Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits

On January 11, 2005 UCN, Inc. (the Company) filed a Report on Form 8-K reporting that on January 5, 2005 UCN closed the acquisition of MyACD, Inc., a Utah corporation. In the transaction UCN purchased all of the outstanding capital stock of MyACD from its stockholders, Michael L. Shelton and David O. Peterson. MyACD develops and distributes telephony software solutions for call center traffic management and related functions that UCN offers to customers over its VoIP network acquired earlier in 2003. This amendment is filed to present the financial statements required for the report.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS REPORT

To the Stockholders and Board of Directors of MyACD, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of MyACD, Inc. (a Utah corporation) as of December 31, 2004, and the related statements of income, retained earnings, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of MyACD, Inc. as of December 31, 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

MyACD, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2004

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of MyACD, Inc., (the Company) is presented to assist in understanding the Company s financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company s management, who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Nature of Activities

MyACD, Inc. was incorporated under the laws of the State of Utah in January 2001. The Company has developed a call forwarding system that assists its user to route calls more effectively throughout there network of agents.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under those provisions, the Company generally does not pay Federal or State Corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the stockholders are liable for individual income taxes on their respective shares of the Company s taxable income. Accordingly, no provision has been made for Federal or State income tax in the accompanying financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Estimates

Generally accepted accounting principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect assets and liabilities, contingent assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Notes (continued)

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINEDCONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

In October 2003 UCN, Inc. acquired the exclusive right to sell and manage the enhanced telecommunications functions of MyACD, Inc., with a one-year option to purchase all of MyACD's outstanding capital stock. MyACD develops and distributes telephony software solutions for call center traffic management and related functions that UCN is able to offer its customers over its VoIP Network. On September 30, 2004, the Company entered into agreements that finalized payment terms, and set a date for closing the transaction. On January 5, 2005, UCN closed the acquisition and purchased all of the outstanding capital stock of MyACD from its two stockholders.

The purchase price paid to MyACD stockholders was $6.2 million, and was paid with discounted promissory notes issued by UCN. Initial payments on the promissory notes were immediately made with cash of approximately $427,000, and 562,985 shares of UCN common stock. UCN will continue making variable monthly note payments based on MyACD product revenue until January 2008, when all remaining principal owed on the notes will be due. The notes are secured by MyACD common stock.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements have been prepared to illustrate the estimated effect of this transaction. The pro forma financial statements do not reflect any anticipated cost savings inherent in the Company redirecting acquired resources, or synergies that are anticipated to result from the transaction, and there can be no assurance that any such cost savings or synergies will occur. The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Statement of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2004 give pro forma effect as if the transactions that occurred on the date of closing had occurred on January 1, 2004. The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Balance Sheet gives pro forma effect as if the same transactions had occurred on December 31, 2004.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the financial position or results of operations which would actually have been reported had the transaction taken place on the assumed dates or during the period presented, or which may be reported in the future. The pro forma adjustments are described in these accompanying notes and are based upon available information and certain assumptions that the Company believes are reasonable. This pro forma information should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements and notes related thereto for UCN, Inc. and MyACD, Inc.

The entire purchase price has been allocated to acquired software technology in the accompanying pro forma financial statements based on information currently available. These pro forma adjustments represent the Company's preliminary determination of purchase accounting adjustments and are based on available information and certain assumptions that the Company believes to be reasonable. Consequently, the amounts reflected in the pro forma financial statements are subject to change, and the final amounts may differ substantially.

2. PRO FORMA ADJUSTMENTS

Pro forma adjustments for the unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements are as follows:

- (a) Represents elimination of intercompany accounts and transactions.
- (b) Represents reclassification of acquisition-related assets presently recorded on the books of UCN, Inc.
- (c) Represents promissory notes payable to former stockholders, after initial payments were made at closing, and as discounted using the Company's incremental borrowing rate of 8.25 percent.
- (d) Represents initial note payments made with cash.
- (e) Represents initial note payments made with common stock.
- (f) Represents elimination of the equity accounts of MyACD, Inc.
- (g) Represents writing down the historical net book value of MyACD's office equipment to its estimated fair market value of zero.
- (h) Represents interest expense on the promissory notes for the initial year.
- (i) Represents amortization of the acquired software technology over the first of four years.

3. PRO FORMA NET LOSS PER SHARE

The net loss attributable to common stockholders and shares used in computing the net loss per share attributable to common stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2004 are based on the historical weighted average common shares outstanding. The effect of the additional shares of common stock assumed issued as part of the acquisition transaction has been included for purposes of presenting pro forma net loss per share attributable to common stockholders. However, the effect of any common stock issuable upon the exercise of UCN's stock options, warrants, or the conversion of preferred stock have been excluded from the historical and pro forma computation of net loss per share attributable to common stockholders as the effect would be anti-dilutive.
