THE SINGING MACHINE COMPANY, INC AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

December 31, 2015

NOTE 1 – BASIS OF PRESENTATION

OVERVIEW

The Singing Machine Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”, “SMC”, “The Singing Machine”) and its three wholly-owned subsidiaries SMC (Comercial Offshore De Macau) Limitada (“Macau Subsidiary”), SMC Logistics, Inc. (“SMC-L”) and SMC-Music, Inc. (“SMC-M”) are primarily engaged in the development, marketing, and sale of consumer karaoke audio systems, accessories, musical instruments and musical recordings. The products are sold by SMC to retailers and distributors for resale to consumers.

NOTE 2-SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and all of its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in the condensed consolidated financial statements. The accompanying unaudited financial statements for the three and nine months ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to interim financial information and the requirements of Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X of the SEC. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of management, such condensed consolidated financial statements include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) necessary for the fair presentation of the condensed consolidated financial position and the condensed consolidated results of operations. The condensed consolidated results of operations for the periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. The condensed consolidated balance sheet information as of March 31, 2015 was derived from the audited consolidated financial statements included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K. The interim condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with that report.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The Singing Machine makes estimates and assumptions in the ordinary course of business relating to sales returns and allowances, warranty reserves, inventory reserves and reserves for promotional incentives that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Future events and their effects cannot be determined with absolute certainty; therefore, the determination of estimates requires the exercise of judgment. Historically, past changes to these estimates have not had a material impact on the Company's financial condition. However, circumstances could change which may alter future expectations.

FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

The functional currency of the Macau Subsidiary is the Hong Kong dollar. The financial statements of the subsidiary are translated to U.S. dollars using period-end rates of exchange for assets and liabilities, and average rates of exchange for the period for revenues, costs, and expenses. Net gains and losses resulting from foreign exchange transactions and translations were not material during the periods presented.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company adopted FASB ASC 825, which requires disclosures of information about the fair value of certain financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value. For purposes of this disclosure, the fair value of a financial instrument is the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced sale or liquidation.

The carrying amounts of the Company's short-term financial instruments, including accounts receivable, accounts receivable – related parties, accounts payable, obligations to customers for returns and allowances, warranty provision, accrued expenses, revolving line of credit, note payable related party and due to related parties approximates fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity for these instruments.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain balances presented previously have been reclassified to conform to the financial statement presentation adopted for this period.

Concentration of Credit Risk

At times, the Company maintains cash in United States bank accounts that are in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) insured amounts of up to $250,000. As of December 31, 2015 and March 31, 2015, the Company had no cash deposits that exceeded the FDIC insurance limit. The Company maintains cash balances in foreign financial institutions. The amounts in foreign financial institutions at December 31, 2015 and March 31, 2015 were $90,213 and $23,794, respectively.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

The Singing Machine's accounts receivable consist of amounts due from customers in the ordinary course of business. Accounts receivable are carried at cost, net of allowances for uncollectible amounts. Provisions for losses are charged to operations in amounts sufficient to maintain an allowance for losses at a level considered adequate to cover probable losses inherent in the Company's accounts receivable.

COLLECTIBILITY OF ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

The Singing Machine's allowance for doubtful accounts is based on management's estimates of the creditworthiness of its customers, current economic conditions and historical information, and, in the opinion of management, is believed to be an amount sufficient to respond to normal business conditions. Management sets 100% reserves for customers in bankruptcy and other reserves based upon historical collection experience. Should business conditions deteriorate or any major customer default on its obligations to the Company, this allowance may need to be significantly increased, which would have a negative impact on operations.

INVENTORY

Inventories are comprised primarily of electronic karaoke equipment, microphones and accessories, and are stated at the lower of cost or market, as determined using the first in, first out method. The Singing Machine reduces inventory on hand to its net realizable value on an item-by-item basis when it is apparent that the expected realizable value of an inventory item falls below its original cost. A charge to cost of sales results when the estimated net realizable value of specific inventory items declines below cost. Management regularly reviews the Company's investment in inventories for such declines in value.

LONG-LIVED ASSETS

The Company reviews long-lived assets for impairment whenever circumstances and situations change such that there is an indication that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If the undiscounted future cash flows attributable to the related assets are less than the carrying amount, the carrying amounts are reduced to fair value and an impairment loss is recognized in accordance with FASB ASC 360-10-05, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets."

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to their estimated useful lives using accelerated and straight-line methods.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue from the sale of equipment, accessories, musical recordings and subscriptions and third-party logistics services are recognized upon the later of: (a) the time of shipment or (b) when title passes to the customers and all significant contractual obligations and services have been satisfied and collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured. Net sales are comprised of gross sales net of actual and estimated future returns, discounts and volume rebates.

ADVERTISING

Costs incurred for producing and publishing advertising of the Company are charged to operations the first time the advertising takes place. The Company has entered into cooperative advertising agreements with its major customers that specifically indicated that the customer has to spend the cooperative advertising fund upon the occurrence of mutually agreed events. The percentage of the cooperative advertising allowance ranges from approximately 1% to 10% of the purchase. The customers have to advertise the Company's products in the customer's catalog, local newspaper and other advertising media. The customer must submit the proof of the performance (such as a copy of the advertising showing the Company's products) to the Company to request for the allowance. The customer does not have the ability to spend the allowance at their discretion. The Company believes that the identifiable benefit from the cooperative advertising program and the fair value of the advertising benefit is equal or greater than the cooperative advertising expense. Advertising expense for the three months ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $1,102,872 and $521,511, respectively. Advertising expense for the nine months ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $2,619,706 and $1,542,257, respectively. As of December 31, 2015 and March 31, 2015 there was an accrual for cooperative advertising allowances of $1,007,583 and $75,487, respectively. These amounts were a component of accrued expenses in the condensed consolidated balance sheets.

SHIPPING AND HANDLING COSTS

Shipping and handling costs are classified as a component of selling expenses and those billed to customers are recorded as a reduction of expense in the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

STOCK BASED COMPENSATION

The Company follows the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 718-20, "Compensation – Stock Compensation Awards Classified as Equity". ASC 718-20 requires all share-based payments to employees including grants of employee stock options, be measured at fair value and expensed in the condensed consolidated statements of income over the service period (generally the vesting period). The Company uses the Black-Scholes option valuation model to value stock options. Employee stock option compensation expense for the three and nine months ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 includes the estimated fair value of options granted, amortized on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period for the entire portion of the award. For the three months ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the stock option expense was $2,692 and $2,205, respectively. For the nine months ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the stock option expense was $7,384 and $36,807, respectively.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT COSTS

Research and development costs are charged to results of operations as incurred. These expenses are shown as a component of selling, general and administrative expenses in the condensed consolidated statements of income. For the three months ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, these amounts totaled $74,130 and $38,290, respectively. For the nine months ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, these amounts totaled $175,419 and $111,803, respectively.

INCOME TAXES

The Company follows the provisions of FASB ASC 740 "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under the asset and liability method of ASC 740, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributed to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax base. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under ASC 740, the effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. If it is more likely than not that some portion of a deferred tax asset will not be realized, a valuation allowance is recognized.

The Company analyzes its deferred tax assets and liabilities at the end of each interim period and, based on management's best estimate of its full year effective tax rate, recognizes cumulative adjustments to its deferred tax assets and liabilities. The Company's effective tax rate for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2016 is estimated to be approximately 38%. The effective tax rate for the full year ended March 31, 2015 was approximately 35%.

As of December 31, 2015 and March 31, 2015, The Singing Machine had gross deferred tax assets of approximately $1.9 million and $3.0 million, respectively, against which the Company recorded valuation allowances totaling approximately $0 and $0.7 million, respectively. Due to the Company's projected net income for fiscal 2016 and beyond, it is management's opinion that the existing deferred tax asset will more likely than not be realized and the Company has reversed the remaining estimated valuation allowance of approximately $0.7 million during the quarter ended December 31, 2015. As of March 31, 2015, a valuation allowance was recorded against deferred tax assets because it was more likely than not that a portion of the tax benefits from the gross deferred tax assets would not be realized. For the nine month period ended December 31, 2015, the Company recorded a profit before income tax provision of approximately $3,025,000 which generated a reduction in the deferred tax asset and an income tax provision of approximately $442,000 net of the reversal of the deferred tax asset valuation allowance of approximately $708,000.

The Company recognizes a liability for uncertain tax positions. An uncertain tax position is defined as a position in a previously filed tax return or a position expected to be taken in a future tax return that is not based on clear and unambiguous tax law and which is reflected in measuring current or deferred income tax assets and liabilities for interim or annual periods. The Company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The Company measures the tax benefits recognized based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate resolution. As of December 31, 2015, there were no uncertain tax positions that resulted in any adjustment to the Company's provision for income taxes. The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in its provision for income taxes. The Company currently has no liabilities recorded for accrued interest or penalties related to uncertain tax provisions.

As of December 31, 2015, the Company is subject to U.S. Federal income tax examinations for the tax years ended March 31, 2013 through March 31, 2015.

COMPUTATION OF EARNINGS PER SHARE

Income per common share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share is presented as the conversion of stock options would have a dilutive effect. For the three month periods ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 total potential dilutive shares amounted to approximately 524,000 and 528,000 shares, respectively. For the nine month periods ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 total potential dilutive shares amounted to approximately 498,000 and 499,000 shares, respectively. These shares were included in the computation of diluted earnings per share for the three and nine months ended December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2014-09 which outlines a single comprehensive model for companies to use when accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers. The core principle of the revenue recognition model is that an entity recognizes revenue to depict the transfer of goods and services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. In order to achieve this core principle a company must apply the following steps in determining revenue recognition:

- Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Identify the performance obligations in the contract.
- Determine the transaction price.
- Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract.
- Recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

The amendments in this ASU were deferred by ASU 2015-14 and are now effective for annual reporting periods beginning April 1, 2018 including interim periods within that reporting period with early application allowed beginning with reporting periods beginning April 1, 2017. Management is currently assessing whether the implementation of ASU 2014-09 and ASU 2015-14 will have any material effect on the company’s consolidated financial statements.

In August 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-15, Disclosure of Uncertainties about an Entity's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern. The ASU requires that at every interim and annual period, management determine whether conditions or events exist which raise substantial doubt about an entity's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date the financial statements are issued. If management's initial consideration of the relevant conditions and events indicates that it is probable the entity will not be able to meet its obligations as they become due within the assessment period, then management must evaluate whether it is probable that plans to mitigate these factors will alleviate that substantial doubt. The mitigating effect is considered only if it is probable that the plan will be effectively implemented and probable that the plans will mitigate the conditions or events that raised the substantial doubt. If management's plans will alleviate the substantial doubt, an entity must disclose in the notes to the financial statements the conditions or events that raised substantial doubt and management's plans that alleviated those concerns. If management's plans will not alleviate the substantial doubt, an entity must disclose in the notes to the financial statements the same conditions and events along with management's plans that did not alleviate the substantial doubt, in addition to a statement that indicates there is substantial doubt about the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. ASU 2014-15 is effective for annual periods ending March 31, 2017 and for interim periods within annual periods beginning after January 1, 2017. Management is currently assessing whether the implementation of ASU 2014-15 will have any material effect on the company's consolidated financial statement disclosures.

In July 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-11, Simplifying the Measurement of Inventory. The ASU requires that inventory be measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Net realizable value is defined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less reasonably predictable costs of completion, disposal, and transportation. Inventory measured using last-in, first-out (LIFO) and the retail inventory method (RIM) are not impacted by the new guidance. The guidance in ASU 2015-11 is effective for fiscal years and interim periods within those fiscal years beginning after April 1, 2017. The new guidance should be applied prospectively with earlier application permitted as of the beginning of an interim or annual reporting period. Management is currently assessing whether the implementation of ASU 2015-11 will have any material effect on the company's consolidated financial statements.

In November 2015, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2015-17, Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes. The ASU requires that all deferred tax assets and liabilities, along with any related valuation allowance, be classified as noncurrent on the balance sheet. The new guidance will be effective for the Company beginning April 1, 2017, including interim periods within those years. Early adoption is permitted for all entities as of the beginning of an interim or annual reporting period. Management is currently assessing whether the implementation of ASU 2015-17 will have any material effect on the company's consolidated financial statements.

There is an unused facility fee equal to .375% per annum on the unused portion of the Revolving Line of Credit which will be calculated on the basis of a 360 day year for the actual number of days elapsed and will be payable quarterly in arrears. During the three month periods ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company incurred interest expense of $89,512 and $99,239, respectively on amounts borrowed against the Revolving Line of Credit. The Revolving Line of Credit is also secured by a related-party debt subordination agreement with Starlight Marketing Development, Ltd. in the amount of $2,500,000. Costs associated with securing the Revolving Line of Credit of approximately $222,000 were deferred and amortized over the term of the agreement. During each of the three month periods ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company incurred amortization expense of $18,519. During the nine month periods ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company incurred amortization expense of $55,558 and $33,952, respectively.

("Ram Light Note"). The Ram Light Note bears interest at 6% per annum with quarterly payments of $150,000 (including principal and interest) payable beginning December 31, 2014. Scheduled principal and interest payments of $150,000 will only be permitted upon receipt of the Company's current quarterly compliance certificate; the Company having met the mandatory pay-down of the Revolving Line of Credit to $1,000,000 and average excess availability for the prior 30 days (after subtraction of third party trade payables 30 days or more past due) of no less than $1,000,000 after giving effect to the payment. NOTE 7 - OBLIGATIONS TO CUSTOMERS FOR RETURNS AND ALLOWANCES

Due to the seasonality of the business and length of time customers are given to return defective product, it is not uncommon for customers to accumulate credits from the Company's sales and allowance programs that are in excess of unpaid invoices in accounts receivable. All credit balances in customers' accounts receivable are reclassified to obligations to customers for returns and allowances in current liabilities on the condensed consolidated balance sheet. Customer requests for payment of a credit balance are reclassified from obligations to customers for returns and allowances to accounts payable on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. When new invoices are processed prior to settlement of the credit balance and the customer accepts settlement of open credits with new invoices, then the excess of new invoices over credits are netted in accounts receivable. As of December 31, 2015 and March 31, 2015, obligations to customers for returns and allowances reclassified from accounts receivable were $6,691 and $399,419, respectively. As of December 31, 2015 and March 31, 2015 there were no customers requesting payment of their credit balance and as such no amounts were reclassified from obligations to customers for returns and allowances to accounts payable.

OVERVIEW

The Singing Machine Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company", "SMC", "The Singing Machine") and its three wholly-owned subsidiaries SMC (Comercial Offshore De Macau) Limitada ("Macau Subsidiary"), SMC Logistics, Inc. ("SMC-L") and SMC-Music, Inc. ("SMC-M") are primarily engaged in the development, marketing, and sale of consumer karaoke audio systems, accessories, musical instruments and musical recordings. The products are sold by SMC to retailers and distributors for resale to consumers.

Our products are sold throughout North America, Europe, Australia and South Africa primarily through major mass merchandisers and warehouse clubs, on-line retailers and to a lesser extent department stores, lifestyle merchants, direct mail catalogs and showrooms, music and record stores, and specialty stores.

Representative customers include Amazon, BJ's Wholesale, Costco, Sam's Club, Target, Toys R Us, and Wal-Mart. Our business has historically been subject to seasonal fluctuations causing our revenues to vary from quarter to quarter and between the same periods in different fiscal years. Our products are manufactured for the most part based on the purchase indications of our customers. We are uncertain of how significantly our business would be harmed by a prolonged economic recession, but we anticipate that continued contraction of consumer spending would negatively affect our revenues and profit margins.

This increase in net sales was primarily due to increased product sales to one major retail customer of approximately $1,500,000 due to increased promotional programs with this customer which included increased co-op advertising, preferred end-cap store locations and “shelf-talkers” (looping videos on display with products). There was also an increase of approximately $1,000,000 in sales to another major retail customer due to increased popularity in on-line shopping. For the three month periods ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 these two major customers accounted for approximately 35% and 28% respectively, of total net sales.

GROSS PROFIT

Gross profit for the quarter ended December 31, 2015 increased to $5,600,626 from $4,051,865 an increase of approximately $1,549,000 as compared to the same period in the prior year. The increase in net sales as explained above contributed approximately $699,000 or 45% of the increase. There was an increase in price of certain promotional products for one major customer that contributed approximately $546,000 or 35% of the increase with the remaining increase of approximately $304,000 primarily due to cost decreases in some high volume products and mix of products sold.

Gross profit margin for the three month period ended December 31, 2015 was 27.1% compared to 22.4% for the three month period ended December 31, 2014, an increase of 4.7%. Price increases on specific promotional products to one major retail customer accounted for approximately 2.6% of the gross profit margin increase with the remaining 2.1% increase due to cost reductions on certain high volume products and mix of products sold.

OPERATING EXPENSES

For the quarter ended December 31, 2015, total operating expenses increased to $3,416,205. This represents an increase of approximately $1,045,000 from the same period's quarter ended total operating expenses of $2,371,517. This increase was primarily due to an increase of approximately $858,000 in variable selling expenses including freight, commissions and co-op advertising programs granted to major retail customers and an increase in general and administrative expenses of approximately $173,000 with the remaining variance due to an increase in depreciation expense.

Selling expenses increased approximately $858,000 for the quarter ended December 31, 2015 compared to the quarter ended December 31, 2014. Due to the increase in net sales for the quarter ended December 31, 2015 and additional promotions with three major retail customers, advertising co-op allowance for major retail customers increased approximately $434,000 accounting for 51% of the increase. There was an increase in variable selling expenses such as freight and commissions which increased commensurate with the increase in net sales and accounted for approximately $278,000 or 32% of the increase. The remaining increase in selling expenses of approximately $146,000 was due to the timing of planned marketing expenses.

General and administrative expenses increased approximately $173,000 for the quarter ended December 31, 2015 compared to the quarter ended December 31, 2014. There was an increase of approximately $60,000 in compensation expense due to employee earned incentives, an increase in temporary labor and services of approximately $64,000 due to the increase in net sales and an increase of approximately $36,000 in product development costs due to one time engineering costs associated with a new product. The remaining increase of approximately $13,000 was primarily due to other variable costs associated with the increase in net sales.

INCOME FROM OPERATIONS

Income from operations increased approximately $504,000 this quarter, to $2,184,421 for the three months ended December 31, 2015 compared to income from operations of $1,680,348 for the same period ended December 31, 2014. The increase in sales and gross profit margin offset by the increase in operating expenses as explained above for the three months ended December 31, 2015 compared to the same period ended December 31, 2014 accounted for most of the variance.

OTHER EXPENSES

Other expenses decreased to $110,366 from $137,232 for the same period a year ago. There was a decrease in interest expense of approximately $27,000 primarily due to improved cash flow requiring less borrowing under the company's credit facility.

INCOME TAXES

For the three months ended December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the Company recognized an income tax provision of approximately $67,000 and $509,000, respectively.

For the three month period ended December 31, 2015 the company recognized an income tax provision of approximately $775,000 due to adjustments to its deferred tax assets based on management's best estimate of the Company's full year effective tax rate of approximately 38%. This tax provision was offset by the reversal of the remaining valuation allowance against the company's deferred tax asset of approximately $708,000 yielding a net income tax provision of approximately $67,000 for the three month period ended December 31, 2015. Management has determined that due to the company's improved financial performance, the Company will more than likely realize its entire deferred tax asset and no longer requires a valuation reserve allowance against this asset.

For the three months ended December 31, 2014 the Company recognized an income tax provision of approximately $509,000 due to adjustments to its deferred tax assets based on management's best estimate of the Company's full year effective tax rate of approximately 32% with no adjustment to the deferred tax asset's valuation reserve.

This increase in net sales was primarily due to increased product sales to one major retail customer of approximately $4,800,000 due to increased promotional programs with this customer which included increased co-op advertising, preferred end-cap store locations and "shelf-talkers" (looping videos on display with products). There was also an increase of approximately $1,800,000 in sales to another major retail customer due to increased popularity in on-line shopping. There was an increase in sales of approximately $600,000 to one major customer who offered an additional product to its customers. The remaining increase in net sales of approximately $111,000 was primarily due to the mix of products sold to existing customers.

GROSS PROFIT

Gross profit for the nine months ended December 31, 2015 increased to $11,409,688 from $7,729,524, an increase of approximately $3,681,000 as compared to the same period in the prior year. The increase in net sales as explained above contributed approximately $1,816,000 or 49% of the increase. There was an increase in price of certain promotional products for one major customer that contributed approximately $562,000 or 15% of the increase. There were cost decreases in some high volume products which accounted for approximately $571,000 or 16% of the increase with the remaining increase of approximately $732,000 primarily due to the mix of products sold.

Price increases on specific promotional products to one major retail customer accounted for approximately 3.0% of the gross profit margin increase with the remaining 1.1% increase due to cost reductions on certain high volume products and mix of products sold.

OPERATING EXPENSES

For the nine months ended December 31, 2015, total operating expenses increased to $8,084,069 from $6,241,873 for the nine months ended December 31, 2014, an increase of approximately $1,842,000. This increase was primarily due an increase of approximately $1,535,000 in variable selling expenses including freight, commissions and co-op advertising programs granted to major retail customers, and an increase in general and administrative expenses of approximately $280,000 with the remaining increase of approximately $27,000 due to an increase in depreciation expense.

Due to the increase in net sales there was an increase in commission expense of approximately $285,000 accounting for approximately 19% of the increase. The remaining variance of approximately $264,000 was due to variable selling expenses such as freight which increased commensurate with the increase in net sales and an increase in planned marketing expenses.

General and administrative expenses increased approximately $281,000 for the nine months ended December 31, 2015 compared to same period ended December 31, 2014. There was an increase in third party customer service fees of approximately $76,000 due to the increase in net sales. There was an increase in product development expenses of approximately $62,000 associated with modifications to the Home product line and new product development. There was an increase in inspection and testing expenses of approximately $47,000 primarily due to the increase in direct import shipments requiring additional inspections. The remaining increase of approximately $24,000 was primarily due to other variable costs associated with the increase in net sales.

INCOME FROM OPERATIONS

Income from operations increased approximately $1,838,000 to income from operations of $3,325,619 for the nine months ended December 31, 2015 compared to net income from operations of $1,487,651 for the same period ended December 31, 2014. OTHER EXPENSES

Our other expenses increased to $300,323 from $234,150 for the same period a year ago. Interest expense on past-due trade payables from related and non-related vendors accounted for approximately $39,000 of the increase. The remaining variance was due to an increase in amortization of deferred financing costs of approximately $22,000 with the remaining variance of approximately $5,000 primarily due to the amount of interest paid on the company's financing arrangement with PNC Bank.

INCOME TAXES

For the nine months ended December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014 the Company recognized an income tax provision of approximately $442,000 and $398,000, respectively.

For the nine month period ended December 31, 2015 the Company had an income tax provision of approximately $1,150,000 which was offset by the reversal of the remaining valuation allowance against the Company's deferred tax asset of approximately $708,000 yielding a net income tax provision of approximately $442,000 for the nine month period ended December 31, 2015. Management has determined that due to the Company's improved financial performance the Company will more than likely realize its entire deferred tax asset and no longer requires a valuation allowance against this asset.

For the nine months ended December 31, 2014 the Company recognized an income tax provision of approximately $398,000 due to adjustments to its deferred tax assets based on management's best estimate of the Company's full year effective tax rate of approximately 32% with no adjustment of the deferred tax asset's valuation reserve.

NET INCOME

For the nine months ended December 31, 2015 net income increased to $2,583,460 compared to net income of $855,506 for the same period a year ago. The increase in net income was the same as explained in income from operations and other expenses.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of December 31, 2015, Singing Machine had cash on hand of $232,940 as compared to cash on hand of $473,401 on December 31, 2014. We had working capital of $6,792,466 as of December 31, 2015.

Net cash used in operating activities was $1,393,459 for the nine months ended December 31, 2015, as compared to $3,196,966 used in operating activities during the same period a year ago. Accounts receivable increased by approximately $8,805,000 due primarily to seasonal increases in customer shipments during the third quarter ended December 31, 2015. There was an increase in accounts receivable from related parties of approximately $636,000 as the Company incurred seasonal increases in product sales to related companies. These uses of cash were offset by the Company's net pre-tax income of approximately $3,025,000 during the nine months ended December 31, 2015. In addition, the Company experienced a decrease in inventory of approximately $3,231,000 due to the shipment of excess goods from the previous fiscal year due to resolution Port of Los Angeles slow-down issues experienced in fiscal 2014. There was an increase in accrued expenses of approximately $1,568,000 primarily due to increased seasonal accruals for advertising allowance not yet deducted by customers and anticipated future sales returns. There was an increase in amounts due to related parties of approximately $130,000 due to an increase in seasonal product purchases from related parties. These changes account for approximately 93% of the cash used in operations with the remaining 7% due to seasonal changes in other operating assets and liabilities.

Net cash used in operating activities was $3,196,966 for the nine months ended December 31, 2014. During the nine month period ending December 31, 2014 the company experienced some late product deliveries due to a slow-down at the Port of Los Angeles as well as overstock of two major products resulting in an increase in inventory of approximately $1,711,000. Accounts receivable also increased by approximately $6,943,000 due primarily to seasonal increases in customer shipments during the third quarter ended December 31, 2014. These uses of cash were offset by an increase of accounts payable (primarily inventory vendors) of approximately $2,479,000, increase in related party trade payables (primarily for goods manufactured by related parties) of approximately $368,000 and increases in accrued expenses and provisions for defective returns of approximately $1,392,000 commensurate with the increase in seasonal sales and net income for the period of approximately $856,000. These changes account for approximately 91% of the cash used in operations with the remaining 9% due to seasonal changes in other operating assets and liabilities.

Net cash used by investing activities for the nine months ended December 31, 2015 was $142,116 as compared to $102,443 provided by investing activities for the same period ended a year ago. The increase in investment activity was due to increased investment of tooling and molds for new products as compared to the same period in the prior year.

Net cash provided by investing activities for the nine months ended December 31, 2014 was $102,443. The increase in cash provided by investing activities was due to the return of approximately $138,000 in cash collateral for the stand-by letter of credit issued as a security deposit required by a property lease. The stand-by letter of credit expired in October 2014 and was reissued with PNC Bank as allowed under the financing agreement with PNC. The remaining increase to cash provided by investing activities was due to the limited investment in tooling and molds for new products of approximately $36,000 for the nine month period ended December 31, 2014.

Net cash provided by financing activities was $1,652,229 for the nine months ended December 31, 2015, as compared to net cash provided by financing activities of $2,213,825 for the same period ended a year ago. During the nine month period ended December 31, 2015, the Company borrowed approximately $1,929,000 from the Revolving Line of Credit with PNC Bank which provided most of the working capital for operations during the period. This was offset by principal payment of approximately $267,000 on the Ram Light Management, Ltd. note payable. During the nine month period ended December 31, 2014, the Company borrowed approximately $2,445,000 from the Revolving Line of Credit with PNC Bank for working capital. This was offset by the payment of deferred financing costs of approximately $222,000 associated with the establishment of the Revolving Line of Credit with PNC Bank.

Forward-looking liquidity and capital resources: As previously announced, SMC on July 14, 2014 entered into a 3-year Revolving Line of Credit agreement with PNC Bank which allows for up to $15,000,000 in credit availability. In addition to our Revolving Line of Credit, the Shihua Group and other key vendors have expressed their willingness and ability to provide extended payment terms to us for key vendor payments primarily by extending longer payment terms for goods they manufacture for us. We believe that the extended terms from key vendors and adequate operating cash available from the Revolving Line of Credit will provide sufficient working capital to maintain operations for at least the next twelve months.

INVENTORY SELL THROUGH

We monitor the inventory levels and sell through activity of our major customers to properly anticipate defective returns and maintain the appropriate level of inventory. We believe that our warranty provision reflects the proper amount of reserves to cover potential defective sales returns based on historical return ratios and information available from the customers.

SEASONAL AND QUARTERLY RESULTS

Historically, our operations have been seasonal, with the highest net sales occurring in our second and third fiscal quarters (reflecting increased orders for equipment and music merchandise during the Christmas holiday season) and to a lesser extent the first and fourth quarters of the fiscal year. Sales in our second and third fiscal quarters, combined, accounted for approximately 87% and 88% of net sales in fiscal 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Our results of operations may also fluctuate from quarter to quarter as a result of the amount and timing of orders placed and shipped to customers, as well as other factors. The fulfillment of orders can therefore significantly affect results of operations on a quarter-to-quarter basis.

INFLATION

Inflation has not had a significant impact on our operations. We generally have adjusted our prices to track changes in the Consumer Price Index since prices we charge are generally not fixed by long-term contracts.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

We do not have any off balance sheet arrangements that are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, revenues, results of operations, liquidity or capital expenditures.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

We prepared our condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. As such, management is required to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that it believes are reasonable based on the information available. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the periods presented. The significant accounting policies which management believes are the most critical to aid in fully understanding and evaluating our reported financial results include: accounts receivable allowance for doubtful accounts, reserves on inventory, deferred tax assets.

COLLECTIBILITY OF ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE. Our allowance for doubtful accounts is based on management's estimates of the creditworthiness of our customers, current economic conditions and historical information, and, in the opinion of management, is believed to be an amount sufficient to respond to normal business conditions. Management sets 100% reserves for customers in bankruptcy and other reserves based upon historical collection experience. Should business conditions deteriorate or any major customer default on its obligations to the Company, this allowance may need to be significantly increased, which would have a negative impact on operations.

RESERVES ON INVENTORIES. We establish a reserve on inventory based on the expected net realizable value of inventory on an item-by-item basis when it is apparent that the expected realizable value of an inventory item falls below its original cost. A charge to cost of sales results when the estimated net realizable value of specific inventory items declines below cost. Management regularly reviews the Company's investment in inventories for such declines in value.

INCOME TAXES. Significant management judgment is required in developing our provision for income taxes, including the determination of foreign tax liabilities, deferred tax assets and liabilities and any valuation allowances that might be required against the deferred tax assets. Management evaluates its ability to realize its deferred tax assets on a quarterly basis and adjusts its valuation allowance when it believes that it is more likely than not that the asset will not be realized.

We operate within multiple taxing jurisdictions and are subject to audit in those jurisdictions. Because of the complex issues involved, any claims can require an extended period to resolve. In management's opinion, adequate provisions for potential income taxes in the jurisdiction have been made. As of December 31, 2015, there were no uncertain tax positions that resulted in any adjustment to the Company's provision for income taxes.

USE OF OTHER ESTIMATES

We make other estimates in the ordinary course of business relating to sales returns and allowances, warranty reserves, and reserves for promotional incentives. Historically, past changes to these estimates have not had a material impact on our financial condition. However, circumstances could change which may alter future expectations.
