Item 1.01 Amendment to a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 20, 2006, Snap-on Incorporated (Snap-on) and ProQuest Company (ProQuest) entered into a Stock and Asset Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) pursuant to which Snap-on will acquire the ProQuest Business Solutions business (PQBS) of ProQuest for approximately $480 million in cash plus the assumption of $19 million of debt. A copy of the Purchase Agreement was filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the Form 8-K filed by Snap-on on October 23, 2006.

Under the terms of the original Purchase Agreement, if ProQuest received an unsolicited proposal to purchase PQBS that it determined was reasonably likely to lead to an agreement that was more favorable than the terms of the agreement with Snap-on (a Superior Proposal), ProQuest would be permitted to negotiate terms with the proposing party, potentially leading to the payment to Snap-on of a $10.0 million break-up fee. ProQuest notified Snap-on that it had received a Superior Proposal and on November 1, 2006, Snap-on and ProQuest agreed to amend the original Purchase Agreement to eliminate the provisions which permitted ProQuest to consider additional proposals for the sale of PQBS in exchange for a new purchase price of $508 million in cash plus the assumption of approximately $19 million of debt. Snap-on still expects the transaction to close by the end of November, 2006.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking information (within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) that is subject to risks and uncertainties. These statements include the use of words such as anticipates, estimates, expects, projects, intends, plans, believes and other words and terms of similar meaning in connection with any discussion of future events.

The forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause performance or actual results to differ materially from those expressed herein. Such risks and uncertainties include, among other things, Snap-on's and ProQuest's ability to complete all conditions to closing, including receipt of all regulatory approvals, and Snap-on's ability to successfully integrate the PQBS business.

The information contained in this Form 8-K is as of the date indicated. Snap-on does not assume any obligation to update any forward-looking statements contained in this Form 8-K as a result of new information or future events or developments.
