PART II RULES 12b-25 (b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

We are unable to timely file our Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 (the Form 10-K ) without unreasonable effort or expense for the reason described below.

We and our independent registered public accounting firm are in the process of finalizing the financial statement review and audit and will not be able to complete the review and audit within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort and expense. As previously announced, we required more time than anticipated to complete our closing process, which is delaying completion of our audit. The Company intends to file its Form 10-K on or before the 15th calendar day following the prescribed due date of the Company's Form 10-K.
