PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
April 21, 2004

SOLICITATION, VOTING, AND REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Sandy Spring Bancorp, Inc. (Bancorp) to be used at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Annual Meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 21, 2004, at 3:00 p.m. Eastern Time at the Indian Spring Country Club, 13501 Layhill Road, Silver Spring, Maryland. The Notice of Annual Meeting, the Form of Proxy, and this Proxy Statement are being first mailed together on or about March 18, 2004, to shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 8, 2004.

If the enclosed Form of Proxy is properly executed and returned to Bancorp in time to be voted at the Annual Meeting, the shares represented by it will be voted in accordance with the instructions marked on the form. Executed but unmarked proxies will be voted FOR Item 1 to elect the five nominees of Bancorp s Board of Directors as directors and Item 2 to ratify the appointment of the independent auditor. Proxies marked as abstentions and shares held in street name that have been designated by brokers on proxies as not voted will not be counted as votes cast, but will be counted for purposes of determining a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Bancorp does not know of any other matters that are to come before the Annual Meeting except for incidental, procedural matters. If any other matters are properly brought before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote the shares represented by each proxy on such matters as determined by a majority of the Board of Directors.

The presence of a shareholder at the Annual Meeting will not automatically revoke that shareholder s proxy. However, shareholders may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by filing with Ronald E. Kuykendall, Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary a written notice of revocation; by delivering to Bancorp a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Many shareholders whose shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm or bank will have the option to submit their proxies or voting instructions electronically through the Internet or by telephone. Shareholders should check their proxy card or voting instructions forwarded by their broker, bank or other holder of record to see which options are available. Shareholders submitting proxies or voting instructions via the Internet should understand that there may be costs associated with electronic access, such as usage charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies, that would be borne by the shareholder. To revoke a proxy previously submitted electronically through the Internet or by telephone, a shareholder may simply submit a new proxy at a later date before the taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting, in which case, the later submitted proxy will be recorded and the earlier proxy will be revoked.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by Bancorp. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, Bancorp also may solicit proxies personally or by telephone or telegraph through its directors, officers, and regular employees. Bancorp also will request persons, firms, and corporations holding shares in their names or in the name of nominees that are beneficially owned by others to send proxy materials to and obtain proxies from those beneficial owners and will reimburse the holders for their reasonable expenses in doing so.

The securities that can be voted at the Annual Meeting consist of shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the Common Stock), of Bancorp. Each share entitles its owner to one vote on all matters. The close of business on March 8, 2004 has been fixed by the Board of Directors as the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. There were approximately 2,300 record holders of the Common Stock as of February 9, 2004. The number of shares outstanding on February 9, 2004 was approximately 14,502,000. The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting.

A copy of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for its year ended December 31, 2003, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), but excluding exhibits, is provided with this proxy statement. Shareholders may obtain, free of charge, a copy of the exhibits to the Annual Report on Form 10-K by writing Ronald E. Kuykendall, Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, at Sandy Spring Bancorp, Inc., 17801 Georgia Avenue, Olney, Maryland 20832. Shareholders also may access a copy of the Form 10-K including exhibits on the SEC Website at www.sec.gov or through the Company's Investor Relations Website maintained at www.sandyspringbank.com.

Shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage firm or bank and who share the same address may receive only one Annual Report on Form 10-K and one Proxy Statement, unless the shareholder has provided contrary instructions. Shareholders who wish to receive separate copies of the Annual Report on Form 10-K or the Proxy Statement or who wish to receive separate copies of future annual reports and proxy statements, and shareholders sharing an address who received multiple copies of these documents but wish to request delivery of single copies of them should follow the instructions provided by the shareholders' brokerage firms or banks or contact Mr. Kuykendall at the above address or by phone at 301-774-6400 or 800-399-5919.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS (ITEM 1 ON THE PROXY CARD)

The Board of Directors has set the total number of directors at twelve, in accordance with Bancorp's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. Bancorp's Articles of Incorporation divide the directors into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible. In general, the term of office of only one class of directors expires in each year, and their successors are elected for terms of three years and until their successors are elected and qualified. At the Annual Meeting a total of five director-nominees will be elected for three-year terms. With respect to the election of directors, each shareholder of record on the record date is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held. A plurality of all the votes cast at the Annual Meeting will be sufficient to elect a nominee as a director.

Information as to Nominees and Continuing Directors

The following table sets forth the names of the Board of Directors' five nominees for election as directors. Also shown is certain other information, some of which has been obtained from Bancorp's records and some of which has been supplied by the nominees and continuing directors, with respect to their principal occupations during at least the past five years, their ages at December 31, 2003, the periods during which they have served as directors, and the positions they currently hold with Bancorp. It is the intention of the persons named in the proxy to vote the shares represented by each properly executed proxy for the election as directors of the five nominees listed below for terms of three years, unless otherwise directed by the shareholder. The Board of Directors believes that each of the nominees will stand for election and will serve if elected as director. If any person nominated by the Board of Directors fails to stand for election or is unable to accept election, the proxies will be voted for the election of such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may recommend.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR each of the nominees named below as a director of Bancorp.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND OTHER MATTERS

During 2003, each of Bancorp's and the Bank's Boards of Directors held 12 regular meetings.

The average attendance was 93% for meetings of Bancorp's and the Bank's Boards of Directors. All incumbent directors attended 75% or more of the aggregate of (a) the total number of meetings of the Boards of Directors and (b) the total number of meetings held by all committees on which they served during the period of their service during the year.

Bank directors who are not employed by the Bank receive an annual retainer of $10,000 ($13,000 for the Chairman), $2,500 for Committee Chairman and fees of $800 ($1,000 for the Chairman) for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors. Directors also receive $600 for each committee meeting. Bancorp directors who are not employed by Bancorp do not receive any additional compensation (beyond compensation received for service as bank directors) except as follows. Such directors receive fees of $800 ($1,000 for the Chairman) for attendance at each meeting of Bancorp's Board of Directors not held in conjunction with a meeting of the Bank's Board of Directors. Bancorp directors are also eligible to receive non-incentive stock options under Bancorp's 1999 Stock Option Plan. These options have a maximum term of 10 years and an exercise price that may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant. Director options are included in the computation of share dilution. Options for 14,114 shares were granted in 2003 to directors who were not employees of Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries, based upon their meeting attendance, at an exercise price of $38.91.

Directors of the Bank are eligible to defer all or a portion of their fees under Director Fee Deferral Agreements between the Bank and individual directors. Amounts deferred accrue interest at the prime rate. Except in the case of death or financial emergency, deferred fees and accrued interest are payable only following termination of a director's service on the board. The Director Fee Deferral Agreements also provide for benefits that may exceed deferred fees and accrued interest in the event a party dies while a director of the Bank, but only to the extent the Bank owns an insurance policy in effect on the director's life at the time of death that pays a greater amount than the total of deferred fees and accrued interest.

The Board of Directors has determined that all Directors other than Mr. Hollar are independent under the Listing Standards.

Bancorp's Board of Directors has standing Audit, Executive, Human Resources and Nominating Committees. The Executive Committee performs the functions of a corporate governance committee. The Human Resources Committee performs the functions of a compensation committee. The functions, composition, and number of meetings for these committees in 2003 were as follows:

Audit Committee The Audit Committee is composed of John Chirtea, Chairman, Solomon Graham, Gilbert L. Hardesty, Joyce R. Hawkins, Charles F. Mess and Craig A. Ruppert. The Audit Committee is appointed by the Board to assist the Board in monitoring the integrity of the financial statements and of financial reporting, including the proper operation of internal and disclosure controls and procedures in accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and the independence and performance of internal and external auditors. The audit committee reviews the Forms 10-K and 10-Q prior to filing. All members of the committee are independent as defined in applicable law, regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and related regulations (the FDIA), and the Listing Standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc., (the Listing Standards). Members of the committee also meet all other applicable requirements of the SEC, FDIA, and Listing Standards for financial, accounting or related expertise. The Committee has adopted a written charter, which has been approved by the Board of Directors.

A copy of the charter is attached as Appendix A. During 2003, nine meetings were held. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Hardesty and Mr. Ruppert qualify as audit committee financial experts under the Listing Standards and applicable securities regulations.

Executive Committee The Executive Committee is composed of W. Drew Stabler, Chairman, Gilbert L. Hardesty, Hunter R. Hollar, Charles F. Mess, Robert L. Mitchell, Robert L. Orndorff, Jr. and Lewis R. Schumann. In addition to conducting board business between regular monthly meetings, the Executive Committee serves the function of a corporate governance committee. It provides oversight and guidance to the Board of Directors to ensure that the structure, policies, and processes of the Board and its committees facilitate the effective exercise of the Board's role in the governance of the Company. The committee reviews and evaluates the policies and practices with respect to the size, composition, independence and functioning of the Board and its committees and reflects those policies and practices in the Corporate Governance Policy and the written charter, which is available on the Investor Relations area of Bancorp's Website at www.sandyspringbank.com. During 2003, twelve meetings were held.

Human Resources (Compensation) Committee The Human Resources Committee is composed of Robert L. Mitchell, Chairman, John Chirtea, Susan D. Goff, Robert L. Orndorff, Jr., David E. Rippeon and W. Drew Stabler. Members of the committee are independent directors within the meaning of the Listing Standards. The Human Resources Committee recommends salaries and other compensation for executive officers, conducts an annual review of the salary budget, considers other compensation and benefit plans and makes recommendations to the Board, deals with matters of personnel policy and, with the Stock Option Committee, administers the 1999 and 1992 Stock Option Plans. During 2003, four meetings were held. In 2003, no Bancorp executive officer served as a member of the compensation committee of another entity that had an executive officer who served as a Bancorp director, and no Bancorp executive officer served as a director of another entity that had an executive officer serving on Bancorp's Human Resources Committee.

Nominating Committee The Nominating Committee is composed of Robert L. Orndorff, Jr., Chairman, Solomon Graham, Gilbert L. Hardesty, Charles F. Mess, David E. Rippeon, Craig A. Ruppert, and W. Drew Stabler. Members of the committee are independent directors within the meaning of the Listing Standards. The Nominating Committee makes recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to nominees for election as directors. In exercising its responsibilities, the Nominating Committee considers general, minimum criteria and particular goals and needs of Bancorp for additional competencies or characteristics. Each director of Bancorp is expected to exhibit the highest standards in exercising his or her duty of loyalty, care and commitment to all shareholders and to protect the values and legacy of the organization. Additionally, directors must manage themselves well in their personal deportment and display their ability to challenge the thinking of others and to influence them with constructive approaches. Directors must be able to read and act on financial information including, but not limited to, balance sheets, income statements and cash flow analyses. Finally, directors need to be able to apply informed judgment and long term, conceptual and systemic thinking to all decisions. The Board gathers input from all directors prior to the recruitment of a new director in order to form a collective picture of the competencies needed. The Board also values diversity and seeks to include women and members of minority groups as well as to maintain a range of thinking and personality styles. The Board of Directors of Bancorp has adopted a written charter for the Nominating Committee and a Corporate Governance Policy that also relates to director nominees and the nominating process. The Charter and Policy are available on the Investor Relations area of Bancorp's Website at www.sandyspringbank.com. The Nominating Committee encourages suggestions for nominees to the Board from the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman of the Board, other Directors, and from shareholders, and is responsible for the evaluation of such suggestions. Shareholders may communicate such suggestions for nominees to the Nominating Committee in care of the Corporate Secretary. Please see Shareholder Proposals and Communications on page 14. One meeting of the Nominating Committee was held during 2003.

The amount of indirect compensation in the form of personal benefits received in 2003 by Messrs. Hollar, Small, Langmead, Lewis, and Caceres did not exceed 10% of the annual compensation paid to each such executive officer.

Stock Option Plans. Bancorp maintains stock option plans to attract, retain, and motivate key officers of Bancorp and the Bank by providing them with a stake in the success of Bancorp as measured by the value of its shares.

The 1999 Stock Option Plan (the 1999 Option Plan), which was approved by the shareholders at the 1999 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, as amended at the 2002 Annual Meeting, authorizes the issuance of up to 1,600,000 shares of Common Stock, subject to certain adjustments for changes in Bancorp's capital structure. The 1999 Option Plan has a term of 10 years from its effective date (February 24, 1999) after which date no stock options may be granted. As of January 29, 2004, options for 682,100 shares were outstanding under the 1999 Option Plan. The 1999 Option Plan replaced a plan adopted in 1992 (the 1992 Option Plan), which was terminated except with respect to options that were outstanding on the plan s termination date. As of January 29, 2004, options for 115,200 shares were outstanding under the 1992 Option Plan. The 1999 Option Plan and the 1992 Option Plan are referred to below as the Option Plans.

The Option Plans provide for the grant of incentive options as defined in Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code. The 1999 Option Plan also provides for the grant of non-incentive options to directors, officers and non-officer employees on terms and conditions established by the Stock Option Committee, which administers the Option Plans. The Stock Option Committee is comprised of all disinterested (outside) directors (i.e., all directors other than Mr. Hollar).

Prior to 2000, options had been granted under the Option Plans only to key employees of Bancorp and its subsidiaries. In 2000, options were granted to key employees and also, for the first time, to the Company's non-employee directors. The options granted to the non-employee directors were non-incentive options. Under the Option Plans, the maximum option term is 10 years from the date of grant. Options granted under the Option Plans prior to 1996 were immediately exercisable upon grant. Options granted from 1996 through 2003 were exercisable as follows: one-third upon the date of grant, one-third upon the first anniversary of the date of grant, and one-third upon the second anniversary of the date of grant. The exercise price of a stock option may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. The exercise price of stock options must be paid for in full in cash or shares of Common Stock, or a combination of both. The Stock Option Committee has the discretion when making a grant of stock options under the 1999 Plan to impose restrictions on the shares to be purchased in exercise of such options.

The Committee also has the authority to cancel stock options outstanding under the 1992 Option Plan and the 1999 Option Plan with the consent of the optionee and to grant new options at a lower exercise price in the event that the fair market value of the Common Stock at any time prior to the exercise of the outstanding stock options falls below the exercise price of such option.

Option Grants in 2003

The following table contains information concerning the grant of stock options under the Option Plans to the Chief Executive Officer and each of the other Named Executive Officers. The Option Plans do not provide for the grant of stock appreciation rights.

Pension Plan Table

The table below shows estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement to persons in the specified remuneration and years-of-service categories. The benefits are provided on a 10-year certain and life basis and are not subject to deduction for Social Security or other offset amounts. The benefits shown are based on years of service after December 31, 2000 only and assume a constant salary for all future years. The benefit that the participant had earned as of December 31, 2000, is based on the final average salary formula in effect prior to January 1, 2001 and must be added to the benefit shown.

Earnings covered by the Pension Plan are total wages, including elective pre-tax contributions under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code, overtime pay, bonuses, and other cash compensation, which for the named executives correspond, in general, to the total of the amounts in the Salary and Bonus columns in the Summary Compensation Table, up to a total of $200,000. Retirement benefits equal the sum of two parts: (a) the benefit accrued as of December 31, 2000, based on the formula of 1.5% of highest five-year average salary as of that date times years of service as of that date, plus (b) 1.75% of each year's earnings after December 31, 2000 (1.75% of career average earnings). In addition, if the participant's age plus years of service as of January 1, 2001, equal at least 60 and the participant had at least 15 years of service at that date, he or she will receive an additional benefit of 1% of year 2000 earnings for each of the first 10 years of service completed after December 31, 2000. Early retirement is also permitted by the Pension Plan at age 55 after at least 10 years of service. As of February 25, 2004, Bancorp's executive officers shown in the compensation table had accumulated the following years of credited service toward retirement: Mr. Hollar 13 years, Mr. Small 13 years, Mr. Langmead 12 years, Mr. Lewis 8 years, and Mr. Caceres 5 years.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements. The Bank, upon the recommendation of the Human Resources Committee, has entered into individual Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements (SERA s) with certain executives of the Bank, including Mr. Hollar and each of the Named Executive Officers. The SERA s are designed to provide certain post-retirement benefits to enable a targeted level of covered retirement income to be met and to provide certain pre-retirement death and disability benefits should the executive die or become disabled prior to retirement age. The annual post-retirement deferred compensation benefit is designed to replace between 65% and 70% of the executive's projected final average pay at retirement date in conjunction with the Bank's Pension Plan and Deferred Profit Sharing Plan,

Social Security retirement benefits, and any benefits payable to the executive under a prior employer's pension plan. Normal retirement benefits are payable in equal monthly payments over 15 years or until the death of the executive, whichever is longer. Using a 70% income replacement target for Mr. Hollar, an annual amount of $591,000 per year has been projected to be paid over a 15-year period at age 65. Executives who reach age 60 with ten years of service are eligible for reduced benefits upon early retirement, payable over 15 years. Reduced benefits also are available in the event of disability, voluntary termination, or termination by the Bank without just cause. Benefits payable by reason of the death of the executive are based upon accrued retirement benefits or, if greater, the approximate value of payments received by the Bank under insurance coverage obtained by the Bank on the executive's life, and are payable over 15 years.

Change-in-Control Benefits. If within six months prior to, or two years after, a change-in-control, the Bank terminates the employment of an executive who is a party to a SERA or the executive voluntarily terminates employment for good reason, the executive is eligible for normal retirement or early retirement benefits, at his or her election. These benefits are payable beginning at the retirement (or early retirement) age if the change-in-control has been approved by a majority of the directors of the Bank who were directors prior to the change-in-control, or otherwise beginning in the month following the executive's termination.

Employment Agreements. On January 30, 1997, Bancorp and the Bank entered into an Employment Agreement (the Agreement) with Hunter R. Hollar (the Executive) which replaced an earlier agreement. That Agreement was in effect throughout 2002, but was replaced by a new agreement effective January 18, 2003, as described below under New Employment Agreement.

The Boards of Directors of Bancorp and the Bank believe that the 1997 Agreement and the new agreement assure fair treatment of the Executive in relation to his career with Bancorp by assuring him of some financial security. The agreements also protect the shareholders by encouraging the Executive to continue his attention to his duties without distraction in a potential merger or takeover circumstance and by helping to maintain the Executive's objectivity in considering any proposals to acquire Bancorp.

The Agreement had an initial term of three years, and is subject to automatic one-year extensions of such term on each January 30, provided that neither Bancorp nor the Executive had given written notice at least 60 days prior to the renewal date of intention not to renew. The Agreement provided for the payment of cash and other benefits to the Executive, including a fixed salary, reviewed annually and subject to increase or decrease at the Board of Directors discretion, which at year-end 2003 was $380,000. The Executive was entitled to participate in bonus and fringe benefits, incentive compensation, life insurance, medical, profit sharing and retirement plans, and to continued participation in a supplemental retirement arrangement. The Executive was entitled to reimbursement of reasonable business expenses, the use of an automobile (with reimbursement for expenses), and membership dues at a country club. With minor exceptions, the Agreement would have terminated, and there would have been no additional payments due under it, upon termination based upon death, retirement, or just cause (as defined) by Bancorp, or upon voluntary termination by the Executive without good reason (as defined). Upon termination for disability, the Executive would have been entitled to receive his salary through the term of the Agreement, reduced by payments under any disability plan maintained by Bancorp, plus regular employee benefits. Upon termination of the Executive without just cause by Bancorp, or with good reason by the Executive, the Executive would have been entitled to salary and bonuses for the remaining term of the Agreement, payable in a lump-sum based upon prior year compensation levels. The Executive was prohibited from conflicts of interest, and was required to maintain the confidentiality of nonpublic information regarding Bancorp and its customers. The Executive also was bound by a covenant not to compete and not to interfere with other employees of Bancorp if the Executive's employment were terminated for just cause, disability, or retirement or resigns without good reason.

Change-in-Control Benefits. In the event of a change-in-control of Bancorp, the Executive would have been entitled to payment of certain benefits. If within six months prior to, or two years after, a change-in-control, Bancorp had terminated the Executive's employment without good cause, or the Executive had voluntarily terminated employment for good reason (as defined in the Agreement), then Bancorp, or its successor, would have been required to make a lump-sum cash payment to the Executive equal to 2.99 times the sum of the Executive's annual salary at the highest rate in effect during the preceding twelve months and bonuses for the preceding calendar year. The Executive also would have been entitled to continued participation for a three-year period in certain Bancorp-sponsored health and welfare plans. These payments and benefits would have been limited, however, so as not to exceed the amount allowable as a deduction under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

New Employment Agreement. Effective January 18, 2003, Mr. Hollar entered into a new employment agreement with Bancorp and the Bank, which replaced the 1997 Agreement. The material terms of the new agreement are substantially the same as the 1997 Agreement, except for certain amendments in change-in-control benefits. Under the 1997 agreement, payments and benefits due by reason of a change-in-control were limited, as described above, so as not to exceed the amount allowable as a deduction under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. The new agreement removes that limitation, and requires Bancorp and the Bank to hold Mr. Hollar harmless from the federal excise tax assessable to him if payments and benefits exceed that limitation. As of December 31, 2003, if a change-in-control had occurred and the Executive had terminated employment with good reason or had been terminated from employment without just cause, then $1,476,244 would have been payable to the Executive under the change-in-control provisions of the new agreement. Bancorp does not believe that payment of this amount would have a material adverse effect on the financial or operating condition of Bancorp or the Bank.

Agreements with Other Named Executive Officers. In December 2002, each of the other Named Executive Officers entered into employment agreements with Bancorp. The material terms and conditions of each of these agreements are similar to those of the new Agreement entered by Mr. Hollar, except that (a) each of them is for an initial term of two years, and (b) the compensation and duties, and provisions relating to duties, are different in each agreement. The agreements call for the employment of Mr. Small, Mr. Langmead, Mr. Lewis and Mr. Caceres at Bancorp and or the Bank at minimum base salaries of $225,000, $206,700, $206,700 and $128,400, respectively. These new agreements replaced employment agreements entered by Mr. Small, Mr. Langmead, and Mr. Lewis in 1997, and a change-in-control agreement entered by Mr. Caceres in 1999 and amended in 2000. The material terms of the replaced employment agreements were substantially the same as the new employment agreements except for amendments to the change-in-control provisions consistent with those made in Mr. Hollar's new agreement and increases in minimum base salaries. The replaced change-in-control agreement provided for change-in-control benefits and continued benefit coverage on terms similar to those provided under the replaced employment agreements.

Report of the Human Resources Committee

It is the duty of the Human Resources Committee to review compensation policies applicable to executive officers; to consider the relationship of corporate performance to that compensation; to recommend salary and bonus levels and stock option grants for executive officers for consideration by the Boards of Directors of Bancorp and the Bank or their committees, as appropriate; and to administer various incentive plans of Bancorp and the Bank.

Under the compensation policy of Bancorp, which is endorsed by the Human Resources Committee, compensation is paid based on both the executive officers' performance and the performance of the entire company. In assessing the performance of Bancorp and the Bank for purposes of compensation decisions, the Human Resources Committee considers a number of factors, including salaries paid by financial services companies with characteristics similar to Bancorp's to officers with similar responsibilities, profits of Bancorp and the Bank during the past year relative to their profit plans, reports of federal regulatory examinations of Bancorp and the Bank, growth, business plans for future periods, regulatory capital levels, and changes in the value of Bancorp's stock. The Human Resources Committee assesses individual executive performance based upon the executive's responsibilities and the Committee's determination of the executive's contributions to the performance of Bancorp and the accomplishment of Bancorp's strategic goals. In assessing performance for purposes of establishing base salaries, the members of the Committee do not make use of a mechanical formula, but instead weigh the factors described above as they deem appropriate in the circumstances. The 2003 salary levels of Bancorp's executive officers were established consistent with this compensation policy.

Mr. Hollar became Chief Executive Officer of Bancorp and the Bank effective January 1, 1994. During 2003, the level of Mr. Hollar's annual salary was subject to the terms of an employment agreement with Bancorp and the Bank dated January 18, 2003. Under this agreement, Mr. Hollar's annual salary is reviewed annually and is subject to increase at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

The Committee conducted a review of executive officer base compensation in March 2003. Changes in base compensation for 2003 were effective on April 1, 2003. In its review, the Committee determined that the performance of Mr. Hollar was excellent, based upon the 2002 financial performance of Bancorp, including the growth in assets, income, and capitalization during 2002; the financial performance trends for 2002 and the preceding four years, which include growth in assets and net operating income in each year; the results of confidential regulatory examinations; Bancorp's planned levels of financial performance for 2003; Mr. Hollar's continued involvement in community affairs in the communities served by Bancorp; and a general level of satisfaction with the management of Bancorp and its subsidiaries. As a result of this review, which included a comparison of Mr. Hollar's compensation with compensation paid to officers of comparable institutions, Mr. Hollar's salary was increased by $30,000 to $380,000.

Executive officers of Bancorp and the Bank have been granted incentive stock options under Bancorp's Stock Option Plans. The purposes of the Stock Option Plans are to attract, retain, and motivate key officers of Bancorp and the Bank by providing them with a stake in the success of Bancorp as measured by the value of its shares. Options are granted at exercise prices equal to the fair market value of the shares on the dates of grant. The Stock Option Committee, which consists of the disinterested directors of Bancorp, has general responsibility for granting stock options to key employees and administering the plans. The Human Resources Committee recommends to the Stock Option Committee the recipients and the amounts and other terms of options to be granted. During 2003, incentive stock options for 46,275 shares were granted to Named Executive Officers at an exercise price of $38.91 per share, including options for 16,950 shares granted to Mr. Hollar, 10,325 shares granted to Mr. Small, 7,000 shares each granted to Mr. Langmead and Mr. Lewis, and 5,000 shares granted to Mr. Caceres.

The Human Resources Committee recommends to the Board of Directors the amount to be contributed each year to the Bank's Cash and Deferred Profit Sharing Plan. Under this Plan, each participant receives an allocation based upon the participant's compensation for the year. Each executive officer of Bancorp participates in the Plan. In 1995, the Human Resources Committee adopted a formula to establish the amount of aggregate contribution to the profit sharing plan. This formula uses measures of loan and deposit growth, profitability, asset quality, and productivity ratios compared with those measures for the prior year and target levels established for the Bank. For 2003, the Human Resources Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors of the Bank approved, an aggregate contribution of approximately $246,000 or .88% of annual compensation of eligible participants, which was based upon the results of the formula.

The Bank also awards cash bonuses to participants, including executive officers, based upon the performance of the Bank or business units, and annual bonuses for executive officers based solely on Bank performance, in each case using the formula described above. Performance bonuses of $120,055, $67,234, $53,978 and $53,978 were awarded to Mr. Hollar, Mr. Small, Mr. Langmead, and Mr. Lewis, respectively, in 2003. A performance bonus of $89,592 was awarded to Mr. Caceres based primarily on established sales goals and performance standards as stipulated in his employment agreement.

No member of the Human Resources Committee is a former or current officer or employee of Bancorp or the Bank.

STOCK PERFORMANCE COMPARISONS

The following graph and table show the cumulative total return on the Common Stock of Bancorp over the last five years, compared with the cumulative total return of a broad stock market index, the Standard and Poor's 500 Index (S&P 500), and a narrower index of Mid-Atlantic bank holding company peers with assets of from $1 billion to $3 billion. The cumulative total return on the stock or the index equals the total increase in value since December 31, 1998, assuming reinvestment of all dividends paid into the stock or the index. The graph and table were prepared assuming that $100 was invested on December 31, 1998, in the Common Stock and the securities included in the indexes.

TRANSACTIONS AND RELATIONSHIPS WITH MANAGEMENT

Bancorp and the Bank have had in the past, and expect to have in the future, banking transactions with directors and executive officers in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral on loans, as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with other persons. In the opinion of management, these transactions do not and will not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

Director Lewis R. Schumann is a partner in the Rockville, Maryland law firm of Miller, Miller and Canby, Chtd., which Bancorp and the Bank have retained during 2003 and expect to retain during the current year as corporate counsel. The law firm provides legal services on matters such as routine litigation, customer account forms and issues, Bank properties, and trust and estate administration.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS AND COMMUNICATIONS

From time to time, individual shareholders may wish to submit proposals that they believe should be voted upon by the shareholders. The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted regulations that govern the inclusion of such proposals in Bancorp's annual proxy materials. Shareholder proposals intended to be presented at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders may be eligible for inclusion in Bancorp's proxy materials for that Annual Meeting if received by Bancorp at its executive offices not later than November 15, 2004.

In addition, Bancorp's Bylaws require that to be properly brought before an annual meeting, shareholder proposals for new business must be delivered to or mailed and received by Bancorp not less than thirty nor more than ninety days prior to the date of the meeting; provided, however, that if less than forty-five days notice of the date of the meeting is given to shareholders, such notice by a shareholder must be received not later than the fifteenth day following the date on which notice of the date of the meeting was mailed to shareholders or two days before the date of the meeting, whichever is earlier. Each such notice given by a shareholder must set forth certain information specified in the Bylaws concerning the shareholder and the business proposed to be brought before the meeting.

Shareholders also may nominate candidates for director, provided that such nominations are made in writing and received by Bancorp at its executive offices not later than December 13, 2004. The nomination should be sent to the attention of Bancorp's Corporate Secretary and must include, concerning the director nominee, the following information: full name, age, date of birth, educational background and business experience, including positions held for at least the preceding five years, home and office addresses and telephone numbers, and a signed representation to timely provide all information requested by Bancorp for preparation of its disclosures regarding the solicitation of proxies for election of directors. The name of each such candidate for director must be placed in nomination at the Annual Meeting by a shareholder present in person. The nominee must also be present in person at the Annual Meeting. A vote for a person who has not been duly nominated pursuant to these requirements will be deemed to be void.

Bancorp's shareholders may communicate with the Board of Directors or any individual Director by addressing correspondence to the board or such director in care of the Corporate Secretary at Bancorp's main office by mail, courier, or facsimile or by e-mail through the Company's contact us feature of the Investor Relations area of its Website at www.sandyspringbank.com.

The Board of Directors believes it is important for all directors to attend the annual meeting of shareholders in order to show their support for Bancorp and to provide an opportunity for shareholders to express any concerns to them. Bancorp has adopted a policy that all directors should attend each annual meeting of shareholders unless they are unable to attend by reason of personal or family illness or pressing matters.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(A) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires Bancorp's executive officers and directors, and any persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of Bancorp's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4, and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Executive officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by applicable regulations to furnish Bancorp with copies of all Forms 3, 4, and 5 they file.

Based solely on Bancorp's review of the copies of such forms it has received, Bancorp believes that all its executive officers and directors have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them with respect to transactions during 2003.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, was engaged as Bancorp's independent auditors on April 7, 2003. The engagement of McGladrey & Pullen was recommended by Bancorp's Audit Committee and approved by Bancorp's Board of Directors. Representatives of McGladrey & Pullen will be present at the Annual Meeting and will be given the opportunity to make a statement, if they desire, and be available to respond to appropriate questions.

On April 7, 2003, Bancorp dismissed Stegman & Company (Stegman), which had previously served as independent auditors for Bancorp. The reports of Stegman on the consolidated financial statements of Bancorp as of and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. The change in independent auditors was recommended by Bancorp's Audit Committee and approved by Bancorp's Board of Directors. In connection with its audit for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, and in the interim period from January 1, 2003 through April 7, 2003, there were no disagreements with Stegman on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Stegman, would have caused Stegman to make reference to such disagreements in its report on the consolidated financial statements for such years.

AUDIT AND NON-AUDIT FEES

The following table presents fees for professional audit services rendered by McGladrey & Pullen, LLP for the audit of the annual financial statements of Sandy Spring Bancorp, Inc., and subsidiaries for the year ended December 31, 2003, and fees billed for other services rendered by McGladrey & Pullen, LLP and RSM McGladrey, Inc. There is an exception for preapproval of non-audit services if the aggregate amount of all such non-audit services provided to Bancorp constitutes not more than 5 percent of the total amount of revenues paid by it to its independent auditors during the fiscal year in which the non-audit services are provided; such services were not recognized by Bancorp at the time of the engagement to be non-audit services; and the non-audit services are promptly brought to the attention of the committee and approved prior to the completion of the audit by the committee or by one or more members of the committee to whom authority to grant such approval has been delegated by the committee. All audit services and permitted non-audit services to be performed by Bancorp's independent auditor have been preapproved by the Audit Committee as required by Securities and Exchange Commission regulations and the Audit Committee's charter without exception.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Bancorp's Audit Committee is appointed by the Board of Directors to assist the Board in monitoring the integrity of the financial statements, compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, and the independence and performance of internal and external auditors. The committee (1) has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements included in Bancorp's 2003 Annual Report and Form 10-K with management; (2) has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards 61; and (3) has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and discussed independence with the independent auditors. Based upon this review, discussion, disclosures, and materials described in (1) through (3), the committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K. The committee also has considered whether the amount and nature of non-audit services rendered by the independent accountant are consistent with its independence.
