Item 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On February 16, 2006, the Board of Directors of Brady Corporation approved an amendment to the Brady Corporation Restoration Plan, which amendment became effective upon Board approval. The amended plan changed the lump sum distribution requirement to allow executives to determine their own distribution election and eliminated the provision allowing accelerated distributions. This description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Brady Corporation Restoration Plan filed as Exhibit 99 to this report, which is incorporated

On February 16, 2006, the Board of Directors of Brady Corporation approved an amendment to the Brady Corporation Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Executive Plan"), which amendment became effective upon Board approval. The revisions to the Executive Plan were made, in part, to comply with new regulations under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and to simplify corporate accounting. They include revised deferred and distribution rules, eliminate an early distribution option, provide for separation of investment elections into either Brady Corporation stock or other mutual funds with no funds able to be transferred between the two, and a stipulation that distributions from the Brady Corporation stock accounts will be made in Brady Corporation stock only and not in cash. This description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Executive Plan filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report, which is incorporated herein by reference.

On February 16, 2006, the Board of Directors of Brady Corporation approved an amendment to the Brady Corporation Director's Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Director's Plan"), which amendment became effective upon Board approval. The revisions to the Director's Plan were made, in part, to comply with new regulations under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and to simplify corporate accounting. They include revised deferred and distribution rules, separation of investment elections into either Brady Corporation stock or other mutual funds with no funds able to be transferred between the two (except prior to May 1, 2006, certain amounts may be transferred from the Brady stock account), and a stipulation that distributions from the Brady Corporation stock accounts will be made in Brady Corporation stock only and not in cash. This description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Director's Plan filed as Exhibit 99.2 to this report, which is incorporated herein by reference.
