Item 5.02(b) Resignation of a director and principal executive officer Effective September 19, 2008, J. Cameron Coburn resigned from his positions as President, Chief Executive Officer, and a director of Cape Fear Bank Corporation (the Corporation) and its banking subsidiary, Cape Fear Bank (the Bank). Mr. Coburn had served as the Bank's President and Chief Executive Officer since 2000. He formed the Bank's organizing group during 1997 and, prior to his election as President, served as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Bank since the Bank was incorporated in 1998.

The Corporation, the Bank, and Mr. Coburn entered into a Resignation Agreement effective on September 19, 2008 (the Resignation Agreement), memorializing the terms of Mr. Coburn's separation, including customary mutual releases of liability and a statement of severance and other benefits owing to Mr. Coburn under his November 22, 2006 Amended Employment Agreement with the Corporation and the Bank (the Amended Employment Agreement), under his June 23, 2005 Salary Continuation Agreement with the Bank (the Salary Continuation Agreement), and under his June 23, 2005 Endorsement Split Dollar Agreement with the Bank (the Endorsement Split Dollar Agreement). The severance payments and other benefits provided to Mr. Coburn under the Resignation Agreement consist of the following cash severance in the approximate amount of $570,139, which, under Section 4.4(a) of Mr. Coburn's Amended Employment Agreement, is the equivalent of continued base salary for the 27-month remaining term of the Amended Employment Agreement, payable in a single lump sum on March 19, 2009, a cash payment in the approximate amount of $56,731 representing all accrued but unused vacation under Section 2.3 of the Amended Employment Agreement, payable in a single lump sum on the first regular payday following September 19, 2008, a cash payment in the approximate amount of $17,163 equaling the present value of the Bank's projected cost to maintain Mr. Coburn's life insurance and medical insurance coverage for the 27-month remaining term under Section 4.5 of the Amended Employment Agreement, payable in a single lump sum on March 19, 2009, a cash payment of approximately $243,417 representing the amount accrued and expensed to date by the Bank for the early termination benefit under Section 2.2 of Mr. Coburn's Salary Continuation Agreement, payable in a single lump sum on March 19, 2009, a cash payment in the approximate amount of $102,443 representing the amount accrued and expensed to date by the Bank under the Endorsement Split Dollar Agreement, payable in a single lump sum on the first regular payday following September 19, 2008. In exchange for this payment, Mr. Coburn and his beneficiaries forfeit and disclaim any right to receive death proceeds under the Endorsement Split Dollar Agreement, and reimbursement for up to $35,000 in documented out-of-pocket legal fees and expenses reasonably incurred in connection with the Resignation Agreement.

The Resignation Agreement also contains a provision prohibiting Mr. Coburn from competing with or soliciting employees of the Corporation and the Bank for 6 months.

The summary of the Resignation Agreement between the Corporation, the Bank, and Mr. Coburn described above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of the agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.01 and incorporated herein by reference. In addition, Mr. Coburn's Amended Employment Agreement, Salary Continuation Agreement, and Endorsement Split Dollar Agreement are included as exhibits in previous filings made by the Corporation. Reference is made to those exhibits for additional information concerning Mr. Coburn's severance and benefit arrangements, and those exhibits are also incorporated by reference herein.

Item 5.02(c) Appointment of a new principal executive officer

On September 19, 2008, the Board appointed A. Mark Tyler, age 43, to serve as interim President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and the Bank until a permanent replacement is found. Mr. Tyler replaces Mr. J. Cameron Coburn in these positions. Since December 2006, Mr. Tyler served as the Corporation's Senior Vice President. He has served as the Bank's Senior Vice President and Business Banking Manager since 2003, and became the Corporation's and the Bank's Chief Banking Officer in February, 2007. He previously served as the Bank's Vice President and Business Banking Officer from 1999 to 2003, and has been employed with the Bank since 1999.
