Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 31, 2005, Dynegy Inc. (Dynegy) entered into agreements with Carol F. Graebner and R. Blake Young (the Severance and Release Agreements) regarding the termination of their employment with Dynegy. In connection with Dynegy's previous public announcement of a change in its executive management team, Ms. Graebner ceased to serve as Executive Vice President and General Counsel and Mr. Young ceased to serve as Executive Vice President, Administration & Technology as of November 28, 2005, but both continued as employees through December 31, 2005. Each Severance and Release Agreement will become effective upon expiration of the required seven-day revocation period.

Pursuant to and subject to the effectiveness of the Severance and Release Agreements, Dynegy agreed to (i) pay a cash sum of $1,152,403 to Ms. Graebner and $1,124,480.77 to Mr. Young, of which $375,000 and $365,000, respectively, relates to each individual's cooperation and assistance after termination, (ii) provide Ms. Graebner and Mr. Young with continued medical, dental and vision coverage for up to 24 months commencing January 1, 2006, (iii) pay each an award pursuant to the terms of Dynegy's Mid-Term Incentive Performance Award Program and (iv) subject to the discretion of Dynegy's Compensation and Human Resources Committee, pay each an annual short-term incentive award for 2005. In addition, all restricted shares and outstanding stock options for each individual fully vest and said options are exercisable through the end of 2006. In exchange for these severance benefits, Ms. Graebner and Mr. Young released Dynegy from any employment-related claims and agreed to post-employment restrictive covenants and cooperation and assistance obligations, in each case as specified in the Severance and Release Agreements.

The foregoing description of the Severance and Release Agreements for Ms. Graebner and Mr. Young does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such agreements filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

In December 2005, as part of a comprehensive effort to reduce on-going operating expenses, Dynegy committed to a workforce reduction plan. The plan will result in a reduction of approximately 40 positions and will be substantially complete by the end of the first quarter 2006. The reduction was communicated to affected employees on various dates within the month of December. In connection with the reduction, including the previously announced executive management team changes, Dynegy expects to incur a one-time pre-tax charge of approximately $9 million to $11 million all of which relates to severance benefits. Approximately $8 million to $10 million of that amount will be recognized in the fourth quarter 2005. The remaining $1 million will be recognized primarily in the first quarter 2006. Other costs may be incurred associated with the workforce reduction plan that are not reasonably estimable at this time. Dynegy will amend this Current Report on Form 8-K once estimates of such other costs, if any, are determined.
