Early Settlement of Exchange Offers and Consent Solicitations

On December 28, 2005, El Paso Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“El Paso”), successfully consummated the early settlement (the “Early Settlement”) of its private offers to exchange all properly tendered and accepted notes (the “CGP Notes”) of the series listed below, which were previously issued by El Paso’s wholly-owned subsidiary, El Paso CGP Company, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company (formerly known as El Paso CGP Company, a Delaware corporation) (“CGP”), and the related solicitations of consents to the proposed amendments to the indentures governing such notes (collectively, the “CGP Indentures”), by:

- (i) causing CGP to pay the applicable consent payments listed below to the eligible holders of CGP Notes who validly delivered (and did not validly revoke) their consents by 12:00 noon, New York City time, on December 27, 2005 (the “Early Settlement Deadline”);
- (ii) accepting for exchange all of the CGP Notes properly tendered and not validly withdrawn as of the Early Settlement Deadline; and
- (iii) issuing new notes (the “El Paso Notes”), in the aggregate principal amount of approximately $2.042 billion (and in the series described in the table below), to the eligible holders of CGP Notes who validly tendered (and did not validly withdraw) their CGP Notes by the Early Settlement Deadline.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the private exchange offers, El Paso has offered to exchange each CGP Note that is properly tendered by an eligible holder, and accepted by El Paso, for a new El Paso Note in a principal amount equal to the exchange price of such tendered CGP Note. The exchange price for each CGP Note will be 100% of its principal amount if it is properly tendered prior to the expiration of the exchange offers. The exchange offers will expire immediately following 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on January 6, 2006, unless extended.

The exchange offers and consent solicitations are being made, and the El Paso Notes are being offered and issued, only (a) to holders of CGP Notes who are “qualified institutional buyers,” as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and (b) outside the United States to holders of CGP Notes who are persons other than U.S. persons, in reliance upon Regulation S under the Securities Act. The new El Paso Notes issued and to be issued in exchange for CGP Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.

The new El Paso Notes issued in connection with the Early Settlement were issued pursuant to an indenture dated as of May 10, 1999 between El Paso and HSBC Bank USA, National Association (as successor-in-interest to JPMorgan Chase Bank, formerly The Chase Manhattan Bank), as trustee, as amended and supplemented by the Tenth Supplemental Indenture thereto dated as of December 28, 2005 (as so amended and supplemented, the “El Paso Indenture”).

El Paso did not receive any cash proceeds from the sale of the new El Paso Notes, which were issued in exchange for the surrender and cancellation of an equal principal amount of CGP Notes.

The El Paso Notes are senior unsecured obligations of El Paso and rank, in right of payment, equally with all of El Paso's existing and future unsecured senior indebtedness. The El Paso Notes are not guaranteed by any of El Paso's subsidiaries.

The El Paso Indenture contains covenants that restrict El Paso's ability to incur debt secured by liens, engage in sale-leaseback transactions or merge or consolidate with another entity or sell, lease or transfer substantially all of El Paso's properties or assets to another entity. These limitations are subject to a number of important qualifications and exceptions. Upon an Event of Default (as defined in the El Paso Indenture), the trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the El Paso Notes of a particular series then outstanding may declare the entire principal of all the El Paso Notes of such series to be due and payable immediately.

Other than as described below, the El Paso Notes of each series are not redeemable prior to their stated maturity. Subject to the applicable terms and conditions of the El Paso Indenture:

- (i) on February 15, 2007, or if such date is not a business day, then the next succeeding business day, each holder of El Paso's 6.70% senior notes due 2027 (the "El Paso 2027s") will have the right to require El Paso to redeem all or any part (equal to $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof) of such holder's El Paso 2027s for cash at a purchase price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the redemption date; and
- (ii) El Paso may elect to redeem at any time (in whole or from time to time in part) El Paso's 7.75% senior notes due 2032 (the "El Paso 2032s") at the make-whole price with respect to the El Paso 2032s provided for in the El Paso Indenture.

Registration Rights Agreement

On December 28, 2005, El Paso entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with the dealer managers in connection with the above-described private exchange offers, pursuant to which El Paso agreed to (i) file with the Securities and Exchange Commission within 135 days following December 28, 2005, a registration statement on an appropriate form under the Securities Act (the "Exchange Offer Registration Statement") relating to a registered exchange offer for the El Paso Notes under the Securities Act and (ii) use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Exchange Offer Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act within 220 days following December 28, 2005. If El Paso fails to comply with certain obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement, it will be required to pay liquidated damages to the holders of the El Paso Notes in accordance with the provisions of the Registration Rights Agreement.

El Paso Assumption of CGP Indentures and CGP Notes

Effective as of December 31, 2005, CGP transferred (the "Asset Transfer") substantially all of its properties and assets as an entirety (within the meaning of the CGP Indentures and excluding certain properties and assets that are pending sale) to El Paso by means of a distribution on CGP's outstanding equity interests (100% of which are held by El Paso). Concurrently with the Asset Transfer, in accordance with the requirements of the CGP Indentures and pursuant to a series of supplemental indentures thereto, El Paso assumed and succeeded to all of CGP's rights, powers and obligations, and was substituted for CGP in all respects, under each CGP Indenture, such that El Paso is now the sole obligor in respect of all CGP Notes not acquired in the Early Settlement of the private exchange offers described above (the "Assumed CGP Notes").

The Assumed CGP Notes (in the aggregate principal amount of approximately $244,200,000) are senior unsecured obligations of El Paso and rank, in right of payment, equally with all of El Paso's existing and future unsecured senior indebtedness. The Assumed CGP Notes are not guaranteed by any of El Paso's subsidiaries.

CGP's 6.70% senior debentures due February 15, 2027 that have been assumed by El Paso will mature on February 15, 2027. Interest on such securities will accrue at the rate of 6.70% per annum and will be payable semi-annually on each February 15 and August 15, commencing on February 15, 2006. Interest on such securities will accrue from August 15, 2005, the most recent date to which interest has been paid on such securities.

CGP's 6.95% senior debentures due June 1, 2028 that have been assumed by El Paso will mature on June 1, 2028. Interest on such securities will accrue at the rate of 6.95% per annum and will be payable semi-annually on each June 1 and December 1, commencing on June 1, 2006. Interest on such securities will accrue from December 1, 2005, the most recent date to which interest has been paid on such securities.

CGP's 7.75% senior debentures due October 15, 2035 that have been assumed by El Paso will mature on October 15, 2035. Interest on such securities will accrue at the rate of 7.75% per annum and will be payable semi-annually on each April 15 and October 15, commencing on April 15, 2006. Interest on such securities will accrue from October 15, 2005, the most recent date to which interest has been paid on such securities.

CGP's 7.42% senior debentures due February 15, 2037 that have been assumed by El Paso will mature on February 15, 2037. The CGP Indentures contain covenants that restrict El Paso's ability to merge or consolidate with another entity or sell, lease or transfer substantially all of El Paso's properties or assets to another entity. These limitations are subject to a number of important qualifications and exceptions. Upon an Event of Default (as defined in each CGP Indenture), the trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Assumed CGP Notes of a particular series then outstanding may declare the entire principal of all the Assumed CGP Notes of such series to be due and payable immediately.

Other than as described below, the Assumed CGP Notes of each series are not redeemable prior to their stated maturity. Subject to the applicable terms and conditions of the applicable CGP Indenture, on February 15, 2007, or if such date is not a business day, then the next succeeding business day, each holder of CGP's 6.70% senior debentures due February 15, 2027 that have been assumed by El Paso (the "Assumed CGP 2027s") will have the right to require El Paso to redeem all or any part (equal to $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof) of such holder's Assumed CGP 2027s for cash at a purchase price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the redemption date.

In connection with the closing of the Early Settlement, El Paso is filing certain exhibits as part of this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 20, 2005, in anticipation of certain year end internal transactions of El Paso's subsidiaries, El Paso entered into a First Amendment, Consent and Waiver Agreement (the "First Amendment") among El Paso and El Paso E&P Company, L.P. ("El Paso E&P") (formerly known as El Paso Production Oil & Gas USA, L.P.), as Borrowers, Fortis Capital Corp., as Administrative Agent for the Lenders, and the several Lenders party from time to time thereto, to that certain Credit Agreement, dated as of November 3, 2005, among El Paso and El Paso E&P, as Borrowers, Fortis Capital Corp., as Administrative Agent, Arranger and Bookrunner, and the several Lenders party from time to time thereto.
