decides to pursue a cross border legal merger with a legal entity in another European jurisdiction, Barclays intends to follow the valuation procedures set out in the EU Takeover Directive as implemented in the relevant jurisdiction and to pay a fair consideration but such consideration may, depending on the circumstances at the time of the relevant valuations, be lower than the consideration that holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, including ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares represented by ABN AMRO ADSs, received in the Offer.

Sale and/or transfer of ABN AMRO Bank

At any time after the Settlement Date, Barclays and ABN AMRO may take steps to implement a sale and/or transfer of ABN AMRO and/or ABN AMRO Bank (and/or other assets and liabilities of ABN AMRO and/or ABN AMRO Bank) to Barclays or any of its affiliates against a consideration which may consist of cash, cash equivalents or securities or other financial instruments (i) whose equity and dividend entitlements are limited and/or (ii) whose value depends on the value of the business of the Combined Group or any part thereof, or shares in the capital of Barclays or any affiliate thereof. Any of such sales and transfers may lead to ABN AMRO Shareholders or ABN AMRO ADS Holders holding an interest in a company with different assets and liabilities compared to those currently held by ABN AMRO and the value of such an interest will also be determined by the business of the Combined Group or any part thereof, depending on the assets and/or liabilities held by ABN AMRO after such sale and transfer.

Other possible measures

Barclays and ABN AMRO may initiate, and seek the implementation of, a number of other post-Offer restructuring steps, whether before, after, in combination with or as an alternative to the potential measures set out under the subheadings Statutory Squeeze-out Procedure , Takeover Squeeze-Out Procedure , Legal Merger and Sale and/or transfer of ABN AMRO Bank in this Section 6.19.3.

Such other post-Offer restructuring steps may include but are not limited (to the following, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with applicable law):

- (a) an amendment of the ABN AMRO articles of association, inter alia, to permit the creation of separate classes of shares and/or other securities and/or to alter the rights attaching to one or more classes of ABN AMRO Shares, which may have an impact on the voting rights on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs;
- (b) the issue of shares in the capital of ABN AMRO of one or more classes to Barclays or any of its affiliates (with the exclusion of pre-emptive rights, if any, of other ABN AMRO Shareholders), which shares can be paid up in cash and/or in kind, which could lead to a dilution of the interest of ABN AMRO Shareholders in ABN AMRO;
- (c) the distribution of an extraordinary dividend or other distribution or repayment of capital on ABN AMRO Shares or a particular class or classes of ABN AMRO Shares, whether in cash or in kind. Any distributions made may take the form of a distribution out of reserves, an interim dividend, a final dividend, payment upon cancellation or, in case ABN AMRO is dissolved, a liquidation distribution, which may have certain tax consequences for ABN AMRO Shareholders as described above;
- (d) the implementation by ABN AMRO and/or one or more subsidiaries of Barclays of a legal merger within the meaning of article 2:309 of the Dutch Civil Code and/or the laws of any other jurisdiction applicable from time to time;
- (e) the implementation by ABN AMRO and/or one or more subsidiaries of Barclays of a legal de-merger within the meaning of article 2:334a and/or 2:334cc of the Dutch Civil Code and/or the laws of any other jurisdiction applicable from time to time;
- (f) cancellation of one or more classes of ABN AMRO Shares;
- (g) a dissolution and liquidation of ABN AMRO;

a conversion of ABN AMRO Shares held from time to time by Barclays or its subsidiaries from one class into another.

Other Considerations Applicable to Post-Offer Restructuring Measures

Any single post-Offer restructuring step described above may but need not be implemented for the sole purpose of facilitating the implementation of one or more other post-Offer restructuring steps described above, or for the sole purpose of achieving a result in terms of financial entitlement that is similar to the result of another post-Offer restructuring measure if it is likely that implementation of that other measure can be achieved only after a longer period of time. For instance, a sale by ABN AMRO of all or substantially all of its assets and liabilities against an instrument tracking the value of the Barclays Shares may be implemented as a temporary measure if at the time of implementation it is not or not yet possible to implement a cross-border statutory legal merger between Barclays as the surviving company and ABN AMRO as the disappearing company.

Barclays reserves the right to use any other method permitted by applicable law to obtain the entire issued and outstanding capital of ABN AMRO, as well as to align the company structure of ABN AMRO with the Combined Group's new holding and financing structure that will exist after the Settlement Date.

Further, Barclays and ABN AMRO reserve the right to pursue alterations to the corporate, governance and capital structure of ABN AMRO, including internal reorganizations, changes to the accounting policies applied by ABN AMRO and/or one of the above described methods, all to be effected in accordance with Dutch or other applicable law.

It is possible that Barclays may not be able to implement the post-Offer restructuring promptly after the Settlement Date, that such restructuring is delayed or that such restructuring cannot take place at all. This will depend on, amongst other things, the percentage of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs tendered under the Offer and the means available in a particular jurisdiction to achieve the objective of enabling Barclays (and/or its wholly owned subsidiaries) to acquire all of the outstanding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares underlying ABN AMRO ADSs, taking into account options available under the applicable provisions of Dutch or other applicable law and corporate governance rules (i.e. will Barclays have sufficient voting rights to effect such post-closing restructurings). In addition, the post-Offer restructuring could be the subject of litigation, and a court could delay the post-Offer restructuring or prohibit it from occurring on the terms described in this Offer Memorandum, or from occurring at all. Accordingly, ABN AMRO Shareholders who do not tender their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer may not receive the standard offer consideration for such ABN AMRO Shares on or promptly after the Settlement Date, or at all, and the liquidity and value of any ABN AMRO Shares that remain outstanding could be negatively affected. See Section 6.19.1 (Liquidity and Delisting). If the Offer is successful, but some ABN AMRO Shares remain outstanding, the liquidity and market value of these ABN AMRO Shares held by the public could be adversely affected by the fact that they will be held by a small number of holders. See Section 6.19.2 (Other Potential Consequences of Completion of the Offer). Barclays may not be able to complete the post-Offer restructuring of ABN AMRO and its affiliates promptly after the Closing Date, such restructuring may be delayed or may not take place at all for the reasons described above. In addition, even if Barclays is able to effect the post-Offer restructuring, the consideration that ABN AMRO Shareholders receive in the post-Offer restructuring may be substantially lower and/or different in form than the consideration that they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer (and they may also be subject to additional taxes). Assuming Barclays is able to implement post-closing restructuring measures of the type described above, Barclays believes that it is unlikely that it would choose not to do so. However, in the event that the costs of implementing such measures would outweigh the expected benefits of doing so, required regulatory approvals cannot be obtained or would be too burdensome to obtain, or changes in the business climate or economic environment would make the implementation of such measures inadvisable, Barclays may decide not to implement such measures. If Barclays decides not to implement any post-closing restructuring measures, the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs who did not exchange their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer will continue to hold a minority interest in ABN AMRO. In addition to the above, it is currently intended that the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs will be delisted from the stock exchanges on which they currently trade in the event that the Offer is completed. See Section 6.21 (Risk Factors).

6.19.4 Governance/Regulatory

The Combined Group will have a UK corporate governance structure with a unitary board of directors. The Combined Group Board will initially consist of 19 persons, including ten members nominated by Barclays and nine members nominated by ABN AMRO prior to the combination. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive director and, subject to the Merger being completed, Temasek will also have the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive director. In the event that the number of directors of the Barclays Board is reduced in the two years following the consummation of the Offer, the pro rata representation of directors nominated by ABN AMRO and of directors nominated by Barclays shall remain the same. Arthur Martinez is expected to be the Chairman, John Varley is expected to be the CEO and Bob Diamond is expected to be the President. Marcus Agius is expected to become Deputy Chairman of the Combined Group and is expected to remain Chairman of Barclays Bank PLC. It is expected that he will succeed Arthur Martinez as Chairman of the Combined Group when Arthur Martinez retires. In addition to the Chairman and Deputy Chairman, there will be 12 non-executive directors, with 5 initially nominated by Barclays and 7 initially nominated by ABN AMRO. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive Director and, subject to the Merger being completed, Temasek will also have the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive Director. It is expected that Gary Hoffman, Dr Daniël Cronjé, Professor Dame Sandra Dawson, Sir Andrew Likierman, Stephen Russell and Sir John Sunderland will retire from the Barclays Board with effect from the Effective Date. Rijkman Groenink, the current Chairman of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, is expected to be one of the non-executive directors nominated by ABN AMRO. In addition to the CEO and President, the Combined Group Board is expected to include Frits Seegers, Huibert Boumeester and Chris Lucas as executive directors. Following the Effective Date, Rijkman Groenink is expected to cease to be Chairman of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and Gary Hoffman is expected to cease to be the Group Vice-Chairman of Barclays. Huibert Boumeester, Chief Financial Officer of ABN AMRO, is expected to cease to hold such office following the Effective Date.

The FSA and DNB have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the combined group and that DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO and Barclays Groups respectively.

6.19.5 Dividend Policy

Assuming the Effective Date occurs on or before the record date for the Barclays final dividend for 2007, which is expected to be early in March 2008, the first dividend payable to holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is expected to be the Barclays final dividend for 2007, which is intended to be paid late April 2008, in line with Barclays usual practice.

Following the Effective Date, it is intended that the Combined Group will maintain Barclays and ABN AMRO's progressive dividend policy and that dividends per share will grow approximately in line with earnings per share over the longer term. With the benefit of the estimated synergies of the Merger, Barclays annual dividend will be approximately twice covered by adjusted earnings.¹⁶ Management of each of Barclays and ABN AMRO believe that this policy will maintain an appropriate balance between income distribution to shareholders and earnings retention to fund growth. It is also expected that the Combined Group will continue Barclays current practice of weighting the annual dividends towards the final dividend to maintain flexibility. It is not expected that the dividends per share in 2008 will be materially different to the dividend Barclays would have expected to distribute to shareholders had the Merger not occurred.

Following implementation of the Merger, the Combined Group will present financial statements in Euro and will declare dividends in Euro. Shareholders in the Combined Group will be able to elect to receive dividends paid in Euro or Pound Sterling (converted at the then prevailing market rate). Unless they validly elect otherwise, accepting ABN AMRO Shareholders who receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will receive dividends paid in Euro. Accepting ABN AMRO Shareholders who receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will receive dividends paid in Pound Sterling (converted at the then prevailing market rate) unless they validly elect to receive dividends paid in Euro. Existing Barclays Shareholders will continue to receive dividends paid in Pound Sterling (converted at the then prevailing market rate) unless they validly elect to receive dividends paid in Euro. The Holders of New Barclays ADSs will receive payment in U.S. Dollars and will not be able to elect to receive dividends in any other currencies.

Adjusted earnings is the profit attributable to ordinary shareholders to exclude the amortisation of identifiable intangible assets, fair value adjustments and integration costs relating to the Merger.

6.19.7 Employee Consultation

Consultations have taken place with the trade unions involved and the secretariat of the Social Economic Council (Sociaal Economische Raad) has been informed of the Offer in accordance with the SER Merger Code 2000 (SER besluit Fusiegedragsregels 2000).

ABN AMRO and Barclays confirm that all requisite employee consultations and information procedures with employee representative bodies of ABN AMRO and Barclays have been completed and have resulted in a positive opinion of the European Staff Council and a positive advice from the Central Works Council in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays. The ABN AMRO Boards also noted the commitments made to employees and trade unions in respect of employees' rights and respecting of existing agreements.

ABN AMRO and Barclays have identified the possibility of rationalising the number of staff of the Combined Group through a combination of natural attrition, offshoring and outsourcing as well as redundancies. The rationalisation of headcount is expected to be implemented over 3 years following completion of the Offer.

ABN AMRO and Barclays have, in their meetings with employee representative groups, including trade unions and works councils, committed to avoiding compulsory redundancies wherever possible and maintaining current redundancy terms for all existing Barclays and ABN AMRO employees worldwide for a period of two years from the Closing Date.

The reduction in staff is a necessary part of the envisaged synergies from the combination of the two banks. Part of the expected staff reduction will be through establishing shared services and offshoring those positions to low cost locations, such as India where new staff will be recruited at ABN AMRO's existing ACES operations.

It is expected that the combination of Barclays and ABN AMRO will result in a net reduction in staff of approximately 12,800. In addition, it is expected that approximately 10,800 full-time equivalent positions will be offshored to low-cost locations. This will impact a gross total of approximately 23,600 full-time equivalent positions of the combined work force of approximately 221,700. (Barclays has c.127,700 employees, ABN AMRO c.94,000 excluding LaSalle).

ABN AMRO and Barclays are aware of the fact that these measures can have difficult consequences for a number of staff. When it comes to matters affecting our staff, both ABN AMRO and Barclays have a good reputation and are committed to that reputation. ABN AMRO and Barclays will inform and consult with the appropriate employee representative bodies in the relevant countries and will seek all necessary regulatory consents before taking decisions in relation to these anticipated effects of the Merger. ABN AMRO and Barclays will honour all agreements with their respective unions.

6.19.8 Future Composition of the Barclays Board

The Combined Group will have a UK corporate governance structure with a unitary board of directors. Following the Merger, it is expected that the Combined Group Board will initially consist of 19 persons, including 10 members nominated by Barclays and 9 members nominated by ABN AMRO prior to the combination. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive director and, subject to the Merger being completed, Temasek will also have the right to nominate a Barclays non-executive director.

Arthur Martinez is expected to be the Chairman, John Varley is expected to be the CEO and Bob Diamond is expected to be the President of the Combined Group. Marcus Agius is expected to become Deputy Chairman of the Combined Group and is expected to remain Chairman of Barclays Bank PLC. It is expected that he will succeed Arthur Martinez as Chairman of the Combined Group when Arthur Martinez retires. In addition to the Chairman and Deputy Chairman and the non-executive directors to be nominated by China Development Bank and Temasek, there will be 12 non-executive directors, with 5 initially nominated by Barclays and 7 initially nominated by ABN AMRO. In the event that the number of directors of the Barclays Board shall in the two years following the consummation of the Offer be reduced, the pro rata representation of the directors nominated by Barclays and ABN AMRO shall remain the same. It is expected that Gary Hoffman, Dr Daniël Cronjé, Professor Dame Sandra Dawson, Sir Andrew Likierman, Stephen Russell and Sir John Sunderland will retire from the Barclays Board with effect from the Effective Date. Mr. Kramer made his career as a civil engineer and was President and Chief Executive Officer of Fugro N.V., Consulting Engineers, until 2006 after 23 years at the company. Prior to his work at Fugro, Mr. Kramer was Director at Broekhoven Baggermaatschappij Zeist (today part of Van Oord N.V.) from 1977 through to 1983. He also worked as a project manager at Koninklijke Adriaan Volker Groep (today Koninklijke Volker Wessels Stevin N.V.), with the Royal Dutch Navy and as Design Engineer at the Department of Maritime Construction of the Dutch Government.

6.19.9 Future Composition of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board
 ABN AMRO Holding and ABN AMRO Bank will continue to have a management and supervisory Board. The managing boards, as well as the supervisory boards of both companies will be identical. It is expected that John Varley, Frits Seegers and Huibert Boumeester will be among the initial appointments to the supervisory boards.

The management boards of both companies will be chaired by Piero Overmars. Other members of the management boards are expected to be Chris Lucas, Paul Idzik, Ron Teerlink and Wilco Jiskoot.

It is anticipated that as soon as possible following the Offer being declared unconditional a general meeting of shareholders will be convened to approve the appointment of new members of the supervisory boards and management boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank.

If Barclays does not acquire 95% or more of the issued and outstanding ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO, two supervisory directors independent from Barclays will be appointed to the supervisory boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank. They will have full supervisory responsibility as well as having the special responsibility of safeguarding the interests of the minority ABN AMRO Shareholders in all transactions outside the ordinary course of business, directly or indirectly, with Barclays and/or any of its group companies. The appointment of these independent directors is subject to applicable regulatory approval and employee consultation.

6.19.10 Management, Operating Model and Employees

The head office of the Combined Group will be located in Amsterdam. Day-to-day management of the Combined Group is expected to be the responsibility of John Varley, working with the Group Executive Committee, which is expected to consist of:

Mr. Overmars is a member of the Supervisory Board of Aronsohn Consulting Engineers, Rotterdam, effective on per July 1, 2007, and a director of a charitable foundation.

Ron Teerlink, Chief Operating Officer of Global Retail and Commercial Banking (age 46)

Mr. Ron Teerlink was appointed to the ABN AMRO Managing Board in January 2006 and is responsible for BU Latin America, BU Transaction Banking, Services and Market Infrastructures and is also Chairman of the Consumer Client Segment. Prior to his appointment to the ABN AMRO Managing Board, Mr. Teerlink was Chief Executive Officer of Group Shared Services. In 2002 he was appointed Chief Operating Officer, Wholesale Client Business and Senior Executive Vice President. In 2001 he was named Managing Director, Wholesale Clients Business Operations Europe. Mr. Teerlink is a member of the Supervisory Board of Equens N.V., member of the Board of Directors of ICC Nederland and member of the Advisory Board of EPC.nl.

6.19.11 Regulation and Tax Residency

The FSA and DNB have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and that DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO and Barclays Groups respectively.

Barclays, which will be the holding company for the Combined Group, will remain UK incorporated, and will remain UK tax resident.

6.19.12 Capital Management

ABN AMRO Bank and Barclays Bank will seek to maintain their strong credit ratings. On the Effective Date it is expected that the Tier 1 Ratio of the Combined Group will be 7.5 percent and the Core Equity Tier 1 Ratio 5 percent. The Combined Group will take a disciplined approach to capital optimisation and will seek to maintain Tier 1 ratio at 7.5 percent and rebuild the Core Equity Tier 1 Ratio to 5.25 percent, by the end of 2009 from the retention of earnings. It has been assumed, for the purpose of estimating financial effects, that excess equity over and above the target Equity Tier 1 ratio after accounting for dividends and growth in risk weighted assets will be returned to shareholders by way of share buybacks.

6.19.13 Amendment of the Barclays Articles of Association

At the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting it will be proposed to amend the Barclays Articles of Association. The new Barclays Articles of Association would contain the rights attaching to the Barclays Preference Shares and include any necessary consequential amendments to reflect the creation of the Barclays Preference Shares, but would otherwise be identical to the existing Barclays Articles of Association. Please see Section 6.5 (DR Preference Share Offer) for a description of the terms of the Barclays Preference Shares that will be reflected in the new Barclays Articles of Association.

6.19.14 Resignation of Members of ABN AMRO Managing Board and ABN AMRO Supervisory Board

It is expected that all current members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board cease to be members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and that Mr. Groenink, Mr. Boumeester and Mr. Kuiper cease to be members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, in both cases as of when the appointments of the new members of the supervisory boards and management boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank, that are to be approved by the general meetings of shareholders of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank, that are to be convened as soon as possible following consummation of the Offer, become effective.

None of the resigning members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and of the ABN AMRO Managing Board shall be entitled to any compensation in respect of their resignations, except that upon termination of his employment agreement with ABN AMRO, Mr. Groenink will be entitled to a non-recurrent compensation to be established by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board in accordance with the criteria previously disclosed by ABN AMRO:

- (a) the remuneration of Mr. Groenink at the moment of termination of his employment agreement with ABN AMRO;
- (b) the duration of the employment as member of the ABN AMRO Managing Board and his status in society because of his position;
- (c) the implausibility that after termination of his employment agreement with ABN AMRO, Mr. Groenink will succeed in finding a similar position (also taken into consideration the current non-compete clause in his employment agreement) which equals in status and remuneration his position as member of the ABN AMRO Managing Board;
- (d) Mr. Groenink's entitlement to a postponed pension when leaving the employment of ABN AMRO, compared to his pension entitlement if he would have been able to fulfill the maximum term of employment with ABN AMRO; and
- (e) the grounds for termination of the employment agreement.

The existing employment agreement of Mr. Groenink also provides that any such non-recurrent compensation shall at least equal the gross annual salary and profit-sharing bonus which Mr. Groenink receives at the time of termination of his employment agreement (in 2006 Euro 924,000 and Euro 1,290,000 respectively), unless Mr. Groenink would be considered to be more responsible for his dismissal than ABN AMRO. The actual amount of compensation payable to Mr. Groenink will be determined by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board. There is no agreement between ABN AMRO and Mr. Groenink relating to any possible termination of the existing employment agreement in addition to the previously disclosed arrangements described above and there are no on-going discussions or negotiations in that respect.

6.19.15 Merger Statistics

The number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares to be issued under the terms of the Offer is 4,012,764,544¹⁷ and the maximum number of Barclays Preference Shares to be issued under the terms of the Offer is 808,191,360¹⁸. Barclays share capital, following completion of the merger and assuming the maximum issuance of New Barclays Shares, will be 11,446,949,931¹⁹ Barclays Ordinary Shares of 25 pence each and 808,191,360 Barclays Preference Shares of EUR 1 each.

¹⁷This figure is (i) calculated on the assumption that there is full acceptance of the Offer and (ii) based on the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in issue (excluding treasury shares but including all share options and awards) as at 30 July 2007.

¹⁸This figure is calculated on the assumption that there is full acceptance of the DR Preference Share Offer and that all holders of DR Preference Shares elect to receive Barclays Preference Shares as consideration. The figures are based on the number of DR Preference Shares in issue as at 30 July 2007.

19 This figure is (i) calculated on the assumption that there is full acceptance of the Offer, (ii) based on the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in issue (excluding treasury shares but including all share options and awards) as at 30 July 2007, (iii) calculated on the basis of 6,545,671,873 Barclays Ordinary Shares being in issue at the 30 July 2007 and (iv) are calculated taking into account the issuance of the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares, the Clawback Shares and completion of the Share Buy-back in full, and excluding the issue of warrants to Temasek and China Development Bank.

6.20 The Merger Protocol

The following is a summary of selected provisions of the Merger Protocol, as amended by the Merger Protocol amendment letter, dated July 23, 2007, the Merger Protocol amendment letter, dated July 30, 2007 and the letter dated August 3, 2007, entered into by ABN AMRO and Barclays, which governs their relationship until the combination becomes effective or lapses.

6.20.1 Structure of the Merger and Future Corporate Governance

(a) Structure of the Merger

Under the Merger Protocol, the Merger is to be effected by way of public offers by Barclays into The Netherlands, the United States and certain other jurisdictions to acquire all the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO. Barclays and ABN AMRO expect to use a newly incorporated Dutch company (Barclays (Netherlands)) to hold shares in ABN AMRO following completion of the Offer, with Barclays being the holding company of the Combined Group.

(b) Future corporate governance and identity

The head office of the Combined Group will be in Amsterdam and the group will have a UK incorporated holding company. The Merger Protocol also prescribes the following corporate governance structure: the Combined Group will have a UK-style unitary board operating in accordance with UK corporate governance principles and best practices prevailing at the time; the Combined Group Board will be composed of 19 directors, including the chairman, deputy chairman, chief executive officer, four other executive directors and 12 other non-executive directors; in the event that the number of directors of the Barclays Board is reduced in the two years following the consummation of the Offer, the pro rata representation of the directors nominated by ABN AMRO and the directors nominated by Barclays shall remain the same.

Barclays will select the board of directors of Barclays (Netherlands);

the chairman of the Combined Group Board and seven other non-executive directors will be nominated by ABN AMRO, while the deputy chairman, five non-executive directors and the next chief executive officer will be appointed by Barclays, each of them to be appointed with effect from the time the Offer is declared unconditional. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a non-executive director and, subject to the combination being completed Temasek will also have the right to nominate a non-executive director;

the Combined Group Board will have a nomination committee, an audit committee and a remuneration committee, which will be chosen following a consultation process by the next chairman of the board with the other individual members of the board; the members of each such committee will include non-executive directors with suitable experience and qualifications;

Barclays and ABN AMRO will establish an integration planning committee, comprising senior management from Barclays and ABN AMRO, which committee will be responsible for preparatory work and planning activities in relation to the integration of the two businesses following the Merger;

Barclays registered office will remain in England, while its head office will be located in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. The majority of the members of the Group Executive Committee (i.e., the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, chief operating officer, group chief administrative officer and three executive officers responsible for global retail and commercial banking) and the global head office of retail and commercial banking will be based in The Netherlands; the meetings of the Group

Executive Committee of Barclays will be held primarily in The Netherlands; and the heads, senior management and appropriate core staff of all relevant group functions (including risk, compliance, legal, audit, human resources and finance) will be based in the Netherlands;

Barclays Ordinary Shares will have a primary listing on the London Stock Exchange, maintaining the inclusion of Barclays Ordinary Shares in the FTSE 100 Index, and a secondary listing on Eurolist by Euronext Amsterdam;

the current members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board are expected to cease to be members of the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board and Mr. Groenink, Mr. Boumeester and Mr. Kuiper are expected to cease to be members of the ABN AMRO Managing Board, in both cases as of when the appointments of the new members of the supervisory boards and management boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank that are to be approved at general meetings of shareholders of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank that are to be held following consummation of the Offer become effective;

the FSA is expected to be lead supervisor of the consolidated Combined Group and DNB and FSA are expected to be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO Group and the Barclays Group, respectively;

Barclays has agreed to respect and work within the Dutch employee co-determination regulations as applied by ABN AMRO as well as the covenant with the central works council of ABN AMRO;

Barclays will remain a UK tax resident following completion of the Offer; and the board of directors of Barclays Bank will initially comprise members nominated by the Barclays Board.

6.20.2 The Offer

(a) Merger consideration

Barclays is offering to acquire each issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Share for 2.13 Barclays Ordinary Shares and EUR 13.15 in cash and each ABN AMRO ADS for 0.5325 Barclays ADS and EUR 13.15²⁰ in cash, subject to the Mix and Match Facility. The cash consideration paid for ABN AMRO ADSs will be U.S. Dollars (paid in U.S. Dollars), based on the conversion of the Euro consideration into U.S. Dollars, net of any applicable fees and expenses, at the average exchange rate obtainable by the ADS Exchange Agent for the five business days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS Exchange Agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.

(b) Adjustments to the Exchange Ratio

The Merger Protocol provides for the exchange ratio to be adjusted in certain situations²¹ in order to factor into the exchange ratio the impact of such situations on the relative values of Barclays and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

(i) LaSalle consideration

In the event that ABN AMRO receives cash consideration for the sale of LaSalle which is less than USD 21 billion, an amount equal to the shortfall shall be deemed to have been a distribution by ABN AMRO for purposes of determining whether, and the amount that, the exchange ratios should be adjusted. There shall be no corresponding adjustment as a result of the cash consideration received being greater than USD 21 billion.

²⁰The cash consideration paid for each ABN AMRO ADS will be in U.S. Dollars, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which ABN AMRO ADS Holders are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into

U.S. Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by the ADS Exchange Agent, for the five business days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS Exchange Agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.

²¹For the relevant circumstances, see Section 5.1.

Table of Contents

(ii) Discretion of Barclays

Barclays shall be entitled within its discretion to increase or subject to certain restrictions, revise at any time the consideration offered for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.²²

(iii) Share Price

The Merger Protocol does not permit either party to terminate the Merger Protocol, nor provide for alteration of the Ordinary Share Exchange Ratio, as a result of the price of Barclays Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs or ABN AMRO ADSs falling below any minimum price or rising above any maximum price.

(c) Offer and Merger Process

The Offer will remain open for a minimum of 20 Business Days in the United States or, if required by law in any other jurisdiction in which the Offer is made, 30 calendar days. The closing date of the Offer will be the initial date on which the Offer closes for acceptance, unless Barclays, with reasonable input from ABN AMRO, decides to extend the Offer, in which case, the closing date shall be the last date on which the extended Offer closes. Barclays may also, with reasonable input from ABN AMRO, decide the duration of the initial Acceptance Period and of any extension thereof.

In the event Barclays declares the Offer unconditional, Barclays may, with reasonable input from ABN AMRO, and in accordance with market practice and applicable rules and regulations, publicly announce a post-acceptance period and accept each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share that is tendered after the date of Barclays official notice to declare the Offer unconditional.

(d) Consultation Process and Information Sharing

Subject to confidentiality and certain other restrictions, ABN AMRO and Barclays have each agreed to: (a) allow each other and their respective advisers reasonable access to its directors, board members, certain agreed senior employees, information, documentation and advisers as may be reasonably requested by either ABN AMRO or Barclays in connection with the Offer or Merger (except in respect of any Alternative Proposal or Barclays Alternative Proposal (as defined below)); (b) furnish each other and their respective advisers, as soon as such is available, with regular updates on financial results and developments material to its group; and (c) provide such customary assistance reasonably requested by either ABN AMRO or Barclays in connection with any financing or regulatory compliance obligations affected by the Offer and Merger or related matters.

Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed to consult and cooperate in respect of relevant matters in preparation for the Offer, including on public relations and any change of control issues triggered by the Offer and the change of control contemplated thereby, subject to the terms and provisions of the Merger Protocol, and, except with respect to a Competing Offer (as defined below), notify each other promptly and provide relevant information of any event or circumstance it may become aware of and which could reasonably be expected to (a) have a significant impact on the fulfilment of the conditions to the Offer and/or Merger, (b) prejudice the success of the Offer, or (c) cause or constitute a material breach of any covenants or agreements in the Merger Protocol, provided that any delay in or absence of such notification by either ABN AMRO or Barclays shall not prejudice any of either ABN AMRO or Barclays rights under the Merger Protocol.

(e) LaSalle Agreement

ABN AMRO Bank has entered into the LaSalle Agreement and ABN AMRO agrees that it will keep Barclays fully and promptly informed of the progress of the transaction contemplated by such agreement and further agrees, without the prior written approval of Barclays (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), not to amend or vary the LaSalle Agreement in any material respect or waive any of its material rights thereunder. Should the LaSalle Agreement be terminated without completion of the sale of LaSalle, ABN AMRO will, after consultation with Barclays, appoint a financial adviser to assist with the process to find an alternative buyer for LaSalle. Such process shall include the goal of achieving the highest possible price for the sale, taking into account all relevant considerations such as the suitability of the potential bidders and the time to completion of the regulatory process in the United States. ABN AMRO has further agreed to provide Barclays with copies of all material documents relating to the potential sale and, in advance of (a) the publication of any sale materials, (b) any key decision or (c) the issue of any material correspondence, to consult with Barclays and take into account Barclays reasonable comments and representations. The final terms of any sale will be subject to Barclays prior written approval (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld).

22 Any changes to the consideration offered shall take place in compliance with the procedures as set out in Section 4.1.1.

Barclays proposes to use approximately EUR 12 billion of capital released from the sale of LaSalle Bank of America previously intended to be returned to shareholders of the Combined Group after the Merger to repay debt incurred to fund part of the Cash Consideration.

(f) ABN AMRO share plans

ABN AMRO and Barclays will seek to agree, prior to the Commencement Date, on an offer to be made by Barclays to exchange all existing awards and options under the ABN AMRO employee share plans with new awards and options over Barclays Shares on terms satisfying the requirements of the relevant ABN AMRO employee share plan. Barclays will consult with ABN AMRO prior and in relation to the making of such an offer and shall take into account ABN AMRO's reasonable suggestions or requests.

If ABN AMRO and Barclays fail to agree in respect of such offer prior to Commencement Date, any of the ABN AMRO Boards, and the corporate body or committee with authority with respect to the ABN AMRO employee share plans may discretionally exercise any of its authority to accelerate vesting following a change in control of ABN AMRO, or cancel any awards or options in return for a cash payment to the holders of such options or awards and resolve that any award or option granted under the ABN AMRO employee share plans become vested and exercisable as a result of the Offer, provided that existing awards or options that may in accordance with the plan rules be pro-rated on a time and/or performance basis are so pro-rated and provided that in the event any awards are satisfied in cash, the total amount does not exceed EUR 250 million.

(g) ABN AMRO Shareholders' meeting

ABN AMRO will, after the Commencement Date, send a notice to convene an extraordinary general meeting of ABN AMRO Shareholders to take place on September 20, 2007, in order to, among other things, provide required information concerning the Offer and Merger. ABN AMRO has agreed with Barclays to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders following the Unconditional Date to effect changes to its supervisory and management boards, such meeting to be held at such time after the Settlement Date under the Offer as Barclays may choose.

(h) Barclays Shareholders' meeting

Barclays will on the Commencement Date, include in its shareholder circular a notice to convene an extraordinary general meeting of Barclays Shareholders at which resolutions will be proposed to approve, among other things, the Offer and Merger and the implementing measures thereof, and the increase of Barclays authorised share capital and the issuance of the new Barclays Ordinary Shares.

(i) Union and Works Council Communications

ABN AMRO and Barclays have agreed to inform the unions of (a) the reasoning behind the Offer and Merger, (b) the intentions with respect to future business strategy and the related social, economic and legal consequences of the Offer and Merger, and (c) any intended measures that will be taken in respect of such strategy. The unions will subsequently be given the opportunity to discuss the timing and manner of informing the employees of ABN AMRO. ABN AMRO and Barclays will also cooperate fully and coordinate in relation to informing and, to the extent legally required, obtaining advice from their respective works councils on the Offer and Merger.

Table of Contents

(j) Director and officer indemnification

Barclays and ABN AMRO have each agreed to indemnify each individual to become a member of a board of a company in its respective group, as of the time the Offer is declared unconditional, for any damages, costs, liabilities or expenses incurred by such individual arising out of inaccuracies or material misstatements in the parts of the applicable disclosure documentation for which such individual is or was responsible solely in his capacity as a proposed member of the relevant board with respect to the period prior to such person becoming a director to the same extent as available to members of the applicable board on the date of such documentation.

(k) Post-Offer actions

ABN AMRO and Barclays desire that Barclays acquire all ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, including any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares not tendered in the Offer. Under Dutch law, such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares may be acquired pursuant to compulsory buy-out procedures or takeover buy-out procedures. A crossborder legal merger may also take place, in which ABN AMRO would be the disappearing entity, and as a result of which, ABN AMRO Shareholders would become Barclays Shareholders. Alternatively, Barclays may effect its acquisition of the remaining ABN AMRO Shares through any other legal means permitted. Any such post-offer actions will be structured and implemented in a reasonably efficient manner, from operational, legal and tax perspectives, taking into account relevant circumstances and applicable laws.

6.20.3 Conditions to the Offer

(a) Conditions to commencement of the Offer

(i) Mutual conditions

Under the Merger Protocol, the obligation of Barclays to make the Offer was subject to each of the following conditions having been satisfied or waived by Barclays and ABN AMRO:

all notifications, filings and applications necessary or appropriate in connection with the merger or Offer and their implementation and the satisfaction of other conditions to the Offer or Merger have been made (other than those notifications, filings or applications that cannot be made until after the Commencement Date);

all authorisations (other than with respect to the disclosure documentation) required for making the Offer have been obtained where the failure to obtain those authorisations (a) would result in Barclays violating any law, (b) reasonably could materially and adversely affect ABN AMRO, Barclays or the Combined Group, or (c) would otherwise mean that Barclays cannot reasonably be expected to continue with the Offer or Merger;

Barclays and ABN AMRO have received written notification from DNB and FSA confirming that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and act as the coordinator in relation to the Combined Group following completion of the Offer and the other arrangements and/or requirements that DNB or FSA will implement or require in relation to the Combined Group, and neither ABN AMRO nor Barclays has received any notification from DNB or FSA indicating there is likely to be any change with respect to the matters set out in such notifications;

clearances and confirmations from the relevant tax authorities in The Netherlands and the United Kingdom that, after the completion of the Offer Barclays will be considered to be resident for tax purposes in the United Kingdom that, after consummation of the Offer, have been obtained in terms reasonably satisfactory to Barclays and ABN AMRO and that none of such clearances or confirmations has been withdrawn or modified;

all requisite employee consultations and information procedures with employee representative bodies of ABN AMRO and Barclays have been completed;

the AFM and UKLA have approved, or declared they have no further comments on, the relevant disclosure documentation, and the Registration Statement has become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued and be in effect and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the SEC and not withdrawn;

there is no indication that the Barclays Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to the Offer will not be admitted to the Official UK List, admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange, authorised for listing on the London Stock Exchange, Euronext Amsterdam and the Tokyo Stock Exchange, nor that the Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs issued pursuant to the Offer will not be approved for listing on the NYSE;

Euronext Amsterdam has confirmed it has no further comments on the proposed amendments to the ABN AMRO Articles of Association;

the FTSE 100 Committee has provided written confirmation to the effect that Barclays Ordinary Shares will continue to be included in the FTSE 100 Index following the Offer being declared unconditional and the issue of new Barclays Shares;

both ABN AMRO and Barclays have not received notification from the AFM that the preparations of the Offer are in breach of Dutch laws pursuant to which securities institutions would not be permitted to cooperate with the execution and completion of the Offer;

no condition to the merger has become permanently incapable of fulfilment and not been waived, and;

the Merger Protocol has not been terminated.

(ii) Additional Barclays conditions

Under the Merger Protocol, the obligation of Barclays to make the Offer was subject to the following conditions having been satisfied (or waived by Barclays) and each of the conditions set out below have been either satisfied or waived by Barclays:

no ABN AMRO Material Adverse Change has occurred prior to the closing of the Offer;

there has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances not fairly disclosed in ABN AMRO's 2006 annual report or annual accounts or otherwise disclosed that can be expected to have a negative impact of 5% or more on ABN AMRO's 2006 consolidated operating income;

Barclays has reasonably determined that the conditions to the Merger pertaining to regulatory approvals will be fulfilled as of the anticipated Closing Date;

if required, at least 60 (sixty) calendar days have passed following the date on which Barclays application, if required, under Section 3 of the United States Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, has been accepted for processing by the Board of Governors of the US Federal Reserve System;

no Third Party has decided to, or indicated any intention to, implement or threaten any frustrating action, as defined in the Merger Protocol, such that either ABN AMRO or Barclays cannot be reasonably be expected to continue with the merger or declare the Offer

all necessary corporate action has been taken in connection with the appointment of the nominated individuals to the supervisory board and management board of ABN AMRO Bank and Barclays (Netherlands) subject to and with effect as of the time the Offer has been declared unconditional; and no circumstance, occurrence or development has occurred since the date of the Merger Protocol that will constitute or constitutes suspension or limitation of trading in ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares (other than on a temporary basis in the ordinary course of trading).

(iii) Additional ABN AMRO conditions

Under the Merger Protocol, the obligation of Barclays to make the Offer was subject to each of the following conditions having been satisfied (or waived by ABN AMRO) and each of the conditions set out below have been either satisfied or waived by ABN AMRO:

no Barclays Material Adverse Change has occurred prior to the closing of the Offer;

there has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances not fairly disclosed in Barclays 2006 annual report or annual accounts or otherwise disclosed that can be expected to have a negative impact of 5% or more on Barclays 2006 consolidated operating income;

ABN AMRO has reasonably determined that the conditions to the Merger pertaining to regulatory approvals will be fulfilled as of the anticipated Closing Date of the Offer;

no Third Party has decided to, or indicated any intention to, implement or threaten any frustrating action as defined in the Merger Protocol, such that either ABN AMRO or Barclays cannot reasonably be expected to continue with the Merger or declare the Offer unconditional; and no circumstance, occurrence or development has occurred since the date of the Merger Protocol that will constitute or constitutes suspension or limitation of trading in Barclays Ordinary Shares (other than on a temporary basis in the ordinary course of trading).

In the event any condition to the Offer becomes permanently incapable of fulfilment as a result of a breach of the Merger Protocol by either ABN AMRO or Barclays for whose benefit the condition is expressed to be agreed, the condition shall be deemed to be waived by either ABN AMRO or Barclays and the ability to waive or invoke such condition shall pass to either ABN AMRO or Barclays.

Certain additional conditions which were originally conditions to the making of the Offer are now treated as conditions to the Offer and are set out in Section 6.2 (Offer Conditions).

(b) Conditions to completion of the Offer

The obligation of Barclays to complete the Merger and to declare the Offer unconditional is subject to the Offer Conditions having been satisfied (or waived by Barclays and/or ABN AMRO if and to the extent such waiver is permitted) as set out in Section 6.2 (Offer Conditions):

6.20.4 Exclusivity

Under the Merger Protocol, the Exclusivity Period is the period commencing on the date of the Merger Protocol and ending on the earlier of March 1, 2008 (if the Offer has not yet been declared unconditional) and the date on which the Merger Protocol is terminated.

(a) Restrictions during the Exclusivity Period in respect of ABN AMRO

ABN AMRO has agreed that neither it nor its representatives, during the Exclusivity Period, will initiate, solicit, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, provide any confidential information to, or enter into any agreement with, any third party regarding the making of a bona fide unsolicited offer or proposal involving the acquisition of, or for the making of an offer for, all or a substantial part of the issued share capital or the whole or any material part of the undertaking, business or assets of ABN AMRO, or any bona fide unsolicited proposal involving a merger, consolidation or demerger involving ABN AMRO or material reorganization or re-capitalisation of ABN AMRO (an Alternative Proposal), except as disclosed by ABN AMRO to Barclays prior to the execution of the Merger Protocol. Following receipt by ABN AMRO of an Alternative Proposal or an unsolicited indication of interest in making an Alternative Proposal, ABN AMRO may have contacts with such third party to understand the contents of the Alternative Proposal, provided that ABN AMRO complies with the notice requirements to Barclays described below. Subject to the terms of the exclusivity, ABN AMRO shall also be allowed to continue discussions with a third party existing as at the date of the Merger Protocol, provided that it has notified Barclays thereof.

ABN AMRO has agreed to notify Barclays promptly of any communication, invitation, approach or inquiry, or any request for information, received by ABN AMRO or its representatives from any third party in relation to an Alternative Proposal, it being understood that ABN AMRO shall advise Barclays of the identity of such third party and the proposed consideration and other principal terms of such Alternative Proposal, so as to enable Barclays to consider its position in light of the Alternative Proposal and to assess its potential effects on the Offer and the Offer's chances of success. ABN AMRO has further agreed to keep Barclays informed of any discussions or developments with respect to such Alternative Proposal. This notification requirement applies equally to activities disclosed by ABN AMRO to Barclays prior to the execution of the Merger Protocol.

In the event of a third party communicating an Alternative Proposal to ABN AMRO and the ABN AMRO Boards concluding, while acting in good faith and observing their applicable fiduciary duties, that such Alternative Proposal would be likely to constitute or develop into a Competing Offer (as defined below in Competing Offer for ABN AMRO), ABN AMRO will promptly give written notice thereof to Barclays. After giving such notice, ABN AMRO may, subject to the terms of the exclusivity, engage in discussions or negotiations in relation to the Alternative Proposal with such third party and disclose confidential information to such third party.

Before engaging in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding an Alternative Proposal or disclosing confidential information to any third party, ABN AMRO must first seek to enter into a confidentiality and standstill agreement with such third party on terms materially no less favourable to ABN AMRO than the terms of the preliminary transaction agreement entered into with Barclays and dated March 21, 2007.

ABN AMRO is not permitted to provide a third party with any confidential information it has not provided to Barclays unless it also promptly provides such confidential information to Barclays. ABN AMRO has further agreed not to enter into any break fee arrangement, incentive fee, cost compensation or any similar arrangement with any third party in connection with an Alternative Proposal, except as permitted in respect of a Competing Offer.

Under the Merger Protocol, ABN AMRO confirmed that it was not, at the date of signing of the Merger Protocol, in negotiations, activities or discussions with any third party that could lead to an Alternative Proposal or a Competing Offer and that it had not been in any such negotiations, activities or discussions which it expected could be revived or re-commenced after the date thereof, except as fairly disclosed prior to the Merger Protocol's execution.

(b) Restrictions during the Exclusivity Period in respect of Barclays

Barclays has agreed that neither it nor its representatives, during the Exclusivity Period, will initiate, solicit, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, provide any confidential information to, or enter into any agreement with any third party regarding the making of a bona fide unsolicited offer or proposal involving the acquisition of, or for the making of an offer for, all or a substantial part of the issued share capital or the whole or any material part of the undertaking, business or assets of Barclays, or any bona vide unsolicited proposal involving a merger, consolidation or demerger involving Barclays or material reorganisation or re-capitalisation of Barclays (a Barclays Alternative Proposal), except as disclosed by Barclays to ABN AMRO prior to the Merger Protocol s execution. Following receipt by Barclays of a Barclays Alternative Proposal or an unsolicited indication of interest in making a Barclays Alternative Proposal, Barclays may have contacts with such third party to understand the contents of the Barclays Alternative Proposal, provided that Barclays complies with the notice requirements to Barclays described below. Subject to the terms of the exclusivity, Barclays shall also be allowed to continue discussions with a third party existing as at the date of the Merger Protocol.

Barclays has agreed to notify ABN AMRO promptly of any communication, invitation, approach or inquiry, or any request for information, received by Barclays or its representatives from any third party in relation to a Barclays Alternative Proposal, it being understood that Barclays shall advise ABN AMRO of the identity of such third party and the proposed consideration and other principal terms of such Barclays Alternative Proposal, so as to enable ABN AMRO to consider its position in light of the Barclays Alternative Proposal and to assess its potential effects on the Offer and the Offer's chances of success. Barclays has further agreed to keep ABN AMRO informed of any discussions or developments with respect to such Barclays Alternative Proposal.

In the event of a third party communicating a Barclays Alternative Proposal to Barclays and the Barclays Board concluding, while acting in good faith and observing their applicable fiduciary duties, that it may be required to consider such Barclays Alternative Proposal, Barclays shall promptly give written notice thereof to ABN AMRO. After giving such notice, Barclays may, subject to the terms of the exclusivity, engage in discussions or negotiations in relation to the Barclays Alternative Proposal with such third party and disclose confidential information to such third party.

Barclays has further agreed not to enter into any break fee arrangement, incentive fee, cost compensation or any similar arrangement with any third party in connection with a Barclays Alternative Proposal, unless the Barclays Board's recommendation has been withdrawn.

Under the Merger Protocol, Barclays confirmed that it was not, at the date of signing of the Merger Protocol, in negotiations, activities or discussions with any third party that could lead to an Alternative Proposal and that it had not been in any such negotiations, activities or discussions which it expected could be revived or re-commenced after the date thereof, except as fairly disclosed prior to the Merger Protocol's execution.

6.20.5 Competing Offer for ABN AMRO

The Merger Protocol contains detailed provisions outlining the circumstances in which ABN AMRO may respond to competing offers received from third parties. A Competing Offer is an unsolicited written bona fide proposal from a third party involving an attempt to effect a change of control of ABN AMRO by way of a merger or through an offer for more than 50% of ABN AMRO's voting or ordinary share capital or through an offer for the acquisition of all or substantially all (to mean at least 95% of all assets shown in the ABN AMRO consolidated balance sheet as at December 31, 2006) the assets, undertakings or business of ABN AMRO, which proposal is binding on the third party and which proposal is determined in the reasonable opinion of the ABN AMRO Boards, after having considered the advice of outside advisers, acting in good faith and observing their applicable fiduciary duties, to be a more beneficial offer than the Offer, specifically taking into account the overall terms set out in the Merger Protocol.

In the event the ABN AMRO Boards determine that they intend to recommend the Competing Offer:

ABN AMRO shall promptly notify Barclays, including in such notice confirmation that the ABN AMRO Boards intend, acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties under applicable law and in the absence of a Barclays revised offer, to recommend the Competing Offer for ABN AMRO and the most current version of such Competing Offer;

Barclays shall have five Business Days following the date on which it receives such notice to communicate to the ABN AMRO Boards a Barclays revised offer;

in the event that either (a) Barclays fails to communicate a revised offer within five Business Days after having received such notice or (b) the ABN AMRO Boards reaffirm to Barclays in writing at the end of such period, after taking into account any Barclays revised offer, that the ABN AMRO Boards intend, acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties under applicable law, to recommend the Competing Offer, each of ABN AMRO and Barclays shall be entitled to terminate the Merger Protocol with immediate effect, subject to compensatory amounts or rights to otherwise terminate, and the ABN AMRO Boards may recommend the Competing Offer; and if Barclays communicates a revised offer to the ABN AMRO Boards which the ABN AMRO Boards decide to recommend, ABN AMRO shall notify the third party proposing the Competing Offer that it does not intend to recommend such Competing Offer and publicly announce the terms of Barclays revised offer to be publicly recommended by the ABN AMRO Boards. ABN AMRO and Barclays shall not therefore be permitted to terminate the Merger Protocol, and ABN AMRO and Barclays and their applicable representatives shall continue to enjoy and be bound by their respective rights and obligations under the Merger Protocol, including in relation to any other Competing Offer.

Barclays has agreed not to cast the votes attached to any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares acquired by it for its own account (i.e. outside the ordinary course of its investment banking, stock broking, asset or fund management businesses) after the date of the Merger Protocol (a) in favour of any shareholder resolutions in connection with an offer by Barclays for all the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares no longer being recommended by the ABN AMRO Boards or (b) against any shareholder resolutions in connection with a Competing Offer recommended by the ABN AMRO Boards.

Under the Merger Protocol, as amended on July 30, 2007, ABN AMRO is entitled to engage in discussions or negotiations with the Consortium and to provide the Consortium with certain confidential information, without ABN AMRO having to notify Barclays that the ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board have concluded that the offer announced by the Consortium on July 20, 2007 would be reasonably likely to constitute or develop into a Competing Offer.

6.20.6 Termination

The Merger Protocol and the rights and obligations thereunder will immediately terminate, if not all the conditions to the commencement of the Offer have been fulfilled or duly waived, as permitted, on or before November 1, 2007;

if, upon expiration of the offer period, including any such extension thereof, the Offer has not been declared unconditional on or before March 1, 2008;

if, upon expiration of the Acceptance Period, including any such extension thereof, not all of the conditions to the completion of the Offer are fulfilled and the Offer is not declared unconditional or extended; or if the Merger Protocol is otherwise terminated by Barclays or ABN AMRO.

The Merger Protocol may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the Offer by ABN AMRO, if Barclays materially breaches any provision of the Merger Protocol or laws applicable to either ABN AMRO or Barclays in connection with the transactions described herein;

if the Barclays Board determines, after having considered the advice of outside legal and financial advisers, acting in good faith and observing its applicable fiduciary duties, that it intends to withdraw its recommendation and informs ABN AMRO that it intends to do so; or if any member of the Barclays Board qualifies his or her unanimous recommendation of the Offer or makes any contradictory public statements unless the Barclays Board reaffirms his or her recommendation by way of public announcement as soon as possible within 24 hours of becoming aware of such contradictory public statement.

The Merger Protocol may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the exchange offer by Barclays, if ABN AMRO materially breaches any provision of the Merger Protocol or laws applicable to either party in connection with the transactions described herein; or

if any member of the ABN AMRO Boards (a) makes any contradictory public statement with respect to the exchange offer that would constitute a significant change in the ABN AMRO Boards' position as an expression of support for the strategic benefits of the combination or (b) makes any public statement recommending any Alternative Proposal, unless the ABN

AMRO Boards shall have reaffirmed by way of a public announcement the ABN AMRO Boards' position with respect to the exchange offer and that the ABN AMRO Boards do not recommend any Alternative Proposal as soon as possible within 24 hours of the becoming aware of the statement described in (a) or (b). The Merger Protocol may additionally be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the Offer by either ABN AMRO or Barclays in case of all the following:

ABN AMRO receives a Competing Offer;

ABN AMRO promptly informs Barclays in writing of the Competing Offer pursuant to and in compliance with the Merger Protocol; and either (a) Barclays fails to communicate a revised offer within five business days after having received notice of the Competing Offer or (b) the ABN AMRO Boards reaffirm to Barclays in writing at the end of such five-day period, after taking into account any revised offer from Barclays, that the ABN AMRO Boards intend to recommend the Competing Offer.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, ABN AMRO nor Barclays shall be permitted to terminate the Merger Protocol if either ABN AMRO or Barclays failure to comply with any provisions of the Merger Protocol has been the cause of, or materially contributed to, the non-fulfilment of any condition to the Offer or the Merger.

6.20.7 Compensation for loss and damages

An amount of EUR 200 million shall be paid by ABN AMRO to Barclays by way of compensation for loss and damages as follows:

(a) if ABN AMRO or Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol as a result of the ABN AMRO Boards recommending a Competing Offer; or

following non-fulfilment of any condition to the Offer or Merger where the main cause of such non-fulfilment is ABN AMRO's breach of the Merger Protocol; or

(b) if Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol as a result of a material breach of the Merger Protocol by ABN AMRO; or as a result of a contradictory public statement by ABN AMRO, in the absence of a material breach by Barclays of the Merger Protocol and settlement of the Offer or any other offer by Barclays for ABN AMRO shares having occurred.

An amount of EUR 200 million shall be paid by Barclays to ABN AMRO by way of compensation for loss and damages as follows:

(a) if ABN AMRO or Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol as a result of a revocation of the recommendation by the Barclays Board; or

following non-fulfilment of any condition to the Offer or Merger where the main cause of such non-fulfilment is Barclays' breach of the Merger Protocol; or

(b) if ABN AMRO terminates the Merger Protocol as a result of a material breach of the Merger Protocol by Barclays; or

as a result of a contradictory public statement by Barclays in the absence of a material breach by ABN AMRO of the Merger Protocol and settlement of the Offer or any other offer by Barclays for ABN AMRO shares having occurred.

Barclays and ABN AMRO have acknowledged that, under the Merger Protocol as it existed prior to the Merger Protocol amendment letter, dated July 30, 2007, withdrawal of recommendation of the exchange offer by the ABN AMRO Boards would have resulted in a right for Barclays to terminate the Merger Protocol and to receive immediate payment of EUR 200 million by way of compensation for loss and damages suffered. Barclays has agreed that, in view of Barclays and ABN AMRO's desire not to terminate the Merger Protocol and the continued support of the ABN AMRO Boards, Barclays will defer the collection of the EUR 200 million unless and until Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol in accordance with its terms. Barclays shall not be entitled to receive this sum if the exchange offer has been declared unconditional or if the ABN AMRO Boards renew their recommendation of the exchange offer and Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol during the currency of that recommendation. This is without prejudice to certain other rights of Barclays to receive EUR 200 million payable by ABN AMRO in case of a termination of the Merger Protocol in certain other circumstances, including breach.

6.20.8 Conduct of business pending the Merger

Under the Merger Protocol, until the earlier of the Settlement Date and the date on which the Merger Protocol is terminated, Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed to conduct their respective businesses and operations in the ordinary and usual course of business consistent with best practices, preserve intact business organisation and assets, maintain rights, franchises and authorisations and existing relations with customers, employees, suppliers, business associates and governmental authorities, and refrain from taking any action which may impair its ability to perform its obligations under and related to the Merger Protocol.

Each of Barclays and ABN AMRO has further agreed to comply with the following (except as otherwise indicated) except with the prior written consent of either ABN AMRO or Barclays:

not to make any material changes to its corporate or group structure;

not to merge, demerge or consolidate with or into any other company or business, except for any such transaction solely among its subsidiaries, or change its or its business identity or character;

not to enter into any capital commitment or investment that individually (or taken with other such commitments or investments which could be regarded as constituting a single commitment or investment) amounts to EUR 250 million or more and has not been provided for in either ABN AMRO's or Barclays 2007 budget or fairly disclosed to either ABN AMRO or Barclays before the date of the Merger Protocol, other than (a) intra-group capital investments and (b) loans and investments in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, including private equity investments;

not to create, extend, grant, issue or allow any third-party rights over any of its material assets, except in the ordinary course of business;

not to amend its articles of association or equivalent or similar constitutional documents, except for changes to the constitutional documents of its direct and indirect subsidiaries not material to the relevant group taken as a whole, or to the rights attaching to any shares in any member of its group;

not to propose to nominate any new members to any of the ABN AMRO Boards, except that ABN AMRO may propose to nominate a new member of its supervisory board to its general meeting of shareholders held on April 26, 2007;

not to agree to declare or pay any dividend or any distribution in kind except for (a) the proposed dividends relating to the financial year ended December 31, 2006 and any interim dividends in respect of the financial year commencing January 1, 2007, provided that any such interim dividend is consistent with either ABN AMRO's or Barclays dividend policy prevailing as at the date of the Merger Protocol and does not exceed reasonable market expectations as on April 20, 2007 and (b) any distributions due under the terms of preference shares and hybrid capital instruments issued or agreed to be issued as at the date of the Merger Protocol;

to the extent in the best interest of the relevant group company, to maintain the services of its directors, officers and key employees, and its business relationships with key customers and others having material business dealings with its group;

in relation to employees and consultants, to make no material change to any contract term or compensation or benefits arrangements unless the change is (a) consistent with existing policies and governance processes in operation at the time of execution of the Merger Protocol, (b) commercially necessary or reasonably desired and (c) would not materially adversely affect any of the agreed planned synergy savings;

except in the ordinary course of either ABN AMRO's or Barclays private equity or merchant bank business, not to acquire or dispose of any material legal entities or businesses or a material part of its assets (including strategic stakes) or engage in a series of such acquisitions or disposals, with legal entities, businesses or parts of assets material if having a book value of or being bought or sold for EUR 500 million or more;

not to settle or initiate any litigation or arbitration or similar proceedings involving an amount of EUR 250 million or more after announcement of the Offer (with any series of proceedings (or claims) arising out of the same or substantially the same originating cause to be treated as one proceeding (or claim));

not to make any changes with respect to accounting policies or procedures, except as (a) required by applicable law or changes in applicable generally accepted accounting principles or (b) as either party, after consulting the advice of its regulated public accounting firm and with the other party, determines in good faith advisable to conform to best accounting practices;

not to make or alter any material tax election or take any material position on any material tax return filed on or after the date hereof or adopt any tax method therefore that is inconsistent with elections made, positions taken, or methods used in preparing or filing any tax return in prior periods or settle or otherwise finally resolve any dispute with respect to an amount of tax of EUR 250 million or more;

to procure that neither it nor any other member of its group:

issues, authorises or proposes the issue of additional shares of any class or securities in its capital or similar securities or transfer or sells or authorises or proposes the transfer or sale of shares out of treasury (save as between such party and its subsidiaries and save for the issue or transfer out of treasury of shares on the exercise of options granted before the date of the Merger Protocol in the ordinary course of business);

enters into, varies, authorises or proposes to enter into or vary any contract, transaction, arrangement or commitment (whether in respect of capital expenditure or otherwise) of a long-term, unusual or onerous nature and which may be material in the context of its group or which is likely to be restrictive on the business of any member of the combined group;

makes, agrees or consents to any significant change to the terms or benefits of any pension scheme established for directors, employees or dependents of such, or carries out any act which may lead to the commencement of the winding up of the pension scheme or which could give rise to a liability arising pursuant to any law or regulation applicable to the scheme, or agrees to make any additional funding to the pension scheme as part of any negotiations with the trustees of the pension scheme other than as required by applicable law or under the terms or rules of the pension scheme or as has been fairly disclosed to the either ABN AMRO or Barclays prior to the date of the Merger Protocol;

implements, effects or authorises any merger, demerger, or liquidation or apply for bankruptcy or suspension of payments or enters into negotiations with any one or more of its creditors with a view to the readjustment or rescheduling of its debts, or enters into any similar transaction or arrangement, otherwise than in the ordinary course of business and except for any such transaction solely among subsidiaries provided it does not involve any insolvent liquidation, application for bankruptcy or suspension of payment or entering into negotiations with any one or more creditors with a view to the readjustment or rescheduling of its debt or similar actions; nor purchases, redeems or repays any of its own shares or other securities or reduces or makes any other change to any part of its share capital to an extent which is material in the context of its group (save that ABN AMRO is permitted to repurchase any of its ordinary shares at a price not exceeding, at the time of the repurchase, the ordinary exchange ratio multiplied by a short-term average Barclays Ordinary Share price converted to euro and Barclays is permitted to repurchase any of its ordinary shares at a price not exceeding the market price of such shares at the time of repurchase);

generally not to do anything that could be expected to compromise the proposed synergy plans as discussed between ABN AMRO and Barclays and delivery of the underlying savings;

not to trade in or encourage ABN AMRO not Barclays to trade in any shares or other securities of either ABN AMRO or Barclays, as long as it has price sensitive information except for any actions in the ordinary course of either ABN AMRO s or Barclays respective businesses, provided that such actions could not result in a breach of any applicable law or regulations with respect to the use of price sensitive information;

ABN AMRO has agreed that all risk transfers for capital and risk management purposes in respect of subordinated capital instruments including either or both tier one or two securities must comply with the rules of the FSA;

ABN AMRO has agreed that no member of the ABN AMRO Group shall tender any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares held by it into the Offer; and

ABN AMRO is prohibited from distributing by any means proceeds received under the LaSalle Agreement on a sale of LaSalle.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Merger Protocol provides that either ABN AMRO or Barclays may undertake certain actions during the period from the date of the Merger Protocol until the earlier of the date of the settlement of the Offer or the date on which the Merger Protocol is terminated. Namely, either ABN AMRO or Barclays may complete (a) any disposals of assets, undertaking and businesses fairly disclosed to either ABN AMRO or Barclays in writing prior to the execution of the Merger Protocol, or (b) such other disposals with gross sale proceeds not to exceed EUR 500 million and the aggregate value of the gross sale proceeds of any such disposals not to exceed EUR 2.5 billion, provided that (i) any such disposal is entered into on an arm s-length basis and at the best market price available, (ii) in relation to any disposal with an individual value of more than EUR 500 million, a fairness opinion has been issued by an independent reputable international investment bank, (iii) such party gives the other party notice at least two business days prior to any proposed agreement or public announcement and takes into account such other party s reasonable requests and (d) such party keeps the other party fully informed of progress in relation to any such disposal.

Subject to the need to observe fiduciary duties, none of the members of the Barclays Board shall withdraw, modify or qualify the unanimous recommendation by the Barclays Board as set out in the Merger Protocol and shall not make any contradictory public statements as to their position with respect to the Offer (including by way of statements concerning any Barclays Alternative Proposal) nor fail to announce or reaffirm their unanimous recommendation as required under the Merger Protocol unless it has been terminated. Subject to the need to observe fiduciary duties and ABN AMRO s right to discuss Competing Offers, none of the members of the Barclays Board shall withdraw, modify or qualify the unanimous recommendation by the Barclays Board as set out in the Merger Protocol and shall not make any contradictory public statements as to their position with respect to the Offer (including by way of statements concerning any Barclays Alternative Proposal) nor fail to announce or reaffirm their unanimous recommendation as required under the Merger Protocol unless it has been terminated. Subject to the need to observe fiduciary duties and ABN AMRO s right to discuss Competing Offers, none of the members of the ABN AMRO Boards shall (a) make any contradictory public statement with respect to the Offer that would constitute a significant change in ABN AMRO Boards position as an expression of support for the strategic benefits of the Merger or (b) make any public statement recommending any Alternative Proposal with respect to ABN AMRO unless (i) ABN AMRO has consulted with Barclays about such statement prior to it being made public, or (ii) ABN AMRO or Barclays has terminated the Merger Protocol.

6.20.9 Disputes and Arbitration

Under the Merger Protocol, Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed that the governing law shall be Dutch law and all disputes will be finally settled in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Netherlands Arbitration Institute, with each party appointing one arbitrator and the two appointed arbitrators appointing a third to act as chairman (or in the case of summary arbitral proceedings the unitary arbitrator shall be appointed by the President of the London Court of International Arbitration). The place of arbitration shall be Amsterdam.

In addition, if ABN AMRO or Barclays disagrees that any of the pre-offer conditions or offer conditions have not been fulfilled or waived and submits a notice of disagreement, a binding adviser agreed upon by both Barclays and ABN AMRO will settle the dispute by way of a binding advice under article 7:900 and further of the Dutch Civil Code and in accordance with the terms of the binding adviser, as set out in the Merger Protocol. The binding adviser will settle the dispute as binding adviser, not as arbitrator.

Further, in the event either party is party to proceedings against a third party in a dispute relating to the Merger Protocol or the Offer or any agreements resulting therefrom, the other party shall be entitled to demand to be allowed to join and/or intervene in the proceedings against such third party.

6.20.10 Fees and Expenses

Whether or not the Offer and Merger are consummated, all costs and expenses incurred by either party in connection with the preparation for, or performance of, its obligations under the Merger Protocol or in connection with the preparation or conclusion of the Offer will be paid by the party incurring the expense, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Merger Protocol. See Section 6.20.7 (Compensation for loss and damages).

6.21 Transaction Costs

Barclays and ABN AMRO will incur legal, accounting and other transaction fees and other costs related to the Merger, anticipated to be approximately EUR 462 million (GBP 311 million) using the exchange rates of GBP 1.00:EUR 1.4839 as published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007. Some of these costs are payable regardless of whether the Merger is completed.

6.22 Risk Factors

Reference is made to chapter (Risk Factors) of the Barclays Prospectus, dealing with the risks specific to the issuance of the Barclays Shares.

7. POSITION OF ABN AMRO BOARDS²³

7.1 Offer Update

The ABN AMRO Managing Board and the ABN AMRO Supervisory Boards, in their respective meetings on 26 and 27 July 2007, discussed the Barclays Offer and the Consortium Offer with a view to coming to a reasoned position on both Offers taking into account the best interest of the ABN AMRO Shareholders and other stakeholders. In doing so, the ABN AMRO Boards assessed each offer in the context of the following elements:

(a) Interest of shareholders and other stakeholders:

Shareholders: the current value of the Offers, the mix of consideration, the degree of sensitivity, as appropriate, of the value of the Offers to the offerors' share prices, proposed synergies and ABN AMRO's strategic vision;

Employees: career opportunities, commitments, any proposed gross and net redundancies and the formal advice and opinions of, as well as views expressed by, employee representative bodies;

Customers: service quality and continuity with regard to product offerings and business model;

Creditors: financial strength and long-term ratings of the ongoing businesses.

The ABN AMRO Boards would anticipate that DNB and other regulators, in performing their roles and making their final determinations, will discipline and monitor both offerors in the best interest of customers, creditors, the financial system and society at large.

(b) Risks associated with each proposed transaction:

Execution risks, including the likelihood and timing of regulatory and shareholder approvals, the wording of Material Adverse Change clauses and other pre-offer and offer conditions or fiduciary out of each of the Offers;

Post-acquisition risks: where relevant, break-up and integration risks, capital adequacy and funding, legal and compliance risks and business integrity risks.

(c) Corporate Governance:

Where relevant, Headquarter location, Board structure and representation, likely distribution of senior and middle management positions.

7.2 Barclays Offer

Barclays announced on 23 July 2007 the proposed terms of its revised Offer. The revised Barclays Offer includes amended offer terms and has introduced a significant cash element, together with a mix-and-match alternative. The value of the Offer, however, remains highly dependent on the share price performance of Barclays.

The ABN AMRO Boards note that the proposed merger with Barclays is consistent with ABN AMRO's previously articulated strategic vision. In addition, the strategic cooperation with China Development Bank should further enhance the growth opportunities of a potential combined Barclays/ ABN AMRO group in the attractive Asian market and could result in creation of additional longer-term value for ABN AMRO Shareholders.

The proposed transaction with Barclays is understood to be well on track to receive the required regulatory approvals and generally has acceptable and manageable post acquisition risks.

The ABN AMRO Boards also took into account the positive opinion of the European Staff Council and the positive advice of the Central Works Council in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays, received by ABN AMRO as part of the consultation process. The ABN AMRO Boards also noted the 23 This Section 7 reflects the reasoned position of the ABN AMRO Boards (as meant in article 9q (2)(a) Bte) on both Offers as of 27 July 2007. Depending on further developments, including in respect of the matters addressed in this Section 7, the ABN AMRO Boards may evaluate their position and inform the ABN AMRO Shareholders accordingly.

commitments made to employees and trade unions in respect of employee's rights and respecting of existing agreements.

The approval of the shareholders of Barclays is still outstanding and currently expected at the earliest mid-September 2007. The outcome of that vote remains uncertain at this stage.

As at the market close on 27 July 2007, the Barclays Offer was at a 1.0% discount to the ABN AMRO market price and at an 8.8% discount to the see-through value of the Consortium Offer.

The ABN AMRO Boards are therefore, notwithstanding their support of the strategic benefits of the combination with Barclays, not currently in a position to recommend from a financial point of view the Barclays Offer for acceptance to ABN AMRO Shareholders.

7.3 Consortium Offer

The Consortium formally launched its offer on 21 July 2007. The tender offer period, if not extended, is expected to end on 5 October 2007.

The current value of the Consortium Offer, with its high cash component, is attractive to the ABN AMRO Shareholders. As at the market close on 27 July 2007, the Consortium Offer was at a premium of 8.5% to the ABN AMRO market price and of 9.6% to the Barclays Offer's implied value.

The ABN AMRO Boards welcome the efforts made by the Consortium in establishing a dialogue with the ABN AMRO employee representative bodies and the commitments made to the ABN AMRO employees with respect to redundancy procedures.

The ABN AMRO Boards have identified a number of significant risks to the Consortium Offer:

- (a) Whereas sources of integration risks are broadly similar to those identified for the Barclays Offer, the ABN AMRO Boards have significant unresolved questions about the proposed break-up of ABN AMRO and the proposed methodology of the Consortium to implement such a break-up (as also explained to the Consortium on 5 May and included in our press release dated 14 May 2007);
- (b) Whereas Banco Santander S.A. shareholders have already approved the proposed transaction, approvals of the shareholders of Fortis N.V., Fortis SA/NV and Royal Bank of Scotland Group PLC are still outstanding and expected at the earliest on, respectively, 6 August and 10 August. The outcome of those votes remains uncertain at this stage;
- (c) The approval of the proposed transaction by the Dutch Ministry of Finance and the views of the Dutch Central Bank in this respect remain uncertain, including as to timing and associated conditions of any such approval, particularly in view of the proposed break-up;
- (d) The broadly defined Material Adverse Change clause as it is currently worded in the Consortium Offer is more onerous and uncertain than the proposed equivalent Barclays clause.

Taking the above factors into account, the ABN AMRO Boards are not currently in a position to recommend the Consortium Offer for acceptance to ABN AMRO shareholders.

7.4 Conclusion

In light of the above, the ABN AMRO Boards are not currently in a position to recommend either the Barclays Offer or the Consortium Offer for acceptance to ABN AMRO Shareholders. ABN AMRO will further engage with both parties with the aim of continuing to ensure a level playing field and minimising any of the uncertainties currently associated with the Offers with a view to optimising the attractive alternatives available to ABN AMRO Shareholders.

Table of Contents8. INFORMATION REGARDING ABN AMRO

The selected historical information in relation to ABN AMRO in this Section 8 has, unless otherwise stated, been extracted without material adjustment from the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of ABN AMRO for the six months as at and for the period ended 30 June 2007, the audited financial statements of ABN AMRO as at and for the two years ended 31 December 2006 and 2005 each prepared in accordance with IFRS as set out in Part VIII (Historical Financial Information relating to ABN AMRO). The 31 December 2005 financial statements include restated IFRS comparative information as at and for the year ended December 2004.

Investors should read the whole of this document and should not just rely on the financial information set out in this Section 8.

8.1 Introduction

ABN AMRO is a prominent international bank with a clear focus on consumer and commercial clients in ABN AMRO's local regions and globally on selected multinational corporations and financial institutions, as well as private clients.

ABN AMRO is the eighth largest bank in Europe and the thirteenth²⁴ in the world based on total assets, with more than 4,500 branches in 56 countries and territories, a staff of more than 110,300 full-time equivalents. ABN AMRO's 2006 profits for the year including LaSalle were EUR 4,780 million (LaSalle contribution EUR 899 million), and total assets including LaSalle as at 31 December 2006 were EUR 987 billion (LaSalle contribution EUR 86 billion).

8.2 History

ABN AMRO's roots go back to 1824, when King Willem I founded The Netherlands Trading Society (Nederlandsche Handel-Maatschappij). In 1964, The Netherlands Trading Society merged with Twentsche Bank to form ABN Bank (Algemene Bank Nederland). In that same year, the merger between Amsterdamsche Bank and Rotterdamsche Bank resulted in the formation of AMRO Bank (Amsterdam Rotterdam Bank). The worldwide scaling of companies and financial institutions called for a bank with a strong capital base and broad expertise. This led to the merger between ABN Bank and AMRO Bank in 1991, creating ABN AMRO. The combination became a leading player in The Netherlands with an extensive global network, which was further developed over time.

ABN AMRO through the acquisition of LaSalle by ABN Bank in 1979 already had a strong foothold in the Chicago area. This presence was expanded to a second home market through the acquisition of, among others, Talman in 1991, Michigan-based Standard Federal Bancorporation in 1996 and Michigan National Corporation in 2001.

In 1998, ABN AMRO acquired Banco Real, the fourth-largest privately owned bank in Brazil²⁵. Through the acquisition of Sudameris in 2003, ABN AMRO further strengthened its position in Brazil, in particular in the south east of the country.

ABN AMRO further expanded in 2006 through the acquisition of Antonveneta, which has a strong presence in Italy's wealthy north-eastern region.

ABN AMRO is the parent company of the ABN AMRO Group.

8.3 Business Overview

As an international bank with European roots, ABN AMRO focuses on consumer, commercial and private banking activities. ABN AMRO adopts a relationship-based approach, applied through its Business Units (BUs).

ABN AMRO's growth strategy is to build on its strong position with mid-market clients and to provide clients in this segment with high-quality and innovative products and services from across the ABN AMRO Group. ABN AMRO's strategy is aimed at combining local client intimacy and global product excellence.

Mid-market

ABN AMRO serves its mid-market consumer and commercial clients ABN AMRO s sweet spot client segments primarily through its five regional Client BUs: The Netherlands, Europe (including Antonveneta in Italy), North America, Latin America and Asia.

The consumer mid-market segment includes mass affluent customers served by ABN AMRO s regional Client BUs, as well as the majority of its private banking clients served by BU Private Clients. The commercial mid-market segment includes a significant number of medium-to-large companies and financial institutions served through regional Client BUs.

These clients typically require a local banking relationship, an extensive and competitive product suite, an international network, efficient delivery, and, for corporates, sector knowledge. With its range of businesses and capabilities, ABN AMRO is well placed to deliver on all of these requirements.

Client pyramid

The importance of the mid-market segment in ABN AMRO s strategy does not diminish the importance of the top and bottom end of its client pyramid . In serving its top private banking clients, ABN AMRO is able to develop innovative investment products that can be offered to its mid-market consumer clients.

At the same time, serving large multinational corporations enables ABN AMRO to strengthen its industry knowledge and product innovation, both of which will benefit its mid-market commercial clients. Both the mass retail segment and the small business segment deliver the necessary scale and act as a feeder channel for future mid-market clients.

In January 2006, ABN AMRO reinforced its mid-market focus and moved towards realising the benefits of being one bank more effectively by adopting a new structure. This structure enables ABN AMRO to share expertise and operational excellence across the ABN AMRO Group with greater impact.

ABN AMRO s Group structure comprises:

seven Client Business Units;

three Product BUs;

two cross-BU Segments;

Group Functions; and

Services.

The seven Client BUs consist of five regional BUs (The Netherlands, Europe including Antonveneta in Italy, North America, Latin America and Asia) and two global BUs, Private Clients and Global Clients.

The three Product BUs (Global Markets, Transaction Banking and Asset Management) support the Client BUs by developing and delivering products for all of its clients globally.

ABN AMRO binds all of its Client BUs together through a cross-BU Consumer Client Segment and a cross-BU Commercial Client Segment. These segments drive winning formulas across ABN AMRO s various geographies, and work with the Product BUs to deliver high-quality solutions to clients.

Group Functions supports the ABN AMRO Group in areas ranging from risk to finance and from human resources to sustainability, while always balancing global control with local flexibility and expertise.

Services focuses on increasing ABN AMRO s operational efficiency through group wide consolidation and standardisation.

Client BUs

BU Netherlands

Serving a large and diverse client base that comprises consumer and commercial clients, BU Netherlands is a leader in the Dutch banking industry. BU Netherlands employs approximately 21,800 people and serves its clients through a network of 561 bankshops, 78 advisory branches, five dedicated mid-market corporate client units and two large-corporate client units. BU Netherlands also operates some 1,600 ATMs, four integrated call centres, and internet and mobile channels. In addition BU Netherlands offers insurance products provided by its joint venture with Delta Lloyd.

In 2006, BU Netherlands' new operating model consisting of Value Centre Consumer, Value Centre Commercial and centralised mortgage activities led to an improvement in its operational performance, which in turn enabled it to improve its client service. In addition, in 2006 BU Netherlands was able to increase its product sales and number of clients by leveraging the current range of Global Markets products with SME and consumer clients.

On 1 December 2006, ABN AMRO sold the non-mortgage activities of Bouwfonds (an international property group which ranks among The Netherlands' leading property companies) to Rabobank and SNS Bank.

BU Europe

BU Europe (excluding Antonveneta in Italy)

BU Europe brings together all of ABN AMRO's activities in 27 countries: 23 countries in Europe (excluding Antonveneta in Italy and The Netherlands) along with Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Egypt and South Africa. BU Europe employs approximately 8,000 people, including support functions serving all BUs operating in the region.

In 2006, BU Europe focused a significant proportion of its efforts on improving its profitability by taking various measures to drive organic growth and aligning its commercial activities and back-office services with the new ABN AMRO Group structure. The initiatives put in place to help drive organic growth included improving the focus on origination and delivery of products to financial institutions and public sector clients and strengthening the consumer banking activities in selected countries, with a focus on high-growth emerging economies. BU Europe also developed a new sales and delivery model for midmarket commercial clients by bundling products that meet the most frequently occurring client needs of such clients and combining them with simplified back-office processes. This new concept will continue to be rolled-out in 2007 in selected markets.

In 2007 BU Europe will continue to pursue its organic growth strategy and seek to improve its performance by reducing its cost base through implementation of a common services platform and the elimination of inefficiencies in processes, support functions and client coverage models. Key initiatives in 2007 will include improved capital management and the reallocation of capital between different client segments and locations. As part of this, BU Europe aims to improve its returns on capital by focusing increasingly on the emerging economies of Eastern Europe and Central Asia. Financial institutions and the public sector segment will remain key growth areas for BU Europe.

Antonveneta

ABN AMRO acquired Antonveneta in 2006. The integration of Antonveneta into the ABN AMRO Group was completed in December 2006 and Antonveneta's structure and governance have now been aligned with that of the ABN AMRO Group.

Antonveneta and its main subsidiaries, Interbanca and AAA Bank, are among the leading banks in Italy, with Antonveneta holding a ranking among the top ten banking groups by total assets.²⁶ Antonveneta has over 1,000 branches in Italy. The bank is strongly rooted in northeast Italy, where 459 of its domestic branches are located. Integrated with the branch network are more than 1,100 ATMs and about 63,000 points-of-sale, as well as home and remote banking facilities. As at 31 December 2006 its employees numbered approximately 9,600.

In consumer banking, Antonveneta has strengthened the bank's residential mortgage lending – a booming sector in Italy. With regard to commercial clients, Antonveneta has been able to focus its lending activities on those companies most involved in the Italian economy's current growth phase, partly due to the strong presence of its branches and unità imprese (corporate units).

As regards operations, Antonveneta has undertaken a number of initiatives to capitalise on potential synergies with ABN AMRO with the aim of creating alignment between the structures of ABN AMRO and Antonveneta and improving operational efficiency and effectiveness in the process. On 11 December 2006, ABN AMRO and Antonveneta announced plans for the further development of Antonveneta, which include transforming the consumer bank, strengthening the commercial bank and building the private bank.

BU North America*Sale of LaSalle to Bank of America*

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO Bank entered into an agreement to sell LaSalle to Bank of America for total consideration of USD 21 billion in cash (subject to adjustment based on the financial performance of LaSalle before the closing of the sale). After the completion of the sale of LaSalle, ABN AMRO will retain LaSalle's North American capital markets activities within ABN AMRO's Global Markets unit and Global Clients division as well as its U.S. Asset Management business.

As of 31 December 2006, LaSalle had more than USD 113 billion in tangible assets and a tangible book value of USD 9.7 billion, adjusted for businesses that will be retained by ABN AMRO and for the sale of the mortgage operations unit and presented on a US GAAP basis. For the year ended 31 December 2006, LaSalle, presented on the same basis, had net income of USD 1,035 million.

Retained BU North America operations

Following completion of the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, BU North America will retain part of the current activities of Global Markets and Transaction Banking in North America, the activities of global clients in North America, large corporate clients, as well as and ABN AMRO Canada. ABN AMRO will also retain the North American asset management activities.

BU Latin America

ABN AMRO has had a presence in Brazil since 1817. It acquired Banco Real and Bandepe in 1998, Paraiban in 2001 and Banco Sudameris in 2003. ABN AMRO operates in Brazil as Banco Real.

Table of Contents

Banco Real functions as a fully integrated consumer and commercial bank on a nationwide basis through more than 1,900 stand-alone and in-company branches, 6,700 points-of-sale and 8,700 ATMs. Today, Banco Real is the third-largest privately owned bank in Brazil²⁷.

Since 1 January 2006, ABN AMRO's Caribbean and Latin American operations outside of Brazil have been grouped with Banco Real to form BU Latin America. Outside of Brazil, BU Latin America focuses primarily on the commercial client segment, although in Paraguay and Uruguay it also focuses on the consumer client segment. Currently, BU Latin America has approximately 28,000 employees. The Brazilian operations are BU Latin America's largest in the region by a substantial margin.

Banco Real offers Van Gogh Preferred Banking service to its mass affluent clients across Brazil, reinforcing the bank's international identity. The commercial banking operation uses a single product platform and sophisticated segmentation to enhance its focus and efficiency – thereby enabling Banco Real to deliver a seamless product offering for multinational corporations and to capitalise on its large mid-market commercial client base, served by specialised regional and mid-market sector relationship management teams. Through the Aymoré franchise, BU Latin America is also a major player in the Brazilian consumer finance business. Aymoré has relationships with more than 15,000 active car dealerships distributing vehicle financing and other consumer goods financing nationwide.

During 2006, Banco Real's consumer and commercial banking activities enabled it to achieve strong credit portfolio growth and the highest ratio of consumer and commercial clients to total assets among the main Brazilian banks. On the other hand, in common with other players in Brazil, the bank suffered a significant deterioration in its provisioning during the first half of 2006, due to an increase in delinquencies in the sector. However Banco Real achieved better provisioning results than its peers through consistent efforts to mitigate growth in provisions, including maintaining constant close monitoring of the portfolio, approaching debtors through different channels and selling off portfolios of bad loans.

In the other countries in which BU Latin America is active (Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Paraguay, Uruguay and Venezuela), revenue generation in 2006 was focused primarily on credit activities. Consumer and 'sweet spot' commercial banking activities have been performing well and show further potential for growth, mainly driven by the growth in credit usage and 'bankarisation' (i.e. clients' growing tendency to use banking services from duly regulated, formal financial institutions). However, competition in these countries has been increasing, as competitors from outside the region are once again targeting investments within it.

BU Asia

ABN AMRO has been operating for over 100 years in several Asian countries including Indonesia, China, Singapore, Japan and the United Arab Emirates. BU Asia now covers 16 countries and territories, operating through 165 branches and offices (excluding those of Saudi Hollandi Bank, in which ABN AMRO has a 40 percent stake). BU Asia's client base includes commercial clients as well as consumer and private banking clients. It employs approximately 14,000 people, including support functions serving all BUs operating in the region.

With nearly 5,300 employees in eight countries, the consumer client segment focuses on delivering wealth management and consumer finance services – including Van Gogh Preferred Banking – to its Asian client base through 79 branches.

In 2006, BU Asia maintained its strong focus on the growth regions of China and India, where it opened five and three new branches respectively. A further four branches were opened across the BU's other operating countries.

BU Asia's credit cards business also expanded rapidly, with the number of cards issued in 2006 exceeding the previous year's issuance by over 19 percent, and ending net receivables reaching records levels across the operating countries. These results were achieved despite the credit crisis in Taiwan, which affected all players in that country and resulted in higher defaults. BU Asia's Taiwan business was successful in achieving lower losses than most other major issuers, and well below the average.

The commercial client segment is comprised of 550 staff serving more than 10,000 corporate, financial institution and public sector clients. With coverage in 16 countries and territories, the commercial client segment is structured around in-country relationship management teams supported by smaller, regional industry-focused teams. It provides clients with a broad spectrum of products and services across Global Markets, Transaction Banking, Lending, Mergers & Acquisitions and Equity Capital Markets.

BU Global Clients

BU Global Clients serves a group of clients who demand sophisticated financial solutions customised to their specific needs.

The four client industry groups that BU Global Clients serves are: Financial Institutions & Public Sector; Telecommunications, Media & Technology; Energy & Resources; and Global Industries (including Automotive, Consumer and Global Industrials). BU Global Clients also comprises dedicated Mergers & Acquisition and Equity Capital Markets teams.

BU Global Clients is organised around six hubs (Amsterdam, London, New York, Hong Kong, Sao Paulo and Sydney), and directly employs around 980 people. The financial results of BU Global Clients also reflect the contribution of 230 people employed by ABN AMRO Mellon, a joint venture with the Mellon Financial Corporation that provides global custody and value added services to institutional investors worldwide.

In order to meet the sophisticated financing, advisory and risk management needs of its multinational client base, BU Global Clients' bankers access products and services, including specialist commercial banking coverage, from ABN AMRO's regional BUs, BU Global Markets and BU Transaction Banking.

Simultaneously, Global Client's hub-based industry bankers deliver their knowledge to the regional clients. This structure allows BU Global Clients' industry expertise and Mergers & Acquisitions and Equity Capital Markets products to be made available to all chosen clients across the bank in support of the overall ABN AMRO Group strategy. Via the ABN AMRO Rothschild joint venture, the Equity Capital Markets team offers a full range of Equity Capital Markets products and related advisory services.

BU Private Clients

BU Private Clients offers private banking services to wealthy individuals and institutions with EUR 1 million or more in net investable assets. With assets under administration of EUR 140 billion in 2006, BU Private Clients is one of the top five private banks in Europe and ranks among the largest global private banks.²⁸ BU Private Clients has more than 3,300 employees, operating in 23 countries from 103 branches.

BU Private Clients tailors its services to suit the requirements of well-defined client segments and their different sources of wealth. BU Private Clients' products are based on an open architecture model, enabling the BU to offer its clients the best available products regardless of the actual provider.

BU Private Clients continues to be a leading player in private banking in The Netherlands and France, and has strong positions in Switzerland, Germany, Luxembourg and Belgium. Its position was further strengthened in 2006 by the successful integration of Bank Corluy into Private Clients Belgium, the acquisition of a majority share in VermogensGroep in The Netherlands, and the merger in France of Banque de Neuflyze and Banque OBC, creating Neuflyze OBC. BU Private Clients' status as a leading player in Europe continues to be supported by its strong revenue growth in certain countries, including The Netherlands, France and Belgium.

BU Private Clients is focusing on growth in other private banking businesses and further enhancing the efficiency of its global structure including emphasis on client engagement across Asia (including Indian private banking) and Latin America (with a particular emphasis in Brazil). On 1 January 2007, BU Private Clients launched its private banking business in Italy. During 2007 the BU intends to further build its Italian domestic private banking business, strengthening the BU's European franchise in the process. A further area on which BU Private Clients will increasingly focus during 2007 is the Private Wealth Management segment. This segment, which consists of clients with more than EUR 25 million in liquid assets, is growing at a fast pace.

Table of ContentsProduct BUs*BU Global Markets

BU Global Markets helps to drive the current and future growth of ABN AMRO by delivering product solutions that meet the diverse capital markets requirements of the bank's chosen clients. BU Global Markets is organised into four core areas: Equities (multi-product trading and distribution); Financial Markets (multi-asset-class trading and distribution); Fixed Income Capital Markets (integrated crossborder fixed-income origination); and Structured Lending (syndicated and structured loans). The BU Global Markets team is made up of approximately 3,500 employees with hubs in Amsterdam, Chicago, Hong Kong, London, New York, Singapore and Sydney.

In 2006, BU Global Markets delivered operating income growth in each core area and in each of the bank's five regions. The BU achieved a five percentage point improvement in its efficiency ratio for 2006, through a series of initiatives delivering sustained improvement in productivity and efficiency and providing a further platform to build on.

Key actions in 2006 included:

Focusing investment in growth products and in particular the Private Investor Product franchise and structured and derivative products where growth has been significant over the last 12 months; and

Focusing on cost control, for instance through client/product participation choices, which has contributed to the improved efficiency ratio.

BU Transaction Banking

BU Transaction Banking provides cash management, trade services and payment cards for all of ABN AMRO's client segments, across all regions worldwide. Bank accounts and payments services lie at the core of BU Transaction Banking's activities and at the heart of the bank's client relationships. Across all segments, these services provide the foundation for cross-selling, enabling ABN AMRO to expand the relationship with each client. With a focused team of approximately 1,600 mainly regionally based staff, BU Transaction Banking provides services in more than 50 countries and handles more than 2.3 billion of transactions every year.

BU Transaction Banking's overall business grew by 13% in 2006. In addition, the BU made continued progress with its client satisfaction indices, increased its presence for web-based delivery to all major locations and further improved its recognition in the marketplace by winning eight major awards.

Transaction banking is a scale-driven business that requires investment in state-of-the-art technology. BU Transaction Banking is tackling this challenge by growing its business with financial institutions and capitalising on opportunities in Europe arising from the implementation of Single Euro Payments Area (SEPA) and the Payment Services Directive. SEPA will level the playing field in Europe and enable the bank to build scale by offering payment products seamlessly across the Eurozone.

Since ABN AMRO is one of the top global players in the transaction banking industry²⁹, and crossborder payment flows are forecast to grow significantly over the next decade, BU Transaction Banking is well-placed to capture a larger share of this business. BU Transaction Banking's strategic focus in 2007 will continue to be on increasing its scale and cross-border business volume as well as investing appropriately in selected growth regions.

BU Asset Management

BU Asset Management is ABN AMRO's global asset management business, managing approximately EUR 193 billion in specialist mandates and mutual funds as at year-end 2006 BU Asset Management has more than 1,500 employees and operates in 26 countries worldwide, offering investment products in all major regions and asset classes. Its products are distributed directly to institutional clients such as central banks, pension funds, insurance companies and leading charities. Funds for private investors are distributed through ABN AMRO's consumer and private banking arms, as well as via third-party distributors such as insurance companies and other banks. The business from institutional clients represents just over half of the assets managed by BU Asset Management. Consumer and third-party clients account for a further 30%, and the remainder is in discretionary portfolios managed for BU Private Clients.

For BU Asset Management, 2006 represented the third year of a strategic programme to focus on areas of business activity to establish critical mass and build sustainable profitable growth. BU Asset Management acquired International Asset Management, a leading fund of hedge funds manager, in February 2006 and completed its integration in May 2006, enabling the BU to provide its clients with a broader range of specialised investment capabilities and enhanced expertise from a trusted provider. Having successfully completed its three year strategic programme, the BU will commence a new three year strategic programme.

Cross-BU Segments

The Consumer Client Segment comprises the Consumer Banking heads of all ABN AMRO's Client BUs. Led by a member of the Managing Board, the Consumer Client Segment meets frequently to share results and identify new opportunities for growth.

The Commercial Client Segment encompasses all of ABN AMRO's commercial clients, ranging from large multinationals through mid-size corporate clients to the SME client portfolios. Client relationships are maintained in the bank's regional Client BUs and the BU Global Clients, while the Commercial Client Segment coordinates activities across both the Client and Product BUs.

The Consumer Client Segment and the Commercial Client Segment have a primary focus on selling efficiently and sharing of best practices between the five regional BUs in which the consumer and commercial clients reside and the products these clients are offered.

Other operationsPrivate Equity

The business model of ABN AMRO's Private Equity unit branded as ABN AMRO Capital involves providing capital and expertise to non-listed companies with a focus on European mid-size buyouts, but also manages a portfolio of investments in Australian buyouts, non-controlling and controlling shareholdings in small to medium-size Dutch companies (participaties), and dedicated media and telecom sector investments. It operates from seven offices across Europe and Australia and has 93 employees. In the past two years, Private Equity has developed and implemented major improvements to its business and operational model. This programme has involved changing its investment focus from taking minority shareholdings in small to medium-sized early and later stage companies, to obtaining full control of mature mid-size companies. Private Equity also reduced its geographical footprint, while at the same time increasing the average size of its investments. It now operates from The Netherlands, France, the Nordic countries, the UK, Italy, Spain and Australia. Private Equity believes that The Netherlands, the Nordic region and the UK represent the greatest potential for commercial and organisational synergies and will therefore focus its regional activities North Europe whilst continuing to operate in Australia, France, Italy and Spain. This strategy change has resulted in Private Equity becoming a major player in European midsize buyouts. In recent years it has consistently appeared in the top five most active European mid-size firms, both by number of new deals and number of exits.

From an operational perspective, Private Equity successfully reorganised its business in 2006 as a semi-independent subsidiary of ABN AMRO with greater autonomy in its operational and decision-making governance. The current structure allows Private Equity to raise future funding from third parties more easily. While the investment management activities will be transferred, the existing portfolio will continue to be owned by ABN AMRO.

Through its participaties team, Private Equity is also working together with the BU Netherlands to add development and expansion capital to ABN AMRO's product offering for small-size commercial clients. The Participaties Fund, which was set up in 2006, will be further promoted in 2007, allowing ABN AMRO to strengthen relationships with its small-size client base and to enhance the prospect of cross-selling its banking products to Private Equity's small to medium-sized investments.

Group Functions

Group Functions provides guidance on ABN AMRO's corporate strategy and supports the implementation of the strategy. By aligning and uniting functions across ABN AMRO's BUs and geographical territories, Group Functions also facilitates Group-wide sharing of best practice, innovation and positioning to public authorities. Group Functions has approximately 3,800 employees.

Group Functions carries out its activities through several departments, ranging from Group Finance to Investor Relations, Group Compliance & Legal to Group Communications and Group Risk Management to Group Human Resources. In addition, Group Functions oversees the financial performance of certain shareholdings, including the 8.6 percent stake in Italian bank Capitalia. As announced on 20 May 2007, Unicredit has agreed to buy Capitalia for more than USD 29 billion in shares.

On 30 October 2006, ABN AMRO announced that activities to improve operating performance in 2007 would be accelerated, among others by improving operational efficiency in Group Functions. These changes will affect more than 500 full-time equivalents (FTEs) at head office, predominantly in risk management and corporate IT projects, through a combination of outsourcing, offshoring and redundancies.

Services

ABN AMRO's Services organisation is responsible for delivering internal support services across the bank's global, regional and product BUs worldwide. Its core areas are IT, Operations, and Corporate Services.

The Services organisation was created in 2006, bringing together all services units within the bank and building on the experience of the Group Shared Services (GSS) programme, which was initiated in 2004. Services has also focused its attention on consolidating activities in Operations, further aligning the IT organisation, and accelerating planned initiatives to optimise the global property portfolio. It currently has approximately 900 employees.

Services is implementing a programme to drive efficiency improvements. These efficiency improvements, which were started at the end of 2004, are expected to realise net savings for the Group of at least EUR 900 million by the end of 2008.

8.5 Regulation

8.5.1 Regulation in The Netherlands

General

ABN AMRO Bank is regulated in The Netherlands by DNB and the AFM.

The bank regulatory system in The Netherlands is based on the provisions of the new Financial Supervision Act, which came into effect per 1 January 2007. The Financial Supervision Act has replaced, among others, the Act on the Supervision of the Credit System 1992. The Financial Supervision Act gives rules regarding prudential supervision (by DNB) and supervision of conduct (by the AFM). Prudential supervision focuses on the solidity of financial undertakings and contributes to the stability of the financial sector. Supervision of conduct focuses on orderly and transparent financial processes, clear relations between sector participants and due care in the treatment of clients (amongst which supervision of the securities and investment businesses).

Supervision of banks

In general, under the Financial Supervision Act, banks are supervised by DNB and the AFM. No enterprise or institution established in The Netherlands may pursue the business of a bank unless it has obtained a license from DNB. DNB's supervisory activities under the Financial Supervision Act focus on supervision of solvency, liquidity own funds and administrative organisation, including internal control and risk management. If, in the opinion of DNB, a bank fails to comply with any rules and regulations contained in the new Financial Supervision Act, DNB will instruct the bank to behave in a certain manner. If the bank does not respond to any such instructions to the satisfaction of DNB, DNB may exercise additional supervisory measures, which may include the imposition of fines.

The Financial Supervision Act provides that each supervised bank must submit periodic reports to DNB.

Regulation in the European Union

The Financial Services Action Plan 1999-2005 laid the foundations for a single financial services sector in the EU and has already brought about many changes. In its future strategy on Financial Services for 2005-2010, the European Commission set out its objectives to achieve an integrated, and competitive EU financial services sector by removing any remaining barriers so that financial services can be provided and capital can circulate freely throughout the EU at the lowest possible cost, resulting in high levels of financial stability, consumer benefits and consumer protection.

The financial services sector includes three major areas for which European regulatory policies apply: banking, capital markets, and asset management. EU initiatives also deal with a number of issues related to company and corporate governance.

The Consolidated Banking Directive (2006/48/EC) for credit institutions and banking services governs the free provision of banking services. Under this Directive, ABN AMRO Bank can offer banking services on the basis of a single banking license (European passport) through the establishment of a branch or cross-border in all the EU countries. The Directive 2006/48, also consolidates the Capital Requirements Directive, which is the legal vehicle pursuant to which the Basel II framework has been implemented into EU Law. The new regime has entered into force in stages, starting on 1 January 2007. The Capital Requirements Directive is based on a three pillars structure (minimum capital requirements, a supervisory review process and market discipline) with the aim of creating a better risk-sensitive regime than the former system. The EU Institutions have adopted in March 2007 a review of this Directive with regard to the procedure which supervisory authorities need to follow when assessing proposed mergers and acquisitions (M&A). Clear procedural rules and evaluation criteria for the prudential assessment of acquisitions and increase in shareholdings are introduced. The text sets out clear assessment timeframe with deadlines (60 working days, with a maximum stop the clock mechanism of 20 working days) and provides for sound criteria against which supervisors are to assess proposed M&A transactions. The criteria are: (1) the reputation of the proposed acquirer; (2) the reputation of the future manager; (3) the financial soundness; (4) on-going compliance with relevant directives; and (5) the level of risk of money laundering and terrorist financing.

In the area of securities legislation, the Market Abuse Directive prohibits market manipulation and insider dealing in all securities admitted to trading on an EU regulated market. The Prospectus Directive regulates the process and the disclosure requirements for public offerings in and admissions to trading on an EU regulated market of securities, and allows European public offerings with one single prospectus. The Transparency Directive harmonises the transparency requirements for information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on an EU regulated market.

The other important piece of legislation in this area is the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID), which has to be implemented by financial institutions as of 1 November 2007. It regulates, among other things, the cross-border provision of investment services and regulated markets and replaces the 1993 Investment Services Directive which established the single passport for investment firms. It streamlines supervision on the basis of home country control and enhances the transparency of markets. It harmonises conduct of business rules, including best execution, conflicts of interests and client order handling rules. The Directive abolishes the concentration rule, which leads towards a more competitive regime between order execution venues. It also imposes market transparency rules for investment firms, regulated markets and multilateral trading systems.

In the post-trading field, the European Commission has pushed the industry to agree on a clearing and settlement Code of Conduct, signed by the stock exchanges on November 2006. The Code aims at enhancing transparency and increasing competition in the post-trading sector.

Likewise, political initiatives in the area of retail financial services and payment services have been launched. Currently, the revised proposal for a Directive on Consumer Credit (latest proposal published in October 2005) is being discussed in the EU. The proposed Directive introduces consumer protection provisions and at the same time aims at the creation of a single market for consumer credit in the EU. A policy agreement on the proposed Directive was reached within the European Council on 21 May 2007. In December 2005, a Directive was proposed on a new legal framework for payment services, which will harmonise rules with regard to payments licensing, transparency conditions, information requirements and rights and obligations linked to the provision and use of payment services. The Payment Services Directive was adopted by the European Parliament on 24 April 2007.

In the area of asset management, the EU has enacted legislation on pension and investment products. On investment funds, there are two UCITS Directives, the first regulating the product (e.g., types of assets in which to invest) and the second one giving management companies a European passport to operate throughout the EU. The European Commission has adopted an implementing Directive (2007/16/EC) on criteria for assessing whether different types of financial instruments are eligible for inclusion in the UCITS funds. The Commission will come up with proposals for legislative amendments in autumn 2007 to do targeted changes to the current EU framework for investment funds. In the field of supplementary pensions (occupational schemes for employees and private individual schemes), a Directive has liberalised the market for supplementary pension schemes by allowing pension providers to operate on an EU-wide basis and establishing prudent person principles for asset allocation.

By December 2007, Member States will have to implement the third Money Laundering Directive into national law. The aim of the Directive is to transpose the Financial Action Task Force's (FATF) forty recommendations. It follows a risk-based approach by which all measures aimed at preventing money laundering must be applied on a proportionate basis, depending on the type of customer, business and other considerations.

As of 1 January 2007, the Regulation which transposes the FATF Special Recommendation VII (SR VII) on wire transfers into EU legislation has come into force. It lays down rules on information on the payer accompanying transfers of funds, in order to allow basic information to be immediately available to the authorities responsible for combating money laundering and terrorist financing.

Applicable in stages as of September 2007, the Data Retention Directive will require electronic communications providers to store data on phone-calls, e-mails and Internet use for a period between 6 and 24 months to help track down terrorism and organised crime.

In the field of Company Law and Corporate Governance, the two main guiding principles for EU legislative actions are to improve transparency and empower shareholders. Soft law instruments have been used to promote good corporate governance (e.g. corporate governance codes). To improve transparency in company accounts, the European Commission adopted recommendations on Directors' Remuneration and role of non-executive or supervisory directors with a view to improving the on-going disclosure requirements for listed companies. In order to restore credibility of financial reporting and to enhance protection against the type of scandals involving Parmalat and Ahold, the Directive on statutory audit (2006/43) designed to strengthen corporate governance and auditor responsibilities was adopted and should be implemented into national law by June 2008. It aims at reinforcing and harmonising the statutory audit function throughout the EU by setting out principles for public supervision in all Member States. It also introduces a requirement for external quality assurance and clarifies the duties of statutory auditors. In June 2006, the EU adopted a Directive (2006/46) which amends existing Accounting Directives to ensure collective board members responsibility and more disclosure on related-parties transactions, off-balance sheet vehicles and corporate governance. The Second Company Law Directive (2006/68) covering the formation, maintenance and alteration of capital was amended in September 2006 in order for public limited companies to take certain measures affecting the size, structure and ownership of their capital. Finally, the European Commission has presented in January 2006 a proposal on the exercise of shareholders' rights, which mainly seeks to abolish share blocking, improve the flow and transparency of the information and remove all legal obstacles to electronic participation in general meetings. This new Directive on shareholders rights is expected to be adopted by the Council in the third quarter of 2007.

8.5.2 Regulation in the United States

ABN AMRO Group operations in the United States are subject to extensive regulation and supervision by both federal and state banking authorities. ABN AMRO Bank is a bank holding company within the meaning of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, which restricts its non-banking activities in the United States. However, ABN AMRO elected to become a financial holding company on 11 March 2000.

Table of Contents8.5.3 Regulation in the rest of the world

ABN AMRO Group operations elsewhere in the world are subject to regulation and control by local supervisory authorities, and its offices, branches and subsidiaries in such jurisdictions are subject to certain reserve, reporting and control and other requirements imposed by the relevant central banks and regulatory authorities.

8.6 Acquisitions and Disposals

The principal investments effected by ABN AMRO in the three financial years preceding the date of this document are set out below.

On 2 January 2006, ABN AMRO acquired a controlling interest in Antonveneta in order to increase its mid-size footprint, and accelerate the existing partnership that gives access to the large Italian banking sector and the customer base of Antonveneta. The Group paid EUR 26.50 per share for Antonveneta, representing a total consideration of EUR 7,499 million for 79.9 million shares of Antonveneta from Banca Popolare Italiana, which resulted in the ABN AMRO Group acquiring a controlling 55.8 percent share. Following purchases of shares in the open market, a public offering and the exercise of the ABN AMRO Group's right under Italian law to acquire minority share holdings, ABN AMRO now owns 100 percent of the outstanding share capital of Antonveneta.

LaSalle

On 23 April 2007, ABN AMRO announced the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America. Further details can be found in Section 6.9.2 (The Sale of LaSalle).

US mortgages

On 1 March 2007, ABN AMRO disposed of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group Inc., its US-based residential mortgage broker origination platform and servicing business, to Citigroup. ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. had net assets of approximately USD 9 billion, of which approximately USD 3 billion were mortgage servicing rights associated with its USD 224 billion mortgage servicing portfolio. The decision to sell the business was part of the ABN AMRO Group's strategy to streamline its activities and to align them around its mid-market commercial and consumer clients. The total net gain on the sale of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. was USD 97 million. Further details can be found in Section 17.2 (Notes to the balance sheet and profit and loss accounts of the financial year 2006).

Kereskedelmi és Hitelbank Rt

In May 2006, ABN AMRO completed the sale of its 40% participation in Kereskedelmi és Hitelbank Rt of Hungary for a consideration of EUR 510 million to KBC Bank. The profit recognised on the sale included in other operating income was EUR 208 million.

Bouwfonds non-mortgage

On 1 December 2006, ABN AMRO disposed of the property development and management activities of its Bouwfonds subsidiary. The Bouwfonds Property Development, Bouwfonds Asset Management, Bouwfonds Fondsenbeheer, Rijnlandse Bank and Bouwfonds Holding were sold to Rabobank for a cash consideration of EUR 852 million and the Bouwfonds Property Finance activities were sold to SNS Bank for a cash consideration of EUR 825 million. The total net gain on the sale of Bouwfonds amounted to EUR 338 million.

LeasePlan Corporation

In November 2004, ABN AMRO sold LeasePlan Corporation of The Netherlands for a net profit of EUR 844 million (under Dutch GAAP) to a consortium of investors led by Volkswagen Group.

Table of Contents8.7 Current Trading, Trends and Prospects*8.7.1 Results first half 2007

In the first half of 2007 ABN AMRO delivered strong operating performance. The increase in profitability is the result of a significant improvement in the operating performance as delivered on the three key themes of growth efficiency and the acceleration of the action plan. This performance is underpinned by the breadth and depth of its global banking business which provides an established platform for developing further growth. ABN AMRO operating profit before tax increased 4 per cent. to EUR 2,098 million. Continuing earnings per share decreased 1 per cent. to EUR 0.87 and the interim dividend will increase 5.5 per cent. to EUR 0.58 per share.

The ABN AMRO unaudited interim consolidated financial statements for the six months ended and as at 30 June 2007 are set out in Section 17.4 (Interim Financial Statements for the six months ended 30 June 2007).

8.7.2 Investigation

As disclosed on 26 April 2007, the United States Department of Justice has been conducting a criminal investigation into the Bank's dollar clearing activities, OFAC compliance procedures and other Bank Secrecy Act compliance matters. The Bank has cooperated and continues to cooperate fully with the investigation. Although no written agreement has yet been reached and negotiations are ongoing, the Bank has reached an agreement in principle with the Department of Justice that would resolve all presently known aspects of the ongoing investigation.

Under the terms of the agreement in principle, the Bank and the United States would enter into a deferred prosecution agreement relating to the issues that are the subject of the current criminal investigation. In the deferred prosecution agreement, the Bank would waive indictment and agree to the filing of an information in the United States District Court charging it with certain violations of federal law based on information disclosed in an agreed factual statement. The Bank would also agree to continue cooperating in the United States ongoing investigation and to settle all known civil and criminal claims currently held by the United States for the sum of USD 500 million. The precise terms of the deferred prosecution agreement are still under negotiation.

In consideration for the foregoing provisions, as well as the Bank's extensive remedial actions to date and its willingness to demonstrate future good conduct and full compliance with all applicable federal laws, the United States would recommend to the United States District Court that the prosecution of the Bank under the information be deferred for a fixed period. At the end of that fixed period, provided the Bank is in full compliance with all of its obligations under the deferred prosecution agreement, the United States would seek dismissal with prejudice of the information filed against the Bank. The precise terms of the deferred prosecution agreement and agreed factual statement are still under negotiation.

8.8 Directors and Senior Management

ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. are public companies with limited liability incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands. Both companies have a two-tier system of corporate governance, consisting of a Supervisory Board and a Managing Board. The day-to-day management of the companies is vested with the Managing Board.

The memberships of the Supervisory Boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank are the same, as are the memberships of the Managing Boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank.

8.8.1 ABN AMRO Supervisory Board

ABN AMRO Supervisory Board supervises the policy conducted by the Managing Board, as well as the ABN AMRO's general course of affairs and its business. In addition, it is charged with assisting and advising management. Certain powers are vested with the Supervisory Board, including the approval of certain resolutions by the Managing Board.

The Supervisory Board is independent from the Managing Board. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Supervisory Board nominates one or more candidates for each vacant seat.

Table of Contents

Supervisory Board members are appointed for a term of four years and may be re-appointed after that term. Members of the Supervisory Board may serve a maximum term of 12 years from the date of their first appointment.

All current members of the Supervisory Board qualify as independent, within the meaning of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code.

The Chairman and Vice-Chairman are appointed by the ABN AMRO Supervisory Board from among its members. The ABN AMRO Supervisory Board also appoints from its members the Audit Committee of at least four members, the Nomination & Compensation Committee of at least three members and the Compliance Oversight Committee of at least three members. The committee members are appointed until further notice.

The composition of the Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. is as follows:

The Dutch Act on the Disclosure of Major Holdings and Capital Interests in Securities-Issuing Institutions (the Disclosure Act) came into effect on 1 October 2006 with respect to the notification requirements for investors. The Act was subsequently included in the new Financial Supervision Act, which came into effect on 1 January 2007. The Disclosure Act replaces the Act on the Disclosure of Major Holdings in Listed Companies 1996 and implements a number of provisions of the EU Transparency Directive in Dutch law. The Disclosure Act aims to increase the transparency of interests held in a company which is admitted to trading on a regulated market and simplify the procedure for notifying such interests. The Disclosure Act requires an investor to notify the AFM upon actively reaching or crossing a threshold in respect of its shareholding or voting rights, as a result of the acquisition or disposal of shares. The applicable thresholds will be 5%, 10%, 15%, 20%, 25%, 30%, 40%, 50%, 60%, 75% and 95%. The term shares includes also depositary receipts and options and other tradable securities in respect of shares and depositary receipts. The investor also has a duty to notify the AFM upon passively reaching or crossing a threshold in the event that this results from a change in an issuer's capital or voting rights. The AFM will facilitate timely filings by offering an alerting service to notify investors of any changes made by the issuer in its outstanding capital or voting rights.

Based on notices received by the AFM pursuant to the Disclosure Act, the table below sets out the shareholder structure of ABN AMRO as at 30 July 2007. Those disclosures may differ from the actual

The selected historical financial information in relation to Barclays in this Section 9 has, unless otherwise stated, been extracted without material adjustment from the unaudited consolidated interim financial information of Barclays for the six months as at and for the period ended 30 June 2007 and the audited financial statements of Barclays as at and for the two years ended 31 December 2006 and 31 December 2005 each prepared in accordance with IFRS as filed with the SEC on Form 20-F, incorporated by reference into the Barclays Prospectus. The 31 December 2005 financial statements include restated IFRS comparative information as at and for the year ended 31 December 2004. On 19 June 2007 Barclays announced certain changes to its group structure and divisional reporting and disclosed unaudited restatements of its 2006 and 2005 segmental results and the financial information contained in Part IV of the Barclays Prospectus for 2006 and 2005 reflect these unaudited statements.

Investors should read the whole of this document and the documents incorporated herein by reference and should not just rely on the financial information set out in this Section 9.

9.1 Introduction

Barclays is a major global financial services provider engaged in retail and commercial banking, credit cards, investment banking, wealth management and investment management services. It is one of the largest financial services companies in the world by market capitalisation. Barclays operates in over 50 countries and employs 127,700 people. Barclays moves, lends, invests and protects money for over 27 million customers and clients worldwide. For the year ended 31 December 2006, the Barclays Group's profit before tax was GBP 7,136 million, earnings per share were 71.9p, and dividends per share were 31.0p. As at 31 December 2006, ordinary shareholders equity was GBP 19,799 million.

9.2 History

Tracing its origins to 17th century London, Barclays has evolved from a group of English partnerships into a global bank.

In 1981, Barclays became the first foreign bank to register with the SEC and raise long-term capital on the New York market. Barclays created its investment banking division in 1986, which has since developed into Barclays Capital. In 1995, Barclays purchased the fund manager Wells Fargo Nikko Investment Advisers, which was integrated with BZW Investment Management to form Barclays Global Investors, a business that has become a significant contributor to group profits.

Woolwich plc, a UK mortgage bank and former building society founded in 1847, was acquired in 2000. In 2003 Barclays completed the acquisition of Banco Zaragozano, one of Spain's largest private sector banking groups, and in 2005 Barclays acquired a majority shareholding in Absa, South Africa's largest retail bank.

9.3 Corporate Structure

Barclays PLC, the Barclays Group parent company, owns 100 percent of Barclays Bank through which substantially all of the Barclays Group's business is transacted. A list of the Group's principal subsidiaries, which are considered by Barclays to have a significant effect on the assessment of the assets and liabilities, the financial position and the profits and losses of the Barclays Group, are set out in paragraph 11 of Part XII (Additional Information) of the Barclays Prospectus.

Following the Settlement Date, ABN AMRO Bank N.V. will become an indirect subsidiary of Barclays. Further information on ABN AMRO is set out in Section 8 (Information regarding ABN AMRO) of this Offer Memorandum.

9.4 Business Overview

The Barclays Group reports the results of its operations through seven business segments: UK Banking, Barclaycard, International Retail and Commercial Banking (together forming Global Retail and Commercial Banking), Barclays Capital, Barclays Global Investors, Barclays Wealth, (together forming Investment Banking and Investment Management) and Head Office functions and other operations.

Table of Contents

On 19 June Barclays announced certain changes in its Group structure and divisional reporting on its 2006 and 2005 results. A review has been carried out of the operating constructs between UK Retail Banking, International Retail and Commercial Banking excluding Absa and Barclays Wealth with the aim to expand the client offering in both savings and investment products across the whole Group. The structure remains unchanged for UK Business Banking, International Retail and Commercial Banking Absa, Barclays Capital, Barclays Global Investors and Head Office and other operations.

The restatements have no impact on the Group Income Statement or Balance Sheet.

UK Banking

UK Banking delivers banking solutions to UK retail and business banking customers. It offers a range of integrated products and services and access to the expertise of other Barclays Group businesses. Customers are served through a variety of channels comprising the branch network, automated teller machines, telephone banking, online banking and relationship managers. UK Banking is managed through two business areas, UK Retail Banking and UK Business Banking.

UK Retail Banking

UK Retail Banking comprises Personal Customers, Home Finance, Local Business, Consumer Loans and Barclays Financial Planning. This cluster of businesses aims to build broader and deeper relationships with customers. Personal Customers and Home Finance provide access to current account and savings products, Woolwich branded mortgages and general insurance. Consumer Loans provides unsecured loans and protection products and Barclays Financial Planning provides investment advice and products. Local Business provides banking services to small businesses.

Table of Contents*UK Business Banking*

UK Business Banking provides relationship banking to Barclays larger and medium business customers in the UK. Customers are served by a network of relationship and industry sector specialist managers who provide local access to an extensive range of products and services, as well as offering business information and support. Customers are also offered access to the products and expertise of other businesses in the Barclays Group, particularly Barclays Capital and Barclaycard. UK Business Banking provides asset financing and leasing solutions through a specialist business.

Barclaycard

Barclaycard is a multi-brand credit card business which also processes card payments for retailers and merchants and issues credit and charge cards to corporate customers and the UK Government. It is one of Europe's leading credit card businesses and has an increasing presence in the U.S.

In the UK, Barclaycard comprises Barclaycard, SkyCard and FirstPlus secured lending.

Outside the UK, Barclaycard provides credit cards in the U.S., Germany, Spain, Italy, Portugal, Africa, India and the United Arab Emirates. In the Nordic region, Barclaycard operates through Entercard, a joint venture with FöreningsSparbanken (Swedbank).

Barclaycard works closely with other parts of the Barclays Group, including UK Retail Banking, UK Business Banking and International Retail and Commercial Banking, to leverage their distribution capabilities.

International Retail and Commercial Banking

International Retail and Commercial Banking provides Barclays personal and corporate customers outside the UK with banking services. The products and services offered to customers are tailored to meet the regulatory and commercial environments within each country. From 2005, for reporting purposes, the operations have been grouped: International Retail and Commercial Banking-excluding Absa and International Retail and Commercial Banking-Absa.

International Retail and Commercial Banking works closely with all other parts of the Barclays Group to optimise synergies from product and service propositions.

International Retail and Commercial Banking-excluding Absa

International Retail and Commercial Banking-excluding Absa provides a range of banking services to retail and corporate customers in Western Europe and Emerging Markets, including current accounts, savings, investments, mortgages and loans. Western Europe includes Spain, Portugal, France and Italy. Emerging Markets includes Africa, India and the Middle East.

International Retail and Commercial Banking-Absa

International Retail and Commercial Banking-Absa represents Barclays consolidation of Absa, excluding Absa Capital which is included as part of Barclays Capital. Absa is one of South Africa's largest financial services organisations serving personal, commercial and corporate customers predominantly in South Africa. International Retail and Commercial Banking-Absa serves retail customers through a variety of distribution channels and offers a full range of banking services, including current and deposit accounts, mortgages, instalment finance, credit cards, bancassurance products and wealth management services; it also offers customised business solutions for commercial and large corporate customers.

Barclays Capital

Barclays Capital is a leading global investment bank which provides large corporate, institutional and government clients with solutions to their financing and risk management needs.

Barclays Capital services a wide variety of client needs, from capital raising and managing foreign exchange, interest rate, equity and commodity risks, through to providing technical advice and expertise. Activities are organised into three principal areas: Rates, which includes fixed income, foreign exchange, commodities, emerging markets, money markets, prime services and equity products; Credit, which includes primary and secondary activities for loans and bonds for investment grade, high yield and emerging market credit, as well as hybrid capital products, asset based finance, mortgage backed securities, credit derivatives, structured capital markets and large asset leaseings; and Private Equity. Barclays Capital includes Absa Capital, the investment banking business of Absa. Barclays Capital works closely with all other parts of the Barclays Group to maximise synergies from client relationships and product capabilities.

Barclays Global Investors

BGI is one of the world's largest asset managers³⁰ and a leading global provider of investment management products and services.

BGI offers structured investment strategies such as indexing, global asset allocation and risk controlled active products including hedge funds and provides related investment services such as securities lending, cash management and portfolio transition services. In addition, BGI is a leader in assets and products in the exchange traded funds business, with over 290 funds for institutions and individuals trading in nineteen markets globally. BGI's investment philosophy is founded on managing all dimensions of performance: a consistent focus on controlling risk, return and cost. BGI collaborates with the other Barclays businesses, particularly Barclays Capital and Barclays Wealth, to develop and market products and optimise capabilities to better serve the client base.

Barclays Wealth

Barclays Wealth serves affluent, high net worth and intermediary clients worldwide, providing private banking, asset management, stockbroking, offshore banking, wealth structuring, financial planning services and manages the closed life assurance activities of Barclays and Woolwich in the UK.

Barclays Wealth works closely with all other parts of the Barclays Group to maximise synergies from client relationships and product capabilities.

Head office functions and other operations

Head office functions and other operations comprise:

Head office and central support functions

Businesses in transition

Consolidation adjustments.

Head office and central support functions comprises the following areas: Executive Management, Finance, Treasury, Corporate Affairs, Human Resources, Strategy and Planning, Internal Audit, Legal, Corporate Secretariat, Property, Tax, Compliance and Risk. Costs incurred wholly on behalf of the businesses are recharged to them.

Businesses in transition principally relate to certain lending portfolios that are centrally managed with the objective of maximising recovery from the assets.

Consolidation adjustments largely reflect the elimination of intra-segment transactions.

9.5 Key Businesses and Geographic Regions

Barclays is a global provider of financial and banking services in the following principal markets: financial services, corporate banking and retail banking.

Retail banking

Retail banking comprises a variety of banking products and services provided to households/individuals, including deposit and account services (current accounts, savings accounts, cash deposits, cheque collection, ATM services, credit transfer, direct debit, standing orders, cheques etc.), lending (personal loans, consumer credit, overdraft facilities etc.), payment cards, mortgages, investment products (mutual funds, pension funds, and security brokerage and custody services) and insurance (reinsurance, life insurance and non-life insurance).

Table of Contents

Barclays has activities in retail banking in numerous jurisdictions worldwide, for example in Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, the UK, Hong Kong, Singapore, and several African jurisdictions including South Africa, Kenya, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe. In the EU, Barclays is predominantly active in the UK, France and Spain.

In all jurisdictions, Barclays faces and will continue to face strong competition from other retail banks and stand-alone providers.

Corporate banking

The corporate banking sector comprises a broad range of domestic corporate banking activities offered to sophisticated, largely global, corporate clients; banking for the public sector; and international credits to (largely global) public companies. The services offered by Barclays include deposit accounts, loans, international payments and letters of credit.

Barclays has activities in corporate banking in various jurisdictions worldwide, including France, Italy, Portugal, Spain, the UK, Hong Kong, India, South Africa, Kenya, Mauritius, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

Another element of the corporate banking sector is small and medium enterprise (SME) banking, i.e. banking services offered to small and medium-sized enterprises. SME banking comprises current accounts, deposit accounts, loans and mortgages. Barclays offers banking services to SMEs in various jurisdictions worldwide, including France, Italy, Portugal, Spain, the UK, India, United Arab Emirates, South Africa, Kenya, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

In the EU, Barclays is predominantly active in the UK. Competition for corporate banking customers, including SMEs, is intense in the UK, with competition from established large banks and increasingly from smaller banks which are targeting customers and growing the level of their SME activities.

Financial services

Financial services include, amongst other things, activities relating to the trading in government and corporate bonds, equities and derivatives, asset management, and trading in foreign exchange and money markets. In addition, Barclays also has activities in investment banking (which includes acquisitions and disposals, initial public offerings, arranging new issues of stocks and bonds and project finance) and private equity investment.

Barclays has financial services activities in, among others, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, the UK, Switzerland, Brazil, Canada, Mexico, USA, Australia, China, Japan, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, Dubai, Qatar, and South Africa.

The global financial services sectors in which Barclays operates are highly competitive. Innovative competition for corporate institutional and retail clients and customers comes both from established players and an increasing number of new entrants. Customers of financial services are sophisticated and, to an extent, are themselves entering the sector. The global landscape is expected to remain highly competitive in all areas.

9.6 Regulation

The Barclays Group's operations, including its overseas offices, branches, subsidiaries and associates, are subject to rules and regulations, including reserve and reporting requirements and conduct of business requirements, imposed by the relevant central banks and regulatory authorities.

In the UK, the FSA is the independent body responsible for the regulation of deposit taking, life insurance, home mortgages, general insurance and investment business. The FSA was established by the Government and it exercises statutory powers under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

Barclays Bank PLC is authorised by the FSA to carry on a range of regulated activities within the UK and is subject to consolidated supervision. In its role as supervisor, the FSA seeks to ensure the safety and soundness of financial institutions with the aim of strengthening, but not guaranteeing, the protection of customers. The FSA's continuing supervision of financial institutions authorised by it is conducted through a variety of regulatory tools, including the collection of information from statistical and prudential returns, reports obtained from skilled persons, visits to firms and regular meetings with management to discuss issues such as performance, risk management and strategy.

The FSA adopts a risk-based approach to supervision. The starting point for supervision of all financial institutions is a systematic analysis of the risk profile for each authorised firm. The FSA has adopted a homogeneous risk, processes and resourcing model in its approach to its supervisory responsibilities (known as the ARROW model) and the results of the risk assessment are used by the FSA to develop a risk mitigation programme for a firm. The FSA also promulgates requirements that banks and other financial institutions are required to meet on matters such as capital adequacy limits on large exposures to individual entities and groups of closely connected entities, and liquidity. Certain of these requirements derive from EU directives as described below. Banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions in the UK are subject to a single financial services compensation scheme (the Financial Services Compensation Scheme) where an authorised firm is unable or is likely to be unable to meet claims made against it because of its financial circumstances. Different levels of compensation are available to eligible claimants depending upon whether the protected claim is in relation to a deposit, a contract of insurance or protected investment business and certain types of claims are subject to maximum levels of compensation. Most deposits made with branches of Barclays Bank PLC within the European Economic Area (EEA) which are denominated in Pound Sterling or other EEA currencies (including the Euro) are covered by the Scheme. Most claims made in respect of designated investment business will also be protected claims if the business was carried on from the UK or from a branch of the bank or investment firm in another EEA member state. Outside the UK, the Barclays Group has operations (and main regulators) located in continental Europe, in particular France, Germany, Spain, Switzerland, Portugal and Italy (local central banks and other regulatory authorities); Asia Pacific (various regulatory authorities including the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, the Financial Services Agency of Japan, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and the Monetary Authority of Singapore); Africa (various regulatory authorities including the South African Reserve Bank and the Financial Services Board) and the U.S. (the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB), the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) and the SEC). In Europe, the UK regulatory agenda is considerably shaped and influenced by the directives emanating from the EU. A number of EU directives are currently being implemented, for example the Capital Requirements Directive, the Third Money Laundering Directive and the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID). These form part of the European Single Market programme, an important feature of which is the framework for the regulation of authorised firms. This framework is designed to enable a credit institution or investment firm authorised in one EU member state to conduct banking or investment business through the establishment of branches or by the provision of services on a crossborder basis in other member states without the need for local authorisation.

Barclays operations in Europe are authorised and regulated by a combination of both home (the FSA) and host regulators. Barclays operations in South Africa, including Absa Group Limited, are supervised and regulated by the SARB and the FSB . SARB oversees the banking industry and follows a risk-based approach to supervision whilst the FSB oversees the non-banking financial services industry and focuses on enhancing consumer protection and regulating market conduct.

In the U.S., Barclays, Barclays Bank PLC, and certain U.S. subsidiaries and branches of the Bank are subject to a comprehensive regulatory structure involving numerous statutes, rules and regulations. Barclays branch operations in New York and Florida are licensed by, and subject to regulation and examination by, their respective licensing authorities, the New York State Banking Department and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation. Barclays Global Investors, NA is a federally-chartered trust company subject to regulation and examination by OCC. Barclays Bank Delaware is subject to regulation and examination by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Delaware State Banking Commissioner. In addition, the FRB is the primary U.S. federal regulator for the New York and Florida branch operations and also exercises regulatory authority over Barclays other U.S. operations. The regulation of Barclays U.S. branches and subsidiaries imposes restrictions on the activities of those branches and subsidiaries. In addition to the direct regulation of Barclays U.S. banking offices, Barclays U.S. operations subject Barclays to regulation by the FRB under various laws, including the International Banking Act of 1978 and the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (BHC Act). Barclays, Barclays Bank PLC and Barclays Group U.S. Inc. are bank holding companies registered with the FRB as well as financial holding companies under the BHC Act. Financial holding companies may engage in a broader range of financial and related activities than are permitted to banking organisations that do not maintain financial holding company status, including underwriting and dealing in all types of securities. To maintain the financial holding company status of each of Barclays, Barclays Bank PLC and Barclays Group U.S. Inc., Barclays Bank PLC is required to meet or exceed certain capital ratios and to be deemed to be well managed . Barclays Bank Delaware must also meet certain capital requirements, be deemed to be well managed and must have at least a satisfactory rating under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977.

A major focus of U.S. governmental policy relating to financial institutions in recent years has been combating money laundering and terrorist financing and enforcing compliance with U.S. economic sanctions. Regulations applicable to U.S. operations of Barclays Bank PLC and its subsidiaries impose obligations to maintain appropriate policies, procedures and controls to detect, prevent and report money laundering and terrorist financing and to ensure compliance with U.S. economic sanctions against designated foreign countries, nationals and others. Failure of a financial institution to maintain and implement adequate programmes to combat money laundering and terrorist financing or to ensure economic sanction compliance could have serious legal and reputational consequences for the institution. Another recent focus of U.S. governmental policy relating to the financial services sector generally has been on disclosure and sales practices relating to the sector's subprime mortgage and other lending. Barclays investment banking operations are subject to regulations that cover all aspects of the securities business, including:

Trade practices among broker-dealers

Capital structure

Record-keeping

The financing of customers' purchases

Procedures for compliance with U.S. securities law

Barclays Capital Inc. and the other subsidiaries that conduct these operations are regulated by a number of different government agencies and self-regulatory organizations, including the SEC and the NASD. These regulators have available a variety of sanctions, including the authority to conduct administrative proceedings that can result in censure, fines, the issuance of cease-and-desist orders or the suspension or expulsion of the entity or its directors, officers or employees.

On 30 May 2007, pursuant to a settlement reached between the SEC and Barclays Bank. The SEC instituted an action against Barclays in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The SEC's action concerned certain purchases and sales of debt securities during 2002-2003 by a single proprietary trading desk at Barclays while desk personnel were serving on various bankruptcy committees. Barclays had independently addressed the practices, policies and procedures at issue in 2003, prior to the commencement of the SEC investigation that led to this action. Barclays no longer employs the trader named as a defendant in the SEC complaint. In settlement of the action, Barclays consented to the entry of a final judgment without admitting or denying any of the allegations contained in the complaint. Under the terms of the consent judgment, Barclays will pay USD 10.9 million in disgorgement, prejudgment interest, and civil monetary penalties to the SEC. In addition, the final judgment will include an injunction against violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. At the time that the action was instituted against Barclays, the SEC also granted relief to Barclays from certain potential collateral consequences of the final judgment.

Barclays subsidiaries in the U.S. are also subject to regulation by applicable federal and state regulators of their activities in the asset management, investment advisory, mutual fund and mortgage lending businesses.

9.7 Acquisitions and Disposals

The principal investments effected by the Barclays Group in the three financial years preceding the date of this document are set out below.

On 9 May 2005, Barclays announced the terms of a recommended acquisition of a majority stake in Absa. The total consideration for the acquisition was GBP 2.7 billion. Barclays has consolidated Absa from 27 July 2005.

The principal disposals effected by the Barclays Group in the three financial years preceding the date of this document are set out below.

On 4 April 2007, Barclays announced the disposal of part of the Monument credit card portfolio and associated servicing capabilities to CompuCredit International Acquisition Corporation and CompuCredit UK Limited, which are both subsidiaries of CompuCredit Corporation for a consideration of approximately USD 390 million.

Table of Contents

On 22 December 2006, Barclays disposed of 599.4 million ordinary shares representing its 43.7 percent shareholding in FirstCaribbean International Bank to Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce for USD 989 million.

On 31 December 2006, Barclays disposed of certain vendor finance businesses in the United Kingdom and Germany to CIT Group Inc. The gross assets sold amounted to approximately GBP 1.1 billion as at 30 June 2006. The principal current and future investment of the Barclays Group is the proposed merger with ABN AMRO pursuant to the terms of the Merger described in Section 5 (Invitation to ABN AMRO Shareholders) of this Offer Memorandum. Other than the proposed Merger, Barclays has not made any firm commitment to effect any other significant investment.

9.8 Current Trading, Trends and Prospects

Barclays made good progress on all key strategy priorities and delivered another very strong set of results for shareholders. Double-digit growth in earnings and dividends reflects an outstanding performance from Barclays capital, good profit growth in UK Banking, an improvement in UK unsecured impairment and strong investment cross the business.

Barclays profit before tax increased 12 per cent. to £4,101 million. Earnings per share increased 14 per cent. to 41.4 pence and the interim dividend will increase 10 per cent. to 11.5 pence per share.

The full Barclays unaudited interim results announcement for the six months ended 30 June 2007 (the Barclays PLC Interim Results Announcement) was published on 2 August 2007.

11. ABN AMRO SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

At 10:30 hours, Amsterdam time, on 20 September 2007, the ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting will be convened at De Doelen in Rotterdam. During this meeting, the Offer, the Consortium Offer, the background to both Offers and the alternatives considered by the ABN AMRO Managing Board and Supervisory Board will be explained and discussed in compliance with the provisions of article 9q of the Bte 1995. The information necessary for the ABN AMRO Shareholders to adequately assess the Offer, as meant in article 9q of the Bte 1995, is included in this Offer Memorandum. The Offer is not required to be and will not be submitted to an ABN AMRO shareholder vote. Notice of the ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting will be given in accordance with the ABN AMRO Articles of Association.

12. BARCLAYS SHAREHOLDER MEETINGS

The Merger constitutes a Class 1 transaction (as defined in the listing rules of the UK Listing Authority) for Barclays. Accordingly, Barclays is seeking the approval of its shareholders for the Merger at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting. Barclays has today posted to Barclays Shareholders a circular summarising the background to and strategic rationale for the Merger, which includes notices convening the Barclays Shareholder Meetings. The resolutions to be put to the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting will include approval of the Merger, the issue of the New Barclays Shares and related matters.

The Barclays Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting is required in order to sanction the passing and implementation of the special resolution creating the Barclays Preference Shares proposed at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and to consent to each and every variation, modification or abrogation of the rights or privileges attaching to the Barclays Ordinary Shares resulting from the creation of the Barclays Preference Shares.

The Merger is conditional on, amongst other things, certain resolutions being passed by Barclays Shareholders at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting. The Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and the Barclays Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting are scheduled for 14 September 2007 at 11:00 a.m. and 11:15 hours Amsterdam time, respectively (10:00 a.m. and 10:15 a.m., London time, respectively).

The following is a summary of certain Dutch tax consequences relating to the acceptance of the Offer. The summary does not address any laws other than the tax laws of The Netherlands as currently in effect and in force and as interpreted in published case law by the courts of The Netherlands at the date hereof, which tax laws and case law are subject to change after such date, including changes that could have retroactive effect. The summary does not purport to be complete and in view of the general nature of this summary, it should be treated with corresponding caution. Each ABN AMRO Shareholder considering the Offer should consult his or her professional tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of the Offer.

For the purposes of the principal Dutch tax consequences described below it is assumed that ABN AMRO Shareholders are either individuals or companies (including other entities that are treated as companies for Dutch taxation purposes, such as without limitation open limited partnerships (open commanditaire vennootschappen), cooperatives (cooperaties) and open mutual funds (open fondsen voor gemene rekening)). This summary does not address the tax position of investment institutions (fiscale beleggingsinstellingen) in relation to the Offer.

For the purpose of the principal Dutch tax consequences described below, it is further assumed that no ABN AMRO Shareholder who is an individual has or will have a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in ABN AMRO or Barclays (Netherlands).

Generally speaking, a person has a substantial interest in a company if such person directly or indirectly has the ownership of or certain rights over shares representing 5% or more of the total issued and outstanding capital (or the issued and outstanding capital of any class of shares) of the company, rights to acquire such interest in the share capital (whether or not already issued) of the company, or the ownership of profit participating certificates (winstbewijzen) that relate to 5% or more of the annual profit or liquidation proceeds of the company. In the case of an individual the 5% ownership criterion applies to that person jointly with his partner, if any, whereas a substantial interest is also present in case of a less than 5% shareholding by an individual if his relatives in the direct line of descent and/or those of his partner do hold a substantial interest. A person has a deemed substantial interest generally in respect of shares that have formed part of a substantial interest and in respect of which a non-recognition provision has applied, such that capital gain taxation thereon has been deferred to a later date.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are in doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside The Netherlands should consult their professional advisers immediately.

13.1.2 Taxation on Capital Gains

13.1.2.1 Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash
Dutch resident companies

Generally, a company holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will be subject to Dutch corporate income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of its ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, unless such company is tax exempt or benefits from the participation exemption in respect of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between the value of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received and the base cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes.

Likewise, a company holding Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will be subject to Dutch corporate income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of its Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, unless such company is tax exempt or benefits from the participation exemption in respect of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between (a) the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares plus cash received (minus any cash paid in the case of a rounding up of the entitlement to New Barclays Ordinary Shares) and (b) the base cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes. The base cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes should be equal to the consideration given for such shares, being the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

The main condition for application of the participation exemption is that the shareholding interest represents at least 5% of the nominal paid up capital (or, under certain conditions, 5% of the voting rights) of the company concerned. Shareholdings of less than 5% in ABN AMRO may under certain conditions nevertheless still benefit from the participation exemption. Shareholders that currently are entitled to the participation exemption in relation to their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will not automatically be entitled to the participation exemption in relation to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange for their Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received in exchange for their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Non-resident companies

A company holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which is not resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of its ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, unless:

- (i) such capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands unless at the level of the permanent establishment the participation exemption applies to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares; or
- (ii) the company has a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in ABN AMRO (see paragraph 13.1.1 above) and such interest does not form part of the assets of an enterprise.

Likewise, a company holding Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which is not resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of its Barclays (Netherlands) Shares unless:

- (i) such capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands unless at the level of the permanent establishment the participation exemption applies to the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares; or
- (ii) the company has a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in Barclays (Netherlands) (see paragraph 13.1.1 above) and such interest does not form part of the assets of an enterprise.

Dutch resident individuals

An individual holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is, is deemed to be, or has elected to be treated as resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange is not subject to Dutch income tax in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, unless:

- (i) such individual has an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise, to which the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are attributable; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

If condition (i) or (ii) in this subsection (Dutch resident individuals) is met, the individual will be subject to Dutch income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at the progressive rates of the Income Tax Act 2001. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between the value of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received and the base cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for Dutch income tax purposes.

Likewise, an individual holding Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who is, is deemed to be, or has elected to be treated as resident of The Netherlands for tax purposes and who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange is not subject to Dutch income tax in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, unless:

- (i) such individual has an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise, to which the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares are attributable; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normal vermogensbeheer).

If condition (i) or (ii) in this subsection (Dutch resident individuals) is met, the individual will be subject to Dutch income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares at the progressive rates of the Income Tax Act 2001. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between (a) the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares plus cash received (minus any cash paid in the case of a rounding up of the entitlement to New Barclays Ordinary Shares) and (b) the base cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for Dutch income tax purposes. The base cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for Dutch income tax purposes should be equal to the consideration given for such shares, being the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Non-resident individuals

An individual holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is not, is not deemed to be, and has not elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares unless:

- (i) the capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) in The Netherlands as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

Likewise, an individual holding Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who is not, is not deemed to be, and has not elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his Barclays (Netherlands) Shares unless:

- (i) the capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands; or

- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) in The Netherlands as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

13.1.2.2 Alternative Exchange receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

Dutch resident companies

Generally, a company holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will be subject to Dutch corporate income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of its ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, unless such company is tax exempt or benefits from the participation exemption in respect of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between (a) the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares plus cash received (minus any cash paid (in the case of a rounding up of the entitlement to New Barclays Ordinary Shares) and (b) the base cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes.

The main condition for application of the participation exemption is that the shareholding interest represents at least 5% of the nominal paid up capital (or, under certain conditions, 5% of the voting rights) of the company concerned. Shareholdings of less than 5% in ABN AMRO may under certain conditions nevertheless still benefit from the participation exemption. Shareholders that currently are entitled to the participation exemption in relation to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will not automatically be entitled to the participation exemption in relation to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange for their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Non-resident companies

A company holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which is not resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of its ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares unless:

- (i) such capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands unless at the level of the permanent establishment the participation exemption applies to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares; or
- (ii) the company has a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in ABN AMRO (see paragraph 13.1.1 above) and such interest does not form part of the assets of an enterprise.

Dutch resident individuals

An individual holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is, is deemed to be, or has elected to be treated as resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Alternative Exchange is not subject to Dutch income tax in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, unless:

- (i) such individual has an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise, to which the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are attributable; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

Table of Contents

If condition (i) or (ii) in this subsection (Dutch resident individuals) is met, the individual will be subject to Dutch income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at the progressive rates of the Income Tax Act 2001. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between (a) the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares plus cash received (minus any cash paid (in the case of a rounding up of the entitlement to New Barclays Ordinary Shares) and (b) the base cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for Dutch income tax purposes.

Non-resident individuals

An individual holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is not, is not deemed to be, and has not elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares unless:

13.1.2.3 DR Preference Shares

Dutch resident companies

Generally, a company holding DR Preference Shares which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives cash or Barclays Preference Shares will be subject to Dutch corporate income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of its DR Preference Shares, unless such company is tax exempt or benefits from the participation exemption in respect of the DR Preference Shares. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between the value of the cash or Barclays Preference Shares (including any cash in the case of a rounding down of the entitlement to Barclays Preference Shares) received and the base cost of the DR Preference Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes.

The main condition for application of the participation exemption is that the shareholding interest represents at least 5% of the nominal paid up capital (or, under certain conditions, 5% of the voting rights) of the company concerned. Shareholdings of less than 5% in ABN AMRO may under certain conditions nevertheless still benefit from the participation exemption. Shareholders that currently are entitled to the participation exemption in relation to the DR Preference Shares will not be automatically entitled to the participation exemption in relation to the Barclays Preference Shares received in exchange for their DR Preference Shares.

Non-resident companies

A company holding DR Preference Shares which is not resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives cash or Barclays Preference Shares will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of its DR Preference Shares unless:

- (i) such capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands unless at the level of the permanent establishment the participation exemption applies to the DR Preference Shares; or

- (ii) the company has a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in ABN AMRO (see paragraph 13.1.1 above) and such interest does not form part of the assets of an enterprise.

Dutch resident individuals

An individual holding DR Preference Shares who is, is deemed to be, or has elected to be treated as resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives cash or Barclays Preference Shares is not subject to Dutch income tax in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his DR Preference Shares, unless:

- (i) such individual has an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise, to which the DR Preference Shares are attributable; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

If condition (i) or (ii) in this subsection (Dutch resident individuals) is met, the individual will be subject to Dutch income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of the DR Preference Shares at the progressive rates of the Income Tax Act 2001. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between the value of the cash or Barclays Preference Shares (including any cash in the case of a rounding down of the entitlement to Barclays Preference Shares) received and the base cost of the DR Preference Shares for Dutch income tax purposes.

Non-resident individuals

An individual holding DR Preference Shares who is not, is not deemed to be, and has not elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives cash or Barclays Preference Shares will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his DR Preference Shares unless:

- (i) the capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) in The Netherlands as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

13.1.2.4 Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

Dutch resident companies

Generally, a company holding Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives cash will be subject to Dutch corporate income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of its Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares, unless such company is tax exempt or benefits from the participation exemption in respect of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between the cash received and the base cost of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes.

The main condition for application of the participation exemption is that the shareholding interest represents at least 5% of the nominal paid up capital (or, under certain conditions, 5% of the voting rights) of the company concerned. Shareholdings of less than 5% in ABN AMRO may under certain conditions nevertheless still benefit from the participation exemption.

Non-resident companies

A company holding Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares which is not resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives cash will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realized on the transfer of its Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares unless:

- (i) such capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands unless at the level of the permanent establishment the participation exemption applies to the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares; or
- (ii) the company has a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in ABN AMRO (see paragraph 13.1.1 above) and such interest does not form part of the assets of an enterprise.

Dutch resident individuals

An individual holding Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who is, is deemed to be, or has elected to be treated as resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives cash will not be subject to Dutch income tax in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares, unless:

- (i) such individual has an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise, to which the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares are attributable; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

If condition (i) or (ii) in this subsection (Dutch resident individuals) is met, the individual will be subject to Dutch income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares at the progressive rates of the Income Tax Act 2001. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between the cash received and the base cost of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares for Dutch income tax purposes.

Non-resident individuals

An individual holding Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who is not, is not deemed to be, and has not elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives cash will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realized on the transfer of his Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares unless:

- (i) the capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) in The Netherlands as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

13.1.2.5 Rollover relief

An exemption from Dutch taxation on any capital gains realised on the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary shares and/or Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the

Table of Contents

Primary Exchange, or on the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Alternative Exchange should be available upon request provided that:

- (i) the Primary Exchange and the Alternative Exchange qualify as a share-for-share merger (aandelenfusie) as defined in article 3.55 of the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001); and
- (ii) the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders claiming the exemption record and continue to record the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and New Barclays Ordinary Shares at the same tax book value as that of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at the moment immediately preceding acceptance of the Offer. The share for share merger exemption will not be available in respect of any cash payment the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders would receive pursuant to either the Primary Exchange or the Alternative Exchange.

Whether or not a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares claims the benefits of this share for share merger exemption is at his own discretion.

Considering the terms of the Offer, it is unlikely that the Primary Exchange or Alternative Exchange qualify as a share-for-share merger and that the share-for-share merger exemption will be available.

13.1.2.6 Ownership and Disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares

A summary of the Dutch taxation considerations relating to the ownership of and disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is set out in Part X of the Barclays Prospectus.

13.1.3 Other taxes and duties

There is no Dutch registration tax, transfer tax, stamp duty or any other similar tax or duty payable in The Netherlands in respect of or in connection with the Offer.

13.2 United Kingdom taxation considerations

13.2.1 General

The following is a summary of certain United Kingdom tax consequences relating to the acceptance of the Offer. The comments set out below are based on existing United Kingdom tax law and what is understood to be current HM Revenue and Customs practice as at the date of this Offer Memorandum, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice and relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Other than in respect of paragraph 13.2.1.7 (Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax) of this Section, the comments set out below apply only to holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are resident, or in the case of individuals, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in (and only in) the United Kingdom (except insofar as express reference is made to the treatment of non-United Kingdom residents), who hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares as an investment and who are the absolute beneficial owners thereof. Certain categories of holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, insurance companies and collective investment schemes, holders who have (or are deemed to have) acquired their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares by virtue of or in connection with an office or employment or holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who acquire their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares by exercising options, and individual holders who are resident or ordinarily resident but not domiciled for UK tax purposes in the UK, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders. The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Table of Contents

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

13.2.1.1 Primary Exchange Disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

A holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will be treated as disposing of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for the purposes of United Kingdom corporation tax on chargeable gains or capital gains tax (CGT).

A disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares by a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is resident or, in the case of an individual, resident or ordinarily resident for tax purposes in the UK may, depending on the holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, give rise to a chargeable gain or an allowable loss for the purposes of CGT. Such chargeable gain should be computed on the basis of the difference between the value of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received (equal to the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which have been exchanged) and the allowable cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, subject to any available exemption or relief. A holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is an individual and who has ceased to be resident and ordinarily resident for tax purposes in the UK for a period of less than five tax years (or a shorter period under certain double tax treaties, where applicable) and who is treated as disposing of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares during that period may be liable on his or her return to the UK to tax on any chargeable gain realised (subject to any available exemption or relief).

Any holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares, who, alone or together with persons connected with him, does not hold more than 5 percent of, or of any class of, Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, should not, for the purposes of CGT, be treated as making a disposal of such Barclays (Netherlands) Shares. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued by Barclays should be treated as the same asset, and as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

Any holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who may, alone or together with persons connected with him, hold more than 5 percent of, or of any class of, shares in Barclays (Netherlands) is referred to Section 13.2.1.6 (Tax Clearances) below.

A holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives cash in exchange for his Barclays (Netherlands) Shares will be treated as making a disposal or part disposal of his Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for CGT purposes. If a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares is resident or, in the case of an individual, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in the UK he may, depending on such holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, be liable to CGT. However, it is expected that the shareholder's acquisition cost (allowable as a deduction in computing the amount of the shareholder's gain for CGT purposes) will equal the market value of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares being disposed of (these shares having been acquired as part of a transaction involving a disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for the purposes of CGT – see above) and accordingly no further liability to CGT is expected in addition to that described above in relation to the shareholder's disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

A summary of the United Kingdom Taxation considerations relating to a holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is set out in Part X of the Barclays Prospectus.

13.2.1.2 Alternative Exchange Disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

Any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who, alone or together with persons connected with him, does not hold more than 5 percent of, or of any class of, shares in or debentures of ABN AMRO, should not, for the purposes of CGT, be treated as making a disposal of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares by accepting the Offer (subject to the comment below regarding any Post Acceptance Period). The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued by Barclays should be treated as the same asset, and as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

The New Barclays Ordinary Shares received by a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will have an allowable cost, for CGT purposes, equal to the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which have been exchanged.

Any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder, who may, alone or together with persons connected with him, hold more than 5 percent of, or of any class of, shares in or debentures of ABN AMRO is referred to Section 13.2.1.6 (Tax Clearances) below.

To the extent that a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receives cash in exchange for his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares he will be treated as making a disposal or part disposal of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for CGT purposes. If a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares is resident or, in the case of an individual, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in the UK he may, depending on such holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, be liable to CGT. A holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is an individual and who has ceased to be resident and ordinarily resident for tax purposes in the UK for a period of less than five tax years (or a shorter period under certain double tax treaties, where applicable) may be treated as disposing of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares during that period, and may be liable on his or her return to the UK to tax on any chargeable gain realised (subject to any available exemption or relief).

If a Post Acceptance Period is announced, then a shareholder accepting the Alternative Exchange is likely not to be treated in the manner discussed above and is likely instead to be treated as disposing of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for the purposes of CGT.

13.2.1.3 Fractional Entitlements

Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will receive (a small amount of) cash in the case of a rounding down of their entitlement to New Barclays Ordinary Shares, or Barclays Preference Shares.

If such holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receive cash they will not be subject to CGT on it, but the receipt of such cash will reduce the base cost of their New Barclays Ordinary Shares by an equivalent amount.

A holder of DR Preference Shares who receives cash in exchange for his DR Preference Shares will be treated as disposing of his DR Preference Shares for an amount equal to such cash. Moreover, although the position is not entirely free from doubt, it is considered that a holder of DR Preference Shares cannot be regarded for CGT purposes as the beneficial owner of the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares. That being the case, a holder of DR Preference Shares who receives Barclays Preference Shares in exchange for his DR Preference Shares will also be treated as disposing of his DR Preference Shares for CGT purposes for an amount equal to the value of the Barclays Preference Shares received (plus any cash attributable to fractional entitlements). If a holder of DR Preference Shares is resident or, in the case of an individual, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in the UK he may, depending on such holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, be liable to CGT. A holder of DR Preference Shares who is an individual and who has ceased to be resident and ordinarily resident for tax purposes in the UK for a period of less than five tax years (or a shorter period under certain double tax treaties, where applicable) may be treated as disposing of his DR Preference Shares during that period, and may be liable on his or her return to the UK to tax on any chargeable gain realised (subject to any available exemption or relief).

13.2.1.5 Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

A disposal of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares by a holder of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who is resident or, in the case of an individual, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in the UK may, depending on the holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, give rise to a chargeable gain or an allowable loss for the purposes of UK taxation on chargeable gains. A holder of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who is an individual and who has ceased to be resident and ordinarily resident for tax purposes in the UK for a period of less than five tax years (or a shorter period under certain double tax treaties, where applicable) and who disposes of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares during that period may be liable on his or her return to the UK to tax on any chargeable gain realised (subject to any available exemption or relief).

Any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder or holder of DR Preference Shares (as appropriate) who may, alone or together with persons connected with him, hold more than 5 percent of, or of any class of, shares in or debentures of ABN AMRO is advised that clearance under section 138 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 has been obtained from HM Revenue & Customs stating that it is satisfied that the Merger is being effected for bona fide commercial reasons and does not form part of a scheme or arrangements of which the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, is the avoidance of liability to capital gains tax or corporation tax. On the basis of this clearance, any such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder should be treated in the manner described in sub-paragraphs 13.2.1.1 and 13.2.1.2 above as appropriate.

(b) Section 707 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are advised that clearance under section 707 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 has been obtained from HM Revenue & Customs stating that section 703 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, which provides for the cancellation of a tax advantage arising from certain transactions in securities, will not apply to the Offer.

(c) Section 765 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are advised that the consent of the Treasury has been obtained in respect of the Merger, that the Merger will not be unlawful under section 765 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

13.2.1.7 Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (SDRT)

The comments set out below relate to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares wherever resident for tax purposes (not only holders that are resident for tax purposes in the United Kingdom), but not to holders such as market makers, brokers, dealers and intermediaries, to whom special rules may apply.

(a) Primary Exchange

New Barclays Ordinary Shares that are issued to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders opting for the Primary Exchange will be issued into Euroclear Nederland via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland.

Subject to certain exemptions, a charge to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on the issue or transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares to, or to a nominee or agent for, (1) particular persons providing a clearance service or (2) an issuer of depositary receipts. The rate of stamp duty or SDRT will generally be 1.5 percent of either (x) in the case of an issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the issue price of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, or (y) in the case of a transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer or, in some circumstances, the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, in the case of stamp duty rounded up if necessary to the nearest multiple of GBP 5. Barclays will bear the cost of any stamp duty or SDRT that may arise in connection with the Primary Exchange (and only in connection with the Primary Exchange) with respect to the issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares into Euroclear Nederland via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and the initial receipt of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares (or interests therein within Euroclear Nederland) by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares before the termination of the closing date of the Offer.

No stamp duty need, in practice, be paid on the acquisition or transfer of interests in New Barclays Ordinary Shares within Euroclear Nederland, provided that any instrument of transfer or contract of sale is executed and remains at all times outside the United Kingdom.

An agreement for the transfer of interests in New Barclays Ordinary Shares between accountholders of Euroclear Nederland while such New Barclays Ordinary Shares are held within Euroclear Nederland will not give rise to a liability to SDRT provided that, at the time the agreement is made, Euroclear Nederland satisfies various conditions laid down in the relevant UK legislation.

(b) Alternative Exchange

New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders opting for the Alternative Exchange will be held in CREST or in certificated form, and the following paragraphs proceed on the basis that such New Barclays Ordinary Shares are not subsequently transferred to, or to a nominee or agent for, (1) particular persons providing a clearance service or (2) an issuer of depositary receipts.

No liability to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on the issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares into CREST or in certificated form.

A conveyance or transfer on sale of New Barclays Ordinary Shares which are not held within a clearance service (such as Euroclear Nederland) will usually be subject to ad valorem stamp duty, generally at the rate of 0.5 percent of the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer (rounded up to the nearest GBP 5).

An unconditional agreement for such transfer or a conditional agreement which subsequently becomes unconditional will be liable to SDRT, generally at the rate of 0.5 percent of the consideration for the transfer, but such liability will be cancelled if the agreement is completed by a duly stamped instrument of transfer within six years of the date of the agreement or, if the agreement was conditional, the date the agreement became unconditional. Where the stamp duty is paid, any SDRT previously paid will be repaid on the making of an appropriate claim. Stamp duty and SDRT are normally paid by the purchaser.

Under the CREST system of paperless transfers, no stamp duty or SDRT will arise on a transfer of such New Barclays Ordinary Shares into the system, unless such a transfer is made for consideration in money or money's worth, in which case a liability to SDRT will arise (usually at a rate of 0.5 percent of the amount or value of the consideration given). Paperless transfers of shares within CREST will be liable to SDRT rather than stamp duty, also at a rate of 0.5 percent, and SDRT on relevant transactions settled within the system or reported through it for regulatory purposes will be collected by CREST.

(c) Exchange for Barclays Preference Shares

Barclays Preference Shares issued to holders of ABN AMRO DR Preference Shares will be held in certificated form, and the following paragraphs proceed on the basis that such Barclays Preference Shares are not subsequently transferred to, or to a nominee or agent for, (1) particular persons providing a clearance service or (2) an issuer of depositary receipts.

187

No liability to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on the issue of Barclays Preference Shares in certificated form.

A conveyance or transfer on sale of Barclays Preference Shares which are not held within a clearance service (such as Euroclear Nederland) will usually be subject to ad valorem stamp duty, generally at the rate of 0.5 percent of the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer (rounded up to the nearest GBP 5).

An unconditional agreement for such transfer or a conditional agreement which subsequently becomes unconditional will be liable to SDRT, generally at the rate of 0.5 percent of the consideration for the transfer, but such liability will be cancelled if the agreement is completed by a duly stamped instrument of transfer within six years of the date of the agreement or, if the agreement was conditional, the date the agreement became unconditional. Where the stamp duty is paid, any SDRT previously paid will be repaid on the making of an appropriate claim. Stamp duty and SDRT are normally paid by the purchaser.

13.3 Belgian taxation considerations

It is generally recommended for Belgian tax residents to opt for the Alternative Exchange. Electing for the Primary Exchange may give rise to a tax liability for Belgian tax residents. Please consider attentively this Belgian tax section and consult with your tax adviser.

The comments set out below are based on existing Belgian tax laws and practices as at the date of this Offer Memorandum, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice.

The comments set out below apply only to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and subsequently of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays Preference Shares who are resident for tax purposes in (and only in) Belgium (except insofar as express reference is made to the treatment of non-residents), who hold these shares in their own name and for their own account and who are the beneficial owners thereof.

The comments below do not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to tender ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in response to the Offer, to acquire, hold or dispose of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares or to receive dividends, liquidation proceeds or other distributions in respect of such shares.

Certain categories of holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, banks, insurance companies and collective investment schemes, and holders who have (or are deemed to have) acquired their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares by virtue of or in connection with an office or employment, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders.

The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and subsequently of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays Preference Shares. They do not intend to provide the holders of stock subscription options or other comparable instruments (including shares and stock options acquired under employee incentive programs) with a description of the possible tax and social security implications of the Offer for them, nor to determine under which conditions these options or other instruments are or may become exercisable prior to the expiration of the acceptance period of the Offer.

For the purpose of applying the Belgian tax rules and regulations, it is assumed that holders of ABN AMRO ADSs and DR Preference Shares are treated in the same way as holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. This assumption has however not been confirmed by or verified with the Belgian tax authorities. Belgian resident holders of ABN AMRO ADSs and DR Preference Shares should therefore consult their own tax advisers as to the potential tax consequences of a transfer of such ABN AMRO ADSs or DR Preference Shares.

188

For the purpose of this summary, a Belgian resident is (i) an individual subject to Belgian personal income tax (i.e. an individual who has his domicile in Belgium or has the seat of his assets in Belgium, or a person assimilated to a Belgian resident), (ii) a company subject to Belgian corporate income tax (i.e. a company that has its registered office, its main establishment, or its place of management in Belgium) or (iii) a legal entity subject to the Belgian tax on legal entities (i.e. a legal entity other than a company subject to the corporate income tax, that has its registered office, its main establishment, or its place of management in Belgium). A Belgian non-resident is a person that is not a Belgian resident.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Belgium, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

13.3.1.1 Income tax

Individuals

- (a) Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

For Belgian individuals holding shares as a private investment, the disposal of their shares in exchange for other shares and/or cash will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction. However, taking into account the particular features of the Primary Exchange it cannot be totally excluded that it would be argued that the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in exchange for Barclays (Netherlands) Shares is a transaction that falls outside the scope of normal management of one's private assets and that would therefore be taxable at the rate of 33% (to be increased by additional local taxes).

In addition, Belgian individuals who hold their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for professional purposes or who enter into transactions that are considered as speculative will also be subject to income tax in Belgium.

Capital losses realised upon the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are generally not tax deductible.

The exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash should, as a rule, not give rise to the realisation of capital gains.

- (b) Alternative Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

For Belgian individuals holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares as a private investment, the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in exchange for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash payments will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital gains or losses on this disposal will therefore not be taxable or deductible in Belgium. Belgian individuals may, however, be subject to income tax in Belgium at the rate of 33% (to be increased by additional local taxes) if they realize a capital gain on ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which is deemed to be speculative or outside the scope of normal management of private assets.

Belgian individuals who hold their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for professional purposes will also be subject to income tax in Belgium.

Table of Contents

(c) DR Preference Shares

For Belgian individuals holding DR Preference Shares as a private investment, the disposal of DR Preference Shares in exchange for Barclays Preference Shares and/or cash will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital gains or losses on this disposal will therefore not be taxable or deductible in Belgium. Belgian individuals may, however, be subject to income tax in Belgium at the rate of 33% (to be increased by additional local taxes) if they realize a capital gain on DR Preference Shares which is deemed to be speculative or outside the scope of normal management of private assets.

Belgian individuals who hold their DR Preference Shares for professional purposes will also be subject to income tax in Belgium.

(d) Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

For Belgian individuals holding Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares as a private investment, the disposal of these shares in exchange for cash will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital gains or losses on this disposal will therefore not be taxable or deductible in Belgium. Belgian individuals may, however, be subject to income tax in Belgium at the rate of 33% (to be increased by additional local taxes) if they realize a capital gain on Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares which is deemed to be speculative or outside the scope of normal management of private assets.

Belgian individuals who hold their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares for professional purposes will also be subject to income tax in Belgium.

Companies

(a) Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

For Belgian companies the disposal of their shares in exchange for other shares and/or cash payments will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction. However, taking into account the particular features of the exchange under the Primary Exchange, it cannot be totally excluded that the argument will be made that the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares have to be analysed as taxable transactions.

Capital losses realised upon the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are generally not tax deductible.

The exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash should, as a rule, not give rise to the realisation of capital gains.

(b) Alternative Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

For Belgian companies holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in exchange for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash payments will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital losses on this disposal will in principle not be tax deductible in Belgium.

(c) DR Preference Shares

For Belgian companies holding DR Preference Shares, the disposal of DR Preference Shares in exchange for Barclays Preference Shares and/or cash will not be a taxable transaction provided that any dividends distributed with respect to the DR Preference Shares would qualify for the Belgian participation exemption (without regard to the minimum holding requirement, the minimum holding period requirement and the requirement that the shares must qualify as financial fixed assets).

Capital losses on this disposal will in principle not be tax deductible in Belgium.

(d) Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

For Belgian companies holding Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares, the disposal of their shares in exchange for cash will not be a taxable transaction provided that any dividends distributed with respect to the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares would qualify for the Belgian participation exemption (without regard to the minimum holding requirement, the minimum holding period requirement and the requirement that the shares must qualify as financial fixed assets).

Capital losses on this disposal will in principle not be tax deductible in Belgium.

Legal entities

(a) Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

For Belgian legal entities subject to legal entities tax, the disposal of their shares in exchange for other shares and/or cash payments will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital losses realized upon the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are not tax deductible.

The exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash should, as a rule, not give rise to the realisation of capital gains.

(b) Alternative Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

For Belgian legal entities subject to legal entities tax, the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in exchange for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash payments will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital gains or losses on this disposal will therefore not be taxable or deductible in Belgium.

(c) DR Preference Shares

For Belgian legal entities subject to legal entities tax, the disposal of DR Preference Shares in exchange for Barclays Preference Shares or cash will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital gains or losses on this disposal will therefore not be taxable or deductible in Belgium.

(d) Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

For Belgian legal entities subject to legal entities tax, the disposal of these shares in exchange for cash will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital gains or losses on this disposal will therefore not be taxable or deductible in Belgium.

13.3.1.2 Other Belgian tax consequences

Transfers of shares for valuable consideration may give rise to a tax on stock exchange transactions (taks op beursverrichtingen / taxe sur les opérations de bourse) of 0.17% if they are carried out through a financial institution established in Belgium. The amount of tax, however, is capped at 500 per party and per transaction, and various types of investors (including credit institutions, insurance companies, pension funds and all non-residents of Belgium) are exempted from this tax. No tax on stock exchange transactions will be due in respect of (i) the exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares under the Primary Exchange, (ii) the exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares under the Alternative Exchange and (iii) the exchange of DR Preference Shares against Barclays Preference Shares. However, stock exchange tax may be due in respect of (i) the exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares against Barclays (Netherlands) shares under the Primary Exchange, (ii) the disposal of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares in exchange for cash under the Primary Exchange (iii) the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in exchange for cash under the Alternative Exchange, (iv) the disposal of DR Preference Shares in exchange for cash and (v) the disposal of Formerly Convertible Finance Shares in exchange for cash.

The stock exchange tax is normally due separately by each party to the transaction. The stock exchange tax for which the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares or Formerly Convertible Finance Shares are liable will be withheld by the Belgian financial intermediary from the consideration paid to such holder pursuant to the Offer.

13.3.2 Acquisition, Holding And Disposal Of New Barclays Ordinary Shares And Barclays Preference Shares

(a) Dividends

Individuals

Dividends paid by Barclays will be subject to Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) at the rate of 25%, when paid or made available through a professional intermediary in Belgium. No UK withholding tax will be due on these dividends.

For individuals who hold New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares as a private investment, this Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) is a final tax and any dividends that have been subject to it need not be reported in such person's personal income tax return. If no dividend withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) has been levied in Belgium (i.e. in case of payment outside of Belgium without the intervention of a professional intermediary in Belgium), the net amount of such dividends must be reported in the holder's personal income tax return and is taxable at the separate rate of 25%, to be increased with local taxes.

For resident individuals who hold the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares for professional purposes, the dividends received will be taxed at the progressive personal income tax rates increased by the local surcharge. Any withholding tax will be creditable against the personal income tax due and, to the extent that it exceeds the tax payable, shall be reimbursed subject to two conditions: (i) the taxpayer must own the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares at the time of payment or attribution of the dividends in full legal ownership, and (ii) the dividend distribution may not give rise to a reduction in the value of, or a capital loss on the shares. The second condition is not applicable if such investor proves that he/she held the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares in full legal ownership during an uninterrupted period of twelve months prior to the attribution of the dividends.

Companies

No Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) is levied where the Belgian holder of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares is a company that receives Barclays dividends paid or made available through a professional intermediary in Belgium

(provided that such holder fulfils applicable certification formalities). No UK withholding tax will be due on these dividends.

Table of Contents

Dividends paid on New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares will, as a rule, be subject to corporate tax at the rate of 33.99%. However, companies will be able to deduct from their taxable income (other than certain disallowed expenses and other taxable items) up to 95% of the dividends received if these dividends are eligible for the dividends-received deduction. For the dividends-received deduction to apply, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares held by a Belgian company must, at the time of payment of the dividends: (i) represent at least 10% of Barclays share capital or have an acquisition value of at least 1.2 million; (ii) be fully owned by such Belgian company; (iii) be accounted for as financial fixed assets (within the meaning of Belgian accounting law) in the financial statements of such Belgian company; and (iv) be held or have been held continuously for at least one consecutive year. For certain investment companies and for certain financial institutions and insurance companies, certain of the aforementioned conditions do not apply.

Legal entities

Dividends paid on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares will be subject to Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) at the rate of 25%, when paid or made available through a financial intermediary in Belgium. No UK withholding tax will be due on these dividends.

Where the holder of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares is a Belgian legal entity and no dividend withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) has been levied in Belgium (i.e., in case of payment outside of Belgium without the intervention of a professional intermediary in Belgium), the legal entity is liable to pay itself the 25% Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing).

(b) Capital gains and losses
Individuals

Private investors who are Belgian residents are in principle not subject to Belgian income tax on capital gains realised upon the sale, exchange or other transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares, unless the capital gain is the result of speculation or cannot be considered as the result of normal management of one's private assets (in which case a 33% tax applies plus local surcharges).

Capital losses suffered by private investors upon the disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares are generally not tax deductible.

Individual residents who hold the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares for professional purposes are taxed at the ordinary progressive income tax rates increased by the applicable local surcharge on any capital gains realised upon the disposal of their shares. If the shares were held for at least 5 years, the capital gains tax will be levied at a reduced rate of 16.5%.

Capital gains realised upon redemption of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares or in the case of liquidation may give rise to taxation at a separate rate of 10%.

Companies

Resident companies holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares through a permanent establishment in Belgium, will in principle not be taxed in Belgium with respect to capital gains realised upon disposal of their shares. Capital losses realised by such companies will, as a rule, not be deductible.

In case of liquidation of Barclays, capital losses on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares are, however, tax deductible up to the loss of fiscal capital of Barclays represented by those shares.

Capital gains realised upon redemption of the shares or in the case of liquidation will generally be taxed as a dividend.

Table of Contents

Legal entities

Resident legal entities will, as a rule, not be subject to Belgian capital gains tax on the disposal of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares. Capital losses incurred by resident legal entities upon disposal of the shares are not tax deductible.

Capital gains realised upon redemption of the shares or in the case of liquidation may give rise to taxation at a separate rate of 10%.

13.3.3 United Kingdom Taxation Considerations for Belgian Holders of ABN AMRO Shares

The following summary applies solely to a Belgian holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and, subsequently, the Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays Preference Shares. You will be a Belgian holder only if:

you are not and have not been a citizen of any other jurisdiction (including, without limitation, the UK); or you are not and have not been resident or ordinarily resident for tax purposes in any other jurisdiction (including, without limitation, the UK).

If you are not a Belgian holder, this discussion does not apply to you and you are encouraged to consult with your own tax adviser.

The following is a summary of certain United Kingdom tax consequences relating to the acceptance of the Offer. The comments set out below are based on existing United Kingdom tax law and what is understood to be current HM Revenue and Customs practice as at the date of this Offer Memorandum, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice and relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of Belgian holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and, subsequently, the Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays Preference Shares.

Other than in respect of the matters set forth under the heading Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (SDRT) below, the comments set out below apply only to Belgian holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and, subsequently, the Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays Preference Shares, as an investment and who are the absolute beneficial owners thereof. Certain categories of Belgian holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, insurance companies and collective investment schemes, and Belgian holders who have (or are deemed to have) acquired their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares by virtue of or in connection with an office or employment or Belgian holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who acquire their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares by exercising options, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such Belgian holders. The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of Belgian holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Any Belgian holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Belgium, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

Primary Exchange Disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) shares and receipt of Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

A Belgian holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and subsequently Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange should not be liable to United Kingdom corporation tax on chargeable gains or capital gains tax (CGT) or other tax in the UK in respect of the receipt of the Barclays (Netherlands) shares and subsequent receipt of Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash.

Table of Contents

Alternative Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

A Belgian holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the alternative exchange should not be liable to CGT or other tax in the UK in respect of the alternative exchange.

DR Preference Shares

A Belgian holder of DR Preference Shares who receives cash or Barclays Preference Shares in exchange for his DR Preference Shares should not be liable to CGT or other tax in the UK in respect of the receipt of the cash or Barclays Preference Shares.

Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

A Belgian holder of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who receives cash in exchange for his Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares should not be liable to CGT or other tax in the UK in respect of the receipt of such cash.

Tax Clearances

- (a) Section 707 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988
Belgian holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are advised that clearance under section 707 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 has been obtained from HM Revenue and Customs stating that section 703 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, which provides for the cancellation of a tax advantage arising from certain transactions in securities, will not apply.
- (b) Section 765 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988
Belgian holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are advised that the consent of the Treasury has been obtained in respect of the transaction, that the transaction will not be unlawful under section 765 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

Taxation of dividends in respect of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares

Barclays is not required to withhold at source any amount in respect of United Kingdom tax when paying a dividend on the Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares.

Taxation of capital gains in respect of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares

- (a) Belgian holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares with a permanent establishment or branch or agency in the United Kingdom
A disposal of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares by a Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares who carries on a trade, profession or vocation in the UK through a permanent establishment (where the Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares is a company) or through a branch or agency (where the Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares is not a company) and who has used, held or acquired the Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares for the purposes of such trade, profession or vocation or such permanent establishment, branch or agency (as appropriate) may, depending on the Belgian holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, give rise to a chargeable gain or an allowable loss for the purposes of CGT.
- (b) Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares with no permanent establishment or branch or agency in the United Kingdom.
A Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares who makes a disposal of such Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares and who does not carry on a trade, profession or vocation in the UK through a permanent establishment (where the Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares is a company) or through a branch or agency (where the Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares is not a company) should not be liable to CGT or other tax in the UK.

Table of Contents

Inheritance Tax

Subject to the value of the individual's UK estate, where a Belgian Holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares is an individual, UK inheritance tax may arise in the following circumstances:

- (i) on the death of that individual (depending on the value of the individual's estate); and
- (ii) where that individual makes a gift of such shares (including any transfer at less than full market value). Inheritance tax is not generally chargeable on gifts to individuals made more than seven years before the death of the donor or to spouses.

Subject to limited exclusions, gifts to settlements and to companies may give rise to an immediate inheritance tax charge. Where Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares are held in settlements they may be subject to inheritance tax charges periodically during the continuance of the settlement, on transfers out of the settlement and on certain other events.

Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (SDRT)

The comments set out below relate to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays Preference Shares wherever resident for tax purposes, but not to holders such as market makers, brokers, dealers and intermediaries, to whom special rules may apply.

Primary Exchange

Barclays Ordinary Shares that are issued to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares opting for the Primary Exchange will be issued into Euroclear Nederland via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland.

Subject to certain exemptions, a charge to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on the issue or transfer of Barclays Ordinary Shares to, or to a nominee or agent for, (1) particular persons providing a clearance service or (2) an issuer of depositary receipts. The rate of stamp duty or SDRT will generally be 1.5 percent, of either (x) in the case of an issue of Barclays Ordinary Shares, the issue price of the Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, or (y) in the case of a transfer of Barclays Ordinary Shares, the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer or, in some circumstances, the value of the Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, in the case of stamp duty rounded up if necessary to the nearest multiple of £5.

Barclays will bear the cost of any stamp duty or SDRT that may arise in connection with the Primary Exchange (and only in connection with the Primary Exchange) with respect to the issue of Barclays Ordinary Shares into Euroclear Nederland via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and the initial receipt of the Barclays Ordinary Shares (or interests therein within Euroclear Nederland) by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares before the termination of the closing date of the Offer.

No stamp duty need, in practice, be paid on the acquisition or transfer of interests in Barclays Ordinary Shares within Euroclear Nederland, provided that any instrument of transfer or contract of sale is executed and remains at all times outside the United Kingdom.

An agreement for the transfer of interests in Barclays Ordinary Shares between accountholders of Euroclear Nederland while such Barclays Ordinary Shares are held within Euroclear Nederland will not give rise to a liability to SDRT provided that, at the time the agreement is made, Euroclear Nederland satisfies various conditions laid down in the relevant UK legislation.

Alternative Exchange and DR Preference Shares

Barclays Ordinary Shares issued to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares opting for the Alternative Exchange will be held in CREST or in certificated form and Barclays Preference Shares issued to holders of DR Preference Shares will be held in certificated form, and the following paragraphs proceed on the basis that such Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays Preference Shares are not subsequently transferred to, or to a nominee or agent for, (1) particular persons providing a clearance service or (2) an issuer of depositary receipts.

196

No liability to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on (1) the issue of Barclays Ordinary Shares into CREST or in certificated form or (2) the issue of Barclays Preference Shares in certificated form.

A conveyance or transfer on sale of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares which are not held within a clearance service (such as Euroclear Nederland) will usually be subject to ad valorem stamp duty, generally at the rate of 0.5% of the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer (rounded up to the nearest £5).

An unconditional agreement for such transfer or a conditional agreement which subsequently becomes unconditional will be liable to SDRT, generally at the rate of 0.5% of the consideration for the transfer; but such liability will be cancelled if the agreement is completed by a duly stamped instrument of transfer within six years of the date of the agreement or, if the agreement was conditional, the date the agreement became unconditional. Where the stamp duty is paid, any SDRT previously paid will be repaid on the making of an appropriate claim. Stamp duty and SDRT are normally paid by the purchaser.

Under the CREST system of paperless transfers, no stamp duty or SDRT will arise on a transfer of such Barclays Ordinary Shares into the system, unless such a transfer is made for consideration in money or money's worth, in which case a liability to SDRT will arise (usually at a rate of 0.5% of the amount or value of the consideration given). Paperless transfers of shares within CREST will be liable to SDRT rather than stamp duty, also at a rate of 0.5%, and SDRT on relevant transactions settled within the system or reported through it for regulatory purposes will be collected by CREST.

13.4 French taxation considerations

The following is a summary of certain limited French tax consequences relating to the acceptance of the Offer. The comments set out below are based on existing French tax law, which is subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice and relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

The comments set out below apply only to holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are resident, for tax purposes in (and only in) France. Certain categories of holders, such as individual shareholders who carry out trading operations in conditions similar to a professional, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders. The comments set out below do not apply to holders who own the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares through a permanent establishment or a fixed place of business located outside of France.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside France, should consult their own professional advisers.

13.4.1.1 French entities subject to French corporate income tax

With regard to the exchange of ABN AMRO Shares for Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, under Article 38.7 of the French Code Général des Impôts (French Tax Code), a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange should benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French corporate income tax. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code).

Table of Contents

With regard to the receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, this provision does not apply to a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange in addition to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares if the level of cash exceeds 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received or the total amount of the capital gain made. Thus, this holder would be liable for corporate income tax at the rate of 33¹/₃% on its capital gain (or, if applicable, at the reduced rate of 0% which applies to long term capital gains, subject to a service charge amounting to 5% of the net amount of capital gains to determine the profits taxable under the standard rate) increased by a social security contribution amounting to 3.3% of the corporate tax amount exceeding EUR 763,000 per 12-month period.

However, under Article 38.7 of the French Tax Code a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives cash in addition to New Barclays Ordinary Shares, can benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French corporate income tax for the fraction of the capital gain corresponding to the exchange provided that the cash proportion, which is immediately taxed, is less than the amount of the capital gain and does not exceed 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received. In this case, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code). Filing requirements as provided for by Article 54 septies of the French Tax Code will have to be complied with.

13.4.1.2 French individual shareholders holding the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares as a private investment

With regard to the exchange of ABN AMRO Shares for Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, under Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code, a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange should benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French personal income tax. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code).

With regard to the receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, this provision does not apply to a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange in addition to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares if the level of cash exceeds 10% of the nominal value of the received New Barclays Ordinary Shares. Thus, this holder would be liable for personal income tax at the rate of 16% and for social contributions at the rate of 11% on the capital gain made. However, if the annual amount of the proceeds of sales of securities realised by the members of the taxpayer's household (excluding in particular exempt sales of securities in the context of a securities plan or employee savings plan (PEA or PEE) and exchanges of securities benefiting from the roll over relief provided for by Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code) does not exceed a threshold equal to EUR 20,000 for the taxation of the 2007 income, no personal income tax or social contribution would be due on the capital gains deriving from the Primary Exchange.

However, according to Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code, if the proportion of cash does not exceed 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received, a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange should benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French personal income tax for the total amount of the capital gain. In this case, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code).

The roll over relief expires when the New Barclays Ordinary Shares are sold, redeemed or cancelled.

13.4.2 Alternative Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of cash in addition to New Barclays Ordinary Shares

13.4.2.1 French entities subject to French corporate income tax

A holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives in addition to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares a level of cash exceeding 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received or the total amount of the capital gain pursuant to the Alternative Exchange would be liable for corporate income tax at the rate of 33¹/₃% on its capital gain (or, if applicable, at the reduced rate of 0% which applies to long term capital gains, subject to a service charge amounting to 5% of the net amount of capital gains to determine the profits taxable under the standard rate) increased by a social security contribution amounting to 3.3% of the corporate tax amount exceeding EUR 763,000 per 12-month period.

However, under Article 38.7 of the French Tax Code a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives cash in addition to New Barclays Ordinary Shares, can benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French corporate income tax for the fraction of the capital gain corresponding to the exchange provided that the cash proportion, which is immediately taxed, is less than the amount of the capital gain and does not exceed 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received. In this case, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code). Filing requirements as provided for by Article 54 septies of the French Tax Code will have to be complied with.

A holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives in addition to New Barclays Ordinary Shares a level of cash exceeding 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received pursuant to the Alternative Exchange would be liable for personal income tax at the rate of 16% and for social contributions at the rate of 11% on the capital gain made. However, if the annual amount of the proceeds of sales of securities realised by the members of the taxpayer's household (excluding in particular exempt sales of securities in the context of a securities plan or employee savings plan (PEA or PEE) and exchanges of securities benefiting from the roll over relief provided for by Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code) does not exceed a threshold equal to EUR 20,000 for the taxation of the 2007 income, no personal income tax or social contribution would be due on the capital gains deriving from the Alternative Exchange.

However, according to Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code, if the proportion of cash does not exceed 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received, a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Alternative Exchange should benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French personal income tax for the total amount of the capital gain. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code).

13.4.3 DR Preference Shares

Given the specific nature of the DR Preference Shares and of the Barclays Preference Shares, any holders of such shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, should consult their own professional advisers. That being said, the receipt of Barclays Preference Shares or of cash by a shareholder tendering his DR Preference

13.4.3.1 French entities subject to French corporate income tax

It is debatable whether a holder of DR Preference Shares who receives Barclays Preference Shares should benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French corporate income tax under Article 38.7 of the French Tax Code. If the roll over relief is not applicable, the holder of the DR Preference Shares should be treated as having disposed of his DR Preference Shares and should be liable for corporate income tax as described below.

A holder of DR Preference Shares who receives cash should be treated as disposing of his DR Preference Shares and should be liable for corporate income tax at the rate of 33¹/₃% on his gain (or, if applicable, at the reduced rate of 0% which applies to long term capital gains, subject to a service charge amounting to 5% of the net amount of capital gains to determine the profits taxable under the standard rate) increased by a social security contribution amounting to 3.3% of the corporate tax amount exceeding EUR 763,000 per 12-month period.

13.4.3.2 French individual shareholders holding the DR Preference Shares as a private investment

Under Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code, a holder of DR Preference Shares who receives Barclays Preference Shares may benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French personal income tax. If the roll over relief is not applicable, the holder of the DR Preference Shares should be treated as having disposed of his DR Preference Shares and should be liable for personal income tax as described below.

A holder of DR Preference Shares who receives cash would be treated as disposing of his DR Preference Shares and would be liable for personal income tax at the rate of 16% and for social contributions at the rate of 11%. However, if the annual amount of the proceeds of sales of securities realised by the members of the taxpayer's household (excluding in particular exempt sales of securities in the context of a securities plan or employee savings plan (PEA or PEE) and exchanges of securities benefiting from the roll over relief provided for by Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code) does not exceed a threshold equal to EUR 20,000 for the taxation of the 2007 income, no personal income tax or social contribution would be due on the capital gains deriving from the disposal of the DR Preference Shares.

A shareholder tendering his Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares for cash under the Offer should be treated as follows:

13.4.4.1 French entities subject to French corporate income tax

A holder of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who receives cash would be treated as disposing of his Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and would be liable for corporate income tax at the rate of 33¹/₃% (or, if applicable, at the reduced rate of 0% which applies to long term capital gains, subject to a service charge amounting to 5% of the net amount of capital gains to determine the profits taxable under the standard rate) increased by a social security contribution amounting to 3.3% of the corporate tax amount exceeding EUR 763,000 per 12-month period.

13.4.4.2 French individual shareholders holding the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares as a private investment

A holder of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who receives cash would be treated as disposing of his Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares and would be liable for personal income tax at the rate of 16% and for social contributions at the rate of 11%. However, if the annual amount of the proceeds of sales of securities realised by the members of the taxpayer's household (excluding in particular exempt sales of securities in the context of a securities plan or employee savings plan (PEA or PEE) and exchanges of securities benefiting from the roll over relief provided for by Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code) does not exceed a threshold equal to EUR 20,000 for the taxation of the 2007 income, no personal income tax or social contribution would be due on the capital gains deriving from the disposal of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

13.4.5 Fractional entitlements

Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, Barclays (Netherlands) Shares or DR Preference Shares who receive cash in the case of rounding down of their entitlement to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or the Barclays Preference Shares will be subject to French corporate income tax or to French personal income tax on the gain corresponding to the amount of cash received (see above paragraph 0 for a description of the corporate income tax and personal income tax rules).

13.5 Swiss taxation considerations

The following is a summary of the taxation consequences of acceptance of the offer to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and/or ABN AMRO Formerly Convertible Preference Shares under the laws of Switzerland as at the date of the offer. The summary is general in nature, does not take into account the specific circumstances of any shareholder and should not be relied upon by any shareholder. Accordingly, shareholders should obtain their own independent advice as to the taxation consequences of accepting the offer made, taking into account their own specific circumstances, before deciding whether to accept the offer.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and/or ABN AMRO Formerly Convertible Preference Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Switzerland, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

13.5.1 Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and subsequent receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash(a) Exchange of shares

In respect of a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is an individual resident in Switzerland who holds the shares as part of his private property, the exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not lead to any taxable income. However, in case a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receive a cash consideration of more than 50% of the total consideration such cash consideration might lead to taxable income. In the case that ABN AMRO will be legally merged into a legal entity of Barclays (i.e. ABN AMRO will not continue to exist as a legal entity within the Barclays Group) within five years after the transfer of shares, then any achieved increase of nominal (par) value and a cash consideration might be regarded as taxable income subject to the ordinary income tax. However, the tax treatment may differ from canton to canton.

The exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will be tax neutral for Swiss resident corporations, Swiss resident individuals and non-Swiss resident individuals and corporations that hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares as part of their Swiss business assets, provided that the exchange of shares is recorded as no gain and no loss in the accounts of the shareholder. However, in principle the receipt of cash must be treated as taxable disposal.

(b) Federal Stamp Tax

The exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not lead to any Federal stamp tax.

However, in case a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receives a cash consideration of more than 50% of the total consideration such consideration might give rise to Swiss Federal stamp tax at a maximum of 0.15% of the total consideration if the purchase or sale occurs through or with a Swiss securities dealer as defined in the Swiss Federal Stamp Tax Act, e.g. a Swiss bank, and if no exemption applies.

Table of Contents13.5.2 Alternative Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash*(a) Exchange of shares

In respect of a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is an individual resident in Switzerland who holds the shares as part of his private property, the exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares will not lead to any taxable income. However, in case a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receive a cash consideration of more than 50% of the total consideration such cash consideration might lead to taxable income. In the case that ABN AMRO will not be legally merged into a legal entity of Barclays (i.e. ABN AMRO will not continue to exist as a legal entity within the Barclays Group) within five years after the transfer of shares, then any achieved increase of nominal (par) value may and a cash consideration might be regarded as taxable income subject to the ordinary income tax. However, the tax treatment may differ from canton to canton.

The exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash will be tax neutral for Swiss resident corporations, Swiss resident individuals and non-Swiss resident individuals and corporations that hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares as part of their Swiss business assets, provided that the exchange of shares is recorded as no gain and no loss in the accounts of the shareholder. However, in principle the receipt of cash must be treated as taxable disposal.

(b) Federal Stamp Tax

The exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will not lead to any Federal stamp tax.

However, in case a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receives a cash consideration of more than 50% of the total consideration such consideration might give rise to Swiss Federal stamp tax at a maximum of 0.15% of the total consideration if the purchase or sale occurs through or with a Swiss securities dealer as defined in the Swiss Federal Stamp Tax Act, e.g. a Swiss bank, and if no exemption applies.

13.5.3 Transfer of DR Preference Shares in consideration for (i) receipt of Barclays Preference Shares or (ii) cash compensation(a) Transfer of shares against (i) the receipt of Barclays Preference Shares

In respect of a holder of DR Preference Shares who is an individual resident in Switzerland who holds the shares as part of his private property, the exchange of DR Preference Shares for Barclays Preference Shares will not lead to any taxable income. In the case that ABN AMRO will be legally merged into a legal entity of Barclays (i.e. ABN AMRO will not continue to exist as a legal entity within the Barclays Group) within five years after the transfer of shares, then any achieved increase of the nominal (par) value may be regarded as taxable income subject to the ordinary income tax. However, the tax treatment may differ from canton to canton.

The exchange of DR Preference Shares for Barclays Preference Shares will be tax neutral for Swiss resident corporations, Swiss resident individuals and non-Swiss resident individuals and corporations that hold the DR Preference Shares as part of their Swiss business assets, provided that the exchange of shares is recorded as no gain and no loss in the accounts of the shareholder.

(b) Transfer of shares against (ii) the receipt of cash

In respect of a holder of DR Preference Shares who is an individual resident in Switzerland who holds the shares as part of his private property, the disposal of the DR Preference Shares in exchange for cash will not lead to any taxable income. In the case that ABN AMRO will be legally merged into a legal entity of Barclays (i.e. ABN AMRO will not continue to exist as a legal entity within the Barclays Group) within five years after sale of shares, then the difference between the nominal (par) value and the sales price of the shares constitute taxable income subject to the ordinary income tax. Special rules might apply in the (unlikely) case that individual shareholders (who hold their shares as part of their private property) dispose in total more than 20% of the total share capital of ABN AMRO in exchange for cash (so-called indirect partial liquidation).

The disposal of DR Preference Shares in exchange for cash by Swiss resident corporations, Swiss resident individuals and non-Swiss resident individuals and corporations that hold the DR Preference Shares as part of their Swiss business assets, must be treated as a taxable disposal. The taxable gain is basically the difference between the cash received and the tax/book value of the shares in the accounts of the shareholder.

(c) Federal Stamp Tax

The exchange of DR Preference Shares for (i) Barclays Preference Shares will not lead to any Federal stamp tax.

The disposal of the DR Preference Shares in return for (ii) a cash payment will give rise to Swiss Federal stamp tax at a maximum of 0.15% of the consideration if the purchase or sale occurs through or with a Swiss securities dealer as defined in the Swiss Federal Stamp Tax Act, e.g. a Swiss bank, and if no exemption applies.

13.5.4 Transfer of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in consideration for receipt of cash

(a) The transfer of shares

In respect of a holder of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who is an individual resident in Switzerland who holds the shares as part of his private property, the disposal of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in exchange for cash will not lead to any taxable income. In the case that ABN AMRO will be legally merged into a legal entity of Barclays (i.e. ABN AMRO will not continue to exist as a legal entity within the Barclays Group) within five years after sale of shares, then the difference between the nominal (par) value and the sales price of the shares constitute taxable income subject to the ordinary income tax. Special rules might apply in the (unlikely) case that individual shareholders (who hold their shares as part of their private property) dispose in total more than 20% of the total share capital of ABN AMRO in exchange for cash (so-called indirect partial liquidation).

The disposal of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in exchange for cash by Swiss resident corporations, Swiss resident individuals and non-Swiss resident individuals and corporations that hold the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares as part of their Swiss business assets, must be treated as a taxable disposal. The taxable gain is basically the difference between the cash received and the tax/book value of the shares in the accounts of the shareholder.

(b) Federal Stamp Tax

The disposal of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares in return for a cash payment will give rise to Swiss Federal stamp tax at a maximum of 0.15% of the consideration if the purchase or sale occurs through or with a Swiss securities dealer as defined in the Swiss Federal Stamp Tax Act, e.g. a Swiss bank, and if no exemption applies.

13.6 Luxembourg taxation considerations

13.6.1 General

The comments set out below are based on existing Luxembourg income tax law and what is understood to be current Luxembourg tax authorities practice as at the date of this Offer Memorandum, which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide to the Luxembourg income tax regime applicable to an exchange of shares only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice, and apply only to holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are resident for tax purposes in Luxembourg, who hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares as an investment and who are the absolute beneficial owners thereof. Certain categories of holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, collective investment schemes or Luxembourg investors benefiting from a specific tax regime may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders. The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the income tax treatment of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, DR Preference Shares and Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares who are in any doubt about their individual and corporate income tax position, or who are residents or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Luxembourg, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

13.6.2.1 Step 1: exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares against Barclays (Netherlands) shares.

(a) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

The roll-over provisions upon this transaction might apply further to conditions as mentioned in section 13.6.2.2.(a) as Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their private patrimony, do receive shares of the company that benefits from the contribution.

Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their private patrimony, transfer their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) and they receive in exchange Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

Consequently, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony are not subject to taxation unless they qualify as speculation gains (as described under section 13.6.2.1 (a)(i) below the Speculation Gains) or capital gains on a substantial shareholding (as described under section 13.6.2.1 (a)(ii) below the Substantial Shareholding).

(i) Speculation gains

Pursuant to article 99 bis of the Luxembourg income tax law (LITL), a gain is treated as a Speculation Gain when a shareholding (e.g. a shareholding in ABN AMRO) is sold by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony within a 6 month-period after the acquisition of such shareholding. Such Speculation Gains are subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38% plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38.95%). The taxable capital gain is also liable to a 1.4% dependency contribution.

No taxation will arise if the total amount of capital gains (i.e. Speculation Gains) realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony over the year is less than EUR 500. For the years 2002-2007, a 10-years allowance of EUR 50,000 (doubled for married couple) is granted (this allowance is however shared by all the capital gains done in the 10 years framework and benefiting from this provision).

(ii) Substantial Shareholding

If the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are sold more than six months after their acquisition by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony, capital gains realised on the sale of such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will be taxable only if the Luxembourg resident individual holds a Substantial Shareholding according to article 100 LITL.

A shareholding is considered as a Substantial Shareholding when a Luxembourg resident individual, jointly with his spouse and minor children, holds or has held, directly or indirectly at any time during the five year period prior to the date of the sale, more than 10% of the share capital of ABN AMRO. Capital gains realised on a Substantial Shareholding are subject to income tax at the half global rate (up to a maximum of 19%, plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 19.475%). The same rule applies to the sale of convertible loans, when the Luxembourg resident individual holds a Substantial Shareholding in the company that issued the convertible loans. A 10-years allowance of EUR 50,000 (doubled for married couple) is granted (this allowance is however shared by all the capital gains done in the 10 years framework and benefiting from this provision). The taxable capital gain is also liable to a 1.4% dependency contribution.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

The roll-over provisions upon this transaction might apply further to conditions as mentioned in section 13.6.2.2.(b) as Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their professional patrimony, do receive shares of the company that benefits from the contribution.

Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their professional patrimony, transfer their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) and they receive in exchange Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

Consequently, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his professional patrimony are subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38%, plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38.95%). The taxable capital gain is also subject to social security provisions.

In the situation where the roll-over provisions of article 22 bis LITL are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

(c) Luxembourg resident corporations

The roll-over provisions upon this transaction might apply further to Conditions as mentioned in section 13.6.2.2.(c) as the Luxembourg resident corporate shareholders (i.e. joint-stock companies) do receive shares of the company that benefits from the contribution.

Luxembourg corporate shareholders (i.e. joint-stock companies) transfer their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) and they receive in exchange Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

Consequently, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident corporate shareholder (i.e. joint-stock company) are, in principle, fully subject to corporate income tax and municipal business tax at the aggregate rate of 29.63% (for corporations established in Luxembourg-City) except if the conditions for the application of participation exemption provided for by the Grand-Duchy Decree of 21 December 2001 are complied with (the Participation Exemption Regime):

- (i) the Luxembourg resident corporation (i.e. joint-stock company) which holds the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares is a fully taxable company;
- (ii) the subsidiary of the Luxembourg resident corporation (i.e. ABN AMRO) is a company falling within the scope of the EU Parent/ Subsidiary Directive dated 23 July 1990 as amended by the Directive dated 22 December 2003 (90/435/ EC);
- (iii) at the date of the disposal, the Luxembourg resident corporation holds or commits to hold, during an uninterrupted period of at least 12 months, a direct participation in ABN AMRO of at least 10% or whose acquisition price is at least EUR 6,000,000.

Same tax treatment is applicable if the Luxembourg shareholder is a Luxembourg permanent establishment of an EU resident company within the meaning of the EU Parent/ Subsidiary Directive dated 23 July 1990 as amended by the Directive dated 22 December 2003 (90/435/ EC), or a Luxembourg permanent establishment of a corporation (i.e. joint-stock company) resident of a State with which Luxembourg has signed a double taxation treaty.

The tax exempt amount of a capital gain realised on a qualifying participation is, however, reduced by the amount of any expenses related to the participation, including decreases in the acquisition cost, that have previously reduced the company's Luxembourg taxable income.

In the situation where the roll-over provisions of article 22 bis LITL or the Participation Exemption Regime are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

13.6.2.2 Step 2: exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) shares against cash and/or New Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered pursuant to the Offer.

(a) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

As Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their private patrimony, directly exchange their Barclays (Netherlands) shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares (i.e. they receive shares from the company which benefit from the contribution), the roll-over provisions may apply. Indeed, article 102 (10) LITL provides that capital gains arising in case of an exchange of shares could benefit from a roll-over provision if:

- (i) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) is a corporation fully subject to a tax comparable to the Luxembourg corporate income tax (i.e. comparable taxable basis and a minimum tax of 11%) or a company falling within the scope of the EU Directive on mergers, divisions, transfer of assets and exchange of shares dated 23 July 1990 (90/434/ EC);
- (ii) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) acquires the majority of the voting rights in Barclays (Netherlands);
- (iii) the Luxembourg Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder does not receive a cash amount (soulte) which is more than 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange.

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of a Luxembourg resident individual Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder (previously ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder) to the extent such shareholder has not given up the benefit of the roll-over provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

To the extent that condition 13.6.2.2.(a)(iii) above is not complied with (i.e. in case the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange), the rollover provisions will not apply to the exchange and capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony will be taxable if they qualify as Speculation Gains or capital gains on a Substantial Shareholding.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

As Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their professional patrimony, directly exchange their Barclays (Netherlands) shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares (i.e. they receive shares from the company which benefit from the contribution) the roll-over provisions may apply. Indeed, article 22 bis LITL provides that capital gains arising upon an exchange of shares could benefit from a roll-over provision if:

- (i) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) is a corporation (i.e. joint-stock company) fully subject to a tax comparable to the Luxembourg corporate income tax (i.e. comparable taxable basis and a minimum tax of 11%) or a company falling within the scope of the EU Directive on mergers, divisions, transfer of assets and exchange of shares dated 23 July 1990 (90/434/ EC);

Table of Contents

- (ii) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) acquires the majority of the voting rights in Barclays (Netherlands);
- (iii) the Luxembourg Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder does not receive a cash amount (soulte) which is more than 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange.

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of the Luxembourg resident individual Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder (previously ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder) to the extent such shareholder has not given up the benefit of the roll-over provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

To the extent that condition 13.6.2.2.(b)(iii) above is not complied with (i.e. in case the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange, the rollover provisions will not apply to the exchange and capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his professional patrimony will be subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38%, plus the social unemployment contribution of 2,5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38,95%), The taxable gain is also subject to social security provisions.

Regarding Luxembourg resident corporations (i.e. joint-stock companies), article 22 bis LITL provides that capital gains arising upon an exchange of shares could benefit from a roll-over provision if:

- (i) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) is a corporation (i.e. joint-stock company) fully subject to a tax comparable to the Luxembourg corporate income tax (i.e. comparable taxable basis and a minimum tax of 11%) or a company falling within the scope of the EU Directive on mergers, divisions, transfer of assets and exchange of shares dated 23 July 1990 (90/434/ EC);
- (ii) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) acquires the majority of the voting rights in Barclays (Netherlands);
- (iii) the Luxembourg Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder does not receive a cash amount (soulte) which is more than 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange.

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of the Luxembourg resident corporate Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder (previously ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder) to the extent such shareholder has not given up the benefit of the roll-over provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

Expenses in direct connection with the participation contributed are subject to claw back and should be reported to the participation received by Luxembourg resident corporation.

If the conditions of article 22 bis LITL as described above are not complied with (for instance, if condition 13.6.2.2(c)(iii) above is not fulfilled and the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange) and a capital gain is discovered, the latter is in principle fully subject to corporate income tax and municipal business tax at the aggregate rate of 29.63% (for corporations established in Luxembourg-City) except if the conditions for the application of the Participation Exemption Regime are met. In practice, the Participation Exemption Regime should not be applicable since the condition of 12 months holding period should not be complied with.

13.6.3 Alternative Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and receipt of cash and/or New Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered pursuant to the Offer

Under certain conditions, Luxembourg roll-over provisions should be available to a Luxembourg ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder (whether an individual or a corporation) who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued by Barclays (see section 13.6.2.2 above).

If the roll-over provisions are not applicable to the exchange of shares or the Luxembourg ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder has given up the benefit of the roll-over provisions, capital gains arising upon the exchange of shares could be taxable in the hands of the relevant Luxembourg ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder except if the Participation Exemption Regime for corporations applies.

13.6.3.1 Exchange of New Barclays Ordinary Shares against ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares with the benefit of roll-over provisions

(a) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

If a Luxembourg resident individual holds ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the context of its private patrimony, article 102 (10) LITL provides that capital gains arising in case of an exchange of shares could benefit from a roll-over provision if conditions described under section 13.6.2.2.(a) above are complied with (however, if condition 13.6.2.2.(a)(iii) described above is not fulfilled as the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange, please refer to section 13.6.3.2.(a)).

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of a Luxembourg resident individual ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder to the extent such shareholder has not given up the benefit of the roll-over provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

If a Luxembourg resident individual holds ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the context of his professional patrimony, article 22 bis LITL provides that capital gains arising upon an exchange of shares could benefit from a roll-over provision if conditions described under section 13.6.2.2.(b) above are complied with (however, if condition 13.6.2.2.(b)(iii) described above is not fulfilled as the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange, please refer to section 13.6.3.2.(b) below).

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of the Luxembourg resident individual ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder to the extent such shareholder has not given up the benefit of the roll-over provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

(c) Luxembourg resident corporations

Regarding Luxembourg resident corporations (i.e. joint-stock companies), article 22 bis LITL provides that capital gains arising upon an exchange of shares could benefit from a roll-over provision if conditions described under section 13.6.2.2.(c) above are complied with (however, if condition 13.6.2.2(c)(iii) described above is not fulfilled as the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange, please refer to section 13.6.3.2(c) below).

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of the Luxembourg resident corporate ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder (i.e. joint-stock company) to the extent it has not given up the benefit of the roll-over provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

Expenses in direct connection with the participation contributed are subject to claw back and should be reported to the participation received by Luxembourg resident corporation.

13.6.3.2 Exchange of New Barclays Ordinary Shares against ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares without the benefit of roll-over provisions

For a Luxembourg ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who cannot benefit from roll-over provisions or who has given up the benefit of such provisions, capital gains realised at the date of the exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares could be subject to taxation.

(a) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

Capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony are not subject to taxation unless they qualify as Speculation Gains or capital gains on a Substantial Shareholding.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

Capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his professional patrimony are subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38%, plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38.95%). The taxable capital gain is also subject to social security provisions.

In the situation where the roll-over provisions of article 22 bis LITL are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

(c) Luxembourg resident corporations

Capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident corporate shareholder (i.e. joint-stock company) are, in principle, fully subject to corporate income tax and municipal business tax at the aggregate rate of 29.63% (for corporations established in Luxembourg-City).

However, capital gains realised on ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares could be exempt for corporate income tax and municipal business tax if the conditions for the application of the Participation Exemption Regime are met.

The tax exempt amount of a capital gain realised on a qualifying participation is, however, reduced by the amount of any expenses related to the participation, including decreases in the acquisition cost, that have previously reduced the company's Luxembourg taxable income.

In the situation where the roll-over provisions of article 22 bis LITL or the Participation Exemption Regime are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

13.6.4 DR Preference Shares Luxembourg resident shareholders exchange their DR Preference Shares against either Barclays Preference Shares or cash for each DR Preference Share tendered pursuant to the Offer

13.6.4.1 Exchange of DR Preference Shares against Barclays Preference Shares with the benefit of roll-over provisions

209

(a) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

As Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their private patrimony, directly exchange their DR Preference Shares against Barclays Preference Shares, the roll-over provisions may apply if the conditions to benefit from such provisions as described under section 13.6.2.2(a) above are complied with.

In case DR Preference Shares do not qualify as shares in the meaning of article 102 (10) LITL, the roll-over provisions should not apply.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

As Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their professional patrimony, directly exchange their DR Preference Shares against Barclays Preference Shares, the roll-over provisions may apply if the conditions to benefit from such provisions as described under section 13.6.2.2(b) above are complied with.

In case DR Preference Shares do not qualify as shares in the meaning of article 22 bis LITL, the roll-over provisions should not apply.

(c) Luxembourg resident corporations

As Luxembourg corporate shareholders (i.e. joint-stock companies) directly exchange their DR Preference Shares against Barclays Preference Shares, the roll-over provisions may apply if the conditions to benefit from such provisions as described under section 13.6.2.2(c) above are complied with.

In case DR Preference Shares do not qualify as shares in the meaning of article 22 bis LITL, the roll-over provisions should not apply.

13.6.4.2 Exchange of DR Preference Shares against Barclays Preference Shares without the benefit of roll-over provisions

For a Luxembourg DR Preference Shares shareholder (individual or corporation) who cannot benefit from roll-over provisions (i.e. if the conditions set out under section 13.6.2.2 above are not complied with or in case the DR Preference Shares are exchanged for cash) or who has given up the benefit of such provisions, capital gains realised at the date of the exchange of DR Preference Shares may be subject to taxation as follows.

(a) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

Capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony on the DR Preference Shares (whether they qualify as shares or not according to the Luxembourg tax law) are not subject to taxation unless they qualify as Speculation Gains or capital gains on a Substantial Shareholding.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

Capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his professional patrimony on the DR Preference Shares (whether they qualify as shares or not according to the Luxembourg tax law) are subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38%, plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38.95%). The taxable capital gain is also subject to social security provisions.

In the situation where the roll-over provisions of article 22 bis LITL are not applicable, a tax deferral could under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

(c) Luxembourg resident corporations

Capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident corporate shareholder (i.e. joint-stock company) are, in principle, fully subject to corporate income tax and municipal business tax at the aggregate rate of 29.63% (for corporations established in Luxembourg-City) except if the DR Preference Shares qualify as shares according to the Luxembourg tax law and if the conditions for the application of the Participation Exemption Regime are complied with.

The tax exempt amount of a capital gain realised on a qualifying participation is, however, reduced by the amount of any expenses related to the participation, including decreases in the acquisition cost, that have previously reduced the company's Luxembourg taxable income.

In the situation where the roll-over provisions of article 22 bis LITL or the Participation Exemption Regime are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

13.6.5 Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares Luxembourg resident shareholders tendering their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares exchange cash for each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares tendered pursuant to the offer.

(a) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

The roll-over provisions upon this transaction should not apply as Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their private patrimony, receive cash in exchange of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Consequently, whether the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares qualify as shares or not according to the Luxembourg tax law, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony are not subject to taxation unless they qualify as Speculation Gains or capital gains on a Substantial Shareholding.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

The roll-over provisions upon this transaction should not apply as Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their professional patrimony, receive cash in exchange of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Consequently, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his professional patrimony on the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares (whether they qualify as shares or not according to the Luxembourg tax law) are subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38%, plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38.95%). The taxable capital gain is also subject to social security provisions.

In the situation where the roll-over provisions of article 22 bis LITL are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

(c) Luxembourg resident corporations

The roll-over provisions upon this transaction should not apply as the Luxembourg corporate shareholders (i.e. joint-stock companies) receive cash in exchange of Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Consequently, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident corporate shareholder (i.e. joint-stock company) are, in principle, fully subject to corporate income tax and municipal business tax at the aggregate rate of 29.63% (for corporations established in Luxembourg-City) except if the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares qualify as shares according to the Luxembourg tax law and if the conditions for the application of the Participation Exemption Regime are complied with. In the latter case, the tax exempt amount of a capital gain realised on a qualifying participation is, however, reduced by the amount of any expenses related to the participation, including decreases in the acquisition cost, that have previously reduced the company's Luxembourg taxable income.

In the situation where the roll-over provisions of article 22 bis LITL or the Participation Exemption Regime are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

ABN AMRO AND BARCLAYS ANNOUNCE AGREEMENT ON TERMS OF MERGER

The Managing Board and Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO) and the Board of Directors of Barclays PLC (Barclays) jointly announce that agreement has been reached on the combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays. Each of the Boards has unanimously resolved to recommend the transaction to its respective shareholders. The holding company of the combined group will be called Barclays PLC.

The proposed merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create a strong and competitive combination for its clients with superior products and extensive distribution. The merged group is expected to generate significant and sustained future incremental earnings growth for shareholders.

The combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays will benefit from a diversified customer base and geographic mix. The proposed merger will create:

A leading force in global retail and commercial banking, with world class products:

47 million customers, approximately 90 percent of whom are in seven key markets

One of the world's leading transaction banking platforms offering world class payment and trade finance solutions

A top five card issuer outside the US with approximately 27m cards.

A premier global investment bank that is a leader in risk management and financing with an enhanced product offering across a broader geographical footprint

The world's largest institutional asset manager, with enhanced retail distribution capabilities and complementary products ensuring delivery of world class products and services to a wider customer base

The world's eighth largest wealth manager, with a leading European onshore franchise and highly attractive positions in growth markets

Merger Highlights

The proposed merger will be implemented through an exchange offer pursuant to which ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will receive 3.225 ordinary shares in Barclays (New Barclays Shares) for each existing ABN AMRO ordinary share (the Offer). Under the terms of the Offer, Barclays existing ordinary shareholders will own approximately 52 percent and ABN AMRO existing ordinary shareholders will own approximately 48 percent of the combined group

Based on the share price of Barclays ordinary shares on 20 April 2007, the Offer values each ABN AMRO ordinary share at 36.25 taking into account that ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will be entitled to receive the declared 0.60 2006 final dividend. In addition, depending on the timetable to completion, ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will also benefit from Barclays 2007 final dividend, which has a greater final dividend to total dividend weighting than ABN AMRO. The implied value of the Offer represents a premium for ABN AMRO shareholders of approximately:

33 percent to the share price of ABN AMRO ordinary shares on 16 March 2007, the last trading day prior to the announcement that ABN AMRO and Barclays were in talks 49 percent over the average share price of ABN AMRO ordinary shares in the 6 months up to and including to 16 March 2007

The combined group will have a UK corporate governance structure with a unitary Board. Arthur Martinez will be the Chairman, John Varley will be the Chief Executive Officer, and Bob Diamond will be President. The new board will initially consist of 10 members from Barclays and 9 members from ABN AMRO

Barclays will be the holding company for the combined group. The UK Financial Services Authority (FSA) and De Nederlandsche Bank (DNB) have agreed that the FSA will be the lead supervisor of the combined group

The head office of the combined group will be located in Amsterdam

ABN AMRO and Barclays estimate that the combination will result in annual pre-tax synergies of approximately 3.5bn by 2010, approximately 80 percent of which is expected to result from cost synergies and the remainder from revenue benefits. Capturing the expected synergies will assist the management of the combined group in achieving top quartile cost:income ratios across all businesses by 2010

Bank of America Corp has today agreed to acquire LaSalle Bank Corporation (LaSalle) for US$21 billion and is expected to complete this acquisition before completion of the Offer. The completion of the sale of LaSalle is a condition of the Offer. Taking into account the excess capital released by the sale of LaSalle approximately 12 billion is expected to be distributed to the shareholders of the combined group in a tax efficient form primarily through buy backs after completion of the Offer. The full value of the sale of LaSalle on these terms is reflected in the exchange ratio of the proposed merger. The combined group will continue to be a leading franchise in investment banking and investment management in the US. The combined group will continue to explore opportunities to develop its existing US businesses

It is expected that the proposed merger will lead to significant accretion in ABN AMRO s 2008 cash earnings per share for accepting ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders and is expected to be 5 percent accretive to Barclays cash earnings per share in 2010. The Board of Barclays expects that the return on investment will be approximately 13 percent in 2010.

The proposed merger is expected to complete during the fourth quarter of 2007

Current Trading

On 16 April 2007, ABN AMRO issued a trading statement announcing a strong improvement in the operating result, leading to a 30 percent increase in earnings per share from continuing operations compared to the first quarter of 2006. Barclays profit before tax for the first quarter of 2007 was 15 percent ahead of the first quarter of 2006. Excluding gains from the sale and leaseback of property, profit before tax grew 10 percent Performance was particularly strong at Barclays Capital which had its best quarter ever. Barclays expects to announce its customary trading update on 24 May 2007.

Rijkman Groenink, the Chairman of the Managing Board of ABN AMRO, said:

This proposed merger fits well with our strategic objective to provide significant and sustained value for our shareholders. We believe that merging with Barclays will unite our significant complementary strengths and create long-term value for our shareholders. I am excited about the opportunities this merger brings and look forward to the next phase of ABN AMRO s future.

John Varley, the CEO of Barclays, said:

This proposed merger represents a unique opportunity to create a new competitive force in financial services, which will deliver benefits for our customers and clients and generate sustained growth and additional value for our owners. The proposed merger will significantly enhance stand-alone product development capabilities and distribution. Our combined geographic reach will ensure exposure to both developed and high growth developing economies.

The Managing Board and Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO consider that the Offer is in the best interests of ABN AMRO and all of its shareholders and have each unanimously resolved to recommend the Offer for acceptance by the shareholders of ABN AMRO.

ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (Corporate Finance), Lehman Brothers Europe Limited, Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited, N M Rothschild & Sons Limited and UBS Limited are acting as financial advisers to the Managing Board of ABN AMRO. Morgan Stanley & Co Limited and UBS Limited have each provided a fairness opinion to the Managing Board of ABN AMRO. Goldman Sachs International has provided a fairness opinion to the Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO.

The Board of Barclays, which has received financial advice from Barclays Capital, Citi, Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank, JPMorgan Cazenove and Lazard (collectively, the Barclays Advisers) considers that the terms of the Offer are fair and reasonable. In providing their advice to the Board, the Barclays Advisers have relied upon the Board's commercial assessment of the Offer.

The Board of Barclays also considers the resolutions to be proposed in connection with the Offer to be in the best interests of Barclays and Barclays shareholders as a whole. Accordingly, the Board has resolved unanimously to recommend that Barclays shareholders vote in favour of such resolutions.

1. Compelling Strategic Rationale

The proposed combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create one of the world's leading universal banks. Both ABN AMRO and Barclays operate in a sector which is still fragmented in comparison to other global industries. Universal banking is the model best equipped for success in an industry where customer needs are converging and where demand-led growth will be significant across the globe. Harmonisation of customer needs is already well advanced in investment banking and investment management and is increasingly apparent in retail and commercial banking.

The proposed merger brings together two sets of high quality product capabilities and brands, which are well placed to create growth for shareholders from the relationship extension opportunities that exist in a combined base of 46 million personal and 1.4 million commercial customers.

The combined group will have a simple and transparent management structure. The management team will be clearly accountable for delivering sustained incremental earnings growth and value for shareholders by leading strong performance from the underlying businesses and by capturing the substantial synergies made available by the merger. There will be two principal business groupings within the combined group, Global Retail and Commercial Banking (GRCB) and Investment Banking and Investment Management (IBIM). GRCB will be led by Frits Seegers, currently CEO of GRCB in Barclays. IBIM will be led by Bob Diamond, Barclays Group President.

ABN AMRO and Barclays bring together two sets of highly complementary geographies. Approximately 90 percent of the combined group's branches will be in seven countries. In Europe the combination will have leading franchises in the UK and the Netherlands and attractive positions in the Italian, Spanish and Portuguese markets. Additionally, the combination will have significant exposure to the high growth developing economies of Brazil and South Africa offering substantial revenue and profit growth opportunities. The combined group will also leverage on ABN AMRO's fast growing Asian business.

Customers will benefit from the enhanced product capabilities of the combined group drawing on, for example, ABN AMRO's global cash and payments infrastructure and Barclays expertise in credit cards.

ABN AMRO and Barclays are both recognised leaders in commercial banking. They both have substantial market positions in the mid-market segment. The merger will accelerate Barclays ambition to develop its business banking activities globally. The franchise will be further strengthened by the linkage between a strong investment banking product range and the track record of both ABN AMRO and Barclays in selling investment banking products to mid-market clients across the combined group's broad geographic footprint.

Table of Contents

There is significant opportunity for increased cost efficiency through the optimisation of the operating infrastructure and processes.

INVESTMENT BANKING

The combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays will support the ambition to be the premier global investment bank in risk management and financing through enhanced product expertise and broader geographic exposure. Barclays existing product capabilities will be considerably enhanced, particularly in commodities, FX, equities, M&A, corporate broking, structured credit and private equity and its geographic and client reach will also be extended significantly into Asia, Latin America and Continental Europe. The combined investment bank will operate on the Barclays Capital scaleable platform and will target an alignment to a top quartile cost:income ratio by 2010.

WEALTH MANAGEMENT

The combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create the world's eighth largest wealth manager, with a leading European onshore franchise with leading positions in the Netherlands and UK, a strong European franchise across Germany, Belgium, France and Spain and attractive growing positions in Asia and Brazil. The product development capabilities of the combined asset management business together with an extensive distribution network will allow the merged business to benefit from favourable demographic trends and increasing demand-led client volumes.

ASSET MANAGEMENT

The combined group will be the world's largest institutional asset manager. Barclays Global Investors world leading index-based, exchange traded fund and quantitative active capabilities will be complemented by ABN AMRO's active fundamental based capabilities. There are expanded opportunities for retail distribution of the current product set including BGI's rapidly growing iShares exchange traded funds.

2. Significant Cost Synergies and Revenue Benefits

Potential synergies arising from the combination have been assessed by a joint team from ABN AMRO and Barclays through a detailed bottom up approach involving business leaders from both banks. Capturing the expected synergies will assist the management of the combined group in achieving top quartile cost: income ratios across all businesses by 2010.

Below is a summary of the estimated pre-tax annual cost synergies and revenue benefits that are expected to be realised in the three calendar years commencing 2008.

	m pre tax annual
Cost	870	2,080	2,800
Revenue	(470)		700
Total	400	2,080	3,500

The estimated 2010 annual pre-tax cost synergies are equivalent to approximately 9 percent of 2006 combined group costs excluding LaSalle and revenue benefits are equivalent to approximately 1 percent of combined group revenues excluding La Salle. Of the estimated cost synergies of 2,800m, approximately 57 percent relate to headcount rationalisation; 29 percent are derived from a reduction in IT and telecoms hardware, software and development spend; and the remaining 14 percent is derived from a number of sources including property and discretionary spend.

GLOBAL RETAIL AND COMMERCIAL BANKING

It is estimated that the pre-tax annual cost synergies in retail and commercial banking will be 1,650m in 2010, representing approximately 10 percent of the combined retail and commercial cost base excluding LaSalle. The cost synergies are expected to result from the consolidation of the retail and commercial banking activities into a universal banking model including:

best practice off-shoring, improved procurement and real estate rationalisation

the consolidation of data centres and supporting IT networks 215

the use of ABN AMRO's trade and payments back office operations in the Barclays network and integration of card operations under Barclaycard

the reduction of overlaps in management structures and the retail and commercial operations in the eight overlapping countries.

Revenue benefits are estimated to amount to at least 150m pre-tax in 2010, which is equivalent to 0.5 percent of combined revenues. These are expected to be primarily derived from extending ABN AMRO's broader cash management product offering, increasing ABN AMRO's revenue per credit card towards Barclays comparable levels and realising the network benefits of the increased global market presence.

The estimated annual pre-tax cost synergies in investment banking in 2010 are expected to amount to approximately 850m. Pre tax cost synergies are equivalent to 8 percent of combined costs. The cost synergies are expected to be derived from the integration of the two banks operations onto one operating platform and subsequent reduction of back office staff and non-staff cost.

It is estimated that revenue benefits, net of assumed revenue attrition, in investment banking in 2010 will be 500m pre-tax, equivalent to 3 percent of combined revenues. These benefits are expected to be derived from offering a stronger and broader product set to the combined client base and building on the productivity gains within ABN AMRO's investment banking operations. It is expected that, in addition to the revenue benefits, the combined business will continue to be able to deliver attractive organic growth consistent with Barclays Capital's existing prospects.

It is estimated that further cost synergies of 200m will arise from the rationalisation of the two head offices and approximately 100m will arise from the reduction of overlap in wealth and asset management.

Further revenue benefits of approximately 50m are estimated to arise primarily in the wealth and asset management businesses as a result of the enhanced distribution capabilities of the combined group.

INTEGRATION COSTS

The total pre-tax integration cost of realising the synergy benefits is estimated to be 3,600m of which approximately 2,160m is expected to be incurred in 2008, approximately 1,080m is expected to be incurred in 2009 and approximately 360m is expected to be incurred in 2010. Employee rights will be safeguarded under applicable law and any redundancies will be subject to the applicable process of employee consultation.

OVERVIEW OF HEADCOUNT RATIONALISATION

ABN AMRO and Barclays have identified the possibility of rationalising the number of staff of the combined group through a combination of natural attrition, offshoring and outsourcing as well as redundancies. The rationalisation of headcount is expected to be implemented over 3 years following completion of the Offer.

The reduction in staff is a necessary part of the envisaged synergies from the combination of the two banks. Part of the expected staff reduction will be through establishing shared services and offshoring those positions to low cost locations, such as India where new staff will be recruited at ABN AMRO's existing ACES operations.

It is expected that the combination of Barclays and ABN AMRO will result in a net reduction in staff of approximately 12,800. In addition, it is expected that approximately 10,800 full-time equivalent positions will be offshored to low-cost locations. This will impact a gross total of approximately 23,600 full-time equivalent positions of the combined work force of approximately 220,600. (Barclays has c.126,600 employees, ABN AMRO c.94,000 excluding LaSalle)

ABN AMRO and Barclays are aware of the fact that these measures can have difficult consequences for a number of staff. When it comes to matters affecting our staff, both ABN AMRO and Barclays have a good reputation and are committed to that reputation. ABN AMRO and Barclays will inform and consult with the appropriate employee representative bodies in the relevant countries and will seek all necessary regulatory consents before taking decisions in relation to these anticipated effects of the merger. ABN AMRO and Barclays will honour all agreements with their respective unions.

3. Board Composition

The combined group will have a UK corporate governance structure with a unitary Board. Arthur Martinez will be the Chairman, John Varley will be the CEO and Bob Diamond will be the President. Marcus Agius will become Deputy Chairman of the combined group and will remain Chairman of Barclays Bank plc. It is intended that he will succeed Arthur Martinez as Chairman of the combined group when Arthur Martinez retires. In addition to the Chairman and Deputy Chairman, there will be 12 nonexecutive directors, with 5 initially nominated by Barclays and 7 initially nominated by ABN AMRO. Rijkman Groenink, the current Chairman of the Managing Board of ABN AMRO will be one of the non-executive directors appointed by ABN AMRO. In addition to the CEO and President, the new Board will include Frits Seegers, Huibert Boumeester, and Chris Lucas as executive directors.

4. Management and Operating Model

The head office of the combined group will be located in Amsterdam. Management of the combined group will be the responsibility of a Group Executive Committee, which will be chaired by the Group CEO and will consist of:

John Varley, Group Chief Executive

Bob Diamond, Group President and CEO of IBIM

Frits Seegers, CEO of GRCB

Piero Overmars, CEO of Continental Europe and Asia, GRCB

Ron Teerlink, Chief Operating Officer of GRCB

Paul Idzik, Group Chief Operating Officer

Chris Lucas, Group Finance Director

Huibert Boumeester, Group Chief Administrative Officer

Wilco Jiskoot will become a Vice Chairman of Barclays Capital with senior responsibility for client relationships. Investment Banking and Investment Management will be headquartered in London and will comprise:

Barclays Capital which will incorporate Barclays Capital and ABN AMRO Global Markets and Global Clients and ABN AMRO Private Equity businesses

Barclays Global Investors and ABN AMRO Asset Management

Wealth Management which will incorporate Barclays Wealth and ABN AMRO Private Clients

Global Retail and Commercial Banking will be headquartered in Amsterdam and will incorporate the retail & commercial banking operations of the combined group, including:

Barclays UK Retail Banking and UK Business Banking, International Retail and Commercial Banking and Barclaycard Operations

ABN AMRO's Transaction Banking, BU Netherlands, BU Europe (ex Global Markets), Antonveneta, BU Latin America and BU Asia

5. Regulation and Tax

The FSA and DNB have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the combined group and that the DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO and Barclays groups respectively. The FSA and DNB will agree the detail of how the close working relationship between them will work to achieve effective supervision of the combined group.

Barclays, which will be the holding company for the combined group, will remain UK incorporated, and is expected to remain UK tax resident.

Table of Contents6. Capital Management and Dividend Policy

ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and Barclays Bank PLC will seek to maintain their strong credit ratings. The combined group will take a disciplined approach to capital optimisation and will target an Equity Tier 1 ratio of 5.75 percent and a Tier 1 ratio of 7.75 percent, which broadly approximate to the current pro forma ratios for the combined group. It has been assumed, for the purpose of estimating financial effects, that excess equity over and above the target Equity Tier 1 ratio after accounting for dividends and organic growth in risk weighted assets would be returned to shareholders by way of share buybacks.

It is expected that the combined group will maintain Barclays and ABN AMRO's progressive dividend policy and that dividends per share will grow approximately in line with earnings per share over the longer term. With the combined group's annual dividend approximately twice covered by cash earnings, the management of the combined group believe that balance between income distribution to shareholders and earnings retention to fund growth is appropriate. It is also expected that the combined group will continue Barclays practice of weighting the annual dividend towards the final dividend to maintain flexibility. It is not expected that the dividends per share in 2008 will be materially different to the dividend Barclays would have expected to distribute to shareholders had the merger not occurred. The combined group will present financial statements in Euro and shareholders will be able to receive dividends in either Sterling or Euro.

7. Terms of the Offer

The Offer values each ABN AMRO ordinary share at 36.25 based on the share price of Barclays ordinary shares on 20 April 2007 taking into account that ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will be entitled to receive the declared 0.60 2006 final dividend. In addition, depending on the timetable to completion, ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will also benefit from Barclays 2007 final dividend, which has a greater final dividend to total dividend weighting than ABN AMRO.

Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain pre-Offer conditions, Barclays will make the Offer to ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders pursuant to which they will receive:

0.80625 New Barclays ADSs for every 1 ABN AMRO ADSs

The total consideration equates to 67 billion and the implied value per ABN AMRO ordinary share represents a price to 2006 reported earnings multiple of 14.2 times and a price to 2006 book multiple of 2.8 times. The Offer represents a premium for ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders of approximately:

33 percent to the share price of ABN AMRO ordinary shares on 16 March 2007, the last trading day prior to the announcement that ABN AMRO and Barclays were in talks

49 percent over the average share price of ABN AMRO ordinary shares in the 6 months up to and including to 16 March 2007

Under the terms of the Offer, existing ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will own approximately 48 percent of the issued ordinary share capital of the combined group and existing Barclays ordinary shareholders would own approximately 52 percent of the issued ordinary share capital of the combined group, assuming all of the ABN AMRO ordinary shares and ADSs currently in issue are tendered under the Offer.

It is expected the proposed merger will lead to significant accretion in ABN AMRO's cash earnings per share for accepting ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders on completion of the Offer. For accepting ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders, dividend income from their ownership of New Barclays Shares would have been 28 percent higher than the dividend income from their ABN AMRO ordinary shares on the basis of ABN AMRO and Barclays 2006 dividends. It is expected that the proposed merger will be 5 percent accretive to Barclays cash earnings per share in 2010. The directors of Barclays expect that the return on investment will be approximately 13 percent in 2010.

Barclays intends to put forward a proposal for all the depository receipts which represent the ABN AMRO convertible financing preference shares consistent with the terms of the prospectus dated 31 August 2004 relating to the ABN AMRO convertible financing preference shares. A cash offer will be made for the issued and outstanding formerly convertible preference shares of 27.65, the closing price on 20 April 2007. The aggregate consideration payable for the formerly convertible preference shares will be in the region of 1.2 million.

Table of Contents

The members of ABN AMRO's Managing Board and Supervisory Board have each agreed to undertake to tender all ABN AMRO ordinary shares held by them under the Offer, such undertakings being revocable jointly with their recommendations.

It is intended that holders of options and awards under ABN AMRO share schemes will be offered the ability to exercise their options or awards or, where practicable, the opportunity to roll their awards over into shares of the combined group subject to certain terms.

8. The New Barclays Shares

Application will be made to the UKLA and the London Stock Exchange (LSE) for the New Barclays Shares to be admitted to the Official List and to trading on the LSE. Barclays will also apply for a secondary listing on Euronext Amsterdam N.V.'s Eurolist by Euronext.

ABN AMRO and Barclays have received confirmation from the FTSE and Euronext that, following the Offer, the ordinary shares of the combined group are expected to qualify for inclusion with a full weighting in the UK Series of the FTSE indices including the FTSE 100 Index and in the AEX-Index (subject to the 15 percent maximum weighting).

It is expected that listing on the LSE will become effective and dealings, for normal settlement, will begin shortly following the date on which Barclays announces that all conditions to the Offer have been satisfied or waived. Listing on Euronext Amsterdam will become effective and dealings, for settlement through Euroclear Nederland, will begin on or around the same date.

It is expected that applications will be made to list the New Barclays Shares and the new Barclays ADSs which represent such New Barclays Shares, on the New York Stock Exchange and also to list the New Barclays Shares on the Tokyo Stock Exchange. Further details on settlement, listing and dealing will be included in the Offer documentation.

The New Barclays Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank pari passu in all respects with existing Barclays ordinary shares and will be entitled to all dividends and other distributions declared or paid by Barclays by reference to a record date on or after completion of the Offer but not otherwise. Barclays pays dividends semi-annually. It is expected that the record date for the interim dividend declared by Barclays in respect of 2007 will be before completion of the Offer. ABN AMRO shareholders are expected to be entitled to receive and retain the ABN AMRO interim dividend in respect of 2007 (expected to be paid on 27 August 2007).

Further details of the rights attaching to the New Barclays Shares and a description of any material differences between the rights attaching to those shares and the ABN AMRO ordinary shares will be set out in the Offer documentation.

9. Sale of LaSalle

Separate to this announcement, ABN AMRO today also announced the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America for US $21 billion in cash. ABN AMRO will retain its North American capital markets activities within its Global Markets unit and Global Clients divisions as well as its US Asset Management business. The sale of LaSalle is expected to be completed in Q4 2007 and is subject to regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions. The agreement with Bank of America permits ABN AMRO to execute a similar agreement for a higher offer for the business for a period of 14 calendar days from 22 April 2007, permits Bank of America to match any higher offer and provides for a termination fee of US$ 200 million payable to Bank of America if the agreement is terminated under certain limited circumstances. The purchase price is subject to certain adjustments linked to the financial performance of LaSalle before the closing of the sale to Bank of America.

The consummation of the sale of LaSalle is an offer condition to the proposed merger. Taking into account the excess capital released by the sale of LaSalle approximately 12 billion is expected to be distributed to the shareholders in a tax efficient form, primarily through buy backs, after completion of the merger.

As at 31 December 2006, LaSalle had more than US $113 billion in tangible assets and a tangible book value of US$9.7 billion, adjusted for businesses retained and the previously announced sale of the mortgage operations unit and presented on a US GAAP basis. For the year ended 31 December 2006, LaSalle, presented on the same basis, had net income of US $1,035 million. On the basis of the above, the purchase price of US $21 billion represents a 2006 price to earnings multiple of 20.3 and a 2006 price to tangible book value multiple of 2.2.

10. The Merger Protocol

The expectation that ABN AMRO and Barclays would reach an agreement on the intended Offer was realised after meetings of the Barclays Board in London and the ABN AMRO Managing Board and Supervisory Board in Amsterdam. Following those meetings, ABN AMRO and Barclays entered into a merger protocol (the Merger Protocol).

The commencement of the Offer is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain pre-Offer conditions customary for transactions of this type and certain other pre-Offer conditions including those summarised in Appendix III. When made, the Offer will be subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain Offer conditions customary for transactions of this type and certain other Offer conditions including those summarised in Appendix III.

The terms of the Merger Protocol restrict ABN AMRO from initiating or encouraging discussions or providing confidential information in relation to any proposal which may form an alternative to the Offer. However, ABN AMRO's Boards may withdraw their recommendation of the Offer if its Boards, acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties to best serve the interests of ABN AMRO and all its stakeholders, determine an alternative offer to be more beneficial than the Offer. ABN AMRO's Boards will not recommend a competing offer unless Barclays has first had the opportunity to make a revised proposal for ABN AMRO.

If the Merger Protocol is terminated as a result of material breach or withdrawal of recommendation then the other party must pay a break fee of 200m. Until such termination no other break fees can be agreed with third parties. The exchange ratio of the Offer will be adjusted to reflect certain capital raisings or capital returns by either party prior to completion of the Offer. Any reduction in the price paid for LaSalle below $21 billion will be treated as a capital return by ABN AMRO and the exchange ratio will be adjusted accordingly.

11. Process and Indicative Timetable

ABN AMRO and Barclays will seek to obtain all necessary regulatory and competition approvals and clearances and will complete all requisite employee consultation and information processes as soon as reasonably possible with a view to receiving the required regulatory, competition and other consents or approvals for the Offer.

As soon as reasonably practicable after the pre-Offer conditions have been satisfied or waived, the transaction documentation will be posted to shareholders, including Offer documentation to ABN AMRO shareholders and a circular to Barclays shareholders seeking approval for the transaction.

If the Offer is declared unconditional, it is intended that ABN AMRO's listings of ordinary shares and formerly convertible preference shares on Eurolist by Euronext Amsterdam N.V. will be terminated as soon as possible. Furthermore, subject to the necessary thresholds being reached, Barclays expects to initiate the squeeze out procedures permitted by law in order to acquire all ABN AMRO shares held by minority shareholders or take such other steps to terminate the listing and/or acquire shares not otherwise acquired by it, including effecting a legal merger if appropriate.

Indicative timetable

July 2007	Publication of Offer documentation, Prospectus and Barclays circular to shareholders
August 2007	Extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders to consider the Offer
September 2007	Extraordinary General Meeting of Barclays shareholders to approve the Offer
Fourth Quarter 2007	Settlement of the Offer

The indicative time table is included for illustrative purposes only and may be subject to change. The timeframe between this announcement and the publication of the Offer documentation is primarily driven by anticipated regulatory requirements.

ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (Corporate Finance), Lehman Brothers Europe Limited, Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited, N M Rothschild & Sons Limited and UBS Limited are acting as financial advisers for ABN AMRO. Goldman Sachs International is acting as exclusive financial adviser to the Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO. Nauta Dutilh N.V., Allen & Overy LLP and Davis Polk & Wardwell are acting as legal advisers to ABN AMRO.

Unquote14.2 30 day Announcement dated 23 May 2007*Quote*BARCLAYS RECOMMENDED MERGER WITH ABN AMRO 30 DAY ANNOUNCEMENT

This announcement is being made pursuant to Dutch securities laws governing the Offer, more specifically article 9g paragraph 1 under a of the Dutch Securities Market Supervision Decree (Besluit toezicht effectenverkeer 1995). In accordance with this article, within 30 calendar days after the announcement that was made by Barclays and ABN AMRO on 23 April 2007, an announcement must be made in order to update investors on the Offer.

Further to the announcement of 23 April 2007, outlining the terms of the agreed merger between Barclays PLC (Barclays) and ABN AMRO Holding N.V, (ABN AMRO), Barclays and ABN AMRO today announce that they are making excellent progress with the key regulatory filings required to proceed with Barclays offer to ABN AMRO shareholders (the Offer) and expect to publish Offer documentation in July.

Each of the Boards of ABN AMRO and Barclays has unanimously resolved to recommend the transaction to their shareholders. The proposed merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create a strong and competitive combination for its clients with superior products and extensive distribution. The merged group is expected to generate significant and sustained future incremental earnings growth for shareholders.

As set out in the joint Barclays and ABN AMRO announcement of 23 April 2007, ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will receive 3.225 ordinary shares in Barclays for each existing ABN AMRO ordinary share. Under the terms of the Offer, Barclays existing ordinary shareholders will own approximately 52 percent and ABN AMRO existing ordinary shareholders will own approximately 48 percent of the combined group.

Regulatory Approvals

In connection with the Offer there are 108 regulatory authorities in 53 countries with whom a change of control filing needs to be made. A change of control consent is required from 55 of these regulatory authorities to enable closing of the Offer.

Barclays and ABN AMRO are making excellent progress in respect of these regulatory processes and by the end of May expect to have completed substantially all of the relevant filings where a consent or notification is required prior to closing of the public offer. The applications for the UK and the Netherlands, being the two most significant jurisdictions given the location of incorporation and lead regulation of the two groups, have already been filed with the relevant regulators.

Competition Authority Approvals

Barclays and ABN AMRO are also at an advanced state of preparation in relation to the various merger control filings that will be needed. The parties have jointly carried out a detailed competition analysis and are confident that there are no substantive anti-trust issues to address. Barclays and ABN AMRO therefore anticipate that merger control issues will not have any impact on the Offer timetable.

Timetable

The posting of formal Offer documentation remains conditional upon satisfaction or waiver of the pre-Offer conditions referred to in the announcement of 23 April 2007. Barclays and ABN AMRO intend to publish formal Offer documentation in six weeks.

Good progress has been made to date on fulfilment of significant pre-Offer conditions such as the regulatory and anti-trust filings referred to above, the required tax clearances, and the consultation with the representative bodies of the employees. Furthermore the UK Financial Services Authority (FSA) and De Nederlandsche Bank have agreed, as mentioned in the announcement of 23 April 2007, that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the combined group. However, significant matters still need to be progressed over the next six weeks, particularly in relation to regulatory approval of the Offer documentation by AFM, UKLA and SEC and the approval by the relevant US authorities required to complete the agreement with Bank of America to acquire LaSalle.

John Varley, the CEO of Barclays, said:

Barclays recommended Offer for ABN AMRO will create a world leading bank, better able to serve our customers with more and better products thus creating additional value for the shareholders of both our companies for many years to come. The Barclays Offer provides ABN AMRO shareholders certainty, deliverability and value.

BARCLAYS RECOMMENDED MERGER WITH ABN AMRO UPDATE ON FILINGS

Further to the announcement of 23 May, updating as to progress on the agreed merger between Barclays PLC (Barclays) and ABN AMRO Holding N.V, (ABN AMRO), Barclays announces today that, in collaboration with ABN AMRO, it has made substantially all of the pre-acquisition competition and regulatory filings required to proceed with its recommended offer to ABN AMRO shareholders (the Offer) and expects to publish Offer documentation in July. In connection with the Offer there are 107 regulatory authorities in 52 countries with whom a change of control filing needs to be made. A change of control consent is required from 52 of these regulatory authorities to enable closing of the Offer. Barclays and ABN AMRO have made excellent progress in respect of these regulatory processes and have now made substantially all of the relevant filings where a consent or notification is required prior to closing of the public offer. Approval is currently pending with the relevant regulatory authorities.

Barclays notes that Bank of America has now submitted its application to the Board of Governors of the US Federal Reserve System to acquire LaSalle Bank Corporation.

A draft of the Offer Document has been submitted to the AFM and drafts of the Prospectus and the Class 1 Circular have been submitted to the UKLA. A registration statement on Form F-4, which contains the preliminary version of the US Offer Document/ Prospectus, has also been submitted to the SEC and will be available today via the website of the SEC (www.sec.gov). Together, Barclays and ABN AMRO will continue to work with all of the relevant regulatory bodies with the aim of publishing the offer documentation in July.

14.4 Announcement on Commitments to Employees and Trade Unions dated 28 June 2007

Quote

BARCLAYS ANNOUNCES COMMITMENTS TO EMPLOYEES AND TRADE UNIONS

The proposed merger of Barclays and ABN AMRO will create a leading force in global financial services offering employees enhanced career and employment opportunities.

Barclays has held a series of high-level meetings with employee representative groups, including trade unions and works councils. Their input has been invaluable in facilitating today's announcement.

Barclays has today (28 June) announced a set of commitments to its employees and ABN AMRO's employees to provide further clarity and assurance on how activities will be undertaken following the transaction.

Barclays commits to all Barclays and ABN AMRO employees that, in merging the two organisations, it will:

- fully respect employees' rights and existing union agreements;

- avoid compulsory redundancies wherever possible, through natural turnover and voluntary redundancy;

- seek new opportunities for any employee whose role becomes redundant; and

- provide appropriate individual support, such as training and skills development.

Barclays also commits to maintaining each Barclays and ABN AMRO employee's current redundancy terms (as at 28 June), worldwide, for two years after the offer for ABN AMRO becomes unconditional.

Barclays has recognised the value of constructive and regular dialogue with employee stakeholder bodies for many years. Barclays will put in place effective and efficient structures to enable a strong partnership to continue. As part of this process, Barclays is committed to dialogue to build global principles and frameworks. Barclays will host a one day forum for employee representatives and trade unions from Barclays and ABN AMRO to discuss implementation of the approach laid out in this announcement, to explore approaches to managing change and promoting dialogue, and to share best practice from around the enlarged group.

John Varley, Group Chief Executive of Barclays, said:

Barclays has a very constructive relationship with its current employee representatives and trade union partners founded on openness, trust and respect.

We will continue to work with employee and union groups globally. Together we have the opportunity to enhance capability for customers whilst offering great careers for employees and long term job creation.

BARCLAYS RECOMMENDED MERGER WITH ABN AMRO UPDATE ON OFFER

In their announcement of 23rd May, Barclays PLC (Barclays) and ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO) indicated that Barclays Offer Documentation would be published in July subject to the satisfaction of all pre-conditions specified in the original press release dated 23rd April.

Good progress continues to be made in relation to the pre-conditions, documentation and regulatory change of control approvals. Since the regulatory review processes relating to the documentation are not yet completed, the AFM has agreed an extension so that an announcement on the availability of the formal Offer Documentation can take place on or before 23rd July, 2007 [1].

This will not impact on the Offer timetable as outlined in the announcement of 23rd April, 2007 and affirmed in the announcement of 23rd May.

This is an announcement within the meaning of article 9b paragraph 1 of the Dutch Securities Market Supervision Decree (Besluit toezicht effectenverkeer 1995).

[1] Under the Dutch Securities Market Supervision Decree, the six-week term following the 23rd May 2007 announcement would without extension expire on 5th July 2007.

This document shall not constitute an offer to sell or buy or the solicitation of an offer to buy or sell any securities, nor shall there be any sale or purchase of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. COMMENT FROM JOHN VARLEY, GROUP CHIEF EXECUTIVE, BARCLAYS PLC

Barclays PLC (Barclays) and ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO) have made all of the relevant filings globally which are now due in respect of the Offer where a consent or notification is required in respect of the Offer.

John Varley, Group Chief Executive, Barclays said:

We have made pre-completion regulatory and competition authority filings in 49 jurisdictions globally.

The progress which Barclays and ABN AMRO have made with these filings continues to demonstrate the straightforward nature of the Barclays offer. This gives ABN AMRO shareholders a high degree of certainty and deliverability.

We look forward to issuing our formal offer documentation to shareholders later this month. We believe that the combination of Barclays and ABN AMRO will create sustained long-term value for shareholders by giving customers around the world access to significantly enhanced product and service capabilities.

BARCLAYS RECOMMENDED MERGER WITH ABN AMRO UPDATE ON OFFER

In their announcement of 2 July 2007, Barclays PLC (Barclays) and ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO) indicated that an announcement on the availability of the formal Barclays offer documentation was to take place on or before 23 July 2007. Good progress continues to be made in relation to the pre-conditions, documentation and regulatory change of control approvals. Since the regulatory review processes relating to the documentation, including with the SEC, are not yet completed, the AFM has agreed an extension so that an announcement on the formal offer documentation being available can be made on or before 6 August 2007.

Launch of the Barclays offer will be subject to the satisfaction of the pre-conditions referred to in the original press release dated 23 April 2007. In relation to the offer, Barclays is considering possible alternative offer structures, including introduction of a partial cash consideration element into the Offer. No decision has yet been taken but Barclays will make further announcements as, if and when due under applicable rules and regulations. If any changes to Barclays offer were made they would be consistent with its prior public statements regarding the strict financial criteria it applies to merger and acquisition transactions and ensuring that the terms of any transaction are in the interests of its existing shareholders.

This is an announcement within the meaning of article 9b paragraph 1 of the Dutch Securities Market Supervision Decree (Besluit toezicht effectenverkeer 1995).

This document shall not constitute an offer to sell or buy or the solicitation of an offer to buy or sell any securities, nor shall there be any sale or purchase of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. Table of Contents

The Board of Directors of Barclays PLC (Barclays) today announces an investment by China Development Bank and Temasek Holdings of up to 13.4 billion (£9.0 billion) in Barclays through the subscription of new shares. Barclays also announces revised terms of its offer (Revised Offer) for ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO). Barclays has submitted the Revised Offer to the Managing and Supervisory Boards of ABN AMRO for their consideration.

Investments by China Development Bank and Temasek

China Development Bank and Barclays today announce that they will broaden their relationship from strategic co-operation to a strategic partnership as a result of which China Development Bank will become a major shareholder and will subscribe an initial 2.2 billion (£1.5 billion) of Barclays new ordinary shares (or 3.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Subject to regulatory approval and completion of the Revised Offer for ABN AMRO, China Development Bank will subscribe up to a further 7.6 billion (£5.1 billion) of Barclays ordinary shares, of which 1.8 billion (£1.2 billion) will be made available for clawback, outside of the United States, targeted to existing Barclays shareholders.

Temasek Holdings (Private) Limited (Temasek) will become a major shareholder in Barclays through the subscription of 1.4 billion (£1.0 billion) of Barclays new ordinary shares (or 2.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Temasek has further agreed to subscribe up to 2.2 billion (£1.5 billion) of Barclays ordinary shares conditional upon the completion of the Revised Offer for ABN AMRO, of which 0.7 billion (£0.5 billion) will be made available for clawback, outside of the United States, targeted to existing Barclays shareholders.

The Board and management of Barclays are pleased to build on the long-standing relationship with China Development Bank making it now a strategic partner and a strategic shareholder. Barclays also welcomes Temasek as a major shareholder. The management of Barclays believes there are substantial benefits for each of Barclays, China Development Bank and Temasek as a result of these arrangements. The Unconditional Investment by China Development Bank and Temasek are an important endorsement of the Barclays strategy and management team. The further investment, conditional upon the completion of the Revised Offer, underscores the confidence of China Development Bank and Temasek in the value potential of the combination with ABN AMRO.

Barclays Capital, acting as investment banking advisor to Barclays Group, introduced the strategic shareholders and advised on the structuring of the investments and the Revised Offer.

Revised Offer Terms

Barclays announces the terms of a Revised Offer to ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders. The Revised Offer per ABN AMRO ordinary share consists of:

13.15 in cash and

2.13 ordinary shares in Barclays (New Barclays Shares)

The Revised Offer is worth 35.73 per ABN AMRO ordinary share based on the closing share price of Barclays on 20 July 2007. On this basis, the total consideration is currently valued at 67.5 billion (£45.4 billion), with approximately 37 per cent. in cash. ABN AMRO shareholders will retain a significant share of a strong and competitive combination for clients with superior products and extensive distribution. The merged group is expected to generate significant and sustained future incremental earnings growth for all shareholders.

The combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays will benefit from a diversified customer base and geographic mix. The proposed merger will create:

A leading force in global retail and commercial banking, with world class products:

47 million customers, approximately 90 per cent. of whom are in seven key markets

One of the world's leading transaction banking platforms offering world class payment and trade finance solutions

A top five card issuer outside the US with approximately 27 million cards.

A leading global investment bank in risk management and financing with an enhanced product offering across a broader geographical exposure

Table of Contents

The world's largest institutional asset manager, with enhanced retail distribution capabilities and complementary products ensuring delivery of world class products and services to a wider customer base

The world's eighth largest wealth manager, with a leading European onshore franchise and attractive positions in growth markets.

The Revised Offer delivers the following additional benefits to ABN AMRO shareholders:

Greater value: a 2.9 billion (£2.0 billion) increase in the value of the offer Greater certainty: the cash element of the consideration is already committed at a fixed price.

Greater flexibility: those ABN AMRO shareholders who wish to vary the proportion of cash or shares they receive under the Revised Offer will be given the opportunity to do so by way of a Mix and Match facility thus providing short term investors the opportunity of receiving more cash and long term investors with the opportunity to participate to a greater extent in the prospects of the combined entity.

The management of Barclays believe that the previously announced 3.5 billion pre-tax synergies estimate remains conservative. It is expected that these synergies will be delivered faster than originally anticipated with the result that the pre-tax synergy total will be at least 725 million in 2008 and 2,270 million in 2009 which compares to the estimates of 400 million and 2,080 million announced on 23 April 2007. These synergy estimates do not include any of the substantial benefits which are expected to be derived from the partnership with China Development Bank. On the basis of the conservative synergy estimates and taking into account no benefits from the collaboration with China Development Bank, the Board of Barclays expects that the proposed merger will be 5 per cent. accretive to Barclays cash earnings per share in 2010 and that the return on investment will be approximately 13 per cent. in 2010. Assuming the clawback placing is taken up in full by existing Barclays ordinary shareholders, they will own 57 per cent. of the enlarged share capital after completion of the Revised Offer.

The Merger Protocol signed by Barclays and ABN AMRO on 23 April 2007 remains in place but has been amended in order to facilitate these arrangements and to allow ABN AMRO to consider the Revised Offer whilst preserving each party's rights.

The transaction documentation for the Revised Offer will need to be filed, and where appropriate, approved by the appropriate regulators and will be published to ABN AMRO and Barclays shareholders as soon as possible. The expected date of completion remains the same as for Barclays original offer.

Share Buyback

The total proceeds from issuance of Barclays shares to Temasek and China Development Bank on 14 August 2007 will amount to 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) and this amount is unconditionally committed. Barclays intends to minimise the dilutive effect of the issuance on its existing shareholders by commencing a share buyback programme for up to 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion). The earliest date the buyback would start is shortly after publication of Barclays interim results on 2 August 2007 and the latest is after conclusion of its offer for ABN AMRO. Further details will be announced with publication of our interim results.

Current Trading

In the first half of 2007 Barclays continued to make substantial progress on its strategic priorities and delivered record financial results. Double digit profit and earnings growth built on the exceptionally strong performance of 2006.

Barclays profit before tax increased 12 per cent. to £4,101 million. Earnings per share increased 14 per cent. to 41.4p and the interim dividend will increase 10 per cent. to 11.5p per share.

The full Barclays Interim Results Announcement will be published on 2 August 2007. For more information, please refer to Appendix III

Table of ContentsJohn Varley, CEO of Barclays, said:

Today's announcement represents an important new step in the continued transformation of Barclays towards our stated ambition to be one of the world's leading universal banks. Through the introduction of two highly respected shareholders, from whom we will derive support and advice, we will be able to drive our future development in the rapidly growing Asian markets. We are delighted that China Development Bank and Temasek have chosen to invest in Barclays and this reflects their confidence in our growth strategy. We have announced a restructuring of our proposed offer for ABN AMRO that represents an improved deal for both Barclays and ABN AMRO shareholders and introduces a significant element of cash and a greater opportunity to share in future value generation.

Bob Diamond, President of Barclays, said:

Barclays Capital and Barclays Global Investors have strong long-standing relationships with China Development Bank and Temasek and approached them in May about this opportunity. Cementing these valuable relationships through their investments in Barclays will dramatically accelerate the investment banking, cash management, trade finance, private wealth and asset management franchises of Barclays and of the combined Barclays and ABN AMRO group in the region. The agreement with China Development Bank provides Barclays with unprecedented access jointly to provide financial services to the rapidly growing Chinese market and Chinese companies trading internationally. We are delighted at the opportunity of working together.

Governor Chen of China Development Bank said:

We are delighted to make this investment, building on the current successful historical co-operation we have with Barclays. This strategic and financial collaboration is the next step in the evolution of China Development Bank into a commercially operated financial institution. The investment in Barclays represents a unique and compelling financial opportunity. Furthermore, China Development Bank supports Barclays strategy of building a leading diversified full service bank and supports Barclays management in pursuit of its global strategy. China Development Bank strongly believes that this long term investment in Barclays will be financially attractive.

Simon Israel, Executive Director of Temasek, said:

Barclays is a very well-managed bank. We are very impressed with its board and management, specifically on their strategy, track record and focus on value creation for shareholders. We believe the Barclays board and management understand what it takes to make the merger with ABN AMRO work and deliver value.

Financial Advisers

The Board of Barclays, which has received financial advice from Barclays Capital, Citi, Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank, JPMorgan Cazenove and Lazard (collectively, the Barclays Advisers) considers that the terms of the Revised Offer are fair and reasonable. In providing their advice to the Board of Barclays, the Barclays Advisers have relied upon the Board's commercial assessment of the Revised Offer. China Development Bank has received financial advice from Blackstone Advisory and Blackstone Advisory has provided a fairness opinion to China Development Bank on the terms of its investment.

1. Investment by China Development Bank

China Development Bank will invest a total of up to 9.8 billion (£6.6 billion) in the combined group and has entered into a strategic partnership with Barclays which establishes a framework for their strategic co-operation. Barclays will assist and advise China Development Bank in its evolution into a commercially operated financial institution. The two parties will jointly exploit international business opportunities, including:

- cross-referral of clients, when the clients' needs can better be met by the other partner

- extensive training and talent management. China Development Bank will use Barclays global presence to identify and to recruit talent outside China, and will benefit from the provision of extensive training and the regular secondment of managers from Barclays

collaboration in commodities products, where Barclays Capital is already established as one of the world's leading firms

In addition, China Development Bank will use Barclays Global Investors as one of its preferred asset managers. Both parties have agreed to co-operate where further opportunities to develop new markets and products in the region are identified. Barclays will provide expertise and advice in fields including risk management, corporate governance and IT strategy and procurement.

Barclays and China Development Bank have agreed that:

China Development Bank will invest 2.2 billion (£1.5 billion) in Barclays through an unconditional subscription of 201 million new Barclays ordinary shares, or 3.1 per cent. of Barclays existing issued share capital, at a price of £7.20 per share on 14 August 2007.

China Development Bank has agreed to invest up to a further 7.6 billion (£5.1 billion) in Barclays through a conditional investment agreement at a price of £7.40 per new ordinary share conditional on the merger with ABN AMRO completing.

1.8 billion (£1.2 billion) of the conditional investment will be available, outside the United States, targeted to existing Barclays shareholders through a clawback placing. If this clawback placing is taken up in full, China Development Bank's resulting shareholding in the combined group would be 6.3 per cent. and in the event that none of the clawback placing is taken up the resulting shareholding would be 7.7 per cent.

Conditional upon the completion of the proposed merger, China Development Bank will subscribe for warrants in respect of 61 million new Barclays ordinary shares with an exercise price of £7.80 per share and an exercise period of two years. If the warrants were exercised, China Development Bank's shareholding in the combined group would rise by 0.5%

China Development Bank will be entitled to nominate a non-executive Director to the Barclays Board.

China Development Bank will be free to acquire additional shares in Barclays on the open market subject to a standstill agreement limiting its shareholding to below 10 per cent. for three years.

China Development Bank has agreed not to enter into a business collaboration agreement of a similar nature with another major banking institution with global operations.

This partnership will provide Barclays unprecedented access jointly to deliver financial services to the rapidly growing Chinese market. Through Barclays Capital and Barclays Global Investors, Barclays has built leading franchises across Asia. The partnership with China Development Bank will strengthen Barclays already strong Asian franchise. Particular areas of focus for Barclays include near term opportunities in Wealth and Asset Management. The merger with ABN AMRO creates even greater opportunities both for China Development Bank and the combined group, particularly as ABN AMRO brings a world class trade finance and payments platform to service Chinese businesses and has an attractive retail and wholesale franchise both in China and in countries that represent important trade partners for China.

Through its investment in Barclays and strategic partnership, China Development Bank will enhance its ability to serve Chinese corporations and institutions. China Development Bank will gain access to Barclays extensive international franchise in order to facilitate international commerce for Chinese companies. The partnership will also give China Development Bank access to the leading product expertise that Barclays has developed in its universal banking model, such as in structured products, enabling China Development Bank to leverage these skills in its domestic market. China Development Bank will have opportunities to learn best practices from Barclays in terms of customer service, product development and corporate governance. This will improve China Development Bank's understanding of global financial services.

2. Investment by Temasek

Temasek has agreed to become a major shareholder in Barclays and will invest a total of up to 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) in the combined group. The key terms of the Temasek investment are set out below.

Temasek will invest 1.4 billion (£1.0 billion), or 2.1 per cent. of Barclays existing issued share capital, in Barclays through an unconditional placing of 135 million new Barclays ordinary shares at a price of £7.20 per share on 14 August 2007.

Temasek will also invest up to a further 2.2 billion (£1.5 billion) in Barclays shares at a price of £7.40 per share conditional on the merger completing.

0.7 billion (£0.5 billion) of this subscription amount will be available through a clawback placing, outside the United States, targeted to existing Barclays shareholders. Assuming this clawback placing is taken up in full, Temasek's resulting shareholding in the combined group would be 2.4 per cent. and in the event that none of the clawback placing is taken up the resulting shareholding would be 2.9 per cent.

Conditional upon completion of the proposed merger, Temasek will subscribe for warrants in respect of 61 million Barclays ordinary shares with an exercise price of £7.80 per share and an exercise period of two years. If the warrants were exercised, Temasek's shareholding would rise by 0.5%.

Temasek will be entitled to nominate a non-executive Director to the Barclays Board if the merger becomes unconditional.

The investment by Temasek in Barclays is consistent with its strategy of creating successful partnerships through long-term investments. Temasek believes that, in addition to Barclays current growth prospects, the proposed merger with ABN AMRO will create value enhancing growth opportunities. Temasek will be able to bring its deep rooted knowledge and expertise in the Asian market to the Board of Barclays. Temasek is widely recognised as one of the world's most successful international equity investors. Temasek also has extensive experience investing in the financial services sector and currently owns significant investments in 14 banks.

3. Clawback Placing

Of the Barclays shares which China Development Bank and Temasek have conditionally agreed to acquire, up to 230 million shares are today being offered, by way of a clawback placing, targeted at certain Barclays shareholders outside of the United States (to be determined in Barclays sole discretion) at a price of £7.40 per share. To the extent that the clawback placing is not taken up, these shares will be subscribed by China Development Bank and Temasek. The shares subject to the clawback placing will only be issued following and conditional upon the Revised Offer being declared unconditional.

4. Terms of the Revised Offer

Under the terms of the Revised Offer, ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will be entitled to receive:

2.13 New Barclays Shares and 13.15 in cash for every 1 ABN AMRO ordinary share

0.5325 New Barclays ADSs and $18.19 in cash for every 1 ABN AMRO ADS

ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS holders may elect under the terms of the Revised Offer, subject to availability, to vary the proportions in which they receive New Barclays Shares and cash in respect of their holdings of ABN AMRO ordinary shares. The total number of New Barclays Shares to be issued and the maximum aggregate amount of cash to be paid under the Revised Offer will not be varied as a result of elections under the Mix and Match Facility. Accordingly, satisfaction of elections made by ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS holders under the Mix and Match Facility will depend on the extent to which other ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS holders make offsetting elections. Satisfaction of elections under the Mix and Match Facility will be effected on the basis of £8.00 in cash for each New Barclays Share (and vice versa). To the extent that elections cannot be satisfied in full, they will be scaled down pro rata. As a result, ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders and ABN AMRO ADS holders who make an election under the Mix and Match Facility will not necessarily know the exact number of New Barclays Shares or the amount of cash they will receive until settlement of the consideration under the Revised Offer.

If ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders make no such election, they will receive 13.15 in cash and 2.13 New Barclays Shares in respect of each ordinary ABN AMRO share tendered. If ABN AMRO ADS holders make no such election, they will receive $18.19 in cash and 0.5325 New Barclays ADSs in respect of each ABN AMRO ADS tendered. Further details on the Mix and Match facility will be included in the Revised Offer documentation.

The record date for the Barclays interim dividend for the 2007 financial year is 17 August 2007, which will be before the closing date of the Revised Offer. Accordingly, assuming the merger is effective before the record date for the Barclays final dividend for 2007, which is expected to be in early March 2008, the first dividend payable to holders of the Barclays Ordinary Shares issued to ABN AMRO shareholders under the Revised Offer is likely to be the Barclays final dividend for 2007. ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will be entitled to receive the ABN AMRO interim dividend for the 2007 financial year.

The total consideration payable under the Revised Offer equates to 67.5 billion (£45.4 billion) and the implied value per ABN AMRO ordinary share represents a price to 2006 reported earnings multiple of 14.3 times and a price to 2006 book multiple of 2.8 times.

Barclays intends to make an offer for all the depositary receipts which represent the ABN AMRO convertible financing preference shares. Barclays currently intends to offer holders cash and is also considering offering an alternative instrument which will potentially enable those holders who currently enjoy a participation exemption to continue to do so. The terms of the proposal for the formerly convertible preference shares remain unchanged at 27.65 per share in cash.

5. Financing of the Revised Offer

Barclays will finance the 24.8 billion (£16.7 billion) cash component of the Revised Offer from the following sources:

LASALLE SALE PROCEEDS

12 billion (£8.1 billion) of capital released from the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America and previously intended to be returned to shareholders post closing of the transaction will be used to fund part of the cash consideration.

CHINA DEVELOPMENT BANK AND TEMASEK CONDITIONAL INVESTMENT

9.8bn (£6.6 billion) of cash consideration is funded by the proposed investments of Temasek and China Development Bank. Of that amount, 2.5 billion (£1.7 billion) is subject to the clawback placing described above.

AVAILABLE CASH RESOURCES

Barclays will fund 3 billion (£2 billion) of the consideration from available cash resources.

6. Financial effects of the Revised Offer

Based on the terms of the Revised Offer ABN AMRO shareholders will benefit from significant accretion in cash earnings per share and dividend income on completion of the Revised Offer.

On the basis of the conservative synergy estimates and taking into account no benefits from the collaboration with China Development Bank, the Board of Barclays expect that the proposed merger will be 5 per cent. accretive to Barclays cash earnings per share in 2010 and that the return on investment will be approximately 13 per cent. in 2010.

Under the terms of the Revised Offer, assuming full take-up of the clawback placing by existing Barclays ordinary shareholders, they will own approximately 57 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the combined group, compared with 52 per cent. under the terms of the offer announced on 23 April 2007; existing ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders would own approximately 35 per cent. In addition, Temasek would own 2 per cent. and China Development Bank 6 per cent. These figures assume all of the ABN AMRO ordinary shares and ADSs currently in issue are tendered under the Revised Offer and are all taken up in the clawback placing.

The pro forma Tier 1 ratio of the combined group will be 7.5 per cent. on closing and the Core Equity Tier 1 ratio 5 per cent.. The combined group will seek to maintain the Tier 1 ratio at 7.5 per cent. and rebuild the Core Equity Tier 1 ratio to 5.25 per cent. by the end of 2009 from the retention of cash flow from earnings.

The 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) proceeds of the unconditional Investment by China Development Bank and Temasek will be used to fund the share buyback.

7. Conditions and Indicative Timetable

The launch of the Revised Offer is conditional on the same pre-conditions as set out in our announcement of 23 April with the addition of a further pre-condition requiring ABN AMRO to confirm to us that they will continue their recommendation no later than 30 July or such later date as Barclays may agree. This additional condition is for the sole benefit of Barclays. Barclays reserves the right to extend the date for satisfaction of this pre-condition or waive the pre-condition in the event that it is not satisfied.

As announced on 19 July, the AFM has agreed that an announcement on the formal offer documentation being available can be made on or before 6 August 2007.

The conditions to the Revised Offer remain consistent with those detailed in our announcement of 23 April 2007 with limited additions regarding regulatory consents to the investments by Temasek and China Development Bank and a consent from De Nederlandsche Bank (DNB) relating to a dividend by ABN AMRO to Barclays of the LaSalle proceeds to finance part of the cash component of the Revised Offer and provisions to deal with the competitive situation which has now developed.

Barclays has made all of the relevant regulatory filings globally which are now due where a consent or notification is required in respect of the Revised Offer. Some approvals have already been received (including from the FSA in respect of a change in control of ABN AMRO s UK subsidiaries) and it is expected that substantially all remaining approvals will be received by the end of August.

The DNB is currently assessing Barclays application for a declaration of no objection (DNO) in connection with the Revised Offer. Barclays made the application to the DNB on 14 May 2007, is co-operating fully in this process and expects to receive the DNO by mid-August.

Until all approvals have been received, Barclays and ABN AMRO will continue to communicate and to work with the appropriate regulatory authorities to ensure that all approvals are received in good time for the anticipated closing.

Barclays has made pre-completion competition/antitrust filings in all 12 applicable jurisdictions and has currently received the majority of the pre-completion approvals

ABN AMRO and Barclays will seek to obtain all necessary regulatory and competition approvals and clearances and will complete all requisite employee consultation and information processes as soon as reasonably possible with a view to receiving the required regulatory, competition and other consents or approvals for the Revised Offer. Following consultation on the proposed merger with Barclays and ABN AMRO, ABN AMRO s Dutch Central Works Council and its European Staff Council have issued a positive advice and an opinion respectively in relation to the proposed merger on 20 July 2007.

Indicative timetable

August 2007	Publication of Revised Offer documentation, Prospectus and Barclays circular to shareholders
September 2007	Extraordinary General Meeting of Barclays shareholders to approve the Revised Offer
End September 2007	Closing date of the Revised Offer

The indicative timetable is included for illustrative purposes only and may be subject to change.

BARCLAYS ANNOUNCES CLAWBACK PLACING OF UP TO 229,729,730 ORDINARY SHARES OF 25P EACH AT A PLACING PRICE OF 740P EACH

The Board of Directors of Barclays PLC (Barclays) today announces a revised offer for ABN AMRO and an investment by China Development Bank and Temasek of up to 13.4 billion euros in Barclays through the subscription of new shares. Of the Barclays shares which China Development Bank and Temasek have conditionally agreed to acquire, up to 2.5 billion euros (£1.7billion) worth of shares are today being made available outside the United States by way of a clawback placing targeted at certain Barclays shareholders (to be determined in Barclays sole discretion) at a price of £7.40 per share. To the extent not taken up these shares will be subscribed by China Development Bank and Temasek. The shares subject to the clawback placing will only be issued following and conditional upon the revised offer for ABN AMRO being declared unconditional.

The clawback placing will commence at 7.00 am today and will close at 4.30pm on Tuesday 24 July 2007. The full terms and conditions of the clawback placing are set forth in this announcement Citi, Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove are acting as joint bookrunners and placing agents on behalf of Barclays in respect of the clawback placing.

This announcement is a public announcement as defined in section 9b paragraph 1 of the Dutch Securities Markets Supervision Decree (Besluit toezicht effectenverkeer 1995).

This announcement is not for distribution directly or indirectly in or into the United States, Canada, Australia or Japan or any jurisdiction into which the same would be unlawful. This announcement does not constitute an offer to sell or issue or the solicitation of an offer to buy or acquire shares in the capital of Barclays in the United States, Canada, Australia or Japan or any jurisdiction in which such an offer or solicitation is unlawful. The shares in Barclays referred to in this announcement have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended and may not be offered or sold or transferred within the United States absent registration or an exemption from registration. No public offering of securities will be made in the United Kingdom, the United States or elsewhere.

14.10 Announcement on placing of Clawback Shares dated 25 July 2007

Quote

For immediate release

RESULT OF CLAWBACK PLACING OF UP TO 229,729,730 ORDINARY SHARES OF 25P EACH AT A PLACING PRICE OF 740P EACH

Under the terms of the subscription agreements announced on 23 July 2007, China Development Bank (CDB) committed to subscribe for 693 million Barclays ordinary shares and Temasek Holdings (Temasek) committed to subscribe for 196 million Barclays ordinary shares at a price of £7.40 per share conditional on the merger completing. Of these amounts 229,729,730 shares were made available in a clawback placing targeted at Barclays existing shareholders in order to allow them to participate on the same terms.

Applications for subscription under the clawback placing have resulted in the allocation of 153,772,445 shares at a price of £7.40 per share (representing £1.14bn worth of Barclays shares) to existing Barclays shareholders and certain other institutional investors.

As a result of this placing CDB and Temasek have been scaled back such that conditional upon the completion of the proposed merger with ABN AMRO, China Development Bank will now subscribe for a total of 582 million shares at a price of £7.40 per share (representing £4.31 billion worth of Barclays shares), and Temasek will subscribe for a total of 153 million shares at a price of £7.40 per share (representing £1.13 billion worth of Barclays shares). Assuming that the revised offer for ABN AMRO is successful, China Development Bank will, upon completion, have a shareholding of 6.7% and Temasek 2.5%.

14.11 Announcement on update of Offer dated 30 July 2007

BARCLAYS REVISED OFFER FOR ABN AMRO UPDATE ON OFFER

Barclays PLC (Barclays) notes the announcement by the Supervisory and Management Boards of ABN AMRO Holding NV (ABN AMRO) that the proposed merger with Barclays is consistent with ABN AMRO's strategic vision and could result in the creation of additional longer term value for ABN AMRO shareholders.

The Merger Protocol signed by Barclays and ABN AMRO on 23 April 2007 has been amended to reflect the terms of the Revised Offer, and to enable it to remain in force in light of the withdrawal of ABN AMRO's formal recommendation. Under the terms of the Revised Offer, ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders will be entitled to receive:

2.13 New Barclays Shares and EUR13.15 in cash for every ABN AMRO ordinary share

0.5325 New Barclays ADSs and the dollar equivalent of EUR13.15 in cash for every ABN AMRO ADS

The cash element of the consideration is already committed at a fixed price.

The conditions to the launch of the Revised Offer, announced on 23 July 2007, include the requirement that the Boards of ABN AMRO recommend Barclays offer. Barclays has agreed to waive this pre-condition, but this will instead become a condition to the completion of the Revised Offer.

Barclays continues to make good progress with respect to the remaining pre-conditions, documentation and regulatory change of control approvals so that an announcement on the formal offer documentation being made available can be made on or before 6 August 2007. Barclays believes that its Revised Offer continues to provide the shareholders of ABN AMRO with superior long-term value.

John Varley, CEO of Barclays, said:

We recognise that, at the current time, it is difficult for the Boards of ABN AMRO to make a clear recommendation to their shareholders. However, we are pleased to have their continuing support, and we are confident that our Revised Offer delivers the value, stakeholder benefits and certainty that will allow the Boards to support a recommendation in due course.

Combining Barclays and ABN AMRO would create a powerful force for customers and clients worldwide and a financial services organisation with a highly advantaged position in high growth markets and business sectors. The long-term growth created through this merger will be significant and will, we believe, prove attractive to the shareholders of the new organisation.

This announcement is made in accordance with article 9b paragraph 1 of the Dutch Securities Markets Supervision Decree (Besluit toezicht effectenverkeer 1995).

This document shall not constitute an offer to sell or buy or the solicitation of an offer to buy or sell any securities, nor shall there be any sale or purchase of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. The availability of Barclays offer to persons not resident in the United States, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions. Table of Contents15. DUTCH SUMMARY

Dit hoofdstuk 15 behelst de Nederlandstalige samenvatting van het Biedingsbericht, dat is uitgegeven ter zake van het openbaar bod (het Bod) uitgebracht door Barclays PLC (Barclays) op alle uitstaande aandelen in het kapitaal van ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO). De belangrijkste kenmerken van het Bod zijn beschreven in hoofdstuk 5 (Invitation to the ABN AMRO Shareholders).

De gedefinieerde termen in dit hoofdstuk van het Biedingsbericht hebben de betekenis die daaraan wordt gegeven in paragraaf 15.2 van dit hoofdstuk. Deze Nederlandstalige samenvatting maakt deel uit van het Biedingsbericht, maar vervangt dit niet. Deze Nederlandstalige samenvatting is niet volledig en bevat niet alle informatie die voor houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen van belang is om een afgewogen oordeel te kunnen vormen over het Bod. Het lezen van deze Nederlandse samenvatting mag derhalve niet worden beschouwd als een alternatief voor het bestuderen van het volledige Biedingsbericht. Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen wordt geadviseerd het volledige Biedingsbericht (inclusief alle documenten die daarin door middel van verwijzing (incorporation by reference) zijn opgenomen) zorgvuldig te bestuderen en zo nodig onafhankelijk advies in te winnen teneinde een afgewogen oordeel te kunnen vormen over het Bod en de beschrijving van het Bod in deze samenvatting en in het Biedingsbericht. In geval van verschillen tussen deze Nederlandstalige samenvatting en de Engelse tekst van het Biedingsbericht, prevaleert de Engelse tekst van het Biedingsbericht (inclusief alle documenten die daarin door middel van verwijzing zijn opgenomen).

Met betrekking tot de uitgifte en aanbidding van de Barclays Aandelen en de notering van de Barclays Aandelen op de verschillende effectenbeurzen wordt verwezen naar het Barclays Prospectus. Het Barclays Prospectus is één van de documenten die door middel van verwijzing (incorporation by reference) zijn opgenomen in het Biedingsbericht.

15.1 Restricties en belangrijke informatie

Het uitbrengen van het Bod, de verkrijgbaarstelling van het Biedingsbericht en deze Nederlandstalige samenvatting, alsmede verspreiding van enige andere informatie met betrekking tot het Bod, kunnen in bepaalde jurisdicties aan bepaalde restricties onderhevig zijn. Zie hoofdstuk 1.1 (Restrictions). Dit Bod wordt niet (direct of indirect) gedaan in en mag niet worden geaccepteerd vanuit enige jurisdictie waarin het doen van het Bod niet in overeenstemming is met de in die jurisdictie geldende wet- en regelgeving. Het niet respecteren van deze restricties kan een overtreding van de (effecten-) wet-en regelgeving van de desbetreffende jurisdictie opleveren. Barclays, ABN AMRO en hun adviseurs sluiten iedere aansprakelijkheid uit ter zake van overtredingen van voornoemde restricties. Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen dienen zo nodig onverwijld onafhankelijk advies in te winnen over hun positie.

Het Biedingsbericht bevat belangrijke informatie voor een ieder die het Bod overweegt, en moet zorgvuldig gelezen worden alvorens men een besluit neemt over het aanmelden van ABN AMRO Aandelen onder het Bod. Zie hoofdstuk 1.2 (Important Information). Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen wordt aangeraden waar nodig onafhankelijk advies in te winnen.

15.3 Voorgeschiedenis van het Bod

Op 19 maart 2007 kondigden ABN AMRO en Barclays gezamenlijk in een persbericht aan dat zij exclusieve voorbereidende gesprekken met elkaar voerden over het aangaan van een mogelijke combinatie. Op 20 maart 2007 kondigden ABN AMRO en Barclays aan op welke hoofdelementen een combinatie tussen hen zou berusten.

Op 21 maart 2007 is een geheimhoudings-, standstill -en exclusiviteits-periode overeengekomen en aangevangen tussen ABN AMRO en Barclays. Zowel ABN AMRO als Barclays zouden tot 18 april 2007 niet ingaan op een bod uitgebracht door een derde op alle of een significant deel van hun aandelen.

Op 17 april 2007 kondigden ABN AMRO en Barclays afzonderlijk aan de exclusiviteits-periode te verlengen.

Op 22 april 2007 en gedurende de eerste uren van 23 april 2007 ondertekenden Barclays en ABN AMRO het Fusieprotocol. Sommige bepalingen van het Fusieprotocol zijn opgenomen of anderszins weergegeven in dit Biedingsbericht, zie daarover hoofdstuk 6.19 (The Merger Protocol).

Op 23 april 2007 kondigden ABN AMRO en Barclays gezamenlijk aan dat overeenstemming was bereikt over de voorwaarden voor een aanbevolen fusie tussen Barclays en ABN AMRO om een van de meest vooraanstaande banken van de wereld te vormen. De voorwaarden op grond waarvan de Fusie zou plaatsvinden werden herzien voorafgaand aan een aankondiging door Barclays, op 23 juli 2007 en vervolgens herzien voorafgaand aan een aankondiging door Barclays, op 30 juli 2007 en vervolgens aangevuld door een brief gedateerd op 3 augustus 2007 waarin de overeenkomst tussen Barclays en ABN AMRO is weergegeven die betrekking heeft op welke voorwaarden voor het uitbrengen van het Bod zijn vervuld of waarvan afstand werd gedaan voorafgaand aan het Bod en welke tot voorwaarde van het Bod werden gemaakt. De aankondigingen en de aanvullende brief zijn beschikbaar op de website van de SEC (www.sec.gov).

Op 12 juni 2007 kondigde Barclays aan dat zij (i) in samenwerking met ABN AMRO, alle belangrijke en noodzakelijke aanvragen voor de voorgestelde combinatie had gedeponereerd en (ii) de documentatie met betrekking tot het Bod verwachtte te publiceren in juli 2007.

Tevens werd op 12 juni 2007 bekend gemaakt dat Barclays concepten van de documenten met betrekking tot het Bod bij de toezichthouders in Nederland, het Verenigd Koninkrijk en de V.S. had gedeponereerd.

Op 28 juni 2007 voegden vier vakbonden zich in de enquêteprocedure die op 26 april 2007 was gestart door de Vereniging van Effectenbezitters bij de Ondernemingskamer van het Gerechtshof Amsterdam (de Ondernemingskamer). De vakbonden brachten een aantal aanvullende bezwaren naar voren en verzochten de Ondernemingskamer een onderzoek te bevelen naar de gang van zaken bij ABN AMRO met betrekking tot het biedingsproces.

Op 2 juli 2007 kondigden ABN AMRO en Barclays gezamenlijk aan dat de AFM een zodanige verlenging had toegezegd voor de aankondiging van het verkrijgbaarstellen van de documenten met betrekking tot het Bod dat deze aankondiging zou kunnen plaatsvinden op of voorafgaand aan 23 juli 2007, aangezien het proces waarbij documenten met betrekking tot het Bod door alle relevante toezichthouders getoetst worden aan toezichtswetgeving nog niet volledig door alle toezichthouders was voltooid.

Table of Contents

Op 9 juli 2007 diende ABN AMRO haar verweerschrift in bij de Ondernemingskamer tegen het verzoek van de Vereniging van Effectenbezitters om een onderzoek te bevelen naar de gang van zaken bij ABN AMRO met betrekking tot het biedingproces.

Op 10 juli 2007 verzocht de Vereniging van Effectenbezitters de Ondernemingskamer om, in het kader van de enquêteprocedure die gestart werd op 26 april 2007, drie onafhankelijke leden te benoemen in de Raad van Commissarissen van ABN AMRO. Voorafgaand aan de hoorzitting is het verzoek ingetrokken en is de hoorzitting geannuleerd.

Op 13 juli 2007 heeft de Hoge Raad het hoger beroep van ABN AMRO, Bank of America en Barclays, zoals ingesteld op 15 mei 2007 tegen de beslissing van de Ondernemingskamer van 3 mei 2007, gehonoreerd. De Hoge Raad vernietigde de beslissing van de Ondernemingskamer en heeft onherroepelijk geoordeeld dat het verzoek van de Vereniging van Effectenbezitters om een voorlopige voorziening, teneinde ABN AMRO en ABN AMRO Bank de voltooiing van de LaSalle Overeenkomst te beletten zonder goedkeuring van de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen, moest worden afgewezen.

Op 2 augustus 2007 vond er een zitting plaats bij de Ondernemingskamer over de verzoeken van de Vereniging van Effectenbezitters en de vier vakbonden om een onderzoek te bevelen naar bepaalde zaken bij ABN AMRO met betrekking tot het biedingproces.

15.4 Het Bod

Aan het Bod zijn verschillende voorwaarden verbonden. Voor de bepalingen die op het Bod van toepassing zijn wordt verwezen naar hoofdstuk 5 (Invitation to the ABN AMRO Shareholders) en hoofdstuk 6 (Explanation of the Offer). De voorwaarden waaronder het Bod plaats zal vinden zijn herzien zoals beschreven in het persbericht van Barclays op 23 juli 2007.

In ruil voor elk Gewoon ABN AMRO Aandeel dat op juiste wijze binnen de Aanmeldingstermijn (of op onjuiste wijze, mits Barclays de aanmelding daarvan niettemin accepteert) wordt aangemeld en geleverd, biedt Barclays 2,13 Gewone Barclays Aandelen (de Ruilverhouding Gewone Aandelen), en een bedrag van Euro 13,15 in contanten (de Contante Vergoeding Gewone Aandelen en samen met de Ruilverhouding Gewone Aandelen, de Vergoedingsverhouding Gewone Aandelen) mits het Bod gestand wordt gedaan, (De Barclays Aandelen die in een dergelijk geval worden aangeboden overeenkomstig het Bod worden hierna genoemd: de Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen). Zie hoofdstuk 5.1.1 (Consideration per Ordinary Share).

Onder de voorwaarden van het Bod zullen bestaande houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief houders van ABN AMRO ADSs) ongeveer 35 procent van het geplaatste aandelenkapitaal van de Gecombineerde Groep bezitten en bestaande houders van Gewone Barclays Aandelen (inclusief houders van Barclays ADSs) zullen ongeveer 56 procent van het geplaatste aandelenkapitaal van de Gecombineerde Groep bezitten, in plaats van een verhouding van 48 procent en 52 procent zoals uiteengezet in het persbericht van 23 april 2007. Daarnaast zullen Temasek en China Development Bank respectievelijk ongeveer 2.5 procent en ongeveer 6.8 procent van het geplaatste aandelenkapitaal van de Gecombineerde Groep bezitten. Deze cijfers gaan ervan uit dat alle momenteel geplaatste Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief de ABN AMRO ADSs) (op basis van volledige verwatering, exclusief de gewone aandelen die gehouden worden als treasury shares, maar inclusief opties en toekenningen van aandelen) zijn aangemeld volgens het Bod en dat de Voorwaardelijke CDB Aandelen, de Voorwaardelijke Temasek Aandelen en de Clawback Shares zijn uitgegeven en dat de Aandelen Inkoop Regeling is voltooid.

Het Bod waardeert elk Gewoon ABN AMRO Aandeel op Euro 35,73 en waardeert ABN AMRO op ongeveer Euro 67,6 miljard, gebaseerd op het volledige verwaterde aantal Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (afgezien van gewone aandelen gehouden als treasury stock, maar inclusief opties en toekenning van aandelen) de aandelen koers van Gewone Barclays Aandelen op 20 juli 2007, en exclusief Euro 0,60 ABN AMRO 2006 slotdividend en gebruik makend van een wisselkoers van Engelse pond 1,00 = Euro 1,4839 zoals gepubliceerd door de Financial Times op 2 augustus 2007. Van dit bedrag zal ongeveer 37 procent in contanten betaald worden. Ten tijde van het Herziene Persbericht vertegenwoordigde de waarde van de vergoeding per Gewoon ABN AMRO Aandeel een prijs welke neerkomt op een gerapporteerde inkomsten vermenigvuldigd met 13,9 en een prijs welke vermenigvuldigd wordt met 2,7, gebaseerd op de cijfers van het jaar 2006.

Table of Contents

Het Bod vertegenwoordigt een premie voor houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen van ongeveer:

27,6 procent ten opzichte van de aandelenkoers van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen op 16 maart 2007, de laatste Werkdag voorafgaand aan de aankondiging dat ABN AMRO en Barclays in gesprek waren; en

43,6 procent over de gemiddelde aandelenkoers van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen in de zes maanden tot en met 16 maart 2007.

De Ruilverhouding Gewone Aandelen zal worden aangepast om bepaalde Kapitaalverhogingen of Kapitaalruggaven weer te geven die gedaan zijn door Barclays of ABN AMRO voorafgaand aan de Leveringsdatum. Daarnaast zal elke prijsverlaging voor LaSalle tot onder U.S. Dollars 21 miljard worden beschouwd als een Kapitaalruggave door ABN AMRO, en zal de Ruilverhouding Gewone Aandelen dienovereenkomstig worden aangepast. Zie hoofdstuk 5.1 (Considerations Offered).

In de gevallen waarin Barclays in redelijkheid bepaalt dat een of meer Voorwaarden niet zijn of niet zullen worden vervuld, zal Barclays de aangeboden vergoeding in het Bod kunnen wijzigen, op voorwaarde dat de wijziging geen vermindering van de vergoeding zal inhouden vergeleken met de aangeboden vergoeding vlak voor een dergelijke wijziging. De wijziging zal openbaar worden gemaakt door middel van een persbericht, en/of een aanvullend biedingsbericht die extra informatie zullen bevatten over een dergelijke wijziging. De aankondiging van de wijziging zal voorafgaand aan de publicatie zullen worden voorgelegd aan de AFM conform artikel 9v van de Bte 1995. De Aanmeldingstermijn zal niet eerder dan 10 Werkdagen na de publicatie van een dergelijk persbericht verstrijken. ABN AMRO Aandelen aangemeld onder het Bod mogen worden ingetrokken op elk moment voorafgaand aan de Sluitingsdatum.

Het Bod biedt twee keuzemogelijkheden aan houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen: (1) de Standaard Ruiloptie en (2) de Alternatieve Ruiloptie. Houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen die Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen aanmelden zonder een geldige keuze te maken voor de Standaard Ruiloptie of de Alternatieve Ruiloptie, worden geacht voor de Standaard Ruiloptie te hebben gekozen. In beide gevallen zullen houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen uiteindelijk het aantal Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen en het bedrag in contanten ontvangen voor hun aangeboden Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen, op basis van de Gewone Aandelen Vergoedingsverhouding en enige succesvolle keuze zoals gemaakt op basis van de Mix and Match Faciliteit. Zie hoofdstuk 5.1 (Considerations Offered).

De Standaard Ruiloptie heeft waarschijnlijk de voorkeur van de meeste houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen, omdat (i) de Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen die zij zullen ontvangen voor hun aangemelde Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen, zullen worden geleverd in het Euroclear Nederland Systeem via de CREST rekening van Euroclear Nederland en (ii) zolang deze aandelen in het Euroclear Nederland Systeem worden gehouden en aan bepaalde voorwaarden wordt voldaan, zal en waarschijnlijk geen SDRT of zegelrecht van het Verenigd Koninkrijk hoeven te worden betaald. Daarentegen zullen Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen die worden uitgegeven onder de Alternatieve Ruiloptie via CREST (door middel van het crediteren van de rekening van een lid van CREST) of in gecertificeerde vorm worden uitgegeven, in plaats van te worden geleverd in het Euroclear Nederland Systeem via de CREST rekening van Euroclear Nederland. Hierdoor zal er waarschijnlijk bij doorverkoop van deze aandelen SDRT of zegelrecht van het Verenigd Koninkrijk moeten worden betaald. Anderzijds kan de Alternatieve Ruiloptie in bepaalde jurisdicties voor sommige houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen een uitgestelde belastingheffing opleveren voor de omwisseling van hun Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen voor Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen. Houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen wordt geadviseerd hoofdstuk 13 (Tax Aspects of the Offer) te bestuderen.

De Standaard Ruiloptie zal worden geëffectueerd met behulp van Barclays (Netherlands), de vennootschap die de directe houdstermaatschappij van ABN AMRO zal zijn na voltooiing van het Bod. Voorafgaand aan de Leveringsdatum na voltooiing van het Bod houdt Barclays direct of indirect 100 procent van de aandelen van Barclays (Netherlands), welke aandelen worden gehouden in het Euroclear Nederland Systeem. De Standaard Ruiloptie zal worden geëffectueerd met behulp van Barclays Nominees (No. 1) Limited (the Nominee), handelend als Nominee voor de houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor die de transactie via Euroclear Nederland zal effectueren.

Table of Contents

De Standaard Ruiloptie zal worden geëffectueerd door middel van de volgende stappen, die achtereenvolgens op de Leveringsdatum zullen plaatsvinden:

- (a) door het accepteren van de Standaard Ruiloptie zal de houder van ABN AMRO Aandelen
 - (i) de Nominee onherroepelijk instrueren via zijn bank of effectenmakelaar zoveel Barclays (Netherlands) Aandelen te ontvangen na de overdracht zoals uiteengezet in sub-paragraaf (ii) hieronder, die samen een marktwaarde hebben die gelijk is aan de Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen die door hem of haar zijn aangemeld, en
 - (ii) het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor onherroepelijk instrueren om zijn of haar Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen daarvoor in de plaats over te dragen aan Barclays (Netherlands), en
 - (iii) de Nominee onherroepelijk instrueren om onmiddellijk na ontvangst de Barclays (Netherlands) Aandelen over te dragen aan Barclays.
- (b) In ruil voor de overdracht van Barclays (Netherlands) Aandelen aan Barclays, zal Barclays Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen uitgeven en/of een bedrag in contanten betalen (voorzover van toepassing) aan de houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen. Details met betrekking tot de wijze waarop een deel van het bedrag in contanten afkomstig van de China Development Bank betaald zal worden, staat beschreven in hoofdstuk 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek)

Het eindresultaat van al deze stappen zal zijn dat (a) de aangeboden Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen worden gehouden door Barclays (Netherlands), (b) de Barclays (Netherlands) Aandelen die in eerste instantie zijn overgedragen aan de Nominee uiteindelijk worden overgedragen aan Barclays en (c) Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen worden uitgegeven en een bedrag in contanten wordt betaald aan de houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen. Het aantal Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen dat wordt uitgegeven en het bedrag in contanten dat wordt betaald in ruil voor de overdracht van de Barclays (Netherlands) Aandelen zal worden bepaald door toepassing van de Vergoedingsverhouding Gewone Aandelen en de succesvolle keuze zoals gemaakt op basis van de Mix en Match faciliteit op het aantal Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen dat is overgedragen door de houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen aan Barclays (Netherlands). De uiteindelijke vergoeding voor houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun aandelen hebben aangemeld, zal in beide gevallen het aantal Gewone Barclays Aandelen en het bedrag in contanten zijn, als bepaald overeenkomstig de Gewone Aandelen Vergoedingsverhouding, en de succesvolle keuze op basis van de Mix en Match Faciliteit. De Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen uitgegeven in de Standaard Ruiloptie zullen worden gehouden in het Euroclear Nederland Systeem via de CREST rekening van Euroclear Nederland. Alle onherroepelijke instructies zijn onderworpen aan het recht om aanmeldingen van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen in te trekken tot de Sluitingsdatum, overeenkomstig hoofdstuk 5.11 (Withdrawal Rights). De houder van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen die kiest voor de Alternatieve Ruiloptie, zal zijn of haar Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen via zijn of haar bank of effectenmakelaar aan Barclays aanbieden via het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor en Barclays zal daarvoor Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen uitgeven en/of contanten betalen (voorzover van toepassing) aan de aanmeldende houder van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen. De Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen die direct zijn uitgegeven aan de houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen overeenkomstig de Alternatieve Ruiloptie, zullen worden uitgegeven via CREST (door het crediteren van een rekening van een lid van CREST) of in gecertificeerde vorm in plaats van in het Euroclear Nederland Systeem via de CREST rekening van Euroclear Nederland waarbij dienovereenkomstig aangenomen kan worden dat betaling van SDRT of zegelrecht van het Verenigd Koninkrijk bij doorverkoop van deze aandelen waarschijnlijk is. Details met betrekking tot de wijze waarop een deel van het bedrag in contanten afkomstig van de China Development Bank betaald zal worden, worden beschreven in hoofdstuk 6.3 (Arrangements with China Development Bank and Temasek).

Houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen die een keuze maken voor de Standaard Ruiloptie of voor de Alternatieve Ruiloptie wordt aangeraden om hoofdstuk 13 (Tax Aspects of the Offer) zorgvuldig te bestuderen. Mix en Match Faciliteit contanten ontvangen met betrekking tot hun Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (dat wil zeggen, een houder van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen mag verzoeken een groter gedeelte in contanten danwel in Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen te ontvangen met betrekking tot alle of een deel van zijn of haar Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen dan hij of zij zou ontvangen op basis van de Ruilverhouding Gewone Aandelen). Het maken van een keuze onder de Mix en Match Faciliteit beïnvloedt de mogelijkheid om te kiezen tussen de Standaard Ruiloptie en de Alternatieve Ruiloptie niet.

Binnen de Mix en Match Faciliteit mogen houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen ervoor kiezen om af te wijken van de verhoudingen waarin zij Nieuwe Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en een bedrag in

Van het totale aantal Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen, inclusief de Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen die zijn vertegenwoordigd door de Nieuwe Barclays ADSs, die in verband met het Bod zullen worden uitgegeven en het totale bedrag van de Contante Vergoeding dat zal worden betaald in verband met het Bod, zal niet worden afgeweken. Dienovereenkomstig zal het inwilligen van verzoeken van de houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen binnen de Mix en Match Faciliteit afhankelijk zijn van de mate waarin andere houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (alsook houders van ABN AMRO ADSs, die eveneens zullen beschikken over de mogelijkheid om een keuze te maken zoals verder beschreven in hoofdstuk 4.1.2 en 5.1.2 en die deel uitmaken van dezelfde vergoedingen -pool), verzoeken doen die moeten worden verrekend. In het geval dat verzoeken niet volledig kunnen worden ingewilligd, zullen deze pro rata naar beneden worden bijgesteld.

Wanneer een houder van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen ervoor kiest om zowel een groter gedeelte in contanten te ontvangen als een groter gedeelte in Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen te ontvangen, zullen beide keuzes vervallen en zal een dergelijke houder van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen worden geacht het Bod te hebben aanvaard op basis van de Standaard Ruiloptie met betrekking tot de aangemelde Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen.

Indien een houder van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen geen keuze maakt tussen het ontvangen van een groter gedeelte in contanten te ontvangen of een groter gedeelte in Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen, zal een dergelijke houder van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen de standaard-vergoeding ontvangen naar de Ruilverhouding Gewone Aandelen, te weten Euro 13,15 in contanten en 2,13 Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen in ruil voor elk aangemeld Gewoon ABN AMRO Aandeel.

15.6 Delen van aandelen

Er zullen geen delen van Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen of Preferente Barclays Aandelen zullen worden uitgegeven aan houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen of hun Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen op de juiste wijze aanmelden onder het Bod. Toegelaten Instellingen die Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen of Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen namens hun cliënten aanmelden onder het Bod, zullen rechten op delen van Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen of Preferente Barclays Aandelen naar beneden afronden (en contanten in plaats van delen Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen of Preferente Barclays Aandelen aan hun cliënten doen uitkeren door het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor onder toepassing van hun gebruikelijke regelingen). Een Toegelaten Instelling kan, op basis van bestaande regelingen, de delen van Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen of Preferente Barclays Aandelen die hen toekomen naar boven of naar beneden afronden op basis van een afrekening in contanten.

15.7 Vergoeding per ADS

Houders van ABN AMRO ADSs die hun ABN AMRO ADSs aanmelden onder het Bod krijgen 0,5325 Barclays ADSs (de Ruilverhouding ADSs) en het equivalent van Euro 13,15 in U.S. Dollars gebaseerd op een omgerekende vergoeding vanuit de Euro naar U.S. Dollars, waartoe de houders van ABN AMRO ADSs zijn gerechtigd, vrij van alle eventuele honoraria en kosten die van toepassing zijn, uitgaand van de gemiddelde wisselkoers gehanteerd door The Bank of New York (de ADS omwissel-agent), berekend over de vijf Werkdagen voorafgaand aan de datum waarop de vergoeding in contanten is ontvangen door The Bank of New York (de ADS omwissel-agent) voor de levering van desbetreffende ABN AMRO ADS voor elk ABN AMRO ADS (de Contante Vergoeding ADSs) en samen met de Ruilverhouding ADS, de Vergoedingsverhouding ADSs) voor elk ABN AMRO ADSs dat op de juiste wijze is aangemeld onder het Bod (of op onjuiste wijze mits Barclays de aanmelding daarvan niettemin accepteert) op voorwaarde dat het Bod gestand wordt gedaan (Barclays ADSs die worden aangeboden onder het Bod zijn de Nieuwe Barclays ADSs), met het effect dat de vergoeding voor elke ABN AMRO ADS equivalent is aan de vergoeding voor elk Gewoon ABN AMRO Aandeel.

Table of Contents

Binnen de Mix en Match Faciliteit mogen houders van ABN AMRO ADSs er voor kiezen om af te wijken van de verhoudingen in welke zij Nieuwe Barclays ADSs en een vergoeding in contanten ontvangen met betrekking tot ABN AMRO ADSs welke zij houden (met andere woorden, houders van ABN AMRO ADSs mogen er toe verzoeken om met betrekking tot een gedeelte, of alle van zijn of haar ABN AMRO ADSs een groter gedeelte in contanten of Nieuwe Barclays ADSs te ontvangen ten opzichte van wat hij of zij zou krijgen ingevolge de Ruilverhouding ADS).

Voor meer informatie over de Mix en Match Faciliteit wordt verwezen naar hoofdstukken 4.1.2 en 5.1.2 (Consideration per ADS) van het Biedingsbericht.

15.8 Vergoeding per Certificaat van Preferent Aandeel

Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen aanmelden onder het bod voor de Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen kunnen kiezen tussen Euro 0,59 in contanten voor elk Certificaat van Preferente Aandelen (de Contante Vergoeding Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen) of, op voorwaarde dat het Besluit Preferente Aandelen wordt aangenomen tijdens de Barclays Aandelhouders Vergaderingen, 0,59 Preferente Barclays Aandelen voor elk aangemeld en geleverd Certificaat van Preferente Aandelen (de Ruilverhouding Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen) en samen met de Contante Vergoeding Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen de Vergoedingsverhouding Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen), afhankelijk van de gestanddoening van het Bod. De totale vergoeding voor de Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen zal ongeveer Euro 808 miljoen bedragen, ervan uitgaande dat alle uitstaande Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen zullen worden aangemeld. De Ruilverhouding Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen zal worden aangepast om het gecumuleerde dividend tot en met de Leveringsdatum te omvatten. Aangezien het eerstvolgende dividend voor houders van Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen betaalbaar wordt wanneer ABN AMRO haar jaarlijkse dividend uitkeert aan de houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen over het financiële jaar dat eindigt op 31 december 2007, wordt geen aanpassing van de Ruilverhouding Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen verwacht met betrekking tot een betaling van dividend. Zie hoofdstuk 5.1.3 (Consideration per DR Preference Share).

15.9 Vergoeding per Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen

15.10 Voorwaarden

De verplichting van Barclays om het Bod gestand te doen geldt indien alle onderstaande Voorwaarden zijn vervuld, behoudens, voor zover dit is toegestaan, indien bepaalde Voorwaarden afstand is gedaan door ABN AMRO en/of Barclays:

Het Bod

15.10.1 het aantal Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief ABN AMRO ADSs) dat is aangemeld onder het Bod, bedraagt ten minste 80% met een exacte samenstelling van het aandelenkapitaal zoals nader beschreven in hoofdstuk 6.2.1 van dit Biedingsbericht;

15.10.2 de Stichting is onherroepelijk overeengekomen met Barclays en ABN AMRO dat, op voorwaarde van:

- (i) gestanddoening van het Bod;
- (ii) een toezegging van Barclays om geen andere stemrechten uit te oefenen op de Onderliggende Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen dan die van Certificaathouder van Preferente Aandelen zolang de Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen zijn genoteerd op Eurolist van Euronext Amsterdam; en

Table of Contents

- (iii) een wijziging van de administratievoorwaarden van de Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen die noodzakelijk is voor de omwisseling van Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen voor Onderliggende Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen door Barclays en alle andere handelingen die nodig zijn voor een dergelijke omwisseling;
- zij alle noodzakelijke handelingen zal verrichten om Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen om te wisselen voor Onderliggende Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen, zodra dit wordt verzocht door Barclays, en een dergelijke overeenkomst volledig van kracht zal blijven;

Belangrijke Nadelige Verandering

15.10.3 er geen Belangrijke Nadelige Verandering heeft plaatsgevonden of kenbaar is geworden aan Barclays voorafgaand aan, of op, de Sluitingsdatum, waardoor van Barclays niet in redelijkheid kan worden verwacht door te gaan met het Bod, de Fusie of de gestanddoening van het Bod te continueren;

15.10.4 er geen Belangrijke Nadelige Verandering heeft plaatsgevonden of kenbaar is geworden aan ABN AMRO voorafgaand aan, of op, de Sluitingsdatum, waardoor van ABN AMRO niet in redelijkheid kan worden verwacht door te gaan met het Bod of de Fusie te continueren;

15.10.5 geen Derde Partij heeft besloten of aangegeven de intentie te hebben een Belemmerende Actie in te stellen, te implementeren of te dreigen met een Belemmerende Actie, zodanig dat van Barclays en ABN AMRO niet in redelijkheid verwacht kan worden door te gaan met de Fusie, het Bod of de gestanddoening van het Bod;

15.10.6 er zich, sinds het aangaan van het Fusieprotocol, geen omstandigheid, gebeurtenis of ontwikkeling heeft voorgedaan die leidt of zal leiden tot:

- (a) een onderbreking of beperking van de handel in Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen of in Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen (anders dan op tijdelijke basis bij normale handel);
- (b) een onderbreking of beperking van de handel in Barclays Aandelen (anders dan op tijdelijke basis bij normale handel);

Goedkeuringen van Toezichthouders

15.10.7 Alle:

- (a) noodzakelijke kennisgevingen, aanvragen en aanmeldingen en die waarvan Barclays en/of ABN AMRO hebben besloten dat ze toepasselijk zijn in enige jurisdictie met betrekking tot de Fusie of het Bod, de implementatie daarvan, de voorgenomen directe of indirecte aankoop van enige aandelen of andere effecten in, of de controle over, ABN AMRO of een lid van de ABN AMRO Groep door Barclays of een lid van de Barclays Groep, en de implementatie van de Structuring Action en de exploitatie van de Gecombineerde Groep overeenkomstig het Fusieprotocol, zijn gedaan;
- (b) goedkeuringen die nodig zijn of waarvan Barclays en/of ABN AMRO hebben besloten dat deze passend zijn in enige jurisdictie met betrekking tot de Fusie of het Bod, de implementatie daarvan, de voorgenomen directe of indirecte aankoop van enige aandelen of andere effecten in, of de zeggenschap over, ABN AMRO of een lid van de ABN AMRO Groep door Barclays of een lid van de Barclays Groep, de implementatie van de Structuring Action of de exploitatie van de Gecombineerde Groep overeenkomstig het Fusieprotocol, zijn verkregen van alle toepasselijke Derde Partijen (waaronder begrepen, maar niet beperkt tot personen of rechtspersonen met wie door een lid van de Gecombineerde Groep een contract is aangegaan), blijven volledig geldig en van kracht en zijn niet onderhevig aan een materiële voorwaarde is niet waaraan niet voldaan of welke niet is vervuld;
- (c) wachtermijnen (of verlengingen daarvan) uit toepasselijke wet- en regelgeving van enige jurisdictie waarbinnen een Derde Partij zich mag verzetten tegen, of acties mag aankondigen die de Fusie of het Bod, de implementatie, de voorgenomen directe of indirecte aankoop van enige aandelen of andere effecten in, of de zeggenschap over, ABN AMRO of een lid van de ABN AMRO Groep door Barclays of een lid van de Barclays Groep, de implementatie van de Structuring Action of de exploitatie van de Gecombineerde Groep overeenkomstig het Fusieprotocol (of waarvan op een andere manier in redelijkheid kan worden verwacht dat deze een materieel en nadelig effect kunnen hebben op ABN AMRO of Barclays of een lid van de Gecombineerde Groep) kunnen belemmeren, zijn verlopen of geëindigd;

- (d) wettelijke vereisten in enige jurisdictie met betrekking tot de Fusie of het Bod, de implementatie van de voorgenomen directe of indirect aankoop van enige aandelen of andere effecten in, of de zeggenschap over, ABN AMRO of een lid van de ABN AMRO Groep door Barclays of een lid van de Barclays Groep, de implementatie van de Structuring Action of de exploitatie van de Gecombineerde Groep overeenkomstig het Fusieprotocol zijn in acht genomen;

voor zover een gebrek met betrekking tot het doen van dergelijke kennisgevingen of aanvragen, het verkrijgen van goedkeuringen, het verloop of de beëindiging van dergelijke wachttijden of het in acht nemen van dergelijke verplichtingen zou resulteren in het overtreden van wet- of regelgeving door Barclays of een lid van de Barclays Groep, of een materieel en nadelig effect zou hebben op ABN AMRO of Barclays of een lid van de Gecombineerde Groep of anderszins zou betekenen dat van Barclays niet in redelijkheid verwacht kan worden door te gaan met het Bod, de Fusie of de gestanddoening van het Bod en anders dan dergelijke kennisgevingen, aanvragen, meldingen en verplichtingen en, met betrekking tot de Structuring Action, die goedkeuringen en wachtermijnen waaraan niet kan worden voldaan,

15.10.8 niettegenstaande paragraaf 15.10.7 hierboven:

- (a) de Bevoegde Toezichthoudende Autoriteiten in Nederland hebben hun verklaring van geen bezwaar afgegeven overeenkomstig met en voor zover vereist door de Wet op het financieel toezicht (de Wft) met betrekking tot elke rechtspersoon (ongeacht onderdeel van de Gecombineerde Groep) die een gekwalificeerde deelneming (als bedoeld in de Wft) heeft, verkrijgt of vergroot of die enige zeggenschap uitoefent over een dergelijk gekwalificeerde deelneming in een kredietinstelling, financiële instelling, UCITS management bedrijf, investeringsmaatschappij, verzekeringsinstelling of andere instelling, niet zijnde een voorgenoemde financiële onderneming als bedoeld in de Wft die onderdeel is van de Gecombineerde Groep (en voor de reductie van eigen fondsen, dividend of uitkering, van of betaling uit een reserve post, overname van activa en passiva, fusie of reorganisatie in uitvoering) met betrekking tot de Fusie of het Bod, de implementatie daarvan, de voorgenomen directe of indirecte aankoop van enige aandelen of andere effecten in, of de controle over, ABN AMRO of een lid van de ABN AMRO Groep door Barclays of een lid van de Barclays Groep, de betaling van enig dividend of andere uitkering door ABN AMRO Bank of ABN AMRO ingevolge het Bod welke is gerelateerd aan de opbrengsten van de verkoop van LaSalle, de implementatie van de Structuring Action of de exploitatie van de Gecombineerde Groep overeenkomstig het Fusieprotocol;
- (b) de FSA heeft haar schriftelijke goedkeuring kenbaar gemaakt met betrekking tot de rechtspersonen (ongeacht of deze onderdeel zijn van de Gecombineerde Groep) die zeggenschap zullen verkrijgen of aanvullende of toegenomen zeggenschap verkrijgen over een UK bevoegde rechtspersoon (zoals bedoeld in de FSMA), welke onderdeel uitmaakt van de Gecombineerde Groep met betrekking tot de Fusie of het Bod, de implementatie daarvan, de voorgenomen directe of indirecte aankoop van enige aandelen of andere effecten in, of de controle over, ABN AMRO of een lid van de ABN AMRO Groep door Barclays of een lid van de Barclays Groep, de implementatie van de Structuring Action of de exploitatie van de Gecombineerde Groep overeenkomstig het Fusieprotocol of, waar geen dergelijke kennisgeving is gegeven met betrekking tot enige rechtspersoon, de periode zoals toegestaan onder een dergelijke regelgeving voor de FSA om enige bezwaren tegen verkrijging van dergelijke zeggenschap of aanvullende of toegenomen zeggenschap door een dergelijk rechtspersoon kenbaar te maken is verlopen zonder kennisgeving van dergelijke bezwaren en de FSA heeft een goedkeuring (als bedoeld in de FSMA) gehouden door een goedgekeurde rechtspersoon op de datum van het Fusieprotocol niet ingetrokken of gewijzigd en heeft geen voorstel tot intrekking of wijziging niet kenbaar gemaakt of laten weten kenbaar te maken;

- (c) DNB heeft bevestigd dat zij geen bezwaren heeft met betrekking tot de benoeming van bepaalde personen tot lid van de ABN AMRO Raad van Commissarissen en/of de ABN

AMRO Raad van Bestuur, afhankelijk van en met ingang vanaf de gestanddoening van het Bod en de FSA heeft de benoeming van de aangewezen personen tot bestuurders van de Barclays Directie goedgekeurd, onderhevig aan en met ingang vanaf de gestanddoening van het Bod;

- (d) alle goedkeuringen zijn verkregen of aankondigingen zijn gedeponereerd die onder het federale bankrecht of het bankrecht van de afzonderlijke staten van de V.S. vereist zijn voor voltooiing van het Bod en de Fusie, en alle vereiste wachtermijnen zijn verlopen;
- (e) de Europese Commissie heeft een beschikking gegeven op grond van artikel 6(1)(b) van de EG-Concentratieverordening, of wordt geacht deze beschikking te hebben gegeven op grond van artikel 10(6) van de EG-Concentratieverordening, waarin zij verklaart dat de Fusie en het Bod verenigbaar zijn met de Gemeenschappelijke Markt zonder enige voorwaarden of verplichtingen te verbinden aan haar beschikking, en in het geval dat een verzoek uit hoofde van artikel 9(2) van de EG-Concentratieverordening is gedaan door een Lidstaat, heeft de Europese Commissie aangegeven dat zij heeft besloten de Fusie of het Bod (of enig deel daarvan) of enige kwestie die voortkomt uit de Fusie of het Bod niet naar een bevoegde autoriteit van een Lidstaat te verwijzen, overeenkomstig artikel 9(1) van de EG-Concentratieverordening;
- (f) de toepasselijke wachtermijnen, indien toepasselijk op de Fusie en het Bod, onder de Amerikaanse Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act van 1976 met betrekking tot zijn verlopen of beëindigd, en geen bevel is uitgevaardigd door een competente overheid in de V.S. (ofwel tijdelijk, voorbereidend of permanent) om de implementatie van de Fusie of het Bod te voorkomen en geen overheid in de V.S. heeft aangegeven de intentie te hebben of heeft gedreigd maatregelen te nemen om de implementatie te voorkomen en geen maatregel is aanhangig om dit te bewerkstelligen;
- (g) alle kennisgevingen, aanvragen, meldingen en Autorisaties welke in enige jurisdictie zijn vereist in verband met de voorgestelde acquisitie door China Development Bank of Temasek (of enige dochtervennootschap van een van beiden) van aandelen in Barclays ingevolge de plaatsing van nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen door Barclays aan China Development Bank waarnaar wordt verwezen in het Herziene Persbericht, inclusief de Barclays Aandelen die beschikbaar worden gesteld aan bestaande houders van Barclays Aandelen door middel van claw back (of enige resulterende indirecte acquisitie van enig belang in enig lid van de Barclays Groep of de ABN AMRO Groep) zijn gedaan of verkregen van alle relevante Derde Partijen en enige wachtermijnen (of verlengingen daarvan) onder enige van toepassing zijnde wetgeving of enige jurisdictie gedurende welke enige Derde Partij zou kunnen verhinderen of stappen zou kunnen nemen of aankondigen hetgeen een dergelijke acquisitie zou kunnen verhinderen, zijn verstreken, vervallen of beëindigd (met uitzondering van die welke niet kunnen worden gedaan, worden verkregen, zijn vervallen of zijn verstreken voorafgaande aan de acquisitie van die aandelen), en (a) al deze bekrachtigingen blijven volledig geldig en van kracht en (b) deze bekrachtigingen zijn niet onderhevig aan enige materiële voorwaarde welke niet is vervuld of voldaan;

15.10.9 noch Barclays, noch ABN AMRO heeft een kennisgeving ontvangen van DNB of de FSA dat het waarschijnlijk is dat, voordat het Bod wordt gedaan, een verandering op zal treden met betrekking tot toezichts-, rapportage-, of ordeningsmaatregelen en vereisten ten aanzien van kapitaal, welke zullen gelden met betrekking tot de Gecombineerde Groep (of een lid daarvan) na voltooiing van het Bod;

15.10.10 de Belasting Bevestiging van de relevante fiscale autoriteiten in Nederland en het Verenigd Koninkrijk zijn niet ingetrokken of gewijzigd;

Corporate Action

15.10.12 voorafgaand aan de Sluitingsdatum en onderhevig aan de gestanddoening van het Bod, heeft de Algemene Vergadering van de houders van Barclays Aandelen de benodigde besluiten genomen voor:

(i) effectuering van het Bod en de Fusie en alle maatregelen voor de implementatie daarvan, (ii) toename van het aandelenkapitaal van Barclays en de uitgifte van de Barclays Aandelen uit te geven overeenkomstig het Bod, effectief met ingang van de gestanddoening van het Bod;

15.10.13 Barclays en ABN AMRO hebben kopieën van ontslagbrieven van de leden van de ABN AMRO Raden en leden van de raad van bestuur en de raad van commissarissen van ABN AMRO Bank ontvangen die, zoals is overeengekomen, zullen aftreden op voorwaarde dat het Bod gestand wordt gedaan;

15.10.14 Barclays en ABN AMRO hebben kopieën van ontslagbrieven van de leden van de Barclays Directie ontvangen die, zoals is overeengekomen, zullen aftreden op voorwaarde dat het Bod gestand wordt gedaan;

Goedkeuring Biedingsdocumentatie en Listing

15.10.15 het Amerikaanse Registratiedocument zal van kracht zijn geworden onder de Securities Act en er zal geen verordenende maatregel genomen zijn als gevolg waarvan het van kracht zijn van het Amerikaanse Registratiedocument onder de Securities Act is opgeschort en er is geen procedure met dit doel aangespannen door de SEC;

15.10.16 de aangewezen toezichthouder(s) en/of de relevante beurs heeft bevestigd dat de Barclays Aandelen of een deel daarvan zoals bepaald door Barclays na overleg met ABN AMRO en met inachtneming van haar verzoeken, zijn toegelaten tot de handel en notering van de London Stock Exchange, Euronext Amsterdam, Tokyo Stock Exchange en New York Stock Exchange.

Onrechtmatigheden, Rechtszaken en Insolventie

15.10.18 Barclays en ABN AMRO hebben op of voorafgaand aan de Sluitingsdatum geen kennisgeving ontvangen van de AFM dat de voorbereiding van het Bod in strijd is met een of meer bepalingen als uiteengezet in paragraaf IIa Wte 1995, en dat op grond van artikel 32a Bte 1995 effecteninstellingen geen medewerking zouden mogen verlenen aan de afwikkeling van het Bod;

15.10.19 geen gebeurtenis, omstandigheid of serie van gebeurtenissen of omstandigheden heeft plaatsgevonden of aan Barclays bekend is geworden die niet is bekendgemaakt in de jaarrekening voor het financiële jaar eindigend op 31 December 2006 van ABN AMRO of publiekelijk is aangekondigd door of namens ABN AMRO voor de datum van het Fusieprotocol of schriftelijk is bekendgemaakt door ABN AMRO aan Barclays voor ondertekening van het Fusieprotocol, welke bekendmaking een negatief effect heeft of kan hebben van 5 procent of meer op de geconsolideerde bedrijfsopbrengsten zoals vermeld in de jaarrekening van ABN AMRO voor het financiële jaar eindigend op 31 December 2006;

15.10.20 geen gebeurtenis, omstandigheid of serie van gebeurtenissen of omstandigheden heeft plaatsgevonden of aan ABN AMRO bekend is geworden die niet is bekendgemaakt in de jaarrekening van Barclays voor het financiële jaar eindigend op 31 December 2006 of publiekelijk aangekondigd door of namens Barclays voor de datum van het Fusieprotocol of schriftelijk bekendgemaakt door Barclays aan ABN AMRO voor ondertekening van het Fusieprotocol, welke bekendmaking een negatief effect heeft of kan hebben van 5 procent of meer op de geconsolideerde bedrijfsopbrengsten zoals vermeld in de jaarrekening van Barclays voor het financiële jaar eindigend op 31 December 2006;

15.10.21 het Fusieprotocol is niet beëindigd;

Bovendien zal de verplichting van Barclays om het Bod gestand te doen zijn onderworpen aan de opschortende voorwaarde dat geen Derde Partij verklaart of herbevestigt dat het een bod of een gewijzigd bod doet, of van plan is dit te doen, op aandelen in ABN AMRO. In het geval dat deze opschortende voorwaarde niet wordt vervuld, mag Barclays de vergoeding wijzigen welke in het bod wordt aangeboden, op voorwaarde dat de wijziging niet een vermindering inhoudt van de vergoeding welke in het Bod wordt geboden vergeleken met de vergoeding welke in het Bod wordt geboden op het moment net voordat een dergelijke wijziging wordt gedaan. Barclays is met ABN AMRO overeengekomen dat, zolang het Fusieprotocol niet is beëindigd, zij deze opschortende voorwaarde niet zal inroepen zonder een wijziging van de vergoeding (niet zijnde een vermindering) welke ingevolge in het Bod wordt geboden aan te kondigen, tenzij zij voorafgaande schriftelijke goedkeuring van ABN AMRO heeft verkregen.

De bovenstaande paragraaf waarin wordt gesproken van een Derde Partij die van plan is een bod te doen, omvat niet het huidige bod van het Consortium op de voorwaarden als aangekondigd op 20 juli 2007, maar het omvat bijvoorbeeld wel enige wijziging van dat bod of de voorwaarden van het bod (inclusief een wijziging van, of het afstand doen van de biedingsvoorwaarden), enig nieuw bod of een herbevestiging van enig bod door het Consortium of enige verklaring van het Consortium in verband daarmee.

Het bovenstaande geldt niettegenstaande de mogelijkheid voor Barclays om de vergoeding die in het Bod wordt geboden te wijzigen in het geval dat zij in redelijkheid vaststelt dat een of meerdere andere Voorwaarden niet zijn vervuld, dan wel niet zullen worden vervuld. Zoals ook uiteengezet in hoofdstuk 5.1 (Considerations Offered), zal enige wijziging van de vergoeding die in het Bod wordt geboden publiek worden bekend gemaakt door middel van publicatie van een persbericht en/of een aanvullend biedingsbericht dat aanvullende informatie bevat met betrekking tot een dergelijke wijziging, dat voorafgaande aan publicatie aan de AFM zal worden toegezonden conform artikel 9v van het BTE 1995. De Aanmeldingstermijn zal niet eerder verstrijken dan 10 Werkdagen na de publicatie van een dergelijk persbericht.

De Voorwaarden in paragrafen 15.10.1 (behoudens het goedkeuringsrecht van de ABN AMRO Raad van Commissarissen zoals in genoemde paragraaf beschreven), 15.10.2, 15.10.3, 15.10.5 (met betrekking tot (i) onder de definitie Belemmerende Actie en met betrekking tot (ii) en (iii) onder dergelijke definitie voorzover deze betrekking heeft op enig lid van de ABN AMRO Groep), 15.10.6 (a), 15.10.11, 15.10.13, 15.10.19, 15.10.22, 15.10.23 zijn ten voordele van Barclays. Van deze paragrafen mag op enig moment door middel van schriftelijk bericht aan ABN AMRO afstand worden gedaan (hetzij in het geheel, hetzij gedeeltelijke) door Barclays.

De Voorwaarden in paragrafen 15.10.4, 15.10.5 (met betrekking tot (ii) en (iii) onder de definitie Belemmerende Actie voor zover zij betrekking hebben op enig lid van de Barclays Groep), 15.10.6 (b), 15.10.14 en 15.10.20 zijn ten voordele van ABN AMRO. Van deze paragrafen mag op enig moment door middel van schriftelijk bericht aan Barclays afstand worden gedaan (hetzij in het geheel, hetzij gedeeltelijk) door ABN AMRO.

De Voorwaarden in paragrafen 15.10.7 tot 15.10.10 (inclusief), 15.10.12, 15.10.15 tot 15.10.18 (inclusief) en 15.10.21 zijn ten voordele van zowel Barclays als ABN AMRO. Van deze paragrafen mag afstand worden gedaan (hetzij in het geheel, hetzij gedeeltelijk) hetzij door Barclays, hetzij door ABN AMRO op voorwaarde dat hetzij Barclays, hetzij ABN AMRO schriftelijk overeenstemming heeft gegeven (met uitzondering dat Barclays slechts overeenstemming van ABN AMRO behoeft om afstand te doen van de Voorwaarden in paragrafen 15.10.7 of 15.10.8 voor zover deze Voorwaarden betrekking hebben op vereisten die van toepassing zijn op leden van de ABN AMRO Groep of indien in redelijkheid verwacht kan worden dat het uitblijven van de vervulling van de Voorwaarde de ABN AMRO Groep in zijn geheel of het bereiken door Barclays en ABN AMRO van de overeengekomen doelstellingen met betrekking tot strategieën en het toekomstige bestuur, wezenlijk en nadelig zal beïnvloeden).

Afstand door Barclays van de Voorwaarde genoemd in paragraaf 15.10.1 behoeft goedkeuring van de ABN AMRO Raad van Commissarissen indien de aangemelde ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief ABN AMRO ADSs), tezamen met ABN AMRO Aandelen die op de Sluitingsdatum rechtstreeks of indirect door Barclays worden gehouden, minder dan 50% (vijftig procent) plus één van de stemrechten van het geplaatste aandelenkapitaal van ABN AMRO vertegenwoordigen en indien minder dan 50% (vijftig procent) plus één van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief ABN AMRO ADSs) in het geplaatste aandelenkapitaal van ABN AMRO (exclusief Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief ABN AMRO ADSs) door ABN AMRO of door een van haar dochtervennootschappen wordt gehouden op de Sluitingsdatum).

Barclays heeft aan China Development Bank toegezegd (a) de minimale aanmeldingsvoorwaarde van 80% niet te verlagen naar minder dan 70%, (b) geen afstand te doen van de voorwaarden ten aanzien van belangrijke negatieve verandering of (c) enig recht om het ruilbod te beëindigen, te ontbinden of in te trekken, zonder daaraan voorafgaand eerst China Development Bank te raadplegen en haar standpunt in acht te nemen.

15.11 Motivering voor het Bod en de Fusie

Gebaseerd op de motiveringen van het Bod en de Fusie, gegeven door Barclays en ABN AMRO zoals beschreven in dit Biedingsbericht (zie hoofdstuk 6.14 (Reasons for the Offer and the Merger)), wordt het Bod aanbevolen door de Barclays Directie omdat zij gelooft dat het in het belang is van de aandeelhouders van Barclays. De voorgestelde fusie van ABN AMRO en Barclays zal leiden tot een sterke en competitieve combinatie voor de cliënten van beide entiteiten met superieure producten en een wijdvertakte distributie. ABN AMRO en Barclays geloven dat de Gecombineerde Groep een veelbetekenende en duurzame toekomst tegemoet kan zien en zal leiden tot aanhoudende winstgroei voor haar aandeelhouders.³⁵

15.12 Dividendbeleid

Aangenomen dat de Effectieve Datum zal zijn gelegen op of voor de registratiedatum voor het slotdividend van Barclays voor 2007, die wordt verwacht te zijn gelegen begin maart 2008, zal het eerste aan de houders van Nieuwe Barclays Aandelen uitkeerbare dividend waarschijnlijk het slotdividend van Barclays voor 2007 zijn waarvan wordt verwacht dat betaling zal geschieden in de laatste week van april 2008, in lijn met de gebruikelijke gang van zaken van Barclays.

Het voornemen is dat de Gecombineerde Groep vanaf de Effectieve Datum Barclays en ABN AMRO's progressieve dividendbeleid zal voortzetten en dat het dividend per aandeel over de langere termijn ongeveer zal groeien in lijn met de winst per aandeel. Met geschatte synergie voordelen van de Fusie zal het jaarlijkse dividend van Barclays ongeveer tweemaal gedekt worden door de aangepaste winst. Het management van zowel ABN AMRO als Barclays is van mening dat dit beleid een passende balans tussen winstuitkering aan aandeelhouders en winstbehoud voor de financiering van groei zal zijn. Tevens wordt verwacht dat de Gecombineerde Groep Barclays' huidige weging van jaarlijkse dividenden ten opzichte van de slotdividenden zal handhaven om flexibiliteit te garanderen. Het wordt niet verwacht dat de dividenden per aandeel in 2008 materieel zullen verschillen van de dividenden die Barclays zou hebben verwacht uit te keren aan aandeelhouders indien de Fusie niet had plaatsgevonden.

Na implementatie van de Fusie zal de Gecombineerde Groep de jaarrekeningen in Euro presenteren en de dividenden in Euro vaststellen. Houders van Barclays Aandelen wordt de mogelijkheid geboden te kiezen voor uitkering van dividend in Euro of in Engelse pond (omgewisseld tegen de op dat moment gangbare wisselkoers). Accepterende houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen ontvangen overeenkomstig de Standaard Ruiloptie zullen dividend uitgekeerd krijgen in Euro, tenzij zij geldig anders kiezen. Accepterende houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen ontvangen overeenkomstig de Alternatieve Ruiloptie krijgen dividend uitgekeerd in Engelse pond (omgewisseld tegen de op dat moment gangbare wisselkoers), tenzij zij geldig kiezen voor uitkering in Euro. Bestaande houders van Barclays Aandelen krijgen blijvend dividend uitgekeerd in Engelse pond

15.13.1 Inleiding

De ABN AMRO Raad van Bestuur en de ABN AMRO Raad van Commissarissen hebben op hun respectievelijke vergaderingen van 26 en 27 juli 2007 het bod van het Consortium en het Barclays Bod (gezamenlijk de Biedingen) besproken, teneinde tot een onderbouwd standpunt ten aanzien van beide Biedingen te komen, waarbij de belangen van de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen en overige belanghebbenden van ABN AMRO in aanmerking worden genomen. De ABN AMRO Raden hebben bij hun beoordeling van elk van beide Biedingen de volgende aspecten betrokken:

- a. Belang van aandeelhouders en overige belanghebbenden
 - Aandeelhouders: de huidige waarde van de Biedingen, de samenstelling van de geboden vergoeding, de eventuele gevoeligheid van de waarde van de biedingen voor de aandelenkoersen van de bidders, de beoogde synergievoordelen en de strategische visie van ABN AMRO;
 - Medewerkers; carrièremogelijkheden, toezeggingen, mogelijk verlies van arbeidsplaatsen (bruto en netto) en formeel advies en opinie van, alsmede standpunten kenbaar gemaakt door, vertegenwoordigers van werknemers;
 - Klanten: kwaliteit van de dienstverlening en continuïteit van het productaanbod en het bedrijfsmodel;
 - Crediteuren: financiële draagkracht en lange termijn ratings van de voortgezette bedrijfsonderdelen.
- De ABN AMRO Raden verwachten dat DNB en andere toezichthouders bij de uitoefening van hun functie en het bepalen van hun definitieve standpunt, beide Biedingen zullen toetsen in overeenstemming met regelgeving, met daarbij oog voor het belang van klanten, crediteuren, het financiële stelsel en de samenleving in het algemeen.
- b. Risico's verbonden aan elke voorgenomen transactie:
 - Executierisico's, waaronder begrepen de waarschijnlijkheid en het tijdstip van goedkeuring door de toezichthouders en aandeelhouders, de formulering van Belangrijke Nadelige Verandering clausules en overige pre-biedings- en biedingsvoorwaarden of ontsnappingsclausules van elk van beide Biedingen;
 - Post-acquisitierisico's: voor zover relevant, risico's van opsplitsing en integratie, solvabiliteit en financiering, juridische en compliance-risico's en integriteitsrisico's.
 - c. Corporate governance:
 - Voor zover relevant, plaats van vestiging van het hoofdkantoor, structuur en samenstelling van het bestuur, vermoedelijke verdeling van hogere en middenkaderfuncties.

15.13.2 Bod van Barclays

Barclays heeft op 23 juli 2007 de herziene voorwaarden voor het Bod bekendgemaakt. Het herziene Barclays Bod bevat gewijzigde voorwaarden alsmede een introductie van een aanzienlijk bedrag in contanten per aandeel tezamen met een mix en match alternatief. De waarde van het Bod blijft desalniettemin voor een groot deel afhankelijk van het koersverloop van de Barclays Aandelen.

Met betrekking tot het Barclays Bod merken de ABN AMRO Raden op dat de voorgestelde Fusie in lijn is met de eerdere uitgesproken strategische visie van ABN AMRO. Bovendien kan de strategische

Afhankelijk van toekomstige ontwikkelingen, met inbegrip van de zaken die worden beschreven in hoofdstuk 7 (Position ABN AMRO Boards), kunnen de ABN AMRO Raden zich beraden op hun positie en daarover vervolgens de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen informeren.

Table of Contents

samenwerking met China Development Bank de groei mogelijkheden van een potentiële Gecombineerde Groep op de Aziatische markt verhogen, hetgeen zou kunnen resulteren in additionele langere -termijn waarde voor de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen.

De voorgenomen transactie met Barclays is op de goede weg voor wat betreft de vereiste goedkeuringen van toezichthouders en heeft over het algemeen acceptabele en beheersbare risico's.

De ABN AMRO Raden hebben tevens de positieve mening van de European Staff Council en het positieve advies van de Centrale Ondernemingsraad in acht genomen met betrekking tot de voorgenomen combinatie met Barclays welke door ABN AMRO zijn ontvangen naar aanleiding van het overleg. De ABN AMRO Raden hebben tevens kennisgenomen van de toezeggingen gedaan aan de werknemers en vakbonden met betrekking tot de rechten van de werknemers en het erkennen van bestaande overeenkomsten.

De goedkeuring van de aandeelhouders van Barclays is nog een openstaand punt en wordt op zijn vroegst verwacht halverwege september 2007. De uitkomst van die stemming is nog onduidelijk op dit moment.

Op het moment van sluiting van de markt op 27 juli 2007 was het Bod 1 procent lager dan de ABN AMRO beurswaarde en 8,8 procent lager dan de waarde van het bod van het Consortium.

De ABN AMRO Raden zijn daarom, ongeacht hun steun voor wat betreft de strategische voordelen van de combinatie, op dit moment niet in de positie om het Bod vanuit een financieel oogpunt aan te bevelen aan de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen. Zie hoofdstuk 7 (Position ABN AMRO Boards).

15.13.3 Bod van het Consortium

Het Consortium bracht op 21 juli 2007 formeel een bod uit. De aanmeldingstermijn loopt, behoudens verlenging, naar verwachting af op 5 oktober 2007.

De huidige waarde van het bod van het Consortium, dat een hoge contante component omvat, is aantrekkelijk voor aandeelhouders van ABN AMRO. Bij het sluiten van de beurs op 27 juli 2007 vertegenwoordigde het bod van het Consortium een premie van 8,5% ten opzichte van de koers van het aandeel ABN AMRO en een premie van 9,6% ten opzichte van de impliciete waarde van het Barclays Bod. De ABN AMRO Raden verwelkomen de inspanningen van het Consortium om een dialoog met werknemersvertegenwoordigers van ABN AMRO aan te gaan en de toezeggingen die aan de medewerkers van ABN AMRO zijn gedaan met betrekking tot afvloeiingsprocedures.

De ABN AMRO Raden hebben vastgesteld dat aan het bod van het Consortium een aantal significante risico's is verbonden:

1. Hoewel de integratierisico's in grote lijnen vergelijkbaar zijn met die welke zijn vastgesteld voor het Barclays Bod, zijn belangrijke vragen van de ABN AMRO Raden omtrent de beoogde opsplitsing van ABN AMRO en de wijze waarop het Consortium deze opsplitsing tot stand wil brengen, onbeantwoord gebleven (zoals ook uitgelegd aan het Consortium op 5 mei en weergegeven in ons persbericht van 14 mei 2007);
2. De aandeelhouders van Banco Santander, S.A. hebben de voorgenomen transactie reeds goedgekeurd, maar de goedkeuring van de aandeelhouders van Fortis N.V., Fortis SA/NV en Royal Bank of Scotland plc is nog niet verkregen. Dit zal naar verwachting op zijn vroegst gebeuren op respectievelijk 6 augustus en 10 augustus. De uitkomst van de stemming is op dit moment nog onzeker;
3. De instemming van het Ministerie van Financiën met de voorgenomen transactie en het standpunt van DNB zijn nog altijd onzeker. Dit geldt tevens voor het tijdstip waarop en de voorwaarden waaronder de eventuele instemming wordt verstrekt, met name gezien de beoogde opsplitsing;
4. De ruim gedefinieerde Belangrijke Nadelige Verandering -clausule zoals thans opgenomen in het bod van het Consortium bevat meer verplichtingen en onzekerheden dan de door Barclays voorgestelde corresponderende clausule.

Op grond van de bovenstaande factoren kunnen de ABN AMRO Raden op dit moment het bod van het Consortium niet aanbevelen aan houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen.

Table of Contents15.13.4 Conclusie

15.14 Aanmeldingstermijn

De Aanmeldingstermijn vangt aan op 7 augustus 2007 om 09:00 uur Amsterdamse tijd en eindigt, behoudens verlenging van de Aanmeldingstermijn overeenkomstig artikel 9o lid 5 Bte 1995 en de toepasselijke V.S. regelgeving, op de Sluitingsdatum. Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen dienen er van op de hoogte te zijn dat de betreffende bank of effectenmakelaar een eerdere deadline kan stellen voor de aanmelding, zodat deze bank of effectenmakelaar voldoende tijd heeft om de aanmelding door te geven aan het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor.

15.15 Aanmeldingsprocedure

Houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen wier Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en/of houders van Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen wier Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen en/of houders van Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen wier Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen worden gehouden bij een Toegelaten Instelling wordt/worden verzocht hun aanmelding kenbaar te maken via hun bank of effectenmakelaar op uiterlijk 4 oktober 2007 om 15:00 uur Amsterdamse tijd, tenzij de Aanmeldingstermijn is verlengd conform hoofdstuk 5.8 (Extension). Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen dienen er van op de hoogte te zijn, dat de betreffende bank of effectenmakelaar een eerdere deadline kan stellen voor de aanmelding, zodat deze bank of effectenmakelaar voldoende tijd heeft om de aanmelding door te geven aan het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor.

Een Toegelaten Instelling mag een Aanmelding alleen indienen bij het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor en alleen in schriftelijke vorm. Bij het indienen van de Aanmeldingen dient iedere Toegelaten Instelling (a) het aantal aangemelde Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en/of Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen en/of Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen op te geven, (b) voor het aantal aangemelde Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen te specificeren wanneer er voor de Standaard Ruiloptie en de Alternatieve Ruiloptie gekozen is, (c) de aangemelde Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en/of Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen en/of Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen in te dienen voor de Sluitingsdatum en (d) te verklaren dat: (i) zij de aangemelde Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en/of Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen en/of Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen in haar administratie heeft opgenomen; (ii) iedere ABN AMRO Aandeelhouder onherroepelijk garandeert dat hij/zij volledig bevoegd is om de betreffende ABN AMRO Aandelen aan te melden, te verkopen en te leveren, en dat hij/zij geen andere overeenkomst om de betreffende ABN AMRO Aandelen aan te melden, te verkopen of te leveren is aangegaan met een partij anders dan Barclays; (iii) iedere ABN AMRO Aandeelhouder onherroepelijk garandeert dat hij/zij zal voldoen aan alle restricties die worden genoemd in het Biedingsbericht en het Barclays Prospectus en in effectenrechtelijke en/of andere toepasselijke wet- of regelgeving van het rechtsgebied waarin de betreffende ABN AMRO Aandeelhouder is gevestigd en dat geen registratie, goedkeuring of opgave bij een toezichthoudende instantie van dat rechtsgebied vereist is met betrekking tot de aanmelding van de betreffende Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en/of Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen en/of Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen; (iv) iedere ABN AMRO Aandeelhouder de betreffende Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en/of Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen en/of Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen vrij van en zonder bezwaring met een pandrecht, recht op vruchtgebruik, retentierecht of andere beperkingen zal overdragen aan Barclays middels het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor voorafgaand en (v) door het accepteren van de Standaard Ruiloptie geeft iedere houder van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen wiens aandelen worden aangeboden, onder voorbehoud van het recht om aanmeldingen van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen in te trekken zoals gegeven onder het Bod, de onherroepelijke instructies die behoren bij het accepteren van de Standaard Ruiloptie zoals beschreven in hoofdstuk 5.1.1 (Consideration per Ordinary Share).

15.16 Gestanddoening van het Bod

Tenzij het Bod wordt verlengd, zal binnen vijf Euronext Handelsdagen na de Sluitingsdatum (de Gestanddoeningsdatum), door Barclays worden bepaald of de Voorwaarden zijn vervuld of dat daarvan afstand zal worden gedaan door Barclays en zal worden aangekondigd of: (i) het Bod gestand wordt gedaan; of (ii) er nog steeds onzekerheid is over de vervulling van enige Voorwaarden; of (iii) dat het Bod wordt ingetrokken, omdat de Voorwaarden niet zijn vervuld of omdat daarvan geen afstand is gedaan door Barclays, alles met inachtneming van artikel 9t lid 4 Bte 1995 en andere wettelijke bepalingen. Zie hoofdstuk 5.7 (Declaring the Offer Unconditional).

Barclays kan de Aanmeldingstermijn verlengen na 15:00 uur Amsterdamse tijd, op 4 oktober 2007, in welk geval alle verwijzingen in dit Biedingsbericht naar de Sluitingsdatum zullen verwijzen naar de laatste dag en tijdstip van de verlenging van de Aanmeldingstermijn.

Indien de Aanmeldingstermijn wordt verlengd met als gevolg dat de verplichting van artikel 9t Bte 1995 om aan te kondigen of het Bod al dan niet gestand wordt gedaan, wordt uitgesteld, zal dit, met inachtneming van de toepasselijke wetgeving, maar in elk geval uiterlijk op de derde Euronext Handelsdag na de oorspronkelijke Sluitingsdatum openbaar worden aangekondigd, met inachtneming van het bepaalde in artikel 9o lid 5 Bte 1995 en de Securities Act. Zie hoofdstuk 5.8 (Extension).

15.18 Na-aanmeldingstermijn

Indien het Bod gestand wordt gedaan op de Gestanddoeningsdatum, welke onder voorbehoud van verlenging van de Aanmeldingstermijn verwacht wordt niet later te zijn dan 5 Euronext Handelsdagen na de Sluitingsdatum, indien de Aanmeldingstermijn niet is verlengd, kan Barclays een Na-aanmeldingstermijn aankondigen van niet minder dan drie V.S. Werkdagen en van niet meer dan 15 Euronext Handelsdagen. De Na-aanmeldingstermijn wordt geacht te lopen vanaf de eerste Euronext Handelsdag na de verwachte Gestanddoeningsdatum zoals hierboven beschreven. Levering van de ABN AMRO Aandelen die worden aangemeld in de Na-aanmeldingstermijn zal onmiddellijk plaatsvinden. Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun ABN AMRO Aandelen gedurende de Aanmeldingstermijn hebben aangemeld en welke ABN AMRO Aandelen onder de voorwaarden en bepalingen van het Bod zijn geaccepteerd, noch houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die gedurende de Na-aanmeldingstermijn ABN AMRO Aandelen aanmelden, hebben gedurende de Na-aanmeldingstermijn enig recht om hun aanmelding in te trekken.

15.19 Intrekking van aanmelding

Iedere aanmelding van ABN AMRO Aandelen aan toonder of op naam onder het Bod kan te allen tijde voor het einde van de Sluitingsdatum worden ingetrokken. Dit recht op intrekking van de aanmelding geldt niet gedurende de Na-aanmeldingstermijn.

Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen aan toonder die hun aanvaarding kenbaar hebben gemaakt via hun Toegelaten Instelling aan het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor, kunnen hun aanmelding intrekken door middel van een verzoek tot intrekking van hun aanmelding via hun Toegelaten Instellingen aan het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor vóór het einde van de Sluitingsdatum.

Table of Contents

Houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen op naam die hun aandelen op naam hebben aangemeld bij het Omwissel-en Betaalkantoor, kunnen hun aanmelding intrekken door een verzoek tot intrekking van hun aanmelding te richten aan hun Omwissel-en Betaalkantoor, mits dit verzoek op de juiste wijze is gedaan en naar behoren is uitgevoerd, vóór het einde van de Sluitingsdatum.

15.20 Levering

In het geval dat Barclays bekend heeft gemaakt dat het Bod gestand wordt gedaan, zullen de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen, hun Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen en/of hun Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen op juiste wijze hebben aangemeld (of op onjuiste wijze mits Barclays de aanmelding daarvan niettemin accepteert) en geleverd en de houders van ABN AMRO ADSs die hun ABN AMRO ADSs op juiste wijze hebben aangemeld (of op onjuiste wijze mits Barclays de aanmelding daarvan niettemin accepteert) en geleverd, binnen vijf Euronext Handelsdagen na de Gestanddoeningsdatum (de Leveringsdatum), respectievelijk ontvangen de Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen en het bedrag in contanten conform de Gewone Aandelen Vergoedingsverhouding en een succesvolle keuze op basis van de Mix en Match Faciliteit, de Nieuwe Barclays ADSs en het bedrag in contanten conform de Barclays ADS Vergoedingsverhouding, de Vergoedingsverhouding Certificaten van Preferente Aandelen, de Vergoeding voor Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen of de ADS Vergoeding.

Het voornemen is dat de Nieuwe Barclays Aandelen zullen worden uitgegeven op de Leveringsdatum. De Nieuwe Barclays Aandelen zijn volledig volgestort en zullen (behalve de Preferente Barclays Aandelen) van dezelfde soort zijn als de bestaande Barclays Aandelen, en zullen tevens recht geven op alle dividenden en andere uitkeringen aangekondigd of betaald door Barclays met verwijzing naar een record date na de Leveringsdatum, maar niet op een andere manier. Barclays keert tweejaarlijks dividend uit.

Voor ieder ABN AMRO Aandeel dat op juiste wijze (of op onjuiste wijze, mits Barclays de aanmelding daarvan niettemin accepteert) wordt aangemeld en geleverd zal de Toegelaten Instelling van het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor, dat optreedt namens Barclays, een provisie ontvangen van Euro 0,0094, tot een maximum van Euro 10.000 per ABN AMRO Aandeelhouder, alsmede een bijkomende compensatie van Euro 2,50 per cliënt voor het afronden van delen van Barclays Aandelen. Voor ieder Voorheen Converteerbaar Preferent Financieringsaandeel dat op juiste wijze (of op onjuiste wijze, mits Barclays de aanmelding daarvan niettemin accepteert) wordt aangemeld en geleverd, zal de Toegelaten Instelling van het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor, dat optreedt namens Barclays, een provisie ontvangen van Euro 0,1383 per Voorheen Converteerbaar Preferent Financieringsaandeel. Voor ieder Certificaat van Preferente Aandelen dat op juiste wijze (of op onjuiste wijze, mits Barclays de aanmelding daarvan niettemin accepteert) wordt aangemeld en geleverd zal de Toegelaten Instelling van het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor, die optreedt namens Barclays, een provisie ontvangen van Euro 0,0164 per Certificaat van Preferente Aandelen, tot een maximum van Euro 10.000 alsmede een bijkomende provisie van Euro 2,50 per cliënt voor het afhandelen van delen van Preferente Barclays Aandelen. De provisie dient bij Barclays te worden geclaimd door het Omwissel- en Betaalkantoor binnen 30 dagen vanaf de Gestanddoeningsdatum. Er zullen geen kosten in rekening worden gebracht bij houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen door Barclays noch door ABN AMRO voor de levering en uitbetaling van de ABN AMRO Aandelen in het geval dat een Toegelaten Instellingen daarbij betrokken is. Wel kunnen kosten in rekening worden gebracht indien een buitenlandse instelling is betrokken bij de levering en betaling van ABN AMRO Aandelen. Houders van ABN AMRO ADSs zullen geen vergoeding hoeven te betalen en zullen geen kosten verschuldigd zijn met betrekking tot de uitgifte van Barclays ADSs op de wijze zoals beschreven in dit Biedingsbericht (behalve eventuele vergoedingen/honoraria welke kunnen worden gevraagd door een bank, effectenmakelaar van de aandeelhouder of andere door de aandeelhouder aangewezen persoon, welke zullen worden bepaald en rechtstreeks zullen worden gecommuniceerd aan de aandeelhouder door zijn bank, effectenmakelaar of door haar aangewezen persoon).

15.22 Notering

wordt bij de UK Listing Authority notering aangevraagd aan de Official UK List.

Table of Contents

Tevens wordt aanvraag gedaan voor toelating van Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen, de Onvoorwaardelijke CDB Aandelen, de Onvoorwaardelijke Temasek Aandelen, de Voorwaardelijke CDB Aandelen, de Voorwaardelijke Temasek Aandelen en de Clawback Aandelen voor toegang tot de handel voor genoteerde effecten aan de London Stock Exchange. Verwacht wordt dat zowel de notering van de Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen, de Onvoorwaardelijke CDB Aandelen, de Onvoorwaardelijke Temasek Aandelen, de Voorwaardelijke CDB Aandelen, de Voorwaardelijke Temasek Aandelen en de Clawback Aandelen als de verhandeling voor normale levering op de Leveringsdatum zal aanvangen. Alle Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen, de Onvoorwaardelijke CDB Aandelen, de Onvoorwaardelijke Temasek Aandelen, de Voorwaardelijke CDB Aandelen, de Voorwaardelijke Temasek Aandelen en de Clawback Aandelen, wanneer geleverd en volledig betaald, komen in aanmerking om te worden gehouden en te worden overgedragen via het CREST systeem.

Verwacht wordt dat de toelating van de Onvoorwaardelijke CDB Aandelen en de Onvoorwaardelijke Temasek Aandelen effectief wordt en dat de handel tegen normale levering zal aanvangen op 14 augustus 2007. Barclays zal tevens een secundaire notering van de Gewone Barclays Aandelen aan Euronext Amsterdam aanvragen. Verwacht wordt dat zowel de notering van de Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen aan Euronext Amsterdam als de verhandeling voor normale levering tevens op de Leveringsdatum zal aanvangen.

ABN AMRO en Barclays hebben bevestiging gekregen van de FTSE en Euronext Amsterdam dat verwacht kan worden dat na de Leveringsdatum de Gewone Barclays Aandelen in aanmerking komen voor volledige weging in de UK Series van de FTSE indices, inclusief in respectievelijk de FTSE 100 Index en in de AEX-Index (onderworpen aan een maximale weging van 15 procent).

Er wordt geen aanvraag gedaan tot notering van of verhandeling van de Preferente Barclays Aandelen aan enige effectenbeurs.

De Nieuwe Barclays Aandelen zullen onder de Companies Act 2006 (en de wetgeving die hieronder is opgesteld) gecreëerd worden en worden uitgegeven in een geregistreerde vorm. De Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen zullen zowel in gecertificeerde als in on gecertificeerde vorm gehouden kunnen worden en de Preferente Barclays Aandelen zullen in gecertificeerde vorm gehouden kunnen worden.

15.23 Beëindiging Beursnotering ABN AMRO Aandelen

De aankoop van de Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief ABN AMRO ADSs), of de Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen door Barclays volgens het Bod zal onder meer, het aantal houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen verminderen (inclusief houders van ABN AMRO ADSs) en het aantal Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief ABN AMRO ADSs) of Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen verminderen die anders in het openbaar zouden kunnen worden verhandeld. Bovendien zou deze aankoop de liquiditeit en de marktwaarde van de overblijvende Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief ABN AMRO ADSs) of de Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen, die niet aangemeld zijn en niet worden gehouden door ABN AMRO, negatief kunnen beïnvloeden.

Indien het Bod gestand wordt gedaan, is het de intentie van ABN AMRO om de notering van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en de Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen aan Euronext Amsterdam, en de notering van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en ABN AMRO ADSs aan de New York Stock Exchange te beëindigen, zodra dit redelijkerwijs en praktisch gezien mogelijk is en in overeenstemming is met de toepasselijke beursreglementen en voorschriften. De beëindiging van één of meer van deze noteringen kan de liquiditeit van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen (inclusief ABN AMRO ADSs) en de Voorheen Converteerbare Preferente Financieringsaandelen die niet zijn aangemeld, negatief beïnvloeden. Bovendien kan Barclays elke procedure starten zoals genoemd in hoofdstuk 4.10 (Post-Offer Restructuring), inclusief de procedures die zouden resulteren in beëindiging van de notering van de ABN AMRO Aandelen en ABN AMRO ADSs die niet zijn aangemeld. Zie hoofdstuk 6.19.1

De Nieuwe Barclays Aandelen zullen als volgestorte aandelen worden uitgegeven en zullen in alle opzichten hetzelfde worden gewaardeerd als de bestaande Gewone Barclays Aandelen, recht hebben op alle dividenden en alle andere vastgestelde of volgestorte uitkeringen door Barclays aan de hand van een registratiedatum op of na de voltooiing van het Bod, andere werkwijzen uitgesloten. Barclays betaalt de dividenden ieder half jaar uit. Het valt te verwachten dat de registratiedatum voor de interim dividenden die door Barclays voor 2007 zijn vastgesteld, zal vallen vóór voltooiing van het Bod. Er wordt van uitgegaan dat houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen recht hebben op ontvangst en behoud van de ABN AMRO interim dividenden voor de periode over 2007 (verwachte uitbetaling zal plaatsvinden op 27 Augustus 2007). Verdere details van de rechten behorend bij de Nieuwe Barclays Aandelen en een uiteenzetting van de belangrijkste verschillen tussen de rechten die behoren bij deze aandelen en de Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen worden beschreven in het Biedingsbericht. Zie hoofdstuk 6.18 (Comparison of rights of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and Barclays Ordinary Shareholders).

15.25 Herstructurering na het Bod*Plannen voor ABN AMRO na het Bod*

Zodra Barclays de combinatie met ABN AMRO is aangegaan, is het van plan om ABN AMRO haar huidige onderneming en handelsactiviteiten te laten voortzetten als een direct of indirect volledig gehouden dochter van Barclays. Houders van Gewone Aandelen ABN AMRO of houders van ABN AMRO ADSs die hun Gewone Aandelen ABN AMRO of ABN AMRO ADSs niet hebben aangeboden tijdens het Bod zullen minderheidsaandeelhouder blijven in ABN AMRO tenzij en totdat Barclays de enig aandeelhouder van ABN AMRO wordt.

Vergoeding voor houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen

Na de afwikkeling van het Bod zijn Barclays en ABN AMRO momenteel van plan om een post-Offer herstructurering van ABN AMRO en haar dochters te implementeren, welke tot gevolg zou hebben dat Barclays de Gewone Aandelen ABN AMRO en de ABN AMRO ADSs verkrijgt die na het Bod nog uitstaan en, als gevolg daarvan, de onderneming van ABN AMRO onder te brengen als geheel gehouden dochter of dochters van Barclays.

De post-Offer herstructureringsmaatregelen zullen in beginsel zo zijn gestructureerd, dat de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun ABN AMRO Aandelen niet hebben aangemeld voor het Bod, dezelfde vergoeding voor hun ABN AMRO Aandelen krijgen als de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die dit wel hebben gedaan, of een alternatieve vergoeding die gezien feiten en omstandigheden een billijk equivalent is. De precieze vergoeding die houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun ABN AMRO Aandelen niet hebben aangemeld voor het Bod zullen krijgen kan wegens uiteenlopende technische redenen verschillen van de vergoeding die zij gekregen zouden hebben indien zij voor de Standaard Ruiloptie hadden gekozen. Zie hoofdstuk 6.18.3 (Post-Offer Restructuring).

Indien Barclays besluit om geen herstructureringsmaatregelen in te stellen na het Bod zullen houders van Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen of houders van ABN AMRO ADSs die hun Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen of ABN AMRO ADSs niet hebben aangeboden tijdens het Bod minderheidsaandeelhouder blijven in ABN AMRO tenzij en tot dat Barclays de enig aandeelhouder van ABN AMRO wordt. Als aanvulling op het bovenstaande is het momenteel voorzien dat de Gewone ABN AMRO Aandelen en de ABN AMRO ADSs hun notering op de aandelenbeurzen waarop zij momenteel worden verhandeld, zullen verliezen, zodra het ruilbod is voltooid.

Indien Barclays op of na de Leveringsdatum 95 procent of meer van het geplaatste aandelenkapitaal in ABN AMRO heeft verworven, is het Barclays toegestaan om conform het Burgerlijk Wetboek en andere wettelijke regelingen een statutaire uitkoopprocedure op te starten, waardoor de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun ABN AMRO Aandelen niet hebben aangemeld voor het Bod gedwongen worden alsnog hun ABN AMRO Aandelen te verruilen voor Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen.

Indien Barclays minder dan 95% van het uitgegeven en uitstaande gewone aandelenkapitaal van ABN AMRO verwerft

Indien Barclays niet 95 procent of meer van het uitgegeven en uitstaande gewone aandelenkapitaal van ABN AMRO verwerft, zullen er twee van Barclays onafhankelijke commissarissen worden benoemd bij

Table of Contents

ABN AMRO en ABN AMRO Bank. Zij zullen volledige toezichthoudende verantwoordelijkheden hebben en tevens de bijzondere verantwoordelijkheid om de belangen van minderheidsaandeelhouders in ABN AMRO te waarborgen in alle transacties die buiten de gewone bedrijfsvoering vallen waarbij Barclays PLC en/of welke groepsmaatschappij van haar dan ook direct of indirect betrokken is. Onder dergelijke transacties kunnen ook de procedures die hierna worden beschreven worden verstaan (juridische fusie, de verkoop of overdracht van ABN AMRO of overige mogelijkheden). De benoeming van deze onafhankelijke commissarissen is onderhevig aan toepasselijke goedkeuring onder regelgeving en raadpleging van werknemers.

Juridische Fusie

Barclays en ABN AMRO kunnen een juridische fusie initiëren, waarbij Barclays het vermogen van ABN AMRO onder algemene titel verkrijgt en de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun ABN AMRO Aandelen niet hebben aangemeld voor het Bod gedwongen worden alsnog hun ABN AMRO Aandelen te verruilen voor Nieuwe Gewone Barclays Aandelen.

Verkoop of overdracht van ABN AMRO

Op ieder moment na de Leveringsdatum kunnen Barclays en ABN AMRO stappen ondernemen om een verkoop of overdracht van ABN AMRO en/of ABN AMRO Bank (en/of andere activa van ABN AMRO en/of ABN AMRO Bank) aan Barclays te realiseren. Hiervoor kan als tegenprestatie door Barclays een vergoeding worden gegeven in (1) contanten of andere waardepapieren, (2) aandelen, (3) andere financiële instrumenten, welke afhankelijk zijn van de waarde van de activiteiten van de Gecombineerde Groep, of (4) aandelen in het vermogen van Barclays of één van haar dochtervennootschappen.

Overige mogelijke maatregelen

Het is Barclays en ABN AMRO toegestaan, zowel als alternatief voor of in combinatie met de in hoofdstuk 6.18.3 en hierboven beschreven procedures, de onderstaande maatregelen toe te passen:

- (a) het creëren van een nieuwe klasse aandelen door de statuten van ABN AMRO te wijzigen,
- (b) dividenden uit te geven,
- (c) inkoop van eigen aandelen, of
- (d) de verkoop of overdracht van (delen van) ABN AMRO met als doel de herstructurering van ABN AMRO.

Barclays behoudt zich het recht voor om elke andere wettelijk toegestane methode toe te passen om het geplaatste aandelenkapitaal in ABN AMRO te verkrijgen, alsmede het samenvoegen van ABN AMRO met de Gecombineerde Groep, die ontstaat na de Leveringsdatum.

Ook behouden Barclays en ABN AMRO zich het recht voor wijzigingen aan te brengen in de (financiële) structuur van ABN AMRO, inclusief interne reorganisaties en veranderingen in de waarderingsgrondslag van ABN AMRO, dit alles conform de toepasselijke wettelijke regelingen.

De kans is aanwezig dat het voor Barclays niet mogelijk is om de juridische structuur van ABN AMRO (direct) na de afwikkeling van het Bod te veranderen. Ook kan een bovengenoemde vorm van herstructurering leiden tot juridische procedures, waarbij een rechterlijke instantie een herstructurering (zoals voorgesteld in het Biedingsbericht) tijdelijk of definitief kan verbieden. Hierdoor kan het voorkomen, dat houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun ABN AMRO Aandelen niet hebben aangemeld voor het Bod niet direct na de Leveringsdatum alsnog hun ABN AMRO Aandelen kunnen omruilen voor Nieuwe Barclays Aandelen. Ook kunnen bovengenoemde juridische procedures de liquiditeit en de koers van resterende ABN AMRO Aandelen negatief beïnvloeden. Indien het Bod succesvol is, maar desalniettemin er nog een aantal ABN AMRO Aandelen uitstaan, kan dit de liquiditeit en de koers van resterende ABN AMRO Aandelen negatief beïnvloeden. De kans is aanwezig dat het voor Barclays niet mogelijk is om de herstructurering van ABN AMRO (direct) na de afwikkeling van het Bod te voltooien. Zelfs als dit wel het geval is, bestaat er de mogelijkheid dat houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die hun ABN AMRO Aandelen niet hebben aangemeld voor het Bod niet dezelfde of een lagere vergoeding ontvangen als de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen die dit wel hebben gedaan en dat deze vergoeding onderhevig is aan aanvullende belastingen.

Tussen de betrokken vakbonden, ABN AMRO en Barclays heeft overleg plaatsgevonden, de Sociaal Economische Raad is geïnformeerd en er is voldaan aan alle verplichtingen voortvloeiende uit het SER besluit Fusiegedragsregels 2000 ter bescherming van de belangen van de werknemers.

ABN AMRO en Barclays bevestigen dat alle vereiste werknemersoverleg en informatie procedures met verantwoordelijke werknemersorganen van ABN AMRO en Barclays zijn voltooid en hebben geleid tot een positieve mening van de European Staff Council en een positief advies van de Centrale Ondernemingsraad met betrekking tot de voorgestelde combinatie met Barclays. De ABN AMRO Raden hebben eveneens notie genomen van de toezeggingen aan het personeel en de vakbonden met betrekking tot werknemersrechten en het respecteren van bestaande overeenkomsten.

ABN AMRO and Barclays hebben de mogelijkheid tot rationalisering van het aantal werknemers van de Gecombineerde Groep door middel van een combinatie van zowel natuurlijke afvloeiing, offshoring, en outsourcing als ontslagen erkend. Het terugbrengen van het werknemersaantal wordt verwacht plaats te vinden gedurende de 3 jaar die volgen op de Voltooiing van het Bod.

Het terugbrengen van het werknemersaantal is een noodzakelijk onderdeel van de beoogde synergie van de combinatie van de twee banken. Een deel van de verwachte reductie van het werknemersaantal wordt bereikt door het vestigen van de gedeelde diensten en het offshoring van deze banen naar locaties met lagere kosten zoals India, waar nieuwe werknemers geworven zullen worden door de bestaande ABN AMRO s ACES activiteiten.

De combinatie van ABN AMRO en Barclays zal naar verwachting resulteren in een netto reductie van ongeveer 12.800 banen. Daarnaast is te verwachten dat ongeveer 10.800 fulltime banen zullen worden verplaatst naar locaties met lagere kosten. In totaal zal dit er op neerkomen dat grosso modo 23.600 van de 217.000 fulltime banen gevolgen zullen ondervinden van de Fusie (Barclays kent ca. 123.000 werknemers, ABN AMRO kent ca. 94.000 werknemers, exclusief LaSalle).

ABN AMRO en Barclays zijn zich bewust van het feit dat deze maatregelen zware gevolgen kunnen hebben voor een aantal van haar werknemers. Wat betreft de aangelegenheden die het personeel aangaan, hebben zowel ABN AMRO als Barclays een goede reputatie en beiden hechten veel waarde aan deze reputatie. ABN AMRO en Barclays zullen de aangewezen vertegenwoordigers van de werknemers in de relevante landen informeren en raadplegen en zullen alle noodzakelijke wettelijke goedkeuringen in acht nemen alvorens beslissingen te nemen met betrekking tot deze voorziene invloeden van de Fusie. ABN AMRO en Barclays zullen alle overeenkomsten aangegaan met de vakbonden respecteren.

15.27 BAVA Barclays en BAVA ABN AMRO

Om 10:30 uur Amsterdamse tijd, op 20 september 2007, zal de ABN AMRO BAVA worden gehouden in De Doelen te Rotterdam, gedurende welke, onder andere, het Bod, het bod van het Consortium de achtergrond van beide biedingen en de alternatieven die door de ABN AMRO Raden zijn overwogen zullen worden toegelicht en bediscussieerd met inachtneming van de voorschriften van art. 9q Bte 1995. De informatie die noodzakelijk is voor de houders van ABN AMRO Aandelen voor een adequate beoordeling van het Bod, zoals bedoeld in art. 9q Bte 1995, is opgenomen in dit Biedingsbericht. Kennisgeving van de ABN AMRO BAVA is gegeven conform de ABN AMRO Statuten.

De Fusie kwalificeert als een Class 1 transactie (zoals gedefinieerd in de noteringsregels van de UK Listing Authority) voor Barclays. Dienovereenkomstig streeft Barclays naar de goedkeuring van haar aandeelhouders voor de Fusie tijdens de Barclays BAVA. Barclays heeft op de verschijningsdatum van dit Biedingsbericht de houders van Barclays Aandelen een circulaire toegestuurd die naast een samenvatting van de achtergronden en de strategische beweegredenen van de Fusie tevens een oproep voor de Barclays BAVA bevat. De besluiten die zullen worden voorgelegd aan de Barclays BAVA betreffen de goedkeuring van de Fusie, uitgifte van de Nieuwe Barclays Aandelen en andere aanverwante onderwerpen. De Vergadering van Houders van Gewone Barclays Aandelen moet worden gehouden teneinde de bekrachtiging en implementatie goed te keuren van het speciale besluit op grond waarvan de Barclays Preferente Aandelen worden gecreëerd tijdens de Barclays BAVA (het Besluit Preferente Aandelen), goed te keuren en om iedere aanpassing, wijziging of intrekking, als gevolg van het creëren van de Barclays Preferente

17.3 Auditors report

To the Supervisory Board and the Managing Board of ABN AMRO Holding N.V.

Introduction

We have audited whether the accompanying abbreviated financial statements of ABN AMRO Holding N.V., consisting of the consolidated balance sheets of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, and the related consolidated statements of income, for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2006, as included in section 17.1 of this Offer Memorandum, have been derived consistently from the audited financial statements of ABN AMRO Holding N.V., for the years 2006 and 2005. In our auditors report dated on March 14, 2007 and March 31, 2006 we expressed an unqualified opinion on these financial statements.

Management of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. is responsible for the preparation of the abbreviated financial statements in accordance with the accounting policies as applied in the 2005 and 2006 financial statements of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these abbreviated financial statements.

Scope

We conducted our audit in accordance with Dutch law. This law requires that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance that the abbreviated financial statements have been derived consistently from the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, these abbreviated financial statements have been derived consistently, in all material respects, from the financial statements.

Emphasis of matter

For a better understanding of ABN AMRO Holding N.V.'s financial position and results and the scope of our audit, we emphasize that the abbreviated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the unabridged financial statements, from which the abbreviated financial statements were derived and our unqualified auditors report thereon dated March 14, 2007 and March 31, 2006. Our opinion is not qualified in respect of this matter.

17.4.6 Notes to the Consolidated Income Statement and Balance Sheet (unless otherwise stated, all amounts are in millions of euros)

1. Basis of presentation

This interim financial report for the period ended 30 June 2007 is prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. It does not include all of the information required for full annual financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. for the year ended 31 December 2006 as included in the Annual Report 2006. ABN AMRO's 2006 consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (EU) and do not utilise the portfolio hedging carve out permitted by the EU. Accordingly, the accounting policies applied by the Group comply fully with IFRS. In preparing this interim financial report, the same accounting principles and methods of computation are applied as in the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2006 except for the changes stated below. In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations for the interim periods have been made. This interim financial report is unaudited.

Changes in accounting policies

In the first quarter we have revised the presentation of interest income and expense related to trading activities. Trading book interest is no longer separated out and reported within the net interest income line, but in the net trading income line. Trading income now comprises gains and losses on financial instruments held for trading, both realised and unrealised, interest income and dividends as well as the related funding costs. The change in presentation reflects new guidance available in IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosure which replaces the disclosure requirements previously included in IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation whereby the requirements to disclose interest data are now restricted to that relating to activities not held at fair value.

2. Developments

ABN AMRO North America Holding Company

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO entered into an agreement to sell ABN AMRO North America Holding Company which principally consists of the retail and commercial banking activities of LaSalle Bank Corporation (LaSalle) to Bank of America. ABN AMRO's North American Asset Management businesses and certain businesses within ABN AMRO's North American Global Markets and Global Clients operations do not form part of the sale. On 13 July 2007 the Supreme Court's ruling confirmed management's view that no shareholder approval was required to execute the sale. The sale is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2007.

Under the sale and purchase agreement the sale price is USD 21 billion. In addition, the sale and purchase agreement articulates that an amount of USD 6 billion of debt, on the basis of the US GAAP financial report of LaSalle, is converted into equity and that ABN AMRO is not entitled to a dividend in respect of the 2007 results. If the cumulative US GAAP result of LaSalle for the period 1 April 2007 till 31 December 2007 (or a proportion thereof if the transaction is settled before the year end), is less than USD 600 million, the sale price will be reduced with the difference.

The asset and liabilities of ABN AMRO North America Holding Company are presented as assets of businesses held for sale and liabilities of businesses held for sale respectively. The net result of these discontinued operations for the period to 30 June 2007 is presented as profit from discontinued operations net of tax. For more details on the presentation of discontinued operations please refer to note 11 of this interim financial report.

The transaction is expected to be settled in the fourth quarter. We currently estimate the gain on the sale to be in the range of EUR 7 billion to EUR 7.5 billion.

ABN AMRO Capital

During the quarter, ABN AMRO sold a majority of the shares of AAC Capital Holdings B.V., the management company of certain private equity investments held by the Group, to the executives of the management company. Also as part of the sale, the Bank transferred all power to govern the financial and operating policies of the management company and all investment decisions related to a significant portion of the Group's private equity investments (the Dutch, Nordic and UK business of ABN AMRO Capital) resulting in the loss of control over these investments to a management company outside of ABN AMRO. The ownership of the underlying investments and therefore the economic interest in the investments has not changed. The loss of control over the management company resulted in the concerned investments to no longer be consolidated in the financial statements of the Group. As of the date of the transaction the investments are recognised and carried at fair value with changes through income. This transaction has resulted in a gain from financial transactions of EUR 108 million.

Update on status of US Department of Justice investigation

As previously disclosed, the United States Department of Justice has been conducting a criminal investigation into the Bank's dollar clearing activities, OFAC compliance procedures and other Bank Secrecy Act compliance matters. The Bank has cooperated and continues to cooperate fully with the investigation. Although no written agreement has yet been reached and negotiations are ongoing, the Bank has reached an agreement in principle with the Department of Justice that would resolve all presently known aspects of the ongoing investigation.

Under the terms of the agreement in principle, the Bank and the United States would enter into a deferred prosecution agreement relating to the issues that are the subject of the current criminal investigation. In the deferred prosecution agreement, the Bank would waive indictment and agree to the filing of an information in the United States District Court charging it with certain violations of federal law based on information disclosed in an agreed factual statement. The Bank would also agree to continue cooperating in the United States' ongoing investigation and to settle all known civil and criminal claims currently held by the United States for the sum of USD 500 million. The precise terms of the deferred prosecution agreement are still under negotiation.

In consideration for the foregoing provisions, as well as the Bank's extensive remedial actions to date and its willingness to demonstrate future good conduct and full compliance with all applicable federal laws, the United States would recommend to the United States District Court that the prosecution of the Bank under the information be deferred for a fixed period. At the end of that fixed period, provided the Bank is in full compliance with all of its obligations under the deferred prosecution agreement, the United States would seek dismissal with prejudice of the information filed against the Bank. The precise terms of the deferred prosecution agreement and agreed factual statement are still under negotiation.

Main acquisitions

Prime Bank Ltd (Pakistan)

On 5 March 2007 ABN AMRO entered into agreements to acquire a controlling interest of 93.4% in Prime Bank, Pakistan. Through the subsequent tender offer for all remaining shares of Prime Bank that expired on 29 March 2007 ABN AMRO obtained additional shares representing 2.8%, bringing the total stake in Prime Bank to 96.2%. The transactions were closed on 5 April 2007. The total consideration paid amounts to EUR 176 million. The provisional goodwill arising from the acquisition was calculated at EUR 163 million. The preliminary allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired, including newly identifiable assets resulting from the acquisition, and (contingent) liabilities assumed, using their fair values at the acquisition date and the resulting goodwill is based on provisional fair values of assets acquired and (contingent) liabilities assumed, and may be adjusted during the period up to one year after acquisition as more information is obtained about these fair values.

Private Equity

Major new buy-out investments in the second quarter in 2007 were:

- OyezStraker (UK, stationary and office suppliers)
- Dunlop Aircraft Tyres (UK, aircraft tyre manufacturer)

Major new buy-out investments in the first quarter 2007 were:

- Sdu (Netherlands, publishing)
- Baarsma Wine Group (Netherlands, wine distribution)
- Vetus den Ouden (Netherlands, nautical equipment)
- T.G.I. Friday's Ltd. (UK, restaurants)

Main Disposals

Private Banking operations in Miami and Montevideo

In April 2007, BU Private Banking disposed of its operations in Miami and Montevideo. Banco Itau, a privately-owned bank with its headquarters in Sao Paulo, Brazil, acquired these operations through an auction process. The profit recognised on the sale, included in other operating income, amounted to EUR 72 million after tax.

ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc.

On 28 February 2007 ABN AMRO closed the sale of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., its US-based residential mortgage broker origination platform and servicing business, which includes ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, InterFirst and Mortgage.com, to Citigroup. Citigroup purchased approximately EUR 7.8 billion of net assets, of which approximately EUR 2.1 billion consist of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group's mortgage servicing rights associated with its EUR 170 billion mortgage servicing portfolio. The profit on the sale amounted to EUR 93 million after tax and is included in Profit from discontinued operations net of tax (see note 11 for more details).

Table of Contents*Private Equity*

There were no major divestments in the second quarter 2007.

Major divestment in the first quarter 2007 was: Holiday Park Ltd./Beach Equity Ltd. (UK, leisure).

3. Segment reporting

Segment information is presented in respect of the Group's business. The primary presentation, business segments, is consistent with the Group's management and internal reporting structure applicable in the financial year.

Measurement of segment assets, liabilities, income and results is based on the Group's accounting policies. Segment assets, liabilities, income and results include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis. Transactions between segments are conducted at arm's length.

As of 1 January 2007, the result of product BU Global Clients are being reported in the regional BUs. This has been done to further drive close cooperation and synergies between the product focused BU Global Clients and the regions. In addition Asset Management France and the International Diamonds and Jewelry Group have been transferred from BU Private Clients to BU Asset Management and Group Functions respectively. The comparative segment figures of 2006 have been restated.

Business segments

Below the business segments are described. In the Business review chapter of the 2006 Annual Report more detailed descriptions of the activities of these segments are included.

Netherlands

BU Netherlands serves a diverse client base that comprises consumer and commercial clients. BU Netherlands offers a broad range of investment, commercial and retail banking products and services via its multi-channel service model consisting of a network of branches, internet banking facilities, a customer contact center and ATMs throughout the Netherlands. BU Netherlands focuses increasingly on mass affluent customers and commercial mid-market clients. BU Netherlands also comprises the ABN AMRO Mortgage Group including the former Bouwfonds mortgage activities.

Europe (including Antonveneta)

BU Europe provides its consumer and commercial clients with a range of financial products and services. BU Europe combines activities in 27 countries: 23 countries in Europe (excluding the Netherlands) along with Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Egypt and South Africa.

Antonveneta is rooted in north-eastern Italy, and focuses on consumer and commercial mid-market clients.

North America

The core of BU North America is LaSalle Bank, headquartered in Chicago, Illinois. BU North America serves a large number of clients, including small businesses, mid-market companies, larger corporates, institutions, non-profit entities and municipalities in the US and Canada. BU North America offers a broad range of investment, commercial and retail banking products and services through a network of branches and ATMs in Illinois, Michigan and Indiana. BU North America focuses increasingly on mass affluent customers and commercial mid-market clients. While based in the US Midwest, BU North America reaches further through an expanding network of regional commercial banking offices across the US. The activities of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. were sold in the first quarter of 2007.

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO entered into an agreement to sell ABN AMRO North America Holding Company which principally consists of the retail and commercial banking activities of LaSalle Bank Corporation (LaSalle) to Bank of America. For further disclosure on this sale please refer to note 2 and note 11 of this interim financial report.

Table of ContentsLatin America

BU Latin America has a presence in nine Latin American countries: Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Paraguay, Uruguay and Venezuela, with the presence of Banco Real representing the majority of the operations. In Brazil, Banco Real is a retail and commercial bank, offering full retail, corporate and investment banking products and services. It operates as a universal bank offering financial services through an extensive network of branches, points-of-sale and ATMs. BU Latin America also has a strong presence in the Brazilian consumer finance business through its Aymoré franchise, focused on vehicle and other consumer goods financing.

Asia

ABN AMRO has been operating for well over 100 years in several Asian countries including Indonesia, China, Singapore and Japan. BU Asia now covers 16 countries and territories and is extending its branches and offices network. BU Asia's client base includes commercial clients as well as consumer and private banking clients.

Private Clients

BU Private Clients offers private banking services to wealthy individuals and institutions with EUR 1 million or more in net investable assets. In the past few years, BU Private Clients built up an onshore private banking network in continental Europe through organic growth in the Netherlands and France, and through the acquisition of Delbrück Bethmann Maffei in Germany and Bank Corluy in Belgium.

Asset Management

BU Asset Management is ABN AMRO's global asset management business. BU Asset Management operates in 26 countries worldwide, offering investment products in all major regions and asset classes. Its products are distributed directly to institutional clients such as central banks, pension funds, insurance companies and leading charities. Funds for private investors are distributed through ABN AMRO's consumer and private banking arms, as well as via third-party distributors such as insurance companies and other banks. The institutional client business represents just over half of the assets managed by BU Asset Management. Consumer and third-party clients account for a further 30%, and the remainder is in discretionary portfolios managed for BU Private Clients.

Private Equity

The business model of ABN AMRO's Private Equity unit – branded as ABN AMRO Capital – involves providing capital and expertise to non-listed companies in a variety of sectors. By obtaining, in most cases, a majority stake, Private Equity gains the ability to influence the company's growth strategy and increase its profitability. It then aims to sell its shareholding at a profit after a number of years. Private Equity specialises in European mid-market buyouts, but also manages a portfolio of investments in Australian buyouts, non-controlling and controlling shareholdings in small to medium sized Dutch companies (participaties), and dedicated media and telecom sector investments. It operates from seven offices across Europe and Australia.

As a result of the sale of the majority of the shares in AAC Capital Holdings B.V. to the management of this company, as described in note 2 of this interim financial report, the Group will only act as an investor for these investments going forward and will no longer participate actively in the management of the acquired investments.

Group Functions

Group Functions provides guidance on ABN AMRO's corporate strategy and supports the implementation of the strategy in accordance with our Managing for Value methodology, Corporate Values and Business Principles. By aligning and uniting functions across ABN AMRO's BUs and geographical territories, Group Functions also facilitates Group-wide sharing of best practices, innovation and positioning to public authorities, and binds the bank together in both an operational and cultural sense.

Group Functions includes Group Asset and Liability Management, which manages an investment and derivatives portfolio in order to manage the liquidity and interest rate risks of the Group. Group Functions also holds the Group's strategic investments, proprietary trading portfolio, the International Diamonds &

Jewelry Group and records any related profits or losses.

Other employee costs	623	542	323	343
Total	4,281	3,596	2,183	1,843

The increase in personnel expenses in the first half of 2007 is mainly caused by an increase in performance related bonuses compared to the comparable period in 2006.

10. Income tax expense

The effective tax rate on operating profit from continuing operations for the first half year 2007 is 20.7% compared to a nominal tax rate in the Netherlands of 25.5%. Over the full year 2006 the effective tax rate was 17.7%.

The effective tax rate on the Group's profit before tax differs from the nominal tax charge in the Netherlands. The reasons for the deviation in the first half year of 2007 are mainly tax credits received by the Group and tax exempt gains. The effective tax rate in the first half year of 2007 is higher than over the full year 2006 as a result of relatively higher tax credits and higher tax exempt income over the full year 2006 compared to the first half year of 2007.

11. Profit from discontinued operations net of tax and assets and liabilities of businesses held for sale

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO entered into an agreement to sell ABN AMRO North America Holding Company which principally consists of the retail and commercial banking activities of LaSalle Bank Corporation (LaSalle) to Bank of America. ABN AMRO s North American Asset Management businesses and certain businesses within ABN AMRO s North American Global Markets and Global Clients operations do not form part of the sale. The sale is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2007. The results of the business under the sale agreement are presented as profit from discontinued operations net of tax. The relating assets and liabilities have been presented as assets and liabilities of businesses held for sale as of this quarter.

Also the results of the national residential mortgage line of business (ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc.), a subsidiary of ABN AMRO LaSalle Bank Midwest are presented as discontinued operations. The sale transaction closed on 28 February 2007.

The comparatives of 2006 furthermore include ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. and Bouwfonds non-mortgage. Income statement of discontinued operations:

The operating expenses relating to LaSalle as included in the table above and below have been adjusted for the certain global overhead charges from the Group to LaSalle that are considered to be fixed in the short run. Despite the sale of LaSalle the Group will remain to incur these costs. These global overhead charges have as a result been presented as operating expenses from continuing operations. For the year-to-date 2007 period the amount is EUR 75 million and for the comparative period in 2006 the amount is EUR 73 million. The amount for the second quarter of 2007 is EUR 44 million and for the comparative period in 2006 EUR 36 million.

The table below provides a further breakdown of the operating result and gain on disposal of discontinued operations. In our segment disclosure note the ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. results are included in BU North America. The LaSalle results are included in BU North America and BU Group Functions and the Bouwfonds non-mortgage results are included in BU Netherlands.

Compared to 31 December 2006 goodwill increased by EUR 232 million. EUR 163 million is attributable to the acquisition of Prime Bank Ltd (Pakistan) on 5 April 2007 (see note 2 – Developments) and EUR 63 million to the acquisition of the remaining outstanding shares (5.42%) in Banco Sudameris Brasil S.A. by Banco Real on 13 March 2007.

The decrease of goodwill of private equity investments by EUR 2.1 billion is a result of the deconsolidation of private equity investments (refer to note 2 of this interim financial report).

Impairment testing of goodwill

Goodwill has been allocated for impairment testing purposes to individual cash-generating units within the business. Within the 5,233 million total carrying amount of goodwill and goodwill of private equity, 4,399 million of goodwill allocated to the Antonveneta cash-generating unit is the only significant individual carrying amount. The remaining 834 million of goodwill is allocated across multiple cash-generating units whose recoverable amounts are assessed independently of one another.

During the second quarter of 2007, we identified that the half year financial performance of the Antonveneta cash-generating unit was lower than previously forecasted. We considered the reduced financial performance an indicator of goodwill impairment and therefore tested the goodwill attributable to the Antonveneta cash-generating unit for impairment.

In an impairment test, it is assessed whether the recoverable amount of a cash-generating unit is the higher of the cash-generating unit's fair value less cost to sell and the cash generating unit's value in use. The higher recoverable amount of Antonveneta at 30 June 2007 is the fair value less cost to sell. As there is no observable market price for the Antonveneta cash-generating unit, fair value has been estimated using an earnings multiple approach. This approach multiplies a current best estimate of forecasted earnings by a price-earnings ratio. Our approach multiples Antonveneta's forecasted net profit figure for 2007 by the average applicable earnings multiple of observed transactions within the Italian banking market during the past two years.

Management's test resulted in the recoverable amount of Antonveneta marginally exceeding the carrying amount. As a result no impairment charge was recorded. The outcome of the impairment test is sensitive to both the earnings multiplier and the forecasted earnings itself.

21. Subordinated liabilities

Issued liabilities qualify as subordinated debt if claims by the holders are subordinated to all other current and future liabilities of, respectively, ABN AMRO Holding N.V, ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and other Group companies. These liabilities qualify as capital, taking into account remaining maturities, for the purpose of determining the consolidated capital adequacy ratio for the Dutch central bank.

The maturity profile of subordinated liabilities is as follows:

	30 June 2007	31 December 2006
Within one year	1,057	1,372
After one and within two years	1,556	1,833
After two and within three years	1,471	3,496
After three and within four years	779	1,323
After four and within five years	23	937
After five years	9,821	10,252
Total	14,707	19,213

Total subordinated liabilities include EUR 2,027 million (December 2006: EUR 6,122 million) which qualify as tier 1 capital for capital adequacy purposes. Another EUR 4,000 million of subordinated liabilities which also qualify as tier 1 capital is presented as liabilities of businesses held for sale in connection with the sale agreement of LaSalle.

22. Commitments and contingent liabilities

Loan and banking commitments

The contractual amounts of commitments and contingent liabilities are set out by category in the following table. The amounts for commitments are presented on a fully advanced basis. Guarantees and letters of credit represent the maximum accounting loss that would be recognised at the balance

	30 June 2007	31 December 2006
Contingent liabilities with respect to guarantees granted	51,925	46,026
Contingent liabilities with respect to irrevocable letters of credit	5,689	5,253

Committed credit facilities	151,607	145,418
-----------------------------	---------	---------

Many of the contingent liabilities and commitments will expire without being advanced in whole or in part. This means that the amounts stated do not represent expected future cash flows. Additionally, guarantees and letters of credit are supported by varying levels of collateral.

Other contingencies

Legal proceedings have been initiated against the Group in a number of jurisdictions, but on the basis of information currently available, and having taken legal counsel, the Group is of the opinion that the outcome of these proceedings net of any related insurance claims is unlikely to have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position and the consolidated profit of the Group.

23. Capital adequacy

To monitor the adequacy of capital the Group uses ratios established by the Bank for International Settlements (BIS). These ratios measure capital adequacy (minimum 8% as required by BIS) by comparing the Group's eligible capital with its balance sheet assets, off-balance sheet commitments and market and other risk positions at weighted amounts to reflect their relative risk. The market risk approach covers the general market risk and the risk of open positions in currencies and debt and equity securities primarily in the trading book. Assets are weighted according to broad categories of notional risk, being assigned a risk weighting according to the amount of capital deemed to be necessary to support them.

Tier 1 capital consists of shareholders' equity and qualifying subordinated liabilities less goodwill and some intangible assets. Tier 2 capital represents additional qualifying subordinated liabilities, taking into account the remaining maturities.

Core tier 1 capital is tier 1 capital excluding preference shares.

The Group's capital adequacy level was as follows:

24. Private equity investments

Private equity investments are either consolidated or held at fair value.

Consolidated private equity holdings

Investments of a private equity nature that are controlled by the Group are consolidated. Such holdings represent a wide range of non-banking activities. Personnel and other costs relating to production and manufacturing activities are presented within goods and material expenses of consolidated private equity holdings. The impact of consolidating on the income statement these investments is set out in the table below. The results of operations from the investments deconsolidated on 30 June 2007, have continued to be included in the results of operations in this quarter and the transaction as described in Note 2 of this interim financial report will impact the consolidated income statement as of the next quarter.

The assets and liabilities of these consolidated holdings are included in the Group balance sheet. Given the non-banking nature of the underlying activities the main lines impacted are goodwill, property and equipment, other assets and issued debt securities. The total assets of the remaining consolidated entities at 30 June 2007 were EUR 1,700 million (31 December 2006: EUR 4,537 million) excluding goodwill.

(IAS 34). Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on these interim financial report based on our review.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity . A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim financial report is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34.

Table of Contents18.3 Notes to the balance sheet and profit and loss accounts of the financial year 2006

As to the notes to the balance sheet and profit and loss accounts for the financial year 2006, reference is made to the Barclays Prospectus, page 49.

18.4 Interim Financial Statements for the six months ended 30 June 2007

Barclays made good progress on all key strategic priorities and delivered another very strong set of results for shareholders. Double-digit growth in earnings and dividends reflects an outstanding performance from Barclays Capital, good profit growth in UK Banking, an improvement in UK unsecured impairment and strong investment across the business .

John Varley, Group Chief Executive

18.4.1 Group Finance Director's review*Group performance*

In the first half of 2007, Barclays continued to make substantial progress on its strategic priorities, further diversifying the profit base and delivering record financial results. Profits and earnings grew at a double digit rate relative to the very strong performance recorded in the first half of 2006.

Profit before tax increased 12% to £4,101m (2006: £3,673m). This was achieved despite significant adverse currency movements against Sterling. Earnings per share rose 14% to 41.4p (2006: 36.3p). Profit grew at a rate higher than the rate of growth of both daily value at risk and risk weighted assets.

Group income rose 9% to £11,902m (2006: £10,969m). Income growth, which was led by a particularly strong performance in Barclays Capital, was broadly based by business and by geography.

Group operating expenses increased 9% to £6,847m (2006: £6,269m). We continued to invest in future business growth, with increased headcount in Barclays Capital, Barclays Global Investors and Absa, and significant growth in the branch network in International Retail and Commercial Banking. Operating expenses included gains on the sale of properties of £147m (2006: £238m) largely in UK Retail Banking, which were substantially reinvested in the business.

Group impairment charges improved 9% to £959m (2006: £1,057m). The 2006 impairment charge included £83m relating to available for sale assets. The improvement also reflected reduced flows into delinquency and lower arrears balances in the UK cards and consumer loans business. The number of UK personal customers missing a payment continued to fall. UK Retail Banking mortgage impairment charges remained negligible. Impairment levels in the wholesale sector continued to be stable, with low levels of defaults.

Business performance Global Retail and Commercial Banking

UK Banking continued to pursue the strategic priority of building the best bank in the UK. Profit before tax increased 9% to £1,363m driven by solid growth in income. The cost:income ratio improved one percentage point to 48%. Excluding the impact of settlement on overdraft fees from prior years, the cost:income ratio improved two percentage points. On this basis we continue to target a two percentage point improvement in the cost:income ratio for the full year 2007.

UK Retail Banking profit before tax grew 9% to £651m. Income of £2,121m included the impact of settlements on overdraft fees from prior years of £87m. Excluding this item, income grew 5%.

There was a strong performance in Personal Customer Retail Savings and good performances in Local Business and Current Accounts. We performed strongly in mortgage origination, processing capacity and retentions leading to a net market share of 6% of net lending in the first half of the year. We invested substantially all of the £113m gains on property sales into the business, upgrading distribution capabilities including completing the migration of Woolwich customers to Barclays products and infrastructure; transforming the performance of the mortgage business; improving the product range; and improving core operations and processes.

Overall costs were well controlled and in line with the prior year. Impairment charges fell 9% benefiting from active management of consumer credit.

UK Business Banking delivered good growth in profit before tax of 9% to £712m. Growth in loans and deposits with improved margins and strong growth in fees drove income up 8%. Costs rose 3%, leading to a two percentage point improvement in the cost:income ratio to 33%.

Barclaycard profit before tax of £272m was 17% lower than the first half of 2006 but more than double the second half of 2006. Steady income reflected strong growth in Barclaycard International offset by a reduction in UK card extended credit balances. Impairment charges fell 9% to £443m. More selective customer recruitment, limit management, and improved collections led to a reduction of flows into delinquency and lower levels of arrears balances. Costs rose 16%, of which 9% is attributable to a property gain included in the 2006 figures. We continued to invest in Barclaycard International and in UK partnerships. Barclaycard US continued to make progress and moved into profit.

International Retail and Commercial Banking profit before tax declined 12% to £452m. Results in 2006 reflected a £55m gain on the sale and leaseback of property, and a £21m post tax profit share from the associate FirstCaribbean International Bank (FCIB). Results in 2007 reflected the impact of the 20% depreciation of the Rand against Sterling.

International Retail and Commercial Banking excluding Absa achieved profit before tax of £142m (2006: £195m). Excluding the prior year £55m gain on the sale and leaseback of property and a £21m post tax profit share from the associate FCIB, profit before tax grew 19%. Income growth of 16% was driven by strong balance sheet growth and increased net fees and commissions income. Excluding the prior year property gain, costs grew 15% as we continued to invest in distribution capacity and technology. We opened 173 new branches in the first half of 2007.

International Retail and Commercial Banking Absa Sterling profit fell £7m to £310m, after absorbing a 20% decline in the value of the Rand. Absa Group Limited profit before tax grew 32% in Rand terms, reflecting very strong growth in Retail Banking, Absa Corporate and Business Bank and Absa Capital. Loans and advances increased 20% from 30th June 2006 and deposits grew 13%. We have delivered synergies of R650m for the half year to 30th June 2007. On an annualised basis we are therefore close to delivering the R1.4bn targeted by December 2009.

Business Performance Investment Banking and Investment Management

Barclays Capital delivered record profit before tax with a 33% increase to £1,660m. Income growth of 21% was broadly based across asset classes and geographies. Growth was particularly strong in areas where we have invested in recent years, including commodity, credit and equity products. Profit growth was accompanied by improvements in productivity: income and profit grew significantly faster than Daily Value at Risk, risk weighted assets, economic capital and costs. The cost:net income ratio improved three percentage points to 60%. We continued to invest for future growth, increasing headcount by 2,500, including 1,400 from the acquisition of EquiFirst, a US mortgage origination business.

Barclays Global Investors (BGI) profit before tax increased 7% to £388m. Income growth of 12% was primarily attributable to increased management fees, particularly in the iShares and active businesses, and securities lending. Profit and income growth were both affected by the 9% depreciation of the US Dollar against Sterling. BGI costs increased 15% as we continued the strategic investment programme with a build-out across multiple products and platforms and ongoing investment to support the growth of the business. The cost:income ratio rose to 59% (2006: 57%). Assets under management grew US$199bn to US$2 trillion, including net new assets of $50bn (2006: $30bn).

Barclays Wealth profit before tax rose 34% to £173m. This reflected income growth of 10% driven by increased client funds, greater transaction volumes, favourable market conditions and increased income from life assurance. Costs were well controlled as business volumes rose and the cost:income ratio improved six percentage points to 72% (2006: 78%). Redress costs declined. The business continued to invest in client-facing staff and infrastructure and to upgrade technology to build a platform for future growth. Total client assets increased 20% to £126.8bn.

In Head office functions and other operations the loss before tax increased £50m to £207m. 2006 results included a £59m gain in respect of the hedging of the translation of the Absa foreign currency earnings.

Capital management

At 30 June 2007, our Tier 1 Capital ratio was stable at 7.7%.

We maintained our progressive approach to dividends and increased the dividend to shareholders by 10%.

We commenced parallel running for Basel II at the end of 2006 and have since completed our second parallel run. We continue to expect a modest reduction in our capital demand under Basel II, with slightly lower risk weighted assets. Our overall expectation is for our regulatory capital position to be broadly unchanged. For 2007 we continue to report our capital ratios under Basel I.

Group reporting changes in 2007

Barclays announced on the 19th June 2007 the impact of certain changes in Group Structure and reporting on the 2006 results. There was no impact on the Group income statement or balance sheet.

UK Retail Banking. The unsecured lending business, previously managed and reported within Barclaycard and the Barclays Financial Planning business, previously managed and reported within Barclays Wealth are now managed and reported within UK Retail Banking. The changes combine these products with related products already offered by UK Retail Banking. In the UK certain UK Premier customers are now managed and reported within Barclays Wealth.

Barclaycard. The unsecured lending portfolio, previously managed and reported within Barclaycard, has been transferred and is now managed and reported within UK Retail Banking.

International Retail and Commercial Banking excluding Absa. A number of high net worth customers are now managed and reported within Barclays Wealth in order to better match client profiles to wealth services.

Barclays Wealth. In the UK and Western Europe certain Premier and high net worth customers are now managed and reported within Barclays Wealth having been previously reported within UK Retail Banking and International Retail and Commercial Banking excluding Absa.

The Barclays Financial Planning business previously managed and reported within Barclays Wealth, has become a fully integrated part of and is managed and reported within UK Retail Banking. Finally with effect from 1st January 2007 Barclays Wealth closed life assurance activities continues to be managed within Barclays Wealth and for reporting purposes has been combined rather than being reported separately.

The structure and reporting remains unchanged for UK Business Banking, International Retail and Commercial Banking- Absa, Barclays Capital, Barclays Global Investors and Head Office Functions and Other Operations.

Basis of Preparation

There have been no significant changes to the accounting policies described in the 2006 Annual report. Therefore the information in this announcement has been prepared using the accounting policies and presentation applied in 2006.

Changes to the UK Financial Services Authority Listing, Prospectus, Disclosure and Transparency Rules to implement the European Union Transparency Directive, including the requirement for the half-yearly report to be prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting, first apply to financial years beginning on or after 20th January 2007. Therefore the revised Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure Rules will first be applied to the June 2008 Interim Results Announcement.

Acquisitions

On 8th February 2007 Barclays completed the acquisition of Indexchange Investment AG. Indexchange is based in Munich offering exchange traded fund products.

On 28th February 2007 Barclays completed the acquisition Nile Bank Limited. Nile Bank is based in Uganda with 18 branches and 228 employees.

On 30th March 2007 Barclays completed the acquisition of EquiFirst. EquiFirst is a non-prime wholesale mortgage originator in the United States.

Edgar Filing: BARCLAYS PLC - Form 425

On 18th May 2007 Barclays completed the acquisition of Walbrook Group Limited. Walbrook is based in Jersey, Guernsey, Isle of Man and Hong Kong where it serves high net worth private clients and corporate customers.

Disposals

On 4th April 2007 Barclays completed the sale of part of Monument, a credit card portfolio.

Table of Contents*Recent developments*

On 18th April 2007 Barclays announced the sale of Barclays Global Investors Japan Trust & Banking Co., Ltd, a Japanese trust administration and custody operation.

On 18th June 2007 Barclays announced it had entered into an agreement to sell a 50% shareholding in Intelenet Global Services Pvt Ltd. Completion, is subject to the receipt of applicable regulatory approval and is expected in the second half of 2007.

On 23rd April 2007, the supervisory and management boards of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO) and the board of Barclays jointly announced that agreement had been reached on the terms of a merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays. Revised terms of the offer being made by Barclays for ABN AMRO were announced by Barclays on 23rd July 2007.

On 23rd July 2007, Barclays also announced an unconditional subscription of £2.4 billion of Barclays shares by China Development Bank and Temasek Holdings, as well as a conditional subscription by them of £6.6 billion of Barclays shares which was subject to a partial clawback in favour of certain Barclays shareholders. The proceeds of this conditional investment will be used to fund part of the cash consideration to be payable to ABN AMRO shareholders under the revised offer. Barclays also announced that it intends to minimise the dilutive effect of the unconditional subscription on existing shareholders by commencing a share buyback programme for up to £2.4 billion, Barclays will make a separate announcement describing the timing and terms on which such buybacks will be made.

The earnings per share and the amount of the 2007 dividend are calculated on the basis of the number of shares in issue as at 30th June 2007 and do not take into account any of these recent developments.

The merger is subject to, among other things, the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including approval by Barclays shareholders. It is currently anticipated that the merger will be completed in the fourth quarter of 2007.

18.5 Auditor's review statement financial statements for the six months ended 30 June 2007

Independent review report to Barclays PLC (the company)

Introduction

We have been instructed by the Company to review the financial information for the six months ended 30th June 2007 which comprises the summary consolidated balance sheet as at 30th June 2007 and the related summary consolidated income statement, summary consolidated statement of recognised income and expense and summary consolidated cash flow statement for the six months then ended. We have read the other information contained in the interim report and considered whether it contains any apparent misstatements or material inconsistencies with the financial information.

Directors' responsibilities

The interim report, including the financial information contained therein, is the responsibility of, and has been approved by the directors. The Listing Rules of the Financial Services Authority require that the accounting policies and presentation applied to the interim figures should be consistent with those applied in preparing the preceding annual accounts except where any changes, and the reasons for them, are disclosed.

This interim report has been prepared in accordance with the basis of preparation information set out in Additional Information.

Review work performed

We conducted our review in accordance with guidance contained in Bulletin 1999/4 issued by the Auditing Practices Board for use in the United Kingdom. A review consists principally of making enquiries of group management and applying analytical procedures to the financial information and underlying financial data and, based thereon, assessing whether the disclosed accounting policies have been applied. A review excludes audit procedures such as tests of controls and verification of assets, liabilities and transactions. It is substantially less in scope than an audit and therefore provides a lower level of assurance. Accordingly we do not express an audit opinion on the financial information. This report, including the conclusion, has been prepared for and only for the Company for the purpose of the Listing Rules of the Financial Services Authority and for no other purpose. We do not, in producing this report, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing.

We understand that the interim financial information and our review report thereon will be furnished to the Authority for the Financial Markets in the Netherlands.

Review conclusion

On the basis of our review we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial information as presented for the six months ended 30th June 2007.

SUMMARY

THE FOLLOWING SUMMARY SHOULD BE READ AS AN INTRODUCTION TO THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY DECISION TO INVEST IN NEW BARCLAYS ORDINARY SHARES OR BARCLAYS PREFERENCE SHARES SHOULD BE BASED ON A CONSIDERATION OF THIS PROSPECTUS AS A WHOLE.

Where a claim relating to information contained in this document is brought before a court, a plaintiff investor might, under the national legislation of the EEA States, have to bear the costs of translating this Prospectus before legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches to those persons who are responsible for the summary, including any translation of the summary, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of this Prospectus.

1. Introduction

On 23 April 2007, the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board jointly announced that agreement had been reached on the terms of a recommended merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays to create one of the world's leading universal banking groups, to be called Barclays.

The terms on which the Merger would take place were revised prior to announcements by Barclays on 23 July 2007 and 30 July 2007.

On 23 July 2007, the Barclays Board also announced an unconditional subscription of 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) by China Development Bank and Temasek as well as the Conditional Investment and Clawback Placing.

On 30 July 2007, the ABN AMRO Boards announced their continuing support for the strategic benefits of the combination with Barclays but concluded they were not in a position to recommend either of the rival offers for ABN AMRO.

The Merger was agreed to be subject to, among other things, the satisfaction or waiver of certain pre-conditions. Those pre-conditions have now been satisfied, waived or rolled forward as conditions of the Offer.

2. Summary of the Terms of the Offer

The Merger is being effected by means of the Offer. The Offer is being unanimously recommended by the Barclays Board. The Offer comprises separate offers for each class of ABN AMRO's outstanding share capital.

Pursuant to the Ordinary Share Offer, ABN AMRO Shareholders will receive:

2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares and 13.15 in cash for every 1 ABN AMRO Ordinary Share

The Ordinary Share Offer values each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share at 34.83 and values ABN AMRO at approximately 65.6 billion, based on the Closing Price of Barclays Ordinary Shares on 2 August 2007.

Existing ABN AMRO Shareholders will own approximately 35 per cent. and existing Barclays Shareholders will own approximately 56 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group, with the remainder being held by China Development Bank and Temasek. This assumes all of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares currently in issue are tendered.

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their DR Preference Shares under the DR Preference Share Offer will receive either 0.59 in cash or, subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions, 0.59 Barclays Preference Shares for each DR Preference Share, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The aggregate consideration payable for the DR Preference Shares is approximately 808 million.

3. Information on Barclays and ABN AMRO

Barclays

Barclays is a major global financial services provider engaged in retail and commercial banking, credit cards, investment banking, wealth management and investment management services. It is one of the largest financial services companies in the world by market capitalisation. Barclays operates in over 50 countries and employs 127,700 people. Barclays moves, lends, invests and protects money for over 27 million customers and clients worldwide.

Table of Contents

For the six months ended 30 June 2007, the Barclays Group's profit before tax was £4,101 million, earnings per share were 41.4p, and the interim dividend per share was 11.5p. As at 30 June 2007, shareholders' equity, excluding minority interests, was £20,973 million.

ABN AMRO

ABN AMRO is a prominent international bank with a clear focus on consumer and commercial clients in ABN AMRO's local regions and focus globally on select multinational corporations and financial institutions, as well as private clients.

ABN AMRO is the eighth largest bank in Europe and thirteenth in the world based on total assets, with more than 4,500 branches in 56 countries and territories, a staff of more than 110,300 full-time equivalents. For the six months ended 30 June 2007, the ABN AMRO Group's operating profit before tax was 2,098 million, earnings per share from continuing operations were 0.87 and interim dividend per share was 0.58. As at 30 June 2007, equity attributable to ordinary shareholders of ABN AMRO was 24,681 million.

4. Background to and Strategic Rationale for the Merger

The Merger will create one of the world's leading universal banks. The Barclays Board believes that universal banking is the model best equipped for success in an industry where customer needs are converging and where demand-led growth will be significant across the globe. Harmonisation of customer needs is already well advanced in investment banking and investment management and is increasingly apparent in retail and commercial banking.

The Merger brings together two sets of high quality product capabilities and brands, which are well placed to create growth for shareholders from the relationship extension opportunities that exist in a combined base of 46 million personal and 1.4 million commercial customers.

5. Financial Effects of the Merger

Below is a summary of the estimated unaudited pre-tax annual cost synergies and revenue benefits that are expected to be realised, as well as the estimated costs to achieve them¹.

m pre tax annual	2008e	2009e	2010e
Cost	1,195	2,270	2,800
Revenue	(470)		700
Total synergies and benefits	725	2,270	3,500
Integration costs	2,160	1,080	360

On a pro forma basis and assuming the Merger became Effective on 30 June 2007, the Combined Group would have net assets of 95.3 billion (based on the Unaudited Pro-Forma Net Asset Statement).

It is expected that the Merger will lead to significant accretion in ABN AMRO's 2008 adjusted earnings per share² for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and is expected to be 5 per cent. accretive to Barclays adjusted earnings per share² in 2010³. The Barclays Board expects that the return on investment will be approximately 13 per cent. in 2010.

6. Further Details relating to the Merger

The Ordinary Share Offer is a tender offer for all of the issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares not already held by Barclays. Barclays is also making offers for the DR Preference Shares and the Formerly Convertible Preference Shares of ABN AMRO.

1. These synergy estimates are not included in any of the benefits which are expected to be derived from the partnership with China Development Bank.

2. Adjusted earnings per share is the profit attributable to ordinary shareholders adjusted to exclude the amortisation of identifiable intangible assets and fair value adjustments and integration costs relating to the Merger, divided by the weighted average number of ordinary shares.
3. This statement is not intended to be and should not be interpreted to mean that the future adjusted earnings per share of Barclays will necessarily match or exceed its historical published adjusted earnings per share.

Table of Contents

The Offer is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions including:

At least 80 per cent. of the issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares have been tendered under the Offer or are otherwise held by Barclays;

All necessary or appropriate filings, notifications and applications in connection with the Offer have been made and all authorisations and consents have been obtained and are not subject to any material unsatisfied term or condition, and relevant waiting periods have expired;

The LaSalle Agreement with Bank of America has completed, or a purchase and sale agreement with another party with respect to the sale of LaSalle has completed in accordance with its terms;

The general meetings of shareholders of ABN AMRO and Barclays have passed all agreed or required resolutions;

The ABN AMRO Boards have unanimously recommended the Offer; and

The Merger Protocol has not been terminated.

The Merger Protocol entered into between Barclays and ABN AMRO governs their relationship until the Merger becomes Effective or lapses.

The Merger Protocol can be terminated under certain circumstances, including where either party commits a material breach of the Merger Protocol or applicable merger laws.

7. Board of Directors following the Merger

The Combined Group will have a UK corporate governance structure with a unitary board of directors.

The Board composition from the Effective Date is expected to be as follows:¹

8. Terms of the Barclays Preference Shares

The Barclays Preference Shares will be issued in definitive registered form with a nominal value of 1.

Dividends

Non-cumulative preferential dividends will be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares at a rate equal to one per cent. above the annual swap rate for 5 year euro swap transactions as determined two Euro Business Days prior to the Issue Date. From 15 December 2012, dividends will accrue at a rate, reset semi-annually, of one per cent. per annum above the euro interbank offered rate for six-month euro deposits on a principal amount equal to 1 per Barclays Preference Share.

Redemption

The Barclays Preference Shares are perpetual securities which are redeemable in whole or in part at the option of Barclays, subject to certain conditions, on 15 December 2012 or any Relevant Payment Date thereafter at a price equal to the paid-up amount.

Winding-up

On a winding-up or other return of capital and for so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, a holder of Barclays Preference Shares will rank in the application of assets of Barclays available to shareholders equally in all respects with holders of Staff Shares, other preference shares and any other shares of Barclays ranking pari passu with the Barclays Preference Shares in proportion to the amounts paid up on the shares of each class being in the case of holders of the Barclays Preference Shares an amount of 1 per Barclays Preference Share.

If there are no Staff Shares in issue at the time of such winding-up or other return of capital then the assets of Barclays available for distribution shall be applied in paying to holders of the Barclays Preference Shares an amount equal to an aggregate of 1 per Barclays Preference Share in priority to any payment to the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares and any other class of shares in the capital of Barclays then in issue ranking junior to the Barclays Preference Shares and pari passu with the holders of any other class of shares in the capital of Barclays then in issue.

Voting Rights

Holders of Barclays Preference Shares will not be entitled to vote at general meetings of Barclays.

Listing

The Barclays Preference Shares will not be listed on a stock exchange or cleared through a clearing system.

9. Current Trading, Trends and Prospects

Barclays

On 2 August 2007 Barclays released its unaudited interim results announcement for the six months ended 30 June 2007 which showed that Barclays profit before tax for the first six months of 2007 was 12 per cent. ahead of the first six months of 2006.

ABN AMRO

On 30 July 2007, ABN AMRO released its unaudited interim financial report for the six months ended 30 June 2007 which showed that ABN AMRO profit before tax for the first six months of 2007 was 4 per cent. ahead of the first six months of 2006.

10. Dividend Policy

Following the Effective Date it is intended that the Combined Group will maintain Barclays and ABN AMRO's progressive dividend policy and that dividends per share will grow approximately in line with earnings per share over the longer term. With the benefits of the estimated synergies from the Merger, the Barclays annual dividend will be approximately twice covered by adjusted earnings¹.

11. Risk Factors

Shareholders should consider the following risk factors:

Risks related to the Barclays Group (and, following the Effective Date, the Combined Group)

Barclays results can be adversely affected by general economic conditions and other business conditions

Barclays is subject to credit, market, capital and liquidity risks which may have an adverse effect on results

Operational risks associated with Barclays business could have an adverse impact on results

Barclays is subject to insurance risks which may have an adverse effect on results

Barclays is subject to legal risks which may have an adverse effect on results

Barclays is subject to tax risks

Governmental policy and regulation may have an effect on Barclays results

The Share Buy-back programme may not result in an anti-dilutive effect on Barclays Ordinary Shares

Risks related to the ABN AMRO Group (and, following the Effective Date, the Combined Group)

ABN AMRO results can be adversely affected by general economic conditions and other business conditions

Changes in interest rates and foreign exchange rates may adversely affect results

ABN AMRO's performance is subject to substantial competitive pressures that could adversely affect its results of operations

Regulatory changes or enforcement initiatives could adversely affect ABN AMRO's business

Operational risks associated with ABN AMRO's business could have an adverse impact on results

ABN AMRO is subject to credit, market and liquidity risk, which may have an adverse effect on its credit ratings and cost of funds

Systemic risk could adversely affect ABN AMRO's business

Increases in ABN AMRO's allowances for loan losses may have an adverse effect on results

ABN AMRO depends on the accuracy and completeness of information about customers and counterparties

ABN AMRO is subject to legal risk, which may have an adverse impact on results

Risks related to the Offer and the Combined Group

The consideration paid to ABN AMRO Shareholders in the Ordinary Share Offer may be less than the market value of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs

The ability of a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs to increase the amount of cash or the number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs that they receive in the Offer pursuant to the Mix and Match Facility will be based on the elections made by other ABN AMRO Shareholders and may be subject to proration

The exchange price under the Mix and Match Facility may not reflect the current trading price

If conditions to the Offer are not satisfied or waived, the Offer may not complete

Obtaining required approvals may delay or prevent completion of the Offer or reduce the anticipated benefits of the Merger

1. Adjusted earnings is the profit attributable to ordinary shareholders to exclude the amortisation of identifiable intangible assets and fair value adjustments and integration costs relating to the Merger.

Table of Contents

If the Offer is successful, but some ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs remain outstanding, the liquidity and market value of these securities could be adversely affected

Barclays may not be able to complete any post-closing restructuring of the ABN AMRO Group after the closing of the Offer

Payments that ABN AMRO Shareholders receive in any post-closing restructuring may be substantially different than the consideration that they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer

The announcement and prospect of the Merger could cause disruptions in the businesses of Barclays and/or ABN AMRO

Barclays and ABN AMRO may not be able to successfully integrate their businesses

The Combined Group may fail to realise the anticipated cost savings, growth opportunities and synergies and other benefits anticipated from the Merger

Barclays and ABN AMRO will incur significant costs in connection with the Merger

Members of the ABN AMRO Boards may have certain interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to the interests of ABN AMRO Shareholders

Shareholders will be more exposed to currency exchange rate fluctuations

Risks related to the share capital of the Combined Group

There will be material differences between the current rights of ABN AMRO Shareholders and the rights they will have as Barclays Shareholders

Shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest in the Combined Group after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management

The share price of the Combined Group may be affected by factors different from those affecting the share price of Barclays and ABN AMRO

ABN AMRO Shareholders may experience a loss of legal protections

Resales of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs following the Offer may cause the market price of the Barclays Ordinary Shares to fall

Certain Barclays Bank securities include terms restricting payments of dividends by Barclays

Risks related to the Preference Share Offer

The terms of any preference shares issued in the future by Barclays may include terms restricting payments relating to the Barclays Preference Shares, including dividends

Barclays Board may resolve not to pay in full, or at all, any dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares

To the extent that any dividend or part thereof is not declared or paid, such unpaid dividends will not be cumulative

Subject to certain conditions, the Barclays Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of Barclays on or after 15 December 2012

As the Barclays Preference Shares are not listed on a stock exchange or cleared through a clearing system, there can be no assurance that a liquid market will develop for them

The holders of Barclays Preference Shares will have no rights to request their redemption

The Barclays Preference Shares do not give holders the right to vote at meetings of the shareholders of Barclays

On a winding-up, holders of Barclays Preference Shares will be entitled to distributions in liquidation only after the claims of the creditors of Barclays have been satisfied

There is no restriction on the amount of debt Barclays may incur which ranks senior to the Barclays Preference Shares

There can be no assurance participation exemptions under Dutch tax law can be maintained

Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

This section describes, amongst other things, certain risks which relate specifically to the Barclays Group and the ABN AMRO Group as discrete groups which will, following the Effective Date, apply to the Combined Group.

You should consider carefully the risks and uncertainties described below, together with all other information contained in this document and the information incorporated by reference herein, before making any investment decision.

The risk factors mentioned below comprise risk factors that have been disclosed separately by Barclays and ABN AMRO in their respective filings with the SEC and which will continue to apply to the Combined Group following the Merger, risk factors relating to the share capital of the Combined Group as a result of the Merger and risk factors relating to the Merger itself. The risk factors mentioned below should not be regarded as a complete and comprehensive statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Additional risks and uncertainties that are not presently known to the Barclays Directors and the Proposed Directors, or which they currently deem immaterial, may also have an adverse effect on the Barclays Group's, the ABN AMRO Group's and the Combined Group's operating results, financial condition and prospects. The information given is as of the date of this document and will not be updated except as may be required by the FSA, the London Stock Exchange or applicable law. Any forward-looking statements are made subject to the reservations specified under Forward-Looking Statements on page 24 of this document.

1. Risks Related to the Barclays Group (and, following the Effective Date, the Combined Group)

Barclays results can be adversely affected by general economic conditions and other business conditions

The profitability of Barclays businesses could be adversely affected by a worsening of general economic conditions in the UK, globally or in certain individual regions such as the US or South Africa. Factors such as interest rates, inflation, investor sentiment, the availability and cost of credit, the liquidity of the global financial markets and the level and volatility of equity prices could significantly affect the activity level of customers, for example:

An economic downturn or significantly higher interest rates could adversely affect the credit quality of Barclays on-balance sheet and off-balance sheet assets by increasing the risk that a greater number of Barclays customers would be unable to meet their obligations;

A market downturn or worsening of the economy could cause Barclays to incur losses in its trading portfolios;

A market downturn could reduce the fees Barclays earns for managing assets. For example, a higher level of domestic or foreign interest rates or a downturn in trading markets could affect the flows of assets under management; and

A market downturn would be likely to lead to a decline in the volume of transactions that Barclays executes for its customers and, therefore, lead to a decline in the income it receives from fees and commissions and interest.

Barclays is subject to credit, market, capital and liquidity risks which may have an adverse effect on results

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of suffering financial loss, should any of Barclays customers, clients or market counterparties fail to fulfil their contractual obligations to Barclays. Credit risk may also arise where the downgrading of an entity's credit rating causes the fair value of Barclays investment in that entity's financial instruments to fall. The credit risk that Barclays faces arises mainly from commercial and consumer loans and advances, including credit card lending. Furthermore, credit risk is manifested as country risk where difficulties may arise in the country in which the exposure is domiciled thus impeding or reducing the value of the asset or where the counterparty may be the country itself. Settlement risk is another form of credit risk and is the possibility that Barclays may pay a counterparty—for example, a bank in a foreign exchange transaction—but fail to receive the corresponding settlement in return.

Table of Contents

Market risk

The most significant market risks Barclays faces are interest rate, credit, foreign exchange, commodity price and equity price risks. Changes in interest rate levels, yield curves and spreads may affect the interest rate margin realised between lending income and borrowing costs. Changes in currency rates, particularly in the Sterling-Dollar, Sterling-Euro and Sterling-Rand exchange rates, affect the value of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies and affect earnings reported by Barclays non-UK subsidiaries and may affect revenues from foreign exchange dealing. The performance of financial markets may cause changes in the value of Barclays investment and trading portfolios and in the amount of revenues generated from assets under management. Barclays has implemented risk management methods to mitigate and control these and other market risks to which it is exposed. However, it is difficult to predict with accuracy changes in economic or market conditions and to anticipate the effects that such changes could have on Barclays financial performance, business operations and the value of assets held in Barclays pension and long-term assurance funds.

Capital risk

Capital risk is the risk that Barclays has insufficient capital resources to:

Meet minimum regulatory capital requirements in the UK and in other regions such as the US and South Africa where regulated activities are undertaken. Barclays authority to operate as a bank is dependent upon the maintenance of adequate capital resources;

Support its strong credit rating. In addition to capital resources, Barclays rating is supported by a diverse portfolio of activities, an increasingly international presence, consistent profit performance, prudent risk management and a focus on value creation. A weaker credit rating would increase Barclays cost of funds; and Support its growth and strategic options.

Barclays capital management activities seek to maximise shareholder value by optimising the level and mix of its capital resources. Capital risk is mitigated by:

Ensuring access to a broad range of investor markets;

Management of Barclays demand for capital; and Management of the exposure to foreign currency exchange rate movements.

Liquidity risk

This is the risk that Barclays is unable to meet its obligations when they fall due and to replace funds when they are withdrawn, with consequent failure to repay depositors and fulfil commitments to lend.

The risk that it will be unable to do so is inherent in all banking operations and can be impacted by a range of institution specific and market-wide events including, but not limited to, credit events, merger and acquisition activity, systemic shocks and natural disasters.

There are operational risks associated with Barclays business which, if realised, could have an adverse impact on results

Barclays businesses are dependent on the ability to process a large number of transactions efficiently and accurately. Operational risks and losses can result from fraud, employee errors, failure to properly document transactions or to obtain proper internal authorisation, failure to comply with regulatory requirements and conduct of business rules, equipment failures, natural disasters or the failure of external systems. Although Barclays has implemented risk controls and loss mitigation actions, and substantial resources are devoted to developing efficient procedures and to staff training, it is only possible to be reasonably, but not absolutely, certain that such procedures will be effective in controlling each of the operational risks faced by Barclays.

Barclays is subject to insurance risks which may adversely affect results

Insurance risk is the risk that Barclays will have to make higher than anticipated payments to settle claims arising from its long-term and short-term insurance businesses.

Table of Contents

Barclays is subject to legal risks which may adversely affect results

Barclays is subject to a comprehensive range of legal obligations in all countries in which it operates. As a result, Barclays is exposed to many forms of legal risk, which may arise in a number of ways. Primarily:

Barclays business may not be conducted in accordance with applicable laws around the world;

Contractual obligations may either not be enforceable as intended or may be enforced against Barclays in an adverse way;

The intellectual property of Barclays (such as its trade names) may not be adequately protected; and Barclays may be liable for damages to third parties harmed by the conduct of its business.

Barclays faces risk where legal proceedings are brought against it. Regardless of whether such claims have merit, the outcome of legal proceedings is inherently uncertain and could result in financial loss.

Defending legal proceedings can be expensive and time-consuming and there is no guarantee that all costs incurred will be recovered even if Barclays is successful. Although Barclays has processes and controls to manage legal risks, failure to manage these risks could impact Barclays adversely, both financially and by reputation.

Barclays is subject to tax risks

Barclays is subject to the tax laws in all countries in which it operates. A number of double taxation agreements entered between countries also impact on the taxation of Barclays. Barclays is also subject to European Community tax law.

Tax risk is the risk associated with changes in tax law or in the interpretation of tax law. It also includes the risk of changes in tax rates and the risk of failure to comply with procedures required by tax authorities. Failure to manage tax risks could lead to an additional tax charge. It could also lead to a financial penalty for failure to comply with required tax procedures or other aspects of tax law. If, as a result of a particular tax risk materialising, the tax costs associated with particular transactions are greater than anticipated, it could affect the profitability of those transactions.

Governmental policy and regulation may have an effect on Barclays results

Barclays businesses and earnings can be affected by the fiscal or other policies and other actions of various governmental and regulatory authorities in the UK, the EU, the US, South Africa and elsewhere.

There is continuing political and regulatory scrutiny of the operation of the retail banking and consumer credit industries in the UK and elsewhere. The nature and impact of future changes in policies and regulatory action are not predictable and are beyond Barclays control but could have an impact on Barclays businesses and earnings.

In the EU as a whole, these regulatory actions included an enquiry into retail banking in all of the then 25 member states by the European Commission's Directorate General for Competition. The enquiry looked at retail banking in Europe generally and Barclays has fully co-operated with the enquiry. On January 31, 2007 the European Commission announced that the enquiry had identified barriers to competition in certain areas of retail banking, payment cards and payment systems in the EU. The Commission indicated it will use its powers to address these barriers, and will encourage national competition authorities to enforce European and national competition laws where appropriate. Any action taken by the Commission and national competition authorities could have an impact on the payment cards and payment systems businesses of Barclays and on its retail banking activities in the EU countries in which it operates. In the UK, in September 2005 the Office of Fair Trading (OFT) received a super-complaint from the Citizens Advice Bureau relating to payment protection insurance (PPI). As a result, the OFT commenced a market study on PPI in April 2006. In October 2006, the OFT announced the outcome of the market study and, following a period of consultation, the OFT referred the PPI market to the UK Competition Commission for an in-depth enquiry on 7 February 2007. This enquiry could last for up to two years. Also in October 2006, the FSA published the outcome of its broad industry thematic review of PPI sales practices in which it concluded that some firms fail to treat customers fairly. Barclays has cooperated fully with these investigations and will continue to do so.

Table of Contents

In April 2006, the OFT commenced a review of the undertakings given following the conclusion of the Competition Commission Enquiry in 2002 into the supply of banking services to small and medium enterprises (SMEs). Barclays is cooperating fully with that review.

The OFT has carried out investigations into Visa and MasterCard credit card interchange rates. The decision by the OFT in the MasterCard interchange case was set aside by the Competition Appeals Tribunal in June 2006. The OFT's investigation in the Visa interchange case and a second MasterCard interchange case are ongoing. The outcome is not known but these investigations may have an impact on the consumer credit industry in general and therefore on Barclays business in this sector. On 9 February 2007 the OFT announced that it was expanding its investigation into interchange rates to include debit cards.

On 1 April 2007, the UK consumer interest association known as Which? submitted a super-complaint to the OFT pursuant to the Enterprise Act 2002. The super-complaint criticises the various ways in which credit card companies calculate interest charges on credit card accounts. On 26 June 2007, the OFT announced a new programme of work with the credit card industry and consumer bodies in order to make the costs of credit cards easier for consumers to understand. This OFT decision follows the receipt by the OFT of the super-complaint from Which? This new work will explore the issues surrounding the costs of credit for credit cards including purchases, cash advances, introductory offers and payment allocation. The OFT's programme of work is expected to take six months.

The OFT announced the findings of its investigation into the level of late and over-limit fees on credit cards on 5 April 2006, requiring a response from credit card companies by 31 May 2006. Barclaycard responded by confirming that it would reduce its late and over-limit fees on credit cards from 1 August 2006.

On 7 September 2006, the OFT announced that it had decided to undertake a fact find on the application of its statement on credit card fees to current account unauthorised overdraft fees. The fact find was completed in March 2007. On 29 March 2007, the OFT announced its decision to conduct a formal investigation into the fairness of bank current account charges. The OFT announced a market study into personal current accounts (PCAs) in the UK on 26 April 2007. The market study will look at: (i) whether the provision of free if in credit PCAs delivers sufficiently high levels of transparency and value for customers; (ii) the implications for competition and consumers if there were to be a shift away from free if in credit PCAs; (iii) the fairness and impact on consumers generally of the incidence, level and consequences of account charges; and (iv) what steps could be taken to improve customers' ability to secure better value for money, in particular to help customers make more informed current account choices and drive competition. The study will focus on PCAs but will include an examination of other retail banking products, in particular savings accounts, credit cards, personal loans and mortgages in order to take into account the competitive dynamics of UK retail banking.

On 27 July 2007, the OFT commenced High Court proceedings by agreement with Barclays and seven other banks and building societies in which both the OFT and the banks and building societies seek declarations on legal issues arising from the banks' terms and conditions relating to overdraft charges. Specifically, those declarations will address key aspects of the applicability of the Unfair Terms in Consumer Contracts Regulations to those terms and conditions and the question of whether such terms are capable of amounting to unlawful penalty charges.

The proceedings will run in parallel with the ongoing OFT dual inquiry into unauthorised overdraft charges and PCAs. As the purpose of the proceedings is to seek to clarify the legitimacy of the banks' overdraft charging provisions, the banks are seeking a stay of all pending county court litigation in relation to such matters. The Financial Ombudsman Service has agreed to suspend reviews of such cases and the FSA has granted complaints handling waivers in respect of all complaints on the same issues pending conclusion of the test case.

On 26 January 2007, the FSA issued a Statement of Good Practice relating to Mortgage Exit Administration Fees. Barclays will charge the fee applicable at the time the customer took out the mortgage, which is one of the options recommended by the FSA.

Other areas where changes could have an impact include:

the monetary, interest rate and other policies of central banks and regulatory authorities;

general changes in government or regulatory policy that may significantly influence investor decisions in particular markets in which Barclays operates;

Table of Contents

general changes in the regulatory requirements, for example, prudential rules relating to the capital adequacy framework;

changes in competition and pricing environments;

further developments in the financial reporting environment;

expropriation, nationalisation, confiscation of assets and changes in legislation relating to foreign ownership; and other unfavourable political, military or diplomatic developments producing social instability or legal uncertainty which in turn may affect demand for Barclays products and services.

The Share Buy-back Programme may not result in an anti-dilutive effect on Barclays Ordinary Shares

The 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) Share Buy-back Programme announced by Barclays on 23 July 2007 is subject to market and economic conditions and therefore may take longer to complete than anticipated or may not be completed at all. For example, there can be no certainty that trading volumes will be sufficient to enable Barclays to complete the Share Buy-back Programme in the expected timeframe. In these circumstances, the Share Buy-back Programme may not minimise the dilutive effect of the issue of the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares.

2. Risks Related to the ABN AMRO Group (and, following the Effective Date, the Combined Group)

ABN AMRO's results can be adversely affected by general economic conditions and other business conditions.

Changes in general economic conditions, the performance of financial markets, interest rate levels, the policies and regulations of central banks or other business conditions may negatively affect ABN AMRO's financial performance by affecting the demand for products and services, reducing the credit quality of borrowers and counterparties, putting pressure on loan loss reserves, changing the interest rate margin between lending and borrowing costs, changing the value of investment and trading portfolios and putting pressure on risk management systems.

Changes in interest rates and foreign exchange rates may adversely affect ABN AMRO's results.

Fluctuations in interest rates and foreign exchange rates, particularly in ABN AMRO's three home regions of the Netherlands, the United States Midwest and Brazil and in Italy where ABN AMRO has a significant presence, influence ABN AMRO's performance. The results of ABN AMRO's banking operations are affected by ABN AMRO's management of interest rate sensitivity. Interest rate sensitivity refers to the relationship between changes in market interest rates and changes in net interest income. A mismatch of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities in any given period may, in the event of changes in interest rates, have a material adverse effect on the financial condition of ABN AMRO's business or results from operations. In addition, ABN AMRO publishes its consolidated financial statements in Euros. Fluctuations in the exchange rates used to translate other currencies into Euros affect ABN AMRO's reported consolidated financial condition, results of operations and cash flows from year to year. For 2006, without taking into account the sale of LaSalle, 14.9 per cent. of ABN AMRO's operating income and 14.4 per cent. of ABN AMRO's operating expenses were denominated in Dollars and 13.6 per cent. of ABN AMRO's operating income and 10.2 per cent. of ABN AMRO's operating expenses were denominated in Brazilian Real. For 2005, 18.5 per cent. of ABN AMRO's operating income and 18.3 per cent. of ABN AMRO's operating expenses were denominated in Dollars and 11.8 per cent. of ABN AMRO's operating income and 10.1 per cent. of ABN AMRO's operating expenses were denominated in Brazilian Real.

ABN AMRO's performance is subject to substantial competitive pressures that could adversely affect its results of operations.

There is substantial competition for the types of banking and other products and services that ABN AMRO provides in the regions in which it conducts large portions of its business, including the Netherlands, the United States and Brazil. The intensity of this competition is affected by consumer demand, technological changes, the impact of consolidation, regulatory actions and other factors. It is expected that competition will intensify as continued merger activity in the financial services industry produces larger, better-capitalised companies that are capable of offering a wider array of products and services, and at more competitive prices. In addition, technological advances and the growth of e-commerce have made it possible for non-depository institutions to offer products and services that were traditionally banking products and for financial institutions to compete with technology companies in providing electronic and internet-based financial solutions. If ABN AMRO is unable to provide attractive product and service offerings that are profitable, it may lose share of supply or incur losses on some or all of its activities.

Regulatory changes or enforcement initiatives could adversely affect ABN AMRO's business.

ABN AMRO is subject to banking and financial services laws and government regulation in each of the jurisdictions in which it conducts business. Banking and financial services laws, regulations and policies currently governing ABN AMRO and its subsidiaries may change at any time in ways which have an adverse effect on their business. If ABN AMRO fails to address, or appears to fail to address, these changes or initiatives in an appropriate way, its reputation could be harmed and it could be subject to additional legal risk. This could, in turn, increase the size and number of claims and damages asserted against ABN AMRO or subject ABN AMRO to enforcement actions, fines and penalties. The United States Department of Justice has been conducting a criminal investigation into ABN AMRO's Dollar clearing activities, OFAC compliance procedures and other Bank Secrecy Act compliance matters. ABN AMRO has cooperated and continues to cooperate fully with the investigation. Although no written agreement has yet been reached and negotiations are ongoing, ABN AMRO has reached an agreement in principle with the Department of Justice that would resolve all presently known aspects of the ongoing investigation. Under the terms of the agreement in principle, ABN AMRO and the United States would enter into a deferred prosecution agreement relating to the issues that are the subject of the current criminal investigation. In the deferred prosecution agreement, ABN AMRO would waive indictment and agree to the filing of an information in the United States District Court charging it with certain violations of federal law based on information disclosed in an agreed factual statement. ABN AMRO would also agree to continue cooperating in the United States ongoing investigation and to settle all known civil and criminal claims currently held by the United States for the sum of $500 million. The precise terms of the deferred prosecution agreement and agreed factual statement are still under negotiation. In consideration for the foregoing provisions, as well as ABN AMRO's extensive remedial actions to date and its willingness to demonstrate future good conduct and full compliance with all applicable federal laws, the United States would recommend to the United States District Court that the prosecution of ABN AMRO under the information be deferred for a fixed period. At the end of that fixed period, provided ABN AMRO is in full compliance with all of its obligations under the deferred prosecution agreement, the United States would seek dismissal with prejudice of the information filed against ABN AMRO. In July 2004 ABN AMRO signed a written agreement with the US regulatory authorities concerning ABN AMRO's Dollar clearing activities in the New York branch. In addition, in December 2005 ABN AMRO agreed to a Cease and Desist Order with the DNB and various US federal and state regulators. This involved an agreement to pay an aggregate civil penalty of $75 million and a voluntary endowment of $5 million in connection with deficiencies in the Dollar clearing operations at the New York branch and US Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) compliance procedures regarding transactions originating at the Dubai branch. ABN AMRO and members of ABN AMRO's management continue to provide information to law enforcement authorities in connection with ongoing criminal investigations relating to ABN AMRO's Dollar clearing activities, OFAC compliance procedures and other compliance matters related to the US Bank Secrecy Act 1970, as amended (the BSA). These compliance issues and the related sanctions and investigations have had, and until they are resolved will continue to have, an impact on ABN AMRO's operations in the US, including limitations on expansion. The ultimate resolution of these compliance issues and related investigations and the nature and severity of possible additional sanctions cannot be predicted. For more details on the agreement in principle with the United States Department of Justice please see paragraph 15 of Part XII (Additional Information).

There are operational risks associated with ABN AMRO s business which, if realised, may have an adverse impact on results.

ABN AMRO, like all financial institutions, is exposed to many types of operational risk, including the risk of fraud or other misconduct by employees or outsiders, unauthorised transactions by employees and operational errors, including clerical or record keeping errors or errors resulting from faulty computer or telecommunications systems. ABN AMRO may also be subject to disruptions of ABN AMRO s operating systems, arising from events that are wholly or partially beyond ABN AMRO s control (including, for example, computer viruses or electrical or telecommunication outages), which may give rise to losses in service to customers and to loss or liability to ABN AMRO. ABN AMRO is further exposed to the risk that external vendors may be unable to fulfil their contractual obligations to it, and to the risk that their business continuity and data security systems prove to be inadequate. ABN AMRO also faces the risk that the design of its controls and procedures prove to be inadequate or are circumvented. Although ABN AMRO maintains a system of controls designed to keep operational risk at appropriate levels, it has suffered losses from operational risk in the past and there can be no assurance that it will not suffer material losses from operational risk in the future.

ABN AMRO is subject to credit, market and liquidity risk, which may have an adverse effect on its credit ratings and cost of funds.

ABN AMRO's banking businesses establish instruments and strategies that it uses to hedge or otherwise manage its exposure to credit, market and liquidity risk. To the extent ABN AMRO's assessments of migrations in credit quality and of risk concentrations, or its assumptions or estimates used in establishing its valuation models for the fair value of its assets and liabilities or for its loan loss reserves, prove inaccurate or not predictive of actual results, it could suffer higher-than-anticipated losses. Any downgrade in ABN AMRO's ratings may increase its borrowing costs, limit its access to capital markets and adversely affect the ability of its businesses to sell or market their products, engage in business transactions particularly longer-term and derivatives transactions and retain ABN AMRO's current customers. This, in turn, could reduce ABN AMRO's liquidity and have an adverse effect on its operating results and financial condition.

Systemic risk could adversely affect ABN AMRO's business.

In the past, the general credit environment has been adversely affected by significant instances of fraud. Concerns about, or a default by, one institution could lead to significant liquidity problems, losses or defaults by other institutions because the commercial soundness of many financial institutions may be closely related as a result of their credit, trading, clearing or other relationships. This risk is sometimes referred to as systemic risk and may adversely affect financial intermediaries, such as clearing agencies, clearing houses, banks, securities firms and exchanges with whom ABN AMRO interacts on a daily basis, and could have an adverse effect on ABN AMRO's business.

Increases in ABN AMRO's allowances for loan losses may have an adverse effect on ABN AMRO's results.

ABN AMRO's banking businesses establish provisions for loan losses, which are reflected in the loan impairment and other credit risk provisions on ABN AMRO's income statement, in order to maintain ABN AMRO's allowance for loan losses at a level that is deemed to be appropriate by management based upon an assessment of prior loss experiences, the volume and type of lending being conducted by each bank, industry standards, past due loans, economic conditions and other factors related to the collectability of each entity's loan portfolio. Although management uses its best efforts to establish the allowances for loan losses, that determination is subject to significant judgment, and ABN AMRO's banking businesses may have to increase or decrease their allowances for loan losses in the future as a result of increases or decreases in non performing assets or for other reasons. Any increase in the allowances for loan losses, any loan losses in excess of the previously determined provisions with respect thereto or changes in the estimate of the risk of loss inherent in the portfolio of non-impaired loans could have an adverse effect on ABN AMRO's results of operations and financial condition.

ABN AMRO depends on the accuracy and completeness of information about customers and counterparties.

In deciding whether to extend credit or enter into other transactions with customers and counterparties, ABN AMRO may rely on information furnished to it by or on behalf of the customers and counterparties, including financial statements and other financial information. ABN AMRO also may rely on the audit report covering those financial statements. ABN AMRO's financial condition and results of operations could be negatively affected by relying on financial statements that do not comply with generally accepted accounting principles or that are materially misleading.

Table of Contents

ABN AMRO is subject to legal risk, which may have an adverse impact on ABN AMRO's results.

It is inherently difficult to predict the outcome of many of the litigations, regulatory proceedings and other adversarial proceedings involving ABN AMRO's businesses, particularly those cases in which the matters are brought on behalf of various classes of claimants, seek damages of unspecified or indeterminate amounts or involve novel legal claims. In presenting ABN AMRO's consolidated financial statements, management makes estimates regarding the outcome of legal, regulatory and arbitration matters and takes a charge to income when losses with respect to such matters are probable and can be reasonably estimated. Changes in ABN AMRO's estimates may have an adverse effect on its results.

3. Risks Related to the Offer and the Combined Group

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed, the market value of the consideration paid to ABN AMRO Shareholders in the Ordinary Share Offer may be more or less than the market value of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs.

ABN AMRO Shareholders who receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares or New Barclays ADSs, will receive a fixed number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or New Barclays ADSs, as the case may be, in the Ordinary Share Offer, rather than a number of securities with a particular fixed market value. The market value of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs at the time of the closing of the Offer or any post-closing restructuring may vary significantly from their prices on the date of the Merger Protocol, the date of this document or the date on which ABN AMRO Shareholders tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs in the Ordinary Share Offer or the Effective Date. Because the Exchange Ratio will not be adjusted to reflect any changes in the market price of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs, the value of the consideration paid to ABN AMRO Shareholders who receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares or New Barclays ADSs, in the Ordinary Share Offer may be higher or lower than the market value of such securities on earlier dates.

Changes in share prices may result from a variety of factors that are beyond the control of Barclays and ABN AMRO, including changes in their respective businesses, operations and prospects, regulatory considerations, governmental actions, and legal proceedings and developments. Market assessments of the benefits of the Merger and of the likelihood that the Merger will be completed, and general and industry specific market and economic conditions may also have an effect on prices. Neither Barclays nor ABN AMRO is permitted to terminate the Merger Protocol solely because of changes in the market price of either party's shares.

In addition, it is possible that the Offer and any post-closing restructuring may not be completed until a significant period of time has passed after the commencement of the Offer. As a result, the market values of Barclays Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares may vary significantly from the date of this document to the dates of the completion of the Offer and any post-closing restructuring. You are urged to obtain up-to-date prices for Barclays Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

The ability of a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs to increase the amount of cash or the number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs that they receive in the Offer pursuant to the Mix and Match Facility will be based on the elections made by other ABN AMRO Shareholders and may be subject to proration.

Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs may elect, subject to availability, to vary the proportions in which they receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs and cash in respect of their holdings of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility. However, the total number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, including those represented by Barclays ADSs, to be issued and the total amount of the Cash Consideration to be paid under the Offer will not be varied as a result of the Mix and Match Facility. Accordingly, satisfaction of elections by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility will depend on the extent to which other holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs (who together form one consideration pool) make offsetting elections.

If elections under the Mix and Match Facility cannot be satisfied in full, they will be scaled down on a pro rata basis. If a holder has elected to receive more New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs and less cash, but there are not enough New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs given up by other holders to satisfy the holder's election, the holder will receive fewer New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs and more cash than the holder elected. Similarly, if a holder has elected to receive more cash and fewer New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs, but there is not enough cash given up by other holders to satisfy the holder's election, the holder will receive less cash and more New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs than the holder elected.

As a result, holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs who make an election under the Mix and Match Facility may not have their election satisfied in full or at all, and they may not know the exact number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs or the amount of cash that they will receive until settlement of the consideration under the Offer. An announcement will be made of the extent to which elections under the Mix and Match Facility have been satisfied, no later than the applicable Settlement Date.

The exchange price under the Mix and Match Facility may not reflect the current trading price.

Satisfaction of elections (in whole or part) under the Mix and Match Facility will be carried out on the basis of a fixed rate of 11.87 for each New Barclays Ordinary Share and the Dollar equivalent of 47.48 for each Barclays ADS. These figures reflect the exchange price of £8.00 per New Barclays Ordinary Share and $64.94 per New Barclays ADS announced in the Revised Announcement and use the exchange rate of £1.00= 1.4839 published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007. Barclays Ordinary Shares may be trading at a lower or higher price than £8.00 at the Settlement Date. Electing ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will receive the same amount of their elections regardless of whether they choose the Primary Exchange or Alternative Exchange.

If conditions to the Offer are not satisfied or waived, the Offer may not complete.

The Merger Protocol contains certain conditions to the consummation of the Offer. Certain of these conditions may not be waived without written agreement of both Barclays and ABN AMRO. If any of the conditions are not satisfied, or if waiver is impermissible or not granted, the Offer will not be completed. In addition, under the circumstances specified in the Merger Protocol, Barclays and ABN AMRO may terminate the Merger Protocol for other reasons. If the Offer is not completed, the price of Barclays Shares and Barclays ADSs and ABN AMRO Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs may fall significantly. See paragraph 4 of Part II (Information on the Merger) for a discussion of the conditions to the completion of the Offer and paragraph 6 of Part II (Information on the Merger) for a description of the circumstances in which Barclays and ABN AMRO may terminate the Merger Protocol.

Obtaining required approvals may delay or prevent completion of the Offer or reduce the anticipated benefits of the Merger.

Completion of the Offer is conditional upon, among other things, the receipt of material governmental authorisations, consents, orders and approvals. Barclays and ABN AMRO intend to pursue all required approvals in accordance with their obligations under the Merger Protocol. In connection with granting these approvals, the respective governmental or other authorities may impose conditions on, or require divestitures or other changes relating to, the divisions, operations or assets of Barclays and/or ABN AMRO. Neither Barclays nor ABN AMRO can predict what, if any, changes may be required. More generally, these and other conditions, divestitures or other changes may jeopardise or delay completion of the Offer, reduce the anticipated benefits of the Merger and/or have a material adverse effect on the business and financial condition of the Combined Group.

If the Offer is successful, but some ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs remain outstanding, the liquidity and market value of these ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs held by the public could be adversely affected by the fact that they will be held by a small number of holders.

Depending upon the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares tendered in the Offer, following the successful completion of the Offer, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or ABN AMRO ADSs may no longer meet the requirements of Euronext Amsterdam or the NYSE, as applicable, for continued listing. Moreover, to the extent permitted under applicable law and stock exchange regulations, Barclays intends to request the delisting of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, which are listed on Euronext Amsterdam, as well as ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs representing such shares, which are listed on the NYSE. Such delisting may also occur because of certain actions taken in connection with any post-closing restructuring.

If the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are delisted from Euronext Amsterdam, and ABN AMRO Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs representing such shares are delisted from the NYSE, but any post-closing restructuring has not yet been (or is never able to be) completed and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs remain outstanding, the market for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs could be adversely affected. Although it is possible that ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs would be traded in over the counter markets prior to any post-closing restructuring, such alternative trading markets may not occur. The extent of the public market for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs and the availability of market quotations would depend upon the number of holders and/or the aggregate market value of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs remaining at such time, as well as the interest in maintaining a market in ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs on the part of securities firms. If ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs are delisted, ABN AMRO could also cease making disclosures and reports required for listed or publicly traded companies, which could further impact the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs. To the extent the availability of such continued listings or quotations depends on steps taken by ABN AMRO or Barclays, ABN AMRO or Barclays may or may not take such steps. Therefore, you should not rely on any such listing or quotation or trading being available.

Barclays may not be able to complete any post-closing restructuring of ABN AMRO and its subsidiaries promptly after the closing of the Offer, or at all. In addition, even if Barclays is able to effect a post-closing restructuring, the consideration that ABN AMRO Shareholders receive in any post-closing restructuring may be substantially lower and/or different in form than the consideration that they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer (and they may also be subject to different tax consequences).

If the Offer is successfully completed, Barclays intends to effect a post-closing restructuring of ABN AMRO and its subsidiaries that is necessary to result in ABN AMRO becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Barclays. However, Barclays may not be able to effect any post-closing restructuring promptly after the closing of the Offer, or at all. In addition, any post-closing restructuring could be the subject of litigation, and a court could delay any post-closing restructuring or prohibit it from occurring on its proposed terms, or from occurring at all. Accordingly, ABN AMRO Shareholders who do not tender their ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer may not receive consideration for such shares promptly after the closing of the Offer, or at all.

To effect a compulsory acquisition of the remaining ABN AMRO Shares, Barclays will need to first obtain at least 95 per cent. of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO. However, the acceptance condition in the Offer is 80 per cent. and is capable of being waived or reduced. Barclays could thus complete the Offer without being able to compulsorily acquire the remaining ABN AMRO Shares it does not own. Were this to happen, Barclays would be entitled to exercise control of ABN AMRO and nominate the majority of the ABN AMRO Boards; ABN AMRO could remain a listed company; it may take longer and be more difficult to effect a post-closing restructuring and the full amount of the cost synergies and revenue benefits identified for the Merger may not be obtained or may only be obtained over a longer period of time. In addition, if Barclays is able to complete any post-closing restructuring, the consideration that ABN AMRO Shareholders will receive in any post-closing restructuring may be lower and/or different in form than the consideration that they would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer. Such differences could result from the fact that:

any post-closing restructuring steps may require the payment of only cash instead of shares;

the consideration issued in certain post-closing restructuring steps may be determined by a court;

the tax consequences to the ABN AMRO Shareholders of receiving payment in any post-closing restructuring may be different than they would be if the ABN AMRO Shareholders had tendered their ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in the Offer; and any New Barclays Shares received as part of the consideration may have a different value at the time of completion of any post-closing restructuring than at the time of the completion of the Offer.

Post-closing restructuring measures, including but not limited to the making of distributions to shareholders, whether as a dividend or a repayment of capital, the making of distributions other than in cash, and dilution resulting from an issuance of securities, may have adverse Dutch tax consequences for shareholders, or certain groups of shareholders. Although the structure of any post-closing restructuring may not be determined until after the expiration of the Offer, in the event that 95 per cent. or more of the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO is tendered in the Offer, Barclays may at its option effectuate any post-closing restructuring by initiating a compulsory acquisition procedure (itkoopregeling) in accordance with Section 2:92a of the Dutch Civil Code. In such circumstances, the price to be paid for the ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs acquired in such compulsory acquisition would be cash only, in an amount determined by the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeals, which may be in an amount that is substantially more or less than the value of the consideration that ABN AMRO Shareholders received in the Offer. In addition, in the event that fewer than 95 per cent. of the outstanding ABN AMRO Shares are acquired in the Offer, any payment made to ABN AMRO Shareholders in connection with any post-closing restructuring might give rise to a liability to Dutch dividend withholding tax. Application of the Dutch dividend withholding tax could cause the net value of the consideration received by ABN AMRO Shareholders in any post-closing restructuring to be substantially less than the net value of the consideration such shareholders would have received had they tendered their ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer.

Whether or not the Merger is completed, the announcement and prospect of the Merger could cause disruptions in the businesses of Barclays and/or ABN AMRO, which could have an adverse effect on their businesses and financial results, as well as on the business prospects and future financial results of the Combined Group.

Whether or not the Merger is completed, the announcement and prospect of the Merger could cause disruptions in the businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO. Specifically:

some current and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles within the Combined Group, which might adversely affect Barclays and ABN AMRO's ability to retain or recruit key managers and other employees;

such uncertainty as to whether or not the Merger will be completed may affect Barclays and ABN AMRO's ability to retain current and attractive prospective customers; and the attention of management of each of Barclays and ABN AMRO may be diverted from the operation of the businesses toward the completion of the Merger.

If Barclays and ABN AMRO fail to manage these risks effectively, the business and financial results of Barclays, ABN AMRO and the Combined Group could be adversely effected.

Barclays and ABN AMRO may not be able to successfully integrate their large and complex businesses.

Barclays and ABN AMRO operate as independent companies, and will continue to do so until the completion of the Merger, which involves the integration of two large and complex businesses. Consequently, Barclays and ABN AMRO may face significant challenges in integrating the two companies' technologies, organisations, procedures, policies and operations in a timely and efficient manner, as well as in addressing differences in the business cultures of the two companies, and retaining key Barclays and ABN AMRO personnel.

The integration process may prove to be complex and time consuming, require substantial resources and effort and lead to a degree of uncertainty for customers and employees. It may also disrupt each company's ongoing businesses, which may adversely affect the Combined Group's relationships with customers, employees, regulators and others with whom Barclays and ABN AMRO have business or other dealings. Furthermore, the process of harmonising Barclays and ABN AMRO's differing risk management strategies and techniques may initially leave the Combined Group exposed to unidentified and unanticipated risks that may be different than those previously faced by the two companies as separate entities. The Combined Group's competitors may also seek to take advantage of potential integration problems to gain customers.

If Barclays and ABN AMRO fail to manage the integration of their businesses effectively, the growth strategy and future profitability of the Combined Group and the ability of the Combined Group to meet long term obligations could be negatively affected, and they may fail to achieve the anticipated benefits of the Merger. In addition, difficulties in integrating these businesses could harm the reputation of the Combined Group.

The Combined Group may fail to realise the anticipated cost savings, growth opportunities and synergies and other benefits anticipated from the Merger.

The success of the Merger will depend, in part, on the Combined Group's ability to realise anticipated cost savings, revenue synergies and growth opportunities from combining the businesses of Barclays and

Table of Contents

ABN AMRO. The Combined Group expects to benefit from synergies resulting from the consolidation of capabilities, rationalisation of operations and head count, greater efficiencies from increased scale and market integration, experience of product and service offerings and organic growth. Specifically, Barclays and ABN AMRO expect that the Combined Group will achieve pre-tax annual synergies of approximately 3,500 million by the end of 2010. In addition, Barclays and ABN AMRO expect that the Combined Group will achieve pre-tax annual cost savings of approximately 1,195 million by the end of 2008 and 2,270 million by the end of 2009 as well as 2,800 million by the end of 2010. Barclays and ABN AMRO also expect that the Merger will create approximately 700 million in annual revenue synergies by the end of 2010.

There is a risk, however, that the businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO may not be combined in a manner that permits these costs savings and revenue synergies to be realised in the time, manner or amounts currently expected, or at all. For example, although the products and customer bases of Barclays and ABN AMRO are complementary in many respects and should provide the Combined Group with numerous cross selling opportunities, there may be some degree of commercial overlap that could negatively impact the Combined Group's revenue by more than anticipated. The completion of the Offer or any post-closing restructuring may also be delayed, challenged by parties opposing the completion of the Merger or not possible at all. This may limit or delay the Combined Group management's ability to integrate the two companies' technologies, organisations, procedures, policies and operations. In addition, a variety of factors, including but not limited to wage inflation, currency fluctuations, regulatory requirements and difficulty integrating technology platforms, may adversely affect the Combined Group's anticipated cost savings and revenues. Also the achievement of any anticipated cost savings may adversely affect the Combined Group's revenues.

Finally, although work has been done on the development of detailed plans for achieving the synergy and other benefits from the Merger, such plans have not been finalised and cannot be implemented until the completion of the Merger. If the Combined Group is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the Merger may not be realised fully, or at all, or may take longer to realise than expected.

Barclays and ABN AMRO will incur significant transaction and Merger-related costs in connection with the Merger.

Barclays and ABN AMRO expect to incur a number of non-recurring costs associated with combining the operations of the two companies, anticipated to be approximately 2,160 million in 2008, 1,080 million in 2009 and 360 million in 2010. In addition, Barclays and ABN AMRO will incur legal, accounting and other transaction fees and other costs related to the Merger, anticipated to be approximately 462 million (£311 million) using the exchange rates of £1:00: 1.4839 as published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007. Some of these costs are payable regardless of whether the Merger is completed. Moreover, under specified circumstances, Barclays or ABN AMRO may be required to pay an amount by way of compensation in connection with the termination of the Merger Protocol under circumstances specified in that document. See paragraph 6 of Part II (Information on the Merger) for a description of the circumstances in which Barclays and ABN AMRO may terminate the Merger Protocol. Additional unanticipated costs may also be incurred in the integration of the businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO. Although the Combined Group expects that the elimination of duplicative costs, as well as the realisation of other efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses, will offset these transaction and Merger related costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all. Further, if the Merger is not completed, costs will impact on results of the respective businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO.

Furthermore, post-closing restructuring measures which may be implemented by Barclays and ABN AMRO may result in the proportion of the balance sheet of ABN AMRO or its successor entities that is represented by debt increasing substantially as compared to the current position, subject to applicable regulatory constraints.

1. These synergy estimates do not include any of the benefits which are expected to be derived from the partnership with China Development Bank.

ABN AMRO Shareholders should take into account such interests.

These interests include:

the continued employment of some executive officers of ABN AMRO by the Combined Group;

the continued positions of certain members of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board as directors of the Combined Group; employment agreements with certain members of the Managing Board which include terms regarding severance payments in the event of termination of those agreements; and the indemnification of former members of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board by the Combined Group.

Shareholders will be more exposed to currency exchange rate fluctuations as a result of the Merger and the resulting increased proportion of assets, liabilities and earnings denominated in foreign currency.

The financial results of the Combined Group will be more exposed to currency exchange rate fluctuations as a result of the Merger and the resulting increased proportion of assets, liabilities and earnings denominated in foreign currencies.

The Combined Group will present its financial statements in Euro and will have a significant proportion of net assets and income in non Euro currencies, primarily Sterling and Dollar as well as a range of emerging market currencies. The Combined Group's financial results and capital ratios will therefore be sensitive to movements in foreign exchange rates. A depreciation of non-Euro currencies relative to the Euro would have an adverse impact on the Combined Group's financial results.

4. Risks Related to the Share Capital of the Combined Group

There will be material differences between the current rights of ABN AMRO Shareholders and the rights they can expect to have as shareholders of the Combined Group.

ABN AMRO Shareholders will receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares or New Barclays ADSs, as the case may be, in the Offer, and will consequently become Barclays Shareholders. Their rights as Barclays Shareholders or holders of Barclays ADSs will be governed by the Barclays Memorandum of Association, Barclays Articles of Association, the depositary agreement with the Bank of New York (the Depositary) (in the case of Barclays ADSs) and by English law. As a result, there will be material differences between the current rights of ABN AMRO Shareholders and the rights they can expect to have as Barclays Shareholders. For ABN AMRO Shareholders, the Offer Document contains a discussion of these material differences between the current rights of an ABN AMRO Shareholder and the rights they can expect to have as Barclays Shareholders.

Also, in the event of a delisting of ABN AMRO Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs, the statutory provisions applicable to the governance of listed companies will no longer apply, and investors must understand that there is a risk that the rights of minority shareholders are limited to the statutory minimum.

ABN AMRO Shareholders and existing Barclays Shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest in the Combined Group after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management.

After the completion of the Merger, ABN AMRO Shareholders and existing Barclays Shareholders will own a smaller percentage of the Combined Group than they currently own of Barclays and ABN AMRO, respectively. Assuming that all of the outstanding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs are validly tendered in the Ordinary Share Offer and not withdrawn, existing Barclays Shareholders and former ABN AMRO Shareholders will own approximately 56 per cent. and 35 per cent., respectively, of the outstanding ordinary shares of the Combined Group immediately after the Merger. Consequently, ABN AMRO Shareholders, as a group, will have reduced ownership and voting power in the Combined Group compared to their ownership and voting power in ABN AMRO, and existing Barclays Shareholders, as a group, will have reduced ownership and voting power in the Combined Group compared to their ownership and voting power in Barclays.

Following the Settlement Date, ABN AMRO is expected to be majority controlled by Barclays, and Barclays is as such expected to control the nomination of all of the members of the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board.

The trading price of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs may be affected by factors different from those affecting the price of existing Barclays Ordinary Shares and existing Barclays ADSs and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs.

The businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO differ in some respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the Combined Group and the market price of the Combined Group's securities may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Barclays and ABN AMRO. For a discussion of the businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see Part IV (Information on Barclays) and Part V (Information on ABN AMRO).

The market price of the Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays ADSs could be volatile and subject to significant fluctuations due to a variety of factors.

The market price of Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays ADSs could be subject to fluctuations in response to certain factors, such as changes in sentiment in the market regarding Barclays Ordinary Shares, any regulatory changes affecting Barclays operations, variations in Barclays anticipated or actual operating results, business developments of Barclays or its competitors, the operating and share price performance of other companies in the industries and markets in which Barclays operates, speculation about Barclays business in the press, media or the investment community, changes in conditions affecting the economy generally, as well as other factors unrelated to the operating results of Barclays. Volatility in the market price of Barclays Ordinary Shares following the Merger may prevent former ABN AMRO Shareholders from selling New Barclays Ordinary Shares or New Barclays ADSs they may receive in the Offer at or above the value of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs tendered in exchange for such New Barclays Ordinary Shares or New Barclays ADSs.

Shareholders may experience a loss of certain legal protections.

The implementation of post-closing restructuring measures, including but not limited to the transfer or issuance to holders of ABN AMRO Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs of shares in another company (including a non-Dutch and/or a non-listed company), by way of legal merger, legal de-merger, distribution in kind or otherwise, or the transfer or issuance to them of any form of financial instruments issued by any issuer under any jurisdiction, may result in the relevant shareholders losing forms of statutory protection rights, including access to certain types of court proceedings, they are currently enjoying as shareholders of a Dutch public limited liability company.

Resales of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs following the Offer may cause the market price of the Barclays Ordinary Shares to fall.

In connection with the Offer, Barclays estimates to issue approximately 4,012,764,544 New Barclays Ordinary Shares, including those represented by New Barclays ADSs, assuming the maximum number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued pursuant to the Ordinary Share Offer. The increase in the number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays ADSs may lead to sales of such securities or the perception that such sales may occur, either of which may adversely affect the market for, and the market price of, Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays ADSs.

Certain Barclays Bank securities include terms restricting payments of dividends by Barclays on the Barclays Ordinary Shares and the Barclays Preference Shares.

Barclays Bank has issued several series of reserve capital instruments and tier one notes which place restrictions on Barclays ability to (i) declare or pay dividends (other than a dividend declared by Barclays before deferral, or intra-group dividends) on shares (including Barclays Ordinary Shares and the Barclays Preference Shares) or (ii) redeem, purchase, reduce or otherwise acquire any of the share capital or securities of Barclays (including Barclays Ordinary Shares and the Barclays Preference Shares).

Table of Contents

This restriction arises if Barclays Bank defers the payment of any coupon due on the relevant series of reserve capital instruments or tier one notes and remain until Barclays Bank next pays (or sets aside funds to pay) a coupon on the reserve capital instruments or tier one notes or the reserve capital instruments or tier one notes are redeemed in full.

5. Risks Related to the Preference Share Offer

Future preference share issues may include terms restricting payments relating to the Barclays Preference Shares, including restrictions on the payment of dividends on, and on redemptions, purchases, reductions or other acquisitions of, Barclays Preference Shares, in circumstances such as a deferral or non-payment of a dividend on such preference shares.

The terms of preference shares issued from time to time in the future by Barclays or other members of the Combined Group may include terms restricting payments relating to the Barclays Preference Shares, including restrictions on the payment of dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares, and on redemptions, purchases, reductions or other acquisitions of Barclays Preference Shares, in circumstances such as a deferral or non-payment of a dividend on such preference shares.

Dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares are discretionary and will not be declared or paid in full, or at all, if the Barclays Board so resolves in respect of the dividend for any Dividend Period or if a dividend is not paid simultaneously on the Staff Shares.

Barclays Board may resolve, in its absolute discretion, on or before any Dividend Payment Date not to pay in full, or at all, the dividend on the Barclays Preference Shares for the Dividend Period to which that Dividend Payment Date relates. Furthermore a dividend will not be payable on the Barclays Preference Shares if a dividend is not paid simultaneously on the Staff Shares.

Barclays in any event may under English company law pay dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares only if and to the extent that payment can be made out of the profits of Barclays available for distribution and permitted to be distributed.

Dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares are non-cumulative.

The dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares are non-cumulative. Accordingly, to the extent that any dividend or part thereof is on any occasion not declared and paid for any reason, holders of Barclays Preference Shares will not have a claim in respect of the dividend accrued for the relevant Dividend Period or for interest on the dividend, whether or not dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares are declared for any future Dividend Period.

If Barclays is wound up, distributions to holders of the Barclays Preference Shares will be subordinated to the claims of creditors and, for so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, pari passu with the Staff Shares and Barclays Ordinary Shares.

On a winding-up of Barclays, whether voluntarily or involuntarily and whether in connection with insolvency proceedings or otherwise, holders of Barclays Preference Shares will be entitled to distributions in liquidation only after the claims of creditors of Barclays and its subsidiaries have been satisfied. Furthermore, for so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, the assets of Barclays shall be applied pari passu on such a return of capital with the holders of any other class of shares in the capital of Barclays (including Barclays Ordinary Shares and Staff Shares) in proportion to the amount paid up on such shares.

No limitation on issuing senior debt securities or pari passu shares.

There is no restriction on the amount of debt which Barclays may incur which ranks senior to the Barclays Preference Shares or on the amount or terms of securities which Barclays may issue which rank pari passu with the Barclays Preference Shares. The issue of any such debt or securities may reduce the amount recoverable by holders of the Barclays Preference Shares on a winding-up or other return of capital of Barclays or may increase the likelihood of a suspension of distributions in respect of the Barclays Preference Shares.

Barclays Preference Shares have no voting rights.

The holders of the Barclays Preference Shares will not be eligible to receive notice of, attend or vote at general meetings of Barclays.

Table of Contents

Barclays Preference Shares are perpetual securities.

Barclays is under no obligation to redeem the Barclays Preference Shares at any time and the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares have no right to call for their redemption.

Barclays Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of Barclays.

Subject to the prior consent of the FSA (if required) and to compliance with the United Kingdom company law requirements as to the manner of financing any redemption of redeemable shares, and provided that Barclays is in compliance with main BIPRU Pillar Rules (as such rules are applicable on a consolidated basis to the group of which Barclays is a part), the Barclays Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of Barclays, or in part, on any Relevant Payment Date falling on or after 15 December, 2012.

Barclays may redeem the Barclays Preference Shares at an amount equal to 1.

Barclays Preference Shares have liquidity risk.

The Barclays Preference Shares are not and will not be listed or admitted to trading on any stock exchange. There can be no assurance that an active market for the Barclays Preference Shares will develop. The liquidity of the Barclays Preference Shares can be expected to vary with changes in market and economic conditions, the financial condition and prospects of Barclays and other factors that generally influence the market price of securities.

There can be no assurances that existing holders of DR Preference Shares will be able to maintain any participation exemption following the Effective Date.

Certain ABN AMRO Shareholders currently benefit from the participation exemption under Dutch tax law with respect to future income and gains in relation to their ABN AMRO Shares. There can be no assurance that such ABN AMRO Shareholders receiving Barclays Preference Shares under the DR Preference Share Offer will continue to enjoy the benefit of such participation exemption in respect of either their New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares following the Effective Date. Barclays shall not be under any obligation whatsoever to take any action to maintain any such existing participation exemption, and shall in no way be responsible for, or be liable to compensate or indemnify any ABN AMRO Shareholder in respect of, the loss of any such participation exemption.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements and assumptions in this document constitute forward-looking statements with respect to certain of Barclays and ABN AMRO's plans and their current goals and expectations relating to their future results, performance or achievements and which involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Barclays cautions readers that no forward-looking statement is a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as aim, anticipate, target, expect, estimate, intend, plan, goal, believe, or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding the consummation of the Merger between Barclays and ABN AMRO within the expected timeframe and on the expected terms (if at all), the benefits of the Merger involving Barclays and ABN AMRO, including the achievement of synergy targets, Barclays and ABN AMRO's income growth, impairment charges, business strategy, projected costs and estimates of capital expenditures and revenue benefits, projected levels of growth in the banking and financial markets, the Combined Group's future financial and operating results, projected costs and estimates of capital expenditures, and plans and objectives for future operations of Barclays, ABN AMRO and the Combined Group and other statements that are not historical facts. Any forward-looking statements made herein speak only as of the date they are made. Except as required by the FSA, the London Stock Exchange or applicable law, Barclays expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained in this document to reflect any change in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

PART I
INFORMATION ON THE COMBINED GROUP

This section contains information which relates to the Combined Group following the Effective Date. In addition to the information in this section, the information set out in Part IV (Information on Barclays) and Part V (Information on ABN AMRO) will, together, also be relevant to the Combined Group following the Effective Date.

1. Background to and Strategic Rationale for the Merger

The Merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create one of the world's leading universal banks. Both ABN AMRO and Barclays operate in a sector which is still fragmented. The Barclays Board believes that universal banking is the model best equipped for success in an industry where customer needs are converging and where demand-led growth will be significant across the globe. Harmonisation of customer needs is already well advanced in investment banking and investment management and is increasingly apparent in retail and commercial banking.

The Merger brings together two sets of high quality product capabilities and brands, which are well placed to create growth for shareholders from the relationship extension opportunities that exist in a combined base of 46 million personal and 1.4 million commercial customers.

The Combined Group will have a simple and transparent management structure. The management team will be clearly accountable for delivering sustained incremental earnings growth and value for shareholders by leading strong performance from the underlying businesses and by capturing the substantial synergies made available by the Merger. There will be two principal business groupings within the Combined Group, Global Retail and Commercial Banking (GRCB) and Investment Banking and Investment Management (IBIM). GRCB will be led by Frits Seegers, currently CEO of GRCB in Barclays. IBIM will be led by Bob Diamond, currently President of Barclays and CEO of IBIM. The holding company of the Combined Group will be called Barclays PLC.

Global Retail and Commercial Banking

ABN AMRO and Barclays bring together two sets of highly complementary geographies. Approximately 90 per cent. of the Combined Group's branches will be in seven countries. In Europe, the Combined Group will have strong franchises in the UK and the Netherlands and attractive positions in Italy, Spain and Portugal. Additionally, the Combined Group will have significant exposure to the high growth developing economies of Brazil and South Africa offering substantial revenue and profit growth opportunities. The Combined Group will also maximise ABN AMRO's fast growing Asian business.

Customers will benefit from the enhanced product capabilities of the Combined Group drawing on, for example, ABN AMRO's global cash and payments infrastructure and Barclays expertise in credit cards.

ABN AMRO and Barclays are both recognised players in commercial banking. They both have relevant presence in the mid-size sector. The Merger will accelerate Barclays ambition to develop its business banking activities globally. The franchise will be further strengthened by the linkage between a strong investment banking product range and the track record of both ABN AMRO and Barclays in selling investment banking products to mid-size clients across the Combined Group's broad geographic footprint.

There is significant opportunity for increased cost efficiency through the optimisation of the operating infrastructure and processes.

Investment Banking and Investment Management*Investment Banking*

The Merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will support the ambition to be a leading global investment bank in risk management and financing through enhanced product expertise and broader geographic exposure. Barclays existing product capabilities will be considerably enhanced, particularly in commodities, foreign exchange, equities, mergers and acquisitions, corporate broking, structured credit and private equity and its geographic and client reach will also be extended significantly into Asia, Latin America and Continental Europe. The combined investment bank will operate on the Barclays Capital scaleable platform and will target an alignment to a top quartile cost: income ratio by 2010.

Table of Contents*Asset Management*

The Combined Group will be the world's largest institutional asset manager. The index-based, exchange traded fund and quantitative active capabilities of Barclays Global Investors (BGI) will be complemented by ABN AMRO's active fundamentals-based capabilities and products. The Barclays Board believes that there are expanded opportunities for retail distribution of the current product set, including iShares (exchange traded funds managed and marketed by BGI).

Wealth Management

The Merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create the world's eighth largest wealth manager, with a leading European onshore franchise with strong positions in the Netherlands and UK, a strong European franchise across Germany, Belgium, France and Spain and attractive growing positions in Asia and Brazil. The product development capabilities of the combined wealth management business together with an extensive distribution network will allow the merged business to benefit from favourable demographic trends and increasing demand-led client volumes.

2. Financial effects of the MergerSignificant Cost Synergies and Revenue Benefits

Potential synergies arising from the Merger have been assessed by a joint team from ABN AMRO and Barclays through a detailed bottom up approach involving business leaders from both banks. The total estimated pre-tax annual cost synergies and revenue benefits that are expected to be realised by 2010 are €3.5 billion, with a total pre-tax integration cost of realising these synergy benefits estimated at €3.6 billion. Bob Diamond, Barclays Group President, will be the Accountable Executive for the integration and synergy programmes, reporting to the Group Chief Executive, and will chair an Integration Committee which will comprise: himself; Huibert Boumeester, Group Chief Administrative Officer; Paul Idzik, Group Chief Operating Officer; Ron Teerlink, GRCB Chief Operating Officer; and Rich Ricci, IBIM Chief Operating Officer. The Integration Committee will have the responsibility for the delivery of the estimated cost synergies and revenue benefits. Capturing the expected synergies will assist the management of the Combined Group in achieving top quartile cost: income ratios across all businesses by 2010. A detailed discussion of these expected synergies is set out in paragraph 3 of Part II (Information on the Merger).

Attractive financial benefits to both sets of shareholders

An unaudited pro forma statement of the net assets of the Combined Group, is set out, for illustrative purposes, in Part IX (Information on the expected impact of the Merger on the consolidated net assets of the Barclays Group) of this document. As shown in that statement, the illustrative unaudited pro forma consolidated net assets of the Combined Group, prepared in accordance with IFRS as at 30 June 2007 and adjusted to reflect the consequences of the Merger and the disposal of LaSalle, would have been €95.3 billion (as extracted from the Unaudited Pro-Forma Net Asset Statement). As at that date, Barclays had net assets of €42.8 billion.

It is expected that the Merger will lead to significant accretion in ABN AMRO's 2008 adjusted earnings per share¹ for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. For accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders, dividend income from their ownership of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and interest on cash consideration would have been 39.2 per cent. higher than the dividend income from their ABN AMRO Shares on the basis of ABN AMRO and Barclays 2006 dividends. It is expected that the Merger will be 5 per cent. accretive to Barclays adjusted earnings per share³ in 2010⁴. The Barclays Board expects that the return on investment will be approximately 13 per cent. in 2010.

³Adjusted earnings per share is the profit attributable to ordinary shareholders adjusted to exclude the amortisation of identifiable intangible assets and fair value adjustments and integration costs relating to the Merger, divided by the weighted average number of ordinary shares.

⁴This statement is not intended to be and should not be interpreted to mean that the future adjusted earnings per share of Barclays will necessarily match or exceed its historical published adjusted earnings per share.

Table of Contents3. Board Composition

The Combined Group will have a UK corporate governance structure with a unitary board of directors. Following the Merger, it is expected that, the Barclays Board will initially consist of 10 members from Barclays and 9 members from ABN AMRO. In addition to the Chairman and Deputy Chairman, there will be 12 Non-executive Directors, with 5 initially nominated by Barclays and 7 initially nominated by ABN AMRO. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director and, following the Effective Date, Temasek will also have the right to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director. In the event that the number of members of the Barclays Board shall, in the two years following completion of the Merger be reduced, the pro rata representation of Directors nominated by ABN AMRO and of Directors nominated by Barclays shall remain the same. It is expected that Gary Hoffman, Dr Daniël Cronjé, Professor Dame Sandra Dawson, Sir Andrew Likierman, Stephen Russell and Sir John Sunderland will retire from the Barclays Board with effect from the Effective Date, and that, following the Effective Date, the Board composition will be as follows:

Chairman	Position as from the Effective Date
Arthur Martinez	Chairman
Non-executive Directors
Marcus Agius	Deputy Chairman
David Booth	Non-executive Director
Sir Richard Broadbent	Non-executive Director
Leigh Clifford	Non-executive Director
Fulvio Conti	Non-executive Director
Rijkman Groenink	Non-executive Director
Gert-Jan Kramer	Non-executive Director
Trude Maas-de Brouwer	Non-executive Director
André Olijslager	Non-executive Director
Sir Nigel Rudd	Non-executive Director
Anthony Ruys	Non-executive Director
Paolo Scaroni	Non-executive Director
Rob van den Bergh	Non-executive Director
Executive Directors
John Varley	Group Chief Executive
Huibert Boumeester	Group Chief Administrative Officer
Bob Diamond	President of Barclays and CEO of IBIM
Chris Lucas	Group Finance Director
Frits Seegers	CEO of GRCB

Marcus Agius is expected to become Deputy Chairman of the Combined Group and will remain Chairman of Barclays Bank. It is expected that he will succeed Arthur Martinez as Chairman of the Combined Group when Arthur Martinez retires.

Following the Effective Date, Rijkman Groenink is expected to cease to be Chairman of the Managing Board and Gary Hoffman is expected to cease to be the Barclays Group Vice-Chairman. Huibert Boumeester, Chief Financial Officer of ABN AMRO, is expected to cease to hold such office following the Effective Date.

Table of Contents4. Management, Operating Model and Employees

The head office of the Combined Group will be located in Amsterdam. Day-to-day management of the Combined Group is expected to be the responsibility of John Varley, working with the Group Executive Committee, which is expected to consist of:

Committee Member	Position as from the Effective Date
John Varley	Group Chief Executive
Huibert Boumeester	Group Chief Administrative Officer
Bob Diamond	President of Barclays and CEO of IBIM
Paul Idzik	Group Chief Operating Officer
Chris Lucas	Group Finance Director
Piero Overmars	CEO of Continental Europe and Asia, GRCB
Frits Seegers	CEO of GRCB
Ron Teerlink	Chief Operating Officer of GRCB

Wilco Jiskoot is expected to become a Vice-Chairman of Barclays Capital with senior responsibility for client relationships.

GRCB will be headquartered in Amsterdam and will incorporate the retail and commercial banking operations of the Combined Group, including:

Barclays UK Retail Banking and UK Business Banking, International Retail and Commercial Banking and Barclaycard; and

ABN AMRO's Transaction Banking, BU Netherlands, BU Europe, Antonveneta, BU Latin America and BU Asia. IBIM will be headquartered in London. IBIM will comprise:

Barclays Capital which will incorporate Barclays Capital and ABN AMRO Global Markets and Global Clients and ABN AMRO Private Equity businesses;

Barclays Global Investors and ABN AMRO Asset Management; and

Wealth Management which will incorporate Barclays Wealth and ABN AMRO Private Clients.

Consultations have taken place with the trade unions involved, and the secretariat of the Social Economic Council (Sociaal Economische Raad) has been informed of the Offer in accordance with the SER Merger Code 2000 (SER besluit Fusiegedragsregels 2000).

ABN AMRO and Barclays are aware of the fact that these measures can have difficult consequences for a number of staff. When it comes to matters affecting staff, both ABN AMRO and Barclays have a good reputation and are committed to upholding that reputation.

ABN AMRO and Barclays have identified the possibility of rationalising the number of staff of the Combined Group through a combination of natural attrition, offshoring and outsourcing as well as redundancies. The rationalisation of headcount is expected to be implemented over 3 years following the Effective Date.

The reduction in staff is a necessary part of the envisaged synergies from the Merger of the two banks. Part of the expected staff reduction will be through establishing shared services and offshoring those positions to low cost locations, such as India where new staff will be recruited at ABN AMRO's existing ABN AMRO Central Enterprise Services (ACES) operations.

It is expected that the Merger of Barclays and ABN AMRO will result in a net reduction in staff of approximately 12,800. In addition, it is expected that approximately 10,800 full-time equivalent positions will be offshored to low-cost locations. This will impact a gross total of approximately 23,600 full-time equivalent positions of the combined work force of approximately 220,600. (Barclays has c.127,700 employees, ABN AMRO c.94,000 excluding LaSalle).

Barclays and ABN AMRO have, in their meetings with employee representative groups, including trade unions and works councils, committed to avoiding compulsory redundancies wherever possible and maintaining current redundancy terms for all existing Barclays and ABN AMRO employees worldwide for a period of two years from the Closing Date. ABN AMRO and Barclays confirm that all requisite employee consultations and information procedures with employee representative bodies of ABN AMRO and Barclays have been completed and have resulted in a positive opinion of the European Staff Council and a positive advice from the Central Works Council in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays.

5. Regulation and Tax Residency

The FSA and DNB have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and that the DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO and Barclays groups respectively. Barclays, which will be the holding company for the Combined Group, will remain UK incorporated, and will remain UK tax resident.

6. Capital Management and Dividend Policy

ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and Barclays Bank will seek to maintain their strong credit ratings. On the Effective Date it is expected that the Tier 1 Ratio of the Combined Group will be 7.5 per cent. and the Core Equity Tier 1 Ratio 5 per cent. The Combined Group will take a disciplined approach to capital optimisation and will seek to maintain the Tier 1 ratio at 7.5 per cent. and rebuild the Core Equity Tier 1 Ratio to 5.25 per cent., by the end of 2009 from the retention of earnings. It has been assumed, for the purpose of estimating financial effects, that excess equity over and above the target Equity Tier 1 ratio after accounting for dividends and growth in risk weighted assets will be returned to shareholders by way of share buybacks.

Assuming the Effective Date occurs on or before the record date for the Barclays Final Dividend for 2007, which is expected to be early in March 2008, the first dividend payable to holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is expected to be the Barclays final dividend for 2007.

Following the Effective Date, it is intended that the Combined Group will maintain ABN AMRO's and Barclays progressive dividend policy and that dividends per share will grow approximately in line with earnings per share over the longer term. With the benefit of the estimated synergies from the Merger, Barclays annual dividend will be approximately twice covered by adjusted earnings¹. Management of each of Barclays and ABN AMRO believe that this policy will maintain an appropriate balance between income distribution to shareholders and earnings retention to fund growth. It is also intended that the Combined Group will continue Barclays practice of weighting the annual dividend towards the final dividend to maintain flexibility. It is not expected that the dividends per share in 2008 will be materially different to the dividend Barclays would have expected to distribute to shareholders had the Merger not occurred.

Following the Effective Date, the Combined Group will present financial statements in Euro and will declare dividends in Euro. Shareholders in the Combined Group will be able to elect to receive dividends paid in Euro or Sterling at any time. Accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders who receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares (other than those who validly elect to receive the Alternative Exchange under the Ordinary Share Offer) will receive dividends paid in Euro unless they validly elect to receive dividends paid in Sterling. Existing Barclays Shareholders will continue to receive dividends paid in Sterling unless they validly elect to receive dividends paid in Euro. Further details of the facility available for Barclays Shareholders to enable them to elect to receive dividends paid in Euro or Sterling, are set out in the Circular sent to existing Barclays Shareholders. The holders of Barclays ADSs will receive payment in Dollars and will not be able to elect to receive dividends in any other currency.

PART II
INFORMATION ON THE MERGER

1. INTRODUCTION

On 23 April 2007, Barclays and ABN AMRO jointly announced that agreement had been reached on the terms of a recommended merger of Barclays and ABN AMRO to create one of the world's leading universal bank groups, to be called Barclays. The terms on which the Merger would take place were revised prior to an announcement by Barclays on 23 July 2007 and were further revised prior to an announcement by Barclays on 30 July 2007.

On 30 July 2007, the ABN AMRO Boards announced their continuing support for the strategic benefits of the combination with Barclays but concluded they were not in a position to recommend either of the rival offers for ABN AMRO.

The Merger was agreed subject to, among other things, the satisfaction or waiver of certain pre-conditions, including the receipt of all regulatory approvals required for the completion of the LaSalle Agreement and the receipt of other necessary regulatory authorisations. Those pre-conditions have now been satisfied, waived or rolled forward as conditions of the Offer.

The implementation of the Merger remains subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including the completion of the sale of LaSalle and the regulatory approvals and clearances referred to in paragraph 5 below in this Part II.

2. SUMMARY OF THE TERMS OF THE OFFER

The Merger is being effected by means of the Offer. The terms of the Merger initially presented to ABN AMRO as set out in the Announcement were revised following the Revised Announcement and this Offer is being unanimously recommended by the Barclays Board as being in the best interests of Barclays and Barclays Shareholders as a whole. The Offer comprises separate offers for each class of ABN AMRO's outstanding share capital.

Ordinary Share Offer

Pursuant to the Ordinary Share Offer, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and holders of ABN AMRO ADSs tendering their ABN Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs will receive:

2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares and 13.15 in cash for every 1 ABN AMRO Ordinary Share

0.5325 of a New Barclays ADS and 13.15 in cash for every 1 ABN AMRO ADS

The Ordinary Share Offer values each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share at 34.83 and values ABN AMRO at 65.6 billion (£44.2 billion), based on the Closing Price of Barclays Ordinary Shares on 2 August 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document. Of this amount approximately 38 per cent. will be payable in cash. As at 2 August 2007 the implied value of this consideration per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share represented a price to reported earnings multiple of 13.9 times and a price to book multiple of 2.7 times, based on 2006 figures.

The Ordinary Share Offer represents a premium for ABN AMRO Shareholders of approximately:

27.6 per cent. to the revised share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares on 16 March 2007, the last Business Day prior to the announcement that ABN AMRO and Barclays were in talks; and

43.6 per cent. over the average share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the 6 months up to and including 16 March 2007.

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and holders of ABN AMRO ADSs are being offered the opportunity to elect, subject to availability, to change the proportions in which they receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares or New Barclays ADSs and cash in respect of their holdings of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility. However, the total number of New Barclays Ordinary

The cash consideration paid for each ABN AMRO ADS will be Dollars, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which holders of ABN AMRO ADSs are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by The Bank of New York, the ADS exchange agent, for the five business days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS exchange agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.

Table of Contents

Shares and New Barclays ADSs to be issued and the maximum aggregate amount of cash to be paid under the Offer will not be varied as a result of elections under the Mix and Match Facility. Accordingly, satisfaction of elections made by ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and holders of ABN AMRO ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility will depend on the extent to which other ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders or holders of ABN AMRO ADSs make offsetting elections. Satisfaction of elections under the Mix and Match Facility will be effected on the basis of 11.87 (£8.00) in cash for each New Barclays Ordinary Share and the Dollar equivalent of 47.48 (£32.00) in cash for each New Barclays ADS (and vice versa in each case).¹ To the extent that elections cannot be satisfied in full, they will be scaled down pro rata. As a result, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and holders of ABN AMRO ADSs who make an election under the Mix and Match Facility will not necessarily know the exact number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or New Barclays ADSs or the amount of cash they will receive until settlement of the consideration under the Offer.

If ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders make no such election, they will receive 13.15 in cash and 2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares in respect of each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered. If holders of ABN AMRO ADSs make no such election, they will receive 13.15 in cash and 0.5325 of a New Barclays ADS in respect of each ABN AMRO ADS tendered.²

Elections under the Mix and Match Facility will only be accepted in respect of whole numbers of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs. The number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in respect of which an election under the Mix and Match Facility is made represents the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs in respect of which the holder wishes to receive either more cash or more New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs as consideration for the Offer.

Under the terms of the Ordinary Share Offer, existing ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders (together with holders of ABN AMRO ADSs) will own 35.1 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group and existing Barclays Shareholders (together with holders of Barclays ADSs) will own 55.6 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group. This compares to a split of 48 percent and 52 per cent set out in the Announcement. In addition, Temasek will own 2.5 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group and China Development Bank 6.8 per cent.

The Exchange Ratio was determined on the basis of the numbers of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in issue (excluding shares that were held as treasury shares but including all share options and awards) and the share price for Barclays Ordinary Shares in each case on 20 July 2007, being the last Business Day prior to the Revised Announcement. Depending on their terms, certain capital raisings or capital returns by either or both of ABN AMRO and Barclays may be accretive or dilutive to the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and/or the Barclays Ordinary Shares. For this reason, the terms of the Ordinary Share Offer provide for the adjustment of the Exchange Ratio relating to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and New Barclays Ordinary Shares in the event that certain capital raisings or capital returns are effected between the date of the Revised Announcement and the Effective Date.³

The adjustment seeks to address the possible impact on the share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares of certain capital raisings or capital returns by ABN AMRO, and the possible impact on the price of Barclays Ordinary Shares of certain capital raisings or capital returns by Barclays, such that the terms of the Ordinary Share Offer at the Effective Date continue to reflect both ABN AMRO and Barclays understanding of the fundamental value of the Ordinary Share Offer.

Any material adjustment to the Exchange Ratio will be communicated to ABN AMRO Shareholders and Barclays Shareholders by way of public announcements.

DR Preference Share Offer

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their DR Preference Shares under the DR Preference Share Offer will receive either 0.59 in cash or, if they choose and subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting, 0.59 of a Barclays Preference Share for each

1. This uses the exchange rate of £1.00: 1.4839 in the Financial Times as at 2 August 2007. Barclays Ordinary Shares may be trading at a lower or higher price than £8.00 at the Settlement Date.
2. The cash consideration paid for each ABN AMRO ADS will be Dollars, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which holders of ABN AMRO ADSs are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by The Bank of New York, the ADS exchange agent, for the five business days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS exchange agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.
3. The Conditional Investment, the Unconditional Investment, subscription for the Clawback Shares and the Share Buy-back Programme will not result in an adjustment to the Exchange Ratio.

Table of Contents

DR Preference Share tendered and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The aggregate consideration payable for the DR Preference Shares will be approximately 808 million assuming all of the DR Preference Shares currently in issue are tendered for cash. The DR Preference Share Offer will be adjusted if necessary to include accrued dividends up to the Settlement Date. Since the next dividend payment date on the DR Preference Shares is due when ABN AMRO pays its annual dividend on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for the financial year ending 31 December 2007, no adjustment of the DR Preference Share Offer is expected in connection with a payment of dividend.

Formerly Convertible Preference Share Offer

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their Formerly Convertible Preference Shares will receive 27.65 per share, being the closing share price for a Formerly Convertible Preference Share on 20 April 2007, the last Business Day before the Announcement. The aggregate consideration payable for the Formerly Convertible Preference Shares by Barclays will be approximately 1.2 million assuming all of the Formerly Convertible Preference Shares currently in issue are tendered. The consideration payable in respect of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares will not be adjusted for a dividend payment on the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

3. RATIONALE FOR THE MERGER

In reaching their decisions to approve the Merger Protocol each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board consulted with management and their financial advisers and considered a variety of factors, including the material factors described below. The foregoing decisions of the ABN AMRO Boards were made at special meeting of the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board on 22 April 2007. In deciding to revise the terms of the Merger, Barclays took into account the investments by China Development Bank and Temasek. The Barclays Board believes that the Unconditional Investment is an important endorsement of the Barclays strategy and management team. In addition, the Barclays Board believes that the Conditional Investment underscores the confidence of China Development Bank and Temasek in the value potential of the Merger. In light of the number and wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its determination. Each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board viewed its position as being based on all of the information available and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors and members may have given different weight to different factors. This explanation of the reasons for the Merger and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under Forward-Looking Statements.

Strategic Considerations

Each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board considered a number of factors pertaining to the strategic rationale for the Merger as generally supporting its decision to enter into the Merger Protocol, including the following:

the expectation that the Merger would create one of the world's leading universal banks in a sector which is still fragmented;

the belief that universal banking is the model best equipped for success in an industry where customer needs are converging and where demand-led growth will be significant across the globe;

the belief that harmonisation of customer needs is already well advanced in investment banking and investment management and is increasingly apparent in retail and commercial banking;

the belief that the Merger brings together two sets of high quality product capabilities and brands, which are well placed to create growth for shareholders from the relationship extension opportunities that exist in a combined base of approximately 46 million personal and 1.4 million commercial customers;

the belief that, in global retail and commercial banking, ABN AMRO and Barclays bring together two sets of highly complementary geographies. Approximately 90 per cent. of the Combined Group's branches will be in seven countries. In Europe the Combined Group will have strong franchises in the UK and the Netherlands and attractive positions in Italy, Spain and Portugal. Additionally, the Combined Group will have significant exposure to the high growth developing economies of Brazil and South Africa offering substantial revenue and profit growth opportunities. The Combined Group will also maximise ABN AMRO's fast growing Asian business;

the expectation that customers will benefit from the enhanced retail and commercial banking product capabilities of the Combined Group drawing on, for example, ABN AMRO's global cash and payments infrastructure and Barclays expertise in credit cards;

the fact that ABN AMRO and Barclays are both recognised players in commercial banking and both have relevant presence in the mid-size sector. The Merger is expected to accelerate Barclays ambition to develop its business banking activities globally. The Combined Group should be further strengthened by the linkage between a strong investment banking product range and the track record of both ABN AMRO and Barclays in selling investment banking products to mid-size clients across the Combined Group's broad geographic footprint;

the belief that there is significant opportunity for increased cost efficiency through the optimisation of the operating infrastructure and processes;

the belief that the Merger will support the ambition to be a leading global investment bank in risk management and financing through enhanced product expertise and broader geographic exposure;

the expectation that Barclays existing investment banking product capabilities will be considerably enhanced, particularly in commodities, foreign exchange, equities, mergers and acquisitions, corporate broking, structured credit and private equity and its geographic and client reach will also be extended significantly into Asia, Latin America and Continental Europe;

the fact that the Combined Group will be the world's largest institutional asset manager and that BGI's index-based, exchange traded fund and quantitative active capabilities will be complemented by ABN AMRO's active fundamentals-based capabilities and products;

the expectation that there are expanded opportunities for retail distribution of the current product set including BGI's rapidly growing iShares exchange traded funds; and the fact that the Combined Group will be the world's eighth largest wealth manager and that the expanded distribution network will position the merged business well to benefit from favourable demographic trends and increasing demand-led client volumes.

Financial Considerations

Each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board also considered a number of financial factors pertaining to the Merger as generally supporting its decision. Potential synergies arising from the Merger have been assessed by a joint team from Barclays and ABN AMRO through a detailed bottom up approach involving business leaders from both banks. Bob Diamond, Barclays Group President, will be the Accountable Executive for the integration and synergy programmes, reporting to the Group Chief Executive, and will chair an Integration Committee which will comprise: himself; Huibert Boumeester, Group Chief Administrative Officer; Paul Idzik, Group Chief Operating Officer; Ron Teerlink, GRCB Chief Operating Officer; and Rich Ricci, IBIM Chief Operating Officer. The Integration Committee will have the responsibility for the delivery of the estimated cost synergies and revenue benefits.

Below is a summary of the estimated unaudited pre-tax annual cost synergies and revenue benefits that are expected to be realised, as well as the estimated costs to achieve them, in the three calendar years commencing 2008:¹,

-------------------------	--------------	--------------	--------------

Cost synergies	1,195	2,270	2,800
Revenue synergies	(470)		700
Total synergies and benefits	725	2,270	3,500
Integration costs	2,160	1,080	360

¹These synergy estimates do not include any of the benefits which are expected to be derived from the partnership with China Development Bank.

Table of Contents

Global Retail and Commercial Banking

It is estimated that the pre-tax annual cost synergies in retail and commercial banking will be 1,650 million in 2010, representing approximately 10 per cent. of the Combined Group's retail and commercial banking cost base excluding LaSalle. The cost synergies are expected to result from the consolidation of the retail and commercial banking activities into a universal banking model including:

best practice off-shoring, improved procurement and real estate rationalisation;

the consolidation of data centres and supporting IT networks;

the use of ABN AMRO's trade and payments back office operations in the Barclays network and integration of card operations under Barclaycard; and the reduction of overlaps in management structures and the retail and commercial operations in the eight overlapping countries.

Revenue benefits are estimated to amount to at least 150 million on a pre-tax basis in 2010, which is equivalent to 0.5 per cent. of combined revenues. These are expected to be primarily derived from extending ABN AMRO's broader cash management product offering, increasing ABN AMRO's revenue per credit card towards Barclays comparable levels and realising the network benefits of the increased global presence.

Investment Banking and Investment Management

The estimated annual pre-tax cost synergies in investment banking in 2010 are expected to amount to approximately 850 million. Pre-tax cost synergies are equivalent to 8 per cent. of combined costs. The cost synergies are expected to be derived from the integration of the two banks' operations onto one operating platform and subsequent reduction of back office staff and non-staff cost.

It is estimated that revenue benefits, net of assumed revenue attrition, in investment banking in 2010 will be 500 million pre-tax, equivalent to 3 per cent. of combined revenues. These benefits are expected to be derived from offering a stronger and broader product set to the combined client base and building on the productivity gains within ABN AMRO's investment banking operations. It is expected that, in addition to the revenue benefits, the Combined Group will continue to be able to deliver attractive organic growth consistent with Barclays Capital's and ABN AMRO's existing prospects.

Further revenue benefits of approximately 50 million are estimated to arise primarily in the wealth and asset management businesses as a result of the enhanced distribution capabilities of the Combined Group. Approximately 100 million in cost synergies are expected to arise from the reduction of overlap in wealth and asset management.

Other Synergies

It is estimated that further cost synergies of 200 million will arise from the rationalisation of the two head offices.

Integration Costs

The total pre-tax integration cost of realising the synergy benefits is estimated to be 3,600 million of which approximately 2,160 million is expected to be incurred in 2008, approximately 1,080 million is expected to be incurred in 2009 and approximately 360 million is expected to be incurred in 2010.

Financial Terms

Each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board also considered the financial terms of the Offer, including: the 2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares and 13.15 in cash that ABN AMRO Shareholders would receive in the Ordinary Share Offer for each of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the 0.5325 of a New Barclays ADS and 13.15 in cash that ABN AMRO ADS holders would receive in the Ordinary

Table of Contents

Share Offer for each of their ABN AMRO ADSs, in each case subject to successful elections under the Mix and Match Facility;

the fact that the Offer represents a premium of 27.6 per cent. over the closing price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam on 16 March 2007, the last Business Day prior to the announcement that ABN AMRO and Barclays were in talks and a premium of 43.6 per cent. over the average share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the six months up to and including 16 March 2007;

the earnings, cash flow and balance sheet impact of the Merger, based on public information and third party analyst forecasts as well as the historical financial performance of Barclays and the historical trading price of Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays ADSs and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs;

the expectation that Barclays Shareholders will hold approximately 56 per cent. and ABN AMRO Shareholders will hold approximately 35 per cent. of the outstanding shares of the Combined Group immediately after the Merger and will have the opportunity to share in the future growth and expected synergies of the Combined Group; and the expectation that the Merger will lead to 5 per cent. accretion² in Barclays adjusted earnings per share³ in 2010 and to significant accretion in ABN AMRO's adjusted cash earnings per share⁴ in 2008 for accepting ABN Ordinary Shareholders and that the return on investment will be approximately 13 per cent. in 2010.

Each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board also considered the results of the financial, legal and operational due diligence on Barclays performed by ABN AMRO senior management and financial advisers, including Barclays historical share performance.

Other Transaction Considerations

Each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board also considered a number of additional factors in its decision to enter into the Merger Protocol, including the following:

the UK corporate governance structure of the Combined Group with a unitary board;

the fact that the head office of the Combined Group will be located in Amsterdam with day-to-day management of the Combined Group the responsibility of John Varley working with the Group Executive Committee;

the fact that the DNB and the FSA have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and that the DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO and Barclays groups respectively;

the fact that the holding company for the Combined Group, Barclays PLC, will remain UK incorporated and will remain UK tax resident;

the fact that the holding company for the Combined Group will remain UK listed and is expected to qualify for inclusion with a full weighting in the FTSE 100 index and in the AEX index (subject to a maximum weighting of 15 per cent); and the understood preference for certain ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and certain holders of ABN AMRO ADSs to receive cash consideration, in part or in full, for tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs under the Offer.

1. The cash consideration paid for each ABN AMRO ADS will be Dollars, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which holders of ABN AMRO ADSs are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by The Bank of New York, the ADS exchange agent, for the five business days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS exchange agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.

- 2 This statement is not intended to be and should not be interpreted to mean that the future adjusted earnings per share of Barclays will necessarily match or exceed its historical published adjusted earnings per share.
- 3 Adjusted earnings per share is the profit attributable to ordinary shareholders adjusted to exclude the amortisation of identifiable intangible assets and fair value adjustments and integration costs relating to the Merger, divided by the weighted average number of ordinary shares.

Table of Contents

Risks

Each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board also considered a number of uncertainties, risks and other potentially negative factors associated with the Merger, including the following:

the value of the Barclays Ordinary Shares at the time of the closing of the Merger could be lower than the price of Barclays Ordinary Shares as of the date of the Merger Protocol as a result of, among other things, a change in the value of the assets and liabilities of Barclays and ABN AMRO;

the risk that the amount of cost savings and revenue synergies that are actually achieved by the Merger turn out to be less than originally projected;

the possibility that regulatory or governmental authorities in the United States, Europe or elsewhere might seek to impose conditions on or otherwise prevent or delay the Merger;

the risks and costs to Barclays and ABN AMRO if the Merger is not completed, including the potential diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential effect on business and customer relationships;

the risk that the potential benefits of the Merger may not be fully or partially realised, recognising the many potential management and regulatory challenges associated with successfully combining the businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO;

the risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters, and potential disruption associated with combining and integrating the companies;

the risk that certain members of Barclays and ABN AMRO senior management who have been selected to hold senior management positions in the combined company might not choose to remain with the combined company;

the potential challenges and difficulties relating to integrating the operations of Barclays and ABN AMRO;

the risk that either the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs may fail to approve the Merger, or that an insufficient number of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs into the Offer;

that some officers and directors of Barclays and ABN AMRO have interests in the Merger as individuals in addition to, and that may be different from, the interests of holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs;

the fees and expenses associated with completing the Merger; and various other risks associated with the Merger and the business of the Barclays, ABN AMRO and the Combined Group described under Risk Factors .

The Barclays Board believes that these potential risks and drawbacks were greatly outweighed by the potential benefits that the Barclays Board expects Barclays to achieve as a result of the Merger.

In considering the Merger each of the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board were aware of the interests of certain officers and directors of, and advisors to ABN AMRO and Barclays and the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board in the Merger.

4. CONDITIONS TO THE OFFER

The Offer is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions including, but not limited to, the following:

At least 80 per cent. of the issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares have been tendered under the Offer or are otherwise held by Barclays;

No material adverse change in respect of Barclays or ABN AMRO;

The general meetings of shareholders of ABN AMRO and Barclays have passed all appropriate resolutions to give effect to the Offer and the Merger and all measures to implement it, subject to and with effect as of time the Offer is declared unconditional;

There has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances that was not fairly disclosed in the annual reports and the annual accounts for 2006 of ABN AMRO and Barclays respectively or otherwise disclosed and that can reasonably be expected to have a negative impact on the consolidated operating income in 2006 of ABN AMRO or Barclays of 5 per cent. or more;

The Merger Protocol has not been terminated;

Relevant regulatory consents to the investment by China Development Bank in Barclays Ordinary Shares have been obtained;

to the extent required DNB has given consent to ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank in relation to a distribution relating to the LaSalle proceeds following the offer;

before the Closing Date, the ABN AMRO Boards having confirmed in writing and having made an appropriate press release confirming, their unanimous recommendations of the Offer for acceptance by ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and holders of ABN AMRO ADSs; and no third party has declared or reaffirmed that it makes or intends to make an offer or an amended offer for shares in ABN AMRO.

Barclays has reserved the right to waive (among other things) the conditions relating to a material adverse change in respect of ABN AMRO and the completion of the LaSalle sale. ABN AMRO has reserved the right to waive (among other things) the condition relating to a material adverse change in respect of Barclays. Each of Barclays and ABN AMRO has reserved the right to waive certain other conditions to the Offer, although in some cases this right may only be exercised in certain circumstances and/or upon consent of the other party or a third party.

Barclays has undertaken to China Development Bank not to waive (a) the 80 per cent. minimum acceptance condition to less than 70 per cent., (b) any of the material adverse change conditions, or (c) any right to terminate, rescind or withdraw the Offer, without prior consultation with China Development Bank and having due regard to its views. The obligations of China Development Bank and Temasek to make the Conditional Investment are conditional on the terms of the Offer not being amended without their prior consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

The section above referring to intends to make an offer does not include the current offer by the Royal Bank of Scotland Group PLC, Fortis N.V., Fortis S.A./N.V. and Banco Santander S.A., acting together as a consortium (the Consortium) through RFS Holding B.V., on the terms and conditions as announced on 20 July 2007, but it does for example include any amendment to that offer or the terms and conditions of that offer (including an amendment in, or waiver of, any of the offer conditions), any new offer or a reaffirmation of any offer by the Consortium or any declaration in relation thereto by the Consortium.

Barclays and ABN AMRO have made all of the relevant filings globally which are now due where a consent or notification is required in respect of the Offer. Some such approvals have already been received (including from the FSA in respect of the change of control of ABN AMRO's UK subsidiaries) and it is expected that substantially all remaining approvals will be received by the end of August 2007. Until all approvals have been received, Barclays and ABN AMRO will continue to communicate and work with the appropriate regulatory authorities to ensure that all approvals are received at the earliest opportunity.

ABN AMRO and Barclays confirm that all requisite employee consultations and information procedures with employee representative bodies of ABN AMRO have been completed and have resulted in a positive opinion of the European Staff Council and a positive advice from the Central Works Council in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays.

5. SHAREHOLDER MEETINGS AND APPROVALS

The Merger constitutes a Class 1 Transaction (as defined in the Listing Rules of the UKLA) for Barclays.

Accordingly, Barclays is seeking the approval of its shareholders for the Merger at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting. Barclays has today posted to Barclays Shareholders a circular (the Circular) summarising the background to and strategic rationale for the Merger, which includes notices convening the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and the separate Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting. The Merger is conditional on, amongst other things, the requisite resolution being passed by Barclays Shareholders at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting. The Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting is required in order to approve the amendments to the Barclays Articles of Association creating the Barclays Preference Shares. The Barclays Shareholder Meetings are scheduled for 14 September 2007. An ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting will be convened for 20 September 2007 in Rotterdam. During this meeting the Offer, the background thereto and the alternatives considered by the ABN AMRO Boards will be explained and discussed in compliance with Dutch law. The information necessary for ABN AMRO Shareholders to adequately assess the Offer is included in the Offer Document. The Offer is not required to be and will not be submitted to an ABN AMRO Shareholder Vote. Notice of the ABN AMRO Shareholders Meeting will be given in accordance with the ABN AMRO Articles of Association.

6. FURTHER DETAILS OF THE MERGERStructure of the Merger

The Merger is being effected by means of the Offer for all of the issued and outstanding ABN AMRO Shares not already held by Barclays, which is a tender offer under the securities laws of the Netherlands. The Offer documentation is being made available in the UK, the United States, Austria, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Norway, Singapore, Spain, and Switzerland, as well as any other country where the Offer documentation is capable of being lawfully made available in compliance with local securities laws (collectively the Offer Jurisdictions).

Ordinary Share Offer

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are presented with two options pursuant to the Ordinary Share Offer: (1) the primary exchange (the Primary Exchange); or (2) the alternative exchange (the Alternative Exchange). ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares without opting validly for the Primary Exchange or the Alternative Exchange will be deemed to have accepted the Primary Exchange. The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will in both cases be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The Primary Exchange is likely to be the preferred option for most ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. This is because the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and accordingly, for so long as these shares remain held in the Euroclear Nederland System and certain conditions are satisfied, these shares may be sold without any charge to United Kingdom stamp duty reserve tax or (in practice) stamp duty. In contrast, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member s account) or in certificated form rather than being issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and accordingly on any subsequent sale of those shares United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable. However, electing for the Alternative Exchange may enable certain ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders to obtain a tax deferral in certain jurisdictions on the exchange of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders should carefully consider Part X (Taxation Considerations).

The Primary Exchange will be effected through the use of Barclays (Netherlands), which is the company that is the intended direct holding company for ABN AMRO following completion of the Offer. Prior to the Settlement Date Barclays (indirectly) owns, and after completion of all steps of the Ordinary Share Offer Barclays will (directly or indirectly) own, 100 per cent. of the shares of Barclays (Netherlands), which shares are held in the Euroclear Nederland system. The Primary Exchange will be effected by Barclays Nominees (No.1) Limited (the Nominee) acting as appointed nominee for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and the Listing and Exchange Agent who will effect transactions through Euroclear Nederland.

The steps involved in the Primary Exchange will be effected consecutively on the Settlement Date and are as follows.

(1) By accepting the Primary Exchange, the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder,

(A) irrevocably instructs the Nominee via his bank or broker to receive on such shareholder's behalf such number of Barclays (Netherlands) shares as will after the transfer contemplated in

42

subparagraph (B) hereinafter have a market value equal to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares he or she undertakes to tender, and

(B) irrevocably instructs the Listing and Exchange Agent to transfer his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) in return, and

(C) irrevocably instructs the Nominee to transfer immediately after receipt by the Nominee, the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares to Barclays.

(2) In exchange for the transfer to it of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder. Details regarding the mechanics through which part of the Cash Consideration is provided by China Development Bank are contained in paragraph 3.1 of Part III (Financing of the Cash Consideration) of this document.

Consequently, the end result of all these steps is that (a) the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which are tendered become held by Barclays (Netherlands), (b) the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which are initially transferred to the Nominee are ultimately transferred to Barclays and (c) New Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued and cash paid to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. The number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and the amount of cash paid in exchange for the transfer of the Barclays (Netherlands) shares will be determined by applying the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility to the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares transferred by the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders to Barclays (Netherlands). The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued via CREST in the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland. All irrevocable instructions are subject to applicable withdrawal rights available to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders up to the Closing Date in accordance with the paragraph entitled Withdrawal Rights below.

The ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who selects the Alternative Exchange will tender his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares via his bank or broker directly to Barclays via the Listing and Exchange Agent, and, in return, Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued directly to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form, rather than in the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and accordingly United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable on any subsequent sale of those shares. Details regarding the mechanics through which part of the Cash Consideration is provided by China Development Bank are set out in paragraph 3.1 of Part III (Financing of the Cash Consideration) of this document.

DR Preference Share Offer

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their DR Preference Shares under the Offer will be able to elect to receive either 0.59 in cash or, if they so choose and subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions at the Barclays Shareholder Meetings, 0.59 of a Barclays Preference Share for each DR Preference Share tendered pursuant to the Offer and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The aggregate consideration payable for the DR Preference Shares will be approximately 808 million assuming all of the DR Preference Shares currently in issue are tendered for cash. The DR Preference Share Exchange Offer will be adjusted, if necessary, to include accrued dividends up to the Settlement Date. Since the next dividend payment date on the DR Preference Shares is due when ABN AMRO pays its annual dividend on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for the financial year ending 31 December 2007, no adjustment of the DR Preference Share Offer is expected in connection with a payment of dividend.

Offer for the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares under the Offer will receive 27.65 for each Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Share tendered pursuant to the Offer and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The consideration payable in respect of the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares will not be adjusted for a dividend payment on the Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares.

Acceptance of the Offer and Acceptance Period

The period during which the ABN AMRO Shareholders can tender their ABN AMRO Shares under the Offer (the Acceptance Period) begins on 7 August 2007 and ends, subject to extension in accordance with applicable Dutch securities laws and regulations or as required in the event of a material change in the information published or disseminated about the Offer, on 4 October 2007 at 3:00 p.m., Amsterdam time. A bank or stockbroker may set an earlier deadline for communication by ABN AMRO Shareholders in order to permit the bank or stockholder to communicate its acceptances to the Listing and Exchange Agent in a timely manner.

ABN AMRO Shareholders who hold their ABN AMRO Shares through an Admitted Institution are required to make their acceptance known to the Admitted Institution via their bank or stockbroker within the Acceptance Period (or any extension thereof). Holders of ABN AMRO Shares (including DR Preference Shares) individually recorded in the ABN AMRO shareholders register wishing to accept the Offer in respect of such ABN AMRO Shares must deliver a completed and signed acceptance form to the Listing and Exchange Agent within the Acceptance Period (or any extension thereof).

Withdrawal Rights

ABN AMRO Shares tendered under the Offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Closing Date. Holders of ABN AMRO Shares in bearer form who make their acceptance known through their Admitted Institution to the Listing and Exchange Agent, may withdraw by making a withdrawal request through their Admitted Institution to the Listing and Exchange Agent such that it has been received by the Listing and Exchange Agent on the Closing Date. Holders of ABN AMRO Shares in registered form registered in the name of the relevant holders who tender their ABN AMRO Shares in registered form by means of application form to the Listing and Exchange Agent, may withdraw by delivery to the Listing and Exchange Agent of a properly completed and duly executed notice of withdrawal such that it has been received by the Listing and Exchange Agent on the Closing Date. If the Acceptance Period is extended, any ABN AMRO Shares previously tendered and not withdrawn will remain subject to the Offer, subject to the right of each ABN AMRO Shareholder to withdraw the ABN AMRO Shares he or she has already tendered. ABN AMRO Shareholders may not rescind a withdrawal. If ABN AMRO Shareholders withdraw tendered ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, such shares will be deemed not validly tendered for purposes of the Offer. However, ABN AMRO Shareholders may re-tender withdrawn ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at any time before the Closing Date or during the Post Acceptance Period.

Declaring the Offer Unconditional

Unless the Offer is extended, Barclays will determine within five Euronext Trading Days following the Closing Date, whether the Offer Conditions have been fulfilled or are to be waived by the Offeror and will announce whether (i) the Offer has been declared unconditional, (ii) there is still uncertainty as to the fulfilment of any of the Offer Conditions, or (iii) the Offer is terminated, as a result of the Offer Conditions not having been fulfilled or waived by Barclays, all in accordance with applicable Dutch securities laws and regulations.

Fractional Entitlements

No fractional entitlements to New Barclays Shares will be delivered to persons who validly tender and deliver ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer. Admitted Institutions that tender ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer on behalf of their clients will be rounded down for the fractional entitlements to New Barclays Shares (and cash will be remitted in lieu of fractional entitlements) by the Listing and Exchange Agent in accordance with usual practice. The Admitted Institutions may, on the basis of existing arrangements, round holdings up or down on a cash basis. Whether as part of this process an additional payment must be made or cash will be received, depends on the particular arrangement between the tendering ABN AMRO Shareholder and his or her bank or broker. The price in Euro (Primary Exchange) or Sterling (Alternative Exchange) at which fractions of New Barclays Ordinary Shares are sold will be based on the average price at which the tendering Admitted Institutions sell the fractional entitlements of New Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam and/or the London Stock Exchange. Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will receive cash in Euros (Primary Exchange) or Sterling (Alternative Exchange) in lieu of their fractional entitlements from the Admitted Institution in the event of a round down and will be debited the purchase price for the fraction in the event of a round up. The price in Euro at which fractions of Barclays Preference Shares will be settled will be based on the equivalent of the cash offer for the DR Preference Shares. Holders of DR Preference Shares will receive cash in Euros in lieu of their fractional entitlement from the Admitted Institutions. Fractional entitlements of New Barclays Shares to be issued to ABN AMRO registered shareholders, who have validly tendered and delivered, will be settled by the Listing and Exchange Agent by rounding down in a similar way to that described above.

Dividends*Barclays*

Barclays announced an interim dividend of 11.5 pence per Barclays Ordinary Share in respect of the 2007 financial year on 23 July 2007. The ex-dividend date for such interim dividend is 15 August 2007 and its record date is 17 August 2007. The interim dividend will be paid on 1 October 2007. The dividend will not affect the Exchange Ratio. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares will not rank for this dividend although the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares will have been subscribed for by the record date and therefore will rank for this dividend.

ABN AMRO

ABN AMRO announced an interim dividend of 0.58 in respect of the 2007 financial year on 30 July 2007. The ex-dividend date for such interim dividend is 31 July 2007 and its record date is 2 August 2007. The interim dividend is expected to be paid on or about 27 August 2007, for holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and on or about 4 September 2007 for holders of ABN AMRO ADSs and holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs will be able to receive and retain such dividend. The dividend will not affect the Exchange Ratio.

Combined Group

Assuming the Effective Date occurs on or before the record date for the Barclays Final Dividend for 2007, which is expected to be in early March 2008, the first dividend payable to holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is likely to be the Barclays final dividend for 2007, which is expected to be paid in late April 2008.

ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans

The Merger Protocol contains provisions in relation to the treatment of options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans. Barclays and ABN AMRO are considering the proposed treatment of options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans although the treatment has not, at the date of this document, been finalised.

The following is a summary of the proposals relating to the ABN AMRO PSP and the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans (being those employee plans under which subsisting options or awards have been granted over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares) which at the date of this document have been considered by Barclays and ABN AMRO. The summary is without prejudice to further or alternative proposals that Barclays and ABN AMRO may agree within the parameters and in the context of both the Merger Protocol and the rules of the ABN AMRO PSP and the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans and any applicable laws. The normal vesting dates for outstanding awards granted under the ABN AMRO PSP, which are subject to both performance conditions and service conditions, have not yet occurred. Barclays has proposed that awards under the ABN AMRO PSP will be replaced, as permitted under the rules of those plans and subject to any applicable laws, with awards over or in respect of Barclays Shares on terms satisfying the provisions of those plans and consistent with the Merger Protocol, and ABN AMRO is considering this proposal.

Apart from certain options granted in 2005 under the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans, all subsisting options have already vested and are therefore currently exercisable subject to any applicable laws. The intention of ABN AMRO and Barclays is that options over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares under the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans which are not already exercisable shall vest and become exercisable in full, in accordance with and to the extent permitted by the rules of the relevant ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans, when the Offer becomes unconditional. After the Offer becomes unconditional, options not yet exercised will be exercisable for a limited period after which they will lapse. Subject to any applicable laws and the relevant terms, options to acquire ABN AMRO Shares that are exercised will be satisfied in ABN AMRO Shares.

In relation to awards over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares under the ABN AMRO Share Investment and Matching Share Plan (which are not subject to performance conditions), it is intended that, as provided for in the rules of that plan and subject to any applicable laws, awards will vest in full when the Offer becomes unconditional.

Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed that the proposals that shall be agreed between them and made to holders of subsisting options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans in due course should not have any material incremental accounting costs for either party nor cause the EUR 250 million cap set out in the Merger Protocol on the amount of cash payable in respect of the cash settlement or cancellation of options and awards over ABN AMRO Shares to be exceeded.

The Merger Protocol

The Merger Protocol entered into between Barclays and ABN AMRO, has governed, and will continue to govern, their relationship until the Merger becomes Effective or lapses.

Pursuant to the Merger Protocol, Barclays and ABN AMRO have each undertaken to take certain steps to implement the Merger and have each given certain undertakings in relation to the conduct of their business in the period prior to the implementation of the Merger.

The Merger Protocol may be terminated under certain circumstances, including where either party commits a material breach of the Merger Protocol or applicable merger laws. The withdrawal by the ABN AMRO Boards of their recommendation of the Offer resulted in the right of Barclays to terminate the Merger Protocol and receive 200 million. Under the amendments to the Merger Protocol made on 30 July 2007, Barclays has agreed to defer collection of the 200 million, save that Barclays shall not be entitled to receive this sum if the Offer is declared unconditional or if the ABN AMRO Boards renew their recommendation of the Offer and whilst this recommendation remains in place Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol. Further details of the Merger Protocol are provided in paragraph 10.1 of Part XII (Additional Information) of this document.

7. THE NEW BARCLAYS ORDINARY SHARES

The Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares, will be issued on 14 August 2007. It is intended that the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be issued on the Settlement Date and the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will be issued on or shortly before the Settlement Date. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank pari passu in all respects with existing Barclays Ordinary Shares and will be entitled to all dividends and other distributions declared or paid by Barclays by reference to a record date after the Effective Date but not otherwise¹. Barclays pays dividends semi-annually.

Further details of the rights attaching to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares are summarised in paragraph 3 of Part XII (Additional Information) of this document.

Application will be made to the FSA for the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is expected that admission of the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on 14 August 2007. It is expected that Admission of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will

1. The Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares will be entitled to the Barclays interim dividend which has a record date of 17 August 2007.

the Settlement Date. It is expected that admission of the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on or shortly before the Settlement Date. It is expected that all New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares when issued and fully paid, will be eligible to be held and transferred by means of CREST. It is expected that the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will trade under ISIN GB0031348658.

Barclays will also apply for a secondary listing of Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam's Eurolist. It is expected that admission of the Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will also commence, on the Settlement Date.

ABN AMRO and Barclays have received confirmation from the FTSE and Euronext Amsterdam that, following the Effective Date, Barclays Ordinary Shares are expected to qualify for inclusion with a full weighting in the UK Series of the FTSE indices, including the FTSE 100 Index, and in the AEX-Index (subject to a maximum weighting of 15 per cent.).

Applications will also be made to list the New Barclays Ordinary Shares the New Barclays ADSs, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares on the New York Stock Exchange, and also to list the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares on the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

The New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares and the Clawback Shares will be created under the Companies Acts and the legislation made thereunder and will be issued in registered form and will be capable of being held in certificated and uncertificated form.

8. THE BARCLAYS PREFERENCE SHARES

It is intended that the Barclays Preference Shares will be issued on the Settlement Date. No application will be made for the Barclays Preference Shares to be listed or admitted for trading on any stock exchange. The Barclays Preference Shares will be created under the Companies Acts and the legislation made thereunder, and will be issued in registered form and will be capable of being held in certificated form.

For a detailed summary of the terms of the Barclays Preference Shares and other important information relating to the Barclays Preference Shares you are referred to Annex A (Terms of the Barclays Preference Shares) of this document.

9. SALE OF LASALLE

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO Bank entered into the LaSalle Agreement with Bank of America pursuant to which it has agreed to sell LaSalle (which includes ABN AMRO's US commercial retail and trust banking operations and related businesses) to Bank of America for total consideration of $21 billion in cash (subject to certain adjustments linked to the financial performance of LaSalle before the closing of the sale). ABN AMRO will retain its global operations and, with limited exceptions, its other operations outside the US, as well as its principal broker dealer, investment advisory, wholesale banking and asset management operations in the US.

As at 31 December 2006, LaSalle had more than $113 billion in tangible assets and a tangible book value of $9.7 billion, adjusted for businesses that will be retained by ABN AMRO and for the previously announced sale of the mortgage operations unit and presented on a US GAAP basis. For the year ended 31 December 2006, LaSalle, presented on the same basis, had net income of $1,035 million.

No further detailed information in respect of LaSalle assets and liabilities could be extracted from the unaudited interim financial statements of ABN AMRO as at 30 June 2007.

Further details of the LaSalle Agreement are provided in paragraphs 10.2 and 19 of Part XII (Additional Information) of this document.

PART III
INFORMATION ON THE FINANCING OF THE CASH CONSIDERATION

1. Introduction

On 23 July 2007 the Barclays Board announced an investment by China Development Bank and Temasek of up to 13.4 billion (£9 billion) in Barclays through the subscription by China Development Bank and Temasek for Barclays Ordinary Shares.¹ Of this amount China Development Bank and Temasek agreed to subscribe 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) for the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares and a further 8.1 billion (£5.4 billion), conditionally upon completion of the Merger, for the Conditional CDB Shares and the Conditional Temasek Shares. A further 1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) will be subscribed for by certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors pursuant to the Clawback Placing described below.

Barclays and China Development Bank will broaden their relationship from strategic co-operation to a strategic partnership as a result of which China Development Bank will become a major shareholder and will subscribe on 14 August 2007 an initial 2.2 billion (£1.5 billion) for the Unconditional CDB Shares (or 3.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Subject to regulatory approval and completion of the Merger, China Development Bank has agreed to subscribe a further 6.4 billion (£4.3 billion) for the Conditional CDB Shares. Please see paragraph 3.1 below for the settlement mechanics in respect of the Conditional CDB Shares.

Temasek will also become a major shareholder in Barclays through the subscription of 1.4 billion (£1.0 billion) for the Unconditional Temasek Shares (or 2.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Temasek has further agreed to subscribe 1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) for the Conditional Temasek Shares, conditional upon the completion of the Merger.

China Development Bank and Temasek committed to subscribe for an additional 1.7 (£1.1 billion) for further Barclays Ordinary Shares but agreed to them being made available under the Clawback Placing. The Barclays Board and the management of Barclays are pleased to build on the long-standing relationship with China Development Bank making it now a strategic partner and a strategic shareholder. Barclays also welcomes Temasek as a major shareholder. The management of Barclays believes there are substantial benefits for each of Barclays, China Development Bank and Temasek as a result of these arrangements.

2. Cash Consideration

Barclays will finance the Cash Consideration payable under the Offer from the following sources:

2.1 Proceeds of the sale of LaSalle

Barclays proposes to use approximately 12 billion (£8.1 billion) of the capital released from the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, previously intended to be returned to Barclays Shareholders post the Merger, to repay borrowings incurred in order to fund part of the Cash Consideration.

2.2 Conditional Investment

8.1 billion (£5.4 billion) of the Cash Consideration is to be funded by the Conditional Investment. Please see paragraph 3 below for further details of the Conditional Investment.

2.3 Clawback Placing

1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) of the Cash Consideration is to be funded by the subscription for the Clawback Shares by certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors. Please see paragraph 4 below for further details of the Clawback Placing.

2.4 Available Cash Resources

Barclays will fund approximately 3 billion (£2 billion) of the Cash Consideration from available cash resources.

1. This amount was subsequently reduced by £1.7 billion (1.1 billion) to reflect the results of the Clawback Placing.

Table of Contents

3. Unconditional Investment and Conditional Investment

3.1. Investment by China Development Bank

China Development Bank will invest a total of 8.5 billion (£5.8 billion) in the Combined Group and has entered into a strategic partnership with Barclays which establishes a framework for their strategic co-operation. Barclays will assist and advise China Development Bank in its evolution into a commercially operated financial institution. The two parties will jointly exploit international business opportunities, including:

cross-referral of clients, when the clients' needs can be better met by the other partner;

extensive training and talent management. China Development Bank will use Barclays global presence to identify and to recruit talent outside China, and will benefit from the provision of extensive training and the regular secondment of managers from Barclays; and collaboration in commodities products, where Barclays Capital is already established as one of the world's leading firms.

In addition, China Development Bank will use BGI as one of its preferred asset managers. Both parties have agreed to co-operate where further opportunities to develop new markets and products in the region are identified. Barclays will provide expertise and advice in fields including risk management, corporate governance and in IT strategy and procurement.

Barclays and China Development Bank have agreed that:

On 14 August 2007 China Development Bank will invest 2.2 billion (£1.5 billion) in Barclays through an unconditional subscription for the Unconditional CDB Shares (representing 3.1 per cent. of Barclays existing issued share capital) under the CDB Subscription Agreement, at a price of £7.20 per share;

China Development Bank will invest (pursuant to the mechanics described below) a further 6.4 billion (£4.3 billion) in Barclays for the Conditional CDB Shares under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement at a price of £7.40 per share conditional on the Merger completing, resulting in a shareholding in the Combined Group of 6.8 per cent.;

On 23 July 2007 China Development Bank purchased warrants (for a total price of £1) in respect of 61 million Barclays Ordinary Shares with an exercise price of £7.80 per share. The warrants become exercisable only if the Offer becomes unconditional and they are then exercisable for a period of two years thereafter. If the warrants were exercised in full China Development Bank's shareholding in the Combined Group would rise by 0.5 per cent.;

China Development Bank will be entitled to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director as of 14 August 2007;

China Development Bank will be free to acquire additional shares in Barclays on the open market subject to a standstill agreement limiting its shareholding to below 10 per cent. for three years from 23 July 2007; and

China Development Bank has agreed not to enter into a business collaboration agreement of a similar nature with another major banking institution with global operations.

This partnership will provide Barclays unprecedented access jointly to deliver financial services to the rapidly growing Chinese market. Through Barclays Capital and BGI, Barclays has built leading franchises across Asia. The partnership with China Development Bank will strengthen Barclays already strong Asian franchise. Particular areas of focus for Barclays include near term opportunities in Wealth and Asset Management. The Merger creates even greater opportunities both for China Development Bank and the Combined Group, particularly as ABN AMRO brings a world class trade finance and payments platform to service Chinese businesses and has an attractive retail and wholesale franchise both in China and in countries that represent important trade partners for China.

Through its investment in Barclays and strategic partnership, China Development Bank will enhance its ability to serve Chinese corporations and institutions. China Development Bank will gain access to Barclays extensive international franchise in order to facilitate international commerce for Chinese companies. The partnership will also give China Development Bank access to the leading product expertise that Barclays has developed in its universal banking model, such as in structured products, enabling China Development Bank to leverage these skills in its domestic market. China Development Bank will have opportunities to learn best practices from Barclays in terms of customer service, product development and corporate governance. This will improve China Development Bank's understanding of global financial services.

Pursuant to the settlement mechanics under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement and the terms of the Offer, China Development Bank will pay to Barclays (who will receive it on behalf of accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders) a portion of the Cash Consideration due to them under the Offer, and in consideration thereof Barclays will allot and issue the Conditional CDB Shares to China Development Bank on the basis of a price of £7.40 per share. The cash payments to accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be distributed on the Settlement Date by Barclays together with the balance of the Cash Consideration and the share consideration due to them. These arrangements are part of, and are therefore conditional upon, the Offer. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will have no contractual relationship with China Development Bank under the Offer. The maximum aggregate amount which may be paid by China Development Bank pursuant to these arrangements is 6.4 billion (£4.3 billion).

The consideration for the allotment of the Barclays Ordinary Shares to China Development Bank under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement shall be the transfer to Barclays by tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders of the appropriate portion of their shares, and the agreement by China Development Bank to make the cash payments as described above.

Please see paragraph 10.1 of Part XII (Additional Information) of this document for a description of the terms and conditions of the CDB Subscription Agreement and the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement.

3.2. Investment by Temasek

Temasek has agreed to become a major shareholder in Barclays and will invest a total of 3.1 billion (£2.1 billion) in the Combined Group.

Barclays and Temasek have agreed that:

On 14 August 2007 Temasek will invest 1.4 billion (£1.0 billion) in Barclays through an unconditional placing of the Unconditional Temasek Shares (representing 2.1 per cent. of Barclays existing issued share capital) under the Temasek Subscription Agreement at a price of £7.20 per share;

Temasek will also invest a further 1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) for the Conditional Temasek Shares through the Temasek Subscription Agreement at a price of £7.40 per share conditional on the Merger completing, resulting in a shareholding in the Combined Group of 2.5 per cent.;

On 23 July 2007 Temasek purchased warrants (for a total price of £1) in respect of 61 million Barclays Ordinary Shares with an exercise price of £7.80 per share. The warrants become exercisable only if the Offer becomes unconditional and they are then exercisable for a period of two years thereafter. If the warrants were exercised in full Temasek's shareholding in the Combined Group would rise by 0.5 per cent.; and Temasek will be entitled to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director if the Merger becomes unconditional. The investment by Temasek in Barclays is consistent with its strategy of creating successful partnerships through long-term investments. Temasek will be able to bring its deep rooted knowledge and expertise in the Asian market to the Barclays Board. Temasek is widely recognised as one of the world's most successful international equity investors. Temasek also has extensive experience investing in the financial services sector and currently owns significant investments in 14 banks.

Please see paragraph 10.1 of Part XII (Additional Information) of this document for a description of the terms and conditions of the Temasek Subscription Agreement.

3.3 Clawback Placing to certain existing Barclays Shareholders

In addition to agreeing to subscribe for the Conditional CDB Shares and the Conditional Temasek Shares, China Development Bank and Temasek had also agreed, pursuant to the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement and the Temasek Subscription Agreement, to subscribe for further Barclays Ordinary Shares. However, in order to ensure that certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors could subscribe for Barclays Ordinary Shares on the same financial terms as China Development

Table of Contents

Bank and Temasek, both investors agreed that part of their allocation could be made available to such existing Barclays Shareholders by way of the Clawback Placing which was announced on 23 July 2007. The Barclays Ordinary Shares were offered at a price of £7.40 per share to certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors (determined in Barclays sole discretion) on 23 and 24 July 2007. As a result of some of these Barclays Shareholders agreeing to subscribe for the Clawback Shares, China Development Bank and Temasek will not have the Clawback Shares issued to them and their aggregate subscription amounts have been reduced accordingly. The issue of the Clawback Shares to these existing Barclays Shareholders and institutional investors is conditional upon the Offer being declared unconditional and they will only be issued following the Offer being declared unconditional.

Immediately after the Effective Date, China Development Bank will hold 6.8 per cent. of the Combined Group, Temasek 2.5 per cent. and existing Barclays Shareholders (including the existing Barclays Shareholders and institutional investors who agreed to subscribed for the Clawback Shares) 55.6 per cent.

4. Share Buy-back Programme

The total proceeds from the issuance of the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares to Temasek and China Development Bank on 14 August 2007 will amount to 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) and this amount is unconditionally committed. On 23 July 2007, the Barclays Board announced the Share Buy-back Programme (which commenced on 6 August 2007) to minimise the dilutive effect of the issuance of Barclays Ordinary Shares to China Development Bank and Temasek on the existing Barclays Shareholders.

Pursuant to the Share Buy-back Programme, Barclays instructed JPMorgan Cazenove Limited to repurchase a number of Barclays Ordinary Shares equal to the lesser of:

- (i) the number of the Unconditional CDB Shares and Unconditional Temasek Shares to be issued on 14 August 2007 (336.8 million Barclays Ordinary Shares); and
- (ii) such number of Barclays Ordinary Shares as JPMorgan Cazenove Limited is able to acquire using the proceeds of the Unconditional Investment (3.6 billion (£2.4 billion)).

The Share Buy-back Programme will be conducted on market by JPMorgan Cazenove Limited as an independent third party on behalf of Barclays pursuant to Barclays existing general shareholder authority. The existing authority for Barclays to purchase its own shares was granted at the Annual General Meeting of the Company held on 26 April 2007 and if Resolution 5 (as set out in the Circular) is passed at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting, will (subject to the Merger becoming Effective) be substituted by the authority granted pursuant to Resolution 5 (as set out in the Circular). The Share Buy-back Programme will be suspended during the 10 trading days prior to the expiry of the Offer acceptance period (as it may be extended from time to time).

PART IV
INFORMATION ON BARCLAYS

The selected historical financial information in relation to Barclays in this Part IV has, unless otherwise stated, been extracted without material adjustment from the unaudited consolidated interim financial information of Barclays for the six months as at and for the period ended 30 June 2007 and the audited financial statements of Barclays as at and for the two years ended 31 December 2006 and 31 December 2005, each prepared in accordance with IFRS as filed with the SEC on Form 20-F, incorporated by reference into this document. The 31 December 2005 financial statements include restated IFRS comparative information as at and for the year ended 31 December 2004.

On 19 June 2007 Barclays announced certain changes to its group structure and divisional reporting and disclosed unaudited restatements of its 2006 and 2005 segmental results and the financial information contained in Part IV for 2006 and 2005 reflects these unaudited restatements.

Investors should read the whole of this document and the documents incorporated herein by reference and should not just rely on the financial information set out in this Part IV.

1. Introduction

Barclays is a major global financial services provider engaged in retail and commercial banking, credit cards, investment banking, wealth management and investment management services with an extensive international presence in Europe, the United States, Africa and Asia. It is one of the largest financial services companies in the world by market capitalisation. With over 300 years of history and expertise in banking, Barclays operates in over 50 countries and employs 127,700 people. Barclays moves, lends, invests and protects money for over 27 million customers and clients worldwide.

For the year ended 31 December 2006, the Barclays Group's profit before tax was £7,136 million, earnings per share were 71.9p, and dividends per share were 31.0p. As at 31 December 2006, ordinary shareholders equity was £19,799 million.

2. History

Tracing its origins to 17th century London, Barclays has evolved from a group of English partnerships into a global bank.

In 1981, Barclays became the first foreign bank to register with the SEC and raise long-term capital on the New York market. Barclays created its investment banking division in 1986, which has since developed into Barclays Capital. In 1995, Barclays purchased the fund manager Wells Fargo Nikko Investment Advisers, which was integrated with BZW Investment Management to form Barclays Global Investors, a business that has become a significant contributor to group profits.

Woolwich plc, a UK mortgage bank and former building society founded in 1847, was acquired in 2000. In 2003 Barclays completed the acquisition of Banco Zaragozano, one of Spain's largest private sector banking groups, and in 2005 Barclays acquired a majority shareholding in Absa, South Africa's largest retail bank.

3. Corporate Structure

Barclays PLC, the Barclays Group parent company, owns 100 per cent. of the ordinary voting rights of Barclays Bank PLC through which substantially all of the Barclays Group's business is transacted. A list of the Group's principal subsidiaries, which are considered by Barclays to have a significant effect on the assessment of the assets and liabilities, the financial position and the profits and losses of the Barclays Group, are set out in paragraph 11 of Part XII (Additional Information) of this document.

Following the Effective Date, ABN AMRO Bank N.V will become an indirect subsidiary of Barclays. Further information on ABN AMRO is set out in Part V (Information on ABN AMRO) of this document.

4. Business Overview

The Barclays Group reports the results of its operations through seven business segments: UK Banking, Barclaycard, International Retail and Commercial Banking (together forming Global Retail and Commercial Banking), Barclays

Capital, Barclays Global Investors, Barclays Wealth, (together forming Investment Banking and Investment Management) and Head Office functions and other operations.

Table of Contents

On 19 June 2007 Barclays announced certain changes in its Group structure and divisional reporting on its 2006 and 2005 results. A review has been carried out of the operating constructs between UK Retail Banking, International Retail and Commercial Banking excluding Absa and Barclays Wealth with the aim to expand the client offering in both savings and investment products across the whole Group. The structure remains unchanged for UK Business Banking, International Retail and Commercial Banking Absa, Barclays Capital, Barclays Global Investors and Head Office and other operations.

The restatements have no impact on the Group Income Statement or Balance Sheet.

The organisational structure of the Barclays Group is summarised below.

Organisational overview

UK Banking

UK Banking delivers banking solutions to UK retail and business banking customers. It offers a range of integrated products and services and access to the expertise of other Barclays Group businesses. Customers are served through a variety of channels comprising the branch network, automated teller machines, telephone banking, online banking and relationship managers. UK Banking is managed through two business areas, UK Retail Banking and UK Business Banking.

UK Retail Banking

UK Retail Banking comprises Personal Customers, Home Finance, Local Business, Consumer Loans and Barclays Financial Planning. This cluster of businesses aims to build broader and deeper relationships with customers. Personal Customers and Home Finance provide access to current account and savings products, Woolwich branded mortgages and general insurance. Consumer Loans provides unsecured loans and protection products and Barclays Financial Planning provides investment advice and products. Local Business provides banking services to small businesses.

UK Business Banking

UK Business Banking provides relationship banking to larger and medium business customers in the UK. Customers are served by a network of relationship and industry sector specialist managers who provide local access to an extensive range of products and services, as well as offering business information and support. Customers are also offered access to the products and expertise of other businesses in the Barclays Group, particularly Barclays Capital and Barclaycard. UK Business Banking provides asset financing and leasing solutions through a specialist business.

Table of Contents

Barclaycard

Barclaycard is a multi-brand credit card business which also processes card payments for retailers and merchants and issues credit and charge cards to corporate customers and the UK Government. It is one of Europe's leading credit card businesses and has an increasing presence in the US.

In the UK, Barclaycard comprises Barclaycard, SkyCard and FirstPlus secured lending.

Outside the UK, Barclaycard provides credit cards in the US, Germany, Spain, Italy, Portugal, Africa, India and the United Arab Emirates. In the Nordic region, Barclaycard operates through Entercard, a joint venture with FöreningsSparbanken (Swedbank).

Barclaycard works closely with other parts of the Barclays Group, including UK Retail Banking, UK Business Banking and International Retail and Commercial Banking, to maximise their distribution capabilities.

International Retail and Commercial Banking

International Retail and Commercial Banking provides Barclays personal and corporate customers outside the UK with banking services. The products and services offered to customers are tailored to meet the regulatory and commercial environments within each country. From 2005, for reporting purposes, the operations have been grouped: International Retail and Commercial Banking-excluding Absa and International Retail and Commercial Banking-Absa.

International Retail and Commercial Banking works closely with all other parts of the Barclays Group to leverage synergies from product and service propositions.

International Retail and Commercial Banking - excluding Absa

International Retail and Commercial Banking - excluding Absa provides a range of banking services to retail and corporate customers in Western Europe and Emerging Markets, including current accounts, savings, investments, mortgages and loans. Western Europe includes Spain, Portugal, France and Italy. Emerging Markets includes Africa, India and the Middle East.

International Retail and Commercial Banking-Absa

International Retail and Commercial Banking-Absa represents Barclays consolidation of Absa, excluding Absa Capital which is included as part of Barclays Capital. Absa is one of South Africa's largest financial services organisations serving personal, commercial and corporate customers predominantly in South Africa. International Retail and Commercial Banking-Absa serves retail customers through a variety of distribution channels and offers a full range of banking services, including current and deposit accounts, mortgages, instalment finance, credit cards, bancassurance products and wealth management services; it also offers customised business solutions for commercial and large corporate customers.

Barclays Capital

Barclays Capital is a leading global investment bank which provides large corporate, institutional and government clients with solutions to their financing and risk management needs.

Barclays Capital services a wide variety of client needs, from capital raising and managing foreign exchange, interest rate, equity and commodity risks, through to providing technical advice and expertise.

Activities are organised into three principal areas: Rates, which includes fixed income, foreign exchange, commodities, emerging markets, money markets, prime services and equity products; Credit, which includes primary and secondary activities for loans and bonds for investment grade, high yield and emerging market credit, as well as hybrid capital products, asset based finance, mortgage backed securities, credit derivatives, structured capital markets and large asset leasing, and Private Equity.

Barclays Capital includes Absa Capital, the investment banking business of Absa. Barclays Capital works closely with all other parts of the Barclays Group to maximise synergies from client relationships and product capabilities.

Table of Contents

Barclays Global Investors

BGI is one of the world's largest asset managers and a leading global provider of investment management products and services.

BGI offers structured investment strategies such as indexing, global asset allocation and risk controlled active products including hedge funds and provides related investment services such as securities lending, cash management and portfolio transition services. In addition, BGI is a leader in assets and products in the exchange traded funds business, with over 290 funds for institutions and individuals trading in nineteen markets globally. BGI's investment philosophy is founded on managing all dimensions of performance: a consistent focus on controlling risk, return and cost. BGI collaborates with the other Barclays businesses, particularly Barclays Capital and Barclays Wealth, to develop and market products and optimise capabilities to better serve the client base.

Barclays Wealth

Barclays Wealth serves affluent, high net worth and intermediary clients worldwide, providing private banking, asset management, stockbroking, offshore banking, wealth structuring, financial planning services and manages the closed life assurance activities of Barclays and Woolwich in the UK.

Barclays Wealth works closely with all other parts of the Barclays Group to leverage synergies from client relationships and product capabilities.

Head office functions and other operations

Head office functions and other operations comprise:

- Head office and central support functions

- Businesses in transition

- Consolidation adjustments.

Head office and central support functions comprises the following areas: Executive Management, Finance, Treasury, Corporate Affairs, Human Resources, Strategy and Planning, Internal Audit, Legal, Corporate Secretariat, Property, Tax, Compliance and Risk. Costs incurred wholly on behalf of the businesses are recharged to them.

Businesses in transition principally relate to certain lending portfolios that are centrally managed with the objective of maximising recovery from the assets.

Consolidation adjustments largely reflect the elimination of intra-segment transactions.

5. Key Businesses and Geographic Regions

Barclays is a global provider of financial and banking services in the following principal markets: financial services, corporate banking and retail banking.

Retail banking

Retail banking comprises a variety of banking products and services provided to households/individuals, including deposit and account services (current accounts, savings accounts, cash deposits, cheque collection, ATM services, credit transfer, direct debit, standing orders, cheques etc.), lending (personal loans, consumer credit, overdraft facilities etc.), payment cards, mortgages, investment products (mutual funds, pension funds, and security brokerage and custody services) and insurance (reinsurance, life insurance and non-life insurance).

Barclays has activities in retail banking in numerous jurisdictions worldwide, for example in Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, the UK, Hong Kong, Singapore, and several African jurisdictions including South Africa, Kenya, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe. In the EU, Barclays is predominantly active in the UK, France and Spain.

In all jurisdictions, Barclays faces and will continue to face strong competition from other retail banks and stand-alone providers.

Table of Contents

Corporate banking

The corporate banking sector comprises a broad range of domestic corporate banking activities offered to sophisticated, largely global, corporate clients; banking for the public sector; and international credits to (largely global) public companies. The services offered by Barclays include deposit accounts, loans, international payments and letters of credit.

Barclays has activities in corporate banking in various jurisdictions worldwide, including France, Italy, Portugal, Spain, the UK, Hong Kong, India, South Africa, Kenya, Mauritius, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

Another element of the corporate banking sector is small and medium enterprise (SME) banking, i.e. banking services offered to small and medium-sized enterprises. SME banking comprises current accounts, deposit accounts, loans and mortgages. Barclays offers banking services to SMEs in various jurisdictions worldwide, including France, Italy, Portugal, Spain, the UK, India, the United Arab Emirates, South Africa, Kenya, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

In the EU, Barclays is predominantly active in the UK. Competition for corporate banking customers, including SMEs, is intense in the UK, with competition from established large banks and increasingly from smaller banks which are targeting customers and growing the level of their SME activities.

Financial services

Financial services include, amongst other things, activities relating to the trading in government and corporate bonds, equities and derivatives, asset management, and trading in foreign exchange and money markets. In addition, Barclays also has activities in investment banking (which includes acquisitions and disposals, initial public offerings, arranging new issues of stocks and bonds and project finance) and private equity investment.

Barclays has financial services activities in, among others, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, the UK, Switzerland, Brazil, Canada, Mexico, US, Australia, China, Japan, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, Dubai, Qatar, and South Africa.

The global financial services sectors in which Barclays operates are highly competitive. Innovative competition for corporate institutional and retail clients and customers comes both from established players and an increasing number of new entrants. Customers of financial services are sophisticated and, to an extent, are themselves entering the sector. The global landscape is expected to remain highly competitive in all areas.

1 The numbers for 2006 and 2005 were extracted from the Barclays Group unaudited structure and divisional reporting changes announcement made on 19 June 2007. These changes are due to a realignment of the management and delivery of certain products and services. These adjustments have no impact on the group income statement or balance sheet. A reconciliation of these changes to the previous published information can be found in paragraph 17.4 of Part XII (Additional Information).

2 The numbers for 2004 have not been updated to reflect the group structure and divisional reporting changes announced on 19 June 2007.

6. Regulation

The Barclays Group's operations, including its overseas offices, branches, subsidiaries and associates, are subject to rules and regulations, including reserve and reporting requirements and conduct of business requirements, imposed by the relevant central banks and regulatory authorities.

In the UK, the FSA is the independent body responsible for the regulation of deposit taking, life insurance, home mortgages, general insurance and investment business. The FSA was established by the Government and it exercises statutory powers under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

Barclays Bank is authorised by the FSA to carry on a range of regulated activities within the UK and is subject to consolidated supervision. In its role as supervisor, the FSA seeks to ensure the safety and soundness of financial institutions with the aim of strengthening, but not guaranteeing, the protection of customers. The FSA's continuing supervision of financial institutions authorised by it is conducted through a variety of regulatory tools, including the collection of information from statistical and prudential returns, reports obtained from skilled persons, visits to firms and regular meetings with management to discuss issues such as performance, risk management and strategy. The FSA adopts a risk-based approach to supervision. The starting point for supervision of all financial institutions is a systematic analysis of the risk profile for each authorised firm. The FSA has adopted a homogeneous risk, processes and resourcing model in its approach to its supervisory responsibilities (known as the ARROW model) and the results of the risk assessment are used by the FSA to develop a risk mitigation programme for a firm. The FSA also promulgates requirements that banks and other financial institutions are required to meet on matters such as capital adequacy limits on large exposures to individual entities and groups of closely connected entities, and liquidity. Certain of these requirements derive from EU directives as described below. Banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions in the UK are subject to a single financial services compensation scheme (the Financial Services Compensation Scheme) where an authorised firm is unable or is likely to be unable to meet claims made against it because of its financial circumstances. Different levels of compensation are available to eligible claimants depending upon whether the protected claim is in relation to a deposit, a contract of insurance or protected investment business and certain types of claims are subject to maximum levels of compensation. Most deposits made with branches of Barclays Bank within the European Economic Area (EEA) which are denominated in Sterling or other EEA currencies (including the Euro) are covered by the Scheme. Most claims made in respect of designated investment business will also be protected claims if the business was carried on from the UK or from a branch of the bank or investment firm in another EEA member state. Outside the UK, the Barclays Group has operations (and main regulators) located in continental Europe, in particular France, Germany, Spain, Switzerland, Portugal and Italy (local central banks and other regulatory authorities); Asia Pacific (various regulatory authorities including the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, the Financial Services Agency of Japan, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and the Monetary Authority of Singapore); Africa (various regulatory authorities including the South African Reserve Bank and the Financial Services Board) and the US (FRB, OCC and the SEC).

In Europe, the UK regulatory agenda is considerably shaped and influenced by the directives emanating from the EU. A number of EU directives are currently being implemented, for example the Capital Requirements Directive, the Third Money Laundering Directive and the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID). These form part of the European Single Market programme, an important feature of which is the framework for the regulation of authorised firms. This framework is designed to enable a credit institution or investment firm authorised in one EU member state to conduct banking or investment business through the establishment of branches or by the provision of services on a cross-border basis in other member states without the need for local authorisation.

Barclays operations in Europe are authorised and regulated by a combination of both home (the FSA) and host regulators. Barclays operations in South Africa, including Absa Group Limited, are supervised and regulated by the SARB and the FSB. SARB oversees the banking industry and follows a risk-based approach to supervision whilst the FSB oversees the non-banking financial services industry and focuses on enhancing consumer protection and regulating market conduct.

In the US, Barclays, Barclays Bank, and certain US subsidiaries and branches of the Bank are subject to a comprehensive regulatory structure involving numerous statutes, rules and regulations. Barclays branch operations in New York and Florida are licensed by, and subject to regulation and examination by, their respective licensing authorities, the New York State Banking Department and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation. Barclays Global Investors, NA is a federally-chartered trust company subject to regulation and examination by OCC. Barclays Bank Delaware is subject to regulation and examination by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Delaware State Banking Commissioner. In addition, the FRB is the primary US federal regulator for the New York and Florida branch operations and also exercises regulatory authority over Barclays other US operations. The regulation of Barclays US branches and subsidiaries imposes restrictions on the activities of those branches and subsidiaries. In addition to the direct regulation of Barclays US banking offices, Barclays US operations subject Barclays to regulation by the FRB under various laws, including the International Banking Act of 1978 and the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (BHC Act). Barclays, Barclays Bank and Barclays Group US Inc. are bank holding companies registered with the FRB as well as financial holding companies under the BHC Act. Financial holding companies may engage in a broader range of financial and related activities than are permitted to banking organisations that do not maintain financial holding company status, including underwriting and dealing in all types of securities. To maintain the financial holding company status of each of Barclays, Barclays Bank and Barclays Group US Inc., Barclays Bank is required to meet or exceed certain capital ratios and to be deemed to be well managed . Barclays Bank Delaware must also meet certain capital requirements to be deemed to be well managed and must have at least a satisfactory rating under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977.

A major focus of US governmental policy relating to financial institutions in recent years has been combating money laundering and terrorist financing and enforcing compliance with US economic sanctions. Regulations applicable to US operations of Barclays Bank and its subsidiaries impose obligations to maintain appropriate policies, procedures and controls to detect, prevent and report money laundering and terrorist financing and to ensure compliance with US economic sanctions against designated foreign countries, nationals and others. Failure of a financial institution to maintain and implement adequate programmes to combat money laundering and terrorist financing or to ensure economic sanction compliance could have serious legal and reputational consequences for the institution. Another recent focus of US governmental policy relating to the financial services sector generally has been on disclosure and sales practices relating to the sector's subprime mortgage and other lending. Barclays investment banking operations are subject to regulations that cover all aspects of the securities business, including:

Trade practices among broker-dealers

Capital structure

Record-keeping

The financing of customers' purchases

Procedures for compliance with US securities law

Barclays Capital Inc. and the other subsidiaries that conduct these operations are regulated by a number of different government agencies and self-regulatory organisations, including the SEC and the NASD. These regulators have available a variety of sanctions, including the authority to conduct administrative proceedings that can result in censure, fines, the issuance of cease-and-desist orders or the suspension or expulsion of the entity or its directors, officers or employees. On 30 May 2007, pursuant to a settlement reached between the SEC and Barclays Bank, the SEC instituted an action against Barclays in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The SEC's action concerned certain purchases and sales of debt securities during 2002-2003 by a single proprietary trading desk at Barclays while desk personnel were serving on various bankruptcy committees. Barclays had independently addressed the practices, policies and procedures at issue in 2003, prior to the commencement of the SEC investigation that led to this action. Barclays no longer employs the trader named as a defendant in the SEC complaint. In settlement of the action, Barclays consented to the entry of a final judgment without admitting or denying any of the allegations contained in the complaint. Under the terms of the consent judgment, Barclays will pay $10.9 million in disgorgement, prejudgment interest, and civil monetary penalties to the SEC. In addition, the final judgment will include an injunction against violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. At the time that the action was instituted against Barclays, the SEC also granted relief to Barclays from certain potential collateral consequences of the final judgment. Barclays subsidiaries in the US are also subject to regulation by applicable federal and state regulators of their activities in the asset management, investment advisory, mutual fund and mortgage lending businesses. For the regulation of Barclays Group following the Effective Date, see paragraph 5 of Part I (Information on the Combined Group).

7. Acquisitions and Disposals

The principal investments effected by the Barclays Group in the three financial years preceding the date of this document are set out below.

On 9 May 2005, Barclays announced the terms of a recommended acquisition of a majority stake in Absa. The total consideration for the acquisition was £2.7 billion. Barclays has consolidated Absa from 27 July 2005. The principal disposals effected by the Barclays Group in the three financial years preceding the date of this document are set out below.

On 4 April 2007, Barclays announced the disposal of part of the Monument credit card portfolio and associated servicing capabilities to CompuCredit International Acquisition Corporation and CompuCredit UK Limited, which are both subsidiaries of CompuCredit Corporation for a consideration of approximately £390 million.

Table of Contents

On 31 December 2006, Barclays disposed of certain vendor finance businesses in the United Kingdom and Germany to CIT Group Inc. The gross assets sold amounted to approximately £1.1 billion as at 30 June 2006.

On 22 December 2006, Barclays disposed of 599.4 million ordinary shares representing its 43.7 per cent. shareholding in FirstCaribbean International Bank to Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce for $989 million. The principal current and future investment of the Barclays Group is the proposed merger with ABN AMRO pursuant to the terms of the Merger described in Part II (Information on the Merger) of this document. Other than the Merger, Barclays has not made any firm commitment to effect any other significant investment.

8. Current Trading, Trends and Prospects

Barclays made good progress on all key strategy priorities and delivered another very strong set of results for shareholders. Double-digit growth in earnings and dividends reflects a outstanding performance from Barclays capital, good profit growth in UK Banking, an improvement in UK unsecured impairment and strong investment across the business.

Barclays profit before tax increased 12 per cent. to £4,101 million. Earnings per share increased 14 per cent. to 41.4 pence and the interim dividend will increase 10 per cent. to 11.5 pence per share.

The Barclays unaudited interim results announcement for the six months ended 30 June 2007 was released on 2 August 2007.

The selected historical financial information in relation to ABN AMRO in this Part V has, unless otherwise stated, been extracted without material adjustment from the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of ABN AMRO for the six months as at and for the period ended 30 June 2007, the audited financial statements of ABN AMRO as at and for the two years ended 31 December 2006 and 2005 each prepared in accordance with IFRS and set out in Part VIII (Historical Financial Information relating to ABN AMRO) The 31 December 2005 financial statements include restated IFRS comparative information as at and for the year ended 31 December 2004.

Investors should read the whole of this document and should not just rely on the financial information set out in this Part V.

1. Introduction

ABN AMRO is a prominent international bank with a clear focus on consumer and commercial clients in ABN AMRO's local regions and a focus globally on select multinational corporations and financial institutions, as well as private clients.

ABN AMRO is the eighth largest bank in Europe and the thirteenth¹ in the world based on total assets, with more than 4,500 branches in 56 countries and territories, a staff of more than 110,300 full-time equivalents. 2006 profits for the year including LaSalle were 4,780 million (LaSalle contribution 899 million), and total assets including LaSalle as at 31 December 2006 were 987 billion (LaSalle contribution 86 billion).

2. History

ABN AMRO's roots go back to 1824, when King Willem I founded the Netherlands Trading Society (Nederlandsche Handel-Maatschappij). In 1964, the Netherlands Trading Society merged with Twentsche Bank to form ABN Bank (Algemene Bank Nederland). In that same year, the merger between Amsterdamsche Bank and Rotterdamsche Bank resulted in the formation of AMRO Bank (Amsterdam Rotterdam Bank). The worldwide scaling of companies and financial institutions called for a bank with a strong capital base and broad expertise. This led to the merger between ABN Bank and AMRO Bank in 1991, creating ABN AMRO. The combination became a leading player in the Netherlands with an extensive global network, which was further developed over time.

ABN AMRO through the acquisition of LaSalle by ABN Bank in 1979 already had a strong foothold in the Chicago area. This presence was expanded to a second home market through the acquisition of, among others, Talman in 1991, Michigan-based Standard Federal Bancorporation in 1996 and Michigan National Corporation in 2001.

In 1998, ABN AMRO acquired Banco Real, the fourth-largest privately owned bank in Brazil². Through the acquisition of Sudameris in 2003, ABN AMRO further strengthened its position in Brazil, in particular in the south east of the country.

ABN AMRO further expanded in 2006 through the acquisition of Antonveneta, which has a strong presence in Italy's wealthy north-eastern region.

ABN AMRO is the parent company of the ABN AMRO Group.

3. Business Overview

As an international bank with European roots, ABN AMRO focuses on consumer, commercial and private banking activities. ABN AMRO adopts a relationship-based approach, applied through its Business Units (BUs).

ABN AMRO's growth strategy is to build on its strong position with mid-market clients and to provide clients in this segment with high-quality and innovative products and services from across the ABN

AMRO Group. ABN AMRO's strategy is aimed at combining local client intimacy and global product excellence.

Mid-market

ABN AMRO serves its mid-market consumer and commercial clients ABN AMRO's sweet spot client segments primarily through its five regional Client BUs: the Netherlands, Europe (including Antonveneta in Italy), North America, Latin America and Asia.

The consumer mid-market segment includes mass affluent customers served by ABN AMRO's regional Client BUs, as well as the majority of its private banking clients served by BU Private Clients. The commercial mid-market segment includes a significant number of medium-to-large companies and financial institutions served through regional Client BUs.

These clients typically require a local banking relationship, an extensive and competitive product suite, an international network, efficient delivery, and, for corporates, sector knowledge. With its range of businesses and capabilities, ABN AMRO is well placed to deliver on all of these requirements.

Client pyramid

The importance of the mid-market segment in ABN AMRO's strategy does not diminish the importance of the top and bottom end of its client pyramid. In serving its top private banking clients, ABN AMRO is able to develop innovative investment products that can be offered to its mid-market consumer clients.

At the same time, serving large multinational corporations enables ABN AMRO to strengthen its industry knowledge and product innovation, both of which will benefit its mid-market commercial clients. Both the mass retail segment and the small business segment deliver the necessary scale and act as a feeder channel for future mid-market clients.

In January 2006, ABN AMRO reinforced its mid-market focus and moved towards realising the benefits of being one bank more effectively by adopting a new structure. This structure enables ABN AMRO to share expertise and operational excellence across the ABN AMRO Group with greater impact.

ABN AMRO's Group structure comprises:

seven Client Business Units;

three Product BUs;

two cross-BU Segments;

Group Functions; and

Services.

The seven Client BUs consist of five regional BUs (The Netherlands, Europe including Antonveneta in Italy, North America, Latin America and Asia) and two global BUs, Private Clients and Global Clients.

The three Product BUs (Global Markets, Transaction Banking and Asset Management) support the Client BUs by developing and delivering products for all of its clients globally.

ABN AMRO binds all of its Client BUs together through a cross-BU Consumer Client Segment and a cross-BU Commercial Client Segment. These segments drive winning formulas across ABN AMRO's various geographies, and work with the Product BUs to deliver high-quality solutions to clients.

Group Functions supports the ABN AMRO Group in areas ranging from risk to finance and from human resources to sustainability, while always balancing global control with local flexibility and expertise.

Services focuses on increasing ABN AMRO's operational efficiency through group wide consolidation and standardisation.

Client BUs

BU Netherlands

Serving a large and diverse client base that comprises consumer and commercial clients, BU Netherlands is a leader in the Dutch banking industry. BU Netherlands employs approximately 21,800 people and serves its clients through a network of 561 bankshops, 78 advisory branches, five dedicated mid-market corporate client units and two large-corporate client units. BU Netherlands also operates some 1,600 ATMs, four integrated call centres, and internet and mobile channels. In addition BU Netherlands offers insurance products provided by its joint venture with Delta Lloyd.

In 2006, BU Netherlands' new operating model consisting of Value Centre Consumer, Value Centre Commercial and centralised mortgage activities led to an improvement in its operational performance, which in turn enabled it to improve its client service. In addition, in 2006 BU Netherlands was able to increase its product sales and number of clients by leveraging the current range of Global Markets products with SME and consumer clients.

On 1 December 2006, ABN AMRO sold the non-mortgage activities of Bouwfonds (an international property group which ranks among the Netherlands' leading property companies) to Rabobank and SNS Bank (see paragraph 6 below).

BU Europe

BU Europe (excluding Antonveneta in Italy)

BU Europe brings together all of ABN AMRO's activities in 27 countries: 23 countries in Europe (excluding Antonveneta in Italy and the Netherlands) along with Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Egypt and South Africa. BU Europe employs approximately 8,000 people, including support functions serving all BUs operating in the region.

In 2006, BU Europe focused a significant proportion of its efforts on improving its profitability by taking various measures to drive organic growth and aligning its commercial activities and back-office services with the new ABN AMRO Group structure. The initiatives put in place to help drive organic growth included improving the focus on origination and delivery of products to financial institutions and public sector clients and strengthening the consumer banking activities in selected countries, with a focus on high-growth emerging economies. BU Europe also developed a new sales and delivery model for mid-market commercial clients by bundling products that meet the most frequently occurring needs of such clients and combining them with simplified back-office processes. This new concept will continue to be rolled-out in 2007 in selected markets.

In 2007 BU Europe will continue to pursue its organic growth strategy and seek to improve its performance by reducing its cost base through implementation of a common services platform and the elimination of inefficiencies in processes, support functions and client coverage models. Key initiatives in 2007 will include improved capital management and the reallocation of capital between different client segments and locations. As part of this, BU Europe aims to improve its returns on capital by focusing increasingly on the emerging economies of Eastern Europe and Central Asia. Financial institutions and the public sector segment will remain key growth areas for BU Europe.

Antonveneta

ABN AMRO acquired Antonveneta in 2006. The integration of Antonveneta into the ABN AMRO Group was completed in December 2006 and Antonveneta's structure and governance have now been aligned with that of the ABN AMRO Group.

Antonveneta and its main subsidiaries, Interbanca and AAA Bank, are among the leading banks in Italy, with Antonveneta holding a ranking among the top ten banking groups by total assets¹. Antonveneta has over 1,000 branches in Italy. The bank is strongly rooted in northeast Italy, where 459 of its domestic branches are located. Integrated with the branch network are more than 1,100 ATMs and about 63,000 points-of-sale, as well as home and remote banking facilities. As at 31 December 2006 its employees numbered approximately 9,600.

In consumer banking, Antonveneta has strengthened the bank's residential mortgage lending – a booming sector in Italy. With regard to commercial clients, Antonveneta has been able to focus its lending activities on those companies most involved in the Italian economy's current growth phase, partly due to the strong presence of its branches and unità imprese (corporate units).

As regards operations, Antonveneta has undertaken a number of initiatives to capitalise on potential synergies with ABN AMRO with the aim of creating alignment between the structures of ABN AMRO and Antonveneta and improving operational efficiency and effectiveness in the process. On 11 December 2006, ABN AMRO and Antonveneta announced plans for the further development of Antonveneta, which include transforming the consumer bank, strengthening the commercial bank and building the private bank.

BU North America*Sale of LaSalle to Bank of America*

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO Bank entered into an agreement to sell LaSalle to Bank of America for total consideration of $21 billion in cash (subject to adjustment based on the financial performance of LaSalle before the closing of the sale). After the completion of the sale of LaSalle, ABN AMRO will retain LaSalle's North American capital markets activities within ABN AMRO's Global Markets unit and Global Clients division as well as its U.S. Asset Management business.

As of 31 December 2006, LaSalle had more than $113 billion in tangible assets and a tangible book value of $9.7 billion, adjusted for businesses that will be retained by ABN AMRO and for the previously announced sale of the mortgage operations unit and presented on a US GAAP basis. For the year ended 31 December 2006, LaSalle, presented on the same basis, had net income of $1,035 million.

Retained BU North America operations

Following completion of the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, BU North America will retain part of the current activities of Global Markets and Transaction Banking in North America, the activities of global clients in North America, large corporate clients, as well as ABN AMRO Canada. ABN AMRO will also retain the North American asset management activities.

BU Latin America

ABN AMRO has had a presence in Brazil since 1917. It acquired Banco Real and Bandepe in 1998, Paraiban in 2001 and Banco Sudameris in 2003. ABN AMRO operates in Brazil as Banco Real.

Banco Real functions as a fully integrated consumer and commercial bank on a nationwide basis through more than 1,900 stand-alone and in-company branches, 6,700 points-of-sale and 8,700 ATMs. Today, Banco Real is the third-largest privately owned bank in Brazil¹.

Table of Contents

Since 1 January 2006, ABN AMRO's Caribbean and Latin American operations outside of Brazil have been grouped with Banco Real to form BU Latin America. Outside of Brazil, BU Latin America focuses primarily on the commercial client segment, although in Paraguay and Uruguay it also focuses on the consumer client segment. Currently, BU Latin America has approximately 28,000 employees. The Brazilian operations are BU Latin America's largest in the region by a substantial margin.

Banco Real offers Van Gogh Preferred Banking services to its mass affluent clients across Brazil, reinforcing the bank's international identity. The commercial banking operation uses a single product platform and sophisticated segmentation to enhance its focus and efficiency thereby enabling Banco Real to deliver a seamless product offering for multinational corporations and to capitalise on its large mid-market commercial client base, served by specialised regional and mid-market sector relationship management teams. Through the Aymoré franchise, BU Latin America is also a major player in the Brazilian consumer finance business. Aymoré has relationships with more than 15,000 active car dealerships distributing vehicle financing and other consumer goods financing nationwide.

During 2006, Banco Real's consumer and commercial banking activities enabled it to achieve strong credit portfolio growth and the highest ratio of consumer and commercial clients to total assets among the main Brazilian banks. On the other hand, in common with other players in Brazil, the bank suffered a significant deterioration in its provisioning during the first half of 2006, due to an increase in delinquencies in the sector. However, Banco Real achieved better provisioning results than its peers through consistent efforts to mitigate growth in provisions, including maintaining constant close monitoring of the portfolio, approaching debtors through different channels and selling off portfolios of bad loans.

In the other countries in which BU Latin America is active (Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Paraguay, Uruguay and Venezuela), revenue generation in 2006 was focused primarily on credit activities. Consumer and sweet spot commercial banking activities have been performing well and show further potential for growth, mainly driven by the growth in credit usage and bankarisation (i.e. clients' growing tendency to use banking services from duly regulated, formal financial institutions). However, competition in these countries has been increasing, as competitors from outside the region are once again targeting investments within it.

BU Asia

ABN AMRO has been operating for over 100 years in several Asian countries including Indonesia, China, Singapore, Japan and the United Arab Emirates. BU Asia now covers 16 countries and territories, operating through 165 branches and offices (excluding those of Saudi Hollandi Bank, in which ABN AMRO has a 40 per cent. stake). BU Asia's client base includes commercial clients as well as consumer and private banking clients. It employs approximately 14,000 people, including support functions serving all BUs operating in the region.

With nearly 5,300 employees in eight countries, the consumer client segment focuses on delivering wealth management and consumer finance services including Van Gogh Preferred Banking to its Asian client base through 79 branches.

In 2006, BU Asia maintained its strong focus on the growth regions of China and India, where it opened five and three new branches respectively. A further four branches were opened across the BU's other operating countries.

BU Asia's credit cards business also expanded rapidly, with the number of cards issued in 2006 exceeding the previous year's issuance by over 19 per cent., and ending net receivables reaching record levels across the operating countries. These results were achieved despite the credit crisis in Taiwan, which affected all players in that country and resulted in higher defaults. BU Asia's Taiwan business was successful in achieving lower losses than most other major issuers, and well below the average.

The commercial client segment is comprised of 550 staff serving more than 10,000 corporate, financial institution and public sector clients. With coverage in 16 countries and territories, the commercial client segment is structured around in-country relationship management teams supported by smaller, regional industry-focused teams. It provides clients with a broad spectrum of products and services across Global

Table of ContentsBU Global Clients

BU Global Clients serves a group of clients who demand sophisticated financial solutions customised to their specific needs.

The four client industry groups that BU Global Clients serves are: Financial Institutions & Public Sector; Telecommunications, Media & Technology; Energy & Resources; and Global Industries (including Automotive, Consumer and Global Industrials). BU Global Clients also comprises dedicated Mergers & Acquisition and Equity Capital Markets teams.

BU Global Clients is organised around six hubs (Amsterdam, London, New York, Hong Kong, Sao Paulo and Sydney), and directly employs around 980 people. The financial results of BU Global Clients also reflect the contribution of 230 people employed by ABN AMRO Mellon, a joint venture with the Mellon Financial Corporation that provides global custody and value added services to institutional investors worldwide.

In order to meet the sophisticated financing, advisory and risk management needs of its multinational client base, BU Global Clients' bankers access products and services, including specialist commercial banking coverage, from ABN AMRO's regional BUs, BU Global Markets and BU Transaction Banking.

Simultaneously, Global Client's hub-based industry bankers deliver their knowledge to the regional clients. This structure allows BU Global Clients' industry expertise and Mergers & Acquisitions and Equity Capital Markets products to be made available to all chosen clients across the bank in support of the overall ABN AMRO Group strategy. Via the ABN AMRO Rothschild joint venture, the Equity Capital Markets team offers a full range of Equity Capital Markets products and related advisory services.

BU Private Clients

BU Private Clients offers private banking services to wealthy individuals and institutions with €1 million or more in net investable assets. With assets under administration of €140 billion in 2006, BU Private Clients is one of the top five private banks in Europe and ranks amongst the largest global private banks¹. BU Private Clients has more than 3,300 employees, operating in 23 countries from 103 branches.

BU Private Clients tailors its services to suit the requirements of well-defined client segments and their different sources of wealth. BU Private Clients' products are based on an open architecture model, enabling the BU to offer its clients the best available products regardless of the actual provider.

BU Private Clients continues to be a leading player in private banking in the Netherlands and France, and has strong positions in Switzerland, Germany, Luxembourg and Belgium. Its position was further strengthened in 2006 by the successful integration of Bank Corluy into Private Clients Belgium, the acquisition of a majority share in VermogensGroep in the Netherlands, and the merger in France of Banque de Neuflyze and Banque OBC, creating Neuflyze OBC. BU Private Clients' status as a leading player in Europe continues to be supported by its strong revenue growth in certain countries, including the Netherlands, France and Belgium.

BU Private Clients is focusing on growth in other private banking businesses and further enhancing the efficiency of its global structure including emphasis on client engagement across Asia (including Indian private banking) and Latin America (with a particular emphasis in Brazil). On 1 January 2007, BU Private Clients launched its private banking business in Italy. During 2007 the BU intends to further build its Italian domestic private banking business, strengthening the BU's European franchise in the process. A further area on which BU Private Clients will increasingly focus during 2007 is the Private Wealth Management segment. This segment, which consists of clients with more than €25 million in liquid assets, is growing at a fast pace.

Product BUsBU Global Markets

BU Global Markets helps to drive the current and future growth of ABN AMRO by delivering product solutions that meet the diverse capital markets requirements of the bank's chosen clients. BU Global Markets is organised into four core areas: Equities (multi-product trading and distribution); Financial Markets (multi-asset-class trading and distribution); Fixed Income Capital Markets (integrated cross-border fixed-income origination); and Structured Lending (syndicated and structured loans). The BU

Global Markets team is made up of approximately 3,500 employees with hubs in Amsterdam, Chicago, Hong Kong, London, New York, Singapore and Sydney.

In 2006, BU Global Markets delivered operating income growth in each core area and in each of the bank's five regions. The BU achieved a five percentage point improvement in its efficiency ratio for 2006, through a series of initiatives delivering sustained improvement in productivity and efficiency and providing a further platform to build on.

Key actions in 2006 included:

Focusing investment in growth products and in particular the Private Investor Product franchise and structured and derivative products (where growth has been significant over the last 12 months); and

Focusing on cost control, for instance through client/product participation choices, which has contributed to the improved efficiency ratio.

BU Transaction Banking

BU Transaction Banking provides cash management, trade services and payment cards for all of ABN AMRO's client segments, across all regions worldwide. Bank accounts and payments services lie at the core of BU Transaction Banking's activities and at the heart of the bank's client relationships. Across all segments, these services provide the foundation for cross-selling, enabling ABN AMRO to expand the relationship with each client. With a focused team of approximately 1,600 mainly regionally based staff, BU Transaction Banking provides services in more than 50 countries and handles more than 2.3 billion of transactions every year.

BU Transaction Banking's overall business grew by 13 per cent. in 2006. In addition, the BU made continued progress with its client satisfaction indices, increased its presence for web-based delivery to all major locations and further improved its recognition in the marketplace by winning eight major awards.

Transaction banking is a scale-driven business that requires investment in state-of-the-art technology. BU Transaction Banking is tackling this challenge by growing its business with financial institutions and capitalising on opportunities in Europe arising from the implementation of Single Euro Payments Area (SEPA) and the Payment Services Directive. SEPA will level the playing field in Europe and enable the bank to build scale by offering payment products across the Eurozone.

Since ABN AMRO is one of the top global players in the transaction banking industry¹, and cross-border payment flows are forecast to grow significantly over the next decade, BU Transaction Banking is well-placed to capture a larger share of this business. BU Transaction Banking's strategic focus in 2007 will continue to be on increasing its scale and cross-border business volume as well as investing appropriately in selected growth regions.

BU Asset Management

BU Asset Management is ABN AMRO's global asset management business, managing approximately 193 billion in specialist mandates and mutual funds as at year-end 2006. BU Asset Management has more than 1,500 employees and operates in 26 countries worldwide, offering investment products in all major regions and asset classes. Its products are distributed directly to institutional clients such as central banks, pension funds, insurance companies and leading charities. Funds for private investors are distributed through ABN AMRO's consumer and private banking arms, as well as via third-party distributors such as insurance companies and other banks. The business from institutional clients represents just over half of the assets managed by BU Asset Management. Consumer and third-party clients account for a further 30 per cent., and the remainder is in discretionary portfolios managed for BU Private Clients. For BU Asset Management, 2006 represented the third year of a strategic programme to focus on areas of business activity to establish critical mass and build sustainable profitable growth. BU Asset Management acquired International Asset Management, a leading fund of hedge funds manager, in February 2006 and completed its integration in May 2006, enabling the BU to provide its clients with a broader range of specialised investment capabilities and enhanced expertise from a trusted provider.

Having successfully completed its three year strategic programme, the BU will commence a new three year strategic programme.

Cross-BU Segments

The Consumer Client Segment comprises the Consumer Banking heads of all ABN AMRO's Client BUs. Led by a member of the Managing Board, the Consumer Client Segment meets frequently to share results and identify new opportunities for growth.

The Commercial Client Segment encompasses all of ABN AMRO's commercial clients, ranging from large multinationals through mid-size corporate clients to the SME client portfolios. Client relationships are maintained in the bank's regional Client BUs and the BU Global Clients, while the Commercial Client Segment coordinates activities across both the Client and Product BUs.

The Consumer Client Segment and the Commercial Client Segment have a primary focus on selling efficiently and sharing best practices between the five regional BUs in which the consumer and commercial clients reside and the products these clients are offered.

Other operationsPrivate Equity

The business model of ABN AMRO's Private Equity unit branded as ABN AMRO Capital involves providing capital and expertise to non-listed companies with a focus on European mid-size buyouts, but also manages a portfolio of investments in Australian buyouts, non-controlling and controlling shareholdings in small to medium-size Dutch companies (participaties), and dedicated media and telecom sector investments. It operates from seven offices across Europe and Australia and has 93 employees. In the past two years, Private Equity has developed and implemented major improvements to its business and operational model. This programme has involved changing its investment focus from taking minority shareholdings in small to medium-sized early and later stage companies, to obtaining full control of mature mid-size companies. Private Equity also reduced its geographical footprint, while at the same time increasing the average size of its investments. It now operates from the Netherlands, France, the Nordic countries, the UK, Italy, Spain and Australia. Private Equity believes that the Netherlands, the Nordic region and the UK represent the greatest potential for commercial and organisational synergies and will therefore focus its regional activities in North Europe whilst continuing to operate in Australia, France, Italy and Spain. This strategy change has resulted in Private Equity becoming a major player in European mid-size buyouts. In recent years it has consistently appeared in the top five most active European mid-size firms, both by number of new deals and number of exits.

From an operational perspective, Private Equity successfully reorganised its business in 2006 as a semi-independent subsidiary of ABN AMRO with greater autonomy in its operational and decision-making governance. The current structure allows Private Equity to raise future funding from third parties more easily. While the investment management activities will be transferred, the existing portfolio will continue to be owned by ABN AMRO.

Through its participaties team, Private Equity is also working together with the BU Netherlands to add development and expansion capital to ABN AMRO's product offering for small-size commercial clients. The Participaties Fund, which was set up in 2006, will be further promoted in 2007, allowing ABN AMRO to strengthen relationships with its small-size client base and to enhance the prospect of cross-selling its banking products to Private Equity's small to medium-sized investments.

Group Functions

Group Functions provides guidance on ABN AMRO's corporate strategy and supports the implementation of the strategy. By aligning and uniting functions across ABN AMRO's BUs and geographical territories, Group Functions also facilitates Group-wide sharing of best practice, innovation and positioning to public authorities. Group Functions has approximately 3,800 employees.

Group Functions carries out its activities through several departments, ranging from Group Finance to Investor Relations, Group Compliance & Legal to Group Communications and Group Risk Management to Group Human Resources. In addition, Group Functions oversees the financial performance of certain shareholdings, including the 8.6 per cent. stake in Italian bank Capitalia. As announced on 20 May 2007, Unicredit has agreed to buy Capitalia for more than $29 billion in shares.

On 30 October 2006, ABN AMRO announced that activities to improve operating performance in 2007 would be accelerated, among others by improving operational efficiency in Group Functions. These changes will affect more than 500 full-time equivalents (FTEs) at head office, predominantly in risk management and corporate IT projects, through a combination of outsourcing, offshoring and redundancies.

Services

ABN AMRO's Services organisation is responsible for delivering internal support services across the bank's global, regional and product BUs worldwide. Its core areas are IT, Operations, and Corporate Services.

The Services organisation was created in 2006, bringing together all services units within the bank and building on the experience of the ABN AMRO Group Shared Services (GSS) programme, which was initiated in 2004. Services has also focused its attention on consolidating activities in operations, further aligning the IT organisation, and accelerating planned initiatives to optimise the global property portfolio. It currently has approximately 900 employees.

Services is implementing a programme to drive efficiency improvements. These efficiency improvements, which were started at the end of 2004, are expected to realise net savings for the ABN AMRO Group of at least 900 million by the end of 2008.

ABN AMRO Bank is and regulated in the Netherlands by the DNB and the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets, or AFM.

The bank regulatory system in the Netherlands is based on the provisions of the new Financial Supervision Act, which came into effect on 1 January 2007. The Financial Supervision Act has replaced, among others, the Act on the Supervision of the Credit System 1992. The Financial Supervision Act gives rules regarding prudential supervision (by the DNB) and supervision of conduct (by the AFM). Prudential supervision focuses on the solidity of financial undertakings and contributes to the stability of the financial sector. Supervision of conduct focuses on orderly and transparent financial processes, clear relations between sector participants and due care in the treatment of clients (amongst which supervision of the securities and investment businesses).

Supervision of banks

In general, under the Financial Supervision Act, banks are supervised by the DNB and the AFM. No enterprise or institution established in the Netherlands may pursue the business of a bank unless it has obtained a licence from DNB. Its supervisory activities under the Financial Supervision Act focus on supervision of solvency, liquidity, own funds and administrative organisation, including internal control and risk management. If, in the opinion of the DNB, a bank fails to comply with any rules and regulations contained in the Financial Supervision Act, the DNB will so instruct the bank to behave in a certain manner. If the bank does not respond to any such instructions to the satisfaction of the DNB, the DNB may exercise additional supervisory measures, which may include the imposition of fines.

The Financial Supervision Act provides that each supervised bank must submit periodic reports to the DNB.

Regulation in the European Union

The Financial Services Action Plan 1999-2005 laid the foundations for a single financial services sector in the EU and has already brought about many changes. In its future strategy on Financial Services for 2005-2010, the European Commission set out its objectives to achieve an integrated, and competitive EU financial services sector by removing any remaining barriers so that financial services can be provided and capital can circulate freely throughout the EU at the lowest possible cost, resulting in high levels of financial stability, consumer benefits and consumer protection.

The financial services sector includes three major areas for which European regulatory policies apply: banking, capital markets, and asset management. EU initiatives also deal with a number of issues related to company and corporate governance.

The Consolidated Banking Directive (2006/48) for credit institutions and banking services governs the free provision of banking services. Under this Directive, ABN AMRO Bank can offer banking services on the basis of a single banking license (European passport) through the establishment of a branch or cross-border in all the EU countries. The Directive 2006/48 also consolidates the Capital Requirements Directive, which is the legal vehicle pursuant to which the Basel II framework has been implemented into EU Law. The new regime, has entered into force in stages, starting on 1 January 2007. The Capital Requirements Directive is based on a three pillars structure (minimum capital requirements, a supervisory review process and market discipline) with the aim of creating a better risk-sensitive regime than the former system.

The EU Institutions have adopted in March 2007 a review of this Directive with regard to the procedure which supervisory authorities need to follow when assessing proposed mergers and acquisitions (M&A). Clear procedural rules and evaluation criteria for the prudential assessment of acquisitions and increase in shareholdings are introduced. The text sets out clear assessment timeframe with deadlines (60 working days, with a maximum stop the clock mechanism of 20 working days) and provides for sound criteria against which supervisors are to assess proposed M&A transactions. The criteria are: (1) the reputation of the proposed acquirer; (2) the reputation of the future manager; (3) the financial soundness; (4) on-going compliance with relevant directives; and (5) the level of risk of money laundering and terrorist financing.

In the area of securities legislation, the Market Abuse Directive prohibits market manipulation and insider dealing in all securities admitted to trading on an EU regulated market. The Prospectus Directive regulates the process and the disclosure requirements for public offerings in and admissions to trading on an EU regulated market of securities, and allows European public offerings with one single prospectus. The Transparency Directive harmonises the transparency requirements for information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on an EU regulated market.

The other important piece of legislation in this area is the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID), which has to be implemented by financial institutions as of 1 November 2007. It regulates, among other things, the cross-border provision of investment services and regulated markets and replaces the 1993 Investment Services Directive which established the single passport for investment firms. It streamlines supervision on the basis of home country control and enhances the transparency of markets. It harmonises conduct of business rules, including best execution, conflicts of interests and client order handling rules. The Directive abolishes the concentration rule, which leads towards a more competitive regime between order execution venues. It also imposes market transparency rules for investment firms, regulated markets and multi-lateral trading systems.

In the post-trading field, the European Commission has pushed the industry to agree on a clearing and settlement Code of Conduct, signed by the stock exchanges on November 2006. The Code aims at enhancing transparency and increasing competition in the post-trading sector.

Likewise, political initiatives in the area of retail financial services and payment services have been launched. Currently, the revised proposal for a Directive on Consumer Credit (latest proposal published in October 2005) is being discussed in the EU. The proposed Directive introduces consumer protection provisions and at the same time aims at the creation of a single market for consumer credit in the EU. A policy agreement on the proposed Directive was reached within the European Council on 21 May 2007. In December 2005, a Directive was proposed on a new legal framework for payment services, which will harmonise rules with regard to payments licensing, transparency conditions, information requirements and rights and obligations linked to the provision and use of payment services. The Payment Services Directive was adopted by the European Parliament on 24 April 2007.

In the area of asset management, the EU has enacted legislation on pension and investment products. On investment funds, there are two UCITS Directives, the first regulating the product (e.g., types of assets in which to invest) and the second one giving management companies a European passport to operate throughout the EU. The European Commission has adopted an implementing Directive (2007/16/EC) on criteria for assessing whether different types of financial instruments are eligible for inclusion in the UCITS funds. The Commission will come up with proposals for legislative amendments in autumn 2007 to make targeted changes to the current EU framework for investment funds. In the field of supplementary pensions (occupational schemes for employees and private individual schemes), a Directive has liberalised the market for supplementary pension schemes by allowing pension providers to operate on an EU-wide basis and establishing prudent person principles for asset allocation.

By December 2007, Member States will have to implement the third Money Laundering Directive into national law. The aim of the Directive is to transpose the Financial Action Task Force's (FATF) forty recommendations. It follows a risk-based approach by which all measures aimed at preventing money laundering must be applied on a proportionate basis, depending on the type of customer, business and other considerations.

As of 1 January 2007, the Regulation which transposes the FATF Special Recommendation VII (SR VII) on wire transfers into EU legislation has come into force. It lays down rules on information on the payer accompanying transfers of funds, in order to allow basic information to be immediately available to the authorities responsible for combating money laundering and terrorist financing.

Applicable in stages as of September 2007, the Data Retention Directive will require electronic communications providers to store data on phone-calls, e-mails and Internet use for a period of between 6 and 24 months to help track down terrorism and organised crime.

In the field of Company Law and Corporate Governance, the two main guiding principles for EU legislative actions are to improve transparency and empower shareholders. Soft law instruments have been used to promote good corporate governance (e.g. corporate governance codes). To improve transparency in company accounts, the European Commission adopted recommendations on Directors Remuneration and the role of non-executive or supervisory directors with a view to improving the on-going disclosure requirements for listed companies. In order to restore credibility of financial reporting and to enhance protection against the type of scandals involving Parmalat and Ahold, the Directive on statutory audit (2006/43) designed to strengthen corporate governance and auditor responsibilities was adopted and should be implemented into national law by June 2008. It aims at reinforcing and harmonising the statutory audit function throughout the EU by setting out principles for public supervision in all Member States. It also introduces a requirement for external quality assurance and clarifies the duties of statutory auditors. In June 2006, the EU adopted a Directive (2006/46) which amends existing Accounting Directives to ensure collective board members responsibility and more disclosure on related-parties transactions, off-balance sheet vehicles and corporate governance. The Second Company Law Directive (2006/68) covering the formation, maintenance and alteration of capital was amended in September 2006 in order for public limited companies to take certain measures affecting the size, structure and ownership of their capital. Finally, the European Commission presented in January 2006 a proposal on the exercise of shareholders rights, which mainly seeks to abolish share blocking, improve the flow and transparency of information and remove all legal obstacles to electronic participation in general meetings. This new Directive on shareholders rights is expected to be adopted by the Council in the third quarter of 2007.

Regulation in the United States

ABN AMRO Group operations in the United States are subject to extensive regulation and supervision by both federal and state banking authorities. ABN AMRO Bank N.V. is a bank holding company within the meaning of the US Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, which restricts its non-banking activities in the United States. However, ABN AMRO elected to become a financial holding company on 11 March 2000.

Regulation in the rest of the world

ABN AMRO Group's operations elsewhere in the world are subject to regulation and control by local supervisory authorities, and its offices, branches and subsidiaries in such jurisdictions are subject to certain reserve, reporting and control and other requirements imposed by the relevant central banks and regulatory authorities.

For the regulation of Barclays Group following the Effective Date, see paragraph 5 of Part I (Information on the Combined Group).

6. Acquisitions and Disposals

The principal investments effected by ABN AMRO in the three financial years preceding the date of this document are set out below.

On 2 January 2006, ABN AMRO acquired a controlling interest in Antonveneta in order to increase its mid-size footprint, and accelerate the existing partnership that gives access to the large Italian banking sector and the customer base of Antonveneta. The ABN AMRO Group paid 26.50 per share for Antonveneta, representing a total consideration of 7,499 million for 79.9 million shares of Antonveneta from Banca Popolare Italiana, which resulted in the ABN AMRO Group acquiring a controlling 55.8 per cent. share. Following purchases of shares in the open market, a public offering and the exercise of the ABN AMRO Group's right under Italian law to acquire minority share holdings, ABN AMRO now owns 100 per cent. of the outstanding share capital of Antonveneta.

The principal disposals effected by ABN AMRO in the three financial years preceding the date of this document are set out below.

LaSalle

On 23 April 2007, ABN AMRO announced the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America. Further details can be found in paragraphs 10.2 and 19 of Part XII (Additional Information) of this document.

US Mortgages

On 1 March 2007, ABN AMRO disposed of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., its US-based residential mortgage broker origination platform and servicing business, to Citigroup. ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. had net assets of approximately $9 billion, of which approximately $3 billion were mortgage servicing rights associated with its $224 billion mortgage servicing portfolio. The decision to sell the business was part of the ABN AMRO Group's strategy to streamline its activities and to align them around its mid-market commercial and consumer clients. The total net gain on the sale of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. was 97 million.

Kereskedelmi és Hitelbank Rt

In May 2006, ABN AMRO completed the sale of its 40 per cent. participation in Kereskedelmi és Hitelbank Rt of Hungary for a consideration of 510 million to KBC Bank. The profit recognised on the sale included in other operating income was 208 million.

Bouwfonds non-mortgage

On 1 December 2006, ABN AMRO disposed of the property development and management activities of its Bouwfonds subsidiary. The Bouwfonds Property Development, Bouwfonds Asset Management, Bouwfonds Fondsenbeheer, Rijnlandse Bank and Bouwfonds Holding were sold to Rabobank for a cash consideration of 852 million and the Bouwfonds Property Finance activities were sold to SNS Bank for a cash consideration of 825 million. The total net gain on the sale of Bouwfonds amounted to 338 million.

LeasePlan Corporation

In November 2004, ABN AMRO sold LeasePlan Corporation of the Netherlands for a net profit of 844 million (under Dutch GAAP) to a consortium of investors led by Volkswagen Group.

7. Current Trading, Trends and Prospects

In the first half of 2007 ABN AMRO delivered strong operating performance. The increase in profitability is the result of a significant improvement in the operating performance as delivered on the three key themes of growth, efficiency and the acceleration of the action plan. This performance is underpinned by the breadth and depth of its global banking businesses which provides an established platform for developing further growth. ABN AMRO operating profit before tax increased 4 per cent. to 2,098 million. Continuing earnings per share decreased 1 per cent. to 0.87 and the interim dividend will increase 5.5 per cent. to 0.58 per share.

The ABN AMRO unaudited interim consolidated financial statements for the six months ended and as at 30 June 2007 are set out in Part VIII A (Historical Information Relating to ABN AMRO) of this document.

8. Directors and Senior Management

ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank are public companies with limited liability incorporated under the laws of the Netherlands. Both companies have a two-tier system of corporate governance, consisting of a Supervisory Board and a Managing Board. The day-to-day management of the companies is vested with the Managing Board.

The memberships of the Supervisory Boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank are the same, as are the memberships of the Managing Boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank.

Supervisory Board

ABN AMRO's Supervisory Board supervises the policy conducted by the Managing Board, as well as ABN AMRO's general course of affairs and its business. In addition, it is charged with assisting and advising management. Certain powers are vested with the Supervisory Board, including the approval of certain resolutions by the Managing Board. The Supervisory Board is independent from the Managing Board. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Supervisory Board nominates one or more candidates for each vacant seat.

Supervisory Board members are appointed for a term of four years and may be re-appointed after that term. Members of the Supervisory Board may serve a maximum term of 12 years from the date of their first appointment.

Table of Contents

All current members of the Supervisory Board qualify as independent within the meaning of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code.

The Chairman and Vice-Chairman are appointed by the Supervisory Board from among its members. The Supervisory Board also appoints from its members the Audit Committee of at least four members, the Nomination & Compensation Committee of at least three members and the Compliance Oversight Committee of at least three members. The committee members are appointed until further notice.

The composition of the Supervisory Board and the supervisory board of ABN AMRO Bank as at the date of this document is as follows:

PART VI
PART A: CAPITAL RESOURCES BARCLAYS GROUP

1. Overview

The Barclays Group manages its capital resources to meet regulatory capital requirements. The FSA requires the Barclays Group to hold sufficient capital resources to meet minimum regulatory capital requirements. In addition, the Barclays Group manages its capital resources to maintain financial holding company status under the rules of the US Federal Reserve Bank, and also to ensure group entities that are subject to local capital adequacy regulation in individual countries, meet their minimum capital requirements.

In 2006, the Barclays Group continued to manage its capital resources, including accessing the capital markets, in order to exceed the minimum capital requirements of its regulators. As at December 2006, the Barclays Group Risk Asset Ratio was 11.7% and the Tier 1 Ratio was 7.7%.

2. Capital and liquidity management

Barclays board risk committee has approved minimum control requirements for capital and liquidity risk management. The Treasurer has established risk control frameworks and a policy and assurance structure to ensure that capital and liquidity risks are managed in accordance with the requirements of the Board. Policies are set by the treasury committee which is chaired by the Group Finance Director.

Capital risk management

Minimum requirements under FSA rules are expressed as the ratio of capital resources to risk weighted assets (Risk Asset Ratio). Risk weighted assets are a function of risk weights applied to the Barclays Group assets using calculations developed by the Basel Committee for Banking Supervision. In anticipation of the Barclays Group implementation of the new Basel II standards on 1st January 2008, the Barclays Group will also manage its capital resources in accordance with the Basel II advanced approaches during 2007.

Regulatory guidelines define three Tiers of capital resources. Tier 1 capital, comprising mainly shareholders funds and including Reserve Capital Instruments and Tier One Notes, is the highest tier and can be used to meet trading and banking activity requirements. Tier 2 includes perpetual, medium-term and long-term subordinated debt and collectively assessed impairment allowances. Tier 2 capital can also be used to support both trading and banking activities. Tier 3 capital also comprises short-term subordinated debt with a minimum original maturity of two years. The use of tier 3 capital is restricted to trading activities only and it is not eligible to support counterparty or settlement risk. The aggregate of Tiers 2 and 3 capital included in the risk asset ratio calculation may not exceed Tier 1 capital.

Liquidity risk management

This is the risk that the Barclays Group is unable to meet its obligations when they fall due and to replace funds when they are withdrawn, with consequent failure to repay depositors and fulfil commitments to lend. The risk that it will be unable to do so is inherent in all banking operations and can be impacted by a range of institution specific and market-wide events including, but not limited to, credit events, merger and acquisition activity, systemic shocks and natural disasters. Liquidity management within the Barclays Group has several strands:

Day to day funding, managed by monitoring expected cash flows to ensure that requirements can be met. This includes replenishment of funds as they mature or are borrowed by customers. The Barclays Group maintains an active presence in global money markets to enable that to happen.

Maintain a portfolio of highly marketable assets that can easily be liquidated as protection against any unforeseen interruption to cash flow.

Monitor, manage and control intraday liquidity in real time is recognised by the Barclays Group as a mission critical process: any failure to meet specific intraday commitments would have significant consequences.

Stress testing is undertaken to assess and plan for the impact of various scenarios which may put the Barclays Group liquidity at risk. The ability to raise funds is in part dependent on maintaining the

Table of Contents

Bank's credit rating. The funding impact of a credit downgrade is regularly estimated. Whilst the impact of a single downgrade may affect the price at which funding is available, the effect on liquidity is not considered material in Barclays Group terms.

Liquidity risk measurement

Monitoring and reporting take the form of cash flow measurement and projections for the next day, week and month as these are key periods for liquidity management. This is based on principles agreed by the FSA.

In addition to cash flow management, treasury also monitors unmatched medium-term assets and the level and type of undrawn lending commitments, the usage of overdraft facilities and the impact of contingent liabilities such as standby letters of credit and guarantees.

Barclays Group treasury develops and implements stress tests on the Barclays Group projected cash flows. The output informs the Barclays Group contingency funding plan. This is maintained by treasury and is aligned with the Barclays Group and country business resumption plans to encompass decision-making authorities, internal and external communication and, in the event of a systems failure, the restoration of liquidity management and payment systems. Sources of liquidity are regularly reviewed to maintain a wide diversification by currency, geography, provider, product and term. Whilst the past year saw relatively stable markets, with no significant consequences for the Barclays Group liquidity, significant market events over recent years including corporate scandals contributed to a short-term flight to quality in financial markets from which Barclays benefited.

An important source of structural liquidity is provided by our core retail deposits in the UK, Europe and Africa, mainly current accounts and savings accounts. Although current accounts are repayable on demand and savings accounts at short notice, the Barclays Group broad base of customers – numerically and by depositor type – helps to protect against unexpected fluctuations. Such accounts form a stable funding base for the Barclays Group operations and liquidity needs.

To avoid reliance on a particular group of customers or market sectors, the distribution of sources and the maturity profile of deposits are also carefully managed. Important factors in assuring liquidity are competitive rates and the maintenance of depositors' confidence. Such confidence is based on a number of factors including the Barclays Group reputation, the strength of earnings and the Barclays Group financial position.

Net cash from operating activities are primarily derived from the principal revenue generating activities of the Group, such as net interest income received and operating costs paid. Cash flow from operating activities includes the effects of deposits by customers and debt securities issued, and loans advances to customers.

Barclays uses the indirect method to present the cash flow statement and therefore the effects of non-cash items are removed to arrive at the cash flow from operations.

Net cash used in investing activities represents the extent to which expenditures have been made for resources intended to generate future income and cash flows, such as through the purchase of property, plant and equipment and the acquisition of subsidiaries and other investments.

Financing activities show the cash flows associated with the raising and repayment of finance and other flows associated with the financing of the Group's operations, such as the cash proceeds of shares or debt issuances, and cash paid in dividends to equity shareholders.

Exchange gain or loss on foreign currency cash and cash equivalents shows the translation differences arising on the net foreign currency cash flows included in the cash flow statement, which are translated at the rates ruling on the dates of the transactions, and the rate ruling at the period end.

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash and highly liquid investments with an immaterial risk of changes in value and a maturity of three months or less.

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits and cash equivalents comprise highly liquid investments that are convertible into cash with an insignificant risk of changes in value with original maturities of less than three months. Trading balances, repos and reverse repos are not considered to be part of cash equivalents.

5. Capital commitments

At 31st December 2006 the commitments for capital expenditure under contract amounted to £9m (2005: £1m).

PART B: CAPITAL RESOURCES COMBINED GROUP

Following completion, the enlarged entity would continue to manage its capital resources to meet regulatory capital requirements both of the lead regulator as well as to ensure group entities, that are subject to local capital adequacy regulation in individual countries, meet their minimum capital requirements.

Liquidity risk management will continue to address the management of day-to-day liquidity within specified parameters to ensure all liabilities can be met on a timely basis, and ensuring that in the event of either a firm-specific or general market event, the bank is able to generate sufficient liquidity to withstand a short term liquidity crisis.

Capital and funding markets will be accessed as and when appropriate to meet these requirements.

At the Board level minimum control requirements for capital and liquidity risk management will be updated for the combined group, and risk control frameworks and policy structure will ensure that capital and liquidity risks are managed in accordance with these requirements.

The specific capital and liquidity management policies and processes will be reviewed upon completion to ensure a consistent approach is taken across the whole group. Existing processes will continue to apply pending the outcome of such a review.

Table of Contents4. Factors affecting results of operationsAdoption of IFRS

The Barclays Group adopted the requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards and International Accounting Standards (collectively IFRS) as adopted by the European Union for the first time for the purpose of preparing financial statements for the year ended 31st December 2005. Whilst the change in accounting standards had no impact on the underlying economics or risk of the business, the 2004 results were different from the Barclays Group previously provided 2004 results under UK GAAP.

Additionally, International Financial Reporting Standard 1 included specific transitional provisions for International Accounting Standard 32, Financial Instruments, Disclosure and Presentation, International Accounting Standard 39, Financial Instruments Recognition and Measurement and International Financial Reporting Standard 4, Insurance Contracts. The Barclays Group adopted these provisions and therefore did not apply these standards to the 2004 comparatives. The impact of these standards was reflected through further adjustments to shareholders' equity as at 1st January 2005. In the 2004 comparatives in the 2005 annual report, financial instruments and insurance contracts were included using the measurement bases and the disclosure requirements of UK GAAP relating to financial instruments and insurance contracts. Consequently, the comparatives are significantly different from the numbers reported in 2005.

Acquisition of a majority stake in Absa

In 2005 Barclays acquired a majority stake in Absa with consolidation commencing from 27 July 2005.

Profit on disposal of subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures

On 22 December 2006 the Barclays Group disposed of its investment in FirstCaribbean International Bank, its former principal associate, for cash consideration, net of transaction costs of £583m, which, after deducting the Barclays Group share of its net assets on the date of disposal, resulted in a profit of £247m. Other disposals in 2006 resulted in a profit of £76m (2005: £nil, 2004: £45m)

5. Review of historical results of operationsPresentation of results

This review of the results of operations is based on a comparison of (i) the results of operations for the year ended 31 December 2006 as against 2005 and (ii) the results of operations for the year ended 31 December 2005 as against 2004. The 2005 to 2004 comparison utilises for the latter year figures produced on an IFRS basis and included as comparatives in the 2005 Annual Report. As noted in point 3 above, the 2004 IFRS figures do not reflect the impact of IAS 32, IAS 39 and IFRS 4 which became effective from 1 January 2005.

Results of operations for 2005 and 2006

Profit before tax increased 35% to £7,136m (2005: £5,280m). Earnings per share rose 32% to 71.9p (2005: 54.4p). Profit excluding business disposals of £323m (2005: £nil) increased 29% to £6,813m (2005: £5,280m), and earnings per share increased 23% to 66.8p (2005: 54.4p). The total dividend payout of 31.0p, represented a rise of 17% over the total dividend payout of 26.6p in 2005.

Total income net of insurance claims grew 25% to £21,595m (2005: £17,333m), well ahead of expense growth of 20%. The growth was broadly based by business and geography, reflecting momentum in each business. All businesses made significant contributions, with especially strong performances from Barclays Capital, UK Banking and Barclays Global Investors, and a substantial contribution to income from Absa in its first full year of ownership. Excluding Absa, Barclays Group income grew 18%, compared with expense growth of 13%. The mix of income and profit continued to evolve with approximately half of the Barclays Group profits coming from outside the UK, up from about 30% in 2003.

The primary elements of total income in both 2006 and 2005 were net interest income, net fee and commission income and principal transactions.

Barclays Group net interest income increased 13% (£1,068m) to £9,143m (2005: £8,075m). The inclusion of Absa contributed net interest income of £1,138m (2005: £516m). Barclays Group net interest income excluding Absa grew 6%.

Table of Contents

Net fee and commission income increased 26% (£1,472m) to £7,177m (2005: £5,705m). The inclusion of Absa contributed net fee and commission income of £850m (2005: £334m). Barclays Group net fee and commission income excluding Absa grew 18%, reflecting growth across all businesses.

Principal transactions consist of net trading income and net investment income with most of the former being generated in Barclays Capital.

Net trading income increased 56% (£1,293m) to £3,614m (2005: £2,321m) due to excellent performances in Barclays Capital Rates and Credit businesses, in particular in commodities, fixed income, equities, credit derivatives and emerging markets. This was driven by higher volumes of client led activity and favourable market conditions. The inclusion of Absa contributed net trading income of £60m (2005: £9m). Barclays Group net trading income excluding Absa grew 54%.

Net investment income increased 12% (£104m) to £962m (2005: £858m). The inclusion of Absa contributed net investment income of £144m (2005: £62m). Barclays Group net investment income excluding Absa increased 3%. Within net investment income the cumulative gain from disposal of available for sale assets increased 156% (£187m) to £307m (2005: £120m) driven by investment realisations, primarily in Private Equity.

Operating expenses increased 20% to £12,674m (2005: £10,527m). The Barclays Group cost: income ratio improved two percentage points to 59% as the Barclays Group continued to target top quartile productivity for all businesses, resulting in the 2006 ratio improving or remaining flat in all businesses. The primary elements of operating expenses in 2006 and 2005 were staff costs and administrative expenses.

Staff costs increased 29% (£1,851m) to £8,169m (2005: £6,318m). The inclusion of Absa contributed staff costs of £694m (2005: £296m). Barclays Group staff costs excluding Absa rose 24%. Salaries and accrued incentive payments rose 32% (£1,599m) to £6,635m (2005: £5,036m), principally due to increased performance related payments and the full year inclusion of Absa. The inclusion of Absa contributed salaries and incentive payments of £615m (2005: £276m). Barclays Group salaries and accrued incentive payments excluding Absa rose 26%. Administrative expenses increased 16% (£537m) to £3,980m (2005: £3,443m). The inclusion of Absa contributed administrative expenses of £579m (2005: £257m). Barclays Group administrative expenses excluding Absa grew 7% principally as a result of higher business activity in UK Banking and Barclays Capital.

In 2006 operating expenses included gains on the sale of properties of £432m as the Barclays Group took advantage of historically low yields on property to realize gains on some of its freehold properties. These gains were partly offset by accelerated incremental investment expenditure of approximately £280m.

Impairment charges rose 37% to £2,154m (2005: £1,571m). Excluding Absa, impairment charges on loans and advances increased 26%. The increase was mostly attributable to the challenging credit environment in UK unsecured retail lending, which was partly due to the continued rise in the level of personal insolvencies. In the second half of 2006, as a result of a number of management actions, flows into delinquency decreased and arrears balances declined across the UK cards and unsecured loans portfolios. Barclays Group therefore believe that it passed the worst in Barclaycard UK impairment in the second half of 2006. UK mortgage impairment charges remained negligible, and the wholesale and larger corporate sectors continued to be stable with a low level of defaults.

In 2006 a profit on disposal of subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures of £323m was recorded which included £247m profit on disposal of FirstCaribbean International Bank and £76m from the sale of interests in vehicle leasing and vendor finance businesses. There were no such disposals in 2005.

The Directors recommended final dividends in respect of 2006 of 20.5p (2005: 17.4p) per ordinary share of 25p each and 10p (2005: 10p) per staff share of £1 each, amounting to a total of £1,307m (2005: £1,105m). The financial statements to 31st December 2006 include the 2005 final dividend of £1,105m.

Results of operations for 2005 and 2004

Profit before tax increased 15% to £5,280m (2004: £4,580m). Earnings per share rose 7% to 54.4p (2004: 51.0p). Profit excluding business disposals of £nil (2004: £45m) increased 16% to £5,280m (2004: £4,535m). The total dividend payout of 26.6p, represented a rise of 11% over the total dividend payout of 24.0p in 2004.

Table of Contents

Total income net of insurance claims rose 23% in 2005 to £17,333m (2004: £14,108m) an increase which was broadly spread across the Barclays Group with most businesses reporting double digit income growth and UK Retail Banking returning to modest top line growth.

The primary elements of total income in both 2005 and 2004 were net interest income, net fee and commission income and principal transactions.

Barclays Group net interest income increased 18% to £8,075m (2004: £6,833m). The inclusion of Absa added net interest income of £516m in the second half of 2005. Barclays Group net interest income excluding Absa grew 11% reflecting growth in average balances across all businesses. Growth in net interest income was strongest in UK Banking, particularly reflecting the growth in UK Business Banking average lending and deposit balances. Net interest income also improved in Barclaycard and International Retail and Commercial Banking as a result of strong growth in balances.

Net fee and commission income increased 18% to £5,705m (2004: £4,847m) reflecting good growth across all businesses. The inclusion of Absa increased net fee and commission income by £334m in the second half of 2005. Barclays Group net fee and commission income excluding Absa grew 11%. Excluding the application of IAS 32 and IAS 39 net fee and commission income increased 20%.

Principal transactions consist of net trading income and net investment income with most of the former being generated in Barclays Capital.

Net trading income increased 56% to £2,321m (2004: £1,487m) due to strong performances across Barclays Capital Rates and Credit businesses, in particular from commodities, foreign exchange, fixed income and credit derivatives. This was driven by the continued return on prior-year investments and higher volumes of client-led activity across a broad range of products and geographical regions. Barclays Group net trading income excluding £9m of Absa income, grew 55%.

Net investment income decreased 16% to £858m (2004: £1,027m). The inclusion of Absa increased net investment income by £62m in the second half of 2005. Barclays Group net investment income excluding Absa decreased 22%.

Operating expenses grew in line with income, reflecting significant investment directed to the global businesses, higher performance related expenses, the expansion of International Retail and Commercial Banking and head office relocation. Excluding the first time contribution of Absa, income and operating expenses increased 15%. The Barclays Group cost: income ratio remained steady at 61%. This reflected improved productivity in UK Banking, Barclays Global Investors and Wealth Management; and a stable performance by International Retail and Commercial Banking, offset by an increase in non-recurring operating expenses in Head office and other functions. The primary elements of operating expenses in 2005 and 2004 were staff costs and administrative expenses

Staff costs increased 21% to £6,318m (2004: £5,227m). The inclusion of Absa added staff costs of £296m during the second half of the year. Excluding the impact of Absa, staff costs increased 15%.

Administrative expenses increased 24% to £3,443m (2004: £2,766m). The inclusion of Absa added administrative expenses of £257m in the second half of 2005. Barclays Group administrative expenses excluding Absa grew 15% principally as a result of higher business activity in Barclays Capital and Barclays Global investors and the inclusion of Barclaycard US for the full year. There was a strong focus on cost control across the business, with particularly good results in UK Retail Banking. Administrative expenses included non-recurring costs relating to the write-down of capitalized IT related assets held centrally of £60m (2004: £nil) and an increase in operating lease rentals of 47% to £316m (2004: £215m). Operating lease rentals primarily increased as a result of double occupancy costs associated with the head office relocation to Canary Wharf and the inclusion of Absa.

Impairment charges increased 44% to £1,571m (2004: £1,093m). This reflected some large one-off releases and recoveries in 2004, the impact of acquisitions in 2005 and changes in methodology. Excluding these factors, the rate of growth in impairment charges was 24%, driven by a continued increase in arrears balances and lower rates of recovery from customers in UK credit cards. Impairment charges rose at a slower rate in unsecured loans and were minimal in UK mortgages. Wholesale and corporate credit conditions were stable.

The Directors recommended final dividends in respect of 2005 of 17.4p (2004: 15.75p) per ordinary share of 25p each and 10p (2004: 10p) per staff share of £1 each, amounting to a total of £1,105m

Table of Contents

(2004: £1,001m). The financial statements to 31 December 2005 include the 2004 final dividend of £1,001m.

6. Critical accounting estimates

The Barclays Group accounting policies are set out on pages 151 to 160 of the 2006 Annual Report and are incorporated into this document by reference. Certain of these policies, as well as estimates made by management, are considered to be important to an understanding of the Barclays Group financial condition since they require management to make difficult, complex or subjective judgements and estimates, some of which may relate to matters that are inherently uncertain. The following accounting policies include estimates which are particularly sensitive in terms of judgements and the extent to which estimates are used. Other accounting policies involve significant amounts of judgements and estimates, but the total amounts involved are not significant to the financial statements. Management has discussed the accounting policies and critical accounting estimates with the Board Accounts Committee.

Fair value of financial instruments

Some of Barclays Bank's financial instruments are carried at fair value through profit or loss, including derivatives held for trading or risk management purposes. The fair value of a financial instrument is the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. Financial instruments entered into as trading transactions, together with any associated hedging, are measured at fair value and the resultant profits and losses are included in net trading income, along with interest and dividends arising from long and short positions and funding costs relating to trading activities. Assets and liabilities resulting from gains and losses on financial instruments held for trading are reported gross in trading portfolio assets and liabilities or derivative financial instruments, reduced by the effects of netting agreements where there is an intention to settle net with counterparties.

Financial instruments are either priced with reference to a quoted market price for that instrument or by using a valuation model. Where the fair value is calculated using financial markets pricing models, the methodology is to calculate the expected cash flows under the terms of each specific contract and then discount these values back to a present value. These models use as their basis independently sourced market parameters including, for example, interest rate yield curves, equities and commodities prices, option volatilities and currency rates. Most market parameters are either directly observable or are implied from instrument prices. However, profits or losses are recognised upon initial recognition only when such profits can be measured solely by reference to observable current market transactions or valuation techniques based solely on observable market inputs.

The calculation of fair value for any financial instrument may also require adjustment of the quoted price or model value to reflect the cost of credit risk (where not embedded in underlying models or prices used), or to reflect hedging costs not captured in pricing models (to the extent they would be taken into account by a market participant in determining a price). The process of calculating fair value on illiquid instruments or from a valuation model may require estimation of certain pricing parameters, assumptions or model characteristics. These estimates are calibrated against industry standards, economic models and observed transaction prices.

The effect of changing these assumptions for those financial instruments for which the fair values were measured using valuation techniques that are determined in full or in part on assumptions that are not supported by observable market prices to a range of reasonably possible alternative assumptions, would be to provide a range of higher or lower values than the fair values recognised in the financial statements.

Allowances for loan impairment

Allowances for loan impairment represent management's estimate of the losses incurred in the loan portfolios as at the balance sheet date. Changes to the allowances for loan impairment and changes to the provisions for undrawn contractually committed facilities and guarantees provided are reported in the consolidated income statement as part of the impairment charge.

Within the retail and small businesses portfolios, which comprise large numbers of small homogeneous assets with similar risk characteristics where credit scoring techniques are generally used, statistical techniques are used to calculate impairment allowances on a portfolio basis, based on historical recovery rates and assumed emergence periods. These statistical analyses use as primary inputs the extent to which accounts in the portfolio are in arrears and historical information on the eventual losses encountered from such delinquent portfolios. There are many such models in use, each tailored to a product, line of business or customer category. The models are updated from time to time. However, experience suggests that the models are reliable and stable, stemming from the very large numbers of accounts from which the model building information is drawn. Judgement and knowledge is needed in selecting the statistical methods to use when the models are developed or revised. The impairment allowance reflected in the financial statements for these portfolios is therefore considered to be reasonable and supportable.

For larger accounts, impairment allowances are calculated on an individual basis and all relevant considerations that have a bearing on the expected future cash flows are taken into account, for example, the business prospects for the customer, the realisable value of collateral, the Barclays Group position relative to other claimants, the reliability of customer information and the likely cost and duration of the work-out process. The level of the impairment allowance is the difference between the value of the discounted expected future cash flows (discounted at the loan's original effective interest rate), and its carrying amount. Subjective judgements are made in this process. Furthermore, judgements change with time as new information becomes available or as work-out strategies evolve, resulting in frequent revisions to the impairment allowance as individual decisions are taken, case by case. Changes in these estimates would result in a change in the allowances and have a direct impact on the impairment charge.

Goodwill

Management have to consider at least annually whether the current carrying value of goodwill is impaired. The first step of the impairment review process requires the identification of independent operating units, by dividing the Barclays Group business into as many largely independent income streams as is reasonably practicable. The goodwill is then allocated to these independent operating units. The first element of this allocation is based on the areas of the business expected to benefit from the synergies derived from acquisitions. The second element reflects the allocation of the net assets acquired and the difference between the consideration paid for those net assets and their fair value. This allocation is reviewed following business reorganisation. The carrying value of the operating unit, including the allocated goodwill, is compared to its fair value to determine whether any impairment exists. If the fair value of an operating unit is less than its carrying value, goodwill will be impaired. Detailed calculations may need to be carried out taking into consideration changes in the market in which a business operates (e.g. competitive activity, regulatory change). In the absence of readily available market price data this calculation is based upon discounting expected pre-tax cash flows at a risk adjusted interest rate appropriate to the operating unit, the determination of both of which requires the exercise of judgement. The estimation of pre-tax cash flows is sensitive to the periods for which detailed forecasts are available and to assumptions regarding the long-term sustainable cash flows. While forecasts are compared with actual performance and external economic data, expected cash flows naturally reflect management's view of future performance. The most significant amounts of goodwill relate to the Absa and Woolwich acquisitions.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets that derive their value from contractual customer relationships or that can be separated and sold and have a finite useful life are amortised over their estimated useful life. Determining the estimated useful life of these finite life intangible assets requires an analysis of circumstances, and judgement by the Barclays Group management. At each balance sheet date, or more frequently when events or changes in circumstances dictate, intangible assets are assessed for indications of impairment. If indications are present, these assets are subject to an impairment review. The impairment review comprises a comparison of the carrying amount of the asset with its recoverable amount: the higher of the assets' or the cash-generating unit's net selling price and its value in use. Net selling price is calculated by reference to the amount at which the asset could be disposed of in a binding sale agreement in an arms-length transaction evidenced by an active market or recent transactions for similar assets. Value in use is calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows obtainable as a result of the asset's continued use, including those resulting from its ultimate disposal, at a market-based discount rate on a pre-tax basis. The most significant amounts of intangible assets relate to the Absa acquisition.

Table of ContentsRetirement benefit obligations

The Barclays Group provides pension plans for employees in most parts of the world. Arrangements for staff retirement benefits vary from country to country and are made in accordance with local regulations and customs. For defined contribution schemes, the pension cost recognised in the profit and loss account represents the contributions payable to the scheme. For defined benefit schemes, actuarial valuation of each of the scheme's obligations using the projected unit credit method and the fair valuation of each of the scheme's assets are performed annually in accordance with the requirements of IAS 19.

The actuarial valuation is dependent upon a series of assumptions, the key ones being interest rates, mortality, investment returns and expense inflation. Mortality estimates are based on standard industry and national mortality tables, adjusted where appropriate to reflect the Barclays Group own experience. The returns on fixed interest investments are set to market yields at the valuation date (less an allowance for risk) to ensure consistency with the asset valuation. The returns on UK and overseas equities are set relative to fixed interest returns by considering the long-term expected equity risk premium. The expense inflation assumption reflects long-term expectations of both earnings and retail price inflation.

The difference between the fair value of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date, adjusted for any historic unrecognised actuarial gains or losses and past service cost, is recognised as a liability in the balance sheet. An asset arising, for example, as a result of past over-funding or the performance of the plan investments, is recognised to the extent that it does not exceed the present value of future contribution holidays or refunds of contributions. To the extent that any unrecognised gains or losses at the start of the measurement year in relation to any individual defined benefit scheme exceed 10% of the greater of the fair value of the scheme assets and the defined benefit obligation for that scheme, a proportion of the excess is recognised in the income statement.

7. Financial risk management

The main sources of financial risk that the Barclays Group faces are those arising from financial instruments – credit risk, market risk, liquidity risk and insurance risk. The Barclays Group devotes considerable resources to maintaining effective controls to manage, measure and mitigate each of these risks and regularly reviews its risk management procedures and systems to ensure that these are the best available.

Financial instruments are fundamental to the Barclays Group business and constitute the core element of its operations. The risks associated with financial instruments are a significant component of the risks faced by the Barclays Group. Financial instruments create, modify or reduce the liquidity, credit and market risks of the Barclays Group balance sheet. These risks and the Barclays Group policies and objectives for managing such risks are outlined below.

Credit risk management

Credit risk is the risk of suffering financial loss from any of the Barclays Group customers, clients or market counterparties failing to fulfil their contractual obligations to the Barclays Group. Credit risk mainly arises from loans and advances, but may also arise where the downgrading of an entity's credit rating causes the fair value of the Barclays Group investment in that entity's financial instruments to fall.

Credit risk is the Barclays Group most significant risk and it deploys considerable resources to controlling it. Each business has an embedded risk management team reporting to a business risk director who reports to the group risk director, who leads the group risk function, including credit, which is charged with devising and implementing group risk policy, such as ensuring:

- maximum exposure guidelines are in place relating to the exposures to any individual customer or counterparty;

- country risk policy specifies risk appetite by country and avoids excessive concentrations of credit in individual countries; and

- policies are in place that limit lending to certain industries, for example, commercial real estate.

A credit committee of Directors and experienced senior managers formulates overall group credit policy and resolves all significant credit policy issues.

Table of Contents

Credit risk measurement

The Barclays Group credit rating systems use statistical modelling techniques throughout its business which assist the Barclays Group in front line credit decisions, such as managing its existing portfolios and making new commitments. The Barclays Group assesses the credit quality and assigns an internal risk rating to all borrowers and other counterparties, including retail customers.

Each internal rating corresponds to the statistical probability of a customer in that rating class defaulting within the next 12-month period. The probability of default, the exposure at default and the loss given default are calculated for all loan portfolios. This allows the Barclays Group to monitor its exposures, enabling it to derive measures such as risk tendency. Risk tendency is a statistical estimate of the average loss for each loan portfolio for a 12-month period, taking into account the size of the portfolio and its risk characteristics under current economic conditions, and is used to track the change in risk as the portfolio of loans changes over time. The Barclays Group monitors its financial exposure to individual counterparties, to industries and countries to ensure that no undue concentrations of credit arise.

Credit risk mitigation

The Barclays Group uses a wide variety of techniques to reduce credit risk on its lending. The most basic of these is performing an assessment of the ability of a borrower to service the proposed level of borrowing without distress. In addition, the Barclays Group commonly obtains security for the funds advanced, such as in the case of a retail or commercial mortgage, a reverse repurchase agreement, or a commercial loan with a floating charge over book debts and inventories. The Barclays Group also uses various forms of specialised legal agreements to reduce risk, including netting agreements which permit it to offset positive and negative balances with customers in certain circumstances to minimise the exposure at default, financial guarantees, and the use of covenants in commercial lending agreements. Other techniques include the use of credit derivatives and other forms of credit collateral. In addition, the Barclays Group actively manages its exposures to clients, countries and industries through diversification, minimising individual concentrations.

Market Risk Management

Market risk is the risk that Barclays earnings or capital, or its ability to meet business objectives, will be adversely affected by changes in the level or volatility of market rates or prices such as interest rates, credit spreads, commodity prices, equity prices and foreign exchange rates.

The main market risks arise from trading activities. Barclays is also exposed to non-trading market risks to asset and liability management and to its pension fund.

To facilitate the management, control, measurement and reporting of market risk, Barclays has grouped market risk into three broad categories:

Trading market risk. These risks arise in trading transactions where Barclays acts as principal with clients or with the market. Barclays policy is that market risks arising from trading activities are concentrated in Barclays Capital.

Asset and liability risk. These risks arise from banking activities, including those incurred on non-trading positions such as customer assets and liabilities and capital balances.

Other market risks. Barclays also incurs market risks that are assessed under a slightly different framework. The principal risks of this type are defined benefit pension scheme risk and asset management structural market risk. The Barclays Board approves the market risk appetite for all types of market risk. The market risk director is responsible for the market risk control framework and, under delegated authority from the risk director, sets a limit framework within the context of the approved market risk appetite. A daily market risk report summarises Barclays market risk exposures against agreed limits. This daily report is sent to the risk director, the market risk director, the Finance Director and the appropriate business risk directors.

In Barclays Capital, the head of market risk is responsible for implementing the market risk control framework. Day to day responsibility for market risk lies with the senior management of Barclays Capital, supported by the market risk management team that operates independently of the trading areas. Daily market risk reports are produced for the main Barclays Capital business areas covering the six main types of trading market risk: interest rate, inflation, credit spread, commodity, equity and foreign exchange. A more detailed trading market risk presentation is produced fortnightly and discussed at Barclays Capital's Traded Products Risk Review meeting. The attendees at this meeting include the senior managers from Barclays Capital and the central market risk team.

Market risk measurement

The measurement techniques used to measure and control market risk include:

Daily Value at Risk;

Stress Tests; and Annual Earnings at Risk.

Daily Value at Risk (DVaR)

DVaR is an estimate of the potential loss which might arise from unfavourable market movements, if the current positions were to be held unchanged for one business day, measured to a confidence level of 98%. Daily losses exceeding the DVaR figure are likely to occur, on average, twice in every 100 business days.

Stress Tests

Stress tests provide an indication of the potential size of losses that could arise in extreme conditions. The stress tests carried out by Barclays Capital include risk factor stress testing, where stress movements are applied to each of the six risk categories namely interest rate, inflation, credit spread, commodity, equity and foreign exchange rate; emerging market stress testing where emerging market portfolios are subject to stress movements; and ad hoc stress testing, which includes applying stress scenarios to the trading risk book.

If potential stressed losses exceed the trigger limit, the positions captured by the stress test are reviewed and discussed by Barclays Capital Market Risk and the respective senior management.

Outside Barclays Capital, stress testing is carried out by the business centres and is reviewed by the senior management and business-level asset and liability committees. The stress testing is tailored to the business and is typically scenario analysis and historical stress movements applied to respective portfolios.

Annual Earnings at Risk (AEaR)

AEaR measures the sensitivity of annual earnings to shocks in market rates at the 99th percentile for change over a one-year period. This shock is consistent with the standardised interest rate shock recommended by the Basel II framework for assessing banking book interest rate risk.

AEaR is used to measure structural interest rate market risk and structural asset management risk.

Trading Market Risk

Barclays Group policy is to concentrate trading activities in Barclays Capital. This includes transactions where Barclays Capital acts as principal with clients or with the market. For maximum efficiency, client and market activities are managed together.

In anticipation of future customer demand, Barclays maintains access to market liquidity by quoting bid and offer prices with other market makers and carries an inventory of capital market and treasury instruments, including a broad range of cash, securities and derivatives. Trading positions and any offsetting hedges are established as appropriate to accommodate customer or Barclays requirements.

Asset and Liability Market Risk

Interest rate exposures arise from mismatches of fixed rate assets and liabilities in UK banking operations and are passed to treasury where these positions are aggregated and the net position passed to the market via Barclays Capital. Due mainly to timing considerations, market risk can arise when some of the net position stays with treasury.

Similarly, market risk can arise due to the impact of interest rates on customer behaviour. The latter risk is managed and measured by the retail market risk team using behavioural models. The positions are converted into wholesale swap or option exposures, passed to Treasury and managed by the process outlined above.

Structural interest rate risk arises from the variability of income from non-interest bearing products, managed variable rate products and the Barclays Group equity. Structural foreign currency risk results from holding non-Sterling investments in subsidiaries, branches, associates or joint ventures. These structural risks are managed by Treasury.

Interest rate exposures, structural interest rate risk and other market risks may be managed through the use of derivatives. Where this is the case, hedge accounting is obtained where possible so that the benefits of Risk management are reflected in the financial statements.

Liquidity Risk Management

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Barclays Group is unable to meet its payment obligations when they fall due or to replace funds when they are withdrawn.

The Barclays Group has several core liquidity management strategies. The first is to project future cash flows and make plans to address normal operating requirements, as well as variable scenarios and contingencies. The second is to manage day to day funding, by controlling intraday liquidity in real time and by forecasting future cash flows to ensure that requirements can be met. The third is maintaining a diverse and stable funding base.

Finally, the Barclays Group maintains a portfolio of highly marketable assets that can easily be liquidated as protection against any unforeseen interruption to cash flows.

The Barclays Group funding base comprises a mixture of different funding sources, including retail and corporate customer deposits, and short- and long-term debt issuances. Although current accounts are repayable on demand and savings accounts at short notice, the Barclays Group broad base of customers numerically and by depositor type helps to protect against unexpected fluctuations. Such accounts form a stable funding base for the Barclays Group operations and liquidity needs. Important factors in assuring liquidity are competitive rates and the maintenance of depositors' confidence. Such confidence is based on a number of factors including the Barclays Group reputation, the strength of earnings and the Barclays Group financial position.

The ability to raise funds is in part dependent on maintaining the Barclays Group credit rating. The funding impact of a credit downgrade is regularly estimated. Whilst the impact of a single downgrade may affect the price at which funding is available, the effect on liquidity is not considered material in group terms.

Liquidity Risk Measurement

Based on principles agreed by the FSA, monitoring and reporting of liquidity risk involves the measurement of cash flows and projections for the next day, week and month.

In addition to cash flow management, treasury also monitors unmatched medium-term assets and the level and type of undrawn lending commitments, the usage of overdraft facilities and the impact of contingent liabilities such as standby letters of credit and guarantees.

Treasury develops and implements the process for submitting the Barclays Group projected cash flows to stress scenarios. The output of stress testing informs the Barclays Group contingency funding plan. This is maintained by Treasury and is aligned with the Barclays Group and country business resumption plans to encompass decision-making authorities, internal and external communication and, in the event of a systems failure, the restoration of liquidity management and payment systems.

Sources of liquidity are regularly reviewed to maintain a wide diversification by currency, geography, provider, product and term. An important source of structural liquidity is provided by our core retail deposits in the UK, Europe and Africa, comprising mainly current accounts and savings accounts. To avoid reliance on a particular group of customers or market sectors, the distribution of sources and the maturity profile of deposits are also carefully managed.

Insurance Risk Management

Insurance risk is the risk that the Barclays Group will have to make higher than anticipated payments to settle claims arising from its long-term and short-term insurance businesses.

Table of Contents

Long-term insurance business

For long-term insurance contracts where death is the insured risk, the most significant factors that could detrimentally affect the frequency and severity of claims are the incidence of disease, such as AIDS, or general changes in lifestyle, such as in eating, exercise and smoking. Where survival is the insured risk, advances in medical care and social conditions are the key factors that increase longevity.

The Barclays Group manages its exposure to risk by operating in part as a unit-linked business, prudent product design, applying strict underwriting criteria, transferring risk to reinsurers, managing claims and establishing prudent reserves.

Short-term insurance business

For payment protection contracts where inability to make payments under a loan contract is the insured risk, the most significant factors are the health of the policyholder and the possibility of unemployment which depends upon, among other things, long-term and short-term economic factors. The Barclays Group manages its exposure to such risks through prudent product design, efficient claims management, prudent reserving methodologies and bases, regular product, economic and market reviews and regular adequacy tests on the size of the reserves.

Absa insures property and motor vehicles, for which the most significant factors that could affect the frequency and severity of claims are climatic change and crime. Absa manages its exposure to risk by diversifying insurance risks accepted and transferring risk to reinsurers.

Derivatives held for risk management

The Barclays Group uses both cash flow hedging and fair value hedging techniques to achieve hedge accounting for interest rate portions. For example, cash flow hedge relationships have been established between interest rate swaps receive fixed with pay variable legs and cash flows generated by customer assets on which we receive a variable interest rate (including forecast customer assets which are expected to be originated in the future). The cash flows on the variable leg of the swap and the interest flows on the assets are both based on the same benchmark rate (e.g. LIBOR or EURIBOR). Fair value hedge relationships are also established between interest rate swaps with receive fixed/pay variable legs and fixed rate liabilities (e.g. issued loan stock).

Various techniques are used to ensure that the hedge relationship results in an effective reduction in the risks intended to be hedged. For cash flow hedging a hypothetical interest rate swap is created which would completely offset the risks which are being hedged. The ratio of movements (due to changes in the risk being hedged) in the fair value of this instrument (or the hedged item for fair value hedges) and the movement in the fair value of the actual interest rate swaps used as hedges is calculated to determine how close the actual interest rate swap is to a perfect hedging instrument.

In some circumstances these ratios are calculated for various scenarios and regression analysis is used to assess the level of effectiveness.

Treasury Policies and Borrowing Requirements

Barclays Group treasury policies are discussed in detail on page 85 of the financial statements of Barclays Group for the financial year ended 31 December 2006 as filed with the SEC on Form 20-F. Analysis and commentary in respect of contractual obligations and other commercial commitments and their respective maturity profiles can be found on page 77 of the financial statements of Barclays Group for the financial year ended 31 December 2006 as filed with the SEC on Form 20-F. Further details on the contractual maturity of all financial instruments and other assets and liabilities are included in the liquidity risk note 56 on page 239 within the financial statements of Barclays Group for the financial year ended 31 December 2006 as filed with the SEC on Form 20-F. 8. Corporate Responsibility

Responsible banking

The past year has seen another marked increase in the profile of corporate responsibility as a topic of global strategic significance. Two issues have dominated debate the emergence of climate change and its consequences as the most pressing challenge facing the world and the evolution of thought on social, ethical and environmental issues under the overarching concept of sustainability .

For Barclays, corporate responsibility is embodied in the concept of responsible banking reflecting its place at the heart of our strategy as an integral part of the way in which Barclays does business. Firmly based on the clear values enshrined in its Guiding Principles, responsible banking means making informed, reasoned and ethical decisions in its business dealings with customers, clients, employees and its other stakeholders. Our Guiding Principles of Winning Together, Customer Focus, The Best People, Pioneering and Trusted describe how Barclays expects its employees to behave with external stakeholders and each other. Responsible banking is the approach by which Barclays aims to progress towards sustainability recognising that Barclays will succeed in its strategic and financial goals only if Barclays has a strong commitment and focus on achieving sustainable outcomes for all stakeholders.

Barclays makes its greatest contribution to society by being good at what it does and by doing so responsibly by helping its customers meet their financial goals through providing competitive products and services that contribute to economic growth, and in contributing to healthy financial systems around the world.

Environment and climate change

The effects of climate change constitute the most pressing challenge to global sustainability and we continue to reflect this in Barclays policies and actions. As a bank, Barclays impacts are both direct through its own operations and indirect through its lending and other business activities with customers and clients.

One of Barclays key initiatives has been to make its UK operations carbon-neutral. Barclays has achieved this through significant investment in energy efficiency and through the purchase of renewable energy 50% of its UK operations are now being supplied from renewable sources. Part of its remaining offset of over 200,000 tonnes of CO₂ is provided through the purchase of carbon credits in the market, together with a strong contribution from community-based sustainable energy schemes such as solar and wind power in Africa and India.

Barclays is also helping to combat climate change through the development of carbon-related products and services, such as its launch of the first carbon-neutral debit card in the UK. Barclays Capital continued to support the vital carbon trading market, where it remains the most active trader. Barclays Natural Resources Team has provided long-term finance for over 2,600MW of renewable generating capacity, including onshore wind-farms, landfill gas extraction plants and bio-diesel conversion plants. Barclays has committed strongly to the efficient management of its resources, reducing waste and increasing recycling. Barclays extended its ISO14001 certified Environmental Management System, with its operations in France and Absa in South Africa becoming the first major banks in those countries to achieve such accreditation.

As a result of this activity, Barclays improved its score in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index, retaining its 1st position amongst global banks for environmental reporting and joint 1st in environmental performance. In the UK, Barclays achieved 2nd position in the Business in the Environment Index.

As a co-founder of the Equator Principles, which require banks to undertake detailed social and environmental impact assessments when financing projects such as dams and mines, Barclays contributed to the revision and strengthening of the Principles. The threshold amount has been reduced from US$50m to US$10m and criteria tightened, such that they now include more robust procedures for public consultation and a greater focus on social impacts.

During the year, Barclays updated its internal environmental and social risk guidance, extending it to over 50 different industry sectors. This guidance, which was developed with input from environmental NGOs, now reflects more explicit information on social and other human rights-related impacts. This review also benefited from Barclays work as the only bank participating in the Business Leaders Initiative on Human Rights. The guidance has been shared with the United Nations Environment Programme Finance Initiative and has been made available to their 167 members around the world.

Barclays employees

The commitment, motivation and talent of Barclays employees lies at the heart of its approach to sustainability. During 2006, Barclays continued its pioneering partnership agreement with Amicus, its UK trade union, and signed a joint Equality Charter that commits us to advancing equality for its employees. Barclays annual independent Employee Opinion Survey showed further improvements. 87% of Barclays colleagues participated in the survey and 84% expressed pride in working for Barclays, with Employee Engagement standing at 76% (72% in 2005). Employee perceptions of Barclays as a responsible company showed further strong progress.

Diversity amongst Barclays employees is both a long-term commitment and a business imperative. 21% of its senior employees are female and this is a start, but Barclays accepts that there is more to do. Barclays boosted its intake of disabled graduates to its summer internship programme with good progress across its businesses and it benefited from a proactive partnership with Spain's Fundación Once.

6% of Barclays UK senior managers are now from an ethnic minority background whilst, over the past five years, the number of Barclays ethnic minority employees in the UK has risen from 7% to 13%. In South Africa, Absa continued to make strong progress with its commitments under the Financial Sector Charter to increase the number of black managers at all levels and, as a sub-set, black female managers.

Occupational health is an important concern for Barclays and it maintains a comprehensive HIV/ AIDS programme across all our African businesses. This provides counselling, testing and treatment, including free antiretroviral drugs, for its employees and their dependants. Barclays also has extensive schemes to support business customers and its wider communities and have been active in supporting malaria programmes in various African countries.

Table of ContentsNotes to the Consolidated Income Statement and Balance Sheet
(unless otherwise stated, all amounts are in millions of euros)*1. Basis of presentation

This interim financial report for the period ended 30 June 2007 is prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. It does not include all of the information required for full annual financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. for the year ended 31 December 2006 as included in the Annual Report 2006. ABN AMRO's 2006 consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (EU) and do not utilise the portfolio hedging carve out permitted by the EU. Accordingly, the accounting policies applied by the Group comply fully with IFRS. In preparing this interim financial report, the same accounting principles and methods of computation are applied as in the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2006 except for the changes stated below. In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations for the interim periods have been made. This interim financial report is unaudited.

Changes in accounting policies

In the first quarter we have revised the presentation of interest income and expense related to trading activities. Trading book interest is no longer separated out and reported within the net interest income line, but in the net trading income line. Trading income now comprises gains and losses on financial instruments held for trading, both realised and unrealised, interest income and dividends as well as the related funding costs. The change in presentation reflects new guidance available in IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosure which replaces the disclosure requirements previously included in IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation whereby the requirements to disclose interest data are now restricted to that relating to activities not held at fair value.

2. DevelopmentsABN AMRO North America Holding Company

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO entered into an agreement to sell ABN AMRO North America Holding Company which principally consists of the retail and commercial banking activities of LaSalle Bank Corporation (LaSalle) to Bank of America. ABN AMRO's North American Asset Management businesses and certain businesses within ABN AMRO's North American Global Markets and Global Clients operations do not form part of the sale. On 13 July 2007 the Supreme Court's ruling confirmed management's view that no shareholder approval was required to execute the sale. The sale is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2007.

Under the sale and purchase agreement the sale price is USD 21 billion. In addition, the sale and purchase agreement articulates that an amount of USD 6 billion of debt, on the basis of the US GAAP financial report of LaSalle, is converted into equity and that ABN AMRO is not entitled to a dividend in respect of the 2007 results. If the cumulative US GAAP result of LaSalle for the period 1 April 2007 till 31 December 2007 (or a proportion thereof if the transaction is settled before the year end), is less than USD 600 million, the sale price will be reduced with the difference.

The asset and liabilities of ABN AMRO North America Holding Company are presented as assets of businesses held for sale and liabilities of businesses held for sale respectively. The net result of these discontinued operations for the period to 30 June 2007 is presented as profit from discontinued operations net of tax. For more details on the presentation of discontinued operations please refer to note 11 of this interim financial report.

The transaction is expected to be settled in the fourth quarter. We currently estimate the gain on the sale to be in the range of EUR 7 billion to EUR 7.5 billion.

ABN AMRO Capital

During the quarter, ABN AMRO sold a majority of the shares of AAC Capital Holdings B.V., the management company of certain private equity investments held by the Group, to the executives of the management company. Also as part of the sale, the Bank transferred all power to govern the financial and operating policies of the management company and all investment decisions related to a significant portion of the Group's private equity investments (the Dutch, Nordic and UK business of ABN AMRO Capital) resulting in the loss of control over these investments to a management company outside of ABN AMRO. The ownership of the underlying investments and therefore the economic interest in the investments has not changed. The loss of control over the management company resulted in the concerned investments to no longer be consolidated in the financial statements of the Group. As of the date of the transaction the investments are recognised and carried at fair value with changes through income. This transaction has resulted in a gain from financial transactions of EUR 108 million.

Update on status of US Department of Justice investigation

As previously disclosed, the United States Department of Justice has been conducting a criminal investigation into the Bank's dollar clearing activities, OFAC compliance procedures and other Bank Secrecy Act compliance matters. The Bank has cooperated and continues to cooperate fully with the investigation. Although no written agreement has yet been reached and negotiations are ongoing, the Bank has reached an agreement in principle with the Department of Justice that would resolve all presently known aspects of the ongoing investigation.

Under the terms of the agreement in principle, the Bank and the United States would enter into a deferred prosecution agreement relating to the issues that are the subject of the current criminal investigation. In the deferred prosecution agreement, the Bank would waive indictment and agree to the filing of an information in the United States District Court charging it with certain violations of federal law based on information disclosed in an agreed factual statement. The Bank would also agree to continue cooperating in the United States ongoing investigation and to settle all known civil and criminal claims currently held by the United States for the sum of USD 500 million. The precise terms of the deferred prosecution agreement are still under negotiation.

In consideration for the foregoing provisions, as well as the Bank's extensive remedial actions to date and its willingness to demonstrate future good conduct and full compliance with all applicable federal laws, the United States would recommend to the United States District Court that the prosecution of the Bank under the information be deferred for a fixed period. At the end of that fixed period, provided the Bank is in full compliance with all of its obligations under the deferred prosecution agreement, the United States would seek dismissal with prejudice of the information filed against the Bank. The precise terms of the deferred prosecution agreement and agreed factual statement are still under negotiation.

Main acquisitionsPrime Bank Ltd (Pakistan)

On 5 March 2007 ABN AMRO entered into agreements to acquire a controlling interest of 93.4% in Prime Bank, Pakistan. Through the subsequent tender offer for all remaining shares of Prime Bank that expired on 29 March 2007 ABN AMRO obtained additional shares representing 2.8%, bringing the total stake in Prime Bank to 96.2%. The transactions were closed on 5 April 2007. The total consideration paid amounts to EUR 176 million. The provisional goodwill arising from the acquisition was calculated at EUR 163 million. The preliminary allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired, including newly identifiable assets resulting from the acquisition, and (contingent) liabilities assumed, using their fair values at the acquisition date and the resulting goodwill is based on provisional fair values of assets acquired and (contingent) liabilities assumed, and may be adjusted during the period up to one year after acquisition as more information is obtained about these fair values.

Main Disposals

Private Banking operations in Miami and Montevideo

In April 2007, BU Private Banking disposed of its operations in Miami and Montevideo. Banco Itau, a privately-owned bank with its headquarters in Sao Paulo, Brazil, acquired these operations through an auction process. The profit recognised on the sale, included in other operating income, amounted to EUR 72 million after tax.

ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc.

On 28 February 2007 ABN AMRO closed the sale of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., its US-based residential mortgage broker origination platform and servicing business, which includes ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, InterFirst and Mortgage.com, to Citigroup. Citigroup purchased approximately EUR 7.8 billion of net assets, of which approximately EUR 2.1 billion consist of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group's mortgage servicing rights associated with its EUR 170 billion mortgage servicing portfolio. The profit on the sale amounted to EUR 93 million after tax and is included in Profit from discontinued operations net of tax (see note 11 for more details).

Private Equity

There were no major divestments in the second quarter 2007.

Major divestment in the first quarter 2007 was:

Holiday Park Ltd./Beach Equity Ltd. (UK, leisure).

3. Segment reporting

Segment information is presented in respect of the Group's business. The primary presentation, business segments, is consistent with the Group's management and internal reporting structure applicable in the financial year.

Measurement of segment assets, liabilities, income and results is based on the Group's accounting policies. Segment assets, liabilities, income and results include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis. Transactions between segments are conducted at arm's length.

As of 1 January 2007, the result of product BU Global Clients are being reported in the regional BUs. This has been done to further drive close cooperation and synergies between the product focused BU Global Clients and the regions. In addition Asset Management France and the International Diamonds and Jewelry Group have been transferred from BU Private Clients to BU Asset Management and Group Functions respectively. The comparative segment figures of 2006 have been restated.

Business segments

Below the business segments are described. In the Business review chapter of the 2006 Annual Report more detailed descriptions of the activities of these segments are included.

Netherlands

BU Netherlands serves a diverse client base that comprises consumer and commercial clients. BU Netherlands offers a broad range of investment, commercial and retail banking products and services via its multi-channel service model consisting of a network of branches, internet banking facilities, a customer contact center and ATMs throughout the Netherlands. BU Netherlands focuses increasingly on mass affluent customers and commercial mid-market clients. BU Netherlands also comprises the ABN AMRO Mortgage Group including the former Bouwfonds mortgage activities.

Table of Contents

Europe (including Antonveneta)

BU Europe provides its consumer and commercial clients with a range of financial products and services. BU Europe combines activities in 27 countries: 23 countries in Europe (excluding the Netherlands) along with Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Egypt and South Africa.

Antonveneta is rooted in north-eastern Italy, and focuses on consumer and commercial mid-market clients.

North America

The core of BU North America is LaSalle Bank, headquartered in Chicago, Illinois. BU North America serves a large number of clients, including small businesses, mid-market companies, larger corporates, institutions, non-profit entities and municipalities in the US and Canada. BU North America offers a broad range of investment, commercial and retail banking products and services through a network of branches and ATMs in Illinois, Michigan and Indiana. BU North America focuses increasingly on mass affluent customers and commercial mid-market clients. While based in the US Midwest, BU North America reaches further through an expanding network of regional commercial banking offices across the US. The activities of ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. were sold in the first quarter of 2007.

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO entered into an agreement to sell ABN AMRO North America Holding Company which principally consists of the retail and commercial banking activities of LaSalle Bank Corporation (LaSalle) to Bank of America. For further disclosure on this sale please refer to note 2 and note 11 of this interim financial report.

Latin America

BU Latin America has a presence in nine Latin American countries: Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Paraguay, Uruguay and Venezuela, with the presence of Banco Real representing the majority of the operations. In Brazil, Banco Real is a retail and commercial bank, offering full retail, corporate and investment banking products and services. It operates as a universal bank offering financial services through an extensive network of branches, points-of-sale and ATMs. BU Latin America also has a strong presence in the Brazilian consumer finance business through its Aymoré franchise, focused on vehicle and other consumer goods financing.

Asia

ABN AMRO has been operating for well over 100 years in several Asian countries including Indonesia, China, Singapore and Japan. BU Asia now covers 16 countries and territories and is extending its branches and offices network. BU Asia's client base includes commercial clients as well as consumer and private banking clients.

Private Clients

BU Private Clients offers private banking services to wealthy individuals and institutions with EUR 1 million or more in net investable assets. In the past few years, BU Private Clients built up an onshore private banking network in continental Europe through organic growth in the Netherlands and France, and through the acquisition of Delbrück Bethmann Maffei in Germany and Bank Corluy in Belgium.

Asset Management

BU Asset Management is ABN AMRO's global asset management business. BU Asset Management operates in 26 countries worldwide, offering investment products in all major regions and asset classes. Its products are distributed directly to institutional clients such as central banks, pension funds, insurance companies and leading charities. Funds for private investors are distributed through ABN AMRO's consumer and private banking arms, as well as via third-party distributors such as insurance companies and other banks. The institutional client business represents just over half of the assets managed by BU Asset Management. Consumer and third-party clients account for a further 30%, and the remainder is in discretionary portfolios managed for BU Private Clients.

Table of Contents

Private Equity

The business model of ABN AMRO's Private Equity unit branded as ABN AMRO Capital involves providing capital and expertise to non-listed companies in a variety of sectors. By obtaining, in most cases, a majority stake, Private Equity gains the ability to influence the company's growth strategy and increase its profitability. It then aims to sell its shareholding at a profit after a number of years. Private Equity specialises in European mid-market buyouts, but also manages a portfolio of investments in Australian buyouts, non-controlling and controlling shareholdings in small to medium sized Dutch companies (participaties), and dedicated media and telecom sector investments. It operates from seven offices across Europe and Australia.

As a result of the sale of the majority of the shares in AAC Capital Holdings B.V. to the management of this company, as described in note 2 of this interim financial report, the Group will only act as an investor for these investments going forward and will no longer participate actively in the management of the acquired investments.

Group Functions

Group Functions provides guidance on ABN AMRO's corporate strategy and supports the implementation of the strategy in accordance with our Managing for Value methodology, Corporate Values and Business Principles. By aligning and uniting functions across ABN AMRO's BUs and geographical territories, Group Functions also facilitates Group-wide sharing of best practices, innovation and positioning to public authorities, and binds the bank together in both an operational and cultural sense.

Group Functions includes Group Asset and Liability Management, which manages an investment and derivatives portfolio in order to manage the liquidity and interest rate risks of the Group. Group Functions also holds the Group's strategic investments, proprietary trading portfolio, the International Diamonds & Jewelry Group and records any related profits or losses.

Other employee costs	623	542	323	343
Total	4,281	3,596	2,183	1,843

The increase in personnel expenses in the first half of 2007 is mainly caused by an increase in performance related bonuses compared to the comparable period in 2006.

Table of Contents10. Income tax expense

The effective tax rate on operating profit from continuing operations for the first half year 2007 is 20.7% compared to a nominal tax rate in the Netherlands of 25.5%. Over the full year 2006 the effective tax rate was 17.7%.

The effective tax rate on the Group's profit before tax differs from the nominal tax charge in the Netherlands. The reasons for the deviation in the first half year of 2007 are mainly tax credits received by the Group and tax exempt gains. The effective tax rate in the first half year of 2007 is higher than over the full year 2006 as a result of relatively higher tax credits and higher tax exempt income over the full year 2006 compared to the first half year of 2007.

11. Profit from discontinued operations net of tax and assets and liabilities of businesses held for sale

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO entered into an agreement to sell ABN AMRO North America Holding Company which principally consists of the retail and commercial banking activities of LaSalle Bank Corporation (LaSalle) to Bank of America. ABN AMRO's North American Asset Management businesses and certain businesses within ABN AMRO's North American Global Markets and Global Clients operations do not form part of the sale. The sale is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2007. The results of the business under the sale agreement are presented as profit from discontinued operations net of tax. The relating assets and liabilities have been presented as assets and liabilities of businesses held for sale as of this quarter.

Also the results of the national residential mortgage line of business (ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc.), a subsidiary of ABN AMRO LaSalle Bank Midwest are presented as discontinued operations. The sale transaction closed on 28 February 2007.

The comparatives of 2006 furthermore include ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. and Bouwfonds non-mortgage. Income statement of discontinued operations:

The operating expenses relating to LaSalle as included in the table above and below have been adjusted for the certain global overhead charges from the Group to LaSalle that are considered to be fixed in the short run. Despite the sale of LaSalle the Group will remain to incur these costs. These global overhead charges have as a result been presented as operating expenses from continuing operations. For the year-to-date 2007 period the amount is EUR 75 million and for the comparative period in 2006 the amount is EUR 73 million. The amount for the second quarter of 2007 is EUR 44 million and for the comparative period in 2006 EUR 36 million.

Compared to 31 December 2006 goodwill increased by EUR 232 million. EUR 163 million is attributable to the acquisition of Prime Bank Ltd (Pakistan) on 5 April 2007 (see note 2 Developments) and EUR 63 million to the acquisition of the remaining outstanding shares (5.42%) in Banco Sudameris Brasil S.A. by Banco Real on 13 March 2007.

The decrease of goodwill of private equity investments by EUR 2.1 billion is a result of the deconsolidation of private equity investments (refer to note 2 of this interim financial report).

Impairment testing of goodwill

Goodwill has been allocated for impairment testing purposes to individual cash-generating units within the business. Within the 5,233 million total carrying amount of goodwill and goodwill of private equity, 4,399 million of goodwill allocated to the Antonveneta cash-generating unit is the only significant individual carrying amount. The remaining 834 million of goodwill is allocated across multiple cash-generating units whose recoverable amounts are assessed independently of one another.

During the second quarter of 2007, we identified that the half year financial performance of the Antonveneta cash-generating unit was lower than previously forecasted. We considered the reduced financial performance an indicator of goodwill impairment and therefore tested the goodwill attributable to the Antonveneta cash-generating unit for impairment.

In an impairment test, it is assessed whether the recoverable amount of a cash-generating unit is the higher of the cash-generating unit's fair value less cost to sell and the cash generating unit's value in use. The higher recoverable amount of Antonveneta at 30 June 2007 is the fair value less cost to sell. As there is no observable market price for the Antonveneta cash-generating unit, fair value has been estimated using an earnings multiple approach. This approach multiplies a current best estimate of forecasted earnings by a price-earnings ratio. Our approach multiplies Antonveneta's forecasted net profit figure for 2007 by the average applicable earnings multiple of observed transactions within the Italian banking market during the past two years.

Management's test resulted in the recoverable amount of Antonveneta marginally exceeding the carrying amount. As a result no impairment charge was recorded. The outcome of the impairment test is sensitive to both the earnings multiplier and the forecasted earnings itself.

Issued liabilities qualify as subordinated debt if claims by the holders are subordinated to all other current and future liabilities of, respectively, ABN AMRO Holding N.V, ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and other Group

120

companies. These liabilities qualify as capital, taking into account remaining maturities, for the purpose of determining the consolidated capital adequacy ratio for the Dutch central bank.

The maturity profile of subordinated liabilities is as follows:

	30 June 2007	31 December 2006
Within one year	1,057	1,372
After one and within two years	1,556	1,833
After two and within three years	1,471	3,496
After three and within four years	779	1,323
After four and within five years	23	937
After five years	9,821	10,252
Total	14,707	19,213

Total subordinated liabilities include EUR 2,027 million (December 2006: EUR 6,122 million) which qualify as tier 1 capital for capital adequacy purposes. Another EUR 4,000 million of subordinated liabilities which also qualify as tier 1 capital is presented as liabilities of businesses held for sale in connection with the sale agreement of LaSalle.

22. Commitments and contingent liabilitiesLoan and banking commitments

The contractual amounts of commitments and contingent liabilities are set out by category in the following table. The amounts for commitments are presented on a fully advanced basis. Guarantees and letters of credit represent the maximum accounting loss that would be recognised at the balance sheet date if the relevant contract parties completely failed to perform as contracted.

	30 June 2007	31 December 2006
Contingent liabilities with respect to guarantees granted	51,925	46,026
Contingent liabilities with respect to irrevocable letters of credit	5,689	5,253
Committed credit facilities	151,607	145,418

Many of the contingent liabilities and commitments will expire without being advanced in whole or in part. This means that the amounts stated do not represent expected future cash flows. Additionally, guarantees and letters of credit are supported by varying levels of collateral.

Other contingencies

Legal proceedings have been initiated against the Group in a number of jurisdictions, but on the basis of information currently available, and having taken legal counsel, the Group is of the opinion that the outcome of these proceedings net of any related insurance claims is unlikely to have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position and the consolidated profit of the Group.

23. Capital adequacy

To monitor the adequacy of capital the Group uses ratios established by the Bank for International Settlements (BIS). These ratios measure capital adequacy (minimum 8% as required by BIS) by comparing the Group's eligible capital with its balance sheet assets, off-balance sheet commitments and market and other risk positions at weighted amounts to reflect their relative risk. The market risk approach covers the general market risk and the risk of open positions in currencies and debt and equity securities primarily in the trading book. Assets are weighted according to broad categories of notional risk, being assigned a risk weighting according to the amount of capital deemed to be necessary to support them.

Tier 1 capital consists of shareholders' equity and qualifying subordinated liabilities less goodwill and some intangible assets. Tier 2 capital represents additional qualifying subordinated liabilities, taking into account the remaining maturities.

Core tier 1 capital is tier 1 capital excluding preference shares.

24. Private equity investments

Private equity investments are either consolidated or held at fair value.

Consolidated private equity holdings

Investments of a private equity nature that are controlled by the Group are consolidated. Such holdings represent a wide range of non-banking activities. Personnel and other costs relating to production and manufacturing activities are presented within goods and material expenses of consolidated private equity holdings. The impact of consolidating on the income statement these investments is set out in the table below. The results of operations from the investments deconsolidated on 30 June 2007, have continued

The assets and liabilities of these consolidated holdings are included in the Group balance sheet. Given the non-banking nature of the underlying activities the main lines impacted are goodwill, property and equipment, other assets and issued debt securities. The total assets of the remaining consolidated entities at 30 June 2007 were EUR 1,700 million (31 December 2006: EUR 4,537 million) excluding goodwill.

25. Subsequent events*ABN AMRO Mellon Global Securities Services*

On 5 July 2007, Mellon Bank N.A. has agreed to purchase ABN AMRO's 50% share in ABN AMRO Mellon Global Securities Services B.V., the joint venture company established by the shareholders in 2003 to provide global custody and related services to institutions outside North America. The transaction, which is subject to certain conditions including regulatory and other approvals, is expected to close during the third quarter 2007. After the close ABN AMRO Mellon will become part of The Bank of New York Company and Mellon Financial Corporation. ABN AMRO Mellon is presented as held for sale in the balance sheet.

REPORT ON REVIEW OF INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION

To the Supervisory Board and Managing Board of ABN AMRO Holding N.V.

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed interim financial report consisting of the consolidated balance sheet of ABN AMRO Holding N.V., Amsterdam, The Netherlands (the Company) as at 30 June 2007 and the related interim condensed consolidated statements of income, changes in equity and cash flows for the three- and six-month period then ended and condensed explanatory notes (as set out in annex 3, further referred to as interim financial report). Company s management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this interim financial report accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards applicable to interim financial reporting as adopted by the European Union (IAS 34). Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on these interim financial report based on our review.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity . A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim financial report is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34.

Table of ContentsPART B ABN AMRO HOLDING N.V. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS 2006*Corporate Information

ABN AMRO Holding N.V. is the ultimate parent company of the ABN AMRO consolidated group of companies (referred to in this Part B of Part VIII (Historical Financial Information Relating to ABN AMRO) as the Group or ABN AMRO). The Group provides a broad range of financial services on a worldwide basis, including consumer, commercial and investment banking.

At 1 January 2006, the Group changed its organisational structure, to align the organisation with the Group's mid-market strategy, and to open up its network offering and product suite to all its clients. The change to the organisational structure and the principal activities of the Group are described in more detail in note 1, Segment reporting.

ABN AMRO Holding N.V. is a public limited liability company, incorporated under Dutch law on 30 May 1990, whose registered office is Gustav Mahlerlaan 10, 1082 PP Amsterdam, the Netherlands. The Group is listed on the Stock Exchanges of Amsterdam and New York. As ordinary shares in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. are listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) in the form of American Depositary Receipts, ABN AMRO also publishes an annual report on Form 20-F that conforms to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) applicable to foreign registrants. The annual report on Form 20-F includes a reconciliation of equity and profit attributable to shareholders of the parent company to the comparable amounts using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP).

The consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2006 incorporate figures of the parent, its controlled entities and interests in associates. These consolidated financial statements were authorised for issuance in accordance with a resolution of the Managing Board on 14 March 2007.

Basis of preparation

ABN AMRO Group applies International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

The consolidated financial statements are prepared on a mixed model valuation basis as follows:

Fair value is used for: derivative financial instruments, financial assets and liabilities held for trading or designated as measured at fair value through income, and available-for-sale financial assets

Other financial assets (including Loans and Receivables) and liabilities are valued at amortised cost

The carrying value of assets and liabilities measured at amortised cost included in a fair value hedge relationship is adjusted with respect to fair value changes resulting from the hedged risk

Non-financial assets and liabilities are generally stated at historical cost.

The Group adopted IFRS on 1 January 2004. For all periods up to and including the year ended 31 December 2004, the Group prepared consolidated financial statements in accordance with Generally Accepted Principles in the Netherlands (Dutch GAAP). The effect of the transition to IFRS, and the elections and exemptions which were used as part of the transition process, are disclosed in note 47, First-time adoption of IFRS.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in euros, which is the presentation currency of the Group, rounded to the nearest million (unless otherwise noted). Certain amounts in the prior periods have been reclassified to conform to the current presentation.

Statement of compliance

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (EU). The Group does not utilise the portfolio hedging carve out permitted by the EU. Accordingly, the accounting policies applied by the Group comply fully with IFRS.

Critical accounting policies

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make difficult, complex or subjective judgements and estimates, at times, regarding matters that are inherently uncertain. These judgements and estimates affect reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those judgements and estimates. The most significant areas requiring management to make judgements and estimates that affect reported amounts and disclosures are as follows:

Allowance for loan losses

Allowances for loan losses are made to reserve for estimated losses in outstanding loans for which there is any doubt about the borrower's capacity to repay the principal and/or the interest. The allowance for loan losses is intended to adjust the value of the Group's loan assets for probable credit losses as of the balance sheet date. Allowances are determined through a combination of specific reviews, statistical modeling and estimates. Certain aspects require judgements, such as the identification of loans that are deteriorating, the determination of the probability of default, the expected loss, the value of collateral and current economic conditions. Though we consider the allowances for loan losses to be adequate, the use of different estimates and assumptions could produce different allowances for loan losses, and amendments to allowances may be required in the future, as a consequence of changes in the value of collateral, the amounts of cash to be received or other economic events. For a further discussion on our allowance for loan losses, see note 19 to our consolidated financial statements.

Fair value of financial instruments

For financial instruments that are actively traded and have quoted market prices or parameters readily available, there is little to no subjectivity to determine fair value. When observable market prices and parameters do not exist, management judgement is necessary to estimate fair value.

Where no active market exists, or quoted prices are unobtainable, the fair value is estimated using a variety of valuation techniques, including discounted cash flow and other pricing models. Input to pricing models are generally taken from reliable external data sources. The models used are validated prior to use by staff independent to the initial selection or creation of the model. The degree of management judgement involved in determining the fair value of a financial instrument is dependent upon the availability of quoted market prices or observable market parameters. Other factors that could affect estimates are incorrect model assumptions, market dislocations and unexpected correlation. We believe our estimates of fair value are adequate. However, the use of different models or assumptions could result in changes in our reported results. For a further discussion on the use of fair values and the impact of applying reasonable possible alternative assumptions as inputs, see note 38 to our consolidated financial statements.

Assessment of risk and rewards

When considering the recognition and derecognition of assets or liabilities, and the consolidation and deconsolidation of subsidiaries, the Group is required to use judgment in assessing risk and rewards. Although management uses its best knowledge of current events and actions in making assessments of risk and rewards, actual risks and rewards may ultimately differ.

Pension and post-retirement benefits

Significant pension and post-retirement benefit costs and credits are based on actuarial calculations. Inherent within these calculations are assumptions including: discount rates, salary increases and the expected return on plan assets. Changes in pension and post-retirement costs may occur in the future as a consequence of changes in interest rates, the return on assets or other factors. For a further discussion on the underlying assumptions, see note 28 to our consolidated financial statements.

Goodwill and intangible assets

Goodwill is not amortised but is subject to an annual test for impairment or more frequently if events or circumstances, such as adverse changes in the business climate, indicate that there may be justification for conducting an interim test. The initial recognition and measurement of goodwill and other intangibles, and subsequent impairment analysis, requires management to make subjective judgements concerning estimates of how the acquired asset will perform in the future using a discounted cash flow analysis. Additionally, estimated cash flows may extend beyond ten years and, by their nature, are difficult to determine over an extended timeframe. Events and factors that may significantly affect the estimates include, among others, competitive forces, customer behaviours and attrition, changes in revenue growth trends, cost structures and technology, and changes in discount rates and specific industry or market sector conditions. Other intangibles are systematically amortised over their estimated useful lives, and are subject to impairment if events or circumstances indicate a possible inability to realise their carrying amount.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements are prepared annually for the Group for the year ended 31 December and include the parent company and its controlled subsidiaries as well as joint ventures on a proportionate share basis. The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting year using consistent accounting policies.

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are those enterprises controlled by the Group. Control is deemed to exist when the Group has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an enterprise so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are presently exercisable or convertible are taken into account when assessing whether control exists. The Group sponsors the formation of entities, including certain special purpose entities, which may or may not be directly owned, for the purpose of asset securitisation transactions and other narrow and well-defined objectives. Particularly in the case of securitisations these entities may acquire assets from other Group companies. Some of these entities hold assets that are not available to meet the claims of creditors of the Group or any of its subsidiaries. Such entities are consolidated in the Group's financial statements when the substance of the relationship between the Group and the entity indicates that control is held by the Group.

The financial statements of subsidiaries and special purpose entities are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which control commences until the date on which control ceases. Equity attributable to minority interests is shown separately in the consolidated balance sheet as part of total equity and current period profit or loss attributable to minority interests are presented as an attribution of profit for the year.

Business combinations

IFRS 3 Business combinations was adopted for all business combinations that took place after 1 January 2004. Goodwill on acquisitions prior to this date was charged against equity. The cost of an acquisition is measured at the fair value of the assets given up, shares issued or liabilities undertaken at the date of acquisition, plus costs directly attributable to the acquisition. The excess of the cost of acquisition over the Group's share of the fair value of the identifiable net assets (including certain contingent liabilities) acquired is recorded as goodwill.

In a step acquisition, where control is obtained in stages, all assets and liabilities of the acquired subsidiary, excluding goodwill, are adjusted to their fair values at the date of the latest share acquisition transaction.

Fair value adjustments relating to existing holdings are recorded directly in equity.

As a consequence of measuring all the acquired assets and liabilities at fair value, minority interests are calculated by reference to these fair values.

Investments in associates

Associates are those enterprises in which the Group has significant influence (this is generally demonstrated when the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights), but not control, over the operating and financial policies.

If significant influence is held in a Private Equity portfolio the investment is designated to be held at fair value with changes through income, consistent with the management basis for such investments.

Other investments in which significant influence is held, including the Group's strategic investments, are accounted for using the Net equity method and presented as Equity accounted investments. Under this method the investment is initially recorded at cost and subsequently increased (or decreased) for post acquisition net income (or loss), other movements impacting the equity of the investee and any adjustments required for impairment. When the Group's share of losses exceeds the carrying amount of the investment, the carrying amount is reduced to zero, including any other unsecured receivables, and recognition of further losses is discontinued except to the extent that the Group has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the investee.

Table of ContentsJointly controlled entities

Jointly controlled entities are those enterprises over whose activities the Group has joint control, established by contractual agreement. The consolidated financial statements include the Group's proportionate share of these enterprises' assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses on a line-by-line basis, from the date on which joint control commences until the date on which joint control ceases.

Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations

Non-current assets and/or businesses are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount is to be recovered principally through a sale transaction planned to occur within 12 months, rather than through continuing use. Held for sale assets are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Assets and liabilities of a business held for sale are separately presented.

The results of discontinued operations (an operation that represents a separate major line of business or a geographical area of operation) are presented in the income statement as a single amount comprising the net profit and/or net loss of the discontinued operation and the after tax gain or loss realised on disposal. Comparative income statement data is re-presented if in the current period an activity qualifies as discontinuing and qualifies for separate presentation.

Private equity

Investments of a private equity nature controlled by the Group are consolidated. All other investments of a private equity nature are designated at fair value through income.

Transactions eliminated on consolidation

Intra-group balances and transactions, and any related unrealised gains, are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised gains arising from transactions with associates and jointly controlled entities are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the enterprise. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of impairment in the asset transferred.

Summary of significant accounting policiesCurrency translation differences

The financial performance of the Group's foreign operations (conducted through branches, subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures) is reported using the currency (functional currency) that best reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and circumstances relevant to that entity.

Transactions in a currency that differs from the functional currency of the transacting entity are translated into the functional currency at the foreign exchange rate at transaction date. Accruals and deferrals are translated using the foreign exchange rate on the last day of the month to which the results relate.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities accounted for at cost, if denominated in foreign currency, are translated at the foreign exchange rate prevailing at the date of initial recognition.

Currency translation differences on all monetary financial assets and liabilities are included in foreign exchange gains and losses in income. Translation differences on non-monetary items (such as equities) held at fair value through income are also reported through income and, for those classified as available-for-sale, directly in equity within Net unrealised gains and losses on available-for-sale assets. The assets and liabilities of foreign operations, including goodwill and purchase accounting adjustments, are translated to the Group's presentation currency, the euro, at the foreign exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. The income and expenses of foreign operations are translated to the euro at the rates prevailing at the end of the month. Currency translation differences arising on these translations are recognised directly in equity (currency translation account). Exchange differences recorded in equity, arising after transition to IFRS on 1 January 2004, are included in the income statement on disposal or partial disposal of the operation.

Table of ContentsFiduciary activities

The Group commonly acts as trustee and in other fiduciary capacities that entail either the holding or placing of assets on behalf of individuals, trusts or other institutions. These assets are not assets of the Group and are therefore not included in these financial statements.

Income statementInterest income and expenses

Interest income and expense is recognised in the income statement using the effective interest rate method. The application of this method includes the amortisation of any discount or premium or other differences, including transaction costs and qualifying fees and commissions, between the initial carrying amount of an interest-bearing instrument and its amount at maturity calculated on an effective interest rate basis. This item also includes interest income and expense in relation to trading balances.

Fee and commission income

Fees and commissions are recognised as follows:

Fees and commissions generated as an integral part of negotiating and arranging a funding transaction with customers, such as the issuance of loans are included in the calculation of the effective interest rate and are included in interest income and expense

Fees and commissions generated for transactions or discrete acts are recognised when the transaction or act is completed

Fees and commissions dependent on the outcome of a particular event or contingent upon performance are recognised when the relevant criteria have been met

Service fees are typically recognised on a straight-line basis over the service contract period; portfolio and other management advisory and service fees are recognised based on the applicable service contracts

Asset management fees related to investment funds are also recognised over the period the service is provided. This principle is also applied to the recognition of income from wealth management, financial planning and custody services that are provided over an extended period.

Net trading income

Net trading income includes gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value and disposal of financial assets and liabilities held for trading and includes dividends received from trading instruments. Interest income or expenses on trading assets or liabilities are included within interest income or expense.

Results from financial transactions

Results from financial transactions include gains and losses on the sale of non-trading financial assets and liabilities, ineffectiveness of certain hedging programmes, the change in fair value of derivatives used to hedge credit risks that are not included in hedge accounting relationships, fair value changes relating to assets and liabilities designated at fair value through income and changes in the value of any related derivatives. Dividend income from non-trading equity investments is recognised when entitlement is established.

Other operating income

Development property income is first recognised when the outcome of a construction contract can be estimated reliably after which contract income and expenses are recognised in the income statement in proportion to the stage of completion of the contract. The stage of completion is assessed by reference to the phases of work performed. An expected loss on a contract is recognised immediately in the income statement.

Rental income from investment property is recognised in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives granted are recognised as an integral part of the total rental income.

Table of Contents

Income from insurance activities is presented net of direct costs and provisions required for the insured risk.

Earnings per share

Earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to shareholders of the parent company from continuing and discontinuing operations by the average number of shares in issuance during the year. Fully diluted earnings per share is calculated taking into account all dilutive instruments, including options and employee share plans, in issuance at the balance sheet date.

Segment reporting

Business segments are the primary reporting segments and are grouped by the nature of risks and rewards assessed by reference to product and service characteristics. Geographical segments are grouped based on a combination of proximity, relationships between operations and economic and currency similarities. Geographical data is presented according to the location of the transacting Group entity.

Financial assets and liabilitiesMeasurement classifications

The Group classifies its financial assets and liabilities into the following measurement (valuation) categories:

Financial instruments held for trading are those that the Group holds primarily for the purpose of short-term profit-taking. These include shares, interest earning securities, and liabilities from short sales of financial instruments.

Derivatives are financial instruments that require little or no initial net investment, with future settlements dependent on a reference benchmark index, rate or price (such as interest rates or equity prices). Changes in expected future cash flows in response to changes in the underlying benchmark determine the fair value of derivatives. All derivatives are recorded in the balance sheet at fair value. Changes in the fair value of derivative instruments are recorded in income, except when designated in cash flow or net investment hedge relationship (see hedging below).

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted on an active market. They generally arise when the Group provides money or services directly to a customer with no intention of trading or selling the loan.

Held-to-maturity assets are non-derivative financial assets quoted on an active market with fixed or determinable payments (i.e. debt instruments) and a fixed maturity that the Group has the intention and ability to hold to maturity.

Designated at fair value through income are financial assets and financial liabilities that the Group upon initial recognition (or on transition to IFRS on 1 January 2004) designates to be measured at fair value with changes reported in income. Such a designation is done if:

The instrument includes an embedded derivative that would otherwise require separation. This applies to certain structured notes issued with hybrid features. Fair value measurement also helps to achieve offset against changes in the value of derivatives and other fair value positions used to economically hedge these notes.

The designation eliminates or significantly reduce a measurement inconsistency that would otherwise arise. In this regard unit-linked investments held for the account and risk of policyholders and the related obligation to policyholders are designated at fair value with changes through income.

It relates to a portfolio of financial assets and/or liabilities that are managed and evaluated on a fair value basis.

This is applied to equity investments of a private equity nature and mortgages that are originated held for sale by our business in North America.

Available-for-sale assets include interest earning assets that have either been designated as available for sale or do not fit into one of the categories described above. Equity investments held without significant influence, which are not held for trading or elected to fair value through income are classified as available-for-sale.

Table of Contents

Non-trading financial liabilities that are not designated at fair value through income are measured at amortised cost.

Recognition and derecognition

Traded instruments are recognised on trade date, defined as the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the underlying instrument. Where settlement terms are non-standard the commitment is accounted for as a derivative between trade and settlement date. Loans and receivables are recognised when they are acquired or funded by the Group and derecognised when settled. Issued debt is recognised when issued and deposits are recognised when the cash is deposited with the Group. Other financial assets and liabilities, including derivatives, are recognised in the balance sheet when the Group becomes party to the contractual provisions of the asset or liability.

Financial assets are generally derecognised when the Group loses control or the ability to obtain benefits over the contractual rights that comprise that asset. This occurs when the rights are realised, expire or are fully transferred. If a servicing function is retained, which is profitable, a servicing asset is recognised. A financial liability is derecognised when the obligations specified in the contract are discharged, are cancelled or expire.

Financial instruments continue to be recognised in the balance sheet, and a liability recognised for the proceeds of any related funding transaction, unless a fully proportional share of all or specifically identified cash flows are transferable to the lender without material delay and the lenders claim is limited to those cash flows, in which case that proportion of the asset is derecognised, or substantially all the risks and returns and control associated with the financial instruments have been transferred in which case the assets are derecognised in full.

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when settled or if the Group repurchases its own debt. The difference between the former carrying amount and the consideration paid is included in results on financial transactions in income. Any subsequent resale is treated as a new issuance.

The Group securitises various consumer and commercial financial assets. This process generally necessitates a sale of these assets to a special purpose entity (SPE), which in turn issues securities to investors. The Group's interests in securitised assets may be retained in the form of senior or subordinated tranches, issued guarantees, interest-only strips or other residual interests, together referred to as retained interest. In many cases these retained interests are significant, such that the SPE is consolidated, and the securitised assets continue to be recognised in the consolidated balance sheet.

Measurement

All trading instruments and financial assets and liabilities designated at fair value are measured at fair value, with transaction costs related to the purchase as well as fair value changes taken to income directly. All derivatives are recorded in the balance sheet at fair value with changes recorded through income unless the derivative qualifies for cash flow hedging accounting.

Available-for-sale assets are held at fair value with unrealised gains and losses recognised directly in equity, net of applicable taxes. Premiums, discounts and qualifying transaction costs of interest earning available-for-sale assets are amortised to income on an effective interest rate basis. When available-for-sale assets are sold, collected or impaired the cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to results from financial transactions in income.

All other financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at cost including directly attributable incremental transaction costs. They are subsequently valued at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. Through use of the effective interest rate method, premiums and discounts, including qualifying transaction costs, included in the carrying amount of the related instrument are amortised over the period to maturity or expected prepayment on the basis of the instrument's original effective interest rate.

When available, fair values are obtained from quoted market prices in liquid markets. Where no active market exists, or quoted prices are unobtainable, the fair value is estimated using a variety of valuation techniques including discounted cash flow and other pricing models. Inputs to pricing models are generally market-based when available and taken from reliable external data sources. The models used are validated prior to the use for financial reporting by staff independent of the initial selection or creation of the model. Where inputs cannot be reliably sourced from external providers, the initial recognition value of a financial asset or liability is taken to be the settled value at trade inception. The initial change in fair value indicated by the valuation technique is then released to income at appropriate points over the life of the instrument (typically taking account of the ability to obtain reliable external data, the passage of time and the use of offsetting transactions). Where discounted cash flow techniques are used, estimated future cash flows are based on management's best estimates and the discount rate applied is a market-related rate at the balance sheet date for an instrument with similar terms and conditions. Fair values include appropriate adjustments to reflect the credit quality of the instrument.

Professional securities transactions

Securities borrowing and securities lending transactions are generally entered into on a collateralised basis, with securities usually advanced or received as collateral. The transfer of the securities themselves is not reflected on the balance sheet unless the risks and rewards of ownership are also transferred. If cash is advanced or received, securities borrowing and lending activities are recorded at the amount of cash advanced (included in loans and receivables) or received (due to banks or customers). The market value of the securities borrowed and lent is monitored on a daily basis, and the collateral levels are adjusted in accordance with the underlying transactions. Fees and interest received or paid are recognised on an effective interest basis and recorded as interest income or interest expense.

Sale and repurchase transactions involve purchases (sales) of investments with agreements to resell (repurchase) substantially identical investments at a certain date in the future at a fixed price. Investments purchased subject to commitments to resell them at future dates are not recognised. The amounts paid are recognised in loans and receivables to either banks or customers. The receivables are shown as collateralised by the underlying security. Investments sold under repurchase agreements continue to be recognised in the balance sheet. The proceeds from the sale of the investments are reported as liabilities to either banks or customers. The difference between the sale and repurchase price is recognised over the period of the transaction and recorded as interest income or interest expense.

Netting and collateral

The Group enters into master netting arrangements with counterparties wherever possible, and when appropriate, obtains collateral. If the Group has the right on the grounds of either legal or contractual provisions and the intention to settle financial assets and liabilities net or simultaneously, these are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet. Due to differences in the timing of actual cash flows, derivatives with positive and negative fair values are generally not netted, even if they are held with the same counterparty.

Hedge accounting

The Group uses derivative instruments to manage exposures to interest rate, foreign currency and credit risks, including exposures arising from forecast transactions. The Group applies fair value, cash flow or net investment hedging to qualifying transactions that are documented as such at inception.

The hedged item can be an asset, liability, highly probable forecasted transaction or net investment in a foreign operation that (a) exposes the entity to risk of changes in fair value or future cash flows and (b) is designated as being hedged. The risk being hedged (the hedged risk) is typically changes in interest rates or foreign currency rates. The Group also enters into credit risk derivatives (sometimes referred to as credit default swaps) for managing portfolio credit risk. However these are generally not included in hedge accounting relationships.

Both at the inception of the hedge and on an ongoing basis, the Group formally assesses whether the derivatives used in its hedging transactions have been highly effective in offsetting changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item, by assessing and measuring whether changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item are offset by the changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedging instrument, within the range of 80% to 125%.

Hedge ineffectiveness represents the amount by which the changes in the fair value of the derivative differ from changes in the fair value of the hedged item in a fair value hedge, or the amount by which the changes in the fair value of the derivative are in excess of the fair value change of the expected cash flow in a cash flow hedge. Hedge ineffectiveness and gains and losses on components of a derivative that are excluded from the assessment of hedge effectiveness are recorded directly in income.

Table of Contents

The Group discontinues hedge accounting when the hedge relationship has ceased to be effective or is no longer expected to be effective, or when the derivative or hedged item is sold or otherwise terminated.

Fair value hedges

Where a derivative financial instrument hedges the exposure to changes in the fair value of recognised or committed assets or liabilities, the hedged item is adjusted in relation to the risk being hedged. Gains or losses on remeasurement of both the hedging instrument and the hedged item are recognised in the income statement, typically within results from financial transactions. For hedges of mortgage service rights any hedging ineffectiveness is recorded in other income.

When a fair value hedge of interest rate risk is terminated, any fair value adjustment to the carrying amount of the hedged asset or liability is amortised to income over the original designated hedging period or taken directly to income if the hedged item is sold, settled or impaired.

Cash flow hedges

When a derivative financial instrument hedges the exposure to variability in the cash flows from recognised assets, liabilities or anticipated transactions, the effective part of any gain or loss on remeasurement of the hedging instrument is recognised directly in equity. When a cash flow hedging instrument or hedge relationship is terminated but the hedged transaction is still expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity remains in equity.

The cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to the income statement at the time when the hedged transaction affects net profit or loss and included in the same line item as the hedged transaction. In the exceptional case that the hedged transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is recognised in the income statement immediately.

Hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation

The Group uses foreign currency derivatives and currency borrowings to hedge various net investments in foreign operations. For such hedges, currency translation differences arising on translation of the currency of these instruments to euro are recognised directly in the currency translation account in equity, insofar as they are effective.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a portfolio of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or portfolio of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are recognised if, and only if, there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset and prior to the balance sheet date (a loss event) and that event adversely impacts estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or the portfolio.

Loans and receivables

An indication that a loan may be impaired is obtained through the Group's credit review processes, which include monitoring customer payments and regular loan reviews at least every 6 or 12 months depending on the obligors' creditworthiness.

The Group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists for loans (including any related facilities and guarantees) that are individually significant, and individually or collectively for loans that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed loan, it includes the asset in a portfolio of loans with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Loans that are evaluated individually for impairment are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

Indications that there is a measurable decrease in estimated future cash flows from a portfolio of loans, although the decrease cannot yet be identified with the individual loans in the portfolio, include adverse changes in the payment status of borrowers in the portfolio and national or local economic conditions that correlate with defaults in the portfolio.

The amount of impairment loss is measured as the difference between the loan's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the loan's original effective interest rate.

Table of Contents

The amount of the loss is recognised using an allowance account and the amount of the loss is included in the income statement line loan impairment and other credit risk provisions.

The calculation of the present value of the estimated future cash flows of a collateralised financial asset reflects the cash flows that are likely to result from foreclosure less costs for obtaining and selling the collateral.

Future cash flows of a group of loans that are collectively evaluated for impairment are estimated on the basis of the contractual cash flows of the loans in the portfolio and historical loss experience for loans with credit risk characteristics similar to those in the Group. Historical loss experience is adjusted on the basis of current observable data to reflect the effects of current conditions that did not affect the historical data and to remove the effects of conditions in the historical data that do not currently exist.

The methodology and assumptions used for estimating future cash flows are reviewed regularly to reduce any differences between loss estimates and actual loss experience. The impact of changes in estimates and recoveries is recorded in the income statement line loan impairment and other credit risk provisions. Following impairment, interest income is recognised using the original effective rate of interest. When a loan is deemed no longer collectible, it is written off against the related allowance for loan impairment. Such loans are written off after all the necessary procedures have been completed and the amount of the loss has been determined. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to the income statement line loan impairment and other credit risk provisions. Assets acquired in exchange for loans to achieve an orderly realisation are reflected in the balance sheet as a disposal of the loan and an acquisition of a new asset, initially booked at fair value.

Other financial assets

In the case of equity instruments classified as available-for-sale, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the security below its cost is also considered in determining whether impairment exists. Where such evidence exists, the cumulative net loss that has been previously recognised directly in equity is removed from equity and recognised in the income statement within results on financial transactions. Held to maturity and available-for-sale debt investments are assessed and any impairment is measured on an individual basis, consistent with the methodology applied to loans and receivables.

Property and equipmentOwn use assets

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any amount for impairment. If an item of property and equipment is comprised of several major components with different useful lives, each component is accounted for separately. Additions and subsequent expenditures (including accrued interest) are capitalised only to the extent that they enhance the future economic benefits expected to be derived from the asset. Expenditure incurred to replace a component of an asset is separately capitalised and the replaced component is written off. Other subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefit of the item of property and equipment. All other expenditure, including maintenance, is recognised in the income statement as incurred. When an item of property and equipment is retired or disposed, the procedures have been completed and the difference between the carrying amount and the disposal proceeds net of costs is recognised in other operating income.

Depreciation is charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of items of property and equipment, and major components that are accounted for separately. The Group generally uses the following estimated useful lives:

Land	not depreciated
Buildings	25 to 50 years
Equipment	5 to 12 years
Computer installations	2 to 5 years.

Software, presented as an intangible asset, is amortised over 3-7 years.

Table of Contents

Depreciation rates and residual values are reviewed at least annually to take into account any change in circumstances. Capitalised leasehold improvements are depreciated in a manner that takes into account the term and renewal conditions of the related lease.

Development property

The majority of the Group's development and construction activities are undertaken for immediate sale or as part of a pre-agreed contractual arrangement. Property developed under a pre-agreed contractual arrangement is stated at cost plus profit recognisable to date less a provision for any foreseeable losses and less progress billings. Cost includes all expenditure (including accrued interest) related directly to specific projects and an allocation of fixed and variable overheads incurred in the Group's contract activities based on normal operating capacity. The specific components of development property are accounted for as follows.

Building and development sites are carried at cost including allocated interest and additional expenses for purchasing the site and making them ready for development. No interest is allocated to land which has not been zoned for a particular purpose, if there is no certainty that the land will be built on. Any provision deemed necessary for expected losses on sale is deducted from the carrying value of the site.

Work in progress relates to commercial property projects, as well as to unsold residential property under construction or preparation. Work in progress is carried at the costs incurred plus allocated interest and net of any provisions as required. Progress instalments invoiced to buyers and principals are deducted from work in progress. The profit and loss is recognised in accordance with the percentage of completion method. Until sold, commercial and residential developments are carried at cost of production net of any required provisions. If a decision is taken to retain an unsold property it is classified as investment property.

Investment property

Investment property is carried at fair value based on current market prices for similar properties in the same location and condition. Any gain or loss arising from a change in fair value is recognised in profit and loss. Rental income from investment property is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease, with lease incentives granted recognised as an integral part of the rental income.

Leasing

As lessee: most of the leases that the Group has entered into are classified as operating leases (including property rental). The total payments made under operating leases are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease. Lease incentives received are recognised in the income statement as an integral part of the total lease expense. When it is anticipated that an operating lease will be terminated or vacated before the lease period has expired, the lesser of any penalty payments required and the remaining payments due once vacated (less sub-leasing income) is recognised as an expense.

As lessor: assets subject to operational leases are included in property and equipment. The asset is depreciated on a straight-line basis over its useful life to its estimated residual value. Leases where the Group transfers substantially all the risks and rewards resulting from ownership of an asset to the lessee are classified as finance leases. A receivable at an amount equal to the present value of the lease payments, using the implicit interest rate, including any guaranteed residual value, is recognised. Finance lease receivables are included in loans and receivables to customers.

Intangible assetsGoodwill

Goodwill is capitalised and represents the excess of the cost of an acquisition over the fair value of the Group's share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets at the date of acquisition. For the purpose of calculating goodwill, the fair values of acquired assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities are determined by reference to market values or by discounting expected future cash flows to present value. Any change in the assessed fair value of acquired assets and liabilities at the time of acquisition identified within one year following the acquisition are corrected against goodwill. Any revisions identified after one year are recorded in income.

Table of Contents

Goodwill on the acquisition of equity accounted investments is included in the carrying amount of the investment.

Gains and losses on the disposal of an entity, including equity accounted investments, are determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the entity including related goodwill and any currency translation differences recorded in equity.

Software

Costs that are directly associated with identifiable and software products that are controlled by the Group, and likely to generate future economic benefits exceeding these costs, are recognised as intangible assets. Direct costs include staff costs of the software development team. Expenditure that enhances or extends the performance of computer software beyond its original specification is recognised as a capital improvement and added to the original cost of the software. Software is amortised over 3-7 years. Costs associated with maintaining computer software programmes are recognised as an expense as incurred.

Mortgage servicing rights

Mortgage servicing rights (MSRs) represent the right to a stream of fee-based cash flows and an obligation to perform specified mortgage servicing activities. MSRs are initially recorded at fair value and amortised over the estimated future net servicing income stream of the underlying mortgages. The duration of the income stream relating to these servicing rights is dependent on the pre-payment behaviour of the customer, which is influenced by a number of factors including interest rate expectations. MSR assets are subject to hedging under a fair value hedge programme designed to limit the Group's exposure to changes in the fair value of the MSR. The change in the fair value of the hedged MSRs and the change in the fair value of the hedging derivatives are included as part of mortgage banking income within other operating income.

Other intangible assets

Other intangible assets that are acquired by the Group are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and any adjustment for impairment losses. Other intangible assets are comprised of separately identifiable items arising from acquisition of subsidiaries, such as customer relationships, and certain purchased trademarks and similar items. Amortisation is charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the intangible asset.

Impairment of property and equipment and intangible assets

Property and equipment and intangibles are assessed at each balance sheet date or more frequently, to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, the assets are subject to an impairment review. Regardless of any indications of potential impairment, the carrying amount of goodwill is subject to a detailed impairment review at least annually.

An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of an asset that generates largely independent cash flows or the cash-generating unit to which it belongs exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its net selling price and value in use. To calculate value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market rates and the risks specific to the asset. When conducting impairment reviews, particularly for goodwill, cash-generating units are the lowest level at which management monitors the return on investment on assets.

Impairment losses are recognised in the income statement as a component of depreciation and amortisation expense. An impairment loss with respect to goodwill is not reversible. Other impairment losses are reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined if no impairment loss had previously been recognised.

Pension and other post-retirement benefits

For employees in the Netherlands and the majority of staff employed outside the Netherlands, pension or other retirement plans have been established in accordance with the regulations and practices of the countries in question. Separate pension funds or third parties administer most of these plans. The plans include both defined contribution plans and defined benefit plans.

Defined contribution plans

In the case of defined contribution plans, contributions are charged directly to the income statement in the year to which they relate.

Defined benefit plans

The net obligations under defined benefit plans are regarded as the Group's own commitments regardless of whether these are administered by a pension fund or in some other manner. The net obligation of each plan is determined as the difference between the benefit obligations and the plan assets. Defined benefit plan pension commitments are calculated in accordance with the projected unit credit method of actuarial cost allocation. Under this method, the present value of pension commitments is determined on the basis of the number of active years of service up to the balance sheet date and the estimated employee salary at the time of the expected retirement date, and is discounted using the market rate of interest on high-quality corporate bonds. The plan assets are measured at fair value.

Pension costs for the year are established at the beginning of the year based on the expected service and interest costs and the expected return on the plan assets, plus the impact of any current period curtailments or plan changes. Differences between the expected and the actual return on plan assets, as well as actuarial gains and losses, are only recognised as income or expense when the net cumulative unrecognised actuarial gains and losses at the end of the previous reporting year exceed 10% of the greater of the commitments under the plan and the fair value of the related plan assets. The part that exceeds 10% is recognised in income over the expected remaining years of service of the employees participating in the plans. Differences between the pension costs determined in this way and the contributions payable are accounted for as provisions or prepayments. Commitments relating to early retirement of employees are treated as pension commitments.

When the benefits of a plan are improved, the portion of the increased benefit relating to past service by employees is recognised as an expense in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the average period relate until the benefits become vested. To the extent that the benefits vest immediately, the past service cost is recognised immediately in the income statement.

Other post-retirement benefits

The Group's net obligation with respect to long-term service benefits and post-retirement healthcare is the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in current and prior periods. The obligation is calculated using the projected unit credit method. It is then discounted to its present value and the fair value of any related assets is deducted.

Share-based payments to employees

The Group engages in equity and cash settled share-based payment transactions in respect of services received from certain of its employees. The cost of the services received is measured by reference to the fair value of the shares or share options granted on the date of the grant. The cost related to the shares or share options granted is recognised in the income statement over the period that the services of the employees are received, which is the vesting period, with a corresponding credit in equity for equity settled schemes and a credit in liabilities for cash settled schemes.

The fair value of the options granted is determined using option pricing models, which take into account the exercise price of the option, the current share price, the risk free interest rate, the volatility of the ABN AMRO share price over the life of the option and the terms and conditions of the grant. Non-market vesting conditions are taken into account by adjusting the number of shares or share options included in the measurement of the cost of employee services, so that ultimately the amount cumulatively recognised in the income statement shall reflect the number of shares or share options that eventually vest. Where vesting conditions are related to market conditions, these are fully reflected in the fair value initially determined at grant date and as a result, the charges for the services received are recognised regardless of whether or not the market related vesting condition is met, provided that the non-market vesting conditions are met.

Table of ContentsProvisions

A provision is recognised in the balance sheet when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made. If the effect of time value is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market rates and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability.

A provision for restructuring is recognised when an obligation exists. An obligation exists when the Group has approved a detailed plan and has raised a valid expectation in those affected by the plan by starting to implement the plan or by announcing its main features. Future operating costs are not provided for.

Provisions for insurance risks are determined by actuarial methods, which include the use of statistics, interest rate data and settlement costs expectations.

Other liabilities

Obligations to policyholders, whose return is dependent on the return of unit linked investments recognised in the balance sheet, are measured at fair value with changes through income.

Income taxes current and deferred

Income tax payable on profits, based on the applicable tax law in each jurisdiction, is recognised as an expense in the period in which profits arise. The future tax benefit of income tax losses available for carry forward is recognised as an asset when it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which these losses can be utilised.

Deferred tax is recognised for qualifying temporary differences. Temporary differences represent the difference between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The most significant temporary differences arise from the revaluation of certain financial assets and liabilities including derivative contracts, allowances for loan impairment, provisions for pensions and business combinations. The following differences are not provided for: capitalised goodwill not deductible for tax purposes, the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit, and differences relating to investments in subsidiaries and associates, to the extent that they will probably not reverse in the foreseeable future and the timing of such reversals is controlled by the Group. The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantially enacted at the balance sheet date. A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised.

Deferred and current tax assets and liabilities are only offset when they arise in the same tax reporting group and where there is both the legal right and the intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and liability simultaneously.

Issued debt and equity securities

Issued debt securities are recorded on an amortised cost basis using the effective interest rate method, unless they are of a hybrid/structured nature and designated to be held at fair value through income.

Issued financial instruments or their components are classified as liabilities where the substance of the contractual arrangement results in the Group having a present obligation to either deliver cash or another financial asset or to satisfy the obligation other than by the exchange of a fixed number of equity shares. Preference shares that carry a non-discretionary coupon or are redeemable on a specific date or at the option of the holder are classified as liabilities. The dividends and fees on preference shares classified as a liability are recognised as interest expense.

Issued financial instruments, or their components, are classified as equity when they do not qualify as a liability and represent a residual interest in the assets of the Group. Preference share capital is classified as equity if it is non-redeemable and any dividends are discretionary. The components of issued financial instruments that contain both liability and equity elements are accounted for separately with the equity component being assigned the residual amount after deducting from the instrument's initial value the fair value of the liability component.

Table of Contents

Dividends on ordinary shares and preference shares classified as equity are recognised as a distribution of equity in the period in which they are approved by shareholders.

Share capital

Incremental external costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are deducted from equity net of any related income taxes.

When share capital recognised as equity is repurchased, the amount of the consideration paid, including incremental directly attributable costs net of income taxes, is recognised as a change in equity.

Repurchased shares are classified as treasury shares and presented as a deduction from total equity.

Where such shares are subsequently sold or reissued, any consideration received is added to shareholders' equity.

Other equity componentsCurrency translation account

The currency translation account is comprised of all currency differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations net of the translation impact on liabilities or foreign exchange derivatives held to hedge the Group's net investment. These currency differences are included in income on disposal or partial disposal of the operation.

Cash flow hedging reserve

The cash flow hedging reserve is comprised of the effective portion of the cumulative change in the fair value of cash flow hedging derivatives, net of taxes, where the hedged transaction has not yet occurred.

Net unrealised gains and losses on available-for-sale assets

In this component, gains and losses arising from a change in the fair value of available-for-sale assets are recognised, net of taxes. When the relevant assets are sold, impaired or otherwise disposed of, the related cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to the income statement.

Collectively, the cash flow hedging reserve and the available-for-sale reserve are sometimes referred to as special components of equity.

Cash flow statement

Cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the cash flow statement include cash in hand, deposits available on demand with central banks and net credit balances on current accounts with other banks.

The cash flow statement, based on the indirect method of calculation, gives details of the source of cash and cash equivalents which became available during the year and the application of these cash and cash equivalents over the course of the year. The cash flows are analysed into cash flows from operations, including banking activities, investment activities and financing activities. Movements in loans and receivables and inter-bank deposits are included in the cash flow from operating activities. Investment activities are comprised of acquisitions, sales and redemptions in respect of financial investments, as well as investments in and sales of subsidiaries and associates, property and equipment. The issuing of shares and the borrowing and repayment of long-term funds are treated as financing activities. Movements due to currency translation differences as well as the effects of the consolidation of acquisitions, where of material significance, are eliminated from the cash flow figures.

Future changes in accounting policiesIFRS standards not yet effective

IFRS 7 was issued in August 2005 and is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2007. It requires entities to provide additional disclosures on financial instruments within their financial statements but does not change the recognition and measurement rules of these financial instruments.

IFRS 8 was issued in November 2006 and is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2009. The standard replaces IAS 14 Segment Reporting in setting out requirements for disclosure of information about an entity's operating segments and also about the entity's products and services, the geographical areas in which it operates, and its major customers. The Group plans to adopt IFRS 8 in 2007.

IFRIC Interpretations not yet effective

IFRIC interpretation 8 Scope of IFRS 2 was issued in January 2006 and is required to be applied for financial years beginning on or after 1 May 2006. It requires IFRS 2 Share-based Payment to be applied to any arrangements where equity instruments are issued for consideration which appears to be less than fair value. As equity instruments are only issued to employees in accordance with the employee share scheme, the interpretation has no impact on the financial position or results of the Group.

IFRIC interpretation 9 Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives was issued in March 2006 and becomes effective for financial years beginning on or after 1 June 2006. This interpretation establishes that the date to assess the existence of an embedded derivative is the date an entity first becomes a party to the contract with reassessment only if there is a change to the contract that significantly modifies the cash flows. This interpretation is consistent with our accounting policies and thus will have no impact on the Group's financial statements when implemented in 2007.

IFRIC interpretation 10 Interim Financial Reporting & Impairment was issued in July 2006 and becomes effective for financial years beginning on or after 1 November 2006. It states that an entity shall not reverse an impairment loss recognised in a previous interim period in respect of goodwill or an investment in either an equity instrument or a financial asset carried at cost. The adoption of this interpretation will have no impact on the financial position or results of the Group.

IFRIC interpretation 11 Group & Treasury Share Transactions was issued in November 2006 and becomes effective for financial years beginning on or after 1 March 2007. The interpretation provides further guidance on the implementation of IFRS 2 Share-based Payment. The Group is still evaluating the effect of this interpretation for implementation in 2008.

1. Segment reporting

Segment information is presented in respect of the Group's business. The primary format, business segments, is consistent with the Group's management and internal reporting structure applicable in the financial year. Measurement of segment assets, liabilities, income and results is based on the Group's accounting policies. Segment assets, liabilities, income and results include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis. Transactions between segments are conducted at an arm's length.

Business segments

Below the business segments are detailed. In the Business review chapter of the Annual Report more detailed descriptions of the activities of these segments have been included.

Netherlands

BU Netherlands serves a diverse client base that comprises consumer and commercial clients. BU Netherlands offers a broad range of investment, commercial and retail banking products and services via its multi-channel service model consisting of a network of branches, internet banking facilities, a customer contact center and ATMs throughout the Netherlands. BU Netherlands focuses increasingly on mass affluent customers and commercial mid-market clients. BU Netherlands also comprises the ABN AMRO Mortgage Group including the former Bouwfonds mortgage activities. The non-mortgage activities of Bouwfonds were sold during the year.

Europe (including Antonveneta)

BU Europe provides its consumer and commercial clients with a range of financial products and services. Its regional strategies and operations are closely aligned with those of ABN AMRO's global BUs.

BU Europe combines activities in 27 countries: 23 countries in Europe (excluding the Netherlands) along with Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Egypt and South Africa.

ABN AMRO acquired a majority stake in Antonveneta in January 2006 and launched a tender offer for the remaining shares on 27 February 2006. It acquired 100% of the bank in July 2006 after it exercised its right to purchase the shares it did not yet own following its tender offer.

Antonveneta is rooted in north-eastern Italy, and focuses on consumer and commercial mid-market clients.

North America

The core of BU North America is LaSalle Bank, headquartered in Chicago, Illinois. BU North America serves a large number of clients, including small businesses, mid-market companies, larger corporates, institutions, non-profit entities and municipalities in the US and Canada. BU North America offers a broad range of investment, commercial and retail banking products and services through a network of branches and ATMs in Illinois, Michigan and Indiana. BU North America focuses increasingly on mass affluent customers and commercial mid-market clients. While based in the US Midwest, BU North America reaches further through an expanding network of regional commercial banking offices across the US.

Latin America

BU Latin America has a presence in nine Latin American countries: Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Paraguay, Uruguay and Venezuela, with the presence of Banco Real representing the majority of the operations. In Brazil, Banco Real is a retail and commercial bank, offering full retail, corporate and investment banking products and services. It operates as a universal bank offering financial services through an extensive network of branches, points-of-sale and ATMs. BU Latin America also has a strong presence in the Brazilian consumer finance business through its Aymoré franchise, focused on vehicle and other consumer goods financing.

Table of ContentsAsia

ABN AMRO has been operating for well over 100 years in several Asian countries including Indonesia, China, Singapore and Japan. BU Asia now covers 16 countries and territories and is extending its branches and offices network. BU Asia's client base includes commercial clients as well as consumer and private banking clients.

Global Clients

BU Global Clients serves a range of major corporate and institutional clients that demand sophisticated financial solutions customised to their specific needs.

BU Global Clients is organised around six hubs (Amsterdam, London, New York, Hong Kong, São Paulo and Sydney). The financial results of BU Global Clients also reflect the contribution of ABN AMRO Mellon, a joint venture with the Mellon Financial Corporation that provides global custody and value added services to institutional investors worldwide.

Private Clients

BU Private Clients offers private banking services to wealthy individuals and institutions with EUR 1 million or more in net investable assets. In the past few years, BU Private Clients built up an onshore private banking network in continental Europe through organic growth in the Netherlands and France, and through the acquisition of Delbrück Bethmann Maffei in Germany and Bank Corluy in Belgium.

Asset Management

BU Asset Management is ABN AMRO's global asset management business. BU Asset Management operates in 26 countries worldwide, offering investment products in all major regions and asset classes. Its products are distributed directly to institutional clients such as central banks, pension funds, insurance companies and leading charities. Funds for private investors are distributed through ABN AMRO's consumer and private banking arms, as well as via third-party distributors such as insurance companies and other banks. The institutional client business represents just over half of the assets managed by BU Asset Management. Consumer and third-party clients account for a further 30%, and the remainder is in discretionary portfolios managed for BU Private Clients.

Private Equity

The business model of ABN AMRO's Private Equity unit – branded as ABN AMRO Capital – involves providing capital and expertise to non-listed companies in a variety of sectors. By obtaining, in most cases, a majority stake, Private Equity gains the ability to influence the company's growth strategy and increase its profitability. It then aims to sell its shareholding at a profit after a number of years. Private Equity specialises in European mid-market buyouts, but also manages a portfolio of investments in Australian buyouts, non-controlling and controlling shareholdings in small to medium sized Dutch companies (participaties), and dedicated media and telecom sector investments. It operates from seven offices across Europe and Australia.

Group Functions, including Group Services

Group Functions provides guidance on ABN AMRO's corporate strategy and supports the implementation of the strategy in accordance with our Managing for Value methodology, Corporate Values and Business Principles. By aligning and uniting functions across ABN AMRO's BUs and geographical territories, Group Functions also facilitates Group-wide sharing of best practices, innovation and positioning to public authorities, and binds the bank together in both an operational and cultural sense.

Group Functions includes Group Asset and Liability Management, which manages an investment and derivatives portfolio in order to manage the liquidity and interest rate risks of the Group. Group Functions also holds the Group's strategic investments, proprietary trading portfolio and records any related profits or losses.

Acquisitions 2006Antonveneta

On 2 January 2006 the Group acquired a controlling interest in Banca Antoniana Popolare Veneta (Antonveneta) in order to increase its mid-market footprint, and accelerate the existing partnership that gives access to the large Italian banking market and the customer base of Antonveneta.

During 2005 the Group had already increased its interest in Antonveneta from 12.7% to 29.9%. The purchase of 79.9 million shares of Antonveneta from Banca Popolare Italiana on 2 January 2006 resulted in the Group acquiring a controlling 55.8% share. Following purchases of shares in the open market, a public offering and the exercise of the Group's right under Italian law to acquire minority share holdings, ABN AMRO now owns 100% of the outstanding share capital of Antonveneta.

The Group paid EUR 26.50 per share for Antonveneta, representing a total consideration of EUR 7,499 million. Total goodwill arising from the acquisition amounted to EUR 4,399 million, reflecting final adjustments to the purchase price and an adjustment to the fair value of the purchased loan portfolio over and above the provisional goodwill amount calculated at EUR 4,273 million as at 2 January 2006. For further details on the purchase price adjustments and goodwill calculation please refer to note 22. In addition, the Group has recognised newly identifiable intangible assets amounting to EUR 1,194 million. For further details on intangible assets please refer to note 22.

Total	1,087	1,281	905

The net gain on other equity investments includes gains and losses arising on investments held at fair value and the result on the sale of consolidated holdings of a private equity nature.

The Group enters into credit default swaps for managing portfolio credit risk. However, these are generally not included in hedge accounting relationships due to difficulties in demonstrating that the relationship will be highly effective. Accordingly any fair value changes are recorded directly in income, while the gains and losses on the credit positions hedged are accrued in interest income and expense and as impairment and other credit related provisions if any.

Restructuring charges and releases in income statements

Restructuring charges of EUR 137 million have been accounted for in relation to the services and IT alignment initiatives. Also restructuring costs of EUR 123 million have been recognised in respect of the efficiency improvement initiatives in Group Functions, North America and Global Markets activities, as included in our regional BUs:

The Group has identified opportunities to improve productivity and efficiency whilst maintaining an effective control framework at all times. This affects mainly the head office and predominantly Group Risk Management and corporate IT projects through acceleration of the implementation of the IT operating model for Group Functions. The restructuring provision accounted for in relation to this amounts to EUR 47 million.

In order to bring the efficiency ratio in line with peers a process of continuous efficiency improvement has started in BU North America. The first step was the announcement at the end of 2006 to reduce BU North America's workforce. A provision expense of EUR 41 million has been recorded in respect of this.

Global Markets, as reflected in the regions, announced further initiatives to improve the efficiency ratio. A provision of EUR 85 million, including EUR 25 million in the Services initiative and EUR 25 million in the Europe IT provision, has been recorded to support the initiative.

The Services Operations organisation is responsible for the Group's internal services such as transaction processing, clearing and settlement. The Services Operations initiative brings together a portfolio of projects, covering the whole scope of the global banking operations and improving the efficiency of the internal processes. The initiative is being implemented over a three-year timeframe (2006-2008). The initiative will mainly impact operations in the Netherlands, United States, Brazil and United Kingdom. The total amount provided is EUR 108 million, of which EUR 25 million relating to Global Markets, as reflected in the regions.

ABN AMRO will further aligns all IT areas within the bank to the global Services IT model previously established. All sourcing is brought under a single governance structure, supported by a multi-vendor operating model. In Europe, the IT alignment primarily has consequences for the IT-related activities in the UK. This happens through consolidation of infrastructure estate and further off shoring of application development. It will also leads to a significant reduction in contractors and consultants. Total amount provided is EUR 29 million, of which EUR 25 million to Global Markets, as reflected in the regions.

A review performed on various restructuring provisions established in prior years has led to a release of EUR 118 million. This review assessed the status of existing restructuring initiatives, contemplated the impact of new plans and identified releases including those arising from higher levels of voluntary leavers due to stronger than expected employment markets.

Subtotal	446,901	383,235
Allowances for impairment 19	(3,646)	(2,987)
Total	443,255	380,248

The increase year-on-year reflects the consolidation of Antonveneta, impact EUR 38 billion, and growth in the loan portfolio of BU Asia and BU Latin America.

The amount advanced held by multi-seller conduits is typically collateralised by a pool of customer receivables in excess of the amount advanced, such that credit risk is very low (see note 39). These conduits issue commercial paper as specified in note 26.

The risk management disclosures section on credit risk (see note 39) contains information about the concentration of credit risk by business sector and geographical location, as well as a breakdown of the amounts by type of collateral.

Consumer loans	1,302	841
Loans to banks	5	17
Total	3,651	3,004

Table of ContentsLoan provisioning-commercial loans

The Group reviews the status of credit facilities issued to commercial clients at least every 6 or 12 months. Additionally, credit officers continually monitor the quality of the credit, the client and the adherence to contractual conditions. Should the quality of a loan or the borrower's financial position deteriorate to the extent that doubts arise over the borrower's ability to meet their contractual obligations, management of the relationship is transferred to the Financial Restructuring and Recovery function.

After making an assessment, Financial Restructuring and Recovery determines the amount, if any, of the specific allowances that should be made, after taking into account the value of collateral. We partly or fully release specific allowances when the debt is repaid or expected future cash flows improve due to positive changes in economic or financial circumstances.

Loan provisioning-consumer loan products

The bank offers a wide range of consumer loan products and programmes such as personal loans, home mortgages, credit cards and home improvement loans. Provisioning for these products is carried out on a portfolio basis, with a specific provision for each product being determined by the portfolio's size and loss experience.

Our consumer loan portfolio policy states that, in general, when interest or principal on a consumer loan is 90 days or more past due, such loans are classified as non-performing and as a result the loans are considered impaired.

Provisions for a given portfolio may be released where there is improvement in the quality of the portfolio. For consumer loans, our write-off rules are time-based and vary by type of product. For example, unsecured facilities, such as credit cards and personal loans, are generally written off at 180 days past due and cash-backed and debt and/or equity-backed facilities are generally written off at 90 days past due.

Allowance for incurred but not identified losses

In addition to impairment allowances calculated on a specific or portfolio basis, the Group also maintains an allowance to cover undetected impairments existing within loans due to delays in obtaining information that would indicate that losses exist at the balance sheet date.

In this balance an 8.6% interest in Capitalia is included. ABN AMRO equity accounts for this interest because ABN AMRO is the largest party of a shareholder pact and has representation in the Supervisory Board. Reclassifications mainly relate to Antonveneta, which became a consolidated operating entity as of 2 January 2006.

Table of Contents

Purchases in 2005 include our increased stake in Antonveneta. During 2005 our investment in Kereskedelmi és Hitelbank Rt. was reclassified to available-for-sale assets upon the loss of significant influence, prior to being sold in 2006.

Included in the Group's cash flow hedging and available-for-sale reserve is EUR 53 million (2005: EUR 95 million) of unrealised gains relating to equity accounted investments.

Investments with a book value of EUR 875 million (2005: EUR 2,345 million) that are traded on a recognised stock exchange had a combined market value of EUR 1,601 million (2005: EUR 3,399 million). Amounts receivable from and payable to equity accounted investments included in the various balance sheet items totalled:

As lessee

The Group leases equipment under a number of finance lease agreements. At 31 December 2006 the net carrying amount of leased equipment included in property and equipment was EUR 8 million (2005: EUR 23 million).

As lessor

The Group also leases out various assets, included in Other, under operating leases. Non-cancellable operating lease rentals are as follows:

	2006	2005
Less than one year	56	27
Between one and five years	140	100
More than five years	49	30
	245	157

During the year ended 31 December 2006, EUR 59 million (2005: EUR 60 million) was recognised as rental income in the income statement and EUR 48 million (2005: EUR 51 million) in respect of directly related expenses.

Goodwill arising on acquisition of 100% outstanding shares	4,399

Impairment testing of goodwill

Goodwill has been allocated for impairment testing purposes to individual cash-generating units within the business. The EUR 4,399 million of goodwill allocated to the Antonveneta cash-generating unit is the only significant individual carrying amount. The remaining goodwill is allocated across multiple cash-generating units whose recoverable amounts are assessed independently of one another.

The recoverable amount of Antonveneta has been determined based on a value in use basis, calculated using a discounted dividend model, which applies a dividend payout ratio to the cash flow of the business. Cash flows for an initial five-year period are based on financial forecasts used in target setting by management, in this case a two-year detailed forecast with subsequent three-year extrapolation. Beyond the initial five-year period a maximum dividend payout ratio, subject to the special features of the banking business and its regulatory environment has been applied to cash flows estimated with reference to the following key assumptions:

Expected long term return on equity	18.0%
Expected growth rate	1.5%

Management has benchmarked these key assumptions against market forecasts and expectations. The dividend model is based on post-tax cash flows. Therefore these cash flows have been discounted using a post-tax discount rate of 8.5%, reflecting the risk-free interest rate with an appropriate market risk premium for the business.

Management believes that it may be reasonably possible that changes in the key assumptions would cause the carrying amount of the Antonveneta cash-generating unit to exceed its recoverable amount. The calculated recoverable amount of Antonveneta currently exceeds its carrying amount by EUR 126 million. The recoverable amount of Antonveneta would be equal to its carrying amount if the actual value of each key assumption, assuming the other assumptions were constant, was as follows:

Actual growth rate	fell to	1.3%
Actual return on equity	fell to	17.7%, or
Discount rate	increased to	8.6%

Table of ContentsOther Intangibles

As a result of the acquisition of Antonveneta, the Group has recognised newly identifiable intangible assets as follows:

Core deposit intangible assets	400
Core overdraft intangible assets	224
Other customer relationship intangible assets	325
Other intangible assets	245
Total	1,194

The amortisation period for all newly identifiable intangible assets is on average approximately 8 years. The Group estimates that the total amortisation expense (pre-tax) related to the newly identifiable intangible assets amounts to EUR 174 million in each of the next two years up to and including 2008, and to EUR 142 million for 2009 and to EUR 135 million for each of the three years thereafter up to and including 2012.

Total	27,212	25,550

Mortgages originated-for-sale and unit-linked investments held for policyholders are designated at fair value with changes through income. Mortgages originated-for-sale are originated by our mortgage banking business in North America. In the prior year, the volume of originated-for-sale loans was significantly higher due to the inclusion of those loans originated by ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., which is now classified as held for sale.

Sundry assets include insurance related deposits and other short-term receivables.

Bonds are issued in the capital markets with a focus on the euro market and are denominated mostly in euro and US dollars. The commercial paper programmes are issued globally with the majority issued in the United States and Europe. The other debt securities are instruments used in markets in which ABN AMRO is active and are usually denominated in local currencies. Of the total amount, EUR 75.3 billion (2005: EUR 60.6 billion) are variable interest bearing securities. EUR 20.1 billion (2005: EUR 16.5 billion) of issued debt of a fixed rate nature has been designated in fair value hedge relationships.

Table of Contents

The weighted averages of the main actuarial assumptions used to determine the value of the provisions for pension obligations and contributions to health insurance as at 31 December were as follows:

	2006	2005
Pensions
Discount rate	4.6%	4.3%
Expected increment in salaries	2.8%	2.4%
Expected return on investments	6.0%	6.2%
Healthcare
Discount rate	8.2%	7.8%
Average rise in the costs of healthcare	9.0%	9.5%

The expected return on investments regarding pension obligations is weighted on the basis of the fair value of these investments. The average rise in cost of healthcare is weighted on the basis of the healthcare cost of 2006. All other assumptions are weighted on the basis of the defined benefit plan obligations.

For the pension plans, the target and actual allocation of the plan assets are as follows:

Allocation of plan assets

	Target allocation 2006	Actual allocation 2006	Actual allocation 2005

Unrecognised deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets that have not been recognised in respect of carry-forward losses amount to EUR 898 million (2005: EUR 252 million). Deferred tax assets have not been recognised in respect of these items because it is not probable that future taxable profit will be available where the Group can utilise the benefits from them.

Table of ContentsExpiration of carry-forward losses

At 31 December 2006 carry-forward losses expire as follows:

2007	19
2008	116

Tax exposure to distributable reserves

ABN AMRO considers approximately EUR 1.4 billion (2005: EUR 2.1 billion) in distributable invested equity of foreign operations to be permanently invested. If retained earnings were to be distributed, no foreign income taxes would have to be paid. The estimated impact of foreign withholding tax is EUR 6 million (2005: EUR 9 million).

31. Subordinated liabilities

Issued liabilities qualify as subordinated debt if claims by the holders are subordinated to all other current and future liabilities of, respectively, ABN AMRO Holding N.V, ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and other Group companies. These liabilities qualify as capital, taking into account remaining maturities, for the purpose of determining the consolidated capital adequacy ratio for the Dutch central bank.

The maturity profile of subordinated liabilities is as follows:

	2006	2005
Within one year	1,384	1,156
After one and within two years	726	1,452
After two and within three years	2,165	704
After three and within four years	811	1,550
After four and within five years	21	1,395
After five years	14,106	12,815
Total	19,213	19,072

The average interest rate on subordinated liabilities was 5.2% (2005: 5.4%). Subordinated liabilities as at 31 December 2006 denominated in euros amounted to EUR 10,259 million (2005: EUR 9,240 million) and in US dollars an amount of EUR 7,332 million (2005: EUR 9,745 million). EUR 8,522 million (2005: EUR 5,703 million) is of a variable interest rate nature.

The following table analyses the subordinated liabilities by issuer:

ABN AMRO Holding N.V. preference financing shares	768	768
ABN AMRO Bank N.V.	13,101	13,051
Other Group companies	5,344	5,253

--------------	---------------	--------

Total subordinated liabilities include EUR 6,122 million (2005: EUR 5,261 million) which qualify as tier 1 capital for capital adequacy purposes.

Preference financing shares

At 31 December 2006, 2005 and 2004, there were 1,369,815,864 (EUR 767,096,884) preference financing shares convertible into ordinary shares (preference shares) in issue. Each share has a nominal value of EUR 0.56. The holders of these shares will receive a dividend of EUR 0.02604 per share, representing 4.65% of the face value. As of 1 January 2011, and every ten years thereafter, the dividend percentage on the preference shares will be adjusted in line with the arithmetical average of the ten-year euro-denominated interest rate swap as published by Reuters on the dividend calculation dates thereof, plus an increment to be set by the Managing Board with the approval of the Supervisory Board, of no less than 25 basis points and no more than one hundred basis points, depending on the market situation at that time.

(Formerly convertible) preference shares

Only 44,988 (EUR 100.8 million par value) preference shares that were formerly convertible into ordinary shares (convertible shares) remain outstanding. The holders of these shares will receive a dividend of EUR 0.95 per share, representing 3.32% of the amount paid on each share as of 1 January 2004. As of 1 January 2014, and every ten years thereafter, the dividend on the convertible preference shares will be adjusted in the manner described in the Articles of Association.

33. Professional securities transactions

Professional security transactions include balances relating to reverse repurchase activities, cash collateral on securities borrowed and security settlement accounts. The Group minimises credit risk associated with these activities by monitoring counterparty credit exposure and collateral values on a daily basis and requiring additional collateral to be deposited with or returned to the Group when deemed necessary.

Total	87,762	57,828	71,231	48,982

Under reverse repurchase, securities borrowing, and other collateralised arrangements, the Group obtains securities on terms which permit it to repledge or resell the securities to others.

34. Securitisations and assets pledged as security

Details of the carrying amounts of assets pledged as collateral are as follows:

	2006	2005
Cash and balances at central banks	10,430	10,737
Financial investments	2,780	12,074
Loans and receivables - customers	7,302	32,656
Total	20,512	55,467

Table of Contents

These assets have been pledged in respect of the following liabilities and contingent liabilities:

	2006	2005
Due to banks	9,355	17,782
Due to customers	741	4,266
Issued debt securities	3	21,440
Total	10,099	43,488

The decrease in assets pledged as collateral and liabilities for which they have been pledged, is mainly the result of Bouwfonds non-mortgage business.

Securitisation

As part of the Group's funding and credit risk mitigation activities, the cash flows of selected financial assets are transferred to third parties. Substantially all financial assets included in these transactions are mortgage or other loan portfolios. The extent of the Group's continuing involvement in these financial assets varies by transaction.

The Group participates in sales transactions where cash flows relating to various financial assets are transferred to a consolidated special purpose entity (SPE). When in these transactions neither substantially all risks and rewards nor control over the financial assets has been transferred, the entire asset continues to be recognised in the consolidated balance sheet. In the case of sales transactions involving a consolidated SPE, the retained risks and rewards are usually interest related spread and/or an exposure on first credit losses. The carrying amounts of the assets and associated liabilities approximated EUR 5,554 million, EUR 6,290 million and EUR 7,786 million at 31 December 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Synthetic transactions

In addition the Group has synthetic securitisations for an amount of EUR 83,588 million (2005: EUR 59,255 million). Through a synthetic securitisation the Group is able to buy protection without actual transference of any assets to an SPE. In general, the Group as the owner of the assets, buys protection to transfer the credit risk of a portfolio of assets to another entity that sells the protection. Although the credit risk of the portfolio is transferred, actual ownership of the portfolio of assets remains with the Group.

Continuing involvement

Additionally the Group participates in various mortgage related transactions in the Netherlands that have been conducted without the involvement of an SPE. In these transactions, the derecognition criteria are not fully met and the entire asset continues to be recognised in the consolidated balance sheet. The Group also retains exposure to certain interest rate risks. The carrying amounts of these mortgage assets and associated liabilities approximate EUR 272 million, EUR 772 million and EUR 850 million at 31 December 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

The Group has not participated in any transaction where partial derecognition of specified portions of an entire financial asset have occurred.

Credit default swaps

In addition to the transactions mentioned above, the Group also uses credit default swaps to reduce credit risk for parts of the loan portfolio by selling these risks directly to the capital markets. At 31 December 2006 the Group has bought credit protection for an amount of EUR 56,801 million (2005: EUR 30,352 million).

Table of ContentsDerecognition

Though the Group has sold a part of its loan portfolio in North America, it still holds legal title to some of these loans. In most cases these loans are also serviced by the Group. The Group also services loans originated by other institutions. The following table states the total outstandings at 31 December 2006.

Transaction type

	2006	2005
Legal title to loans sold	86	136
Loans serviced for third parties	159,377	160,654

35. Commitments and contingent liabilitiesCredit facilities

At any time the Group has outstanding commitments to extend credit. These commitments take the form of approved loans, overdraft facilities and credit card limits. Outstanding loan commitments have a commitment period that does not extend beyond the normal underwriting and settlement period of one to three months.

Guarantees

The Group provides financial guarantees and letters of credit to guarantee the performance of customers to third parties. These transactions have fixed limits and generally extend for a period of up to five years. Expirations are not concentrated in any particular period. The Group also provides guarantees by acting as a settlement agent in securities borrowing and lending transactions.

The contractual amounts of commitments and contingent liabilities are set out by category in the following table. The amounts stated in the table for commitments assume that amounts are fully advanced. The amounts reflected in the table for guarantees and letters of credit represent the maximum accounting loss that would be recognised at the balance sheet date if the relevant contract parties completely failed to perform as contracted.

Many of the contingent liabilities and commitments will expire without being advanced in whole or in part. This means that the amounts stated do not represent expected future cash flows. Additionally, guarantees and letters of credit are supported by varying levels of collateral.

Aside from the items stated above, non-quantified guarantees have been given for the ABN AMRO's securities custody operations, for inter-bank bodies and institutions and for participating interests. Collective guarantee schemes are applicable to Group companies in various countries. Furthermore, statements of liability have been issued for a number of Group companies.

Other contingencies

Legal proceedings have been initiated against the Group in a number of jurisdictions, but on the basis of information currently available, and having taken legal counsel with legal advisors, the Group is of the opinion that the outcome of these proceedings net of any related insurance claims is unlikely to have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position and the consolidated profit of the Group.

Table of Contents37. Hedge accounting

The Group enters into various derivative instrument transactions to hedge risks on assets, liabilities, net investments and forecasted cash flows. The accounting treatment of the hedged item and the hedging derivative is dependent on whether the hedge relationship qualifies for hedge accounting. Qualifying hedges may be designated as either fair value or cash flow hedges.

Hedges not qualifying for hedge accounting

The fair value changes of derivative transactions used to hedge against economic risk exposures that do not qualify for hedge accounting, or for which it is not cost beneficial to apply hedge accounting, are recognised directly through income.

Derivatives designated and accounted for as hedging instrumentsFair value hedges

The Group's fair value hedges principally consist of interest rate swaps, interest rate options and cross currency interest rate swaps that are used to protect against changes in the fair value of fixed-rate assets, notably available-for-sale securities, and liabilities due to changes in market interest rates.

For qualifying fair value hedges, all changes in the fair value of the derivative and in the fair value of the hedged item for the risk being hedged are recognised in the income statement.

Cash flow hedges

For qualifying cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the change in the fair value of the hedge instrument is recorded in the cash flow hedge reserve and recognised in the income when the hedged item occurs. The ineffective portions of designated cash flow hedges are recorded in income immediately. If the hedge relationship is terminated, then the change in fair value of the derivative recorded in the hedge reserve is recognised when the cash flows that were hedged occur, consistent with the original hedge strategy. Gains and losses on derivatives reclassified from the cash flow hedge reserve to income are included in net interest income. The Group's main cash flow hedge programmes are operated by Group Asset and Liability Management and BU North America.

Cash flow hedge accounting for Group Asset and Liability Management

Cash flow hedge accounting operated by Group Asset and Liability Management relates to portfolio cash flow hedge accounting for the hedging activities of the Group's non-trading financial assets and liabilities.

The Group Asset and Liability Committee is the governing body for the risk management of the Group's banking portfolio and determines the interest rate risk level, sets risk measurement and modelling including applicable assumptions, sets limits, and is responsible for the asset and liability management policy.

ABN AMRO manages its exposure to interest rate risk per currency in the non-trading portfolios on a Group wide basis. In order to manage the sensitivity of the interest income per currency, the Group projects future interest income under different growth and interest rate scenarios. Systems are available to accumulate the relevant critical information throughout the Group about the existing financial assets, financial liabilities and forward commitments, including loan commitments. For the major currencies these positions are placed into a projected balance sheet available for asset liability management activities. The primary interest sensitive positions in the balance sheet stemming from the non-trading book are: loans and receivables, liabilities due to banks and customers, and issued debt securities.

The information gathered in the Group Asset and Liability Management's systems relates to the contractual terms and conditions, such as nominal amounts, currency, duration, interest basis, effective interest rate and interest re-pricing date. In addition other information such as estimates of prepayments, growth rate and interest scenarios is used in the interest sensitivity models of Group Asset and Liability Management. These assumptions are determined following agreed upon principles based amongst others on statistical market and client data and an economic outlook. Projected assets and liabilities are superimposed on the run-off of the currently existing positions. This information is used to create projected balance sheets that form the basis for measuring interest rate sensitivity. The new assets and liabilities and the future re-pricing of existing assets and liabilities are mapped to specific interest rate indices at the yield curve (i.e. one month, two months, three months, six months, one year, etc). In this way a new asset or liability that is for example based on a three months rate, is mapped to a specific three month rate index. For each projected month into the future, the assets and liabilities are grouped per interest rate-index and currency. The balance sheet projection that is embedded in the Group's interest rate risk management, not only allows the Group to estimate future interest income and perform scenario analysis, but also provides the opportunity to define the projected transactions that are eligible as hedged items in a cash flow hedge. The hedged positions are the monthly asset and liability clusters per currency and per interest rate index.

These clusters are homogeneous in respect of the interest rate risk that is being hedged, because they are designed to:

- (a) Share the interest rate risk exposure that is being hedged, and
- (b) Be sensitive to interest rate changes proportional to the overall sensitivity to interest rate changes in the cluster. ABN AMRO uses derivatives, mainly interest rate swaps, to offset identified exposures to interest rate risk in the projected balance sheet. For asset liability management purposes, assets and liabilities in a similar interest rate index cluster in a particular month are first considered as a natural off-set for economic hedging. A swap transaction may be entered into to risk manage the remaining interest income sensitivity. The notional amount of a pay- or receive-floating swap is designated to hedge the re-pricing cash flow exposure of a designated portion of current and forecasted assets and current and forecasted liabilities, respectively in the clusters described above. The swap transaction is designated for hedge accounting purposes as a hedge of a gross position of being a cluster of projected assets or a cluster of projected liabilities. As a result, the swap will only hedge an identified portion of a cluster of projected assets or projected liabilities. Also the swap will only hedge the applicable floating swap rate portion of the interest re-pricing and re-investment risk of the cluster. The longer the term of the hedge, the larger the excess of available cash flows from projected assets or liabilities in the clusters has to be, given that the cash flow projections further in the future are inherently less certain. The availability of an excess of cash flows in the clusters and the increase of excess over time is evaluated on a monthly basis. Furthermore back testing is performed on the sensitivity model for interest risk management purposes. This back testing also supports cash flow hedge accounting. The back testing relates to the interest sensitivity models applied and the assumptions used in the information gathering process for the balance sheet projection. Historical data are used to review the assumptions applied.

Cash flow hedge accounting in North America

Cash flow hedge accounting is utilised in the North American operations to mitigate the variability of cash flows of certain interest-earning assets or certain interest-bearing liabilities caused by interest rate changes.

Utilising interest rate swaps, the Group lengthens the duration (thus mitigating the interest rate variability) of forecasted cash flows attributable both to certain floating rate commercial loans and to the re-pricing of fixed rate, short term, wholesale liabilities. In all cases, the individual hedged forecasted cash flows are grouped with other items that share the same interest rate risk exposure, by reference to the rate index and frequency of re-pricing. In addition, the hedged forecasted cash flow may not be based on commercial loans with contractual terms that include an embedded interest rate cap or floor nor on floating rate loans considered at risk for potential default during the hedge period (typically hedging designations are reviewed and adjusted, as required, monthly) as identified by the Group's internal credit rating system.

Hedges of net investments in foreign operations

As explained in note 39, the Group limits its exposure to investments in foreign operations by hedging its net investment in its foreign operations with forward foreign exchange contracts in the currency of the foreign operations or a closely correlated currency to mitigate foreign exchange risk.

For qualifying net investment hedges, changes in the fair value of the derivative are recorded in the currency translation account differences reserve within equity.

38. Fair value informationDetermination of fair values

Fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability settled, between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arm's length transaction. Market prices or market rates are used to determine fair value where an active market exists (such as a recognised stock exchange), as it is the best evidence of the fair value of a financial instrument.

Market prices are not, however, available for all financial assets and liabilities held and issued by the Group. Where no active market price or rate is available, fair values are estimated using present value or other valuation techniques using inputs based on market conditions existing at the balance sheet dates.

Valuation techniques are generally applied to OTC derivatives, unlisted trading portfolio assets and liabilities, and unlisted financial investments (including private equity investments). The most frequently applied pricing models and valuation techniques include forward pricing and swap models using present value calculations, option models such as the Black and Scholes model, and credit models such as default rate models or credit spread models.

The values derived from applying these techniques can be significantly affected by the choice of valuation model used and the underlying assumptions made concerning factors such as the amounts and timing of future cash flows, discount rates, volatility, and credit risk.

The following methods and significant assumptions have been applied in determining the fair values of financial instruments carried at fair value:

- (i) Assets and liabilities held for trading are measured at fair value by reference to quoted market prices when available. If quoted market prices are not available, then fair values are estimated on the basis of pricing models, or other recognised valuation techniques.
- (ii) Financial investments classified as available for sale (interest-earning securities and equities) are measured at fair value by reference to quoted market prices when available. If quoted market prices are not available, then fair values are estimated on the basis of pricing models or other recognised valuation techniques.

Table of Contents

(iii) In general private equity investments fair values cannot be obtained directly from quoted market prices, or by using valuation techniques supported by observable market prices or rates. The fair value is estimated indirectly using valuation techniques or models for which the inputs are reasonable assumptions, based on market conditions. Valuation techniques applied are in accordance with EVCA (European Private Equity and Venture Capitalist Association) guidelines.

The following table presents the valuation methods used to determine fair values of financial instruments carried at fair value:

Sensitivity of fair values

Included in the fair value of financial instruments carried at fair value on the balance sheet are those estimated in full or in part using valuation techniques based on assumptions that are not supported by observable market prices or rates. The models used in these situations undergo an internal validation process before they are certified for use. Any related model valuation uncertainty is quantified, and deducted from the fair values produced by the models. Management believes the resulting estimated fair values recorded in the balance sheet and the changes in fair values recorded in the income statement are reasonable, and are the most appropriate values at the balance sheet date.

The potential effect of using reasonably possible alternative assumptions as inputs to valuation models, relying on non market-observable inputs, has been estimated as a reduction of approximately EUR 157 million (2005: EUR 150 million) using less favourable assumptions, and an increase of approximately EUR 157 million (2005: EUR 175 million) using more favourable assumptions.

The total amount of the change in fair value estimated using a valuation technique that was recognised in the profit and loss account for the year 2006 amounts to EUR 1,516 million (2005: EUR 1,354 million).

Assets and liabilities elected at fair value

The Group has elected to fair value non-controlling private equity investments, mortgages originated-for-sale and certain structured notes. The changes in fair value recognised in income on these assets and liabilities was a loss of EUR 141 million (2005: gain of EUR 401 million).

Financial assets and liabilities not carried at fair value

The following methods and significant assumptions have been applied in determining the fair values of financial instruments carried at cost:

- (i) The fair value of assets maturing within 12 months is assumed to approximate their carrying amount
- (ii) The fair value of demand deposits and savings accounts (included in due to customers) with no specific maturity is assumed to be the amount payable on demand at the balance sheet date
- (iii) The fair value of variable rate financial instruments is assumed to be approximated by their carrying amounts and, in the case of loans, does not, therefore, reflect changes in their credit quality, as the impact of credit risk is recognised separately by deducting the allowances for credit losses from both carrying amounts and fair values
- (iv) The fair value of fixed-rate loans and mortgages carried at amortised cost is estimated by comparing market interest rates when the loans were granted with current market rates offered on similar loans. Changes in the credit quality of loans within the portfolio are not taken into account in determining gross fair values, as the impact of credit risk is recognised separately by deducting the amounts of the allowances for credit losses from both carrying amounts and fair values.

The following table compares the carrying amount of financial assets and liabilities measured at cost to estimated fair values:

Table of Contents39. Financial risk management and use of derivatives

This section provides details of the Group's financial risk management objectives and policies and describes the methods used by management to control risk. In addition this note includes a discussion of the extent to which financial instruments are used, the associated risks and the business purpose served. This note should be read in conjunction with the section Risk and the Capital Framework included in the Annual Report from page 69 to page 81.

Financial risk management and controlRisks of financial instruments

The most important types of risk associated with financial instruments to which the Group is exposed are:

Credit risk and country event risk

Interest rate risk (banking book positions)

Market risk (including currency risk, interest rate risk, equity price risk and commodity risk of the trading book)

Currency risk (banking book positions)

Liquidity risk.

Below is a discussion of the various risks the Group is exposed to as a result of its activities and the approach taken to manage those risks.

Credit riskMeasurement and control

The Group is subject to credit risk through its lending, trading, hedging and investing activities as well as in cases where it acts as an intermediary on behalf of customers or other third parties or issues guarantees.

The Group's senior management is responsible for establishing the credit policies and the mechanisms, organisation and procedures required to analyse, manage and control credit risk. In this respect, counterparty limits are set and an internal system of credit ratings is applied.

The Group's primary exposure to credit risk arises through its loans, credit facilities and guarantees issued. The Group is also exposed to credit risk on various other financial assets, including financial investments (interest earning securities), loans and receivables from banks, financial assets held for trading (interest earning securities and derivatives) and derivatives used for hedging.

The risk that counterparties might default on their obligations is monitored on an ongoing basis. For each transaction the Group evaluates whether collateral or a master netting agreement is required to mitigate the credit risk.

Maximum credit exposure

In the table below we have detailed the maximum credit exposure:

	2006	2005
Derivative assets held for trading	105,334	105,372
Financial investments – interest-earning securities	121,287	119,749
Loans and receivables – banks	28,855	21,371
Loans and receivables – customers	327,313	282,580
Professional securities transactions	199,685	162,005
Multi-seller conduits	25,872	25,931
Committed credit facilities	145,418	141,010
Credit related contingent liabilities	51,279	46,021
Total	1,005,043	904,039

Table of Contents

The credit risk exposure on derivative assets held for trading is measured as the current positive replacement value. For interest-earning securities the amortised cost is included to reflect to credit risk exposure. The credit risk on professional security transactions is limited as a result of the nature of these transactions. The loans and receivables due from multi-seller conduits bear limited credit risk as these are fully collateralised.

Credit risk concentrations

Concentrations of credit risk (whether on- or off-balance sheet) that arise from financial instruments exist for groups of counterparties when they have similar economic characteristics that would cause their ability to meet contractual obligations to be affected in a similar way by changes in economic or other conditions. As part of managing risk concentrations, country risk in emerging markets and sector risk are managed on a portfolio basis. Refer to the following tables for details of the credit risk concentrations on the customer portfolio.

The amounts stated in the tables represent the maximum accounting loss that would be recognised at the balance sheet date if counterparties failed completely to perform as contracted and any collateral or security proved to be of no value. So the amounts significantly exceed expected losses in the event of counterparty default.

For a breakdown of counterparties for interest-earning securities in the available-for-sale and held-to-maturity portfolio, please refer to note 16. The Group has no significant exposure in loans and receivables customers to any individual customer or counterparty, according to the requirements of the Dutch Central Bank.

Collateral

The Group's policy is to obtain collateral if and when required prior to the disbursement of approved loans. Guarantees and letters of credit are also subject to strict credit assessments before being provided. The transactions specify monetary limits to the Group's obligations. The extent of collateral held for guarantees and letters of credit is on average 25% (2005: 20%).

Table of ContentsInterest rate risk (banking book)*Measurement and control

Several measures are used to monitor and limit banking book interest rate risk. The methods employed include earnings simulation, duration and present value per base point limits. Limits are set on the earnings and market value sensitivity. Model-based scenario analysis is used to monitor the interest rate risk positions denominated in euros, Brazilian reals and US dollars to the extent that these positions are held in Europe, Brazil and the US, which relates to some 85% to 90% (2005: 85% to 90%) of the total exposure of the Group. Interest rate risk positions in other currencies and other countries are controlled by present value per base point limits and/or market value limits, as these positions are typically less complex. Net interest income is the sum of interest received less interest paid on large volumes of contracts and transactions, and numerous different products. Simulation models and estimation techniques are used to forecast the net interest income and to assess its sensitivity to movements in the shape and level of the yield curve. Assumptions about client behaviour play an important role in these calculations. This is particularly relevant for loans such as mortgages where the client has the option to repay before the scheduled maturity. On the liability side, the repricing characteristics of savings and deposits are based on estimates using historical data, since the rates attached to these products are not coupled to a specified market rate or maturity date. The bank uses a statistical approach for forecasting and sensitivity analyses because it is the method best suited to these products. Details are used to carry out our hedging strategy. Please refer to note 37 for more information on hedge accounting.

Interest rate sensitivity disclosure banking book positions

For assessing interest rate risk in the banking books, Group Asset and Liability Management provides a set of measures – the Earnings-at-Risk and Market Value Risk for the EUR, USD and BRL currencies – and reports these to the Group Asset and Liability Committee. This set covers 85% to 90% (2005: 85% to 90%) of our net interest revenue in the banking book. The interest rate sensitivity of our trading books is measured under market risk.

The Earnings-at-Risk table shows the cumulative sensitivity of net interest income over a time horizon of 6, 12, and 24 months, and under a number of predefined scenarios. Sensitivity is defined as the percentage change in the interest income relative to a base case scenario. The base case scenario assumes continuation of the present yield curve environment. The rates rise and rates fall scenarios assume a gradual parallel shift of the yield curve during 12 months, after which the curve remains unchanged. In order to reflect the differences in yield curve across markets, the scenarios are currency-dependent. Due to the low interest environment the EUR rates fall scenario is 150 bp (2005: 100 bp), whereas the rates rise scenario is 200 bp for both years presented. The change in scenario, we applied from the first quarter 2006, reflects the higher EUR yield curve and the subsequent increased downward potential. For USD, the scenarios reflect a gradual change of 200 bp upwards and 200 bp downwards for both years. For BRL, the rates rise scenario is 1,100 bp and the Rates Fall is 800 bp for both years presented. In all cases, the volume scenario assumes new business volume in line with the business forecast during the first year, and a constant balance sheet thereafter.

The following table shows the cumulative % change in income over the relevant time horizon:

The Market Value Risk table below shows the sensitivity of the market value of equity to changes in interest rates for the EUR, USD and BRL currencies. Market value of equity is defined as the calculated discounted value of assets, minus calculated discounted value of liabilities, plus market value of derivatives and other interest sensitive items in the banking book. Sensitivity is measured as the percentage value change due to an overnight shock.

In 2006 all market value shocks have been reviewed and now reflect an overnight shock. The size of the shock is based on observed changes of the curve in a month and a 99% confidence level. End of 2005 the shocks were based on yearly changes. For EUR the 2006 shock was 50 bp (2005: downward shock 100 bp, upward shock 200 bp). For USD, the 2006 shock was 50 bp (2005: 200 bp). For BRL the 2006 downward shock was 230 bp (2005: 800 bp) and the 2006 upward shock was 320 bp (2005: 1,100 bp).

Market riskExposures

All trading portfolios are subject to market risk. Several major sources of market risk are: interest rate, foreign exchange, equity price, commodity price, credit spread, volatility risks and correlation risks. We define market risk as the risk that changes in financial market prices will decrease the value of our trading portfolios. The instruments in our trading portfolios are recognised at fair value, and all changes in market conditions directly affect net trading income.

Measurement and control

The Group applies a Value-at-Risk (VaR) methodology to estimate the market risk of trading portfolios and the maximum losses expected, based upon a number of assumptions for various changes in market conditions. The Group uses VaR as its primary tool for the day-to-day monitoring of market risks. Group Asset and Liability Committee sets limits on the maximum levels of the VaR on high aggregate levels. The risk committees can set VaR limits on various lower aggregate levels.

Other non-statistical control measures used in the market risk management process include historical and stress scenarios and limits on net open positions, interest rate sensitivity per basis point, spread sensitivities, option parameters, position concentrations and position ageing.

Table of ContentsValue-at-Risk

VaR is a methodology for assessing market risk exposure in a single number. VaR is a statistical measure that estimates potential losses, and is defined as the predicted worst-case loss that might be caused by changes in risk factors under normal circumstances, over a specified period of time and at a specific level of statistical confidence. The Group uses a proprietary VaR model that has been approved by the Dutch Central Bank.

The VaR methodology adopted by the bank for its VaR calculation is Historical Simulation, using approximately 1.5 years of weighted historical data (using the decay method). The VaR is calculated at a 99% confidence level for a one-day holding period, using absolute changes in historical rates and prices for interest rate related, and all implied volatility risk factors and relative changes in historical rates and prices for other risk factors. The positions captured by our VaR calculations include derivative and cash positions that are reported as assets and liabilities held for trading. The VaR is reported on a daily basis per trading portfolio, per product line and for the Group as a whole. It is reported daily to the senior management of the BUs, Group Risk Management and the responsible members of the Managing Board.

From 1 January 2006 we have implemented a revised VaR methodology to measure our market risk. We made the following enhancements to our 2005 model:

For interest rate related, and all implied volatility related risk factor we moved to absolute historical changes as the model input instead of relative historical changes

Using an approximately 1.5 year historical period instead of a 4 year period

Introduction of a weighting factor for the historical data

Observations and back testing of our previous model (which involves determining the number of days on which the losses were bigger than the estimated VaR of those days) learned that in particular circumstances the results from our previous model were no longer reflecting the best estimate of our market risk. Adoption of a shorter historical period and the introduction of a weighting factor for the historical data resulted in recent market movements to have a greater impact on future risk estimations and so made to the model more responsive to the current market conditions. The enhancements to the model have led to improved risk estimation. As a result of the implementation of the new model in combination with benign markets over a significant period, our VaR number decreased significantly. We are of the opinion that the current model better reflects the actual market risk we are exposed to at every single point in time. The table below provides the 2006 VaR numbers according to our new methodology and for 2006 and 2005 also according to the old methodology.

The maximum (and minimum) for each category occurred on different days and therefore have no direct relation to the maximum (and minimum) of the aggregate Value-at-Risk. The aggregate Value-at-Risk includes the diversification effect of imperfect or negative correlations between certain risk types. Therefore the aggregate Value-at-Risk can be lower than the sum of the individual risk types on the same day (e.g. year-end)

At a 99% confidence level, the statistical expectation is that on one out of every 100 trading days a loss exceeding the VaR for such a day occurs. The back testing is performed both on the actual profit and loss and on a hypothetical profit and loss, which measures a result net of commissions, origination fees and intra-day trading. The results of this back testing on the actual and the hypothetical results are reported to the Dutch Central Bank on a quarterly basis. Back testing is an essential instrument for the ex-post validation of our internal VaR model.

Stress testing

Although the VaR represents a good estimate of potential losses under normal market circumstances, it fails to capture one-off events. The limitations of the VaR model mean that we must supplement it with other statistical tests. These include a series of stress tests scenarios and sensitivity stress tests that shed light on the hypothetical behaviour of our portfolio and the impact on our financial results under extreme market movements. Sensitivity stress tests and stress test scenarios have been developed internally to reflect specific characteristics of the Group's portfolios and are performed on a daily basis for each trading portfolio and at several aggregation levels. These apply parallel increase and decreases in a number of risk elements or in one risk element, upon actual historical scenarios (non-parallel moves in a number of risk elements) or upon plausible future shocks.

Currency risk (banking book positions)

The Group's operating entities are required to manage any currency exposure arising on local transactions with funding in the same currency or to transfer the currency risk to the Group. Accordingly the Group is able to manage currency risk through its net investments in its non-euro operations.

We apply various hedging strategies to our net investments in our non-euro operations, in order to manage and minimise any adverse effects from translating the relevant foreign currency into euro.

Capital ratio hedge

To protect our capital ratios (core tier 1, tier 1 and total capital as a portion of risk-weighted assets) against adverse effects of the US dollar, our main foreign currency, the USD-sensitive part of our capital base has to be equal to the USD-sensitive part of our risk-weighted assets. On this basis, there will be no material impact on our capital ratios, as the ratios are hedged against changes in the EUR/ USD exchange rate.

Capital hedge

The capital ratio hedge strategy implies that a part of our capital has to be USD-sensitive to neutralise the USD sensitivity of our risk-weighted assets. Hence a part of our equity is also exposed to EUR/ USD fluctuations.

Table of Contents

Our investments in foreign operations in currencies other than the USD are hedged on a selective basis. We consider the use of hedging in cases where the expected currency loss is larger than the interest rate differential between the two currencies that represents the cost of the hedge.

At December 2006, 29% (2005: 56%) of our net investment in foreign operations was hedged leaving approximately EUR 9.4 billion (2005: EUR 5 billion) unhedged including USD 2.6 billion and BRL 4.6 billion (2005: USD 1 billion and BRL 2 billion) where USD and BRL are both stated in EUR amounts. The table shows the sensitivity of our capital to, respectively, a 10% appreciation and 10% depreciation in the euro against all foreign currencies.

Liquidity riskMeasurement and control

Liquidity risk arises in any bank's general funding of its activities. For example, a bank may be unable to fund its portfolio of assets at appropriate maturities and rates, or may find itself unable to liquidate a position in a timely manner at a reasonable price. The Group holds capital to absorb unexpected losses, and manages liquidity to ensure that sufficient funds are available to meet not only the known cash funding requirements, but also any unanticipated ones that may arise. At all times, the Group maintains what we believe to be adequate levels of liquidity on a Group-wide basis to meet deposit withdrawals, repay borrowings and fund new loans, even under stressed conditions.

We manage liquidity on a daily basis in all the countries in which we operate. Each national market is unique in terms of the scope and depth of its financial markets, competitive environment, products and customer profile. Therefore local line management is responsible for managing our local liquidity requirements under the supervision of Group Asset and Liability Management on behalf of the Group Asset and Liability Committee.

On a day-to-day basis our liquidity management depends on, among other things, the effective functioning of local and international financial markets. As this is not always the case, we have Group-wide contingency funding plans. These plans are put into effect in the event of a dramatic change in our normal business activities or in the stability of the local or international financial markets. The Group Strategic Funding Committee has full authority to manage such a crisis. As part of this liquidity management contingency planning, we continually assess potential trends, demands, commitments, events and uncertainties that could reasonably result in increases or decreases in our liquidity. More specifically, we consider the impact of these potential changes on our sources of short-term funding and long-term liquidity planning.

As we have entered into committed credit facilities, our liquidity management process also involves assessing the potential effect of the contingencies inherent in these types of transactions on our normal sources of liquidity and finance.

Liquidity gap

The following table provides an analysis that categorises the balance sheet of the Group into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining contractual periods to repayment.

Table of ContentsUse of derivativesDerivative instruments

The Group uses derivative instruments (a) to provide risk management solutions to its clients, (b) to manage the Group's own exposure to various risks (including interest, currency and credit risks) and (c) for proprietary trading purposes.

A derivative is a financial instrument that is settled at a future date and requires little or no initial net investment, and whose value varies in response to changes in the price of another financial instrument, an index or some other variable.

The majority of derivative contracts are arranged as to amount (notional), tenor and price directly with the counterparty (over-the-counter). The remainder are standardised in terms of their amounts and settlement dates and are bought and sold in organised markets (exchange traded).

The notional, or contractual, amount of a derivative represents the reference quantity of the underlying financial instrument on which the derivative contract is based. The value of the derivative contract is typically determined by applying a calculated price to this notional amount, and is the basis upon which changes in the value of the contract are measured. The notional amount provides an indication of the underlying volume of business transacted by the Group but does not provide any measure of risk, and is not included on the balance sheet.

Positive and negative fair values on different transactions are only netted if the transactions are with the same counterparty and the cash flows will be settled on a net basis, and the Group has the legal right to offset separate transactions with that counterparty.

Types of derivative instruments

The most common types of derivatives used are as follows:

Forwards are binding contracts to buy or sell financial instruments, most typically currency, on a future date at a specified price. Forward contracts are tailor-made agreements that are transacted between counterparties in the over-the-counter (OTC) market.

Futures are exchange traded agreements to buy or sell a standard quantity of specified grade or type of financial instrument, currency or commodity at a specified future date.

Commodity derivatives are contracts to buy or sell a non-financial item. They can be either exchange traded or OTC.

Swaps are agreements between two parties to exchange cash flows on a specified notional amount for a predetermined period. Most swaps are traded OTC. The major types of swap transactions undertaken by the Group are as follows:

Interest rate swap contracts – typically the contractual exchange of fixed and floating rate interest payments in a single currency, based on a notional amount and a reference interest rate, most commonly LIBOR

Cross currency swaps – the exchange of interest payments based on two different currency principal balances and reference interest rates, and usually the exchange of principal amounts at the start and end of the contract

Credit default swaps (CDSs) – bilateral agreements under which one party (protection buyer) makes one or more payments to the other party (protection seller) in exchange for an undertaking by the seller to make a payment to the buyer following a specified credit event. Credit default swaps may be on a single name (counterparty) or on a multiple (or basket) of names (counterparties). Settlement following a credit event may be a net cash amount, or cash in return for physical delivery of one or more obligations of the credit entity and is made regardless of whether the protection buyer has actually suffered a loss

Total rate of return swaps give the total return receiver exposure to all of the cash flows and economic benefits and risks of an underlying asset, without having to own the asset, in exchange for a series of payments, often based on a reference interest rate, such as LIBOR. The total return payer has an equal and opposite position. A specific type of total return swap is an equity swap

Table of Contents

Options are contractual agreements under which, typically, the seller (writer) grants the purchaser the right, but not the obligation, either to buy (call option) or to sell (put option) by or at a set date, a specified quantity of a financial instrument or commodity at a predetermined price. The purchaser pays a premium to the seller for this right. Options may be traded OTC or on a regulated exchange, and may be traded in the form of a security (warrant).

Derivatives transacted for trading purposes

Most of the Group's derivative transactions relate to sales and trading activities. Sales activities include the structuring and marketing of derivative products to customers to enable them to take, transfer, modify or reduce current or expected risks.

Trading activities are entered into principally for the purpose of generating profits from short term fluctuations in price or margin, and include market-making, positioning and arbitrage activities:

Market making involves quoting bid and offer prices to other market participants with the intention of generating income based on spread and volume

Positioning means managing market risk positions with the expectation of profiting from favourable movements in prices, rates or indices

Arbitrage activities involve identifying and profiting from price differentials between markets and products

Derivatives transacted for hedging purposes

The Group enters into derivative transactions for the purposes of hedging assets, liabilities, forecast transactions, cash flows and credit exposures. The accounting treatment of hedge transactions varies according to the nature of the instrument hedged and whether the hedge qualifies for accounting purposes (see accounting policies).

The Group also enters into derivative transactions which provide economic hedges for credit risk exposures but do not meet the requirements for hedge accounting treatment; for example, the Group uses CDSs as economic hedges for credit risk exposures in the loan and traded product portfolios, but cannot always apply hedge accounting to such positions.

Risks of derivative instruments

Derivative instruments are transacted in many trading portfolios, which generally include several types of instruments, not just derivatives. The market risk of derivatives is managed and controlled as an integral part of the market risk of these portfolios. The Group's approach to market risk is described in the market risk section of this note starting on page 195.

Derivative instruments are transacted with many different counterparties. The credit risk of derivatives is managed and controlled in the context of the Group's overall credit exposure to each counterparty. The Group's approach to credit risk is described in the financial risk section of this footnote. It should be noted that although the values shown on the balance sheet can be an important component of the Group's credit exposure, the positive fair values for any one counterparty are rarely an adequate reflection of the Group's credit exposure on its derivatives business with that counterparty. This is because, on the one hand, fair values can increase over time (potential future exposure), while on the other hand, exposure may be mitigated by entering into master netting agreements and bilateral collateral arrangements with counterparties.

40. Capital adequacy

To monitor the adequacy of capital the Group uses ratios established by the Bank for International Settlements (BIS). These ratios measure capital adequacy (minimum 8% as required by the BIS) by comparing the Group's eligible capital with its balance sheet assets, off-balance sheet commitments and market and other risk positions at weighted amounts to reflect their relative risk. The market risk approach covers the general market risk and the risk of open positions in currencies and debt and equity securities.

Assets are weighted according to broad categories of notional risk, being assigned a risk weighting according to the amount of capital deemed to be necessary to support them. Four categories of risk weights (0%, 20%, 50%, 100%) are applied; for example cash and money market instruments have a zero risk weighting which means that no capital is required to support the holding of these assets. Property and equipment carries a 100% risk weighting, meaning that it must be supported by capital equal to 8% of the carrying amount. Off-balance-sheet credit related commitments and derivative instruments are taken into account by applying different categories of conversion factors, which are designed to convert these items into balance sheet equivalents. The resulting equivalent amounts are then weighted for risk using the same percentages as for non-derivative assets.

Tier 1 capital consists of shareholders' equity and qualifying subordinated liabilities less goodwill and some intangible assets. Tier 2 capital represents additional qualifying subordinated liabilities, taking into account the remaining maturities.

Core tier 1 capital is tier 1 capital excluding preference shares.

The Group's capital adequacy level was as follows:

Table of Contents

In determining the capital adequacy requirement, both existing and future credit risk is taken into account. To this end the current potential loss on derivatives, which is the fair value based on market conditions at balance sheet date, is increased by a percentage of the relevant notional amounts, depending on the nature and remaining term of the contract. This method takes into account the possible adverse development of the fair value during the remaining term of the contract. The following analysis shows the resulting credit equivalent, both unweighted and weighted for counterparty risk (mainly banks). The figures allow for the impact of netting transactions and other collateral.

Credit equivalent of derivative contracts

Weighted credit equivalent	13.9	10.8

41. Private equity investments

Private equity investments are either consolidated or held at fair value.

Consolidated private equity holdings

Investments of a private equity nature that are controlled by the Group are consolidated. Such holdings represent a wide range of non-banking activities. Personnel and other costs relating to production and manufacturing activities are presented within material expenses. The impact of consolidating on the income statement these investments is set out in the following table.

	2006	2005	2004
Income of consolidated private equity holdings	5,313	3,637	2,616
Other income included in operating income	(340)	(242)	(96)
Total operating income of consolidated private equity holdings	4,973	3,395	2,520
Goods and material expenses of consolidated private equity holdings	3,684	2,519	1,665
Included in personnel expenses	577	362	399
Included in administrative costs	466	352	284
Included in depreciation and amortisation	212	133	151
Total operating expenses	4,939	3,366	2,499
Operating profit before tax of consolidated private equity holdings	34	29	21

Goods and material expenses includes personnel costs relating to manufacturing and production activities.

The assets and liabilities of these consolidated holdings are included in the Group balance sheet. Given the non-banking nature of the underlying activities, the main lines impacted are goodwill, property and equipment, other assets and issued debt securities. The total assets of these consolidated entities at 31 December 2006 were EUR 4,537 million (2005: EUR 3,477 million), excluding goodwill.

Unconsolidated private equity investments

The private equity investments over which the Group does not have control are accounted for at fair value with change through income. Although control is not with the Group, in many cases the Group has significant influence, usually evidenced by an equity stake of between 20% and 50%. Significant influence is held in approximately 88 (2005: 100) investments with a fair value of EUR 387 million at 31 December 2006 (2005: EUR 603 million), operating in various sectors including information technology, life sciences, media and telecommunications.

43. Remuneration of Managing Board and Supervisory BoardRemuneration Managing Board

The current compensation policy for the Managing Board was introduced in 2001 and changed in the years 2005 and 2006. The main objective is to ensure that ABN AMRO is able to recruit both internally and externally and retain expert and experienced Managing Board members. To achieve this, the Managing Board remuneration has several elements that, as a package, make it comparable with the remuneration offered by relevant peers in the market. Peers are defined as other major Dutch companies and other European-parented banks.

The compensation package for the Managing Board has the following elements:

- Base salary

- Performance bonus

Long-term incentives Performance Share Plan and Share Investment & Matching Plan
In addition there are a number of other benefits.

Table of ContentsBase salary

A common base salary applies to all Managing Board members except the Chairman, to whom a 40% differential applies. In addition to the base salary, the non-Dutch Board member receives a market competitive allowance. Salaries are reviewed annually with adjustments taking effect from 1 January. In 2006 Managing Board base salaries were adjusted upwards by 1.5% to compensate for the effects of inflation. The gross annual base salary for the Managing Board members was adjusted from EUR 650,000 to EUR 659,750 and from EUR 910,000 to EUR 923,650 for the Chairman.

Performance bonus

The annual performance bonus for Managing Board members is based upon ABN AMRO's quantitative and qualitative performance objectives at both the corporate and BU level. The objectives are set annually by the Nomination & Compensation Committee and endorsed by the Supervisory Board. With effect from 2006 all individual Managing Board members' performance is assessed wholly against Group performance objectives. Previous links to the various Business Unit targets were abandoned.

In 2006 objectives such as economic profit, efficiency ratio and operating result were used to measure quantitative corporate performance. All three of these objectives are aimed at growth and profitability and carried an equal weighting of one-third. In addition, qualitative objectives are set such as Compliance and Leadership/ Employee Engagement. Specific annual performance targets are not disclosed as they are considered competitively sensitive.

If the quantitative performance objectives are fully met, the 2006 bonus will be 150% of base salary with an upper limit of 200% for performance well above target. The Nomination & Compensation Committee may, on the basis of their assessment of a Managing Board member's individual performance against qualitative performance objectives, adjust the bonus outcome upwards or downwards within a range of plus or minus 20% of base salary.

The 2006 performance bonuses for Managing Board members have been set at the newly agreed 2006 bonus levels. The Committee assessed the 2006 performance against the set and realised quantitative objectives.

The bonuses with respect to the 2006 performance year for all Managing Board members, including the Chairman of the Managing Board, are set at 125% of the 2006 annual base salary. The assessment of the qualitative objectives did not give the Nomination & Compensation Committee reason to use its discretion to differentiate in the individual bonus results. Bonuses for the Managing Board members who left the bank in 2006 were also set at 125% of the salary earned while they were in active service in 2006. The individual bonus awards are shown in the table on page 208.

ABN AMRO Share Investment & Matching Plan

In 2004 shareholders' approval was obtained to encourage executive share ownership. Under this plan, the Board members may defer a maximum of 25% of their annual salary into ABN AMRO Holding N.V. shares (investment shares). This amount must be funded from the net bonus outcome of the relevant performance year. If the net bonus outcome is insufficient to fund the full investment amount the participation will be withdrawn.

At the end of a three-year vesting period the investment shares will be matched by the bank on the basis of one ABN AMRO share (matching share) for each investment share, provided that the Managing Board member remains employed within the ABN AMRO Group during the vesting period. The investment shares, together with the built-up dividends, will be released three years after deferral. The matching shares must be held for at least five years from vesting, with the possibility of selling some of the shares to settle the tax obligation.

In 2006 with respect to the 2005 bonus all Managing Board members have participated in this plan. Of the six Managing Board members who were already a Board member in 2005, five participated for the maximum amount of 25% of base salary and one Managing Board member for 12.5% of base salary. The three newly appointed Managing Board members each participated for a fixed investment amount of EUR 100,000 that was applicable for them as being a SEVP in 2005. The total amount that was used to purchase Investment Shares was EUR 1,258,596 for all nine Managing Board members. With respect to the bonus for 2006 six of the current seven Managing Board members participated for 25% of annual salary and one member chose to invest an amount of EUR 75,000.

Table of ContentsShare options

Share options have been an integral part of ABN AMRO top executives' compensation for several years. As of 2005 share options no longer form part of the long-term reward package for the Managing Board or for the Top Executive Group as a whole. The options granted in the years up to and including 2004 will remain in place. In 2006 no options expired. The options granted in 2003 vested on 24 February 2006 and will remain exercisable during the remainder of the ten-year option period, which runs up to and including 23 February 2013. The options granted in 2004 have vested on 13 February 2007, because the set return on equity performance condition for this award was met by the end of the three year performance period in 2006. The options will remain exercisable up to and including 12 February 2014.

The Managing Board announced to the Nomination & Compensation Committee on 30 January 2006 their collective decision to limit the exercise of their options going forward exclusively to the first day of the first open period after vesting and/or expiration periods, or to earlier equivalent contractual dates in line with the plan rules, such as the date of retirement. For the 2004 options this means that the first possible date to exercise will be the first day of the second open period in 2007. Although this limits the theoretical value of the options, the Managing Board believes the increase in transparency to the market outweighs this theoretical disadvantage.

Performance Share Plan

The Performance Share Plan was introduced in 2001 and forms an important though stretching part of the Managing Board's reward package. SEVPs are also eligible for a yearly grant under this plan.

In 2006 Managing Board members received a conditional award of 60,000 shares and the Chairman 84,000 shares. The Performance Share Plan grant in 2006 was based half on the relative total return to shareholders (TRS) performance and half on the average return on equity (ROE) achieved by the bank over the four-year performance period, defined as the year of grant and three subsequent years.

The vesting schedule for the TRS-linked award is the same as in previous years. The full award will be paid if the TRS generated by the bank in the fourth year of the performance period is fifth out of 21 relative to the peer group. There will be a sliding scale ranging from no award if the bank is lower than tenth to 150% of the conditional award if the bank has progressed to the very top of the TRS rankings.

The ROE linked part of the award was introduced in 2005. The pay-out of this part of the award will be linked to the average ROE target for the performance period using a sliding scale, with a threshold at 25% and a maximum award of 100%.

Another condition is that the recipient must still be in service with the Group at the end of the performance period. The four-year performance cycle for the conditional shares as awarded in 2003 came to a close at the end of 2006, and ABN AMRO's position in the peer group was position 16, meaning that the performance share award has not vested.

Pension

The Managing Board's pensionable salary is 100% of annual base salary. Until 31 December 2005 the normal retirement age of the Managing Board members was 62. Since 1 January 2006 the plan has been changed in such a way that the normal retirement age is 65, based on average income (2.15% per year). It is possible to retire earlier. The ABN AMRO Pension Fund manages the pension plan.

Specific benefits

The Managing Board's compensation package also includes:

The use of a company lease car with driver

Reimbursement of the cost of adequate security measures for their main private residence

A 24-hour personal accident insurance policy with a fixed covered amount of EUR 1.8 million for members and EUR 2.5 million for the Chairman

(1) Other payments are comprised of contributions towards private health insurance and foreigner allowance as well as a termination payment. Mr H.Y. Scott-Barrett received a foreigner allowance of EUR 471 thousand and a tax allowance of EUR 12 thousand. In 2005 the allowance amounted to EUR 464 thousand. Mr C.H.A. Collee received EUR 3 million termination payment.

(2) Share-based payments are calculated in accordance with IFRS 2 by recognising the fair value of the shares or options at grant date over the vesting period.

(3) Pension costs exclusively comprise pension service cost computed on the basis of IAS 19.

(4) Mr T. de Swaan retired on 1 May 2006.

(5) Mr C.H.A. Collee stepped down on 31 December 2006.

Table of Contents

The following table shows movements in shares conditionally awarded under the Performance Share Plan. For the years to 2005 the conditional award was based 100% on the bank's ranking in the peer group (TRS ranking). For the year 2005 and 2006, 50% of the award is on the TRS ranking and 50% on the average ROE target for the reference period. The number of shares conditionally awarded on the TRS ranking in the table below assumes a ranking of fifth in the peer group, in line with our ambition. The number of shares conditionally awarded on the ROE target assumes that we will achieve an average ROE above 20% per annum, our target for the performance cycle 2005-2008 and 2006-2009.

The decrease in outstandings between 31 December 2005 and 31 December 2006 is caused by repayments.

The following table provides information on the remuneration of individual members of the Supervisory Board. As of 1 May 2006 the remuneration was adjusted. The members of the Supervisory Board receive an equal remuneration of EUR 60,000 per annum. For the Vice-Chairman this remuneration is EUR 70,000 and for the Chairman EUR 85,000 per annum. For the membership of the Audit Committee an additional allowance of EUR 15,000 for the members is applied on an annual basis. The annual allowance for the members of the Nomination & Compensation Committee and the Compliance Oversight Committee is EUR 10,000. The annual allowance for the Chairman of the Audit Committee is EUR 20,000 and for the Chairmen of the two other Committees EUR 15,000 per annum. The general expenses allowances were abolished and actual business expenses incurred can be declared and are eligible for reimbursement. Supervisory Board members that are not resident in the Netherlands are entitled to general allowances for each Supervisory Board meeting that they attend, namely EUR 7,500 for members who live outside Europe and EUR 5,000 for members who live in Europe. This allowance applies to meetings of both the Supervisory Board and the various committees and is paid only once when meetings are being held on the same day or on consecutive days and is only paid when the members physically attend the meetings.

All amounts are based on a full year, but the actual payment depends on the period of membership during the year. Members of the Supervisory Board are not entitled to emoluments in the form of ABN AMRO shares or options on ABN AMRO shares.

Loans from ABN AMRO to Supervisory Board members

The outstanding loans at 31 December 2006 amounts to EUR 0.3 million with an interest rate of 3.83% (2005: EUR 2.1 million @ 3.00%) and relates to Mrs L.S. Groenman (2005: related to Mr A. Burgmans).

Senior Executive Vice Presidents (SEVPs) Compensation 2006

The reward package for ABN AMRO's SEVPs, the second level of Top Executives, was also introduced in 2001 and as with the Managing Board was primarily aimed at maximising total returns to our shareholders.

The compensation for ABN AMRO SEVPs consists of the following core elements:

Base salary. The base salaries are benchmarked against the relevant local markets. The current median base salary is EUR 402,000 (2005: EUR 396,000).

Table of Contents

Performance bonus. The annual performance bonus is linked to the respective markets within the various countries where we operate. The median bonus amount paid with respect to the 2006 performance year was EUR 1.3 million (2005: EUR 1 million). Bonuses for individual SEVPs vary widely, again reflecting market and location. No absolute maximum level of bonus has been defined for SEVPs

Long-term incentives such as the Performance Share Plan and the Share Investment & Matching Plan.

Long-term incentives are set at a lower level than the applicable yearly grants to Managing Board members.

SEVPs received an award under the Top Executive Performance Share Plan and are eligible to participate on a voluntary basis in the Share Investment & Matching Plan. All SEVPs receive identical grants.

In addition, a number of benefits apply in relation to the respective markets and countries of residence.

The total compensation for SEVPs in 2006 amounts to EUR 47 million (2005: EUR 51 million).

44. Share-based payment plans

ABN AMRO grants long-term share-based incentive awards to members of the Managing Board, other top executives and key staff under a number of plans.

The current plans for the Managing Board (Performance Share Plan and Share Investment & Matching Plan) are described in note 43. At a lower level, the Performance Share Plan is also applicable to the second tier of top executives, the SEVPs. Both the SEVPs and the third level of top executives, the EVPs and MDs, may defer a part of their bonus to the Share Investment & Matching Plan. Furthermore, there is a Restricted Share Plan for the EVPs/MDs with performance conditions linked to the average return on equity in line with the Performance Share Plan of the Managing Board. All these plans are equity-settled.

There is also a cash-settled Performance Share Plan for the EVPs/MDs for the performance cycle 2005-2008.

With effect from 2006 share options are no longer granted to key staff. The options are replaced by restricted shares in line with the changes for the top executives in 2005.

Share-based compensation expense totalled EUR 78 million in 2006 (EUR 61 million in 2005 and EUR 4 million in 2004). The total carrying amount of liabilities arising from cash-settled share-based payments transactions amounted to EUR 10 million at 31 December 2006 (2005: EUR 22 million).

Option plans

The fair value of options granted is determined using a Lattice option pricing model. The following table shows the assumptions on which the calculation of the fair value of these options was based. The expected volatility was based on historical volatility.

For the calculation of the fair value of the options granted to the Top Executives in 2004, the same assumptions were used. The expense recorded in 2006 regarding all options plans amounted to EUR 28 million (2005: EUR 43 million).

If all exercisable rights were to be exercised, shareholders' equity would increase by an amount of EUR 627 million (2005: EUR 563 million). Deliveries on options exercised in 2006 were made from share repurchases on the date of grant (7,791,365 shares; 2005: 1,868,242 shares) and from new shares issued on the exercise date (no shares; 2005: no shares).

45. Discontinued operations and assets and liabilities held for sale

On 1 December 2006, the Group disposed of the property development and management activities of its Bouwfonds subsidiary. The Bouwfonds Property Development, Bouwfonds Asset Management, Bouwfonds Fondsenbeheer, Rijnlandse Bank and Bouwfonds Holding were sold to Rabobank for a cash consideration of EUR 852 million and the Bouwfonds Property Finance activities were sold to SNS Bank for a cash consideration of EUR 825 million. The total net gain on the sale of Bouwfonds amounted to EUR 338 million.

During 2006, the Group actively began to market the assets of the national residential mortgage line of business (ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc.), a subsidiary of ABN AMRO LaSalle Bank Midwest. The sale transaction closed on 28 February 2007.

The results of these transactions have been presented as discontinued operations with the comparative figures for 2005 and 2004 re-presented. In addition, the assets and liabilities of the ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc. have been reported as assets of businesses held for sale and liabilities of businesses held for sale in the consolidated balance sheet.

46. Related parties

The Group has a related party relationship with associates (see notes 20 and 41), joint ventures (see note 42), pension funds (see note 28) and key management (see note 43).

The Group enters into a number of banking transactions with related parties in the normal course of business. These include loans, deposits and foreign currency transactions. These transactions were carried out on commercial terms and at market rates except for employees, which are offered preferential terms for certain banking products. No allowances for loan losses have been recognised in respect of loans to related parties in 2006 and 2005.

I Release of fund for general banking risks

The fund for general banking risks is considered to be a general reserve and is not permitted under IFRS. The fund balance as at 1 January 2004 was transferred to shareholders' equity.

II Reclassification of preference shares to subordinated liabilities

IFRS requires the reclassification from equity to debt of preference shares (and other instruments, if applicable) if ABN AMRO, the issuer, does not have full discretion regarding payment of dividends and the repayment of the underlying notional.

Table of Contents*III Reversal of property revaluation*

Under Dutch GAAP, bank premises, including land, were stated at replacement cost and fully depreciated on a straight-line basis over their useful lives with a maximum of 50 years. Value adjustments, net of tax, were credited or charged to a separate component of shareholders' equity called the revaluation reserve. Under IFRS property is stated at historical cost, less any adjustments for impairment, and depreciated on a straight-line basis over their useful lives.

IV Reclassification regarding Banco ABN AMRO Real to subordinated liabilities.

As part of the acquisition of Banco Sudameris Brasil S.A a contingent payable that qualified as minority interest under Dutch GAAP was determined to be a liability under IFRS and measured at fair value.

V Release of interest equalisation reserve relating to the investment portfolio.

Under Dutch GAAP, bonds and similar debt securities included in the investment portfolios (other than securities on which a large part or all of the interest is settled on redemption) were stated at redemption value less any diminution in value deemed necessary. Net capital gains realised prior to maturity date in connection with replacement operations were recognised as deferred interest income in the interest equalisation reserve and amortised to income over the duration of the investment portfolio.

Under IFRS all bonds and similar debt securities included in the investment portfolio are either classified as held to maturity or available for sale. Unlike under Dutch GAAP realised gains and losses on available for sale securities are recognised directly in income on disposal.

VI Derivatives and hedging

Under Dutch GAAP, derivatives that were used to manage either the overall structural interest rate exposure of the Group or designated to manage the interest exposure within specific assets and liabilities were accounted for on an accrual basis. Therefore, changes in the fair value of the derivatives were not recorded.

Under IFRS, all derivatives are recognised as either assets or liabilities and measured at fair value. If the derivative is a hedge and the hedge accounting requirements are met, changes in fair value of a designated derivative that is highly effective as a fair value hedge, together with the change in fair value of the corresponding asset, liability or firm commitment attributable to the hedged risk, are included directly in earnings. Changes in fair value of a designated derivative that is highly effective as a cash flow hedge are included in equity and reclassified into earnings in the same period during which the hedged forecasted cashflow affects earnings. Any ineffectiveness is reflected directly in earnings.

VII Fair value adjustments

Under Dutch GAAP, except for trading positions all financial instruments were carried at cost including non-trading derivatives (see above) and features embedded in non-derivative assets and liabilities that under IFRS are to be recognised as a derivative. Transition to IFRS included valuing a number of non-trading and embedded derivatives and assets and liabilities designated to be measured at fair value under IFRS to a fair value basis. This caption also includes the application of the IFRS fair value measurement guidance.

VIII Private equity (consolidation and fair valuation)

Under Dutch GAAP, private equity investments were held at cost (less impairment where required). Under IFRS, private equity investments that are not controlled are accounted for at fair value with changes reported through income. Private equity investments that are controlled are consolidated.

IX Loan impairment provisioning

Under Dutch GAAP, specific provisions against individually significant and not individually significant (portfolio basis) non-performing loans are determined by estimating the future cash flows on an undiscounted basis. Under IFRS, specific loan loss provisions are determined by reference to estimated future cash flows on a discounted basis. This constitutes the predominant part of the determined transition amount.

Table of Contents

X Property development

This represented the impact of applying the percentage of completion method to our housing development business at our subsidiary Bouwfonds.

XI Differences at LeasePlan Corporation

Under Dutch GAAP, the majority of the Group's Leasing business was accounted for as a financing arrangement.

Under IFRS, a major part of the Group's leasing business was assessed to be conducted through operating leases. Operating lease accounting under IFRS requires the leased asset to be included within Property and Equipment and to be depreciated, with income booked as a form of rental.

XII Equity accounted investments

This adjustment of EUR 100 million represents the estimated amount resulting from the adoption of IFRS at the key associates (Antonveneta and Capitalia) who at 1 January 2004 had not completed their IFRS conversion project. The actual impact was EUR 130 million. This difference was recorded in 2005 income.

XIII Employee benefit obligations

Under Dutch GAAP, we applied SFAS 87: Employers Accounting for Pensions. Under IFRS, the Group implemented IAS 19 Employee Benefits. As permitted under IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards, the Group have elected to recognise all cumulative actuarial gains and losses as at 1 January 2004 against shareholders' equity.

XIV Other

The main item included in other transition items relates to loan fees and amounts to EUR 150 million at 1 January 2004. Under IFRS additional non-reimbursable loan fees are deferred over the lifetime of the related facility.

XV Available-for-sale reserve

This represents the impact of fair valuing available for sale debt and equity securities.

XVI Cash flow hedging reserve

This represents the fair value at transition of all derivatives designated in cash flow hedging programmes.

XVII Dutch GAAP pension booking to equity not applicable under IFRS

Under Dutch GAAP, the Group recorded a minimum pension liability as required under SFAS 87, while under IFRS no such requirement exists.

XVIII Difference in currency translation account movement

The currency translation account was reset to zero at 1 January 2004 (the transition date). The difference in currency translation account movements during 2004 relates to differences in the carrying amount of our subsidiaries and associates under IFRS that do not have the euro as their functional currency.

XIX Equity settled derivatives on own shares

This difference is related to written options on own shares, that could be settled in own shares. Under IFRS the notional amounts of the shares are separately reported within equity with an offset reported in other liabilities.

XX Goodwill capitalisation under IFRS

During 2004, goodwill on new acquisitions was capitalised under IFRS but not under Dutch GAAP. The Group applied the business combination exemption as permitted under IFRS 1 thus there was no transition impact for this item.

XXII Mortgage banking activities

Under Dutch GAAP, all mortgage servicing rights were carried at the lower of initial carrying value, adjusted for amortisation, or fair value. Mortgage servicing rights were amortised in proportion to, and over the period of, net estimated servicing income. The carrying amount or book basis of servicing rights includes the unamortised cost of servicing rights, deferred realised gains and losses on derivative hedges and valuation reserves.

Under IFRS the basis for determining the fair value of mortgage servicing rights is consistent with Dutch GAAP. However, under IFRS, the carrying amount of servicing rights does not include deferred gains and losses on derivative hedges realised subsequent to 1 January 2004. Under IFRS, the components of the carrying amount of servicing rights include their unamortised cost and the basis adjustment arising from fair value hedge relationships.

XXIII Employee benefit obligations

Under Dutch GAAP, equity settled share options schemes were recorded based on the intrinsic values at grant date, which in all cases was zero. Under IFRS, equity settled share options and other share schemes are initially assessed at fair value at grant date and charged to income over the vesting period.

XXIV Redemption costs relating to preference shares classified as interest cost under IFRS

The dividends paid on preference shares were recorded as distributions to equity holders under Dutch GAAP. These dividend payments are presented as interest expense under IFRS, consistent with the presentation of these preference shares as liabilities.

Table of ContentsPART C ABN AMRO HOLDING N.V. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS 2005*Accounting Policies

ABN AMRO Holding N.V. is the parent company of the ABN AMRO consolidated group of companies (referred to as the Group or ABN AMRO) and is domiciled in the Netherlands. The consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2005 incorporate figures of the parent, its controlled entities and interests in associates.

The Group provides a broad range of financial services on a worldwide basis, including consumer, commercial and investment banking.

Statement of compliance

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (EU) and do not utilise the portfolio hedging carve out permitted by the EU. Accordingly, the accounting policies applied by the Group also comply fully with IFRS.

IFRS standards and interpretations are issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and comprise International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (IFRIC).

Since ordinary shares in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. are listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) in the form of American Depositary Receipts, ABN AMRO also publishes an annual report on Form 20-F that conforms to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) applicable to foreign registrants. The Form 20-F includes a reconciliation of equity and profit attributable to shareholders of the parent company to the comparable amounts using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP).

Basis of preparation and first time application

The financial statements are presented in euros, which is the presentation currency of the Group, rounded to the nearest million.

The financial statements are prepared on a mixed model valuation basis. Fair value is used for derivative financial instruments, financial assets and liabilities held for trading or designated as measured at fair value through income and available-for-sale assets. Other financial assets (including Loans and Receivables) and liabilities are valued at amortised cost. The carrying value of amortised cost assets and liabilities included in a fair value hedge relationship is adjusted with respect to fair value changes resulting from the hedged risk. Non-financial assets and liabilities are generally stated at historical cost.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires the use of judgement and estimates that affect the recognition and valuation of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions, the actual results may differ ultimately from these estimates. The key areas requiring an application of judgement and estimation include the assessment of risk and rewards and other relevant criteria when determining whether or not to derecognise a financial asset or when to consolidate a special purpose entity, the determination of the fair value of certain assets and liabilities, the amount and timing of future cash flows on impaired loans, the outcome of any litigation and the assumptions underlying the determination of long term employee benefit liabilities and other provisions. The Group has applied the accounting policies set out herein from its transition to IFRS at 1 January 2004. For all periods up to and including the year ended 31 December 2004, ABN AMRO prepared its consolidated financial statements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the Netherlands (Dutch GAAP). From 1 January 2005, ABN AMRO is required to prepare its consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS as adopted by the EU and effective for ABN AMRO's reporting for the year ended 31 December 2005. Transition to IFRS incorporates the impact of applying all IFRS statements to our assets (such as loans and property), liabilities (such as pensions) and open contracts (such as derivatives and leases) at 1 January 2004. In many respects the change to IFRS has been a gradual process for Dutch companies, due to the inclusion of many IFRS standards within Dutch GAAP. However, IAS 39 Financial Instruments, which is the main IFRS standard impacting banks, was not incorporated into Dutch GAAP. This standard, which extends the use of fair values and sets out specific rules of the application of hedge accounting, causes a number of the transition differences.

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Group has elected to utilise certain transitional provisions within IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards which offer certain practical exemptions from the normal rule of applying IFRS retrospectively.

The following exemptions were used to establish the Group's opening IFRS equity:

No restatement of business combinations that took place prior to 1 January 2004

The full cumulative actuarial loss on retirement benefit plans is recognised in equity at 1 January 2004

The cumulative translation account in equity for foreign operations is set to zero at 1 January 2004

IFRS 2 Share-based Payment is only applied to unvested awards that were issued after 7 November 2002

The IAS 39 requirement to defer gains and losses on the initial recognition of a financial asset or liability, not determined by reference to observable market data, was applied to all transactions entered into after 25 October 2002 consistent with US GAAP requirements

Certain financial assets and liabilities were designated to be held at fair value through income on transition. Items elected to fair value through income on transition include non-controlling investments of a Private Equity nature, mortgages originated and held for sale by our North America business, unit-linked investments held for the account of insurance policy holders and certain structured liabilities.

The Group has adopted the Amendment to IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement: The Fair Value Option with effect from 1 January 2004, ahead of its mandatory date. Additionally, the Group elected to apply IFRS 5 Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations at 1 January 2004 ahead of its mandatory effective date.

See note 47 for further details of the transition to IFRS.

Basis of consolidation

Subsidiaries and acquisitions

Subsidiaries are those enterprises controlled by the Group. Control is deemed to exist when the Group has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an enterprise so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are presently exercisable or convertible are taken into account when assessing whether control exists. The Group sponsors the formation of entities, including certain special purpose entities, which may or may not be directly owned, for the purpose of asset securitisation transactions and other narrow and well-defined objectives. Particularly in the case of securitisations these entities may acquire assets from other Group companies. Some of these entities are bankruptcy-remote entities whose assets are not available to meet the claims of creditors of the Group or any of its subsidiaries. Such entities are consolidated in the Group's Financial Statements when the substance of the relationship between the Group and the entity indicates that control is held by the Group.

The financial statements of subsidiaries and special purpose entities are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which control commences until the date on which control ceases.

Equity attributable to minority interests is shown separately in the consolidated balance sheet as part of total equity and current period profit or loss attributable to minority interests are presented as an attribution of profit for the year.

IFRS 3 Business combinations was adopted for all business combinations that took place after 1 January 2004.

Goodwill on acquisitions prior to this date was charged against equity. The cost of an acquisition is measured at the fair value of the assets given up, shares issued or liabilities undertaken at the date of acquisition, plus costs directly attributable to the acquisition. The excess of the cost of acquisition over 229

the Group's share of the fair value of the identifiable net assets (including certain contingent liabilities) acquired is recorded as goodwill.

In a step acquisition, where control is obtained in stages, all assets and liabilities of the acquired subsidiary, excluding goodwill, are adjusted to their fair values at the date of the latest share acquisition transaction. Fair value adjustments relating to existing holdings are recorded directly in equity.

As a consequence of measuring all the acquired assets and liabilities at fair value, minority interests are calculated by reference to these fair values.

Investments held with significant influence

Associates are those enterprises in which the Group has significant influence (this is generally demonstrated when the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights), but not control, over the operating and financial policies.

If significant influence is held in a venture capital investment the equity investment is designated to be held at fair value with changes through income.

Other investments in which significant influence is held, including the Group's strategic investments, are accounted for using the Net equity method and presented as Equity accounted investments. Under this method the investment is initially recorded at cost and subsequently increased (or decreased) for post acquisition net income (or loss), other movements impacting the equity of the investee and any adjustments required for impairment. When the Group's share of losses exceeds the carrying amount of the investment, the carrying amount is reduced to zero, including any other unsecured receivables, and recognition of further losses is discontinued except to the extent that the Group has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the investee.

Jointly controlled entities

Jointly controlled entities are those enterprises over whose activities the Group has joint control, established by contractual agreement. The consolidated financial statements include the Group's proportionate share of these enterprises' assets, liabilities, income and expenses on a line-by-line basis, from the date on which joint control commences until the date on which joint control ceases.

Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations

Non-current assets and/or businesses are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount is to be recovered principally through a sale transaction planned to occur within 12 months, rather than through continuing use. Held for sale assets are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell and are classified separately from other assets in the balance sheet. Assets and liabilities of a business held for sale are separately presented.

The results of discontinued operations (if significant and representing a separate major line of business or a geographical area of operation) are presented in the income statement as a single amount comprising the net profit and/or net loss of the discontinued operation and the after tax gain or loss realised on disposal. Comparative income statement data is re-presented if in the current period an activity qualifies as discontinuing and qualifies for separate presentation.

Private equity

Investments of a private equity nature controlled by the Group are consolidated. All other investments of a private equity nature are designated at fair value through income.

Transactions eliminated on consolidation

Intra-group balances and transactions, and any related unrealised gains, are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised gains arising from transactions with associates and jointly controlled entities are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the enterprise. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of impairment in the asset transferred.

Table of ContentsCurrency translation differences

The financial performance of the Group's foreign operations (conducted through branches, subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures) is reported using the currency (functional currency) that best reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and circumstances relevant to that entity.

Transactions in a currency that differs from the functional currency of the transacting entity are translated into the functional currency at the foreign exchange rate at transaction date. Accruals and deferrals are translated using the foreign exchange rate on the last day of the month to which the results relate.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities accounted for at cost, if denominated in foreign currency, are translated at the foreign exchange rate prevailing at the date of initial recognition.

Translation differences on monetary financial assets and liabilities, whether measured at amortised cost or fair value, are included in foreign exchange gains and losses in income. Translation differences on non-monetary items (such as equities) held at fair value through income are also reported through income and, for those classified as available-for-sale, directly in equity within Net unrealised gains and losses on available-for-sale assets .

The assets and liabilities of foreign operations, including goodwill and purchase accounting adjustments, are translated to the Group's presentation currency, the euro, at the foreign exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. The income and expenses of foreign operations are translated to euro at the rates prevailing at the end of the month. Currency translation differences arising on these translations are recognised directly in equity (currency translation account). Exchange differences recorded in equity, arising after transition to IFRS on 1 January 2004, are included in the income statement on disposal or partial disposal of the operation.

Fiduciary activities

The Group commonly acts as trustee and in other fiduciary capacities that entail either the holding or placing of assets on behalf of individuals, trusts or other institutions. These assets are not assets of the Group and are therefore not included in these financial statements.

Income statementInterest income and expenses

Interest income and expense is recognised in the income statement using the effective interest rate method. The application of this method includes the amortisation of any discount or premium or other differences, including transaction costs and qualifying fees and commissions, between the initial carrying amount of an interest-bearing instrument and its amount at maturity calculated on an effective interest rate basis. This item also includes interest income and expense in relation to trading balances.

Fee and commission income

Fees and commissions are recognised as follows:

fees and commissions generated as an integral part of negotiating and arranging a funding transaction with customers, such as the issuance of loans are included in the calculation of the effective interest rate and are included in interest income and expense

fees and commissions generated for transactions or one-off acts are recognised when the transaction or act is completed

fees and commissions dependent on the outcome of a particular event or contingent upon performance are only recognised when the relevant criteria have been met

service fees are typically recognised on a straight-line basis over the service contract period. Portfolio and other management advisory and service fees are recognised based on the applicable service contracts

asset management fees related to investment funds are also recognised over the period the service is provided. This principle is also applied to the recognition of income from wealth management, financial planning and custody services that are provided over an extended period.

Table of ContentsNet trading income

Net trading income includes gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value and disposal of financial assets and liabilities held for trading and includes dividends received from trading instruments. Interest income or expenses on trading assets or liabilities are included within interest income or expense.

Results from financial transactions

Results from financial transactions include gains and losses on the sale of non-trading financial assets and liabilities, ineffectiveness of certain hedging programmes, fair value changes relating to assets and liabilities designated at fair value through income and changes in the value of any related derivatives. Dividend income from non-trading equity investments is recognised when entitlement is established.

Other operating income

Development property income is first recognised when the outcome of a construction contract can be estimated reliably; after which contract income and expenses are recognised in the income statement in proportion to the stage of completion of the contract. The stage of completion is assessed by reference to the phases of work performed. An expected loss on a contract is recognised immediately in the income statement.

Rental income from investment property is recognised in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives granted are recognised as an integral part of the total rental income. Income from insurance activities is presented net of direct costs and provisions required for the insured risk.

Earnings per share

Earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to shareholders of the parent company from continuing and discontinuing operations by the average number of shares in issuance during the year. Fully diluted earnings per share is calculated taking into account all dilutive instruments, including options and employee share plans, in issuance at the balance sheet date.

Segment reporting

Business segments are the primary reporting segments and are grouped by the nature of risks and rewards assessed by reference to product and service characteristics. Geographical segments are grouped based on a combination of proximity, relationships between operations and economic and currency similarities. Geographical data is presented according to the location of the transacting Group entity.

Financial assets and liabilitiesMeasurement classifications

The Group classifies its financial assets and liabilities into the following measurement (valuation) categories:

Financial instruments held for trading are those that the Group holds primarily for the purpose of short-term profit-taking. These include shares, interest earning securities, derivative contracts that are not designated as hedging instruments, and liabilities from short sales of financial instruments.

Derivatives are financial instruments that require little or no initial net investment, with future settlements dependent on a reference benchmark index, rate or price (such as interest rates or equity prices). Changes in expected future cash flows in response to changes in the underlying benchmark determine the fair value of derivatives. All derivatives are recorded in the balance sheet at fair value. Changes in the fair value of derivative instruments are taken to income, except where a designation as a cash flow hedge or net investment hedge is made (see hedging below).

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted on an active market. They generally arise when the Group provides money or services directly to a customer with no intention of trading or selling the loan. Loans originated with the intention to sell are classified within other assets and designated at fair value through income.

Table of Contents

Held-to-maturity assets are non-derivative financial assets quoted on an active market with fixed or determinable payments (i.e. debt instruments) and a fixed maturity that the Group has the intention and ability to hold to maturity.

Designated at fair value through income are financial assets and financial liabilities that the Group upon initial recognition (or on transition to IFRS on 1 January 2004) designates to be measured at fair value with changes reported in income. Such a designation is done if:

the host instrument includes an embedded derivative that would otherwise require separation. This applies to certain structured notes issued with hybrid features. Fair value measurement also helps to achieve offset against changes in the value of derivatives and other fair value positions used to economically hedge these notes

the designation eliminates or significantly reduce a measurement inconsistency that would otherwise arise. In this regard unit-linked investments held for the account and risk of policyholders and the related obligation to policyholders are designated at fair value with changes through income

it relates to a portfolio of financial assets and/or liabilities that are managed and evaluated on a fair value basis. This is applied to equity investments of a private equity nature and mortgages that are originated and held-for-sale by our business in North America.

Available-for-sale assets include interest earning assets that have either been designated as available-for-sale or do not fit into one of the categories described above. Equity investments held without significant influence, which are not held for trading or elected to fair value through income are classified as available-for-sale.

Non-trading financial liabilities that are not designated at fair value through income are measured at amortised cost.

Recognition and derecognition

Traded instruments are recognised on trade date, defined as the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the underlying instrument. Where settlement terms are non-standard the commitment is accounted for as a derivative between trade and settlement date. Loans and receivables are recognised when they are acquired or funded by the Group and derecognised when settled. Issued debt is recognised when issued and deposits are recognised when the cash is deposited with the Group. Other financial assets and liabilities, including derivatives, are recognised in the balance sheet when the Group becomes party to the contractual provisions of the asset or liability.

Financial assets are generally derecognised when the Group loses control or the ability to obtain benefits over the contractual rights that comprise that asset. This occurs when the rights are realised, expire or are fully transferred. If a servicing function is retained, which is profitable, a servicing asset is recognised. A financial liability is derecognised when the obligations specified in the contract are discharged, cancelled or expire.

Financial instruments continue to be recognised in the balance sheet, and a liability recognised for the proceeds of any related funding transaction, unless a fully proportional share of all or specifically identified cash flows are transferable to the lender without material delay and the lenders claim is limited to those cash flows, in which case that proportion of the asset is derecognised; or substantially all the risks and returns and control associated with the financial instruments have been transferred in which case the assets are derecognised in full.

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when settled or if the Group repurchases its own debt. The difference between the former carrying amount and the consideration paid is included in results on financial transactions in income. Any subsequent resale is treated as a new issuance.

The Group securitises various consumer and commercial financial assets. This process generally necessitates a sale of these assets to a special purpose entity (SPE), which in turn issues securities to investors. The Group's interests in securitised assets may be retained in the form of senior or subordinated tranches, issued guarantees, interest-only strips or other residual interests, together referred to as retained interest. In many cases these retained interests are significant, such that the SPE is consolidated, and the securitised assets continue to be recognised in the consolidated balance sheet.

Table of ContentsMeasurement

All trading instruments and financial assets and liabilities designated at fair value are measured at fair value, with transaction costs related to the purchase taken to income directly.

All derivatives are recorded in the balance sheet at fair value with changes recorded through income unless the derivative qualifies for cash flow hedging accounting.

Available-for-sale assets are held at fair value with unrealised gains and losses recognised directly in equity, net of applicable taxes. Premiums, discounts and qualifying transaction costs of interest earning available-for-sale assets are amortised to income on an effective interest rate basis. When available-for-sale assets are sold, collected or impaired the cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to results from financial transactions in income.

All other financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at cost including directly attributable incremental transaction costs. They are subsequently valued at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. Through use of the effective interest rate method, premiums and discounts, including qualifying transaction costs, included in the carrying amount of the related instrument are amortised over the period to maturity or expected prepayment on the basis of the instrument's original effective interest rate.

When available, fair values are obtained from quoted market prices in liquid markets. Where no active market exists, or quoted prices are unobtainable, the fair value is estimated using a variety of valuation techniques including discounted cash flow and other pricing models. Inputs to pricing models are generally taken from reliable external data sources. The models used are validated prior to the use for financial reporting by qualified staff independent of the initial selection or creation of the model. Where inputs cannot be reliably sourced from external providers, the initial recognition value of a financial asset or liability is taken to be the settled value at trade inception. The initial change in fair value indicated by the valuation technique is then released to income at appropriate points over the life of the instrument (typically taking account of the ability to obtain reliable external data, the passage of time and the use of offsetting transactions). Where discounted cash flow techniques are used, estimated future cash flows are based on management's best estimates and the discount rate applied is a market-related rate at the balance sheet date for an instrument with similar terms and conditions. Fair values include appropriate adjustments to reflect the credit quality of the instrument.

Professional securities transactions

Securities borrowing and securities lending transactions are generally entered into on a collateralised basis, with securities usually advanced or received as collateral. The transfer of the securities themselves is not reflected on the balance sheet unless the risks and rewards of ownership are also transferred. If cash is advanced or received, securities borrowing and lending activities are recorded at the amount of cash advanced (included in loans and receivables) or received (due to banks or customers). The market value of the securities borrowed and lent is monitored on a daily basis, and the collateral levels are adjusted in accordance with the underlying transactions. Fees and interest received or paid are recognised on an effective interest basis and recorded as interest income or interest expense.

Sale and repurchase transactions involve purchases (sales) of investments with agreements to resell (repurchase) substantially identical investments at a certain date in the future at a fixed price. Investments purchased subject to commitments to resell them at future dates are not recognised. The amounts paid are recognised in loans and receivables to either banks or customers. The receivables are shown as collateralised by the underlying security. Investments sold under repurchase agreements continue to be recognised in the balance sheet. The proceeds from the sale of the investments are reported as liabilities to either banks or customers. The difference between the sale and repurchase price is recognised over the period of the transaction and recorded as interest income or interest expense.

Netting and collateral

The Group enters into master netting arrangements with counterparties wherever possible, and when appropriate, obtains collateral. If the Group has the right on the grounds of either legal or contractual provisions and the intention to settle financial assets and liabilities net or simultaneously, these are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet. Due to differences in the timing of actual cash flows, derivatives with positive and negative fair values are generally not netted, even if they are held with the same counterparty.

Table of ContentsHedge accounting

The Group uses derivative instruments to manage exposures to interest rate, foreign currency and credit risks, including exposures arising from forecast transactions. The Group applies fair value, cash flow or net investment hedging to qualifying transactions that are documented as such at inception.

The hedged item can be an asset, liability, highly probable forecasted transaction or net investment in a foreign operation that (a) exposes the entity to risk of changes in fair value or future cash flows and (b) is designated as being hedged. The risk being hedged (the hedged risk) is typically changes in interest rates or foreign currency rates. The Group also enters into credit risk derivatives (sometimes referred to as credit default swaps) for managing portfolio credit risk. However these are generally not included in hedge accounting relationships due to difficulties in demonstrating that the relationship will be highly effective.

Both at the inception of the hedge and on an ongoing basis, the Group formally assesses whether the derivatives used in its hedging transactions have been highly effective in offsetting changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item, by assessing and measuring, whether changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item are offset by the changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedging instrument, within the range 80% to 125%.

Hedge ineffectiveness represents the amount by which the changes in the fair value of the derivative differ from changes in the fair value of the hedged item in a fair value hedge, or the amount by which the changes in the fair value of the derivative are in excess of the fair value change of the expected cash flow in a cash flow hedge. Hedge ineffectiveness and gains and losses on components of a derivative that are excluded from the assessment of hedge effectiveness are recorded directly in income.

The Group discontinues hedge accounting when the hedge relationship has ceased to be effective or is no longer expected to be effective, or when the derivative or hedged item is sold or otherwise terminated.

Fair value hedges

Where a derivative financial instrument hedges the exposure to changes in the fair value of recognised or committed assets or liabilities, the hedged item is adjusted in relation to the risk being hedged. Gains or losses on remeasurement of both the hedging instrument and the hedged item are recognised in the income statement, typically within results from financial transactions. For hedges of mortgage service rights any hedging ineffectiveness is recorded in other income.

When a fair value hedge of interest rate risk is terminated, any fair value adjustment to the carrying amount of the hedged asset or liability is amortised to income over the original designated hedging period or taken directly to income if the hedged item is sold, settled or impaired.

Cash flow hedges

When a derivative financial instrument hedges the exposure to variability in the cash flows from recognised assets, liabilities or anticipated transactions, the effective part of any gain or loss on remeasurement of the hedging instrument is recognised directly in equity. When a cash flow hedging instrument or hedge relationship is terminated but the hedged transaction is still expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity remains in equity.

The cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to the income statement at the time when the hedged transaction affects net profit or loss and included in the same line item as the hedged transaction. In the exceptional case that the hedged transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is recognised in the income statement immediately.

Hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation

The Group uses foreign derivatives and currency borrowings to hedge various net investments in foreign operations. For such hedges, currency translation differences arising on translation of these instruments to euro are recognised directly in the currency translation account in equity, insofar as they are effective.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a portfolio of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or portfolio of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are recognised if, and only if, there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset and prior to the balance sheet date (a loss event) and that event adversely impacts estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or the portfolio.

Loans and receivables

An indication that a loan may be impaired is obtained through the Group's credit review processes, which include monitoring customer payments and other performance criteria.

The Group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists for loans (including any related facilities and guarantees) that are individually significant, and individually or collectively for loans that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed loan, it includes the asset in a portfolio of loans with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Loans that are individually impaired are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

Indications that there is a measurable decrease in estimated future cash flows from a portfolio of loans, although the decrease cannot yet be identified with the individual loans in the portfolio, include adverse changes in the payment status of borrowers in the portfolio and national or local economic conditions that correlate with defaults in the portfolio.

The amount of impairment loss is measured as the difference between the loan's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the loan's original effective interest rate. The amount of the loss is recognised using an allowance account and the amount of the loss is included in the income statement line loan impairment and other credit risk provisions.

The calculation of the present value of the estimated future cash flows of a collateralised financial asset reflects the cash flows that are likely to result from foreclosure less costs for obtaining and selling the collateral.

Future cash flows of a group of loans that are collectively evaluated for impairment are estimated on the basis of the contractual cash flows of the loans in the portfolio and historical loss experience for loans with credit risk characteristics similar to those in the group. Historical loss experience is adjusted on the basis of current observable data to reflect the effects of current conditions that did not affect the historical data and to remove the effects of conditions in the historical data that do not currently exist.

The methodology and assumptions used for estimating future cash flows are reviewed regularly to reduce any differences between loss estimates and actual loss experience. The impact of changes in estimates and recoveries is recorded in the income statement line loan impairment and other credit risk provisions. Following impairment, interest income is recognised using the original effective rate of interest. When a loan is deemed no longer collectible, it is written off against the related allowance for loan impairment. Such loans are written off after all the necessary procedures have been completed and the amount of the loss has been determined. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to the income statement line loan impairment and other credit risk provisions. Assets acquired in exchange for loans to achieve an orderly realisation are reflected in the balance sheet as a disposal of the loan and an acquisition of a new asset, initially booked at fair value.

Other financial assets

In the case of equity instruments classified as available-for-sale, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the security below its cost is also considered in determining whether impairment exists. Where such evidence exists, the cumulative net loss that has been previously recognised directly in equity is removed from equity and recognised in the income statement within results on financial transactions.

Held to maturity and available-for-sale debt investments are assessed and any impairment is measured on an individual basis, consistent with the methodology applied to loan and receivables.

Table of ContentsProperty and equipmentOwn use assets

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any amount for impairment. If an item of property and equipment is comprised of several major components with different useful lives, each component is accounted for separately. Additions and subsequent expenditures are capitalised only to the extent that they enhance the future economic benefits expected to be derived from the asset. Expenditure incurred to replace a component of an asset is separately capitalised and the replaced component is written off. Other subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefit of the item of property and equipment. All other expenditure, including maintenance, is recognised in the income statement as incurred. When an item of property and equipment is retired or disposed, the difference between the carrying amount and the disposal proceeds net of costs is recognised in other operating income.

Depreciation is charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of items of property and equipment, and major components that are accounted for separately. The Group generally uses the following estimated useful lives:

Land	not depreciated
Buildings	25 to 50 years
Equipment	5 to 12 years
Computer installations	2 to 5 years

Software, presented as an intangible asset, is amortised over 3-7 years.

Depreciation rates and residual values are reviewed at least annually to take into account any change in circumstances. Capitalised leasehold improvements are depreciated in a manner that takes into account the term and renewal conditions of the related lease.

Development property

The majority of the Group's development and construction activities are undertaken for immediate sale or as part of a pre-agreed contractual arrangement. Property developed under a pre-agreed contractual arrangement is stated at cost plus profit recognisable to date less a provision for any foreseeable losses and less progress billings. Cost includes all expenditure related directly to specific projects and an allocation of fixed and variable overheads incurred in the Group's contract activities based on normal operating capacity. The specific components of development property are accounted for as follows.

Building and development sites are carried at cost including allocated interest and additional expenses for purchasing the site and making them ready for development. No interest is allocated to land which has not been zoned for a particular purpose, if there is no certainty that the land will be built on. Any provision deemed necessary for expected losses on sale is deducted from the carrying value of the site.

Work in progress relates to commercial property projects, as well as to unsold residential property under construction or preparation. Work in progress is carried at the costs incurred plus allocated interest and net of any provisions as required. Progress instalments invoiced to buyers and principals are deducted from work in progress. The profit and loss is recognised in accordance with the percentage of completion method. Until sold, commercial and residential developments are carried at cost of production net of any required provisions. If a decision is taken to retain an unsold property it is classified as investment property.

Investment property

Investment property is carried at fair value based on current market prices for similar properties in the same location and condition. Any gain or loss arising from a change in fair value is recognised in profit and loss. Rental income from investment property is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease, with lease incentives granted recognised as an integral part of the rental income.

Table of ContentsLeasing

As lessee: most of the leases that the Group has entered into are classified as operating leases (including property rental). The total payments made under operating leases are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease. Lease incentives received are recognised in the income statement as an integral part of the total lease expense. When it is anticipated that an operating lease will be terminated or vacated before the lease period has expired, the lesser of any penalty payments required and the remaining payments due once vacated (less sub-leasing income) is recognised as an expense.

As lessor: assets subject to operational leases are included in property and equipment. The asset is depreciated on a straight-line basis over its useful life to its estimated residual value. Leases where the Group transfers substantially all the risks and rewards resulting from ownership of an asset to the lessee are classified as finance leases. A receivable at an amount equal to the present value of the lease payments, using the implicit interest rate, including any guaranteed residual value, is recognised. Finance lease receivables are included in loans and receivables to customers.

Intangible assetsGoodwill

Goodwill is capitalised and represents the excess of the cost of an acquisition over the fair value of the Group's share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets at the date of acquisition. For the purpose of calculating goodwill, the fair values of acquired assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities are determined by reference to market values or by discounting expected future cash flows to present value. Any change in the assessed fair value of acquired assets and liabilities at the time of acquisition identified within one year following the acquisition are corrected against goodwill. Any revisions identified after one year are recorded in income.

Goodwill on the acquisition of equity accounted investments is included in the carrying amount of the investment.

Gains and losses on the disposal of an entity, including equity accounted investments, are determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the entity including related goodwill and any translation differences recorded in equity.

Software

Costs that are directly associated with identifiable and unique software products that are controlled by the Group, and likely to generate future economic benefits exceeding these costs, are recognised as intangible assets. Direct costs include staff costs of the software development team. Expenditure that enhances or extends the performance of computer software programs beyond their original specifications is recognised as a capital improvement and added to the original cost of the software. Software is amortised over 3-7 years.

Costs associated with maintaining computer software programs are recognised as an expense as incurred.

Mortgage servicing rights

Mortgage servicing rights (MSRs) represent the right to a stream of fee-based cash flows and an obligation to perform specified mortgage servicing activities. MSRs are initially recorded at fair value and amortised over the estimated future net servicing income stream of the underlying mortgages. The duration of the income stream relating to these servicing rights is dependent on the pre-payment behaviour of the customer, which is influenced by a number of factors including interest rate expectations. MSR assets are subject to hedging under a fair value hedge programme designed to limit the Group's exposure to changes in the fair value of the MSR. The change in the fair value of the hedged MSRs and the change in the fair value of the hedging derivatives are included as part of mortgage banking income within other income.

Table of ContentsOther intangible assets

Other intangible assets that are acquired by the Group are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and any adjustment for impairment losses. Other intangible assets are comprised of separately identifiable items arising from acquisition of subsidiaries, such as customer relationships, and certain purchased trademarks and similar items. Amortisation is charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the intangible asset.

Impairment of property and equipment and intangible assets

Property and equipment and intangibles are assessed at each balance sheet date or more frequently, to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, the assets are subject to an impairment review. Regardless of any indications of potential impairment, the carrying amount of goodwill is subject to a detailed impairment review at least annually.

An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of an asset that generates largely independent cash flows or the cash-generating unit to which it belongs exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its net selling price and value in use. To calculate value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market rates and the risks specific to the asset. When conducting impairment reviews, particularly for goodwill, cash-generating units are the lowest level at which management monitors the return on investment on assets.

Impairment losses are recognised in the income statement as a component of depreciation and amortisation expense. An impairment loss with respect to goodwill is not reversible. Other impairment losses are reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined if no impairment loss had previously been recognised.

Pension and other post-retirement benefits

For employees in the Netherlands and the majority of staff employed outside the Netherlands, pension or other retirement plans have been established in accordance with the regulations and practices of the countries in question. Separate pension funds or third parties administer most of these plans. The plans include both defined contribution plans and defined benefit plans.

Defined contribution plans

In the case of defined contribution plans, contributions are charged directly to the income statement in the year to which they relate.

Defined benefit plans

The net obligations under defined benefit plans are regarded as the Group's own commitments regardless of whether these are administered by a pension fund or in some other manner. The net obligation of each plan is determined as the difference between the benefit obligations and the plan assets. Defined benefit plan pension commitments are calculated in accordance with the projected unit credit method of actuarial cost allocation. Under this method, the present value of pension commitments is determined on the basis of the number of active years of service up to the balance sheet date and the estimated employee salary at the time of the expected retirement date, and is discounted using the market rate of interest on high-quality corporate bonds. The plan assets are measured at fair value.

Pension costs for the year are established at the beginning of the year based on the expected service and interest costs and the expected return on the plan assets, plus the impact of any current period curtailments or plan changes. Differences between the expected and the actual return on plan assets, as well as actuarial gains and losses, are only recognised as income or expense when the net cumulative unrecognised actuarial gains and losses at the end of the previous reporting year exceed 10% of the greater of the commitments under the plan and the fair value of the related plan assets. The part that exceeds 10% is recognised in income over the expected remaining years of service of the employees participating in the plans. Differences between the pension costs determined in this way and the contributions payable are accounted for as provisions or prepayments. Commitments relating to early retirement of employees are treated as pension commitments.

Table of Contents

When the benefits of a plan are improved, the portion of the increased benefit relating to past service by employees is recognised as an expense in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. To the extent that the benefits vest immediately, the past service cost is recognised immediately in the income statement.

Other post-retirement benefits

The Group's net obligation with respect to long-term service benefits and post-retirement healthcare is the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in current and prior periods. The obligation is calculated using the projected unit credit method. It is then discounted to its present value and the fair value of any related assets is deducted.

Share-based payments to employees

The Group engages in equity and cash settled share-based payment transactions in respect of services received from certain of its employees. The cost of the services received is measured by reference to the fair value of the shares or share options granted on the date of the grant. The cost related to the shares or share options granted is recognised in the income statement over the period that the services of the employees are received, which is the vesting period, with a corresponding credit in equity for equity settled schemes and a credit in liabilities for cash settled schemes.

The fair value of the options granted is determined using option pricing models, which take into account the exercise price of the option, the current share price, the risk free interest rate, the volatility of the ABN AMRO share price over the life of the option and the terms and conditions of the grant. Non-market vesting conditions are taken into account by adjusting the number of shares or share options included in the measurement of the cost of employee services, so that ultimately the amount cumulatively recognised in the income statement shall reflect the number of shares or share options that eventually vest. Where vesting conditions are related to market conditions, the charges for the services received are recognised regardless of whether or not the market related vesting condition is met, provided that the non-market vesting conditions are met.

Provisions

A provision is recognised in the balance sheet when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made. If the effect of time value is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market rates and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability.

A provision for restructuring is recognised when an obligation exists. An obligation exists when the Group has approved a detailed plan and has raised a valid expectation in those affected by the plan by starting to implement the plan or by announcing its main features. Future operating costs are not provided for.

Provisions for insurance risks are determined by actuarial methods, which include the use of statistics, interest rate data and settlement costs expectations.

Other liabilities

Obligations to policyholders, whose return is dependent on the return of unit linked investments recognised in the balance sheet, are measured at fair value with changes through income.

Income taxes – current and deferred

Income tax payable on profits, based on the applicable tax law in each jurisdiction, is recognised as an expense in the period in which profits arise. The future tax benefit of income tax losses available for carry forward is recognised as an asset when it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which these losses can be utilised.

Deferred tax is recognised for qualifying temporary differences. Temporary differences represent the difference between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The most significant temporary differences arise from the revaluation of certain financial assets and liabilities including derivative contracts, allowances for loan impairment, provisions for pensions and business combinations. The following differences are not provided for: capitalised goodwill not deductible for tax purposes, the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit, and differences relating to investments in subsidiaries and associates, to the extent that they will probably not reverse in the foreseeable future and the timing of such reversals is controlled by the Group. The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantially enacted at the balance sheet date. A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised.

Deferred and current tax assets and liabilities are only offset when they arise in the same tax reporting group and where there is both the legal right and the intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and liability simultaneously.

Issued debt and equity securities

Issued debt securities are recorded on an amortised cost basis using the effective interest rate method, unless they are of a hybrid/structured nature and designated to be held at fair value through income.

Issued financial instruments or their components are classified as liabilities where the substance of the contractual arrangement results in the Group having a present obligation to either deliver cash or another financial asset or to satisfy the obligation other than by the exchange of a fixed number of equity shares.

Preference shares that carry a non-discretionary coupon or are redeemable on a specific date or at the option of the holder are classified as liabilities. The dividends and fees on preference shares classified as a liability are recognised as interest expense.

Issued financial instruments, or their components, are classified as equity when they do not qualify as a liability and represent a residual interest in the assets of the Group. Preference share capital is classified as equity if it is non-redeemable and any dividends are discretionary. The components of issued financial instruments that contain both liability and equity elements are accounted for separately with the equity component being assigned the residual amount after deducting from the instrument's initial value the fair value of the liability component.

Dividends on ordinary shares and preference shares classified as equity are recognised as a distribution of equity in the period in which they are approved by shareholders.

Share capital

Incremental external costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are deducted from equity net of any related income taxes.

When share capital recognised as equity is repurchased, the amount of the consideration paid, including incremental directly attributable costs net of income taxes, is recognised as a change in equity.

Repurchased shares are classified as treasury shares and presented as a deduction from total equity.

Where such shares are subsequently sold or reissued, any consideration received is added to shareholders' equity.

Other equity componentsCurrency translation account

The currency translation account is comprised of all currency differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations net of the translation impact on liabilities or foreign exchange derivatives held to hedge the Group's net investment. These currency differences are included in income on disposal or partial disposal of the operation.

Cash flow hedging reserve

The cash flow hedging reserve is comprised of the effective portion of the cumulative change in the fair value of cash flow hedging derivatives, net of taxes, where the hedged transaction has not yet occurred.

Table of Contents

Net unrealised gains and losses on available-for-sale assets

In this component, gains and losses arising from a change in the fair value of available-for-sale assets are recognised, net of taxes. When the relevant assets are sold, impaired or otherwise disposed of, the related cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to the income statement.

Collectively, the cash flow hedging reserve and the available-for-sale reserve are sometimes referred to as special components of equity.

Cash flow statement

Cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the cash flow statement include cash in hand, deposits available on demand with central banks and net credit balances on current accounts with other banks. The cash flow statement, based on the indirect method of calculation, gives details of the source of cash and cash equivalents which became available during the year and the application of these cash and cash equivalents over the course of the year. The cash flows are analysed into cash flows from operations, including banking activities, investment activities and financing activities. Movements in loans and receivables and inter-bank deposits are included in the cash flow from operating activities. Investment activities are comprised of acquisitions, sales and redemptions in respect of financial investments, as well as investments in and sales of subsidiaries and associates, property and equipment. The issuing of shares and the borrowing and repayment of long-term funds are treated as financing activities. Movements due to currency translation differences as well as the effects of the consolidation of acquisitions, where of material significance, are eliminated from the cash flow figures.

Notes to the consolidated financial statements
(unless otherwise stated, all amounts are in millions of euros)

1. Segment reporting

Segment information is presented in respect of the Group's business and geographical segments. The primary format, business segments, is consistent with the Group's management and internal reporting structure applicable in the financial year.

Measurement of segment assets and liabilities and segment income and results is based on the Group's accounting policies. Segment income, results, assets and liabilities include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis. Transactions between segments are conducted at arm's length. Capital expenditure represents expenditures during the period to acquire segment assets that are expected to be used for a period exceeding one year, such as own-use property and equipment and software.

Business segments

The business segments of the Group are:

Consumer & Commercial Clients (C&CC)

Consumer & Commercial Clients serves consumer clients and small to medium-sized enterprises. It has an especially strong position in the mass affluent consumer and mid-sized commercial segments and operates principally in the Netherlands, North America and Brazil where we have leading local franchises.

Consumer & Commercial Clients further includes our consumer and commercial banking activities in New Growth Markets and Bouwfonds, our property development and financing subsidiary. New Growth Markets include, among others, our consumer banking activities in India, the United Arab Emirates, Taiwan and Hong Kong.

Wholesale Clients (WCS)

Wholesale Clients is a corporate and investment bank operating worldwide. Wholesale Clients offers clients a wide-ranging product and services platform, including advisory, capital markets, financing and transaction banking in over 50 countries. Wholesale Clients is able to offer our clients local advisors with access to global market-leading expertise. Wholesale Clients' global capital markets operations are principally based in Amsterdam, Chicago, Hong Kong, London, New York, Singapore and Sydney.

Private Clients (PC)

Private Clients offers private banking services to wealthy individuals and families with investable assets of EUR 1 million or more. Private Clients uses an open architecture model, where clients are offered the best available products regardless of provider, an approach geared to delivering the highest possible returns to each of our clients. Private Clients is among the top ten private banks worldwide and is the fifth largest private bank in Europe in terms of assets under management.

Asset Management (AM)

Our asset management business operates in more than 20 countries across Europe, the Americas, Asia and Australia. Global portfolio management centres are located in six cities: Amsterdam, Atlanta, Chicago, Hong Kong, London and Singapore. Asset Management offers investment products in all major regions and asset classes, using an active investment style. Its investment philosophy is characterised by an internationally coordinated investment process and well-monitored risk management.

Asset Management's products for institutional clients such as central banks, pension funds, insurance companies and leading charities are distributed directly. Funds for private investors are distributed through our consumer and private banking arms, as well as via third party distributors. Asset Management's institutional client business represents slightly more than half of the assets managed. Retail and third party clients account for a further 30%, and the remainder of the assets managed are in discretionary portfolios managed for Private Clients.

Table of ContentsPrivate Equity (PE)

Private Equity primarily invests in unlisted companies, both on ABN AMRO's own account and for third-party investors. During 2005, Private Equity's investment portfolio in European and Australian mid-sized buy-outs rose by around 25%, while its investments under management in early-stage Dutch companies decreased. Both changes reflected the current refocusing of strategic objectives.

The business model of Private Equity involves buying equity stakes in companies over which it can establish influence or control, and then managing these shareholdings for a number of years with a view to selling them at a profit.

Group Functions/ Group Shared Services (GF / GSS)

Group Functions and Group Shared Services perform services for the Group that have been centralised and / or are shared across the Group. Group Functions includes Group Asset and Liability Management, which manages an investment and derivatives portfolio in order to manage the liquidity and interest rate risk of the Group. Group Functions also holds the Group's strategic investments and records any related profits or losses. Inter-segment eliminations are also included in this segment.

Loan provisioning-commercial loans

The Group reviews the status of credit facilities issued to commercial clients at least once during the year.

Additionally, credit officers continually monitor the quality of the credit, the client and the adherence to contractual conditions. Should the quality of a loan or the borrower's financial position deteriorate to the extent that doubts arise over the borrower's ability to meet their contractual obligations, management of the relationship is transferred to the Financial Restructuring and Recovery function. After making an assessment, Financial Restructuring and Recovery determines the amount, if any, of the specific allowance that should be made, after taking into account the value of collateral. We partly or fully release specific allowance when the debt is repaid or expected future cash flows improve due to positive changes in economic or financial circumstances. Commercial loans are not written off in whole or in part until it is clear that a further partial recovery can be ruled out.

Loan provisioning-consumer loan products

The bank offers a wide range of consumer loan products and programmes such as personal loans, home mortgages, credit cards and home improvement loans. Provisioning for these products is carried out on a portfolio basis, with a specific provision for each product being determined by the portfolio's size and loss experience.

Our consumer loan portfolio policy states that, in general, when interest or principal on a consumer loan is 90 days or more past due, such loans are classified as non-performing.

Provisions for a given portfolio may be released where there is improvement in the quality of the portfolio.

For consumer loans, our write-off rules are time-based and vary by type of product. For example, unsecured facilities, such as credit cards and personal loans, are generally written off at 180 days past due and cash-backed and debt and/or equity-backed facilities are generally written off at 90 days past due.

Allowance for incurred but not identified losses

In addition to impairment allowances calculated on a specific or portfolio basis, the Group also maintains an allowance to cover undetected impairments expected to exist within loans due to changes in economic conditions and delays in obtaining information that indicate that losses exist at the balance sheet date.

At the end of December 2005 and 2004 the book value of MSR's was lower than fair value, so no impairment adjustments are required. The fair value of MSR's at 31 December 2005 amounted to EUR 2,258 million (2004: EUR 1,724 million). The valuation of MSR's, because of the inherent uncertainties involved, requires judgement. Economic factors considered in estimating the fair value of MSR's include interest rates, discount rates, prepayment speeds, geographic characteristics, servicing costs and ancillary income. Mortgage loan prepayment rates are revised monthly, and are derived from a third-party model. In addition, management uses valuations by various third-party brokers to compare its valuation assessments with market data.

The weighted averages of the main actuarial assumptions used to determine the value of the provisions for pension obligations and contributions to health insurance as at 31 December were as follows:

2005 2004

Pensions

Discount rate	4.3%	4.7%
Expected increment in salaries	2.4%	2.6%
Expected return on investments	6.2%	7.0%

Healthcare

Discount rate	7.8%	5.2%
Average rise in the costs of healthcare	9.5%	6.8%

The expected return on investments regarding pension obligations is weighted on the basis of the fair value of these investments. The average rise in cost of healthcare is weighted on the basis of the healthcare cost of 2005. All other assumptions are weighted on the basis of the defined benefit obligations.

Unrecognised deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets that have not been recognised in respect of carry forward losses amount to EUR 252 million (2004: EUR 202 million). Deferred tax assets have not been recognised in respect of these items because it is not probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the Group can utilise the benefits from them.

Expiration of carry-forward losses

At 31 December 2005 carry-forward losses expire as follows:

2006	448
2007	435
2008	645
2009	101
2010	181
Years after 2010	1,158

Tax exposure to distributable reserves

ABN AMRO considers approximately EUR 2.1 billion in distributable invested equity of foreign operations to be permanently invested. If retained earnings were to be distributed, no foreign income taxes would have to be paid. The estimated impact of foreign withholding tax is EUR 9 million (2004: EUR 223 million).

30. Subordinated liabilities

Issued liabilities qualify as subordinated debt if claims by the holders are subordinated to all other current and future liabilities of, respectively, ABN AMRO Holding N.V, ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and other Group companies. These liabilities qualify as capital, taking into account remaining maturities, for the purpose of determining the consolidated capital adequacy ratio for the Dutch central bank.

Table of Contents

The maturity profile of subordinated liabilities is as follows:

	2005	2004
Within one year	1,156	1,086
After one and within two years	1,452	1,115
After two and within three years	704	1,364
After three and within four years	1,550	668
After four and within five years	1,395	1,546
After five years	12,815	10,908
Total	19,072	16,687

The average interest rate on subordinated liabilities was 5.4% (2004: 5.6%). Subordinated liabilities as at 31 December 2005 denominated in euros amounted to EUR 9,240 million (2004: EUR 8,866 million) and in US dollars an amount of EUR 9,745 million (2004: EUR 7,731 million). EUR 5,703 million (2004: EUR 2,952 million) is of a variable interest rate nature.

The following table analyses the subordinated liabilities by issuer:

Breakdown of debt raised by entity

	2005	2004
ABN AMRO Holding N.V. financing preference shares	768	768
ABN AMRO Bank N.V.	13,051	10,598
Other Group companies	5,253	5,321
Total	19,072	16,687

Total subordinated liabilities include EUR 5,261 million (2004: EUR 4,657 million) which qualify as tier 1 capital for capital adequacy purposes.

31. Professional securities transactions

Professional security transactions include balances relating to reverse repurchase activities, cash collateral on securities borrowed and security settlement accounts. The Group minimises credit risk associated with these activities by monitoring counterparty credit exposure and collateral values on a daily basis and requiring additional collateral to be deposited with or returned to the Group when deemed necessary.

Total	71,231	48,982	56,351	44,782

Under reverse repurchase, securities borrowing, and other collateralised arrangements, the Group obtains securities on terms which permit it to repledge or resell the securities to others.

32. Securitisations and assets pledged as security

Details of the carrying amounts of assets pledged as collateral are as follows:

	2005	2004
Cash and balances at central banks	10,737	7,367
Financial investments	12,074	15,945
Loans and receivables - customers	32,656	32,326
Total	55,467	55,638

These assets have been pledged in respect of the following liabilities and contingent liabilities:

	2005	2004
Due to banks	17,782	15,889
Due to customers	4,266	3,940
Issued debt securities	21,440	15,550
Total	43,488	35,379

SecuritisationSale transactions

Included in the above pledged assets is an amount of EUR 6,290 million (2004: EUR 7,786 million) sold to SPEs in which the Group has the majority of the risks and rewards. Thus the assets continue to be recognised on consolidation.

Synthetic transactions

In addition the Group has synthetic securitisations for an amount of EUR 59,255 million (2004: EUR 17,826 million). Through a synthetic securitisation the Group is able to buy protection without actual transference of any assets to a SPE. In general, the Group as the owner of the assets, buys protection to transfer the credit risk of a portfolio of assets to another entity that sells the protection. Although the credit risk of the portfolio is transferred, actual ownership of the portfolio of assets remains with the Group.

Credit default swaps

In addition to the transactions mentioned above, the Group also uses credit default swaps to reduce credit risk for parts of the loan portfolio by selling these risks directly to the capital markets. At 31 December 2005 the Group has bought credit protection for an amount of EUR 30,352 million (2004: EUR 13,661 million).

Derecognition

Though the Group has sold a part of its loan portfolio in North America, it still holds legal title to some of these loans. In most cases these loans are also serviced by the Group. The bank also services loans originated by other institutions.

The following table states the total outstandings at 31 December 2005.

Transaction type

	2005	2004
Legal title to loans sold	136	954
Loans serviced for third parties	160,654	139,763

Table of Contents33. Commitments and contingent liabilitiesLoan and banking commitments

At any time the Group has outstanding commitments to extend credit. These commitments take the form of approved loans, overdraft facilities and credit card limits. Outstanding loan commitments have a commitment period that does not extend beyond the normal underwriting and settlement period of one to three months.

The Group provides financial guarantees and letters of credit to guarantee the performance of customers to third parties. These transactions have fixed limits and generally extend for a period of up to five years. Expirations are not concentrated in any particular period. The Group also provides guarantees by acting as a settlement agent in securities borrowing and lending transactions.

The contractual amounts of commitments and contingent liabilities are set out by category in the following table. The amounts stated in the table for commitments assume that amounts are fully advanced. The amounts reflected in the table for guarantees and letters of credit represent the maximum accounting loss that would be recognised at the balance sheet date if the relevant contract parties completely failed to perform as contracted.

Committed credit facilities	141,010	145,009
Contingent liabilities with respect to guarantees granted	41,536	42,399
Contingent liabilities with respect to irrevocable letters of credit	4,485	4,066

Many of the contingent liabilities and commitments will expire without being advanced in whole or in part. This means that the amounts stated do not represent expected future cash flows. Additionally, guarantees and letters of credit are supported by varying levels of collateral.

Aside from the items stated above, non-quantified guarantees have been given for the bank's securities custody operations, for interbank bodies and institutions and for participating interests. Collective guarantee schemes are applicable to Group companies in various countries. Furthermore, statements of liability have been issued for a number of Group companies.

Capital expenditure and commitments

For 2006, capital expenditure is forecast at EUR 1.3 billion, of which the Group is already committed to an amount of EUR 243 million. These commitments are expected to be settled in the following financial year.

Leases as lessee

Operating lease rentals are payable as follows:

Less than one year	255
Between one and five years	614
More than five years	912
	1,781

During 2005, EUR 303 million (2004: EUR 339 million) of operating lease expense and EUR 48 million (2004: EUR 12 million) of sublease income was recognised in income.

Other contingencies

Legal proceedings have been initiated against the Group in a number of jurisdictions, but on the basis of information currently available, and having taken legal counsel, the Group is of the opinion that the outcome of these proceedings net of any related insurance claims is unlikely to have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position and the consolidated profit of the Group.

Table of Contents34. Asset management

The Group provides asset management services to individuals, trusts, retirement benefit plans and other institutions. These services involve holding and managing assets or investing received funds in various financial investments at the direction of the customer. The Group receives fee income for providing these services. Trust assets are not assets of the Group and are not recognised in the consolidated balance sheet. The Group is not exposed to any credit risk relating to such placements, as it does not guarantee these investments.

At 31 December 2005 the total assets managed by the Group on behalf of customers were EUR 176.2 billion (2004: EUR 160.7 billion).

Table of Contents36. Hedge accounting

The Group enters into various derivative instrument transactions to hedge risks on assets, liabilities, net investments and forecasted cash flows. The accounting treatment of the hedged item and the hedging derivative is dependent on whether the hedge relationship qualifies for hedge accounting. Qualifying hedges may be designated as either fair value or cash flow hedges. During 2005 and 2004 there were no transactions that failed the hedge accounting criteria due to ineffectiveness exceeding the relevant limits.

The fair value changes of derivative transactions used to hedge against economic risk exposures that do not qualify for hedge accounting, or for which it is not cost beneficial to apply hedge accounting, are recognised directly through income.

Derivatives designated and accounted for as hedging instrumentsFair value hedges

The Group's fair value hedges principally consist of interest rate swaps, interest rate options and cross currency interest rate swaps that are used to protect against changes in the fair value of fixed-rate assets, notably available-for-sale securities and MSRs, and liabilities due to changes in market interest rates.

For qualifying fair value hedges, changes in the fair value of the derivative and in the fair value of the hedged item for the risk being hedged are recognised in the income statement.

Cash flow hedges of variable rate assets and liabilities

The Group is exposed to variability in future interest cash flows for assets and liabilities with variable interest rates or which are expected to be refunded or reinvested in the future. The amounts and timing of cash flows are projected for each portfolio of financial assets and liabilities, taking the contractual terms, estimated prepayments and potential defaults into consideration. For qualifying cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the change in the fair value of the hedge instrument is recorded in the cash flow hedge reserve and recognised in the income when the hedged item occurs. The ineffective portions of designated cash flow hedges are recorded in income immediately. If the hedge relationship is terminated, then the change in fair value of the derivative recorded in the hedge reserve is recognised when the cash flows that were hedged occur, consistent with the original hedge strategy. Gains and losses on derivatives reclassified from the cash flow hedge reserve to income are included in net interest income.

The Group's main cash flow hedge programmes are operated by Group Asset and Liability management and our business in North America.

Hedges of net investments in foreign operations

As explained in note 38, the Group limits its exposure to investments in foreign operations by hedging its net investment in its foreign operations with forward foreign exchange contracts in the currency of the foreign operations or a closely correlated currency to mitigate foreign exchange risk.

For qualifying net investment hedges, changes in the fair value of the derivative are recorded in the currency translation differences reserve within equity.

Hedges not qualifying for hedge accounting

Derivatives that are entered into for risk management purposes but are not designated for hedge accounting are fair valued through income. Due to difficulties in satisfying the IFRS hedging criteria, this includes a number of credit derivatives used to hedge credit risk.

Cash flow hedges

Details of gains and losses during the year on cash flow hedges that have been recognised directly in equity or transferred from equity to income are set out in the statement of changes in equity.

The amount recognised in the cash flow hedging reserve at 31 December 2005, relates to cash flows expected to occur within three months to approximately ten years of the balance sheet date, with the main portion expected to occur within five years. Accordingly this amount, unless impacted by rate changes, will be recognised in income through fixed coupon payments of the derivative or by amortisation over a period of approximately five years.

37. Fair value informationDetermination of fair values

Fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability settled, between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arms length transaction. Market prices or market rates are used to determine fair value where an active market exists (such as a recognised stock exchange), as it is the best evidence of the fair value of a financial instrument.

Market prices are not, however, available for all financial assets and liabilities held and issued by the Group. Where no active market price or rate is available, fair values are estimated using present value or other valuation techniques, using inputs based on market conditions existing at the balance sheet dates.

Valuation techniques are generally applied to OTC derivatives, unlisted trading portfolio assets and liabilities, and unlisted financial investments (including private equity investments). The most frequently applied pricing models and valuation techniques include forward pricing and swap models using present value calculations, option models such as the Black and Scholes model, and credit models such as default rate models or credit spread models.

Table of Contents

The values derived from applying these techniques can be significantly affected by the choice of valuation model used and the underlying assumptions made concerning factors such as the amounts and timing of future cash flows, discount rates, volatility, and credit risk.

The following methods and significant assumptions have been applied in determining the fair values of financial instruments carried at fair value:

- a Assets and liabilities held for trading are measured at fair value by reference to quoted market prices when available. If quoted market prices are not available, then fair values are estimated on the basis of pricing models, or other recognised valuation techniques
- b Financial investments classified as available for sale (interest-earning securities and equities) are measured at fair value by reference to quoted market prices when available. If quoted market prices are not available, then fair values are estimated on the basis of pricing models or other recognised valuation techniques. Unrealised gains and losses, excluding impairment, are recorded in Shareholders' equity until an asset is sold, collected or otherwise disposed of
- c In general private equity investments fair values cannot be obtained directly from quoted market prices, or by using valuation techniques supported by observable market prices or rates. The fair value is estimated indirectly using valuation techniques or models for which the inputs are reasonable assumptions, based on market conditions. Valuation techniques applied are in accordance with EVCA (European Private Equity and Venture Capitalist Association) guidelines

The following table presents the valuation methods used to determine fair values of financial instruments carried at fair value:

	Valuation techniques			Total
	Quoted market price	Market observable	Non-market observable
Financial assets
Financial assets held for trading	97,026	103,683	1,346	202,055

Other liabilities derivatives held for hedging		4,712		4,712

Sensitivity of fair values

Included in the fair value of financial instruments carried at fair value on the balance sheet are those estimated in full or in part using valuation techniques based on assumptions that are not supported by observable market prices or rates. The models used in these situations undergo an internal validation process before they are certified for use. Any related model valuation uncertainty is quantified, and deducted from the fair values produced by the models. Management believes the resulting estimated fair values recorded in the balance sheet and the changes in fair values recorded in the income statement are reasonable, and are the most appropriate values at the balance sheet date. The potential effect of using reasonably possible alternative assumptions as inputs to valuation models, relying on non market-observable inputs, has been estimated as a reduction of approximately EUR 150 million using less favourable assumptions, and an increase of approximately EUR 175 million using more favourable assumptions.

278

Table of Contents

The total amount of the change in fair value estimated using a valuation technique that was recognised in the profit and loss account for the year 2005 amounts to EUR 1,354 million (2004: EUR 1,111 million).

Assets and Liabilities elected at fair value

The Group has elected to fair value non-controlling private equity investments, mortgages originated-for-sale and certain structured notes. The changes in fair value recognised in income on these assets and liabilities was a gain of EUR 401 million. Changes in the fair value of liabilities do not include any amount arising from changes in the Group's own credit risk.

Financial assets and liabilities not carried at fair value

The following methods and significant assumptions have been applied in determining the fair values of financial instrument carried at cost:

- The carrying amount of assets maturing within 12 months is assumed to approximate their fair value
- The fair value of demand deposits and savings accounts (included in due to customers) with no specific maturity is assumed to be the amount payable on demand at the balance sheet date
- The fair value of variable rate financial instruments is assumed to be approximated by their carrying amounts and, in the case of loans, does not, therefore, reflect changes in their credit quality, as the impact of credit risk is recognised separately by deducting the allowances for credit losses from both carrying amounts and fair values
- The fair value of fixed-rate loans and mortgages carried at amortised cost is estimated by comparing market interest rates when the loans were granted with current market rates offered on similar loans. Changes in the credit quality of loans within the portfolio are not taken into account in determining gross fair values, as the impact of credit risk is recognised separately by deducting the amounts of the allowances for credit losses from both carrying amounts and fair values.

The following table compares the carrying amount of financial assets and liabilities measured at cost to estimated fair values:

38. Financial risk management and use of derivatives

This section provides details of the Group's financial risk management objectives and policies and describes the methods used by the management to control risk. In addition this note includes a discussion of the extent to which financial instruments are used, the associated risks and the business purpose served.

Table of ContentsFinancial risk management and controlRisks of financial instruments

The most important types of risk associated with financial instruments to which the Group is exposed are:

Credit risk

Market risk (including currency risk, interest rate risk, equity price risk and commodity risk of the trading book)

Interest rate risk (non-trading)

Currency risk (non-trading)

Liquidity risk

Below is a discussion of the various risks the Group is exposed to as a result of its activities and the approach taken to manage those risks.

Credit riskMeasurement and control

The Group is subject to credit risk through its lending, trading, hedging and investing activities as well as in cases where it acts as an intermediary on behalf of customers or other third parties or issues guarantees.

The Group's senior management is responsible for establishing the credit policies and the mechanisms, organisation and procedures required to analyse, manage and control credit risk. In this respect, counterparty limits are set and an internal system of credit ratings is applied.

The Group's primary exposure to credit risk arises through its loans, credit facilities and guarantees issued. The Group is also exposed to credit risk on various other financial assets, including financial investments (interest earning securities), loans and receivables from banks, financial assets held for trading (interest earning securities and derivatives) and derivatives used for hedging.

The risk that counterparties might default on their obligations is monitored on an ongoing basis. For each transaction the Group evaluates whether collateral or a master netting agreement is required to mitigate the credit risk.

Maximum credit exposure

In the table below we have detailed the maximum credit exposure:

	2005	2004
Derivative assets held for trading	105,372	96,792
Financial investments – interest-earning securities	119,749	99,838
Loans and receivables – banks	21,371	19,486
Loans and receivables – customers	282,580	240,227
Professional securities transactions	162,005	123,644
Multi-seller conduits	25,931	23,700
Committed credit facilities	141,010	145,009
Credit related contingent liabilities	46,021	46,465
Total	904,039	795,161

The credit risk exposure on derivative assets held for trading is measured as the current positive replacement value plus the potential future changes in replacement value, taking into account master netting agreements with individual counterparties where they are enforceable in insolvency. For interest-earning securities the amortised cost is included to reflect to credit risk exposure. The credit risk on professional security transactions is limited as a result of the nature of these transactions. The loans and receivables due from multi-seller conduits bear limited credit risk as these are fully collateralised.

Table of Contents*Credit risk concentrations*

Concentrations of credit risk (whether on- or off-balance sheet) that arise from financial instruments exist for groups of counterparties when they have similar economic characteristics that would cause their ability to meet contractual obligations to be affected in a similar way by changes in economic or other conditions. As part of managing risk concentrations, country risk in emerging markets and sector risk are managed on a portfolio basis. Refer to the following tables for details of the credit risk concentrations on the customer portfolio.

The amounts stated in the tables represent the maximum accounting loss that would be recognised at the balance sheet date if counterparties failed completely to perform as contracted and any collateral or security proved to be of no value. So the amounts greatly exceed expected losses.

For a breakdown of counterparties for interest-earning securities in the available-for-sale and held-to-maturity portfolio, please refer to note 15. The Group has no significant exposure in loans and receivables customers to any individual customer or counterparty.

Table of ContentsCollateral

The Group's policy is to obtain collateral if and when required prior to the disbursement of approved loans. Guarantees and letters of credit are also subject to strict credit assessments before being provided. The transactions specify monetary limits to the Group's obligations. The extent of collateral held for guarantees and letters of credit is on average 20%.

The following table details loans and receivables from commercial and consumer clients by type of collateral obtained.

Market risk of the trading bookExposures

All trading instruments are subject to market risk. Market risk arises from open positions in interest rate, currency, equity and commodity products, all of which are exposed to general and specific market movements. The instruments are recognised at fair value, and all changes in market conditions directly affect net trading income.

Measurement and control

The Group applies a Value-at-Risk (VaR) methodology to estimate the market risk of positions held and the maximum losses expected, based upon a number of assumptions for various changes in market conditions. The Group uses VaR as its primary tool for the day-to-day monitoring of market risks. Group Asset and Liability Management (GALM) sets limits on the VaR that may be accepted.

Other control measures used in the market risk management process include limits on net open positions, interest rate sensitivity per basis point, spread sensitivities, option parameters, position concentrations and position ageing. These non-statistical measures help us to monitor and control trading risks.

Value-at-Risk

VaR is a methodology for assessing market risk exposure in a single number. VaR is a statistical measure that estimates potential losses, and is defined as the predicted worst-case loss that might be caused by changes in risk factors under normal circumstances, over a specified period of time and at a specific level of statistical confidence. The Group uses a proprietary VaR model that has been approved by the Dutch Central Bank.

The VaR methodology adopted by the bank for its VaR calculation is Historical Simulation, using four years of equally weighted historical data. The VaR is calculated at a 99% confidence level for a one-day holding period, using relative changes in historical rates and prices. The positions captured by our VaR calculations include derivative and cash positions that are reported as assets and liabilities held for trading. The VaR is reported on a daily basis per trading portfolio, per product line and for the Group as a whole. It is reported daily to the senior management of the Business Units, Group Risk Management and the responsible members of the Managing Board.

(1) The maximum (and minimum) for each risk category occurred on different days and therefore have no direct relation to the maximum (and minimum) of the aggregate VaR. The aggregate VaR includes the diversification effect of imperfect or negative correlations between certain risk types. Therefore the aggregate VaR can be lower than the sum of the individual risk types on the same day (e.g. year-end)

Stress testing

Although the VaR represents a good estimate of potential losses under normal market circumstances, it fails to capture one-off events. The limitations of the VaR model mean that we must supplement it with other statistical tests. These include a series of stress tests scenarios and sensitivity stress tests that shed light on the hypothetical behaviour of our portfolio and the impact on our financial results under extreme market movements. Sensitivity stress tests and stress test scenarios have been developed internally to reflect specific characteristics of the bank's portfolios and are performed on a daily basis for each trading portfolio and at several aggregation levels. They may be based upon parallel movements in a number of risk elements or in one risk element, upon actual historical scenarios or upon plausible future shocks.

Interest rate risk (non-trading)Measurement and control

Several measures are used to monitor and limit non-trading interest rate risk. The methods employed include earnings simulation, duration and interest rate gap analysis. Limits are set on the earnings and market value sensitivity. Model-based scenario analysis is used to monitor the interest rate risk positions denominated in euros, Brazilian reals and US dollars to the extent that these positions are held in Europe, Brazil and the US, which relates to some 85% to 90% of the total exposure of the Group. Interest rate risk positions in other currencies and other countries are controlled by gap analysis and/or market value limits, as these positions are typically less complex.

Net interest income is the sum of interest received less interest paid on large volumes of contracts and transactions, and numerous different products. Simulation models and estimation techniques are used to forecast the net interest income and to assess its sensitivity to movements in the shape and level of the yield curve. Assumptions about client behaviour play an important role in these calculations. This is particularly relevant for loans such as mortgages where the client has the option to repay before the scheduled maturity. On the liability side, the repricing characteristics of savings and deposits are based on estimates using historical data, since the rates attached to these products are not coupled to a specified market rate or maturity date.

The bank uses a statistical approach for forecasting and sensitivity analyses because it is the method best suited to these products.

Table of ContentsInterest rate risk associated with our North America residential mortgage business in relation to mortgage servicing rights

We sell or securitise most of the mortgage loans we originate in North America, and typically retain the rights to service residential mortgage loans sold. The bank recognises a mortgage servicing right (MSR) upon sale of the loan. MSRs represent the present value of the estimated future net servicing cash flows realised over the estimated life of the mortgage. Origination income and MSR values are sensitive to changes in interest rates.

High or rising interest rates may lead to lower mortgage prepayments and a corresponding reduction in servicing amortisation costs and, therefore, an increase in servicing income. However, if interest rates are high or rising as in 2005 and 2004, residential mortgage loan demand may decline, leading to a fall in origination income.

The Group employs various strategies to manage the risk to net mortgage revenue from all sources over time and to manage the risk to an immediate reduction in the fair value of its mortgage servicing rights within the risk parameters established by GALM. The main hedge instruments used for this risk are interest rate swaps and forward sales contracts. From time to time we employ other derivative instruments such as interest rate futures, caps, floors or purchased options. Occasionally cash instruments such as mortgage-backed securities are utilised as hedges for MSR assets.

Interest rate sensitivity disclosure non-trading book

For assessing interest rate risk in the banking books, GALM provides a set of measures the Earnings at Risk and Market Value Risk for the EUR, USD and BRL currencies and reports this to the Group Asset Liability Committee (Group ALCO). This set covers 85% to 90% of our net interest revenue in the non-trading book. The interest rate sensitivity of our trading books is measured under market risk.

The Earnings-at-Risk table shows the cumulative sensitivity of net interest income over a time horizon of 6, 12, and 24 months, and under a number of predefined scenarios. Sensitivity is defined as the percentage change in the interest income relative to a base case scenario. The base case scenario assumes continuation of the present yield curve environment. The Rates Rise and Rates Fall scenarios assume a gradual parallel shift of the yield curve during 12 months, after which the curve remains unchanged. In order to reflect the differences in yield curve across markets, the scenarios are currency-dependent.

Due to the low interest environment the EUR rates fall scenario is 100 bp, whereas the rates rise scenario is 200 bp for both years presented. For USD, the 2005 scenarios reflect a gradual change of 200 bp upwards (2004: 200 bp) and 200 bp downwards (2004: 150 bp). The change in scenario is due to the low USD interest rates in 2004. For BRL, the rates rise scenario is 1,100 bp and the rates fall is 800 bp for both years presented.

In all cases, the volume scenario assumes new business volume in line with the business forecast during the first year, and a constant balance sheet thereafter. For USD, other interest sensitive items such as mortgage servicing rights are included in this measure.

The following table shows the cumulative % change in income over the relevant time horizon:

Earnings-at-Risk

The December 2004 data above covered a smaller portion of the balance sheet than December 2005. Therefore the absolute numbers for 2004 would not be comparable. Since relative numbers are scaled, the relative data for 2004 and 2005 can be compared.

Table of Contents

The Earnings-at-Risk table below gives the 2005 cumulative change in income over the relevant time horizon as absolute numbers using exchange rates at 31 December 2005.

	2 years	(58)	(343)	(180)

The Market Value Risk table shows the sensitivity of the market value of equity to changes in interest rates for the EUR, USD and BRL currencies. Market Value of Equity is defined as the calculated discounted value of assets in the banking book, minus calculated discounted value of liabilities, plus market value of derivatives and other interest sensitive items such as mortgage servicing rights for the US. Sensitivity is measured as the percentage value change due to an overnight shock. The magnitude of the shocks is equal to the changes used for earnings risk.

Rates Fall	0.7%	(13.4%)	4.7%	0.9%	(0.6%)	18.5%

Currency risk (non-trading)

The Group's operating entities are required to manage any currency exposure arising on local transactions with funding in the same currency or to transfer the currency risk to the Group. Accordingly the Group is able to manage currency risk through its net investments in its non-euro operations.

We apply various hedging strategies to our net investments in our non-euro operations, in order to manage and minimise any adverse effects from translating the relevant foreign currency into euro.

Capital ratio hedge

To protect our capital ratios (core tier 1, tier 1 and total capital as a portion of RWA) against adverse effects of the US dollar, our main foreign currency, the USD-sensitive part of our capital base has to be equal to the USD-sensitive part of our risk-weighted assets. On this basis there will be no material impact on our capital ratios, as the ratios are hedged against changes in the EUR/ USD exchange rate.

Capital hedge

The capital ratio hedge strategy implies that a part of our capital has to be USD-sensitive to neutralise the USD sensitivity of our RWA. Hence a part of our equity is also exposed to EUR/ USD fluctuations.

Our investments in foreign operations in currencies other than the USD are hedged on a selective basis. We consider the use of hedging in cases where the expected currency loss is larger than the interest rate differential between the two currencies that represents the cost of the hedge.

Table of Contents

At December 2005 56% of our net investment in foreign operations was hedged leaving approximately EUR 5 billion unhedged including USD 1 billion and BRL 2 billion (USD and BRL stated in EUR amounts). The table shows the sensitivity of our capital to, respectively, a 10% appreciation and 10% depreciation in the euro against all foreign currencies.

	2005	2004
	m	m
Euro appreciates 10%	(559)	(340)
Euro depreciates 10%	+559	+340

Liquidity riskMeasurement and control

Liquidity risk arises in any bank's general funding of its activities. For example, a bank may be unable to fund its portfolio of assets at appropriate maturities and rates, or may find itself unable to liquidate a position in a timely manner at a reasonable price. The Group holds capital to absorb unexpected losses, and manages liquidity to ensure that sufficient funds are available to meet not only the known cash funding requirements, but also any unanticipated ones that may arise. At all times, the Group maintains what we believe to be adequate levels of liquidity on a Group-wide basis to meet deposit withdrawals, repay borrowings and fund new loans, even under stressed conditions.

We manage liquidity on a daily basis in all the countries in which we operate. Each national market is unique in terms of the scope and depth of its financial markets, competitive environment, products and customer profile. Therefore local line management is responsible for managing our local liquidity requirements under the supervision of GALM on behalf of the Group ALCO.

On a day-to-day basis our liquidity management depends on, among other things, the effective functioning of local and international financial markets. As this is not always the case, we have Group-wide contingency funding plans. These plans are put into effect in the event of a dramatic change in our normal business activities or in the stability of the local or international financial markets. The Group Strategic Funding Committee has full authority to manage such a crisis. As part of this liquidity management contingency planning, we continually assess potential trends, demands, commitments, events and uncertainties that could reasonably result in increases or decreases in our liquidity. More specifically, we consider the impact of these potential changes on our sources of short-term funding and long-term liquidity planning.

As we have entered into committed credit facilities, our liquidity management process also involves assessing the potential effect of the contingencies inherent in these types of transactions on our normal sources of liquidity and finance.

The Group uses derivative instruments (a) to provide risk management solutions to its clients, (b) to manage the Group's own exposure to various risks (including interest, currency and credit risks) and (c) for proprietary trading purposes.

A derivative is a financial instrument that is settled at a future date and requires little or no initial net investment, and whose value varies in response to changes in the price of another financial instrument, an index or some other variable.

The majority of derivative contracts are arranged as to amount (notional), tenor and price directly with the counterparty (over-the-counter). The remainder are standardised in terms of their amounts and settlement dates and are bought and sold in organised markets (exchange traded).

The notional, or contractual, amount of a derivative represents the reference quantity of the underlying financial instrument on which the derivative contract is based. The value of the derivative contract is typically determined by applying a calculated price to this notional amount, and is the basis upon which changes in the value of the contract are measured. The notional amount provides an indication of the underlying volume of business transacted by the Group but does not provide any measure of risk, and is not included on the balance sheet.

Derivative instruments are carried at fair value (or mark-to-market), shown in the balance sheet as separate totals of positive fair values (assets) and negative fair values (liabilities). Positive fair values represent the cost to the Group of replacing all transactions with a favourable fair value if all the counterparties of the Group were to fail to perform according to the terms of the contract, assuming transactions could be replaced instantaneously. Negative fair values represent the cost to the Group's counterparties of replacing all their transactions if the Group failed to meet its obligations. Changes in fair value of derivative instruments are recognised in trading income unless they qualify as hedges for accounting purposes. Positive and negative fair values on different transactions are only netted if the transactions are with the same counterparty and the cash flows will be settled on a net basis, and the Group has the legal right to offset separate transactions with that counterparty.

Types of derivative instruments

The most common types of derivatives used are as follows:

Forwards are binding contracts to buy or sell financial instruments, most typically currency, on a future date at a specified price. Forward contracts are tailor-made agreements that are transacted between counterparties in the over-the-counter (OTC) market

Futures are exchange traded agreements to buy or sell a standard quantity of specified grade or type of financial instrument, currency or commodity at a specified future date.

Commodity derivatives are contracts to buy or sell a non-financial item. They can be either exchange traded or OTC

Swaps are agreements between two parties to exchange cash flows on a specified notional amount for a predetermined period. Most swaps are traded OTC. The major types of swap transactions undertaken by the Group are as follows:

Interest rate swap contracts – typically the contractual exchange of fixed and floating rate interest payments in a single currency, based on a notional amount and a reference interest rate, most commonly LIBOR

Cross currency swaps – the exchange of interest payments based on two different currency principal balances and reference interest rates, and usually the exchange of principal amounts at the start and end of the contract

Credit default swaps (CDSs) – bilateral agreements under which one party (protection buyer) makes one or more payments to the other party (protection seller) in exchange for an undertaking by the seller to make a payment to the buyer following a specified credit event. CDSs may be on a single name (counterparty) or on a multiple (or basket) of names (counterparties). Settlement

following a credit event may be a net cash amount, or cash in return for physical delivery of one or more obligations of the credit entity and is made regardless of whether the protection buyer has actually suffered a loss. After a credit event and settlement, the contract is terminated

Total rate of return swaps give the total return receiver exposure to all of the cash flows and economic benefits and risks of an underlying asset, without having to own the asset, in exchange for a series of payments, often based on a reference interest rate, such as LIBOR. The total return payer has an equal and opposite position. A specific type of total return swap is an equity swap.

Options are contractual agreements under which, typically, the seller (writer) grants the purchaser the right, but not the obligation, either to buy (call option) or to sell (put option) by or at a set date, a specified quantity of a financial instrument or commodity at a predetermined price. The purchaser pays a premium to the seller for this right. Options may be traded OTC or on a regulated exchange, and may be traded in the form of a security (warrant).

Derivatives transacted for trading purposes

Most of the Group's derivative transactions relate to sales and trading activities. Sales activities include the structuring and marketing of derivative products to customers to enable them to take, transfer, modify or reduce current or expected risks.

Trading activities are entered into principally for the purpose of generating profits from short term fluctuations in price or margin, and include market-making, positioning and arbitrage activities:

Market making involves quoting bid and offer prices to other market participants with the intention of generating income based on spread and volume

Positioning means managing market risk positions with the expectation of profiting from favourable movements in prices, rates or indices

Arbitrage activities involve identifying and profiting from price differentials between markets and products.

Derivatives transacted for hedging purposes

The Group enters into derivative transactions for the purposes of hedging assets, liabilities, forecast transactions, cash flows and credit exposures. The accounting treatment of hedge transactions varies according to the nature of the instrument hedged and whether the hedge qualifies for accounting purposes (see accounting policies).

The Group also enters into derivative transactions which provide economic hedges for credit risk exposures but do not meet the requirements for hedge accounting treatment; for example, the Group uses CDSs as economic hedges for credit risk exposures in the loan and traded product portfolios, but cannot always apply hedge accounting to such positions.

Risks of derivative instruments

Derivative instruments are transacted in many trading portfolios, which generally include several types of instruments, not just derivatives. The market risk of derivatives is managed and controlled as an integral part of the market risk of these portfolios. The Group's approach to market risk is described in the market risk section of this footnote.

Derivative instruments are transacted with many different counterparties, most of whom are also counterparties for other types of business. The credit risk of derivatives is managed and controlled in the context of the Group's overall credit exposure to each counterparty. The Group's approach to credit risk is described in the financial risk management part of this footnote. It should be noted that although the values shown on the balance sheet can be an important component of the Group's credit exposure, the positive replacement values for any one counterparty are rarely an adequate reflection of the Group's credit exposure on its derivatives business with that counterparty. This is because, on the one hand, replacement values can increase over time (potential future exposure), while on the other hand, exposure may be mitigated by entering into master netting agreements and bilateral collateral arrangements with counterparties.

Table of Contents39. Capital adequacy

To monitor the adequacy of capital the Group uses ratios established by the Bank for International Settlements (BIS). These ratios measure capital adequacy (minimum 8% as required by BIS) by comparing the Group's eligible capital with its balance sheet assets, off-balance sheet commitments and market and other risk positions at weighted amounts to reflect their relative risk. The market risk approach covers the general market risk and the risk of open positions in currencies and debt and equity securities. Assets are weighted according to broad categories of notional risk, being assigned a risk weighting according to the amount of capital deemed to be necessary to support them. Four categories of risk weights (0%, 20%, 50%, 100%) are applied; for example cash and money market instruments have a zero risk weighting which means that no capital is required to support the holding of these assets. Property and equipment carries a 100% risk weighting, meaning that it must be supported by capital equal to 8% of the carrying amount. Off-balance-sheet credit related commitments and derivative instruments are taken into account by applying different categories of conversion factors, which are designed to convert these items into balance sheet equivalents. The resulting equivalent amounts are then weighted for risk using the same percentages as for non-derivative assets. Tier 1 capital consists of shareholders' equity and qualifying subordinated liabilities less goodwill and some intangible assets. Tier 2 capital represents additional qualifying subordinated liabilities, taking into account the remaining maturities.

Core tier 1 capital is tier 1 capital excluding preference shares.

The Group's capital adequacy level was as follows:

	Balance sheet / unweighted amount		Risk weighted amount, including effect of contractual netting
	2005	2004	2005	2004

Table of Contents

The following table analyses actual capital and the minimum standard needed in order to comply with supervisory requirements.

	2005		2004
	Required	Actual	Required	Actual
Total capital	20,628	33,874	18,530	25,618
Total capital ratio	8.0%	13.14%	8.0%	11.06%

Tier 1 capital ratio	4.0%	10.62%	4.0%	8.46%
Core tier 1		21,828		14,641
Core tier 1 ratio		8.47%		6.32%

In determining the capital adequacy requirement, both existing and future credit risk is taken into account. To this end the current potential loss on derivatives, which is the fair value based on market conditions at balance sheet date, is increased by a percentage of the relevant notional amounts, depending on the nature and remaining term of the contract. This method takes into account the possible adverse development of the fair value during the remaining term of the contract. The following analysis shows the resulting credit equivalent, both unweighted and weighted for counterparty risk (mainly banks). The figures allow for the impact of netting transactions and other collateral.

Credit equivalent

	2005	2004
Interest rate contracts	84.8	75.0
Currency contracts	28.2	50.5
Other contracts	32.2	18.9
	145.2	144.4
Effect of contractual netting	97.4	88.9
Unweighted credit equivalent	47.8	55.5
Weighted credit equivalent	10.8	12.2

40. Private equity investments

Private equity investments are either consolidated or held at fair value.

Consolidated private equity holdings

Investments of a private equity nature that are controlled by the Group are consolidated. Such holdings represent a wide range of non-banking activities. Personnel and other costs relating to production and manufacturing activities are presented within material expenses. The impact of consolidating on the income statement these investments is set out in the following table.

	2005	2004
Income of consolidated private equity holdings	3,637	2,616
Other income included in operating income	(242)	(96)

Total operating income of consolidated private equity holdings	3,395	2,520
Goods and material expenses of consolidated private equity holdings	2,519	1,665
Included in personnel expenses	362	399
Included in administrative costs	352	284
Included in depreciation and amortisation	133	151
Operating profit before tax of consolidated private equity holdings	29	21

Goods and material expense includes personnel costs relating to manufacturing and production activities.

292

Table of Contents

The assets and liabilities of these consolidated holdings are included in the Group balance sheet. Given the non-banking nature of the underlying activities the main lines impacted are goodwill, property and equipment, other assets and issued debt securities. The total assets of these consolidated entities at 31 December 2005 were EUR 3,477 million (2004: EUR 2,393 million) excluding goodwill.

Unconsolidated private equity investments

The private equity investments in which the Group does not have control are accounted for at fair value with change through income. Although control is not with the Group, in many cases the Group does hold significant influence, usually evidenced by an equity stake of between 20% and 50%. Significant influence is held in approximately 100 investments with a fair value of EUR 603 million at 31 December 2005, operating in various sectors including information technology, life sciences, media and telecommunications.

41. Joint ventures

The Group's activities conducted through joint ventures include insurance, trust and property development activities. See note 49 for further details. The consolidated financial statements of the joint ventures include the following assets and liabilities, income and expenses of joint ventures, which represent the Group's proportionate share:

42. Remuneration of Managing Board and Supervisory BoardRemuneration policy

The current compensation policy for the Managing Board was introduced in 2001. The main objective is to ensure that ABN AMRO is able to attract, retain and motivate its Top Executive Group. To achieve this, Managing Board remuneration has several elements which, as a package, make it comparable with the remuneration offered by relevant peers in the market. Peers are defined as other major Dutch companies and other European-parented banks.

Table of Contents

The compensation package for the Managing Board has the following elements:

Base salary

Performance bonus

Long-term incentives Performance Share Plan and Share Investment and Matching Plan.

In addition there are a number of other benefits.

Base salary

A common base salary applies to all Managing Board members except the Chairman, to whom a 40% differential applies. In addition to the base salary, the non-Dutch Board member receives a market competitive allowance. Salaries are reviewed annually with adjustments taking effect from 1 January. Managing Board base salaries were adjusted in 2005 for the first time since 2001. The gross annual base salary for the Managing Board Members was adjusted from EUR 635,292 to EUR 650,000 and from EUR 889,410 to EUR 910,000 for the Chairman.

Performance bonus

The annual performance bonus for Managing Board members is based upon ABN AMRO's quantitative and qualitative performance objectives at both the corporate and BU level. The objectives are set annually by the Nomination & Compensation Committee and endorsed by the Supervisory Board. Bonuses for the Chairman, the CFO and as of 2004 the COO are based on delivery against these corporate performance objectives. With effect from 2004, the bonus for board members responsible for a BU is based 75% on Group performance and 25% on BU performance.

In 2005 objectives such as economic profit, cost / income ratio and tier 1 ratio were used to measure quantitative corporate and BU performance. In addition qualitative objectives are set such as increasing customer satisfaction and reaching strategic milestones. Bonus criteria are aligned with the bank's long term objectives. Specific annual performance targets are not disclosed as they are considered competitively sensitive.

If the quantitative performance objectives are fully met, the 2005 bonus will be 100% of base salary with an upper limit of 125%. The Nomination & Compensation Committee may, on the basis of their assessment of a Managing Board member's individual performance against qualitative performance objectives, adjust the bonus outcome upwards or downwards within a range of plus or minus 20% of base salary. In 2004 the bonus percentage linked to on-target performance was between 60% and 75%.

The 2005 performance bonuses for Managing Board members have been set at the newly- agreed 2005 bonus levels. The Committee assessed the 2005 performance against the set and realised quantitative objectives on the basis of the numbers provided by Group Finance.

The bonuses with respect to the 2005 performance year for all Managing Board members, including the Chairman of the Managing Board, are set at 115% of the 2005 annual base salary. The individual bonus awards are shown in the table on page 297.

The 2004 bonuses as paid in 2005 and published in the 2004 Annual Report have been adjusted as the Managing Board members have agreed to pay a part of that bonus back to the bank.

ABN AMRO Share Investment and Matching Plan

In 2004 Shareholders' approval was obtained to encourage executive share ownership. Under this plan, the Board members may defer a maximum of 25% of their annual salary into ABN AMRO Holding N.V. shares (Investment Shares). This amount must be funded from the net bonus outcome of the relevant performance year. If the net bonus outcome is insufficient to fund the full investment amount the participation will be withdrawn.

At the end of a three-year vesting period the Investment Shares will be matched by the bank on the basis of one ABN AMRO share (Matching Share) for each Investment Share, provided that the Managing Board member remains employed within the ABN AMRO Group during the vesting period. The Investment Shares, together with the built-up dividends, will be released three years after deferral. The Matching Shares must be held for at least five years from vesting, with the possibility of selling some of the shares to settle the tax obligation.

Table of Contents

In 2005 with respect to the 2004 bonus all Managing Board members have participated in this plan, five of them for the maximum amount of 25% of base salary and one Managing Board Member for 12.5% of base salary. The total amount that was used to purchase Investment Shares was EUR 936,954 for all six Managing Board Members. With respect to the 2005 performance year, five members again participated for 25% of annual salary and one member for half of this amount.

Share options

Share options have been an integral part of ABN AMRO top executives' compensation for several years. As of 2005 share options no longer form part of the long-term reward package for the Managing Board or for the Top Executive Group as a whole. The options granted in the years up to and including 2004 will remain in place. In 2005 no options expired. The options granted in 2002 vested on 25 February 2005 and will remain exercisable during the remainder of the ten-year option period, which runs until 25 February 2012. In 2006 no options will expire. The options granted in 2003 have vested on 24 February 2006, because the two performance conditions that were set for this award were met by the end of the three-year performance period in 2005.

The Managing Board announced to the N&C Committee on 30 January 2006 their collective decision to limit the exercise of their options going forward exclusively to the first day of the first open period after vesting and/or expiration periods, or to earlier equivalent contractual dates in line with the plan rules, such as the date of retirement. Although this limits the theoretical value of the options, the Board believes the increase in transparency to the market outweighs this theoretical disadvantage.

Performance Share Plan

The Performance Share Plan (PSP) was introduced in 2001 and forms an important though stretching part of the Managing Board's reward package. SEVPs are also eligible for a yearly grant under this plan. In 2005 Managing Board members received a conditional award of 60,000 shares and the Chairman 84,000 shares. The PSP grant in 2005 was based half on the relative TRS (total return to shareholders) performance and half on the average return on equity (ROE) achieved by the bank over the four-year performance period, defined as the year of grant and three subsequent years.

The vesting schedule for the TRS-linked award is the same as in previous years. The full award will be paid if the TRS generated by the bank in the fourth year of the performance period is fifth out of 21 relative to the peer group. There will be a sliding scale ranging from no award if the bank is lower than tenth to 150% of the conditional award if the bank has progressed to the very top of the TRS rankings.

The ROE linked part of the award was introduced in 2005. The pay-out of this part of the award will be linked to the average ROE target for the performance period using a sliding scale, with a threshold at 25% and a maximum award of 100%.

Another condition is that the recipient must still be in service with the Group at the end of the performance period. The four-year performance cycle for the conditional shares as awarded in 2002 came to a close at the end of 2005, and ABN AMRO's position in the peer group was seventh. This means that the conditional share award made in 2002 will result in an award representing 70% of the original awards of 70,000 shares for members and 98,000 shares for the Chairman. As a result, the members of the Managing Board received 49,000 ABN AMRO shares with a vesting date, 31 January 2006, and the Chairman 68,600 shares. This award is subject to taxation which was calculated on the basis of the number of shares times the share price. The Managing Board members collectively decided to sell, on the day of the grant of the award, a number of shares sufficient to settle the tax obligation with respect to the award.

Pension

The Managing Board's pensionable salary is 100% of annual base salary. Until 31 December 2005 the normal retirement age of the Managing Board members was 62. Since 1 January 2006 the plan has been changed in such a way that the normal retirement age is 65, based on average income (2.15% per year). It is possible to retire earlier. The ABN AMRO Pension Fund manages the pension plan.

Table of ContentsSpecific benefits

The Managing Board's compensation package also includes:

The use of a company lease car with driver

Reimbursement of the cost of adequate security measures for their main private residence

A 24-hour personal accident insurance policy with a fixed covered amount of EUR 1.8 million for members and EUR 2.5 million for the Chairman

Contributions towards private health insurance, according to the policies applicable to all other ABN AMRO employees in the Netherlands

Preferential rates on bank products such as mortgages and loans, according to the same policies which apply to all other ABN AMRO staff in the Netherlands.

The following table summarises total reward, ABN AMRO options and shares, and outstanding loans of the members of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board.

Table of Contents

The following table shows movements in shares conditionally awarded under the Performance Share Plan. For the years 2002 through 2004 the conditional award was based 100% on the bank's ranking in the peer group (TRS ranking). For the year 2005, 50% of the award is on the TRS ranking and 50% on the average ROE target for the reference period. The number of shares conditionally awarded on the TRS ranking in the table below assumes a ranking of fifth in the peer group, in line with our ambition. The number of shares conditionally awarded on the ROE target assumes that we will achieve an average ROE above 20% per annum, our target for the performance cycle 2005-2008.

As a consequence of ABN AMRO ranking seventh in the peer group at the close of the performance cycle from 2002 to 2005, all members of the Managing Board received 70% of the conditionally awarded shares for that performance cycle at 31 January 2006. The average stock price at that date was EUR 22.78.

The following table provides information on the remuneration of individual members of the Supervisory Board. The members of the Supervisory Board receive an equal remuneration of EUR 40,000 per annum. For the Vice-Chairman this remuneration is EUR 45,000 and for the Chairman EUR 55,000 per annum. For the membership of the Audit Committee and the Nomination & Compensation Committee an additional allowance of EUR 7,500 per membership is applied on an annual basis. In addition to this remuneration every member also receives a general expenses allowance of EUR 1,500. This allowance is EUR 2,000 for the Vice-Chairman and the Chairman. For members of the Committees mentioned above as additional expenses allowance of EUR 500 is applicable. Furthermore, for the Supervisory Board members who do not live in the Netherlands, there is a general allowance of EUR 5,000 per Supervisory Board meeting that such a member attends.

All amounts are based on a full year, but the actual payment depends on the period of membership during the year. Members of the Supervisory Board are not entitled to emoluments in the form of ABN AMRO shares or options on ABN AMRO shares.

Senior Executive Vice Presidents (SEVPs) Compensation 2005

The reward package for ABN AMRO s SEVPs, the second level of Top Executives, was also introduced in 2001 and as with the Managing Board was primarily aimed at maximising total returns to our shareholders.

The compensation for ABN AMRO SEVPs consists of the following core elements:

Base salary. The base salaries are benchmarked against the relevant local markets. The current median base salary is EUR 396,000

Performance bonus. The annual performance bonus is linked to the respective markets within the various countries where we operate. The median bonus amount paid with respect to the 2005 performance year was EUR 1 million. Bonuses for individual SEVPs vary widely, again reflecting market and location. No absolute maximum level of bonus has been defined for SEVPs

Table of Contents

Long-term incentives such as the Performance Share Plan and the Share Investment and Matching Plan. Long-term incentives are set at a lower level than the applicable yearly grants to Managing Board members. SEVPs received an award under the Top Executive Performance Share Plan and are eligible to participate on a voluntary basis in the Share Investment & Matching Plan. All SEVPs receive identical grants.

In addition, a number of benefits apply in relation to the respective markets and countries of residence.

The total compensation for SEVPs in 2005 amounts to EUR 51 million (2004: EUR 42 million).

43. Share-based payments plans

ABN AMRO grants long-term share-based incentive awards to members of the Managing Board, other top executives and key staff under a number of plans.

With effect from 2005 share options no longer form part of the reward package of the top executives.

The current plans for the Managing Board (Performance Share Plan and Share Investment and Matching Plan) are described in note 42. At a lower level, the Performance Share Plan is also applicable to the second tier of top executives, the SEVPs. Both the SEVPs and the third level of top executives, the EVPs and MDs, may defer a part of their bonus to the Share Investment and Matching Plan. Furthermore, there is a Restricted Share Plan for the EVPs/MDs with performance conditions linked to the average return on equity in line with the Performance Share Plan of the Managing Board. All these plans are equity-settled.

There is also a cash-settled Performance Share Plan for the EVPs/MDs for the performance cycle 2002-2005.

Share-based compensation expense related to plans granted after 7 November 2002 totalled EUR 63 million in 2005 and EUR 58 million in 2004. Including the plans granted prior to 7 November 2002, for which the expense is calculated under our previous GAAP, total expense amounted to EUR 61 million (2004: EUR 4 million net of a release of EUR 58 million due to our final TRS-ranking in the performance cycle 2001-2004). The total carrying amount of liabilities arising from cash-settled share-based payments transactions amounted to EUR 22 million at 31 December 2005 (2004: EUR 18 million).

Option plans

Key staff are granted options conditionally on ABN AMRO shares with an exercise price equal to the average share price at the date of grant. Options generally vest three years after grant if both the service conditions and the performance conditions (a minimum ROE target) have been achieved.

The fair value of options granted is determined using a Lattice option pricing model. The following table shows the assumptions on which the calculation of the fair value of these options was based. The expected volatility was based on historical volatility.

For the calculation of the fair value of the options granted to the Top Executives in 2004, the same assumptions were used. The expense recorded in 2005 regarding all options plans amounted to EUR 43 million (2004: EUR 36 million)

Share Plans

For the calculation of the expense for the share plans, various models were used. The total expense in 2005 for plans granted after 7 November 2002 amounted to EUR 19 million (2004: EUR 22 million). The following table presents a summary of all shares conditionally granted to the Top Executives of ABN AMRO. For the number of shares granted on the TRS-ranking under the Performance Share Plan, a ranking of fifth in the peer group has been assumed.

Disposal in 2005 and 2004

During 2005 the Group disposed of the following activities:

Real Seguros in Brazil which was transferred to a joint venture

Nachenius, Tjeenk & Co.

These operations contributed EUR 22 million to the consolidated net profit for the year ended 31 December 2004 and EUR 12 million in 2005.

Bank of Asia

Business combinations in 2006

On 2 January 2006 the Group entered into the business combination with Banca Antoniana Popolare Veneta (Banca Antonveneta) to increase its mid-market footprint, and to continue and accelerate the successful partnership that gives access to the large and attractive Italian banking market and to the high-quality customer base of Banca Antonveneta. During 2005 the Group increased its interest in Banca Antonveneta from 12.7% to 29.9%. On 2 January 2006 the Group further increased its interest in Banca Antonveneta from 29.9% to 55.8% following the purchase of 79.9 million shares in Banca Antonveneta from Banca Popolare Italiana (BPI). This increase has effectively given the Group a controlling interest in Banca Antonveneta as from 2 January 2006, the acquisition date of the business combination. The acquisition of the shares was performed in accordance with the agreement with BPI announced on 26 September 2005. The Group paid EUR 26.50 per share, representing a cash consideration of EUR 2.1 billion. As a result of this increased interest in Banca Antonveneta, in accordance with the Italian law, the Group has launched a mandatory public offer for the remaining shares it does not already hold in Banca Antonveneta.

On 26 February 2006 the Group published the offering document for the cash offer for all ordinary shares in Banca Antonveneta. The offering period started on 27 February 2006 and will end on 31 March 2006, as agreed with the Italian stock exchange Borsa Italiana. ABN AMRO will pay Banca Antonveneta shareholders a consideration of EUR 26.50 a share for each Banca Antonveneta ordinary share purchased through the offer, as already announced on 26 September 2005.

Following further purchases of shares in the open market, as at 16 March 2006 ABN AMRO's interest in Banca Antonveneta amounts to 76.0% of its outstanding share capital.

Business combination achieved in stages

The acquisition of Banca Antonveneta by the Group is being achieved in stages through successive share purchases. The Group has identified two stages in achieving this business combination.

The first stage has ended with the announcement by the Group on 30 March 2005 of its intention to launch the cash offer for all ordinary shares of Banca Antonveneta. At that date the 12.7% holding of the Group in Banca Antonveneta was accounted for as an associate in accordance with the equity method. The adjustment to fair value of the 12.7% holding of the Group in Banca Antonveneta amounting to EUR 101 million following the fair valuation of assets and liabilities of Banca Antonveneta as per the acquisition date in accordance with the purchase method will be accounted for as a revaluation through shareholders' equity.

The second stage has started as of 1 April 2005 and will be completed by 31 March 2006, the end of the offering period. The Group has presumed that the fair values of assets and liabilities of Banca Antonveneta as at 2 January 2006 represent the fair values of assets and liabilities of Banca Antonveneta during the second stage of the acquisition between 1 April 2005 and 31 March 2006. The stable economic environment and specific business circumstances of Banca Antonveneta during the second stage of the acquisition have not had a material impact on the fair values of assets and liabilities of Banca Antonveneta during that period.

The acquisition of Banca Antonveneta will be accounted for in accordance with the purchase method as described in IFRS 3 Business Combinations. The total purchase price to acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of Banca Antonveneta amounts to EUR 7.5 billion, including costs directly attributable to the combination of EUR 32 million.

Table of Contents

The preliminary allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired -including newly identifiable intangible assets resulting from the acquisition -and (contingent) liabilities assumed, using their fair values at the acquisition date and the resulting goodwill, is presented in the following table.

This allocation is based on provisional fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, and may be adjusted during the period up to 31 December 2006 as more information is obtained about these fair values.

The fair values of the identifiable assets and liabilities of Banca Antonveneta as at 2 January 2006 are:

Newly identifiable intangible assets recognised upon acquisition

As a result of the acquisition, the Group on a pre-tax basis will recognise newly identifiable intangible assets as follows:

Core deposit intangible assets	400
Core overdraft intangible assets	224
Other customer relationship intangible assets	325
Other intangible assets	245
Total	1,194

The amortisation period for all newly identifiable intangible assets is on average approximately 8 years. The Group estimates that the total amortisation expense (pre-tax) related to the newly identifiable intangible assets will amount to EUR 174 million in each of the next three years up to and including 2008 and to EUR 142 million for each of the five years thereafter up to and including 2013.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents expected revenue and cost synergies from the business combination and the value of the workforce of Banca Antonveneta which cannot be recognised separately from goodwill.

Table of Contents45 Discontinued Operations

The Group had no discontinued operations in 2005. During 2004 the Group disposed of LeasePlan Corporation and the Bank of Asia. The aggregated operating performance and disposal gain for these discontinued operations was as follows.

	2004
Total operating income	736
Total expenses	519
Operating profit before tax	217
Gain recognised on disposal	1,275
Profit before tax from discontinued operations	1,492
Tax on operating profit	51

46 Related parties

The Group has a related party relationship with associates (see notes 19 and 40), joint ventures (see note 41), pension funds (see note 27) and key management (see note 42).

The Group enters into a number of banking transactions with related parties in the normal course of business. These include loans, deposits and foreign currency transactions. These transactions were carried out on commercial terms and at market rates except for employees. No allowances for loan losses have been recognised in respect of loans to related parties in 2005 and 2004.

Under Dutch GAAP, total assets and total liabilities at 31 December 2004 were EUR 608,623 million and EUR 589,372 million respectively, compared to EUR 727,454 million and EUR 710,902 million under IFRS. In addition to differences in valuation and income recognition (transition difference) and equity / liability classification, the following change impact the presentation of assets and liabilities:

IFRS requires the consolidation of multi-seller conduits which impacted both total asset (loans and receivables customers) and total liabilities (due to customers) by EUR 23,700 million

Under IFRS derivative netting can only be applied if, in addition to holding the right of set-off, we also have the intention to settle net. This intention criteria is seldom met due to small differences in the timing of cash flows between derivatives with the same counterparty and the use of gross settlement accounts with derivative exchanges. This increased total assets (financial assets held for trading) and total liabilities (financial liabilities held for trading) by approximately EUR 97 billion

Consolidating controlled private equity investments had the impact of increasing total assets and total liabilities by EUR 2,393 million

Under IFRS funding instruments totalling EUR 3,714 million that previously qualified as equity, reported in minority interest and preference shares, are now presented as subordinated liabilities.

Upon transition at 1 January 2004 the following assets and liabilities were designated to be held at fair value with changes through income:

Non-controlling interests in private equity investments. These investments were previously valued at cost less any required provision for impairment and presented within shares with a book value of EUR 1,079 million at 1 January 2004. The adjustment required to bring these investments to fair value at 1 January 2004 was EUR 9 million. These interests are now reported within financial investments

Mortgages held-for-sale as part of our mortgage banking activities in North America. These mortgages were previously recorded at cost within loans to customer . Under IFRS these loans are now reported within other assets and had a fair value of EUR 4,209 million. This exceeded the cost amount by EUR 27 million, a sum which was largely offset by the requirement to fair value related hedging derivatives.

INFORMATION ON THE EXPECTED IMPACT OF THE MERGER ON THE CONSOLIDATED NET ASSETS OF BARCLAYS GROUP (PRO FORMA NET ASSET STATEMENT)

The following unaudited pro forma combined net asset statement as at 30 June 2007 and the notes thereto (together, the Pro forma net asset statement) are based on the interim financial information of Barclays PLC and ABN AMRO Holding N.V. prepared under IFRS after giving effect to the proposed combination by applying the adjustments described in the Pro forma net asset statement. The Pro forma net asset statement has been prepared for illustrative purposes only and, because of its nature, addresses a hypothetical situation and does not, therefore, represent Barclays Group actual financial position. The Pro forma net asset statement has been prepared on the basis set out in the notes below and in accordance with Annex I and Annex II of the PD Regulation.

Notes to Pro forma net asset statement

For the purposes of the preparation of the Pro forma net asset statement the consolidated balance sheet of Barclays Group at 30 June 2007 has been combined with the consolidated balance sheet of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. at 30 June 2007, both of which are prepared in accordance with IFRS and, as if the proposed combination giving effect to the sale of LaSalle had occurred on 30 June 2007. The presentation currency adopted in the Pro forma net asset statement is Euro as this is consistent with the presentation currency of the combined group should the proposed combination occur.

Table of Contents

The Pro forma net asset statement includes appropriate adjustments to account for the events directly associated with the proposed combination. Any potential synergy benefits are not included within the Pro forma net asset statement. Only costs which are expected to be directly incurred as part of the proposed combination have been included within the Pro forma net asset statement.

1. The financial information of Barclays Group in this Pro forma net asset statement reflects the IFRS financial information in the interim results announcement as at 30 June 2007 published by Barclays on 2 August 2007 which has been extracted without material adjustment and has been adjusted to present the financial statements in Euro. The rate of exchange used is the closing exchange rate of 1.49 (: £) in line with the exchange rates used in the interim results announcement of Barclays Group for the period ended 30th June 2007
2. The financial information of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. in this Pro forma net asset statement reflects the IFRS financial information in the interim financial report as at 30 June 2007 published by ABN AMRO Holding N.V. on 30 July 2007 which has been extracted without material adjustment. The ABN AMRO Holding N.V. interim financial report has been reformatted as set out in note 8 below to be consistent with Barclays Group financial statements presentation
3. The proposed combination is subject to an offer condition that prior to completion of the exchange offer, ABN AMRO Holding N.V. will dispose of LaSalle to Bank of America Corporation for $21 billion. The terms of this offer condition will require ABN AMRO Holding N.V. to dispose of all LaSalle operations excluding capital markets activities within its Global Markets unit and Global Clients division as well as its US Asset Management business. This adjustment represents the effect of the disposal of LaSalle:
 - 84,442m represents the assets of LaSalle and is based upon the assets of businesses held for sale, which mainly consists of LaSalle as at 30 June 2007 published by ABN AMRO Holding N.V. in their interim financial report as at 30 June 2007 published on 30 July 2007
 - 80,380m represents the liabilities of LaSalle and is based upon the liabilities of businesses held for sale, which mainly consists of LaSalle as at 30 June 2007 published by ABN AMRO Holding N.V. in their interim financial report as at 30 June 2007 published on 30 July 2007; and
 - 4,554m represents the receivable due to ABN AMRO Holding N.V. from LaSalle. For the purposes of this Pro forma net asset statement it has been assumed that the receivable has been accounted for as Loans & Advances to Banks.
4. This adjustment represents the consideration receivable on the disposal of La Salle to Bank of America Corporation $21 billion. The rate of exchange used is 1.3676 ($) as published by the FT on 2 August 2007.
5. The other adjustments included in the Pro forma net asset statement have been prepared as if the proposed combination was completed at 30 June 2007. These are:
 - Adjustments reflecting the cash flows of costs directly attributable to the proposed combination. These comprise cash outflows relating to the acquisition of ABN AMRO ordinary shares (24,680m), stamp duty (45m), cash to acquire ABN AMRO (formerly convertible) preference shares (1m) and estimated Barclays transaction costs (218m); and cash inflows relating to the issue of 888,513,514 new Barclays ordinary shares to China Development Bank, Temasek Holdings (Private) Limited and the placees under the Clawback Placing at £7.40 per share less 74m of estimated fees and expenses (9,683m) and the exercise of ABN AMRO employee share options (594m). All ABN AMRO employee share options not exercised as at 30 July 2007 (amounting to 30,691,954 shares), will become exercisable on the combination date and will be subject to the exchange offer consistent with all ABN AMRO ordinary shares. The cash inflow from employees on exercising these options has been assumed to be the weighted average strike price of 19.35 per share per the ABN AMRO 2006 Annual Report

Removal of existing goodwill and intangible assets in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (7,140m) as disclosed in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. interim financial report as at 30 June 2007 published by ABN AMRO Holding N.V. on 30 July 2007; the recognition of estimated purchased goodwill of (40,719m) arising from the proposed combination

The calculation of consideration is based on the closing price of Barclays ordinary shares of £6.86 as listed on the Daily Official List of the LSE on 2 August 2007.

6. No additional intangible assets have been recognised as part of the combination and no fair value adjustments have been made.
7. No account has been taken of the trading or other transactions of Barclays Group or ABN AMRO Group since 30 June 2007.
8. The ABN AMRO Holding N.V. balance sheet has been presented to conform with the Barclays Group financial statements presentation to the extent that the information required to make these reclassifications is available in the ABN AMRO Holding N.V. interim financial report. These reclassifications do not affect total assets or liabilities. The table below shows the adjustments made.

Dear Sirs

Barclays PLC (the Company)

We report on the unaudited pro forma combined net asset statement (the Pro forma net asset statement) set out in Part IX of the Company's prospectus dated 6 August 2007 (the Prospectus) which has been prepared on the basis described in the notes to the Pro forma net asset statement, for illustrative purposes only, to provide information about how the Merger might have affected the net assets presented on the basis of the accounting policies adopted by the Company in preparing the Barclays Interim Report 2007 for the period ended 30 June 2007. This report is required by item 20.2 of Annex I to the PD Regulation and is given for the purpose of complying with that PD Regulation and for no other purpose.

Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the directors of the Company to prepare the Pro forma net asset statement in accordance with item 20.2 of Annex I to the PD Regulation.

It is our responsibility to form an opinion, as required by item 7 of Annex II to the PD Regulation Rules as to the proper compilation of the Pro forma net asset statement and to report our opinion to you.

In providing this opinion we are not updating or refreshing any reports or opinions previously made by us on any net asset statement used in the compilation of the Pro forma net asset statement, nor do we accept responsibility for such reports or opinions beyond that owed to those to whom those reports or opinions were addressed by us at the dates of their issue.

Save for any responsibility which we may have to those persons to whom this report is expressly addressed and for any responsibility arising under item 5.5.3R(2)(f) of the Prospectus Rules to any person as and to the extent there provided, to the fullest extent permitted by law we do not assume any responsibility and will not accept any liability to any other person for any loss suffered by any such other person as a result of, arising out of, or in connection with this report or our statement, required by and given solely for the purposes of complying with item 23.1 of Annex I to the PD Regulation, consenting to its inclusion in the Prospectus.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our work in accordance with the Standards for Investment Reporting issued by the Auditing Practices Board in the United Kingdom. The work that we performed for the purpose of making this report, which involved no independent examination of any of the underlying net asset statements, consisted primarily of comparing the unadjusted net asset statement with the source documents, considering the evidence supporting the adjustments and discussing the Pro forma net asset statement with the directors of the Company.

We planned and performed our work so as to obtain the information and explanations we considered necessary in order to provide us with reasonable assurance that the Pro forma net asset statement has been properly compiled on the basis stated and that such basis is consistent with the accounting policies of the Company.

Our work has not been carried out in accordance with auditing standards or other standards and practices generally accepted in the United States of America, The Netherlands or any other territory outside the United Kingdom or in accordance with auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and accordingly should not be relied upon as if it had been carried out in accordance with those standards and practices.

Opinion

In our opinion:

(a) the Pro forma net asset statement has been properly compiled on the basis stated; and

(b) such basis is consistent with the accounting policies of the Company.

Declaration

For the purposes of Prospectus Rule 5.5.3R(2)(f), we are responsible for this report as part of the Prospectus and we declare that we have taken all reasonable care to ensure that the information contained in this report is, to the best of our knowledge, in accordance with the facts and contains no omission likely to affect its import. This declaration is included in the Prospectus in compliance with item 1.2 of Annex I to the PD Regulation.

Yours faithfully

TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

Part A UNITED KINGDOM TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary of certain United Kingdom tax consequences relating to the ownership and disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs and Barclays Preference Shares. The comments set out below are based on existing United Kingdom tax law and what is understood to be current HM Revenue & Customs practice as at the date of this Prospectus, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice, and relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares.

Other than in respect of paragraph 4 of this section, the comments set out below apply only to holders of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs, or Barclays Preference Shares who are resident, or in the case of individuals, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in (and only in) the United Kingdom (except insofar as express reference is made to the treatment of non-United Kingdom residents), who hold the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares as an investment and who are the absolute beneficial owners thereof. Certain categories of holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, insurance companies and collective investment schemes, holders who have (or are deemed to have) acquired their New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares by virtue of or in connection with an office or employment, holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who acquire their New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares by exercising options and holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or New Barclays Preference Shares who are resident or ordinarily resident but not domiciled for UK tax purposes in the UK, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders. The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares and assume that holders of New Barclays ADSs will in practice be treated for the purposes of United Kingdom tax as the beneficial owners of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares represented by the New Barclays ADSs.

Any holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

1. Taxation of dividends

Barclays is not required to withhold at source any amount in respect of United Kingdom tax when paying a dividend on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares.

A holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who is an individual resident (for tax purposes) in the United Kingdom and who receives a dividend on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares will be entitled to a tax credit equal to one-ninth of the dividend. Such individual will be taxable on the total of the dividend and the related tax credit (the gross dividend), which will be regarded as the top slice of the individual's income. The tax credit will, however, be treated as discharging the individual's liability to income tax in respect of the gross dividend, unless and except to the extent that the gross dividend falls above the threshold for the higher rate of income tax, in which case the individual will, to that extent, pay tax on the gross dividend calculated as 32.5 per cent. of the gross dividend less the related tax credit. So, for example, a dividend of £80 will carry a tax credit of £8.89 and the income tax payable on the dividend by an individual liable to income tax at the higher rate would be 32.5 per cent. of £88.89, namely £28.89, less the tax credit of £8.89, leaving a net tax charge of £20 (and therefore an effective tax rate of 25 per cent. on the dividend).

A holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares that is a company resident (for tax purposes) in the United Kingdom will not generally be taxable on any dividend on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares it receives from Barclays.

A holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who is not liable to tax on dividends on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or Barclays

Table of Contents

Preference Shares received from Barclays will not be entitled to claim payment of the tax credit in respect of those dividends.

The right of a holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, a holder of New Barclays ADSs or holder of Barclays Preference Shares who is not resident (for tax purposes) in the United Kingdom to a tax credit in respect of a dividend received from Barclays and to claim payment of any part of that tax credit will depend on the existence and terms of any double taxation convention between the United Kingdom and the country in which the holder of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, holder of New Barclays ADSs or holder of Barclays Preference Shares is resident. Holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, holders of New Barclays ADSs or holders of Barclays Preference Shares who are not solely resident in the United Kingdom should consult their own tax adviser concerning their tax liabilities on dividends received, whether they are entitled to claim any part of the tax credit and, if so, the procedure for doing so.

2. Taxation of capital gains

A disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares by a holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who is resident or, in the case of an individual, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in the UK, or a holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who is neither resident nor ordinarily resident in the UK for tax purposes, but who carries on a trade, profession or vocation in the UK through a permanent establishment (where the holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares is a company) or through a branch or agency (where the holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares is not a company) and has used, held or acquired the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares for the purposes of such trade, profession or vocation or such permanent establishment, branch or agency (as appropriate) may, depending on the holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, give rise to a chargeable gain or an allowable loss for the purposes of UK taxation on chargeable gains. A holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who is an individual and who has ceased to be resident and ordinarily resident for tax purposes in the UK for a period of less than five tax years (or a shorter period under certain double tax treaties, where applicable) and who disposes of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares during that period may be liable on his or her return to the UK to tax on any chargeable gain realised (subject to any available exemption or relief).

3. Inheritance Tax

Depending on the value of the individual's estate, the holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, such as any relief under any applicable double tax convention between the UK and the relevant jurisdiction, there may be a charge to UK inheritance tax where an individual dies owning New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares or in respect of certain lifetime transfers by an individual holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares, such as gifts to some trusts and gifts made within the seven years before the individual's death.

4. Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (SDRT)

The comments set out below relate to holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares wherever resident for tax purposes (not only holders that are resident for tax purposes in the United Kingdom), but not to holders such as market makers, brokers, dealers and intermediaries, to whom special rules may apply.

(a) Issue or transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares to a clearance service or an issuer of depositary receipts

Subject to certain exemptions, a charge to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on the issue or transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares to a nominee or agent for, (1) particular persons providing a clearance service (such as Euroclear Nederland), or (2) an issuer of depositary receipts (such as Bank of New York). The rate of stamp duty or SDRT will generally be 1.5 per cent. of either (x) in the case of an issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the issue price of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, or (y) in the case of a transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer or, in some circumstances, the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, in the case of stamp duty rounded up if necessary to the nearest multiple of £5.

Barclays will bear the cost of any stamp duty or SDRT that may arise in connection with the Primary Exchange (and only in connection with the Primary Exchange) with respect to the issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and the initial receipt of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares (or interests therein within Euroclear Nederland) or New Barclays ADSs by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares before the closing date of the Ordinary Share Offer.

(b) Issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares other than to a clearance service or an issuer of depositary receipts

No liability to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on (1) the issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares other than in the circumstances referred to in (a) above or (2) on the issue of Barclays Preference Shares.

(c) Transfer of interests in New Barclays Ordinary Shares within Euroclear Nederland and transfer of New Barclays ADSs

No stamp duty need, in practice, be paid on the acquisition or transfer of interests in New Barclays Ordinary Shares within Euroclear Nederland, provided that any instrument of transfer or contract of sale is executed and remains at all times outside the United Kingdom.

An agreement for the transfer of interests in New Barclays Ordinary Shares between account holders of Euroclear Nederland while such New Ordinary Barclays Shares are held within Euroclear Nederland will not give rise to a liability to SDRT provided that, at the time the agreement is made, Euroclear Nederland satisfies various conditions laid down in the relevant UK legislation.

No stamp duty need, in practice, be paid on the acquisition or transfer of New Barclays ADSs provided that any instrument of transfer or contract of sale is executed and remains at all times outside the United Kingdom.

An agreement for the transfer of New Barclays ADSs will not give rise to a liability to SDRT.

(d) Transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares not held within a clearance service

A conveyance or transfer on sale of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays Preference Shares which are not held within a clearance service (such as Euroclear Nederland) will usually be subject to ad valorem stamp duty, generally at the rate of 0.5 per cent. of the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer (rounded up to the nearest £5).

An unconditional agreement for such transfer or a conditional agreement which subsequently becomes unconditional will be liable to SDRT, generally at the rate of 0.5 per cent. of the consideration for the transfer; but such liability will be cancelled if the agreement is completed by a duly stamped instrument of transfer within six years of the date of the agreement or, if the agreement was conditional, the date the agreement became unconditional. Where the stamp duty is paid, any SDRT previously paid will be repaid on the making of an appropriate claim. Stamp duty and SDRT are normally paid by the purchaser.

Under the CREST system of paperless transfers, no stamp duty or SDRT will arise on a transfer of such New Barclays Ordinary Shares into the system, unless such a transfer is made for consideration in money or money's worth, in which case a liability to SDRT will arise (usually at a rate of 0.5 per cent. of the amount or value of the consideration given). Paperless transfers of shares within CREST will be liable to SDRT rather than stamp duty, also at a rate of 0.5 per cent., and SDRT on relevant transactions settled within the system or reported through it for regulatory purposes will be collected by CREST.

Table of ContentsPart B DUTCH TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary of certain Dutch tax consequences relating to the ownership, and disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares. The summary does not address any laws other than the tax laws of The Netherlands as currently in effect and in force and as interpreted in published case law by the courts of The Netherlands at the date hereof, which tax laws and case law are subject to change after such date, including changes that could have retroactive effect. The summary does not purport to be complete and in view of the general nature of this summary, it should be treated with corresponding caution. Each holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares should consult his or her professional tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of the ownership and disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares.

For the purposes of the principal Dutch tax consequences described below, it is assumed that holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares are either individuals or companies (including other entities that are treated as companies for Dutch taxation purposes, such as without limitation open limited partnerships (open commanditaire vennootschappen), cooperatives (cooperaties) and open mutual funds (open fondsen voor gemene rekening)). This summary does not address the tax position of investment institutions (fiscale beleggingsinstellingen) in relation to the ownership or disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares.

For the purpose of the principal Dutch tax consequences described below, it is further assumed that no holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who is an individual has or will have a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in Barclays.

Generally speaking, a person has a substantial interest in a company if such person, directly or indirectly, has the ownership of or certain rights over shares representing 5 per cent. or more of the total issued and outstanding capital (or the issued and outstanding capital of any class of shares) of the company, rights to acquire such interest in the share capital (whether or not already issued) of the company, or the ownership of profit participating certificates (winstbewijzen) that relate to 5 per cent. or more of the annual profit or liquidation proceeds of the company. In the case of an individual the 5 per cent. ownership criterion applies to that person jointly with his partner, if any, whereas a substantial interest is also present in case of a less than 5 per cent. shareholding by an individual if his relatives in the direct line of descent and/or those of his partner do hold a substantial interest. A person has a deemed substantial interest generally in respect of shares that have formed part of a substantial interest and in respect of which a non-recognition provision has applied, such that capital gain taxation thereon has been deferred to a later date.

Any holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who are in doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside the Netherlands should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

1. Taxes of income and capital gains*Dutch resident companies*

Generally, a company holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands will be subject to Dutch corporate income tax with respect to income and capital gains derived from the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares, unless such holder is tax exempt, or benefits from the participation exemption in respect of his interest in the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares. The main condition for application of the participation exemption is that the shareholding interest represents at least 5 per cent. of the nominal paid up capital (or under certain conditions 5 per cent. of the voting rights) of Barclays.

Non-resident companies

A company holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares which is not resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands will not be subject to Dutch taxation on income or capital gains derived from the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares, unless such income or capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands and at the level of the permanent establishment the participation exemption would not apply to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares.

Dutch resident individuals

An individual holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who is, is deemed to be, or who has elected to be treated as resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands will be subject to Dutch income tax in respect of income or capital gains derived from the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares at the progressive rates of the Income Tax Act 2001 if:

- (i) such individual has an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise, to which the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares are attributable; or
- (ii) the income or capital gain qualifies as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which includes, without limitation, activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

If neither condition (i) nor condition (ii) above is met, the individual will be subject to Dutch income tax at an effective flat rate of 1.2 per cent. of the average value of the individual's net assets in the relevant calendar year (including the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares) regardless of the actual income or capital gains derived from the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares. The average value of the individual's net assets in a calendar year is based on the fair market value of the net assets at the beginning and at the end of the calendar year concerned.

Non-resident individuals

An individual holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who is not, is not deemed to be, and has not elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any income or capital gains derived from the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares unless:

- (i) the income or capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands; or
- (ii) the income or capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) in The Netherlands as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which includes, without limitation, activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

2. Credit for UK tax

Subject to general provisions in Dutch tax law governing the entitlement to a credit for foreign taxes, the following holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares will be entitled to a tax credit against their Dutch income tax or corporate income tax (as the context requires) liability currently equal to 1/9 of any dividend received by that holder on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares provided such holder is the beneficial owner thereof:

- (i) an individual who is, is deemed to be, or has elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands; and
- (ii) a company which both solely and together with certain associated companies controls directly or indirectly less than 10 per cent. of the voting power in Barclays, which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which is subject to Dutch corporate income tax on such dividend and the shareholders of which meet certain requirements.

Table of Contents

3. Dutch gift, estate and inheritance tax

Dutch gift, estate or inheritance taxes will be due in The Netherlands in respect of the transfer of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares by way of gift by, or on the death of, a holder of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares if the holder is, or is deemed to be, resident of the Netherlands for Dutch gift, estate and inheritance tax purposes, at the time of the gift or his or her death. For Dutch gift, estate and inheritance tax purposes deemed residency includes the situation of a person who dies or makes a gift within 10 years after ceasing to be a resident of The Netherlands.

4. Other taxes and duties

There is no Dutch registration tax, transfer tax, stamp duty or any other similar tax or duty, payable in The Netherlands in respect of or in connection with the holding or disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares.

Table of ContentsPart C AUSTRIAN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary of certain Austrian tax consequences relating to the ownership and disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays Preference Shares. This summary will only apply mutatis mutandis to the New Barclays ADSs provided that the New Barclays ADSs are to be treated as shares for Austrian tax purposes. The comments set out below are based on existing Austrian tax law, case law and regulations of the Austrian tax authorities as well as their respective interpretation in Austria as at the date of this Prospectus, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice.

This summary does not purport to exhaustively describe all possible tax aspects and does not deal with specific situations which may be of relevance for individual potential investors. In particular, this summary does not deal with any Austrian tax issues that may arise in the context of the acquisition of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Barclays Preference Shares or the New Barclays ADSs on the level of Austrian holders.

The comments set out below only apply to holders of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Barclays Preference Shares or the New Barclays ADSs (either individuals or corporations) who are resident for tax purposes in (and only in) Austria and who are the beneficial owners of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Barclays Preference Shares or the New Barclays ADSs. Certain categories of holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, of Barclays Preference Shares or of new Barclays ADSs, such as investment funds, private foundations or other similar vehicles, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders.

Any holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares or New Barclays ADSs who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Austria, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

1. Taxation of dividends(a) Individuals

Individuals with their domicile and/or their place of abode in Austria are subject to unlimited income tax liability (unbeschränkte Einkommensteuerpflicht) in Austria with respect to their worldwide income at an income tax rate of up to 50 per cent. Such income inter alia includes dividends from shares in a foreign corporation (i.e. the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Barclays Preference Shares or the New Barclays ADSs) held by an Austrian resident individual as non-business assets (Privatvermögen). The illustrations outlined below apply mutatis mutandis if the Austrian resident individual holds the shares in the foreign corporation (e.g. New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Barclays Preference Shares or the New Barclays ADSs) as part of its business assets (Betriebsvermögen).

If such dividends are paid out via an Austrian paying agent (inländische auszahlende Stelle), and provided that the participation in the foreign corporation is comparable to shares held in an Austrian corporation, income tax is levied by way of a 25 per cent. withholding tax at source (Kapitalertragsteuer) which has the effect of a final taxation (meaning that no additional income tax is levied over and above the amount of tax withheld).

Any foreign withholding taxes which have actually been levied on such dividends (as to tax treaty aspects see below) may directly be credited against such 25 per cent. Austrian withholding tax, although this is limited to 15% of the gross amount of dividends received. If such tax credit has not been directly applied at source upon payment of the dividends from the Austrian paying agent to the Austrian investor, the tax credit may alternatively be claimed (i) by way of a repayment procedure or (ii) such dividend payments may be included in the shareholder's annual income tax return pursuant to sec. 97(4) of the Austrian Income Tax Act (Einkommensteuergesetz). In the latter case the dividends will be subject to half the individual's average income tax rate in respect of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares or the New Barclays ADSs.

If dividend payments made by Barclays to an Austrian individual are not effected through an Austrian paying agent, a flat income tax rate of 25 per cent. applies. Since in this case no withholding tax is levied in Austria, such dividend payments must be included in the individual's income tax return. Any foreign withholding tax levied on the dividend payments may be credited against the Austrian income tax if provided for in the respective tax treaty, limited to the withholding tax rate fixed in such tax treaty. Any amount of foreign withholding tax levied which is in excess of the withholding tax rate fixed in the tax treaty may be claimed by way of a refund procedure from the foreign tax authorities.

Pursuant to the tax treaty between Austria and the UK, which may apply to dividend payments received by an Austrian resident individual on its New Barclays Ordinary Shares, its New Barclays ADSs or its Barclays Preference Shares, dividends paid by a UK corporation to an Austrian resident shareholder are in general taxable in Austria. The UK may also tax these dividend payments, such taxation right being limited, however, to 5 per cent. of the gross amount of dividends if the shareholder is a corporation controlling directly or indirectly at least 25 per cent. of the UK corporation's voting rights, or 15 per cent. in all other cases (cf. art. 10(2) of the tax treaty between Austria and the UK). On this basis the UK may levy a 15 per cent. tax on any dividends paid out by a UK corporation to an Austrian individual holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares. Austria is generally obliged to credit such UK tax against any Austrian income tax on these dividend payments (see above).

(b) Corporations

Austrian resident corporations which have their seat and/or their place of management in Austria are subject to unlimited corporate income tax liability (unbeschränkte Körperschaftsteuerpflicht) in Austria with respect to their worldwide income at a corporate income tax rate of 25%. Such income inter alia includes dividends from participations in foreign corporations (i.e. the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares or New Barclays ADSs). However, sec. 10(2) of the Austrian Corporate Income Tax Act (Körperschaftsteuergesetz) exempts from Austrian corporate income tax any dividends received by an Austrian parent from its foreign subsidiary if the following conditions are met: (i) the Austrian parent qualifies under sec. 7(3) of the Austrian Corporate Income Tax Act, (ii) and demonstrably holds a participation in the form of shares, (iii) of at least 10% of the stated share capital of the foreign subsidiary, (iv) for a minimum duration of one year, and (v) with the foreign subsidiary being comparable to an Austrian corporation (International Participation Exemption Conditions). In the case of an Austrian corporation holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares which fulfils the criteria set out above, any dividends received therefrom should be tax-exempt. If such dividends are tax exempt, any potential foreign withholding taxes which are available for a tax credit pursuant to applicable tax treaty law (see paragraph 1(a) above) may not be credited against Austrian corporate income tax on the taxable profits of the Austrian holder. If the International Participation Exemption Conditions are not met, any dividends received by the Austrian corporate holder are subject to 25 per cent. Austrian corporate income tax. On this basis any potential foreign withholding tax may generally be credited against such Austrian corporate income tax provided that the applicable tax treaty provides for such tax credit (see paragraph 1(a) above).

Austrian corporations should note that dividends may be subject to 25 per cent. Austrian withholding tax if such dividends are paid out to the Austrian holder via an Austrian paying agent. The Austrian paying agent may abstain from such withholding obligation if the Austrian holder declares that (i) the dividend payments are part of the Austrian holder's business income and (ii) the dividend payments are tax-exempt pursuant to the International Participation Exemption.

As to tax treaty aspects, please see paragraph 1(a) above.

2. Taxation of capital gains(a) Individuals

Any capital gain realised on the sale of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares by an Austrian resident individual holding his New Barclays Ordinary Shares, his New Barclays ADSs or his Barclays Preference Shares as part of his non-business assets will only be subject to Austrian income tax if (i) such sale is treated as a speculative transaction within the meaning of sec. 30 of the Austrian Income Tax Act or (ii) if the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares constitute a qualified participation within the meaning of sec. 31 of the Austrian Income Tax Act. A transaction is generally considered to be a speculative transaction if the sale of the relevant shares occurs within one year of their acquisition. This means that, if an Austrian individual holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares sells his New Barclays Ordinary Shares, his New Barclays ADSs or his Barclays Preference Shares within such one year speculation period, any capital gains realised on such sale will be subject to Austrian income tax of up to 50 per cent. on the level of the Austrian shareholder. If the holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares sells his New Barclays Ordinary Shares, his New Barclays ADSs or his Barclays Preference Shares after such one year speculation period has elapsed, such holder may nevertheless be subject to Austrian income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the sale of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares provided that such holder (or in case of a gratuitous acquisition of the shares its predecessor) has held a participation in Barclays of at least 1 per cent. at any point in time during the last five years. In such case the applicable income tax rate on the capital gains is reduced to half of the individual's average income tax rate.

An Austrian resident individual holding his New Barclays Ordinary Shares, his New Barclays ADSs or his Barclays Preference Shares as part of his business assets will be subject to Austrian income tax of up to 50 per cent. with any capital gains realised on such sale. If, however, the period between acquisition and sale of such New Barclays Ordinary Shares, such New Barclays ADSs or such Barclays Preference Shares exceeds one year, the applicable income tax rate on such taxable capital gains may be reduced to half of the individual's average income tax rate.

Pursuant to art. 13(4) of the tax treaty between Austria and the UK, the taxation right for any capital gains realised on the sale of shares in an UK corporation is exclusively allocated to the state of residence of the seller, i.e. Austria. Thus, the Austrian taxation right outlined above (for both privately held participations as well as participations being part of the taxpayer's business assets unless these participations are attributable to a permanent establishment of the taxpayer in the UK) is not restricted by tax treaty law.

(b) Corporations

The sale of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares by an Austrian resident corporate shareholder will generally not be subject to 25 per cent. Austrian corporate income tax provided that (i) the International Participation Exemption Conditions are fulfilled (please see paragraph 1(b) above) and (ii) such Austrian corporate shareholder has not opted for the taxation of any capital gains or losses of such participation upon filing the corporate income tax return for the year of acquisition of such shares. In all other cases, any capital gains realised on the sale of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares by an Austrian resident corporate shareholder are subject to 25 per cent. Austrian corporate income tax on the level of the Austrian resident corporate shareholder.

3. Inheritance and gift tax

Pursuant to the Austrian Inheritance and Gift Tax Act (Erbschafts und Schenkungssteuergesetz), the inheritance or donation of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Barclays Preference Shares and/or the New Barclays ADSs may be subject to Austrian inheritance or gift tax at a rate that varies from 2 per cent. to 60 per cent., depending on the value of the assets transferred (generally the fair market value) and the relationship of the deceased to the heir or the donor to the donee. An exemption from inheritance (but not gift) tax applies to the inheritance of shares in corporations in which the deceased at the time of his/her death has held less than 1 per cent. It should be noted that the Austrian Constitutional Court has recently declared the inheritance and gift tax as unconstitutional. This will become effective on 1 August 2008. It remains to be seen whether the Austrian Parliament will re-enact an inheritance and gift tax in Austria and under what terms.

Table of ContentsPart D BELGIAN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The comments set out below are based on existing Belgian tax laws and practices as at the date of this Prospectus both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice.

The comments set out below apply only to holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who are resident for tax purposes in (and only in) Belgium (except insofar as express reference is made to the treatment of non-residents), who hold these shares in their own name and for their own account and who are the beneficial owners thereof.

The comments below do not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to hold or dispose of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares or to receive dividends, liquidation proceeds or other distributions in respect of such shares.

The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares. They do not intend to provide the holders of stock subscription options or other comparable instruments (including shares and stock options acquired under employee incentive programs) with a description of the possible tax and social security implications of the holding of such instruments or shares.

For the purpose of applying the Belgian tax rules and regulations, it is assumed that holders of New Barclays ADSs are treated in the same way as holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares. This assumption has however not been confirmed by or verified with the Belgian tax authorities. Belgian resident holders of New Barclays ADSs should therefore consult their own tax advisers as to the potential tax consequences of holding or disposing of New Barclays ADSs or to receive dividends, liquidation proceeds or other distributions in respect of such New Barclays ADSs.

For the purpose of this summary, a Belgian resident is (i) an individual subject to Belgian personal income tax (i.e. an individual who has his domicile in Belgium or has the seat of his assets in Belgium, or a person assimilated to a Belgian resident), (ii) a company subject to Belgian corporate income tax (i.e. a company that has its registered office, its main establishment, or its place of management in Belgium) or (iii) a legal entity subject to the Belgian tax on legal entities (i.e. a legal entity other than a company subject to the corporate income tax, that has its registered office, its main establishment, or its place of management in Belgium). A Belgian non-resident is a person that is not a Belgian resident.

Any holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Belgium, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

1. Taxation of dividends(a) Individuals

Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) will be due at the rate of 25 per cent., if the dividends are paid or made available through a professional intermediary in Belgium.

For individuals who hold New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares as a private investment, this Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) is a final tax and any dividends that have been subject to it need not be reported in such person's personal income tax return. If no dividend withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) has been levied in Belgium (i.e., in case of payment outside of Belgium without the intervention of a professional intermediary in Belgium), the net amount of such dividends must be reported in the holder's personal income tax return and is taxable at the separate rate of 25 per cent., to be increased with local taxes.

For resident individuals who hold New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares for professional purposes, the dividends received will be taxed at the progressive personal income tax rates increased by the local surcharge. Any withholding tax will be creditable against the personal income tax due and, to the extent that it exceeds the tax payable, shall be reimbursed subject to two conditions: (i) the taxpayer must own the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares at the time of payment or attribution of the dividends in full legal ownership, and (ii) the dividend distribution may not give rise to a reduction in the value of, or a capital loss on the shares. The second condition is not applicable if such investor proves that he/she held the

New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares in full legal ownership during an uninterrupted period of twelve months prior to the attribution of the dividends.

(b) Companies

No Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) is levied where the Belgian holder of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares is a company that receives Barclays dividends paid or made available through a professional intermediary in Belgium (provided that such holder fulfills applicable certification formalities).

Dividends paid on New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares will, as a rule, be subject to corporate tax at the rate of 33.99 per cent.. However, companies will be able to deduct from their taxable income (other than certain disallowed expenses and other taxable items) up to 95 per cent. of the dividends received if these dividends are eligible for the dividends-received deduction. For the dividends-received deduction to apply, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares held by a Belgian company must, at the time of payment of the dividends: (i) represent at least 10 per cent. of Barclays share capital or have an acquisition value of at least 1.2 million; (ii) be fully owned by such Belgian company; (iii) be accounted for as financial fixed assets (within the meaning of Belgian accounting law) in the financial statements of such Belgian company; and (iv) be held or have been held continuously for at least one consecutive year. For certain investment companies and for certain financial institutions and insurance companies, certain of the aforementioned conditions do not apply.

(c) Legal entities

Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) will be due at the rate of 25 per cent., if the dividends are paid or made available through a professional intermediary in Belgium.

Where the holder of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares is a Belgian legal entity and no dividend withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) has been levied in Belgium (i.e., in case of payment outside of Belgium without the intervention of a professional intermediary in Belgium), the legal entity is liable to pay itself the 25 per cent. Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing).

2. Taxation of capital gains and losses(a) Individuals

Private investors who are Belgian residents are in principle not subject to Belgian income tax on capital gains realized upon the sale, exchange or other transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares, unless the capital gain is the result of speculation or cannot be considered as the result of normal management of one's private assets (in which case a 33 per cent. tax applies plus local surcharges).

Capital losses suffered by private investors upon the disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares are generally not tax deductible.

Individual residents who hold the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares for professional purposes are taxed at the ordinary progressive income tax rates increased by the applicable local surcharge on any capital gains realized upon the disposal of their shares. If the shares were held for at least 5 years, the capital gains tax will be levied at a reduced rate of 16.5 per cent.

Capital gains realized upon redemption of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares or in the case of liquidation may give rise to taxation at a separate rate of 10 per cent.

(b) Companies

Resident companies holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares, will in principle not be taxed in Belgium with respect to capital gains realized upon disposal of their shares. Capital losses realized by such companies will, as a rule, not be deductible.

In case of liquidation of Barclays, capital losses on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares are, however, tax deductible up to the loss of fiscal capital of Barclays represented by those shares.

Table of Contents

Capital gains realized upon redemption of the shares or in the case of liquidation will generally be taxed as a dividend.

(c) Legal entities

Resident legal entities will, as a rule, not be subject to Belgian capital gains tax on the disposal of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the New Barclays ADSs or the Barclays Preference Shares. Capital losses incurred by resident legal entities upon disposal of the shares are not tax deductible.

Capital gains realized upon redemption of the shares or in the case of liquidation may give rise to taxation at a separate rate of 10 per cent.

3. Tax on stock exchange transactions

The purchase and the sale and any other acquisition or transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, New Barclays ADSs or Barclays Preference Shares for consideration in Belgium, through a financial intermediary established in Belgium, is subject to the tax on stock exchange transactions, generally in the amount of 0.17 per cent. of the transfer price. The amount of tax on stock exchange transactions is capped at maximum 500 per transaction and per party. In any event, no tax on stock exchange transactions is payable by various types of investors (including credit institutions, insurance companies, pension funds and all non-residents of Belgium) acting for their own account.

Table of ContentsPart E SWISS TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

This section of the Prospectus contains a general summary of the taxation consequences of the receipt, ownership and sale of an investment in New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or Barclays Preference Shares under the laws of Switzerland as at the date of this Prospectus. This summary will only apply mutatis mutandis to the New Barclays ADSs provided that the New Barclays ADSs are to be treated as shares for Swiss tax purposes. The summary is general in nature, does not take into account the specific circumstances of any investor and should not be relied upon by any investor. Accordingly, investors should obtain their own independent advice as to the taxation consequences of receipt, ownership and sale of an investment in New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or Barclays Preference Shares, taking into account their own specific circumstances.

Any holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Switzerland, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

1. Taxation of Dividends

Swiss resident individuals holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of their private property who receive dividends and similar distributions with respect to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs (including stock dividends and liquidation proceeds) which do not qualify as a repayment of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs will be taxable on any such distribution in the tax period in which it is received.

Swiss resident individuals, Swiss resident corporate taxpayers as well as individuals and corporate taxpayers abroad holding the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as Swiss business assets, who receive dividends and similar distributions on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs (including stock dividends and liquidation proceeds), will be taxable on any net taxable earnings from the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as recorded in the business accounts (including any relevant distribution) for the corresponding tax period.

Swiss corporate taxpayers holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of the assets of a Swiss corporation or of a Swiss permanent establishment of a non Swiss corporation may, under certain circumstances, benefit from taxation relief with respect to distributions (Beteiligungsabzug), provided such New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares or New Barclays ADSs represent at the time of the distribution or at the closing date of the relevant financial statements at least 20 per cent. of the share capital or a fair market value of at least 2 million Swiss francs.

2. Holding and Disposition of Shares(a) Wealth and Capital Tax

Swiss resident individuals holding the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of their private property will be required to report their New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of their wealth and will be subject to cantonal and municipal wealth tax on the tax value thereof.

Swiss resident individuals and individuals resident abroad holding the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of their Swiss business assets will be required to report their New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of their wealth and will be subject to cantonal and municipal wealth tax on the tax value thereof.

Swiss resident corporate taxpayers and corporate taxpayers resident abroad holding the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of their Swiss business assets will be subject to cantonal and municipal capital tax.

Table of Contents

(b) Sale of Shares

Swiss resident individuals who sell or otherwise dispose of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Share and/or New Barclays ADSs may realise a tax-free capital gain, or a non-deductible capital loss, as the case may be, provided that they hold the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of their private property.

Swiss resident corporations, Swiss resident individuals and non-Swiss resident individuals and corporations holding the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as part of their Swiss business assets will be taxable on any capital gain on the sale or disposal of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs as recorded in the business accounts for the corresponding tax period. This also applies to Swiss resident individuals who, for individual income tax purposes, are deemed professional securities dealers.

(c) Federal Stamp Tax

The purchase or sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays Preference Shares and/or New Barclays ADSs whether by Swiss resident or non-resident persons, may be subject to Swiss federal stamp taxes on the transfer of securities (Umsatzabgabe) of up to 0.30 per cent., calculated on the purchase price or the proceeds if the purchase or sale occurs through or with a Swiss bank or other Swiss securities dealer as defined in the Swiss Federal Stamp Tax Act and if no exemption applies.

- 1 Figures are calculated assuming that the interests of the Barclays Directors and of the Proposed Directors in Barclays and ABN AMRO as at close of business of 30 July 2007 do not change, that the maximum number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued in connection with the Merger and that no other issues of Barclays Ordinary Shares other than the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional

CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares occur between publication of this document and the date when the Merger becomes Effective and that the Share Buy-back has been implemented in full.

Taken together, the combined percentage interest of the Barclays Directors and of the Proposed Directors in the issued ordinary share capital of Barclays as at 30 July 2007 (being the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this document) was approximately 0.07 per cent. and immediately following the Effective Date is expected to be 0.04 per cent.

Details of options and awards over Barclays Ordinary Shares held by the Barclays Directors (excluding interests held through Sharepurchase) and details of options and awards over ABN AMRO Shares held by the Proposed Directors are set out below. These are not included in the interests of the Barclays Directors and of the Proposed Directors shown in the table above.

The Barclays Directors and the individuals who were directors of Barclays in 2006 had interests in the following options and awards relating to Barclays Ordinary Shares under the Barclays Share Plans

- 1 The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares shown in the table includes the maximum potential 30% bonus share element where applicable.
- 2 Matthew W Barrett resigned from the Barclays Board on 31 December 2006. David Roberts and Naguib Kheraj ceased to be Barclays Executive Directors on 31 December 2006 and 31 March 2007 respectively. Accordingly, only the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares as at 1 January 2007 is shown.
- 3 The ESAS Trustee may release additional Barclays Ordinary Shares to participants which represent accumulated dividends (net of withholding) in respect of Barclays Ordinary Shares under award. During 2007, the ESAS Trustee released the following accumulated dividend shares 6,865 to John Varley, 144,048 to Robert E Diamond Jr, and 4,030 to Gary Hoffman. These are not awarded as part of the original award and consequently are not included in the Released column.
- 4 An award over Barclays Ordinary Shares worth £500,000 was granted to Chris Lucas on 1 May 2007 following his appointment as Finance Director on 1 April 2007. This award will normally vest 50 per cent. after one year and the remainder after 2 years. Bonus shares are not applicable to this award. The award is in recognition of forfeited remuneration from his previous employment.

- 1 Matthew W Barrett resigned from the Barclays Board on 31 December 2006. David Roberts and Naguib Kheraj ceased to be Barclays Executive Directors on 31 December 2006 and 31 March 2007 respectively. Accordingly, they are not included in this table.
- 2 Under ESOS, options granted (at market value) to executives were exercisable only if the growth in Barclays earnings per share over the three-year period was at least equal to the percentage increase in the UK Retail Prices Index plus 6 per cent. over the same period. The performance condition for the 1999 ESOS grant was met.
- 3 Under ISOP, executives were awarded options (at market value) over Barclays Ordinary Shares which are normally exercisable after three years. The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares over which options can be exercised depended upon performance against specific performance conditions. For ISOP awards granted in 2000 to 2003, the first 40,000 Barclays Ordinary Shares under option was subject to an economic profit (EP) performance condition, tested over a period of three years. Any amount above 40,000 Barclays Ordinary Shares was subject to a relative total shareholder return (TSR) performance condition, to be tested initially over three years. Because the TSR performance condition was not met over three years in relation to the awards in 2003, the TSR condition was tested over a period of four years from the original start date. Awards in 2004 were subject to a relative TSR performance condition. For the 2003 and 2004 grants, which became exercisable in 2007, Barclays was ranked sixth in the peer group under the TSR performance condition. This was sufficient for only 25 per cent. of the maximum number of Barclays Ordinary Shares to vest under the TSR condition. The remaining 75 per cent. lapsed.

- 4 Robert E Diamond Jr received a grant under the BGI EOP in March 2004. He was not a director of Barclays at that time. The shares shown in respect of the BGI EOP in the above table are BGI Shares.

Save as disclosed in this paragraph no Barclays Director or Proposed Director has any interests or, following Admission, will have any interest, (beneficial or non-beneficial) in the share capital of Barclays or any of its subsidiaries.

Save as disclosed above, no other person involved in the Merger has an interest which is material to the Merger.

No Barclays Director or Proposed Director has, or has had, any interest in any transaction which is or was unusual in its nature or conditions or which is or was significant to the business of Barclays and which was effected by Barclays during the current or immediately preceding financial year and which remains in any respect outstanding or unperformed.

Details of the loans and other credit facilities made available by the Barclays Group to Barclays Directors are discussed in paragraph 9 of Part XII (Additional Information). All loans and other credit facilities provided to such Barclays Directors are on normal commercial terms or are loans that have been provided on a preferential basis as a part of a scheme to provide similar facilities to all Barclays Group employees.

7. Remuneration of the Barclays Directors and the Proposed Directors

This section provides information on the remuneration arrangements for the Barclays Directors and the Proposed Directors.

7.1 Remuneration Policy

Barclays policy is to use reward to drive a high-performance culture. Barclays Executive Directors can expect outstanding reward if performance is outstanding and below median reward for below median performance. This philosophy applies to reward policies and practices for all employees in the Barclays Group. The Barclays Remuneration Committee considers reward levels across the Barclays Group when determining remuneration for Barclays Executive Directors.

Table of Contents

The aims of Barclays remuneration policy are to:

incentivise excellence in and balance between both short-term (one year) and longer-term (three years plus) performance such that the Barclays Group's financial goals and the goal of achieving top quartile TSR are met and sustained;

enable the Barclays Group to attract and retain people of proven ability, experience and skills in the pools in which Barclays competes for talent;

encourage behaviour consistent with Barclays Guiding Principles which leads to excellence and the appropriate balance in financial performance, governance, controls, risk management, customer service, people management, brand and reputation management; promote attention to maximising personal contribution, contribution to the business in which the individual works and contribution to the Barclays Group overall; and ensure, both internally and externally, that remuneration policies and programmes are transparent, well communicated, easily understood and aligned with the interests of shareholders.

7.2 Reward for Barclays Executive Directors

Reward for Barclays Executive Directors and other senior executives comprises:

base salary;

annual bonus, including mandatory deferral into an award of Barclays Ordinary Shares;

long-term incentives; and pension and other benefits.

The Barclays Remuneration Committee reviews the elements of reward relative to the policies above and to the practice of other comparable organisations. Reward is benchmarked against the markets in which Barclays competes for talent. This includes benchmarking against other leading international banks and financial services organisations, and other companies of similar size to Barclays.

The Barclays Remuneration Committee has set a guideline that, as a minimum, Barclays Executive Directors should hold the equivalent of 1x their base salary in Barclays Ordinary Shares, including Barclays Ordinary Shares held under award under deferral arrangements.

Each element of reward is important and has a specific role in achieving the aims of the remuneration policy. The combined potential remuneration from bonus and long-term incentives outweighs the other elements, and is subject to performance conditions, thereby placing the majority of total reward at risk. The purpose of each element is described below.

Reward element	Purpose
Base salary	To reflect the market value of the individual and their role
Annual performance bonus and mandatory deferral	To incentivise the delivery of annual goals at the Barclays Group, business division and individual levels
Long term incentives	To reward the creation of above median, sustained growth in shareholder value
Pension

To provide market competitive post-retirement benefits

Annual Bonus and Deferred Share Award

All of the current and proposed Barclays Executive Directors are or will be eligible to participate in the annual bonus arrangement.

The annual bonus is delivered partly as cash (currently 75 per cent.) and the remainder as a deferred share award. The maximum bonus opportunity is tailored to the relevant market.

Details of the share plan (ESAS) that is currently used to deliver deferred share awards can be found on pages 378 to 380.

Long term incentives

All of the current and proposed Barclays Executive Directors are or will be eligible to participate in the Barclays PSP. Details of the Barclays PSP can be found on pages 371 to 373. Awards are based on an initial allocation of up to the higher of 150 per cent. of base salary or 75 per cent. of base salary and target annual bonus. Performance over a three year period determines the final number of Barclays Ordinary Shares which may be released to participants.

The last option grant under ISOP was in 2004. Details of ISOP can be found on pages 382 to 384.

Retained Incentive Opportunity

Robert E Diamond Jr retains an opportunity to be considered for an award in February 2008 up to a maximum value of £14.85m, subject to performance criteria based on the delivery of economic profit (EP) at Barclays Capital over the period 2005 to 2007. EP was chosen as this is an appropriate measure to align the interests of the participant with those of shareholders and is a good measure of value creation for shareholders. 50 per cent. of any potential award would be payable in cash on the vesting date. A recommendation would be made to the ESAS Trustee for an award of Barclays Ordinary Shares, in the form of a provisional allocation, in respect of the remaining 50 per cent. to be eligible for release 12 months after the award date.

Sharesave

Details of Sharesave can be found on pages 374 to 376. Current and proposed Barclays Executive Directors may participate in Sharesave.

Sharepurchase

Details of Sharepurchase can be found on pages 376 to 378. Current and proposed Barclays Executive Directors may participate in Sharepurchase.

Pensions

All Barclays Group pension arrangements are managed in accordance with the Global Retirement Fund Governance Framework to ensure best practice in respect of regulatory compliance, governance, investment and administration. The framework is overseen by the Barclays Remuneration Committee. Pension benefits for Barclays Executive Directors are provided through defined benefit plans, defined contribution plans, unfunded non-qualified retirement benefit arrangements or a combination of these. The pension benefit applicable will depend on the date a Barclays Executive Director was appointed and their individual situation. Annual performance related bonuses are not included in pensionable salary.

The Barclays Group's closed UK defined benefit pension arrangement, of which John Varley and Gary Hoffman are members, is a non-contributory scheme. Benefits are provided on leaving service at normal pension age (60) by reference to the Barclays Executive Director's length of service, normally by reference to 1/60th of pensionable salary for each year of pensionable service (in accordance with his service contract, the scheme provides John Varley with a pension benefit of 66.67 per cent. of his pensionable salary at normal pension age. Should John Varley retire at age 55, the scheme provides for an unreduced pension of 60 per cent. of pensionable salary).

The Barclays Group's closed UK defined benefit pension arrangement also provides that, in the event of death before retirement, a cash lump sum of up to four times salary is paid together with a dependant's pension of 50 per cent. of the pension that would have been payable had the member remained in active service until their normal pension age. For death in retirement, a dependant's pension is payable of approximately 50 per cent. of the member's pension at the date of death, not taking into account commutation of any cash lump sum at the time of the member's retirement. If a member is granted a deferred pension that has not yet come into payment the widow/widower receives a pension of 50 per cent. of the deferred pension payable. Where applicable, children's pensions are payable, usually up to the age of 18. Enhanced benefits may be payable if it is determined that a member is unable to work as a result of serious ill-health.

The Barclays Group's US non-contributory defined benefit arrangement, of which Robert E Diamond Jr is a member, provides a benefit at age 65 of 1/60th of final average pensionable pay plus 0.3 per cent. of final average pensionable pay in excess of the US Internal Revenue Service's covered compensation limit for each year of pensionable service (up to a maximum of 30 years). In line with current market practice, final average pay in the US includes an element of bonus subject to overall plan limits. In the event of a member's death before retirement, a spouse's pension of approximately 50 per cent. of the member's pension had the member taken early retirement on the date of death, is payable. On death after retirement, a spouse's pension of 50 per cent. of the pension in payment is payable. In addition, enhanced benefits are payable if the member qualifies for disability benefits.

The US Restoration Plan, of which Robert E Diamond Jr is also a member, is an unfunded non-qualified retirement benefit arrangement which restores reductions in the benefits provided through the approved US plan resulting from the application of relevant compensation and benefit limitations under the US Internal Revenue Code. Robert E Diamond Jr participates in this plan on similar terms to other Barclays senior executives participating in US benefit plans.

Robert E Diamond Jr also participates in the Barclays Bank 401K Thrift Savings Plan and Thrift Restoration Plan on similar terms to other Barclays senior executives in the US.

Cash allowances are provided to some executive Directors in lieu of being able to join a Barclays Group pension arrangement. Chris Lucas and Frits Seegers receive such cash allowances.

If an executive Director builds up pension benefits close to, or in excess of, the HMRC Lifetime Allowance, the executive Director is eligible to opt for a cash allowance instead of continued pension accrual.

Details of the Barclays Group's pension plans are set out in paragraph 5.3 of Part XII (Additional Information) of this document.

7.3 Service Contracts

The Barclays Group has service contracts with the Barclays Executive Directors. The effective dates of the contracts for the Barclays Executive Directors who served during 2006 are shown in the table below. The effective dates of the service contracts for the current and proposed Barclays Executive Directors are shown in the table on page 348. The service contracts do not have a fixed term but provide for a notice period from the Barclays Group of one year and normally for retirement at age 65. The Barclays Remuneration Committee's policy is that Barclays Executive Directors contracts should allow for termination with contractual notice from the Barclays Group, except in circumstances of gross misconduct when notice is not given. Service contracts are with Barclays Bank, except those of Robert E. Diamond Jr and Frits Seegers, whose service contracts are with Gracechurch Services Corporation, a subsidiary of Barclays Bank.

The Barclays Remuneration Committee's approach when considering payments in the event of termination is to take account of the individual circumstances including the reason for termination, contractual obligations and share and pension plan rules.

Payments in the event of termination are also subject to mitigation if alternative employment is found during any period of pay in lieu of notice.

Current and proposed Barclays Executive Directors:

Barclays Executive Directors	Effective date of contract	Notice period	Potential compensation for loss of office
John Varley	1 Sep 2004	1 year	1 year's contractual remuneration ¹
Robert E Diamond Jr	1 Jun 2005	1 year	1 year's contractual remuneration ¹

Chris Lucas	1 Apr 2007	1 year

Frits Seegers	7 Jun 2006	1 year	1 year's contractual remuneration ¹
Huibert Boumeester	Effective Date	1 year	1 year's contractual remuneration ²

1. One year's contractual remuneration is calculated as follows: 12 months' base salary, bonus if eligible (being the average of the previous three years' bonus awards, in some cases (Gary Hoffman, Naguib Kheraj, David Roberts and Chris Lucas) capped at 100% of base salary), medical benefit (while an employee) and continuation of pension benefits. Payments in the event of termination are subject to mitigation if alternative employment is found during any period of pay in lieu of notice.
2. It is intended that Huibert Boumeester will enter into a service contract with Barclays Bank which will be conditional upon the Merger and will come into effect on the Effective Date. The principal terms of the proposed service contract have been approved by the Barclays Remuneration Committee. The service contract will provide for a salary of £600,000 per annum and benefits in kind including the use of a Company owned vehicle or cash equivalent and medical insurance. It is intended that he will remain in his current ABN AMRO defined contribution pension arrangement. Huibert Boumeester will be eligible to be considered for a discretionary annual bonus award (including mandatory deferral into ESAS) and for annual participation in long term incentive plan awards under the Barclays PSP. In respect of 2008 it has been agreed he will receive a minimum bonus (including the ESAS element) of 100 per cent. of base salary (capped at 250 per cent. of annual salary) and he will be recommended for a Barclays PSP award with an aggregate market value on the day of the award of £600,000. The service contract will contain provisions for benefits payable upon termination of employment. Until the end of 2008, in the event of termination other than on grounds of gross misconduct or his resignation, Huibert Boumeester will retain his entitlement to ABN AMRO SEVP contractual severance terms. These provide for a payment based on Huibert Boumeester's salary prior to becoming a member of the Management Board and calculated by reference to age, years of service and a cantonal adjustment factor. It has also been agreed that in those circumstances he would be treated as a good leaver for the purpose of any outstanding long term incentive awards under the Barclays PSP or other plans allowing him to retain those awards within the rules of the Barclays PSP or other relevant plan. With effect from 1 January 2009, Huibert Boumeester will be entitled to twelve months' notice of termination of his employment and in the event of termination without notice (other than dismissal for cause or resignation) will be entitled to receive one year's contractual remuneration and pro-rata bonus for the year in which termination occurs, medical benefits and continuation of pension payments. Payment will be, however, subject to a mitigation mechanism in the event alternative employment is found during the notice period.

The Barclays Executive Directors receive benefits in kind, which may include life and disability cover, the use of a company owned vehicle or cash equivalent, medical and dental insurance and tax advice. There are no provisions for benefits payable upon the termination of employment. The remuneration and contractual terms of the current Barclays Executive Directors will not be affected by the Merger.

Chairman and Vice-Chairman

From 1 January 2007, on becoming Barclays Chairman, Marcus Agius became entitled to a fee of £750,000 per annum (inclusive of director's fees). He is also eligible for private health insurance. The minimum time commitment is equivalent to 60 per cent. of a full time role. Marcus Agius is not eligible to participate in Barclays bonus and share incentive plans nor can he participate in Barclays pension plans or receive any pension contributions. The service contract provides for a notice period of 12 months from the Barclays Group or six months from Marcus Agius. It is intended that these terms will be unchanged when Marcus Agius becomes Deputy Chairman on the Effective Date. There are no provisions for benefits payable upon cessation of service. On the Effective Date Arthur Martinez will be appointed Chairman. The terms of Arthur Martinez's service contract as Chairman will be confirmed by the Board before the Effective Date, and will be referenced to those of Marcus Agius and his fee (inclusive of Director's fees) will be no higher, nor will he be eligible to participate in bonus, share incentive or pension plans, to receive pension contributions or receive benefits upon cessation of service.

Following the Effective Date, Gary Hoffman will resign as a Barclays Director and Vice-Chairman. He will continue to be employed by the Barclays Group, on his current terms of employment.

Investment Banking and Investment Management and Global Retail and Commercial Banking

There are established frameworks for the governance of remuneration in these businesses. Ranges have been set for key financial and compensation ratios such as operating margin, operating costs to net revenue, compensation to pre-compensation profit before tax and bonus expenditure as a percentage of pre-bonus profits. The Barclays Remuneration Committee approves aggregate bonus and long-term incentive expenditure, and strategic investment for new hires. The Barclays Remuneration Committee also approves individual compensation for the members of the management teams, and any employees with total compensation in excess of £750,000.

Table of ContentsBarclays Non-executive Directors

The Barclays Board determines the fees of Barclays Non-executive Directors and the fees are reviewed annually. The annual fee structure as at 30 July 2007 is shown below.

Base fee	£65,000
Plus:
Chairman of Board Audit Committee	£50,000
Chairman of Barclays Remuneration Committee	£40,000
Chairman of Board Risk Committee	£30,000
Members of the Board Audit Committee	£20,000
Members of the following Board Committees: Risk, Barclays Remuneration and Corporate Governance and Nominations	£15,000

As Deputy Chairman, Sir Nigel Rudd receives £200,000 per annum. He did not receive an additional fee for chairing the Barclays Remuneration Committee in 2006. Similarly, as Chairman, Matthew Barrett received a salary of £650,000 in 2006, without any additional fee for chairing the Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee. Sir Richard Broadbent receives an additional £30,000 per annum in respect of his role as Senior Independent Director. Until his appointment as Chairman became effective on 1 January 2007, Marcus Agius received the annual base fee of £65,000 (pro rata) as a Barclays Non-executive Director.

The Barclays Board's policy is that fees should reflect individual responsibilities and membership of Board Committees. Barclays encourages Barclays Non-executive Directors to build up a holding in Barclays Ordinary Shares. £20,000 of each Barclays Non-executive Director's base fee of £65,000 is used to buy Barclays Ordinary Shares. These Barclays Ordinary Shares, together with reinvested dividends, are retained on behalf of the Barclays Non-executive Directors until they retire from the Barclays Board. Barclays Non-executive Directors do not receive awards in share plans for employees, nor do they accrue pension benefits from Barclays for their non-executive services.

Barclays Non-executive Directors do not have service contracts but each has a letter of appointment. For each current Barclays Non-executive Director, the effective date of their appointment, notice period and the Barclays Group's liability in the event of early termination are shown in the following table.

Barclays Non-executive Directors	Effective date of letter of appointment	Notice period	Group liability in the event of early termination
David Booth	1 May 2007	6 months	6 months fees
Sir Richard Broadbent	1 Sep 2003	6 months	6 months fees

Anthony Ruys	N/A
Paolo Scaroni	N/A
Sir John Sunderland	1 Jun 2005	6 months	6 months fees
Rob van den Bergh	N/A

Each appointment is for an initial six-year term, renewable for a single term of three years thereafter, with the exception of Sir Nigel Rudd, whose appointment as Deputy Chairman is reviewed annually.

- 1 Emoluments include amounts, if any, payable by subsidiary undertakings. Amounts payable to Dr Daniël Cronjé include an amount of ZAR 3,114,800 (£249,829) in respect of his chairmanship of Absa.
- 2 The amounts shown for ESAS represent the value of Barclays Ordinary Shares recommended for an award under ESAS in 2007 for each Barclays Executive Director, including a maximum potential 30 per cent. bonus share element. These amounts are included in the first ESAS table on page 341.
- 3 Frits Seegers was appointed a Barclays Executive Director on 10 July 2006. In addition to the amount shown in the column Salary and fees, Frits Seegers received a cash payment of £3,408,000 in July 2006 in recognition of forfeited share awards and benefits from his previous employment.

- 1 The transfer values have been calculated in a manner consistent with the Retirement Benefit Scheme Transfer Values (GN11) published by the Institute of Actuaries.
- 2 With the exception of Matthew W Barrett and the benefits provided through the US Restoration Plan for Robert E Diamond Jr, pensions benefits are provided on a funded basis. During 2006 and up to his retirement on 31 December 2006, Matthew W Barrett was not a member of any of the Barclays Group's registered pension arrangements. Instead a notional fund was accrued on his behalf through an unfunded unapproved retirement benefits scheme. No contributions were made to this arrangement in 2006.
- 3 In addition to the transfer value of accrued pension at 31 December 2006, John Varley and Gary Hoffman also have defined contribution benefits. John Varley's benefit is in respect of a transfer from a previous pension arrangement while Gary Hoffman's benefit is in respect of Special Company Contributions (Bonus Sacrifice). During 2006, Special Company Contributions (Bonus Sacrifice) of £225,000 were paid in respect of Gary Hoffman. The fund value of these arrangements as at 31 December 2006 for John Varley and Gary Hoffman were £662,554 and £623,104 respectively.
- 4 The benefits shown above in respect of Robert E Diamond Jr's participation in the Barclays Group's US non-contributory defined benefit arrangement and the US Restoration Plan have been converted to Sterling using the 2006 year-end exchange rate of $1.96.
- 5 Robert E Diamond Jr is also a member of the Barclays Bank 401K Thrift Savings Plan and Thrift Restoration Plan. These are US defined contribution plans. Company contributions into these plans in 2006 amounted to £11,414 ($21,000).

Frits Seegers and Naguib Kheraj do not participate in the Barclays Group's pension arrangements. Instead they receive a cash allowance in lieu of pension contributions of 25 per cent. and 23 per cent. of their respective base salaries. Frits Seegers' cash allowance in 2006 amounted to £84,028 while Naguib Kheraj's cash allowance in 2006 was £149,500.

- 7 In addition to the cash allowance in lieu of pension contributions, Naguib Kheraj has defined contribution benefits in respect of a previous period of participation in a Barclays Group closed defined contribution arrangement. The fund value of this deferred benefit as at 31 December 2006 was £108,963.

8. Corporate Governance

Corporate Governance

As at the date of this document, Barclays is in compliance with the provisions set out in the Combined Code.

Board practices

Role and Responsibilities of the Barclays Board

As at the date of this document, the Barclays Board is comprised of the Chairman, five executive Directors and 10 non-executive Directors.

The Barclays Board is responsible to shareholders for creating and delivering sustainable shareholder value through the management of the Barclays Group's businesses. It determines the strategic objectives and policies of the Barclays Group to deliver such long-term value, providing overall strategic direction within a framework of rewards, incentives and controls. The Barclays Board ensures that management strikes an appropriate balance between promoting long-term growth and delivering short-term objectives.

The Barclays Board is also responsible for ensuring that management maintain a system of internal control which provides assurance of effective and efficient operations, internal financial controls and compliance with law and regulation. In carrying out this responsibility, the Barclays Board must have regard to what is appropriate for the Barclays Group's business and reputation, the materiality of the financial and other risks inherent in the business and the relative costs and benefits of implementing specific controls. The Barclays Board is also the decision-making body for all other matters of such importance as to be of significance to the Barclays Group as a whole because of their strategic, financial or reputational implications or consequences.

A formal schedule of powers reserved to the Barclays Board is in place. Powers reserved to the Barclays Board include the approval of interim and full year financial statements, significant changes in accounting policy and practice, the appointment or removal of Barclays Directors or Barclays Company Secretary, changes to the Barclays Group's capital structure and major acquisitions, mergers, disposals or capital expenditure.

Roles on the Barclays Board

The roles of the Chairman and Group Chief Executive are separate and the Barclays Board has agreed their respective responsibilities.

The Chairman's main responsibility is to lead and manage the work of the Barclays Board to ensure that it operates effectively and fully discharges its legal and regulatory responsibilities. The Deputy Chairman deputises for and supports the Chairman in respect of the responsibilities and authorities conferred upon him.

The Barclays Board has delegated the responsibility for the day-to-day management of the Barclays Group to the Barclays Group Chief Executive, who is responsible for leading the Barclays Executive Directors and for making and implementing operational decisions. The Barclays Group Chief Executive is supported by the Barclays Group Executive Committee, which he chairs.

Barclays Non-executive Directors, based on their breadth of knowledge and experience, challenge, monitor and approve the strategy and policies recommended by the Barclays Group Chief Executive.

It is Barclays policy to have a balance between executive and non-executive directors, with the aim of having a majority of independent non-executive directors.

Director Nomination Process

The process for appointing new Barclays Directors to the Barclays Board is determined by the Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee. All Barclays Directors will have a written contract or letter of appointment setting out the terms of their appointment to the Barclays Board. All Barclays Directors are subject to re-election by the shareholders at the annual general meeting at least every three years.

Other Appointments/External Directorships

All Barclays Directors must ensure that they have sufficient time to be able to perform their duties as a director of Barclays.

Any appointment of a Barclays Director as a director of any company outside the Barclays Group requires the prior approval of the Barclays Board.

Conflicts

No Barclays Director will put themselves in a position where their interests conflict or may be perceived to conflict with those of the Barclays Group.

Barclays Directors are required to notify the Barclays Company Secretary of any potential conflicts through other directorships or shareholdings.

Barclays Board Effectiveness Review: Evaluation of Directors

The Barclays Board conducts annual effectiveness reviews in order to evaluate the performance of the Barclays Board, Board Committees and individual directors.

The performance evaluation process differs from year to year, but normally takes the form of a detailed questionnaire supplemented by individual interviews with each of the Barclays Directors.

Table of Contents

Barclays Board Meetings and Attendance

The Barclays Board meets 8 – 10 times a year and all Barclays Directors are expected to attend each meeting, unless there are exceptional circumstances that prevent them from doing so.

The Barclays Board is collectively responsible for setting its own agenda. In practice an annual calendar of business is circulated and all Barclays Directors have the opportunity to propose further items via the Chairman and the Barclays Company Secretary.

The overall programme of meetings for each calendar year is circulated in advance and gives a forward indication of the items to be covered at each meeting including presentations on the Barclays Group's businesses and operations.

The Chairman meets privately with all Barclays Non-executive Directors before each Barclays Board meeting to brief them on the business of the meeting and to address any concerns that they may wish to raise.

Independent Advice

Independent professional advice is available, on request, to all Barclays Directors at Barclays expense.

Induction and Ongoing Training

On appointment to the Barclays Board and to Board Committees, all Barclays Directors receive a comprehensive induction tailored to their individual requirements. The induction, which is arranged by the Company Secretary, includes meetings with senior management and key external advisors, to assist Barclays Directors in building a detailed understanding of how the Barclays Group works and the key issues it faces. Barclays Directors are also encouraged to make site visits to see the Barclays Group's operations first hand.

Where appropriate, additional training and updates on particular issues are arranged by the Barclays Company Secretary.

Board Committees

Under the Barclays Articles of Association the Barclays Board may, where appropriate, delegate all or any of its powers to an individual Barclays Director or to a Committee of Barclays Directors and other persons constituted in the manner most appropriate to those tasks. Under the Barclays Articles of Association, the majority of members of each Board Committee must be Barclays Directors, but the terms of reference of each of the principal Board Committees set out the specific membership requirements for those Board Committees.

Board Committee members are appointed by the Barclays Board on the recommendation of the Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee, which reviews the composition of each Committee regularly. Committee members are expected to attend each Committee meeting, unless there are exceptional circumstances that prevent them from doing so.

The main Board Committees are the Barclays Board Audit Committee, the Barclays Board HR and Remuneration Committee (the Barclays Remuneration Committee), the Barclays Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee and the Barclays Board Risk Committee, the operations of which are described below.

Specific responsibilities have been delegated to each Board Committee and each has its own terms of reference. Each Board Committee has access to independent expert advice at the Barclays Group's expense.

8.1 Barclays Board Audit Committee

Current Members

The Board Audit Committee is comprised of Barclays Non-executive Directors who the Barclays Board considers to be independent. The current members are Stephen Russell (Chairman), Fulvio Conti, Professor Dame Sandra Dawson and Sir Andrew Likierman.

Table of Contents*Role of the Board Audit Committee*

The Board Audit Committee usually meets at least five times a year with senior management, including the Barclays Group Finance Director, the Risk Director and the Internal Audit Director. The lead audit partner of the external auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, attends each meeting.

The Board Audit Committee specifically reviews and approves the audit plans for the following year for the external and internal auditors and annually appraises the effectiveness of the external auditors.

The Board Audit Committee monitors all non-audit services carried out by the external auditor, details of which must be recorded centrally and reported to the next meeting of the Board Audit Committee in accordance with the non-audit services policy agreed by the Board Audit Committee. The Board Audit Committee spends time at each meeting considering the independence of the external auditor based on this information.

The Board Audit Committee also reviews the Barclays Group's annual and interim financial statements, including reviewing the effectiveness of the Barclays Group's disclosure controls and procedures and systems of internal control and areas of judgement involved in the compilation of the Barclays Group's results documentation.

8.2 Barclays Remuneration Committee*Current Members*

The Barclays Remuneration Committee is comprised of Barclays Non-executive Directors, who the Barclays Board considers to be independent, and the Chairman of the Barclays Board. The current members are Sir Richard Broadbent (Chairman), Marcus Agius, Leigh Clifford and Sir John Sunderland.

Role of the Barclays Remuneration Committee

The Barclays Remuneration Committee usually meets at least four times a year and considers matters relating to executive reward, including policy for Barclays Executive Directors and senior executives' remuneration and their individual remuneration awards. The Barclays Remuneration Committee also approves changes to incentive and benefits plans applicable to senior executives and governs employee share plans.

The Barclays Remuneration Committee also meets periodically to review strategic HR issues including employee retention, motivation and commitment; Equality and Diversity; significant employee relations matters and the availability of talent for senior roles below Executive Director level.

8.3 Barclays Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee*Current Members*

The Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee is comprised of the Chairman of the Barclays Board and Barclays Non-executive Directors who the Barclays Board considers to be independent. The current members are Marcus Agius (Chairman), Sir Richard Broadbent, Sir Nigel Rudd, Stephen Russell and Sir John Sunderland. The Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee usually meets at least three times a year.

Role of the Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee

The Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee is responsible for considering matters relating to the composition of the Barclays Board, including the appointment of new Directors, making recommendations to the Barclays Board as appropriate. It also reviews annually the succession plans for the Chairman and Group Chief Executive. The Chairman of the Barclays Board chairs the Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee, except when it is considering the Chairman's succession, in which case the Deputy Chairman or Senior Independent Director chairs the Board Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee.

Table of Contents8.4 Barclays Board Risk CommitteeCurrent Members*

The Board Risk Committee is comprised of Barclays Non-executive Directors who the Barclays Board considers to be independent. The current members are Sir Richard Broadbent (Chairman), Dr Daniël Cronjé, Sir Andrew Likierman and Stephen Russell. The Board Risk Committee normally meets four times a year.

Role of the Board Risk Committee

The Board Risk Committee considers the Barclays Group's overall risk appetite, recommending limits for individual types of risk, including credit and market risk for approval by the Barclays Board. The Board Risk Committee also recommends to the Barclays Board material changes to the overall risk appetite and monitors the Barclays Group's risk profile, including risk trends and concentrations, provisions' experience against budget and key performance indicators for risk. The Board Risk Committee also obtains assurance that the principal risks facing the Barclays Group have been properly identified and are being appropriately managed.

The corporate governance arrangements referred to above are expected to remain in place once the Merger has become Effective.

10. Directors Confirmations

10.1 At the date of this document, other than as set out in paragraphs 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4 below, none of the Barclays Directors or the Proposed Directors have during the last five years:

- (a) been convicted in relation to a fraudulent offence;
- (b) been associated with any bankruptcy, receivership or liquidation while acting in the capacity of a member of the administrative, management or supervisory body or of senior manager of any company;
- (c) been subject to any official public incrimination and/or sanction by statutory or regulatory authorities (including designated professional bodies); or
- (d) been disqualified by a court from acting as a member of the administrative, management or supervisory bodies of any issuer or from acting in the management or conduct of the affairs of any issuer.

10.2 David Booth was a managing member of, and, through a wholly owned corporation, an investor in Townhouse Media, LLC and BKLYN Magazine, LLC, which together owned a local community magazine. During 2006, it was decided to transfer certain assets to the secured creditors and to satisfy the unsecured creditors to the extent possible. Subsequently, Townhouse Media, LLC was voluntarily dissolved in January 2007, and BKLYN Magazine, LLC is in the process of being voluntarily dissolved.

10.3 Gary Hoffman was a director of Barclays Sponsorship Company Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Barclays, which was solvent and was liquidated in July 2006 pursuant to a members voluntary liquidation.

10.4 Trude Maas-de Brouwer is the chairman of the supervisory board of Tryllian Holding NV, a private company incorporated in the Netherlands, in respect of which insolvency proceedings were commenced on 28 April 2003. The proceedings are ongoing but are nearing completion; the amount outstanding to creditors is approximately 19 million.

11. Conflicts of Interest

In respect of any Barclays Director or Proposed Director there are no actual or potential conflicts of interest between any duties they have to Barclays, either in respect of the Merger or otherwise, and the private interests and/or other duties they may also have. Save as disclosed in paragraph 6 of this Part XI there are no interests, including conflicting ones, that are material to the Merger.

None of the Barclays Directors was selected to be a director of Barclays or the Combined Group pursuant to any arrangement or understanding with any major customer, supplier or other person having a business connection with the Barclays Group. The Proposed Directors were selected pursuant to the terms of the Merger Protocol.

No restrictions have been agreed by any Barclays Director or Proposed Director on the disposal within a certain period of time of his holding in Barclays securities except for that described in paragraph 7.3 relating to Non-executive Directors receiving part of their Directors fee in Barclays Ordinary Shares.

There are no family relationships between any of the Barclays Directors or Proposed Directors.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION*1. Barclays

Barclays PLC is a public limited company registered in England under company number 48839. Barclays, originally named Barclay & Company Limited, was incorporated in England and Wales on 20 July 1896 under the Companies Acts 1862 to 1890 as a company limited by shares. The company name was changed to Barclays Bank Limited on 17 February 1917 and it was registered on 15 February 1982 as a public limited company under the Companies Acts 1948 to 1980. On 1 January 1985, the company changed its name to Barclays PLC.

The principal legislation under which Barclays operates, and pursuant to which the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be created, is the Companies Act 1985 and the Companies Act 2006 and regulations made thereunder.

Barclays is domiciled in the United Kingdom and its registered and head office is at 1 Churchill Place, London E14 5HP (telephone number: +44 (0)20 7116 1000).

Barclays Ordinary Shares are listed on the Official List of the London Stock Exchange. The ISIN of the Barclays Ordinary Shares is GB0031348658.

The principal trading market for Barclays Ordinary Shares is the London Stock Exchange. Ordinary share listings were also obtained on the Tokyo Stock Exchange with effect from 1 August 1986 and the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) with effect from 9 September 1986.

Trading on the NYSE is in the form of ADSs under the symbol BCS . Each ADS represents four 25p ordinary shares and is evidenced by an American Depositary Receipt (ADR). The ADR depositary is The Bank of New York. Details of trading activity are published in the stock tables of leading daily newspapers in the US.

The New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be in registered form and may be held in either certificated or uncertificated form.

The auditors of Barclays are, and have been throughout the period covered by the financial information in this document, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Chartered Accountants and Registered Auditors, Southwark Towers, 32 London Bridge Street, London SE1 9SY.

On 26 April 2007 the following resolution was passed by the shareholders of Barclays at the Barclays Annual General Meeting:

That, in substitution for all existing unexercised authorities, the authority and power conferred on the Barclays Directors by Article 12(a) of the Barclays Articles of Association (authority to allot securities) be renewed for the period expiring on the date of the Barclays Annual General Meeting to be held in 2008 or, if earlier, on 26 July 2008 (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by Barclays in general meeting) and that the Section 80 amount for that period for the purposes of Article 12(a) shall be £544,913,279.

On 26 April 2007 the following resolution was passed by the shareholders of Barclays at the Barclays Annual General Meeting:

That, in substitution for all existing unexercised authorities, the authority and power conferred on the Barclays Directors by Article 12(b) of the Barclays Articles of Association (authority to allot securities for cash otherwise than a pro-rata basis to shareholders) be renewed for the period expiring on the date of the Barclays Annual General Meeting to be held in 2008, or, if earlier, on 26 July 2008 (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by Barclays in general meeting), and that the Section 89 amount for that period for the purposes of Article 12(b) shall be £81,736,992, and that the power conferred on the Barclays Directors by this resolution shall also apply to the sale of treasury shares, which is an allotment of equity securities by virtue of Section 94 (3A) of the Companies Act 1985, but as if the words Pursuant to and within the term of the said authority were omitted from Article 12(b).

On 26 April 2007 the following resolution was passed by the shareholders of Barclays at the Annual General Meeting: That Barclays be authorised generally and unconditionally to make market purchases (within the meaning of Section 163(3) of the Companies Act 1985) on the London Stock Exchange of up to an aggregate of 980,840,000 ordinary shares of 25p each in its capital, and may hold such shares as treasury shares, provided that:

- (a) the minimum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each ordinary share is not less than 25p;
- (b) the maximum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each ordinary share shall not be more than the higher of (i) 105 per cent. of the average of the market values of the ordinary shares (as derived from the Daily Official List of the London Stock Exchange) for the five business days immediately preceding the date on which the purchase is made and (ii) that stipulated by Article 5(1) of the Buy-back and Stabilisation Regulation (EC 2273/2003); and
- (c) the authority conferred by this resolution shall expire on the date of the Annual General Meeting of Barclays to be held in 2008 or, if earlier, 15 months from the date of passing this resolution, (except in relation to any purchase of shares the contract for which was concluded before such date and which would or might be executed wholly or partly after such date).

The following resolutions relating to Barclays share capital are set out in the Circular and it is proposed that these resolutions, among others, will be voted on at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting:

- (1) subject to the Merger becoming Effective, the authorised share capital of Barclays be and is hereby increased from £2,500 million to £4,401 million by the creation of 7,604 million new ordinary shares of nominal value of 25 pence each in the Company;
- (2) subject to the Merger becoming Effective, pursuant to Section 80 of the Companies Act 1985, and in addition to any existing authority conferred upon the Directors under that section, the Directors be and are hereby authorised unconditionally to allot ordinary shares of a nominal value of 25p each, up to an aggregate nominal amount of approximately £1,225 million, (the ordinary shares being relevant securities as defined in Section 80 of the Act) in connection with the Merger (and all other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger contemplated by the Circular) which authority shall expire on the fifth anniversary of the passing of this resolution, save that Barclays may allot relevant securities in connection with the Merger (and all other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger contemplated by the Circular) pursuant to any agreement entered into at any time prior to the fifth anniversary of the passing of this resolution (whether before or after the passing of this resolution) which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Directors may allot relevant securities in pursuance of such agreement as if the authority conferred hereby had not expired;
- (3) subject to the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular) and to the passing of the Extraordinary Class Resolution, the authorised share capital of Barclays be further increased by the creation of 2,000 million preference shares of nominal value of 1 each in the Company, having the rights set out in the New Articles adopted pursuant to the resolutions passed at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting;
- (4) subject to the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular), pursuant to Section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 and in addition to any existing authority conferred upon the Directors under that section, the Directors be and are hereby authorised unconditionally to allot preference shares of nominal value of 1 each, up to an aggregate nominal amount of 2,000 million (the preference shares being relevant securities as defined in Section 80 of the Act), which authority shall expire on the fifth anniversary of the passing of this Resolution, save that the Company may allot relevant securities in connection with the Merger (and all other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger contemplated by the Circular) and generally to provide the Company with maximum flexibility in managing the Combined Group capital resources pursuant to any agreement entered into at any time prior to the fifth anniversary of the passing of this Resolution (whether before or after the passing of this Resolution) which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Directors may allot relevant securities in pursuance of such agreement as if the authorities conferred hereby had not expired;

- (5) subject to the passing of the resolution in (1) above, and the Merger becoming Effective, in substitution for all existing unexercised general authorities (but in addition to the specific authority conferred on the Directors by the resolution in (2) above) the Directors be and are hereby authorised pursuant to Article 12(a) of the New Articles (authority to allot securities) to allot relevant securities for the prescribed period ending on the date of the Annual General Meeting of Barclays to be held in 2008, or, if earlier, on 26 July 2008 (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by Barclays in general meeting) and for such period the Section 80 amount shall be £982 million;

- (6) subject to the passing of the resolution in (1) above and the Merger becoming Effective, for the purposes of Article 12(b) of the New Articles (power to allot equity securities for cash otherwise than on a pro rata basis to shareholders), the Section 89 amount for the prescribed period ending on the date of the Annual General Meeting of Barclays to be held in 2008, or if earlier, on 26 July 2008 (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in general meeting) shall be approximately £147 million of ordinary share capital, and that the power so conferred on the Directors shall also apply to the sale of treasury shares, which is an allotment of equity securities by virtue of section 94(3A) of the Act, but as if the words Pursuant to and within the terms of the said authority were omitted from Article 12(b); and
- (7) THAT, subject to the passing of the resolution in (1) above and the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular), and in substitution for the general existing unexercised authority granted pursuant to the special resolution of the Company passed on 26 April 2007, the Company be authorised generally and unconditionally to make market purchases (within the meaning of section 163(3) of the Companies Act 1985) on the London Stock Exchange up to an aggregate of 1,700 million ordinary shares of 25p each in its capital, and may hold such shares as treasury shares, provided that:
- (a) the minimum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each ordinary share is not less than 25p;
- (b) the maximum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each ordinary share shall not be more than the higher of (i) 105% of the average of the market values of the ordinary shares (as derived from the Daily Official List of the London Stock Exchange) for the five business days immediately preceding the date on which the purchase is made and (ii) that stipulated by Article 5(1) of the Buy-back and Stabilisation Regulation (EC 2273/2003); and
- (c) the authority conferred by this resolution shall expire on the date of the Annual General Meeting of the Company to be held in 2008 or, if earlier, on 26 July 2008 (except in relation to any purchase of shares the contract for which was concluded before such date and which would or might be executed wholly or partly after such date).
- (8) THAT the amount standing to the credit of the share premium account of the Company as at 10:00 a.m. on 14 September 2007 be cancelled.

3. Memorandum and Articles of Association

The following is a summary of Barclays Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association, which are available for inspection as set out in paragraph 21 of Part XII (Additional Information).

Memorandum of Association

The objects of Barclays are set out in full in clause 4 of the Barclays Memorandum of Association which provides, among other things, that Barclays objects are to carry on business as an investment and holding company and the business of banking in all its aspects.

Articles of Association (the Articles)

Directors

- (i) The minimum number of Barclays Directors (excluding alternate Barclays Directors) is five. There is no maximum limit. There is no age limit for Barclays Directors.
- (ii) Excluding executive remuneration and any other entitlement to remuneration for extra services (including service on board committees) under the Articles, a Barclays Director is entitled to a fee at a rate determined by the Barclays Board but the aggregate fees paid to all Barclays Directors shall not exceed £1,000,000 per annum or such higher amount as may be approved by an ordinary resolution of Barclays. Each Barclays Director is entitled to reimbursement for all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by him/her in or about the performance of his/her duties.

Table of Contents

- (iii) No auditor or member of a firm of auditors of the Barclays Group of companies may be appointed a Barclays Director. A Barclays Director may hold any other office of Barclays on such terms as the Barclays Board shall determine.
- (iv) At each annual general meeting (AGM) of Barclays, one third of the Barclays Directors (rounded down) are required to retire from office by rotation and may offer themselves for re-election. The Barclays Directors so retiring are those who have been longest in office (and in the case of equality of service length are selected by lot). Other than a retiring Barclays Director, no person shall (unless recommended by the Barclays Board) be eligible for election unless a member notifies the Barclays Company Secretary in advance of his/her intention to propose a person for election.
- (v) The Barclays Board has the power to appoint additional Barclays Directors or to fill a casual vacancy amongst the Barclays Directors. Any Barclays Director so appointed holds office until the next AGM, when he/she may offer himself/herself for re-election. He/she is not taken into account in determining the number of directors retiring by rotation.
- (vi) The Barclays Board may appoint any Barclays Director to any executive position or employment in Barclays on such terms as they determine.
- (vii) A Barclays Director may appoint either another Barclays Director or some other person approved by the Barclays Board to act as his/her alternate with power to attend Barclays Board meetings and generally to exercise the functions of the appointing Barclays Director in his/her absence (other than the power to appoint an alternate).
- (viii) A Barclays Director may hold positions with or be interested in other companies and, subject to legislation applicable to Barclays and the FSA's requirements, may contract with Barclays or any other company in which Barclays is interested. A Barclays Director may not vote or count towards the quorum on any resolution concerning any proposal in which he/she (or any person connected with him/her) has a material interest (other than by virtue of his/her interest in securities of Barclays) or if he/she has a duty which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of Barclays, unless the resolution relates to any proposal:
 - (a) to indemnify a Barclays Director or provide him/her with a guarantee or security in respect of money lent by him/her to, or any obligation incurred by him/her or any other person for the benefit of (or at the request of), Barclays (or any other member of the Barclays Group);
 - (b) to indemnify or give security or a guarantee to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of Barclays (or any other member of the Barclays Group) for which the Barclays Director has personally assumed responsibility;
 - (c) to indemnify a Barclays Director or provide him/her with a guarantee or security for any liability which he/she may incur in the performance of his/her duties or to obtain insurance against such a liability;
 - (d) involving the acquisition by a Barclays Director of any securities of Barclays pursuant to an offer to existing holders of securities or to the public;
 - (e) that the Barclays Director underwrite any issue of securities of Barclays (or any of its subsidiaries);
 - (f) concerning any other company in which the Barclays Director is interested as an officer or creditor or shareholder but, broadly, only if he/she (together with his/her connected persons) is directly or indirectly interested in less than 1 per cent. of either any class of the issued equity share capital or of the voting rights of that company;
 - (g) concerning any superannuation fund or retirement, death or disability benefits scheme under which a Barclays Director may benefit or any employees' share scheme, so long as any such fund or scheme does not give additional advantages to the Barclays Director which are not granted to the employees who are in the fund or scheme; and

- (h) concerning any Barclays other arrangement for the benefit of employees of Barclays (or any other member of the Barclays Group) under which the Barclays Director benefits or stands to benefit in a similar manner to the employees concerned and which does not give the Barclays Director any advantage which the employees to whom the arrangement relates would not receive.

Table of Contents

- (ix) A Barclays Director may not vote or be counted in the quorum on any resolution which concerns his/her own employment or appointment to any office of Barclays or any other company in which Barclays is interested.
- (x) Subject to applicable legislation, the provisions described in sub-paragraphs (viii) and (ix) of this paragraph 3 may be relaxed or suspended by an ordinary resolution of Barclays.
- (xi) A Barclays Director is required to hold an interest in ordinary shares having a nominal value of at least £500, which currently equates to 2,000 Barclays Ordinary Shares. A Barclays Director may act before acquiring those Barclays Ordinary Shares but must acquire the qualification Barclays Ordinary Shares within two months from his/her or her appointment. Where a Barclays Director is unable to acquire the requisite number of Barclays Ordinary Shares within that time owing to legislative, regulatory or share- dealing restrictions, he/she must acquire the Barclays Ordinary Shares as soon as reasonably practicable once the restriction(s) end.
- (xii) The Barclays Board may exercise all of the powers of Barclays to borrow money, to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital and to issue debentures and other securities.

Classes of share

Barclays, as at the date of this document, has two classes of shares, ordinary shares and staff shares, to which the provisions set out below apply:

(i) Dividends

Subject to the provisions of the Articles and applicable legislation, Barclays in general meeting may declare dividends by ordinary resolution, but such dividend may not exceed the amount recommended by the Barclays Board. The Barclays Board may also pay interim or final dividends if it appears they are justified by Barclays financial position.

The profits which are resolved to be distributed in respect of any period are applied first in payment of a fixed dividend of 20 per cent. per annum on the Staff Shares and then in payment of dividends on the Barclays Ordinary Shares. No dividend will be declared on the Staff Shares unless a dividend is also paid on the Barclays Ordinary Shares in respect of that period. Any Staff Share held by anyone not an employee of Barclays or Barclays Bank (an Employee) will be treated as a Barclays Ordinary Share in respect of dividends, up to a maximum dividend of 6 per cent. for the year upon the amount paid up on that share.

All unclaimed dividends payable in respect of a share may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Barclays Board for the benefit of Barclays until claimed. If a dividend is not claimed after 12 years of it becoming payable, it is forfeited and reverts to Barclays.

The Barclays Board may (although it currently does not), with the approval of an ordinary resolution of Barclays, offer shareholders the right to choose to receive an allotment of additional fully paid Barclays Ordinary Shares instead of cash in respect of all or part of any dividend.

(ii) Voting

Every member who is present in person or represented at any general meeting of Barclays and who is entitled to vote has one vote on a show of hands. On a poll, every member who is present or represented has one vote for every share held. Any joint holder may vote in respect of jointly owned shares, but the vote of the senior holder (as determined by order in the share register) shall take precedence. If any sum payable remains unpaid in relation to a member's shareholding, that member is not entitled to vote that share or exercise any other right in relation to a meeting of Barclays unless the Barclays Board otherwise determine.

If any member, or any other person appearing to be interested in any Barclays Ordinary Shares, is served with a notice under Section 793 of the Companies Act 2006 and does not supply Barclays with the information required in the notice, then the Barclays Board, in its absolute discretion, may direct that that member shall not be entitled to attend or vote at any meeting of Barclays.

The Barclays Board may further direct that if the shares of the defaulting member represent 0.25 per cent. or more of the issued shares of the relevant class, that dividends or other monies payable on those shares shall be retained by Barclays until the direction ceases to have effect and that no transfer of those shares shall be registered (other than certain specified approved transfers). A direction ceases to have effect seven days after Barclays has received the information requested, or when Barclays is notified that an approved transfer to a third party has occurred, or as the Barclays Board otherwise determines.

(iii) Transfers

Certificated shares shall be transferred in writing in any usual or other form approved by the Barclays Board and executed by or on behalf of the transferor. Transfers of uncertificated shares shall be made in accordance with the Regulations. The Barclays Board may make any arrangements to regulate and evidence the transfer of shares as they consider fit in accordance with applicable legislation and the rules of the FSA.

In order to transfer a staff share, the transferor must serve a notice on Barclays (a Transfer Notice) indicating his/her wish to transfer such share at such sum as he/she specifies as the fair value (subject to a maximum amount determined in accordance with the Articles). The staff shares must be transferred at the specified fair value to such Employee as is willing to purchase it and who has been identified by the Barclays Board within 60 days of the Transfer Notice. If Barclays has not found a person willing to purchase the share within 60 days of the Transfer Notice, the staff share may be freely transferred at any price (although the Barclays Board may decline to prepare or register the transfer). Such a procedure may also be initiated by the Barclays Board if a staff share is held by a non-Employee.

Registration of shares may be suspended, subject to applicable legislation, for such periods as the Barclays Board may determine (but for not more than 30 days in any calendar year).

The Barclays Board is not bound to register a transfer of partly paid shares, or fully paid shares in exceptional circumstances approved by the FSA. The Barclays Board may also decline to register an instrument of transfer of certificated shares unless it is duly stamped and deposited at the prescribed place and accompanied by the share certificate(s) and such other evidence as reasonably required by the Barclays Board to evidence right to transfer, it is in respect of one class of shares only, and it is in favour of not more than four transferees (except in the case of executors or trustees of a member).

(iv) Return of Capital and Liquidation

In the event of any return of capital by reduction of capital or on liquidation, the ordinary shares and the staff shares rank equally in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up on the shares of each class, except that in the event of a winding up of Barclays the holders of the staff shares are only entitled to participate in the surplus assets available for distribution up to the amount paid up on the staff shares plus 10 per cent. of such amount.

(v) Redemption and Purchase

Subject to applicable legislation and the rights of the other shareholders, any share may be issued on terms that it is, at the option of Barclays or the holder of such share, redeemable. Barclays currently has no redeemable shares in issue.

Barclays may purchase its own shares subject to the provisions of applicable legislation, the Articles and the approval of any class of convertible shares in issue (by extraordinary resolution or written consent of 75 per cent. of such class).

(vi) Calls on capital

The Barclays Directors may make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares. A person upon whom a call is made remains liable even if the shares in respect of which the call is made have been transferred. Interest will be chargeable on any unpaid amount called at a rate determined by the Barclays Board (of not more than 20 per cent.).

If a member fails to pay any call in full (following notice from the Barclays Board that such failure will result in forfeiture of the relevant shares), such shares (including any dividends declared but not paid) may be forfeited by a resolution of the Barclays Board, and will become the property of Barclays. Forfeiture shall not absolve a previous member for amounts payable by him/her (which may continue to accrue interest).

Table of Contents

Barclays also has a lien over all partly paid shares of Barclays for all monies payable or called on that share and over the debts and liabilities of a member to Barclays. If any monies which are the subject of the lien remain unpaid after a notice from the Barclays Board demanding payment, Barclays may sell such shares.

(vii) Variation of Rights

The rights attached to any class of shares may be varied with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

The rights of shares shall not (unless expressly provided by the rights attached to such shares) be deemed varied by the creation of further shares ranking equally with them.

Annual and extraordinary general meetings

Barclays is required to hold a general meeting each year as its AGM in addition to other meetings (called extraordinary general meetings) as the Barclays Directors think fit. The type of the meeting will be specified in the notice calling it. Not more than 15 months may elapse between the date of one AGM and the next. An extraordinary general meeting may be convened by the Barclays Board on requisition in accordance with the applicable legislation. In the case of an AGM or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution (i.e. requiring the consent of a 75 per cent. majority) 21 clear days' notice is required. In other cases 14 clear days' notice is required. The notice must be in writing and must specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted. A notice convening a meeting to pass an extraordinary or special resolution shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as such. The accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting or the non-receipt of such notice will not invalidate the proceedings at such meeting.

Subject as noted above, all shareholders are entitled to attend and vote at general meetings. The Articles do, however, provide that arrangements may be made for simultaneous attendance at a general meeting at a place other than that specified in the notice of meeting, in which case shareholders may be excluded from the specified place.

Limitations on foreign shareholders

There are no restrictions imposed by Barclays Memorandum or Articles or (subject to the effect of any economic sanctions that may be in force from time to time) by English law which relate only to non-residents of the UK and which limit the rights of such non-residents to hold or vote Barclays ordinary shares.

Notices

A document or information may be sent by Barclays in hard copy form, electronic form, by being made available on a website, or by another means agreed with the recipient. A document or information may only be sent in electronic form to a person who has agreed to receive it in that form or, in the case of a company, who has been deemed to have so agreed pursuant to applicable legislation. A document or information may only be sent by being made available on a website if the recipient has agreed to receive it in that form or has been deemed to have so agreed pursuant to applicable legislation, and has not revoked that agreement.

In respect of joint holdings, documents or information shall be sent to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register.

A member who (having no registered address within the UK) has not supplied an address in the UK at which documents or information may be sent is not entitled to have documents or information sent to him/her.

Table of ContentsAlteration of share capital

Barclays may, by way of ordinary resolution:

increase its share capital by a sum to be divided into shares of an amount prescribed by the resolution; consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger nominal amount;

subject to legislation, sub-divide all or part of its shares into shares of a smaller nominal amount and may decide by that resolution that the resulting shares have preference or other advantage or restrictions; and cancel any shares which, at the date of the resolution, have not been subscribed or agreed to have been subscribed for and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

Barclays may also, by special resolution reduce its share capital or capital redemption reserve or any share premium account or other undistributable reserve in any manner authorised by legislation.

Barclays may, by ordinary resolution, upon the recommendation of the Barclays Board capitalise all or any part of an amount standing to the credit of a reserve or fund to be set free for distribution provided that amounts from the share premium account, capital redemption reserve or any profits not available for distribution should be applied only in paying up unissued shares issued to members and no unrealised profits shall be applied in paying up debentures of Barclays or any amount unpaid on any share in the capital of Barclays.

Indemnity

Subject to applicable legislation, every current and former Barclays Director, other officer and auditor of Barclays shall be indemnified by Barclays against any liability incurred by him/her in the actual or purported exercise of, or in connection with, his/her duties and powers.

4. Major Barclays Shareholders

In so far as it is known to Barclays as at 2 August 2007 (the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this document), the interests, direct or indirect, of persons in the issued ordinary share capital of Barclays which are notifiable under English law were as follows:

Shareholder	Number of voting rights	Percentage of total voting rights attaching to the issued share capital
Lloyds TSB Group plc	115,517,454 (Direct)	1.766%
	228,437,740 (Indirect)	3.493%
Legal & General Group Plc	242,312,850	3.7%

As at 30 July 2007, being the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this document, Barclays was not aware of any person or persons who directly or indirectly, jointly or severally, exercise or could exercise control over Barclays nor is it aware of any arrangements, the operation of which may at a subsequent date result in a change in control of Barclays.

None of Barclays major shareholders has or will have different voting rights attached to the Barclays Ordinary Shares they hold.

As at 30 July 2007, being the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this document, and in so far as is known to Barclays, the following persons will have interests in the issued share capital of Barclays when the Merger becomes Effective which are notifiable under English law. This is based on the assumption that the holdings of such persons in

Barclays and ABN AMRO as at 2 August 2007 do not change, the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares have been issued and the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temarek Shares and the Clawback Shares are issued on or shortly before the Settlement Date, the Share Buy-back Programme has been implemented in full, the maximum number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be issued in connection with the Merger and that no other issues of Barclays Shares or ABN AMRO Shares occur between the date of publication of this document and the Effective Date:

Shareholder	Number of voting rights	Percentage of total voting rights attaching to the issued share capital
China Development Bank	783,149,210	6.8%

5. Barclays Share Plans and Pension ArrangementsBarclays Share Plans

The principal features of the Barclays Share Plans are described in paragraphs 5.1 and 5.2 below. The principal Barclays Share Plans are summarised in paragraph 5.1 and the closed Barclays Share Plans are summarised in paragraph 5.2. The closed Barclays Share Plans are plans under which no further awards may be granted but under which there are subsisting options which will continue until they are exercised or lapse.

5.1 Principal Barclays Share PlansThe Barclays PLC Performance Share Plan (the Barclays PSP)

The Barclays PSP was approved by Barclays Shareholders at the AGM on 28 April 2005. The Barclays PSP is not an HMRC approved plan. The Barclays PSP replaced ISOP in 2005 as the main performance linked share incentive.

Eligibility

The Barclays PSP Trustee may select any employee of the Barclays Group, including any Barclays Executive Directors, to participate in the Barclays PSP.

Grant of awards

Awards may be granted within 42 days after: the first dealing day immediately following the date of the preliminary announcement of the results of Barclays for any financial period, or following the removal of any restrictions imposed on Barclays or the Barclays PSP Trustee which have previously prevented an award from being granted; any date on which changes to the legislation affecting share award plans is announced or made; or any other time if it is determined that the circumstances are sufficiently exceptional to justify the grant of awards. No awards may be granted after 28 April 2015.

Barclays PSP awards are granted by the Barclays PSP Trustee, in consultation with the Barclays Remuneration Committee. All Barclays PSP awards have to date been granted in the form of provisional allocations of Barclays Ordinary Shares which do not give a participant any right to acquire or any interest in Barclays Ordinary Shares until such time as the Barclays PSP Trustee decides to release Barclays Ordinary Shares to the participant (i.e. when Barclays PSP awards vest). The Barclays PSP Trustee may in its discretion grant Barclays PSP awards in the form of a conditional share award, nil-cost option, restricted stock award or other form of share award with the same economic effect for participants. No consideration is payable by participants to receive an award. Awards are personal to the participant and may not be transferred. Benefits under the Barclays PSP are not pensionable. Barclays Ordinary Shares allotted and issued to satisfy the vesting of an award will rank pari passu with existing Barclays Ordinary Shares except for any rights attached to such Barclays Ordinary Shares by reference to a record date prior to the date of allotment.

Limits

Normally, the maximum expected value of an award at the date of grant will be between 50 per cent. and 100 per cent. of base salary (or 25 per cent. to 50 per cent. of base salary plus target bonus). In exceptional circumstances, for example to recruit or retain outstanding individuals for senior roles within the Barclays Group, an award may be granted with an expected value of up to the higher of:

150 per cent. of base salary; or

75 per cent. of base salary plus target bonus.

371

Expected value is a single value for the award at grant, which takes account of the sum of all various possible performance and vesting outcomes. This reflects the sum of the probabilities of achieving different performance outcomes, rather than the maximum outcome only.

Awards are likely to be satisfied by Barclays Ordinary Shares purchased on the stock market. However, if new Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued to satisfy Barclays PSP awards, the number of new Barclays Ordinary Shares available to be issued by Barclays under the Barclays PSP is limited as follows:

- (i) no award may be granted if, as a result, the aggregate number of Barclays Ordinary Shares issued or issuable pursuant to awards granted under the Barclays PSP or under any other executive share plan adopted by Barclays in general meeting would in any period of ten years exceed 5 per cent. of Barclays issued ordinary share capital from time to time; and
- (ii) no award may be granted if, as a result, the aggregate number of Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and issuable in respect of awards under the Barclays PSP or under any other employees' share plan adopted by Barclays in general meeting would in any period of ten years exceed 10 per cent. of Barclays issued ordinary share capital from time to time.

The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available under the Barclays PSP in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above will be reduced by a number of notional Barclays Ordinary Shares based on the number of BGI Shares used or committed under the BGI EOP as determined by the Barclays Remuneration Committee by reference to the respective values of a Barclays Ordinary Share and a BGI Share.

Vesting of awards

Awards will normally vest at the third anniversary of the date of grant, if and to the extent that the performance conditions have been satisfied. In the case of eligible leavers or on change of control of Barclays, special provisions apply and the Barclays Ordinary Shares under award may be reduced, pro-rata, to reflect the length of time the award has been held.

Dividend shares

When a Barclays PSP award vests, additional Barclays Ordinary Shares representing accumulated dividends on the award shares since the date of grant (dividend shares) may also vest. The number of dividend shares will be based on the number of award shares that vest.

Performance conditions

Performance is measured over a three-year period. This period normally starts on the first day of the financial year of Barclays in which the award is made. There is a financial hurdle and a total shareholder return (TSR) condition. The Barclays Remuneration Committee recommends before each grant whether metrics other than TSR should be applied to a proportion of the Barclays Ordinary Shares under award. These metrics may include, for example, economic profit growth or profit before-tax growth at either Barclays Group or divisional level and will apply to no more than 50 per cent. of the Barclays Ordinary Shares under award.

The Barclays PSP Trustee having consulted the Barclays Remuneration Committee has the discretion to adjust performance conditions, after the start of a performance period, in exceptional circumstances. No Barclays Ordinary Shares under award will vest if, in the opinion of the Barclays PSP Trustee having consulted the Barclays Remuneration Committee, the underlying financial health of the Barclays Group has deteriorated significantly over the performance period.

Variation of Barclays share capital

On any variation of Barclays share capital by way of capitalisation or rights issue, or by consolidation, sub-division or reduction of capital or otherwise, the Barclays PSP Trustee may make such adjustments as it considers appropriate to the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares subject to a Barclays PSP award. Before any adjustments are made, written confirmation will first need to be received from Barclays auditors that the adjustments are fair and reasonable.

Amendments to the Barclays PSP

The Barclays PSP Trustee, having consulted the Barclays Remuneration Committee, may amend the Barclays PSP at any time in any respect. The rules of the Barclays PSP relating to eligibility, the limit on the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available under the Barclays PSP, the basis for determining an eligible employee's participation, any adjustment to an award on a variation of Barclays share capital and amendment of the Barclays PSP may not, however, be amended to the advantage of existing or future participants without the prior approval of Barclays in general meeting except that the Barclays PSP Trustee, having consulted the Barclays Remuneration Committee, may:

(i) make any amendments necessary to secure or maintain favourable taxation, exchange control or regulatory treatment of Barclays, any of its subsidiaries or any participant; and

(ii) make minor amendments to benefit or facilitate the administration of the Barclays PSP.

The Barclays Group Special Award Performance Share Plan (the SA PSP)

The SA PSP was adopted and is operated by the Barclays PSP Trustee. The SA PSP is not an HMRC approved plan. It was introduced to provide a flexible and coherent basis for the grant of performance linked share incentives to those who are not eligible under the current remuneration structure to receive the grant of an award under Barclays PSP. For example, awards were granted to certain directors of Absa. Performance conditions may be related to the Barclays Group and/or businesses within the Barclays Group as appropriate.

Eligibility

The Barclays PSP Trustee may select any employee of the Barclays Group to participate in the SA PSP provided that a person shall not be eligible to participate in the SA PSP if he is a Barclays Director, a PDMR, or any SA PSP award granted to him (or Barclays Ordinary Shares released to him) would be regarded as granted (or released) in respect of qualifying services. (Qualifying services means, in relation to any person, his services as a Barclays Director and his services at any time while he is a Barclays Director (i) as a director of an undertaking that is a subsidiary undertaking of Barclays at that time, (ii) as a director of any other undertaking of which he is a director by virtue of Barclays nomination (direct or indirect), or (iii) otherwise in connection with the management of the affairs of Barclays or any such subsidiary undertaking or any such other undertaking.)

Grant of awards

Awards may be granted by the Barclays PSP Trustee after consultation with Barclays. SA PSP awards are granted in the form of provisional allocations of Barclays Ordinary Shares which do not give a participant any right to acquire, or any interest in, Barclays Ordinary Shares until such time as the Barclays PSP Trustee decides to release Barclays Ordinary Shares to a participant (i.e. when awards vest). Awards granted under the SA PSP are personal to the participant and may not be transferred. Benefits under the SA PSP are not pensionable.

Awards can only be satisfied under SA PSP by the purchase of Barclays Ordinary Shares in the market by the Barclays PSP Trustee. Awards cannot be satisfied with new or treasury shares.

Vesting of awards

Awards will normally vest at the third anniversary of the date of grant, to the extent that the performance conditions have been satisfied. In the case of eligible leavers or on change of control of Barclays, special provisions apply and the Barclays Ordinary Shares under award may be reduced, pro-rata, to reflect the length of time the award has been held.

Dividend shares

When the SA PSP award vests, additional Barclays Ordinary Shares representing accumulated dividends on the award shares since the date of grant (dividend shares) may also vest. The number of dividend shares will be based on the number of award shares that vest.

Performance conditions

Performance is measured over a three-year period. This period normally starts on the first day of the financial year of Barclays in which the award is made.

SA PSP awards can be made subject to performance conditions relating to the Barclays Group and/or businesses within the Barclays Group.

Table of Contents

The Barclays PSP Trustee may adjust performance conditions after the start of a performance period, in exceptional circumstances. No Barclays Ordinary Shares under award will vest if, in the opinion of the Barclays PSP Trustee, having consulted Barclays, the underlying financial health of the Barclays Group has deteriorated significantly over the performance period.

Variation of Barclays share capital

On any increase or variation of the share capital of Barclays by way of capitalisation or rights issue, or subdivision, consolidation or reduction of capital or other variation, the Barclays PSP Trustee may, subject to Barclays auditors confirming that such adjustment is in their opinion fair and reasonable, make such adjustments as it considers appropriate to the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares comprised in any award.

Amendments to the SA PSP

The SA PSP may be amended in any respect by resolution of the Barclays PSP Trustee having first consulted Barclays.

The Barclays Group SAYE Share Option Scheme (Sharesave)

Sharesave was approved by Barclays Shareholders and adopted at the Barclays AGM on 26 April 2000. Sharesave is an HMRC approved SAYE option scheme.

Administration

Sharesave is administered in accordance with its rules, by the Barclays Board.

Eligibility

All United Kingdom resident employees of participating Barclays Group companies who have been continuously employed for a minimum period of not more than five years (as determined by the Barclays Board) are eligible to participate in Sharesave. The minimum employment period is currently set at two months. Other employees of participating companies may be invited to participate in Sharesave at the Barclays Board's discretion.

Grant of options

Options over Barclays Ordinary Shares may be granted at any time within the period of three months following: the preliminary announcement of the annual or half year results of Barclays; the expiry of any restrictions imposed on Barclays; the coming into force of any amendments to Schedule 4 to ITEPA which affect Sharesave; the issue of a new sharesave prospectus; or at any other time if the Barclays Board determines that the circumstances are sufficiently exceptional to justify the grant of an option. No options may be granted later than 31 December 2010. Options granted under Sharesave are personal to the participant and may not be transferred.

Savings contract

Any person who applies for an option under Sharesave must also enter into an HMRC approved savings contract. Under this contract, the person agrees to make monthly savings which must not be less than £5 and may not exceed the maximum amount specified in Schedule 4 to ITEPA which is currently £250 (or such lower amount as determined by the Barclays Board) over a period of three or five years. A bonus will be paid on completion of the savings contract. A person may also elect to leave their savings in their savings account at the end of a five-year contract for a further two years to receive an additional bonus. Barclays Ordinary Shares may only be acquired under Sharesave on exercise of an option using an amount equal to the proceeds of this savings contract. The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares over which an option is granted will be such that the total amount payable on its exercise will be equal to the proceeds on maturity of the related savings contract. The Barclays Board will decide which savings contracts should be made available on each occasion when it is decided to grant options.

Table of Contents

Exercise price

The price payable per Barclays Ordinary Share on exercise of an option granted under Sharesave is determined by the Barclays Board at the date of grant and must not be less than the greater of:

- (i) in the case of an option to subscribe for Barclays Ordinary Shares:
 - (a) the nominal value of a Barclays Ordinary Share; and
 - (b) at any time when the Barclays Ordinary Shares are listed, not less than 80 per cent. of the average closing middle market price of a Barclays Share as derived from the Daily Official List of the London Stock Exchange over any period of not more than five successive dealing days, provided that any such period of successive dealing days falls within the grant period; and
- (ii) in any other case if relevant, not less than 80 per cent. of the average purchase price per Barclays Ordinary Share paid by the trustee of any relevant Barclays Group employees' benefit trust over any period not exceeding ten successive dealing days during the relevant grant period.

No consideration is payable for the grant of an option.

Limits

No options shall be granted under Sharesave if as a result the aggregate number of Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and issuable pursuant to options granted under Sharesave or under any other employees' share plan adopted by Barclays in general meeting would in any period of ten years exceed 10 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of Barclays. The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available for the grant of options under Sharesave for these purposes will be reduced by a number of notional Barclays Ordinary Shares based on the number of BGI Shares used or committed under the BGI EOP as determined by the Barclays Board by reference to the respective values of a Barclays Ordinary Share and a BGI Share.

Exercise of options

An option granted under Sharesave may normally only be exercised within the period of six months following completion of a participant's savings contract (which will usually be three, five or seven years from the date of entering into the savings contract). An option may become exercisable earlier for a period of six months (or 12 months if a participant dies) if the participant ceases to be employed by a participating company for certain specified reasons. If a participant ceases to be employed by a participating company by reason of misconduct, his option will lapse. This applies to all options granted from 13 June 2005. If a participant ceases to be employed by a participating company for any other reason and his option has been held for three years, the option will be exercisable for a period of six months from cessation. In these circumstances, if the option has not been held for three years, the option will lapse. Special provisions apply on a takeover or liquidation of Barclays. If an option becomes exercisable before the savings contract matures, it can only be exercised over such number of Barclays Ordinary Shares as may be purchased with an amount equal to the proceeds of the savings contract to date.

Barclays Ordinary Shares

Barclays Ordinary Shares allotted and issued on the exercise of an option will rank pari passu with existing Barclays Ordinary Shares except for any rights attached to such Barclays Ordinary Shares by reference to a record date before the date of allotment. Barclays will use its reasonable endeavours to obtain admission to the Official List for any Barclays Ordinary Shares so allotted.

Variation of Barclays share capital

On any variation of Barclays share capital by way of capitalisation or rights issue, or by consolidation, subdivision or reduction of capital or otherwise, the Barclays Board may make such adjustments as it considers appropriate to the exercise price and/or the number and/or the denomination of Barclays Ordinary Shares under option, provided that there is no increase in the aggregate exercise price or reduction below nominal value. No such adjustment may be made without the prior written confirmation from Barclays auditors that it is in their opinion fair and reasonable. No such adjustment shall be effective until approved by HMRC.

Table of Contents

Amendments to Sharesave

The Barclays Board may amend Sharesave at any time in any respect, but no amendment shall be effective until it is approved by HMRC. The rules of Sharesave relating to eligibility, the limit on the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available under Sharesave, the basis for determining an eligible employee's participation, any adjustment to an option on a variation of Barclays share capital and amendment of Sharesave may not, however, be amended to the advantage of existing or future participants without the prior approval of Barclays in general meeting except that the Barclays Board may:

- (i) make any amendments necessary to secure or maintain approval by HMRC or to obtain or maintain favourable taxation, exchange control or regulatory treatment of Barclays, any of its subsidiaries or any participant; and
- (ii) make minor amendments to benefit or facilitate the administration of Sharesave.

No amendment may be made to alter to the material disadvantage of any participant any rights already acquired by him without the consent of participants holding options over at least 75 per cent. of the Barclays Ordinary Shares under option under Sharesave.

Irish Sharesave

Irish Sharesave has been established as a supplementary scheme to Sharesave pursuant to an authority provided by Barclays Shareholders at the AGM on 26 April 2000. Irish Sharesave has been approved by the Irish Revenue Commissioners. The principal terms are as set out for Sharesave save that savings will be made in Euros (with a minimum of 12) converted into Sterling on the exercise of options.

International Sharesave

International Sharesave has been established as a supplementary scheme to Sharesave pursuant to an authority provided by Barclays Shareholders at the AGM on 26 April 2000. International Sharesave is not an HMRC approved plan. The principal features are as set out for Sharesave save that savings may be made in a currency other than Sterling and converted into Sterling on the exercise of options. Other aspects may be adapted in accordance with Barclays Shareholder authority as necessary to ensure that the International Sharesave can operate in each relevant country. So far it has been adapted for use in Spain.

The Barclays Group Share Incentive Plan (Sharepurchase)

Sharepurchase was approved by Barclays Shareholders at the Barclays AGM on 26 April 2000. It is an HMRC approved share incentive plan.

Administration

Sharepurchase is constituted by a trust deed. Sharepurchase is administered by the Sharepurchase Trustee in accordance with the trust deed and its rules. The Barclays Board has responsibility for Sharepurchase and may appoint and remove the Sharepurchase Trustee.

Eligible employees

All United Kingdom resident employees of Barclays Group companies participating in Sharepurchase, who have been continuously employed for a period of one year (or such lesser period as determined by the Barclays Board), will be eligible to participate in Sharepurchase. Other employees of participating companies may be invited to participate in Sharepurchase at the Barclays Board's discretion. The minimum qualifying period is currently one month.

Awards

If the Barclays Board decides to operate Sharepurchase, all eligible employees will be entitled to participate in Sharepurchase on similar terms. Sharepurchase has four discrete elements, Partnership Shares, Matching Shares, Free Shares and Dividend Shares (as described below). The Barclays Board may decide each year which elements are to be offered under Sharepurchase. All awards are made in respect of Barclays Ordinary Shares. Benefits under Sharepurchase are not pensionable.

Table of Contents

Employees are eligible to participate only if they enter into an agreement with Barclays and the Sharepurchase Trustee.

Partnership Shares

Up to £1,500 worth of Partnership Shares may be purchased on behalf of an eligible employee in any tax year using money deducted from his monthly salary or deducted from his salary in one or more lump sums in both cases not exceeding 10 per cent. of salary in any year. Partnership Shares may be withdrawn by the participant from Sharepurchase at any time and must not be subject to forfeiture. (Partnership Shares can be purchased following an accumulation period in which case the price per Barclays Ordinary Share which the Sharepurchase Trustee will pay to buy the Partnership Shares on a participant's behalf will be the lower of the market value of a Barclays Ordinary Share at the beginning or end of the accumulation period.)

Matching Shares

The Barclays Board may permit the award of up to two Matching Shares for each Partnership Share purchased. Matching Shares may be forfeited if a participant ceases to be employed by the Barclays Group in certain circumstances or if he withdraws his Partnership Shares from Sharepurchase in certain circumstances up to three years from the date of award. Matching Shares may be subject to a holding period of up to five years as determined by the Barclays Board.

Dividend Shares

Additionally, the Barclays Board may permit dividends received on Barclays Ordinary Shares held in Sharepurchase to be reinvested on an elective or mandatory basis in additional Barclays Ordinary Shares (Dividend Shares) worth up to £1,500 in each year. The Dividend Shares must not be subject to forfeiture and must be held for a minimum holding period of three years before they can be sold.

Free Shares

Eligible employees may be awarded up to £3,000 worth of Free Shares in each tax year. Such award may be linked to objective performance criteria. Free Shares may be forfeited in certain circumstances up to three years from the date of award if a participant ceases to be employed by the Barclays Group in certain circumstances. Free Shares may be subject to a holding period of up to five years as determined by the Barclays Board.

Operation

Sharepurchase currently operates over:

Partnership Shares up to a value of £1,500 worth of Partnership Shares may be purchased on behalf of an eligible employee in any tax year using money deducted from his monthly salary or deducted from his salary in one or more lump sums, in both cases, not exceeding 10 per cent. of salary in any year;

Matching Shares Matching Shares are awarded on a one for one basis up to a value of £600 worth of Partnership Shares acquired on behalf of participants each year and must be kept in Sharepurchase for a minimum holding period of three years; and Dividend Shares dividends received on Barclays Ordinary Shares held in Sharepurchase are reinvested in additional Barclays Ordinary Shares up to a value of £1,500 each year.

Free Shares are not currently offered under Sharepurchase.

In each year that the Barclays Board decides to operate Sharepurchase, participating Barclays Group companies will provide the Sharepurchase Trustee with funds to enable the Sharepurchase Trustee to purchase Barclays Ordinary Shares.

Table of Contents

Limits

Sharepurchase is subject to the following overall limits:

- (i) the total number of Barclays Ordinary Shares which may be subscribed by the Sharepurchase Trustee under Sharepurchase in any calendar year must not exceed 1 per cent. of the issued share capital of Barclays; and
- (ii) the total number of Barclays Ordinary Shares which may be subscribed by the Sharepurchase Trustee under Sharepurchase when aggregated with Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and issuable under any other employees share plan adopted by Barclays must not exceed in any period of ten years 10 per cent. of the issued share capital of Barclays.

The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available under Sharepurchase in paragraph (ii) above will be reduced by a number of notional Barclays Ordinary Shares based on the number of BGI Shares used or committed under the BGI EOP as determined by the Barclays Board by reference to the respective values of a Barclays Ordinary Share and a BGI Share. No new Barclays Ordinary Shares have been issued to date to the Sharepurchase Trustee.

Dividends and voting rights

Participants are the beneficial owners of the Barclays Ordinary Shares held by the Sharepurchase Trustee for them. If dividends received in Barclays Ordinary Shares held in Sharepurchase were not invested, the Sharepurchase Trustee would pass on all dividends and other distributions received in respect of the Barclays Ordinary Shares to the participants concerned as soon as practicable after receipt, subject to the requirements of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 (as amended). The Sharepurchase Trustee will vote in accordance with the wishes of the participants, if participants have given the Sharepurchase Trustee prior voting directions in writing.

Takeovers and variations of Barclays share capital

In the event of a general offer being made to shareholders of Barclays or a rights or capitalisation issue or other variation of Barclays share capital, participants will be able to instruct the Sharepurchase Trustee how to act or vote on their behalf.

Amendments to Sharepurchase

The Barclays Board and the Sharepurchase Trustee may amend Sharepurchase at any time in any respect, but no amendment shall be effective until it is approved by HMRC. The provisions of the trust deed, and rules of Sharepurchase relating to eligibility, limits on the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available under Sharepurchase, the basis for determining an eligible employee's participation and any adjustment to awards on a variation of Barclays share capital and to amendment of Sharepurchase may not, however, be amended to the advantage of existing or future participants without the prior approval of Barclays in general meeting except that the Sharepurchase Trustee and the Barclays Board may:

- (i) make any amendments necessary to secure and maintain approval by HMRC or to obtain or maintain favourable taxation, exchange control or regulatory treatment of Barclays, any of its subsidiaries or any participant; or
- (ii) make minor amendments to benefit or facilitate the administration of Sharepurchase.

No amendment may be made to Sharepurchase which would affect the beneficial interests of participants in Barclays Ordinary Shares held by the Sharepurchase Trustee on their behalf.

The Barclays PLC Executive Share Award Scheme (ESAS)

ESAS is not an HMRC approved plan. It is a deferred share bonus plan which operates in conjunction with annual Barclays Group cash bonus plans and various cash long term incentive plans operated by Barclays Group companies. A recommendation may be made to the ESAS Trustee that part of the value of any award made under such plans is made as an award under ESAS. Eligible employees may receive Mandatory ESAS awards and, in addition, they may be granted Voluntary ESAS awards. Under a Mandatory ESAS award, part of an eligible employee's annual bonus is received as an award under ESAS. A Voluntary ESAS award is an additional award granted to an eligible employee under ESAS in respect of the waiver of a bonus entitlement to which he may otherwise have become entitled. Such awards will normally include additional Barclays Ordinary Shares called bonus shares with a value of up to 30 per cent. of the annual bonus deferred or waived. Bonus shares in Mandatory ESAS (and in Voluntary ESAS) are included in an award to recognise the interest which a participant forgoes on that part of his annual bonus which is deferred through ESAS over a period of 3 to 5 years. The ESAS Trustee may apply dividends received in purchasing additional Barclays Ordinary Shares which may also be released to participants. ESAS is also used to defer awards or part of the awards under the cash long-term incentive plans operated by various Barclays Group companies for up to two years. In addition, ESAS is used, inter alia, to make certain awards to facilitate the retention and recruitment of new joiners to the Barclays Group who have forfeited share incentive awards on leaving their previous employment. The deferral period will normally reflect the vesting period for the forfeited awards.

Administration

ESAS is operated and administered by the ESAS Trustee. Barclays Group companies provide funds to the ESAS Trustee to enable it to acquire Barclays Ordinary Shares through market purchases for the purposes of ESAS. Awards made under ESAS cannot be satisfied with new issue or treasury shares.

Eligibility

Awards of Barclays Ordinary Shares may be made by the ESAS Trustee, having first consulted the Barclays Remuneration Committee, to employees and directors of the Barclays Group.

Awards

An ESAS award is a provisional allocation of Barclays Ordinary Shares which does not give rise to any right to, or any interest in, Barclays Ordinary Shares. Under a Mandatory ESAS award, the ESAS Trustee may grant participants the right in the form of a nil-cost option to call for the shares plus two-thirds of any bonus shares following the third anniversary of the award date. If this right is not exercised, the ESAS Trustee may, following the fifth anniversary, release all the Barclays Ordinary Shares including all of the bonus shares and dividend shares to the participant.

In those jurisdictions where the grant of a nil-cost option would result in onerous tax consequences, Mandatory ESAS awards are adapted so that the ESAS Trustee may release the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares on the third anniversary of the award date which would have been eligible for the grant of a nil cost option. If the participant retains his Barclays Ordinary Shares released at the third anniversary until the fifth anniversary he will be eligible to be considered for the release of the remaining Barclays Ordinary Shares under award at the fifth anniversary of the award date.

A Voluntary ESAS award is a right to acquire Barclays Ordinary Shares for a nominal amount which will become fully exercisable after five years. The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares under award will reflect the value of the cash bonus waived plus a number of bonus shares. The release of Barclays Ordinary Shares under award is not subject to performance conditions because the ESAS is a deferred share bonus plan.

The ESAS Trustee may release Barclays Ordinary Shares under award to eligible leavers following cessation of employment in line with the normal vesting schedule or immediately. Special provisions apply on a change of control of Barclays.

Grant of Awards

The ESAS Trustee may only grant an award within the period of 42 days following the preliminary announcement of the Barclays final or half year results or at any time thereafter when the ESAS Trustee, having first consulted the Barclays Remuneration Committee, considers the circumstances sufficiently exceptional to justify the grant of an award. No consideration is payable for the grant of an award.

Variation of Barclays share capital

On any increase or variation of the share capital of Barclays by way of capitalisation or rights issue, or subdivision, consolidation or reduction of capital or other variation, the ESAS Trustee may, subject to Barclays auditors confirming that such adjustment is in their opinion fair and reasonable, make such adjustments as it considers appropriate to the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares comprised in any award.

Amendments to the ESAS

ESAS may be amended in any respect by resolution of the ESAS Trustee with the consent of Barclays.

Termination

The ESAS Trustee having first consulted the Barclays Remuneration Committee may at any time suspend or terminate ESAS.

The Barclays Global Investors Equity Ownership Plan (the BGI EOP)

The BGI EOP was approved by Barclays Shareholders and adopted at the Barclays AGM on 26 April 2000. BGI EOP is not an HMRC approved plan. The BGI EOP was designed to provide the employee share incentive arrangements required to recruit and retain quality senior management and investment talent. It provides a long term equity interest in BGI, meeting the expectations of, in particular, BGI's key investment talent in the US who expect to participate in the equity of their employer.

Administration

The BGI EOP is administered, in accordance with its rules, by a committee (the BGI Committee) of the board of directors of Barclays Global Investors UK Holdings Limited (BGI Holdings). Matters relating to overall Barclays Group issues, including remuneration policy, are determined by the Barclays Remuneration Committee.

Eligibility

Options may be granted to such employees and full-time directors (being those directors who are obliged to devote substantially the whole of their working time to BGI) of BGI Holdings or any of its participating subsidiaries as the BGI Committee may select but no employee has any right to be granted an option. Barclays Directors are not eligible to be granted options under the BGI EOP.

Grant of options

Options may be granted at any time during the period of three months following: the preliminary announcement of the annual or half yearly results of Barclays; the expiry of relevant restrictions imposed on Barclays; the announcement or coming into force of any amendments to legislation affecting share option schemes; or at any other time if the Barclays Remuneration Committee in its absolute discretion determines that the circumstances are sufficiently exceptional to justify the grant of an option. Options are granted as a right to subscribe for BGI Shares. No option may be granted later than 20 April 2010. Options granted under the BGI EOP are personal to the participant and may not be transferred, assigned or charged. Benefits under the BGI EOP are not pensionable.

Exercise price

The exercise price at which options may be exercised is determined by the Barclays Remuneration Committee at their date of grant and may not be less than the greater of:

- (i) the nominal value of a BGI Share; and
- (ii) the market value of a BGI Share as determined by the Barclays Remuneration Committee calculated by reference to a multiple of BGI's profit or on such other basis as the Barclays Remuneration Committee in its absolute discretion considers to be appropriate from time to time.

The market value of a BGI Share is determined twice a year by independent appraisers. No consideration is payable for the grant of an option.

Limits

The number of BGI Shares available for issue under the BGI EOP is subject to the following limits. No option may be granted if, as a result, the aggregate number of BGI Shares issued and issuable pursuant to options granted under the BGI EOP, less any BGI Shares issued pursuant to options granted under the BGI

Table of Contents

EOP and purchased by Barclays Bank, could exceed 20 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of BGI Holdings.

The limits on the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available for issue under the Barclays PSP, ISOP, Sharepurchase and Sharesave and any other employees' share plan adopted by Barclays also apply in determining whether or not options may be granted under the BGI EOP.

Exercise of options

Options are normally only exercisable during exercise windows of up to two months in each year. There are normally two exercise windows each year.

An option is not normally exercisable before the expiry of one year from the date of grant. An option may normally be exercised as to a third of the BGI Shares under option following the first anniversary of the date of grant, a third of the BGI Shares under option following the second anniversary of the date of grant and the remaining third of the BGI Shares under option following the third anniversary of the date of grant. An option is exercisable in full earlier if the participant dies or if the participant's employment with BGI terminates by reason of permanent disability. If a participant ceases to be employed for any other reason his option will be exercisable to the extent that it has vested and shall lapse in respect of the remainder of the BGI Shares under option unless the BGI Committee determines otherwise. Options lapse at the expiry of ten years from the date of grant.

Sale of BGI Shares

Under the Articles of Association of BGI Holdings (the 'BGI Articles') all BGI Shares must normally be held for a minimum of 355 days after exercise of an option. On expiry of the minimum holding period, participants who are shareholders may, but are not obliged to, offer their BGI Shares for sale to Barclays Bank during the two annual sale windows. Barclays Bank, at its discretion, has a right to purchase any BGI Shares so offered but is not obliged to. Any sale will be at fair value as determined in accordance with the BGI Articles. If a participant ceases to be employed by BGI he will be required to sell his BGI Shares in accordance with the BGI Articles.

Exercise of options on a change of control of Barclays and other corporate events and sale of BGI Shares

If there is a takeover of Barclays, the sale of BGI Holdings out of the Barclays Group or the sale of all or substantially all of BGI's business out of the Barclays Group, options may be exercised in full for a period of one month (or such other period as the Barclays Remuneration Committee may specify) after which options will lapse. On a sale of BGI Holdings, Barclays Bank, as the majority shareholder, can ensure participants who are shareholders sell their BGI Shares to the purchaser of the majority of the BGI Shares. Participants who are shareholders may require the purchaser to purchase their BGI Shares. On a change of control of Barclays or the sale of all or substantially all of BGI's business out of the Barclays Group, Barclays Bank may require minority shareholders to sell their BGI Shares to Barclays Bank and minority shareholders may require Barclays Bank to purchase their BGI Shares.

BGI Shares

BGI Shares allotted and issued on the exercise of an option will rank pari passu with existing BGI Shares except with respect to exceptional dividends and except for any rights attached to such BGI Shares by reference to a record date prior to the date of allotment.

Variation of BGI Holdings' share capital

On any variation of the share capital of BGI Holdings by way of capitalisation or rights issue, or by consolidation, subdivision or reduction of capital or otherwise, the Barclays Remuneration Committee may make such adjustments as it considers appropriate to the exercise price and/or the number and/or the denomination of BGI Shares comprised in an option, provided that there is no increase in the aggregate exercise price or reduction below nominal value. No such adjustment may be made without prior written confirmation from Barclays auditors that it is in their opinion fair and reasonable.

Amendments to the BGI EOP

The BGI Committee may amend the BGI EOP at any time in any respect. The rules of the BGI EOP relating to eligibility, limits on the number of BGI Shares available under the BGI EOP, the basis for determining an eligible employee's participation, any adjustment to an option on a variation of the share capital of BGI Holdings and amendment of the BGI EOP may not, however, be amended to the advantage of existing or future participants without the prior approval of Barclays in general meeting except that the BGI Committee may:

- (i) make any amendments necessary to obtain or maintain favourable taxation, exchange control or regulatory treatment of Barclays or of BGI Holdings, any of their subsidiaries or any participant; and
- (ii) make minor amendments to benefit the administration of the BGI EOP.

No amendment may be made to alter to the material disadvantage of any participant any rights already acquired by him without the consent of participants holding options over at least 75 per cent. of the BGI Shares under option under the BGI EOP.

The Barclays PLC Incentive Share Option Plan (the ISOP)

The ISOP was approved by Barclays Shareholders and adopted at the Barclays AGM on 26 April 2000 and contains both HMRC approved and non-approved parts (the Barclays PLC Approved Incentive Share Option Plan (the Approved ISOP) and the Barclays PLC Unapproved Incentive Share Option Plan (the Unapproved ISOP) which are together referred to as the ISOP). The last options granted under the ISOP were granted in 2004.

Administration

The ISOP is administered, in accordance with its rules, by the Barclays Group Share Schemes Committee (the Committee).

Eligibility

Options may be granted to such employees and full-time directors of Barclays or any of its participating subsidiaries as the Committee may select. In the case of the Approved ISOP the Committee may also not select anyone who has a material interest in Barclays as set out in paragraph 9 of Schedule 4 to ITEPA. No employee has any right to be granted an option.

Grant of options

Options may be granted at any time during the period of three months following: the preliminary announcement of the annual or half-yearly results of Barclays; the expiry of relevant restrictions imposed on Barclays; the announcement or coming into force of any amendments to legislation affecting share option schemes; or at any other time if the Committee in its absolute discretion determines that the circumstances are sufficiently exceptional to justify the grant of an option. Options will be granted as a right to subscribe for Barclays Ordinary Shares or a right to purchase from a trustee of a Barclays Group employees' benefit trust Barclays Ordinary Shares (which such trustee has purchased in the market or subscribed from Barclays). No option may be granted later than ten years from the date of adoption of the ISOP. Options granted under the ISOP are personal to the participant and may not be transferred, assigned or charged.

Exercise price

Options may be granted with an exercise price per Barclays Ordinary Share set by the Committee at the date of grant at the market share price with no discount. This exercise price per Barclays Share may not be less than the greater of:

- (i) in the case of an option to subscribe for Barclays Ordinary Shares:
 - (a) the nominal value of a Barclays Ordinary Share; and
 - (b) at any time when the Barclays Ordinary Shares are listed, the average of the closing middle market prices of a Barclays Ordinary Share as derived from the Daily Official List of the London Stock Exchange over any period of not more than five successive dealing days in the period of 30 days before the date of grant of an option, provided that any such period of successive dealing days falls within the grant period; and
- (ii) in any other case, the average purchase price per Barclays Ordinary Share paid by the trustee of a Barclays Group employees' benefit trust to purchase Barclays Ordinary Shares for the grant of options under the ISOP over any period not exceeding ten successive dealing days during the relevant grant period. No consideration is payable for the grant of an option.

Limits

The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available under the ISOP is subject to the following overall dilution limits:

(i) no option may be granted if, as a result, the aggregate number of Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and issuable pursuant to options granted under the ISOP or under any other executive share option plan adopted by Barclays in general meeting would in any period of ten years exceed five per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of Barclays from time to time; and

(ii) no option may be granted if, as a result, the aggregate number of Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and issuable pursuant to options granted under the ISOP or under any other employees share plan adopted by Barclays in general meeting would in any period of ten years exceed ten per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of Barclays from time to time.

The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available for the grant of options as described in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above will be reduced by the number of notional Barclays Ordinary Shares based on the number of BGI Shares used or committed under the BGI EOP described above as determined by the Committee by reference to the respective values of a Barclays Ordinary Share and BGI Share.

Individual participation in the Approved ISOP is subject to a limit such that no option may be granted to any eligible employee if as a result the aggregate exercise price of Barclays Ordinary Shares issuable pursuant to options granted under the Approved ISOP and any other HMRC approved executive share option plan to that eligible employee exceeds £30,000.

Under the ISOP the value of the target award which may be granted to an eligible employee in any financial year is subject to an overall maximum of 200 per cent. of the participant's remuneration as determined by the Committee. In normal circumstances the value of the target award would not typically exceed 150 per cent. of such remuneration.

Exercise of options

An option is not normally exercisable before the expiry of three years from the date of grant, including where a participant ceases to be employed by the Barclays Group. If the participant dies or the participant's employment terminates for certain specified reasons or where the Committee so determines, the participant will have the right to exercise his options within certain specified periods. Options will lapse at the expiry of ten years from the date of grant. Special provisions apply to the exercise of options in the event of a takeover or liquidation of Barclays.

The Committee shall on the date of grant of any option specify the objective performance target(s) which must be satisfied before an option can be exercised. The number of Barclays Ordinary Shares over which an option granted under the ISOP is exercisable, is conditional on the extent to which performance targets are satisfied.

Barclays Ordinary Shares

Barclays Ordinary Shares issued on the exercise of an option will rank pari passu with existing Barclays Ordinary Shares except for any rights attached to such Barclays Ordinary Shares by reference to a record date prior to the date of allotment.

Variation of Barclays share capital

On any variation of Barclays share capital by way of capitalisation or rights issue, or by consolidation, subdivision or reduction of capital or otherwise, the Committee may make such adjustments as it considers appropriate to the exercise price and/or the number and/or the denomination of Barclays Ordinary Shares comprised in an option, provided that there is no increase in the aggregate exercise price or reduction below nominal value. No such adjustment may be made without the prior written confirmation from Barclays auditors that it is, in their opinion fair and reasonable.

Table of Contents

Amendments to the ISOP

The Committee may amend the ISOP at any time in any respect, provided that in the case of the Approved ISOP no amendment shall be effective until it is approved by HMRC. The rules of the ISOP relating to eligibility, limits on the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares available under the ISOP, the basis for determining an eligible employee's participation, any adjustment to an option on a variation of Barclays share capital and amendment of the ISOP may not, however, be amended to the advantage of existing or future participants without the prior approval of Barclays in general meeting, except that the Committee may:

- (i) make any amendments necessary to secure or maintain approval by HMRC in the case of the Approved ISOP or to obtain or maintain favourable taxation, exchange control or regulatory treatment of Barclays, any of its subsidiaries or any participant; and
- (ii) make minor amendments to benefit or facilitate the administration of the ISOP.

No amendment may be made to alter to the material disadvantage of any participant any rights already acquired by him without the consent of participants holding options over at least 75 per cent. of the Barclays Ordinary Shares under option under the ISOP.

5.2 Closed Barclays Share Plans

The Barclays PLC Renewed 1986 Executive Share Option Scheme (the ESOS)

The ESOS was adopted by a resolution of Barclays Shareholders at the Barclays AGM on 20 March 1990. The ESOS is in two parts. The Approved Part is approved by HMRC and the Unapproved Part is not approved by HMRC. No options have been granted under the ESOS since 2000.

Exercise price

The exercise price at which options may be exercised was determined by reference to the market value of a Barclays Ordinary Share on the date of grant with no discount.

Exercise of options

All options are currently exercisable. Options will lapse at the expiry of ten years from the date of grant. Options may lapse earlier on cessation of a participant's employment with the Barclays Group. Special provisions apply in the event of a takeover or liquidation of Barclays.

Barclays Ordinary Shares

Barclays Ordinary Shares issued on the exercise of an option will rank pari passu with existing Barclays Ordinary Shares except for any rights attached to such Barclays Ordinary Shares by reference to a record date prior to the date of allotment.

Variation of Barclays capital

On any variation of the share capital of Barclays by way of capitalisation issue, rights issue, or a consolidation, subdivision or reduction of capital or repurchase of shares, the Barclays Board may make such adjustments as it considers appropriate to the subscription price and/or the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares comprised in an option and/or the limits on the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares subject to the ESOS, provided that there is no reduction in the subscription price below nominal value of Barclays Ordinary Shares. No such adjustment may be made without the certification of Barclays auditors that it is, in their opinion, fair and reasonable.

Amendments to the ESOS

The Barclays Board may amend the ESOS at any time in any respect, but no amendment to the Approved Part is effective until it is approved by HMRC and:

- (i) no materially adverse amendments may be made affecting rights already acquired by a participant in the ESOS; and
- (ii) the prior approval of Barclays in general meeting is required to amend to the material advantage of eligible employees or optionholders: the definitions of eligible employee, exercise price or market value; the period in which options may be granted; the length of time in which invitations must be accepted; the manner in which options are granted; the transferability of options; the limits; the circumstances in which a leaver may exercise options; and the provisions governing a takeover or a winding up of Barclays or the amendment power.

The Barclays Board may amend the ESOS in any way to maintain HMRC approval of the Approved Part.

The Woolwich plc 1998 Executive Share Option Plan (the WESOP)

The WESOP was adopted by a resolution of Woolwich plc (Woolwich) shareholders on 22 April 1998. The WESOP is in two parts. The first part, the Approved Plan, is approved by HMRC and the second part, the Unapproved Plan, is not approved by HMRC. Those options that are outstanding under the WESOP are options over Barclays Ordinary Shares that were granted to participants who elected to release their options over Woolwich shares (old options) when Barclays and Woolwich merged in 2000. These outstanding options over Barclays Ordinary Shares continue to be governed by the rules of the WESOP and are deemed to have been granted on the date that the old options were granted.

Exercise price

The exercise price at which options may be exercised is determined by reference to the market value of a Woolwich share on the date of grant of the original option over Woolwich shares.

Exercise of options

All outstanding options are currently exercisable. Options will lapse at the expiry of ten years from the date of grant. Options may lapse earlier on cessation of a participant's employment with the Barclays Group. Special provisions apply in the event of a takeover or liquidation of Barclays.

Barclays Ordinary Shares

Barclays Ordinary Shares issued on the exercise of an option will rank pari passu with existing Barclays Ordinary Shares except for any rights attached to such Barclays Ordinary Shares by reference to a record date prior to the date of allotment.

Variation of Barclays capital

On any variation of the share capital of Barclays, an adjustment may be made to the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares subject to an option and/or the exercise price subject in each case to Barclays auditor's written confirmation that such adjustment is, in their opinion, fair and reasonable.

Amendments to the WESOP

The Barclays Remuneration Committee may at any time amend the WESOP rules or the terms of any option granted under it, as long as, in the case of the Approved Plan, HMRC have approved such alteration or addition. Any provisions relating to the persons to whom or for whom options and/or Barclays Ordinary Shares are provided under the WESOP, the limitations on the number or amount of options and/or Barclays Ordinary Shares subject to the WESOP, the maximum entitlement of any one optionholder under the WESOP and the basis of determining an optionholder's entitlement to, and the terms of, options over Barclays Ordinary Shares and their adjustment in the event of a capitalisation issue, rights issue, subdivision or consolidation of shares or reduction of capital or on any other variation of capital cannot be altered to the advantage of existing participants, without the prior consent of the shareholders of Barclays in general meeting (except for minor amendments to benefit the administration of the WESOP and any amendments to take account of a change in legislation or obtain or maintain favourable tax, exchange control or regulatory treatment for participants, Barclays or any subsidiary).

5.3 Barclays Pension Arrangements

Barclays operates a number of pension arrangements in different countries, several of which are defined benefit plans. Further information on the financial status of these arrangements is included in Part VII.

As is usual with defined benefit plans, employer contributions are not fixed, and may increase or decrease depending on the assets and liabilities of the plans from time to time, as well as in line with statutory funding requirements. The financial details contained in Part VII are based on certain assumptions, and there is no guarantee that those assumptions will prove correct. Any requirement to increase contributions, or an increase in net liabilities, may negatively affect the Barclays Group's cashflows, balance sheet or distributable reserves, which could have a material effect on the Barclays Group's business or financial position. Conversely, a decrease in contributions or liabilities could have a positive effect.

By far the most significant (in terms of assets and liabilities) is the defined benefit plan operated in the United Kingdom. Historically, the sponsoring employer of this plan has had discretion as to the level of contributions paid, subject to the statutory minimum. However, due to recent legal changes (which will apply following the next formal valuation of the plan), in future the employer will have to seek to agree a scheme specific funding approach with the plan's trustees. Barclays Bank is already in discussion with the plan's trustees, and expects to reach agreement with them within the required time frame. In the event agreement could not be reached, the UK's Pensions Regulator would be able to impose a level of contributions. Either agreement with the plan's trustees in respect of the scheme specific funding or intervention by the UK Pensions Regulator could lead to a more prudent funding basis and therefore recognition of a higher deficit, resulting in increased contributions, going forward.

There are defined benefit plans in several other countries, notably the US, Spain and Switzerland.

Contributions to these plans may increase over time (and in particular recent legal changes may increase contributions to the plan in the US). However, these plans are much less material than in the UK.

7. ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans and Pension Plans

The Merger Protocol contains provisions in relation to the treatment of options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans. Barclays and ABN AMRO are considering the proposed treatment of options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans although the treatment has not, at the date of this document, been finalised.

The following is a summary of the proposals relating to the ABN AMRO PSP and the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans (being those employee plans under which subsisting options or awards have been granted over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares) which at the date of this document have been considered by Barclays and ABN AMRO. The summary is without prejudice to further or alternative proposals that Barclays and ABN AMRO may agree within the parameters and in the context of both the Merger Protocol and the rules of the ABN AMRO PSP and the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans and any applicable laws.

The normal vesting dates for outstanding awards granted under the ABN AMRO PSP, which are subject to both performance conditions and service conditions, have not yet occurred. Barclays has proposed that awards under the ABN AMRO PSP will be replaced, as permitted under the rules of those plans and subject to any applicable laws, with awards over or in respect of Barclays Shares on terms satisfying the provisions of those plans and consistent with the Merger Protocol, and ABN AMRO is considering this proposal.

Apart from certain options granted in 2005 under the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans, all subsisting options have already vested and are therefore currently exercisable subject to any applicable laws. The intention of ABN AMRO and Barclays is that options over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares under the ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans which are not already exercisable shall vest and become exercisable in full, in accordance with and to the extent permitted by the rules of the relevant ABN AMRO Stock Option Plans, when the Offer becomes unconditional. After the Offer becomes unconditional, options not yet exercised will be exercisable for a limited period after which they will lapse. Subject to any applicable laws and the relevant terms, options to acquire ABN AMRO Shares that are exercised will be satisfied in ABN AMRO Shares.

In relation to awards over or in respect of ABN AMRO Shares under the ABN AMRO Share Investment and Matching Share Plan (which are not subject to performance conditions), it is intended that, as provided for in the rules of that plan and subject to any applicable laws, awards will vest in full when the Offer becomes unconditional. Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed that the proposals that shall be agreed between them and made to holders of subsisting options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans in due course should not have any material incremental accounting costs for either party nor cause the EUR 250 million cap set out in the Merger Protocol on the amount of cash payable in respect of the cash settlement or cancellation of options and awards over ABN AMRO Shares to be exceeded.

7.1 The ABN AMRO Performance Share Plan (ABN AMRO PSP)

Eligibility

All employees in the ABN AMRO Group are eligible to participate in the ABN AMRO PSP. The selection of participants will be at the discretion of the Supervisory Board (in respect of awards granted to members of the Managing Board) or the Managing Board (in respect of all other awards) (the Relevant Board). The ABN AMRO PSP comprises both the Performance Share Plan, which is applicable to the Managing Board and Senior Executive Vice-Presidents and also the Restricted Share Plan, which is applicable to Corporate Executive Vice-Presidents, Corporate Managing Directors and other eligible employees selected by the Managing Board.

387

General

Under the ABN AMRO PSP, ABN AMRO may grant awards in respect of ABN AMRO Shares to eligible employees. An award may either consist of a conditional right to acquire ABN AMRO Shares, the vesting of which is subject to the satisfaction of performance conditions, or an option to acquire ABN AMRO Shares, the exercise of which is subject to the satisfaction of performance conditions.

Vesting of awards

Awards will normally vest once the relevant performance condition has been satisfied. If the participant ceases employment due to injury, sickness, disability or retirement, the awards will vest on the normal vesting date, subject to satisfaction of the performance conditions, and by reference to the proportion of the performance period that has elapsed on the date of cessation of employment. In the case of the death of the participant, the Relevant Board has discretion to allow an award to vest in full prior to the vesting date. The Relevant Board also has discretion to allow the vesting of awards following a cessation of employment in other circumstances, but otherwise an award will lapse on cessation of employment.

In the event of a tender offer, merger, controlled merger, consolidation, reconstruction or liquidation under which either a majority of the ABN AMRO Shares would be eliminated or ABN AMRO would become a subsidiary of another company or a sale of substantially all of ABN AMRO's assets, awards granted before 23 March 2006 will vest in full and the performance conditions will be deemed to have been met in full and awards granted on or after 23 March 2006 will vest, subject to the satisfaction of the performance conditions. In the case of awards granted on or after 23 March 2006, the Supervisory Board may, in its discretion, reduce the number of ABN AMRO Shares capable of vesting, having regard to the proportion of the performance period that has elapsed.

On the occurrence of one of the above events, the Relevant Boards may, in their discretion, cancel the awards and pay participants a cash amount equal to in the case of awards granted before 23 March 2006, the market value of the ABN AMRO Shares subject to awards, and in the case of awards granted on or after 23 March 2006, the market value of the ABN AMRO Shares subject to awards that would have otherwise vested. The Relevant Boards may also, in their discretion, resolve that awards will not vest as a result of one of these events and awards will be automatically exchanged, provided that an offer to exchange awards for equivalent awards in an acquiring company is made to participants. In respect of awards granted on or after 23 March 2006, the performance conditions which applied to the original awards will apply to the new awards, subject to such adjustments as the Supervisory Board considers reasonable to take account of the circumstances and effect of the relevant event and the exchange of awards.

Adjustment of awards

If there is a variation in share capital of ABN AMRO, including a demerger, capitalisation, rights issue, consolidation, sub-division or reduction of capital, the number of ABN AMRO Shares subject to an award and the exercise price (if any) may be adjusted by the Plan Administrator.

General provisions

ABN AMRO has a general discretion, following the vesting of an award, to pay, in lieu of allotting or transferring ABN AMRO Shares, a cash sum equal to the value of the vested ABN AMRO Shares, less any exercise price payable.

Except on the death of a participant, an award cannot be assigned, transferred or charged. The Relevant Board may at any time amend the rules of the ABN AMRO PSP to benefit the administration of the ABN AMRO PSP, to take account of any changes in legislation or tax rulings or to obtain or maintain favourable tax, exchange control or regulatory treatment, provided that no amendment may be made which would materially prejudice the interests of participants without their consent.

Table of Contents

No award may be made under the ABN AMRO PSP after the tenth anniversary of the grant of the first award under it.

7.2 ABN AMRO Pension Arrangements

ABN AMRO also operates a number of defined benefit plans, the most significant being in the Netherlands, the United States and the United Kingdom. Further information on the financial status of these arrangements is included in Part VIII.

There are defined benefit plans in several other countries, notably Switzerland, Germany and Brazil.

The plan in the Netherlands is by far the most material. The relationship between ABN AMRO and its plan in the Netherlands (and in particular ABN AMRO's funding obligation) is governed by local law (which generally requires that the plan should, in principle, be funded to a level of at least 105 per cent. on a prescribed basis), the governing documents for the plan, and also by an operating agreement entered into on 1 January 2006 with a term of two years (after which it will be continued or reviewed). Changes during the term of the operating agreement can only be made by agreement between the parties.

It is anticipated that the principal US plan will remain with ABN AMRO notwithstanding the sale of LaSalle. It is possible that the sale of LaSalle could cause members to become fully vested in their benefits, and/or lead to a more cautious funding approach for the plan.

The same general types of risk apply to ABN AMRO's defined benefit pension plans as described above in relation to the Barclays Group defined benefit pension plans.

10. Material Contracts10.1 Barclays Material Contracts

The following are all of the contracts (not being contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business) that have been entered into by members of the Barclays Group: (i) within the two years immediately preceding the date of this document which are, or may be, material to the Barclays Group; or (ii) at any time and contain obligations or entitlements which are, or may be, material to the Barclays Group as at the date of this document:

The Merger Protocol

The following is a summary of selected provisions of the Merger Protocol.

Structure of the Merger and Future Corporate Governance

Structure of the Merger

Under the Merger Protocol, the Merger is to be effected by way of public offers by Barclays into the Netherlands, the United States and certain other jurisdictions to acquire all the issued and outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO. Barclays and ABN AMRO expect to use a newly incorporated Dutch company (Barclays (Netherlands)) to hold shares in ABN AMRO following completion of the Offer, with Barclays being the holding company of the Combined Group.

Table of Contents

Future Corporate Governance and Identity

The head office of the Combined Group will be in Amsterdam and the Combined Group will have a UK incorporated holding company. The Merger Protocol also prescribes the following corporate governance structure:

the Combined Group will have a UK-style unitary board operating in accordance with UK corporate governance principles and best practices prevailing at the time;

the Barclays Board will initially be composed of 19 directors, including the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, four other Barclays Executive Directors and 12 other Barclays Non-executive Directors;

in the event that the number of directors of the Barclays Board shall in the two years following the consummation of the Offer be reduced, the pro rata representation of director nominated by ABN AMRO and of the directors nominated by Barclays shall remain the same;

Barclays will select the board of directors of Barclays (Netherlands);

the Chairman of the Barclays Board and seven other Barclays Non-executive Directors will be nominated by ABN AMRO, while the Deputy Chairman, five Barclays Non-executive Directors and the next Chief Executive Officer will be nominated by Barclays, each of them to be appointed with effect from the time the Offer is declared unconditional. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director and subject to the Merger becoming effective, Temesek will also have the right to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director.

the Barclays Board will have a nomination committee, an audit committee and a remuneration committee, which will be chosen following a consultation process by the next Chairman of the Barclays Board with the other individual members of the Barclays Board; the members of each such committee will include Barclays Non-executive Directors with suitable experience and qualifications;

Barclays and ABN AMRO will establish an integration planning committee, comprising senior management from Barclays and ABN AMRO, which committee will be responsible for preparatory work and planning activities in relation to the integration of the two businesses following the Merger;

Barclays registered office will remain in England, while its head office will be located in Amsterdam, the Netherlands. The majority of the members of the Barclays Group Executive Committee (i.e., the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, group chief administrative officer and three executive officers responsible for global retail and commercial banking) and the global head office of retail and commercial banking will be based in the Netherlands; the meetings of the executive committee of Barclays will be held primarily in the Netherlands; and the heads, senior management and appropriate core staff of all relevant group functions (including risk, compliance, legal, audit, human resources and finance) will be based in the Netherlands;

Barclays Ordinary Shares will have a primary listing on the LSE, maintaining the inclusion of Barclays Ordinary Shares in the FTSE 100 Index, and a secondary listing on Eurolist by Euronext Amsterdam;

the current members of the Supervisory Board are expected to cease to be members of the Supervisory Board and Mr. Groenink, Mr. Boumeester and Mr. Kuiper are expected to cease to be members of the Managing Board, in both cases as of when the appointments of the new members of the supervisory boards and management boards of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank that are to be approved by the general meetings of shareholders of ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank that are to be held following the Offer becoming Effective;

the FSA is expected to be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and DNB and FSA are expected to be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO Group and the Barclays Group, respectively;

Barclays has agreed to respect and work within the Dutch employee co-determination regulations as applied by ABN AMRO as well as the covenant with the central works council of ABN AMRO; and Barclays will remain UK tax resident following completion of the Offer.

the board of directors of Barclays Bank will initially comprise members nominated by the Barclays Board;

The Offer

Merger Consideration

Barclays is offering to acquire each issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Share for 2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares and 13.15 in cash and each ABN AMRO ADS for 0.5325 Barclays ADS and 13.15 in cash (paid in Dollars), subject to the Mix and Match Facility. The cash consideration paid for each ABN AMRO ADS will be Dollars, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which holders of ABN AMRO ADSs are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by The Bank of New York, the ADS exchange agent, for the five days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS exchange agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.

Adjustments to the Exchange Ratio

The Merger Protocol provides for the Exchange Ratio to be adjusted in certain situations in order to factor into the Exchange Ratio the impact of such situations on the relative values of Barclays Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

LaSalle Consideration

In the event that ABN AMRO receives cash consideration for the sale of LaSalle which is less than $21 billion, an amount equal to the shortfall shall be deemed to have been a distribution by ABN AMRO for purposes of determining whether, and the amount that, the Exchange Ratio should be adjusted. There shall be no corresponding adjustment as a result of the cash consideration received being greater than $21 billion.

Discretion of Barclays

Barclays shall be entitled within its discretion to increase or subject to certain restrictions, revise at any time the consideration offered for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Share Price

The Merger Protocol does not permit either party to terminate the Merger Protocol, nor provide for alteration of the Exchange Ratio, as a result of the price of Barclays Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs or ABN AMRO ADSs falling below any minimum price or rising above any maximum price.

Offer and Merger Process

The Offer will remain open for a minimum of 20 business days in the United States or, if required by law in any other jurisdiction in which the Offer is made, 30 calendar days. The Closing Date will be the initial date on which the Offer closes for acceptance, unless Barclays, with reasonable input from ABN AMRO, decides to extend the Offer, in which case the Closing Date shall be the last date on which the extended Offer closes. Barclays may also, with reasonable input from ABN AMRO, decide the duration of the initial Acceptance Period and of any extension thereof.

In the event Barclays declares the Offer unconditional, Barclays may, with reasonable input from ABN AMRO, and in accordance with market practice and applicable rules and regulations, publicly announce a post-acceptance period and accept each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share, that is tendered after the date of Barclays official notice to declare the Offer unconditional.

Consultation Process and Information Sharing

Subject to confidentiality and certain other restrictions, the parties have each agreed to: (a) allow the other party and its advisers reasonable access to its directors, board members, certain agreed senior employees, information, documentation and advisers as may be reasonably requested by the other party in connection with the Offer or Merger (except in respect of any Alternative Proposal or Barclays Alternative Proposal (as defined below)); (b) furnish the other party and its advisers as soon as such is available, with regular updates on financial results and developments material to its group; and

Table of Contents

(c) provide such customary assistance reasonably requested by the other party in connection with any financing or regulatory compliance obligations affected by the Offer and Merger or related matters. Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed to consult and cooperate in respect of relevant matters in preparation for the Offer, including on public relations and any change of control issues triggered by the Offer and the change of control contemplated thereby, subject to the terms and provisions of the Merger Protocol, and, except with respect to a Competing Offer (as defined below), notify each other promptly and provide relevant information of any event or circumstance it may become aware of and which could reasonably be expected to (a) have a significant impact on the fulfilment of the conditions to the Offer and/or Merger, (b) prejudice the success of the Offer or (c) cause or constitute a material breach of any covenants or agreements in the Merger Protocol, provided that any delay in or absence of such notification by either party shall not prejudice any of such party's rights under the Merger Protocol.

LaSalle Agreement

ABN AMRO Bank has entered into the LaSalle Agreement and ABN AMRO agrees that it will keep Barclays fully and promptly informed of the progress of the transaction contemplated by the LaSalle Agreement and further agrees, without the prior written approval of Barclays (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), not to amend or vary the LaSalle Agreement in any material respect or waive any of its material rights thereunder. Should the LaSalle Agreement be terminated without completion of the sale of LaSalle, ABN AMRO will, after consultation with Barclays, appoint a financial adviser to assist with the process to find an alternative buyer for LaSalle. Such process shall include the goal of achieving the highest possible price for the sale, taking into account all relevant considerations such as the suitability of the potential bidders and the time to completion of the regulatory process in the United States. ABN AMRO has further agreed to provide Barclays with copies of all material documents relating to the potential sale and, in advance of (a) the publication of any sale materials, (b) any key decision or (c) the issue of any material correspondence, to consult with Barclays and take into account Barclays reasonable comments and representations. The final terms of any sale will be subject to Barclays prior written approval (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld).

Barclays proposes to use approximately 12 billion (£8.1 billion) of the capital released from the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, previously intended to be returned to Barclays Shareholders post the Merger, to repay borrowings incurred in order to fund part of the Cash Consideration.

ABN AMRO Share Plans

The parties will seek to agree, prior to the Commencement Date, on an offer to be made by Barclays to exchange all existing awards and options under the ABN AMRO employee share plans with new awards and options over Barclays Shares on terms satisfying the requirements of the relevant ABN AMRO employee share plan. Barclays will consult with ABN AMRO prior and in relation to the making of such an offer and shall take into account ABN AMRO's reasonable suggestions or requests.

If the parties fail to agree in respect of such offer prior to Commencement Date, any of the ABN AMRO Boards and corporate body or committee with authority with respect to the ABN AMRO employee share plans may discretionally exercise any of its authority to accelerate vesting following a change in control of ABN AMRO or cancel any awards or options in return for a cash payment to the holders of such awards or options and resolve that any award or option granted under the ABN AMRO employee share plans become vested and exercisable as a result of the Offer, provided that existing awards or options that may in accordance with the plan rules be pro-rated on a time and/or performance basis are so pro-rated and provided that in the event any awards or options are satisfied in cash, the total cash amount does not exceed 250 million.

ABN AMRO Shareholder Meeting

ABN AMRO will, after the date on which the Offer commences, send a notice to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders to take place on 20 September 2007 in order to, among other things, provide required information concerning the Offer and Merger. ABN AMRO has agreed with Barclays to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders following the date the Offer is declared unconditional to effect changes to the ABN AMRO Boards, such meeting to be held at such time after the first Settlement Date under the Offer as Barclays may choose.

Barclays Shareholders Meetings

Barclays will, on the date on which the Offer commences, include in the Circular notices to convene an extraordinary general meeting of Barclays Shareholders and an ordinary shareholder class meeting at which resolutions will be proposed to approve, among other things, the Offer and Merger and the implementing measures thereof, and the increase of Barclays authorised share capital and the issuance of the new Barclays Ordinary Shares.

Union and Works Council Communications

The parties have agreed to inform the unions of (a) the reasoning behind the Offer and Merger, (b) the intentions with respect to future business strategy and the related social, economic and legal consequences of the Offer and Merger, and (c) any intended measures that will be taken in respect of such strategy. The unions will subsequently be given the opportunity to discuss the timing and manner of informing the employees of ABN AMRO. The parties will also cooperate fully and coordinate in relation to informing and, to the extent legally required, obtaining advice from their respective works councils on the Offer and Merger.

Director and Officer Indemnification

Barclays and ABN AMRO have each agreed to indemnify each individual to become a member of a board of a company in its respective group, as of the time the Offer is declared unconditional, for any damages, costs, liabilities or expenses incurred by such individual arising out of inaccuracies or material misstatements in the parts of the applicable disclosure documentation for which such individual is or was responsible solely in his capacity as a proposed member of the relevant board with respect to the period prior to such person becoming a director to the same extent as available to members of the applicable board on the date of such documentation.

Post-Closing Actions

The parties desire that Barclays acquire all ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, including any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares not tendered in the Offer. Under Dutch law, such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares may be acquired pursuant to compulsory buy-out procedures or takeover buy-out procedures. A cross border legal merger may also take place, in which ABN AMRO would be the disappearing entity, and as a result of which ABN AMRO Shareholders would become Barclays Shareholders. Alternatively, Barclays may effect its acquisition of the remaining ABN AMRO Shares through any other legal means permitted. Any such post-offer actions will be structured and implemented in a reasonably efficient manner, from operational, legal and tax perspectives, taking into account relevant circumstances and applicable laws.

Conditions to the Merger

Conditions to Commencement of the Offer

Mutual conditions.

Under the Merger Protocol, the obligation of Barclays to make the Offer was subject to each of the following conditions having been satisfied or waived by Barclays and ABN AMRO:

all notifications, filings and applications necessary or appropriate in connection with the Merger or Offer and their implementation and the satisfaction of other conditions to the Offer or Merger have been made (other than those notifications, filings or applications that cannot be made until after the Commencement Date);

all authorisations (other than with respect to the disclosure documentation) required for making the Offer have been obtained where the failure to obtain those authorisations (a) would result in Barclays violating any law, (b) reasonably could materially and adversely affect ABN AMRO, Barclays or the Combined Group or (c) would otherwise mean that Barclays cannot reasonably be expected to continue with the Offer or Merger;

Barclays and ABN AMRO have received written notification from the DNB and FSA confirming that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and act as the coordinator in relation to the Combined Group following completion of the Offer and the other arrangements and/or requirements that the DNB or FSA will implement or require in relation to the Combined Group, and neither party has received any notification from the DNB or FSA indicating there is likely to be any change with respect to the matters set out in such notifications;

clearances and confirmations from the relevant tax authorities in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom that, after the completion of the Offer Barclays will be considered to be resident for tax purposes in the United Kingdom, that, after consummation of the Offer, have been obtained in terms reasonably satisfactory to Barclays and ABN AMRO and that none of such clearances or confirmations has been withdrawn or modified;

all requisite employee consultations and information procedures with employee representative bodies of ABN AMRO and Barclays have been completed;

the AFM and UKLA have approved, or declared they have no further comments on, the relevant disclosure documentation, and the US Offer Document has become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the US Offer Document shall have been issued and be in effect and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the SEC and not withdrawn;

there is no indication that the Barclays Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to the Offer will not be admitted to the Official List, admitted to trading on the LSE, authorised for listing on the London Stock Exchange, Euronext Amsterdam and the Tokyo Stock Exchange, nor that the Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs issued pursuant to the Offer will not be approved for listing on the NYSE;

Euronext Amsterdam has confirmed it has no further comments on the proposed amendments to the ABN AMRO Articles of Association;

the FTSE 100 Committee has provided written confirmation to the effect that Barclays Ordinary Shares will continue to be included in the FTSE 100 Index following the Offer being declared unconditional and the issue of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares;

the parties have not received notification from the AFM that the preparations of the Offer are in breach of Netherlands laws pursuant to which securities institutions would not be permitted to cooperate with the execution and completion of the Offer;

no condition to the Merger has become permanently incapable of fulfilment and not been waived; and

the Merger Protocol has not been terminated.

Additional Barclays conditions

Under the Merger Protocol, the obligation of Barclays to make the Offer was subject to the following conditions having been satisfied (or waived by Barclays) and each of the conditions set out below have been either satisfied or waived by Barclays:

no ABN AMRO Material Adverse Change has occurred prior to the closing of the Offer;

there has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances not fairly disclosed in ABN AMRO's 2006 annual report or annual accounts or otherwise disclosed that can be expected to have a negative impact of 5 per cent. or more on ABN AMRO's 2006 consolidated operating income;

Barclays has reasonably determined that the conditions to the Merger pertaining to regulatory approvals will be fulfilled as of the anticipated Closing Date;

If required, at least 60 (sixty) calendar days have passed following the date on which Barclays application, if required, under Section 3 of the United States Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, has been accepted for processing by the FRB;

no third party has decided to, or indicated any intention to, implement or threaten any frustrating action as defined in the Merger Protocol such that the parties cannot be reasonably be expected to continue with the Merger or declared the Offer unconditional;

all necessary corporate action has been taken in connection with the appointment of the nominated individuals to the supervisory board and management board of ABN AMRO Bank and

Barclays (Netherlands) subject to and with effect as of the time the Offer is declared unconditional; and no circumstance, occurrence or development has occurred since the date of the Merger Protocol that will constitute or constitutes suspension or limitation of trading in ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or Formerly Convertible Preference Finance Shares (other than on a temporary basis in the ordinary course of trading).

Additional ABN AMRO conditions

Under the Merger Protocol, the obligation of Barclays to make the Offer was subject to each of the following conditions having been satisfied (or waived by ABN AMRO) and each of the conditions set out below have been either satisfied or waived by ABN AMRO:

no Barclays Material Adverse Change (as defined below) has occurred prior to the closing of the Offer;

there has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances not fairly disclosed in Barclays 2006 annual report or annual accounts or otherwise disclosed that can be expected to have a negative impact of 5 per cent. or more on Barclays 2006 consolidated operating income;

ABN AMRO has reasonably determined that the conditions to the Merger pertaining to regulatory approvals will be fulfilled as of the anticipated Closing Date of the Offer;

no third party has decided to, or indicated any intention to, implement or threaten any frustrating action as defined in the Merger Protocol, such that the parties cannot be reasonably be expected to continue with the Merger; and

no circumstance, occurrence or development has occurred since the date of the Merger Protocol that will constitute or constitutes suspension or limitation of trading in Barclays Ordinary Shares (other than on a temporary basis in the ordinary course of trading).

In the event any condition to the Offer becomes permanently incapable of fulfilment as a result of a breach of the Merger Protocol by either party for whose benefit the condition is expressed to be agreed, the condition shall be deemed to be waived by such party and the ability to waive or invoke such condition shall pass to the other party. Certain additional conditions which were originally conditions to the making of the exchange offer are now to be treated as conditions to the Offer.

Conditions to completion of the Offer

Mutual conditions

The obligation of Barclays to complete the Merger and to declare the Offer unconditional is subject to each of the following conditions having been satisfied (or waived by both Barclays and ABN AMRO if and to the extent such waiver is permitted):

all notifications, filings and applications necessary or appropriate in connection with the Offer or Merger have been made, all applicable statutory or regulatory obligations have been complied with, all authorisations and consents have been obtained, and relevant waiting periods have expired;

the competent regulatory authorities in the Netherlands have given their declaration of no objection and the FSA has granted its approval of each person who will acquire control over any person which is a member of the Combined Group, or the relevant waiting period has expired;

Barclays and ABN AMRO have received confirmation from the DNB that it has no objection to the parties proposal for the composition of the managing and supervisory boards of ABN AMRO Bank, and the FSA has approved the nomination of the proposed directors to the Barclays Board;

all approvals have been received or notices have been filed under US federal or state banking laws that are necessary for completion of the Offer and Merger, and all required waiting periods have expired;

Table of Contents

the European Commission has declared the Offer compatible with the common market or has granted its approval to the Offer, and the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act has expired or been terminated;

all the above remain in full force and effect, and none is subject to any material term or conditions not fulfilled or satisfied;

neither Barclays nor ABN AMRO has received any notification from the DNB or FSA that there is likely to be a change in the supervisory, reporting or regulatory capital arrangements that will apply to the Combined Group;

the tax clearances from the relevant UK and Dutch tax authorities have not been withdrawn or amended;

the US Offer Document has become effective under the US Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement has been issued and or is in effect and no proceedings for that purpose has been initiated by the SEC nor withdrawn;

prior to the closing date of the Offer and subject to the Offer being declared unconditional, the Barclays general meeting of shareholders shall have unconditionally passed all appropriate resolutions or such resolutions have otherwise been effected;

confirmation has been given that the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be admitted to the Official List of the UKLA, and admitted to trading on the LSE, authorised for listing on the LSE, Euronext and the Tokyo Stock Exchange, and the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs will be approved for listing on the NYSE;

neither Barclays nor ABN AMRO has received notification from the FTSE 100 Committee that it intends to withdraw or modify its confirmation provided to Barclays before the making of the Offer;

the parties have not received notification from the AFM that the preparations of the Offer are in breach of Netherlands law pursuant to which securities institutions would not be permitted to cooperate with the execution and completion of the Offer; and

the Merger Protocol has not been terminated.

Additional Barclays conditions

The obligation of Barclays to complete the Merger and to declare the Offer unconditional subject to each of the following conditions having been satisfied (or waived by Barclays, unless otherwise indicated):

at least 80 per cent. of the issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares have been tendered and not withdrawn under the Offer or are otherwise held by Barclays; if such percentage represents less than 50 per cent. plus one of the voting rights represented by the outstanding share capital of ABN AMRO and less than 50 per cent. of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in ABN AMRO's issued and outstanding ordinary share capital, this condition may not be waived except with the approval of the Supervisory Board;

no ABN AMRO Material Adverse Change has occurred prior to the closing of the Offer;

there has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances not fairly disclosed in ABN AMRO's 2006 annual report or annual accounts or otherwise disclosed that can be expected to have a negative impact of 5 per cent. or more on ABN AMRO's 2006 consolidated operating income;

no third party has decided, or indicated an intention, to implement or threaten any frustrating action (as defined in the Merger Protocol), such that the parties cannot be expected to continue with the Merger or declare the

no circumstance, occurrence or development has occurred since the date of the Merger Protocol that will constitute or constitutes suspension or limitation in trading of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or convertible shares (other than on a temporary basis in the ordinary course of trading);

all regulatory approvals required for completion of the LaSalle Agreement (or a purchase and sale agreement with another party) in accordance with its terms have been obtained and the LaSalle Agreement has completed in accordance with its terms or a purchase and sale agreement with another party with respect to the sale of LaSalle has completed in accordance with its terms;

398

no Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition having been or being reasonably likely to be imposed;

relevant regulatory consents to the investment by China Development Bank in Barclays Ordinary Shares have been obtained;

to the extent required DNB has given consent to ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank in relation to a distribution relating to the LaSalle proceeds after the offer no finance part of the Cash Consideration;

no third party shall declare or reaffirm that it makes or intends to make an offer or an amended offer for shares in ABN AMRO. In case this offer condition is not fulfilled, Barclays may change the consideration offered in the Offer, provided that the change shall not comprise a decrease of the consideration offered in the Offer compared to the consideration offered by the Offer just prior to the time the change is made. (For so long as the Merger Protocol is not terminated, Barclays agrees with ABN AMRO that it shall not invoke this Condition without announcing a change to the consideration offered in the Offer, unless it has obtained the prior written agreement of ABN AMRO);

the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board having confirmed in writing, and having made an appropriate press release confirming, their unanimous recommendation of the Offer for acceptance by the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the ABN AMRO ADSs.

Barclays and ABN AMRO have received copies of resignation letters from those members of the ABN AMRO Boards and the ABN AMRO Bank managing and supervisory boards who, it has been agreed, shall resign subject to the Offer being declared unconditional; and

The Stichting Administratiekantoor Preferente Financieringsaandelen ABN AMRO which acts as depository for the ABN AMRO underlying convertible preference finance shares for which the DR Preference Shares have been issued has irrevocably agreed with Barclays and ABN AMRO that, subject to:

the Offer being declared unconditional;

an undertaking of Barclays not to exercise more voting rights on the Underlying Convertible Preference Finance Shares than it could exercise as a DR Preference Shareholder as long as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are listed on Euronext Amsterdam; and the amendment of the terms of the DR Preference Shares necessary for an exchange by Barclays of DR Preference Shares for ABN AMRO underlying convertible preference finance shares and any other actions as may be legally required to enable such exchange, it will take all necessary action to exchange any DR Preference Shares for ABN AMRO underlying convertible preference finance shares, if and when requested by Barclays.

Additional ABN AMRO Conditions.

The obligation of ABN AMRO to complete the Merger is conditioned upon the following conditions being satisfied (or waived by ABN AMRO):

no Barclays Material Adverse Change has occurred prior to the Closing Date;

Barclays and ABN AMRO have received copies of resignation letters from those members the Barclays Board and the board of Barclays Bank who, it has been agreed, shall resign subject to the Offer being declared unconditional.

In addition, if any condition to the Merger becomes permanently incapable of fulfilment because of a breach of the Merger Protocol by the party for whose benefit the condition is expressed to be agreed, such condition shall be deemed to be waived by such party and the ability to waive shall pass to the other party.

Material Adverse Change

A Material Adverse Change means, with respect to either party (herein referred to as the affected party):

- (i) an event or circumstance that could be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the business, financial or capital position, assets, operational performance or prospects of either ABN the affected party's group taken as a whole, not arising as a result of (a) a general economic decline in the financial services and banking industry, (b) a general economic decline affecting both parties in a similar and proportionate way; (c) any matter known to the other party or its advisers from information available publicly pursuant to regulatory filing procedures, applicable law, regulation or rules or otherwise fairly disclosed by the affected party to the other party or its advisers prior to the date of the Merger Protocol and which matter the other party could be expected to know at the signing of the Merger Protocol would constitute such an event if not for the disclosure; or (d) the announcement, making and implementation of the Offer; or
- (ii) a change since the date of the Merger Protocol in national or international capital markets (including an adverse change in applicable tax laws), financial, political or economic conditions or currency exchange rates or exchange controls (whether or not arising as a result of or in connection with any outbreak or escalation of hostilities or declaration of war or national emergency or act of terrorism or other national or international calamity), not arising as a result of (x) a general economic decline in the financial services and banking industry, (y) a general economic decline affecting both parties in a similar and proportionate way or (z) the announcement, making and implementation of the Offer.

Exclusivity

Under the Merger Protocol, the Exclusivity Period is the period commencing on the date of the Merger Protocol and ending on the earlier of 1 March 2008 (if the Offer has not yet been declared unconditional) and the date on which the Merger Protocol is terminated.

Restrictions during the Exclusivity Period in respect of ABN AMRO

ABN AMRO has agreed that neither it nor its representatives, during the Exclusivity Period, will initiate, solicit, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, provide any confidential information to, or enter into any agreement with, any third party regarding the making of a bona fide unsolicited offer or proposal involving the acquisition of, or for the making of an offer for, all or a substantial part of the issued share capital or the whole or any material part of the undertaking, business or assets of ABN AMRO, or any bona fide unsolicited proposal involving a merger, consolidation or demerger involving ABN AMRO or material reorganisation or re-capitalisation of ABN AMRO (an Alternative Proposal), except as disclosed by ABN AMRO to Barclays prior to the execution of the Merger Protocol.

Following receipt by ABN AMRO of an Alternative Proposal or an unsolicited indication of interest in making an Alternative Proposal, ABN AMRO may have contacts with such third party to understand the contents of the Alternative Proposal, provided that ABN AMRO complies with the notice requirements to Barclays described below. Subject to the terms of the exclusivity, ABN AMRO shall also be allowed to continue discussions with a third party existing as at the date of the Merger Protocol, provided that it has notified Barclays thereof.

ABN AMRO has agreed to notify Barclays promptly of any communication, invitation, approach or inquiry, or any request for information, received by ABN AMRO or its representatives from any third party in relation to an Alternative Proposal, it being understood that ABN AMRO shall advise Barclays of the identity of such third party and the proposed consideration and other principal terms of such Alternative Proposal, so as to enable Barclays to consider its position in light of the Alternative Proposal and to assess its potential effects on the Offer and the Offer's chances of success. ABN AMRO has further agreed to keep Barclays informed of any discussions or developments with respect to such Alternative Proposal. This notification requirement applies equally to activities disclosed by ABN AMRO to Barclays prior to the execution of the Merger Protocol.

In the event of a third party communicating an Alternative Proposal to ABN AMRO and the ABN AMRO Boards concluding, while acting in good faith and observing their applicable fiduciary duties, that such Alternative Proposal would be likely to constitute or develop into a Competing Offer (as defined below in Competing Offer for ABN AMRO), ABN AMRO will promptly give written notice thereof to Barclays. After giving such notice, ABN AMRO may, subject to the terms of the exclusivity, engage in discussions or negotiations in relation to the Alternative Proposal with such third party and disclose confidential information to such third party.

Before engaging in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding an Alternative Proposal or disclosing confidential information to any third party, ABN AMRO must first seek to enter into a confidentiality and standstill agreement with such third party on terms materially no less favourable to ABN AMRO than the terms of the preliminary transaction agreement entered into with Barclays and dated 21 March 2007.

ABN AMRO is not permitted to provide a third party with any confidential information it has not provided to Barclays unless it also promptly provides such confidential information to Barclays. ABN AMRO has further agreed not to enter into any break fee arrangement, incentive fee, cost compensation or any similar arrangement with any third party in connection with an Alternative Proposal, except as permitted in respect of a Competing Offer.

Under the Merger Protocol, ABN AMRO confirmed that it was not, at the date of signing of the Merger Protocol, in negotiations, activities or discussions with any third party that could lead to an Alternative Proposal or a Competing Offer and that it had not been in any such negotiations, activities or discussions which it expected could be revived or re-commenced after the date thereof, except as fairly disclosed prior to the Merger Protocol's execution.

Restrictions During the Exclusivity Period in Respect of Barclays

Barclays has agreed that neither it nor its representatives, during the Exclusivity Period (as defined below), will initiate, solicit, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, provide any confidential information to, or enter into any agreement with any third party regarding the making of a bona fide unsolicited offer or proposal involving the acquisition of, or for the making of an offer for, all or a substantial part of the issued share capital or the whole or any material part of the undertaking, business or assets of Barclays, or any bona fide unsolicited proposal involving a merger, consolidation or demerger involving Barclays or material reorganisation or re-capitalisation of Barclays (a Barclays Alternative Proposal), except as disclosed by Barclays to ABN AMRO prior to the Merger Protocol's execution. Following receipt by Barclays of a Barclays Alternative Proposal or an unsolicited indication of interest in making a Barclays Alternative Proposal, Barclays may have contacts with such third party to understand the contents of the Barclays Alternative Proposal, provided that Barclays complies with the notice requirements to Barclays described below. Subject to the terms of the exclusivity, Barclays shall also be allowed to continue discussions with a third party existing as at the date of the Merger Protocol.

Barclays has agreed to notify ABN AMRO promptly of any communication, invitation, approach or inquiry, or any request for information, received by Barclays or its representatives from any third party in relation to a Barclays Alternative Proposal, it being understood that Barclays shall advise ABN AMRO of the identity of such third party and the proposed consideration and other principal terms of such Barclays Alternative Proposal, so as to enable ABN AMRO to consider its position in light of the Barclays Alternative Proposal and to assess its potential effects on the Offer and the Offer's chances of success. Barclays has further agreed to keep ABN AMRO informed of any discussions or developments with respect to such Barclays Alternative Proposal.

In the event of a third party communicating a Barclays Alternative Proposal to Barclays and the Barclays Board concluding, while acting in good faith and observing their applicable fiduciary duties, that it may be required to consider such Barclays Alternative Proposal, Barclays shall promptly give written notice thereof to ABN AMRO. After giving such notice, Barclays may, subject to the terms of the exclusivity, engage in discussions or negotiations in relation to the Barclays Alternative Proposal with such third party and disclose confidential information to such third party.

Table of Contents

Barclays has further agreed not to enter into any break fee arrangement, incentive fee, cost compensation or any similar arrangement with any third party in connection with a Barclays Alternative Proposal, unless the Barclays Board's recommendation has been withdrawn.

Under the Merger Protocol, Barclays confirmed that it was not, at the date of signing of the Merger Protocol, in negotiations, activities or discussions with any third party that could lead to an Alternative Proposal and that it had not been in any such negotiations, activities or discussions which it expected could be revived or re-commenced after the date thereof, except as fairly disclosed prior to the Merger Protocol's execution.

Competing Offer for ABN AMRO

The Merger Protocol contains detailed provisions outlining the circumstances in which ABN AMRO may respond to competing offers received from third parties. A Competing Offer is an unsolicited written bona fide proposal from a third party involving an attempt to effect a change of control of ABN AMRO by way of a merger or through an offer for more than 50 per cent. of ABN AMRO's voting or ordinary share capital or through an offer for the acquisition of all or substantially all (to mean at least 95 per cent. of all assets shown in the ABN AMRO consolidated balance sheet as at 31 December 2006) the assets, undertakings or business of ABN AMRO, which proposal is binding on the third party and which proposal is determined in the reasonable opinion of the ABN AMRO Boards, after having considered the advice of outside advisers, acting in good faith and observing their applicable fiduciary duties, to be a more beneficial offer than the Offer, specifically taking into account the overall terms set out in the Merger Protocol.

In the event the ABN AMRO Boards determine that they intend to recommend the Competing Offer:

ABN AMRO shall promptly notify Barclays, including in such notice confirmation that the ABN AMRO Boards intend, acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties under applicable laws and in the absence of a Barclays revised offer, to recommend the Competing Offer for ABN AMRO and the most current version of such Competing Offer;

Barclays shall have five Business Days following the date on which it receives such notice to communicate to the ABN AMRO Boards a Barclays revised offer;

in the event that either (a) Barclays fails to communicate a revised offer within five Business Days after having received such notice or (b) the ABN AMRO Boards reaffirm to Barclays in writing at the end of such period, after taking into account any Barclays revised offer, that the ABN AMRO Boards intend acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties under applicable laws to recommend the Competing Offer, each of ABN AMRO and Barclays shall be entitled to terminate the Merger Protocol with immediate effect, subject to compensatory amounts or rights to otherwise terminate, and the ABN AMRO Boards may recommend the Competing Offer; and if Barclays communicates a revised offer to the ABN AMRO Boards which the ABN AMRO Boards decide to recommend, ABN AMRO shall notify the third party proposing the Competing Offer that it does not intend to recommend such Competing Offer and publicly announce the terms of Barclays revised offer to be publicly recommended by the ABN AMRO Boards. ABN AMRO and Barclays shall not therefore be permitted to terminate the Merger Protocol, and ABN AMRO and Barclays and their applicable representatives shall continue to enjoy and be bound by their respective rights and obligations under the Merger Protocol, including in relation to any other Competing Offer.

Barclays has agreed not to cast the votes attached to any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares acquired by it for its own account (i.e. outside in the ordinary course of its investment banking, stock broking, asset or fund management businesses) after the date of the Merger Protocol (a) in favour of any shareholder resolutions in connection with an offer by Barclays for all of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares no longer being recommended by the ABN AMRO Boards or (b) against any shareholder resolutions in connection with a Competing Offer recommended by the ABN

AMRO Boards.

Under the Merger Protocol, as amended on 30 July 2007, ABN AMRO is entitled to engage in discussions or negotiations with the Consortium and to provide the Consortium with certain confidential information, without ABN AMRO having to notify Barclays that the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board have concluded that the offer announced by the Consortium on 20 July 2007 would be reasonably likely to constitute or develop into a Competing Offer (as defined in the Merger Protocol).

Table of Contents

Termination

The Merger Protocol and the rights and obligations thereunder will immediately terminate, if not all the conditions to the commencement of the Offer have been fulfilled or duly waived, as permitted, on or before 1 November 2007;

if, upon expiration of the offer period, including any such extension thereof, the Offer has not been declared unconditional on or before 1 March 2008;

if, upon expiration of the Acceptance Period, including any such extension thereof, not all of the conditions to the completion of the Offer are fulfilled and the Offer is not declared unconditional or extended; or

if the Merger Protocol is otherwise terminated by Barclays or ABN AMRO.

The Merger Protocol may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the Offer by ABN AMRO, if Barclays materially breaches any provision of the Merger Protocol or laws applicable to either party in connection with the transactions described herein;

if the Barclays Board determines, after having considered the advice of outside legal and financial advisers, acting in good faith and observing its applicable fiduciary duties, that it intends to withdraw its recommendation and informs ABN AMRO that it intends to do so; or

if any member of the Barclays Board qualifies his or her unanimous recommendation of the Offer or makes any contradictory public statements unless the Barclays Board reaffirms its recommendation by way of public announcement as soon as possible within 24 hours of becoming aware of such contradictory public statement.

The Merger Protocol may additionally be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the Offer by Barclays, if ABN AMRO materially breaches any provision of the Merger Protocol or laws applicable to either party in connection with the transactions described herein; or

if any member of the ABN AMRO Boards (a) makes any contradictory public statement with respect to the Offer that would constitute a significant change in the ABN AMRO Boards' position as an expression of support for the strategic benefits of the combination or (b) makes any public statement recommending any Alternative Proposal, unless the ABN AMRO Boards shall have reaffirmed by way of a public announcement the ABN AMRO Boards' position with respect to the Offer and that the ABN AMRO Boards do not recommend any Alternative Proposal as soon as possible within 24 hours of them becoming aware of the statement described in (a) or (b).

The Merger Protocol may additionally be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the Offer by either party in case of all of the following:

ABN AMRO receives a Competing Offer;

ABN AMRO promptly informs Barclays in writing of the Competing Offer pursuant to and in compliance with the Merger Protocol; and

either (a) Barclays fails to communicate a revised offer within five Business Days after having received notice of the Competing Offer or (b) the ABN AMRO Boards reaffirm to Barclays in writing at the end of such five-day period, after taking into account any revised offer from Barclays, that the ABN AMRO Boards intend to recommend the Competing Offer.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, neither party shall be permitted to terminate the Merger Protocol if either such party's failure to comply with any provisions of the Merger Protocol has been the cause of, or materially contributed to, the non-fulfilment of any condition to the Offer or the Merger.

Compensation for loss and damages

An amount of 200 million shall be paid by ABN AMRO to Barclays by way of compensation for loss and damages as follows:

- if ABN AMRO or Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol;
- as a result of the ABN AMRO Boards recommending a Competing Offer;

403

Table of Contents

following non-fulfilment of any condition to the Offer or Merger where the main cause of such non-fulfilment is ABN AMRO's breach of the Merger Protocol; or if Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol

as a result of a material breach of the Merger Protocol by ABN AMRO; or as a result of a contradictory public statement by ABN AMRO, in the absence of a material breach by Barclays of the Merger Protocol and settlement of the Offer or any other offer by Barclays for ABN AMRO shares having occurred.

An amount of 200 million shall be paid by Barclays to ABN AMRO by way of compensation for loss and damages as follows:

if ABN AMRO or Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol

as a result of a revocation of the recommendation by the Barclays Board; or following non-fulfilment of any condition to the Offer or Merger where the main cause of such non-fulfilment is Barclays breach of the Merger Protocol; or

if ABN AMRO terminates the Merger Protocol

as a result of a material breach of the Merger Protocol by Barclays; or as a result of a contradictory public statement by Barclays, in the absence of a material breach by ABN AMRO of the Merger Protocol and settlement of the Offer or any other offer by Barclays for ABN AMRO shares having occurred.

Barclays and ABN AMRO have acknowledged that, under the Merger Protocol as it existed prior to the Second Merger Protocol Amendment Letter, dated 30 July 2007, withdrawal of the recommendation of the Offer by the ABN AMRO Boards would have resulted in a right for Barclays to terminate the Merger Protocol and to receive immediate payment of 200 million by way of compensation for loss and damages suffered. Barclays has agreed that, in view of Barclays and ABN AMRO's desire not to terminate the Merger Protocol and the continued support of the ABN AMRO Boards, Barclays will defer the collection of the 200 million unless and until Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol in accordance with its terms. Barclays shall not be entitled to receive this sum if the Offer has been declared unconditional or if the ABN AMRO Boards renew their recommendation of the Offer and Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol during the currency of that recommendation.

Conduct of business pending the Merger

Under the Merger Protocol, until the earlier of the Settlement Date and the date on which the Merger Protocol is terminated, Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed to conduct their respective businesses and operations in the ordinary and usual course of business consistent with best practices, preserve intact business organisation and assets, maintain rights, franchises and authorisations and existing relations with customers, employees, suppliers, business associates and governmental authorities, and refrain from taking any action which may impair its ability to perform its obligations under and related to the Merger Protocol.

Each of Barclays and ABN AMRO has further agreed to comply with the following (except as otherwise indicated) except with the prior written consent of the other party:

not to make any material changes to its corporate or group structure;

not to merge, demerge or consolidate with or into any other company or business, except for any such transaction solely among its subsidiaries, or change its or its business identity or character;

not to enter into any capital commitment or investment that individually (or taken with other such commitments or investments which could be regarded as constituting a single commitment or investment) amounts to 250 million or more and has not been provided for in such party's 2007 budget or fairly disclosed to the other party before the date of the Merger Protocol, other than (a) intra-group capital investments and (b) loans and investments in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, including private equity investments;

not to create, extend, grant, issue or allow any third-party rights over any of its material assets, except in the ordinary course of business;

404

not to amend its articles of association or equivalent or similar constitutional documents, except for changes to the constitutional documents of its direct and indirect subsidiaries not material to the relevant group taken as a whole, or to the rights attaching to any shares in any member of its group;

not to propose to nominate any new members to any of the ABN AMRO Boards, except that ABN AMRO may propose to nominate a new member of the Supervisory Board to its general meeting of shareholders held on 26 April 2007;

not to agree to, declare or pay any dividend or any distribution in kind except for (a) the proposed dividends relating to the financial year ended 31 December 2006 and any interim dividends in respect of the financial year commencing 1 January 2007, provided that any such interim dividend is consistent with such party's dividend policy prevailing as at the date of the Merger Protocol and does not exceed reasonable market expectations as on 20 April 2007 and (b) any distributions due under the terms of preference shares and hybrid capital instruments issued or agreed to be issued as at the date of the Merger Protocol;

to the extent in the best interest of the relevant group company, to maintain the services of its directors, officers and key employees, and its business relationships with key customers and others having material business dealings with its group;

in relation to employees and consultants, to make no material change to any contract term or compensation or benefits arrangements unless the change is (a) consistent with existing policies and governance processes in operation at the time of execution of the Merger Protocol, (b) commercially necessary or reasonably desired and (c) would not materially adversely affect any of the agreed planned synergy savings;

except in the ordinary course of the party's private equity or merchant bank business, not to acquire or dispose of any material legal entities or businesses or a material part of its assets (including strategic stakes) or engage in a series of such acquisitions or disposals, with legal entities, businesses or parts of assets material if having a book value of or being bought or sold for 500 million or more;

not to settle or initiate any litigation or arbitration or similar proceedings involving an amount of 250 million or more after announcement of the Offer (with any series of proceedings (or claims) arising out of the same or substantially the same originating cause to be treated as one proceeding (or claim));

not to make any changes with respect to accounting policies or procedures, except as (a) required by applicable law or changes in applicable generally accepted accounting principles or (b) as either party, after consulting the advice of its regulated public accounting firm and with the other party, determines in good faith advisable to conform to best accounting practices;

not to make or alter any material tax election or take any material position on any material tax return filed on or after the date hereof or adopt any tax method therefore that is inconsistent with elections made, positions taken, or methods used in preparing or filing any tax return in prior periods or settle or otherwise finally resolve any dispute with respect to an amount of tax of 250 million or more;

to procure that neither it nor any other member of its group:
issues, authorises or proposes the issue of additional shares of any class or securities in its capital or similar securities or transfer or sells or authorises or proposes the transfer or sale of shares out of treasury (save as between such party and its subsidiaries and save for the issue or transfer out of treasury of shares on the exercise of options granted before the date of the Merger Protocol in the ordinary course of business);

enters into, varies, authorises or proposes to enter into or vary any contract, transaction, arrangement or commitment (whether in respect of capital expenditure or otherwise) of a long-term, unusual or onerous nature and which may be material in the context of its group or which is likely to be restrictive on the business of any member of the Combined Group;

proposes, agrees to provide or modifies in material respect the terms of any share option or incentive scheme;

makes, agrees or consents to any significant change to the terms or benefits of any pension scheme established for directors, employees or dependents of such, or carries out any act which may lead to the commencement of the winding up of the pension scheme or which could give rise to a liability arising pursuant to any law or regulation applicable to the scheme, or agrees to make any additional funding to the pension scheme as part of any negotiations with the trustees of the pension scheme other than as required by applicable law or under the terms or rules of the pension scheme or as has been fairly disclosed to the other party prior to the date of the Merger Protocol;

implements, effects or authorises any merger, demerger, or liquidation or apply for bankruptcy or suspension of payments or enters into negotiations with any one or more of its creditors with a view to the readjustment or rescheduling of its debts, or enters into any similar transaction or arrangement, otherwise than in the ordinary course of business and except for any such transaction solely among subsidiaries provided it does not involve any insolvent liquidation, application for bankruptcy or suspension of payment or entering into negotiations with any one or more creditors with a view to the readjustment or rescheduling of its debt or similar actions; nor purchases, redeems or repays any of its own shares or other securities or reduces or makes any other change to any part of its share capital to an extent which is material in the context of its group (save that ABN AMRO is permitted to repurchase any of its ordinary shares at a price not exceeding, at the time of the repurchase, the Exchange Ratio multiplied by a short-term average Barclays Ordinary Share price converted to Euro and Barclays is permitted to repurchase any of the Barclays Ordinary Shares at a price not exceeding the market price of such shares at the time of repurchase);

generally not to do anything that could be expected to compromise the proposed synergy plans as discussed between the parties and delivery of the underlying savings;

not to trade in or encourage any other party to trade in any shares or other securities of either the other party, as long as it has price sensitive information except for any actions in the ordinary course of each party's respective businesses, provided that such actions could not result in a breach of any applicable law or regulations with respect to the use of price sensitive information;

ABN AMRO has agreed that all risk transfers for capital and risk management purposes in respect of subordinated capital instruments including either or both tier one or two securities must comply with the rules of the FSA;

ABN AMRO has agreed that no member of the ABN AMRO Group shall tender any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares held by it into the Offer; and

ABN AMRO is prohibited from distributing by any means proceeds received under the LaSalle Agreement on a sale of LaSalle.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Merger Protocol provides that either party may undertake certain actions during the period from the date of the Merger Protocol until the earlier of the date of the settlement of the Offer or the date on which the Merger Protocol is terminated. Namely, either party may complete (a) any disposals of assets, undertaking and businesses fairly disclosed to the other party in writing prior to the execution of the Merger Protocol, or (b) such other disposals with gross sale proceeds not to exceed 500 million and the aggregate value of the gross sale proceeds of any such disposals not to exceed 2.5 billion, provided that (i) any such disposal is entered into on an arm's-length basis and at the best market price available, (ii) in relation to any disposal with an individual value of more than 500 million, a fairness opinion has been issued by an independent reputable international investment bank, (iii) such party gives the other party notice at least two Business Days prior to any proposed agreement or public announcement and takes into account such other party's reasonable requests and (d) such party keeps the other party fully informed of progress in relation to any such disposal.

Subject to the need to observe fiduciary duties, none of the members of the Barclays Board shall withdraw, modify or qualify the unanimous recommendation by the Barclays Board as set out in the Merger Protocol and shall not make any contradictory public statements as to their position with respect to the Offer (including by way of statements concerning any Barclays Alternative Proposal) nor fail to announce or reaffirm their unanimous recommendation as required under the Merger Protocol unless it has been terminated. Subject to the need to observe fiduciary duties and ABN AMRO's right to discuss

Table of Contents

Competing Offers, none of the members of the ABN AMRO Boards shall (a) make any contradictory public statement with respect to the Offer that would constitute a significant change in the ABN AMRO Boards position as an expression of support for the strategic benefits of the combination or (b) make any public statement recommending any Alternative Proposal with respect to ABN AMRO, unless (i) ABN AMRO has consulted with Barclays about such statement prior to it being made public, or (ii) ABN AMRO or Barclays has terminated the Merger Protocol.

Disputes and Arbitration

Under the Merger Protocol, Barclays and ABN AMRO have agreed that the governing law shall be Dutch law and all disputes will be finally settled in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Netherlands Arbitration Institute, with each party appointing one arbitrator and the two appointed arbitrators appointing a third to act as chairman (or in the case of summary arbitral proceedings the unitary arbitrator shall be appointed by the President of the London Court of International Arbitration). The place of arbitration shall be Amsterdam.

In addition, if ABN AMRO or Barclays disagrees that any of the pre-offer conditions or offer conditions have not been fulfilled or waived and submits a notice of disagreement, a binding adviser agreed upon by both Barclays and ABN AMRO will settle the dispute by way of a binding advice under article 7:900 and further of the Dutch Civil Code and in accordance with the terms of the binding adviser, as set out in the Merger Protocol. The binding adviser will settle the dispute as binding adviser, not as arbitrator.

Further, in the event either party is party to proceedings against a third party in a dispute relating to the Merger Protocol or the Offer or any agreements resulting therefrom, the other party shall be entitled to demand to be allowed to join and/or intervene in the proceedings against such third party.

Fees and Expenses

Whether or not the Offer and Merger are consummated, all costs and expenses incurred by either party in connection with the preparation for, or performance of, its obligations under the Merger Protocol or in connection with the preparation or conclusion of the Offer will be paid by the party incurring the expense, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Merger Protocol.

Temasek Subscription Agreement

On 23 July 2007, Barclays, Clover Investments (Mauritius) Pte Ltd (the First Investor), Centaura Investments (Mauritius) Pte Ltd (the Second Investor), Baytree Investments (Mauritius) Pte Ltd (the Third Investor), Fullerton Management Pte Ltd (Holdco) and JPMorgan Cazenove Limited (JPMC) entered into a subscription agreement (the Temasek Subscription Agreement). Holdco, the First Investor, the Second Investor and the Third Investor are wholly owned subsidiaries of Temasek. The Temasek Subscription Agreement sets out the terms and conditions pursuant to which Barclays will issue and allot to the First Investor and the Second Investor the Subscription Shares (as defined below). Please see the description of the Subscription and Transfer Agreement below for details on the consideration mechanics under the Temasek Subscription Agreement.

Under the Temasek Subscription Agreement, the First Investor agreed to subscribe for the Unconditional Temasek Shares at a price of £7.20 per share. The subscription of the Unconditional Temasek Shares by the First Investor is not conditional upon the outcome of the Offer.

The Second Investor agreed to subscribe up to 195,945,946 new Barclays Ordinary Shares (the Second Subscription Shares) at a price of £7.40. The subscription of the Second Subscription Shares by the Second Investor is conditional upon, inter alia, (i) the Offer being declared unconditional, (ii) the terms of the Offer, as announced by Barclays on 23 July 2007 not being amended without the prior consent of the Second Investor, and (iii) Barclays complying with its obligations in relation to the allotment and issue of the Unconditional Temasek Shares.

The Temasek Subscription Agreement further provided that in order to ensure that Barclays Shareholders have the opportunity to subscribe for new Barclays Ordinary Shares on the same financial terms as the Second Investor, JPMC would co-ordinate the offering of 229,729,730 new Barclays Ordinary Shares at the price of £7.40 per new Barclays Ordinary Share to Barclays Shareholders and the Second Investor agreed that the total number of Second Subscription Shares which it would subscribe would be determined after allocating from the maximum number of new Barclays Ordinary Shares that it was willing to subscribe (being 195,945,946) up to 64,189,189 placing shares in order that those shares could be allotted to existing Barclays Shareholders. (The placing pursuant to these provisions was implemented on 23 and 24 July 2007 and, as a result, the number of the Second Subscription Shares was reduced to 152,980,748).

The Third Investor purchased warrants in respect of 60,897,436 new Barclays Ordinary Shares at the price of £1.00 on 23 July 2007. The warrants have an exercise price of £7.80 per Barclays Ordinary Share and become exercisable only after the Offer becomes unconditional. The warrants are then exercisable for a period of two years thereafter.

Under the Temasek Subscription Agreement, Holdco undertakes to perform the payment obligations of the First Investor and the Second Investor in respect of the Unconditional Temasek Shares and the Second Subscription Shares (together, the Subscription Shares) in the event that either the First Investor or the Second Investor fails to do so.

In addition, the Temasek Subscription Agreement provides that, conditional upon the Merger being declared unconditional, until such time as Temasek Holdings (Private) Limited and its wholly owned subsidiaries, when taken together, cease to hold such number of Barclays Ordinary Shares as together comprise at least two per cent. of Barclays issued share capital, the First Investor, the Second Investor and the Third Investor shall be entitled to require the appointment or reappointment of one Barclays Non-executive Director (the Investor Director) or to remove such Investors Director.

The Temasek Subscription Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and undertakings.

The Option Agreement and Subscription and Transfer Agreement

In connection with the subscriptions by Temasek and the Clawback Placing, Barclays, Odysseus Jersey (No. 1) Limited (JerseyCo), and JPMC entered into an option agreement dated 23 July 2007 (the Option Agreement) and a subscription and transfer agreement dated 23 July 2007 (the Subscription and Transfer Agreement), in respect of the subscription and transfer of certain ordinary shares of no par value in the capital of JerseyCo and certain redeemable preference shares of no par value in the capital of JerseyCo. These arrangements are part of a cashbox structure pursuant to which the Barclays Ordinary Shares to be issued to Temasek under the Temasek Subscription Agreement, and certain of those to be issued to places under the Clawback Placing, will be issued for non-cash consideration as described below. Under the terms of these agreements:

- (i) JPMC agreed to subscribe for certain ordinary shares of no par value in the capital of JerseyCo, and Barclays and JPMC entered into put and call options in respect of the ordinary shares of no par value in the capital of JerseyCo subscribed for by JPMC that are exercisable if the subscription of the Unconditional Temasek Shares and the Second Subscription Shares (together the Subscriptions) and/or the Clawback Placing do not proceed;
- (ii) JPMC agreed to apply the proceeds of each Subscription and the Clawback Placing (less certain fees, costs, expenses and other amounts) to subscribe for certain redeemable preference shares of no par value in the capital of JerseyCo; and
- (iii) JPMC agreed to transfer to Barclays all the ordinary shares of no par value in the capital of JerseyCo and redeemable preference shares of no par value in the capital of JerseyCo following the Subscriptions and the Clawback Placing in consideration for the allotment by Barclays of New Barclays Ordinary Shares to the First Investor, the Second Investor and the relevant Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors under the Clawback Placing pursuant to the Temasek Subscription Agreement as described above.

Accordingly, instead of receiving cash as consideration for the allotment of new Barclays Ordinary Shares to the First Investor, the Second Investor and the relevant Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors under the Clawback Placing, at the conclusion of the Subscriptions and the Clawback Placing, Barclays will have the right to acquire the entire issued ordinary and redeemable preference share capital of JerseyCo, whose only assets are its cash reserves, representing an amount equivalent to the net proceeds of the Subscriptions and the Clawback Placing.

CDB Subscription Agreement

On 23 July 2007, Upper Chance Group Limited (the Investor) and China Development Bank (CDB) entered into a subscription agreement (the CDB Subscription Agreement). The CDB Subscription Agreement sets out the terms and conditions pursuant to which Barclays will issue and allot to the

408

Investor the Unconditional CDB Shares at a price of £7.20 per share (the Subscription Price). The consideration for the allotment and issue of the Unconditional CDB Shares shall be the payment by the Investor of an amount equal to the product of the Subscription Price and the number of Unconditional CDB Shares.

The subscription of the Unconditional CDB Shares by the Investor is not conditional upon the outcome of the Offer.

The Investor purchased warrants on 23 July 2007 in respect of 60,897,436 new Barclays Ordinary Shares at the price of £1.00 (the Warrants). The warrants have an exercise price of £7.80 per Barclays Ordinary Share and become exercisable only after the Offer becomes unconditional. The warrants are then exercisable for a period of two years thereafter.

Under the CDB Subscription Agreement, CDB undertakes to perform the payment obligations of the Investor in respect of the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Warrants in the event that the Investor fails to do so.

The Investor further undertakes that it will not without Barclays prior written consent, for a three year period from the date of the agreement, acquire, enter into an agreement to acquire or make or announce an offer for any Barclays Ordinary Shares, Barclays ADSs, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs. This undertaking will not apply in certain circumstances, including (a) in respect of the subscription for the shares subscribed for pursuant to the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement, or (b) after the completion of any procedure to squeeze-out any minority shareholders in ABN AMRO, in respect of transactions which would result in the Investor or a CDB Group Member having an interest of less than ten per cent.

In addition, the CDB Subscription Agreement provides that until the Investor and/or any CDB Group Members, when taken together, cease to hold such number of Barclays Ordinary Shares as equals the lesser of the number of Subscription Shares or three per cent. of Barclays issued share capital, the Investor shall be entitled to require the appointment or reappointment of one Barclays Non-executive Director (the Investor Director) or to require the removal of such Investor Director by Barclays as soon as is reasonably practicable.

The CDB Subscription Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and undertakings.

The Conditional CDB Investment Agreement

On 23 July 2007, Barclays, Upper Chance Group Limited (the Investor), CDB and JPMC entered into a conditional investment agreement (the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement). The Conditional CDB Investment Agreement sets out the terms and conditions pursuant to which the Investor has agreed to make cash payments to Barclays (for the benefit of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs who accept the Offer) in part settlement of the Cash Consideration to be made available to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs who validly accept the Offer, in consideration of Barclays allotting and issuing new Barclays Ordinary Shares to the Investor. Barclays shall make such allotments in consideration of (i) holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs (or, in the case of a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs accepting the Primary Exchange, the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares) in the Offer and (ii) the Investor's undertaking to make the cash payments referred to above.

The Conditional CDB Investment Agreement provides that the Investor agreed to subscribe up to 692,567,568 new Barclays Ordinary Shares (the Subscription Shares) at a price of £7.40. The subscription of the Subscription Shares by the Investor is conditional upon, inter alia, (i) the Offer being declared unconditional, (ii) the terms of the Offer, as announced by Barclays on 23 July 2007, not being amended without the prior consent of the Investor, and (iii) these conditions being satisfied on or prior to 1 March 2008.

Furthermore, the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement provided that, in order to ensure that certain Barclays shareholders have the opportunity to subscribe for new Barclays Ordinary Shares on the same financial terms as the Investor, JPMC would co-ordinate the offering of 229,729,730 Barclays Ordinary Shares to Barclays Shareholders at a price of £7.40 per Barclays Ordinary Share and the Investor agreed that the total number of new Barclays Ordinary Shares which it would subscribe would be determined after allocating from the maximum number of new Barclays Ordinary Shares that it was willing to subscribe (being 692,567,568) up to 165,540,541 new Barclays Ordinary Shares in order that those shares could be allotted to Barclays shareholders. (The placing pursuant to these provisions was implemented on 23 and 24 July 2007 and as a result, the number of the Second Subscription Shares was reduced to 581,760,321).

Under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement, CDB undertakes to perform the payment obligations of the Investor in respect of the Subscription Shares in the event that the Investor fails to do so.

The Conditional CDB Investment Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, indemnities and undertakings.

Warrants

As referred to above, on 23 July 2007, Barclays issued to each of Upper Chance Group Limited, a subsidiary of China Development Bank, and Baytree Investments (Mauritius) Pte Ltd, a subsidiary of Temasek, warrants exercisable during a period of two years from the date on which the Merger becomes unconditional. The warrants held by each entity are in respect of 60,897,436 Barclays Ordinary Shares and are exercisable at a strike price of £7.80 per Barclays Ordinary Share.

10.2 ABN AMRO Material Contracts

The following are all of the contracts (not being contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business) that have been entered into by members of the ABN AMRO Group: (i) within the two years immediately preceding the date of this document which are, or may be, material to the ABN AMRO Group; or (ii) at any time and contain obligations or entitlements which are, or may be, material to the ABN AMRO Group as at the date of this document:

Antonveneta Agreement

ABN AMRO entered into a share purchase agreement (the Antonveneta Agreement) on 26 September 2005 with Banca Popolare Italiana (BPI), Fingruppo Holding S.p.A. (Fingruppo), G.P. Finanziaria S.p.A. (GP), Tiberio Lonati, Fausto Lonati, Ettore Lonati (Lonati Brothers), and Magiste International S.A. (collectively the Sellers) for the acquisition of shares in Banca Antoniana Popolare Veneta S.p.A. (Antonveneta).

On 30 December 2005, the Antonveneta Agreement was executed with respect to the transfer to ABN AMRO Bank by BPI, of the stake held by BPI in Antonveneta's share capital, i.e., 79,919,783 ordinary shares representing 25.884 per cent. of Antonveneta share capital.

Pursuant to the Antonveneta Agreement, on 1 March 2006 interests in Banca Antonveneta held by Fingruppo, GP and Lonati Brothers were transferred to ABN AMRO Bank. ABN AMRO Bank acquired a further 79.9 million shares in Antonveneta from BPI on 2 January 2006, to increase its share in Antonveneta to 55.8 per cent.

Following purchases of shares in the open market, a public offering and the exercise of ABN AMRO Bank's right under Italian law to acquire minority shareholdings, ABN AMRO Bank now owns 100 per cent. of the issued share capital of Antonveneta.

Each of the Sellers, with respect to whom the Antonveneta Agreement has or shall have actual effects (also pursuant to article 1381 of the Italian Civil Code, i.e., guaranteeing the execution by its controlling companies, the Sellers subsidiaries and the subsidiaries of their controlling companies as well as their directors, auditors and top management) promised, on a several basis, effective from the closing date, and contingent upon execution of the Antonveneta Agreement, to fully indemnify ABN AMRO Bank from any loss, liability or expense related to any claim, right or legal action that could possibly be brought against the Sellers with respect to any pledge or other encumbrances or lien or any obligation assumed by the Sellers towards third parties and concerning the participation sold.

The Sellers with respect to whom the Antonveneta Agreement has been or will be actually performed (also pursuant article 1381 of the Italian Civil Code, i.e., guaranteeing the execution by its controlling companies, the Sellers subsidiaries and the subsidiaries of their controlling companies as well as their directors, auditors and top management) undertook vis-à-vis ABN AMRO Bank (including companies controlling ABN AMRO Bank and/or companies currently and in the future controlled by ABN AMRO Bank, its and their directors, auditors, top management and employees) to waive any action, proceeding, claim of any nature before any court, concerning the purchases of Antonveneta's ordinary shares executed prior to the signing date of the Antonveneta Agreement.

LaSalle Agreement

On 22 April 2007 ABN AMRO Bank entered into an agreement with Bank of America pursuant to which ABN AMRO Bank agreed to the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America for $21 billion in cash subject to certain adjustments linked to the financial performance of LaSalle before the closing of the sale. These, with other key terms are set out below.

Purchase Price Adjustment

If the sum of (i) the actual net income of LaSalle for the three months ended 31 March 2007 and (ii) the net income of LaSalle, with certain limited adjustments, for the period commencing on 1 April 2007 and concluding on the earlier of the date of the closing of the sale of LaSalle and 31 December 2007 (the Measurement Period), is less than the Income Threshold (as defined below), the $21 billion purchase price will be decreased by the amount of the shortfall. Income Threshold means at any time the amount equal to the sum of (a) the product of (x) US$600 million and (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days that have elapsed during the Measurement Period and the denominator of which is 274; and (b) $270 million.

Certain Pre-Closing Actions

Prior to the closing of the sale, ABN AMRO Bank will cause LaSalle to distribute the stock of its subsidiary ABN AMRO WCS Holding Company to ABN AMRO Bank or an affiliate of ABN AMRO Bank. Prior to the closing of the sale, ABN AMRO Bank will convert $6.148 billion of intercompany debt owed by LaSalle to ABN AMRO Bank or affiliates of ABN AMRO Bank into shares of common stock of LaSalle's parent holding company that will be purchased by Bank of America pursuant to the LaSalle Agreement. The additional shares to be issued as a result of the conversion are included in the $21 billion purchase price, as may be adjusted as described above.

Conditions to Completing the Sale of LaSalle to Bank of America

The obligations of Bank of America and ABN AMRO Bank to complete the sale are subject to the following material conditions:

receipt of approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the expiration of any waiting periods under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended and the HSR Act;

accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties, except, (1) in the case of ABN AMRO Bank, for inaccuracies that, in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on LaSalle, and that do not constitute material inaccuracies in ABN AMRO Bank's capitalisation and authority representations, and (2) in the case of Bank of America, for inaccuracies that, in the aggregate, would not materially impede Bank of America's ability to consummate the transaction;

material compliance by each party with its obligations and covenants under the LaSalle Agreement; and the absence of any order, injunction, decree or judgment issued by a governmental entity prohibiting the completion of the transaction, and the absence of any action by or settlement with the US Department of Justice or any US Attorney's Office imposing a material restriction, condition or burden on LaSalle or Bank of America (including any of its subsidiaries).

A material adverse effect on LaSalle is any event, circumstance, change or effect that has a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of LaSalle, but excluding any effects to the extent resulting from (1) changes in generally accepted accounting principles, regulatory accounting requirements, laws, rules or regulations applicable to depository institutions or their holding companies generally; (2) changes in political conditions generally or in general or regional economic or market conditions affecting depository institutions and their holding companies generally; (3) public disclosure of the LaSalle Agreement; and (4) certain actions or inactions required by the LaSalle Agreement or requested by Bank of America. In addition, a material adverse effect occurs with respect to a party if there is an event that prevents such party from consummating the transactions contemplated by the LaSalle Agreement.

Efforts to Complete the Sale of LaSalle to Bank of America

The parties have agreed to take all commercially reasonable actions necessary or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements that may be imposed on such party with respect to the sale, including in connection with obtaining any third-party consent that may be required to be obtained in connection therewith, as well as to obtain any consent, authorisation, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any governmental entity that is required or advisable to be obtained.

The parties have agreed to take all commercially reasonable actions to resolve any objections that may be asserted by any governmental entity with respect to the sale, and that it would be commercially reasonable for Bank of America to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restrictions, in connection with obtaining the foregoing approvals of governmental entities or third parties, unless doing so would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of LaSalle or Bank of America (measured on a scale relative to LaSalle) following the closing of the sale. The parties have also agreed that any actions, conditions or restrictions that relate to Bank of America's compliance with the conditions in Section 3(d)(2) of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, or the Bank Merger Act relating to the nationwide deposit cap and to any applicable state deposit caps would be deemed not to have a such a material adverse effect.

Non-Solicitation

In the LaSalle Agreement, ABN AMRO Bank agreed that, except for the actions permitted during the solicitation period described below, it would terminate any discussion with any person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal (as defined below). ABN AMRO Bank also agreed that, except for the actions permitted during the solicitation period described below, ABN AMRO Bank and its affiliates would not, directly or indirectly, take certain actions, including soliciting competing Acquisition Proposals or participating in discussions or negotiations relating thereto. Acquisition Proposal means any offer or proposal, or any indication of interest in making an offer or proposal, made by a person or group at any time which is structured to permit such person or group to acquire, directly or indirectly, beneficial ownership of LaSalle pursuant to a merger, consolidation or other business combination, sale of shares of capital stock, sale of assets, tender offer or exchange offer or similar transaction, including any single or multi-step transaction or series of related transactions, in each case other than the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, any transaction expressly permitted under the conduct of business covenants described below and any transaction involving a combination with or acquisition of ABN AMRO Bank and its affiliates substantially as a whole (but, in such latter case, would preserve the rights and obligations under the LaSalle Agreement).

Solicitation Period

For a period beginning April 22, 2007 and continuing for 14 calendar days, ABN AMRO Bank and its representatives were permitted to solicit Acquisition Proposals from any Qualified Purchaser (as defined below) relating to the purchase of LaSalle (including by way of providing access to non-public information pursuant to a confidentiality agreement no less favorable to ABN AMRO Bank than the existing confidentiality agreement between ABN AMRO Bank and Bank of America) and conduct discussions with respect to Acquisition Proposals. Qualified Purchaser means any US or foreign bank or bank holding company that is reasonably capable of entering into, within the 14-day solicitation period, an alternative acquisition agreement.

If ABN AMRO Bank had received an Acquisition Proposal from any Qualified Purchaser prior to the end of the 14-day period that ABN AMRO Bank concluded in good faith constituted a Superior Proposal (as defined below), ABN AMRO Bank was permitted to enter into an agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal. Superior Proposal means any bona fide Acquisition Proposal made in writing that (1) is on terms that ABN AMRO Bank determines in its good faith judgment (after taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal, including likelihood of consummation) is superior from a financial point of view to the LaSalle Agreement for ABN AMRO Bank's shareholders and (2) is for cash and is not subject to any financing condition.

Match Right

If ABN AMRO Bank had entered into an alternative agreement, Bank of America would have had a period of five business days thereafter to revise the terms of the LaSalle Agreement so that the Acquisition

Table of Contents

Proposal ceased to constitute a Superior Proposal. If Bank of America had revised the terms of the LaSalle Agreement such that ABN AMRO Bank had concluded that the alternative agreement no longer constituted a Superior Proposal, the alternative agreement would have automatically terminated (without any cost, liability or obligation to LaSalle, Bank of America or their respective subsidiaries). If during such period, Bank of America did not revise the terms of the LaSalle Agreement accordingly, ABN AMRO Bank was permitted to terminate the LaSalle Agreement, subject to payment by ABN AMRO Bank to Bank of America of a $200 million by way of compensation.

Termination

The LaSalle Agreement can be terminated at any time prior to the closing of the sale by mutual consent and by either party in the following circumstances:

if any required regulatory approval is denied, and such denial is final and non-appealable, or any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has issued a final, non-appealable injunction permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America;

if the closing of the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America has not occurred on or before May 1, 2008 (provided that the right to terminate the LaSalle Agreement for this reason is not available to any party whose action or failure to act was the cause of or resulted in the failure of the closing to occur on or before such date and such action or failure to act constituted a breach of the LaSalle Agreement); or if there is a breach by the other party that would cause the failure of the closing conditions described above, unless the breaching party is using all commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach.

The LaSalle Agreement could also have been terminated pursuant to the solicitation period provisions described above.

If the LaSalle Agreement is terminated pursuant to the termination provisions described above, neither party will have any liability or further obligation to the other party except for certain limited continuing covenants and except that any such termination will not relieve a breaching party from liability for any willful and material breach of the LaSalle Agreement.

Indemnification

From and after the closing of the sale, ABN AMRO Bank is required to indemnify Bank of America and its officers, directors, employees, agents, advisers, representatives and affiliates for losses to the extent resulting or arising from breaches of certain of ABN AMRO Bank's covenants, the businesses excluded from the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, liabilities of ABN AMRO Bank to the extent not related to the business being acquired and certain specified pre-closing tax and ERISA matters.

From and after the closing of the sale, Bank of America is required to indemnify ABN AMRO Bank and its officers, directors, employees, agents, advisers, representatives and affiliates for losses to the extent resulting or arising from breaches of Bank of America's covenants and liabilities of LaSalle to the extent not related to the businesses excluded from the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America.

Conduct of Business Covenants

ABN AMRO Bank has agreed that, until the earlier of the closing and the termination of the LaSalle Agreement, it will, and will cause LaSalle and each of its subsidiaries to: (1) conduct LaSalle's business in all material respects in the usual, regular and ordinary course consistent with past practice; and (2) use commercial reasonable efforts to maintain and preserve intact the business organisations and goodwill of LaSalle's business and such business's current relationships with customers, regulators, employees and other persons with which such business has significant business or other relationships.

ABN AMRO Bank has further agreed during that period not to undertake certain actions without the prior written consent of Bank of America (which may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), including certain actions relating to indebtedness, dividends, capital expenditures, share and option transactions, sales and acquisitions of assets, compensation, employee benefits, settlement of litigation and other accounting, tax or business management policies.

Table of Contents*Other Covenants*

Bank of America and ABN AMRO Bank have agreed to cooperate to effect on mutually acceptable terms the transfer to LaSalle of the ownership interests in two Chicago properties that were subject to a sale/leaseback arrangement with ABN AMRO Bank.

All intercompany debt, agreements and accounts between LaSalle, on the one hand, and ABN AMRO Bank, on the other hand, will be repaid, settled or terminated effective as of the closing of the transaction, with the parties discussing in good faith the appropriate method to settle intercompany indebtedness and intercompany derivative contracts.

The parties have agreed to identify and transfer between LaSalle and ABN AMRO Bank certain funding subsidiaries.

ABN AMRO Bank has agreed to take certain actions with respect to certain voting rights of shares of preferred stock issued by ABN AMRO North America Holding Company and its subsidiaries.

The parties have agreed to certain other customary covenants.

Representations and Warranties

The LaSalle Agreement contains customary representations and warranties for transactions of this type, including representations by ABN AMRO Bank as to corporate organisation, capitalisation, requisite corporate authority to enter into the agreements contemplated by the sale, consents and approvals, regulatory filings, financial statements, undisclosed liabilities, absence of certain changes since December 31, 2006, legal proceedings, tax and employee benefit matters, compliance with law, material contracts, investment securities and derivative instruments, environmental matters, insurance, properties, intellectual property, sufficiency of assets, investment adviser and broker/dealer subsidiaries, intercompany arrangements, divested businesses and broker's fees.

Choice of Law and Jurisdiction

The LaSalle Agreement provides that it is to be interpreted, construed and governed by New York law. The parties agreed to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal courts in New York (or if federal court jurisdiction is not available, in New York state court) in respect of any claim, dispute or controversy relating to or arising out of the negotiation, interpretation or enforcement of the LaSalle Agreement.

1. The country of registration or incorporation is also the principal area of operation of each of the above subsidiaries. Investments in these subsidiaries are held directly by Barclays Bank except where marked*.
2. Barclays Bank is the beneficial owner of 38.1 per cent. of shares and Barclays Holdings (Isle of Man) Limited is the beneficial owner of 61.9 per cent. of shares.
3. Barclays Capital Japan Limited, Tokyo Branch was licensed to operate in Japan as a branch of a foreign principal subsidiary incorporated in the Cayman Islands until 30 April 2006. Pursuant to changes in the Japanese law, a Japanese domestic company was incorporated on 8 November 2005 into which the entire business was transferred in from the branch as at 30 April 2006. This domestic company was renamed Barclays Capital Japan Limited.

12. Working Capital Statement

Barclays is of the opinion that, taking account of available facilities and existing cash resources, the working capital available to the Barclays Group is sufficient for its present requirements, that is, for at least the next twelve months from the date of the publication of this document.

13. Barclays Litigation

13.1 Barclays has for some time been party to proceedings, including a class action, in the United States against a number of defendants following the collapse of Enron; the class action claim is commonly known as the Newby litigation. The class seeks to recover a total of approximately $40 billion from all defendants in Newby, as well as two other similar actions brought against other financial institutions. On 20 July 2006, Barclays received an Order from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas Houston Division which dismissed the claims against Barclays PLC, Barclays Bank and Barclays Capital Inc. in the Newby litigation. On 4 December 2006, in response to the plaintiffs' procedural objections, the District Court stayed Barclays' dismissal from the proceedings and allowed the plaintiffs to file a supplemental complaint. On 19 March 2007, the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit issued its decision on an appeal by Barclays and two other financial institutions contesting a ruling by the District Court allowing the Newby litigation to proceed as a class action. The Court of Appeals held that because no proper claim against Barclays and the other financial institutions had been alleged by the plaintiffs, the case could not proceed against them. The plaintiffs have applied to the United States Supreme Court for a review of this decision. Pending the outcome of further appellate proceedings, the District Court has stayed the Newby litigation.

13.2 Barclays considers that the Enron related claims against it are without merit and is defending them vigorously. It is not possible to estimate Barclays possible loss in relation to these matters, nor the effect that they might have upon operating results in any particular financial period.

Save as disclosed in sub-paragraphs 13.1 and 13.2 above of this paragraph Barclays Litigation, no member of the Barclays Group is or has been involved in any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which Barclays is aware) which may have, or have had during the 12 months preceding the date of this document, a significant effect on Barclays financial position or profitability.

14. Other Barclays matters

14.1 Barclays has been in negotiations with the staff of the SEC with respect to a settlement of the SEC's investigations of transactions between Barclays and Enron. Barclays does not expect that the amount of any settlement with the SEC would have a significant adverse effect on its financial position or operating results.

14.2 On 3 November 2006 Barclays announced that it had reached a settlement in principle with Enron in the Enron bankruptcy proceedings. A settlement agreement was signed on 30 November 2006 and became effective on 3 January 2007. The settlement has had no negative impact on Barclays earnings as an adequate provision had already been made for the likely cost in prior periods. In reaching the settlement Barclays has denied any wrongdoing or liability.

15. ABN AMRO Litigation

15.1 On 26 April, 2007, certain ABN AMRO Shareholders filed suit in the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal seeking, among other things, a ruling forbidding ABN AMRO from proceeding with the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America without shareholder approval. On 3 May 2007, the Enterprise Division of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without approval of ABN AMRO's Shareholders. On 15 May 2007, ABN AMRO filed in the Supreme Court of The Netherlands an appeal requesting that the Supreme Court nullify the ruling of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on 3 May 2007. Bank of America had filed a similar appeal with the Supreme Court of The Netherlands on 15 May 2007 as did Barclays. On 26 June 2007, the Advocate General to the Supreme Court of the Netherlands published a recommendation to the Supreme Court to nullify the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on 3 May 2007. This recommendation is independent legal advice issued to the Supreme Court. On 13 July 2007 the Supreme Court of the Netherlands upheld the appeals filed by ABN AMRO, Bank of America and Barclays against the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal. The Supreme Court nullified the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal and irrevocably dismissed the request of certain ABN AMRO Shareholders for a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without the approval of ABN AMRO's Shareholders.

15.2 On 27 April 2007, a purported class action lawsuit relating to the Merger was filed in New York State Court against ABN AMRO, each member of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board and Bank of America. With the consent of all defendants, Bank of America subsequently removed the lawsuit from New York State Court to the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York. The lawsuit, Halpert Enterprises, v. ABN AMRO Holding N.V., et al., generally alleges, among other things, that members of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board violated their fiduciary duties by, among other things, failing to obtain maximum consideration for the whole of ABN AMRO and entering into the LaSalle Agreement to discourage other bids. The complaint seeks a judicial determination that the termination fee is unenforceable and a declaration that the Merger Protocol was entered into in breach of fiduciary duties and therefore is unlawful and unenforceable.

15.3 On 4 May 2007, Bank of America filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York against ABN AMRO. The lawsuit, Bank of America Corporation v. ABN AMRO BANK N.V. and ABN AMRO Holding N.V., generally alleges, among other things, that ABN AMRO breached its representation in the LaSalle Agreement that no shareholder vote was necessary regarding the sale of LaSalle. The complaint seeks injunctive relief that ABN AMRO be precluded from negotiating for the sale of LaSalle except as provided for in the go shop provision of the LaSalle Agreement, an order of specific performance for the delivery of LaSalle to Bank of America and unspecified money damages. Following the 13 July 2007 decision of the Supreme Court of the Netherlands and pursuant to a stipulation of the parties on 27 July 2007 the court dismissed Bank of America's lawsuit without prejudice.

15.4 On 15 May 2007, certain ABN AMRO Shareholders filed a lawsuit against Bank of America in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York relating to the LaSalle Agreement and the related lawsuit filed by Bank of America described above. The lawsuit, Carl and Toni Sadowsky v. Bank of America Corporation, generally alleges, among other things, that Bank of America entered into the LaSalle Agreement with knowledge that it was a defensive mechanism designed to foreclose alternative proposals to purchase ABN AMRO and that Bank of America's lawsuit against ABN AMRO was filed in breach of the LaSalle Agreement. The complaint seeks unspecified money damages, rescission of the LaSalle Agreement and an injunction preventing Bank of America from enforcing the LaSalle Agreement and collecting the termination fee thereunder.

The amounts claimed in the above lawsuits are not quantifiable. ABN AMRO intends to vigorously pursue all available defences to these claims.

15.5 As previously disclosed, the United States Department of Justice has been conducting a criminal investigation into ABN AMRO's Dollar clearing activities, OFAC compliance procedures and other Bank Secrecy Act compliance matters. ABN AMRO has cooperated and continues to cooperate fully with the investigation. Although no written agreement has yet been reached and negotiations are ongoing, ABN AMRO has reached an agreement in principle with the Department of Justice that would resolve all presently known aspects of the ongoing investigation.

Under the terms of the agreement in principle, ABN AMRO and the United States would enter into a deferred prosecution agreement relating to the issues that are the subject of the current criminal investigation. In the deferred prosecution agreement, ABN AMRO would waive indictment and agree to the filing of an information in the United States District Court charging it with certain violations of federal law based on information disclosed in an agreed factual statement. ABN AMRO would also agree to continue cooperating in the United States ongoing investigation and to settle all known civil and criminal claims currently held by the United States for the sum of $500 million. The precise terms of the deferred prosecution agreement and agreed factual statement are still under negotiation.

In consideration for the foregoing provisions, as well as ABN AMRO's extensive remedial actions to date and its willingness to demonstrate future good conduct and full compliance with all applicable federal laws, the United States would recommend to the United States District Court that the prosecution of ABN AMRO under the information be deferred for a fixed period. At the end of that fixed period, provided ABN AMRO is in full compliance with all of its obligations under the deferred prosecution agreement, the United States would seek dismissal with prejudice of the information filed against ABN AMRO.

Save as disclosed in sub-paragraphs 15.1 to 15.5 above of this paragraph "ABN AMRO Litigation", no member of the ABN AMRO Group is or has been involved in any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which Barclays is aware) which may have, or have had during the 12 months preceding the date of this document a significant effect on ABN AMRO's financial position or profitability.

- (2) The value of the Ordinary Share Offer is calculated:
 - (A) by reference to a price of £6.86 per Barclays Ordinary Share (being the Closing Price on 2 August 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document); and
 - (B) on the basis of the fully diluted ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO on 30 July 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document.
- (3) As at close of business on 30 July 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document, Barclays had in issue 6,545,671,873 ordinary shares of 25 pence each; and ABN AMRO had in issue 1,846,114,758 ordinary shares of 0.56 each.
- (4) The fully diluted share capital of ABN AMRO is calculated on the basis of:
 - (A) the number of issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (excluding shares held as treasury shares); and
 - (B) all ABN AMRO share options and share settled share awards.
- (5) References to pro forma share ownership percentages of the Combined Group and to percentages of the enlarged issued ordinary share capital of Barclays following the Merger are estimates as at immediately following the Merger calculated on the following basis:
 - (A) 6,545,671,873 Barclays Ordinary Shares;
 - (B) fully diluted ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO of 1,883,927,016 ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares;
 - (C) assuming the issue of the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares;
 - (D) assuming full acceptance of the Ordinary Share Offer;
 - (E) assuming that the Share Buy-back Programme has completed and that all 336,805,556 Barclays Ordinary Shares which may be purchased under the Share Buy-back Programme have been purchased and cancelled; and current or future financial years, or those of the Combined Group, will necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share or Barclays Ordinary Share.

- (8) The analysts' median forecast of ABN AMRO's earnings for 2010 available at the time of Announcement was 5,394 million. This has been adjusted to remove the proportion of earnings relating to the LaSalle business being disposed (the LaSalle business represents substantially all the profits of Business Unit North America Division of ABN AMRO (BUNA)). This proportion has been assumed to be 21.7 per cent. based on the average contribution forecast by analysts at the time of Announcement of 1,052 million to be made by BUNA to ABN AMRO's consensus forecast earnings of 4,853 million in 2009 (being the last year for which analysts split out the contribution of BUNA). This has then been used to calculate the expected return on investment for 2010. The calculation also takes into account interest income on retained capital, the potential cost synergies and revenue benefits arising from the Merger, the associated restructuring cost and the consideration paid. Neither the reference to ABN AMRO's earnings for 2010 nor the return on investment statement are intended, nor should they be construed, as a profit forecast or be interpreted to mean that earnings per ABN AMRO Share or Barclays Share for the current or future financial years, or those of the Combined Group, will necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings per ABN AMRO Share or Barclays Share.
- (9) The exchange rates used in this document, in relation to information as at one Business Day before the Revised Announcement are 1.4859 : £1.00 and $1.3835 : £1 as published in the Financial Times on 21 July 2007 being the latest practicable date prior to the Revised Announcement and with reference to the value of the Offer based on Barclays Closing Price on 2 August 2007 are, 1.4839: £1.00 and $2.0293: £1.00 as published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007 being the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this document.

17. General17.1 Costs and expenses

The aggregate costs and expenses payable by Barclays in connection with the Offer is estimated to amount to approximately £197 million (including amounts in respect of VAT).

17.2 Takeovers

Other than as provided by Part 28 of the Companies Act 2006 and the Takeover Code there are no rules or provisions relating to mandatory bids and/or squeeze-out and sell-out rules in relation to the Barclays Ordinary Shares.

17.3 Dividends

The following table sets out the interim and final dividend per Barclays Ordinary Share for the six months ended 30 June 2007 and each financial year ended 31 December 2006, 2005 and 2004 (the figures in brackets show the dividend per Barclays Ordinary Share for the relevant year as it would have been if the number of Barclays Ordinary Shares ranking for dividend had been 11,446,949,931 throughout the period):

For the years ended 31 December	Interim dividend (pence/Barclays Ordinary Share)		Final dividend (pence/Barclays Ordinary Share)

17.4 Group structure and divisional reporting changes reconciliation

On 19 June 2007 Barclays announced changes to the Barclays Group structure and divisional reporting due to a realignment of the management and delivery of certain products and services. These changes are of a presentational nature only, and reflect the new divisions arising from the realignment. The unaudited numbers set out below show the reconciliation of these changes to the previous published information for 2006 and 2005 which has been extracted without material adjustments from Barclays audited financial statements for the relevant periods.

19. Events leading to announcement of the Merger

Discussions between ABN AMRO and Barclays

The Managing Board and the Supervisory Board have reviewed regularly ABN AMRO's strategic growth objectives and the means by which it may achieve these objectives, including potential business acquisitions and combinations. In particular, the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board examined how ABN AMRO might execute its strategy of becoming a top five European bank by market capitalisation. In addition to the standalone option, including growth through the acquisition of smaller banking operations, the option of merging with another European financial institution as large or larger than ABN AMRO has been part of the ABN AMRO Boards' strategic agenda. In this context, the Chairman of the Managing Board, Mr Groenink, and the Chief Executive Officer of Barclays, Mr Varley, have had regular contact over the past few years.

On 18 March 2005, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley met to discuss the possibility of a business combination in connection with ABN AMRO's continuing review of its business and prospects. In advance of the meeting, ABN AMRO and Barclays separately carried out an analysis which covered, amongst other things, strategic and financial rationale for a possible combination, an impact and contribution analysis and high level synergies. The discussions between Mr Groenink and Mr Varley were continued at a meeting on 23 November 2005.

On 7 December 2005 and 20 January 2006, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley discussed the principles under which the parties would be willing to consider a business combination transaction. On 3 March 2006, another meeting was held between Mr Groenink and Mr Varley, at which they agreed to exchange position papers on a potential combination. ABN AMRO's position paper was sent to Barclays on 24 March 2006 and a paper from Barclays was received by ABN AMRO shortly thereafter. Following the exchange of position papers, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley met on 4 May 2006 to discuss the potential strategy, vision and culture of a combined entity.

The ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board separately concluded that a business combination transaction between Barclays and ABN AMRO was strategically attractive. During the Supervisory Board's annual strategy discussion on 27 and 28 July 2006, different merger of equals options were discussed, as well as the standalone option with growth through the acquisition of smaller banking operations and the option of combining with another European financial institution that was as large or larger than ABN AMRO. At the end of the discussion, the Supervisory Board determined that in the case of a merger with ABN AMRO as a junior partner, a combination with Barclays was one of its preferred options. During the remainder of 2006 and first quarter of 2007, the ABN AMRO Boards continued to discuss these strategic options. The Barclays Board also concluded that ABN AMRO was an attractive merger partner in its strategy meeting on 16 November 2006. Mr Groenink and Mr Varley continued to have informal contacts to explore the potential of a combination.

ABN AMRO also discussed with ING Group N.V. the possibility of a combination of their businesses. During the period between December 2006 and March 2007, Mr Groenink had several discussions with Mr Michael Tilmant, Chairman of the Executive Committee of ING Group N.V. on the possibility of a transaction. Ultimately, however, the parties discontinued discussions when a transaction became less attractive as ABN AMRO's share price increased significantly, while ING Group N.V.'s share price declined.

ABN AMRO initiated talks leading to the current proposed combination with Barclays when on 8 February 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley met to discuss the key principles that would guide any potential combination discussion between ABN AMRO and Barclays. These discussions were continued on February 27, 2007.

On 22 February 2007, the Managing Board engaged Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited to act as its financial adviser in connection with the potential strategic options outlined above including a possible combination with Barclays. Subsequently, in connection with Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited's engagement, the Managing Board requested that Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (other than Barclays and its affiliates) of the exchange ratio to be received by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares pursuant to the combination solely in their capacity as ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders.

Also, on 22 February 2007, UBS Limited (UBS) was engaged by the Managing Board as financial adviser in connection with the potential strategic options outlined above. Subsequently, in connection with UBS's engagement, the Managing Board requested that UBS evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, excluding Barclays and its affiliates.

The Managing Board also engaged Lehman Brothers on 22 February 2007 to act as its financial adviser in connection with the potential strategic options outlined above. Lehman Brothers' advisory role has centered around the synergies of the Merger, potential investor and market reactions and listing considerations.

NM Rothschild & Sons was appointed by the Managing Board in February 2007 to advise on the viability of alternatives to a combination with another European financial institution as large or larger than ABN AMRO.

ABN AMRO Corporate Finance provided initial advice on the general strategic options available to ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Hoare Govett was retained to act as corporate broker in connection with strategic matters in February 2007 and subsequently in connection with the proposed offer by Barclays for ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs.

Also during February the Managing Board retained Allen & Overy LLP (Allen & Overy), Davis Polk & Wardwell and Nauta Dutilh N.V. (Nauta Dutilh) to provide it with legal advice in connection with strategic matters and subsequently retained them to advise on the Barclays transaction.

During February 2007, the Barclays Board requested that JPMorgan Cazenove Limited act as corporate broker and Lazard & Co., Limited act as financial adviser in connection with a proposed combination with ABN AMRO. In March 2007, Barclays Capital, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Credit Suisse Securities (Europe) Limited, Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove Limited were also contacted to act as financial advisers in connection with the proposed combination with ABN AMRO.

At its meeting on 14 March 2007, the Supervisory Board approved the initiation of negotiations with Barclays with a view to a potential combination.

On 16 March 2007, Mr Groenink called Mr Varley to confirm that he was available to investigate a combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays. On 18 March 2007, senior management of ABN AMRO and Barclays including Mr Boumeester, a member of the Managing Board and Mr Naguib Kheraj, then Group Finance Director of Barclays, met to commence exploratory discussions on the terms of any transaction as well as the terms of a confidentiality and exclusivity agreement. Subsequently, Mr Groenink informed Mr Nout Wellink, President of the DNB about the possibility of a combination transaction and Barclays kept the FSA informed about the status of discussions.

On 19 March 2007, ABN AMRO and Barclays issued a press release to confirm that they were in exclusive preliminary discussions concerning a potential combination.

On 20 March 2007 ABN AMRO and Barclays announced the principles of any potential combination between them.

On 21 March 2007, ABN AMRO entered into a confidentiality, exclusivity and standstill agreement with Barclays. In addition to customary confidentiality provisions, this agreement provided that neither ABN AMRO nor Barclays would solicit any offer from a third party for all or a significant part of their respective assets or shares until 18 April 2007. If such an offer was received in good faith from a third party, however, the agreement provided that either the ABN AMRO Boards or the Barclays Board, as the case may be, could enter into discussions with such third party if required to do so by their fiduciary duties. Additionally, the agreement permitted either party to have contacts with a third party to understand the contents of any good faith indication of interest by such third party.

On 21 March 2007 the Supervisory Board engaged Stibbe N.V. (Stibbe) to provide it with independent Dutch legal advice.

On 22 March 2007, representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays together with their respective financial advisers met to discuss the organisation of the work streams for any potential combination.

On 23 March 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley met to substantiate further aspects of the five broad principles indicated in the press release of 20 March 2007 and to discuss the organisation of the process going forward.

On 24 March 2007, members of the senior management of ABN AMRO met with members of senior management of Barclays in London. The parties exchanged information on their respective businesses and discussed the process and timing for due diligence.

On 26 March 2007 the Supervisory Board created an ad hoc advisory committee composed of Mr Martinez, Mr Olijslager and Mr van den Bergh in order to advise the Supervisory Board on decisions to be taken in the context of the discussions with Barclays or other banks, the actions of activist shareholders and the upcoming shareholders meeting. In April, the ad hoc committee met several times to prepare for Supervisory Board meetings.

From 26 March 2007 to 30 March 2007 representatives from the various business units of ABN AMRO and Barclays first met to conduct due diligence, including an examination of the potential synergies that may result from a combination. Additional synergy validation and due diligence on specific topics continued through 19 April 2007.

On 27 March 2007, representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays, together with representatives of their respective financial, legal and tax advisors, met in Amsterdam to discuss the potential legal, regulatory and tax structures of any combination.

On 30 March 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley met to advance agreement on the details of the transaction.

On 3 April 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley met with representatives of the DNB. At this meeting the parties jointly presented their intentions for, and the anticipated benefits of, the proposed combination.

The Supervisory Board also met on 3 April 2007 and 11 April 2007 to discuss the latest developments in the negotiations with Barclays.

From 3 April 2007 to 16 April 2007, the Managing Board's legal advisors engaged in a number of discussions, in person in Amsterdam and London and on the telephone, with Barclays' legal advisers on certain terms of a draft Merger Protocol. Several of these meetings were attended by Mr Boumeester and Mr Kheraj.

Between 4 April 2007 and 21 April 2007 representatives of ABN AMRO's financial advisers met with representatives of Barclays financial advisers to discuss the methodologies to be used in the determination of any potential exchange ratio.

On 12 April 2007, the Supervisory Board engaged Goldman Sachs to undertake a study as to the fairness of any proposed combination with Barclays.

On 13 April 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Martinez received a letter from the Royal Bank of Scotland Group PLC, Fortis N.V. and Fortis S.A./N.V. and Banco Santander S.A., acting together as a consortium (the Consortium), expressing their interest in making an alternative proposal for ABN AMRO and requesting, among other things access to the same diligence information that Barclays had received.

On 15 April 2007, a committee was established by the Barclays Board for the purpose of the transaction. During April 2007, the Barclays Board or the committee, met frequently to receive updates on the status of the discussions with ABN AMRO from those members of the Barclays Board involved in the day-to-day negotiations.

On 16 April 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley met to discuss the progress to date and to evaluate the necessity of extending the initial exclusivity agreement. On 17 April 2007, ABN AMRO and Barclays separately announced that they had agreed to extend the exclusivity period. The Supervisory Board also met and received an update on 17 March 2007. On 18 April 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley met, and at this meeting, Mr Varley gave an update on his meetings with ABN AMRO's Managing Board members over the course of the preceding days.

On the evening of 20 April 2007, Mr Boumeester informed Mr Kheraj of Bank of America's proposal to acquire LaSalle from ABN AMRO prior to a potential combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays.

On 21 April 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Varley discussed Bank of America's proposal to acquire LaSalle from ABN AMRO prior to a potential combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays and the potential impact of this sale on any potential exchange ratio.

Representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays and their respective advisors met on a number of occasions in Amsterdam on 21 and 22 April 2007 to discuss further the draft Merger Protocol.

On the evening of 21 April 2007, Mr Groenink and Mr Boumeester met with Mr Varley and Mr Kheraj in Amsterdam to agree the terms of the Merger with Barclays, including the Exchange Ratio of 3.225 Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share.

During March and April 2007, the Managing Board of ABN AMRO met frequently and received updates on the status of the discussions with Barclays from those members of the Managing Board involved in the day-to-day negotiations. As noted above the Supervisory Board and the ad hoc committee had also held several meetings during this time frame.

During the course of the day on 22 April 2007, the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board met throughout the day both together and separately to discuss the evolving terms of the proposed transaction with Barclays, the proposed sale of LaSalle to Bank of America (see The Sale of LaSalle below) and the contents of the letter that had been received from the Consortium.

During that day Mr Groenink updated the Managing Board on the negotiations with Barclays several times. Representatives from Nauta Dutilh, Allen & Overy and Davis Polk & Wardwell were also present to brief the Managing Board members on the terms of the draft Merger Protocol. Representatives from UBS delivered to the Managing Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated 22 April 2007, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions made, matters considered and limitations described in the opinion, the Exchange Ratio of 3.225 Barclays Ordinary Shares for each

ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered pursuant to the Offer, to be received by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, other than Barclays and its affiliates, was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Representatives from Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited reviewed its financial analyses and rendered to the Managing Board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing and dated 22 April 2007, to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the opinion, the exchange ratio set forth pursuant to the proposed Merger Protocol was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (other than Barclays and its affiliates) solely in their capacity as ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. At its last meeting of the day, having considered a number of factors including the due diligence findings, merger benefits and financial analysis, the Managing Board resolved unanimously to recommend to the Supervisory Board to accept the offer for ABN AMRO from Barclays and to recommend the same to ABN AMRO Shareholders. During that day, the Supervisory Board also met with its independent legal and financial advisors in an executive session to consider the terms of the proposed combination with Barclays. At that session, they were briefed on the terms of the draft Merger Protocol by Stibbe. Representatives from Goldman Sachs rendered an oral opinion, later confirmed in writing, to the Supervisory Board that, as of 22 April 2007, based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in such opinion, the Exchange Ratio to be received by shareholders of ABN AMRO pursuant to the combination was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. During the day, Mr Groenink updated the Supervisory Board on the latest developments with Barclays and presented the Managing Board's decision on the Barclays transaction. Representatives from Nauta Dutilh, Allen & Overy and Davis Polk & Wardwell were present to answer questions on the draft Merger Protocol. At its last meeting of the day, having considered a number of factors, including the due diligence findings, merger benefits and financial analysis, the Supervisory Board resolved unanimously to recommend the Offer for acceptance by the holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

In their review and analysis of the proposed transaction with Barclays and the no shop provisions in the draft Merger Protocol, both the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board noted that the terms of the Merger Protocol, among other things, included provisions permitting them to continue contacts with a third party existing on 23 April 2007 and, in certain circumstances, described elsewhere in this document, would permit them to withdraw their respective recommendations if the boards, acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties under applicable law, determined an alternative offer to be more beneficial than the Offer.

On the evening of 22 April 2007, the committee of the Barclays Board held two meetings. The first meeting was held to consider, among other matters, the Merger Protocol, due diligence findings, merger benefits, financial analysis, and a draft press announcement. The committee then reconvened that same evening to consider the Merger Protocol and the press announcement. At the end of this meeting, the committee resolved to enter into the Merger Protocol and approved the Announcement.

Following these meetings, on 22 April and the early hours of 23 April, representatives of each party together with their legal and financial advisors met again in Amsterdam to finalise the Merger Protocol. On 23 April 2007, ABN AMRO and Barclays announced that agreement had been reached on a combination.

The Sale of LaSalle

As part of its regular review of strategic growth objectives, both the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board have repeatedly considered and discussed the future of LaSalle (which includes LaSalle Bank Corporation and its subsidiaries LaSalle Bank N.A. and LaSalle Bank Midwest N.A.). In the course of the mid-2006 review, the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board reached the view that within the next twelve to eighteen months, LaSalle would have to either grow through an acquisition or that it should be sold (the up or out strategy). It was decided at that time that in light of the fact LaSalle's profitability remained good and in light of the current business cycle, there was no reason for an immediate decision in this matter. The potential disposition of LaSalle was discussed again at the Managing Board meeting on 6 February 2007.

As of December 31, 2006, LaSalle had more than $113,000 million in tangible assets and a tangible book value of $9.7 billion, adjusted for businesses that will be retained by ABN AMRO and for the previously announced sale of the mortgage operations unit and presented on a US GAAP basis. For the year ended

December 31, 2006, LaSalle, presented on the same basis, had net income of $1,035 million. During the previous two years, Bank of America and other banks had informally approached ABN AMRO several times regarding their interest in acquiring LaSalle. As a result of these informal approaches both the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board had analysed a range of possible options for the sale of LaSalle and had reviewed the possible range of values that might be achieved.

A potential sale of LaSalle was discussed at a Supervisory Board meeting held on 17 April 2007. Later that evening, Bank of America informed ABN AMRO, through UBS, of its interest in acquiring LaSalle for a price of approximately $20 billion, subject to the completion of due diligence. Bank of America entered into a confidentiality agreement with ABN AMRO on 19 April 2007. Over the four day period ending on 22 April 2007, Bank of America completed its due diligence review of LaSalle. Updates on the diligence and the negotiations with Bank of America were discussed at Managing Board meetings on 19 April 2007 and 20 April 2007.

On 20 April 2007, Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz (counsel to Bank of America) circulated a draft purchase and sale agreement to Davis Polk & Wardwell (counsel to ABN AMRO).

On 22 April 2007, the parties agreed in principle consideration of $21 billion, subject to adjustment, and later that day reached agreement on the final terms of the purchase and sale agreement.

The sale of LaSalle was discussed at both the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board meetings during the day of 22 April 2007. In an executive session, the Supervisory Board was briefed on the LaSalle Agreement by its legal advisers and on the financial aspects of the deal by its financial advisers. Both boards also received advice of counsel that under Dutch law no shareholder vote was required to consummate the transaction. The Managing Board was also briefed on the LaSalle Agreement by its legal advisers.

Representatives from UBS delivered to the Managing Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated 22 April 2007, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by ABN AMRO pursuant to the LaSalle Agreement, as of such date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion.

Representatives from Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited delivered to the Managing Board an oral opinion which was subsequently confirmed in writing and dated 22 April 2007, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by ABN AMRO pursuant to the LaSalle Agreement, as of such date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion.

Representatives from Lehman Brothers Europe Limited delivered to the Managing Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated 22 April 2007, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by ABN AMRO pursuant to the LaSalle Agreement, as of such date and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion.

On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO Bank entered into the LaSalle Agreement with Bank of America pursuant to which ABN AMRO Bank agreed to sell LaSalle (which includes ABN AMRO's US commercial, retail and trust banking operations and related businesses) to Bank of America for a total consideration of $21 billion in cash (subject to adjustment based on the financial performance of LaSalle before the closing of the sale). ABN AMRO will retain its global operations and, with limited exceptions, its other operations outside the US, as well as its principal broker dealer, investment advisory wholesale banking and asset management operations in the US.

The sale of LaSalle is subject to regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions. The completion of the sale of LaSalle is an offer condition to the Merger.

Events after the Announcement of the Transaction

The LaSalle Agreement included a "go shop" provision that permitted ABN AMRO, for a period of 14 calendar days from 22 April 2007, to enter into a purchase and sale agreement for LaSalle with an alternative bidder, provided that such alternative bidder's proposal was superior from a financial point of view to the LaSalle Agreement, for cash and not subject to a financing condition. The "go shop" provision granted Bank of America a right to match any such superior proposal and provided for Bank of America to receive a $200 million termination fee if it did not match such superior proposal.

On 25 April 2007 ABN AMRO received an indicative proposal from the Consortium to acquire ABN AMRO. Following that date, ABN AMRO made repeated requests to the Consortium to clarify the terms of their indicative proposal.

On 26 April 2007, Vereniging van Effectenbezitters filed suit in the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal seeking, among other things, a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO and ABN

Table of Contents

AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without approval of ABN AMRO Shareholders. On that date the Supervisory Board also engaged Debevoise & Plimpton LLP to provide it with independent US legal advice.

On 27 April 2007, a purported class action lawsuit relating to the sale of LaSalle was filed in the New York State Supreme Court for New York County against ABN AMRO, each member of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board and Bank of America. The lawsuit, Halpert Enterprises v. ABN AMRO Holding N.V., et al., generally alleges, among other things, that members of the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board violated their fiduciary duties by, among other things, preventing a full and fair sale process for the whole of ABN AMRO. The complaint also names Bank of America as a defendant and seeks, among other forms of relief a declaration that the termination fee is unenforceable and a declaration that the LaSalle Agreement was entered into in breach of fiduciary duties and therefore is unlawful and unenforceable, an injunction against the consummation of the LaSalle Agreement, the imposition of a constructive trust in favour of the plaintiff and the alleged class and an award of attorney's fee and expenses.

On 27 April 2007, ABN AMRO entered into confidentiality agreements with the Consortium, and made available the same information regarding ABN AMRO as had been made available to Barclays.

On 28 April 2007, ABN AMRO entered into confidentiality agreements with the Consortium and made available the same information regarding LaSalle as had been made available to Bank of America.

On 3 May 2007, the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal granted a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without the approval of ABN AMRO Shareholders.

On 4 May 2007, Bank of America filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York against ABN AMRO. The lawsuit, Bank of America Corporation v. ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and ABN AMRO Holding N.V., generally alleges, among other things, that ABN AMRO Bank breached its representation in the LaSalle Agreement that no shareholder vote was necessary regarding the sale of LaSalle. The complaint seeks injunctive relief that ABN AMRO Bank be precluded from negotiating for the sale of LaSalle except as provided for in the "go shop" provision of the LaSalle Agreement, an order of specific performance for the delivery of LaSalle to Bank of America and unspecified money damages.

On 5 May 2007, ABN AMRO received an acquisition proposal from the Consortium to purchase LaSalle for US$24.5 billion. This proposal was conditional on the purchase by the Consortium of ABN AMRO for an indicative price of 38.40 per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share and a number of other conditions. The considered view of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board, having received advice from their respective financial and legal advisors, was that the Consortium's acquisition proposal for LaSalle did not constitute an alternative proposal that was superior from a financial point of view to the LaSalle Agreement. This conclusion was principally based on the fact that the Consortium's proposal for LaSalle was dependent on the success of a potential offer to be made for ABN AMRO and the various conditions and uncertainties attached to that potential offer. In particular, fundamental aspects of the potential offer for ABN AMRO, including with respect to financing, required regulatory notifications, tax clearances, the proposed material adverse change condition, required shareholder approvals and the pro-forma financial impact upon each member of the Consortium, remained unclear despite repeated requests for clarification since 25 April 2007, the date on which ABN AMRO received an indicative proposal from the Consortium to acquire ABN AMRO. Prior to making their determination on 6 May 2007, the Managing Board and Supervisory Board sent a detailed information request letter seeking clarification and evidence on various aspects of the Consortium's potential offer for ABN AMRO which had first been requested on 25 April 2007 but the requested information was not provided. Without details about the Consortium's financing and the pro forma financial impact on each member of the Consortium the ABN AMRO Boards were unable to assess the likelihood that any separate shareholder vote required by any member of the Consortium would be successful, and therefore whether or not the potential offer to acquire ABN AMRO had a reasonable likelihood of consummation.

The 14-day go shop period expired at 11:59 pm New York time on 6 May 2007 and no alternative agreement was entered into prior to that time. Two other parties had signed confidentiality agreements and certain due diligence information had been provided to them but ultimately neither submitted a bid for LaSalle.

On 15 May 2007, ABN AMRO filed an appeal in the Supreme Court of The Netherlands requesting that the Supreme Court nullify the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on 3 May 2007 which granted a provision injunction restraining ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without approval of ABN AMRO Shareholders. Bank of America filed an appeal seeking similar relief with the Supreme Court of The Netherlands also on 15 May 2007 as did Barclays.

On 17 May 2007, two ABN AMRO shareholders filed a lawsuit against Bank of America in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York. The lawsuit, Sadowsky v. Bank of America Corporation, generally alleges, among other things, that Bank of America entered into the LaSalle Agreement with knowledge that it was a defensive mechanism designed to foreclose alternative proposals to purchase ABN AMRO and that Bank of America's lawsuit against ABN AMRO was filed in breach of the LaSalle Agreement. The complaint seeks rescission of the LaSalle Agreement, an injunction preventing Bank of America from enforcing the LaSalle Agreement, including the termination fee provision therein, unspecified money damages and an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

On 23 May 2007 Barclays and ABN AMRO announced that they were making progress with the key regulatory filings required to proceed with the Merger and expected to disseminate offer documentation in July 2007.

On 29 May 2007, the Consortium announced a proposed offer for ABN AMRO.

On 30 May 2007, ABN AMRO announced publicly that the Supervisory Board had formed a transaction committee (the Transaction Committee), formed of the same members as the previously existing ad hoc committee (Mr Martinez, Mr Olijslager and Mr van den Bergh) which will liaise with the ABN AMRO Managing Board and key staff and advisors of ABN AMRO on all matters with respect to the offer by Barclays and with respect to the proposed offer announced by the Consortium. The Transaction Committee will operate in all respects so as to enable the Supervisory Board to take on an informed basis and with the help of its own independent financial and legal advisors the appropriate decisions with due consideration of the interests of ABN AMRO and its stakeholders.

On 11 June 2007, at the joint request of Bank of America and ABN AMRO, the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York adjourned the initial conference in the lawsuit filed by Bank of America against ABN AMRO until 27 June 2007 in view of the pendency of appeals filed by ABN AMRO and Bank of America to the Supreme Court of the Netherlands from the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on 3 May 2007.

On 12 June 2007, Barclays announced publicly that, in collaboration with ABN AMRO, it has made substantially all of the pre-acquisition competition and regulatory filings required to proceed with the proposed combination and expected to publish the offer documentation in July 2007.

On 12 June 2007, Barclays also announced publicly that it had filed the draft documentation in relation to the Offer with regulators in the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and the United States of America (including the draft registration statement on Form F-4 containing the preliminary version of the offer to document/ prospectus).

On 26 June 2007, the Advocate General to the Supreme Court of The Netherlands published a recommendation to the Supreme Court to nullify the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on 3 May 2007. This recommendation was independent legal advice issued to the Supreme Court.

On 28 June 2007, four trade unions joined the investigation proceedings initiated on 26 April 2007 by Vereniging van Effectenbezitters at the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal. The trade unions have put forward certain additional objections and requested that the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal order an investigation into certain affairs of ABN AMRO in respect of the offer process.

On 9 July 2007, ABN AMRO filed a statement of defense in response to the request of Vereniging van Effectenbezitters to order an investigation into certain affairs of ABN AMRO in respect of the offer process.

On 10 July 2007, Vereniging van Effectenbezitters requested that the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal, in the context of the investigation proceedings initiated by it on 26 April 2007, appoint three independent members of the Supervisory Board. The request was revoked prior to the hearing, which was then cancelled.

On 13 July 2007, the Supreme Court of the Netherlands upheld the appeals filed by ABN AMRO, Bank of America and Barclays on 15 May 2007 against the decision of the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal issued on 3 May 2007. The Supreme Court nullified the decision of the Enterprise

Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal and irrevocably dismissed the request of Vereniging van Effectenbezitters for a provisional injunction restraining ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank from proceeding to completion under the LaSalle Agreement without approval of the ABN AMRO Shareholders.

On 16 July 2007, the Consortium announced its intention to make an offer to acquire ABN AMRO for approximately 71 billion, through a combination of cash and newly issued shares of Royal Bank of Scotland PLC.

On the evening of 18 July 2007, Mr. Varley informed Mr. Groenink that the AFM had granted Barclays an extension so that an announcement of its formal offer documentation being available could be made on or before 6 August 2007. Mr. Varley also informed Mr. Groenink that Barclays was considering possible alternative offer structures, including the introduction of a partial cash consideration element into its offer.

On 19 July 2007, Barclays announced it was considering possible alternative offer structures, including the introduction of a partial cash consideration element into its offer but that no decision had yet been taken.

On the evening of 19 July 2007, during a telephone conversation between Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley, Mr. Varley outlined further details about the revised offer for ABN AMRO that Barclays was considering.

On 20 July 2007, the Central Works Council of ABN AMRO provided positive advice in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays.

On the evening of 20 July 2007, ABN AMRO received a letter from Barclays outlining the terms and conditions of its revised offer for ABN AMRO.

On 21 and 22 July 2007, representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays discussed and agreed the provisions of an amendment to the Merger Protocol to accommodate ABN AMRO's review of the revised proposal from Barclays and to facilitate Barclays' public announcement of its revised proposal on 23 July 2007.

On 23 July 2007, Barclays announced the revised terms of its offer for ABN AMRO.

On 25 July 2007, Mr. Varley sent a letter to Mr. Groenink and Mr. Martinez to restate the key points underlying Barclays revised proposal and why the ABN AMRO Boards should continue to recommend this proposed offer to ABN AMRO Shareholders.

On 26 July 2007, Barclays filed with the SEC an amendment to its draft registration statement on Form F-4 containing a revised draft of its offer document/prospectus.

On the morning of 26 July 2007, the Managing Board met to consider the revised terms of the Barclays proposed offer and the terms of the Consortium's offer.

Later on the same day, the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board held a joint meeting to discuss the two competing proposals and received a combined presentation from members of the Managing Board, outside legal counsel and financial advisers and members of the management, followed by a Q&A session.

On the evening of 26 July 2007, Mr. Varley made a presentation to the Supervisory Board and Mr. Groenink.

During the course of the day on 27 July 2007, the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board, met throughout the day both together and separately, in executive sessions and with outside legal counsel and financial advisers. As a result of these meetings, each of the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board, after having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and financial advisers, acting in good faith and observing their fiduciary duties resolved to make the statement contained in the press release issued on 30 July 2007 and in Item 4 of ABN AMRO's Solicitation/ Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9, which was filed with the SEC on 30 July 2007.

On the evening of 27 July 2007, Mr. Groenink and Mr. Varley agreed in principle that neither ABN AMRO, nor Barclays, wished to terminate the Merger Protocol and/or to claim payment at that time of the break fees contemplated therein.

On 27 July 2007, the lawsuit filed in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York against ABN AMRO by Bank of America on 4 May 2007, was dismissed.

Table of Contents

During the course of the day on 28 July and 29 July representatives of ABN AMRO and Barclays, and their respective advisers, worked on the second amendment to the Merger Protocol, dated 30 July 2007. On 2 August 2007, a hearing was held at the Enterprise Chamber of the Amsterdam Court of Appeal in respect of the requests of Vereniging van Effectenbezitters and four trade unions to order an investigation into certain affairs of ABN AMRO in respect of the offer process. In relation thereto, ABN AMRO will continue to update investors in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Table of ContentsANNEX A DESCRIPTION OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES

The terms of, and rights attaching to, the Barclays Preference Shares are contained in the articles of association to be adopted by the Barclays Shareholders at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting (the New Articles) and are as summarised below. Defined terms used below are set out in paragraph 12 of this Annex A unless otherwise defined in this document.

1. General

The Barclays Preference Shares will have a nominal value of 1 each and will be issued fully paid. The Barclays Preference Shares will rank pari passu and rateably without any preference or priority among themselves. A full description of the ranking of the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in profits and on a return of capital is contained in paragraphs 2(i) and 3 below.

The Barclays Preference Shares will be issued in registered form with a nominal value of 1 on the Settlement Date.

2. Dividends

- (i) Each Barclays Preference Share shall entitle the holder thereof to receive out of the profits of the Company available for distribution and permitted by law to be distributed a non-cumulative preferential dividend (the Preference Dividend), in priority to the payment of any dividend to the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares and any other class of shares in the capital of the Company ranking junior to the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in profits of the Company and pari passu in such regard with the holders of the Staff Shares and any other class of shares in the capital of the Company (other than any shares which may be issued by the Company and which by their terms rank in priority, with the consent or sanction of the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares given in accordance with the New Articles, to the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in such profits).
- (ii) From the point in time when no Staff Shares remain in issue, Preference Dividends will be paid in accordance with this paragraph 2(ii).
- (a) Preference Dividends shall be paid at a rate per annum equal to one per cent. above the Decomposed Swap Rate on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, which Preference Dividend will be payable semi-annually in arrear, on the Dividend Payment Dates. For the purposes of this paragraph (ii) and paragraph (iii) below, principal amount means, in relation to each Barclays Preference Share, 1. If a Preference Dividend is required to be paid in respect of a Barclays Preference Share on any date other than a Dividend Payment Date, it shall be calculated by applying the rate per annum equal to one per cent. above the Decomposed Swap Rate on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest cent.
- (b) From (and including) 15 December 2012, Preference Dividends shall be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares at a rate, reset semi-annually, equal to the aggregate of one per cent. per annum and EURIBOR in respect of the relevant Dividend Period on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, which Preference Dividend will be payable semi-annually in arrear, on the Dividend Payment Dates. The Company shall, upon determining the rate pursuant to this paragraph 2(ii), cause such rate and the amount payable in respect of the relevant Dividend Period on each Barclays Preference Share to be notified to the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares in writing.
- The Company will, as soon as practicable after the Dividend Determination Date in relation to each Dividend Period, calculate the amount of dividend payable in respect of each Barclays Preference Share for such Dividend Period. The amount of Preference Dividend payable will be calculated by applying the rate of one per cent. per annum and EURIBOR for such Dividend Period to the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share and multiplying the product by the actual number of days in such Dividend Period divided by 360 (or, if any portion of such Dividend Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (i) the actual number of days in that portion divided by 366 and (ii) the actual number of days in the remainder of such Dividend Period divided by 360) and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest cent.

- (iii) For so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, Preference Dividends will be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii).
- (a) Preference Dividends shall be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares at a rate per annum equal to one per cent. above the Decomposed Swap Rate on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, which Preference Dividend will be payable in equal instalments semi-annually in arrear on each Dividend Payment Date in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding the Dividend Period in which such Dividend Payment Date falls provided that:
- (1) in respect of the first Dividend Period commencing on the Issue Date the amount of the Preference Dividend to be paid in respect of each Barclays Preference Share shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the dividend which would have been payable on each Barclays Preference Share if the first Dividend Period had been a full Dividend Period by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days from and including the Issue Date to but excluding the last day of the first Dividend Period, and the denominator of which is 180; and
 - (2) otherwise, if a Preference Dividend is required to be paid in respect of a Barclays Preference Share for any period shorter than a Dividend Period, it shall be calculated by applying the rate per annum equal to one per cent. above the Decomposed Swap Rate on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest cent.
- (b) From (and including) the Dividend Period commencing after 15 December 2012, Preference Dividends shall be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares at a rate, reset semi-annually, equal to the aggregate of one per cent. per annum and EURIBOR in respect of the relevant Dividend Period on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, which Preference Dividend will be payable in equal instalments semi-annually in arrear on each Dividend Payment Date in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding the Dividend Period in which such Dividend Payment Date falls. The Company shall, upon determining the rate pursuant to this paragraph 2(iii), cause such rate and the amount payable in respect of the relevant Dividend Period on each Barclays Preference Share to be notified to the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares in writing.
- The Company will, as soon as practicable after the Dividend Determination Date in relation to each Dividend Period, calculate the amount of dividend payable in respect of each Barclays Preference Share for such Dividend Period. The amount of Preference Dividend payable will be calculated by applying the rate of one per cent. per annum and EURIBOR for such Dividend Period to the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share and multiplying the product by the actual number of days in such Dividend Period divided by 360 (or, if any portion of such Dividend Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (i) the actual number of days in that portion divided by 366 and (ii) the actual number of days in the remainder of such Dividend Period divided by 360) and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest cent.
- (c) From the date on which the Staff Shares are no longer in issue (the Relevant Date), Preference Dividends will be paid in accordance with paragraph 2(ii), provided that the first Preference Dividend on each Barclays Preference Share to be paid on the Dividend Payment Date immediately following the Relevant Date shall be calculated as follows:
- If in any calendar year such Relevant Date is a date that is:
- (1) on or after 1 January but prior to 15 June, then the holder of a Barclays Preference Share shall receive on the next Dividend Payment Date (being 15 June in such calendar year):
 - (i) if no Preference Dividend has been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of such immediately preceding Dividend Period and (2) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180; and

- (ii) if a Preference Dividend has already been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180;
- (2) on or after 15 June but prior to 30 June, then the holder of the Barclays Preference Share shall receive on the next Dividend Payment Date (being 15 December in such calendar year):
 - (i) if no Preference Dividend has been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate (1) of the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of such immediately preceding Dividend Period and (2) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180 and (3) the relevant Preference Dividend on the Barclays Preference Shares payable in accordance with paragraph 2(ii) for the Dividend Period ending on 15 December of such calendar year; and
 - (ii) if a Preference Dividend has already been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180 and (2) the relevant Preference Dividend on the Barclays Preference Share payable in accordance with paragraph 2(ii) for the Dividend Period ending on 15 December of such calendar year;
- (3) on or after 30 June but prior to 15 December, then the holder of a Barclays Preference Share shall receive on the next Dividend Payment Date (being 15 December in such calendar year):
 - (i) if no Preference Dividend has been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of such immediately preceding Dividend Period and (2) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to for the Dividend Period in which such relevant date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180; and
 - (ii) if a Preference Dividend has already been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180;
- (4) on or after 15 December but prior to 31 December, then the holder of the Barclays Preference Share shall receive on the next Dividend Payment Date (being 15 June in the following calendar year):
 - (i) if no Preference Dividend has been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would have been entitled to in respect of such immediately preceding Dividend Period and (2) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180 and (3) the relevant Preference Dividend on the Barclays

Preference Share payable in accordance with paragraph 2(ii) for the Dividend Period ending on 15 June of the immediately succeeding calendar year; and

- (ii) if a Preference Dividend has already been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180 and (2) the relevant Preference Dividend on the Barclays Preference Share in accordance with paragraph 2(ii) for the Dividend Period ending on 15 June of the immediately succeeding calendar year.
- (iv) Subject to paragraph (v) below, the Preference Dividend for each Dividend Period shall be paid only (a) to the extent that payment can be made out of the profits of the Company available for distribution and permitted by law to be distributed and (b) for so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, if a dividend payment has also been paid at the same time on the Staff Shares. If a Preference Dividend is to be paid but the profits of the Company available for distribution are insufficient (after payment in full, or the setting aside of a sum to enable the payment in full, of dividends expressed to be payable on the relevant Dividend Payment Date on any preference share and on any other class of shares in the capital of the Company ranking in priority to or pari passu with the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in the profits of the Company, and after payment in full, or the setting aside of a sum to enable the payment in full, of all dividends expressed to be payable on a date earlier than the relevant Dividend Payment Date on any class of shares in the capital of the Company that ranks in priority to the Barclays Preference Shares in such regard and carries cumulative rights to dividends) to enable payment in full of dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares on any Dividend Payment Date then the Barclays Board shall (subject to paragraph (v) below) pay dividends to the extent of the distributable profits on a pro rata basis so that (i) the aggregate amount of dividends paid on the Barclays Preference Shares and (ii) the aggregate amount of dividends paid on each other class of shares on which dividends are expressed to be payable on such date and ranking pari passu with the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in profits and (iii) the aggregate amount of dividends paid or set aside for payment on such date on each other class of shares ranking pari passu with the Barclays Preference Shares in such regard and carrying cumulative rights to dividends, on which dividends were expressed to be payable before such date, will bear to each other the same ratio as the full amounts of dividends (1) expressed to be payable in aggregate on the Barclays Preference Shares on such date, (2) expressed to be payable in aggregate on each such other pari passu ranking class of shares on which dividends are expressed to be payable on such date and (3) paid, or set aside for payment of, in aggregate on each such other pari passu ranking class of shares carrying cumulative rights to dividends in respect of dividends expressed to be payable before such date, bear to each other.
- (v) Notwithstanding paragraph (iv) above, if on or prior to any Dividend Payment Date the Barclays Board determines in its absolute discretion that the Preference Dividend which would otherwise be payable on a Dividend Payment Date should not be paid, or should be paid only in part, then such Preference Dividend shall in accordance with such determination either not be declared and payable at all or only be payable in part.
- (vi) If a Preference Dividend is not paid, or is paid only in part, pursuant to paragraphs (iv) or (v) above, the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall have no claim in respect of such non-payment or non-payment in part, as applicable. The Company shall have no obligation to pay the Preference Dividend for the relevant Dividend Period or to pay interest thereon, whether or not Preference Dividends are paid for any future Dividend Period.
- (vii) Any Preference Dividend unclaimed after a period of 12 years from the date when it became due for payment shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company and the payment by the Barclays Board of any unclaimed Preference Dividend or other sum payable on or in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect of it.

(viii) No dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of the Barclays Preference Shares shall bear interest as against the Company.

3. Capital

In the event of any return of capital by way of reduction of capital or on liquidation then, for so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, the Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Staff Shares and the Barclays Preference Shares shall rank pari passu in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up on the shares of each class, except that (I) in the event of a winding up of the Company the holders of the Staff Shares shall be entitled to participate in the surplus assets available for distribution among the members to the extent of the amounts paid up on the Staff Shares held by them respectively plus 10 per cent. of such amounts, but shall not further participate in surplus assets and (II) the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall only be entitled to participate in the assets of the Company available for distribution among the members up to an amount equal to an aggregate of 1 per Barclays Preference Share, but shall not be entitled to participate further in such assets.

If no Staff Shares remain in issue, the assets of the Company available for distribution among the members shall be applied in paying to holders of the Barclays Preference Shares pari passu in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up on the Barclays Preference Shares an amount equal to an aggregate of 1 per Barclays Preference Share in priority to any payment to the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or any other class of shares in the capital of the Company then in issue ranking junior to the Barclays Preference Shares on such a return of capital and pari passu with the holders of any other class of shares in the capital of the Company then in issue (other than any class of shares in the capital of the company then in issue ranking in priority to the Barclays Preference Shares on such return of capital) but the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall not be entitled to participate further in the assets of the Company available for distribution among the members.

The holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall not be entitled to participate in any other return of capital.

4. Redemption

The Company may, subject to the Companies Acts, to the New Articles and to prior notification to the FSA (if required) and provided that at that time the group of which the Company is a part is in compliance with the main BIPRU Pillar rules (applicable to it on a consolidated basis) (and will continue to be so immediately after redemption), upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice, redeem all or some of the Barclays Preference Shares, on 15 December 2012 and on any Dividend Payment Date thereafter.

Redemption will be effected in the manner provided in the New Articles. There shall be paid on each Barclays Preference Share so redeemed an amount equal to 1.

5. Purchases

The Company may at any time purchase, or cause to be purchased for its account, all or any of the Barclays Preference Shares, subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the New Articles and the applicable rules of any stock exchange or exchanges on which any of its shares are listed from time to time, at any price. The Company shall not be required to select the shares to be purchased rateably or in any other particular manner as between the holders of Barclays Preference Shares or as between them and the holders of shares of any other class or in accordance with the rights as to dividends or capital conferred by any class of shares. No purchase of Barclays Preference Shares will be made by or on behalf of the Company without the prior consent of the FSA (if required).

6. Form and Transfer

Title to the Barclays Preference Shares will pass by transfer and registration on the register for the Barclays Preference Shares.

Each registration of transfer of Barclays Preference Shares in registered form will, subject to and in accordance with the New Articles, be effected by entry on the register for the Barclays Preference Shares kept by the Company's registrar at its office in the United Kingdom. No fee shall be charged on the registration of any instrument of transfer or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to the Barclays Preference Shares, but the person requesting such registration will be required to pay any related taxes, stamp duties or other governmental charges.

7. Payments

Payments in respect of amounts payable by way of dividend and on redemption shall be made in Euros to the person shown as the holder in the register for the Barclays Preference Shares at the opening of business in London on the fifteenth day before the due date for such payment (the Record Date). If the due date for payment of any amount in relation to the Barclays Preference Shares (other than the amount of any Preference Dividend) is not a Euro Business Day, then payment of such amount will be made on the next succeeding Euro Business Day, without any liability on the part of the Company to pay interest thereon or compensation in respect of such delay.

Payments in respect of any amount payable by way of dividend or on redemption in respect of the Barclays Preference Shares will be made by cheque or warrant sent by post to the registered address of the holder, in each case as shown at the opening of business in London on the Record Date, or in the case of joint holders, to any one of them, or, upon request of the holder or joint holders not later than the date specified for such purpose in the notice of redemption, by bank transfer to a Euro account maintained by the holder, details of which are notified by the holder in writing to the Company.

Payments in respect of amounts payable by way of dividend and on redemption on the Barclays Preference Shares will be subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and other regulations.

8. Voting

The holders of Barclays Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any general meeting of the Company.

9. Variations of Rights and Further Issues

- (i) The holders of Barclays Preference Shares shall have power at any time, and from time to time, and whether before or during liquidation, by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders of Barclays Preference Shares, of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution shall have been duly given, to consent on behalf of all the holders of Barclays Preference Shares:
- (a) to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally with the Barclays Preference Shares, or having any priority thereto, which could not be issued under the powers contained in the New Articles without the consent of all the holders of Barclays Preference Shares; or
 - (b) to the abandonment or alteration of any preference, privilege, priority or special right, whether as regards capital or dividends, or of any right of voting affecting the Barclays Preference Shares, or to the abandonment of any unpaid Preference Dividend, or the reduction for any time or permanently of the Preference Dividends payable thereon, or to the amalgamation into one class of the shares of any two or more classes, or to the division of shares into shares of different classes, or to any alteration in the New Articles varying or abrogating or putting an end to any rights or privileges attached to the Barclays Preference Shares; or
 - (c) to any scheme for the reduction of capital prejudicially affecting the Barclays Preference Shares as compared with any other class of shares in the capital of the Company, and not otherwise authorised by the New Articles; or
 - (d) to any scheme for the distribution of assets in money or kind in or before liquidation (though such scheme may not be in accordance with legal rights) or to any contract for the sale of the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking or property determining the manner in which, as between the several classes of shareholders, the purchase consideration shall be distributed (though such distribution may not be in accordance with legal rights); and
 - (e) generally, to any alteration, contract, compromise or arrangement which the persons voting thereon could, if sui juris and holding all the shares of the class, consent to or enter into;
- and a resolution so passed shall be binding upon all the holders of Barclays Preference Shares provided that this sub-paragraph 9(i)(e) shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent in any case in which, but for this sub-paragraph, the object of the resolution could have been effected without it.

- (ii) Any meeting for the purpose of paragraph 9(i) shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an extraordinary general meeting of the Company and all the

Barclays (Netherlands) N.V.

(a public limited liability company (naamloze vennootschap) incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands, having its registered office at Amsterdam, The Netherlands, and registered with the trade register, No. 34273029)

Offering of up to 2,500,000,000 existing ordinary shares with a nominal value of 0.12 each in connection with the proposed issue of up to 4,901,278,058 new ordinary shares in Barclays PLC in connection with the proposed merger with ABN AMRO Holding N.V.

Reference is made to:

- (a) the offer document dated 6 August 2007 by Barclays PLC (Barclays) for (i) all the issued and outstanding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares with a nominal value of 0.56 (ii) all the issued and outstanding ABN AMRO American depositary shares, each representing one ABN AMRO Ordinary Share, (iii) all the issued and outstanding depositary receipts that have been issued for convertible preference finance shares with a nominal value of 0.56, and (iv) all the issued and outstanding formerly convertible preference finance shares with a nominal value of 2.24, in all cases in the capital of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO) (the Offer Document); and
- (b) the prospectus made available by Barclays dated 6 August 2007 related to the proposed issue of up to 4,901,278,058 new ordinary shares and up to 808,191,360 new preference shares in Barclays in connection with the proposed merger with ABN AMRO and application for admission of up to 4,901,278,058 new ordinary shares in Barclays to the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities (the Barclays Prospectus).

Unless defined herein, capitalised terms used in this prospectus (this Prospectus) shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Barclays Prospectus.

This Prospectus relates to the Primary Exchange as part of the Offer as described in Part II, section 6 of the Barclays Prospectus (under Ordinary Share Offer).

This Prospectus concerns the offering (the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares Offer) by BARCLAYS INVESTMENTS (NETHERLANDS) N.V., a public company (naamloze vennootschap) incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands, having its registered office at Fred. Roeskestraat 123-1, 1076 EE Amsterdam, The Netherlands and being registered with the trade register, no. 34 27 38 56) (Barclays Investments (Netherlands)) of 2,500,000,000 existing ordinary shares with a nominal value of 0.12 each in the capital of BARCLAYS (NETHERLANDS) N.V., a public company (naamloze vennootschap) incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands, having its registered office at Fred. Roeskestraat 123-1, 1076 EE Amsterdam, The Netherlands and being registered with the trade register, no. 34 27 30 29) (Barclays (Netherlands)), any of such shares hereinafter referred to as the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares).

The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received by the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be immediately exchanged by the Nominee for New Barclays Ordinary Shares, without additional actions required from ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. The steps involved in the Primary Exchange will be effected consecutively on the Settlement Date and are as follows.

(A) By accepting the Primary Exchange, the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder

- (1) irrevocably instructs the Nominee via his bank or broker to receive on such shareholders' behalf, such number of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares as will after the transfer contemplated in sub-paragraph (2) hereinafter, have a market value equal to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares he or she undertakes to tender, and
- (2) irrevocably instructs the Listing and Exchange Agent to transfer his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) in return, and
- (3) irrevocably instructs the Nominee to transfer, immediately after receipt by the Nominee, the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares to Barclays.

(B) In exchange for the transfer to it of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder.

Consequently the end result of all these steps is that (a) the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which are tendered become held by Barclays (Netherlands), (b) the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which are initially transferred to the Nominee are ultimately transferred to Barclays and (c) New Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued and cash is paid to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. The number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and the amount of cash paid in exchange for the transfer of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares will be determined by applying the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility to the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares transferred by the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder to Barclays (Netherlands). The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued in the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland. All irrevocable instructions are subject to withdrawal rights available to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders up to the Closing Date. Please refer to the Summary (under Involvement in the Offer of Barclays Investments (Netherlands) and Barclays (Netherlands)) and Part I (under Reason for the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares Offer and use of Proceeds) for more detailed information.

The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares are admitted into the book-entry system operated by Euroclear Nederland on the basis of the Dutch Securities Giro Act (Wet giraal effectenverkeer the Securites Giro Act) and are administrated in the securities account of Barclays Investments (Netherlands).

The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares Offer is an integral part of the Offer and is in its entirety subject to the terms and conditions included in this Prospectus and the Barclays Prospectus (for conditions in the Barclays Prospectus, see pages 39-40 of the Barclays Prospectus).

Announcements will be issued by press release and, to the extent required under applicable rules and regulations, will be published in at least two daily newspapers with national circulation in The Netherlands (Het Financieele Dagblad and the NRC Handelsblad). Such announcements may be combined with, and integrated in, any announcements made pursuant to the Barclays Prospectus and the Offer Memorandum.

SUMMARY

THE FOLLOWING SUMMARY SHOULD BE READ AS AN INTRODUCTION TO THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY DECISION TO INVEST IN BARCLAYS (NETHERLANDS) SHARES SHOULD BE BASED ON A CONSIDERATION OF THIS PROSPECTUS AS A WHOLE.

Where a claim relating to information contained in this document is brought before a court, a plaintiff investor might, under the national legislation of the EEA States, have to bear the costs of translating this Prospectus before legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches to those persons who are responsible for the summary, including any translation of the summary, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of this Prospectus.

New Barclays Shares

1. Introduction

On 23 April 2007, the ABN AMRO Boards and the Barclays Board jointly announced that agreement had been reached on the terms of a recommended merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays to create one of the world's leading universal banking groups, to be called Barclays.

The terms on which the Merger would take place were revised prior to announcements by Barclays on 23 July 2007 and 30 July 2007.

On 23 July 2007, the Barclays Board also announced an unconditional subscription of 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) by China Development Bank and Temasek as well as the Conditional Investment and Clawback Placing.

On 30 July 2007, the ABN AMRO Boards announced their continuing support for the strategic benefits of the combination with Barclays, but concluded they were not in a position to recommend either of the rival offers for ABN AMRO.

The Merger was agreed to be subject to, among other things, the satisfaction or waiver of certain pre-conditions. Those pre-conditions have now been satisfied, waived or rolled forward as conditions of the Offer.

2. Summary of the Terms of the Offer and of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares Offer

The Merger is being effected by means of the Offer. The Offer is being unanimously recommended by the Barclays Board. The Offer comprises separate offers for each class of ABN AMRO's outstanding share capital.

Pursuant to the Ordinary Share Offer, ABN AMRO Shareholders will receive 2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares and 13.15 in cash for every 1 ABN AMRO Ordinary Share.

The Ordinary Share Offer values each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share at 34.83 and values ABN AMRO at approximately 65.6 billion, based on the Closing Price of Barclays Ordinary Shares on 2 August 2007.

Existing ABN AMRO Shareholders will own approximately 35 percent. and existing Barclays Shareholders will own approximately 56 percent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group, with the remainder being held by China Development Bank and Temasek. This assumes all of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares currently in issue are tendered.

Further details on the Merger can be found in the Offer Document and the Barclays Prospectus.

Involvement in the Offer of Barclays Investments (Netherlands) and Barclays (Netherlands)

In effecting the Primary Exchange as described below, Barclays will be involving its two Dutch subsidiary companies Barclays Investments (Netherlands) and Barclays (Netherlands). Barclays owns the entire issued share capital in Barclays Investments (Netherlands) which, in turn, owns the entire issued share capital of Barclays (Netherlands).

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are presented with two options pursuant to the Offer: (1) the Primary Exchange; or (2) the Alternative Exchange. ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares without opting validly for the Primary Exchange or the Alternative Exchange will be deemed to have accepted the Primary Exchange. The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will, in both cases, be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The Primary Exchange is likely to be the preferred option for most ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. This is because the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and accordingly for so long as these shares remain held in the Euroclear Nederland System and certain conditions are satisfied, these shares may be sold without any charge to United Kingdom stamp duty reserve tax or (in practice) stamp duty.

In contrast, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form rather than being issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, and accordingly on any subsequent sale of those shares United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable. However, electing for the Alternative Exchange may enable certain ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders to obtain a tax deferral in certain jurisdictions on the exchange of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders should carefully consider the information set out in Part VI of this Prospectus (Taxation Considerations).

The Primary Exchange will be effected through the use of Barclays (Netherlands), which is the company that is the intended direct holding company for ABN AMRO following completion of the Offer. Prior to the Settlement Date Barclays (indirectly) owns, and after completion of all steps of the Offer Barclays will (directly or indirectly) own, 100 percent of the shares of Barclays (Netherlands), which shares are held in the Euroclear Nederland System. The Primary Exchange will be effected by the Nominee acting as appointed nominee for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and the Listing and Exchange Agent, who will effect transactions through Euroclear Nederland.

The steps involved in the Primary Exchange will be effected consecutively on the Settlement Date and are as follows.

(A) By accepting the Primary Exchange, the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder

- (1) irrevocably instructs the Nominee via his bank or broker to receive on such shareholders' behalf, such number of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares as will after the transfer contemplated in sub-paragraph (2) hereinafter, have a market value equal to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares he or she undertakes to tender, and
- (2) irrevocably instructs the Listing and Exchange Agent to transfer his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) in return, and
- (3) irrevocably instructs the Nominee to transfer, immediately after receipt by the Nominee, the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares to Barclays.

(B) In exchange for the transfer to it of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder.

Consequently, the end result of all these steps is that (a) the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which are tendered become held by Barclays (Netherlands), (b) the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which are initially transferred to the Nominee are ultimately transferred to Barclays and (c) New Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued and cash is paid to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. The number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and the amount of cash paid in exchange for the transfer of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares will be determined by applying the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility to the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares transferred by the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder to Barclays (Netherlands). The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued in the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland. All irrevocable instructions are subject to withdrawal rights available to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders up to the Closing Date see also Part I, paragraph 8 of this Prospectus.

The ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who selects the Alternative Exchange, will tender his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares via his bank or broker directly to Barclays via the Listing and Exchange Agent and in return Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued directly to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting

a CREST member's account) or in certificated form, rather than in the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, and accordingly United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable on any subsequent sale of those shares.

The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares Offer is conditional on the issue of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares. Please refer to Part I, paragraph 1 of this Prospectus.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements and assumptions in this document constitute forward-looking statements with respect to certain of Barclays Investments (Netherlands) plans and current goals and expectations relating to its future results, performance or achievements and which involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Barclays Investments (Netherlands) cautions readers that no forward-looking statement is a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as aim , anticipate , target , expect , estimate , intend , plan , goal , believe , or other words of similar meaning. Any forward-looking statements made herein speak only as of the date they are made. Except as required by the AFM, Euronext Amsterdam or applicable law, Barclays Investments (Netherlands) expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained in this document to reflect any change in Barclays Investments (Netherlands) expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

PART I
INFORMATION ON THE BARCLAYS (NETHERLANDS) SHARES OFFER

1. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares Offer is an integral part of the Offer and is in its entirety subject to the terms and conditions included in this Prospectus and the Barclays Prospectus (for conditions in the Barclays Prospectus, see pages 39-40 of the Barclays Prospectus).
2. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares Offer (which is an integral part of the Offer) relates to the offer of up to 2,500,000,000 ordinary shares with a nominal value of 0.12 each in the capital of Barclays (Netherlands), in connection with the proposed issue of up to 4,901,278,058 new ordinary shares in Barclays in connection with the proposed merger with ABN AMRO. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares have been issued at its incorporation on 2 May 2007 and are registered shares. They have been issued under Dutch law. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares are fully paid up.

Reason for the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares Offer and use of Proceeds.

3. In effecting the Primary Exchange as described below and in Part II, Section 6 of the Barclays Prospectus (under Ordinary Share Offer), Barclays will be involving its two Dutch subsidiary companies Barclays Investments (Netherlands) and Barclays (Netherlands). Barclays owns the entire issued share capital in Barclays Investments (Netherlands) which, in turn, owns the entire issued share capital of Barclays (Netherlands).
4. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are presented with two options pursuant to the Offer: (1) the Primary Exchange; or (2) the Alternative Exchange. ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares without opting validly for the Primary Exchange or the Alternative Exchange will be deemed to have accepted the Primary Exchange. The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will, in both cases, be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The Primary Exchange is likely to be the preferred option for most ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. This is because the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and accordingly for so long as these shares remain held in the Euroclear Nederland System and certain conditions are satisfied, these shares may be sold without any charge to United Kingdom stamp duty reserve tax or (in practice) stamp duty.
5. In contrast, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued under the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form rather than being issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, and accordingly on any subsequent sale of those shares United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable. However, electing for the Alternative Exchange may enable certain ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders to obtain a tax deferral in certain jurisdictions on the exchange of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders should carefully consider the information set out in Part VI of this Prospectus (Taxation Considerations).
6. The Primary Exchange will be effected through the use of Barclays (Netherlands), which is the company that is the intended direct holding company for ABN AMRO following completion of the Offer. Prior to the Settlement Date Barclays (indirectly) owns, and after completion of all steps of the Offer Barclays will (directly or indirectly) own, 100 percent of the shares of Barclays (Netherlands), which shares are held in the Euroclear Nederland System. The Primary Exchange will be effected by the Nominee acting as appointed nominee for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and the Listing and Exchange Agent, who will effect transactions through Euroclear Nederland.
7. The steps involved in the Primary Exchange will be effected consecutively on the Settlement Date and are as follows,

(A) By accepting the Primary Exchange, the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder

- (1) irrevocably instructs the Nominee via his bank or broker to receive on such shareholders' behalf, such number of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares as will after the transfer contemplated in sub-paragraph
- (2) hereinafter, have a market value equal to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares he or she undertakes to tender, and

Table of Contents

- (2) irrevocably instructs the Listing and Exchange Agent to transfer his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) in return, and
- (3) irrevocably instructs the Nominee to transfer, immediately after receipt by the Nominee, the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares to Barclays.
- (B) In exchange for the transfer to it of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder.
8. Consequently the end result of all these steps is that (a) the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which are tendered become held by Barclays (Netherlands), (b) the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which are initially transferred to the Nominee are ultimately transferred to Barclays and (c) New Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued and cash is paid to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders. The number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued and the amount of cash paid in exchange for the transfer of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares will be determined by applying the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility to the number of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares transferred by the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder to Barclays (Netherlands). The ultimate consideration for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be such number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and such amount of cash as may be determined in accordance with the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued in the Primary Exchange will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland. All irrevocable instructions are subject to withdrawal rights available to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders up to the Closing Date as described in Part II, Section 7 of the Barclays Prospectus.
9. The ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who selects the Alternative Exchange, will tender his or her ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares via his bank or broker directly to Barclays via the Listing and Exchange Agent and in return Barclays will issue New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or pay cash (as appropriate) to the tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued directly to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders pursuant to the Alternative Exchange will be issued via CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form, rather than in the Euroclear Nederland System via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, and accordingly United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is likely to be payable on any subsequent sale of those shares.

5. Barclays (Netherlands) Articles

The following is a summary of the Barclays (Netherlands) Articles. Copies of the Barclays (Netherlands) Articles are available free of charge at the offices of Barclays (Netherlands): Fred. Roeskestraat 123/1, 1076 EE Amsterdam, The Netherlands and at the offices of the Listing and Exchange Agent: ABN AMRO Bank N.V., Gustav Mahlerlaan 10, 1082 PP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. They can also be inspected at these addresses. The Barclays (Netherlands) Articles are incorporated by reference in this Prospectus.

(i) Objects (Article 2)

The objects of Barclays (Netherlands) are set out in full in Article 2 of the Barclays (Netherlands) Articles which provides, among other things, that the objects are to:

- (A) incorporate, acquire, participate in, finance, manage and/or have any other interest in other companies or businesses of any nature;
- (B) acquire, develop, use and/or assign industrial and intellectual property rights;
- (C) raise, fund, by way of securities, bank loans, bond issues, promissory notes, and/or to borrow in any other way, to lend, to provide guarantees, to bind the company and/or to provide security for the debt of other parties;

Table of Contents

as well as everything associated with the above, relating or conducive thereto, all in the widest sense of the word.

(ii) Directors and representation (Articles 14 up to and including 18)

The board of managing directors of Barclays (Netherlands) consists of one or more members. The members of the board of managing directors are appointed, suspended or dismissed by the general meeting of shareholders. The general meeting of shareholders shall determine the remuneration and further conditions of employment of each member of the board of managing directors, as well as any further employment conditions.

The board of managing directors is entrusted with the management of Barclays (Netherlands). The board of managing directors may lay down rules regarding its own decision making process, which rules are subject to the approval of the general meeting of shareholders. The board of managing directors may determine which duties each member of the Management Board will be charged with. Such allocation is subject to the approval of the general meeting of shareholders.

Resolutions by the board of managing directors concerning a significant change to the identity or the nature of Barclays (Netherlands) or its business are subject to the approval of the general meeting of shareholders, including:

- (A) the transfer of the enterprise of Barclays (Netherlands) or substantially the entire enterprise thereof to a third party;
- (B) the company or a subsidiary entering into or terminating long term co-operation with another legal entity or company or as a fully liable partner in a limited partnership or partnership, if this cooperation or termination has far reaching consequences for Barclays (Netherlands);
- (C) the company's or a subsidiary's acquisition or divestment of a participation in the capital of a company worth at least one third of its assets according to the consolidated balance sheet with notes, based on the company's most recent adopted annual accounts.

In the event of the absence or inability to act of one or more managing directors, the remaining managing director or the remaining managing directors shall be charged with the management.

In the event of the absence or inability to act of all the managing directors or the sole managing director, the management shall be temporarily entrusted to person(s) designated for that purpose by the general meeting of shareholders.

Barclays (Netherlands) is represented by the board of managing directors. If the board of managing directors consists of two or more managing directors, the representatives' authorities shall, apart from being vested in the board of managing directors as a corporate body, be vested in any two managing directors acting jointly. The board of managing directors may appoint one or more attorneys-in-fact to represent Barclays (Netherlands).

In case of a managing director entering into an agreement with Barclays (Netherlands) or, in a private capacity, instituting legal proceedings against Barclays (Netherlands), Barclays (Netherlands) shall be represented in that matter by the remaining managing directors provided that they act jointly in accordance with the above, unless the general meeting of shareholders designates another person for this purpose or unless the Dutch Law provides further designation in any other matter. Such person may also be the managing director to whom the conflict of interest relates. A managing director having a conflict of interest different from the above shall be authorised like any other managing director to represent the company, provided they act jointly in accordance with the above.

One managing director will be appointed by the board of managing directors as chairman. Resolutions of the board of managing directors are validly adopted by simple majority.

(iii) Classes of shares and shareholders register (Article 3, 8, 9 and 10)

Barclays (Netherlands) has one class of shares, being ordinary shares with a nominal value of 0.12 (twelve eurocent) each. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares are permitted to be included in a giro depot on collective deposit, as referred to in the Securities Giro Act.

The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares are in registered form. A register of shareholders is kept by or on behalf of Barclays (Netherlands), which register shall be regularly updated and, at the discretion of the Barclays (Netherlands) board of managing directors, may, in whole or in part, be kept in more than one copy and at more than one address. Part of the register may be kept abroad in order to comply with applicable foreign statutory provisions or applicable provisions set by a foreign stock exchange. A duplicate register of shareholders shall at all times be maintained in the United Kingdom, and any entry on the duplicate register shall immediately be reflected in the register kept by Barclays (Netherlands), and vice-versa.

Table of Contents

(iv) Dividends and Dividend rights (Article 33 up to and including 36)

Barclays (Netherlands) may only make distributions of profits to shareholders and other parties entitled to profits to the extent the shareholders equity exceeds the paid up and called up part of its capital plus the reserves which are required to maintain by law. Distribution of profits may only be made after the adoption of the annual accounts showing that the distribution is permissible. The board of managing directors shall determine which part of the profit shall be distributed. Any remaining parts shall be reserved. Dividend payment can also be made in shares instead of cash on the recommendation of the board of managing directors and authorised by the general meeting of shareholders. In addition, the board of managing directors may resolve to pay one or more interim dividends provided that the above capital reserves have been met, as evidence by an interim statement of assets and liabilities. Such a statement must be deposited with the trade register within eight (8) days after which a resolution to distribute an interim dividend has been disclosed.

Dividends and other distributions are payable on a date to be determined by the board of managing directors, but in any case within four weeks after their adoption. Dividends and other distributions shall be made payable at an address or addresses in The Netherlands to be determined by the board of managing directors. Cash distributions shall, if they are payable outside The Netherlands, be paid in the currency of the country concerned converted at the rate of exchange on the London Stock Exchange at the close of business on the day before the date on which the distribution is declared. The person entitled to dividends or other distribution on shares shall be the person in whose name the share is registered.

(v) Voting (Article 25 up to and including 29)

All shareholders and holders of right of usufruct or pledge who have right to vote, are entitled to attend the general meeting of shareholders, to address the general meeting of shareholders and to vote. Shareholders and holders of right of usufruct or pledge who have right to vote maybe represented by proxies authorised in writing. Persons entitled to attend a general meeting of shareholders are only entitled to do so (in person or by proxy) if such person has informed the management board in advance of his intention to attend the meeting.

Resolutions are validly adopted if adopted by simple majority of votes. Resolutions may also be adopted in writing provided they are adopted by unanimous votes representing the entire issued share capital. Each share shall confer the rights to cast one vote. All votes may be cast in respect of shares or by Barclays (Netherlands) itself or any of its subsidiaries.

(vi) Transfers (Articles 5, 11 and 12)

Barclays (Netherlands) Shares may be transferred within giro depots and collective depots, in accordance with the Securities Giro Act. Other forms of transfer require execution of a notarial deed. Unless Barclays (Netherlands) is itself party to such deed, the rights attached to the shares transferred can only be exercised after it has been acknowledged that the transfer has taken place and been notified to Barclays (Netherlands).

(vii) Return of Capital and Liquidation (Articles 38 and 39)

The general meeting of shareholders is entitled to resolve to dissolve Barclays (Netherlands). In such a case, it shall be wound up by the board of managing directors unless determinate otherwise by the general meeting of shareholders. The assets of the liquidated Barclays (Netherlands) that remain after the creditors have been paid shall be distributed to the shareholders in proportion to the aggregate amount of their shares.

Table of Contents

(viii) Purchase (Article 6)

Barclays (Netherlands) can only acquire fully paid up shares in its own capital and for valuable consideration, up to a maximum of 10% of its issued share capital, if authorised by the general meeting of shareholders (which is valid for a period of a maximum of 18 months) and if its equity less the purchase price for such shares exceeds the paid up and called up share capital plus reserves that must be maintained by law.

(ix) Redemption (Article 7)

The general meeting of shareholders may resolve to reduce the issued capital by cancellation of shares or by a reduction of the nominal amount of the shares, by amending Barclays (Netherlands) Articles.

(x) Annual and extraordinary general meetings (Article 20 up to and including 30)

Barclays (Netherlands) is required to hold a general meeting each year as its annual general meeting (to be held within six months after the end of each financial year, being the calendar year) in addition to other meetings (called extraordinary general meetings) as the Barclays Directors think fit and that must be held within 6 months after the expiry of the last financial year (within the calendar year).

A general meeting of shareholders must be convened within three months after it becomes apparent to the board of managing directors that Barclays (Netherlands) equity has reduced to an amount lower than half of the issued and paid up part of the share capital. In addition, holders of shares representing at least one-tenth of the issued capital may request the district court and summaries proceeding to be authorised to convene a general meeting of shareholders. These rights are in accordance with the rules as laid down in the Dutch Civil Code.

At annual general Meetings of Shareholders the following subjects shall be considered:

- (A) the annual accounts and the annual report;
- (B) discharge of members of the board of managing directors;
- (C) possible appointment of managing directors;
- (D) other proposals placed on the agenda by the board of managing directors;
- (E) other proposals made by shareholders or other persons entitled to attend the meeting representing at least one percent. of the issued share capital or representing at least the stock market value as established by law at the time of the request, unless there is an important reason, such as to be determined in a binding manner by the board of managing directors. Such proposal must be made no later than the sixtieth day before the annual shareholders meeting takes places.

General meetings of shareholders shall be held in Amsterdam or Haarlemmermeer (Schiphol Airport). Convocations of the general meeting shall take place no later than on the 15th day prior to the meeting, and be accompanied by an agenda. General meeting of shareholders shall be presided by a person nominated by the board of managing directors, which chairman shall appoint a secretary.

Shareholders (and holders of a right of usufruct or pledge who have the right to vote) are entitled to attend, address and vote at general meetings of shareholders. Shareholders (and holders of a right of usufruct or pledge who have a right to vote) may be represented by proxies authorised in writing.

Every holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares that do not belong to a collective depot or a giro depot as referred to in the Securities Giro Act and every other party entitled to attend the meeting who derives his rights from such shares, is only entitled to attend the general meeting of shareholders in person, or represented by a person holding a written proxy, to address the meeting and, in as far as he has voting rights, to vote at the meeting, if he has informed the board of managing directors in advance of his intention to attend the meeting ultimately seven days before such meeting. If the rights referred to in this paragraph pertain to shares that belong to a collective depot, anyone who has rights as a joint owner of the collective depot, is entitled to exercise these rights, provided he has, ultimately seven days before the meeting, submitted a written statement from an admitted institution at the offices of Barclays (Netherlands) or at another place as noted in the convocation to the meeting stating that the number of shares referred to in that statement belong to a collective depot and that the person referred to in that stated is a joint owner for the quoted number of shares and shall remain a joint owner until the end of the meeting. Barclays (Netherlands) s board of managing directors may determine that those entitled to vote and/or attend the meeting the general meeting of shareholders, are those who are registered in a register kept by the Barclays (Netherlands) board of managing directors at a certain point of time. Please refer to see Article 26 of the Barclays (Netherlands) Articles.

If the rights to attend a meeting in accordance with the above paragraph are exercised by a person holding a written proxy the required notification and the proxy should be received by Barclays (Netherlands) board of managing directors ultimately seven days before said meeting.

(xi) Limitations on foreign shareholders

There are no restrictions imposed by the Barclays Investment (Netherlands) Articles or (subject to the effect of any economic sanctions that may be in force from time to time) by Dutch law.

(xii) Notices

See above under Annual and Extraordinary general meetings .

(xiii) Alteration of share capital (Articles 4 and 5)

In addition to the above on redemption and repurchase of shares, Barclays (Netherlands) s board of managing directors has the authority to resolve to issue shares and to determine the price and other terms and conditions of such issue. Such Authority exists for a period of 5 years, starting from 2 May 2007 and ending on 2 May 2012. It can be extended by resolution of the general meeting of shareholders. If it is not extended, the authority to issue shares lies with the general meeting of shareholders. Existing shareholders have pre-emption rights (which can be limited by the board of managing directors at the time of resolving to issue shares and no pre-emption rights exist in respect of shares issued to employees).

(xiv) Indemnity (Article 19)

Barclays (Netherlands) shall indemnify any existing or former managing director, officer or agent who in that capacity, becomes involved in civil, criminal, administrative or investigative litigation.

(xv) Amendment (Article 37)

The Barclays (Netherlands) Articles can be amended by a general meeting of shareholders. The proposed amendment should be distributed to the shareholders prior to the general meeting of shareholders.

6. Squeeze-out rules

Other than the squeeze-out rules as included in book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code there are no rules or provisions relating to squeeze-out in relation to the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares. There are no rules or provisions relating to mandatory bids and/or sell-out rules in relation to the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

7. Material Contracts

Other than the co-operation agreement between Barclays, Barclays Investments (Netherlands), the Nominee and Barclays (Netherlands) dated 2 August 2007 in relation to their co-operation (including with respect to the Primary Exchange and the Alternative Exchange) in relation with the transactions contemplated by them as included in the Barclays Prospectus, the Offer Document and this Prospectus and the actions they will take in that respect (the Co-operation Agreement), Barclays (Netherlands) has not entered into any material contracts. In summary, the Co-operation Agreement specifies the actions Barclays, Barclays Investments (Netherlands), the Nominee and Barclays (Netherlands) will take with respect to the Primary Exchange and the Alternative Exchange, as described above in paragraphs 3 to 8 of Part I of this Prospectus.

PART VI
TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

In addition to the information set out below, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders should carefully consider the information set out in Part X (Taxation Considerations) of the Barclays Prospectus (which is incorporated by reference in this Prospectus).

1. TAX ASPECTS OF THE PRIMARY EXCHANGE1.1 Taxation in The Netherlands*1.1.1 General

The following is a summary of certain Dutch tax consequences relating to the acceptance of the Primary Exchange. The summary does not address any laws other than the tax laws of The Netherlands as currently in effect and in force and as interpreted in published case law by the courts of The Netherlands at the date hereof, which tax laws and case law are subject to change after such date, including changes that could have retroactive effect. The summary does not purport to be complete and in view of the general nature of this summary, it should be treated with corresponding caution. Each ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder considering the Primary Exchange should consult his or her professional tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of the Primary Exchange.

For the purposes of the principal Dutch tax consequences described below it is assumed that ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are either individuals or companies (including other entities that are treated as companies for Dutch taxation purposes, such as without limitation open limited partnerships (open commanditaire vennootschappen), cooperatives (cooperaties) and open mutual funds (open fondsen voor gemene rekening)). This summary does not address the tax position of investment institutions (fiscale beleggingsinstellingen) in relation to the Primary Exchange.

For the purpose of the principal Dutch tax consequences described below, it is further assumed that no ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who is an individual has or will have a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in ABN AMRO or Barclays (Netherlands).

Generally speaking, a person has a substantial interest in a company if such person directly or indirectly has the ownership of or certain rights over shares representing 5% or more of the total issued and outstanding capital (or the issued and outstanding capital of any class of shares) of the company, rights to acquire such interest in the share capital (whether or not already issued) of the company, or the ownership of profit participating certificates (winstbewijzen) that relate to 5% or more of the annual profit or liquidation proceeds of the company. In the case of an individual the 5% ownership criterion applies to that person jointly with his partner, if any, whereas a substantial interest is also present in case of a less than 5% shareholding by an individual if his relatives in the direct line of descent and/or those of his partner do hold a substantial interest. A person has a deemed substantial interest generally in respect of shares that have formed part of a substantial interest and in respect of which a non-recognition provision has applied, such that capital gain taxation thereon has been deferred to a later date.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are in doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside The Netherlands should consult their own professional advisors immediately.

1.1.2 Taxation on Capital Gains*Dutch resident companies*

Generally, a company holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will be subject to Dutch corporate income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of its ABN

AMRO Ordinary Shares, unless such company is tax exempt or benefits from the participation exemption in respect of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between the value of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received and the base cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes.

Likewise, a company holding Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which is resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will be subject to Dutch corporate income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of its Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, unless such company is tax exempt or benefits from the participation exemption in respect of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares. The capital gain should be computed on the basis of the difference between (a) the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares plus cash received (minus any cash paid in the case of a rounding up of the entitlement to New Barclays Ordinary Shares) and (b) the base cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes. The base cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for Dutch corporate income tax purposes should be equal to the consideration given for such shares, being the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

The main condition for application of the participation exemption is that the shareholding interest represents at least 5% of the nominal paid up capital (or, under certain conditions, 5% of the voting rights) of the company concerned. Shareholdings of less than 5% in ABN AMRO may under certain conditions nevertheless still benefit from the participation exemption. Shareholders that currently are entitled to the participation exemption in relation to their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will not automatically be entitled to the participation exemption in relation to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange for their Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received in exchange for their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Non-resident companies

A company holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which is not resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of its ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, unless:

- (i) such capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands unless at the level of the permanent establishment the participation exemption applies to the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares; or
- (ii) the company has a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in ABN AMRO (see paragraph 1.1.1 above) and such interest does not form part of the assets of an enterprise.

Likewise, a company holding Barclays (Netherlands) Shares which is not resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and which receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of its Barclays (Netherlands) Shares unless:

- (i) such capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands unless at the level of the permanent establishment the participation exemption applies to the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares; or
- (ii) the company has a substantial interest or a deemed substantial interest in Barclays (Netherlands) (see paragraph 1.1.1 above) and such interest does not form part of the assets of an enterprise.

Dutch resident individuals

An individual holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is, is deemed to be, or has elected to be treated as resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange is not subject to Dutch income tax in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, unless:

- (i) such individual has an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise, to which the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are attributable; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

If condition (i) or (ii) in this subsection (Dutch resident individuals) is met, the individual will be subject to Dutch income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at the progressive rates of the Income Tax Act 2001. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between the value of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received and the base cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for Dutch income tax purposes.

Likewise, an individual holding Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who is, is deemed to be, or has elected to be treated as resident of The Netherlands for tax purposes and who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange is not subject to Dutch income tax in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, unless:

- (i) such individual has an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise, to which the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares are attributable; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

If condition (i) or (ii) in this subsection (Dutch resident individuals) is met, the individual will be subject to Dutch income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the transfer of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares at the progressive rates of the Income Tax Act 2001. The capital gains should be computed on the basis of the difference between (a) the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares plus cash received (minus any cash paid in the case of a rounding up of the entitlement to New Barclays Ordinary Shares) and (b) the base cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for Dutch income tax purposes. The base cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for Dutch income tax purposes should be equal to the consideration given for such shares, being the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Non-resident individuals

An individual holding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is not, is not deemed to be, and has not elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares unless:

- (i) the capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) in The Netherlands as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

Likewise, an individual holding Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who is not, is not deemed to be, and has not elected to be treated as, resident for tax purposes in The Netherlands and who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not be subject to Dutch taxation in respect of any capital gains realised on the transfer of his Barclays (Netherlands) Shares unless:

- (i) the capital gains are attributable to an enterprise or part thereof that is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in The Netherlands; or
- (ii) the capital gains qualify as income from miscellaneous activities (belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden) in The Netherlands as defined in the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001) which include without limitation activities that exceed normal active portfolio management (normaal vermogensbeheer).

1.1.3 Rollover relief

An exemption from Dutch taxation on any capital gains realised on the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary shares and/or Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange should be available upon request provided that:

- (i) the Primary Exchange qualifies as a share-for-share merger (aandelenfusie) as defined in article 3.55 of the Income Tax Act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001); and
- (ii) the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders claiming the exemption record and continue to record the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and New Barclays Ordinary Shares at the same tax book value as that of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares at the moment immediately preceding acceptance of the Primary Exchange.

The share for share merger exemption will not be available in respect of any cash payment the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares would receive pursuant to the Primary Exchange.

Whether or not a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares claims the benefits of this share for share merger exemption is at his own discretion.

Considering the terms of the Offer, it is unlikely that the Primary Exchange qualifies as a share-for-share merger and that the share-for-share merger exemption will be available.

1.1.4 Ownership and Disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares

A summary of the Dutch taxation considerations relating to the ownership of and disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is set out in Part X of the Barclays Prospectus.

1.1.5 Other taxes and duties

There is no Dutch registration tax, transfer tax, stamp duty or any other similar tax or duty payable in The Netherlands in respect of or in connection with the Offer.

1.2 United Kingdom taxation considerations

1.2.1 General

The following is a summary of certain United Kingdom tax consequences relating to the acceptance of the Primary Exchange. The comments set out below are based on existing United Kingdom tax law and what is understood to be current HM Revenue and Customs practice as at the date of this Prospectus, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice and relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Other than in respect of paragraph 1.2.5 (Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax) of this Section, the comments set out below apply only to holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are resident, or in the case of individuals, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in (and only in) the United Kingdom (except insofar as express reference is made to the treatment of non-United Kingdom residents), who hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares as an investment and who are the absolute beneficial owners thereof.

Certain categories of holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, insurance companies and collective investment schemes, holders who have (or are deemed to have) acquired their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares by virtue of or in connection with an office or employment or holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who acquire their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares by exercising options and individual holders who are resident or ordinarily resident but not domiciled for UK tax purposes in the UK, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders. The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Table of Contents

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

1.2.2 Primary Exchange: Disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

A holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange will be treated as disposing of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for the purposes of United Kingdom corporation tax on chargeable gains or capital gains tax (CGT).

A disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares by a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is resident or, in the case of an individual, resident or ordinarily resident for tax purposes in the UK may, depending on the holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, give rise to a chargeable gain or an allowable loss for the purposes of CGT. Such chargeable gain should be computed on the basis of the difference between the value of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares received (equal to the value of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares which have been exchanged) and the allowable cost of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, subject to any available exemption or relief. A holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is an individual and who has ceased to be resident and ordinarily resident for tax purposes in the UK for a period of less than five tax years (or a shorter period under certain double tax treaties, where applicable) and who is treated as disposing of his ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares during that period may be liable on his or her return to the UK to tax on any chargeable gain realised (subject to any available exemption or relief).

Any holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares, who, alone or together with persons connected with him, does not hold more than 5 percent of, or of any class of, Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, should not, for the purposes of CGT, be treated as making a disposal of such Barclays (Netherlands) Shares. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares issued by Barclays should be treated as the same asset, and as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

Any holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who may, alone or together with persons connected with him, hold more than 5 percent of, or of any class of, shares in Barclays (Netherlands) is referred to Section 1.2.4 (Tax Clearances) below.

A holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives cash in exchange for his Barclays (Netherlands) Shares will be treated as making a disposal or part disposal of his Barclays (Netherlands) Shares for CGT purposes. If a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares is resident or, in the case of an individual, resident or ordinarily resident, for tax purposes in the UK he may, depending on such holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, be liable to CGT. However, it is expected that the shareholder's acquisition cost (allowable as a deduction in computing the amount of the shareholder's gain for CGT purposes) will equal the market value of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares being disposed of (these shares having been acquired as part of a transaction involving a disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for the purposes of CGT - see above) and accordingly no further liability to CGT is expected in addition to that described above in relation to the shareholder's disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

A summary of the United Kingdom Taxation considerations relating to a holder of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is set out in Part X of the Barclays Prospectus.

Table of Contents

1.2.3 Fractional Entitlements

Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will receive (a small amount of) cash in the case of a rounding down of their entitlement to New Barclays Ordinary Shares.

If such holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receive cash they will not be subject to CGT on it, but the receipt of such cash will reduce the base cost of their New Barclays Ordinary Shares by an equivalent amount.

1.2.4 Tax Clearances

- (a) Section 138 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992

Any ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder who may, alone or together with persons connected with him, hold more than 5 percent. of, or of any class of, shares in or debentures of ABN AMRO is advised that clearance under section 138 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 has been obtained from HM Revenue & Customs stating that it is satisfied that the Merger is being effected for bona fide commercial reasons and does not form part of a scheme or arrangements of which the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, is the avoidance of liability to capital gains tax or corporation tax. On the basis of this clearance, any such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder should be treated in the manner described in sub-paragraph 1.2.2 above.

- (b) Section 707 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are advised that clearance under section 707 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 has been obtained from HM Revenue & Customs stating that section 703 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, which provides for the cancellation of a tax advantage arising from certain transactions in securities, will not apply to the Offer.

- (c) Section 765 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are advised that the consent of the Treasury has been obtained in respect of the Merger, that the Merger will not be unlawful under section 765 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

1.2.5 Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (SDRT)

The comments set out below relate to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares wherever resident for tax purposes (not only holders that are resident for tax purposes in the United Kingdom), but not to holders such as market makers, brokers, dealers and intermediaries, to whom special rules may apply.

New Barclays Ordinary Shares that are issued to ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders opting for the Primary Exchange will be issued into Euroclear Nederland via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland.

Subject to certain exemptions, a charge to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on the issue or transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares to, or to a nominee or agent for, (1) particular persons providing a clearance service or (2) an issuer of depositary receipts. The rate of stamp duty or SDRT will generally be 1.5 percent. of either (x) in the case of an issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the issue price of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, or (y) in the case of a transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer or, in some circumstances, the value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, in the case of stamp duty rounded up if necessary to the nearest multiple of GBP 5. Barclays will bear the cost of any stamp duty or SDRT that may arise in connection with the Primary Exchange (and only in connection with the Primary Exchange) with respect to the issue of New Barclays Ordinary Shares into Euroclear Nederland via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and the initial receipt of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares (or interests therein within Euroclear Nederland) by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares before the termination of the closing date of the Offer.

Table of Contents

No stamp duty need, in practice, be paid on the acquisition or transfer of interests in New Barclays Ordinary Shares within Euroclear Nederland, provided that any instrument of transfer or contract of sale is executed and remains at all times outside the United Kingdom.

An agreement for the transfer of interests in New Barclays Ordinary Shares between accountholders in the Euroclear Nederland System while such New Barclays Ordinary Shares are held within the Euroclear Nederland System will not give rise to a liability to SDRT provided that, at the time the agreement is made, Euroclear Nederland satisfies various conditions laid down in the relevant UK legislation.

1.3 Belgian taxation considerations

IT IS GENERALLY RECOMMENDED FOR BELGIAN TAX RESIDENTS TO OPT FOR THE ALTERNATIVE EXCHANGE. ELECTING FOR THE PRIMARY EXCHANGE MAY GIVE RISE TO A TAX LIABILITY FOR BELGIAN TAX RESIDENTS. PLEASE CONSIDER ATTENTIVELY THIS BELGIAN TAX SECTION AND CONSULT WITH YOUR TAX ADVISER.

The comments set out below are based on existing Belgian tax laws and practices as at the date of this Prospectus, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice.

The comments set out below apply only to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and subsequently of New Barclays Ordinary Shares who are resident for tax purposes in (and only in) Belgium (except insofar as express reference is made to the treatment of non-residents), who hold these shares in their own name and for their own account and who are the beneficial owners thereof.

The comments below do not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to tender ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in response to the Primary Exchange, to acquire, hold or dispose of New Barclays Ordinary Shares or to receive dividends, liquidation proceeds or other distributions in respect of such shares.

Certain categories of holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, banks, insurance companies and collective investment schemes, and holders who have (or are deemed to have) acquired their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares by virtue of or in connection with an office or employment, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders.

The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and subsequently of New Barclays Ordinary Shares. They do not intend to provide the holders of stock subscription options or other comparable instruments (including shares and stock options acquired under employee incentive programs) with a description of the possible tax and social security implications of the Primary Exchange for them, nor to determine under which conditions these options or other instruments are or may become exercisable prior to the expiration of the acceptance period of the Primary Exchange.

For the purpose of this summary, a Belgian resident is (i) an individual subject to Belgian personal income tax (i.e. an individual who has his domicile in Belgium or has the seat of his assets in Belgium, or a person assimilated to a Belgian resident), (ii) a company subject to Belgian corporate income tax (i.e. a company that has its registered office, its main establishment, or its place of management in Belgium) or (iii) a legal entity subject to the Belgian tax on legal entities (i.e. a legal entity other than a company subject to the corporate income tax, that has its registered office, its main establishment, or its place of management in Belgium). A Belgian non-resident is a person that is not a Belgian resident.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Belgium, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

1.3.1 Tax Regime Of The Primary Exchange for Belgian residents

Income tax

(a) Individuals

Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

Table of Contents

For Belgian individuals holding shares as a private investment, the disposal of their shares in exchange for other shares and/or cash will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction. However, taking into account the particular features of the Primary Exchange it cannot be totally excluded that it would be argued that the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in exchange for Barclays (Netherlands) Shares is a transaction that falls outside the scope of normal management of one's private assets and that would therefore be taxable at the rate of 33% (to be increased by additional local taxes).

In addition, Belgian individuals who hold their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for professional purposes or who enter into transactions that are considered as speculative will also be subject to income tax in Belgium.

Capital losses realised upon the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are generally not tax deductible.

The exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash should, as a rule, not give rise to the realisation of capital gains.

(b) Companies

Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

For Belgian companies, the disposal of their shares in exchange for other shares and/or cash payments will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction. However, taking into account the particular features of the exchange under the Primary Exchange it cannot be totally excluded that the argument will be made that the transfer of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares have to be analysed as taxable transactions.

Capital losses realised upon the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are generally not tax deductible.

The exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash should, as a rule, not give rise to the realisation of capital gains.

(c) Legal entities

Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

For Belgian legal entities subject to legal entities tax, the disposal of their shares in exchange for other shares and/or cash payments will, as a rule, not be a taxable transaction.

Capital losses realised upon the disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are not tax deductible.

The exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash should as a rule, not give rise to the realisation of capital gains.

1.3.2 Acquisition, Holding And Disposal Of New Barclays Ordinary Shares

(a) Dividends

Individuals

Dividends paid by Barclays will be subject to Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) at the rate of 25%, when paid or made available through a professional intermediary in Belgium. No UK withholding tax will be due on these dividends.

For individuals who hold New Barclays Ordinary Shares as a private investment, this Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) is a final tax and any dividends that have been subject to it need not be reported in such person's personal income tax return. If no dividend withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) has been levied in Belgium (i.e., in case of payment outside of Belgium without the intervention of a professional intermediary in Belgium), the net amount of such dividends must be reported in the holder's personal income tax return and is taxable at the separate rate of 25%, to be increased with local taxes.

For resident individuals who hold the New Barclays Ordinary Shares for professional purposes, the dividends received will be taxed at the progressive personal income tax rates increased by the local surcharge. Any withholding tax will be creditable against the personal income tax due and, to the extent that it exceeds the tax payable, shall be reimbursed subject to two conditions: (i) the taxpayer must own the New Barclays Ordinary Shares at the time of payment or attribution of the dividends in full legal ownership, and (ii) the dividend distribution may not give rise to a reduction in the value of, or a capital loss on the shares. The second condition is not applicable if such investor proves that he/she held the New Barclays Ordinary Shares in full legal ownership during an uninterrupted period of twelve months prior to the attribution of the dividends.

Companies

No Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) is levied where the Belgian holder of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares is a company that receives Barclays dividends paid or made available through a professional intermediary in Belgium (provided that such holder fulfills applicable certification formalities). No UK withholding tax will be due on these dividends.

Dividends paid on New Barclays Ordinary Shares will, as a rule, be subject to corporate tax at the rate of 33.99%. However, companies will be able to deduct from their taxable income (other than certain disallowed expenses and other taxable items) up to 95% of the dividends received if these dividends are eligible for the dividends-received deduction. For the dividends-received deduction to apply, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares held by a Belgian company must, at the time of payment of the dividends: (i) represent at least 10% of Barclays share capital or have an acquisition value of at least 1.2 million; (ii) be fully owned by such Belgian company; (iii) be accounted for as financial fixed assets (within the meaning of Belgian accounting law) in the financial statements of such Belgian company; and (iv) be held or have been held continuously for at least one consecutive year. For certain investment companies and for certain financial institutions and insurance companies, certain of the aforementioned conditions do not apply.

Legal entities

Dividends paid on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be subject to Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) at the rate of 25%, when paid or made available through a financial intermediary in Belgium. No UK withholding tax will be due on these dividends.

Where the holder of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares is a Belgian legal entity and no dividend withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing) has been levied in Belgium (i.e., in case of payment outside of Belgium without the intervention of a professional intermediary in Belgium), the legal entity is liable to pay itself the 25% Belgian withholding tax (précompte mobilier/roerende voorheffing).

(b) Capital gains and losses*Individuals*

Private investors who are Belgian residents are in principle not subject to Belgian income tax on capital gains realised upon the sale, exchange or other transfer of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, unless the capital gain is the result of speculation or cannot be considered as the result of normal management of one's private assets (in which case a 33% tax applies plus local surcharges).

Table of Contents

Capital losses suffered by private investors upon the disposal of New Barclays Ordinary Shares are generally not tax deductible.

Individual residents who hold the New Barclays Ordinary Shares for professional purposes are taxed at the ordinary progressive income tax rates increased by the applicable local surcharge on any capital gains realised upon the disposal of their shares. If the New Barclays Ordinary Shares were held for at least 5 years, the capital gains tax will be levied at a reduced rate of 16.5%.

Capital gains realised upon redemption of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or in the case of liquidation may give rise to taxation at a separate rate of 10%.

Companies

Resident companies holding New Barclays Ordinary Shares will in principle not be taxed in Belgium with respect to capital gains realised upon disposal of their shares. Capital losses realised by such companies will, as a rule, not be deductible.

In case of liquidation of Barclays, capital losses on the New Barclays Ordinary Shares are, however, tax deductible up to the loss of fiscal capital of Barclays represented by those shares.

Capital gains realised upon redemption of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or in the case of liquidation will generally be taxed as a dividend.

Legal entities

Resident legal entities subject to legal entities tax will not, as a rule, be subject to Belgian capital gains tax on the disposal of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares. Capital losses incurred by resident legal entities upon disposal of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares are not tax deductible.

Capital gains realised upon redemption of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares or in the case of liquidation may give rise to taxation at a separate rate of 10%.

1.3.3 Tax on stock exchange transactions

Transfers of shares for valuable consideration may give rise to a tax on stock exchange transactions (taks op beursverrichtingen/taxe sur les oprations de bourse) of 0.17% if they are carried out through a financial institution established in Belgium. The amount of tax, however, is capped at 500 per party and per transaction, and various types of investors (including credit institutions, insurance companies, pension funds and all non-residents of Belgium) are exempted from this tax. No tax on stock exchange transactions will be due in respect of the exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares. However, stock exchange tax may be due in respect of (i) the exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares against Barclays (Netherlands) shares and (ii) the disposal of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares in exchange for cash.

The stock exchange tax is normally due separately by each party to the transaction. The stock exchange tax for which the holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are liable will be withheld by the Belgian financial intermediary from the consideration paid to such holder pursuant to the Offer.

1.3.4 United Kingdom taxation considerations for Belgian holders

The following summary applies solely to a Belgian holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and, subsequently, the Barclays Ordinary Shares. You will be a Belgian holder only if:

- (a) you are not and have not been a citizen of any other jurisdiction (including, without limitation, the UK);
- or
- (b) you are not and have not been resident or ordinarily resident for tax purposes in any other jurisdiction (including, without limitation, the UK).

Table of Contents

If you are not a Belgian holder, this discussion does not apply to you and you are encouraged to consult with your own tax adviser.

The following is a summary of certain United Kingdom tax consequences relating to the acceptance of the Offer. The comments set out below are based on existing United Kingdom tax law and what is understood to be current HM Revenue and Customs practice as at the date of this Prospectus, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice and relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of Belgian holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and, subsequently, the Barclays Ordinary Shares.

Other than in respect of the matters set forth under the heading Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax below, the comments set out below apply only to Belgian holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and, subsequently, the Barclays Ordinary Shares, as an investment and who are the absolute beneficial owners thereof. Certain categories of Belgian holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, insurance companies and collective investment schemes, and Belgian holders who have (or are deemed to have) acquired their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares by virtue of or in connection with an office or employment or Belgian holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who acquire their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares by exercising options, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such Belgian holders. The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of Belgian holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Any Belgian holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Belgium, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

Primary Exchange Disposal of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) shares, receipt of Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash

A Belgian holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and subsequently Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange should not be liable to CGT or other tax in the UK in respect of the receipt of the Barclays (Netherlands) shares and subsequent receipt of Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash.

Tax Clearances

Section 707 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988

Belgian holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are advised that clearance under section 707 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 has been obtained from HM Revenue and Customs stating that section 703 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, which provides for the cancellation of a tax advantage arising from certain transactions in securities, will not apply.

Section 765 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988

Belgian holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are advised that the consent of the Treasury has been obtained in respect of the transaction, that the transaction will not be unlawful under section 765 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

Taxation of dividends in respect of Barclays Ordinary Shares

Barclays is not required to withhold at source any amount in respect of United Kingdom tax when paying a dividend on the Barclays Ordinary Shares.

Taxation of capital gains in respect of Barclays Ordinary Shares

Belgian holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares with a permanent establishment or branch or agency in the United Kingdom

Table of Contents

(where the Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares is a company) or through a branch or agency (where the Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares is not a company) and who has used, held or acquired the Barclays Ordinary Shares for the purposes of such trade, profession or vocation or such permanent establishment, branch or agency (as appropriate) may, depending on the Belgian holder's circumstances and subject to any available exemption or relief, give rise to a chargeable gain or an allowable loss for the purposes of CGT.

Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares with no permanent establishment or branch or agency in the United Kingdom

A Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares who makes a disposal of such Barclays Ordinary Shares and who does not carry on a trade, profession or vocation in the UK through a permanent establishment (where the Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares is a company) or through a branch or agency (where the Belgian holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares is not a company) should not be liable to CGT or other tax in the UK.

Inheritance Tax

Subject to the value of the individual's UK estate, where a Belgian Holder of Barclays Ordinary Shares is an individual, UK inheritance tax may arise in the following circumstances:

- (a) on the death of that individual (depending on the value of the individual's estate); and
- (b) where that individual makes a gift of such shares (including any transfer at less than full market value).

Inheritance tax is not generally chargeable on gifts to individuals made more than seven years before the death of the donor or to spouses.

Subject to limited exclusions, gifts to settlements and to companies may give rise to an immediate inheritance tax charge. Where Barclays Ordinary Shares are held in settlements they may be subject to inheritance tax charges periodically during the continuance of the settlement, on transfers out of the settlement and on certain other events.

Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax

The comments set out below relate to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and Barclays Ordinary Shares wherever resident for tax purposes, but not to holders such as market makers, brokers, dealers and intermediaries, to whom special rules may apply.

Barclays Ordinary Shares that are issued to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares opting for the Primary Exchange will be issued into Euroclear Nederland via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland.

Subject to certain exemptions, a charge to stamp duty or SDRT will arise on the issue or transfer of Barclays Ordinary Shares to, or to a nominee or agent for, (1) particular persons providing a clearance service or (2) an issuer of depositary receipts. The rate of stamp duty or SDRT will generally be 1.5 percent, of either (x) in the case of an issue of Barclays Ordinary Shares, the issue price of the Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, or (y) in the case of a transfer of Barclays Ordinary Shares, the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer or, in some circumstances, the value of the Barclays Ordinary Shares concerned, in the case of stamp duty rounded up if necessary to the nearest multiple of £5.

Barclays will bear the cost of any stamp duty or SDRT that may arise in connection with the Primary Exchange (and only in connection with the Primary Exchange) with respect to the issue of Barclays Ordinary Shares into Euroclear Nederland via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland and the initial receipt of the Barclays Ordinary Shares (or interests therein within Euroclear Nederland) by holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares before the termination of the closing date of the Offer.

No stamp duty need, in practice, be paid on the acquisition or transfer of interests in Barclays Ordinary Shares within Euroclear Nederland, provided that any instrument of transfer or contract of sale is executed and remains at all times outside the United Kingdom.

Table of Contents

An agreement for the transfer of interests in Barclays Ordinary Shares between accountholders of Euroclear Nederland while such Barclays Ordinary Shares are held within Euroclear Nederland will not give rise to a liability to SDRT provided that, at the time the agreement is made, Euroclear Nederland satisfies various conditions laid down in the relevant UK legislation.

1.4 French taxation considerations

The following is a summary of certain limited French tax consequences relating to the acceptance of the Primary Exchange. The comments set out below are based on existing French tax law, which is subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice and relate only to certain limited aspects of the taxation treatment of holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

The comments set out below apply only to holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are resident, for tax purposes in (and only in) France. Certain categories of holders, such as individual shareholders who carry out trading operations in conditions similar to a professional, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders. The comments set out below do not apply to holders who own the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares through a permanent establishment or a fixed place of business located outside of France.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside France, should consult their own professional advisers.

1.4.1 Receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of cash in addition to New Barclays Ordinary Shares(a) French entities subject to French corporate income tax

With regard to the exchange of ABN AMRO Shares for Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, under Article 38.7 of the French Code Général des Impôts (French Tax Code), a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange should benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French corporate income tax. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code).

With regard to the receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, this provision does not apply to a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange in addition to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares if the level of cash exceeds 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received or the total amount of the capital gain made. Thus, this holder would be liable for corporate income tax at the rate of 33¹/₃% on its capital gain (or, if applicable, at the reduced rate of 0% which applies to long term capital gains, subject to a service charge amounting to 5% of the net amount of capital gains to determine the profits taxable under the standard rate) increased by a social security contribution amounting to 3.3% of the corporate tax amount exceeding EUR 763,000 per 12-month period.

However, under Article 38.7 of the French Tax Code a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives cash in addition to Barclays Ordinary Shares, can benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French corporate income tax for the fraction of the capital gain made corresponding to the exchange provided that the cash proportion, which is immediately taxed, is less than the amount of the capital gain and does not exceed 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received. In this case, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code). Filing requirements as provided for by Article 54 septies of the French Tax Code will have to be complied with.

(b) French individual shareholders holding the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares as a private investment

With regard to the exchange of ABN AMRO Shares for Barclays (Netherlands) Shares, under Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code, a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who receives Barclays (Netherlands) Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange should benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French personal income tax. The Barclays (Netherlands) Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code).

With regard to the receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares, this provision does not apply to a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange in addition to the New Barclays Ordinary Shares if the level of cash exceeds 10% of the nominal value of the received New Barclays Ordinary Shares. Thus, this holder would be liable for personal income tax at the rate of 16% and for social contributions at the rate of 11% on the capital gain made. However, if the annual amount of the proceeds of sales of securities realised by the members of the taxpayer's household (excluding in particular exempt sales of securities in the context of a securities plan or employee savings plan (PEA or PEE) and exchanges of securities benefiting from the roll over relief provided for by Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code) does not exceed a threshold equal to EUR 20,000 for the taxation of the 2007 income, no personal income tax or social contribution would be due on the capital gains deriving from the Primary Exchange.

However, according to Article 150-0B of the French Tax Code, if the proportion of cash does not exceed 10% of the nominal value of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received, a holder of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receives New Barclays Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange should benefit from a roll over relief for the purposes of French personal income tax for the total amount of the capital gain. In this case, the New Barclays Ordinary Shares should be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration, as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Such tax regime is compulsory (i.e. neither the latent losses nor the latent gains can be crystallized upon the exchange under that provision of the French Tax Code).

The roll over relief expires when the New Barclays Ordinary Shares are sold, redeemed or cancelled.

1.4.2 Fractional entitlements

Holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or Barclays (Netherlands) Shares who receive cash in the case of rounding down of their entitlement to the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares or the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be subject to French corporate income tax or to French personal income tax on the gain corresponding to the amount of cash received.

1.5 Swiss taxation considerations

The following is a summary of the taxation consequences of acceptance of the Primary Exchange to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares under the laws of Switzerland as at the date of the Primary Exchange. The summary is general in nature, does not take into account the specific circumstances of any shareholder and should not be relied upon by any shareholder. Accordingly, shareholders should obtain their own independent advice as to the taxation consequences of accepting the Primary Exchange, taking into account their own specific circumstances, before deciding whether to accept the Primary Exchange.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Switzerland, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

Table of Contents1.5.1 Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and subsequent receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash*(a) Exchange of shares

In respect of a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who is an individual resident in Switzerland who holds the shares as part of his private property, the exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not lead to any taxable income. However, in case a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receives a cash consideration of more than 50% of the total consideration such cash consideration might lead to taxable income. In the case that ABN AMRO will be legally merged into a legal entity of Barclays (i.e. ABN AMRO will not continue to exist as a legal entity within the Barclays Group) within five years after the transfer of shares, then any achieved increase of nominal (par) value may and a cash consideration might be regarded as taxable income subject to the ordinary income tax. However, the tax treatment may differ from canton to canton.

The exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will be tax neutral for Swiss resident corporations, Swiss resident individuals and non-Swiss resident individuals and corporations that hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares as part of their Swiss business assets, provided that the exchange of shares is recorded as no gain and no loss in the accounts of the shareholder. However, in principle the receipt of cash must be treated as taxable disposal.

(b) Federal Stamp Tax

The exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for New Barclays Shares and/or cash pursuant to the Primary Exchange will not lead to any Federal stamp tax.

However, in case a holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares receives a cash consideration of more than 50% of the total consideration such consideration might give rise to Swiss Federal stamp tax at a maximum of 0.15% of the total consideration if the purchase or sale occurs through or with a Swiss securities dealer as defined in the Swiss Federal Stamp Tax Act, e.g. a Swiss bank, and if no exemption applies.

1.6 Luxembourg taxation considerations1.6.1 General

The comments set out below are based on existing Luxembourg income tax law and what is understood to be current Luxembourg tax authorities practice as at the date of this Prospectus, which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide to the Luxembourg income tax regime applicable to an exchange of shares only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice, and apply only to holders of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are resident for tax purposes in Luxembourg, who hold the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares as an investment and who are the absolute beneficial owners thereof. Certain categories of holders, such as traders, broker-dealers, collective investment schemes or Luxembourg investors benefiting from a specific tax regime may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders. The comments set out below relate only to certain limited aspects of the income tax treatment of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are in any doubt about their individual and corporate income tax position, or who are residents or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Luxembourg, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

Table of Contents1.6.2 Primary Exchange ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, receipt of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and receipt of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and/or cash.1.6.2.1 Step 1: exchange of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares against Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.(a) *Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

The rollover provisions upon this transaction might apply further to the conditions as mentioned in section 1.6.2.2.(a) as Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their private patrimony, do receive shares of the company that benefits from the contribution.

Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their private patrimony, transfer their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) and they receive in exchange Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

Consequently, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony are not subject to taxation unless they qualify as speculation gains (as described under section 1.6.2.1(a)(i) below, the Speculation Gains) or capital gains on a substantial shareholding (as described under section 1.6.2.1(a)(ii) below, the Substantial Shareholding).

(i) Speculation Gains

Pursuant to article 99 bis of the Luxembourg income tax law (LITL), a gain is treated as a Speculation Gain when a shareholding (e.g. a shareholding in ABN AMRO) is sold by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony within a 6 month-period after the acquisition of such shareholding. Such Speculation Gains are subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38% plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38.95%). The taxable capital gain is also liable to a 1.4% dependency contribution.

No taxation will arise if the total amount of capital gains (i.e. Speculation Gains) realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony over the year is less than Euro 500. For the years 2002-2007, a 10-years allowance of EUR 50,000 (doubled for married couple) is granted (this allowance is however shared by all the capital gains done in the 10 years framework and benefiting from this provision).

(ii) Substantial Shareholding

If the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are sold more than six months after their acquisition by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony, capital gains realised on the sale of such ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares will be taxable only if the Luxembourg resident individual holds a Substantial Shareholding according to article 100 LITL.

A shareholding is considered as a Substantial Shareholding when a Luxembourg resident individual, jointly with his spouse and minor children, holds or has held, directly or indirectly at any time during the five year period prior to the date of the sale, more than 10% of the share capital of ABN AMRO. Capital gains realised on a Substantial Shareholding are subject to income tax at the half global rate (up to a maximum of 19%, plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 19.475%). The same rule applies to the sale of convertible loans, when the Luxembourg resident individual holds a Substantial Shareholding in the company that issued the convertible loans. A 10-years allowance of EUR 50,000 (doubled for married couple) is granted (this allowance is however shared by all the capital gains done in the 10 years framework and benefiting from this provision). The taxable capital gain is also liable to a 1.4% dependency contribution.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

The rollover provisions upon this transaction might apply further to conditions as mentioned in section 1.6.2.2.(b) as Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their professional patrimony, do receive shares of the company that benefits from the contribution.

Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their professional patrimony, transfer their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) and they receive in exchange Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

Consequently, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his professional patrimony are subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38%, plus the unemployment contribution of 2.5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38.95%). The taxable capital gain is also subject to social security provisions.

In the situation where the rollover provisions of article 22 bis LITL are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

(c) Luxembourg resident corporations

The rollover provisions upon this transaction might apply further to conditions as mentioned in section 1.6.26.2.(c) as the Luxembourg resident corporate shareholders (i.e. joint-stock companies) do receive shares of the company that benefits from the contribution.

Luxembourg corporate shareholders (i.e. joint-stock companies) transfer their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares to Barclays (Netherlands) and they receive in exchange Barclays (Netherlands) Shares.

Consequently, capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident corporate shareholder (i.e. joint-stock company) are, in principle, fully subject to corporate income tax and municipal business tax at the aggregate rate of 29.63% (for corporations established in Luxembourg-City) except if the conditions for the application of participation exemption provided for by the Grand-Duchy Decree of 21 December 2001 are complied with (the Participation-Exemption Regime):

- (i) the Luxembourg resident corporation (i.e. joint-stock company) which holds the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares is a fully taxable company;
- (ii) the subsidiary of the Luxembourg resident corporation (i.e. ABN AMRO) is a company falling within the scope of the EU Parent/ Subsidiary Directive dated 23 July 1990 as amended by the Directive dated 22 December 2003 (90/435/ EC);
- (iii) at the date of the disposal, the Luxembourg resident corporation holds or commits to hold, during an uninterrupted period of at least 12 months, a direct participation in ABN AMRO of at least 10% or whose acquisition price is at least Euro 6,000,000.

Same tax treatment is applicable if the Luxembourg shareholder is a Luxembourg permanent establishment of an EU resident company within the meaning of the EU Parent/ Subsidiary Directive dated 23 July 1990 as amended by the Directive dated 22 December 2003 (90/435/ EC), or a Luxembourg permanent establishment of a corporation (i.e. joint-stock company) resident of a State with which Luxembourg has signed a double taxation treaty.

The tax exempt amount of a capital gain realised on a qualifying participation is, however, reduced by the amount of any expenses related to the participation, including decreases in the acquisition cost, that have previously reduced the company's Luxembourg taxable income.

In the situation where the rollover provisions of article 22 bis LITL or the Participation-Exemption Regime are not applicable, a tax deferral could occur under article 54 LITL. This tax deferral is subject to specific conditions and constraints.

1.6.2.2 Step 2: exchange of Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against cash and/or New Barclays Ordinary Shares for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share tendered pursuant to the Offer.

Table of Contents(a) *Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their private patrimony

As Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their private patrimony, directly exchange their Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares (i.e. they receive shares from the company which benefit from the contribution), the rollover provisions may apply. Indeed, article 102 (10) LITL provides that capital gains arising in case of an exchange of shares could benefit from a rollover provision if:

- (i) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) is a corporation fully subject to a tax comparable to the Luxembourg corporate income tax (i.e. comparable taxable basis and a minimum tax of 11%) or a company falling within the scope of the EU Directive on mergers, divisions, transfer of assets and exchange of shares dated 23 July 1990 (90/434/ EC);
- (ii) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) acquires the majority of the voting rights in Barclays (Netherlands);
- (iii) the Luxembourg Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder does not receive a cash amount (soulte) which is more than 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange.

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of the Luxembourg resident individual Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder (previously ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder) to the extent such shareholder has not given up the benefit of the rollover provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

To the extent that condition 1.6.2.2(a)(iii) above is not complied with (i.e. in case the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange), the rollover provisions will not apply to the exchange and capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his private patrimony will be taxable if they qualify as Speculation Gains or capital gains on a Substantial Shareholding.

(b) Luxembourg resident individuals in the context of their professional patrimony

As Luxembourg resident individual shareholders, in the context of their professional patrimony, directly exchange their Barclays (Netherlands) Shares against New Barclays Ordinary Shares (i.e. they receive shares from the company which benefit from the contribution) the rollover provisions may apply. Indeed, article 22 bis LITL provides that capital gains arising upon an exchange of shares could benefit from a rollover provision if:

- (i) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) is a corporation (i.e. joint-stock company) fully subject to a tax comparable to the Luxembourg corporate income tax (i.e. comparable taxable basis and a minimum tax of 11%) or a company falling within the scope of the EU Directive on mergers, divisions, transfer of assets and exchange of shares dated 23 July 1990 (90/434/ EC);
- (ii) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) acquires the majority of the voting rights in Barclays (Netherlands);
- (iii) the Luxembourg Barclays (Netherlands) shareholder does not receive a cash amount (soulte) which is more than 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange.

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of the Luxembourg resident individual Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder (previously

Table of Contents

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder) to the extent such shareholder has not given up the benefit of the rollover provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

To the extent that condition (1.6.2.2(b)(iii) above is not complied with (i.e. in case the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange, the rollover provisions will not apply to the exchange and capital gains realised by a Luxembourg resident individual in the context of his professional patrimony will be subject to income tax at the normal progressive rate (up to a maximum of 38%, plus the social unemployment contribution of 2,5% on the income tax to be paid, i.e. an aggregate rate of 38,95%), the taxable gain is also subject to social security provisions.

(c) Luxembourg resident corporations

Regarding Luxembourg resident corporations (i.e. joint-stock companies), article 22 bis LITL provides that capital gains arising upon an exchange of shares could benefit from a rollover provision if:

- (i) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) is a corporation (i.e. joint-stock company) fully subject to a tax comparable to the Luxembourg corporate income tax (i.e. comparable taxable basis and a minimum tax of 11%) or a company falling within the scope of the EU Directive on mergers, divisions, transfer of assets and exchange of shares dated 23 July 1990 (90/434/ EC);
- (ii) the acquisition vehicle (i.e. Barclays) acquires the majority of the voting rights in Barclays (Netherlands);
- (iii) the Luxembourg Barclays (Netherlands) shareholder does not receive a cash amount (soulte) which is more than 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange.

In such a case, no capital gain will be realised at the time of the exchange of shares in the hands of the Luxembourg resident corporate Barclays (Netherlands) Shareholder (previously ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholder) (i.e. joint-stock company) to the extent it has not given up the benefit of the rollover provisions.

Capital gains on any future disposal of any New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be computed on the difference between the price received from the sale of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the acquisition cost of the Barclays (Netherlands) Shares and on the basis of the acquisition date of the latter ones.

Expenses in direct connection with the participation contributed are subject to claw back and should be reported to the participation received by Luxembourg resident corporation.

If the conditions of article 22 bis LITL as described above are not complied with (for instance, if condition (1.6.2.2(c)(iii) above is not fulfilled and the cash amount received exceeds 10% of the nominal value (or par value, if any) of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares received in exchange) and a capital gain is discovered, the latter is in principle fully subject to corporate income tax and municipal business tax at the aggregate rate of 29.63% (for corporations established in Luxembourg-City) except if the conditions for the application of the Participation-Exemption Regime are met. In practice, the Participation-Exemption Regime should not be applicable since the condition of 12 months holding period should not be complied with.

Table of Contents1.7 Austrian taxation considerations

The following is a summary of certain Austrian income tax consequences relating to the exchange of shares as they may arise in the context of the acceptance of the Primary Exchange. The comments set out below are based on existing Austrian tax law, case law and regulations of the Austrian tax authorities as well as their respective interpretation in Austria as at the date of this Prospectus, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. They are intended as a general guide only, and do not constitute taxation or legal advice and relate only to certain limited aspects of the income tax treatment of the exchange of shares pursuant to the Primary Exchange.

This summary does not purport to exhaustively describe all possible tax aspects and does not deal with specific situations which may be of relevance for individual holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. This summary is general in nature and does not take into account the specific circumstances of any holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and should not be relied upon by any holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Accordingly, each holder of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares considering the Primary Exchange should obtain his own independent advice from his or her professional tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of accepting the Primary Exchange.

The comments set out below only apply to holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares that are either individuals (natürliche Personen) or corporations (Kapitalgesellschaften) who are resident for tax purposes in (and only in) Austria and who are the beneficial owners (wirtschaftliche Eigentümer) of the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares. Certain categories of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares, such as investment funds, private foundations or other similar vehicles, may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such holders.

Any holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares who are in any doubt about their tax position, or who are resident or otherwise subject to taxation in a jurisdiction outside Austria, should consult their own professional advisers immediately.

1.7.1 Share Exchange*Individuals*

Under general rules of Austrian income tax law, the exchange of shares in one corporation against shares in another corporation is treated in the same manner as the disposal of such shares for Austrian income tax purposes. In case the share exchange involves a cash element, such cash amount will have to be taken into account in calculating a possible taxable capital gain. Therefore, a capital gain realised on the occasion of a share exchange by an Austrian resident individual holding the shares exchanged as part of his non-business assets will only be subject to Austrian income tax if (i) such share exchange constitutes a speculative transaction within the meaning of sec. 30 of the Austrian Income Tax Act (Einkommensteuergesetz) or (ii) the shares given up constitute a qualified participation within the meaning of sec. 31 of the Austrian Income Tax Act. A transaction is generally considered to be a speculative transaction if the sale (or exchange) of the relevant shares occurs within one year of their acquisition. This means that if an Austrian individual shareholder exchanges shares held as part of his non-business assets within such one year speculation period against shares in another company which may additionally involve a cash element, any capital gains realised on such share exchange will be subject to Austrian income tax of up to 50% on the level of the Austrian shareholder. If, on the other hand, an Austrian individual shareholder exchanges his shares in one corporation against shares in another corporation (which may additionally involve a cash element) after such one year speculation period has elapsed, such shareholder may nevertheless be subject to Austrian income tax with respect to any capital gains realised on the share exchange provided that the shareholder (or in case of a gratuitous acquisition of the shares exchanged its predecessor) has held a participation in the corporation of at least 1% at any point in time during the last five years. In such case the applicable income tax rate on the capital gains is reduced to half of the individual's average income tax rate.

An Austrian resident individual holding shares as part of his business assets will be subject to Austrian income tax of up to 50% with any capital gains realised on a share exchange which may additionally involve a cash element. If, however, the period between acquisition and share exchange exceeds one year, the applicable income tax rate on such taxable capital gains may be reduced to half of the individual's average income tax rate.

As a last remark it should be noted that if the Primary Exchange fulfils the prerequisites of Art III of the Austrian Reorganization Tax Act (Umgründungssteuergesetz) a preferential tax treatment (e.g. potential roll-over relief) may possibly be available for the Austrian resident individual shareholder with respect to the share exchanges. If, however, the Austrian resident individual shareholder receives in addition to shares cash as a consideration for the share exchange, Art III of the Austrian Reorganization Tax Act will most likely not apply.

Corporations

Under general rules of Austrian corporate income tax law, the exchange of shares in one corporation against shares in another corporation is treated in the same manner as the disposal of such shares for Austrian corporate income tax purposes. Therefore, the exchange of shares in a foreign (i.e. non-Austrian) corporation against shares in another corporation will generally not be subject to 25% Austrian corporate income tax on the level of the Austrian corporate shareholder provided that (i) the conditions for the international participation exemption of sec. 10(2) and (3) of the Austrian Corporate Income Tax Act (Körperschaftsteuergesetz) are fulfilled and (ii) the Austrian corporate shareholder has not opted for the taxation of any capital gains or losses of such participation upon filing the corporate income tax return for the year of acquisition of such shares. The international participation exemption of sec. 10(2) and (3) of the Austrian Corporate Income Tax Act applies if the following conditions are met: (i) the Austrian corporate shareholder qualifies under sec. 7(3) of the Austrian Corporate Income Tax Act, (ii) and demonstrably holds a participation in the form of shares, (iii) of at least 10% of the stated share capital of the foreign subsidiary, (iv) for a minimum duration of one year, and (v) with the foreign subsidiary being comparable to an Austrian corporation. In all other cases, any capital gains realised on a share exchange by an Austrian resident corporate shareholder are subject to 25% Austrian corporate income tax on the level of the Austrian shareholder. The above illustrated Austrian tax implication will not change in case the share exchange involves a cash element. Such cash amount will have to be taken into account in calculating a possible taxable capital gain.

As a last remark it should be noted that if the Primary Exchange fulfils the prerequisites of Art III of the Austrian Reorganization Tax Act a preferential tax treatment (e.g. potential roll-over relief) may possibly be available for the Austrian resident corporate shareholder with respect to the share exchanges. If, however, the Austrian resident corporate shareholder receives in addition to shares cash as a consideration for the share exchange, Art III of the Austrian Reorganization Tax Act will most likely not apply.

Notice to persons in the United States: The Offer is made for the securities of a foreign company. The Offer is subject to disclosure requirements of a foreign country that are different from those of the United States. Financial statements included in the document, if any, have been prepared in accordance with foreign accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements of United States companies. It may be difficult for you to enforce your rights and any claim you may have arising under the federal securities laws, since Barclays is located in a foreign country, and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country. You may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the United States securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a United States court's judgment. You should be aware that Barclays may purchase securities otherwise than under the Offer, such as in open market or privately negotiated purchases.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements and assumptions in this document, or incorporated by reference from the Prospectus, constitute forward-looking statements with respect to certain of Barclays and ABN AMRO's plans and their current goals and expectations relating to their future results, performance and achievements and which involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Barclays cautions readers that no forward-looking statement is a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as aim, anticipate, target, expect, estimate, intend, plan, goal, believe, or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding the consummation of the Merger between Barclays and ABN AMRO within the expected timeframe and on the expected terms (if at all), the benefits of the Merger involving Barclays and ABN AMRO, including the achievement of synergy targets, Barclays and ABN AMRO's income growth, impairment charges, business strategy, projected costs and estimates of capital expenditures and revenue benefits, projected levels of growth in the banking and financial markets, the Combined Group's future financial and operating results, projected costs and estimates of capital expenditures, and plans and objectives for future operations of Barclays, ABN AMRO and the Combined Group and other statements that are not historical facts. Any forward-looking statements made herein speak only as of the date they are made. Except as required by the FSA, the London Stock Exchange or applicable law, Barclays expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained in this document to reflect any change in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

6 August 2007

Dear Shareholder,
Merger with ABN AMRO

1. Introduction

On 23 April 2007, Barclays and ABN AMRO jointly announced an agreement to merge to create one of the world's leading universal bank groups, to be called Barclays. The terms on which the Merger would take place were revised prior to an announcement by Barclays on 23 July 2007 and were further revised prior to an announcement by Barclays on 30 July 2007.

On 23 July 2007 the Barclays Board also announced an investment by China Development Bank and Temasek¹ of up to 13.4 billion (£9 billion) in Barclays through the subscription by China Development Bank and Temasek for Barclays Ordinary Shares². Of this amount China Development Bank and Temasek agreed to subscribe 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) on 14 August 2007 for the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares and they will subscribe a further 8.1 billion (£5.4 billion), conditionally upon completion of the Merger, for the Conditional CDB Shares and the Conditional Temasek Shares. The Barclays Board and the management of Barclays are pleased to build on the long-standing relationship with China Development Bank, making it now a strategic partner and a strategic shareholder. Barclays also welcomes Temasek as a major shareholder. The management of Barclays believes there are substantial benefits for each of Barclays, China Development Bank and Temasek as a result of these arrangements.

¹Temasek is an investment house, anchored in Asia and headquartered in Singapore.

²This amount was subsequently reduced by 1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) to reflect the results of the Clawback Placing.

Table of Contents

I am writing to you on behalf of the Barclays Board to give you details of the Merger, including the reasons for the Merger, to explain why the Barclays Board considers it to be in the best interests of Barclays and to seek your support for the Merger.

Owing to its size, the Merger will require the approval of Barclays Shareholders. The Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and the Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting have been convened for 10:00 a.m. and 10:15 a.m. (London time) (or, if later, on conclusion or adjournment of the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting), respectively, on 14 September 2007 at 1 Churchill Place, London E14 5HP. Your Board unanimously believes that the resolutions to be voted on at the Barclays Shareholder Meetings are in the best interests of Barclays and recommends that you vote in favour. The Resolutions are summarised in Sections 19 and 20 of this letter and are set out in full in the Notices convening the meetings found at the back of this document.

You will find in the remainder of this letter:

A summary of the terms of the Merger (Section 2);

A summary of the offers for the preference shares issued by ABN AMRO (Section 3);

Details of the strategic investments in Barclays (Section 4);

Details of the Clawback Placing (Section 5);

Information on ABN AMRO itself (Section 6);

The background to the Merger (Section 7);

The financial effects of the Merger (Section 8);

Summary of Barclays current trading (Section 9);

Details of the proposed composition of the Barclays Board following the Merger (Section 10);

Information on the management and operating model of the Combined Group (Section 11);

Information on regulation, tax, capital management and dividend policy of the Combined Group (Sections 12 and 13);

Financing of the Cash Consideration (Section 14);

Further details of the Merger (Section 15);

The strategic rationale for the Merger (Section 16);

Information on the Share Buy-back Programme (Section 17); and Details on the future intentions of the Barclays Board regarding share capital (Section 18).

The actions that shareholders need to take are set out in Section 21 and the Board's recommendation is included in Section 23.

2. Summary of the Terms of the Merger

The Merger is being effected by means of the Offer. The terms of the Merger initially presented to ABN AMRO as set out in the announcement on 23 April 2007 were revised prior to announcements on 23 July 2007 and 30 July 2007 and the Offer is being unanimously recommended by the Barclays Board as being in the best interests of Barclays and Barclays Shareholders as a whole. On 30 July 2007, the ABN AMRO Boards announced their continuing support for the strategic benefits of the combination with Barclays but concluded they were not in a position to recommend either of the rival offers for ABN AMRO.

The Offer comprises separate offers for each class of ABN AMRO's outstanding share capital.

Ordinary Share Offer

Pursuant to the Ordinary Share Offer, ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and holders of ABN AMRO ADSs tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs will receive:

2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares and 13.15 in cash for every 1 ABN AMRO Ordinary Share

0.5325 of a New Barclays ADS and 13.15 in cash for every 1 ABN AMRO ADS

¹The cash consideration paid for each ABN AMRO ADS will be Dollars, based on the conversion of the Euro consideration to which holders of ABN AMRO ADSs are entitled, net of any applicable fees and expenses, into Dollars at the average exchange rate obtainable by The Bank of New York, the ADS exchange agent, for the five business days preceding the date on which the cash consideration is received by the ADS exchange agent for delivery in respect of such ABN AMRO ADSs.

Table of Contents

The Ordinary Share Offer values each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share at 34.83 and values ABN AMRO at 65.6 billion (£44.2 billion), based on the Closing Price of Barclays Ordinary Shares on 2 August 2007, the latest practicable date prior to the date of publication of this document. Of this amount, approximately 38 per cent. will be payable in cash. As at 2 August 2007 the implied value of this consideration per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share represented a price to reported earnings multiple of 13.9 times and a price to book multiple of 2.7 times based on 2006 figures.

The Ordinary Share Offer represents a premium for ABN AMRO Shareholders of approximately:

27.6 per cent. to the share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares on 16 March 2007, the last Business Day prior to the announcement that ABN AMRO and Barclays were in talks; and

43.6 per cent. over the average share price of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in the 6 months up to and including 16 March 2007.

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and holders of ABN AMRO ADSs are being offered the opportunity to elect, subject to availability, to change the proportions in which they receive New Barclays Ordinary Shares or New Barclays ADSs and cash in respect of their holdings of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs under the Mix and Match Facility. However, the total number of New Barclays Ordinary Shares and New Barclays ADSs to be issued and the maximum aggregate amount of cash to be paid under the Offer will not be varied as a result of elections under the Mix and Match Facility.

Under the terms of the Ordinary Share Offer, existing ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders (together with holders of ABN AMRO ADSs) will own 35.1 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group and existing Barclays Shareholders (together with holders of Barclays ADSs) will own 55.6 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group. This compares to a split of 48 per cent and 52 per cent set out in the Announcement. In addition, Temasek will own 2.5 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group and China Development Bank 6.8 per cent.

The Merger Protocol contains provisions in relation to the treatment of options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans. Barclays and ABN AMRO are considering the proposed treatment of options and awards under the ABN AMRO Employee Share Plans although the treatment has not, at the date of this document, been finalised.

3. Summary of the DR Preference Share Offer and the offer for Formerly Convertible Preference shares

In addition to the Ordinary Share Offer, Barclays is making offers for the issued and outstanding depository receipts issued in respect of the convertible financing preference shares of ABN AMRO (the DR Preference Shares) and the issued and outstanding Formerly Convertible Preference Shares of ABN AMRO.

DR Preference Share Offer

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their DR Preference Shares under the DR Preference Share Offer will receive either 0.59 in cash or, if they so choose and subject to the passing of the Preference Share Resolutions at the Barclays Shareholder Meetings, 0.59 of a Barclays Preference Share for each DR Preference Share validly tendered and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. The aggregate consideration payable for the DR Preference Shares will be approximately 808 million, assuming all of the DR Preference Shares currently in issue are tendered for cash. The DR Preference Share Offer will be adjusted if necessary to include accrued dividends up to the Settlement Date. Since the next dividend payment date on the DR Preference Shares is due when ABN AMRO pays its annual dividend on the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares for the financial year ending 31 December 2007, no adjustment of the DR Preference Share Ratio is expected in connection with a payment of dividend.

Offer for Formerly Convertible Preference Shares

ABN AMRO Shareholders tendering their Formerly Convertible Preference Shares will receive 27.65 for each such share validly tendered and delivered, subject to the Offer being declared unconditional. This offer price equates to the closing share price for a Formerly Convertible Preference Share on 20 April 2007, the last Business Day before the Announcement. The aggregate consideration payable for the Formerly Convertible Preference Shares by Barclays will be approximately 1.2 million assuming all of the Formerly Convertible Preference Shares currently in issue are tendered. The consideration payable in respect of the Formerly Convertible Reference Finance Shares will not be adjusted for a dividend payment on the Formerly Convertible Preference Shares.

Table of Contents4. Strategic Investments in Barclays

On 23 July 2007 the Barclays Board announced an investment by China Development Bank and Temasek in Barclays of up to 13.4 billion (£9 billion), up to 9.8 billion (£6.6 billion) of which is conditional upon completion of the Merger, through the subscription by China Development Bank and Temasek for Barclays Ordinary Shares.

Barclays and China Development Bank will broaden their relationship from strategic co-operation to a strategic partnership as a result of which China Development Bank will become a major shareholder and will subscribe on 14 August 2007 an initial 2.2 billion (£1.5 billion) for the Unconditional CDB Shares (or 3.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital). Subject to regulatory approval and completion of the Merger, China Development Bank has agreed to subscribe a further 6.4 billion (£4.3 billion) for the Conditional CDB Shares. Please see Section 6 of Part II of this document for the settlement mechanics in respect of the Conditional CDB Shares.

Temasek will also become a major shareholder in Barclays through the subscription on 14 August 2007 of 1.4 billion (£1.0 billion) for the Unconditional Temasek Shares (or 2.1 per cent. of Barclays current issued share capital).

Temasek has further agreed to subscribe 1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) for the Conditional Temasek Shares, conditional upon the completion of the Merger. Further details of these investments are set out in Section 6 of Part II of this document.

5. Clawback Placing

In addition to agreeing to subscribe for the Conditional CDB Shares and the Conditional Temasek Shares, China Development Bank and Temasek had also agreed, pursuant to the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement and the Temasek Subscription Agreement, to subscribe for further Barclays Ordinary Shares. However, in order to ensure that certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors could subscribe for Barclays Ordinary Shares on the same financial terms as China Development Bank and Temasek, both investors agreed that part of their allocation could be made available to such existing Barclays Shareholders and institutional investors by way of the Clawback Placing which was announced on 23 July 2007.

These Barclays Ordinary Shares were offered at a price of £7.40 per share to certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors (determined in Barclays sole discretion) on 23 and 24 July 2007. As a result of some of these Barclays Shareholders and institutional investors agreeing to subscribe for the Clawback Shares, China Development Bank and Temasek will not have the Clawback Shares issued to them and their aggregate subscription amounts have been reduced accordingly. The issue of the Clawback Shares to these existing Barclays Shareholders and institutional investors is conditional upon the Offer being declared unconditional and they will only be issued following the Offer being declared unconditional.

Immediately after the Effective Date, China Development Bank will hold 6.8 per cent. of the Combined Group, Temasek 2.5 per cent. and existing Barclays Shareholders (including those existing Barclays Shareholders and institutional investors who subscribed for the Clawback Shares) 55.6 per cent.

6. Information on ABN AMRO

ABN AMRO is a prominent international bank with a clear focus on consumer and commercial clients in ABN AMRO's local regions and a focus globally on select multinational corporations and financial institutions, as well as private clients. ABN AMRO is the eighth largest bank in Europe, and the thirteenth in the world, based in each case on total assets.² It has more than 4,500 branches in 56 countries and territories, and a staff of more than 110,300 full-time equivalents. On 22 April 2007, ABN AMRO Bank N.V. entered into an agreement to sell LaSalle to Bank of America for total consideration of $21 billion in cash (subject to certain adjustments linked to the financial performance of LaSalle before the closing of the sale). ABN AMRO's 2006 profits for the year including LaSalle were 4,780 million (LaSalle contribution 899 million), and total assets including LaSalle as at 31 December 2006 were 987 billion (LaSalle contribution 86 billion).

¹This amount was subsequently reduced by 1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) to reflect the results of the Clawback Placing.

Table of Contents

No further detailed information in respect of LaSalle assets and liabilities could be extracted from the unaudited interim financial statements of ABN AMRO as at 30 June 2007.

In the first half of 2007 ABN AMRO delivered strong operating performance. The increase in profitability is the result of a significant improvement in the operating performance as delivered on the three key themes of growth efficiency and the acceleration of the action plan. This performance is underpinned by the breadth and depth of its global banking businesses which provides an established platform for developing further growth. ABN AMRO operating profit before tax increased 4 per cent. to 2,098 million. Continuing earnings per share decreased 1 per cent. to 0.87 and the interim dividend will increase 5.5 per cent. to 0.58 per share.

7. Background to the Merger

The Merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create one of the world's leading universal banks. Both ABN AMRO and Barclays operate in a sector which is still fragmented. The Barclays Board believes that universal banking is the model best equipped for success in an industry where customer needs are converging and where demand-led growth will be significant across the globe. Harmonisation of customer needs is already well advanced in investment banking and investment management and is increasingly apparent in retail and commercial banking.

The Merger brings together two sets of high quality product capabilities and brands, which are well placed to create growth for shareholders from the relationship extension opportunities that exist in a combined base of 46 million personal and 1.4 million commercial customers.

The Combined Group will have a simple and transparent management structure. The management team will be clearly accountable for delivering sustained incremental earnings growth and value for shareholders by leading strong performance from the underlying businesses and by capturing the substantial synergies made available by the Merger. There will be two principal business groupings within the Combined Group, Global Retail and Commercial Banking (GRCB) and Investment Banking and Investment Management (IBIM). GRCB will be led by Frits Seegers, currently CEO of GRCB in Barclays. IBIM will be led by Bob Diamond, currently President of Barclays and CEO of IBIM. The holding company of the Combined Group will be Barclays PLC.

Global Retail and Commercial Banking

ABN AMRO and Barclays bring together two sets of highly complementary geographies. Approximately 90 per cent. of the Combined Group's branches will be in seven countries. In Europe, the Combined Group will have strong franchises in the UK and the Netherlands and attractive positions in Italy, Spain and Portugal. Additionally, the Combined Group will have significant exposure to the high growth developing economies of Brazil and South Africa, offering substantial revenue and profit growth opportunities. The Combined Group will also maximise the potential of ABN AMRO's fast growing Asian business.

Customers will benefit from the enhanced product capabilities of the Combined Group drawing on, for example, ABN AMRO's global cash and payments infrastructure and Barclays expertise in credit cards.

ABN AMRO and Barclays are both recognised players in commercial banking. They both have relevant presence in the mid-size sector. The Merger will accelerate Barclays ambition to develop its business banking activities globally. The franchise will be further strengthened by the linkage between a strong investment banking product range and the track record of both ABN AMRO and Barclays in selling investment banking products to mid-size clients across the Combined Group's broad geographic footprint.

There is significant opportunity for increased cost efficiency through the optimisation of the operating infrastructure and processes.

Investment Banking and Investment Management*Investment Banking*

The Merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will support the ambition to be a leading global investment bank in risk management and financing through enhanced product expertise and broader geographic exposure. Barclays existing product capabilities will be considerably enhanced, particularly in commodities, foreign exchange, equities, mergers and acquisitions, corporate broking, structured credit and private equity and its geographic and client reach will also be extended significantly into Asia, Latin America and Continental Europe. The combined investment bank will operate on the Barclays Capital scaleable platform and will target an alignment to a top quartile cost: income ratio by 2010.

Asset Management

The Combined Group will be the world's largest institutional asset manager³. The index-based, exchange traded fund and quantitative active capabilities of Barclays Global Investors (BGI) will be complemented by ABN AMRO's active fundamentals-based capabilities and products. The Barclays Board believes that there are expanded opportunities for retail distribution of the current product set, including iShares (exchange traded funds managed and marketed by BGI).

Wealth Management

The Merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create the world's eighth largest wealth manager⁴ with a leading European onshore franchise with strong positions in the Netherlands and UK, a strong European franchise across Germany, Belgium, France and Spain and attractive growing positions in Asia and Brazil. The product development capabilities of the combined wealth management business together with an extensive distribution network will allow the merged business to benefit from favourable demographic trends and increasing demand-led client volumes.

8. Financial Effects of the Merger

It is expected that the Merger will be 5 per cent. accretive to Barclays adjusted earnings per share⁵ in 2010, and will lead to significant accretion in ABN AMRO's 2008 adjusted earnings per share⁶ for accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders⁶. The Barclays Board expects that the return on investment will be approximately 13 per cent. in 2010. Potential synergies arising from the Merger have been assessed by a joint team from ABN AMRO and Barclays through a detailed bottom up approach involving business leaders from both banks. The total estimated pre-tax annual cost synergies and revenue benefits that are expected to be realised by 2010 are €3.5 billion, with a total pre-tax integration cost of realising these synergy benefits estimated at €3.6 billion. Bob Diamond, Barclays Group President, will be the Accountable Executive for the integration and synergy programmes reporting to the Group Chief Executive and will chair an Integration Committee which will comprise: himself; Huibert Boumeester, Group Chief Administrative Officer; Paul Idzik, Group Chief Operating Officer; Ron Teerlink, GRCB Chief Operating Officer; and Rich Ricci, IBIM Chief Operating Officer. The Integration Committee will have the responsibility for the delivery of the estimated cost synergies and revenue benefits. Capturing the expected synergies will assist the management of the Combined Group in achieving top quartile cost: income ratios across all businesses by 2010. A detailed discussion of these expected synergies is set out in Section 16.2 (below).

Unaudited pro forma financial statements showing the impact of the Merger on the net assets of the Barclays Group if the Merger had been Effective on 31 December 2006 are set out in Part IX of the Prospectus.

9. Barclays Current Trading

Barclays made good progress on all key strategy priorities and delivered another very strong set of results for shareholders. Double-digit growth in earnings and dividends reflects a outstanding performance from Barclays Capital, good profit growth in UK Banking, an improvement in UK unsecured impairment and strong investment across the business.

Table of Contents

Barclays profit before tax increased 12 per cent. to £4,101 million. Earnings per share increased 14 per cent. to 41.4 pence and the interim dividend will increase 10 per cent. to 11.5 pence per share.

The Barclays unaudited interim results announcement for the six months ended 30 June 2007 was released on 2 August 2007.

10. Board Composition of the Combined Group

The Combined Group will have a UK corporate governance structure with a unitary board of Directors. Following the Merger, the Barclays Board will initially consist of 10 members from Barclays and 9 members from ABN AMRO. In addition to the Chairman and Deputy Chairman, there will be 12 Barclays Non-executive Directors, with 5 initially nominated by Barclays and 7 initially nominated by ABN AMRO. In addition, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director and, subject to the Merger being completed, Temasek will also have the right to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director. In the event that the number of Directors on the Barclays Board shall, in the two years following completion of the Merger, be reduced, the pro rata representation of directors nominated by ABN AMRO and of Directors nominated by Barclays shall remain the same. It is expected that Gary Hoffman, Dr Daniël Cronjé, Professor Dame Sandra Dawson, Sir Andrew Likierman, Stephen Russell and Sir John Sunderland will retire from the Barclays Board with effect from the Effective Date, and that from the Effective Date it is expected that the Barclays Board composition will be as follows:

	Position as from the Effective Date
Chairman
Arthur Martinez	Chairman
Executive Directors
John Varley	Group Chief Executive
Huibert Boumeester	Group Chief Administrative Officer
Bob Diamond	President of Barclays and CEO of IBIM
Chris Lucas	Group Finance Director
Frits Seegers	CEO of GRGB
Non-executive Directors
Marcus Agius	Deputy Chairman
David Booth	Non-executive Director
Sir Richard Broadbent	Non-executive Director
Leigh Clifford	Non-executive Director
Fulvio Conti	Non-executive Director
Rijkman Groenink	Non-executive Director
Gert-Jan Kramer	Non-executive Director
Trude Maas-de Brouwer	Non-executive Director
André Olijslager	Non-executive Director
Sir Nigel Rudd	Non-executive Director
Anthony Ruys	Non-executive Director
Paolo Scaroni	Non-executive Director
Rob van den Bergh	Non-executive Director

Marcus Agius is expected to become Deputy Chairman of the Combined Group and will remain Chairman of Barclays Bank. It is expected that he will succeed Arthur Martinez as Chairman of the Combined Group when Arthur Martinez retires.

Following the Effective Date, Rijkman Groenink is expected to cease to be Chairman of the Managing Board and Gary Hoffman is expected to cease to be the Barclays Group Vice-Chairman. Huibert Boumeester, Chief Financial Officer of ABN AMRO, is expected to cease to hold such office following the Effective Date.

Table of Contents

11. Management and Operating Model of the Combined Group

The head office of the Combined Group will be located in Amsterdam.

Day-to-day management of the Combined Group is expected to be the responsibility of John Varley, working with the Barclays Group Executive Committee, which is expected to consist of:

John Varley, Group Chief Executive

Huibert Boumeester, Group Chief Administrative Officer

Bob Diamond, President of Barclays and CEO of IBIM

Paul Idzik, Group Chief Operating Officer

Chris Lucas, Group Finance Director

Piero Overmars, CEO of Continental Europe and Asia, GRCB

Frits Seegers, CEO of GRCB

Ron Teerlink, Chief Operating Officer of GRCB

Wilco Jiskoot is expected to become a Vice-Chairman of Barclays Capital with senior responsibility for client relationships.

GRCB will be headquartered in Amsterdam. GRCB will incorporate the retail & commercial banking operations of the Combined Group, including:

Barclays UK Retail Banking and UK Business Banking, International Retail and Commercial Banking and Barclaycard; and

ABN AMRO's Transaction Banking, BU Netherlands, BU Europe (ex Global Markets), Antonveneta, BU Latin America and BU Asia.

IBIM will be headquartered in London. IBIM will comprise:

Barclays Capital, which will incorporate Barclays Capital and ABN AMRO Global Markets and Global Clients and ABN AMRO Private Equity businesses;

Barclays Global Investors and ABN AMRO Asset Management; and

Wealth Management, which will incorporate Barclays Wealth and ABN AMRO Private Clients.

12. Regulation and Tax Residency

The FSA and DNB have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and that the DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO and Barclays groups respectively.

Barclays, which will be the holding company for the Combined Group, will remain UK incorporated, and will remain UK tax resident.

13. Capital Management and Dividend Policy of the Combined Group

ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and Barclays Bank will seek to maintain their strong credit ratings. On the Effective Date it is expected that the Tier 1 Ratio of the Combined Group will be 7.5 per cent. and the Core Equity Tier 1 Ratio 5 per cent. The Combined Group will take a disciplined approach to capital optimisation and will seek to maintain the Tier 1 ratio at 7.5 per cent. and rebuild the Core Equity Tier 1 Ratio to 5.25 per cent. by the end of 2009 from the retention of earnings. It has been assumed, for the purpose of estimating financial effects, that excess equity over and above the target Equity Tier 1 ratio after accounting for dividends and growth in risk weighted assets will be returned to shareholders by way of share buybacks.

Following the Effective Date, it is intended that the Combined Group will maintain ABN AMRO's and Barclays progressive dividend policy and that dividends per share will grow approximately in line with earnings per share over the longer term. With the benefit of the estimated synergies of the Merger, the Combined Group's annual dividend will be approximately twice covered by adjusted earnings⁷. The management of the Combined Group believe that this policy will maintain an appropriate balance between income distribution to shareholders and earnings retention to fund growth. It is also intended that the Combined Group will continue Barclays practice of weighting the annual dividend towards the final dividend to maintain flexibility. It is not expected that the dividends per share in 2008 will be materially different to the dividend Barclays would have expected to distribute to shareholders had the Merger not occurred.

Following the Effective Date, the Combined Group will present financial statements in Euro and will declare dividends in Euro. Shareholders in the Combined Group will be able to elect to receive dividends paid in Euro or Sterling. Existing Barclays Shareholders will continue to receive dividends paid in Sterling unless they validly elect to receive Euro dividends. Barclays ADS holders will continue to receive dividends paid in Dollars. It will be possible for Barclays Shareholders to elect to receive future dividends paid in either Euro or Sterling. Further details of how to elect to receive dividends paid in Euro are set out below in Section 21 (Actions to be taken – Dividend Election).

14. Financing of the Cash Consideration

Barclays will finance the Cash Consideration payable under the Offer from the following sources:

14.1 Proceeds of the sale of LaSalle

Barclays proposes to use approximately 12 billion (£8.1 billion) of the capital released from the sale of LaSalle to Bank of America, previously intended to be returned to Barclays Shareholders post the Merger, to repay borrowing incurred in order to fund part of the Cash Consideration.

14.2 Conditional Investment and the Clawback Placing

8.1 billion (£5.4 billion) of the Cash Consideration is to be funded by the Conditional Investment. In addition to this, 1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) is to be funded by the subscription for the Clawback Shares by certain existing Barclays Shareholders and certain other institutional investors. Please see Section 6 of Part II for details of the Conditional Investment.

14.3 Available Cash Resources

Barclays will fund approximately 3 billion (£2 billion) of the Cash Consideration from available cash resources.

15. Further details of the Merger15.1 Structure of the Merger

The Merger is being effected by means of offers for each class of ABN AMRO's outstanding share capital, and in particular the Ordinary Share Offer for all of the issued and outstanding ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares not already held by Barclays. This is a tender offer under the securities laws of the Netherlands and made into the United Kingdom, the United States, Austria, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Norway, Singapore, Spain and Switzerland, as well as any other country where the Offer is capable of being lawfully made and accepted in compliance with local securities laws (the Offer Jurisdictions). In addition to the Ordinary Share Offer, Barclays is making offers for the DR Preference Shares and the Formerly Convertible Preference Shares of ABN AMRO. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders are presented with two options pursuant to the Ordinary Share Offer: (1) the primary exchange; or (2) the alternative exchange. The ultimate consideration for the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will in both cases be New Barclays Ordinary Shares and cash per the Exchange Ratio and any successful elections made under the Mix and Match Facility; in the case of the primary exchange such shares will be issued into the Euroclear Nederland system via the CREST account of Euroclear Nederland, whereas under the alternative exchange they will be held in CREST (by crediting a CREST member's account) or in certificated form.

The detailed terms of the Ordinary Share Offer, the DR Preference Offer and the offer for Formerly Convertible Preference Shares are set out in Sections 2 and 3 above.

Further information relating to the Offer is set out in the Prospectus.

15.2 Dividends

Barclays announced an interim dividend of 11.5 pence per Barclays Ordinary Share in respect of the 2007 financial year on 23 July 2007. The ex-dividend date for such interim dividend is 15 August 2007 and its record date is 17 August 2007. The interim dividend will be paid on 1 October 2007. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares will not rank for this dividend, although the Unconditional CDB Shares and the

Table of Contents

Unconditional Temasek Shares will have been subscribed for by the record date and therefore will rank for this dividend.

Assuming the Effective Date occurs on or before the record date for the Barclays final dividend for 2007, which is expected to be in early March 2008, the first dividend payable to holders of New Barclays Ordinary Shares is expected to be the final dividend in respect of 2007, which is expected to be paid in late April 2008.

15.3 Offer Document

The Offer is being made to ABN AMRO Shareholders in the Offer Jurisdictions by means of an offer document, which is being made available to ABN AMRO Shareholders today.

15.4 The Merger Protocol

The Merger Protocol entered into between Barclays and ABN AMRO, has governed, and will continue to govern, their relationship until the Merger becomes Effective or lapses.

Pursuant to the Merger Protocol, Barclays and ABN AMRO have each undertaken to take certain steps to implement the Merger and have each given certain undertakings in relation to the conduct of their business in the period prior to the implementation of the Merger.

The Merger Protocol can be terminated under certain circumstances, including where either party commits a material breach of the Merger Protocol or applicable merger laws. The withdrawal by the ABN AMRO Boards of their recommendation of the Offer resulted in the right of Barclays to receive 200 million. Under the amendments to the Merger Protocol made on 30 July 2007, Barclays has agreed to defer collection of the 200 million, save that Barclays shall not be entitled to receive this sum if the Offer is declared unconditional or if the ABN AMRO Boards renew their recommendation of the Offer and whilst this recommendation remains in place Barclays terminates the Merger Protocol.

Further details of the Merger Protocol are provided in paragraph 10.1 of Part XI (Additional Information) of the Prospectus.

15.5 Conditions to the Offer

The Offer is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions including, but not limited to, the following:

At least 80 per cent. of the issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares have been tendered under the Offer or are otherwise held by Barclays;

No material adverse change in respect of Barclays or ABN AMRO;

No third party has indicated an intention to take any frustrating action (as defined in the Merger Protocol);

All necessary or appropriate filings, notifications, and applications in connection with the Offer have been made and all authorisations and consents have been obtained, are not subject to any material or unsatisfied term or condition and relevant waiting periods have expired;

All regulatory approvals required for completion of the LaSalle Agreement or a Sale Contract, as the case may be, have been obtained and the LaSalle Agreement with Bank of America has completed in accordance with its terms, or a purchase and sale agreement with another party with respect to the sale of LaSalle has completed in accordance with its terms;

The competent regulatory authorities in the Netherlands have given their declaration of no objection and the FSA has notified its approval of each person who will acquire control over any United Kingdom authorised person who is a member of the Combined Group or the relevant waiting period has expired;

Barclays and ABN AMRO have received confirmation from the DNB that it has no objection to the proposal for the composition of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board and the FSA has approved the appointment of the Proposed Directors to the Barclays Board;

All approvals have been received or notices have been filed under US federal or state banking laws that are necessary for completion of the Offer and Merger and all required waiting periods have expired;

The European Commission has declared the Offer compatible with the common market or has granted its approval to the Offer and the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act in relation to the Offer has expired or been terminated;

Table of Contents

Neither Barclays nor ABN AMRO has received any notification from the DNB or the FSA that there is likely to be a change in the supervisory, reporting or regulatory capital arrangements that will apply to the Combined Group;

The tax clearances from the relevant UK and Dutch tax authorities have not been withdrawn or amended;

Confirmation has been given that the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will be admitted to the Official List of the UKLA, admitted to trading on the main market for listed securities of the LSE and authorised for listing on Euronext Amsterdam and the Tokyo Stock Exchange, and that the New Barclays Ordinary Shares and the Barclays ADSs representing such shares or a portion thereof have been approved for listing on the NYSE;

The general meetings of shareholders of ABN AMRO and Barclays have passed appropriate resolutions to give effect to the Offer and the Merger and all measures to implement it, subject to and with effect as of the time the Offer is declared unconditional;

There has been no event, circumstance or series of linked events or circumstances that was not fairly disclosed in the annual reports and the annual accounts for 2006 of ABN AMRO and Barclays respectively or otherwise disclosed and that can reasonably be expected to have a negative impact on the consolidated operating income in 2006 of ABN AMRO or Barclays of 5 per cent. or more;

The Merger Protocol has not been terminated;

Stichting Administratiekantoor Preferente Financieringsaandelen ABN AMRO Holding has irrevocably agreed with Barclays and ABN AMRO that, subject to:

- (i) the Offer being declared unconditional;
- (ii) an undertaking from Barclays not to exercise more voting rights on the ABN AMRO underlying convertible preference finance shares than it could exercise as a holder of DR Preference Shares for as long as the ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares are listed on Euronext Amsterdam's Eurolist; and
- (iii) the amendment of the terms of the DR Preference Shares necessary for an exchange by Barclays of its DR Preference Shares for ABN AMRO underlying convertible preference finance shares and any other actions as may be legally required to enable such exchange, it will take all necessary action to exchange any DR Preference Shares for ABN AMRO underlying convertible preference finance shares, if and when requested by Barclays and such agreement shall continue to be in full force and effect;

Since the date of the Merger Protocol no Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition having been or become reasonably likely to be imposed affecting any of the Barclays Group, the ABN AMRO Group or the Combined Group (measured on a scale relative to the relevant group);

Barclays and ABN AMRO have received copies of resignation letters from those members of the ABN AMRO Boards and those members of the management board and supervisory board of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. who, it has been agreed, shall resign subject to the Offer being declared unconditional;

Barclays and ABN AMRO have received copies of resignation letters from those members of the Barclays Board who, it has been agreed, shall resign subject to the Offer being declared unconditional;

Relevant regulatory consents to the investment by China Development Bank in Barclays Ordinary Shares have been obtained;

To the extent required the DNB has given consent to ABN AMRO and ABN AMRO Bank in relation to a distribution relating to the LaSalle proceeds following the Offer;

Before the Closing Date, the ABN AMRO Boards having confirmed in writing, and having made an appropriate press release confirming, their unanimous recommendation of the Offer for acceptance by ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and holders of ABN AMRO ADSs; and

No third party has declared or reaffirmed that it makes or intends to make an offer or an amended offer for shares in ABN AMRO.

Barclays has reserved the right to waive (among other things) the conditions relating to a material adverse change in respect of ABN AMRO and the completion of the LaSalle sale. ABN AMRO has reserved the right to waive (among other things) the condition relating to a material adverse change in respect of

Barclays. Each of Barclays and ABN AMRO has reserved the right to waive certain other conditions to the Offer, although in some cases this right may only be exercised in certain circumstances and/or upon consent of the other party or a third party.

Barclays has undertaken to China Development Bank not to waive (a) the 80 per cent. minimum acceptance condition to less than 70 per cent., (b) any of the material adverse change conditions, or (c) any right to terminate, rescind or withdraw the Offer, without prior consultation with China Development Bank and having due regard to its views.

The obligations of China Development Bank and Temasek to make the Conditional Investment are conditional on the terms of the Offer not being amended without their prior consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

The section above referring to intends to make an offer does not include the current offer by the Royal Bank of Scotland Group PLC, Fortis N.V., Fortis S.A./N.V. and Banco Santander S.A., acting together as a consortium (the Consortium) through RFS Holding B.V., on the terms and conditions as announced on 20 July 2007, but it does for example include any amendment to that offer or the terms and conditions of that offer (including an amendment in, or waiver of, any of the offer conditions), any new offer or a reaffirmation of any offer by the Consortium or any declaration in relation thereto by the Consortium. Barclays and ABN AMRO have made all of the relevant filings globally which are now due where a consent or notification is required in respect of the Offer. Some approvals have already been received (including from the FSA in respect of a change of control in ABN AMRO's UK subsidiaries) and it is expected that substantially all remaining approvals will be received by the end of August 2007. Until all approvals have been received, Barclays and ABN AMRO will continue to communicate and work with the appropriate regulatory authorities to ensure that all approvals are received at the earliest opportunity.

ABN AMRO and Barclays confirm that all requisite employee consultations and information procedures with employee representative bodies of ABN AMRO and Barclays have been completed and have resulted in a positive opinion of the European Staff Council and a positive advice from the Central Works Council in respect of the proposed combination with Barclays.

15.6 Settlement, Listing and Dealing of Barclays Ordinary Shares

Application will be made to the FSA for the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is expected that admission of the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on 14 August 2007. It is expected that Admission of the New Barclays Ordinary Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on the Settlement Date. It is expected that admission of the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will commence, on or shortly before the Settlement Date.

Barclays will also apply for a secondary listing of Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam's Eurolist. It is expected that admission of the Barclays Ordinary Shares on Euronext Amsterdam will become effective, and dealings for normal settlement will also commence, on the Settlement Date.

It is intended that the Barclays Preference Shares will be issued on the Settlement Date. No application will be made for the Barclays Preference Shares to be listed or admitted for trading on any stock exchange.

16. Strategic Rationale for the Merger

In reaching its decision to recommend the Merger to its shareholders, the Barclays Board consulted with Barclays management and its financial advisers and considered a variety of factors, including the material factors described below. In deciding to revise the terms of the Merger, Barclays took into account the investments by China

Development Bank and Temasek. The Barclays Board believes that the Unconditional Investment is an important endorsement of the Barclays strategy and management team. In addition, the Barclays Board believes that the Conditional Investment underscores the confidence of China Development Bank and Temasek in the value potential of the Merger. In light of the number and wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger, the Barclays Board did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its determination. The Barclays Board viewed its position as being based on all of the information available and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual Barclays Directors may have given different weight to different factors. This explanation of Barclays reasons for the Merger and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under Forward-Looking Statements.

16.1 Strategic Considerations

The Barclays Board considered a number of factors pertaining to the strategic rationale for the Merger as generally supporting its decision to enter into the Merger Protocol, including the following:

The expectation that the Merger would create one of the world's leading universal banks in a sector which is still fragmented;

The belief that universal banking is the model best equipped for success in an industry where customer needs are converging and where demand-led growth will be significant across the globe;

The belief that harmonisation of customer needs is already well advanced in investment banking and investment management and is increasingly apparent in retail and commercial banking;

The belief that the Merger brings together two sets of high quality product capabilities and brands, which are well placed to create growth for shareholders from the relationship extension opportunities that exist in a combined base of approximately 46 million personal and 1.4 million commercial customers;

The belief that, in global retail and commercial banking, ABN AMRO and Barclays bring together two sets of highly complementary geographies. Approximately 90 per cent. of the Combined Group's branches will be in seven countries. In Europe the Combined Group will have strong franchises in the UK and the Netherlands and attractive positions in Italy, Spain and Portugal. Additionally, the Combined Group will have significant exposure to the high growth developing economies of Brazil and South Africa offering substantial revenue and profit growth opportunities. The Combined Group will also maximise the potential of ABN AMRO's fast growing Asian business;

The expectation that customers will benefit from the enhanced retail and commercial banking product capabilities of the Combined Group drawing on, for example, ABN AMRO's global cash and payments infrastructure and Barclays expertise in credit cards;

The fact that ABN AMRO and Barclays are both recognised players in commercial banking and both have relevant presence in the mid-size sector. The Merger is expected to accelerate Barclays ambition to develop its business banking activities globally. The franchise should be further strengthened by the linkage between a strong investment banking product range and the track record of both ABN AMRO and Barclays in selling investment banking products to mid-size clients across the Combined Group's broad geographic footprint;

The belief that there is significant opportunity for increased cost efficiency through the optimisation of the operating infrastructure and processes;

The belief that the Merger will support the ambition to be a leading global investment bank in risk management and financing through enhanced product expertise and broader geographic exposure;

The expectation that Barclays existing investment banking product capabilities will be considerably enhanced, particularly in commodities, foreign exchange, equities, mergers and acquisitions, corporate broking, structured credit and private equity and its geographic and client reach will also be extended significantly into Asia, Latin America and Continental Europe;

The fact that the Combined Group will be the world's largest institutional asset manager and that BGI's index-based, exchange traded fund and quantitative active capabilities will be complemented by ABN AMRO's active fundamental based capabilities;

The expectation that there are expanded opportunities for retail distribution of the current product set including BGI's rapidly growing iShares exchange traded funds; and

The fact that the Combined Group will be the world's eighth largest wealth manager and that the expanded distribution network will position the merged business well to benefit from favourable demographic trends and increasing demand-led client volumes.

Table of Contents16.2 Financial Considerations

The Barclays Board also considered a number of financial factors pertaining to the Merger as generally supporting its decision to enter into the Merger Protocol. Potential synergies arising from the Merger have been assessed by a joint team from Barclays and ABN AMRO through a detailed bottom up approach involving business leaders from both banks.

Below is a summary of the estimated unaudited pre-tax annual cost synergies and revenue benefits that are expected to be realised, as well as the estimated costs to achieve them, in the three calendar years commencing 2008:⁸

Cost	1,195	2,270	2,800
Revenue	(470)		700
Total synergies and benefits	725	2,270	3,500
Integration costs	2,160	1,080	360

Global Retail and Commercial Banking

It is estimated that the pre-tax annual cost synergies in retail and commercial banking will be 1,650 million in 2010, representing approximately 10 per cent. of the Combined Group's retail and commercial banking cost base excluding LaSalle. The cost synergies are expected to result from the consolidation of the retail and commercial banking activities into a universal banking model including:

Best practice off-shoring, improved procurement and real estate rationalisation;

The consolidation of data centres and supporting IT networks;

The use of ABN AMRO's trade and payments back office operations in the Barclays network and integration of card operations under Barclaycard; and

The reduction of overlaps in management structures and the retail and commercial operations in the eight overlapping countries.

Revenue benefits are estimated to amount to at least 150 million on a pre-tax basis in 2010, which is equivalent to 0.5 per cent. of combined revenues. These are expected to be primarily derived from extending ABN AMRO's broader cash management product offering, increasing ABN AMRO's revenue per credit card towards Barclays comparable levels and realising the network benefits of the increased global presence.

Investment Banking and Investment Management

The estimated annual pre-tax cost synergies in investment banking in 2010 are expected to amount to approximately 850 million. Pre-tax cost synergies are equivalent to 8 per cent. of combined costs. The cost synergies are expected to be derived from the integration of the two banks' operations onto one operating platform and subsequent reduction of back office staff and non-staff cost.

It is estimated that revenue benefits, net of assumed revenue attrition, in investment banking in 2010 will be 500 million pre-tax, equivalent to 3 per cent. of combined revenues. These benefits are expected to be derived from offering a stronger and broader product set to the combined client base and building on the productivity gains within ABN AMRO's investment banking operations. It is expected that, in addition to the revenue benefits, the Combined Group will continue to be able to deliver attractive organic growth consistent with Barclays Capital's existing prospects.

Further revenue benefits of approximately 50 million are estimated to arise primarily in the wealth and asset management businesses as a result of the enhanced distribution capabilities of the Combined Group. Approximately 100 million in cost synergies are expected to arise from the reduction of overlap in wealth and asset management.

Other Synergies

It is estimated that further cost synergies of 200 million will arise from the rationalisation of the two head offices.

⁸These synergy estimates do not include any of the benefits which are expected to be derived from the partnership with China Development Bank.

Table of Contents

Integration Costs

The total pre-tax integration cost of realising the synergy benefits is estimated to be 3,600 million of which approximately 2,160 million is expected to be incurred in 2008, approximately 1,080 million is expected to be incurred in 2009 and approximately 360 million is expected to be incurred in 2010. Employee rights will be safeguarded under applicable law and any redundancies will be subject to the applicable process of employee consultation.

16.3 Financial Terms of Offer

The Barclays Board also considered the financial terms of the Offer, including:

The 2.13 New Barclays Ordinary Shares and 13.15 in cash that ABN AMRO Shareholders would receive in the Ordinary Share Offer for each of their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and the 0.5325 of a New Barclays ADS and 13.15 in cash that ABN AMRO ADS holders would receive in the Ordinary Share Offer for each of their ABN AMRO ADSs;

The earnings, cash flow and balance sheet impact of the Merger, based on public information and third party analyst forecasts as well as the historical financial performance of Barclays and the historical trading price of Barclays Shares and Barclays ADSs and ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs;

The expectation that Barclays Shareholders will hold approximately 55.6 per cent. of the issued share capital of the Combined Group immediately after the Merger and will have the opportunity to share in the future growth and expected synergies of the Combined Group; and

The expectation that the Merger will lead to 5 per cent. accretion in Barclays adjusted earnings per share^{9,10} in 2010 and that the return on investment will be approximately 13 per cent. in 2010.

16.4 Other Transaction Considerations

The Barclays Board also considered a number of additional factors in its decision to enter into the Merger Protocol, including the following:

The UK corporate governance structure of the Combined Group with a unitary board;

The fact that the head office of the Combined Group will be located in Amsterdam with day-to-day management of the Combined Group expected to be the responsibility of John Varley, working with the Group Executive Committee;

The fact that the DNB and the FSA have agreed that the FSA will be lead supervisor of the Combined Group and that the DNB and FSA will be the consolidated supervisors of the ABN AMRO and Barclays groups respectively;

The fact that the holding company for the Combined Group, Barclays PLC, will remain UK incorporated and will remain UK tax resident;

The fact that the holding company for the Combined Group will remain UK listed and is expect to qualify for inclusion with a full weighting in the FTSE 100 index and in the AEX index (subject to a maximum weighting of 15 per cent.); and

The understood preference for certain ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders and certain holders of ABN AMRO ADSs to receive cash consideration in part or in full, for tendering their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs under the Offer.

16.5 Risks

The Barclays Board also considered a number of uncertainties, risks and other potentially negative factors associated with the Merger, including the following:

The value of the Barclays Ordinary Shares at the time of the closing of the Merger could be lower than the price of Barclays Ordinary Shares as of the date of the Merger Protocol as a result of, among other things, a change in the value of the assets and liabilities of Barclays and ABN AMRO;

⁹ Adjusted earnings per share is the profit attributable to ordinary shareholders adjusted to exclude the amortisation of identifiable intangible assets, and fair value adjustments and integration costs relating to the Merger, divided by the weighted average number of ordinary shares.

¹⁰ This statement is not intended to be and should not be interpreted to mean that the future adjusted earnings per share of Barclays will necessarily match or exceed its historical published adjusted earnings per share.

Table of Contents

The risk that the amount of cost savings and revenue synergies that are actually achieved by the Merger turn out to be less than originally projected;

The possibility that regulatory or governmental authorities in the United States, Europe or elsewhere might seek to impose conditions on or otherwise prevent or delay the Merger;

The risks and costs to Barclays if the Merger is not completed, including the potential diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential effect on business and customer relationships;

The risk that the potential benefits of the Merger may not be fully or partially realised, recognising the many potential management and regulatory challenges associated with successfully combining the businesses of Barclays and ABN AMRO;

The risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters, and potential disruption associated with combining and integrating the companies;

The risk that certain members of Barclays and ABN AMRO senior management who have been selected to hold senior management positions in the Combined Group might not choose to remain with the Combined Group;

The potential challenges and difficulties relating to integrating the operations of Barclays and ABN AMRO;

The risk that the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares and Barclays ADSs may fail to approve the Merger, or that an insufficient number of holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares or ABN AMRO ADSs tender their ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares and ABN AMRO ADSs into the Offer;

That some officers and directors of Barclays have interests in the Merger as individuals in addition to, and that may be different from, the interests of holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or Barclays ADSs;

The fees and expenses associated with completing the Merger; and

Various other risks associated with the Merger and the business of the Barclays, ABN AMRO and the Combined Group described under Risk Factors on pages 8 to 23 of the Prospectus.

The Barclays Board believed that these potential risks and drawbacks were greatly outweighed by the potential benefits that the Barclays Board expected Barclays to achieve as a result of the Merger.

17. Share Buy-back Programme

The total proceeds from issuance of Barclays Ordinary Shares to Temasek and China Development Bank on 14 August 2007 will amount to 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) and this amount is unconditionally committed. On 23 July 2007, the Barclays Board announced the Share Buy-back Programme of up to 3.6 billion (£2.4 billion) (which commenced on 6 August 2007), to minimise the dilutive effect of the issuance of Barclays Ordinary Shares to China Development Bank and Temasek on the existing Barclays Shareholders.

Pursuant to the Share Buy-back Programme Barclays instructed JPMorgan Cazenove Limited to repurchase a number of Barclays Ordinary Shares equal to the lesser of:

- (i) the number of the Unconditional CDB Shares and Unconditional Temasek Shares to be issued on 14 August 2007 (336.8 million Barclays Ordinary Shares); and
- (ii) such number of Barclays Ordinary Shares as JPMorgan Cazenove Limited is able to acquire using the proceeds of the Unconditional Investment (3.6 billion (£2.4 billion)).

The Share Buy-back Programme will be suspended during the 10 trading days prior to the expiry of the Offer acceptance period (as it may be extended from time to time). The Share Buy-back Programme is being conducted on market by JPMorgan Cazenove Limited as an independent third party on behalf of Barclays pursuant to Barclays existing general shareholder authority. The existing authority for Barclays to purchase its own shares was granted at the Annual General Meeting of the Company held on 26 April 2007 and, if Resolution 5 is passed at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting, will (subject to the Merger becoming Effective) be substituted by the authority granted pursuant to Resolution 5, as described in Section 19 below.

18. Future intentions regarding share capital

The precise number of additional Barclays Shares that would need to be issued is not entirely certain at present as this is dependent upon, amongst other things, the number of shares that will be subject to the Share Buy-back Programme. Accordingly, the Resolutions have been prepared on the basis of prudent assumptions in relation to the likely authorised share capital requirements for Barclays following completion of the Merger. Notwithstanding this, the Barclays Board intends to continue to operate within the relevant investor protection guidelines as regards the exercise of its power to allot additional share capital and to buy back shares.

19. Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and Resolutions

The notice convening the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting at which Resolutions 1 to 6 below will be proposed, is set out on pages 42 to 45 of this document. The full text of Resolutions 1 to 6 is set out in the Notice.

The implementation of the Merger is conditional only upon the passing of Resolution 1 set out in the Notice.

Resolution 1: Approval of the Merger

Resolution 1 will be proposed as an ordinary resolution requiring a simple majority of votes cast to be in favour. The Merger will not proceed if Resolution 1 is not passed.

Resolution 1 proposes that:

the Merger and all ancillary arrangements contemplated by this Circular be approved and the Barclays Board be authorised to implement the Merger;

the authorised share capital of the Company be increased from £2,500,000,000 to £4,401,000,000 by the creation of 7,604,000,000 Barclays Ordinary Shares. The 7,604,000,000 Barclays Ordinary Shares represent an increase of approximately 76 per cent. in the authorised ordinary share capital of Barclays as at the date of this document, representing approximately 43 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group. This resolution would provide the Company with sufficient share capital to allot and issue the New Barclays Ordinary Shares in connection with the Merger and to retain sufficient headroom for its purposes generally. If this resolution is passed, and the Merger becomes Effective, on the Settlement Date it is expected that there will be 6,153,050,069 authorised but unissued Barclays Ordinary Shares (assuming that the maximum number of 4,901,278,058 New Barclays Ordinary Shares is issued in connection with the Merger on or about the Settlement Date, the Unconditional Investment is implemented in full and the maximum number of Barclays Ordinary Shares is repurchased under the Share Buy-back Programme and no other Barclays Ordinary Shares are issued or bought back in the period from the publication of this document to the Settlement Date); and the Barclays Board be authorised to allot Barclays Ordinary Shares in connection with the Merger up to an aggregate nominal amount of approximately £1,225,319,514 (representing 4,901,278,058 New Barclays Ordinary Shares). This authority will expire on the fifth anniversary of the passing of the resolution and is in addition to any subsisting authorities to allot shares in Barclays. The 4,901,278,058 New Barclays Ordinary Shares represent approximately 75 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company as at 30 July 2007, the latest practicable date before the publication of this document and approximately 43 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group on the Settlement Date.

Resolution 2: Barclays Preference Shares

Resolution 2 will be proposed as a special resolution requiring a 75 per cent. majority of votes cast to be in favour. The Merger is not conditional on the passing of this Resolution.

Resolution 2 proposes that, subject to the passing of Resolution 1, the Merger becoming Effective and the passing of the Extraordinary Class Resolution:

the authorised share capital of the Company be further increased by 2,000,000,000 by the creation of 2,000,000,000 Barclays Preference Shares. The Barclays Preference Shares are a new class of share capital, to be issued pursuant to the DR Preference Share Offer. Details of the DR Preference Share Offer are set out in paragraph 3 of this letter;

the Barclays Board be authorised to allot Barclays Preference Shares up to an aggregate nominal amount of 2,000,000,000 (representing 2,000,000,000 Barclays Preference Shares) in connection with the Merger and otherwise to provide the Company with maximum flexibility in managing the Combined Group's capital resources. The Barclays Board has no current plans to make use of this authority other than to allot up to 808,191,360 Barclays Preference Shares pursuant to the DR

Preference Share Offer. This authority will expire on the fifth anniversary of the passing of the resolution and is in addition to any subsisting authorities to allot shares in Barclays; and new Barclays Articles of Association be adopted. The new articles would contain the rights attaching to the Barclays Preference Shares and include any necessary consequential amendments to the Barclays Articles of Association to reflect the addition of the Barclays Preference Shares but would otherwise be the same as the existing Barclays Articles of Association. Please see Annex A for a description of the terms of the Barclays Preference Shares that will be reflected in the new Barclays Articles of Association.

Resolution 3: Authority to Allot Securities

Resolution 3 will be proposed as an ordinary resolution, requiring a simple majority of votes cast to be in favour. The Merger is not conditional on the passing of this Resolution.

The effect of this Resolution, which is subject to the passing of Resolution 1 and on the Merger becoming Effective, is to give the Barclays Board authority to allot securities up to an amount approximately equal to one-third of the enlarged issued ordinary share capital of the Company following the Merger. The Company currently holds no treasury shares. This authority would replace the current general authority conferred on the Barclays Directors at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) held in April 2007 and would remain in force until the AGM in 2008 or 26 July 2008, whichever is the earlier. This authority would be in addition to the specific authorities granted in Resolution 1 and Resolution 2 above.

The Barclays Board has no current plans to make use of this authority but is seeking it to ensure that the Company has maximum flexibility in managing the Combined Group's capital resources.

Resolution 4: Authority to allot securities for cash otherwise than on a pro rata basis to shareholders and to sell treasury shares

Resolution 4 will be proposed as a special resolution, requiring a 75 per cent. majority of votes cast to be in favour. The Merger is not conditional on the passing of this Resolution.

The effect of this Resolution, which is subject to the passing of Resolution 1, the Merger becoming Effective and the passing of Resolution 3, is to give the Barclays Board power to allot equity securities (or sell treasury shares) (a) pursuant to a rights issue, or (b) for cash up to £147,296,943, in each case without the need to offer such shares to existing shareholders. This amount represents approximately 5 per cent. of the enlarged issued ordinary share capital of the Company following the Merger. This power would replace that conferred on the Barclays Directors at the AGM held in April 2007 and would remain in force until the AGM in 2008 or 26 July 2008, whichever is the earlier.

Resolution 5: Authority for the Company to purchase its own shares

Resolution 5 will be proposed as a special resolution, requiring a 75 per cent. majority of votes cast to be in favour. The Merger is not conditional on the passing of this Resolution.

The effect of this Resolution, which is subject to the passing of Resolution 1 and the Merger becoming Effective, is to replace the existing authority granted at the Annual General Meeting of the Company held on 26 April 2007 and enable the Company to purchase up to a maximum of 1,700,000,000 of its ordinary shares. This will be approximately 15 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of the Combined Group. The total number of Barclays Ordinary Shares that may be issued on the exercise of outstanding options as at 30 July 2007 is 97,948,735, which represents approximately 1.50 per cent. of the issued share capital at that date. If the Company were to purchase shares up to the maximum permitted by this resolution, the proportion of Barclays Ordinary Shares subject to outstanding options would represent approximately 0.97 per cent. of the issued share capital of the Combined Group. There are no treasury shares or, except as described in Section 6 of Part II of this document, warrants outstanding.

The Barclays Board considers it desirable for the general authority proposed above to be available to provide maximum flexibility in the management of the Combined Group's capital resources. If Resolution 5 is passed, the Barclays Board currently expects to utilise the authority to continue to make market purchases of Barclays Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Share Buy-back Programme described in more detail in Section 17 of this document. This should not be taken to imply that Barclays Ordinary Shares will be purchased at any particular price or indeed at all. On 23 July 2007, the Barclays Board announced the Share Buy-back Programme which commenced on 6 August 2007. Purchases of Barclays Ordinary Shares under the Share Buy-back Programme up to an amount of 336,805,556 Barclays Ordinary Shares will be made on market by JPMorgan Cazenove Limited as an independent third party on behalf of Barclays pursuant to the existing authority granted at the Annual General Meeting of the Company held on 26 April 2007, which authority will (subject to the Merger becoming Effective) be substituted by Resolution 5.

The Barclays Board has no present intention to exercise the authority beyond the Share Buy-back Programme and would do so only if satisfied at the time that to do so would be in the interests of shareholders and would lead to an increase in the Combined Group's earnings per share. Under the Companies Act 1985, the Company may hold any shares bought back in treasury, which may then be either sold for cash, transferred for the purposes of an employee share scheme (subject, if necessary, to approval by shareholders at a general meeting) or cancelled. The Company therefore has the choice of either cancelling or holding in treasury any of its shares that it purchases. If the Company buys any of its shares under the authority given by this resolution, the Barclays Board will decide at the time of purchase whether to cancel them immediately or hold them in treasury. In relation to treasury shares, the Barclays Board would also have regard to any investor guidelines in relation to the purchase of shares intended to be held in treasury or in relation to their holding or resale which may be in force at the time of any such purchase, holding or resale. The Barclays Board intends to seek renewal of this authority at the Annual General Meeting of the Company to be held in 2008.

Resolution 6: Reduction of share premium account

Resolution 6 will be proposed as a special resolution, requiring a 75 per cent. majority of votes cast to be in favour. The Merger is not conditional on the passing of this Resolution and this Resolution will become effective, if passed, whether or not the Merger proceeds.

The effect of this Resolution is to enable the Company to cancel the amount of its share premium account as at the date of the Barclays EGM so as to create distributable profits in order to allow the payment of dividends following the completion of the Share Buy-back Programme, redemption of the Barclays Preference Shares in accordance with their terms and to provide maximum flexibility to manage the Company's capital resources. In order for this Resolution to become effective, the Company will apply to the High Court for an order to confirm the cancellation of the share premium account and the creation of distributable reserves in accordance with the procedure set out in the Companies Act 1985.

20. Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting and Extraordinary Class Resolution

The notice convening the Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting at which the Extraordinary Class Resolution will be proposed is set out on pages 46 and 47 of this document. The full text of the Extraordinary Class Resolution is set out in the notice.

The matters proposed to be implemented by means of Resolution 2 at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting have to be approved at a separate class meeting of the holders of the Barclays Ordinary Shares by the passing of the Extraordinary Class Resolution. Therefore, the Extraordinary Class Resolution proposes that the holders of the Barclays Ordinary Shares sanction and consent to the passing and implementation of such resolution. Only the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares may attend and vote at the Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting. The Extraordinary Class Resolution requires holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares representing 75 per cent. of votes cast to be in favour.

21. Actions to be taken

Voting on the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting Resolutions and the Extraordinary Class Resolution. You will find enclosed with this document a WHITE Form of Proxy for use at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and a BLUE Form of Proxy for use at the Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting or at any adjournment thereof. Please complete and sign the Forms of Proxy, whether or not you propose to attend the Barclays Shareholder Meetings in person, in accordance with the instructions printed thereon and return them as soon as possible, but in any event so as to be received by The Registrar to Barclays, The Causeway, Worthing BN99 6NA, no later than 10 a.m. (London time) in respect of the WHITE Form of Proxy and 10.15 a.m. (London time) in respect of the BLUE Form of Proxy on 12 September 2007. You can also vote by using the internet. You will need your unique Shareholder Reference Number, Card ID and Account Number (shown on each Form of Proxy) to access an online form at www.investorrelations.barclays.co.uk/ivr/voteonline.

Table of Contents

CREST members may also choose to utilise the CREST electronic proxy appointment service in accordance with the procedures set out in the Forms of Proxy for the Barclays Shareholder Meetings that accompany this document. The lodging of the Forms of Proxy (or the electronic appointment of a proxy) will not preclude you from attending and voting at the meeting in person if you so wish.

If you have any questions relating to this document or the completion and return of the Forms of Proxy, please contact the Barclays Shareholder Helpline on 0870 609 4535 from the UK or +44 121 415 7004 from overseas between Monday and Friday from 9.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. London time.

Please note that the Helpline cannot provide advice relating to the merits of the Merger or provide financial advice.

Dividend Election

If the proposed Merger becomes Effective, future Barclays dividends will be declared in Euro. Existing holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares will continue to receive dividends in Sterling (converted from Euro at the then prevailing market rate), unless they specifically elect to receive dividends paid in Euro.

Shareholders who wish to continue to receive Barclays dividends in Sterling do not need to take any further action.

Shareholders who want to receive any future Barclays dividend payments in Euro following the date the Merger becomes Effective should indicate their choice on the Forms of Proxy and return the completed form to The Registrar to Barclays in the enclosed reply-paid envelope. Any currency election must be received by The Registrar to Barclays by the dividend record date to be effective for payment of that dividend and will remain effective for all future dividends until a valid alternative election is made.

The first Barclays dividend payment for which any currency election might be valid following the Merger would be the Barclays final dividend for 2007, which is expected to be paid in late April 2008.

22. Further Information

Your attention is drawn to the further information set out in Part II of this document. You should also read the entire Prospectus and, in particular, the risk factors set out in the section headed Risk Factors on pages 8 to 23 of the Prospectus. The Prospectus is available, free of charge, at the registered office of Barclays and on Barclays website at www.barclays.com. You should also read the entirety of any supplementary prospectus when made available.

23. Recommendation

The Barclays Board, which has received financial advice from Barclays Capital, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Credit Suisse Securities (Europe) Limited, Deutsche Bank, JPMorgan Cazenove Limited and Lazard & Co. (collectively, the Advisers), considers that the terms of the Offer are fair and reasonable. In providing their advice to the Barclays Board, the Advisers have relied upon the Barclays Board's commercial assessments of the Offer.

The Barclays Board also considers that the Merger and the Resolutions are in the best interests of Barclays and Barclays Shareholders as a whole. Accordingly, the Barclays Board unanimously recommends that existing Barclays Shareholders vote in favour of the Resolutions to be put to the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting and the Extraordinary Class Resolution to be put to the Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting as they intend to do in relation to their own individual holdings, which amount in aggregate to 4,559,802 Barclays Ordinary Shares, representing approximately 0.07 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Barclays as at 30 July 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document.

Yours sincerely,

Marcus Agius

Chairman

Table of Contents3. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares

The New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank pari passu in all respects with the Barclays Ordinary Shares in issue at the time the New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares are delivered pursuant to the Ordinary Share Offer, the Unconditional Investment, the Conditional Investment and the Clawback Placing respectively, including the right to receive and retain dividends and other distributions (if any) paid by reference to a record date after the Effective Date, save that the Unconditional CDB Shares and the Unconditional Temasek Shares will have been issued by the record date of the 2007 interim dividend of the Company and will therefore rank for this dividend.

The Barclays Ordinary Shares are already admitted to CREST. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares, when issued, will be eligible to be held and transferred by means of CREST. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will trade under ISIN GB0031348658. The New Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares will be issued in registered form and will be capable of being held in certificated and uncertificated form.

4. The Barclays Preference Shares

If Resolution 2 is passed at the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting, the Extraordinary Class Resolution is passed at the Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting, and the Merger subsequently becomes Effective, a new class of share capital will be created, namely the Barclays Preference Shares. The Barclays Preference Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and will have the rights set out in the new Barclays Articles of Association to be adopted pursuant to Resolution 2.

A summary of the rights attaching to the Barclays Preference Shares is set out in Annex A of this document.

5. Fractional Entitlements

No fractional entitlements of New Barclays Shares will be delivered to persons who validly tender and deliver ABN AMRO Shares in the Offer. Any fractional entitlements to New Barclays Shares will be sold in the market and the proceeds will be remitted to those ABN AMRO Shareholders entitled thereto.

6. Conditional Investment and Unconditional Investment6.1. Investment by China Development Bank

China Development Bank will invest a total of 8.5 billion (£5.8) billion in the Combined Group and has entered into a strategic partnership with Barclays which establishes a framework for their strategic co-operation. Barclays will assist and advise China Development Bank in its evolution into a commercially operated financial institution. The two parties will jointly exploit international business opportunities, including:

cross-referral of clients, when the clients' needs can be better met by the other partner;

extensive training and talent management. China Development Bank will use Barclays global presence to identify and to recruit talent outside China, and will benefit from the provision of extensive training and the regular secondment of managers from Barclays; and collaboration in commodities products, where Barclays Capital is already established as one of the world's leading firms.

In addition, China Development Bank will use BGI as one of its preferred asset managers. Both parties have agreed to co-operate where further opportunities to develop new markets and products in the region are identified. Barclays will provide expertise and advice in fields including risk management, corporate governance and in IT strategy and procurement.

Table of Contents

Barclays and China Development Bank have agreed that:

On 14 August 2007 China Development Bank will invest 2.2 billion (£1.5 billion) in Barclays through an unconditional subscription for the Unconditional CDB Shares (representing 3.1 per cent. of Barclays existing issued share capital), under the CDB Subscription Agreement at a price of £7.20 per share;

China Development Bank will invest (pursuant to the mechanics described below) a further 6.4 billion (£4.3 billion) in Barclays for the Conditional CDB Shares under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement at a price of £7.40 per share conditional on completion of the Merger, resulting in a shareholding in the Combined Group of 6.8 per cent.;

On 23 July 2007 China Development Bank purchased warrants (for a total price of £1) in respect of 61 million Barclays Ordinary Shares with an exercise price of £7.80 per Barclays Ordinary Share. The warrants become exercisable only if the Offer becomes unconditional and they are then exercisable for a period of two years thereafter. If the warrants were exercised in full China Development Bank's Shareholding in the Combined Group would rise by 0.5 per cent;

China Development Bank will be entitled to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director;

China Development Bank will be free to acquire additional shares in Barclays on the open market subject to a standstill agreement limiting its shareholding to below 10 per cent. for three years from 23 July 2007; and

China Development Bank has agreed not to enter into a business collaboration agreement of a similar nature with another major banking institution with global operations.

This partnership will provide Barclays unprecedented access jointly to deliver financial services to the rapidly growing Chinese market. Through Barclays Capital and BGI, Barclays has built leading franchises across Asia. The partnership with China Development Bank will strengthen Barclays already strong Asian franchise. Particular areas of focus for Barclays include near term opportunities in Wealth and Asset Management. The Merger creates even greater opportunities both for China Development Bank and the Combined Group, particularly as ABN AMRO brings a world class trade finance and payments platform to service Chinese businesses and has an attractive retail and wholesale franchise both in China and in countries that represent important trade partners for China.

Through its investment in Barclays and strategic partnership, China Development Bank will enhance its ability to serve Chinese corporations and institutions. China Development Bank will gain access to Barclays extensive international franchise in order to facilitate international commerce for Chinese companies. The partnership will also give China Development Bank access to the leading product expertise that Barclays has developed in its universal banking model, such as in structured products, enabling China Development Bank to leverage these skills in its domestic market. China Development Bank will have opportunities to learn best practices from Barclays in terms of customer service, product development and corporate governance. This will improve China Development Bank's understanding of global financial services.

Pursuant to the settlement mechanics under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement and the terms of the Offer, China Development Bank will pay to Barclays (who will receive it on behalf of accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders) a portion of the Cash Consideration due to them under the Offer, and in consideration thereof Barclays will allot and issue the Conditional CDB Shares to China Development Bank on the basis of a price of £7.40 per share. The cash payments to accepting ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will be distributed on the Settlement Dates by Barclays together with the balance of the Cash Consideration and the share consideration due to them. These arrangements are part of, and are therefore conditional upon, the Offer. ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will have no contractual relationship with China Development Bank under the Offer. The maximum aggregate amount which may be paid by China Development Bank pursuant to these arrangements will be 6.4 billion (£4.3 billion).

The consideration for the allotment of the Barclays Ordinary Shares to China Development Bank under the Conditional CDB Investment Agreement shall be the transfer to Barclays by tendering ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders of the appropriate portion of their shares, and the agreement by China Development Bank to make the cash payments as described above.

6.2. Investment by Temasek

Temasek has agreed to become a major shareholder in Barclays and will invest a total of 3.1 billion (£2.1 billion) in the Combined Group.

Barclays and Temasek have agreed that:

On 14 August 2007 Temasek will invest 1.4 billion (£1.0 billion) in Barclays through an unconditional placing of the Unconditional Temasek Shares (representing 2.1 per cent. of Barclays existing issued share capital) under the Temasek Subscription Agreement at price of £7.20 per share;

Temasek will also invest a further 1.7 billion (£1.1 billion) in Barclays for the Conditional Temasek Shares under the Temasek Subscription Agreement at a price of £7.40 per share conditional on completion of the Merger, resulting in a shareholding in the Combined Group of 2.5 per cent.;

On 23 July 2007 Temasek purchased warrants (for a total price of £1) in respect of 61 million Barclays Ordinary Shares with an exercise price of £7.80 per Barclays Ordinary Share. The warrants become exercisable only if the Offer becomes unconditional and they are then exercisable for a period of two years thereafter. If the warrants were exercised in full Temasek's shareholding in the Combined Group would rise by 0.5 per cent; and Temasek will be entitled to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director if the Merger becomes unconditional. The investment by Temasek in Barclays is consistent with its strategy of creating successful partnerships through long-term investments. Temasek will be able to bring its deep rooted knowledge and expertise in the Asian market to the Barclays Board. Temasek is widely recognised as one of the world's most successful international equity investors. Temasek also has extensive experience investing in the financial services sector and currently owns significant investments in 14 banks.

7. Working Capital

The Company is of the opinion that, taking account of available facilities and existing cash resources, the working capital available to the Combined Group is sufficient for its present requirements, that is, for at least the next 12 months from the date of the publication of this document.

8. Financial Projections

Financial projections for ABN AMRO's 2007 earnings per share have been disclosed by management of ABN AMRO in ABN AMRO's 2006 Annual Report and in its press release relating to its unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of ABN AMRO for the six months ended 30 June 2007. These financial projections for ABN AMRO were prepared by ABN AMRO's management prior to the announcement of the Merger based on estimates and assumptions as they were available to management of ABN AMRO at that time.

Neither Barclays nor any Barclays Director was involved in the preparation or review of these financial projections. These financial projections were neither seen nor commented upon by Barclays or its advisers in advance of their preparation and do not necessarily reflect the Barclays Directors' view of ABN AMRO's prospects and financial performance nor the prospects and financial performance of the Combined Group, and therefore no reliance should be placed on them in the context of the Merger.

None of Barclays, the Barclays Directors or the Advisers accepts responsibility for the accuracy, reasonableness, validity or completeness of the financial projections or the estimates and assumptions that underlie them.

None of the financial projections was intended for publication by Barclays and should not be regarded as a forecast of profits by Barclays or any of the Barclays Directors and accordingly have not been prepared to the standard required in producing a profit forecast in the context of the Merger. Shareholders should not rely upon any of the financial projections in making any decision about New Barclays Shares or in deciding whether or not to approve the Merger.

9. Bases and Sources

- (a) Unless otherwise stated:
- (i) financial information relating to Barclays has been extracted or provided (without material adjustment) from the unaudited interim financial statements of Barclays for the six months ended 30 June 2007, the financial statements of Barclays Group for the financial years ended and as at 31 December 2006, 2005 and 2004 (as filed with the SEC on Form 20-F in respect of the years ended 31 December 2006 and 2005) and from the Barclays announcement on changes in the Barclays Group structure and divisional reporting made on 19 June 2007; and
 - (ii) financial information relating to ABN AMRO has been extracted or provided (without material adjustment) from the unaudited interim financial statements of ABN AMRO for the six months ended 30 June 2007, the audited financial statements of ABN AMRO as at and for the two years ended 31 December 2006 and 2005 each prepared in accordance with IFRS where the 31 December 2005 financial statements include restated IFRS comparative information as at and for the year ended 31 December 2004, from the interim unaudited consolidated financial statements of ABN AMRO for the three months ended 31 March 2007 and (with respect to LaSalle only) from the ABN AMRO current report on Form 6-K as filed with the SEC on 25 April 2007.
- (b) The value of the Ordinary Share Offer is calculated:
- (i) by reference to a price of £6.86 per Barclays Ordinary Share (being the Closing Price on 2 August 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document); and
 - (ii) on the basis of the fully diluted ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO as at 30 July 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document.
- (c) As at close of business on 30 July 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document, Barclays had in issue 6,545,671,873 ordinary shares of 25 pence each; and ABN AMRO had in issue 1,846,114,758 ordinary shares of 0.56 each.
- (d) The fully diluted ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO is calculated on the basis of:
- (i) the number of issued ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares (excluding shares held as treasury shares); and
 - (ii) all ABN AMRO share options and share settled share awards.
- (e) References to pro forma share ownership percentages of the Combined Group and to percentages of the enlarged issued share capital of Barclays following the Merger are estimates as at immediately following the Merger calculated on the following basis:
- (i) issued ordinary share capital of Barclays of 6,545,671,873 Barclays Ordinary Shares;
 - (ii) fully diluted ordinary share capital of ABN AMRO of 1,883,927,016 ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares.
 - (iii) assuming the issue of the Unconditional CDB Shares, the Unconditional Temasek Shares, the Conditional CDB Shares, the Conditional Temasek Shares and the Clawback Shares;
 - (iv) assuming full acceptance of the Ordinary Share Offer;
 - (v) assuming that the Share Buy-back Programme has completed and that all 336,805,556 Barclays Ordinary Shares which may be purchased under the Share Buy-back Programme have been purchased and cancelled; and
 - (vi) assuming no other issues of Barclays Ordinary Shares.
- (f)

The premium calculations to the price per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share in this document have been calculated by reference to (a) the Closing Price of £6.86 per Barclays Ordinary Share, on 2 August 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document and (b) the Closing Price per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share on the relevant dates.

- (g) The ABN AMRO market capitalisation is based on a price of 35.24 per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share as at 30 July 2007, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document and 1,846,114,758 ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares in issue (excluding shares held as treasury shares).

- (h) The reference to sustained future incremental earnings growth for shareholders of the Combined Group is not intended, nor should it be construed, as a profit forecast or be interpreted to mean that earnings per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share or Barclays Ordinary Share for the current or future financial years, or those of the Combined Group, will necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings per ABN AMRO Ordinary Share or Barclays Ordinary Share.
- (i) The analysts' median forecast of ABN AMRO's earnings available at the time of Announcement for 2010 is 5,394 million. This has been adjusted to remove the proportion of earnings relating to the LaSalle business being disposed of (the LaSalle business represents substantially all the profits of Business Unit North America Division of ABN AMRO (BUNA)). This proportion has been assumed to be 21.7 per cent. based on the average contribution forecast by analysts at the time of Announcement of 1,052 million to be made by BUNA to ABN AMRO's consensus forecast earnings of 4,853 million in 2009 (being the last year for which analysts split out the contribution of BUNA). This has then been used to calculate the expected return on investment for 2010. The calculation also takes into account interest income on retained capital, the potential cost synergies and revenue benefits arising from the merger, the associated restructuring cost and the consideration paid. Neither the reference to ABN AMRO's earnings for 2010 nor the return on investment statement are intended, nor should they be construed, as a profit forecast or be interpreted to mean that earnings per ABN AMRO Share or Barclays Share for the current or future financial years, or those of the Combined Group, will necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings per ABN AMRO Share or Barclays Share.
- (j) The exchange rates used in this document, in relation to information as at one Business Day before the Revised Announcement, are 1.4856 : £1.00 and $1.3835 : 1.00 as published in the Financial Times on 21 July 2007, and with reference to the value of the Offer based on a Closing Price per Barclays Ordinary Share on 2 August 2007, are 1.4839 : £1.00 and $1.3676 : 1.00 as published in the Financial Times on 2 August 2007, being the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this document.

10. Consents

Each of Barclays Capital, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Credit Suisse Securities (Europe) Limited, Deutsche Bank, JPMorgan Cazenove Limited and Lazard & Co., Limited has given and has not withdrawn its written consent to the inclusion in this document of references to its name in the form and context in which they appear.

The Barclays Preference Shares will be issued in registered form with a nominal value of 1 on the Settlement Date.

2. Dividends

- (i) Each Barclays Preference Share shall entitle the holder thereof to receive out of the profits of the Company available for distribution and permitted by law to be distributed a non-cumulative preferential dividend (the Preference Dividend), in priority to the payment of any dividend to the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares and any other class of shares in the capital of the Company ranking junior to the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in profits of the Company and pari passu in such regard with the holders of the Staff Shares and any other class of shares in the capital of the Company (other than any shares which may be issued by the Company and which by their terms rank in priority, with the consent or sanction of the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares given in accordance with the New Articles, to the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in such profits).
- (ii) From the point in time when no Staff Shares remain in issue, Preference Dividends will be paid in accordance with this paragraph 2(ii).
- (a) Preference Dividends shall be paid at a rate per annum equal to one per cent. above the Decomposed Swap Rate on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, which Preference Dividend will be payable semi-annually in arrear, on the Dividend Payment Dates. For the purposes of this paragraph (ii) and paragraph (iii) below, principal amount means, in relation to each Barclays Preference Share, 1. If a Preference Dividend is required to be paid in respect of a Barclays Preference Share on any date other than a Dividend Payment Date, it shall be calculated by applying the rate per annum equal to one per cent. above the Decomposed Swap Rate on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest cent.
- (b) From (and including) 15 December 2012, Preference Dividends shall be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares at a rate, reset semi-annually, equal to the aggregate of one per cent. per annum and EURIBOR in respect of the relevant Dividend Period on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, which Preference Dividend will be payable semi-annually in arrear, on the Dividend Payment Dates. The Company shall, upon determining the rate pursuant to this paragraph 2(ii), cause such rate and the amount payable in respect of the relevant Dividend Period on each Barclays Preference Share to be notified to the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares in writing.
- The Company will, as soon as practicable after the Dividend Determination Date in relation to each Dividend Period, calculate the amount of dividend payable in respect of each Barclays Preference Share for such Dividend Period. The amount of Preference Dividend payable will be calculated by applying the rate of one per cent. per annum and EURIBOR for such Dividend Period to the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share and multiplying the product by the actual number of days in such Dividend Period divided by 360 (or, if any portion of such Dividend Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (i) the actual number of days in that portion divided by 366 and (ii) the actual number of days in the remainder of such Dividend Period divided by 360) and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest cent.

- (iii) For so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, Preference Dividends will be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii).
- (a) Preference Dividends shall be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares at a rate per annum equal to one per cent. above the Decomposed Swap Rate on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, which Preference Dividend will be payable in equal instalments semi-annually in arrear on each Dividend Payment Date in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding the Dividend Period in which such Dividend Payment Date falls provided that:
- (1) in respect of the first Dividend Period commencing on the Issue Date the amount of the Preference Dividend to be paid in respect of each Barclays Preference Share shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the dividend which would have been payable on each Barclays Preference Share if the first Dividend Period had been a full Dividend Period by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days from and including the Issue Date to but excluding the last day of the first Dividend Period, and the denominator of which is 180; and
 - (2) otherwise, if a Preference Dividend is required to be paid in respect of a Barclays Preference Share for any period shorter than a Dividend Period, it shall be calculated by applying the rate per annum equal to one per cent. above the Decomposed Swap Rate on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest cent.
- (b) From (and including) the Dividend Period commencing after 15 December 2012, Preference Dividends shall be paid on the Barclays Preference Shares at a rate, reset semi-annually, equal to the aggregate of one per cent. per annum and EURIBOR in respect of the relevant Dividend Period on the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share, which Preference Dividend will be payable in equal instalments semi-annually in arrear on each Dividend Payment Date in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding the Dividend Period in which such Dividend Payment Date falls. The Company shall, upon determining the rate pursuant to this paragraph 2(iii), cause such rate and the amount payable in respect of the relevant Dividend Period on each Barclays Preference Share to be notified to the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares in writing.
- The Company will, as soon as practicable after the Dividend Determination Date in relation to each Dividend Period, calculate the amount of dividend payable in respect of each Barclays Preference Share for such Dividend Period. The amount of Preference Dividend payable will be calculated by applying the rate of one per cent. per annum and EURIBOR for such Dividend Period to the principal amount of each Barclays Preference Share and multiplying the product by the actual number of days in such Dividend Period divided by 360 (or, if any portion of such Dividend Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (i) the actual number of days in that portion divided by 366 and (ii) the actual number of days in the remainder of such Dividend Period divided by 360) and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest cent.
- (c) From the date on which the Staff Shares are no longer in issue (the Relevant Date), Preference Dividends will be paid in accordance with paragraph 2(ii), provided that the first Preference Dividend on each Barclays Preference Share to be paid on the Dividend Payment Date immediately following the Relevant Date shall be calculated as follows:
- If in any calendar year such Relevant Date is a date that is:
- (1) on or after 1 January but prior to 15 June, then the holder of a Barclays Preference Share shall receive on the next Dividend Payment Date (being 15 June in such calendar year):
 - (i) if no Preference Dividend has been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of such immediately preceding Dividend Period and (2) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this

- (ii) if a Preference Dividend has already been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180;
- (2) on or after 15 June but prior to 30 June, then the holder of the Barclays Preference Share shall receive on the next Dividend Payment Date (being 15 December in such calendar year):
 - (i) if no Preference Dividend has been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate (1) of the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of such immediately preceding Dividend Period and (2) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180 and (3) the relevant Preference Dividend on the Barclays Preference Shares payable in accordance with paragraph 2(ii) for the Dividend Period ending on 15 December of such calendar year; and
 - (ii) if a Preference Dividend has already been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180 and (2) the relevant Preference Dividend on the Barclays Preference Share payable in accordance with paragraph 2(ii) for the Dividend Period ending on 15 December of such calendar year;
- (3) on or after 30 June but prior to 15 December, then the holder of a Barclays Preference Share shall receive on the next Dividend Payment Date (being 15 December in such calendar year):
 - (i) if no Preference Dividend has been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of such immediately preceding Dividend Period and (2) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to for the Dividend Period in which such relevant date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180; and
 - (ii) if a Preference Dividend has already been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180;
- (4) on or after 15 December but prior to 31 December, then the holder of the Barclays Preference Share shall receive on the next Dividend Payment Date (being 15 June in the following calendar year):
 - (i) if no Preference Dividend has been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would have been entitled to in respect of such immediately preceding Dividend Period and (2) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180 and (3) the relevant Preference Dividend on the Barclays Preference Share payable in accordance with paragraph 2(ii) for the Dividend Period ending on 15 June of the immediately succeeding calendar year; and
 - (ii) if a Preference Dividend has already been paid on the Barclays Preference Share in respect of the Dividend Period immediately preceding that in which such Relevant

Date falls, the aggregate of (1) the amount such holder would otherwise have been entitled to in respect of the Dividend Period in which such Relevant Date falls in accordance with this paragraph 2(iii) multiplied by 165/180 and (2) the relevant Preference Dividend on the Barclays Preference Share in accordance with paragraph 2(ii) for the Dividend Period ending on 15 June of the immediately succeeding calendar year.

- (iv) Subject to paragraph (v) below, the Preference Dividend for each Dividend Period shall be paid only (a) to the extent that payment can be made out of the profits of the Company available for distribution and permitted by law to be distributed and (b) for so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, if a dividend payment has also been paid at the same time on the Staff Shares. If a Preference Dividend is to be paid but the profits of the Company available for distribution are insufficient (after payment in full, or the setting aside of a sum to enable the payment in full, of dividends expressed to be payable on the relevant Dividend Payment Date on any preference share and on any other class of shares in the capital of the Company ranking in priority to or pari passu with the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in the profits of the Company, and after payment in full, or the setting aside of a sum to enable the payment in full, of all dividends expressed to be payable on a date earlier than the relevant Dividend Payment Date on any class of shares in the capital of the Company that ranks in priority to the Barclays Preference Shares in such regard and carries cumulative rights to dividends) to enable payment in full of dividends on the Barclays Preference Shares on any Dividend Payment Date then the Barclays Board shall (subject to paragraph (v) below) pay dividends to the extent of the distributable profits on a pro rata basis so that (i) the aggregate amount of dividends paid on the Barclays Preference Shares and (ii) the aggregate amount of dividends paid on each other class of shares on which dividends are expressed to be payable on such date and ranking pari passu with the Barclays Preference Shares as regards participation in profits and (iii) the aggregate amount of dividends paid or set aside for payment on such date on each other class of shares ranking pari passu with the Barclays Preference Shares in such regard and carrying cumulative rights to dividends, on which dividends were expressed to be payable before such date, will bear to each other the same ratio as the full amounts of dividends (1) expressed to be payable in aggregate on the Barclays Preference Shares on such date, (2) expressed to be payable in aggregate on each such other pari passu ranking class of shares on which dividends are expressed to be payable on such date and (3) paid, or set aside for payment of, in aggregate on each such other pari passu ranking class of shares carrying cumulative rights to dividends in respect of dividends expressed to be payable before such date, bear to each other.
- (v) Notwithstanding paragraph (iv) above, if on or prior to any Dividend Payment Date the Barclays Board determines in its absolute discretion that the Preference Dividend which would otherwise be payable on a Dividend Payment Date should not be paid, or should be paid only in part, then such Preference Dividend shall in accordance with such determination either not be declared and payable at all or only be payable in part.
- (vi) If a Preference Dividend is not paid, or is paid only in part, pursuant to paragraphs (iv) or (v) above, the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall have no claim in respect of such non-payment or non-payment in part, as applicable. The Company shall have no obligation to pay the Preference Dividend for the relevant Dividend Period or to pay interest thereon, whether or not Preference Dividends are paid for any future Dividend Period.
- (vii) Any Preference Dividend unclaimed after a period of 12 years from the date when it became due for payment shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company and the payment by the Barclays Board of any unclaimed Preference Dividend or other sum payable on or in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect of it.
- (viii) No dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of the Barclays Preference Shares shall bear interest as against the Company.

3. Capital

In the event of any return of capital by way of reduction of capital or on liquidation then, for so long as any Staff Shares remain in issue, the Barclays Ordinary Shares, the Staff Shares and the Barclays Preference Shares shall rank pari passu in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up on the shares of each class, except that (I) in the event of a winding up of the Company the holders of the Staff Shares shall be entitled to participate in the surplus assets available for distribution among the members to the extent of the amounts paid up on the Staff Shares held by them respectively plus 10 per cent. of such amounts, but shall not further participate in surplus assets and (II) the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall only be entitled to participate in the assets of the Company available for distribution among the members up to an amount equal to an aggregate of 1 per Barclays Preference Share, but shall not be entitled to participate further in such assets.

If no Staff Shares remain in issue, the assets of the Company available for distribution among the members shall be applied in paying to holders of the Barclays Preference Shares pari passu in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up on the Barclays Preference Shares an amount equal to an aggregate of 1 per Barclays Preference Share in priority to any payment to the holders of Barclays Ordinary Shares or any other class of shares in the capital of the Company then in issue ranking junior to the Barclays Preference Shares on such a return of capital and pari passu with the holders of any other class of shares in the capital of the Company then in issue (other than any class of shares in the capital of the company then in issue ranking in priority to the Barclays Preference Shares on such return of capital) but the holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall not be entitled to participate further in the assets of the Company available for distribution among the members.

The holders of the Barclays Preference Shares shall not be entitled to participate in any other return of capital.

4. Redemption

The Company may, subject to the Companies Acts, to the New Articles and to prior notification to the FSA (if required) and provided that at that time the group of which the Company is a part is in compliance with the main BIPRU Pillar rules (applicable to it on a consolidated basis) (and will continue to be so immediately after redemption), upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice, redeem all or some of the Barclays Preference Shares on 15 December 2012 and on any Dividend Payment Date thereafter.

Redemption will be effected in the manner provided in the New Articles. There shall be paid on each Barclays Preference Share so redeemed an amount equal to 1.

5. Purchases

The Company may at any time purchase, or cause to be purchased for its account, all or any of the Barclays Preference Shares, subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the New Articles and the applicable rules of any stock exchange or exchanges on which any of its shares are listed from time to time, at any price. The Company shall not be required to select the shares to be purchased rateably or in any other particular manner as between the holders of Barclays Preference Shares or as between them and the holders of shares of any other class or in accordance with the rights as to dividends or capital conferred by any class of shares. No purchase of Barclays Preference Shares will be made by or on behalf of the Company without the prior consent of the FSA (if required).

6. Form and Transfer

Title to the Barclays Preference Shares will pass by transfer and registration on the register for the Barclays Preference Shares.

Each registration of transfer of Barclays Preference Shares in registered form will, subject to and in accordance with the New Articles, be effected by entry on the register for the Barclays Preference Shares kept by the Company's registrar at its office in the United Kingdom. No fee shall be charged on the registration of any instrument of transfer or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to the Barclays Preference Shares, but the person requesting such registration will be required to pay any related taxes, stamp duties or other governmental charges.

7. Payments

Payments in respect of amounts payable by way of dividend and on redemption shall be made in Euros to the person shown as the holder in the register for the Barclays Preference Shares at the opening of business in London on the fifteenth day before the due date for such payment (the Record Date). If the due date for payment of any amount in relation to the Barclays Preference Shares (other than the amount of any Preference Dividend) is not a Euro Business Day, then payment of such amount will be made on the next succeeding Euro Business Day, without any liability on the part of the Company to pay interest thereon or compensation in respect of such delay.

Payments in respect of any amount payable by way of dividend or on redemption in respect of the Barclays Preference Shares will be made by cheque or warrant sent by post to the registered address of the holder, in each case as shown at the opening of business in London on the Record Date, or in the case of joint holders, to any one of them, or, upon request of the holder or joint holders not later than the date specified for such purpose in the notice of redemption, by bank transfer to a Euro account maintained by the holder, details of which are notified by the holder in writing to the Company.

Payments in respect of amounts payable by way of dividend and on redemption on the Barclays Preference Shares will be subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and other regulations.

8. Voting

The holders of Barclays Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any general meeting of the Company.

9. Variations of Rights and Further Issues

- (i) The holders of Barclays Preference Shares shall have power at any time, and from time to time, and whether before or during liquidation, by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders of Barclays Preference Shares, of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution shall have been duly given, to consent on behalf of all the holders of Barclays Preference Shares:
- (a) to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally with the Barclays Preference Shares, or having any priority thereto, which could not be issued under the powers contained in the New Articles without the consent of all the holders of Barclays Preference Shares; or
 - (b) to the abandonment or alteration of any preference, privilege, priority or special right, whether as regards capital or dividends, or of any right of voting affecting the Barclays Preference Shares, or to the abandonment of any unpaid Preference Dividend, or the reduction for any time or permanently of the Preference Dividends payable thereon, or to the amalgamation into one class of the shares of any two or more classes, or to the division of shares into shares of different classes, or to any alteration in the New Articles varying or abrogating or putting an end to any rights or privileges attached to the Barclays Preference Shares; or
 - (c) to any scheme for the reduction of capital prejudicially affecting the Barclays Preference Shares as compared with any other class of shares in the capital of the Company, and not otherwise authorised by the New Articles; or
 - (d) to any scheme for the distribution of assets in money or kind in or before liquidation (though such scheme may not be in accordance with legal rights) or to any contract for the sale of the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking or property determining the manner in which, as between the several classes of shareholders, the purchase consideration shall be distributed (though such distribution may not be in accordance with legal rights); and
 - (e) generally, to any alteration, contract, compromise or arrangement which the persons voting thereon could, if sui juris and holding all the shares of the class, consent to or enter into;
- and a resolution so passed shall be binding upon all the holders of Barclays Preference Shares provided that this sub-paragraph 9(i)(e) shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent in any case in which, but for this sub-paragraph, the object of the resolution could have been effected without it.
- (ii) Any meeting for the purpose of paragraph 9(i) shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an extraordinary general meeting of the Company and all the provisions of the New Articles as to such general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but no member not being a director shall be entitled to notice thereof, and no person not being a director or the duly appointed proxy of a holder of Barclays Preference Shares shall be entitled to attend thereat, unless he holds Barclays Preference Shares, and votes shall only be given in respect of Barclays Preference Shares; and at any such meeting or any adjournment thereof the quorum shall be persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third of the issued Barclays Preference

Shares, and a poll may be demanded at any such meeting by any three holders of Barclays Preference Shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting, or by any person or persons holding or representing by proxy and entitled to vote in respect of Barclays Preference Shares being not less than one-twentieth of the whole of the issued Barclays Preference Shares.

(iii) The rights conferred upon the holders of Barclays Preference Shares shall not (unless otherwise expressly provided by the rights attached to any such shares) be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of additional classes of shares in the Company ranking pari passu therewith or subsequent thereto but in no respect in priority to the Barclays Preference Shares.

10. Notices

Notices to Preference Shareholders shall be given in accordance with the New Articles.

11. Governing Law

The creation and issue of the Barclays Preference Shares and the rights attached to them are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English Law.

NOTICE OF EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING of Barclays PLC (the Company) will be held at 1 Churchill Place, London E14 5HP at 10:00 a.m. on 14 September 2007 for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, passing the following resolutions, of which resolutions 1 and 3 will be proposed as ordinary resolutions and resolutions 2, 4, 5, and 6 will be proposed as special resolutions:

ORDINARY RESOLUTION

Resolution 1: Approval of proposed merger

THAT:

- (A) the proposed merger (the Merger) with ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO) substantially on the terms and subject to the conditions described in the circular to shareholders issued by the Company on 6 August 2007 (a copy of which is produced to the Meeting and signed for identification purposes by the Chairman of the Meeting) (the Circular), together with all other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger contemplated by the Circular, be and are hereby approved and the Directors be and are hereby authorised (1) to take all such steps as may be necessary or desirable in connection with, and to implement, the Merger (and/or such other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger); and (2) to agree such modifications, variations, revisions or amendments to the terms and conditions of the Merger (and/or such other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger) as they may in their absolute discretion think fit, provided that such modifications, variations, revisions or amendments are not material; and
- (B) subject to the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular), the authorised share capital of the Company be and is hereby increased from £2,500,000,000 to £4,401,000,000 by the creation of 7,604,000,000 new ordinary shares of nominal value of 25 pence each in the Company; and
- (C) subject to the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular), pursuant to Section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 (the Act), and in addition to any existing authority conferred upon the Directors under that section, the Directors be and are hereby authorised unconditionally to allot ordinary shares of nominal value of 25 pence each, up to an aggregate nominal amount of £1,225,319,514 (the ordinary shares being relevant securities as defined in Section 80 of the Act) in connection with the Merger (and all other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger contemplated by the Circular), which authority shall expire on the fifth anniversary of the passing of this Resolution, save that the Company may allot relevant securities in connection with the Merger (and all other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger contemplated by the Circular) pursuant to any agreement entered into at any time prior to the fifth anniversary of the passing of this Resolution (whether before or after the passing of this Resolution) which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Directors may allot relevant securities in pursuance of such agreement as if the authorities conferred hereby had not expired.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Resolution 2: Barclays Preference Shares

THAT, subject to the passing of Resolution 1 and the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular) and subject to the passing of the Extraordinary Class Resolution (as defined in the Circular):

- (A) the authorised share capital of the Company be and is hereby further increased from £4,401,000,000 to £4,401,000,000 and 2,000,000,000 by the creation of 2,000,000,000 preference shares of nominal value of 1 each in the Company, having the rights set out in the articles of association adopted pursuant to sub-paragraph (C) of this Resolution;

(B) pursuant to Section 80 of the Act, and in addition to any existing authority conferred upon the Directors under that section (including by Resolution 1(C)), the Directors be and are hereby authorised unconditionally to allot preference shares of nominal value of 1 each, up to an aggregate nominal amount of 2,000,000,000 (the preference shares being relevant securities as defined in Section 80 of the Act), which authority shall expire on the fifth anniversary of the passing of this Resolution, save that the Company may allot relevant securities in connection with the Merger (and all other offers and agreements and ancillary arrangements to the Merger contemplated by the Circular) pursuant to any agreement entered into at any time prior to the fifth anniversary of the passing of this Resolution (whether before or after the passing of this Resolution) which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Directors may allot relevant securities in pursuance of such agreement as if the authorities conferred hereby had not expired; and

(C) the form of the Articles of Association produced to the meeting and initialled by the Chairman for the purposes of identification be and are hereby adopted as the Articles of Association of the Company in substitution for and to the exclusion of all existing Articles of Association.

ORDINARY RESOLUTION

Resolution 3: Authority to allot securities

THAT, subject to the passing of Resolution 1 and the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular), in substitution for all existing unexercised general authorities (but in addition to the specific authorities conferred on the Directors by Resolutions 1(C) and 2(B)), the Directors be and are hereby authorised pursuant to Article 12(a) of the Articles of Association (authority to allot securities) to allot relevant securities for the prescribed period ending on the date of the Annual General Meeting of the Company to be held in 2008, or, if earlier, on 26 July 2008 (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in general meeting) and for such period the Section 80 amount shall be £981,979,623.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS

Resolution 4: Authority to allot equity securities for cash otherwise than on a pro rata basis to shareholders and to sell treasury shares

THAT, subject to the passing of Resolution 1, the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular) and to the passing of Resolution 3, for the purposes of Article 12(b) of the Articles of Association (power to allot equity securities for cash otherwise than on a pro rata basis to shareholders), the Section 89 amount for the prescribed period ending on the date of the Annual General Meeting of the Company to be held in 2008, or if earlier, on 26 July 2008 (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in general meeting) shall be £147,296,943, and that the power so conferred on the Directors shall also apply to the sale of treasury shares, which is an allotment of equity securities by virtue of section 94(3A) of the Act, but as if the words Pursuant to and within the terms of the said authority were omitted from Article 12(b).

Resolution 5: Authority for the Company to purchase its own shares

THAT, subject to the passing of Resolution 1 and the Merger becoming Effective (as defined in the Circular), and in substitution for the existing unexercised general authority granted pursuant to the special resolution of the Company passed on 26 April 2007, the Company be authorised generally and unconditionally to make market purchases (within the meaning of section 163(3) of the Act) on the London Stock Exchange up to an aggregate of 1,700,000,000 ordinary shares of 25p each in its capital, and may hold such shares as treasury shares, provided that:

- (a) the minimum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each ordinary share is not less than 25p;
- (b) the maximum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each ordinary share shall not be more than the higher of (i) 105% of the average of the market values of the ordinary shares (as derived from the Daily Official List of the London Stock Exchange) for the five business days immediately preceding the date on which the purchase is made and (ii) that stipulated by Article 5(1) of the Buy-back and Stabilisation Regulation (EC 2273/2003); and

Notes:

1. A member of the Company entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and, on a poll, vote instead of him or her. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. A WHITE Form of Proxy is enclosed for the use of members unable to attend the meeting. Members who have lodged Forms of Proxy are not thereby prevented from attending the meeting and voting in person if they so wish.
2. To be effective, the WHITE Form of Proxy (together with any power of attorney or other authority under which it is executed or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority) must be lodged at the offices of The Registrar to Barclays PLC, The Causeway, Worthing BN99 6NA not later than 48 hours before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll at which it is to be used.
3. Pursuant to Regulation 41 of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, the Company specifies that only those members entered on the register of members of the Company at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on 12 September 2007 or, in the event that this meeting is adjourned, on the register of members as at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on the day two days before the date of any adjourned meeting shall be entitled to attend and vote at the relevant meeting in respect of the number of ordinary shares registered in their names at such time. Changes to the entries on the register of members after this time, or in the event that this meeting is adjourned, on the register of members after 6.00 p.m. (London time) on the day two days before the date of the adjourned meeting shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the meeting or any adjourned meeting.
4. CREST members who wish to appoint a proxy or proxies through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service may do so for the purpose of this meeting and any adjournment(s) thereof by using the procedures described in the CREST Manual. CREST personal members or other CREST-sponsored members who have appointed a voting service provider(s) should refer to their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s), who will be able to take the appropriate action on their behalf.
In order for a proxy appointment or instruction made by means of CREST to be valid, the appropriate CREST message (a CREST Proxy Instruction) must be properly authenticated in accordance with CRESTCo s specifications and must contain the information required for such instructions, as described in the CREST Manual. The message must be transmitted so as to be received by The Registrar to Barclays PLC, The Causeway, Worthing BN99 6NA (CREST participant ID 7RA01) not later than 48 hours before the time appointed for the meeting or adjourned meeting. For this purpose, the time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the timestamp applied to the message by the CREST Applications Host) from which the Company s agent is able to retrieve the message by enquiry to CREST in the manner prescribed by CREST.

CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service provider(s) should note that CRESTCo does not make available special procedures in CREST for any particular messages. Normal system timings and limitations will therefore apply in relation to the input of CREST Proxy Instructions. It is the responsibility of the CREST member concerned to take (or, if the CREST member is a CREST personal member or sponsored member or has appointed a voting service provider(s), to procure that his CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s) take(s)) such action as shall be necessary to ensure that a message is transmitted by means of the CREST system by any particular time. In this connection, CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service provider(s) are referred, in particular, to those sections of the CREST Manual concerning practical limitations of the CREST system and timings.

The Company may treat as invalid a CREST Proxy Instruction in the circumstances set out in Regulation 35(5)(a) of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001.

Your questions answered

Rationale for the Merger

What am I being asked to approve?

You are being asked to approve the proposed Merger between Barclays and ABN AMRO (a Dutch Bank). The Merger will be effected by Barclays acquiring all the share capital of ABN AMRO. The combined group will be called Barclays. It will be one of the world's leading universal banks.

Why is Barclays proposing the Merger?

The Barclays Board believe that merging with ABN AMRO is in the best interests of Barclays shareholders. The financial services industry is seeing customer needs converging across the globe with significant opportunities for growth. The proposed Merger brings together two sets of high quality product capabilities and brands which are well placed to create growth for shareholders. The Merger will create one of the world's leading universal banks with a combined base of 46 million personal and 1.4 million commercial customers around the world.

The Barclays Board recommends that you vote in favour of the Merger. Further details on the strategic rationale for the proposed Merger are set out in the Circular that accompanies this document.

What is the attitude of ABN AMRO's Boards to the Merger?

On 30 July 2007 the Boards of ABN AMRO confirmed that the proposed Merger with Barclays is consistent with their strategic vision and could result in the creation of additional longer term value for ABN AMRO shareholders.

Who are the two new investors in Barclays? What will be the size of their holding if the Merger is effective?

The two new investors in Barclays are China Development Bank, which reports directly to the State Council of China, and Temasek Holdings, which is an investment house headquartered in Singapore. Together they committed to invest up to 11.7bn (£7.9bn) in Barclays. About 3.6bn (£2.4bn) will be invested now, and the rest will be invested if the proposed Merger with ABN AMRO is completed. The investment they are making now demonstrates that they support Barclays strategy.

Barclays believes that their commitment to invest further shows their confidence in Barclays ability to accelerate our strategy, and to create higher growth for shareholders through the proposed Merger. Assuming the Merger becomes effective, China Development Bank will end up with a stake in the enlarged Barclays of 6.8% and Temasek with 2.5%.

The subscription for new Barclays shares by these two shareholders will be used to fund part of the cash payments to be made to ABN AMRO shareholders who accept the revised offer announced on 23 July. The original offer was an all share offer.

Table of Contents

Why did Barclays make a revised offer and what does it mean for me?

The funding from the new investors which is explained above, coupled with the capital that will be released from the sale by ABN AMRO of LaSalle Bank, and with funding from our available cash resources, means that Barclays is able to introduce about 25bn of cash into the revised offer to ABN AMRO shareholders. Barclays understands that some ABN AMRO shareholders would prefer to receive cash as part of the offer for their shares. On the day that the revised offer was announced, Barclays also announced that it would be buying back up to £2.4bn of Barclays shares. This is intended to protect the interests of existing Barclays shareholders from the dilutive effect of the investment by China Development Bank and Temasek.

My shares

What will happen to the Barclays Ordinary Shares I hold?

Your shareholding will remain the same. It is the ABN AMRO shareholders whose shareholding will be affected.

What will ABN AMRO shareholders receive under the Offer?

ABN AMRO Ordinary Shareholders will receive 2.13 new Barclays Ordinary Shares and 13.15 in cash for each ABN AMRO Ordinary Share they own.

Holders of ABN AMRO's DR Preference Shares will receive 0.59 in cash or, if they choose and subject to the passing of Resolution 2 at the Barclays EGM and the resolution to be proposed at the Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting, 0.59 Barclays Preference Shares for each DR Preference Share they own.

Holders of ABN AMRO's Formerly Convertible Preference Shares will receive 27.65 in cash for each Formerly Convertible Preference Share they own.

What is a Mix and Match scheme?

A Mix and Match scheme enables the ABN AMRO shareholders to choose to vary the proportion of New Barclays Shares and cash that they receive. The total number of New Barclays Shares and the maximum cash amount paid under the Offer will not change as a result of the Mix and Match Facility.

What percentage of Barclays Ordinary Shares will current holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares own after the Merger?

After completion of the Merger, assuming that all of the ABN AMRO Shareholders accept the Barclays Offer, current holders of ABN AMRO Ordinary Shares would own approximately 35% of the Barclays Ordinary Shares in issue.

Corporate governance and management

Will Barclays approach to corporate governance change following the Merger?

No. Barclays will still be a UK incorporated company, and the Combined Group will be managed in accordance with UK Corporate Governance principles, with a single Board comprised of Executive and Non-executive Directors.

Who will manage the Combined Group?

Arthur Martinez (the ABN AMRO Chairman) is expected to be the first Chairman and Marcus Agius is expected to be the Deputy Chairman. Marcus Agius will remain Chairman of Barclays Bank PLC. It is expected that he will succeed Arthur Martinez as Chairman of the Combined Group when Arthur Martinez retires. John Varley is expected to be Chief Executive Officer and Bob Diamond is expected to be President. The Combined Group Board is expected to include Frits Seegers, Huibert Boumeester and Chris Lucas as Executive Directors. As announced on 23 July 2007, China Development Bank has the right to nominate a Barclays Non-executive Director. Subject to the Merger completing, Temasek will also have the right to nominate a Non-executive Director to the Barclays Board. Full details on the proposed composition of the Barclays Board following the Merger are set out in the Circular.

Why will the Headquarters be in Amsterdam?

John Varley, the Barclays Chief Executive, is keen that the management team immerse themselves in the ABN AMRO business so that they better understand their business and culture. Basing the Headquarters in Amsterdam will help this.

Where will the Barclays AGM be held in future?

The Barclays AGM will continue to be held in the UK with a video link to Amsterdam for our Dutch shareholders.

Barclays financial information reporting

Why will Barclays report in Euro?

Barclays PLC is a global organisation. Reporting in Euro will be more consistent with the nature of the combined businesses.

Table of Contents

Can I get financial information quoted in Sterling?

Following the proposed Merger, Barclays will present its financial statements in the Annual Report in Euro. We are reviewing whether we will also present information in Sterling.

Dividends

Will the proposed Merger affect Barclays dividend policy?

Following the proposed Merger, it is intended that Barclays will maintain its progressive dividend policy. It is not expected that the dividends per ordinary share in 2008 will be materially different to the dividends Barclays would have expected to distribute to shareholders had the proposed Merger not happened.

Will my dividends be paid in Sterling or Euro?

Current Barclays shareholders will continue to receive dividends in Sterling unless they choose to receive their dividends in Euro. Shareholders who want to receive their dividends in Euro will receive a cheque. Our Registrar currently has no facility to pay Euro direct to a UK or foreign bank account.

Can I change the currency my dividends are paid in?

Yes. Shareholders who want to receive any future Barclays dividends in Euro after the Merger should indicate by ticking the box on the form attached to the Proxy Forms and return it to the Registrar in the reply-paid envelope provided. The first dividend for which any election would become effective, assuming the Merger is completed, would be the final dividend for the 2007 financial year which is expected to be paid in late April 2008.

You can notify our Registrar on 0870 609 4535 (+44 121 415 7004 from overseas) if you want to change your instruction. Shareholders can choose whether to receive dividends in either Sterling or Euro. The Registrar must receive your instruction no later than 5pm on the record date for a particular dividend. The first dividend for which any election would become effective, assuming the Merger is completed, would be the final dividend for the 2007 financial year which is expected to be paid in late April 2008.

When will future dividends be paid?

Barclays expects to continue to pay dividends in late April and early October.

Will this impact my election under the Barclays Dividend Re-investment Plan?

No. Participation in the Dividend Re-investment Plan will not be affected by the Merger.

Information about the Barclays Extraordinary General Meeting \(EGM \) and Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting \(Class Meeting \) \(together the Meetings \)

Who is entitled to vote?

Shareholders who want to attend and vote at the EGM and/or Class Meeting must be on the Barclays shareholder register by no later than 10.00am on Wednesday 12 September 2007 for the EGM and 10.15am on Wednesday 12 September 2007 for the Class Meeting. These times will still apply for the purpose of determining who is entitled to attend and vote if the Meetings are adjourned from the scheduled time by 48 hours or less. If the Meetings are adjourned for longer, members who wish to attend and vote must be on the Barclays register of members by 6.00pm two days before the time fixed for the adjourned Meetings.

How do I vote?

Voting on the resolutions at the Meetings will usually be by poll. That means that you will be asked to complete a Poll Card if you attend in person. We believe that a poll, which includes the votes cast by proxies, is the fairest way of including the views of as many shareholders as possible in the voting process. There are three ways in which you can vote:

You can vote in person at the EGM and/or Class Meeting; or

You can sign the enclosed Proxy Forms appointing the Chairman or some other person to vote for you; or

You can vote electronically.

Details of how to do this are on the enclosed Proxy Forms.

You should return your Proxy Forms to the Registrar in the enclosed reply-paid envelope to be received by no later than 10.00am on Wednesday 12 September 2007 for the EGM and 10.15am on Wednesday 12 September 2007 for the Class Meeting. Below, you will find details of how to withdraw your proxy should you change your mind.

What if I plan to attend the EGM and/or Class Meeting and vote in person?

If you plan to attend and vote in person at the Meetings there is no need to complete and return the Proxy Forms. Attached to the Proxy Forms is an Attendance Card for use by those attending the Meetings. You should bring the Attendance Card with you.

Table of Contents

If my shares are held in Barclays Sharestore how do I vote?

Sharestore members can attend and vote at the EGM and/or Class Meeting. If you are a Sharestore member and do not plan to attend but do want to vote, you must return the enclosed Proxy Forms so that the Sharestore Administrator can carry out your instructions. If you return the Proxy Forms but do not insert the name of your proxy then the Chairman of the meeting will vote on your behalf.

How will my shares be voted if I appoint a proxy?

The person you name on your Proxy Forms must vote in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give them any instructions, a proxy may vote or not vote as he or she sees fit on any business of the Meetings. Please refer to the instructions on your Proxy Forms.

Can I change my mind once I have appointed a proxy?

Yes. If you change your mind, you can send a written statement to that effect to the Registrar. The statement must arrive with the Registrar by 10.00am on Wednesday 12 September 2007 for the EGM or 10.15am on Wednesday 12 September 2007 for the Class Meeting or you should bring it to the EGM and/or Class Meeting.

If you hold your shares in Barclays Sharestore, your statement must be received by the Registrar by 10.00am on Wednesday 12 September 2007 for the EGM or 10.15am on Wednesday 12 September 2007 for the Class Meeting.

You cannot bring it along to the Meetings.

How will the votes be counted?

Each resolution that is put to the Meetings will be voted upon on a poll. At the EGM, the passing of resolutions 1 and 3 will be determined by a majority of votes cast. Resolutions 2, 4, 5 and 6 are being proposed as special resolutions and will therefore each require the support of 75% of votes cast to be passed.

The Class Meeting will consider an extraordinary resolution which will require the support of 75% of votes cast to be passed.

Who counts the votes?

Our Registrar, Lloyds TSB Registrars, counts the proxy votes received before the EGM and Class Meeting and then counts the votes cast at the Meetings. An independent third party, Electoral Reform Services, will supervise the counting of the votes by the Registrar.

When will the results of the voting be declared?

The preliminary results of voting on the resolutions to be proposed at the Meetings will be displayed in the Presentation Suite at 1 Churchill Place shortly after the Meetings. The final results will be announced to the London Stock Exchange after the Meetings and will appear on our website at www.investorrelations.barclays.com.

Venue

The Meetings will be held on Friday 14 September 2007 on the second floor of Barclays Head Office at 1 Churchill Place, London, E14 5HP. A map showing the location can be found on the reverse of the enclosed Attendance Card. The EGM will start promptly at 10.00am and the Class Meeting at 10.15am or (if later) on completion of the EGM. You should allow 10 to 15 minutes for security and registration formalities.

Security

For safety reasons, security checks will be carried out on entry to the building. You will be asked to leave large bags in the cloakroom and small bags may be searched. No cameras, video recorders or tape recorders should be taken into the Meetings. Mobile phones should be turned off.

Cloakrooms

Cloakroom facilities, for the storage of coats, large bags, etc., are located near the meeting room.

Lifts

Barclays staff will be on hand to guide you to the lifts to the second floor.

Preference Shares as the DR Preference Share Offer ; the offer for ABN AMRO Formerly Convertible Preference Shares as the Formerly Convertible Preference Share Offer ; and the offers together as the Offer .

The Ordinary Share and ADS Offer is being made upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the U.S. offer document/prospectus, dated August 6, 2007 and contained in Barclays Registration Statement on Form F-4 (the U.S. Offer Document/Prospectus) and the related ordinary share deeds of transfer and the ADS letter of transmittal, as each may be amended or supplemented from time to time. The DR Preference Share Offer is being made upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Dutch offering memorandum, dated August 6, 2007 (the Dutch Offering Memorandum) and the U.K. prospectus, dated August 6, 2007 (the U.K. Prospectus), as each may be amended or supplemented from time to time. The Formerly Convertible Preference Share Offer is being made upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Dutch Offering Memorandum, as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time.

Following completion of the Offer, it is expected that, subject to applicable law, Barclays will take steps in order to cause ABN AMRO to become a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Barclays.

The Offer will commence at 3:00 a.m. New York City time (9:00 a.m. Amsterdam time), on August 7, 2007, and expire at 9:00 a.m. New York City time (3:00 p.m. Amsterdam time), on October 4, 2007, unless the Offer is extended or terminated prior to that time.

The Offer is being made pursuant to the merger protocol that Barclays entered into on April 23, 2007 with ABN AMRO, as amended on July 23, 2007, July 30, 2007 and, by letter agreement, on August 3, 2007, providing for a combination of their businesses. The proposed combination of ABN AMRO and Barclays will create one of the world's leading universal banks. Barclays will be the holding company of the combined group.

The Offer is subject to various conditions. All conditions to the completion of the Offer must be satisfied or waived prior to the acceptance for exchange of ABN AMRO ordinary shares, ABN AMRO ADSs, ABN AMRO DR Preference Shares or ABN AMRO Formerly Convertible Preference Shares pursuant to the Offer.

Ordinary Share and ADS Offer

In connection with the proposed business combination transaction between ABN AMRO and Barclays, Barclays has filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) a Registration Statement on Form F-4 (Form F-4), which includes the U.S. Offer Document/Prospectus. Barclays has also filed with the SEC a Statement on Schedule TO and other relevant materials. In addition, ABN AMRO is expected to file with the SEC a Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 and other relevant materials. Barclays intends to mail the U.S. Offer Document/Prospectus to all ABN AMRO ordinary shareholders located in the United States and Canada and to all ABN AMRO ADS holders located in any jurisdiction in which the Ordinary Share and ADS Offer is being made. INVESTORS ARE URGED TO READ THE U.S. OFFER DOCUMENT/PROSPECTUS AND ANY DOCUMENTS REGARDING THE POTENTIAL TRANSACTION WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE, BECAUSE THEY CONTAIN OR WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

Investors can obtain the U.S. Offer Document/Prospectus and other documents that have been filed with the SEC by ABN AMRO and Barclays at the SEC's website (www.sec.gov) and from ABN AMRO and Barclays without charge.

DR Preference Share Offer and Formerly Convertible Preference Share Offer

The Dutch Offering Memorandum and the U.K. Prospectus may not be used to make offers or sales to holders of ABN AMRO ordinary shares or ABN AMRO ADSs located in the United States or Canada. Offers and sales to holders of ABN AMRO ordinary shares or ABN AMRO ADSs located in the United States or Canada may be made only by means of the Offer Document/Prospectus contained in the Form F-4 filed by Barclays with the SEC and with Canadian securities regulators and as permitted by applicable law.

The DR Preference Share Offer and the Formerly Convertible Preference Share Offer are made for the securities of a foreign company. The DR Preference Share Offer and the Formerly Convertible Preference Share Offer are subject to disclosure requirements of a foreign country that are different from those of the United States. Financial statements included in the Dutch Offering Memorandum and the U.K. Prospectus, if any, have been prepared in accordance with foreign accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements of U.S. companies.

It may be difficult for holders of ABN AMRO DR Preference Shares or ABN AMRO Formerly Convertible Preference Shares to enforce your rights and any claim you may have arising under the federal securities laws, since Barclays is located in a foreign country, and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country. You may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

You should be aware that Barclays may purchase ABN AMRO DR Preference Shares and ABN AMRO Formerly Convertible Preference Shares otherwise than under the DR Preference Share Offer and the Formerly Convertible Preference Share Offer, such as in open market or privately negotiated purchases.
