Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 22, 2015, CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (the Company) entered into agreements with each of its officers (other than Philipp P. Koch as noted below) who is a named executive officer (each, an Executive Officer) pursuant to which the Company agreed to pay a gross-up payment (the Gross-Up Payment) to the Executive Officer with respect to any excise tax to which the Executive Officer may become subject under Section 4985 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), in connection with the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, dated as of August 6, 2015 and subsequently amended, providing for the combination of the Company with OCI N.V.'s European, North American and global distribution businesses (the Combination), such that, after payment by the Executive Officer of the excise tax under Section 4985 of the Code, the Executive Officer will receive a payment from the Company equal to the net after-tax benefit that the Executive Officer would have received had the excise tax not been imposed. In exchange for the Company's agreement to make the Gross-Up Payment, each Executive Officer, other than Philipp P. Koch as noted below, executed an agreement, waiving his right to accelerated vesting of his equity awards upon the consummation of the Combination (each, a Waiver Agreement). The Company also entered into similar agreements with certain of its other executive officers.

Pursuant to the applicable Waiver Agreement, notwithstanding the waiver of accelerated vesting upon the consummation of the Combination, in the event an Executive Officer's employment terminates without Cause or for Good Reason (as such terms are defined in each Executive Officer's change in control severance agreement) within 24 months following the consummation of the Combination, the equity awards held by the Executive Officer at the time of such termination will vest in full, provided that the definition of Good Reason was modified to include a termination by the Executive Officer following (1) the assignment to the Executive Officer of duties inconsistent with the Executive Officer's status as an officer of the Company or a substantial adverse alteration in the nature or status of the Executive Officer's responsibilities following the consummation of the Combination; (2) a 10% or greater reduction in the Executive Officer's annual base salary and annual target bonus; or (3) a 35-mile or greater relocation of the Executive Officer's principal place of employment.

Additionally, as previously disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 8, 2015, Mr. Koch announced his retirement on September 2, 2015, to become effective on March 4, 2016. On December 22, 2015, the Company entered into a letter agreement with Mr. Koch agreeing to pay him a Gross-Up Payment to the extent applicable, without requiring him to waive the accelerated vesting of his equity awards upon the consummation of the Combination.

On December 19, 2015, the Company also entered into an amendment to the Change in Control Severance Agreements it maintains with each of its executive officers providing that, contingent on the consummation of the Combination, references in the agreements to the Company will instead be to CF N.V., the surviving company following the Combination.
