Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On January 7, 2005, Teradyne, Inc. (the Company) committed to a restructuring plan (the Plan) as part of an ongoing effort to lower expenses. Pursuant to the Plan, the Company will be:

Terminating approximately 320 employees from the Company's Connection Systems and Assembly Test divisions;

Vacating a facility leased by the Company's Assembly Test division in Poway, CA.

The Plan is expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2005.

As a result of the Plan, the Company expects to incur approximately $11.0 million in charges in the first quarter of 2005, consisting of:

|   | CashExpenditures | Non-CashExpenditures | TotalExpenditures |

Safe Harbor Statement

This Form 8-K contains statements regarding expected reductions in cost and expenses, consolidation of facilities and operations, vacating of facilities, timing of commencement and completion of the restructuring plan, disposal of certain real property holdings, elimination of positions, total charges, the breakdown of total charges and residual obligations which are forward-looking statements as defined under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are based on the current assumptions and expectations of Teradyne's management and are neither promises nor guarantees but involve risks and uncertainties, both known and unknown, that could cause Teradyne's actual costs, expenses and results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those presently expected include, but are not limited to, uncertainties as to the effects of the restructuring plan, difficulties by management in successfully implementing the restructuring plan, the need for additional or corrective actions, unanticipated delays in the implementation of the restructuring plan, unanticipated costs and expenses relating to the implementation of the restructuring plan, real estate market conditions, adverse changes in general economic or market conditions, declines in Teradyne's revenues and earnings, timing and volume of orders and shipments, reduced bookings and reliability and quality issues. Reference is made to the discussion of risk factors detailed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, Teradyne's annual report on Form 10-K for the period ending December 31, 2003 and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q including that for the quarter ended October 3, 2004. The forward-looking statements included herein are made only as of the date of publication and Teradyne undertakes no obligation to update the information set forth in this Form 8-K.
