Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Brookwood Receives Loan Waiver

As previously disclosed in the Form 10-Q of The Hallwood Group Incorporated (the Company) for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2011, due to a decline in military sales for the 2011 first quarter, the Company's Brookwood subsidiary was unable to meet the financial covenant contained in its Working Capital Revolving Credit Facility with KeyBanc that requires income before taxes of at least $1 in each quarter. Brookwood's loss before taxes for the 2011 first quarter was $299,000. Accordingly, Brookwood requested a waiver from KeyBanc for the income covenant for the period ended March 31, 2011.

Pursuant to a letter received by Brookwood from KeyBanc dated May 23, 2011, KeyBanc acknowledged the non-compliance of the income covenant and indicated its agreement to waive the default for the period ended March 31, 2011. KeyBanc further noted that the continuation of any advances by KeyBanc under the Working Capital Revolving Credit Facility does not waive or impair any of KeyBanc's rights and remedies under the loan agreement, nor does it establish a course of conduct on which Brookwood should or could rely.

Additionally, KeyBanc consented to the payment by Brookwood to the Company of a cash dividend and tax sharing payment of $1,000,000 and $589,000, respectively. Such payments will be completed by May 31, 2011.
