1st Quarter Results

ALLIANZ AG: First quarter result 2006 significantly improved

Allianz Group recorded a significant improvement of its result in the first three months of 2006. Provisional figures show an increase in revenues of 4.9 percent to roughly 30 billion Euros compared with the first quarter of the previous year. Operating profit (1) is expected to increase to approximately 2.7 billion Euros from 1.9 billion Euros and quarterly net income to 1.8 billion Euros from 1.3 billion Euros (2). quarter 2006 will therefore increase to over 41 billion Euros from 39.5 billion Euros as of 31.12.2005. All segments have contributed to this positive trend.

Due to benign capital markets Allianz has already realized in the first quarter of 2006 a major portion of its capital gains target for the whole year 2006. Dresdner Bank and parts of the life insurance business have benefited from this positive environment. There has also been an absence of significant claims from natural catastrophes. As in previous years the first quarter is expected to make a disproportionate contribution to the targeted full year result. Allianz further expect to reach net income of 4.9 billion Euros (3) for the business year 2006.

Allianz will publish its full quarterly report on 12 May.

(1) The definition of operating profit was amended in line with European market practice in the first quarter of 2006. The comparable figure for the previous year was amended accordingly (from 1.8 to 1.9 billion Euros).

(2) The quarterly net income originally reported for Q1 2005 of 1.2 billion Euros was adjusted in Q3 2005 in line with retrospectively applicable accounting rules.

(3) Calculation based on a shareholding of 76.3 percent in RAS.
