NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(dollars in millions, except share data)

(unaudited)

Note 1 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q for interim financial reporting pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). While these statements reflect all normal recurring adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for fair presentation of the results of the interim period, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) for complete financial statements. Therefore, the interim condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's annual report filed on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 30, 2009.

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Costco Wholesale Corporation, a Washington corporation, its wholly-owned subsidiaries, and subsidiaries in which it has a controlling interest (Costco or the Company). All material inter-company transactions among the Company and its subsidiaries have been eliminated in consolidation.

Costco operates membership warehouses that offer low prices on a limited selection of nationally branded and select private label products in a wide range of merchandise categories in no-frills, self-service facilities. At May 9, 2010, Costco operated 535 warehouses in 40 U.S. states and Puerto Rico (414 locations), nine Canadian provinces (77 locations), the United Kingdom (21 locations), Japan (nine locations), Korea (seven locations), Taiwan (six locations), and Australia (one location), as well as 32 locations in Mexico, through a 50%-owned joint venture.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to prior fiscal year amounts or balances to conform to the presentation in the current fiscal year. Additionally, as a result of the application of a new accounting pronouncement for noncontrolling interests in consolidated entities, discussed below in Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements, the Company:

Reclassified to noncontrolling interests a component of total equity, $80 at August 31, 2009, which was previously reported as minority interest on the Company's consolidated balance sheet, after the correction of an immaterial error of $6 relating to the noncontrolling interest component of accumulated other comprehensive income. A new subtotal, total Costco stockholders' equity, refers to the equity attributable to stockholders of Costco;

Reported as separate captions within the condensed consolidated statements of income, net income including noncontrolling interests, net income attributable to noncontrolling interests and net income attributable to Costco; and

Utilized net income including noncontrolling interests as the starting point on the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows to reconcile net income including noncontrolling interests to cash flows from operating activities.

These reclassifications did not have a material impact on the Company's previously reported condensed consolidated balance sheets, statements of income, or statements of cash flows.

Fiscal Year End

Costco operates on a 52/53-week fiscal year basis with the fiscal year ending on the Sunday closest to August 31. References to the third quarters of 2010 and 2009 relate to the 12-week fiscal quarters ended May 9, 2010, and May 10, 2009, respectively. References to the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 and 2009 relate to the 36-weeks ended May 9, 2010, and May 10, 2009, respectively.

Merchandise Inventories

Merchandise inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market, as determined primarily by the retail inventory method, and are stated using the last-in, first-out (LIFO) method for substantially all U.S. merchandise inventories. Merchandise inventories for all foreign operations are primarily valued by the retail inventory method and are stated using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method. The Company believes the LIFO method more fairly presents the results of operations by more closely matching current costs with current revenues. The Company records an adjustment each quarter, if necessary, for the estimated effect of inflation or deflation, and these estimates are adjusted to actual results determined at year-end. At the end of the third quarter of 2010 and at fiscal year-end 2009, merchandise inventories valued at LIFO approximated FIFO after considering the lower of cost or market principle. During the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2009, the Company recorded a benefit to merchandise costs of $7 and $16, respectively, to adjust inventories valued at LIFO.

Other Assets

The Company adjusts the carrying value of its employee life insurance contracts to the net cash surrender value at the end of each reporting period. The adjustment reflects changes in the net realizable value of the contracts and is included in selling, general, and administrative expenses. The net realizable value of these contracts is based primarily on changes in investment assets underlying the policies and is subject to conditions generally affecting equity and debt markets. The adjustment to the cash surrender value was a benefit of $1 and $3 during the third quarter of 2010 and 2009, respectively. The adjustment to the cash surrender value for the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 was a benefit of $1 compared to a decrement of $26 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2009. These amounts are reflected in other non-cash items, net, in cash flows from operations in the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of cash flows.

Derivatives

The Company is exposed to foreign currency exchange-rate fluctuations in the normal course of its business, which the Company manages, in part, through the use of forward foreign exchange contracts (contracts), seeking to hedge the impact of fluctuations of foreign exchange on known future expenditures denominated in a foreign currency. The contracts are intended primarily to hedge U.S. dollar merchandise inventory expenditures. Currently, these contracts do not qualify for derivative hedge accounting. The Company seeks to mitigate risk with the use of these contracts and does not intend to engage in speculative transactions. The aggregate notional amount of forward foreign exchange contracts was $176 and $183 at May 9, 2010 and August 30, 2009, respectively. These contracts do not contain any credit-risk-related contingent features.

The Company seeks to manage the counterparty risk associated with these contracts by limiting transactions to counterparties with which the Company has an established banking relationship. There can be no assurance, however, that this effectively mitigates counterparty risk. The contracts are limited to a time period of less than one year. See Note 3 for information on the fair value of these contracts.

The following table summarizes the amount of net gain or (loss) recognized in interest income and other, net, in the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of income:

	12 Weeks Ended		36 Weeks Ended
	May 9, 2010	May 10, 2009	May 9, 2010	May 10, 2009
Forward foreign exchange contracts	$ 2	$ (8)	$ 5	$ (6)

The Company is exposed to risks due to fluctuations in energy prices, particularly electricity and natural gas, which it partially mitigates through the use of fixed-price contracts, for approximately 26% of its warehouses and other facilities in the U.S., Canada and Australia. The Company also enters into variable-priced derivative contracts for some purchases of natural gas, in addition to fuel for its gas stations, on an index basis. These contracts generally qualify for treatment as normal purchases or normal sales and require no mark-to-market adjustment.

Stock Repurchase Programs

Shares repurchased are retired, in accordance with the Washington Business Corporation Act. The par value of repurchased shares is deducted from common stock and the excess of repurchase price over par value is deducted from additional paid-in capital and retained earnings. See Note 5 for additional information.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2010, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued guidance to amend the disclosure requirements related to recurring and nonrecurring fair value measurements. The guidance requires disclosure of transfers of assets and liabilities between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value measurement hierarchy, including the reasons and the timing of the transfers and information on purchases, sales, issuance, and settlements on a gross basis (as opposed to a net basis) in the reconciliation of the assets and liabilities measured under Level 3 of the fair value measurement hierarchy (See Note 3 for the definition of Levels 1, 2, and 3). The guidance is effective for annual and interim reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2009, except for Level 3 reconciliation disclosures (on a gross basis), which are effective for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2010. The Company adopted this guidance at the beginning of its third quarter of fiscal 2010, except for the Level 3 reconciliation disclosures on the roll forward activities, which it will adopt at the beginning of its third quarter of fiscal 2011. Other than requiring additional disclosures, adoption of this guidance did not have and is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements. See Note 3 for more information.

In February 2010, the FASB issued amended guidance on disclosure of subsequent events, eliminating the requirement to disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated in originally issued and revised financial statements. The Company adopted these new requirements in its second quarter of 2010.

In June 2009, the FASB issued guidance establishing the FASB Accounting Standards Codification as the source of authoritative GAAP (other than guidance issued by the SEC) to be used in the preparation of financial statements. The Company adopted these requirements at the beginning of its fiscal year 2010, as reflected in the notes to the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

In February 2008, the FASB issued amended guidance surrounding the adoption of fair value measurements. The amendment allowed for an elected deferral of the adoption for all nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities, except those that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis. The Company elected to defer adoption at the time of the amendment. The Company adopted the requirements for all nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities in its condensed consolidated financial statements at the beginning of its fiscal year 2010. The adoption did not impact the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements. See Note 3 for more information.

In December 2007, the FASB issued guidance that changed the accounting and reporting of noncontrolling interests in consolidated financial statements. This guidance requires noncontrolling interests to be reported as a component of equity separate from the parent's equity and purchases or sales of equity interests that do not result in a change in control to be accounted for as equity transactions. In addition, net income attributable to a noncontrolling interest is to be included in net income and, upon a loss of control, the interest sold, as well as any interest retained, is to be recorded at fair value, with any gain or loss recognized in net income. The Company adopted these new requirements at the beginning of its first quarter of fiscal 2010. In January 2010, the FASB issued additional guidance on this topic, which clarifies the types of transactions that should be accounted for as a decrease in ownership of a subsidiary. The Company retrospectively adopted these new requirements at the beginning of its first quarter of fiscal 2010, as required. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements. See Note 5 for more information.

In December 2007, the FASB issued guidance on business combinations. This guidance retains the fundamental requirements of the acquisition method of accounting (formerly the purchase method) to account for all business combinations. However, it requires the reporting entity in a business combination to recognize all identifiable assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, and any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree, establishes the acquisition-date fair value as the measurement objective, and requires the capitalization of in-process research and development at fair value and the expensing of acquisition-related costs as incurred. The Company is subject to these requirements as of the beginning of its fiscal year 2010 in the event of a business combination.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In October 2009, the FASB issued amended guidance on revenue recognition for multiple-deliverable revenue arrangements. Under this guidance, when vendor-specific objective evidence or third-party evidence for deliverables in an arrangement cannot be determined, a best estimate of the selling price is required to separate deliverables and allocate arrangement consideration using the relative selling-price method. This guidance also prescribes new disclosure requirements on how the application of the relative selling price method affects the timing and amount of revenue recognition. The guidance is effective for revenue arrangements entered into for fiscal years beginning on or after June 15, 2010. The Company will adopt this guidance at the beginning of its fiscal year 2011. The Company is in the process of evaluating the impact that adoption of this standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In June 2009, the FASB issued amended guidance concerning whether variable interests constitute controlling financial interests. This guidance is effective for the first annual reporting period that begins after November 15, 2009. The Company will adopt this guidance at the beginning of its fiscal year 2011. The Company is in the process of evaluating the impact that adoption of this standard will have on its future consolidated financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements through the day the condensed consolidated statements were issued.

Note 2 Investments

The Company's major classes of investments have not changed from the annual reporting period ended August 30, 2009.

The Company's investments at May 9, 2010 and August 30, 2009, were as follows:

	Cost Basis	Unrealized Gains	Unrealized Losses	Recorded Basis	Balance Sheet Classification Short-term Investments	Other Assets
May 9, 2010:

The proceeds and gross realized gains and losses from sales of available-for-sale securities during the third quarter and the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 and 2009 are provided in the following table:

	12 Weeks Ended		36 Weeks Ended
	May 9, 2010	May 10, 2009	May 9, 2010	May 10, 2009
Proceeds	$ 24	$ 26	$ 69	$ 119
Realized gains	1	1	4	3
Realized losses		(1)	(1)	(1)

As of May 9, 2010, and August 30, 2009, the Company's available-for-sale securities that were in continuous unrealized loss positions were insignificant.

In fiscal 2008, one of the Company's enhanced money-fund investments, Columbia Strategic Cash Portfolio Fund (Columbia), ceased accepting cash redemption requests and changed to a floating net asset value. In light of the restricted liquidity, the Company elected to receive a pro-rata allocation of the underlying securities in a separately managed account. The Company assesses the fair value of these securities through market quotations and review of current investment ratings, as available, coupled with an evaluation of the liquidation value of each investment and its current performance in meeting scheduled payments of principal and interest. During the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2009, the Company recognized $5 and $12, respectively, of other-than-temporary impairment losses related to these securities, which were included in interest income and other, net, in the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of income. No impairment losses were recorded during the third quarter or first thirty-six weeks of 2010. At May 9, 2010, and August 30, 2009, the balance of the Columbia fund was $2 and $27, respectively, on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. At May 9, 2010, $2 remained in short-term investments on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. At August 30, 2009, $24 remained in short-term investments and $3 remained in other assets on the condensed consolidated balance sheets, reflecting the timing of the expected distributions.

The maturities of available-for-sale and held-to-maturity securities at May 9, 2010, are as follows:

	Available-For-Sale Cost Basis	Fair Value	Held-To-Maturity Cost Basis	Fair Value
Due in one year or less .	$ 540	$ 540	$ 90	$ 90
Due after one year through five years	214	219
Due after five years .	5	5
	$ 759	$ 764	$ 90	$ 90

Note 3 Fair Value Measurement

The Company follows the authoritative guidance for fair value measurements relating to financial and nonfinancial assets and liabilities, including presentation of required disclosures. This guidance defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The guidance also establishes a fair value hierarchy, which requires maximizing the use of observable inputs when measuring fair value. The three levels of inputs that may be used are:

Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Observable market based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data.

There have been no material changes to the valuations techniques utilized in the fair value measurement of assets and liabilities presented on the Company's balance sheet as disclosed in the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 30, 2009.

Assets and Liabilities Measured at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

The tables below present information as of May 9, 2010 and August 30, 2009, respectively, about the Company's financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis, and indicates the fair value hierarchy of the valuation techniques utilized to determine such fair value:

(1) The asset and the liability values are included in deferred income taxes and other current assets and other current liabilities, respectively, in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets. See Note 1 for additional information on derivative instruments.

The Company reports transfers in and out of Levels 1, 2 and 3, as applicable, using the fair value of the individual securities as of the beginning of the reporting period in which the transfer occurred. During the third quarter and thirty-six weeks ended May 9, 2010, there were no transfers in or out of Level 1, 2 or 3. During the third quarter of 2009, the Company considered continuing indicators of significant unobservable inputs, such as the lengthening of maturities, later-than-scheduled payments, and any securities that have defaulted, as Level 3 inputs for valuation. This resulted in a transfer of $37 into Level 3 from Level 2.

Assets and Liabilities Measured at Fair Value on a Nonrecurring Basis

At the beginning of fiscal year 2010, the Company adopted the fair value measurement guidance for all nonfinancial assets and liabilities recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a nonrecurring basis. These assets and liabilities include items such as long lived assets that are measured at fair value resulting from impairment, if deemed necessary. Fair market value adjustments to those financial and nonfinancial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis during the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010 were immaterial.

Note 4 Debt

At May 9, 2010, the Company was in compliance with all restrictive covenants of its borrowings.

In November 2009, the Company's Japanese subsidiary paid the outstanding principal and interest balances totaling $33 related to the 0.88% promissory notes due November 2009, originally issued in November 2002.

In April 2010, the Company's Japanese subsidiary paid the outstanding principal and interest balances totaling $44 related to the 0.92% promissory notes due April 2010, originally issued in April 2003.

During the third quarter of 2010, a nominal amount of the face value of the Company's 3.5% Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated Notes (Zero Coupon Notes) was converted by note holders into 2,000 shares of common stock; and during the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, $1 in face amount of Zero Coupon Notes was converted into 16,000 shares of common stock. During the third quarter of 2009, a nominal amount of the face value of the Zero Coupon Notes was converted into 5,000 shares of common stock; and during the first thirty-six weeks of 2009, $4 in face amount of Zero Coupon Notes was converted into 82,000 shares of common stock. These amounts differ from those in the supplemental disclosure of non-cash items in the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows due to the related discount and issuance costs.

The carrying value and estimated fair value of total long-term debt consisted of the following:

	May 9, 2010		August 30, 2009
	Carrying Value	Fair Value ⁽¹⁾	Carrying Value	Fair Value ⁽¹⁾
5.50% Senior Notes due March 2017 (2017 Senior Notes)	$ 1,096	$ 1,237	$ 1,096	$ 1,213

Other long-term debt	105	109	183	185
Total	$ 2,132	$ 2,376	$ 2,210	$ 2,415

(1) The fair value of the Company's long-term debt is based on quoted market prices, as applicable.

Note 5 Equity and Comprehensive Income (Loss)Dividends

In the third quarter of 2010, the Company's Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend to shareholders of record on May 7, 2010, and approved an increase from $0.18 to $0.205 per share, or $0.82 on an annualized basis. The dividend was paid on May 21, 2010.

Stock Repurchase Programs

The Company's stock repurchase activity during the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010 and 2009 is summarized in the following table:

	Shares Repurchased (000 s)	Average Price per Share	Total Expenditure
Third quarter of 2010	1,925	$ 59.56	$ 114
First thirty-six weeks of 2010	2,175	59.48	129
Third quarter of 2009	50	$ 38.88	$ 2
First thirty-six weeks of 2009	895	63.84	57

These amounts differ from the stock repurchase balances in the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows to the extent that repurchases had not settled at the end of the quarter. The remaining amount available for stock repurchases under the approved plans was approximately $1,873 at May 9, 2010. Purchases are made from time-to-time as conditions warrant in the open market or in block purchases, and pursuant to share repurchase plans under SEC Rule 10b5-1. Repurchased shares are retired.

From time to time, the Company purchases shares in the open market for the purpose of gifting common stock rewards to employees. In the third quarter of 2010, the Company did not purchase any shares. In the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, the Company purchased 8,000 shares, at an average price of $58.50 per share. This program is separate from the Company's publicly announced stock repurchase program discussed above.

Components of Equity and Comprehensive Income

Edgar Filing: COSTCO WHOLESALE CORP /NEW - Form 10-Q

The Company reports its noncontrolling interests in consolidated subsidiaries as a component of equity separate from the Company's equity. The accumulated other comprehensive income consists of foreign currency translation adjustments and unrealized gains and losses on investments and their related tax effects.

Table of ContentsNote 6 Stock-Based Compensation Plans

In the second quarter of fiscal 2010, the Fourth Restated 2002 Stock Incentive Plan was amended following shareholder approval and is now referred to as the Fifth Restated 2002 Stock Incentive Plan (Fifth Restated 2002 Plan). The Fifth Restated 2002 Plan authorizes the issuance of an additional 18,000,000 shares of common stock for future grants in addition to grants currently authorized. Each share issued in respect of stock units is counted as 1.75 shares toward the limit of shares available. The Company issues new shares of common stock upon exercise of stock options and vesting of RSUs.

Summary of Stock Option Activity

The following table summarizes stock option transactions during the first thirty-six weeks of 2010:

(1) The difference between the original exercise price and market value of common stock measured at each individual exercise date.

Employee Tax Consequences on Certain Stock Options

In the third quarter of 2010, the Company recorded a $14 benefit to selling, general and administrative expense related to a reversal of an expense related to mitigating potential adverse tax consequences to our Canadian employees, previously recorded in the second quarter of fiscal 2007.

Summary of Restricted Stock Unit Activity

At May 9, 2010, 12,284,000 shares were available to be granted as RSUs to eligible employees and directors under the Fifth Restated 2002 Plan.

The following awards were outstanding at May 9, 2010:

8,526,000 time-based RSUs, which vest upon the achievement of continued employment over specified periods of time;

456,000 performance-based RSUs granted to certain executive officers of the Company. The performance targets have been met. Further vesting occurs upon achievement of continued employment over specified periods of time; and 305,000 performance-based RSUs to be granted to executive officers of the Company upon achievement of specified performance targets for fiscal 2010, as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors after the end of the fiscal year. These awards are included in the table below and the Company recognized compensation expense for these awards as it is currently deemed probable that the performance targets will be achieved.

The following table summarizes RSU transactions during the first thirty-six weeks of 2010:

	Number of Units (in 000 s)	Weighted- Average Grant Date Fair Value

Note 8 Commitments and Contingencies*Legal Proceedings*

The Company is involved from time to time in claims, proceedings and litigation arising from its business and property ownership. The Company is a defendant in the following matters, among others:

Cases purportedly brought as class actions on behalf of certain present and former Costco managers in California, in which plaintiffs principally allege that they have not been properly compensated for overtime work. Scott M. Williams v. Costco Wholesale Corp., United States District Court (San Diego), Case No. 02-CV-2003 NAJ (JFS); Greg Randall v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Superior Court for the County of Los Angeles, Case No. BC-296369. The parties in Randall agreed on a partial settlement of the action (resolving all claims except for the claim that the Company miscalculated pay), requiring a payment of up to $16 by the Company, which was substantially paid in the first quarter of fiscal 2010. The miscalculation claim from the Randall case was refiled as a separate action by stipulation, alleging that the Company miscalculated the rates of pay for all department and ancillary managers in California in violation of Labor Code Section 515(d). On October 2, 2009, the court granted the Company's motion for summary judgment, and that ruling has been appealed. Terry Head v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Superior Court for the County of Los Angeles, Case No. BC-409805. In the Williams action, the parties have achieved a settlement, subject to final court approval. The settlement is immaterial to the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

On December 26, 2007, another putative class action was filed, also principally alleging denial of overtime compensation. The complaint alleges misclassification of certain California managers. On May 15, 2008, the court partially granted the Company's motion to dismiss the complaint, dismissing certain claims and refusing to expand the statute of limitations for the remaining claims. An answer to the complaint was filed on May 27, 2008. Plaintiff's Rule 23 class certification motion was denied, while a Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) collective action was conditionally certified for notice purposes only. Jesse Drenckhahn v. Costco Wholesale Corp., United States District Court (Los Angeles), Case No. CV08-1408 FMC (JMJ).

A case purportedly brought as a class action on behalf of present and former hourly employees in California, in which the plaintiff principally alleges that the Company's routine closing procedures and security checks cause employees to incur delays that qualify as uncompensated working time and that deny them statutorily guaranteed meal periods and rest breaks. The complaint was filed on October 2, 2008, and the Company's motion to dismiss was partially granted. On February 1, 2010, the court denied plaintiff's motion for class certification, and that ruling has been appealed. The court granted summary judgment against the plaintiff on his individual claim on April 19, 2010. Anthony Castaneda v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Superior Court for the County of Los Angeles, Case No. BC-399302. A similar purported class action was filed on May 15, 2009, on behalf of present and former hourly employees in California, claiming denial of wages and false imprisonment during the post-closing procedures, when security measures allegedly cause employees to be locked in the warehouses. Mary Pytelewski v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Superior Court for the County of San Diego, Case No. 37-2009-00089654. A similar purported class action was filed on November 20, 2009, in the State of Washington. Raven Hawk v. Costco Wholesale Corp., King County Superior Court, Case No. 09-242196-0-SEA.

A putative class action, filed on January 24, 2008, purportedly brought on behalf of two groups of former California employees: an Unpaid Wage Class; and a Wage Statement Class. The Unpaid Wage Class alleges that the Company improperly deducts employee credit card balances from final paychecks, while the Wage Statement Class alleges that final paychecks do not contain the accurate and itemized information legally required for wage statements. On May 29, 2008, the court granted in part a motion to dismiss, dismissing with prejudice the wage itemization claims. On May 5, 2009, the court denied the Company's motion for summary judgment. Plaintiff's Rule 23 class certification motion was denied, while an FLSA collective action was conditionally certified for notice purposes only. Carrie Ward v. Costco Wholesale Corp., United States District Court (Los Angeles), Case No. CV08-02013 FMC (FFM).

Another purported class action was filed against the Company on October 28, 2009. Plaintiff alleges that the Company failed to provide reasonable seating to employees in violation of California law. Jade Jue v. Costco Wholesale Corp., San Mateo County Superior Court Case No. 489091. The case was removed to federal court, Case No. 3:10-cv-0033 WHA. The federal case was voluntarily dismissed by the plaintiff on March 31, 2010. A related state-court filing was voluntarily dismissed by the plaintiff on May 10, 2010.

On March 1, 2010, a putative class action was filed alleging that as to California non-exempt employees the Company unlawfully denied meal and rest breaks, failed to pay wages, failed to provide accurate wage-itemization statements, failed to maintain time records, and willfully failed to pay termination wages. George v. Costco Wholesale Corp., San Diego Superior Court, Case No. 37-2010-00086734-CU-OE-CTL. Costco filed a motion to dismiss to which the plaintiff did not respond; instead, she dismissed the case without prejudice, on May 12, 2010.

Claims in these actions (other than Hawk) are made under various provisions of the California Labor Code and the California Business and Professions Code. Plaintiffs seek restitution/disgorgement, compensatory damages, various statutory penalties, punitive damages, interest, and attorneys' fees.

A case brought as a class action on behalf of certain present and former female managers, in which plaintiffs allege denial of promotion based on gender in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and California state law. Shirley Rae Ellis v. Costco Wholesale Corp., United States District Court (San Francisco), Case No. C-04-3341-MHP. Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages, punitive damages, injunctive relief, interest and attorneys' fees. Class certification was granted by the district court on January 11, 2007. On May 11, 2007, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit granted a petition to hear the Company's appeal of the certification. The appeal was argued on April 14, 2008. Proceedings in the district court have been stayed during the appeal. The parties await a decision from the Ninth Circuit.

Class actions stated to have been brought on behalf of certain present and former Costco members:

Numerous putative class actions have been brought around the United States against motor fuel retailers, including the Company, alleging that they have been overcharging consumers by selling gasoline or diesel that is warmer than 60 degrees without adjusting the volume sold to compensate for heat-related expansion or disclosing the effect of such expansion on the energy equivalent received by the consumer. The Company is named in the following actions: Raphael Sagalyn, et al., v. Chevron USA, Inc., et al., Case No. 07-430 (D. Md.); Phyllis Lerner, et al., v. Costco Wholesale Corporation, et al., Case No. 07-1216 (C.D. Cal.); Linda A. Williams, et al., v. BP Corporation North America, Inc., et al., Case No. 07-179 (M.D. Ala.); James Graham, et al. v. Chevron USA, Inc., et al.; Case No. 07 0317 (M.D. Tenn.); William Barker, et al. v. Chevron USA, Inc., et al.; Case No. 07-cv-00293 (D.N.M.); Melissa J. Couch, et al. v. BP Products North America, Inc., et al., Case No. 07cv291 (E.D. Tex.); S. Garrett Cook, Jr., et al., v. Hess Corporation, et al., Case No. 07cv750 (M.D. Ala.); Jeff Jenkins, et al. v. Amoco Oil Company, et al., Case No. 07-cv-00661 (D. Utah); and Mark Wyatt, et al., v. B. P. America Corp., et al., Case No. 07-1754 (S.D. Cal.). On June 18, 2007, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation assigned the action, entitled In re Motor Fuel Temperature Sales Practices Litigation, MDL Docket No 1840, to Judge Kathryn Vratil in the United States District Court for the District of Kansas. On February 21, 2008, the court denied a motion to dismiss the consolidated amended complaint. On April 12, 2009, the Company agreed to a settlement involving the actions in which it is named as a defendant. Under the settlement, which is subject to final approval by the court, the Company has agreed, to the extent allowed by law, to install over five years from the effective date of the settlement temperature-correcting dispensers in the States of Alabama, Arizona, California, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Virginia. Other than payments to class representatives, the settlement does not provide for cash payments to class members. On August 18, 2009, the court preliminarily approved the settlement and on April 1, 2010, held a hearing to consider final approval of the settlement. Further details of the proposed settlement can be obtained from the notice to class members, which can be viewed at <http://www.costco.com/fuelsettlement.pdf>.

The Company has been named as a defendant in two purported class actions relating to sales of organic milk. Hesse v. Costco Wholesale Corp., No. C07-1975 (W.D. Wash.); Snell v. Aurora Dairy Corp., et al., No. 07-CV-2449 (D. Col.). Both actions claim violations of the laws of various states, essentially alleging that milk provided to Costco by its supplier Aurora Dairy Corp. was improperly labeled organic. Plaintiffs filed a consolidated complaint on July 18, 2008. With respect to the Company, plaintiffs seek to certify four classes of people who purchased Costco organic milk. Aurora has maintained that it has held and continues to hold valid organic certifications. The consolidated complaint seeks, among other things, actual, compensatory, statutory, punitive and/or exemplary damages in unspecified amounts, as well as costs and attorneys' fees. On June 3, 2009, the court entered an order dismissing with prejudice, among others, all claims against the Company. Plaintiffs have appealed the dismissal.

The Company has been named as a defendant in a purported class action relating to sales of farm-raised salmon. Farm Raised Salmon Coordinated Proceedings, Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. JCCP No. 4329. The action alleges that the Company violated California law requiring farm-raised salmon to be labeled as color added. The complaint asserts violations of the California Unfair Competition Law, the California Consumer Legal Remedies Act, and the California False Advertising Law, and negligent misrepresentation, and seeks restoration of money acquired by means of unfair competition or false advertising and compensatory damages in unspecified amounts, injunctive relief remedying the allegedly improper disclosures, and costs and attorneys' fees. A California Superior Court ruling dismissing the action on the ground that federal law does not permit claims for mislabeling of farm-raised salmon to be asserted by private parties was reversed by the California Supreme Court. The Company has denied the material allegations of the complaint.

In Verzani, et ano., v. Costco Wholesale Corp., No. 09 CV 2117 (United States District Court for the Southern District of New York), a purported nationwide class action, the plaintiffs allege claims for breach of contract and violation of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, based on the failure of the Company to disclose on the label of its Shrimp Tray with Cocktail Sauce the weight of the shrimp in the item as distinct from the accompanying cocktail sauce, lettuce, and lemon wedges. The complaint seeks various forms of damages (including compensatory and treble damages and disgorgement and restitution), injunctive and declaratory relief, attorneys' fees, costs, and prejudgment interest. On April 21, 2009, the plaintiff filed a motion for a preliminary injunction, seeking to prevent the Company from selling the shrimp tray unless the Company separately discloses the weight of the shrimp and provides shrimp consistent with the disclosed weight. By orders dated July 29 and August 6, 2009, the court denied the preliminary injunction motion and dismissed the claim for breach of contract. Plaintiffs have appealed.

In Kilano, et. ano, v. Costco Wholesale Corp., No. 2:10-cv-11456-VAR-DAS (United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan), two members purport to represent a class of certain Michigan Executive level-members who received 2% rewards. Plaintiffs allege that Costco guarantees that the member will receive rewards of no less than the $50 difference between Executive and Gold Star membership and that the Company is required to but has failed to automatically reimburse members whose rewards are less than this difference. Plaintiffs allege violations of the Michigan Consumer Protection Act, breach of contract, and unjust enrichment. They seek compensatory and statutory damages, injunctive relief, costs, and attorneys' fees. The Company has yet to respond to the complaint.

Three shareholder derivative lawsuits have been filed, ostensibly on behalf of the Company, against certain of its current and former officers and directors, relating to the Company's stock option grants. One suit, Sandra Donnelly v. James Sinegal, et al., Case No. 08-2-23783-4 SEA (King County Superior Court), was filed in Washington state court on or about July 17, 2008. Plaintiff alleged, among other things, that individual defendants breached their fiduciary duties to the Company by backdating grants of stock options issued between 1997 and 2005 to various current and former executives, allegedly in violation of the Company's shareholder-approved stock option plans. The complaint asserted claims for unjust enrichment, breach of fiduciary duties, and waste of corporate assets, and seeks damages, corporate governance reforms, an accounting, rescission of certain stock option grants, restitution, and certain injunctive and declaratory relief, including the declaration of a constructive trust for certain stock options and proceeds derived from the exercise of such options. On April 3, 2009, on the Company's motion the court dismissed the action, following the plaintiff's disclosure that she had ceased to own Costco common stock, a requirement for her to pursue a derivative action. The second action, Pirelli Armstrong Tire Corp. Retiree Medical Benefits Trust v. James Sinegal, et al., Case No. 2:08-cv-01450-TSZ (United States District Court for the Western District of Washington), was filed on or about September 29, 2008, and named as defendants all but one of the Company's directors and certain of its senior executives. Plaintiff alleged that defendants approved the issuance of backdated stock options, concealed the backdating of stock options, and refused to vindicate the Company's rights by pursuing those who obtained improper incentive compensation. The complaint asserted claims under both state law and the federal securities laws and sought relief comparable to that sought in the state court action described above. Plaintiff further alleged that the misconduct occurred from at least 1997, and continued until 2006, and that as a result virtually all of the Company's SEC filings and financial and other public statements were false and misleading throughout this entire period (including, but not limited to, each of the Company's annual financial statements for fiscal years 1997 through 2007 inclusive). Plaintiff alleged, among other things, that defendants caused the Company to falsely represent that options were granted with exercise prices that were not less than the fair market value of the Company's stock on the date of grant and issuance when they were not, to conceal that its internal controls and accounting controls were grossly inadequate, and to grossly overstate its earnings. In addition, it was further alleged that when the Company announced in October 2006 that it had investigated its historical option granting practices and had not found fraud that announcement itself was false and misleading because, among other reasons, it failed to report that defendants had consistently received options granted at monthly lows for the grant dates and falsely suggested that backdating did not occur. Plaintiff also alleged that false and misleading statements inflated the market price of the Company's common stock and that certain individual defendants sold, and the Company purchased, shares at inflated prices. The third action, Daniel Buckfire v. James D. Sinegal, et al., No. 2:09-cv-00893-TSZ (United States District Court for the Western District of Washington), was filed on or about June 29, 2009, and contains allegations substantially similar to those in the Pirelli action. On August 12, 2009, the court entered an order consolidating the Pirelli and Buckfire actions. On October 2, 2009, plaintiffs Pirelli and Buckfire filed a consolidated amended complaint. That complaint is largely similar to previous filings, except that: it challenges additional grants (in 1995, 1996, and 2004) and alleges that additional federal securities law filings, including proxy statements and SEC Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and related officer certifications (generally from 1996 through and including 2008) were false and misleading for failure to adequately disclose circumstances surrounding grants of options; and now includes as defendants only the following individuals: James D. Sinegal, Richard A. Galanti, Jeffrey H. Brotman, Hamilton E. James, John W. Meisenbach, Jill S. Ruckelshaus, Charles T. Munger, Benjamin S. Carson, Sr., Richard D. DiCerchio, and David S. Petterson. On November 16, 2009, the defendants filed motions to dismiss the amended complaint on various grounds, including that plaintiffs failed properly to allege why a pre-suit demand had not been made on the board of directors.

On October 4, 2006, the Company received a grand jury subpoena from the United States Attorney's Office for the Central District of California, seeking records relating to the Company's receipt and handling of hazardous merchandise returned by Costco members and other records. The Company is cooperating with the inquiry and at this time cannot reasonably estimate any loss that may arise from this matter.

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) issued an Information Request to the Company, dated November 1, 2007, under the Clean Air Act. The EPA is seeking records regarding warehouses in the states of Arizona, California, Hawaii, and Nevada relating to compliance with regulations concerning air-conditioning and refrigeration equipment. On March 4, 2009, the Company was advised by the Department of Justice that the Department was prepared to allege that the Company has committed at least nineteen violations of the leak-repair requirements of 40 C.F.R. § 82.156(i) and at least seventy-four violations of the recordkeeping requirements of 40 C.F.R. § 82.166(k), (m) at warehouses in these four states. The Company has responded to these allegations, is engaged in communications with the Department about these and additional allegations made by letter dated September 10, 2009, and has entered into a tolling agreement. An Information Request dated January 14, 2008, has also been received concerning a warehouse in New Hampshire. Substantial penalties may be levied for violations of the Clean Air Act. In April 2008 the Company received an information request from the South Coast Air Quality Management District concerning certain locations in Southern California. The Company has responded to that request. The Company is cooperating with these inquiries and at this time cannot reasonably estimate any loss that might arise from these matters.

On October 7, 2009, the District Attorneys for San Diego, San Joaquin and Solano Counties filed a complaint, People of the State of California v. Costco Wholesale Corp., et. al., No. 37-2009-00099912 (Superior Court for the County of San Diego), alleging on information and belief that the Company has violated and continues to violate provisions of the California Health and Safety Code and the Business and Professions Code through the use of certain spill clean-up materials at its gasoline stations. Relief sought includes, among other things, requests for preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, civil penalties, costs and attorneys' fees. The Company has yet to respond to the complaint.

The Company has received notices from most states stating that they have appointed an agent to conduct an examination of the books and records of the Company to determine whether it has complied with state unclaimed property laws. The States of Washington and New York are conducting such examinations on their own behalf. In addition to seeking the turnover of unclaimed property subject to escheat laws, the states may seek interest, penalties, costs of examinations, and other relief.

Except where indicated otherwise above, a reasonable estimate of the possible loss or range of loss cannot be made at this time for the matters described. The Company does not believe that any pending claim, proceeding or litigation, either alone or in the aggregate, will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position; however, it is possible that an unfavorable outcome of some or all of the matters, however unlikely, could result in a charge that might be material to the results of an individual fiscal quarter.

Note 9 Segment Reporting

The Company and its subsidiaries are principally engaged in the operation of membership warehouses in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Japan, Australia, through majority-owned subsidiaries in Taiwan and Korea, and through a 50%-owned joint-venture in Mexico. The Company's reportable segments are based on management's organization of the operating segments for operational decisions and assessments of financial performance, which considers geographic locations. The investment in the Mexico joint-venture is only included in total assets under United States Operations in the table below, as it is accounted for under the equity method and its operations are not consolidated in the Company's financial statements. The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those described in the notes to the consolidated financial statements included in the Company's annual report filed on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 30, 2009, after considering newly adopted accounting pronouncements described elsewhere herein. All inter-segment net sales and expenses have been eliminated in computing total revenue and operating income.

Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this document constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. For these purposes, forward-looking statements are statements that address activities, events, conditions or developments that the Company expects or anticipates may occur in the future. Such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that may cause actual events, results or performance to differ materially from those indicated by such statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, domestic and international economic conditions, including exchange rates, the effects of competition and regulation, uncertainties in the financial markets, consumer and small business spending patterns and debt levels, conditions affecting the acquisition, development, ownership or use of real estate, actions of vendors, rising costs associated with employees (including health care costs), geopolitical conditions and other risks identified from time to time in the Company's public statements and reports filed with the SEC. This management discussion should be read in conjunction with the management discussion included in our fiscal 2009 annual report on Form 10-K, previously filed with the SEC.

Overview

We operate membership warehouses based on the concept that offering our members low prices on a limited selection of nationally branded and selected private-label products in a wide range of merchandise categories will produce high sales volumes and rapid inventory turnover. This rapid inventory turnover, when combined with the operating efficiencies achieved by volume purchasing, efficient distribution and reduced handling of merchandise in no-frills, self-service warehouse facilities enables us to operate profitably at significantly lower gross margins than traditional wholesalers, mass merchandisers, supermarkets and supercenters.

Key items for the third quarter of fiscal 2010 as compared to the third quarter of fiscal 2009 include:

Net sales increased 12.3% to $17,385, driven by a 10% increase in comparable sales (sales in warehouses open for at least one year, including relocated warehouses) and sales at 12 net new warehouses opened since the end of the third quarter of fiscal 2009. Net sales were significantly impacted by increases in the price of gasoline and by certain foreign currency exchange rates;

Membership fees increased 20.1% to $395; however, excluding the $27 charge recorded in the third quarter of fiscal 2009 related to a litigation settlement concerning our membership renewal policy, membership fees increased 11% due to new membership sign-ups and increased penetration of the higher-fee Executive Membership program;

Gross margin (net sales less merchandise costs) as a percentage of net sales decreased 11 basis points;

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses as a percentage of net sales decreased 40 basis points;

Net income attributable to Costco increased 45.8% to $306, or $0.68 per diluted share compared to $210, or $0.48 per diluted share;

The Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend in the amount of $0.205 per share, reflecting a 13.9% increase from $0.72 to $0.82 per share on an annualized basis; and

On May 5, 2010, we announced the retirement of Dick DiCerchio, as our Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, effective June 4, 2010.

Item 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued) (dollars in millions, except per share and warehouse number data)

We believe that the most important driver of increasing profitability is sales growth, particularly comparable sales growth. Comparable sales growth is achieved through increasing the frequency with which our members shop and the amounts they spend on each visit. Sales comparisons can also be particularly influenced by two factors that are beyond our control, including fluctuations in currency exchange rates (with respect to the consolidation of the results of our international operations) and changes in the cost of gasoline and associated competitive conditions (primarily impacting domestic operations). The higher our comparable sales not associated with currency fluctuations the more we can leverage certain of our selling, general and administrative expenses, reducing them as a percentage of sales and enhancing profitability. Generating comparable sales growth is foremost a question of making available to our members the right merchandise at the right prices, a skill that we believe we have repeatedly demonstrated over the long term. Another substantial factor in sales growth is the health of the economies in which we do business, especially the United States. Adverse economic conditions negatively impacted spending by our customers during fiscal 2009 and the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal 2010, and we expect that negative impact may continue. Sales growth and our gross margin are also impacted by our competition, which is vigorous and widespread, including other warehouse clubs, discount, department, drug, variety and specialty stores, and supermarkets, as well as internet retailers. While we cannot control or reliably predict general economic health or changes in competition, we believe that we have been successful historically in adapting our business to these changes, such as through adjustments to our pricing and to our merchandise mix, including increasing the penetration of our private label items. Our philosophy is not to focus in the short term on maximizing prices that our members can be charged but to maintain what we believe is a perception among our members of our pricing authority consistently providing the most competitive values. This may cause us, for example, to absorb increases in merchandise costs at certain times rather than immediately passing them along to our members, negatively impacting gross margin.

We also achieve growth by opening new warehouses and relocating existing warehouses to larger facilities. As our warehouse base grows and available and desirable potential sites become more difficult to secure, square footage growth becomes a comparatively less substantial component of growth, but the negative aspects of such growth (including lower initial operating profitability relative to existing warehouses and cannibalization of sales at existing warehouse when openings occur in existing markets) are ameliorated. Our rate of square footage growth is higher in foreign markets, due to the smaller base in those markets, and we expect that to continue.

Our financial performance also depends heavily on our ability to control costs. While we believe that we have achieved successes in this area historically, some significant costs are partially outside our control, most particularly health care expenses. With respect to expenses relating to the compensation of our employees, our philosophy is not to seek to minimize the wages and benefits that they earn. Rather, we believe that achieving our longer-term objectives of reducing turnover and enhancing employee satisfaction requires maintaining compensation levels that are better than the industry average for much of our workforce. This may cause us, for example, to absorb costs that other employers might seek to pass through to their workforces. Because our business is operated on very low margins, modest changes in various items in the income statement, particularly gross margin and selling, general and administrative expenses, can have substantial impacts on net income.

Results of Operations

Certain percentages presented are calculated using actual results prior to rounding. Our fiscal year ends on the Sunday closest to August 31. References to the third quarters of 2010 and 2009 relate to the 12-week fiscal quarters ended May 9, 2010 and May 10, 2009, respectively. References to the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 and 2009 relate to the thirty-six weeks ended May 9, 2010 and May 10, 2009, respectively. Unless otherwise noted, references to net income relate to net income attributable to Costco.

Table of ContentsItem 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued) (dollars in millions, except per share and warehouse number data)Net Sales

	12 Weeks Ended		36 Weeks Ended
	May 9, 2010	May 10, 2009	May 9, 2010	May 10, 2009
Net sales	$ 17,385	$ 15,477	$ 52,663	$ 48,001
Increase (decrease) in comparable sales	10%	(7)%	7%	(3)%

Net Sales

Net sales increased 12.3% during the third quarter of 2010 compared to the third quarter of 2009. The $1,908 increase is comprised of $1,567 from the increase in comparable warehouse sales and the remainder primarily from sales at the 12 net new warehouses opened (14 opened and two Costco Home locations closed) since the end of the third quarter of fiscal 2009.

For the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, net sales increased 9.7% compared to the first thirty-six weeks of 2009. The $4,662 increase is comprised of a $3,577 increase in comparable warehouse sales and the remainder primarily from sales at the 12 net new warehouses opened (14 opened and two Costco Home locations closed) since the end of the third quarter of fiscal 2009.

Foreign currencies, particularly in Canada, Korea, and the United Kingdom, strengthened against the U.S. dollar, which positively impacted net sales during the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010 by approximately $588 (380 basis points), and $1,317 (274 basis points), respectively. Net sales were positively impacted by gasoline price inflation in the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010 by approximately $422 (273 basis points), and $701 (146 basis points), respectively, which resulted from a 38% and 20% increase in the average sales price per gallon, respectively.

Our sales results continue to be negatively impacted by general economic conditions, and we believe that those conditions may continue to have a significant adverse impact on spending by our members. We believe, however, that due to the nature of our business model, we are better positioned than many retailers to compete in such an environment.

Comparable Sales

Comparable sales increased 10% and 7% in the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010, respectively, and were positively impacted by both an increase in shopping frequency and in the average amount spent. Strengthening foreign currencies positively impacted comparable sales by approximately $561 (365 basis points) and $1,252 (262 basis points) in the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010, respectively. Gasoline price inflation positively impacted comparable sales results by approximately $417 (270 basis points) and $690 (144 basis points), during the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010, respectively.

Membership fees increased 20.1% in the third quarter of 2010 and 11.0% in the first thirty-six weeks of 2010. In the third quarter of 2009, membership fees were impacted by a $27 charge related to a litigation settlement concerning our membership renewal policy. Membership fees this quarter were positively impacted due to the additional membership sign-ups at the 12 net new warehouses opened since the end of the third quarter of fiscal 2009 and increased penetration of the higher-fee Executive Membership program. Our member renewal rate, currently at 87% in the U.S. and Canada, is consistent with recent years.

Foreign currencies, particularly in Canada, Korea, and the United Kingdom, strengthened against the U.S. dollar, which positively impacted membership fees for the third quarter and the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 by approximately $14 and $30, respectively.

Gross Margin

	12 Weeks Ended		36 Weeks Ended
	May 9, 2010	May 10, 2009	May 9, 2010	May 10, 2009
Gross margin	$ 1,891	$ 1,701	$ 5,692	$ 5,178
Gross margin as a percent of net sales	10.88%	10.99%	10.81%	10.79%

Gross margin, as a percent of net sales, decreased 11 basis points compared to the third quarter of 2009. This decrease was primarily related to a net 10 basis point decrease in our core merchandise businesses, primarily in foods and sundries and fresh foods, partially offset by an increase in softlines. The core merchandise gross margin, however, when expressed as a percent of core merchandise sales and not total net sales, increased 14 basis points quarter over quarter, with all categories showing increases except fresh foods. Fresh foods' gross margins decreased quarter-over-quarter primarily due to meat cost inflation and competitive pricing. While the core merchandise gross margin, as a percent of core merchandise sales, increased 14 basis points quarter over quarter, the increased sales penetration of the lower margin gasoline business caused this increase to be a decrease of 10 basis points when expressed as a percent of total net sales. Our warehouse ancillary business, primarily gasoline, increased six basis points. In addition, gross margin comparisons were negatively impacted by four basis points due to a favorable LIFO adjustment in the third quarter of 2009 compared to no adjustment in the third quarter of 2010. Increased penetration of the Executive Membership two-percent reward program and increased spending by Executive members negatively affected gross margin by three basis points.

Gross margin, as a percent of net sales, increased two basis points compared to the first thirty-six weeks of 2009. This increase was primarily related to a net seven basis point increase in our core merchandise business, primarily in softlines, and a net one basis point increase in our warehouse ancillary businesses, primarily gasoline. Favorable LIFO adjustments in the prior year compared to no adjustments in the current year negatively impacted gross margin comparisons by three basis points. Increased penetration of the Executive Membership two-percent reward program and increased spending by Executive members negatively affected current year gross margin comparisons by three basis points.

Foreign currencies, particularly in Canada, Korea, and the United Kingdom, strengthened against the U.S. dollar, which positively impacted gross margin for the third quarter and the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 by approximately $70 and $151, respectively.

SG&A as a percent of net sales	10.29%	10.69%	10.33%	10.41%

SG&A, as a percent of net sales, decreased 40 basis points compared to the third quarter of 2009. Warehouse operating costs, as a percent of net sales, improved by 14 basis points, but were favorably impacted by approximately 24 basis points due to higher sales in the quarter resulting from gasoline price inflation. The primary items negatively impacting warehouse operating costs, as a percent of net sales, were higher employee healthcare costs, workers' compensation expense, and bonuses. SG&A was positively impacted by a $14 benefit, or eight basis points, related to the recovery of amounts expensed and paid in 2007 and 2008 on behalf of certain employees in Canada to cover adverse tax consequences resulting from our previously announced stock option investigation. Additionally, in the third quarter of 2009, we recorded a charge of $7 related to a litigation settlement concerning our membership renewal policy, which positively impacted the comparison to current year's SG&A by four basis points. Central administrative and stock-based compensation expenses, as a percent of net sales, positively impacted SG&A comparisons by approximately four and five basis points, respectively.

SG&A expenses, as a percent of net sales, decreased eight basis points compared to the first thirty-six weeks of 2009. Warehouse operating and central administrative costs, as a percent of net sales, were flat year over year, but were favorably impacted by approximately 12 basis points due to higher sales in the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 resulting from gasoline price inflation. The $14 benefit discussed above positively impacted SG&A expense comparisons by three basis points. SG&A expenses include a $22 charge related to a change in employee benefits recorded in the second quarter of fiscal 2010, whereby certain unused time off will now be paid annually to our employees, which had a negative impact of four basis points. In the first thirty-six weeks of 2009, we recorded a charge of $26 to write down the net realizable value of the cash surrender value of employee life insurance contracts, which positively impacted SG&A's expense comparisons by five basis points as there was no comparable charge this year.

Foreign currencies, particularly in Canada, Korea, and the United Kingdom, strengthened against the U.S. dollar, which negatively impacted SG&A for the third quarter and the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 by approximately $52 and $121 respectively.

Preopening expenses include costs incurred for startup operations related to new warehouses and the expansion of ancillary operations at existing warehouses. Preopening expenses can vary due to the timing of the warehouse opening relative to our quarter end, whether the warehouse is owned or leased, and whether the opening is in an existing, new, or international market. The fiscal 2009 preopening expense included costs related to several international warehouses that opened in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009.

Impairment of long-lived assets	1	7	1	9
Provision for impaired assets & closing costs, net	$ 3	$ 7	$ 5	$ 15

The provision primarily includes costs related to impairment of long-lived assets; future lease obligations of warehouses that have been closed or relocated to new facilities; accelerated depreciation, based on the shortened useful life through the expected closing date on buildings to be demolished or sold and that are not otherwise impaired; and gains and losses resulting from the sale of real property, largely comprised of former warehouse locations. In the third quarter of 2009, we recognized a charge of $7, primarily related to the closure in July 2009 of our two Costco Home locations.

Interest income and other, net	$ 10	$ 6	$ 58	$ 39

Interest income includes a $5 and $12 other-than-temporary impairment loss recognized on certain securities within our investment portfolio in the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2009, respectively. No impairment was recognized in the third quarter or first thirty-six weeks of 2010. The decrease in interest income in the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010 compared to the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2009 is largely due to lower interest rates on our cash and cash equivalents and short-term investment balances.

The increase of earnings of affiliates in the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 compared to the first thirty-six weeks of 2009 is partially due to an increase in earnings from our 50% owned joint-venture in Mexico. Costco Mexico's earnings increased primarily due to stronger sales.

The decline in the effective tax rates is attributable to various factors, including a year-over-year increase in the amount of credits relating to our investment in solar energy, a year-over-year decrease in the amount of liabilities relating to uncertain tax positions, and a change in the mix of earnings between domestic and international operations. The fiscal 2009 effective tax rates also include the unfavorable impact of a write-down on investments that were non-deductible for tax purposes.

Net income for the third quarter of 2010 increased to $306, or $0.68 per diluted share, from $210, or $0.48 per diluted share, during the third quarter of 2009, representing a 41.7% increase in diluted net income per share. Net income for the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 increased to $871, or $1.95 per diluted share, from $712, or $1.62 per diluted share, during the first thirty-six weeks of 2009, representing a 20.4% increase in diluted net income per share. Various factors, discussed in detail above (including sales, membership fees, gross margin, and selling, general and administrative expenses), contributed to the increase in net income for the third quarter and first thirty-six weeks of 2010, most particularly increases in sales.

Liquidity and Capital ResourcesCash Flows

The following table itemizes components of our most liquid assets:

	May 9, 2010	August 30, 2009
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 4,413	$ 3,157
Short-term investments	854	570
Total	$ 5,267	$ 3,727

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash flows generated from warehouse operations and existing cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments balances, which were $5,267 and $3,727 at May 9, 2010, and August 30, 2009, respectively. Of these balances, approximately $983 and $758 at May 9, 2010, and August 30, 2009, respectively, represented debit and credit card receivables, primarily related to sales in the week prior to the end of our quarter.

Net cash provided by operating activities totaled $2,169 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, compared to net $1,543 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2009. This net increase of $626 was primarily attributable to a $395 decrease in our net investment in merchandise inventories (merchandise inventories less accounts payable), an increase in net income of $165, and a $82 increase from the change in our other current operating assets and liabilities. This change was largely due to a year-over-year timing difference in the funding of our prepaid healthcare insurance.

Item 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued) (dollars in millions, except per share and warehouse number data)

Net cash used in investing activities totaled $912 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, compared to $778 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2009, an increase of $134. This increase relates primarily to a $395 decrease in cash provided by the net investment in short-term investments, partially offset by a $253 decrease in cash used for purchase of property and equipment.

Net cash used in financing activities totaled $12 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, compared to $260 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2009, a decrease of $248. The decrease was primarily attributable to a $119 increase in net proceeds from short term borrowings, a $112 increase in bank checks outstanding, and a $117 increase in net proceeds from stock-based awards, which were partially offset by a $79 increase in repayments of long-term debt.

The effect of exchange rate changes increased cash by $11 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, compared to a decrease of $41 in the first thirty-six weeks of 2009, an increase of $52. This increase is primarily due to the strengthening of foreign currencies, primarily in Canada, Korea, and the United Kingdom, as compared to the U.S. dollar during the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 as compared to the weakening of these currencies against the U.S. dollar in the first thirty-six weeks of 2009.

Dividends

In the third quarter of 2010, our Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend to shareholders of record on May 7, 2010, and approved an increase from $0.18 to $0.205 per share, or $0.82 on an annualized basis. The dividend was paid on May 21, 2010. Payment of future dividends is subject to declaration by the Board of Directors. Factors considered in determining the size of the dividends are profitability and expected capital needs of the Company. The Company presently expects to continue to pay dividends on a quarterly basis.

Expansion Plans

Our primary requirement for capital is the financing of land, buildings, and equipment costs for new and remodeled warehouses. To a lesser extent, capital is required for initial warehouse operations and working capital. While there can be no assurance that current expectations will be realized and plans are subject to change upon further review, it is our current intention to spend approximately $1,000 during fiscal 2010 for real estate, construction, remodeling, and equipment for warehouses and related operations. These expenditures are expected to be financed with a combination of cash provided from operations and existing cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments. Through the end of the third quarter of 2010, we had spent approximately $644 on capital expenditures.

We opened nine new warehouses, including relocations, in the first thirty-six weeks of 2010. Expansion plans for the remainder of fiscal 2010 are to open up to six additional new warehouses.

(1) The U.S. parent company, Costco Wholesale Corporation, guarantees this entity's credit facility.

(2) The letter of guarantee is fully cash-collateralized by the subsidiary.

- (3) Subsequent to the end of the third quarter of 2010, the Company entered into a multi-purpose revolving demand credit facility. The bank may cancel or restrict availability under this facility with 45-days written notice.

Item 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued) (dollars in millions, except per share and warehouse number data)

We had credit facilities (for commercial and standby letters of credit) totaling $130 as of May 9, 2010. The outstanding commitments under these facilities at May 9, 2010, totaled $80, including $77, in standby letters of credit. For those entities with multi-purpose lines, any issuance of either letters of credit (standby and/or commercial) or short-term borrowings will result in a corresponding decrease in available credit.

Financing Activities

In October 2009, we entered into a capital lease for a warehouse location and recorded a liability in the amount of $80, representing the lesser of the estimated fair value of the property compared to the net present value of aggregate future minimum lease payments totaling $162, using our incremental borrowing rate of 5.5%. This lease expires and becomes subject to a renewal clause in December 2034. As of May 9, 2010, $80 was included in deferred income taxes and other liabilities and a nominal amount in other current liabilities on the condensed consolidated balance sheets.

In November 2009, our Japanese subsidiary paid the outstanding principal and interest balances totaling $33 related to the 0.88% promissory Notes due November 2009, originally issued in November 2002. In April 2010, our Japanese subsidiary paid the outstanding principal and interest balances totaling $44 related to the 0.92% promissory Notes due April 2010, originally issued in April 2003. The Company does not intend to enter into a refinancing agreement as a result of this note payment.

During the third quarter of 2010, a nominal amount of the face value of our 3.5% Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated Notes (Zero Coupon Notes) was converted by note holders into 2,000 shares of common stock; and during the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, $1 in face amount of Zero Coupon Notes was converted into 16,000 shares of common stock. During the third quarter of 2009, a nominal amount of the face value of Zero Coupon Notes was converted into 5,000 shares of common stock; and during the first thirty-six weeks of 2009, $4 in face amount of Zero Coupon Notes was converted into 82,000 shares of common stock, respectively.

Derivatives

We are exposed to foreign currency exchange-rate fluctuations in the normal course of our business, which we manage, in part, through the use of forward foreign exchange contracts (contracts), seeking to hedge the impact of fluctuations of foreign exchange on known future expenditures denominated in a foreign currency. The contracts are intended primarily to hedge U.S. dollar merchandise inventory expenditures. Currently, these contracts do not qualify for derivative hedge accounting. We seek to mitigate risk with the use of these contracts and do not intend to engage in speculative transactions. These contracts do not contain any credit-risk-related contingent features.

We seek to manage the counterparty risk associated with these contracts by limiting transactions to counterparties with which we have established banking relationships. There can be no assurance, however, that this effectively mitigates counterparty risk. The contracts are limited to a time period of less than one year. See Note 1 and Note 3 to the condensed consolidated financial statements included in Part I, Item 1 of this Report, for additional information related to these contracts.

We are exposed to risks due to fluctuations in energy prices, particularly electricity and natural gas, which we partially mitigate through the use of fixed-price contracts, for approximately 26% of our warehouses and other facilities in the U.S., Canada, and Australia. We also enter into variable-priced contracts for some purchases of natural gas, in addition to fuel for our gas stations, on an index basis. These contracts generally qualify for treatment as normal purchases or normal sales and require no mark-to-market adjustment.

Stock Repurchase Programs

In the third quarter of 2010 and 2009, we repurchased 1,925,000 and 50,000 shares of our common stock, at an average price of $59.56 and $38.88 totaling approximately $114 and $2, respectively. In the first thirty-six weeks of 2010 and 2009, we repurchased 2,175,000 and 895,000 shares, at an average price of $59.48 and $63.84, for a total expenditure of $129 and $57, respectively. The remaining amount available for stock repurchases under the approved plans was approximately $1,873 at May 9, 2010. Purchases are made from time-to-time as conditions warrant in the open market or in block purchases, and pursuant to plans under SEC Rule 10b5-1. Repurchased shares are retired, in accordance with the Washington Business Corporation Act.

From time to time, we purchase shares in the open market for the purpose of gifting common stock rewards to employees. In the third quarter of 2010 we did not purchase any shares. In the first thirty-six weeks of 2010, we purchased 8,000 shares, at an average price of $58.50 per share. This program is separate from our publicly announced stock repurchase program discussed above.

Critical Accounting Policies

The preparation of our financial statements requires that we make estimates and judgments. We base our estimates on historical experience and on other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable. Our critical accounting policies are discussed in Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 30, 2009. There have been no material changes to the critical accounting policies previously disclosed in that report.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

See discussion of Recent Accounting Pronouncements in Note 1 to the condensed consolidated financial statements included in Part I, Item 1 of this Report.

Item 3 Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Our exposure to financial market risk results primarily from fluctuations in interest and currency rates. There have been no material changes to our market risks as disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, for the fiscal year ended August 30, 2009.

Item 4 Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, we performed an evaluation under the supervision and with the participation of management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) or 15d-15(e) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act)). Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report, our disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

There has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) or 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) during our most recently completed fiscal quarter that has materially affected or is reasonably likely to materially affect our internal control over financial reporting.

The certifications required by Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 are filed as Exhibit 31.1 to this report.

Item 1A Risk Factors

In addition to the other information set forth in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, you should carefully consider the factors discussed in Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, for the fiscal year ended August 30, 2009. There have been no material changes in our risk factors from those disclosed in our fiscal 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Item 2 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds
