RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves risk. Before making an investment decision, you should consider carefully all of the information set forth in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus, unless expressly provided otherwise, including, in particular, the risk factors described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2009, and certain of our other filings with the SEC. These risks could materially affect our business, results of operations or financial condition and cause the value of our common stock to decline.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus contains or incorporates by reference what we believe are forward-looking statements, as that term is defined under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, based on current expectations that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Such forward-looking statements are generally, though not always, preceded by words such as anticipates, expects, believes, projects, intends, plans, estimates, and similar terms that connote to the future and are not merely recitations of historical fact. Such statements are made solely on the basis of our current views and perceptions of future events, and there can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be true. Any or all of the forward-looking statements in this prospectus may turn out to be incorrect. They may be based on inaccurate assumptions or may not account for known or unknown risks and uncertainties. Consequently, no forward-looking statement is guaranteed, and our actual future results may vary materially from the results expressed or implied in our forward-looking statements. The cautionary statements in, or incorporated by reference into, this prospectus or any prospectus supplement expressly qualify all of our forward-looking statements. In addition, we are not obligated, and do not intend, to update any of our forward-looking statements at any time unless an update is required by applicable securities laws and we make no commitment to disclose any facts, events or circumstances that may affect the accuracy of any forward-looking statement. Further information covering issues that could materially affect financial performance is contained in our periodic filings with the SEC.

You should understand that the risks, uncertainties, factors and assumptions discussed in or incorporated by reference into this prospectus, including, but not limited to, the following important factors and assumptions, could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements:

changes in economic and business conditions in the world; increased competitive activity including actions by larger competitors or low-cost producers;

the inability to obtain and maintain price increases to offset higher production or material costs;

the inability to recover the costs to develop and test new products or processes;

the risks associated with doing business outside of the United States;

the failure to achieve expected sales levels;

consolidation among our competitors and customers;

technology advancements;

inability to adequately protect our intellectual property rights;

volatility in raw material and energy prices, including those of steel, crude petroleum and natural gas and the unavailability of such raw materials or energy sources;

Table of Contents

changes in interest and foreign exchange rates;

changes in pension expense and/or funding resulting from investment performance of our pension plan assets and changes in discount rate, salary increase rate, and expected return on plan assets assumptions, or changes to related accounting regulations;

government regulatory initiatives, including regulations under the TREAD Act; changes in our customer relationships, including loss of particular business for competitive or other reasons;

the impact of labor problems, including a strike brought against us or against one or more of our customers or suppliers;

an adverse change in our credit ratings, which could increase its borrowing costs and/or hamper its access to the credit markets;

changes to the credit markets and/or access to those markets;

the impact of reductions in the insurance program covering the principal risks to us, and other unanticipated events and conditions;

inability to use deferred tax assets;

failure to successfully integrate acquisitions into operations or their related financings may impact liquidity and capital resources;

inaccurate assumptions used in developing our strategic plan or the inability or failure to successfully implement our strategic plan including closure of the Albany, Georgia facility.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The proceeds from the sale of the common stock to which this prospectus relates are solely for the account of the selling stockholder. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of common stock offered pursuant to this prospectus.

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

This prospectus covers the sale, from time to time, by the selling stockholder of shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Cooper Tire for the benefit of the pension plan.

The selling stockholder is a tax-qualified trust that holds the assets for the pension plan. We make contributions to the selling stockholder from time to time in amounts that are not less than the minimum amount required under, or more than the maximum deductible amount permitted by, the Internal Revenue Code.

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth certain information concerning the selling stockholder.

	Shares Owned Prior to Offering		Shares Offered	Shares Owned After Offering
	Number (1)	Percent (1)		Number	Percent (1)
Selling stockholder	1,527,778	2.59%	1,527,778	0	0

(1) Calculated based on Rule 13d-3(d)(1)(i) of the Exchange Act using 58,965,318 shares of common stock outstanding as of July 31, 2009.

Information about the selling stockholder may change over time. Any changed information will be set forth to the extent provided to us by the selling stockholder in prospectus supplements, if and when necessary. Because the selling stockholder may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of all, some or none of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus, or may acquire additional shares from us or in the market in the future, we cannot estimate the amount of the common stock that will be held by the selling stockholder upon the termination of any particular offering. See Plan of Distribution.

An independent, third party investment fiduciary will be chosen by the pension plan's Retirement Committee under a delegation of authority from our board of directors and appointed by the pension plan's Retirement Committee. The investment fiduciary will have sole authority to manage the shares of common stock, subject to general investment criteria established by the Retirement Committee.

We will provide to the selling stockholder copies of this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement and will take certain other actions as are required to permit unrestricted sales of the shares of common stock offered hereby.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We have registered the common stock to allow the selling stockholder to sell all or a portion of the common stock to the public from time to time after the date of this prospectus. The selling stockholder may sell the common stock directly or in negotiated transactions upon instructions from the independent third party investment fiduciary chosen by the pension plan's Retirement Committee through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents. If the selling stockholder sells the common stock through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, we will be responsible for underwriting discounts, and concessions or commissions (which commissions will not exceed those customary in the types of transactions involved) or agents' commissions. We have agreed to pay all of the expenses incidental to the registration, offering and sale of the common stock to the public.

We will not receive any portion of the proceeds of the sale of the common stock offered by this prospectus. The proceeds will, however, be used to fund our obligations under the pension plan.

The SEC may deem the selling stockholder and any broker-dealers or agents who participate in the distribution of the common stock to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. As a result, the SEC may deem any profits made by the selling stockholder as a result of selling the common stock and any discounts, commissions or concessions received by any broker-dealers or agents to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. A selling stockholder who is an underwriter within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act and also may be subject to liabilities under the securities laws, including Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act. To our knowledge, there are currently no plans, agreements, arrangements or understandings between the selling stockholder and any underwriter, broker-dealer or agent regarding the sale of the common stock.

The common stock may be sold pursuant to the methods described below from time to time by or for the account of the selling stockholder on the New York Stock Exchange, or any other national securities exchange or automated interdealer quotation system on which our common stock is then listed, or otherwise in one or more transactions at:

Table of Contents

a fixed price or prices, which may be changed;

market prices prevailing at the time of sale;

prices related to prevailing market prices; or prices determined on a negotiated or competitive bid basis.

These sales may be effected by any one or more of the following methods:

a block trade (which may involve crosses) in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the securities as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker or dealer as principal; ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers; or privately negotiated transactions.

To comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the selling stockholder may only sell the common stock in these jurisdictions through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain jurisdictions, the common stock may not be sold unless the common stock has been registered or qualified for sale in these jurisdictions, or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and complied with. The selling stockholder and any other persons participating in the sales of the common stock pursuant to this prospectus may be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations under the Exchange Act. The selling stockholder may also sell shares in reliance upon Rule 144 of the Securities Act, provided it meets the criteria and conforms to the requirements of Rule 144, rather than under this prospectus.

With respect to a particular offering of the common stock, to the extent required by law, we will file an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, disclosing the following information:

the amount of common stock being offered and sold;

the respective purchase prices and public offering prices and other material terms of the offering;

the names of any participating agents, broker-dealers or underwriters employed by the selling stockholder in connection with such sale; and any applicable commissions, discounts, concessions and other items constituting compensation from the selling stockholder.

Our common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CTB.

The pension plan is a pension plan as defined in the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, or ERISA. Prohibited transactions under Title I of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code could arise if, absent an available exemption, a person or entity that is a party in interest, as defined under ERISA, or a disqualified person, as defined under the Internal Revenue Code, were to purchase any of the common stock being offered by the selling stockholder. Any such potential purchaser should consult with counsel to determine whether an exemption is available with respect to any such purchase.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN THE PROSPECTUS

Item 14. Other Expenses of Issuance and Distribution

The following table sets forth the estimated costs and expenses payable by the registrant in connection with the common stock being registered hereon. The selling stockholder will not bear any portion of such expenses. All the amounts shown are estimates, except for the SEC registration fee.

SEC Registration Fee	$ 1,194
Accounting Fees and Expenses*	5,500
Legal Fees and Expenses*	5,500
Printing and Miscellaneous Expenses*	1,806
 Total*	 $ 14,000

* Estimated solely for the purpose of this Item 14. Actual expenses may be more or less.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware authorizes indemnification of directors, officers and employees of Delaware corporations. Article Tenth of the registrant's restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, limits the liability of directors to the registrant for breach of duty to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, but does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the effectiveness of such provision. Article VII of the registrant's bylaws, as amended, (i) authorizes the indemnification of directors and officers (the Indemnitees) under specified circumstances to the fullest extent authorized by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, (ii) provides for the advancement of expenses to the Indemnitees for defending any proceedings related to the specified circumstances, and (iii) authorizes the registrant to maintain certain policies of insurance to protect itself and any of its directors, officers or employees. The registrant currently maintains policies of insurance under which the directors and officers of the registrant are insured, within the limits and subject to the limitations of the policies, against certain expenses in connection with the defense of actions, suits or proceedings, and certain liabilities which might be imposed as a result of such actions, suits or proceedings, to which they are parties by reason of being or having been such directors or officers.

The registrant has also entered into indemnification agreements with each of its current directors and certain of its executive officers (the Indemnified Person). Generally, each indemnification agreement provides that the registrant will indemnify the Indemnified Person to the fullest extent permitted or required by Delaware law. An Indemnified Person is not entitled to indemnification for any claim initiated by the Indemnified Person against the registrant or any registrant director or officer unless the registrant has joined in or consented to such claim. The registrant will advance certain expenses to an Indemnified Person prior to the final disposition of certain claims against the Indemnified Person only if the Indemnified Person executes and delivers to the registrant an undertaking to repay any advanced amounts if he or she is ultimately determined to be not entitled to indemnification under the Indemnification Agreement. In certain situations, an Indemnified Person will be required to meet certain statutory standards of conduct in order to be indemnified by the registrant under the indemnification agreement. Pursuant to the indemnification agreements, the registrant has agreed to refrain from amending its restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, or bylaws, as amended, to diminish the Indemnified Persons' rights to indemnification provided by the Indemnification Agreements or other indemnity provisions. The registrant has also agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain a minimum level of directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for the Indemnified Persons.

The above discussion of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, our restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws, as amended, and the indemnification agreements is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by such statute, certificate of incorporation, bylaws and indemnification agreements.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that:

(A) Paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of this section do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-8 (§239.16b of this chapter), and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78m or 78o(d)) that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement; and

(B) Paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) of this section do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 (§239.13 of this chapter) or Form F-3 (§239.33 of this chapter) and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) (§230.424(b) of this chapter) that is part of the registration statement.

(C) Provided further, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is for an offering of asset-backed securities on Form S-1 (§239.11 of this chapter) or Form S-3 (§239.13 of this chapter), and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment is provided pursuant to Item 1100(c) of Regulation AB (§229.1100(c)).

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
