Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 26, 2013, United Therapeutics Corporation (the Company) entered into a Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (Wells Fargo), as administrative agent and as a lender, and Lung LLC (the Guarantor), a subsidiary of the Company which will guarantee the Company's obligations under the Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement provides for a $75.0 million revolving loan facility, which amount may, under certain conditions, be increased by up to $75.0 million in the aggregate, subject to receipt of commitments from lenders for such increase. The facility matures one year after the closing date of the Credit Agreement. Amounts borrowed under the Credit Agreement are secured by certain investment securities placed by the Company in a collateral account.

At the Company's option, the loan will bear interest at either the one-month LIBOR rate plus a margin equal to 0.50%, or a fluctuating base rate without any applicable margin.

The proceeds of borrowings under the Credit Agreement are available for general corporate purposes, including funding share repurchases under the Company's ongoing $420 million share repurchase program. Upon closing of the Credit Agreement on September 26, 2013, no amounts were drawn.

The Credit Agreement also contains customary affirmative and negative covenants that, among other things, limit the ability of the Company and the Guarantor to grant certain liens; enter into a merger, consolidation or amalgamation; liquidate, wind up or dissolve; or sell all or substantially all of their property, business or assets. The Credit Agreement does not contain any financial covenants.

The Credit Agreement contains customary events of default, including a change of control. Upon the occurrence and continuation of an event of default, all amounts due under the Credit Agreement and the other loan documents become (in the case of a bankruptcy event), or may become (in the case of all other events of default and at the option of the lenders), immediately due and payable.

The foregoing summary is qualified by reference to the copy of the Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.
