New Employment Agreement with Wayne Gattinella

As previously announced, Wayne Gattinella, who has been serving as President of our WebMD Health segment, is now also the co-CEO of WebMD Health. Our WebMD, Inc. subsidiary and Wayne Gattinella have entered into an employment agreement, dated as of April 28, 2005, which supersedes the employment agreement, dated August 20, 2001, between them. Under the new employment agreement and subject to its terms and conditions:

Mr. Gattinella receives an annual base salary of $560,000 and will be eligible to earn a bonus of up to 100% of his base salary. Achievement of 50% of that bonus will be based upon the attainment of annual financial goals, and achievement of the remaining 50% will be based upon other annual performance goals.

In the event an initial public offering of WebMD Health equity is consummated, WebMD Health would recommend to its Compensation Committee that, upon consummation, Mr. Gattinella be granted 100,000 shares of restricted WebMD Health common stock and options to purchase 400,000 shares of WebMD Health common stock, such numbers to be adjusted, up or down, to the extent the capitalization of WebMD Health is more or less than 100,000,000 shares. The per share exercise price of the options would be the fair market value of the common stock on the IPO date, as determined by the Compensation Committee. The WebMD Health restricted stock and options would vest in equal installments over four years upon each anniversary of the grant date.

In the event of a change of control of WebMD Health (as defined in the employment agreement), the unvested portion of the WebMD Health options would continue to vest until the later of (i) two years from the date of grant and (ii) the next scheduled vesting date following the change of control. The continued vesting would apply only if Mr. Gattinella remains employed until six months following such change of control or is terminated by WebMD Health's successor without cause or he resigns for good reason during such six-month period.

In the event of the termination of Mr. Gattinella's employment, prior to April 30, 2009, by WebMD, Inc. without cause or by Mr. Gattinella for good reason (as those terms are defined in the employment agreement) he would be entitled to continue to receive his base salary for one year from the date of termination and to receive healthcare coverage until the earlier of one year following his termination and the date upon which he receives comparable coverage under another plan. In addition, the unvested portion of the options to purchase 600,000 shares of WebMD Corporation common stock granted to Mr. Gattinella at the inception of his employment would remain outstanding and continue to vest as if he remained in the employ of WebMD, Inc. until the first anniversary of the date of termination. In the event that a termination of Mr. Gattinella's employment by WebMD, Inc. without cause or by Mr. Gattinella for good reason occurs before the fourth anniversary of the grant of the WebMD Health option described above, 25% of the WebMD Health options would continue to vest through the next vesting date following the date of termination.

Mr. Gattinella is also a party to a related agreement with WebMD, Inc. that contains confidentiality obligations that survive indefinitely and non-solicitation and non-competition obligations that end on the first anniversary of the date his employment has ceased.

The above summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the new employment agreement itself, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report and which is incorporated by reference in this Item 1.01 in its entirety.

Employment Agreement with David Gang

As previously announced, David Gang will be joining our WebMD Health segment as its co-CEO and Chief Operating Officer. Our WebMD, Inc. subsidiary and David Gang have entered into an employment agreement, dated as of April 28, 2005. Under that employment agreement and subject to its terms and conditions:

Mr. Gang will receive an annual base salary of $560,000 and will be eligible to earn a bonus of up to 100% of his base salary. Achievement of 50% of that bonus will be based upon the attainment of annual financial goals, and achievement of the remaining 50% will be based upon other annual performance goals.

As an inducement to enter into the employ of WebMD, Mr. Gang will receive a one-time bonus payment of $500,000. In addition, he will be entitled to a reimbursement of relocation expenses.

Mr. Gang will be granted, on the first day of his employment, options to purchase 400,000 shares of WebMD Corporation common stock. The exercise price will be the closing price of the common stock of WebMD Corporation on such date. The options will vest in equal annual installments over four years upon each anniversary of the grant date. In the event WebMD, Inc. is no longer a subsidiary of WebMD Corporation, the unvested portion of the options would terminate while the vested portion would remain outstanding in accordance with its terms. If such an event occurs within the first twelve months from the grant date, the unvested portion would continue to vest through the first scheduled vesting date.

Mr. Gang will also receive 100,000 shares of restricted common stock of WebMD Corporation on the first day of his employment. The restricted stock will vest in equal annual installments over four years upon each anniversary of the grant date. In the event WebMD, Inc. is no longer a subsidiary of WebMD Corporation, the restricted stock not yet vested at that time would be forfeited.

In the event an initial public offering of WebMD Health equity is consummated, WebMD Health would recommend to its Compensation Committee that, upon consummation, Mr. Gang be granted 100,000 shares of restricted WebMD Health common stock and options to purchase 400,000 shares of WebMD Health common stock, such numbers to be adjusted, up or down, to the extent the capitalization of WebMD Health is more or less than 100,000,000 shares. The per share exercise price of the options would be the fair market value of the common stock on the IPO date, as determined by the Compensation Committee. The WebMD Health restricted stock and options would vest in equal installments over four years upon each anniversary of the grant date.

In the event of a change of control of WebMD Health (as defined in Mr. Gang's employment agreement), the unvested portion of the WebMD Health options would continue to vest until the later of (i) two years from the date of grant and (ii) the next scheduled vesting date following the change of control. The continued vesting would apply only if Mr. Gang remains employed until six months following such change of control or is terminated by WebMD Health's successor without cause or he resigns for good reason during such six-month period.

In the event of the termination of Mr. Gang's employment, prior to the fourth anniversary of the start date, by WebMD, Inc. without cause or by Mr. Gang for good reason (as those terms are defined in Mr. Gang's employment agreement) he would be entitled to continue to receive his base salary for one year from the date of termination and to receive health coverage until the earlier of one year following his termination and the date upon which he receives comparable coverage under another plan. In the event that a termination of Mr. Gang's employment by WebMD, Inc. without cause or by Mr. Gang for good reason occurs before the fourth anniversary of the first date of Mr. Gang's employment, 25% of the options to purchase WebMD Corporation common stock described above and 25% of the options to purchase WebMD Health common stock described above would continue to vest through the next vesting date following the date of termination.

Table of Contents

In connection with Mr. Gang's employment with WebMD, Inc., he will enter into a related agreement that contains confidentiality obligations that survive indefinitely and non-solicitation and non-competition obligations that end on the first anniversary of the date employment has ceased.

The above summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the letter agreement itself, a copy of which was filed as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report and which is incorporated by reference in this Item 1.01 in its entirety.
