ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 21, 2010, Heritage Commerce Corp, a California corporation (the Company), the holding company for Heritage Bank of Commerce entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with a limited number of institutional investors (collectively, the Purchasers) to sell a total of 53,996 shares of Series B Mandatorily Convertible Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, without par value (the Series B Preferred Stock) at a price of $1,000 per share, and a total of 21,004 shares of Series C Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock, without par value (the Series C Preferred Stock) at a price of $1,000 per shares for an aggregate purchase price of $75,000,000 (the Private Placement). The Private Placement closed on June 21, 2010.

The Series B Preferred Stock is non-voting except in the case of certain transactions that affect the rights of the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock or applicable law. The Series B Preferred Stock will automatically convert into a number of shares of the Company's common stock after the Company has received shareholder approval of such conversion. The conversion ratio for each share of Series B Preferred Stock will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the Series B Preferred Stock share price by the conversion price. The initial conversion price of $3.75 per share is subject to possible adjustments in the future under certain circumstances, including failure to obtain shareholder approval for the conversion by December 21, 2010, which would decrease the conversion price by 10%. The holders of the Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive cumulative cash dividends which shall accrue and be payable at a per annum rate equal to 20%, payable semi-annually in arrears commencing on December 21, 2010; provided, however, if shareholder approval is obtained on or before December 21, 2010, then no accrued dividends shall be payable. The Series B Preferred Stock is not redeemable by the Company or by the holders and carries a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share, plus the right to participate in any liquidation distribution to holders of common stock on an as-converted basis. Complete details concerning the liquidation, redemption and other provisions of the Series B Preferred Stock are contained in the Certificate of Determination filed with the California Secretary of State on June 17, 2010, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 4.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

The Series C Preferred Stock is non-voting except in the case of certain transactions that would affect the rights of the holders of the Series C Preferred Stock or applicable law. The Series C Preferred Stock will automatically convert into a number of shares of the Company's common stock after the Company has received shareholder approval of such conversion, and then only upon a subsequent transfer by the holders of the Series C Preferred Stock to an unaffiliated third party in a widely dispersed offering. The conversion ratio for each share of Series C Preferred Stock will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the Series C Preferred Stock share price by the conversion price. The initial conversion price of $3.75 per share is subject to possible adjustments in the future under certain circumstances, including the failure to obtain shareholder approval for the conversion by December 21, 2010, which would decrease the conversion price by 10%. Prior to shareholder approval, the holders of the Series C Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive cumulative cash dividends which shall accrue and be payable at a per annum rate equal to 20%, payable semi-annually in arrears commencing on December 21, 2010; provided, however, if shareholder approval is obtained on or before December 21, 2010, then no accrued dividends shall be payable. Following shareholder approval, holders of Series C Preferred Stock will receive dividends if and only to the extent dividends are paid to holders of common stock. The Series C Preferred Stock is not redeemable by the Company or by the holders and carries a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share, plus prior to shareholder approval, the right to participate in any liquidation distribution to holders of common stock on an as-converted basis. Following shareholder approval, upon a liquidation of the Company, holders will be entitled to a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share. Complete details concerning the liquidation, redemption and other provisions of the Series C Preferred Stock are contained in the Certificate of Determination filed with the California Secretary of State on June 17, 2010, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 4.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

If shareholder approval is obtained before December 21, 2010, the Series B Preferred Stock will automatically convert into 14,399,000 shares of common stock. The conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock will increase the total issued and outstanding shares of common stock to 26,219,509 shares. After shareholder approval, the Series C Preferred Stock will remain outstanding and will be convertible into common stock only upon a subsequent transfer by the holder to an unaffiliated third party in a widely dispersed offering. The Series C Preferred Stock is convertible into 5,601,000 shares of common stock.

No investor will own more than 9.9% of the Company's voting securities (or securities that convert into voting securities in the hands of such investor), as calculated under the applicable regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Two of the investors are entitled to representation on the Board of Directors of both Heritage Commerce Corp and Heritage Bank of Commerce. In the event the investors exercise their rights, and subject to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals, the Board expects to appoint the board representatives in the near future and will announce these appointments when made.

In accordance with Section 4.11 of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company intends to call a special meeting of the Company shareholders to vote on a proposal to approve the conversion of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and Series C Preferred Stock into shares of common stock for purposes of compliance with NASDAQ Stock Market Rule 5635. The meeting will be called as soon as practicable, but not later than November 30, 2010. The Board of Directors of the Company intends to recommend shareholder approval and will prepare and file a preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission containing the Board's recommendation. (See Additional Information below).

Registration Rights Agreement

Also on June 21, 2010, pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with each of the Purchasers. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company has agreed to file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission to register for resale the Series B Preferred Stock, Series C Preferred Stock and the common stock to be issued upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock and Series C Preferred stock within 30 calendar days after the closing of the Private Placement, and to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective within 90 calendar days of closing (or 120 calendar days in the event of review by the Securities and Exchange Commission). Failure to meet these deadlines and certain other events may result in the Company's payment of liquidated damages to the holders in the amount of 0.5% of the purchase price per month.

Rights Offering

Pursuant to the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company intends, subject to market conditions, to offer to its existing common shareholders in a rights offering the right to purchase pro rata up to 1.8 million shares of the Company's common stock for $3.75 per share, which is equal to the conversion price for the Series B Preferred Stock and the Series C Preferred Stock. The rights offering will be made only to those common shareholders of record prior to the special meeting to be called to approve the conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock and the Series C Preferred Stock (with the exact date to be set at a later time) and will not be open to holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and Series C Preferred Stock, except to the extent such holders also own common stock as of the record date for the rights offering. The rights offering will not commence unless the shareholders approve the conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock and the Series C Preferred Stock. The rights offering will commence a short time following the special meeting and within six months of the closing date of the private placement, after appropriate regulatory filings have been prepared and filed by the Company, including a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Copies of the Securities Purchase Agreement and Registration Rights Agreement are attached as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing descriptions of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement, the Series B Preferred Stock Certificate of Determination and the Series C Preferred Stock Certificate of Determination do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement, the Series B Preferred Stock Certificate of Determination and the Series C Preferred Stock Certificate of Determination filed as exhibits to this report.
