Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 29, 2006, Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. and its subsidiaries and affiliates (Gallagher) reached an agreement to resolve all claims in the Federal Multi-District class action litigation (MDL) pending in the New Jersey Federal District Court against commercial insurers and brokers relating to industry-wide contingent commission matters. Gallagher admitted no wrongdoing, but chose to conclude its involvement, rather than prolong what could be a costly and burdensome lawsuit. Gallagher established a provision for this matter in 2005, and as a result, substantially all of the costs associated with the MDL settlement have been reserved for in its previously reported balance sheet. Gallagher will incur a pretax charge in its fourth quarter 2006 earnings of between $5.0 million to $10.0 million to increase its reserve for the costs to be incurred to administratively conclude the MDL settlement and to resolve other regulatory and civil litigation matters.

The MDL settlement, which is subject to court approval, provides for Gallagher to distribute $28.0 million to current and former clients and others that used a broker to purchase retail insurance from 1994 to 2005. Gallagher will also pay $8.85 million in plaintiff's attorney fees.
