Subject: Intervoice statement on Convergys 2Q 2008 Financial Results

Earlier today, Convergys (NYSE: CVG) announced earnings for 2Q 2008.

According to Dave Dougherty, Convergys President and CEO, Convergys was able to grow earnings per share in the second quarter in the face of a challenging economic environment. While I'm pleased with the performance of Information Management and HR Management in the quarter, our Customer Management results need to be better. We have put in place new leadership and we are taking decisive action to expand and improve Customer Management revenue and margin trends in the future. Our recently announced acquisition of Intervoice will help us build a leadership position in Relationship Management solutions. We remain committed to aligning the company's assets and capital to our Relationship Management strategy and increasing shareholder value in the process.

A copy of the news release can be found at www.convergys.com.

Despite recent macroeconomic conditions, Convergys' 2Q results are solid. The executive management and board of directors for both companies remain committed to the pending merger for all the reasons that were proposed. It is about growth not consolidation and we expect it to create significant value for our shareholders, new opportunities for our employees, and enhanced ways to drive our customers' success.

Please remember we operate today as separate companies and it is important for all employees to remain focused on delivering a strong Q2 for Intervoice. We will maintain our commitment to regular communications, or as new or significant information becomes available. As always, we encourage you to speak to your manager or HR representative for any additional questions you might have.

Thank you.

Bob Ritchey
