Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 1, 2007, Cooper Tire & Rubber Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Indemnification Agreement (the Indemnification Agreement) with Roy V. Armes, the Company's President, Chief Executive Officer and Director (the Indemnitee). The Indemnification Agreement is substantially the same as the indemnification agreements into which the Company entered on December 18, 2006 with its other Directors and certain executive officers. The Company previously reported its entry into indemnification agreements with its other Directors and certain executive officers on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on December 20, 2006 (the December 2006 8-K).

Generally, the Indemnification Agreement provides that the Company will indemnify the Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted or required by Delaware law. The Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification for any claim initiated by the Indemnitee against the Company or any Company director or officer unless the Company has joined in or consented to such claim. The Company will advance certain expenses to the Indemnitee prior to the final disposition of certain claims against the Indemnitee only if the Indemnitee executes and delivers to the Company an undertaking to repay any advanced amounts if he is ultimately determined to be not entitled to indemnification under the Indemnification Agreement. In certain situations, the Indemnitee will be required to meet certain statutory standards of conduct in order to be indemnified by the Company under the Indemnification Agreement. Pursuant to the Indemnification Agreement, the Company has agreed to refrain from amending its Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws to diminish the Indemnitee's rights to indemnification provided by the Indemnification Agreement or other indemnity provisions. The Company has also agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain a minimum level of directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for the Directors and officers of the Company.

The summary of the Indemnification Agreement described above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form Indemnification Agreement for Directors and Officers filed by the Company as Exhibit 10.1 to the December 2006 8-K, which form Indemnification Agreement for Directors and Officers is incorporated herein by reference.
