ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On October 21, 2006, Old National Bancorp (ONB) and St. Joseph Capital Corporation (St. Joseph) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that ONB will acquire all of the outstanding shares of St. Joseph through a merger of an acquisition subsidiary of ONB into St. Joseph (the Merger). The Merger Agreement also provides that St. Joseph s banking subsidiary, St. Joseph Capital Bank, will merge with and into ONB s banking subsidiary, Old National Bank, with Old National Bank being the surviving corporation.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the board of directors of each of St. Joseph and ONB, each issued and outstanding share of the common stock of St. Joseph will be converted into the right to receive $40.00 in cash. Unexercised stock options with respect to St. Joseph stock will be entitled to be settled for a cash payment with the exception of options covering approximately 22,340 shares of St. Joseph common stock, which are the unvested outstanding options held by certain executives of St. Joseph, that will be converted into stock options for ONB shares. The Merger has an aggregate transaction value of approximately $75.6 million (including the anticipated tax benefits to accrue in connection with the exercise or settlement of the St. Joseph stock options in the Merger).

St. Joseph and ONB have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including their agreements to use their best efforts to consummate the Merger and to take all steps necessary to obtain required governmental and third-party consents. In addition, St. Joseph has agreed with ONB to conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger and not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during this period. Further, St. Joseph has agreed to cause a meeting of its stockholders to be held to consider approval of the Merger and, subject to certain exceptions, not to solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or enter into discussions concerning or provide confidential information in connection with alternative business combination transactions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including approval of the holders of St. Joseph s common stock, obtaining required governmental and third-party consents, the continued accuracy of the parties representations and warranties (generally subject to a materiality standard), material performance of all covenants and satisfaction by St. Joseph of a minimum closing time stockholder s equity condition (as adjusted for certain items specified by the Merger Agreement). The parties anticipate that the Merger, assuming all approvals are received on a timely basis and all other conditions are satisfied or waived, will be closed during the first quarter of 2007.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both ONB and St. Joseph, including the ability for either St. Joseph or ONB to terminate, with certain exceptions, the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated by April 30, 2007.

Table of Contents

In connection with the Merger Agreement, those directors of St. Joseph who own St. Joseph stock executed and delivered a voting agreement with ONB (the Voting Agreement) by which they agreed to vote their personal shares in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger at the St. Joseph stockholders meeting and agreed not to transfer their personal shares prior to closing of the Merger.

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement and Voting Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the respective agreements filed as exhibits hereto, each of which is incorporated into this report by reference.

The Merger Agreement, which has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms, contains representations and warranties of each of ONB and St. Joseph. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what a stockholder might view as material, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Investors should read the Merger Agreement together with the other information concerning ONB and St. Joseph that each company publicly files in reports and statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC).

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Statements contained herein and in the attached exhibits regarding ONB's outlook or expectations for earnings, revenues, expenses and/or other statements of belief regarding matters affecting ONB, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, outlook, estimate, forecast, project and other words and expressions.

Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties, which change over time. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made.
