Questions and Answers

Q. What is happening?

- A. RiverSource Investments, LLC (RiverSource), a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameriprise Financial, Inc. (Ameriprise), recently entered into a stock purchase agreement (the Stock Purchase Agreement) with the stockholders of J. & W. Seligman & Co. Incorporated (Seligman), the manager of Tri-Continental Corporation (the Corporation). Under the Stock Purchase Agreement, RiverSource will acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Seligman (the Transaction). RiverSource and Seligman anticipate that the Transaction will be completed in the fourth quarter of 2008 (the Closing).

If and when the Transaction is completed, the Corporation's management agreement with Seligman will terminate, and, subject to approval of the Corporation's stockholders, the Corporation will enter into a new investment management services agreement with RiverSource (the Proposed Advisory Agreement). [] of the current directors (the Directors) of the Corporation have indicated that, if the Closing occurs, they will resign in order to facilitate the oversight of the Corporation by the same board of directors or trustees that currently oversees other funds advised by RiverSource, as those Directors believe that the interests of stockholders would most efficiently and effectively be represented by a single board that is familiar with RiverSource and with the management and operation of other funds advised by RiverSource. The remaining [] of the current Directors are expected to continue to serve as Directors, and to serve on the boards of the funds advised by RiverSource. The Proxy Statement provides additional information about the matters on which the Board is soliciting your vote the Proposed Advisory Agreement and the nominees for new directors of the Corporation. As explained in the Proxy Statement, if approved by stockholders, the effectiveness of the proposals is contingent upon the Closing.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR EACH PROPOSAL AND NOMINEE DESCRIBED IN THE ENCLOSED PROXY STATEMENT.

Q. Why are you sending me this information?

- A. You are receiving the enclosed Proxy Statement and proxy card (the Proxy Card) because you own shares of the Corporation and have the right to vote on these important proposals concerning your investment.

Q. Why am I being asked to vote on a new investment management services agreement?

- A. If the Transaction is completed, the Corporation's current management agreement will terminate, and Seligman will no longer be able to serve as the manager to the Corporation under that agreement.

Q. Why am I being asked to elect new Directors?

- A. In connection with the Transaction, the Board of Directors has recommended that stockholders elect Directors who are familiar with RiverSource and with the management and operation of other funds advised by RiverSource. The proposed nominees currently serve as directors and trustees of other funds advised by RiverSource. [] of the Corporation's current Directors are expected to continue to serve as Directors following the Closing, and to serve on the boards of the other funds advised by RiverSource. If all of the proposed nominees are elected, the Board of Directors will consist of [] directors.

Q. How will the Transaction affect me as a stockholder?

- A. The Transaction will not result in any change in the Corporation's investment objective or policies. However, the portfolio management team that will manage the Corporation's portfolio will use an investment strategy that differs in certain respects from the strategy used by the Corporation in the last several years, as discussed under Proposal 1. The fees currently payable by the Corporation in respect of investment advisory and administrative services, as a percentage of net assets, will slightly decrease from current levels and the methodology for calculating such fees will be revised. The other terms of the proposed investment management services agreement for the Corporation are generally similar to those of the Corporation's current management agreement, as discussed in greater detail in the Proxy Statement under Proposal 1.

Q. How does the Corporation's Board recommend that I vote?

- A. The Corporation's Board recommends that you vote FOR each proposal.

Q. Will the Corporation pay for this proxy solicitation?

- A. No. RiverSource has agreed to bear these costs.

Q. How do I cast my votes?

- A. You may vote in person at the Meeting or, for your convenience, there are several ways you can authorize proxies to cast your votes on your behalf at the Meeting:

By Mail: Complete, sign and return the enclosed Proxy Card(s) in the enclosed self-addressed, postage-paid envelope.

By Telephone: Call the toll-free number printed on the enclosed Proxy Card(s) and follow the directions, as prompted.

By Internet: Access the website address printed on the enclosed Proxy Card(s) and follow the directions on the website.

In Person: Attend the stockholder meeting as described in the enclosed Proxy Statement. You will need proof of record ownership of the Corporation's stock as of the record date to enter the Meeting or, if your shares are held in street name, a proxy from the record holder.

Q. Whom should I call for additional information about the enclosed Proxy Statement?

- A. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Georgeson Inc., the Corporation's proxy solicitors, at 199 Water Street, New York, New York 10038, or by telephone at 1-888-219-8293.

GENERAL OVERVIEW

The Transaction

RiverSource, a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameriprise Financial, Inc. (Ameriprise), recently entered into a stock purchase agreement (the Stock Purchase Agreement) with the stockholders of Seligman, the Corporation's manager. Under the Stock Purchase Agreement, RiverSource will acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Seligman for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $440 million (the Transaction). RiverSource and Seligman anticipate that the Transaction will be completed in the fourth quarter of 2008 (the Closing).

RiverSource, Ameriprise and Seligman advised the Corporation's Board that they believe that the combination of RiverSource and Seligman will result in significant benefits to the Corporation, including: greater resources to attract and retain high quality investment personnel; greater depth and breadth of investment management capabilities; a continued high level of service to the Corporation; and the potential for realization of economies of scale over time since the Corporation will be part of a much larger fund complex.

If and when the Transaction is completed, the Corporation's current management agreement (the Current Management Agreement) with Seligman will terminate, and, subject to approval by the Corporation's stockholders, the Corporation will enter into a new investment management services agreement with RiverSource (the Proposed Advisory Agreement). [] of the current directors (the Directors) of the Corporation have indicated that, if the Closing occurs, they will resign in order to facilitate the oversight of the Corporation by the same board of directors or trustees that currently oversees other funds advised by RiverSource, as they believe that the interests of stockholders would most efficiently and effectively be represented by a single board that is familiar with RiverSource and with the management and operation of other funds advised by RiverSource. The remaining [] of the current Directors are expected to continue to serve as Directors, and to join the boards of the other funds advised by RiverSource.

The Directors have approved an interim investment management services agreement for the Corporation with RiverSource, which would be effective at the Closing if the Proposed Advisory Agreement has not been approved by stockholders prior to the Closing. Under the interim investment management services agreement, RiverSource would serve as investment adviser to the Corporation for up to 150 days following the Closing. The terms of this interim agreement is substantially the same as the Current Management Agreement, and the same as the Proposed Advisory Agreement, except as discussed below with respect to the calculation of the advisory fees payable and except to the extent required by law.

Conditions to Closing and Effectiveness of the Proposals

If approved by stockholders, the effectiveness of each proposal is contingent upon the Closing. The Closing is subject to certain terms and conditions, including, among others, that: (1) RiverSource and Seligman obtaining any necessary governmental approvals; (2) a specified minimum level of annualized revenue being achieved; and (3) stockholders of open-end Seligman Funds equaling a percentage of annualized revenue of the open-end Seligman Funds approving the assignment of the management agreements with RiverSource in respect of those Seligman Funds. The effectiveness of Proposal 1 and Proposal 2 are not contingent on the approval by stockholders of the other proposal.

Information Regarding RiverSource

RiverSource is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended. RiverSource offers a full spectrum of investment products to domestic and international retail, business, and institutional investors. As of June 30, 2008, RiverSource had approximately $[] billion in assets under management. RiverSource currently manages [] funds. RiverSource's principal office address is 200 Ameriprise Financial Center, Minneapolis, MN.

For information regarding RiverSource's directors and executive officers, see Appendix A.

Covenants Regarding Certain Legal Requirements Under the 1940 Act

RiverSource has made certain covenants in the Stock Purchase Agreement regarding compliance with Section 15(f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"), which, in pertinent part, provides a safe harbor for the receipt by an investment adviser or any of its affiliated persons of any amount or benefit in connection with certain transactions, such as the Transaction, involving an assignment of an investment management services agreement as long as two conditions are satisfied.

The first condition requires that no "unfair burden" be imposed on the investment company as a result of the Transaction, or as a result of any express or implied terms, conditions or understandings applicable to the Transaction. The term "unfair burden," as defined in the 1940 Act, includes any arrangement during the two-year period after the change in control whereby the investment adviser (or predecessor or successor investment adviser), or any interested person of any such investment adviser, receives or is entitled to receive any compensation, directly or indirectly, from such investment company or its security holders (other than fees for bona fide investment advisory or other services) or from any person in connection with the purchase or sale of securities or other property to, from or on behalf of such investment company (other than bona fide ordinary fees for principal underwriting services). No such compensation arrangements are contemplated in the Transaction. RiverSource and Ameriprise have agreed to refrain from imposing or seeking to impose, for a period of two years after the Closing, any unfair burden on the Corporation.

The second condition requires that, during the three-year period immediately following the closing of such transactions, at least 75% of the investment company's board of directors or trustees must not be interested persons (as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the 1940 Act) of the investment adviser or predecessor investment adviser. The Board currently satisfies, and the Nominees (as hereinafter defined), if elected, would satisfy, such 75% requirement. RiverSource has agreed with Seligman to use its reasonable best efforts to ensure continued satisfaction of the 75% requirement for the three-year period following the Closing.

PROPOSAL 1 TO APPROVE A NEW INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES AGREEMENT

The Board is recommending the approval of the Proposed Advisory Agreement for the Corporation because the Current Management Agreement will terminate upon the Closing (as defined above). As required by the 1940 Act, the Current Management Agreement provides for automatic termination upon its assignment. Under the 1940 Act, a change in control of an investment adviser constitutes an assignment. The closing of the Transaction will result in the assignment of the Current Management Agreement, and in its automatic termination. Therefore, as described below, stockholders of the Corporation are being asked to approve the Proposed Advisory Agreement.

The Proposed Advisory Agreement will become effective as of the later of (i) the Closing or (ii) the date stockholders of the Corporation approve the Proposed Advisory Agreement. If the Closing does not take place, the Proposed Advisory Agreement will not become effective, and the Current Management Agreement will continue in effect.

The Current Management Agreement was last approved by the Directors, including a majority of the independent Directors, on November 15, 2007. The Current Management Agreement was last approved by stockholders on [●].

The Proposed Advisory Agreement

As noted above, under the requirements of the 1940 Act, the Corporation is required to enter into a new investment management services agreement as a result of the Transaction. The fees payable under the Proposed Advisory Agreement are slightly lower than those currently payable under the Current Management Agreement. In addition, under the Current Management Agreement, the adviser is responsible for providing administrative services to the Corporation. The Proposed Advisory Agreement does not encompass administrative services, which will be provided to the Corporation by Ameriprise under a separate Administrative Services Agreement (the New Administrative Services Agreement). Other terms of the Proposed Advisory Agreement are generally similar to those of the Current Management Agreement, although the forms of the two agreements differ in a number of respects. The Board has approved, and recommends that you approve, the Proposed Advisory Agreement with RiverSource, which would take effect upon the later of (i) the Closing or (ii) the date stockholders of the Corporation approve the Proposed Advisory Agreement. The form of the Proposed Advisory Agreement is substantially the same form currently in effect for all other funds advised by RiverSource. The principal substantive difference from the Current Management Agreement is the advisory fee rate, which would decline slightly under the Proposed Advisory Agreement from its current level. That, and other less significant differences, are described in detail below.

Description of the Proposed Advisory Agreement and Current Management Agreement

Set forth below is a general description of the terms of the Proposed Advisory Agreement and a general comparison with the terms of the Current Agreement. The terms of the Proposed Advisory Agreement are generally similar to those of the Corporation's Current Management Agreement. A copy of the form of Proposed Advisory Agreement for the Corporation is attached as Appendix B to this Proxy Statement.

Fees. The Corporation currently pays Seligman a monthly fee equal to a percentage, ranging from 0.45% to 0.375%, of its daily net assets that declines based on the net assets of all of the investment companies registered under the 1940 Act for which Seligman serves as investment manager (the Fee Base Assets). For the year ended December 31, 2007, the management fee payable to Seligman by the Corporation amounted to $11,197,584 which was equivalent to an annual rate of 0.41% of the average daily net assets of the Corporation. For the semi-annual period ended June 30, 2008 the fee rate was []% of the average daily net assets of the Corporation, and as at August [], 2008, the fee rate was being accrued at a rate of []% of the Corporation's average daily net assets. Under the Proposed Advisory Agreement, RiverSource would be paid a fee the annual rate of 0.40% of average daily net assets of the Corporation. Had the fee rate under the Proposed Advisory Agreement been in effect for the year ended December 31, 2007 and the semi-annual period ended June 30, 2008, Seligman would have received $[] and $[], respectively, which is []% and []% less than was actually received for those periods. The annual fee rate under the Proposed Advisory Agreement is slightly lower than the annual rate at which Seligman was paid under the Current Management Agreement during the Corporation's last fiscal year and most recent semi-annual period. However, because the fee rate under the Proposed Advisory Agreement is a fixed percentage of the Corporation's net assets, and does not take into account the net assets of any other registered investment companies, it is higher than the fee rate that would be payable to Seligman under the current fee schedule under certain scenarios (for example, if the Fee Base Assets were to increase significantly from current levels).

Investment Advisory Services. The investment advisory duties under the Proposed Advisory Agreement and Current Management Agreement are substantially the same. Both agreements generally provide that, subject to the direction and control of the Board, the adviser will furnish the Corporation continuously with investment advice; determine, consistent with the Corporation's investment objectives and policies, which securities in its discretion will be purchased, held or sold; and execute or cause the execution of purchase or sell orders pursuant to its determinations with brokers or dealers it has selected. In executing portfolio transactions and selecting brokers or dealers for the Corporation, the adviser agrees to seek to obtain best execution. In assessing the best overall terms available for any transaction, the adviser may consider all factors it deems relevant, including, but not limited to, the characteristics of the security being traded, the broker-dealer's ability to provide research services, and the reputation, reliability and financial soundness of the broker-dealer. Both the Proposed Advisory Agreement and Current Management Agreement authorize the adviser to pay to a broker or dealer who provides such brokerage and research services a commission for executing a portfolio transaction for the Corporation that is in excess of the amount of commission another broker or dealer would have charged for effecting the transaction, to the extent consistent with applicable law.

Both the Proposed Advisory Agreement and Current Management Agreement provide that the adviser will provide support with respect to voting proxies solicited by or with respect to the issuers of securities in which the Corporation's assets may be invested from time to time. The Current Management Agreement provides that the adviser will determine how voting and other rights with respect to securities will be exercised, subject to the control of the Board. The Proposed Advisory Agreement provides that, in the event the Board determines to delegate proxy voting authority to the adviser, the adviser will determine how voting and other rights with respect to securities will be exercised, subject to the control of the Board, but that, absent such a delegation, the Board will exercise sole voting power with respect to all such proxies.

The Proposed Advisory Agreement provides that the adviser may, at its own expense and with the approval of the Corporation's Board and/or its stockholders, select and contract with one or more investment advisers to perform some or all of the services for which the adviser is responsible, as described above. Under current law, a stockholder vote would be required before a subadviser could be employed to provide advisory services to the Corporation, and RiverSource does not currently intend to propose subadvisory relationships for the Corporation.

Administrative Services. The Current Management Agreement provides that Seligman will provide all necessary administrative services to the Corporation. In contrast, the Proposed Advisory Agreement does not require RiverSource to provide administrative services. Instead, Ameriprise will enter into a new administrative services agreement with the Corporation under which it will provide, at no cost to the Corporation, generally the same administrative services provided by Seligman under the Current Management Agreement. However, administrative services agreements, unlike advisory agreements, may be amended, including to increase the fees payable thereunder, by the directors without stockholder approval. RiverSource has indicated that it reserves its right to seek such an increase in the future, although it anticipates that any such fees would be offset by corresponding decreases in advisory fees.

Payment of Expenses. The Proposed Advisory Agreement and Current Management Agreement both provide that the adviser will pay all expenses incurred by it in connection with its activities under the agreements, while the Corporation is responsible for bearing its own expenses. The expenses to be borne by the Corporation under the contract include, without limitation: direct charges in connection with the purchase and sale of assets; the cost of securities purchased for the Corporation and the amount of any brokerage fees and commissions incurred in executing portfolio transactions for the Corporation; expenses related to the issue and sale of securities; fees and expenses of attorneys and consultants; taxes; filing fees and charges; and organizational expenses. The Proposed Advisory Agreement also lists the following expenses to be borne by the Corporation, which, while not explicitly noted in the Current Management Agreement, have been paid by the Corporation in the normal course of business: premium on the fidelity bond required by Rule 17g-1 under the 1940 Act, fees of consultants employed by the Corporation, benefits paid or provided to Board members, and expenses incurred in connection with lending portfolio securities.

Limitation on Liability. Under the Proposed Advisory Agreement, and subject to the federal securities laws, neither RiverSource, nor any of its directors, officers, partners, principals, employees, or agents shall be liable for any acts or omissions or for any loss suffered by the Corporation or its stockholders or creditors, except a loss resulting from bad faith, intentional misconduct or negligence on its part in regard to the performance of its duties under the agreement. In addition, RiverSource will be entitled to reasonably rely upon any information or instructions furnished by the Corporation or its agents which is believed in good faith to be accurate and reliable. Also, the Proposed Advisory Agreement provides that RiverSource does not warrant any rate of return, market value or performance of any assets in the Corporation. The Current Management Agreement is silent with regard to these matters, although a court interpreting the Current Management Agreement would likely apply a standard similar to that stated in the Proposed Advisory Agreement in considering Seligman's potential liability thereunder.

Duration and Termination. The Proposed Advisory Agreement will have an initial term of two years from its effective date and will continue until a new agreement is approved by a vote of the majority of the outstanding shares of the Corporation and by vote of a majority of the Board members who are not parties to such agreement or interested persons. The Proposed Advisory Agreement will continue from year to year, until terminated by either party, if continuance is specifically approved at least annually (i) by the Board or by a vote of the majority of the outstanding shares of the Corporation and (ii) by the vote of a majority of the Board members who are not parties to the Proposed Advisory Agreement or interested persons, cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval. The Current Management Agreement provides that it will continue in full force and effect until December 29 of each year if continuance is approved in the manner required by the 1940 Act that is, in the manner specified in the Proposed Advisory Agreement.

Board Considerations

The Directors of the Corporation unanimously approved the Proposed Advisory Agreement with RiverSource at a meeting held on July 17, 2008.

Prior to their approval of the Proposed Advisory Agreement, the Directors requested and evaluated extensive materials from, and were provided materials and information about the Transaction by, Seligman, RiverSource and Ameriprise. The Directors reviewed the approval of the Proposed Advisory Agreement with RiverSource and with experienced counsel who advised on the legal standards for their consideration. The independent directors discussed the proposed approval with counsel in private sessions.

At their meetings held on June 12, 2008 and July 17, 2008, the Directors discussed the Transaction and RiverSource's plans and intentions regarding the Corporation with representatives of Ameriprise, RiverSource and Seligman.

The Directors considered all factors they believed relevant, including the specific matters discussed below. In their deliberations, the Directors did not identify any particular information that was all-important or controlling, and Directors may have attributed different weights to the various factors. The Directors determined that the selection of RiverSource to advise the Corporation, and the overall arrangements between the Corporation and RiverSource as provided in the Proposed Advisory Agreement, including the proposed advisory fee and the related administration arrangements between the Corporation and Ameriprise, were fair and reasonable in light of the services to be performed, expenses incurred and such other matters as the Directors considered relevant. The material factors and conclusions that formed the basis for the Directors' determination included, in addition, the factors discussed in further detail below:

- (i) the reputation, financial strength and resources of RiverSource and its parent, Ameriprise;
- (ii) RiverSource's capabilities in respect of compliance and its regulatory history;
- (iii) that RiverSource and Ameriprise assured the Directors that following the Transaction there will not be any diminution in the nature, quality and extent of services provided to the Corporation or its stockholders;
- (iv) that within the past year the directors had performed a full annual review of the Current Management Agreement as required by the 1940 Act and had determined that they were satisfied with the nature, extent and quality of services provided thereunder and that the Corporation's management fee and expense ratio were satisfactory;
- (v) the potential benefits of the combination of RiverSource and Seligman to the Corporation, including: greater resources to attract and retain high quality investment personnel; greater depth and breadth of investment management capabilities, including a highly regarded new team of portfolio managers for the Corporation; a continued high level of service to the Corporation; and the potential for realization of economies of scale over time since the Corporation will be part of a much larger fund complex;
- (vi) the fact that the Corporation's total advisory and administrative fees will not increase by virtue of the Proposed Advisory Agreement, but will decrease slightly from the current fee rate;
- (vii) that RiverSource, and not the Corporation, would bear the costs of obtaining all approvals of the Proposed Advisory Agreement;
- (viii) the qualifications of the RiverSource and Ameriprise personnel that would provide advisory and administrative services to the Corporation;
- (ix) the terms and conditions of the Proposed Advisory Agreement, including their review of differences from the Current Management Agreement; and

- (x) that RiverSource and Ameriprise have agreed to refrain from imposing or seeking to impose, for a period of two years after the Closing, any unfair burden (as defined in the 1940 Act) on the Corporation; and
- (xi) that RiverSource has a significant amount of experience integrating other fund families into the RiverSource family of funds.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services Provided

In considering the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided by RiverSource under the Proposed Advisory Agreement, the Directors considered, among other things, the expected impact of the Transaction on the operations of the Corporation. The Directors considered the information provided by RiverSource with respect to the nature, extent and quality of services to be provided by it. The Directors considered RiverSource's compliance program and compliance records. The Directors considered the presentations provided on the quality of the investment research capabilities of RiverSource and the other resources it has indicated that it would dedicate to performing services for the Corporation. The Directors considered the fact that the portfolio management team of the Corporation would not remain the same after the Transaction, and noted the professional experience and qualifications of the proposed portfolio management team and other senior personnel of RiverSource. The Directors considered RiverSource's discussion regarding the selection of brokers and dealers for portfolio transactions of the Corporation. As administrative services (currently provided under the Current Management Agreement) would be provided to the Corporation by Ameriprise at no additional cost rather than pursuant to the Proposed Advisory Agreement, the Directors considered Ameriprise's capability to provide such administrative services as well as RiverSource's role in coordinating the activities of the Corporation's other service providers. The Directors noted that Ameriprise intended to continue Seligman's practice of sub-contracting certain administrative services provided by Seligman for the Corporation to State Street Bank and Trust Company for the foreseeable future. The Directors concluded that, overall, they were satisfied with assurances from RiverSource and Ameriprise as to the expected nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided to the Corporation under the Proposed Advisory Agreement and the New Administrative Services Agreement.

Costs of Services Provided and Profitability to RiverSource

In considering the costs of services to be provided by RiverSource under the Proposed Advisory Agreement the Directors considered, among other things, the projected pre-tax profitability of RiverSource's proposed relationship with the Corporation and discussed the assumptions of RiverSource and the limitations on the information provided. They also noted that RiverSource had undertaken to provide detailed profitability information in connection with future contract continuances. The Directors considered RiverSource's financial condition based on historical information provided by RiverSource.

The Directors noted that the proposed fee was slightly lower than the fee currently paid by the Corporation pursuant to the Current Management Agreement. The Directors recognized that it is difficult to make comparisons of profitability from fund advisory contracts because comparative information is not generally publicly available and is affected by numerous factors. In reviewing projected profitability information, the Directors considered the effect of fall-out benefits on expenses. The Directors concluded that they were satisfied that RiverSource's level of projected profitability from its relationship with the Corporation was not excessive.

Fall-Out Benefits

The Directors noted that the Proposed Advisory Agreement provides that RiverSource may benefit from soft dollar arrangements relating to commissions paid by the Corporation on purchases and sales of securities on an agency basis. The Directors noted RiverSource's representation that none of its affiliated broker-dealers were expected to provide brokerage services to the Corporation. They reviewed information about RiverSource's practices with respect to allocating portfolio brokerage for brokerage and research services. The Directors recognized that RiverSource's projected profitability would be somewhat lower without this benefit. The Directors also noted that RiverSource may derive reputational and other benefits from its association with the Corporation.

Investment Results

The Directors noted that a new portfolio management team was being proposed by RiverSource for the Corporation. The Directors discussed the proposed portfolio management team, its investment strategy and process and the proposed modifications expected to be made to that strategy in light of the Corporation's objective over the years to produce future growth of both capital and income while providing reasonable current income. The Directors noted that neither the proposed portfolio management team nor RiverSource has experience managing closed-end funds such as the Corporation, and discussed with RiverSource its sensitivity to the fact that the market return of common stockholders of the Corporation is affected by the relationship of the Corporation's trading price to the net asset value of the Corporation's common stock, as well as investment performance.

At the meeting, the Directors reviewed the Corporation's performance information for periods covering the first six months of 2008, the preceding seven calendar years and annualized one-, three-, five-, and ten-year rolling periods ending June 30, 2008. For each of these periods the Directors reviewed and compared information regarding the performance of the Corporation to the Lipper Large-Cap Core Funds Average, the Lipper Closed-End Core Funds Average and the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Price Index, which are the Corporation's benchmarks. The Directors reviewed a composite of performance information provided by RiverSource regarding the proposed portfolio management team and its strategy, and comparing that to the Corporation's long-term record. Representatives from RiverSource explained the comparative information that they had provided, including the method of calculating the various comparisons. The Directors reviewed information regarding the dividend yield of the Corporation over the past ten calendar years and the first six months of 2008 and considered distributions of a RiverSource fund managed by the proposed portfolio team. The Directors reviewed information comparing the Corporation's historical portfolio turnover rates to the portfolio turnover rates of other investment companies with similar investment objectives, including those managed by the proposed portfolio management team. The Directors noted that the performance results RiverSource presented were generally better than those of the Corporation for the periods presented, but recognized that while the comparisons involving the RiverSource information were helpful in demonstrating the skill of the proposed portfolio management team, the fact that the strategies of the Corporation and the portfolio management team were not the same meant that the Corporation would have achieved different results had it been managed by the same team over periods presented. The Directors noted that it is not possible to predict what effect, if any, consummation of the Transaction and the replacement of the portfolio management team would have on the future performance of the Corporation.

Management Fees and Other Expenses

The Directors considered the proposed advisory fee rate to be paid by the Corporation to RiverSource. In addition to the materials provided by Seligman regarding the fee rate, expense ratio and operating expense rate of the Corporation, RiverSource provided information regarding the fees for RiverSource funds and managed accounts managed using core equity strategies. The Directors recognized that it is difficult to make comparisons of advisory fees because there are variations in the services that are included in the fees paid by other funds. The Directors noted that, under the Proposed Advisory Agreement, the fee would be calculated solely as a percentage of the Corporation's net assets, rather than a percentage of the Fee Base, and would no longer have any break points. The Directors noted that the proposed advisory fee was slightly lower than the Corporation's current management fee (even after taking breakpoints into account), and also lower than current fee for an open-end fund advised by RiverSource that pursues a similar strategy as the Corporation. They noted that the Fee Base concept is relatively unusual and that it could not be continued as written since Seligman is not expected to manage investment company assets after consummation of the Transaction. The Directors also compared the proposed advisory fee rate to a subset of funds in the Lipper Closed-End Core Fund category and the Lipper Large-Cap Core Funds category (the Lipper peer groups). The information showed that the proposed advisory fee rate was among the lowest in the Lipper peer group. In considering the fee rate, the Directors noted that the Corporation's current management fee rate includes administrative services provided by Seligman whereas the proposed advisory agreement does not include such services, but that Ameriprise will provide such services to the Corporation initially without a fee. The Directors further considered that the administrative fee could be increased without stockholder approval, although RiverSource noted that, at this time, it did not have an intention to seek such an increase, and that any such fee would require board approval. The Directors noted RiverSource's and Ameriprise's covenants in the Stock Purchase Agreement regarding compliance with Section 15(f) of the 1940 Act.

In considering the expenses of the Corporation, the Directors noted that the Corporation has elected to have certain shareholder services provided at cost by SDC, a company owned by the Corporation and certain of the other investment companies in the Seligman Group of Funds that provides shareholder services to the Corporation and other investment companies in the Seligman Group of Funds at cost. SDC provides services exclusively to the Seligman Group of Funds. The Directors believe that the arrangement with SDC has provided the Corporation and its shareholders with a consistently high level of service. They noted that RiverSource had indicated that no changes to the arrangements with SDC were being proposed at this time by RiverSource.

The Directors noted that, in conjunction with their most recent deliberations concerning the Current Management Agreement, they had determined that the Corporation's expense ratio was satisfactory. The Directors also noted that the Corporation's current expense ratio was lower than the median and the average for each Lipper peer group. The Directors concluded that because the advisory and administrative fees for the Corporation were expected to decrease slightly as a result of the Transaction, and the services to be provided to the Corporation were not expected to diminish, the expected expense ratio and proposed fees were appropriate.

Economies of Scale

The Directors noted that the proposed advisory fee schedule for the Corporation would eliminate the Corporation's current breakpoints, which take into account the net assets of all funds in the Seligman Group of Funds, including the Corporation, and that the current effective management fee rate reflects a reduction due to the effect of those breakpoints. The Directors recognized that there is no direct relationship between the economies of scale realized by funds and those realized by their investment adviser as assets increase. The Directors do not believe that there is a uniform methodology for establishing breakpoints that gives effect to fund specific services provided by an adviser. The Directors also observed that in the investment company industry as a whole, as well as among funds similar to the Corporation, there is no uniformity or pattern in the fees and asset levels at which breakpoints (if any) apply, and that the advisory agreements for many competitor funds do not have breakpoints at all. The Directors also noted that the proposed advisory fee rate would be slightly lower than the Corporation's effective fee rate for 2007 and at June 30, 2008 and is among the lower fees paid by actively managed funds. They also noted that since the Corporation is a closed-end fund, its net assets are unlikely to increase materially, absent special circumstances. Having taken these factors into account the Directors concluded that the absence of breakpoint arrangements were acceptable under the Corporation's circumstances.

The Directors recognized that the Corporation may benefit from certain economies of scale over time from becoming a part of the larger RiverSource fund complex, based on potential future synergies of operations.

Required Vote and Recommendation

Approval of the Proposed Advisory Agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Corporation, which for this purpose means the affirmative vote of the lesser of (a) 67% or more of the voting power of the voting securities of the Corporation that are present at the Meeting or represented by proxy if holders of shares representing more than 50% of the voting power of the outstanding voting securities of the Corporation are present or represented by proxy or (b) more than 50% of the voting power of the outstanding voting securities of the Corporation. All shares of the Corporation vote together as a single class on this Proposal 1.

At a meeting held on July 17, 2008, the Board approved the Proposed Advisory Agreement and voted to present the Proposed Advisory Agreement for stockholder approval. Your Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the Proposed Advisory Agreement.

PROPOSAL 2 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors is presently comprised of ten Directors. The Board is divided into three classes, two of which consist of three Directors and one of which consists of four Directors. Members of each class hold office for a term of three years and until their successors are elected and qualify. The term of one class expires in each year.

[] of the Directors of the Corporation have indicated that, if the Closing occurs, they will resign in order to facilitate the oversight of the Corporation by the same board of directors or trustees that currently oversees other funds advised by the RiverSource board, as the Directors believe that the interests of stockholders would most efficiently and effectively be represented by a single board that is familiar with RiverSource and with the management and operation of other funds advised by RiverSource. The remaining [] of the current Directors are expected to continue to serve as Directors, and to serve on the boards of the funds advised by RiverSource.

Effective upon the Closing, the number of directors on the Board will increase by [] for a total of [] directors. If the Transaction does not close for any reason, the size of the Board will not be increased, the existing Directors would continue to serve as Directors, and the nominees would not serve as Directors.

Kathleen Blatz, Arne H. Carlson, Pamela G. Carlton, Patricia M. Flynn, Anne P. Jones, Jeffrey Laikind, Stephen R. Lewis, Jr., Catherine James Paglia, Alison Taunton-Rigby and William F. Truscott (each a Nominee and, collectively, the Nominees), each of whom has agreed to serve, have been nominated for election as Directors of the Corporation. [] are current Directors and are expected to continue to serve, following the Closing. [] have been recommended for election to the class of directors whose term will expire at the annual meeting to be held in 2009, [] have been recommended for election to the class of directors whose term will expire at the annual meeting to be held in 2010, and [] have been recommended for election to the class of directors whose term will expire at the annual meeting to be held in 2011. Each class will consist as nearly as possible of one-third of the entire Board of Directors and will hold office for the term of three years, so that the term of office of one class will expire in each year, but each Nominee shall hold office until his or her successor is elected and qualifies. If an unforeseen event prevents a Nominee from serving, your votes will be cast for the election of a substitute selected by the Directors. It is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy to nominate and cast your votes for the election of Mmes. Blatz, Carlton, Flynn, Jones, Paglia and Taunton-Rigby and Messrs. Carlson, Laikind, Lewis, Jr. and Truscott.

All Nominees are to be elected by the holders of Common Shares and Preferred Shares, voting together as a single class.

Current Committees of the Board

The Board met ten times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The standing committees of the Board include the Board Operations Committee, Audit Committee, and Director Nominating Committee (each a Committee). These Committees are comprised solely of Directors who are not interested persons of the Corporation as that term is defined in the 1940 Act. The duties of these Committees are described below.

Edgar Filing: TRI-CONTINENTAL CORP - Form PRE 14A

Board Operations Committee. This Committee has authority generally to direct the operations of the Board, including the nomination of members of other Board Committees and the selection of legal counsel for the Corporation. The Committee met six times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. Members of the Committee, Messrs. McPherson (Chairman), Maher, Richie, Shafer and Whitson, General Galvin, and Mses. Fonseca and Michel, are the independent Directors of the Corporation. In his capacity as Chairman of the Board Operations Committee, Mr. McPherson performs duties similar to those of a lead independent director, as he chairs meetings of the independent Directors, and acts as a point of contact between the independent Directors and Seligman between board meetings in respect of general matters.

Audit Committee. This Committee recommends an independent registered public accounting firm for selection as auditors by the Board annually. In addition, this Committee assists the Board in its oversight of the Corporation's financial reporting process and operates pursuant to a written charter last amended on March 17, 2005, a copy of which is available at the Corporation's website, www.tricontinental.com. The Committee met three times during the year ended December 31, 2007. Members of this Committee are Messrs. Whitson (Chairman), Maher and Richie and General Galvin. The members of this Committee are independent as required by applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

Director Nominating Committee. Members of the Nominating Committee are Messrs. Shafer (Chairman) and McPherson and Ms. Michel. The Nominating Committee met twice during the year ended December 31, 2007. Pursuant to its written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on March 18, 2004, the Nominating Committee identifies, evaluates, selects and nominates, or recommends for nomination, candidates for the Board. It also may set standards or qualifications for Directors. The Nominating Committee may consider candidates for the Board submitted by current Directors, Seligman, the stockholders and other appropriate sources.

The Nominating Committee will consider candidates submitted by a stockholder or group of stockholders who have owned at least $10,000 of the Corporation's outstanding Common Stock for at least one year at the time of submission and who timely provide specified information about the candidates and the nominating stockholder or group. To be timely for consideration by the Nominating Committee, the submission, including all required information, must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Secretary at 100 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10017 not less than 120 days before the date of the proxy statement for the previous year's annual meeting of stockholders. The Nominating Committee will consider only one candidate submitted by such a stockholder or group for nomination for election at an annual meeting of stockholders. The Nominating Committee will not consider self-nominated candidates or candidates nominated by members of a candidate's family, including such candidate's spouse, children, parents, uncles, aunts, grandparents, nieces and nephews.

The Nominating Committee will consider and evaluate candidates submitted by the nominating stockholder or group on the basis of the same criteria as those used to consider and evaluate candidates submitted from other sources. These criteria may include the candidate's relevant knowledge, experience and expertise, the candidate's ability to carry out his or her duties in the best interests of the Corporation and the candidate's ability to qualify as a disinterested Director. The charter for the Nominating Committee, which provides a detailed description of the criteria used by the Nominating Committee as well as information required to be provided by stockholders submitting candidates for consideration by the Nominating Committee, is available at the Corporation's website, www.tricontinental.com.

Proposed Committees

The Nominees have indicated that if they are elected, they intend to organize the following committees of the Board:

Board Governance Committee. This committee would recommend to the Board the size, structure and composition of the Board and its committees; the compensation to be paid to members of the Board; and a process for evaluating the Board's performance. The committee would also review candidates for Board membership including candidates recommended by stockholders of the Corporation. The committee would also make recommendations to the Board regarding responsibilities and duties of the Board, oversee proxy voting and support the work of the Chairperson of the Board (the Chairperson) in relation to furthering the interests of the Corporation and its stockholders on external matters.

Compliance Committee. This committee would support the Corporation's maintenance of a strong compliance program by providing a forum for independent Board members to consider compliance matters impacting the Corporation or its key service providers; would develop and implement, in coordination with the Corporation's Chief Compliance Officer (CCO), a process for the review and consideration of compliance reports that are provided to the Boards; and would provide a designated forum for the Corporation's CCO to meet with independent Board members on a regular basis to discuss compliance matters.

Contracts Committee. This committee would review and oversee the contractual relationships with service providers and would receive and analyze reports covering the level and quality of services provided under contracts with the Corporation and advise the Board regarding actions taken on these contracts during the annual review process.

Executive Committee. This committee would act for the Board between meetings of the Board.

Investment Review Committee. This committee would review and oversee the management of the Corporation's assets and would consider investment management policies and strategies; investment performance; risk management techniques; and securities trading practices and report areas of concern to the Board.

Audit Committee. This committee would oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Corporation and internal controls over financial reporting and would oversee the quality and integrity of the Corporation's financial statements and independent audits as well as the Corporation's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements relating to the Corporation's accounting and financial reporting, internal controls over financial reporting and independent audits. The committee also would make recommendations regarding the selection of the Corporation's independent auditor and review and evaluate the qualifications, independence and performance of the auditor.

Procedures for Communications to the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has adopted a process for stockholders to send communications to the Board. To communicate with the Board of Directors or an individual Director, a stockholder must send written communications to 100 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10017, addressed to the Board of Directors of Tri-Continental Corporation or the individual Director. All stockholder communications received in accordance with this process will be forwarded to the Board of Directors or the individual Director. Consistent with the Corporation's policy, each member of the Board of Directors will be encouraged to attend the next annual meeting of stockholders. FORM OF

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Agreement dated as of _____, is by and between RiverSource Investments, LLC (the Investment Manager), a Minnesota limited liability company and Tri-Continental Corporation (the Fund), a Maryland corporation.

Part One: INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AND OTHER SERVICES

- (1) The Fund hereby retains the Investment Manager, and the Investment Manager hereby agrees, for the period of this Agreement and under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, to furnish the Fund continuously with investment advice; to determine, consistent with the Fund's investment objectives and policies, which securities in the Investment Manager's discretion shall be purchased, held or sold, and to execute or cause the execution of purchase or sell orders; to prepare and make available to the Fund all necessary research and statistical data in connection therewith; to furnish all other services of whatever nature required in connection with the management of the Fund as provided under this Agreement; and to pay such expenses as may be provided for in Part Three; subject always to the direction and control of the Board of Directors (the Board) and the authorized officers of the Fund. The Investment Manager agrees to maintain an adequate organization of competent persons to provide the services and to perform the functions herein mentioned and to maintain adequate oversight over any service providers including subadvisers hired to provide services and to perform the functions herein mentioned. The Investment Manager agrees to meet with any persons at such times as the Board deems appropriate for the purpose of reviewing the Investment Manager's performance under this Agreement. The Fund agrees that the Investment Manager may subcontract for certain of the services described under this Agreement with the understanding that there shall be no diminution in the quality or level of services and also with the understanding, that the Investment Manager shall obtain such approval from the Fund's Board and/or its shareholders as is required by law, rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, terms of the Agreement, resolutions of the Board and commitments of the Investment Manager.
- (2) The Investment Manager agrees that the investment advice and investment decisions will be in accordance with general investment policies of the Fund as disclosed to the Investment Manager from time to time by the Fund and as set forth in the prospectus and registration statement filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC).
- (3) The Investment Manager agrees to provide such support as required or requested by the Board in conjunction with voting proxies solicited by or with respect to the issuers of securities in which the Fund's assets may be invested from time to time. In the event that the Board, in its sole discretion, delegates proxy voting authority to the Investment Manager, the Investment Manager will determine how voting and other rights with respect to securities in which the Fund's assets may be invested from time to time will be exercised, subject to the control of the Board. Absent such a delegation, the Board will exercise sole voting power with respect to all such proxies.
- (4) The Investment Manager agrees that it will maintain all required records, memoranda, instructions or authorizations relating to the management of the assets for the Fund including the acquisition or disposition of securities, proxy voting and safekeeping of assets.

- (6) In selecting broker-dealers for execution, the Investment Manager will seek to obtain best execution for securities transactions on behalf of the Fund, except where otherwise directed by the Board. In selecting broker-dealers to execute transactions, the Investment Manager will consider not only available prices (including commissions or mark-up), but also other relevant factors such as, without limitation, the characteristics of the security being traded, the size and difficulty of the transaction, the execution, clearance and settlement capabilities as well as the reputation, reliability, and financial soundness of the broker-dealer selected, the broker-dealer's risk in positioning a block of securities, the broker-dealer's execution service rendered on a continuing basis and in other transactions, the broker-dealer's expertise in particular markets, and the broker-dealer's ability to provide research services. To the extent permitted by law, and consistent with its obligation to seek best execution, the Investment Manager may execute transactions or pay a broker-dealer a commission or markup in excess of that which another broker-dealer might have charged for executing a transaction provided that the Investment Manager determines, in good faith, that the execution is appropriate or the commission or markup is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and/or research services provided, viewed in terms of either that particular transaction or the Investment Manager's overall responsibilities with respect to the Fund and other clients for which it acts as investment adviser. The Investment Manager shall not consider the sale or promotion of shares of the Fund, or other affiliated products, as a factor in the selection of broker-dealers through which transactions are executed.
- (7) Except for bad faith, intentional misconduct or negligence in regard to the performance of its duties under this Agreement, neither the Investment Manager, nor any of its respective directors, officers, partners, principals, employees, or agents shall be liable for any acts or omissions or for any loss suffered by the Fund or its shareholders or creditors. Each of the Investment Manager, and its respective directors, officers, partners, principals, employees and agents, shall be entitled to rely, and shall be protected from liability in reasonably relying, upon any information or instructions furnished to it (or any of them as individuals) by the Fund or its agents which is believed in good faith to be accurate and reliable. The Fund understands and acknowledges that the Investment Manager does not warrant any rate of return, market value or performance of any assets in the Fund. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith and, therefore, nothing herein shall constitute a waiver of any right which the Fund may have under such laws or regulations.

Part Two: COMPENSATION TO THE INVESTMENT MANAGER

- (1) The Fund agrees to pay to the Investment Manager, and the Investment Manager covenants and agrees to accept from the Fund in full payment for the services furnished, a fee as set forth in Schedule A.
