PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

The enclosed proxy card is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Fidelity Southern Corporation (Fidelity or Company) in connection with the Special Meeting of Shareholders (Special Meeting) to be held at One Securities Centre, 3490 Piedmont Road NE, Suite 1550, Atlanta, Georgia 30305, on [DAY], February ___, 2009, at 3:00 p.m., and at any adjournment thereof. This proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card are being mailed to our shareholders on or about January 7, 2009.

Your vote is very important. For this reason, the Board of Directors is requesting that you permit your common stock to be represented at the Special Meeting by the individuals named on the enclosed proxy card. If no specification is made, the proxies will be voted for approval of the reservation of the Warrant Shares and for the Adjournment Proposal, and upon such other matters as may properly come before the Special Meeting or any adjournment thereof, according to the best judgment of the Proxy Committee elected by the Board of Directors and composed of Edward G. Bowen, M.D. and H. Palmer Proctor, Jr.

The presence of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the Special Meeting, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum. A majority of the votes cast at the Special Meeting is required to approve the reservation of the Warrant Shares, the Adjournment Proposal and any other proposals, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law.

Who Can Vote

Each shareholder of record at the close of business on January 7, 2009, is entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Each share of Fidelity common stock entitles the shareholder to one vote on any matter coming before a meeting of Fidelity shareholders. On January 7, 2009, the record date for the Special Meeting, there were ___shares of Fidelity common stock outstanding and eligible to vote. The enclosed proxy card shows the number of shares that you are entitled to vote. If you own any shares in Fidelity's Direct Stock Purchase and Dividend Reinvestment Plan or the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the enclosed proxy card includes the number of shares you had in that plan on the record date for the Special Meeting, as well as the number of shares registered in your name.

How Do I Cast My Vote

If you are the record owner of your shares (either in certificates, book-entry, or in the Direct Stock Purchase and Dividend Reinvestment Plan or the Employee Stock Purchase Plan), you have the following voting options:

By mail by completing, signing, dating, and returning the enclosed proxy card; or

By attending the Special Meeting and voting your shares in person.

Even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting, we encourage you to vote your shares by proxy.

Table of Contents

If you provide specific voting instructions, your shares will be voted as instructed. If you hold shares in your name and sign and return a proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, your shares will be voted for the proposals at the Special Meeting. If you hold your shares in your name and do not return a valid proxy or vote in person at the Special Meeting, your shares will not be voted.

If you hold your shares in a brokerage account or through another nominee, your broker or nominee (the record holder) is forwarding these proxy materials to you along with voting instructions. The record holder is required to vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give the record holder instructions, the record holder may have the authority to vote your shares in its discretion if permitted by the exchange or other organization of which the record holder is a member. Although most brokers and nominees offer telephone voting, availability and specific procedures will depend on their voting arrangements. Please follow their directions carefully.

Every vote is important! Please vote your shares promptly.

What Am I Voting On

There are two proposals that will be presented for your consideration at the Special Meeting:

Proposal One. To approve the reservation of 2,266,457 shares of Fidelity common stock for issuance upon the exercise of that certain Warrant dated December 19, 2008, issued in connection with Fidelity's participation on the U.S. Treasury Capital Purchase Program, which number of shares may be modified pursuant to the terms of the Warrant.

Proposal Two. To grant management of Fidelity Southern Corporation authority to adjourn the Special Meeting to another time and date in order to allow the Board of Directors to solicit additional proxies or attendance at the Special Meeting.

Other business may be addressed at the Special Meeting if it properly comes before the Special Meeting. However, we are not aware of any such other business.

Can I Change My Vote

If you are a record owner, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before voting begins on any proposal. You may do this by either giving our Corporate Secretary written notice of your revocation, submitting a new signed proxy card with a later date, or by attending the Special Meeting and electing to vote in person. However, your attendance at the Special Meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy; you must specifically revoke your proxy. If your shares are held in nominee or street name, you should contact your broker or other nominee regarding the revocation of proxies.

What Quorum is Needed to Hold the Special Meeting

In order to conduct the Special Meeting, a majority of Fidelity shares entitled to vote must be present in person or by proxy. This is called a quorum. If you return a valid proxy or elect to vote in person at the Special Meeting, you will be considered part of the quorum.

Abstentions, withheld votes, and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares represented in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting in determining whether the quorum requirement is satisfied. Abstentions, withheld votes, and broker non-votes will not, however, be counted for purposes of determining whether any proposal has received sufficient votes for approval.

What Vote is Needed

For each proposal to be presented at the meeting, the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast at the Special Meeting is needed for approval of such proposal.

Table of Contents

What is our Voting Recommendation

Our Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the reservation of the Warrant Shares and the Adjournment Proposal.

Proxy cards that are timely signed, dated, and returned but do not contain instructions on how you want to vote will be voted in accordance with our Board of Directors' recommendation.

Proxy Solicitation

Fidelity will bear the expenses of soliciting proxies, including the cost of preparing and mailing this proxy statement. Fidelity will furnish solicitation materials to banks, brokerage houses, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries for forwarding to beneficial owners of shares of the common stock and normal handling charges may be paid for such forwarding service. In addition, directors, officers, and other employees of Fidelity who will not be additionally compensated therefor may solicit proxies in person or by telephone, email, or other means.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table reflects the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned as of December 31, 2008, by (1) each person known to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the common stock of Fidelity, (2) each director, (3) each Named Executive Officer (as defined in Item 402(a)(3) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), and (4) all directors and executive officers as a group.

Unless otherwise indicated, each of the named individuals and each member of the group has sole or shared voting power or investment power with respect to the shares shown. Unless otherwise indicated, the address of each person or entity named in the table is c/o Fidelity Southern Corporation, 3490 Piedmont Road NE, Suite 1550, Atlanta, Georgia 30305.

The number of shares beneficially owned by each shareholder is determined under rules promulgated by the SEC. The information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under these rules, beneficial ownership includes any shares as to which the individual has sole or shared voting power or investment power and any shares as to which the individual has the right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days of December 31, 2008, through the exercise of any stock option, warrant, or other right. The inclusion in the following table of those shares, however, does not constitute an admission that the named shareholder is a direct or indirect beneficial owner of those shares.

PROPOSAL ONERESERVATION OF THE WARRANT SHARES

Background TARP Capital Purchase Program

On October 14, 2008, the U.S. Department of the Treasury (the Treasury) announced the Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP) Capital Purchase Program (the Program). The Program was instituted by the Treasury pursuant to the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 (EESA), which provides up to $700 billion to the Treasury to, among other things, take equity positions in financial institutions. The Program is intended to encourage U.S. financial institutions to build capital and thereby increase the flow of financing to businesses and consumers.

On December 19, 2008, as part of the Program, Fidelity entered into a Letter Agreement (Letter Agreement) and a Securities Purchase Agreement Standard Terms attached thereto (Securities Purchase Agreement) with the Treasury, pursuant to which Fidelity agreed to issue and sell, and the Treasury agreed to purchase (1) 48,200 shares (the Preferred Shares) of Fidelity s Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, having a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share, and (2) a ten-year warrant (the Warrant) to purchase up to 2,266,457 shares of the Company s common stock, no par value (Common Stock), at an exercise price of $3.19 per share, for an aggregate purchase price of $48.2 million in cash.

Table of Contents

The Preferred shares will qualify as Tier 1 capital for regulatory purposes and rank senior to the Common Stock. The Preferred Shares pay a cumulative dividend rate of 5% per annum for the first five years they are outstanding and thereafter at a rate of 9% per annum. The Preferred Shares are non-voting but have voting rights on matters that could adversely affect the Preferred Shares. After three years, the Preferred Shares are callable at 100% of the issue price plus any accrued and unpaid dividends. Prior to the end of three years, the Preferred Shares may be redeemed with the proceeds from a qualifying equity offering of any Tier 1 perpetual preferred or common stock. The Treasury's consent is required for any increase in common dividends per share or certain repurchases of common stock until December 19, 2011, unless prior to such third anniversary either the Preferred Stock issued to the Treasury is redeemed in whole or the Treasury has transferred all of the Preferred Stock to third parties.

The Warrant issued to the Treasury in connection with Fidelity's participation in the Program has an exercise price of $3.19 per share, which was equal to the market price of our Common Stock at the time of preliminary approval of our participation in the Program, calculated on a 20-trading day trailing average. The amount of earnings per share dilution resulting from the issuance of the Warrant will depend upon the value of our Common Stock during the period that the Warrant is outstanding. The Warrant requires that, subject to receipt of necessary shareholder approvals, Fidelity will at all times reserve and keep available, out of its authorized but unissued Common Stock, solely for the purpose of providing for the exercise of the Warrant, the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock then issuable upon exercise of the Warrant at any time. Additionally, the Warrant requires that Fidelity list and maintain the listing of the Warrant Shares on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, which is the exchange on which Fidelity's Common Stock is listed.

Additionally, in connection with Fidelity's participation with the Program, Fidelity adopted the Treasury's standards for executive compensation and corporate governance set forth in Section 111 of EESA for the period during which the Treasury holds equity issued under the Program. To ensure compliance with these standards, within the time frame prescribed by the Program, Fidelity has entered into agreements with its senior executive officers who would be subject to the standards. The executive officers have agreed to, among other things, (1) clawback provisions relating to the repayment by the executive officers of incentive compensation based on materially inaccurate financial statements or performance metrics and (2) limitations on certain post-termination parachute payments.

The Letter Agreement, including the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Warrant, and the form of agreement with our senior executive officers were filed as exhibits to our Form 8-K, filed on December 19, 2008, with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

See Appendix A for the Summary of Senior Preferred Terms and Summary of Warrant Terms as published by the Treasury.

Approval of the Reservation of the Warrant Shares

Our shares of Common Stock are listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market. The Warrant requires that Fidelity list and maintain the listing of the Warrant Shares that are issuable upon the exercise of the Warrant on this exchange. Under NASDAQ's listing requirements, our shareholders must approve the issuance of the Warrant Shares prior to listing because the number of Warrant Shares exceeds 20% of our outstanding shares of Common Stock prior to the issuance of the Warrant Shares, and the exercise price of the Warrant is less than the greater of the book value or market value of our Common Stock. Accordingly, we are seeking shareholder approval of the reservation of 2,266,457 shares of Common Stock for issuance upon the exercise of the Warrant, which number of shares may be revised pursuant to the terms of the Warrant.

Failure to Receive Shareholder Approval

Under the terms of the Warrant, if at any time (1) following the date on which the shares of Common Stock of Fidelity are no longer listed or admitted to trading on a national securities exchange (other than in connection with any Business Combination, as defined in the Warrant) or (ii) following the 18-month anniversary of the date the Warrant was issued and until the receipt of the shareholder approval allowing the full exercise of the Warrant, the Treasury may cause Fidelity to exchange all or a portion of the Warrant for an economic interest (to be determined by the Treasury after consultation with Fidelity) of Fidelity classified as permanent equity under U.S. GAAP having a value equal to the fair market value of the portion of the Warrant so exchanged.

Table of Contents

Use of Proceeds

Since it is uncertain when or if the Treasury or its successors in interest to the Warrant will exercise the Warrant, we are unable to determine what our use of proceeds from such exercise will or would be.

The Board recommends that Shareholders vote in favor of the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal.

PROPOSAL 2: TO AUTHORIZE MANAGEMENT TO ADJOURN
THE SPECIAL MEETING IF NECESSARY

If the number of shares of common stock present or represented at the Special Meeting and voting in favor of the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal is insufficient to approve that proposal, then Fidelity's management may move to adjourn the Special Meeting in order to enable the Board to continue to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal. In that event, you will be asked only to vote upon the Adjournment Proposal but not the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal.

In this Adjournment Proposal, the Board is asking you to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Board to vote in favor of adjourning the Special Meeting and any later adjournment under the circumstances described above. If the shareholders approve this Adjournment Proposal, then management could adjourn the Special Meeting (and any adjourned section of the Special Meeting) to use the additional time to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal, including the solicitation of proxies from shareholders that have previously voted against the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal. Among other things, approval of the Adjournment Proposal could mean that even if proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal have been received, management could adjourn the Special Meeting without a vote on the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to vote in favor of the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal.

The Board believes that if the number of shares of common stock present or represented at the Special Meeting and voting in favor of the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal is insufficient to approve that proposal, it is in the best interests of the Fidelity's shareholders to enable the Board, for a limited period of time, to continue to seek to obtain a sufficient number of additional votes to approve the Reservation of the Warrant Shares Proposal.

The Board recommends that shareholders vote FOR the Adjournment Proposal.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Shareholder proposals intended to be included in our proxy statement and voted on at the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must be received at our offices at 3490 Piedmont Road NE, Suite 1550, Atlanta, Georgia 30305, Attention: Corporate Secretary, on or before November 21, 2008. In addition, there shall be no share repurchases of junior preferred shares, preferred shares ranking pari passu with the Senior Preferred, or common shares if prohibited as described above under "Restrictions on Dividends".

Transferability: The Senior Preferred will not be subject to any contractual restrictions on transfer. The QFI will file a shelf registration statement covering the Senior Preferred as promptly as practicable after the date of this investment and, if necessary, shall take all action required to cause such shelf registration statement to be declared effective as soon as possible. The QFI will also grant to the UST piggyback registration rights for the Senior Preferred and will take such other steps as may be reasonably requested to facilitate the transfer of the Senior Preferred including, if requested by the UST, using reasonable efforts to list the Senior Preferred on a national securities exchange. Voting: The UST will agree not to exercise voting power with respect to any shares of common stock of the QFI issued to it upon exercise of the warrants.

Reduction: In the event that the QFI has received aggregate gross proceeds of not less than 100% of the issue price of the Senior Preferred from one or more Qualified Equity Offerings on or prior to December 31, 2009, the number of shares of common stock underlying the warrants then held by the UST shall be reduced by a number of shares equal to the product of (i) the number of shares originally underlying the warrants (taking into account all adjustments) and (ii) 0.5.
