The Plan Administrator shall be the named fiduciary, as such term is defined in ERISA, of the Plan, with responsibility for administration of the Plan.

However, all reasonable expenses of the Plan Administrator shall be paid or reimbursed by the Company upon proper documentation. The Plan Administrator shall be indemnified by the Company against personal liability for actions taken in good faith in the discharge of duties as the Plan Administrator.

The Plan Administrator shall keep all individual and group records relating to participants and former participants and all other records necessary for the proper operation of the Plan. Such records shall be made available to the Company and to each Participant for examination upon reasonable notice during business hours except that a Participant shall examine only such records as pertain exclusively to the examining Participant and to the Plan. The Plan Administrator shall prepare and shall file as required by law or regulation all reports, forms, documents and other items required by ERISA, and every other relevant statute, each as amended, and all regulations thereunder (except that the Company, as payor of the Benefits, shall prepare and distribute to the proper recipients all forms relating to withholding of income or wage taxes, Social Security taxes, and other amounts which may be similarly reportable).

ARTICLE 7
AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Plan is effective as of December 1, 2009. The Company shall have the right to amend or terminate the Plan, in whole or in part, at any time and for any reason. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment or termination of the Plan shall affect benefits accrued by a Participant prior to such amendment or termination.

ARTICLE 8
CLAIM PROCEDURES

The Company will advise each Participant of any Benefits to which the Participant is entitled under the Plan. If any person believes that the Company has failed to advise him or her of any Benefit to which he or she is entitled, he or she may file a written claim with the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator shall review such claim and respond thereto within a reasonable time after receiving the claim. The Plan Administrator shall provide to every claimant who is denied a claim for benefits written notice setting forth in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant:

- (a) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;
- (b) specific reference to pertinent Plan provisions on which the denial is based;
- (c) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the claimant to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary; and
- (d) an explanation of the Plan claims review procedures.

Within sixty days of receipt by a claimant of a notice denying a claim under the preceding paragraph, the claimant or his or her duly authorized representative may request in writing a full and fair review of the claim by the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator may extend the sixty-day period where the nature of the benefit involved or other attendant circumstances make such extension appropriate. In connection with such review, the claimant or his or her duly authorized representative may review pertinent documents and may submit issues and comments in writing. The Plan Administrator shall make a decision promptly, and not later than sixty days after the Plan's receipt of a request for review, unless special circumstances (such as the need to hold a hearing) require an extension of time for processing, in which case a decision shall be rendered as soon as possible, but not later than one hundred twenty days after receipt of a request for review. The decision on review shall be in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision, written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant, and specific references to the pertinent Plan provisions on which the decision is based.
